ALL CABLEGRAMS PASSING THROUGH CUBAN OFFICES NOT SUBJECTED TO CENSOR

BY THE CUBAN GOVERNMENT ACCORDING TO LATE ADVICES

POLITICAL WIRES

Will Be Observed By Cuban Government to Spot Source of Trouble

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Cablegrams passing through Cuban offices of Commercial Cable Company will not be subjected to censorship by the Cuban government, according to messages received by the company, but observation of political messages must be maintained. Commercial messages will not be interfered with.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The Commercial Cable Company received word late Wednesday night that no censorship had been declared on cablegrams passing through the company's Cuban offices, as was reported by the company Wednesday. Cuban officials, in a message to the company's main office here declared that "observation" would be limited to cablegrams of "political significance."

"The present measure should not be considered as censorship," the message stated, "but merely as observation limited to messages of political significance. Commercial messages, code or otherwise, will not be interfered with."

This message was in direct opposition to a communication received earlier in the day. The Havana office stated that it had been notified all incoming and outgoing cablegrams would be subject to censorship until further notice. No explanation was given.

Officials of the company were greatly surprised when informed that no notice of censorship had been received by the Western Union, All-America Cables, or the International Telephone Company.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Imposition by Cuba of a censorship on cables between the United States and the island announced Wednesday by the Commercial Cable Company, lacked official confirmation in dispatches received by the State Department. A message from the American embassy in Havana contained no reference to censorship.

It was indicated in one official quarter that if a censorship was applied rigidly to the exclusion of interchange between American commercial concerns and their Cuban offices, the Washington government undoubtedly would make the matter one for immediate representations to the Cuban government.

The belief prevails in circles in closest touch with the Cuban situation that the Havana government has recognized as formidable the opposition to its policies, particularly those relating to the lottery and railroad questions, revealed in the recent activities of the assembly of Veterans and Patriots. Mass meetings under the auspices of the assembly, for the purposes of making more effective its protests against the lottery bill and the Tarafa transportation measure and its demands for "better government" have resulted, it is indicated in dispatches received by officials here, in a widespread movement throughout the island not entirely friendly to President Zayas.

It is regarded merely as a coincidence, however, that the three main objects of the assembly represents the principal objectives sought by Ambassador Crowder in his efforts to assist the Cuban government in stabilizing its affairs.

General Crowder has left Washington for a ten day visit in Colorado Springs, Colo.; after which he expects to return here for a brief stay before going to his post in Havana. Captain Logan N. Rock, military attaché assigned to assist General Crowder and who accompanied him to Washington, left Washington Wednesday night for Havana, via Key West.

GOVERNOR PINCHOT SUBMITS NEW PLAN FOR COAL MEN PROVIDES FOR TEN PER CENT

INCREASE IN WAGES AND FULL EIGHT HOUR DAY

UNION RECOGNIZED

By Operators With Check Off System But With Union Pay Off Supervision

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 30.—Governor Pinchot last night submitted to representatives of the anthracite miners and operators in joint conference a proposal basis of settlement providing for a 10 per cent increase in pay, recognition of the eight-hour day for all employees, and full recognition of the union by the operators without the check-off but with the right to have a union representative present when the men are paid. The three main points of his scheme of settlement were set forth as follows:

1. Recognition of the basic eight-hour day for all employees; if longer hours are necessary at certain times, or in certain occupations the overtime to be paid for at the eight hour rate.

2. A uniform increase of 10 per cent to all employees. This to take effect September 1.

3. Full recognition of the union by the operators, without the check-off, but with the right to have a union representative present when the men are paid. I do not regard the question of the open or closed shop as an issue in this controversy.

4. Complete recognition of the principle of collective bargaining. "I suggest as a means of avoiding or settling differences that if in the course of collective bargaining the scale committee of the miners and operators are unable to agree their differences shall be referred to the conciliation board, which shall be provided with whatever equipment is necessary for the rendering of prompt decisions.

The governor's address in part follows: "My justification for proposing a basis upon which I believe this strike can be prevented with justice to all parties is three-fold.

"First, that this controversy has continued until all chance of agreement by the direct negotiations between the miners and operators has been lost.

"Second, that the interest of miners, the operators, and the public all require that this controversy shall be settled without a strike.

"Third, that the public is entitled to a voice in the discussion and the rights of the people generally deserve consideration at least as much as those of the miners and the operators.

GOOD ROADS COMMITTEE HAD EXCELLENT MEETING AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

PRACTICALLY EVERY SECTION OF SEMINOLE COUNTY REPRESENTED

TO MAKE CANVASS

Of the Situation and Reports From Every Section Will Be Made Soon

Representatives from practically every section of Seminole county were present at a meeting Wednesday night, called by the Good Roads committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce to sound out the sentiment of these sections toward a bond issue for the construction of additional hard surfaced roads in the county.

The meeting was called to order by President Higgins of the Sanford Chamber. He stated that the Good Roads committee of the chamber was considering a program of road construction for the county. Before making any definite recommendations to the County Commissioners, however, the committee intended conferring with all sections so that the completed program would bear the endorsement of these sections which in turn would secure the successful passage of any bond issue necessary to finance the project.

It was the opinion of E. A. Douglas, county clerk, that a bond issue in the amount of $100,000 would not increase the tax millage as this amount was being retired each year on account of previous issues. Natural increases in valuation would offset approximately an additional $100,000 and an issue up to $300,000 would, by the time provision was made for interest and sinking fund, mean a one-mill increase in taxes. Mr. Douglas also recommended that the Chamber of Commerce condemn any district bond issue and urged that the organization take the initiative in merging the $30,000 issue of the Geneva district with any subsequent issue submitted to the voters. E. H. Kilbee, Endor Curlett and others of the Geneva delegation stated that the people of their section would not look favorably upon any issue that did not include this provision. George A. DeCottes, attorney for the Board of County Commissioners, stated that a special act of the legislature would be required before this could be done.

The Lake Mary section had a large representation at the meeting. Their spokesman, F. S. Vernay, declared that the citizens of Lake Mary would support any issue that would give good roads to that section. Seminole county, in the opinion of Mr. Vernay, was the best undeveloped section of Florida, but with the completion of good roads, the increased valuation would more than offset the cost of construction. Mr. Newell, another speaker from Lake Mary, stated that tax values in his section had increased 17 per cent within the past two years. He also stressed the fact that that portion of the county was badly in need of good roads.

Walter B. Ballard, of Altamonte, while favoring an issue for road improvements, believed that taxation for this purpose could be eliminated if the county commissioners would appoint an equalizing board to work out proper valuations for the county assessment roll. This statement was heartily endorsed by A. P. Connelly, speaking for the Sanford district. Numerous instances were cited by Mr. Connelly showing the wide divergence between assessed valuations and true valuations. In the discussion of this matter it was pointed out that the county commissioners can legally appoint district boards, consisting of three men from each district to go over the assessment rolls of their district determining an equitable assessment of the property in their respective districts. These assessments, in turn are re-

IN NOTE DEMANDING SATISFACTION FOR KILLING 5 ITALIAN MEMBERS

OF A COMMISSION

Will Submit Question to the League of Nations if Necessary

ATHENS, Aug. 30.—It is understood here that Greece is not disposed to accept the humiliating conditions imposed by the Italian government in the note demanding satisfaction for the killing of five Italian members at the Greco-Albanian frontier delimitation mission. Even if a deadlock is reached in the affair Greece it is understood will propose to submit the question to the League of Nations.

ATHENS, Aug. 30.—The Italian government has demanded from Greece an answer within 24 hours to a note handed the Greek government last night declaring that Greece shall pay an indemnity of fifty million lire, salute the Italian fleet and punish the Greeks responsible for the killing of the five Italian members of the Greco-Albanian frontier delimitation mission.

Premier Gopatas told the newspapermen that while all of the demands of the Italian government were not acceptable, some of them would be agreed to and that the Greek government would ask modification of the others. The premier added that the government would make reply to the Italians within the time limit set by them.

ROME, Aug. 30.—The demand, which has been sent by Premier Mussolini through the Italian minister at Athens, calls for the payment of the fifty million lire indemnity in five days. It also calls for a rigorous inquiry at the scene of the murders, to be conducted in the presence of the Italian military attaché, for whose personal safety the Greek government will be held absolutely responsible. The inquiry is to be concluded within five days.

ATHENS, Aug. 30.—As an outcome of an exchange of visits between G. C. Montagna, the Italian minister to Greece, and Foreign Minister Alexridis, the latter, after again expressing his government's regret over the assassination of the five Italian members of the Greco-Albanian mission, said that with a view to conducting an inquiry, it had been decided to dispatch a warship to Santi Quaranta, one of the ports of Japan, Albania, near where the murders occurred. The warship will take on board a commandant of police, two superior officers of the department of military police and two police surgeons who will aid in the investigation.

The secretary of the Italian legation, speaking in the name of Signor Montagna, last night said the murder of the Italian mission was a political crime, due to Greek hatred of Italians, which hatred was the outgrowth of propaganda. The opinion that the murders had been committed by Albanians, therefore, was to be excluded.

Apart from the reparation which would be demanded, the secretary said the crime would have the greatest consequences for Greece.

Premier Gonatas, alluding to the murders yesterday, said that according to reports received from the authorities at Epirus, he had concluded that the murderers were Albanians and not Greeks. The premier expressed the conviction that the incident would not affect the good relations between Greece and Italy.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—A dispatch to Evening News from Milan says the Italian fleet at Toronto Harbor received orders to be prepared to sail eventually movement against Greece.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Yesterday afternoon Master Jack Purdon, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Purdon, entertained a number of his little friends at his home on West First street, the occasion being his fifth birthday anniversary. Pink and green, the color scheme, was beautifully carried out in every detail. The dining table was centered with the birthday cake iced in white and topped with five tiny pink tapers. From the chandelier at the corners of the table were streamers of pink fastened with clusters of blossoms also in pink.

The afternoon passed all too quickly with games of all kinds and a peanut hunt was also featured. Late in the afternoon, refreshments of ice cream, cake and candies were served by the host's mother, assisted by Mrs. R. L. Grovenstein and Mrs. B. L. Peck. Favors of balls were given each guest.

Master Purdon was the recipient of many lovely gifts and good wishes from his friends. About twenty children enjoyed this happy event.

DELIGHTFUL MISCELLANEOUS SHOW.

Mrs. P. F. Cray entertained delightfully Tuesday afternoon at her home on West Frances avenue, with a miscellaneous shower, honoring Miss Tally McKewn, who will leave shortly to attend the Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee. The rooms were tastefully decorated with a profusion of hibiscus and fern, and cooling fruit punch was served throughout the afternoon, the hostess being graciously assisted in entertaining by Mrs. George Shipp, Mrs. H. U. Monroe and Mrs. R. C. Garrott.

The presenting of the shower of many attractive gifts, came as a complete surprise to the honor guest, Miss McKewn, these being brought in by Miss Mary Alice Shipp, who represented a young school girl, and carried the gifts within a set of "books" tied with the regulation strap. The gift packages were opened and their contents greatly admired.

Late in the afternoon, delicious refreshments of pineapple sherbert and cake, were served.—Tampa Tribune

Hunter Died in Brooklyn — Was Vice-President of Osceola Cypress Comp'y

E. L. Hunter, 49, of Jacksonville and Brooklyn, N. Y., a widely known lumber man, died at noon Monday in the Presbyterian hospital in New York city of diabetes and high blood pressure, according to word received here. He had been a patient in St. Luke's Hospital before going to New York for treatment. He was the father of E. S. Hunter, of the Atlantic National bank.

Mr. Hunter was president of the Hoban, Hunter and Feitner Lumber Company of Brooklyn and Jacksonville, vice-president of the Osceola Cypress Company, of Osceola, Fla., which he organized, and vice-president of the Bacon Motors Company of this city. He was a native of Illinois. He came to this state in 1912 from Louisiana, and for many years was located at Lukens, Fla., where he organized the Tilghman Cypress Company, a subsidiary of the Hoban, Hunter and Feitner Company. He was owner of extensive timber lands in Florida, Louisiana and along the Pacific coast.

He was a widower and is survived by his mother and one sister, Mrs. Jas. R. Redpath, both residing in St. Louis, one son, E. S. Hunter, this city, and a nephew, J. A. Redpath, of Orlando. The two latter were at his bedside at the time of his death.

The body will be taken to Shreveport, La., where the funeral and burial will be held. Interment will be beside the grave of his wife.

Mr. Hunter was a member of the First Presbyterian church of this city and also a member of the Masonic lodge.—Jacksonville Times-Union fruit growers of Southern California are preparing to launch a tremendous enterprise, which will give them water transportation to the markets of the East.

"The Los Angeles Examiner brings the details of the plan. Seven fast steamships, equipped with refrigeration systems, are to be operated between Los Angeles and New York. Each of these ships will have a capacity of 250 carloads of perishables or general merchandise. The company owning and operating these ships is capitalized at $7,500,000. It will be the only intercoastal steamship line with refrigeration equipment. California shippers say its operation will save them millions of dollars annually.

"California producers, says the Examiner, ship 175,000 carloads of perishables out of the state annually and the production is increasing at the rate of 20 per cent a year. Of the total production, one-fourth, or more than 40,000 carloads, are shipped to and consumed in the territory tributary to Philadelphia, Boston and New York. It is proposed that the new transportation plan will deliver the cargoes direct to the wharves for sale by auctioneers. The freight rate by these steamships has been already announced as 90 cent a box.

"The railroads have already begun action toward reducing their rates on account of the water competition. So, the California shippers feel that they will save millions in the deal."

DISREPUTABLE VACANT LOTS INJURE CITY.

As one bad apple eventually spoils the barrel, so one vacant lot heaped with rubbish, overgrown with obnoxious weeds, detracts from the appearance of the vacant lots, where care has been used to make them attractive. Just a few weeks since there was an intensive campaign in the city which resulted in the improvement of the appearance of the vacant lots or at least a large majority of them, which helped in the mosquito eradication work and made the city a healthier place in which to live. Unfortunately a few sore spots remain; spots in the very heart of the city which impresses the visitor in no uncertain way. Neglect to properly clean these lots is unfair to the owners as well as those who have made them presentable.

Other vacant lots in the residential sections are being neglected. On the most used street in the city there are lots which are considered of great value and yet the owners are seemingly content to allow weeds and grass to grow, flourish and eventually die and decay without the least effort to make those lots attractive to the prospective purchaser or to protect the people of the city. Civic pride, if nothing else should prompt the destruction of a harbor and breeding place for mosquitoes.

Unless the owners demonstrate their willingness to do this character of work, the city would be justified in employing a force and under powers given it in sanitation matters, have it done at their expense.—Fort Pierce Tribune.

WHAT WOULD YOU THINK.

—If you were in the dry goods business and the government offered to sell the people of your town and country round about all their gingham at less than cost of manufacture?

—If you were a grocer and the government offered your customers coffee at exactly what it costs in Java plus only the cost of roasting?

—If you were a butcher and the government offered hams at the price of pork on the hoof?

—If you were a druggist and the government offered your customers cigars at the price of the raw tobacco plus half the cost of making them?

—If you owned a garage and the government offered tires at the bare cost of the rubber and cotton materials used in making them?

And, on top of that, suppose the government sent you word that the branch of the business with which your competition was connected was not making money and you would have to pay a special tax on your line, based upon the amount of your sales? You'd like it, wouldn't you?

Neither do we!

Every time you order envelopes printed by the United States government, remember that we are taxed to help make up the deficit created by the loss-than-cost price at which you buy them. Also think of this list of "ifs" and put yourself in the place of the legitimate homo printer whose money goes into your till and gives you a profit.—Lecsborg Commercial.

THE SOLDIERS' BONUS BILL.

There's a royal battle scheduled over the soldiers' bonus when congress meets next December. On the one side will be the American Legion with its approximation to one million members and their sympathizers. The officials of the legion are confidently predicting its passage at the next session, and it is entirely possible that they have good grounds for their prediction.

DISQUIETING, TO SAY THE LEAST

Against the bonus are lined up the United States chamber of commerce, the National Manufacturers' association, the ex-service Men's Anti-Bonus League, and other forces which will make a determined fight against it, but with the prospect of victory strongly favoring the bonus advocates.

Perhaps a bit of history on the question may not be out of place just now. President Harding vetoed the first bill passed by congress, because it contained no provision for raising the four billion dollars which it was estimated it would ultimately cost the taxpayers. We believe that the public body generally approved that action, but congress did not, although the advocates of the bill did not muster sufficient strength to pass it through both houses over the veto.

Last year the house passed the bill by 333 yeas to 70 noes. When it came back with the veto message attached, the house passed it again by a vote of 248 to 51. In the senate its course was different. It passed the first time by a vote of 43 to 26. After the veto, the vote on its passage was 44 to 28—four votes short of the necessary two-thirds.

The advocates of the measure claim that the results of the last congressional election give them enough votes to carry the bill over a presidential veto if that should happen to come, about which there seems to be some doubt. Bonus enemies do not concede the claim that members of congress will hesitate long when it comes to a show down before casting their votes for a bill which must enormously increase taxation. Only the event can decide. It is said that Secretary Mellon is opposed to the bill, and will do some effective work against it before congress meets.—Tampa Times.

FROM OTHER SANCTUMS

MOTORCADE RETURNED FIVE DOLLARS FOR ONE.

Participants of the recent motorcade making a tour of a small portion of the better sections of the state, which have attained a superiority because of the progressiveness of the people, returned with many dreams which should come to fruition in Palatka and Putnam county.

It was a trip that paid—from every point of view. From the start until the final car returned to Palatka there were countless revelations which astonished those who had visited the several portions of the state at some previous time, and astounded those who never thoroughly understood that so many beautiful spots were to be found in Florida. As view followed view and revelation succeeded revelation there were opened to the minds what Putnam county—equally capable of duplicating all that was brought to the attention—might become if the people would put their shoulders to the wheel of progress.

ion as zealously as have the people in the territory traversed.

Each spot visited treated the members of the party with as much fervor as if they were people coming into new country with a view to making purchases and locating. All through the trip people extended the glad hand as heartily as if unaware that the party was viewing for the sake of emulating. While the motorcade was for the main purpose of "getting acquainted" with other sections of state, there was another and deeper purpose in making the journey. There was a desire to impress upon those who did not know, those who had made the trip over the territory many years ago, and those who had the least bit of doubt in mind, precisely what had been brought about almost as if by magic to render the many towns and cities a help to the suburban residents and to make the suburban residents ready to co-operate with those dwelling within the cities and towns.

During a trip of such lengthy mileage within a very short space of time the travelers found it impossible to make more than a stop in some of the smaller places; and there were localities where all that was seen were the properties bordering the roadside; but the news of the trip had been spread and at all points there was a happy greeting from those seen. At larger points where the itinerary called for an extended stop for luncheon, meals and sleep, it was found that special efforts had been made by the Rotarians, the Kiwanis, the Chambers of Commerce, and private citizens to make the brief stay one never to be forgotten. And all of these kindly acts awakened a like spirit in the minds of the honorees.

The excellence of both Lake and Polk counties—those being the localities where the greater portion of the time was spent—were made doubly impressive by the efforts of the residents of those localities. Those people were fully as pleased to exhibit what had been accomplished by the combined efforts of Nature and man as were the visitors to learn of what had been done, and how. The latter learned much because of the exhaustive explanations given. They learned what good roads had done to forward the interests of the various communities. Of that source of advancement all of them had a general idea; all believed in the road system; all favored the network of roads over which travel was a luxury; yet this motorcade the more deeply impressed upon their minds the need and necessity for Putnam county, also, to extend its thoroughfares with the money that is now practically in hand, and build highways that will be lasting monuments to careful engineering.

Outings for mere pleasure are common, and throughout Florida they are many. An outing which embraces both business and pleasure is more unusual—especially so where a careful itinerary is planned and every little detail cared for, and where there is all along the way a kindly welcome.

The first motorcade for information purposes by the citizens of Palatka was a complete success—and there should be good results from it.

THE COMMUNITY CHEST PLAN APPEARS PRACTICAL.

Some time ago a movement was started locally for the creating of a community chest fund. The movement, we are informed, has progressed to a point where committees have been appointed by various Tampa organizations to work out a definite plan for a Tampa community chest.

Born in the storm and stress of war time, when unusual demands called for unusual efficiency in every line, the community chest plan for raising funds for charitable and social service organizations has survived the world struggle, and is today in operation in more than 100 large American cities.

By the phrase "community chest" fund," is simply meant a joint fund, raised in a single campaign, to supply the financial needs of all organizations which ordinarily put on numerous financial campaigns. The idea, insofar as we have investigated it, looks good.

As we understand the community chest plan, it presupposes that each of the benefiting organizations shall get together in their separate councils and determine the amount of funds which must be raised by them, through public subscription during the ensuing year. These various budget estimates are lumped together, and their total gives the goal set for the community chest fund campaign.

A single campaign is put on during the year. In this campaign all the moneys to be donated to the various benefiting organizations are donated or subscribed. The one campaign completes the work for the year. When the campaign is completed, the funds are prorated among the various benefiting organizations.

This, however, does not mean that a man is forced to give equally to each organization. The exact amount, or proportion of the individual's gift, to any one or more of the benefiting organizations can be specified, if the individual so desires. That gift will then go direct to the organization specified.

Should the donors specify amounts sufficient to put any one organization's budget-goal "over the top", that organization, or those organizations, should there be more than one, would not participate further in the funds donated to the general community chest. The money donated to the chest fund directly would be prorated to the benefiting organizations whose budgets had not been completed.

There can be no doubt but that the combining of the present multiplicity of financial appeals into a single campaign would be welcomed. Recent campaigns have indicated that Tampanians are tiring of the repeated calls for campaigns for this, that and the other institution or organization; and it is becoming increasingly evident that the work of campaigning is growing distasteful and irksome to the men and women who are called upon to do the campaigning.

This is no reflection upon the worth of the charities and social service organizations benefiting from the campaigns. It simply means that campaigns have been so multiplied that men and women who will give their time to campaigning are over-worked. In several recent campaigns of-forts have been made to get new blood into the campaign organizations. This has been by no means successful. The "new blood" either will not work, doesn't know how to work—in the majority of cases.

There are, in Tampa as elsewhere, a certain number of men and women who find themselves able to give their time and money-getting talents whenever called upon. There are others, many of them, who would gladly give time for a single campaign, but who are aware of the numerous calls for such work at present, and who would hesitate to assist in one campaign, lest they would find themselves embarrassed when asked to assist some other equally worthy cause. Such workers would prove invaluable in filling the working ranks for the concerted community-chest fund drive.

Naturally, there is perhaps some timidity upon the part of the benefiting organizations about approving the new plan. They question whether they would receive as liberal returns as by their individual campaigns.

The best answer which can be given doubting Thomas is that afforded by numerous cities where the community chest plan has been tried out. It has worked. The benefiting organizations in many instances are said to have actually received considerably larger returns from the community chest than from their old individual campaign plan of operation.

Our recollection of the results of several recent campaigns—it is needless to be specific—indicates a waning support for the institutions appealing for support. It may be that if these organizations do not cooperate in the community chest plan they may find themselves facing an additional lack of interest in their future needs.

At any rate, no harm can be done by thoroughly investigating the community chest idea. A plan which has worked successfully for years in Indianapolis and many smaller towns and cities, which has just been adopted by Atlanta, and which has so thoroughly appealed to the business men and women among the membership of the various Tampa civic clubs and organizations, is deserving of further study.

Every assistance should be given the committee representing various civic organizations and the benefiting institutions. When their work is completed, if their report advises the adoption of the community chest plan, we believe, the plan should be approved and put into effect.—Tampa Times.

BUILDING OPERATIONS IN FLORIDA IN JULY DOUBLED LAST YEAR, ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL REPORT

Statistics of Eight Cities Covering Construction of Buildings

(By The Associated Press)
 ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 30.—Building operations in Florida in July almost doubled those of the same month in 1922, according to reports of conditions received and tabulated by the Sixth District Federal Reserve Bank. Permits issued in eight cities covering construction of new buildings and repairs to old ones called for the expenditure of $3,083,866 compared with $1,793,773 in July, 1922, a gain of $1,290,093.

The figures for July, this year, called for the construction of 421 new buildings to cost in the aggregate $2,466,006, while permits to make alterations and repairs to 487 were granted, the total cost of this work to be $187,315.

Miami showed the greatest volume of building, both as to number of new structures and cost of the work, that city reporting the issuance of 146 permits for a total of $1,229,000 for new buildings and alterations to 65 old ones.

These figures represented a 94 per cent increase over previous tabulations of 234.8 per cent.

Orlando showed the greatest percentage of increase, however, with permits calling for expenditure of $348,020 as compared with $56,365 in July, 1922. No other figures were available for that city.

The tabulations by cities follows:

City	BUILDING PERMITS		Inc. or Decrease
	Total for July, 1923	Total for July, 1922
Jacksonville	$ 408,641	$ 505,553	-10.2

Boy Scouts Enjoy Camp at Beautiful Silver Lake Camp Fire Talks Made

Many Prominent Visitors Present To Talk To The Boys.

The boys at Camp Silver Lake of the Boy Scouts of America of Central Florida Council are enjoying themselves to the fullest extent possible. They have been enjoying the campfires very much and have had varied programs every night, they are always busy but ready for bed when taps sound. Tonight the program calls for a real Indian pageant which the boys are looking forward to with much interest. A large number of tests have been passed and today should see the completion of the various tests that have been applied for and as tomorrow is field day there will be no tests on that day.

Last night there was a formal induction of a boy into Scouting at the Campfire which ceremony was very impressive. There will probably be made a number of pictures of the camp with its scouting activities and if possible to get the camera before camp closes there will be some movies of the activities made.

We are very sorry that our assistant camp director, Mr. J. C. Morris, has been called home. It has been largely to him that the campfires have been so well worked up as that particular part of the camp program has been under his personal direction.

The council ring which is the first to be set up in central Florida was erected by the scouts under the direction of Mr. Morris who now goes to Jacksonville where he expects to report for duty in Scouting there on Monday morning, having a conference regarding such steps on Friday morning in Jacksonville.

Mr. T. L. Mead of Oviedo who has had personal charge of the nature study at camp has taken several hikes with the boys and is now the youngest scout in camp from the point of various activities in which he takes part in a very active manner.

Mr. Wakelin of Tavares, who is the Scoutmaster of Camp Troop No. 1, has been very busy with the First Aid program and instruction which has a great appeal to the boys and all have made wonderful progress in the same.

Mr. A. H. Bryson of Clermont and Scoutmaster of Camp Troop 2, has conducted the Watermanship activities and Signalling work of the camp which work has progressed well upwards towards the expert class.

Mr. John M. Boys of Clermont, and Scoutmaster of Scout Camp Troop No. 3, has been kept very busy with tracking and training activities also use of knife and axe. This with duties as athletic director has kept him very busy.

Mr. G. B. Knight of Orlando has had charge of the Camp Police and Colors ceremonies along with some merit badge work was very busy for the two days he has been able to be with us.

Our very efficient Camp Senior Patrol Leader James Godfrey has been very busy keeping the boys in line and directing games.

And not to forget our Cook, John Hambones of Sanford, the campfire spirit was so strong that he couldn't resist coming out and singing a quaint old song for the boys at campfire. He also is the most popular person in camp when the mess call blows, but sometimes the boys make him think he is not popular when he says no seconds this time boys.

The public is cordially invited to attend the pageant this evening and the Court of Honor tomorrow evening. Also the field events which take place at three o'clock Friday afternoon.

Camp closes Saturday afternoon at which time the boys may go home. No one leaves until 1 o'clock Saturday, September first.

HAROLD J. BOYD,
 Scout Executive and Camp Director.

Good Roads Rally At Green Cove Springs to Be Well Attended

City Council of DeLand Passes Resolutions To Participate.

Every effort will be made to have a large cavalcade attendant upon the good roads rally at Green Cove Springs on Thursday, September 13, from Palatka and Putnam county, for it will prove a matter of great importance to this section of the country.

Points to the southward, especially DeLand, are taking active interest in the project, for the weight of that meeting will have an effect upon the state road builders. DeLand has gone so deeply into the project as to have its city council unanimously adopt, at a regular meeting of that body, the following set of resolutions:

Whereas, State Road 5, known locally as the St. Johns Scenic Highway, is nearing completion with the exception of a stretch in Clay county; and

Whereas, This important highway serves the major portion of the Florida Peninsula in an efficient manner with its many excellent lateral roads radiating to all sections of the peninsula which represent an investment of millions to the cities and counties in Peninsula Florida; and

Whereas, This excellent road system is of no value at present to the traveling public as it is cut off from traffic by the short stretch in Clay county, the paving of which is unprovided for at present; and

Whereas, The City of Green Cove Springs has issued an invitation to all cities and towns along the route of this road to participate in a Good Roads Rally at Green Cove Springs Thursday, September 13, 1923, at which time it is expected that some solution of the problem in Clay county will be arrived at; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the City Council of DeLand, Florida, most heartily endorse this Good Roads Rally and that this body make preparation to attend same; and be it further

Resolved, That the mayor issue a proclamation to the progressive citizens of DeLand calling on them to participate in this rally and that the DeLand Commercial Club determine the best method of transportation for the DeLand people to attend this rally and give same publicity through the press and otherwise.

Palatka and Putnam county cannot send too many delegates to this meeting. It means a great deal for this locality to have a large representation present, and there will be an opportunity for a general expression of views—even though the views are now run along in one general trend.

The completion of the road, the filling in of the missing links, means that Palatka and Putnam county will receive its merited quota of publicity which will attract a large share of the tourist travel through the state. —Palatka News.

WEEKLY WEATHER AND CROP BULLETIN

For the week ending Aug. 28, 1923:

As a rule, there was too much rain in the western, northern, and portions of the central divisions, although locally insufficient over small areas. The insufficiency was marked in the south, and along the east coast of the Indian River from about Bevard county to Miami. The following weekly totals, in inches and tenths, were reported: Carrabelle, 5.0; Tallahassee, 3.6; Apalachicola, 3.2; Eustis, 2.6; and Sanford, 2.8. The amounts were less than one-quarter inch in the south. Temperatures were moderately high during the day.

The weather was unfavorable for the harvesting of corn, hay, and cotton, the last named being badly damaged by insect pests and excessive rains; some cotton bolls rotting; picking was delayed. Wet weather is rotting some corn in the fields. Sweet potatoes, cane, peanuts, rice and minor crops made fair to good progress. Citrus fruits are in excellent condition. Seed beds and recently planted truck are in good condition. See the fall line of Storer-Schaffer Tailoring at H. L. Perkins' Representative there from Aug. 31st to Sept. 4th inclusive. 131-31e

MILANE NEWS

William Russell in "Good-Bye Girls" tonight at the Milane.

You can never be sure when there's a girl in the case.

He thought he had a thousand aches, but he had only one—a heart ache.

The novelist was so busy with his bills that he wrote by rote, and it was rotten.

"Never mind those bottles," said the doctor. "Get yourself a wife and have the bottles for the baby."

"I've written you a prescription for everything but what you need. You can even get liquor by prescription, but not a girl."

"My, God, Doctor! I don't want a wife, please. Think how something like that would litter up the place."

Are you ready to say "Good-bye Girls?"

Jack is Knocked Out in Attempt To Pitch Game

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, was knocked out yesterday, but not on the floor of a ring with a referee counting over him. The titleholder was knocked out of the pitcher's box while his offerings were batted to all corners of the lot during a baseball game between the training camp attendants and cottagers on the shore of Saratoga Lake.

After a three-day lay-off, Dempsey is scheduled to resume training today, to continue probably without further interruption until he winds up the conditioning grind for the defense of his title against Luis Angel Firpo at New York September 14.

Celery Seed

Tomorrow night we'll parade up to Coach Wilkinson's office and see what his Royal Highness has to say in regard to the coming football season.

The coach has already said that tomorrow night would be devoted to getting the height, weight, chest expansion and the whole pedigree of the candidates.

So you fellows had better get busy eating beans, pork, etc., between now and tomorrow night.

One more word—about football—the coach wants you fellows up to his office promptly at 7:30 p. m. All who come straggling in later than that will be good examples for the "urg'em paddle."

There's only one sure way to knock our friend Jack Dempsey out and that is to put him in a baseball game and let him adorn the mound. Jack offered himself for mound duty yesterday in a game between his training camp and a team composed of nearby cottagers.

Reds Lose Chance to Hound Giants by Dropping One More

BOSTON, Aug. 30.—Cincinnati lost half a game in its race with the Giants for the National League pennant by losing a 10-inning game, 1 to 2, to Boston yesterday while the New York champions were idle.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30.—Chicago fell on Willard Cooper for eight hits and five runs in the first two innings of a play-off of a post-series game of the Pirates yesterday and won, 6 to 2. Meadows relieved Cooper in the second with one out and held the Cubs scoreless until the ninth, when he retired for a pinch hitter. Bagby yielded the Cubs their sixth run in the ninth.

TIGERS TAKE FINAL GAME FROM GRIFF

DETROIT, Aug. 30.—Detroit closed its series with Washington here yesterday, winning the last game of the season with the Senators on the home lot, 9 to 6. The Tigers scored their nine runs in the first three innings when they pounced upon Mitchell and Matherry, who relieved him in the third inning. Marberry held the Tigers in check after the third.

Firpo Forced to Stay Indoors Due To Driving Rain

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 30.—A cold, driving rain, falling thruout the early part of yesterday, compelled Luis Angel Firpo to pass up his daily workout in preparation for his title match with Jack Dempsey.

The South American champion started out for his regular jaunt along the beach and boardwalk at 7 o'clock yesterday morning and had walked roughly for about a mile when rain began falling in sheets. Reluctantly he turned home, for he is in fine physical trim and doesn't care to shirk the training task that has been set for him by his Argentine trainers.

When he returned to his cottage in Chelsea he let loose for a while on the heavy sand bag that is suspended in the garage, then pulled the weights.

Florida sells a whole lot besides celery and oranges. For example two fine players on the St. Petersburg Florida State League team, were sold to Brooklyn—way up yonder in the National League, yesterday.

LAKE MONROE

The free barbecue and big picnic to be given by the Seminole Athletic Club at Lake Monroe Monday, September 3rd, Labor Day, promises to be a great occasion. All trains will stop at Monroe that day and give every one up and down the line a chance to attend. Horse shoe pitching, mule racing, baby shows, tug-of-war, running and jumping contests, base ball and many other amusements too numerous to mention will be the order of the day. Over $500 worth of handsome prizes have been contributed. Get into the contests and win one of them, all free. All are cordially invited to come and help the Seminole Athletic Club make a big success of the day.

EAST SANFORD

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 30.—Marion county is the only county in Florida accessible by boat, through natural waterways, to both the Atlantic ocean and the Gulf of Mexico, according to a description of the county written by W. A. McRae, commissioner of agriculture, for the educational authorities of the county. Geographically, Marion county is the center of Florida and in shape is almost a perfect square, the description shows. From the north line of the county to the nearest point on the Georgia line is sixty miles, the Atlantic ocean is only thirty-five miles from the eastern line, and a journey of fifteen miles will carry one from the nearest point on the west boundary line to the Gulf.

Marion was organized in 1844 from the counties of Alachua, Hillsborough and Mosquito, the latter name was changed to Orange in 1845. The county has an area of 1640 square miles, 43 miles greater in size than the state of Rhode Island. Its population in 1920 was 24,000, and it had property with an assessed valuation in 1922 of $8,947,376.

The number of acres in farms in 1922 was 165,291, of which 82,192 were in cultivation. On these cultivated acres were grown twenty-one different kinds of crops that brought $2,419,970.

of the Atlantic Coast Line. Its altitude is from 50 to 200 feet.

Marion county, the description continues, has some wonderful springs, including Silver Springs, said to be the largest in the world, with a flow of 368,913 gallons a minute. Three other big springs lie within its boundaries—Blue Springs, Silver, Glenn Springs and Orange Springs. Silver river is navigable from its headwaters at Silver Springs into the Oklawaha river, a tributary of the St.

Johns river, so a boat may start from Silver Springs and land at Jacksonville, or proceed into the Atlantic ocean. A water outlet to the gulf is provided through the Withalacochee creek.
