

CONVENTION OF SECRETARIES IS GREAT SUCCESS

Given at the convention were awarded to Miss Elizabeth D. Quaintance of Lake Wales for her paper on "Relation of Northern Newspapers to Florida" and to Earl Brown of DeLand for his paper on "Motor Camps."

In behalf of the association Karl Lehmann presented to Willis Powell a complete desk outfit and to R. W. Pearman, jr., a handsome silver belt buckle and watch guard. The gifts were presented with words of appreciation of the organization for the untiring efforts of these two officials in behalf of the state body.

At the same time the speaker expressed in glowing terms the thanks of the secretaries for the splendid hospitality that has been accorded the visitors by the Chamber of Commerce and the citizens of this city.

Turning from the grind of convention business to the pleasure of an outing that gave an outlet for a cumulative social enthusiasm that had possessed the delegates during the past two days, the visitors were guests Tuesday afternoon of the Clyde Steamship Line on a sail from Sanford to DeLand on the steamer "City of Jacksonville."

The return trip was made by automobile and included several points of interest en route. Several other guests, residents of Sanford and other places, were also on the outing. This did not mean a total abandonment of work, for after a party of nearly 200 had enjoyed a social hour, followed by a splendid luncheon, they took to the docks for a few minutes but soon returned to hear addresses on advertising and publicity by representatives of metropolitan and Florida papers and several agencies.

Talks were made on beautification of Florida by Karl Lehmann, secretary of the Orange County Chamber of Commerce, and others. Mr. Lehmann urged that the secretaries take steps to have rights of way widened, natural beauty preserved, signs eliminated from the highways and shrubs and flowers planted along the chief roads.

Among the newspaper men who spoke here were W. J. Wheeler of the Brooklyn Eagle; Bill Genung, of the Philadelphia American and Mr. Craig of the Christian Science Monitor. Charles Carr spoke for his agency; Marvin H. Walker for the Thomas agency and R. B. West for Dorland.

WASHINGTON, May 28—Steps were inaugurated by administration today to bring forth some compromise on the farm relief measure which can be passed before the adjournment of congress.

Illness of Judge J. J. Dickinson Prevents Convening of Court

Due to the fact that Judge J. J. Dickinson was confined to his home because of a slight attack of pneumonia, poisoning. Circuit Court did not convene this morning as was scheduled. However, it was learned from the residence of the judge this morning that he would probably be able to preside this afternoon and it is understood that court was to reconvene at 2 o'clock.

Judge Dickinson was taken ill suddenly Monday night. Doctors were summoned and he is said to have rested fairly comfortably during the night, but was still feeling badly this morning. The grand jury finished up its work last night and will make its report at the afternoon session and will be formally discharged by the judge. No cases are likely to be heard before tomorrow morning.

who posed as "George Johnson" were taken into custody Tuesday when the coincidence of his alias and his automobile was called to the attention of the police, but after several hours of questioning it was announced that he had established an alibi and would probably be released.

Reward Now $16,000. A typewriting expert after an exhaustive examination of two notes, each signed "George Johnson" one written to Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy and demanding $10,000 ransom and the other to Chief of Police Collins announcing that the writer was the kidnapper and slayer and intended to commit suicide, said that one note had been written on one make of typewriter and the second on another make. Both were written by expert typists, he said.

Chief Collins announced he personally will give a $1,000 reward for information leading to the apprehension of the slayer, making the total now offered $16,000. A search into a sewer near the home of the instructors for the clothing worn by the boy the day he disappeared, was discontinued late Tuesday when the police said they were satisfied the clue was worthless.

Wisconsin Senator May Be Candidate

WASHINGTON, May 27—Senator LaFollette today virtually announced that he will run for president on an independent ticket unless "the approaching Democratic and Republican conventions demonstrate either of these parties can and will purge itself of the evil influences which have long dominated them."

City Commission Transacts Routine Business Monday

(Continued from page 1.) Commission was read and approved by the commissioners. It was to the effect that the City Planning Commission desired the aid of the city commissioners in making the assessed value of further property as low as possible in order that the extensive building of residences in this city might be encouraged.

On a motion duly seconded and passed the commission ordered that the action of the commission as shown on the minutes of the meeting of March 24, for using lake asphalt on certain streets, be rescinded. The streets in question were: Park Avenue from Tenth Street to Hugher Street, Ninth Street from Oak Avenue to the Atlantic Coast Line Railway station. Several bills were read and approved and the city clerk was authorized to draw checks for same so that they might be paid. There being no further business the commission adjourned.

HAVANA, May 28—The general amnesty bill providing for voiding sentences and fines for a number of minor offenders serving less than six years but not including those convicted of fraud or sedition passed was early today by the Cuban house. variable action on Ford's offer. Assured by western senators of their support in bringing Ford's bid to a vote in the senate, they are laying their plans to get the senate on record as soon as possible. There is a division of opinion as to what fate the Ford bid will meet in the senate.

The vote of the senate agricultural committee came today after public hearings covering six weeks and the committee has considered six separate proposals. Besides the Norris proposal and the Ford bid, the committee heard arguments favoring the Hooker-White-Atterbury offer for co-operative operation between the government and a private corporation; three proposals of the Union Carbide Company providing for the purchase and lease of the property, the Associated Power Company's bid for the leasing of the property and the Lloyd proposal for private operation under direct government supervision.

C., after posing as a wealthy man and negotiating to purchase $175,000 mansion, yacht and auto on personal checks. He was arrested when checks made payable on Jacksonville banks proved worthless. Anderson obtained a leave of absence May 13th going to Jacksonville where it is alleged he procured an auto which was later taken back after his check was returned unpaid. Then it is alleged he bought real estate in Daytona by similar means before coming to Miami.

While here Mr. Spencer was in conference with many friends and supporters.

this state and which prompted him to resign in order to devote his time largely to their prosecution. He stated that he believes that it is time to work along constructive policies as will enable railroads of this country to be relieved of severe restrictions which not only stifle their existence but prevent their future growth; that the state must be bonded and the $5,000,000 received yearly for road work, should be devoted to the support of such an issue; that a tariff should be passed to protect the state's products and industries. For these and other reasons not stated, the West Palm Beach man stated that he felt that he should resign his office.

Washington News

Anti-trust prosecutions were inquired into by the Daugherty committee. The senate Mayfield committee decided to close evidence in the case this week. Royal H. Weller, Democrat, New York, was declared by the house to be entitled to his seat. The senate foreign relations committee's world court plan was formally reported to the senate. The senate agriculture committee reported the Norris bill for government operation of Muscle Shoals.

Jap Foreign Office Voices Deep Regret Japanese Exclusion

TOKIO, May 28—Deep regret that the United States has enacted an immigration bill including a clause barring Japanese is voiced in an official statement issued today by the foreign office. Foreign minister Matsui today asked and obtained the assent of the prince regent as to forwarding Japan's protest against American enactment of immigration bill barring Japanese. The proceedings was extraordinary and interpreted as indicating unusual importance attached to the document.

A CORRECTION

Through an oversight it was stated in connection with a story published in The Herald on Monday that B. J. Overstreet was to be tried during the present term of circuit court on a charge of assault with intent to murder. The name should have been James Goolsby. In justice to Mr. Overstreet, The Herald gladly makes this correction.

AN INSPIRED DEFINITION

To Dedicate Large Auditorium During Confederate Meet

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 28.—An auditorium with a seating capacity of 16,500 will be turned over to the United Confederate Veterans and affiliated organizations when they meet here for their thirty-fourth annual reunion, June 3-6. The building, a municipal auditorium and market place, erected at a cost of approximately $1,500,000 requiring two years of labor, has just been completed and will be formally dedicated during the reunion.

The first formal session will be held June 3, when the Sons of Confederate Veterans, which meet with the old soldiers, hold the opening session of their annual convention. The building, rated as one of the finest of its kind in the United States, covers a square block. The main floor of the auditorium is 100 feet in width and 200 feet in length and has a movable stage.

The market house section on the ground level will be used as a mess hall during the reunion. Complete cooking equipment is being installed and a contract has been let for serving of 16,000 meals, with guest charge, to veterans and guests during their stay. Approximately 2,000 persons can be seated and served at one time.

Dickson-Ives Co. Of Orlando Are Planning Many Improvements

Evincing their belief in the good times ahead for this part of the South, the Dickson-Ives Company of Orlando is making extensive preparation for the coming year's business and have started the program of activities with a series of promotions for this summer, including, as told elsewhere in this paper, the selling out of their complete furniture department's stock.

Following that will come the annual June Clearance Sale of the Orlando firm. Commenting upon the situation, Marion Ives stated that the selling out of the furniture department's entire stock was advance notice of the immense business the firm expected during the coming months. To provide space for the development of other departments this action was necessary and the firm is doing things in its usual quick and decisive manner.

The June Clearance Sale which is also told of in this issue will be an event of more than ordinary magnitude and advance preparation is being made to attend the crowds which annually attend this series of great selling days. Later announcement will be made through these columns of the way in which they will employ this entire third floor which is now occupied with their furniture sale.

Storage Batteries U. S. L. Manufacturing Declared To Be

You frequently hear the statement "Good batteries are all made of the same material." They operate on the same principle and electrical principles are the same results.

"The idea," declares the president of the Sanford Battery Company, "has been the general lack of performance relative to the performance of sufficiently large numbers of batteries of any make. It is the truth, as was proved in a test covering 75,000 miles of making of cars including outstanding merit of USL which was proved in a test of life and owner satisfaction result of notable difference in battery itself."

USL battery plant special material which but USL is allowed to difference between material used only by USL. The finest material battery makers can clear from a description processes by which the chemically active plates (both positive and negative) are made is lead. The process is that of directing a stream upon a pot of extremely lead. The lead becomes which floats on the surface. This is skimmed off, graded, the finest grade suitable for battery use. The particles must be size, with a minimum of which in some samples as high as 10 per cent.

The Real Estate Developers

POINT OUT FACTS—You—having an intelligent mind and can analyze them for profit.

Pioneers in thousands of towns have made money. In each new town development the Doubting Thomases have predicted it would never amount to anything. Then these same Doubting Thomases come right along, after the development has made enormous profits for the pioneer investors, stating the fact that they had the opportunity to buy and make a profit, too; but that they did not have sense enough.

The wise investor buys property ahead of great developments and looks into the future for large profits.

Figure it all out for yourself. Where there is so much smoke there must be some fire.

BITHLO

"The City with a Vision"

The Commercial Center of "Eastern Orange," the largest half of Orange County. Bithlo is the only Town Development in the fast growing "East Orange."

Bithlo is on the Florida East Coast Railroad, where the Orlando-East Coast Boulevard intersects it. This branch railroad extends from New Smyrna to Okeechobee City, a distance of about 150 miles. The road is being extended from Okeechobee to Miami at a cost of millions of dollars and upon completion Bithlo will have a main line railroad.

A 16 foot brick road has just been completed from Bithlo north to the county line, connecting up with a hard-surfaced road into Sanford.

The Orlando-East Coast Boulevard connecting Orlando with Cocoa Beach and Titusville Beach by Bithlo is to be completed about July.

The Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co. are constructing a telephone line from Orlando to the East Coast through Bithlo.

Bithlo is about 9 miles from the St. Johns River, 2 miles from Lake Pickett, affording splendid fishing, and is 18 miles from the East Coast.

Nature provides a natural drainage system for Bithlo in the form of branches and creeks that take all surplus water off as rapidly as it drained from any Florida city.

Bithlo is surrounded by thousands of acres of as rich trucking and general farming land as can be found in Orange county. Many farmers are now preparing land for cultivation.

Approximately 5,000 lots have been sold in Bithlo to approximately three thousand individuals from all parts of America. A percentage of the property owners will surely develop their property.

There are thousands of acres of virgin timbered lands surrounding Bithlo that will be turpintined and sawmilled.

Bithlo is suburban to no other city and is so situated as to best serve Eastern Orange County, being 18 miles East of Orlando, 21 miles west of Titusville, 40 miles south of New Smyrna, 100 miles north of Okeechobee.

Bithlo is an incorporated municipality, having two miles of paved streets. The Town has voted a Bond Issue for paving 4 1-4 miles of additional paved streets this summer.

Improvements mean that real estate will advance, hence profits to the investors.

Allow us to show Bithlo to you without expense or obligation. Then you are in position to judge of our investment opportunities.

Bible Thought for Today: THE OMNISCIENT GUIDE: The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord.—Psalm 37:23.

On the Life of Man: Likened to the falling of a star, Or as the lights of eagles are, Or like the fays' apparitions gaudy hue, Or ever drops of morning dew, Or like a wind that chafes the flood, Or bubbles which on water stoop, Even such is man, whose borrowed light Is straight called in and paid to-night.

Thursday, an important day.

There were some capable men who should be elected to office.

Florida will be added to the McAdoo column next Tuesday.

What will there be to talk about after election?

"Pay-Up Week" will soon be here.

When does work begin on bulkheading the lake and on constructing the new boulevard?

These hot days make business good for those stores handling electricals. The ice man is a popular visitor, also.

Why not a winter retreat for Lakewood? It would bring many tourists to Sanford and help advertise "The City Substantial."

From all the political predictions being made, we cannot help but think some candidate will be greatly disappointed next Wednesday.

Sales of property for delinquent taxes will be held at the court house Monday. Those who have failed to pay their taxes had better get busy. The county tax list is published in the Weekly Herald.

Saturday night political candidates will wind up their campaign with a big meeting at the front of the Sanford Herald's office. The biggest crowd of the entire campaign will probably greet the speakers that night.

The forty-story Jewelers' building in Chicago is to have parking space on all of the lower twenty-three floors for tenants' autos. Powerful elevators will be used in taking the machines up and down. The time is coming when all cities will have buildings of this kind.

At twenty-five cents per car, the bridge across the St. Johns should be making big profits. Traffic on the main road going north is getting heavier each day. It is only a matter of time before a new bridge or causeway will be absolutely necessary.

Stenographers who think pounding a typewriter is a big job should try operating the kind they have over in China. A typewriting machine invented by a Chinese student and manufactured in Japan contains 3,228 characters. An experienced operator can write with a speed as great as seventy words per minute.

According to the output of factories American smokers are using one hundred forty cigarettes for every hundred used two years ago. A slump in the use of cigars and pipe tobacco has been noted. Statistics show that fifty cigarettes a month are being manufactured for every man, woman and child in this country.

The business men of the city are behind Pay-Up Week. They are co-operating in the movement and believe that business conditions will be greatly improved by a campaign of this character. The week ending May 31 should see many additional dollars put in circulation in Sanford, and this will mean even greater prosperity for the people of this section.

Did you ever see the person who calls over the telephone? He believes that he must raise his voice and shout at the other end of the line in order to be understood. He is startled when he starts to speak and when he has finished his customer explanation, he says: "Right you see, a very important call."

America Should "Go Crazy" On This.

"America is a country of outdoors. It has the mountains, the lakes, the rivers, all the wonderfully diversified beauties of landscape, of air and sky and land. Millions of Americans go gipsying every year. Week-end trips, and vacations of a day or two swell the multitude that are living outdoors some of the time. All of these are adding to the general sum of health and happiness."

That is part of a fine editorial published by the Omaha Bee in support of President Coolidge's plan "to co-ordinate under Federal guidance all activities in behalf of outdoor recreation,"—a timely proposition, which is arousing nationwide discussion.

Naturally enough, the president's appointment of a national policy committee on out-of-door life and his strong appeal for programs that will make out-of-door pleasures possible for people who could not have them without assistance are taken for political ammunition by many Democratic newspapers. Coming "jes" before election, his plan is not going to be considered upon its merits alone. But even the criticism and the opposition will be good for the cause of out-of-door recreation. Every newspaper that lambasts or ridicules the Coolidge plan takes pains to advocate in its own way the value of "fresh air."

"Millions of Americans go gipsying every year," says the Omaha paper. And don't you like that way of saying it? Doesn't it bring to your mind the happiest kind of vacation? Out in the open, under the stars, the silent forest near and the lapping waters of the little brook drowsily crooning your lullaby—just gipsying with all the cares of the world left behind. It would be worth everything to America if its people could be inoculated with the out-door fever. We need to "go crazy" on the subject for awhile.

Many Fires Can Be Prevented.

We don't stop to think very often just how great a fire can be caused by the careless handling of a match. Seldom does a fire start from the match thrown on the floor. The more the average person handles fire the more careless he seems to get.

Statistics are sometimes tiresome reading but as a rule they tell us a lot. They say now that fire losses in the United States totaled five hundred, eight million dollars last year. Seventy-five percent of all these fires could have been prevented.

The fire losses of 1923 were greater than in any year since the San Francisco catastrophe, says Harry A. Smith, president of the National Board of Fire Underwriters. "Our wealth of today will surely be affected if we do not, as a nation, dam this annual waste. No country, however rich on created wealth, can continue to support such an enormous drain on its resources."

No person can be too careful about fire. Too great caution cannot be taken to prevent fire. Many serious fires costing huge sums of money have been caused by the careless smoker who recklessly has thrown his match, or his cigarette, or his cigar, around.

Three-fourths of all the fires of last year could have been prevented. People should be careful how they play with fire. The exercising of greater care will materially reduce the preventable fire loss.

Sanford must not have any more big fires. Its experience with them in the past has been too unpleasant.

William Jennings Bryan, one of Florida full of confidence that he will be selected as one of the delegates-at-large from this state to the Democratic national convention. On his trip Mr. Bryan visited every county in the state except two and spoke to a vast number of people, for everywhere large crowds turned out to hear him. Mr. Bryan speaks with as much force and conviction before a handful of people in a country town as before a vast assemblage and there is no doubt that he won many votes for himself. Florida would be doing herself an injustice by failing to send her greatest Democrat to represent her at New York next month.—Vero Press.

IT IS CHIEFLY through books that we enjoy intercourse with superior minds, and these invaluable means of communication are in reach of all. In the best books, great men talk to us, give us their most precious thoughts, and pour their souls into ours.—Channing.

ALL THE TEN-TON-ONERS were in the rear, and a dark horse, which had never been thought of, and which the careless St. James had never even observed in the list, rushed past the grandstand in sweeping triumph.—Disraeli.

MC ADOO HOPE OF PROGRESSIVES JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL

William G. McAdoo is the hope of Progressives in the coming campaign.

If the Democrats nominate any other man at New York they will peril the cause of forward-looking government administered in the interest of the masses and free from Mellonized influences or the presence of the Denbys, Falls, Daughortys and Forbes.

The Republican party is committed irrevocably to reactionary government. It will re-nominate Calvin Coolidge who leads wholly spot Conservatives for guidance.

If the Democrats nominate a Conservative the cause of Progressive government is doomed. If they nominate an unknown or half-way exponent of Progressivism that candidate will go into the campaign under a gigantic handicap and the cause of better government will suffer.

If the Democrats nominate a Reactionary the third party will boom under LaFollette with the result that the next election will be thrown into the house of representatives where almost anything may happen.

A Reactionary candidate would not receive a vote above the Mason and Dixon line. The Republican party has a monopoly on Reactionism.

The issue is defined. It is Progressivism against Reaction. Progressivism cannot triumph through divided forces. It must attract to itself under one banner every believer. It must win the Progressives of the Republican party. It must forestall a third party and meet the common foe with united forces. To do anything else is to court certain defeat.

There is one outstanding figure who can merge the Progressive forces. He will spike the third party. All Progressives will rally to him. The issue will be clear-cut in November. That man is McAdoo recognized by the very opposition to him as the leading Progressive candidate in the entire list of entrants. His position is unequivocal and uncompromising. Florida's duty to support him is urgent.

POLITICS IS TROUBLESOME, each "leading candidate" is disturbed and threatened by other leading candidates.

McAdoo has most votes. Al Smith's friends say they have enough to prevent McAdoo's nomination and that they will go no.

MADDOO SAYS if he do he will throw his votes to Glass, that Southern dark horse.

Rafston emerges from the shadow of dignity to say that he is no enemy of the rich, would not, oppress wealth. On the other hand, he is the loving friend of the poor man. Poverty may trust him, wealth need not fear him. What can you ask more than that?

AL SMITH, Tammany Hall candidate, and at present actual leader of Tammany Hall, is disturbed by rows and riots inside that ancient organization.

District Leader Curry, backer of Al Smith, says nobody must be made leader of Tammany that could be eligible to the Ku-Klux Klan.

Another district leader says Leader Curry seeks to stir up the "religious question."

F. D. ROOSEVELT, Al Smith's manager, impolitely described by his cousin, Theodore Roosevelt, the Second, as "a maverick" Roosevelt, lacking the family brand, brings news that the west is rapidly returning to Al Smith as a "real leader." That will interest many Democrats in the west.

MEANWHILE Coolidge has his nomination killed, dressed and hung up in cold storage. His only trouble is the selection of a vice-president.

W. J. Bryan peeps from the beautiful pines, flowers and coccinellid trees in Florida to remark that "Coolidge would like to take a radical vice-president because that would get him votes."

But Coolidge is mortal, and Wall Street, according to Mr. Bryan, won't run the risk of letting Coolidge nominate any radical vice-president for fear he might become a real president.

REBECCA WEST, an intelligent young English writer, back in London, tells of a judge in the Middle West "who danced the tango with passion rarely exhibited in public places. And afterward gave me a wonderful cocktail made of brandy of white fire out of silver flash, the size of the Oscar Cup. At his invitation she sat on the bench with him next day and saw him fine a negro woman, 75 years old, $50 for carrying a pint bottle of moonshine whiskey. She presents that as a sample of our 'respect for law.'"

IT SURPRISES Miss West to know that Chicago, "one-third the size of London, has three hundred murders a year." Everywhere in the United States there are too many murders. Chicago is busy with the murder of a kidnapped boy. New York unravels the mystery of a woman murdered in a Ford sedan on Staten Island. Boston investigates the murder of Louise Gerlach, a 15-year-old school teacher.

"Yellow Charleston," a pulpitist, contributes his item by murdering two negroes, one "Baron" Wilkins. He gives himself up, "fearing to be torn to pieces by negro friends of Wilkins."

To many murders, too much bootleg whiskey, too much contempt for law trouble this country.

IT WOULD horrify you to read about a female gorilla capturing a young girl, skinning her, to use the skin as sandals. That never happened. But European ladies are having sandals made of the "soft and pliable" skin of monkeys, guaranteed not to "squeak." In gorilla that would shock us. It's all right for a lady.

ANOTHER warning for fools. Samuel Brown had read about some "other cases," but that didn't frighten him. He is dead now with a bullet in his stomach. The police found him in a hotel with young woman who called herself "Mrs. Brown." The real Mrs. Brown had been told her husband was away collecting bills. He was collecting trouble.

THE YOUNG lady accused calmly smoked her cigarette and said to the police: "Fix him up." The widow says "He got what he deserved." It's a short story often repeated, and it will not be a warning to other fools.

A PRESIDENT of the Santa Fe, now dead, said the three great words in all big success are: ORGANIZE, DEPUTIZE, SUPERVISE.

Get the thing started, find men to run it your way, after you get it going, then supervise the men to make sure they are doing the work, while you get something else going.

ANOTHER RAILROAD man, F. D. Underwood, whose stock is "going up," indicates that he knows his business, says to his men: "Let me know about complaints, never mind the compliments. You can attend to them. I want to see that the complaints are looked after."

"YOU WILL hear it said, 'Don't let the boss say bad news. It will be his dislike the man that tells him.' You're right. The painting of the tyrant killing the messenger is a common sight."

Did you ever see the person who calls over the telephone? He believes that he must raise his voice and shout at the other end of the line in order to be understood. He is startled when he starts to speak and when he has finished his customer explanation, he says: "Right you see, a very important call."

THE NIGHTMARE

SIGNATURES BY TELEGRAPH PALM BEACH POST

There have been many jokes told about the "old codger" refusing telegrams from his wife because he knew it was not his signature on the message, but sending signals by wire now is an established fact. It is being done. More than that, photographs are being sent by wire, and within ten minutes after a photograph is "filed" for sending it can be received a thousand miles away and be on the way to the engraving shop to appear in some newspaper a few minutes later.

Transmission of both photographs and handwriting between Cleveland and New York was accomplished recently over long distance telephone wires in a demonstration by laboratory experts of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. The method was described by officials as "simple, accurate and rapid." It is to be installed on the company's various long-distance lines. It was announced, in accordance with the demand which arises for this type of service.

Actual transmission showed that photographs could be transmitted and made ready for producing newspaper plates within ten minutes from the time the original photograph was placed on the transmitting machine, and that messages in handwriting also were transmitted, the copy received being a facsimile of the original message.

It has been announced before that photographs could be transmitted by wire, but this is the first time that such an announcement has come from so reliable an institution as the great telephone company. It soon may be that wives and sweethearts will be receiving love letters clear across the continent within a few minutes after they are written—that is, of course, if husbands and sweethearts get to their wives.

Dorothy Haines Gives Vacation Party For Many Little Friends

Sanford is always interested in the pleasurable affairs of the younger society set, each occasion seeming more jolly than the last and especially worthy of mention. Little Miss Dorothy Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haynes, entertained a number of her little friends Tuesday evening at her home on Cameron Avenue.
A profusion of garden flowers were used in decorating. Red and white petunias and nasturtiums and green fern with the color scheme, red, white and green, was carried throughout even to the most minute detail.
During the evening games of all kinds were enjoyed. The contest of pinning the door to the school house caused much fun and merriment. Marguerite Garner won a bottle of perfume for the girls and John Terwilliger a book for the boys for pinning the door the nearest to the proper place.
Music was furnished during the evening on the Victrola and Mrs. Haynes rendered several selections on the piano for the pleasure of the young crowd.
Candies were placed about the room so that all could help themselves at will. Centering a small table in the dining room was a large pyramid from which the boys drew red ribbons and the girls white ribbons and at the end was a surprise comic favor for each one present. Here great fun was had.
Before departing all the little folks had to have their fortune told so they were blindfolded and allowed to cut red hearts from a white line and each heart contained a fortune, told in verse, of their future.
At a reasonable hour brick ice cream in red and white was served with wafers. Assisting Mrs. Haynes in serving was Miss Alice Chorpentin.
Enjoying this most elaborate vacation party were Mary Alice Shipp, Juanita McMullen, Margaret Giles, Carmen Guthrie, Marguerite Garner, Pauline Haines, Alice Chorpentin, Catherine Long, E. Cameron, Joseph Cravatt, John Irvin, Roscoe Wallace, James Robertson, Donald Dunn, Vernon Priest, Sam Dunn, Dorothy and Marian Haynes.

Delightful Program Enjoyed by W. M. U. Of the Baptist Church

The W. M. U. of the Baptist Church held their regular monthly program meeting at the church, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The attendance was good in spite of the hot weather and about fifty ladies turned out.
The occasion was particularly of interest because of the program delightfully carried out by the Pipe Organ Club of the Baptist Church. The subject of the meeting was "The Sisterhood of South America." The program was as follows:
Song—"When I Survey the Wondrous Cross."
Prayer—Mrs. Volle Williams
Paper—"America" Mrs. Savage
Paper—"The Influence of Women of the Americas."
Piano Solo—"Abide With Me" Mrs. Kent Rossiter
Paper—"Mrs. Schelles Mairnes"
Paper—"In two parts"—The New Women in South America (first part) Mrs. Margaret Harris; (second part) Mrs. A. M. Phillips.

Epworth League Picnic
A delightful lake picnic was enjoyed Tuesday night by the Senior members of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church. Amusement in the way of swimming and promading provided a delightful time which was finished up with a round of refreshments in the way of a picnic supper on the lake front. Quite a number enjoyed the trip and the evening altogether was a most pleasant one.
Among those motoring to Lake Mary to take part at this picnic were Misses Selma Thornley, Lila Thornley, Lillian Thornley, Thelma

Methodist Women At Interesting Meeting

An interesting meeting of Circle No. 5 of the Methodist Church was held at the home of Mrs. G. A. Radford on France Avenue, Tuesday afternoon.
Mrs. J. D. Parker, chairman of this circle, was present and called the meeting to order, several matters of business were attended to and there was instruction and other work, in addition a letter of appreciation and thanks was read from the Orphanage at Enterprise, where these ladies made a visit not long ago, carrying blankets, candies and other things.
The Enterprise Orphanage is quite a remarkable institution. They even have a little printing outfit where they print a little paper all their own and in which they publish all their happenings and letters of thanks and so forth. It is well worth a visit over to see what these fatherless and motherless children are doing, but they are by no means homeless for they have a wonderful home right on the lake front, where many good times are had together.
The circles will continue meeting throughout the summer. Members present at this meeting spent a very pleasant afternoon.

ON THE LIFE OF MAN: Like the falling of a star, Or like the lights of eagles, Or like the fresh spring's gaudy hue, Or like the drops of morning dew, Or like a wind that chafes the flood, Or bubbles which on water float, Or such as man, whose borrowed light is straight called in and paid to-night, The wind blows out, the bubble dies, The spring entombed in autumn lies, The dew dries up, the star is shot, The flight is past—and man forgot.—Henry King.

There are some capable men who should be elected to office. Florida will be added to the McAdoo column next Tuesday. What will there be to talk about after election? "Pay-Up Week" will soon be here. When does work begin on bulkheading the lake and on constructing the new boulevard? These hot days make business men for those handling electrical work.

Why not a winter retreat for the Lake Monroes? It would bring many tourists to Sanford and help advertise "The City Substantial." From all the political predictions being made, we cannot help but think some candidate will be greatly disappointed next Wednesday.

Sales of property for delinquent taxes will be held at the court house Monday. Those who have failed to pay their taxes had better get busy. The county tax list is published in the Weekly Herald. Saturday night political candidates will wind up their campaign with a big meeting in front of the Sanford Herald's office. The biggest crowd of the entire campaign will probably greet the speakers that night.

The forty-story Jeweler's building in Chicago is to have parking space on all of the lower twenty-three floors for tenants' autos. Powerful elevators will be used in taking the machines up and down. The time is coming when all cities will have buildings of this kind. At twenty-five cents per car, the bridge across the St. Johns should be making big profits. Traffic on the main road going north is getting heavier each day. It is only a matter of time before a new bridge or causeway will be absolutely necessary.

Stenographers who think pounding a typewriter is a big job should try operating the kind they have over in China. A typewriting machine invented by a Chinese student and manufactured in Japan contains 3,228 characters. An experienced operator can write with a speed as great as seventy words per minute. According to the output of factories American smokers are using one hundred forty cigarettes for every hundred used two years ago. A stamp in the tube of cigars and a stamp in the tube of cigarettes and a stamp in the tube of cigars and a stamp in the tube of cigarettes.

Did you ever see the person who took over the telephone? He beamed over the beam, his voice as clear as the morning when the sun is in the sky, and he said to the man who had just taken over the line, "What do you want to do?"

America Should "Go Crazy" On This.

"America is a country of outdoors. It has the mountains, the lakes, the rivers, all the wonderfully diversified beauties of landscape, of air and sky and land. Millions of Americans go gipsying every year. Week-end trips, and vacations of a day or two swell the multitude that are living outdoors some of the time. All of these are adding to the general sum of health and happiness."

That is part of a fine editorial published by the Omaha Bee in support of President Coolidge's plan "to co-ordinate under Federal guidance all activities in behalf of outdoor recreation,"—a timely proposition, which is arousing nationwide discussion.

Naturally enough, the president's appointment of a national policy committee on out-of-door life and his strong appeal for programs that will make out-of-door pleasures possible for people who could not have them without assistance are taken for political ammunition by many Democratic newspapers. Coming "jes" before election, his plan is not going to be considered upon its merits alone. But even the criticism and the opposition will be good for the cause of out-of-door recreation. Every newspaper that lambasts or ridicules the Coolidge plan takes pains to advocate in its own way the value of "fresh air."

"Millions of Americans go gipsying every year," says the Omaha paper. And don't you like that way of saying it? Doesn't it bring to your mind the happiest kind of vacation? Out in the open, under the stars, the silent forest near and the lapping waters of the little brook drowsily crooning your lullaby—just gipsying with all the cares of the world left behind. It would be worth everything to America if its people could be inoculated with the out-door fever. We need to "go crazy" on the subject for awhile.

Many Fires Can Be Prevented.

We don't stop to think very often just how great a fire can be caused by the careless handling of a match. Seldom does a fire start from the match thrown on the floor. The more the average person handles fire the more careless he seems to get.

Statistics are sometimes tiresome reading but as a rule they tell us a lot. They say now that fire losses in the United States totaled five hundred eight million dollars last year. Seventy-five percent of all these fires could have been prevented.

The fire losses of 1923 were greater than in any year since the San Francisco catastrophe, says Harry A. Smith president of the National Board of Fire Underwriters. "Our wealth of today will surely be affected if we do not, as a nation, dam this annual waste. No country, however rich on created wealth, can continue to support such an enormous drain on its resources."

No person can be too careful about fire. Too great caution cannot be taken to prevent fire. Many serious fires costing huge sums of money have been caused by the careless smoker who recklessly has thrown his match, or his cigarette, or his cigar, around.

Three-fourths of all the fires of last year could have been prevented. People should be careful how they play with fire. The exercising of greater care will materially reduce the preventable fire loss.

Sanford must not have any more big fires. Its experience with them in the past has been too unpleasant.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN has returned from a tour of Florida full of confidence that he will be selected as one of the delegates-at-large from this state to the Democratic national convention. On his trip Mr. Bryan visited every county in the state except two and spoke to a vast number of people, for everywhere large crowds turned out to hear him. Mr. Bryan speaks with as much force and conviction before a handful of people in a country town as before a vast assemblage and there is no doubt that he won many votes for himself. Florida would be doing herself an injustice by failing to send her greatest Democrat to represent her at New York next month.—Vero Press.

IT IS CHIEFLY through books that we enjoy intercourse with superior minds, and these invaluable means of communication are in reach of all. In the best books, great men talk to us, give us their most precious thoughts, and pour their souls into ours.—Channing.

MC ADOO HOPE OF PROGRESSIVES JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL

William G. McAdoo is the hope of Progressives in the coming campaign.

If the Democrats nominate any other man at New York they will perill the cause of forward-looking government administered in the interest of the masses and free from Mellonized influences or the presence of the Denbys, Falls, Daughertys and Forbes.

The Republican party is committed irrevocably to reactionary government. It will re-nominate Calvin Coolidge who is wholly opposed to Conservatism for guidance.

If the Democrats nominate a Conservative the cause of Progressive government is doomed. If they nominate an unknown or half-way exponent of Progressivism that candidate will go into the campaign under a gigantic handicap and the cause of better government will suffer.

If the Democrats nominate a Reactionary the third party will boom under LaFollette with the result that the next election will be thrown into the house of representatives where almost anything may happen.

A Reactionary candidate would not receive a vote above the Mason and Dixon line. The Republican party has a monopoly on Reactionism.

The issue is defined. It is Progressivism against Reaction. Progressivism cannot triumph through divided forces. It must attract to itself under one banner every believer. It must win the Progressives of the Republican party. It must forestall a third party and reset the common foe with united forces. To do anything else is to court certain defeat.

That man is McAdoo recognized by the very opposition to him as the leading Progressive candidate in the entire list of entrants. His position is unequivocal and uncompromising.

Florida's duty to support him is urgent.

MEANWHILE Coolidge has his nomination killed, dressed and hung up in cold storage. His only trouble is the selection of a vice-president.

W. J. Bryan peeps from the beautiful pines, flowers and coconut trees in Florida to remark that "Coolidge would like to take a radical vice-president because that would get him votes."

But Coolidge is mortal, and Wall Street, according to Mr. Bryan, won't run the risk of letting Coolidge nominate any radical vice-president for fear he might become a real president.

REBECCA WEST, an intelligent young English writer, back in London, tells of a judge in the Middle West who danced the tango with passion rarely exhibited in public places. And afterward gave me a wonderful cocktail made of brand of white fire out of silver flask of the size of the Oscar Gue. At his invitation she sat on the bench with him next day and saw him fine a negro woman, 37 years old, $50 for carrying a pint bottle of moonshine whiskey. She presents that as a sample of our "respect for law."

IT SURPRISES Miss West to know that Chicago, "one-third the size of London, has three hundred murders a year." Everywhere in the United States there are too many murders. Chicago is busy with the murder of a kidnapped boy. New York unravels the mystery of a woman murdered in a Ford sedan on Staten Island. Boston investigates the murder of Louise Gerriah, a 19-year-old school teacher.

"Yellow Charleston," a mulatto, contributes his item by murdering two negroes, one "Baron" Wilkins. He gives himself up, "fearing to be torn to pieces by negro friends of Wilkins."

Too many murders, too much bootleg whiskey, too much contempt for law trouble this country.

IT WOULD horrify you to read about a female gorilla capturing a young girl, skinning her, to use the skin as sandals. That never happened. But European ladies are having sandals made of the "soft and pliable" skin of monkeys, guaranteed not to "squeak." In a gorilla that would shock us. It's all right for a lady.

ANOTHER warning for fools. Samuel Brown had read about some "other cases," but that didn't frighten him. He is dead now with a bullet in his stomach. The police found him in a hotel with a young woman who called herself "Mrs. Brown." The real Mrs. Brown had been told her husband was away collecting bills. He was collecting trouble.

THE YOUNG lady accused calmly smoked her cigarette and said to the police: "Fix him up." The widow says "He got what he deserved." It's a short story often repeated, and it will not be a warning to other fools.

A PRESIDENT of the Santa Fe, now dead, said the three great words in all big success are: ORGANIZE, DEPUTIZE, SUPERVISE.

Get the thing started, find men to run it your way, after you get it going, then supervise the men to make sure they are doing the work, while you get something else going.

ANOTHER RAILROAD man, F. D. Underwood, whose stock is "going up," indicates that he knows his business, says to his man: "Let me know about complaints, never mind the compliments. You can attend to them. I want to see that the complaints are looked after."

YOU WILL hear it said, "Don't tell the boss a bad news." It makes him dislike the man that tells him. You remember the painting of the trait, killing the king? Don't you say a thing to the boss unless it's good news.

THE NIGHTMARE

SIGNATURES BY TELEGRAPH PALM BEACH POST

There have been many jokes told about the "old codger" refusing telegrams from his wife because he knew it was not his signature on the message, but sending signatures by wire now is an established fact. It is being done. More than that, photographs are being sent by wire, and within ten minutes after a photograph is "filed" for sending it can be received a thousand miles away and be on the way to the engraving shop to appear in some newspaper a few minutes later. Transmission of both photographs and handwriting between Cleveland and New York was accomplished recently over long distance telephone wires in a demonstration by laboratory experts of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. The method was described by officials as "simple, accurate and rapid." It is to be installed on the company's various long-distance lines, it was announced, in accordance with the demand which arises for this type of service. Actual transmission showed that photographs could be transmitted and made ready for producing newspaper plates within ten minutes from the time the original photograph was placed on the transmitting machine, and that messages in handwriting also were transmitted, the copy received being a facsimile of the original message. It has been announced before that photographs could be transmitted by wire, but this is the first time that such an announcement has come from so reliable an institution as the great telephone company. It soon may be that wives and sweethearts will be receiving love letters clear across the continent within a few minutes after they are written—that is, of course, if husbands write love letters to their wives.

Dorothy Haines Gives Delightful Program

Vacation Party For Many Little Friends

Sanford is always interested in the pleasurable affairs of the younger society set, each occasion seeming more jolly than the last and especially worthy of mention. Little Miss Dorothy Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haines, entertained a number of her little friends Tuesday evening at her home on Cameron Avenue. A profusion of garden flowers were used in decorating. Red and white petunias and nasturtiums and green fern with the color scheme, red, white and green, was carried throughout even to the most minute detail. During the evening games of all kinds were enjoyed. The contest of pinning the door to the school house caused much fun and merriment. Marguerite Garner won a bottle of perfume for the girls and John Terwilliger a book for the boys for pinning the door to the nearest to the proper place. Music was furnished during the evening on the Victrola and Mrs. Haines rendered several selections on the piano for the pleasure of the young crowd. Candles were placed about the room so that all could help themselves at will. Centering a small table in the dining room was a large pyramid from which the boys drew red ribbons and the girls drew white ribbons and at the end was a surprise comic favor for each one present. Here great fun was had. Before departing all the little folks had to have their fortune told so they were blindfolded and allowed to cut red hearts from a white line and each heart contained a fortune, told in verse, of their future. At a reasonable hour brick ice cream in red and white was served with wafers. Assisting Mrs. Haines in serving was Miss Alice Chorpentin. Enjoying this most elaborate vacation party were Mary Alice Shipp, Juanita McMullen, Margaret Giles, Carmen Guthrie, Marguerite Garner, Pauline Haines, Alice Chorpentin, Catherine Long, E. Cameron, Joseph Cravatt, John Irvin, Roscoe Wallace, James Robertson, Donald Dunn, Vernon Priest, Sam Dunn, Dorothy and Marian Haines.

Methodist Women At Interesting Meeting

An interesting meeting of Circle No. 5 of the Methodist Church was held at the home of Mrs. G. A. Sanford on France Avenue, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. D. Parker, chairman of this circle, was present and called the meeting to order, several matters of business were attended to and there was instruction and other work. In addition a letter of appreciation and thanks was read from the Orphanage at Enterprise, where these ladies made a visit not long ago, carrying blankets, candies and other things. The Enterprise Orphanage is quite a remarkable institution. They even have a little printing outfit where they print a little paper all their own and in which they publish all their happenings and letters of thanks and so forth. It is well worth a visit over to see what these fatherless and motherless children are doing, but they are by no means homeless for they have a wonderful home right on the lake front, where many good times are had together. The circles will continue meeting throughout the summer. Members present at this meeting spent a very pleasant afternoon.

Epworth League Picnic
A delightful lake picnic was enjoyed Tuesday night by the Senior members of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church. Amusement in the way of swimming and promenading provided a delightful time, which was finished up with a round of refreshments in the way of a picnic supper on the lake front. Quite a number enjoyed the trip and the evening altogether was a most pleasant one. Among those motoring to Lake Mary to take part at this picnic were Misses Selma Thornley, Lila Thornley, Lillian Thornley, Thelma
