Lake Monroe Jottings

MRS. H. L. JOHNSON
Happy Thursday to you. Just a little tip to you. Next Monday is a big holiday so please be careful, drive carefully, return home safely so I can say Happy Tuesday to you next week-end and you can be here to see and read it! I don't know if home is as safe as anywhere else on these holidays BUT that is where I am staying. Had a call from Ruth Boutwell the other day. She said that there was some wild fern growing over here in Monroe somewhere but she could not remember where. She said that the custodian of the Lake Mary school, Mr. Ross, was trying to find some to put around part of the school grounds. If anyone has some they want to get rid of or knows where he can get some please call him at the school and it will be greatly appreciated. Talking of school custodians—the Monroe school custodian, Miss Arie Mann, fell and injured herself at the school. We hope she will get well quick so she can return to the school. Correction in last weeks column. It should have been Frances and Bob Thompson. Well, our goodlooking young postmaster is a bachelor no longer. Robert Mann and Betty Usery were married August 14 by the Rev. H. I. Martin. The Manns are residing in the Duff cottage. Congratulations and best wishes to you, Robert and Betty! Betty you have a nice boy. I have known Robert and his brothers since they were knee high to a grasshopper. And another gal will soon be a young old maid no longer—Dotty Cain, daughter of Ek and Ola will say "I do" before long. I have also known Dotty since she was a small tot. Best wishes to you, too, Dotty. Walter and Margaret Price are now up in our class because they are brand new grandparents. Sylvia and Alford Stanley have a 5 lb., 3 oz. daughter. Talked to Helen Price Saturday evening and she is having conceptions to get a hold of the new baby. I don't blame her one bit! Margie Stripling had as her houseguest Fern McElion of Jacksonville. Mrs. G. B. Sapp had her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Werthington of Tampa, with her a few days last week. Mrs. Naomi Sapp is in Valdosta, Ga., where she is attending the 16th reunion of the Zipperer families. She will visit also in Quitman, Ga. before returning home. So sorry the daughter of Marilyn and Chuck Krejcar has been ill. She is much improved now and I know they are really glad of that. Julia Wells and I want to thank the Dutch Mill Nursery for that very nice Thank You letter in the Thursdays edition of the Sanford Herald. It certainly made us feel good. Please remember about the holiday coming up Monday. Be careful if you are going somewhere because kiddies the next day is (sigh) school. Very glad to see Pauline Hobby back with us. Our County Home Demonstration agent, Miss Myrtle Wilson, Mrs. Louise Callahan, craft chairman and myself spent Tuesday in DeLand with the Volusia County H. D. council. Went to town Friday evening to see what I could see. The merchants sure did a good thing when they started staying open Friday nights. There was certainly a crowd of people in the stores and on the streets and I sure saw a lot of Monroe people there, too. Bus number 45 will go its same route as last year for grades 7 through 12 and will be five minutes earlier than before. Ross Poff's daughter, Mattie Wilson, grandson, A. B. Wilson and wife came in Saturday morning from Roanoke, Va. to get A. B.'s son, Blaine, who has been visiting Ross here for the past month. They had to return right back in order to go to work Tuesday. Sure glad J. C. Sikes got that ditch cleaned out before that hard rain Saturday afternoon. If

MQ Ranch Ends 10 Week Roundup

The popular MQ Ranch in Oviedo ended its ten week round-up for boys Sunday. Among those ranching at the MQ this summer were Randy Griggs, Vincent Laffler, Don Fortner, Jackie Morrison, Bo Gasil, Chuck and David Gormley of Sanford; James Pearson and Don Patterson of Oviedo; Neal Peacock of Orlando and grandson of Mrs. Grace Dugger of Sanford; Steve Madden of Atlanta, Ga., and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Madden of Sanford; Robert and Dickie Young of Jacksonville and grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Crumley and Russ Roth of Leesburg and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Laffler. Earlier in the season Herberth Ann Collier, Barbara Brown and Glenda Bond of Sanford and Linda Wolk of Sarasota and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolk were among those in the girls round-up.

Oviedo High School Holds Luau

By MARION E. JONES
The Oviedo High School was the setting for a Luau Saturday night when members of the faculty, entertained in honor of new staff members. The Hawaiian theme with aqua fish net, colorful bangles, lanterns, bamboo, star fish and palmetto fronds made a festive occasion for the costumed guests. Soft background music was played during the barbecued chicken dinner which was served on tables centered with palmetto fronds, banana leaves and red hibiscus. A tempting variety of fresh and canned fruits were served from the hollows of two watermelon halves. After the feast all faculty members and their guests enjoyed games. J. Y. Harris was chef and others in charge of party plans were Mrs. Don Ulrey, Mrs. W. A. Teague, Mrs. C. K. Bucklew, Mrs. Merritt Staley, Mrs. Milton Gore and Mrs. Jim Partin. MAKE-UP TRICK Before applying powder over cake make-up, crinkle a few facial tissues and use them as a blotter to absorb all excess moisture.

Shop Sanford Tonight

Down Town Sanford Merchants are prepared for large crowds tonight as the opening of school draws near and the fall season approaches with all the sports activities and the social whirl getting off to a running start.

September brings the first touch of fall and all the attendant bustle and busy-ness. Personal grooming needs, all kinds of things for sprucing up the home and garden, getting the family transportation into good running shape and preparing for the season ahead are chores to be taken care of.

Hundreds of specially priced bargain items are available at Down Town Sanford stores to fill all these needs and thousands of Seminole County citizens are making out their lists of items.

A STOCK CERTIFICATE in the newly incorporated Sanford-Seminole Development Corp. is being handed to Walter Gielow, publisher of the Sanford Herald, by Cliff McKibbin, president of the development group. The corporation was organized to attract industry to Sanford and Seminole County. (Herald Photo)

78 Die As TWA Plane Crashes Outside Chicago

HINSDALE, Ill. (UPI)—A Trans World Airlines Constellation with 78 persons aboard plunged to earth today and exploded with such a roar that householders feared an atomic bomb had fallen. There were no survivors.

TWA officials in Chicago raised the death count from 77 to 78 seven hours after the crash with the discovery that an infant, James Chamberlain, had been on board the ill-fated Boston-to-San Francisco flight with his family. The night coach plane, carrying some families of vacationers on their way to Labor Day weekend holidays, was enveloped in a ball of orange flame at 2:04 a.m., three minutes after it had roared off the runway at Chicago's Midway Field bound for Las Vegas, Nev.

The plane plummeted like an arrow into a corn and soybean field on the outskirts of the community of Clarendon Hills, close by this western Chicago suburb.

The FBI, the Federal Aviation Agency and the Civil Aeronautics Board rushed experts from Washington to find the cause of the crash, which ranked as the ninth worst in the history of commercial aviation in terms of lives lost.

An unidentified ham radio operator was reported to have listened in to the last conversation between the plane's pilot and the airport control tower. The ham operator said the pilot radioed he had an electrical fire in the floor of the cockpit. When the tower told him to "circle or set it down," the ham said, the pilot replied "I can't circle—it's too hot."

Tito Warns Of World War III

BELGRADE (UPI)—Yugoslavia's President Tito and other key leaders of the 24-nation unaligned conference here today warned grimly that World War III could break out "at any moment over Berlin."

At the opening session, Tito and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic and Sukarno of Indonesia called for urgent UN action and another East-West summit meeting. Tito opened the meeting with the blunt statement that "the cold war has assumed proportions liable to lead to the greatest tragedy at any moment."

"Overt preparations for war are being made, mobilization is taking place, the manufacture of the most up-to-date weapons is being intensified, hydrogen and atomic weapons tests are again being contemplated," he said.

New Osteen Bridge Looms ; Bids Expected By January 1

The State Road Dept. has decided to apply for a permit to build a new bridge over the St. Johns River to replace the present Osteen Bridge and hopes to ask for bids on it by Jan. 1.

Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider said road department officials told him this morning that the decision had been reached on the bridge, which has been on the request list for nearly 10 years. The department also is considering making the span one with 45 foot clearance over the high water level to provide open traffic flow for the proposed Sanford-Canaveral Canal, Krider said.

A rough estimate of the cost is $1 million for the bridge alone, not including the approaches. The present SR 415 would be straightened out from a point at the concrete bridge at the beginning of the Campbell Thornal Highway east of the Osteen Bridge to connect with SR 46 east of Cameron

Ave. near the abandoned drive-in theater.

Decision to proceed with the bridge to replace the rickety wooden structure in use for many years ties in with long range planning for the improvements of routes to the east coast and elimination of the hazardous curve at the crossing and takes into consideration the possible approval in the near future for a canal route.

"This would eliminate one of our most hazardous road crossings and worst bridges in the first place and also open up the avenue for industrial growth along with the new boom in neighboring Bradford County," Krider said.

By LARRY VERSHEL. The Texas Rangers . . . Ooops, I mean the County Commission will hold its 1961-62 budget hearing Tuesday morning. No gun play expected although there may be some "heated" exchanges.

Ocala City officials came into town Thursday to meet with Sanford City manager W. E. Knowles on city operation. It seems Ocala wanted to find out how an efficient city is run.

Shumaker Construction Co. has taken over the dealership for the family fallout shelters that were given the okay by Civil Defense. A unit is being ordered and will be on display soon.

It just isn't true — the report published elsewhere that Orange, Lake and Seminole Counties have agreed to share in the cost of a $800,000 highway from Bear Lake Rd., north to SR 46.

This county hasn't yet agreed to kick in its $50,000 to extend the road. The action was discussed Tuesday by the County Commission but they turned it over to County Engineer Carlton Bliss for a study of the county's secondary road program.

By the way there is nothing new about this joint project — it was discussed a way back in 1959 as the minutes of the May 3, 1959 meeting bear out.

The Kiwanis Club and Sanford merchants are planning a real "old fashioned" fish fry and auction Sept. 9 at the Farmers Auction Market. The fish fry is set to begin at 6 p.m. with the auction scheduled for 7. The best thing about the affair will be the underprivileged children will benefit from the profits.

There won't be any American Legion meeting Monday because of the Labor Day Holiday.

Take it easy over the weekend . . .

Former County Commissioner Homer Little is the new agent for Greyhound Bus terminal in Sanford.

The Seminole County Commissioners sat today as a board of equalization in tax hearings but only one property owner showed up to have his property reviewed.

The complaining property owner said that last year he had complained that the evaluation was too high. So it was reviewed and "equalized."

This year the assessment was twice as high as last year.

Industry Group Is Incorporated

Incorporation of the Sanford-Seminole Development Corp., patterned after the Florida Development Corp., was completed Friday with the issuance of stock certificates to each of the 51 stockholders of the industrial development group.

The company was incorporated for $250,000 and the stock has a par value of $10 per share, according to John Krider, executive director. It is the successor to the Committee of One Hundred of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce.

The company will take advantage of the Small Business Administration's lending facilities on a 20-80 basis. This means, said Krider, that the corporation will put up 20 per cent of funds for a project and borrow 80 per cent from the SBA.

"In this way we can offer an industry a package deal to locate in the county," said Krider. "This means that the corporation can lease or purchase a plant site, build the plant according to an industry's specifications and then lease it to this concern."

Officers of the Corporation are Cliff McKibbin, president; Tom McDonald, vice president; Joe Davidson, secretary; Bob Hauman, treasurer, and Krider, executive secretary.

World Terrorism Red Aim—Dean

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Ambassador Arthur Dean, speaking with the approval of President Kennedy, said today Russia had embarked on a policy aimed at the "terrorization of humanity."

Dean, this country's nuclear test ban negotiator, told newsmen the Soviet Union was following a strategy of blackmail and terror and developing a bomb which was not a military weapon but an instrument of mass terror.

Dean returned Thursday night from Geneva. He had been trying to reach agreement with Russia on a test ban until the Soviet announcement Wednesday that Russia would resume tests.

He said Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev had been boasting of a 100 megaton "bomb," which Dean described as "far too large for military objectives."

Herald Sets Changes In News Department

Larry Vershel has been named managing editor of the Sanford Herald and Reuben R. Killebrew has joined the staff as news and sports editor, publisher Walter Gielow announced today.

Vershel is former associate and news editor and has been with the Herald for two years.

Killebrew has worked on newspapers for 20 years including the Tennessean in Nashville, Tenn. and Item in New Orleans. He was born and educated in Tennessee and attended Vanderbilt University.

New Driver License Plan Goes Into Effect

Two Sanford attorneys were first in line today as a new system for issuing driver's licenses, designed to change the month of purchase to the birth month of the driver and extend the life of the certificate to two years started today.

The two attorneys, Douglas Stenstrom and Kenneth Lefler, will be celebrating their birthdays within the next two weeks.

The new law was enacted by the 1961 Legislature. Previously, all licenses expired Sept. 30 and were renewable for one year.

During the period of adjustment to the new system, some licenses will be issued for one year and some for two years, depending upon the year in which the license was born.

Easterly Wave In Gulf Dissipates
MIAMI (UPI) — An easterly wave moving slowly westward across the Gulf of Mexico today was written off as a hurricane of tropical storm possibility by the Miami Weather Bureau.

Normally, August is a prime hurricane month, but no tropical storms occurred during August this year.

Another easterly wave sprang in the tropical Atlantic east of Barbados in the Lesser Antilles.

But Miami Forecaster Raymond Kraft said it showed no signs of developing into a tropical storm.

The gulf wave faded Wednesday night with another wave that had passed over northwest Florida, bringing a deluge of more than 10 inches of rain to Tallahassee.

Report Military Accepts Goulart
RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI) — Brazil's military chiefs were reported ready today to accept Vice President Juao Goulart as the figurehead president of a European-model government, but it was uncertain that Goulart would take the job.

Gov. Celso Picanha of Rio de Janeiro state, emerging from a pre-dawn meeting with the ministers of war, navy and air, said they would accept a compromise settlement of their dispute with Goulart "to end the crisis."

Agreement First
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Farris Bryant will not call any special session of the Legislature to deal with constitutional revision without first getting "complete agreement" among members.

10 Story Building Proposed Here
Word was received here today of a proposed new 10 story building on the Sanford waterfront, housing use and two bedroom and efficiency apartments, especially designed for retired persons.

"This site in Sanford," said Bob Drabik, local head of the development company, "was chosen after extensive searching all the state of Florida for a place that would be just right for this type of enterprise."

The situation of the hotel here is because of the location near the lake front, the close proximity of the hospital, medical center, civic center, churches, downtown business section, fishing and re-

Vernon Dunn Hospitalized With Heart Condition

County Commissioner Vernon Dunn was admitted to Orlando Air Force Base hospital Thursday night with a mild heart condition.

Clerk Arthur Beckwith Jr., reported that Dunn had a "little spell" after Tuesday's county commission meeting.

Beckwith said that Dunn will undergo some tests at the hospital today.

The commissioner was reported in good condition at noon.

U. S. Indicts Nine For Burning Bus
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Nine men were indicted today by a federal grand jury in Birmingham, Ala., for burning a "freedom rider" bus near Anniston, Ala., on May 14. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy announced.

Kennedy said the FBI has arrested seven of the men all of whom live in the Anniston area. Another is in jail on burglary charges and the ninth is hospitalized, he said.

creation facilities, all within walking distance of the E. First St. location.

The new 126 apartment hotel, a production of Florida-Ozier Enterprises, Inc., will feature all the safety designs worked out in the recent Washington conference on Housing for the Elderly.

"Lakeview Manor," as the apartment hotel will be named, will live up to its name, for it is designed so that all apartments look out over the lake, with screened balconies on the front of each to provide the pleasant view of the lake and catch the fresh breezes off the water.

Incorporated into the plans for each apartment are such safety features as waist-high electrical outlets, recessed door sills, level with the floor) non-skid floors, extra wide doors, extra-sized closets, accident prevention lighting and individually thermostatically controlled heating and air conditioning.

In the kitchen, sit-down space is included beside the sink, range and preparation center and in the bathroom, non-skid bath tubs, shower seats and safety rails are featured, for every possible means of accident prevention. Spacious glass-enclosed lounges overlooking the lake will be features of the lobby, with elevator service for easy access to apartments, a hobby house, garden plots and professional services available on the spot.

the Academic and God

The Great Teacher once said, when the fig tree buds it is spring. We might add, when the youngsters go back to school, it is fall. What a challenge back-to-school brings. It is time to learn more about math, and science, and citizenship, and God. How necessary to our American way of life are these basic requirements in our educational system. Our curriculum must include some concepts of Jesus if we are to have sufficient moral and spiritual stamina to endure. It has been said, education without a knowledge of God is dangerous. Our teachers, our preachers, and all loyal Americans should see to it that our basic education be broad enough to include both the academic and God. Of course our youngsters should be loyal to their school, but they should also be faithful subjects of the Great God. They should worship in church every week.

Jaycees Hear Need For Warning System For County

"To be prepared and ready for the worst would be the greatest deterrent to war," Lt. Cdr. A. R. Smith, atomic, biological and chemical warfare officer from Sanford Naval Air Station told the Jaycees and guests Thursday. And to prove that he practices what he preaches, Lt. Cdr. Smith has built a fall-out shelter at his home in Loch Arbor. In answer to questions from the press and audience, Lt. Cdr. Smith said that people of Seminole County would have from 30 minutes to an hour of warning.

"I will have to side with Civil Defense Director Peterson," Smith said, "and say that any method of warning that would give more time for people to get to shelter is the best defense."

"Even after you know that there has been an attack and a bomb has exploded, if you are still alive, you would have approximately 30 minutes to get to shelter before radiation began to fallout. And a small amount of fallout will not kill you."

"If you should be exposed to fallout (radio-active dust and debris falling from the air after a blast) as soon as you reach shelter, remove your clothing and wash thoroughly with water and you can destroy most of the contamination."

"A person who has been exposed is not contagious," Smith said in answer to questions. "Shielding, of whatever source or material, is your greatest protection."

"I do not believe that Florida would be wiped out," Smith said. "Sanford is not a primary target," he said. "It would be out of the area of blast damage from McCoy, which would be a prime target."

"Even if prevailing winds were coming from the south, there would still be adequate time to reach shelter."

In answer to a question on how long to stay in a shelter, Smith said:

"This would depend on the amount of radiation. If it was the maximum it would not be safe to come out for four or five days. If not as severe, you could venture out for a few minutes after a day or so.

"In any case, in two weeks time, the bulk of radiation will have decayed to the point where it is no longer harmful."

The question was asked, "What if you simply cannot afford to build a shelter at present?"

"Then the maximum safety would be in the innermost center of your home, if it is still standing, with as many walls or thicknesses of materials between you and the outdoors as possible.

"If you have a center hall in your home, that can be completely closed off, this would be your maximum protection."

In the choice of shelters, Smith said that the steel shelters would withstand a blast better than the concrete block.

Lcdr. Smith urged that the public contact the Civil Defense office for pamphlets and materials designed to answer questions about how to build shelters, what is needed in them, and how to protect yourself in case of fallout.

A check with the local office of A. B. Peterson, Director of Civil Defense here, shows that boxes of new material have just arrived and are available with floor plans for shelters and much other information, including step by step directions on how to "do it yourself."

Two Airlines Drop Controversial Rule

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The airlines' plaintive plea of "don't forget to reconfirm" may wind up a nonchalant "don't bother."

That was general industry reaction today to an announcement by United and Trans World that as of Oct. 1 they are dropping the controversial rule requiring passengers to reconfirm return reservations.

The rule went into effect on all airlines July 14, 1957, as part of a campaign against "no-shows"—passengers who book space and then don't bother to notify an airline if they don't plan to use it. Most airlines still have the rule in effect, but the United-TWA action may force reconsideration. American Airlines was the first to drop the reconfirmation requirement in 1958 on the ground that it alienated too many customers, particularly those who innocently forgot to reconfirm and then found their return space canceled.

Since then, Northeast has joined American except on its Florida routes. Other airlines which no longer require reconfirmation include Allegheny, Frontier, Mohawk and Alaska. Piedmont is in the process of eliminating the rule.

The job of the city planning and zoning board usually goes unnoticed what with the County Commission and city boards grabbing the major news items.

But recently, the zoning board with the help of City Planner George Simons, has come up with a new zoning ordinance that will be one of the mainstays of our community and will give us greater protection for our property.

If it wasn't for this tight, strict ordinance, a person could open up a blacksmith shop right in the middle of one of our better residential areas.

The new ordinance will keep homes from being crowded one against the other. Under the zoning law, no two homes can be closer than 10 feet.

The new ordinance deserves the support of the entire community.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Harry is afraid to ask another woman to marry him, for he thinks it would be unfair to her. Yet we have thousands of lovely women, cultured and active in churches, who ask to meet fine men like Harry. Study this case carefully for happy marriage is the most wonderful experience you can ever obtain on this Earth.

CASE J-483: Harry G., aged 34, a professional man.

"Dr. Crane," he said, "I have three children, the oldest of which is 10.

"And my wife was the most wonderful woman I have ever met. But I lost her a year ago due to cancer.

"With a housekeeper, I have held the children together and have tried to be both father and mother to them.

"But they need a real mother and I would probably be much happier if I were to marry again.

"Do you think it would be presumptuous of me to ask the Scientific Marriage Foundation for help? I hesitate because it seems unfair to expect a woman to take on a ready-made family."

The newspapers of America are the pioneers for our non-profit Scientific Marriage Foundation.

It operates on a non-profit, interest-free basis, with over 2,000 priests, rabbis and Protestant clergymen as counsellors. They screen all local applicants.

At present, we are introducing 1,000 certified, congenial people per month.

And many widowers as well as widows, with one or more young children, have shown the same hesitancy that Harry indicates.

Actually, however, many women welcome a chance to become the new mother to a brood of youngsters.

For example, talented teachers, hospital nurses, and private secretaries who are in their late 30's often deliberately request that we introduce them to a widower who has children.

For these lovely women know that they might not have any babies of their own, especially if they are near or beyond the 40-mark.

So they welcome a chance to gain a devoted husband and children at the same time.

The reverse is likewise true, for we frequently receive requests from business and professional men who specifically request a widow with children.

Yesterday, for instance, a lovely young widow in Pittsburgh wrote: "Dear Dr. Crane, please take my name off your active file of the SMF, for I am now married happily to an Air Force Captain.

"Not only am I living in the clouds but my two little girls are so happy, too, that it makes me cry to see their delight.

"They never could remember their first Daddy, because he was killed when they were toddlers.

"This is the first time they have ever felt the security of having both Daddy and Mother. They bubble over with pride and pleasure.

"And my new husband is so wonderful to them! He couldn't be nicer if they were his own flesh-and-blood."

Bachelors past 35 really ought to pick widows when they marry, for they will usually be far happier with such an understanding type of woman.

An unmarried girl will find it very difficult to adjust to an old bachelor, for he is so set in his ways (yet seldom recognizes this fact) that it takes the patience and love even of an understanding young widow.

Furthermore, there is no magic in blood kinship regarding children! If you "adopt" a woman as your life you can also adopt the children via your love and feel as close to them as to any blood kin.

So send for the 200-point "Tests for Husbands & Wives," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

STANDING ON HIS CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

Letters

To The Editor

Dear Editor: I am sure that Seminole County is grateful for the public service rendered by your editorial of August 16—"Before It's Too Late"—followed by your publication of Mr. (James P.) Avery's statement before the County Commissioners on Aug. 14, and of Mr. Bart Peterson's dignified and competent rebuttal in your paper of Aug. 22.

While I feel that Mr. Peterson has adequately answered Mr. Avery's statement in every detail, I am asking herewith for space in your publication to give another viewpoint on this vital matter—neither that of a Commissioner nor a Civil Defense administrator, but simply that of a County resident. I might add that this is not just a personal opinion but is shared by many with whom I have talked.

Mr. Avery's statement may be summed up as follows:

1. He seems quite certain that his training and study qualify him to speak with authority on nuclear matters. In fact, in a personal conversation with me, Mr. Avery expressed himself as feeling that he knew as much about nuclear war as any person in the County.

2. He stands for an expansion of an educational program for the citizens, to instruct them in matters which, in general, could be classified as survival techniques.

3. He opposes a warning system as impractical and useless under existing conditions and therefore a waste of funds.

Let us consider this summary of Mr. Avery's statement paragraph by paragraph.

1. Is Mr. Avery an authority on nuclear warfare? It is true that his study in the Navy makes him more knowledgeable on nuclear matters than the average citizen, but many will question whether it qualifies him as an authority whose every judgment should be accepted without reservation.

But whether he is an authority or not, he has been able to convince two of his fellow Commissioners that he "knows whereof he speaks." With this accomplished, and Mr. Fitzpatrick's and Mr. Williams' votes to back him up in the Commission, the opinions of Lt. Gen. Hutchinson (a man of wide military experience) and Lt. Dunn (with 31 years of Navy background) are disregarded. They are out-voted on every ballot although they have tried desperately to oppose some of Mr. Avery's ideas.

Because of their occupations, Mr. Williams and Mr. Fitzpatrick, I feel reasonably sure, do not classify themselves as nuclear experts and therefore, we must assume, have been persuaded to their opinion by Mr. Avery.

So let's hope that Mr. Avery is an "authority." For, as it now stands, Mr. Avery is able to force his decisions, right or wrong, on every citizen of the County.

2. Does Mr. Avery really stand, without reservation, for the educational expansion program he suggests? This seems doubtful, for Mr. Avery knows, that in this County, Civil Defense programs designed by OGD and covering the areas he says he approves are already operating under the able direction of Mr. Bart Peterson. To expand them will require more funds; but instead of allowing Mr. Peterson more funds, his allowance of $8000 last year has been cut in half. This action speaks more clearly than Mr. Avery's words, and does not reflect any real desire to expand.

This cut in CD funds is in addition to the refusal of the request for $15,000 which, with matching Government funds, would have allowed the installation of a warning signal system.

Does Mr. Avery mean to suggest that he would scrap the OGD national program and install a local one drawn along lines that his "training and knowledge" convinces him is an improvement?

Even so, what about funds for it?

3. Mr. Avery states, though failing to give his authority for the figures, that in this area approximately 30 seconds is the maximum warning time to be expected from a warning signal system—therefore he decides it is useless and so the County cannot have one.

I should like to point out that this action can be condemned as complete defeatism, and that his statement concerning warning systems, however, let us accept it.

I am sure everyone will agree that if nuclear war comes, the death toll will not be small, and will also agree that even in 30 seconds (questioned for it could be more) many persons in this County in the fringe of the blast area still might survive by seeking temporary shelter from the blast in ditches, culverts, etc.

No one knows just where the blast areas will be; but I think that all citizens in this county have the right to those 30 seconds, even if the chances of survival are small.

But, Mr. Avery says, "No." It will cost $15,000 of tax money, and he makes the empty gesture of pointing to the fact that he is denying this chance to his wife and children, as if thereby proving he is right. If so was comes, and God knows we all hope for peace, he will have appeared to be wise, rather than merely lucky. But it is worth nothing that no savings of taxpayers' money will have resulted. For if Mr. Avery approved this expenditure of $15,000 he knows that in an overall budget of $1,814,626, it can be absorbed without raising the budget at all.

And if war does come, what then?

The heart of this whole matter is that this decision on the warning system is not the usual decision arrived at primarily through judgment on the part of the Commissioners concerning the wise expenditure of tax funds, but is a decision which is the first decision of its kind in the entire history of Seminole County. The stakes could be life or death, and there can be no correcting the decision if it proves wrong.

Mr. Avery, Mr. Fitzpatrick, and Mr. Williams, in refusing to approve the appropriation for the warning system, should remember that they are gambling with more than their own lives and those of their families. This action by them, as County Commissioners, forces every man, woman and child in Seminole County to accept this gamble whether they like it or not.

Can any one man (or three) conceive that he has the right to impose a possible death sentence on hundreds if not thousands of his fellow-citizens—citizens who have trusted him to take care of them in matters needing community action? Can any man feel he has the right to refuse these citizens a warning system, (which they would be paying for by their taxes, and which might offer them a chance of survival)?

Since the Board of County Commissioners has already acted on this matter, there is nothing I or any other citizen can do unless they will reconsider their action.

This I most sincerely urge. I hope that some word included herein will cause Mr. Avery, Mr. Fitzpatrick, or Mr. Williams to give further thought to this decision, and that they may see their way to place Seminole County squarely behind the National effort in this crisis which our country faces.

Let us all pray for peace, but make firm our determination to survive.

Very truly yours,
Paul Lee Bissell

Peter Edson's Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The Kennedy Administration's New Frontiers program for youth is a multimillion-dollar baby that might grow up into quite a man-sized undertaking if Congress ever approves the whole thing.

The beginning is a Juvenile Delinquency and Youth Offenses Control Act which will become law this year. It will authorize expenditures of $10 million a year in a still somewhat fuzzy effort to cut down the 750,000 juvenile court cases—250,000 of them traffic violations—reported in 1950.

The federal funds will be granted to state and local governments and to non-profit welfare agencies for a three-part program of demonstration and evaluation projects, training and technical assistance to juvenile courts, police and others trying to cope with the problems.

This is one of Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Abraham Ribicoff's ideas, born out of his experience as a governor and a judge. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy and Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg serve with him on the President's Committee on Juvenile Delinquency. But David Hackett as executive director and Dr. Lloyd C. Ohlin, who drafted the legislation, are trying to pull together all organizations and people working in the field for a major national attack on juvenile delinquency.

Not far behind the legislation is a Manpower Development and Training Act. It will cover all workers over 16, but it includes a special section on training youth. For the whole program, it would authorize expenditures of $90 million this year, $115 million next year and $800 million for each of the years following.

In the next 10 years it is estimated that there'll be 26 million new workers. Many seeking jobs will be 16-year-old school dropouts who need training. Utilizing the U. S. Employment Service to find and test these youngsters and the Office of Vocational Education to train them, it is hoped to reduce the numbers.

The Work Opportunities legislation is one part of the Kennedy Youth program which will probably not pass this year. It would authorize $25 million for on-the-job training of young people working half-time, spending half-time in classes.

Another $25 million would be authorized for grants to state and local governments to employ young people on public service projects, such as parks or hospitals, for $20 a week.

A third $25 million would be allocated to a Youth Conservation Corps, modeled on Civilian Conservation Corps. of the depression. Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., one of the original sponsors of this idea, wanted 150,000 men in the YCC. But since its costs $3,000 a year to keep a man in camp, paying him a $70 a month, the administration cut to 6,000 for a start-up. Stepping up the draft probably kills it.

The Peace Corps legislation is given a better chance. It has been organized on White House emergency funds, but Congress has been asked for $40 million for first-year operations. That would send 1,000 young teachers and engineers overseas to work for back private's pay of $75 a month.

There is, finally, Kennedy's get Youth Fitness program, with Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson advising the White House how to make toughest out of softies.

There's also a Cabinet committee of Ribicoff, Goldberg and Interior Secretary Stuart Udall, with Simon McNelly in charge of federal-state relations. Many physical education experts think the program isn't necessary or accomplishing anything.

The administration's whole $2.9 billion aid-to-education program is, in fact, the big thing in the youth program. The philosophy behind it is that the country should invest more in its human resources.

There is no program to establish a Department of Youth on top of the existing Children's Bureau in HEW, yet. There is no thought of going into this the way the totalitarian governments do in controlling youth from age three to the time they become adults.

The program is just to provide more counseling and guidance to keep youth from becoming delinquents and to help them plan and achieve a useful life.

Bryant Offers Cooperation On Lab Project

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Farris Bryant promised the National Aeronautics and Space Agency Wednesday night that the state will do all it can to cooperate with the national space laboratory if it is moved anywhere in Florida.

Bryant's letter followed by hours a warning that unless Tampa and Jacksonville stop their fierce competition for the lab, Florida's chances of getting it will be dimmed.

Meanwhile, the Hillsborough County Commission voted to give its chairman, Ellsworth Simmons, authority to offer "any convenience regardless of cost" to lure the laboratory to Tampa's McMill Air Force Base.

Bryant, in a letter to the head of a team looking over possible sites in Florida, Louisiana, Texas and California, promised that Florida would cooperate "to the fullest extent."

In a letter to Jack Parsons, the governor said the state would "rearrange our road program and accelerate and adjust the state's activities so as to accommodate these facilities to the best of our ability."

P. O. BOX 106 SANFORD, FLA.

No Backfield Worries - - Pigott

If willingness to work and competitive spirit count for anything Jim Pigott's Seminole High School team will have something to be proud of when it comes to the end of the football season. The Seminoles open the season here Sept. 15 with Titusville.

Colts Play Weak Cowboys Tonight

The two-time world champion Baltimore Colts, preparing for a comeback in the National Football League, face the weak Dallas Cowboys (1-2) tonight in an exhibition game at Norman, Okla.

The Colts, NFL champions in 1956 and 1958, seem to have found the touch again with the Johnny Unitas and Lemmy Moore passing combination as they shoot for their third straight exhibition victory after an opening loss to Pittsburgh.

The only other game on tonight's NFL schedule pits the Los Angeles Rams (2-1) against the San Francisco Forty-Niners (1-1). The Houston Oilers (2-1) meet the Denver Broncos (1-2) at Mobile, Ala., and the Buffalo Bills (0-3) host the Boston Patriots (2-1) in American Football League pre-season contests.

Boxing Finance Aid Promised

NEW YORK (UPI)—Madison Square Garden's boxing division plans to spend $100,000 during the next year to revive the nation's small fight clubs, the incubators of future champions.

General Manager Harry Markson, announcing the financial-aid program, said he hoped the plan might enable 20 small clubs to re-open their doors throughout the country.

During the 15 years of nationally televised fights, interest in the small clubs has dwindled to such an extent that only about 24 now operate with any regularity, according to The Ring magazine's latest check.

Markson stressed that the financially aided new clubs will not be "farm clubs" because the Garden will have no interest in their profits and no influence on the selection of boxers for their cards.

squad is much lighter than the 1960 squad."

Line Coach Jim McCoy has only two regulars returning from last year's line, Russ Pierson, a senior tackle who was converted from guard, and another senior, Don Harvey, an end. Returning lettermen who are competing for a spot in the line are Vic Welch, a guard; Jimmy Jones, end, and John Boniface, an end converted from a back.

Other promising prospects who are working hard for a line position are Bobby Lewis and Eugene Williams, tackle; Jack Elam and Jimmy Williams, guards, and J. B. Phillips, center.

Coach Pigott said the Seminole backfield's running game offers no problems but that there are some weak spots in passing and he is working hard to polish up this part of the game.

Leading off the backfield are two fullbacks who are returning lettermen, Bill Phagan and Gary Davidson, third and second year men respectively. They alternate in this slot. Bubba Davis is a second year half who plays mainly on offense.

The two quarterback prospects are Jim Terwieser, a senior, and Tommy Hinson, a junior. The halfbacks include Don McMurray, a junior; Mike Champion, senior; Butch Riser, a junior who is a probable starter, and Gene Freeman, a senior. Utility back is Thomas Best, a senior.

Staff members, in addition to Pigott and McCoy, are Ralph Stumpf and Bud Leyer, junior varsity coaches.

Pott Defends Dallas Title

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Johnny Pott, who broke into the championship ranks in this tournament a year ago, started out in search of his second Dallas Open golf tournament title in a row today.

The muscular former Louisiana State University star, who catapulted into links prominence as a pro last year with a pair of victories in only his fourth trip along the tour, was among the 140 players teeing off in the opening round of the $20,000 event at Oak Cliff Country Club.

He already is farther along the banking trail than at this time a year ago, when he wound up as the 12th leading money winner with $23,163 official earnings.

Going into today's first round over the hilly, 6,800-yard par 70 layout, Pott ranked No. 8 among this season's competitors and could easily vault into the No. 5 spot if he could duplicate his 1960 form and take down the $4,300 first prize.

The Detroit Tigers, who've hung on tenaciously despite a series of bad breaks, and the New York Yankees, who've failed to pull away from the field despite a record home run output, meet head-on tonight in the opener of a three-game series that could decide the American League pennant race.

The tactical situation is heavily in favor of the Yankees—the Tigers must sweep all three games to be in first place Sunday night—but the New Yorkers have shown a tendency to fritter away opportunities this season. They hit three homers to set a new AL mark of 194 by a team in one season Thursday, for example, but lost the game to the Minnesota Twins, 6-4.

Whitely Ford, 25-3 for the season, will pitch tonight's opener for the Yankees while Don Mossi, 14-3, will go for the Tigers.

The Tigers sliced the Yankees' first-place margin to 1 1/2 games Thursday when they beat the Chicago White Sox, 8-2. They have won 11 of their last 14 games during a period when they were supposed to drop out of the race.

Norm Cash and Bill Bruton each hit a two-run homer and Al Kalene had a double and two singles to lead the Tigers' 14-hit attack. Paul Foytack pitched a seven-hitter and struck out seven to raise his season record to 10-8.

Mickey Mantle, Bill Skowron and Hector Lopez homered for the Yankees but the Twins won the game with a five-run third-inning burst featured by Jim Lemon's two-run homer and Bob Allison's two-run single. The Yankees' team total of 194 homers surpasses the mark of 193 they set last year and leaves them 27 short of the major league record shared by the 1947 Giants and the 1956 Cincinnati Reds.

The Cleveland Indians shamed the Washington Senators, 3-2, and the Kansas City A's whipped the Los Angeles, 17-3 and 6-5, in other American League games while the San Francisco Giants, 6-1, and the St. Louis Cardinals topped the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-1, in National League action.

Jim Grant beat the Senators for the 11th straight time at Washington and boosted his lifetime record over them to 19-3 with the help of a two-run homer by Woodie Held. It was the 13th consecutive loss for the Senators.

The A's amassed 19 hits, including homers by Leo Posada, Norm Siebern, Bobby Del Graco and Wayne Causey to crush the Angels in the first game and then rallied for two runs in the ninth inning of the nightcap to complete the sweep. The five homers hit during the doubleheader increased the number hit at Wrigley Field this season to 209-10 short of the big league record.

Lee Maye stole home on the front end of a double steal to give the Braves a victory that dropped the Dodgers three games behind the idle NL leading Reds.

The Cubs handed the Giants their sixth loss in their last seven games behind the seven-hit pitching of Jack Curtis.

Stan Musial's ninth-inning triple drove in the decisive run for the Cardinals who dealt Art Mahaffey his 18th loss.

U.S. Enjoying Romp in Maccabiah Games

TEL AVIV, Israel (UPI)—The Maccabiah Games are turning into a romp for the United States. The Yanks won nine gold medals and smashed five meet records in the first two days of these "Jewish Olympic" games.

Four of the five American gold medal winners Thursday are former or present students at New York University.

Gary Gubner of NYU scored his second conquest of the meet when he treated Israeli track and field fans to their first 60-foot shot put. The 230-pound New Yorker, who set another record while winning the discus Wednesday, put the shot 60 feet, 1 1/2 inches to lead an American sweep in the event.

The other record-breakers Thursday were Mike Herman of New York with a mark of 24 feet, 8 inches in the broad jump, and Navy Lieutenant Law Stiglitz of West Hartford, Conn., who won the 1,500 meters in 3 minutes and 33 seconds.

Herman, a former NYU star, also took and overwhelming lead after five events of the decathlon.

The other U.S. gold medal winners Thursday were Paul Zamachon of NYU in the 1,500 meters and Elliot Demman of New York in the 3,000 meter walk. Zamachon was clocked in 15.5 seconds in his event while Demman, a former NYU track and field captain, completed his walk in 15 minutes, 3 seconds.

Art Hayman of Duke University paced the U.S. basketball team to its second victory with 27 points as the Yanks walloped Argentina, 85-36.

Mantle, Maris Face It Rough Now

NEW YORK (UPI)—New York Yankees sluggers Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle are face to face with the supreme challenge out of the past: Babe Ruth's torrid finish in 1927.

It's September—the final month of the season — and the one in which Ruth hit 17 homers to reach 60 in that 1927 season.

With 51 homers, Maris is seven games ahead of the Ruthian pace, and Mantle, with 48 homers, is two games ahead of the pace. They'll have to keep hitting homers and hit 'em fast or they're going to fade out of reach.

Maris was homerless in the National League — Cepeda, Giants 36; Robinson, Reds 35; Mays, Giants 31; Aaron, Braves 32; Thomas, Braves 27; Adcock, Braves 27.

American League — Maris, Yanks 51; Mantle, Yanks 48; Orioles 45; Colavito, Tigers 39; Killebrew, Twins 37.

Runs Ratted In National League — Cepeda, Giants 118; Robinson, Reds 114; Aaron, Braves 102; Mays, Giants 101; Clemente, Pirates 84; Stuntz, Pirates 84; Adcock, Braves 84.

American League — Gentile, Orioles 124; Colavito, Tigers 122; Maris, Yanks 121; Mantle, Yanks 114; Cash, Tigers 111.

National League — Podres, Dodgers 17-4; Miller, Giants 10-3; Jays, Reds 10-8; McDaniell, Cards 10-3; Burdette, Braves 15-8.

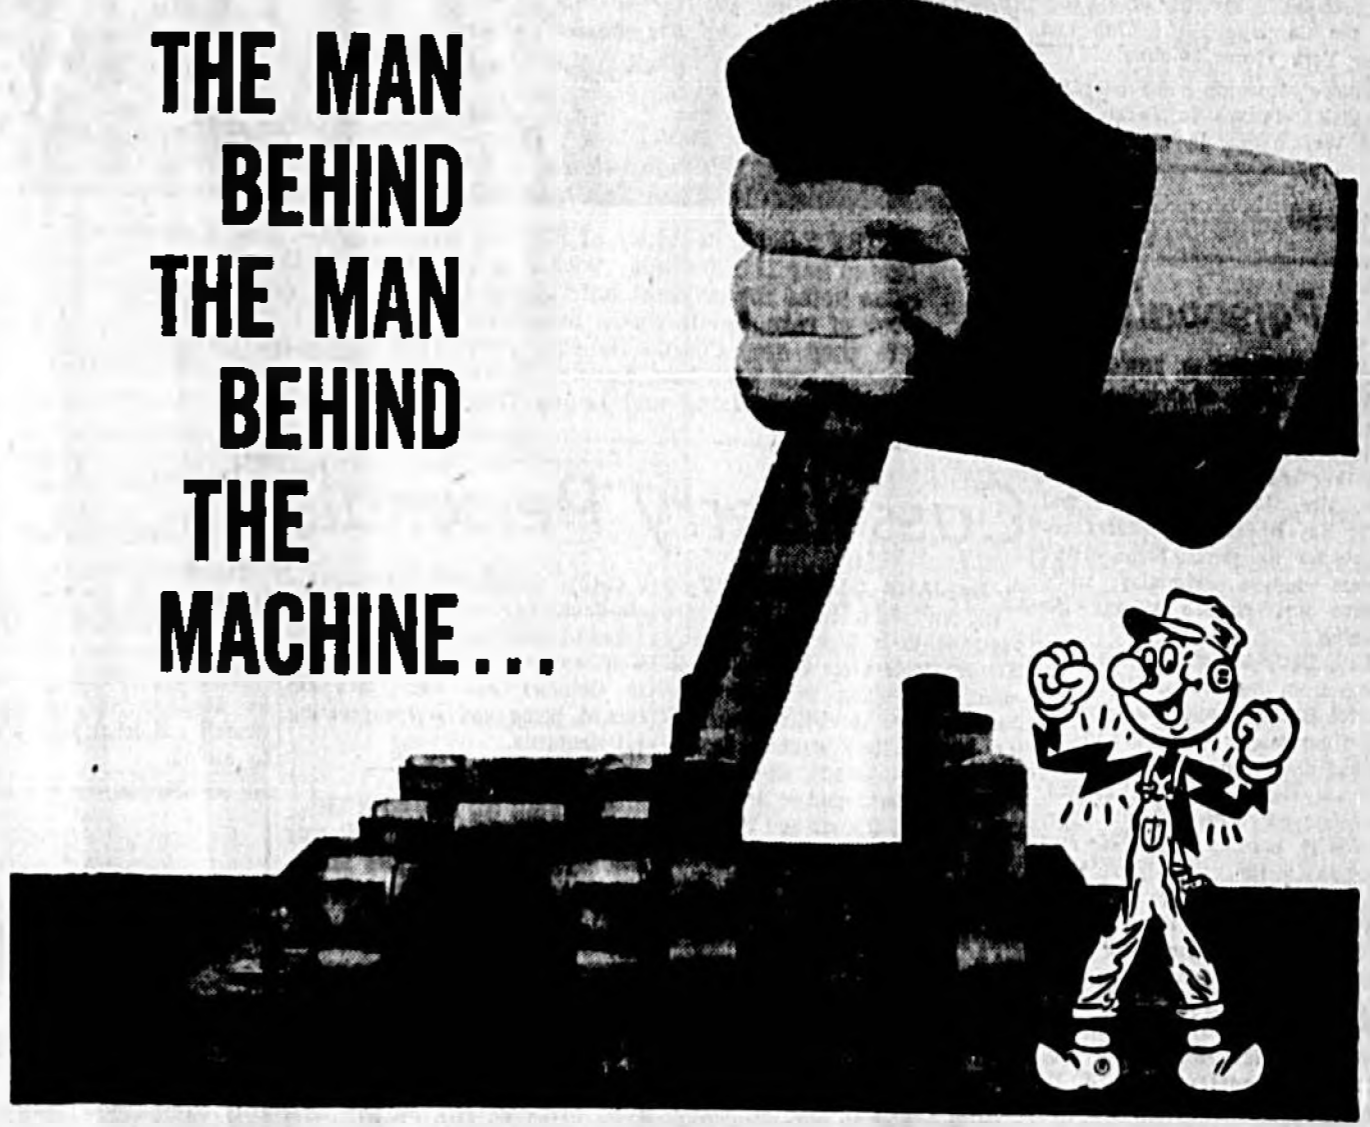

American League — Ford, Yanks 22-3; Terry, Yanks 11-2; Mossi, Tigers 14-3; Schwall, Red Sox 13-3; Arroyo, Yanks 11-3.

Nagle Holds Lead

CRAND-SUR-SIERRE, Switzerland (UPI)—Ken Nagle of Australia held a one-stroke lead entering the second round of the Swiss Open golf tournament today.

England and the United States tangled for the 18th time in the biennial Walker Cup golf series today with the Americans heavily favored to win for the 17th time as play got underway on the rain-soaked Seattle Golf Club course.

Captain Charles Lawrie of the invaders, trying a shuffle that he hoped could bring the coveted cup to England for the second time since the competition started in 1922, pulled a strategic switch and put most of the British power at the tail end of the batting order — against United States' weakest pairing.

... is Reddy. A flick of the switch and Reddy sets lathes spinning... pistons churning... wheels turning... supplying power for skilled hands to get the job done... electrically.

Angela Blalock Invites Schoolmates For Afternoon "Back To School" Party

Angela Blalock, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Blalock, enjoyed a "Back to School" party with schoolmates and friends, Saturday afternoon, at the Blalock home, 104 Asales Lane, in Sunland Estates. The guests started the afternoon off by getting better acquainted and telling each other their names and grades in school. Each one printed his name on a party hat. The familiar song "School Days" was enthusiastically sung by the group. Angela's father entertained the group with selective magic tricks which mystified the youngsters. Other games were enjoyed, including badminton, horse shoes, ball games and some just colored pictures and made drawings on the chalk board. The carpenter was decorated with colorful crepe paper streamers and Japanese lanterns. School articles, wrapped in colorful packages, were brought and exchanged. School pencils were given to the guests as special party favors. The tired, but happy, group was seated on the lawn for refreshments of pink decorated sheet cake, assorted cookies, rainbow ice cream and cold pink lemonade. Assisting Mrs. Blalock with the serving and entertaining was Mrs. Joan Williamson. Guests invited to share the party with Angela were Kathy and Joyce Coberly, Sara Ruth and Billy Joe Dyson. Jimmy Shannon, Pamela Williamson, Cecil, John and Miriam Tucker, Elizabeth and Lex Lossing, Kathy and Karen Sasser, Norma Jean and Perry Martin and Gordon and Marilyn Blalock.

Going-Away Party Given For Larry McDaniel

Mrs. Otto McDaniel entertained a group of young people at their home, 1018 West First Street, recently. The party was in honor of their son, Larry, who will leave Monday to enroll as a freshman at Lee College, in Cleveland, Tenn. His friends were invited to have a final social evening with him but they turned the tables on the hostess and brought him several nice going-away gifts, which was a great surprise. They helped Larry bake pizza pies which were served with salads, potato chips, dips, cake and cold drinks. Games were enjoyed under the direction of Mrs. Gerald Boatwright. Guests included Rev. and Mrs. Boatwright, pastor of the Church of Christ; Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Parlier, Paul Yates, Richard Barnes, Donny Whitten, Diane and Sharon Smith, Ola B. Yates, Alene Moore and Darrell Benge. Larry plans to major in music at college. He plays the piano and organ and will also be a member of the College choir.

District Officer To Speak At WSCS Meeting

The General Business and Program meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Services of the First Methodist Church will meet Tuesday in McKinley Hall. The executive board will meet at 8 a.m. and the business session at 10 a.m. Coffee will be served from 9:30 to 10 a.m. Guest speaker for the day will be Mrs. Bruce Gray, of Hastings, who is promotion secretary for the DeLand District. She will speak to the group about various things of interest to the WSCS. Members are urged to attend and all members of Methodist Churches in the Sanford area are invited.

DeBary

Personals
Mrs. P. Maggio left for New York this week, for a much needed rest. Persistent rumors of Dan Cupid hovering around keep cropping up.
Miss Jane Vaught of Naranja Rd. entertained this past week with a pajama party at her home. Guests were Carrie Hatchett, Debbie Clock, Heather Clock and Susan Coombs.
A double birthday was celebrated this week at the Imperial House, Winter Park by Mrs. William Williams and daughter, Mrs. Stanley Besky. Helping them celebrate at dinner were S. Besky and W. Williams.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Faulk Jr., of Oviedo, announce the birth of a 7 lb. 12 oz. daughter, Aug. 29 at the Winter Park Memorial Hospital.
This is the couple's first child and they have chosen the name, Martha Rachel, for the new arrival.
Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Lundy and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Faulk Sr., all of Oviedo.

Mary Beth Williams Honored At Party On Fifth Birthday

Mary Beth Williams celebrated her fifth birthday with a party, Tuesday afternoon, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Williams, 400 Plumosa Drive. A group of her young friends gathered in the back yard and joyed pony rides, supervised by Paul Morgan. They each fished in a fish pond and received favors of bubble gum, balloons and suckers. It was hard to tell which enjoyed the gift opening ceremony more, Mary Beth or the guests who were watching. Before being served refreshments of cake, ice cream and lemonade the youngsters all sang "Happy Birthday" to the honoree while the candles were burning on her birthday cake decorated like a carousel. Guests included Linda Van Fleet, Judy and Susan Swain, Laura Bracken, Valerie Gramkow, Gail Lee, Sally Mills, Alicia Wright, Janie, Julia and Pamela Reutebuch, Deborah, Frances, Sheralynn and Sylvia Williams, Christy Burney, Margo Carlton, Stacey Olliff, Mark Dyal, Bill Stoudenmire, Johnny and David Terwilliger, Joey Cameron, Tommy McDaniel, Sarah Lee and Randy Roberts, Martha, Lorraine, Karen and Sheila Johnson, Janice Jenkins, Allison, Jeana and Lisa Hughes, George Hugh, Paul and Judy Carlton and Allen, Jack, Garry and Jimmy Tuttle. Adults present were Mrs. George Hughes, Mrs. Hugh Carlton, Mrs. T. J. Williams, Mrs. Bob Tuttle, Mrs. Marion Roberts, Mrs. Kenneth Reutebuch and Mrs. Larry Burney. Assisting Mrs. Williams with the serving and entertaining were Linda Sue and Jane Williams, Sandi Wright and Patty Gina Johnson.

Danny Celebrates Fifth Birthday

Danny Gracey celebrated his fifth birthday with a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gracey, 2551 Palmetto Ave. Two aunts, Mrs. H. D. Whitten and Mrs. Joe Ervin, assisted his mother with the entertaining. The young guests arrived in the afternoon and enjoyed a variety of games. Upon arrival, hats and guns were presented as favors. Refreshments of cake and punch were served by the hostess. The birthday cake was elaborately decorated and topped with a red train. Guests included Terrell, Darrell, Joe and Beverly Ervin, Tony Gale and Deanne Bennett, Therese, Donald and Sharon Whitten, Melanie Coleman and Danny's brothers, Billy and Tommy Gracey.

Herman Horwitz Visiting Fletemeyer Family

Houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fletemeyer at their home on Lemon Bluff this week is Herman Horwitz, of New York City. Herman, who formerly made his home with the Fletmeyers, has visited them many times since they have lived in Sanford. His friends here will be interested to know that he is now holding down three jobs in New York. In addition to a regular job at the Embassy Bridge Club he manages to put in several hours a day at the Carriage Night Club and New York Times building. Before returning home he plans to visit relatives in Jacksonville and Washington, D. C.

Oviedo

Personals

By MARIAN R. JONES
A large group of Oviedoans gathered at Sweetwater Park last Friday evening for a social get-together and a covered dish supper. Mrs. John Courier Jr. and Mrs. Ray Beasley made arrangements for the party. Some of the guests enjoyed swimming, while others just chatted, during the evening.
Mrs. Betty Brown has returned home from the Winter Park Memorial Hospital. She is recuperating from major surgery and reported doing fine.
David, Bobby and Hazel Brown, who stayed with their father, James B. Brown, while their mother was in the hospital, are back home with her again.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fore, of Chuluota, have chosen the name Jesse Ray, for their new son, born Aug. 30.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When there is an office party, the wives are invited, which I think is fine. They always have music for dancing, but my husband spends the entire evening dancing with the boss' wife. He says it makes a big hit with the boss because the boss is then free to have himself a ball with the cute young things. You see, the boss doesn't care to dance with his own wife, and he can't very well leave her sitting while he dances with others. My husband doesn't worry about whether I am sitting alone or dancing. I am all for my husband being well-liked by his boss, but I do not go for this kind of apple-polishing. How should I handle it, Abby? "TWINKLE TOES" WIFE

DEAR MOTHER: Don't worry. The mind of a 12-year-old could be filled with far more worrisome things than horses. It's only a phase. If she still whinnies and trots when she is 18, let me know.

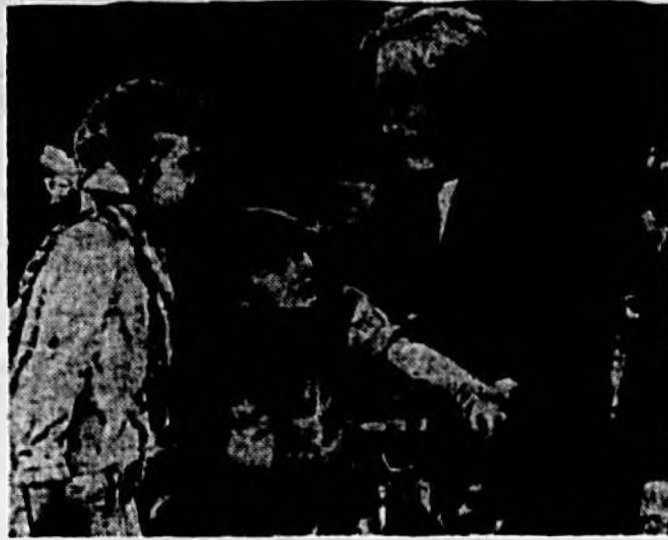

DEAR ABBY: I asked a friend of mine to go shopping with me because I wanted a new dress. She found a very cute one on the sale rack, but instead of turning it over to me, she bought it herself. We wear the same size, and there wasn't another like it in the store. She had no intention of buying a dress until she saw that one. What do you think of a friend like that? It broke up our friendship. NO DRESS

DEAR NO: Your "friend" was either greedy, or extremely thoughtless. But if an incident as petty as that could break up your friendship, it must have been pretty weak in the seams. Next time you go shopping...

CONFIDENTIAL TO SIS: The fault no child ever loses in the one for which he is punished most.

"Are things rough?" Let Abby help you solve your problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send to Box 8365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

Somewhere I read about a new gadget—a small electronic machine—that can be placed in retail stores to "save" on shoppers' opinions of the merchandise offered. If they ever start putting these electronic ears to work in department stores (especially in dressing rooms) they'll learn a lot about women shoppers.

"I think I'll copy the blue dress... the one marked $89.50. I can make it for $15... easy." And they'll get to know the women who try on clothes to kill time. They're hard to please, too—no matter how many dresses a saleswoman brings them.

And the management also will discover the shopper with built-in resistance—the looker who thinks she has had a perfect day's shopping when she has looked at every store in town and hasn't spent a cent. Since "lookers" usually shop in pairs—there'll be lots of conversation to give them away.

And then there are the shoppers who scout the stores at each change of season—not to buy immediately but to "select" what they intend to keep an eye on until it goes on sale.

Men, a good way to recall the little niceties which please a woman is to read "Happier Wives (Hints for Husbands)." Just send 25 cents to Ruth Millet Reader Service, c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 480, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 10, N. Y.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

North would have no trouble making a five club contract since all he would lose would be one trick in each black suit, but the final contract was three no-trump played by South at every table in the duplicate and in every instance West opened the jack of spades.

Bridge score table with columns for NORTH (D), WEST, EAST, and SOUTH, listing card counts and scores.

made the winning play of the queen. This play could only hurt if South held the singleton king and in that case South would not have opening club bid.

Highlights

TV Key Previews

Friday's top shows as previewed and selected by TV Key's staff of experts who attend rehearsals, watch screenings, and analyze scripts in New York and Hollywood.

the Desilu Studios Harrigan Sr. is selected to play a lawyer although he claims that the last movie he saw was Pat O'Brien in "The Fighting 69th." There are some cute spoofs of movie people and O'Brien gets a lot of mileage out of this one as he "goes Hollywood." Allyn Joslyn does well as the "courageous" producer who decides to hire a lawyer to play a lawyer. 8 p.m. ABC Route 66. — "A Skill for Hunting." An exciting episode even though it's forced to depend on a continuous undercurrent of violence to generate suspense. Gene Evans, as just about the meanest villain any writers have contrived this year, plays a vicious man who gets kicks out of hunting, and doesn't care whether he's after game or people. Joanna Moore is fine as his ever loving, and Harold J. Stone plays his business partner. 8:30 p.m. CBS.

Another Test Faces Aid Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Appropriations Committee planned today to put President Kennedy's foreign aid program to another stiff test.

Holy Cross To Offer Teenage Class

Regular Church School classes at Sanford's Holy Cross Episcopal Church will begin Sept. 4 with a full complement of teachers and students for all groups from Grade to High School ages.

ARTHUR M. BECKWITH, JR., Clerk of the Circuit Court By: Martha T. Vihlen, Deputy Clerk

Congress Thursday set a $4.2 billion ceiling on spending for the current fiscal year in approving the foreign aid authorization measure. From his past record, the appropriations committee was expected to recommend cuts of many millions of dollars less than that figure.

The President had wanted—but did not get—authority to borrow money from the Treasury to finance long-term loans to underdeveloped nations.

One of the main reasons Kennedy wanted this long-term borrowing authority was to avoid the economy minded appropriations committee, although he never announced it.

In approving an $11.5 billion authorization bill Thursday, Congress did give the President authority to make loan commitments for five years but required him to seek the necessary appropriations each year.

Other congressional news: Gambling: Sen. John L. McClellan, (D-Ark.), rested his gambling investigators after concluding that Congress should move quickly to put race result flash services out of business.

Red China: Both houses were on record as opposing the admission of Communist China to the United Nations and the granting of U. S. diplomatic recognition to that country.

33 Graduate From Personal Survival Course

Thirty-three graduates received their certificates Monday after completing the necessary requirements of the Personal Survival course conducted by Tom Richey, Seminole County instructor.

The CPO Wives Club, in conjunction with the Adult Education Program and the local Civil Defense Dept. sponsors these classes.

Four consecutive three hour classes were held at Seminole High School, Informative literature, furnished for the course, was given to the students at the end of the four week period.

A. B. Peterson Sr. director of Civil Defense for Seminole County presented the certificates and gave an interesting talk.

Appreciation was shown to Richey when the CPO Wives' Club served cake and coffee to the class.

The cake was made by Mrs. Ralph Almas and decorated by Mrs. F. J. Murray. A CD emblem was pinned on the cake in red, white and blue icing, plus the sincere message:

"Thank You, Tom. Compliments of the CPO Wives' Club." Classes in Personal Survival will continue steadily, as they have since they were first begun last year and the county will be an additional instructor beginning in September.

He is James Hardin, new teacher at Seminole High School, who with Tom Richey will conduct the numerous training classes during the winter.

The next classes to begin will be at the Church of Latter Day Saints for the people of that church and another public class at the high school.

Business Briefs

A new sewing shop, the Sanford Sewing Center has opened at 104 S. Park Ave., with Mrs. Anita L. Culberhouse as proprietor.

Mrs. Culberhouse, the former Anita Carrady, is a native of Sanford and graduated with the 1938 class of Seminole High School.

Before coming to Sanford to open her sewing shop, Mrs. Culberhouse resided in Winter Park and was associated with John-soon's Neechi-Elna of Orlando. She is the mother of two sons, Bill, in the USAF, stationed at Larson Field, Washington, and Tracy, who is employed at Bell's in Orlando.

Mrs. Culberhouse will teach interested persons and new joiners at her shop, specializing in monogramming, blindstitching and machine embroidery, and the operation of the new automatic machines.

She welcomes her old friends as well as new ones to her shop.

Alliance Church To Hear Director

Dr. Joe M. Webber, pathologist and former medical missionary to South Viet Nam, will speak at the Sanford Alliance Church Sunday.

Dr. Webber, now of Columbus, Ga., is a leader in youth activities in the Alliance Church and is the director of a missionary boot camp which is conducted annually in the mountains of northeast Georgia to acquaint young people with the purpose, problems and need of foreign missions the main objective of Christian and Missionary Alliance.

He will show slides made at the camp during the Sunday evening service and on Monday, will speak to the Alliance youth of North Florida during the Labor Day Youth Rally at Lake Swan in Melbourne.

Rev. Charles Dees Jr., pastor of the Sanford Alliance Church, advises that the public is urged to attend the special services at 11 a. m. and at 7 p. m.

A. B. Peterson Sr. director of Civil Defense for Seminole County presented the certificates and gave an interesting talk.

Appreciation was shown to Richey when the CPO Wives' Club served cake and coffee to the class.

The cake was made by Mrs. Ralph Almas and decorated by Mrs. F. J. Murray. A CD emblem was pinned on the cake in red, white and blue icing, plus the sincere message:

"Thank You, Tom. Compliments of the CPO Wives' Club." Classes in Personal Survival will continue steadily, as they have since they were first begun last year and the county will be an additional instructor beginning in September.

He is James Hardin, new teacher at Seminole High School, who with Tom Richey will conduct the numerous training classes during the winter.

The next classes to begin will be at the Church of Latter Day Saints for the people of that church and another public class at the high school.

Coffee Clubbers Honor Stutman

Captain Robert Stutaman, senior medical officer at the Naval Air Station dispensary and his wife, Helene, were honored at the Chamber of Commerce Coffee Club today, by representatives of local official and civic organizations.

Resolutions were read, commending Capt. Stutaman for his work with local Boy Scout organizations, by V-Adm. (ret.) Robert Jackson.

A resolution was also read by John Kridler from the combined officials of the County Commission, City Commission and Chamber of Commerce.

A citation was read and presented to Mrs. Stutaman for her work with the Cancer Society by President of the Seminole County Unit Garnett White.

The Red Cross was represented by Chairman John McClosky who read a letter of commendation and appreciation to Mrs. Stutaman.

Tight Security Mix Rules Relaxed In Atlanta

ATLANTA (UPI) — City officials announced today the first relaxation of tight security around the four public high schools which admitted nine Negro students in peaceful desegregation this week.

Authorities said the Negroes would arrive for class today at the same time as white students at three of the four integrated schools. They had been told to wait until 15 minutes after class began before showing up during the first two days of the transition.

Police will maintain a 24-hour watch on the schools at least until next week, School Supt. John Letson reported.

He added that the Negroes and their parents would be accepted like any other spectators at football games and other school functions this fall.

The scene at the four desegregated schools Thursday was even more peaceful than during Wednesday's end to 100 years of classroom segregation in this capital city.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Atlanta Baptist minister and leader of Southern Negroes in their fight for desegregation, said the city had given "the nation and the world a magnificent demonstration of good faith, good sense and good planning."

City officials, meanwhile, were engaged in legal difficulties over the rapid-fire arrest and jail sentence handed one of four Wednesday's first day of integrated classes.

Attorney James Venable, who handles many cases with racial aspects here, obtained a writ of habeas corpus for Ronald T. Farmer, 18.

DeKalb County Judge Frank Guess set a hearing for late today on the youth's charges that he is being illegally detained at the county stockade.

The petition charged Farmer, sentenced to 60 days in jail for disorderly conduct and carrying a knife, was illegally arrested and in less than an hour tried, convicted and sentenced.

Mayor William B. Hartfield said he was considering clemency for Farmer and three other youths but said no decision would be made until "the emergency is over."

13,200 Slated To Attend Schools Here

Tuesday is the big day for 13,200 boys and girls in Seminole County when the big yellow buses begin to roll and school bells begin to ring.

This year an additional 1,200 or more children will answer the roll call in the 22 Seminole County schools, but only one new school will open its doors.

The heavy influx of new students in the south end of the county will necessitate double sessions for grades one through four at Alamoonte Springs, and mass instruction groups in the fifth and sixth grades there.

Forty-six new teachers will take their places in the county's educational system and the Hopewell Elementary School for Negro children will add 11 new classrooms to the county total.

At Lyman, a new (to this area) plan of teaching as many as 150 students at once is being put into operation for the first time.

The system utilizes visual education aids and uses an overhead movie projector, film strips and accompanying study texts.

School safety patrols, made up of the boys and girls in the school, wearing their safety helmets, and their Sam Browne chest straps and bells, will guard the approaches to the school to help schoolmales across the street at designated points and carry out their proven value as safe conductors for their fellow students.

There will be a new gymnasium at Lyman School and also a new gym at Crooms Academy, bringing these schools up to the standards to other high schools in the area.

In the junior high schools, beginning industrial shops have been set up to provide a general exploratory study of the future utilization of mechanical skills on the part of the students.

This new project is aimed toward developing a trade and industrial school which will eventually go on through the high school level and also be used by adult vocational training classes.

Tardy bells will ring at various times at schools throughout the county with most of the elementary schools beginning at 8 a.m. However some will begin at 8:30 a.m. and the junior high and high schools at about 8:45 a.m.

All buses will run and lunchrooms will be serving on the first day. This will be a full class day of regular classroom work in most schools.

Hurricane Moves Across Open Sea

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane Betsy and her 100 mile an hour winds moved across open sea in the tropical Atlantic today 1,600 miles due east of Cuba.

The season's second hurricane, discovered Saturday night, took an encouraging turn to the northwest Sunday night, a track moving her away from Puerto Rico and the Leeward Islands.

A 3 a. m. advisory from the Miami Weather Bureau centered the storm near latitude 20.6 north, longitude 50.8 west, or about 1,000 statute miles east of San Juan, P. R.

The storm was expected to continue toward the northwest at about 20 miles an hour with little change in size or intensity for the next 12 hours, the advisory said.

Highest winds were estimated at 100 miles an hour near the center. Gales extended 200 miles from the center to the northeast and 75 miles to the southwest.

Before his change of course, Betsy had been following a path ominously similar to that of Hurricane Donna last September. Donna bored across the Atlantic and sliced into the heart of the Florida keys with widespread damage.

Excursion Boat Sinks In Pacific

BOGOTA, Colombia (UPI)—Rescuers worked through early morning darkness today to find out how many persons drowned when a Sunday excursion boat carrying from 200 to 300 persons sank in the Pacific Ocean harbor of Buenaventura.

Port authorities feared that not more than 40 persons were saved, which would put the loss of life in the hundreds, making it Colombia's worst maritime disaster.

At least 60 bodies had been recovered, officials said, but no exact figures were available as to the number of persons aboard.

County Budget Hearing Tuesday

County Commission Chairman J. C. Hutchison will ask the County board at its budget hearing Tuesday to reconsider setting aside additional funds for Civil Defense and putting back in the budget $15,000 for the tax assessor for reappraisal work.

The county board will hold its formal budget hearing at 9:30 a. m.

Hospitalized Commissioner Vernon Dunn told the Herald by telephone this morning also that he wishes the board would change its mind about the need for a warning system in the county and additional funds for the tax assessor.

Dunn, speaking from Orlando Air Force Base Hospital said he would be "out of circulation" for about a month with a minor heart condition.

The district 4 Commissioner was admitted to the hospital last Thursday night and has undergone several tests and medication.

He reported he was feeling fine but, was ordered to "rest."

Dunn urged the board to reconsider needed CD appropriations, tax appraisal work and also the foster home program for the county.

The commission three weeks ago, by a 3-2 majority, turned down CD requests for a skeleton warning system to cost the county around $15,000.

Both Hutchison and Dunn favored the warning system.

Speaking about the new reappraisal work, both Dunn and Hutchison today said that the recent board of equalization hearings points out inequities on the tax roll.

A tentative budget for 1961-62 calls for expenditures of $1,666,050 and a levy of six mills.

General revenue calls for $612,717 and $603,333 road and bridge fund.

The tentative fine and forfeiture allotment is $292,224 and the interest and sinking fund is set at $109,316.

The proposed countywide levy includes 1.8 mills for the general fund; 2.00 mills for road and bridge; .82 mill fine and forfeiture and .63 mill interest and sinking fund.

A .12 mill levy for the county health unit is expected to produce $20,829 and .35 mill for the Seminole Hospital district will bring in $93,461.

Drowning, Accident Mars Weekend Here

A five-year-old Maryland boy visiting the county, was drowned and two persons were hospitalized after a truck-car collision here to mark the Labor Day weekend in Seminole County.

The youngster, Jerald Paul Finch, 5, was drowned in Bear Lake late Saturday afternoon as his parents were visiting friends.

He was found at about 7 p.m. by his sister after he had been missing for 10 minutes.

The Labor Day weekend started off on a bad note Friday afternoon when a semi-trailer and car collided on 25th St. and French Ave.

Mildred Feinberg of Sanford and her six-year-old daughter, Mallory were injured in the mishap with cuts and bruises. The driver of the truck, William Steward of Jacksonville was charged with failure to grant the right of way. Damage to both vehicles was estimated at $1,000.

Labor Day traffic, defying uncertain weather and official pleas to consider every driver a potential death partner, today sped toward a treacherous bumper-to-bumper climax.

Highway carnage mounted by one dead motorist or pedestrian about every 12 minutes on the final day of the 78-hour, three-day holiday weekend. A spate of boating tragedies sent the weekend accidental death toll still higher.

In a plea to keep the road toll below the Labor Day weekend high of 433 set a decade ago, safety officials noted Labor Day traffic would include not only weekend vacationers but also thousands of families motoring home from summer holidays in time for school.

The National Safety Council estimated 420 persons might die in traffic accidents during summer's final weekend. Highway deaths approached the estimate at about five an hour.

It's Safer To Be Way Out

WASHINGTON (UPI)—American astronaut Alan B. Shepard Jr. and Virgil I. (Gus) Grissom have found out that a safe space ride doesn't guarantee a safe ride in a jet plane.

Col. John (Shorty) Powers spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, today confirmed a report that the two successful spacemen had "a little trouble" with a T-33 jet trainer Saturday over Lake Erie.

He said they "made a routine landing at Selfridge" Air Force Base, Mich., Saturday and during a "normal post-flight inspection it was discovered that the engine pitched a bucket." This, he said, was a term for a turbine bucket, "something like a fan blade."

"They didn't declare an emergency while in the air and made a routine landing at Selfridge," Powers said.

But, the spokesman added, "it wasn't something you'd take off with again, so they sat on the ground while it was repaired and took off routinely in the same plane at noon Sunday for Pope AFB, N. C."

Save Peace Appeal Sought By Neutrals

BELGRADE (UPI)—Leaders at the summit conference of unaligned nations today prepared a "save-the-peace" appeal to the big power blocs to seek a truce in the cold war.

Informed sources said the appeal may be made directly to President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev later this week.

With the conference opening its fourth session the foreign ministers were reported at work on a draft of the appeal to be submitted later to the conference for final approval.

Conference leaders were said to have decided on the appeal because of deepening concern over the increased international tensions created by the Berlin crisis and Russia's decision to resume nuclear weapons test.

Nikita Unlikely To Accept Plan

MOSCOW (UPI)—Diplomatic observers said today it was unlikely that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev would accept Western proposals for banning nuclear tests in the atmosphere.

As of early today, there was no public report in Moscow of the joint message to Khrushchev from President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Clashes Reported In Viet Nam

SARIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI)—Government troops and Viet Cong guerrillas clashed in Koutum Province today with heavy casualties, government sources reported.

The sources said at least 100 rebels and 19 government soldiers were reported killed in the fighting in the central highlands.

The forces were said to have met in fierce hand-to-hand combat in the jungle and highland area near the Laotian border.

Reports from Koutum Province said the guerrillas were two heavily armed battalions which had slipped in from Communist North Viet Nam through Laos and had attacked two government outposts at Poko and Thaka three days ago.

Counter Offer

DETROIT (UPI)—The United Auto Workers hoped to get a counter offer from General Motors today by dropping its profit sharing demand and starting preparations to call a strike of 310,000 GM workers if no agreement is reached in two days.

Film Winner

VENICE (UPI)—A controversial, "fourth-dimensional" French film won the top prize Sunday night in the 22nd Venice film festival. The movie was Alain Resnais' "L'Année Dernière à Marienbad," last year in Marienbad, a puzzling story merging the past, present and future.

Bargains Pay Off

Bargains did indeed prove to be the prizes at Friday night's shopping and merchants report that it was the biggest crowd yet seen in town in the new shopping hours.

The crowds were heavy all evening as busy homemakers and wage earners eagerly made their purchases of back to school items.

Some stores were cleaned out of present stocks in many school need items, but promised to have more available right away.

Household needs and supplies came in for a large share of the buying as well as every line of clothing, shoes and new styles, colors, and shapes in fall and winter wardrobes.

Sales specials sparked the bargains as shoppers from all over the county came in to take advantage of the many good buys that were made available and the convenience of being able to shop after hours when families with two wage earners get together to do the weekly buying.

Kennedy Holds Firm Hope Reds Will Back Ban

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (UPI)—President Kennedy holds firm hope that Russia will join in an immediate British-American-Soviet ban on fallout-producing nuclear tests in the atmosphere as a big first step toward worldwide outlawing of such blasts.

This was reported today by authoritative sources. They said the Chief Executive is convinced that France and other countries with present or future atomic capabilities would follow suit if Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev signs the three-power pact proposed Sunday by Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold A. Macmillan.

Kennedy's basic position was summed up by Acting Press Secretary Andrew T. Hatcher, who told newsmen:

"The President's views are that the matter of atmospheric testing is acute to all nations of the world, and should be acted on at once. As more and more nations achieve the ability for atmospheric testing, there is less and less of a chance that an agreement can be reached."

One big question, of course, was whether a multi-nation agreement ultimately would also extend to Communist China, which has been described as trying to develop its own nuclear weapons.
