Geneva Woman Held In Shooting Of Boyfriend

By Susan Loden
Herald Staff Writer

A 29-year-old Geneva woman was being held in lieu of $8,000 bond today charged with aggravated battery and use of a firearm in the shooting of her live-in boyfriend who was in serious condition, hospitalized in Sanford with a chest wound.

Wounded is Jerry Carlyle Kendall, 32. Charged in the shooting is Carol Conant Henderson. The shooting occurred at their home at P.O. Box 560 Cochran Road, at about 1:30 a.m. today following several hours of arguing between the pair, both of whom had reportedly been drinking.

Witness George Kendall, Jr., 34, of Crawfordville, Fla., brother of the victim, told sheriff's investigator Billy Lee about the alleged arguing and drinking of whiskey at the home.

George Kendall said at one point Ms. Henderson left her home and returned because her car got stuck.

George Kendall said that during the evening Ms. Henderson had allegedly gotten close to the Fire Victims Sue Sanford, Housing Board

Parents of a toddler killed in a fire the day after Christmas in a Sanford public housing apartment have filed suit in circuit court seeking apartment maintenance records and permission to inspect the fire-gutted home.

Karen and Lee Bradley, 69 Lake Monroe Terrace, filed suit against the Sanford Housing Authority, the city of Sanford, and Interstate Fire and Casualty Company of Chicago, the authority's insurer.

Elliott Smith, executive director of the housing authority, was unavailable for comment early today.

Lee Antwon Bradley, 3, was rushed by police car to Central Florida Regional Hospital after the fire but did not survive. A 2-year-old brother, Brandon Lee Bradley, found upstairs in the apartment, is being treated for smoke inhalation at Shands Teaching Hospital in Gainesville. He was in fair condition today.

The elder Bradley suffered deep cuts on his arms trying to break windows at the apartment after jumping from its second floor when the fire broke out. Mrs. Bradley, holding their 10-month-old daughter, Crystal, also made the approximately 25-foot jump to safety. They were treated and released from the hospital.

"There is a serious question as to the condition of the apartment, smoke alarm assembly and maintenance records of the Sanford Housing Authority," states the suit.

"The plaintiffs desire permission to enter the premises with their lawyers and experts for inspection and to have the premises secured to prevent removal, destruction or alteration of evidence so that plaintiffs, attorneys and experts engaged by them ... will be able to inspect, photograph, and test the appliances and electric system of the apartment and the maintenance records of the authority pertained to same."

The Bradleys want the record turned over to Circuit Judge Kenneth M. Leffler by 4 p.m. Jan. 28. The suit states any destruction or alteration of the records would do irreparable harm to the Bradleys' case.

While Smith earlier told the Sanford Herald housing authority apartments' smoke detectors are inspected annually, they are not included on an authority's apartment check list.

Request 'Premature'

McClanahan Wants 10% Staff Cutback

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

Sanford's old and new regimes clashed Monday, when a former city commissioner who is now back in office called for the city's budget and work force to be cut next year by 10 percent.

A.A. McClanahan said the cuts could be made without adversely affecting necessary municipal services and operations. City Manager Frank Faison disagreed.

Faison's position was supported by Commissioner Bob Thomas. "There are still streets in this city that haven't been paved and we haven't come close to reaching our full growth potential," Thomas said. "To cut back now just doesn't make sense to me."

Faison works up the annual budget from department funding requests then presents it to commissioners for review during the summer. Mayor Bettye Smith told Faison Monday to keep McClanahan's sentiments in mind as an "admonition" during this year's preparation.

After the commission work session the mayor called McClanahan's proposal to reduce the $16 million budget "premature" and also said she did not want to see any of the city's 343 employees let go.

McClanahan said 74 of these employees have been hired since 1985, when three new commissioners took office. The city's two other commissioners, McClanahan and Eckstein, were sworn in earlier this month.

As a result of McClanahan's proposal, this year's budget preparation will require administrative staff to come in with options commissioners can review to gauge where cuts can be made with the least impact. This course of action was agreed to by McClanahan, Mrs. Smith and Faison as follow-up to McClanahan's initial request to "give staff a number (10 percent) to stay under."

Commissioner Whitely Eckstein said

he'd wait until the options and proposed budget are presented before taking a position regarding any parings.

"I don't want to hurt existing services, but I will be looking very closely at possible cuts," Eckstein said.

The city's fifth commissioner, John Mercer, was not present for the work session.

McClanahan's call for the reductions came as Faison was reviewing this year's budget preparation schedule. Faison said "given the momentum" of existing programs, such as street paving, wastewater disposal and a computer software system at city hall, "with cuts, we're going to be strapped when we want to go forward."

Sanford decreased taxes by 22 cents in October when the 1986-87 budget was adopted. This year's budget is $2.2 million higher than last year's. The 1985-86 budget was adopted with a tax increase.

A revenue surplus at the end of the 1985-86 budget year was cited by staff as one reason the tax rate could be decreased this year. The 1986-87 rate is $4.16 per $1,000 assessed property valuation. Development, which increased the city's tax base, helped make the tax cut possible, staff said.

The 1985 tax increase came on the heels of an election that seated Mrs. Smith, Mercer and Thomas. The new commissioners launched a number of new programs. Previous commissions traditionally subscribed to maintenance of existing services and restrained spending practices. McClanahan was on the commission from 1972-78. He was sharply critical of the present commission's spendings during his election bid this fall.

"I'm certainly aware Mr. McClanahan has some strong feelings about spendings, and that's fine," Mrs. Smith said after Monday's session. "I do not agree with his request. I think it's premature. I don't want to tell the city manager up front 'Cut your budget by 10 percent.' We'll have ample opportunity to go through the budget line by line.

"I'd like to see the city manager prepare the budget with the admonition that we try to be as careful as possible. My feeling is we want to cut dollars as much as we can while maintaining important programs and services. I do not want staff reduced."

Eckstein said he'd be "conservative" during the budget review process, but "not at the expense of being penny wise and pound foolish. We have needs and services to consider, and I wouldn't want to see them suffer because of reductions."

Mayor Praises King Tribute Organizers, Participants

"I think we lit a small candle against the darkness of ignorance and prejudice," said Mayor Bettye Smith of Sanford's week-long Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. celebration.

"It was such a wonderful, warm, loving and cooperative experience," she said. "I couldn't be prouder of Sanford for showing this kind of caring."

Sanford will in all probability salute King again next year, she added.

This year's celebration, the city's first, was wrapped up Saturday with a banquet honoring local residents. The week of King tributes began with an interdenominational religious observance Sunday. A luncheon with Pearl Bailey was held Wednesday and a program recognizing King's ideals and Sanford's youth was held Friday night. All programs were at the Sanford civic center.

Mrs. Smith said she'll ask the city's Human Relations Advisory Board to again head tribute planning for next year's celebration and some of the board's members are already indicating their willingness. The Seminole County school district would also plan to participate again, said school district spokesman Karen Coleman.

This year's tribute saw 20 Seminole School students benefit from $2,700 in scholarship and savings bond monies that were raised.

"Everybody who participated in any or all the events this week has been changed," Mrs. Smith said. "Black and white, old and young, I'm certain they feel different today than they did before the planning began six months ago. I also think those who attended or helped plan the tributes showed that there is a willingness in Sanford to 'reach out and touch.' It just took this to bring that spirit out."

Planning and carrying off four King tribute programs in one week took effort from hundreds of local residents.

Lawmen Recover 10 Stolen Cars

By Susan Loden

Ten cars stolen from the Sanford Auto Auction before 8 p.m. Monday have been recovered and investigators early Tuesday were trying to determine if additional cars might have been taken from the fenced compound.

A Seminole County sheriff's report said the theft was discovered at about 8:19 p.m. Monday by Sanford police who spotted and pursued a car that had no license tag. A man abandoned that car and fled on foot. By about 10 p.m. police notified sheriff's deputies that the vehicle was stolen from the auto auction at 2215 W. First St., west of Sanford.

Sheriff's deputies went to the auction and found that a fence to an area that houses cars held for consignment sale had been cut and at least 10 cars stolen.

One of the cars was found stuck in the fence apparently cut open by the thieves and two had been abandoned in a nearby field. Sanford police reported finding additional vehicles abandoned in northwest Sanford and that 10 were accounted for.

The sheriff's report said Dominic Granito, 47, of DeBary, who works at the auction, ar-

POLICE

IN BRIEF

Teens Say Police Impersonators Threaten Them With Arrest

Three 16-year-old boys reported to Seminole County sheriff's deputies they were threatened with arrest and searched by two men claiming to be policemen outside Albertson's supermarket on State Road 434, Longwood, at about 11:30 p.m. Friday.

A 14-year-old boy was with the three when they were approached by the suspects, but he fled on his bicycle. By the time that boy returned to the scene with his father, the two suspects had fled in their BMW, after allegedly almost running over one of the boys.

The youths told deputies that the men, who were dressed in three-piece suits and wore gold jewelry, introduced themselves as officer Brown and detective Smith. When the boys asked to see identification the pair told them they didn't have to show identification.

The boys were searched and the pickup truck of one of the victims was searched by the suspects, who seemed to be looking for drugs. The pair asked the boys if they knew where they could get some "dope." The boys told the men they have no involvement with drugs.

The suspects, who claimed to be undercover police, allegedly threatened several times to take the boys to jail. The boys told deputies they were frightened by the men and that they want to press charges.

Baby's Injuries Suspicious

Seminole County sheriff's deputies and Health and Rehabilitative Services agents are investigating an alleged injury to a 1-year-old girl, who was left in a man's care at her home around 7 p.m. Saturday.

Jhonna Schultz, 22, of 200 Fern Park Blvd., #310, Fern Park, reported to sheriff's deputies that when she returned to her home at about 7:30 p.m. she noticed red welts on the face of her daughter Stephanie Bolln. Deputies said the welts were apparently made by a slap of a hand and the baby also had welts on her arms, as if she had been held with force.

The man who was caring for the child reportedly said she climbed onto a kitchen stove and fell off. The investigation continued Monday.

Alleged Drug Buy Brings Arrest

A City/County Investigation Bureau agent who reported meeting with two suspects at a bar in Casselberry and arranging to buy cocaine went with the pair to Durango Way off Forest City road, where a cocaine buy was allegedly made.

The agent reported he gave the men $200 a small quantity of cocaine which one of the men is believed to have gotten from a home on Durango Way at about 1:30 a.m. Sunday.

Charged with sale and possession of cocaine and conspiracy to sell cocaine were Abdel Rivera, 25, of 501 San Sebastian, Altamonte Springs, and Scott Harrison Bunker, 32, of 1317 Summertree Court, Longwood. They've each been released on $2,000 bond. Rivera is scheduled to appear in court Feb. 28 and Bunker on Jan. 28.

Dispute Call Brings Drug Find

Seminole County sheriff's deputy Thomas Johnson, who responded to a family disturbance call at 355 Spanish Trace Apartments #202, Altamonte Springs, at about 1:40 a.m. Saturday reported spotting several partially smoked marijuana cigarettes in the home. He also saw two glass vials, which a woman occupant of the home allegedly said once held cocaine.

After the woman ran toward a bedroom, Johnson followed her and struggled with her while arresting her. In a search of the home he reported finding over 20 grams of marijuana.

Dottie L. Jody Cantrell, 21, of the above address, has been charged with possession of cocaine and over 20 grams of marijuana and resisting arrest without violence. She has been released on $1,000 bond to appear in court Feb. 2.

Driving Under Influence Arrests

The following persons have been arrested in Seminole County on a charge of driving under the influence:

—Harvey Allan Potter, 36, of Deltona, was arrested at 10:27 p.m. Friday after his car failed to maintain a single lane on U.S. Highway 17-92, Sanford.

—James E. Tavenner, 36, of 617 Jupiter Way, Casselberry, at 2:23 p.m. Friday after his car was in an accident on Wilshire Drive, Casselberry.

—Wayne L. Coker, 36, of Altamonte, at 4:41 p.m. Sunday on State Road 436, Kistomte Springs, after he pulled his car onto the roadway and almost hit a motorcycle.

Burglaries And Thefts

Debra S. Kusma, 33, of 1880 Meadow Gold Drive, Winter Park, reported to sheriff's deputies that a refrigerator, a kitchen stove, and cookware with a combined value of about $1,500 were stolen from her home Sunday.

Arson Charged In Blaze

Burglary was the spark that ignited a coverup fire at a Maitland restaurant early Monday.

Arson to destroy break-in evidence was the cause of the blaze at Steak and Ale, U.S. Highway 17-92, said Maitland Fire Inspector James Kasik. He declined to discuss details of the arson saying the case is still being investigated.

Loss to the restaurant, both in damage and no revenue for the 30 days it will be closed, was set at $250,000. It was not known today if anything was taken during the burglary. The building had been recently renovated, said police.

The fire was discovered around 6:10 a.m. by a Maitland police officer who had been dispatched to the area because residents were complaining of smoke. The officer discovered a side window had been broken at the restaurant and smoke was drifting out.

All of Maitland's fire departments responded, along with a unit from Winter Park and two from Orange County. In total, about 8 vehicles and three dozen firefighters had the fire out within an hour but continued to douse smoldering embers until about 9:30 a.m., according to reports.

The fire, apparently started on the first and second floors, damaged the front of the large two-story building, an office, the bar and ceiling area. There was smoke damage throughout the building also, reports said.

Governor May Propose Increased Sales Tax Coverage, Lower Rate

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Gov. Bob Martinez may ask the Legislature to eliminate certain sales tax exemptions while reducing the tax from 5 percent to 4 percent in a reform he said would bring in an additional $1 billion to the state.

Martinez, who was inaugurated Jan. 6, said Monday he has asked his planning and budgeting staff to look into the feasibility of eliminating tax exemptions as they expire under the state's sunset provisions.

He said if the plan is deemed feasible, he will represent it to the Legislature in April, but predicted there will be a major debate if he does.

Martinez disclosed his plan at an appearance before the Florida Council of 100's 16th annual meeting Monday, and at a news conference.

The plan outlined by Martinez would place a higher burden on businesses.

Martinez said it is estimated the elimination of exemptions would bring in an additional $2 billion a year, but reduction in the tax would account for $1 billion.

He said a $2 billion windfall from elimination of exemptions, combined with anticipated funds from a state lottery and the natural growth of the state, would provide more revenues than could wisely be spent, and said he had come up with an option.

"That option is continuing to exempt obviously groceries, which is not scheduled for sunset, continue to exempt medicine and medical services, continue to exempt social services like day care centers and continue to exempt interest rates to make certain that we don't drive housing out of sight," he said.

The second part of the option would be the reduction in the tax, providing a form of tax relief and tax reform to Floridians.

"The sales tax today generally is paid in a higher percentage by those with fixed income or low incomes," the governor said.

"You are looking now at a very large new pot of money," Martinez said, "and I don't believe you can wisely spend that, should you have such a huge tax increase in any given year. I think if all this revenue is forthcoming as is now being estimated, I think the public ought to get some tax relief and we ought to have a little bit of tax reform," he said.

"We must provide a revenue source that is fair, reasonable and collectable," he said.

Martinez told the state's business leaders he does not want any tax system that penalizes businesses.

Martinez said he will seek guidance from all groups that would be affected.

Police Continue Shooting Probe

Seminole County sheriff's deputies Monday continued to investigate the shooting of Willie J. Nelms, 51, of 149 Bethune Circle, Sanford, while Nelms, who was shot at about 6:45 p.m. Saturday, remained in fair condition at Florida Hospital-Altamonte Springs.

Nelms was allegedly shot in the stomach area with a .22-caliber revolver by Thomas Richardson, 56. Sheriff's detectives were trying to determine if Nelms was in self defense as Richardson has reportedly claimed.

The incident occurred at Richardson's home at 1809 Southwest Road #2, Sanford, during an argument over $5, a sheriff's report said. Richardson reportedly told deputies that during the argument Nelms reached into his pants pocket and Richardson thought he was drawing a gun. That's when Richardson allegedly said he wounded Nelms in self defense. Nelms was not armed.

Gremlin Drags Rental Vacuum

A police bulletin was issued for a car that drove away from a Fern Park 7-Eleven dragging behind an uprooted commercial vacuum cleaner at about 11:20 p.m. Sunday.

Within about 10 minutes Maitland police reported stopping the suspect car on U.S. Highway 17-92 in Maitland and the vacuum and its concrete base was found just off U.S. Highway 17-92.

Seminole County sheriff's deputies were called to the scene and deputy Greg Futch reported questioning the four occupants of the car. He didn't determine who had tied the air hose of the vacuum to the bumper of the Gremlin.

The driver reportedly said he knew when he drove from the store at 8510 S. U.S. Highway 17-92 at about 11:20 p.m. Sunday that the hose was attached to his car. He reportedly said he expected the hose to break off, but he didn't count on pulling the large machine from its foundation.

No arrest were reported early Monday. Sheriff's Capt. Roy Hughey said the owner of the machine, Fitch & Associates of Maitland, had not been notified of the criminal mischief and there was no dollar estimate of damages.

Two of the occupants of the car were juveniles. A 7-Eleven clerk reported the incident to sheriff's deputies.

Report: CIA 'Misleading,' White House 'Stonewalling'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — With the White House denying hedging a review of national security operations, a report today cites "misleading" information given to Congress by CIA Director William Casey and "stonewalling" by Vice Adm. John Poindexter regarding U.S. arms sales to Iran.

The Washington Post, reporting in part from a draft analysis prepared by the Senate Intelligence Committee staff, referred to Nov. 21 briefings by the two men following a speech and news conference by President Reagan on the scandal.

The briefings and Reagan's remarks came as the first concerted White House efforts to lay bare the controversial policy.

In his briefing, Casey read a statement to the Senate and House intelligence panels that was prepared the previous day at the White House and reviewed that night by several Cabinet members.

Helms-Lugar Fights Ends Today

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sens. Jesse Helms of North Carolina and Richard Lugar of Indiana submitted their political fight for the ranking Republican seat on the Foreign Relations Committee to a vote of their GOP colleagues today.

The battle, both symbolic and substantive, pits the ego and ideology of the arch-conservative Southerner against those of the moderate Midwesterner. It began months ago and faced its probable conclusion today in a closed afternoon meeting of the Senate Republican Conference.

An aide to Lugar, who served two years as committee chairman until Democrats swept to a Senate majority in the November election, said his boss had pledges of more than 23 votes — more than half of the 45 Republicans in the chamber.

Helms, who gave up his chance to lead the panel two years ago on a campaign promise to take the Agriculture Committee chairmanship instead, offered no predictions on today's vote. But his supporters said they were optimistic and held substantial support.

Soviet Cancer Victim Arrives

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Refusenik Inna Melman, battling Soviet officials and cancer, hopes to be allowed to recover in America so she can keep up the fight for human rights in the Soviet Union.

"I haven't come to America to die," she said upon arriving in the United States Monday. "I have come here to recover ... to help other people get out, to fight for it, to prove we are not slaves."

Melman, 55, already has undergone four operations for a malignant tumor on her neck and asked vainly for many months to be treated in the West. She said it is difficult to walk and she spent the past two months in bed.

Melman is a member of the International Cancer Patients Solidarity Committee, which seeks visas so cancer patients can join relatives in the West.

The Melmans, who are Jewish, have tried to emigrate since the mid-1970s and repeatedly have been denied permission.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Police Report Three Arrests In Palme Assassination Probe

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI) — Police have detained at least three people for questioning in the assassination of Prime Minister Olof Palme nearly a year ago, authorities said today.

"A number of people have been taken in for interrogation," a police statement said. "Three of them have been advised they are suspected of complicity in the murder of Olof Palme."

The communique said "several" of the suspects caught in a police sweep — which reportedly took place early today — were ethnic Kurds linked to the Kurdish separatist group PKK. The government has blamed the group for the slayings of two PKK defectors in Sweden in 1984 and 1985.

The PKK has repeatedly denied any connection to the slaying of Palme, shot and killed by a lone gunman in Stockholm on Feb. 28, 1986.

Irish Government Collapses

DUBLIN, Ireland (UPI) — Prime Minister Garret FitzGerald's coalition government collapsed today as four socialist Cabinet ministers resigned in a budget dispute. He was expected to call an early election for mid-February.

FitzGerald had no immediate comment on the pullout from his 4-year-old government of the socialist Labor Party, the junior partner in the two-party coalition.

Labor leader Dick Spring, the deputy prime minister, said the 11 ministers from FitzGerald's Fine Gael party had voted for a $320 million cut in health, education and social welfare, overruling the Labor Party's objections while Ireland suffers record unemployment.

Political sources said FitzGerald, left with a minority of seats in the Dail, the Irish parliament, would seek to appoint Fine Gael politicians to replace the four resigning ministers as a formality. The Dail is in recess.

Waite Delays Departure

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Hostage envoy Terry Waite delayed his departure from Beirut today and met again with Moslem extremists holding two Americans hostage, the Lebanese state radio station said.

The station said the Church of England negotiator told reporters outside his west Beirut hotel the delay was "necessitated by developments." He had planned to return to London today from his latest mission to gain the release of Western hostages.

"Waite has confirmed that he held more talks with the kidnapers today and that he has further delayed his departure from Beirut for the time being," state-owned Beirut radio said.

Social Security Applications By Phone OK'd

The Social Security Administration office in Sanford is inviting benefits applicants to make their applications by phone.

Arthur McGinty, operations supervisor and acting branch manager at the 300 S. Mellonville Ave. office, said applicants may now complete the entire process by phone.

"There is no longer a need to visit the office," he said.

The purpose for the change is two-fold, he said. It is more convenient for the applicant and gives Social Security office staff members an opportunity to better schedule their work day.

The phone-in applications are for all Social Security Administration services, including retirement, survivors', disability, medical and supplemental security benefits, McGinty said.

The telephone procedure involves at least two calls, he explained. The applicant's initial call, during which he or she gives name, Social Security number, date of birth, address and telephone number and a call back by the office at an appointed time.

During the call back, the Social Security staff member completes all paperwork for the application which is then sent to the applicant to be signed and returned by mail. During this call the staff member also explains what documents or proofs the applicant must return to the office with the application. These include such items as birth, death or marriage certificates, divorce decrees and W-2 forms.

Copies are made of these documents, McGinty said, and the originals returned.

Each successful Social Security beneficiary then receives a Certificate of Award that verifies the benefit to be received, including the exact dollar-amount due, McGinty said.

He said most Social Security offices are moving toward telephone applications due to dwindling resources and the call-in procedures' cost-effectiveness.

"Staff members can take more applications by phone that if the applicant appears in person," he said. "And those who do come in have a shorter wait."

The Sanford Social Security office serves all of Seminole County and some of south Volusia County. Its phone number is 322-2711.

Can Technology Halt Terrorists?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Robots, voice prints and vehicles equipped with gadgets that would please James Bond are among the high-technology weapons at the focus of a three-day conference on how to crush international terrorism.

The conference, opening today at a Washington hotel, will analyze efforts to fight terrorism with sophisticated new tactics and techniques. The guest list includes more than 30 U.S. and foreign officials, experts and ex-hostages.

Vice President George Bush, a former CIA director, arranged to address the symposium tonight, and discussions via satellite hookup are planned by Israeli Foreign Minister Shimon Peres and Morocco's King Hassan.

"We are gratified that such a prominent group of political leaders and public servants has agreed to participate," said Jim Haysa, publisher of Discover magazine, the conference sponsor. "Clearly, their involvement underscores the need for a better understanding of the relationship between technology and terrorism in order to develop appropriate political, economic and tactical responses," Haysa said.

Experts say during the last 20 years, criminals have learned how to avoid, frustrate or disable devices designed to detect arms, bombs or other explosive weapons. For example, terrorists now use guns with mostly plastic parts to escape airport metal detection systems.

The symposium's first session was designed to showcase an elaborate display of anti-terrorist wizardry including remote-controlled robots, counter-terrorist cars and boats, radar and surveillance equipment, police and riot control gear, infrared and X-ray screening systems and voice print equipment, which identifies a person's voice.

As the conference continues Wednesday and Thursday, the extensive list of speakers and seminar leaders includes Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger, Attorney General Edwin Meese and Secret Service Director John Simpson — who is also president of Interpol.

New Stops Going Up

Four-way stop signs are to be installed at the intersection of Kewanee Trail and Derbyshire Road in South Seminole County, said Mark Bevis, county traffic analyst.

The installation, at the intersection off State Road 436 south of U.S. Highway 17-92, is to take place after morning rush hours Thursday, Bevis said. It should not affect traffic flow, he said, and stop ahead signs will be placed before the intersection to warn drivers of the new stop requirement.

Caribbean Basin Prosperity Vital

The Reagan administration's Caribbean Basin Initiative went into effect three years ago amid glowing predictions that it would invigorate the economies of a region vital to U.S. interests. Despite massive infusions of U.S. dollars, however, the policy has foundered and there has been precious little economic progress among the nations it was designed to help.

The Caribbean Basin is composed of about two dozen small developing countries and contains vital sea lanes through which 75 percent of U.S. oil imports must flow. It is an important market for U.S. exports and the second largest source of illegal immigration to the United States. The volatile region is especially vulnerable to communist terrorism and subversion, as witness the turmoil in Guatemala, El Salvador and Costa Rica during the last several years. Cuban, Soviet and even Libyan efforts to destabilize the Caribbean Basin are increasing along with the strength of their leftist allies.

Clearly, the time has come for Congress to reconsider the Caribbean Basin Initiative with an eye toward restoring those measures that were contained in the original proposal.

The Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act was crippled from the moment it became effective on Jan. 1, 1984. Congress gutted the program by stripping it of its most important features. Many goods, some of which are key Caribbean exports, were denied the open access to U.S. markets that the bill was supposed to provide. Moreover, heavy lobbying by the AFL-CIO blocked the president's proposal for a 10-percent tax credit for new U.S. investments in the region. Little wonder that economic conditions have worsened in the region during the last three years.

Since 1984, the value of exports from Caribbean nations has declined steadily. For example, the value of their oil and sugar exports to the United States decreased by 44 percent and 43 percent respectively during the first six months of 1986 from a year earlier. Caribbean sugar exports to the United States will fall still further this year because of a congressionally mandated formula on imports. Unemployment now averages between 15 and 20 percent in the basin's work force. Constant-dollar per-capita income has fallen and regional debt has increased. Inflation is rampant and imported goods are beyond the means of most residents.

What can be done to reverse this alarming trend and revive the economies of this strategically vital region?

Congress must remove the protectionist trade barriers that prevent Caribbean goods from coming into the United States. Tax incentives must be made available to U.S. investors willing to open businesses in the region. And the 12-year limit on the program must be removed. The Caribbean Basin Initiative was not meant as an economic quick-fix, but rather as an incentive to long-term recovery and growth.

Concerns about the possible loss of U.S. jobs to Caribbean competitors are understandable, but exaggerated. Total production of the Caribbean Basin is equivalent to less than 2 percent of the U.S. gross national product. In fact, imports from the region account for less than 4 percent of total U.S. imports. It also should be noted that U.S. companies hurt by Caribbean imports can seek relief under the 1974 Trade Act.

The Caribbean Basin will be the Achilles' heel of the Western Hemisphere so long as its economic problems are allowed to fester. President Reagan recognized as much when he proposed that the region be accorded preferential treatment in trade and U.S. investment. The Democratic-controlled Congress would do well to grant these concessions in the interest of peace and prosperity throughout the Americas.

The Double Greening Of West Germany

West Germans go to the polls Jan. 25 to vote in a parliamentary election the conclusion of which is very likely already known.

And that is a decisive defeat for the major opposition party, the Social Democrats.

The party that governed West Germany from 1969 through 1982 has fallen on evil times that continue to worsen — a trend many observers think is largely of its own making. The Socialists are deeply split between a dominant left wing and a pragmatic minority whose efforts to woo votes from the political center are repeatedly sabotaged by the ideologues.

With the Socialists having virtually eliminated themselves from contention, the betting is that the center-right coalition now in power in Bonn will stay in power. The dominant issue of the campaign has become its post-election composition.

At the moment, it consists of Christian Democrats and Free Democrats (FDP or "Liberals"). The Christian Democrats, however, are a double party — the Christian Democratic Union (CDU), whose turf is all of the country except Bavaria, and, in Bavaria, the Christian Socialist Union (CSU).

The CSU — most specifically, its imperious leader, Bavarian Premier Franz Josef Strauss — has little use for the FDP, whose policies it rejects as wimpy. Strauss would like to see the FDP ousted from the coalition and himself installed as foreign minister in place of the FDP's Hans-Dietrich Genscher, a nimble political perennial who has held onto the job for the past 13 years.

It would mean more than a change of personalities. German foreign policy under Strauss would be even more pro-American than it traditionally has been. He is ferociously friendly and outspokenly supportive, particularly of Reagan administration initiatives.

But he has other friends, such as the South African government and strongmen in Latin America, with whom even Reagan's Washington isn't on the best of terms. He is all for a tougher German role in the world.

All of which makes many Germans uncomfortable, a reaction the Liberals have been exploiting. A vote for them, the Liberals tell the electorate, is a vote against a "Strauss Dictator." The stronger their position in the new coalition, the more effectively they can blunt his belligerence.

When the votes are counted, however, the most significant winner may be none of the above. The anti-establishment Greens, who entered the Bundestag (parliament) for the first time four years ago with 5.6 percent of the total vote (the minimum for representation is 5 percent), could have the most to celebrate.

The environment being their big issue, they have benefited immensely from the alarm raised by last spring's nuclear disaster in the Soviet Union and by last fall's massive chemical spill in the Rhine.

They are on a roll, despite their own bitter internal differences. One wing, holding itself as ideologically pure, wants nothing to do with the mainline political parties. Another, the "Realos," or realists, is open to cooperation with the Socialist left and might even join them in a coalition government if a Bundestag majority could be eked out with pooled votes. Ironically, however, indications are that most of the Greens' increased strength is being drawn from that same Socialist left wing.

The latest pre-vote poll at this writing gives the Greens 11.7 percent — more than double their showing of four years ago.

The Socialists come in at 34.8 percent, down from 38 percent.

As for the coalition, the predicted split is 46.8 percent for the combined CDU/CSU and a tiny but crucial 8 percent for the Liberals.

Close, but the coalition's members are still the clear winners.

Freedom Will Find A Way

Alexander Solzhenitsyn once said that if the entire globe were to be covered with concrete, a single blade of grass would one day force its way to the surface, making a crack. He meant that totalitarianism could not permanently crush the human spirit.

One recalls that image in thinking about Andrei Sakharov, now permitted to return to Moscow with his wife after seven years of Siberian exile. His crime was to have insisted on Soviet compliance with human rights agreements which the Soviet regime had solemnly promised to adhere to as part of the Helsinki accords. For asking the regime to live up to its signature he was declared an enemy of the state.

But now he has received a personal telephone call from Mikhail Gorbachev recalling him from exile.

What are we to learn? On the one hand we know that thousands of people remain in the Soviet Gulag for "thought crimes" such as circulating unlicensed poems, trying to practice religion, asking to leave the country. There is even evidence that, under Gorbachev, the repression has become worse.

And yet one does hope. Gorbachev is caught in an excruciating historical bind, as is Deng in China. Both men know that the system simply does not work. In some of his recent public addresses, Gorbachev has gone beyond attacking chronic absenteeism and vodka drinking and said that it would take "decades" to reform the system in the direction of greater efficiency. Deng appears to be taking two steps forward and one step backward, tentatively modifying the system in the direction of greater economic freedom, but outlawing demonstrations by thousands of students — China's best and brightest — demanding greater political and cultural freedom.

The plain fact is that the economic progress both leaders desire will require the dismantling of Communist Party domination of all aspects of life in China and Russia. The revolutions that brought the party to power in both countries represented a cruel historical joke.

Zsa Zsa Reneges Promise To Kids

By Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — Zsa Zsa Gabor, who won fame singing "Where is your heart?" in the movie "Moulin Rouge" 34 years ago, demanded $5,000 to appear at a benefit in Turkey for deaf mute children, then backed out of the deal at the last minute because of her fear of terrorism, according to the Turkish Deaf and Mute Foundation of Istanbul.

Capping the Turkish charity group's disappointment was the fact that it took eight months to get the $5,000 back from Gabor's personal manager, Kal Ross.

This was not the sixtyish, Hungarian-born actress' first brush with the handicapped. In 1983, her contract with a Philadelphia dinner theater was canceled after she reportedly asked a waiter to move a group of handicapped customers from their front-row seats to the back of the room.

The latest unpleasantness began last February, when the Turkish

ROBERT WALTERS

Spotlight On Swaggart

BATON ROUGE, La. (NEA) — If the Rev. Marlon G. "Pat" Robertson pursues his race for the 1988 Republican presidential nomination, he could focus unwanted attention on fellow television evangelist Jimmy Swaggart.

Indeed, Swaggart — whose home, church and broadcast facilities are located in Baton Rouge — could become as controversial in the 1988 campaign as fiery Black Muslim leader Louis Farrakhan was in 1984.

Farrakhan was an outspoken supporter of the Rev. Jesse Jackson during his bid for the 1984 Democratic presidential nomination, but Jackson was ceaselessly pressured to repudiate Farrakhan's inflammatory statements.

Among Farrakhan's numerous anti-Semitic remarks was his characterization of Judaism as a "gutter religion." In addition, he compared the United States to "a rotting carcass," described Adolf Hitler as "a great man" and criticized whites as "oppressors" of blacks.

Swaggart, who has made similarly offensive remarks about Catholics and others, initially declined to support Robertson's tentative bid, arguing that politics was "a game of compromise" inappropriate for members of the clergy.

But following a meeting between the two men late last year, Swaggart endorsed Robertson's campaign. "Pat Robertson is one of us," he explained at a prayer meeting here in which he proclaimed himself to be "part of the same purpose and the same cause."

That action is likely to produce demands that Robertson disavow Swaggart's most outrageous remarks, including his characterization of Catholicism as a "false cult" and a "false religion."

Adds Swaggart: "The Catholic Church's doctrines are made up basically of legendary, mythical, apocryphal, human traditions — rather than being based on the word of God...."

"Whenever Catholicism has had broad authority over the people, the people have been led into ignorance, superstition and sin."

He is similarly critical of Christian Scientists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh Day Adventists, Mormons and others whose religions are based upon writings other than the Bible.

In a 1985 magazine article, Swaggart claimed that "some 63 percent of the producers, directors and writers in Hollywood are Jewish," then added: "Many of these individuals are working with a fanatical zeal to remove Christianity as a positive force in our American society."

Other objects of Swaggart's scorn include the National Council of Churches, World Council of Churches, National Education Association and American Civil Liberties Union.

Swaggart's weekly television program is carried by approximately 200 stations and seen by about 3 million viewers.

Brontosaur Nurtured Its Baby

By Gayle Young
UPI Science Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — Brontosaur babies may have been born live, rather than hatched from eggs, and nurtured within the protection of a herd of adults much like modern day elephants, according to a paleontologist.

"We've been taught to believe the brontosaur was a big, cold lizard that lived in swamps with a 'lay 'em and leave 'em' egg-laying type of childbearing," said Robert Bakker, curator of paleontology at the University of Colorado Museum in Boulder.

"But I've spent years looking for the eggs, and there should be plenty of evidence, and there's none," he said in a telephone interview.

Bakker's theory, published in a recent issue of the museum's journal Hunteria, is that the brontosaur bore live young that weighed somewhere between 200 and 300 pounds.

The massive brontosaur, which lived 125 million years ago, is one of the largest of the dinosaurs, reaching 35 feet in length. Brontosaurs had wide bodies, tiny heads at the end of long necks and sweeping tails.

Most paleontologists believe all dinosaurs were reptiles that hatched from eggs.

But Bakker said scientists have never found evidence of a brontosaur nest even though they've found nests of other types of dinosaur.

"You find a high mortality with the egg-laying method of reproducing," he said. "There should be lots of little brontosaur bones lying around ... but the smallest brontosaur ever discovered was already about one fourth the size of an adult."

Bakker also said 40 or 50 sets of adult remains of the massive dinosaur show that it had an extremely wide pelvic canal — wide enough to bear young live. He said most other dinosaurs had small pelvises that would have prevented live births.

"The most compelling evidence is the bones of a mother dinosaur with a fetus within it," he said. "It was found in 1910 and they have been trying to explain it away ever since as a smaller, unclassified dinosaur whose bones got washed in with the brontosaur."

because of the terrorism threat. He said he would return the $5,000, as promised, once he had the name and address of the foundation's bank.

This was quickly supplied, but months of delay followed. Cabled appeals from the Turks were met with various excuses from Ross. The Turkish Deaf and Mute Foundation finally asked the Turkish American Association of Dallas for help, and officials there contacted a congressman. They also warned Ross that they planned to notify other members of Congress, President Reagan and the press, if the foundation didn't get its money soon.

On Dec. 30, Ross finally transferred the $5,000 to the foundation's account.

Footnote: When we asked for an explanation of the eight-month delay in paying back the money, Ross blamed his bank. He also warned us that we would "be in a world of trouble" if we published the story.

Coast Guard Auxiliary To Offer Boating Skills Class

(Editor's note: Carl Carlson is Flotilla Commander for Flotilla 4-1 in Seminole County.)

"Boating Skills And Seamanship," a course on safe boating, will be taught by the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary at Lake Mary High School beginning Monday.

Registration for the class is Thursday in room A-116 from 7-8:30 p.m. The class will meet on Mondays and Thursdays from 7-9 p.m., with a final examination on Monday, March 2. Certificates will be awarded to all graduates.

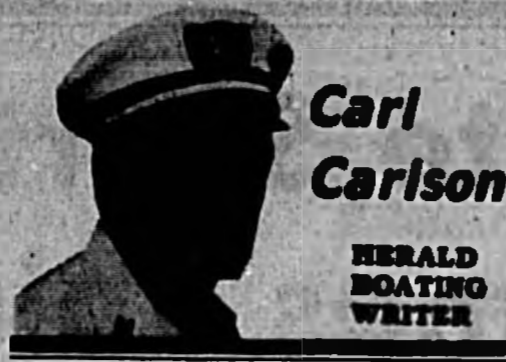

Handling a boat is a skill gained by study and experience. Recreational boaters throughout the country are finding one of the easiest and most interesting ways to learn boating skills is by taking a U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary safe boating course.

Often the novice boater is frightened. He may feel that a boat is hard to control and it may not respond in ways he expects. Basic boat handling skills require, as a first step, a knowledge of how and why boats behave as they do. This can be gained by trial and error — but errors on the water can be dangerous to the boater and to others in the vicinity of the boat.

Every year the United States Coast Guard publishes a Boating Statistics Report. Copies of this report called Coast Guard Publication CG-357 are available to the public on request by writing to: Commandant (G-BP), U.S. Coast Guard, Washington, D.C. 20593. This report covers accidents from all 50 states and also includes the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.

From a five year study, the following statistics are obtained: There were 4,917 boating accidents involving 6,230 vessels. These accidents resulted in 1,537 fatalities, 1,291 personal injuries and $9.4 million in property damage. Most of these accidents were the result of lack of knowledge on the part of the boatman.

Year after year records show that most lives are lost as a result of capsizing, collision, fires and explosions. The Coast Guard Auxiliary Boating Skills and Seamanship Course is designed to introduce safe practices in operation and navigation, to all owners and operators of pleasure craft. Naturally, the more hours you use your boat, the more expert you become at handling it. Many novices can step aboard a boat for the first time and perform reasonably well with little instruction and practice. This does not mean, however, that the boat is being operated safely.

For additional information concerning this course or other activities of the Coast Guard Auxiliary, such as the Courtesy Marine Examination program, contact Carl Carlson, Flotilla Commander, 323-9416.

BOATING TIP — Anchoring: the general term applied to all equipment used for anchoring a vessel is ground tackle. Many pleasure boats are poorly equipped in this respect. Each pleasure boat should carry two anchors. One anchor may be of light weight and small size for easy handling. In boating circles this anchor is often referred to as a "lunch hook." The second anchor should be larger and heavier. It is sometimes referred to as the "storm" anchor and is used during bad weather, rough sea conditions, or when anchoring overnight. The size of these anchors depends on the size of the boat — follow the manufacturers' recommendations, especially when using patent anchors such as a Danforth or CQR Flaw.

The line used on the lunch anchor should be at three times the depth of the water and the line on the storm anchor should be at least five times, and preferably seven times the depth of the water. In Lake Monroe and our area of the St. Johns river, 30 feet of line on the lunch hook and 75 feet of line on the storm anchor is usually adequate.

Many boaters have had the misfortune of being blown aground during high wind conditions on Lake Monroe when they discovered their anchor wouldn't hold fast in the silt bottom.

Hawkeyes Scratch Past Boilermakers

United Press International
Second-ranked Iowa overcame a rash of turnovers and the loss of its leading scorer Monday night to scratch past No. 5 Purdue.

Roy Marble, who averages 15.5 points, suffered an eye injury with 11:27 left in the first half, and Iowa committed 30 turnovers, but the Hawkeyes, led by Kevin Gamble's 19 points, held off the Boilermakers 70-67 at West Lafayette, Ind. The victory extended college basketball's longest win streak to 17 games.

"When Roy went down, we weren't sure how we would react," Iowa Coach Tom Davis said. "But we came through once again. (Gamble), more than anybody, had to step in when Marble went down. He played very well."

Gamble, a senior guard, connected on 9 of 10 shots from the floor as the Hawkeyes, 17-0, matched a 31-year-old school record win streak. Iowa, 5-0 in the Big 10, is tied with No. 4 Indiana for first place in the league.

"We knew what we had to do," Gamble said. "I knew I had to fill his shoes. He's a great player. I see myself as a role player, doing whatever we need to win."

Davis credited Purdue's defense with forcing the high number of turnovers.

Purdue, 14-2 overall and 5-1 in the league, shot just 26 of 66 for the game, including 4 of 17 from 3-point range.

"I'm not happy with our performance at all," Boilermakers Coach Gene Keady said. "I can't criticize anyone, but if we are going to be contenders in the Big Ten, we need more from our big men. Iowa played better than us and they did it without Marble."

In other games involving ranked teams, No. 3 Nevada-Las Vegas downed Fullerton State 73-65. No. 6 DePaul defeated Indiana State 61-49. No. 14 St. John's defeated No. 17 Pittsburgh 63-62. No. 18 Texas Christian dumped Texas 52-37 and No. 19 Navy beat Delaware 84-60.

At Fullerton, Calif., Freddie Banks scored 22 points and Armon Gilliam added 18 points and 10 rebounds to power the Runnin' Rebels, 15-0 overall and

Basketball

5-0 in league play, to a Pacific Coast Athletic Association victory. Gerald Paddio added 16 points for the Rebels, while Herman Webster led Fullerton with 18.

At Pittsburgh, Shelton Jones scored 19 of his 23 points in the second half, including two free throws with 21 seconds remaining, to lift the Redmen to a Big East Conference victory. Pitt's Charles Smith had his eight-foot jumper bounce off the front of the rim with three seconds left.

At Fort Worth, Texas, Carven Holcombe scored 15 points and grabbed 8 rebounds and the Horned Frogs limited Texas to its lowest point total since 1969. The Longhorns shot just 25.5 percent from the floor, 12 of 47.

At Annapolis, Md., David Robinson scored 32 points and became Navy's all-time career leading rebounder in sparking the Middies. Robinson, a senior, connected on 11 of 16 shots from the floor and grabbed 8 rebounds, giving him a school record 1,122 for his career.

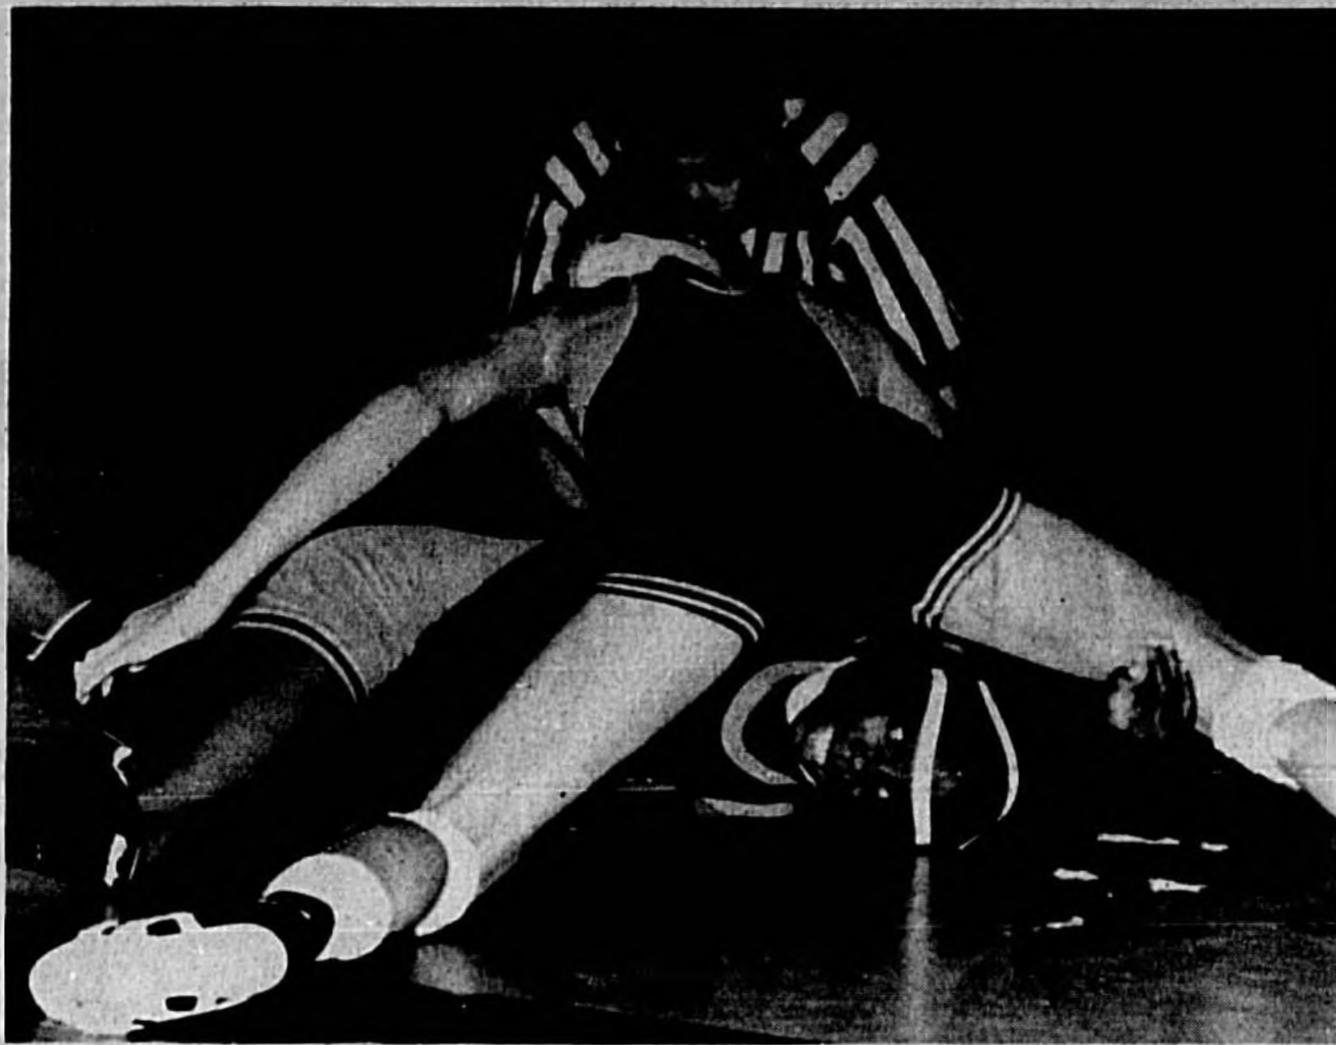

In games involving unranked teams, it was: Maryland 77, Bucknell 68; Memphis State 76, Florida State 68; Texas A&M 57, Houston 45; Texas Tech 75, Southern Methodist 64; Bradley 73, Illinois State 65; Arizona 77, Stanford 70; Penn State 80, Rutgers 60; Western Kentucky 61, South Florida 46; and Rhode Island 89, St. Bonaventure 79.

COMEGYS PARKS DEPAUL

ROSEMONT, Ill. (UPI) — Dallas Comegys scored 19 points and Rod Strickland added 18 Monday to pace No. 6 DePaul to a come-from-behind 61-49 victory over Indiana State.

DePaul, 15-0, trailed 17-8 early in the game and was down 32-30 at halftime but Comegys and Strickland sparked an 11-0 run midway through the second half as the Blue Demons took a 43-38 lead.

The Sycamores managed to close the gap to 45-43, but DePaul scored eight straight points with Andy Laux getting his second three-pointer and the Blue Demons moved in front to stay.

Martina Zaps Garrison In 45 Minutes

MELBOURNE, Australia (UPI) — Top seed Martina Navratilova needed just 45 minutes today to defeat seventh-seeded Zina Garrison 6-0, 6-3 to advance to the semifinals of the Australian Open.

Navratilova, shooting for her fourth Australian Open title, will meet Catarina Lindqvist of

Tennis

Sweden in Thursday's semifinal. Lindqvist, the No. 10 seed, became the first Swedish woman ever to reach a Grand Slam semifinal when she beat third seed Pam Shriver 6-3, 6-1 in their quarterfinal match.

The other semifinal will match fifth seed Claudia Kohde-Kilsch of West Germany, a 7-6 (7-3), 4-6, 6-2 winner over Australian Elizabeth Smylie, and second seed Hana Mandlikova of Czechoslovakia. Mandlikova crushed American Lori McNeil 6-0, 6-0.

DeLand's Flurry Trims Tribe, 5-1

J.J. Partlow's unassisted goal early in the second half brought Seminole within one goal, 2-1, of DeLand's Bulldogs but the Bulldogs then reeled off three unanswered goals en route to a 5-1 victory in prep soccer action Monday night at Seminole High.

Seminole, 2-6-1 overall, returns to action tonight at 7 at Trinity Prep and hosts Oviedo in a Seminole Athletic Conference matchup Thursday night.

DeLand, 4-8-1, took a 2-0 halftime lead on goals by Danny Mims and Thad Bostic.

Partlow's goal, which came 16 minutes into the second half, cut the Tribe's deficit to 2-1, but Rich Jarrell scored for DeLand two minutes later. Mims added his second goal with 20 minutes remaining and Jarrell scored again with seven minutes left to make the final 5-1.

DeLand took 15 shots on goal compared to Seminole's seven. Seminole goalkeeper Sean Sundvall made eight saves while DeLand keeper Scott McKinstre came up with four saves.

Young Kennel Continues Run Atop Leaderboard

Special to the Herald
LONGWOOD — Through SOKC's initial 25 performances of its 52nd anniversary celebration, the powerful Dennis Young Kennel remains atop the leaderboard of the 28 kennels campaigning this winter.

In the latest statistics released by Director of Racing Tom Bowersox, Young has watched 24 of his greyhounds earn trips to the winner's circle and run out a total of $16,577.35 in purse money.

But unlike at some racetracks around the country, SOKC's standings might tend to make NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle and his "parity" philosophy quite happy.

"I think you're going to see this all the way down the line for the entire season," Bowersox said. "I'd be quite surprised, at least at this point in the season, if one of the kennels would take off by a wide margin."

"We've bolstered our roster with some fine kennels with outstanding greyhounds. It should result in tough competition all the way, just the way we like to see it."

R.J. Barber, an addition to SOKC's roster after several years away, remains in second place behind Young as Barber's won 20 races and had $16,794.10 in purse monies.

Rounding out the "Top Five" Kennels are Hughes Kennels, Inc., with 17 victories and $14,125.40; Connell Kennels, Inc., 15 triumphs and $13,706.55; and Codi Kennel (formerly Carrier Enterprises, Inc.) with a dozen wins and purse monies of $12,536.

Lady Patriots Knock Orange Park From Unbeatens

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer
Lake Brantley's Lady Patriots, ranked third in the state, spoiled the road trip and the unbeaten record of Orange Park Monday night as the Lady Patriots claimed a 3-0 victory in prep soccer action at Lake Brantley High.

Lake Brantley ran its record to 14-1-2 while Orange Park now stands at 11-1. The Lady Patriots host Lake Howell in a Seminole Athletic Conference matchup Thursday night. Brantley will also travel to Gainesville this weekend for the Gainesville Buchholz Tournament. "Orange Park played a pretty good game and had some good shots on our goal," Lake Brantley coach Wolfgang Halbig said. "Our defense did an outstanding job in shutting them out."

Brantley's defense was led by stopper Debbie Bray, sweeper Reenie Deaver, fullback Jennifer "J.J." Josephs and goalkeeper Wendy Vickery. Vickery made six saves and recorded her county-leading ninth shutout of the season.

Bray, a junior, also contributed to the offense for Lake Brantley as she picked up the assist on the first goal of the game, scored by Julie DeRusso in the opening half. It was the 18th goal of the season for the junior striker.

Orange Park stayed within 1-0 at the half but Brantley pulled away in the second half on goals by Colleen Lievertz, her ninth of the season, and Cara Marien, her 13th of the year. Michelle Schroth had the assist on Lievertz's goal while Marien's was unassisted.

Virginia Slips By Dolphins

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — John Johnson sank two key free throws with 21 seconds left and scored 20 Monday night to lift Virginia to a 82-81 non-conference victory over Jacksonville.

Virginia, 11-4, led throughout most of the game but had to withstand a late Dolphin charge.

The Cavaliers, who led 41-32 at halftime, led 76-61 with 3:35 remaining.

With 2:25 remaining, Virginia led by 10, but the Dolphins scored 8 straight points to close to 78-76 with 1:15 left on a 3-point shot by Pat Laguerre.

Mel Kennedy hit 2 free throws with 1:03 remaining to increase Virginia's lead to 80-76. Jacksonville countered with a layup by Chris Slocum to make the score 80-78 with 47 seconds left.

After Mel Kennedy blocked a 3-point attempt by Laguerre, Johnson hit a free throw with 21 seconds left and added another one with 7 seconds to go. Oviedo's Ronnie Murphy hit a 3-pointer for the Dolphins with 2 seconds remaining to close out the scoring.

Andrew Kennedy scored 19 for Virginia, while Tom Sheehy hit 13 and Mel Kennedy 12.

The Dolphins, 10-6, were paced by Murphy with 31 points while Laguerre scored 18, Willie McDuffie 15 and Slocum 10.

FSU TUMBLES AGAIN

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Sylvester Gray scored 21 points and grabbed 9 rebounds Monday night to lead Memphis State to a 76-68 Metro Conference victory over Florida State.

John Wilfong added 15 points for the Tigers, 15-5 overall and 2-1 in the conference, while Dwight Boyd added 14. Pee Wee Barber had 14 points to pace the Seminoles, 9-5 and 0-3.

Barber's 3-pointer gave the Seminoles their only lead of the game, 49-48 with 10 minutes to play in the first half. The Tigers, however, held a 34-30 advantage at halftime.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Watt Maintains Fat Referee Cost Vancouver Lead, Victory

United Press International
Vancouver Coach Tom Watt — who in the past has been fined for calling one referee a cheat and has labeled another senile — claims the Canucks blew a fat lead because of a fat referee.

After Vancouver's three-goal lead dissipated in a 5-4 loss to the Winnipeg Jets Monday night, Watt blamed referee Don Koharski for the Canucks' defeat.

"The only thing worse than the coverage in our own zone was the officiating," Watt said. "Mayhem went on out there. Don Koharski is overweight, doesn't skate, and continually gets caught up in the play. He leads the league in blocked shots."

Tony Tomasi's hat trick had staked Vancouver to a 4-1 lead 20 seconds into the second period before the Canucks allowed the next four goals, including Brian Mullen's game-winning 41 seconds into the third period as Winnipeg won its seventh straight game.

In other games, Hartford edged Montreal 5-4 in overtime and Los Angeles and the New York Rangers tied 2-2 in overtime.

False Start Costs Foster Record

NEW YORK (UPI) — Greg Foster's time in the 60-meter high hurdles at Friday's Sunkist Invitational will not be recognized as a world record because of a false start.

Bob Hersh, the chairman of The Athletics Congress — the American governing body for track and field — said Monday that at least three runners — Foster, Renaldo Nehemiah and Milan Stewart — false-started in the Los Angeles race.

"There's no doubt in my mind that Foster false-started," said Hersh, who reviewed films of the race at his home. "Since it wasn't recalled at the start, the race stands. But the record will not be allowed."

Foster's time was 7.36 seconds, faster than the world indoor record of 7.47 set last year by Mark McKoy of Canada.

Milwaukee Obtains Komminsk

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — The Milwaukee Brewers obtained outfielder Brad Komminsk from the Atlanta Braves Monday in exchange for outfielder Dion James, Brewers General Manager Harry Dalton announced.

Komminsk, 25, spent one full season with the Braves and parts of others, batting .217 in 220 games with 12 home runs and 62 RBIs.

He made only a brief appearance with Atlanta in 1986, playing in five games and batting .400.

James batted .282 in 130 games with Vancouver of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League in 1986 after coming back from shoulder surgery in 1985.

Bowen Leads Lyman To 9-1

Paul Bowen led three players in double figures with 15 points Monday night as Lyman's freshman Greyhounds ran their record to 9-1 for the basketball season with a 65-53 victory over Bishop Moore.

Lyman now will prepare for its biggest game of the season as the Pups host unbeaten Seminole Thursday night at 5 in what coach Rich Balezentsis has dubbed the "Super Bowl" of freshman basketball.

Behind Bowen for the Greyhounds Monday night, Marvin Reed tossed in 13 points and Octavious Holiday added 12 points and 14 rebounds. Lenon Anderson contributed nine points and Dion Weeks added eight points and eight assists.

Ozio Takes 75-Pin Advantage

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — David Ozio of Vidor, Texas averaged better than 232 for the first eight games Monday night and took a 75-pin lead after the first round of the $175,000 Showboat Invitational.

Ozio, who finished third at Showboat Lanes last year, had games of 247, 248, 200, 206, 245, 200, 256 and 257 for a pinfall total of 1,859. Rowdy Morrow of St. Louis, who is seeking his first PBA victory, was in second place with 1,784. Morrow was one pin ahead of PBA Hall of Famer Johnny Petraglia, Manalapan, N.J., and Richard Bramwell, San Marcos, Calif.

Ex-NHLer Charged With Murder

WEST PALM BEACH (UP) — Brian "Spinner" Spencer, who scored 80 goals and made 143 assists during a career with several NHL teams, was arrested and charged with first-degree murder Sunday night, authorities said.

Spencer, 37, was taken into custody by West Palm Beach officials. Investigators did not reveal what evidence they had linking Spencer to a 1982 murder.

The body of Michael James Dalfo was found Feb. 4, 1982 alongside a Palm Beach County roadway. He had been shot in the head, but was alive when found. He later died at an area hospital.

Knicks Upset Celtics

United Press International

The New York Knicks used Boston's battle plan Monday to beat the Celtics.

The Knicks won 111-109 when Louie Orr banked a 21-foot jumper from the right of the circle with one second left. However, the reason the Knicks were in a position to pull off the upset is because they used Bill Cartwright and Patrick Ewing effectively inside and Gerald Henderson outside.

Such is the game plan the Boston uses when the 6-foot-10 Kevin McHale and 7-foot Robert Parish play inside. That frees three-time MVP Larry Bird to score from anywhere.

But Monday, Parish, McHale, Bird and Co. were beaten — after rallying from a 108-96 deficit for a 109-109 tie — by imitators.

"Cartwright and Ewing down low did the job," Boston Coach K.C. Jones said. "They were hurting us inside and when we doubled up, Gerald would drop it in."

Henderson, a former Celtic, finished with a season-high 23 points. Bird finished with 35 points and McHale 24. Ewing scored 22 points and Cartwright 21.

Orr said that on his winning basket he took the inbound pass and wanted to pass to Gerald Wilkins for the final basket.

Lakers 126, Nets 114. At East Rutherford, N.J., Magic Johnson scored 42 points in Los Angeles' fourth straight victory and New Jersey's sixth straight defeat. Johnson, who tied a Meadowlands Arena scoring record, added 11 rebounds and 7 assists. The Nets lost James Bailey in the first quarter, when he broke two fingers on his left hand.

76ers 107, Suns 104. At Philadelphia, Charles Barkley scored 27 points and Julius Erving added 20 in the defeat of Phoenix. Barkley, who did not start because he was late arriving at the Spectrum, scored 17 points in the second half. Erving scored 18 points before intermission.

Pacers 109, Bulls 95. At Indianapolis, Chuck Person scored 17 of his 27 points in the fourth quarter to finish off Chicago. The game was played with only one official for the first 18:45 because referee Hugh Hollins was delayed by a snowstorm that hit the Midwest.

Rockets 127, Cavaliers 103. At Richfield, Ohio, Ralph Sampson scored 9 of his season-high 33 points during a 19-0 burst in the third quarter and grabbed 16 rebounds to spark Houston. Akeem Olajuwon added 22 points, 14 rebounds and four blocked shots for Houston.

Pistons 108, Hawks 98. At Pontiac, Mich., Adrian Dantley scored 27 points and Joe Dumars and Vinnie Johnson each added 20 as Detroit beat Atlanta to take over first place in the NBA's Central Division.

Spurs 113, Clippers 106. At San Antonio, Texas, Alvin Robertson scored 27 points against Los Angeles, which lost on the road for the 18th straight time and 31st time in 33 games. The Clippers' last road victory was Nov. 6, 1986, at Houston.

Nuggets 118, Blazers 116. At Denver, reserve Danny Schayes hit 3 free throws in the final six seconds to down Portland.

OVIEDO JV WINS. Carrie Stellhorn and Michelle Wynny scored 10 points each Monday night as Oviedo's junior varsity claimed a 37-26 victory

Stocks Open Higher, Again

NEW YORK (UPI) — Prices opened higher Tuesday in heavy trading of New York Stock Exchange issues.

The Dow Jones industrial average, which finished above 2100 for the first time Monday, was up 8.58 to 2111.08 shortly after the market opened.

Advances led declines 764-326 among the 1,559 issues crossing the New York Stock Exchange tape.

Early turnover amounted to about 21,175,000 shares.

The Dow Jones industrial average broke through 2100 Monday as the stock market reversed steep morning losses and gave the blue chip indicator its 12th consecutive 1987 gain.

The chance to purchase slightly cheaper stocks after the morning price-cutting brought buyers back to the market in force, analysts said.

"The market is like a reverse avalanche," said one trader. "There's too much cash on the sidelines to be short; you must be invested."

Traders said demand for stocks is coming from the public through mutual funds and from large institutional investors.

"The large investors have to buy in order to perform as well as competing fund managers," one trader said. "This is a perfect time to get out of the under-performing stocks and trade up for quality," he added.

Trude Latimer of Josephthal & Co. said profit taking and futures-related selling hurt prices in early trading but that the secondary stocks "withstood" the sell-off among Dow and other high-profile stocks "quite well." The Dow was down 18 points an hour after the opening bell.

Monte Gordon, research director at Dreyfus Corp., said after a 12-season winning streak for the Dow, the key question is whether a decline will amount to "shallow retracement" or a "full-fledged correction" involving a 10 percent to 15 percent loss of value.

Gordon said the "enormous amount" of cash available after December's tax-related selling has fueled the stock market's rise since the beginning of 1987. He said the liquidity build-up makes a sharp correction during the first quarter less likely.

Newton Zinder, technical analyst at E.F. Hutton, said at this point, the market could spend some time consolidating gains or stage "a narrower advance with more frequent pullbacks."

Dollar Rebounds, Gold Moves Lower

By United Press International

The U.S. dollar rebounded on major world money markets Tuesday following news that the Japanese finance minister will travel to Washington for talks on stabilizing exchange rates. The price of gold moved lower.

In earlier trading in the Far East, the dollar rallied against the yen on the Tokyo foreign exchange market, closing at 152.25 yen, up 1.80 from Monday's postwar low close of 150.45.

The report that Miyazawa will hold talks with U.S. Treasury Secretary James Baker in Washington spurred dollar buying in anticipation that the finance minister might win a U.S. agreement to slow the yen's steep appreciation.

Dealers said the Bank of Japan, continuing its strategy of intervention, was believed to have bought $500 million to $600 million during the course of the day to prop up the dollar. The central bank as a rule never comments on its intervention.

Dealers said traders also were awaiting reports that monetary officials of five major Western nations are expected to meet later this month to discuss the readjustment of currency exchange rates.

In European trading the dollar opened in Frankfurt at 1.8257 German marks, up from Monday's close of 1.8115.

In Zurich the dollar opened at 1.5305 Swiss francs, up from 1.522; in Brussels at 38.475 Belgian francs, up from 38.10; and in Amsterdam at 2.0625 Dutch guilders, up from 2.039 on Monday.

The dollar began the day in Paris at 6.12 French francs, up from 6.05, and in Milan at 1,300.75 lire, up from 1,290.85.

In London, the pound opened at $1.522 compared to Monday's close of $1.5345.

Lake Mary Picks Site For New City Hall

By Gene Lindberg Herald Staff Writer

Lake Mary city commissioners chose a site for their city's proposed city hall from a Capital Facilities Committee list of six possible locations at a work session Monday at 7:30 p.m.

The list provided an evaluation of each proposed site that helped the commission to narrow down its choice to one. The chosen location, referred to as "Site A," is adjacent to the existing city hall, Lake Mary Boulevard to its west.

The advantages of choosing Site A are visibility from Lake Mary Boulevard and central location. Also, choosing Site A over the other locations means that there would be a limited impact on the neighborhood and that Seminole Ave. could be vacated to gain additional land if necessary.

Mayor Dick Fess said he prefers Site A because of its road accessibility.

"It is important for public safety vehicles to get to the majority of our population as quickly as possible," he said. Some of the other sites "bother me on the public safety side."

Commissioner Charlie Webster said, "Site A is the best possible site in light of everything considered."

Three of the other sites considered by the commission were east of city hall. One site is between Crystal Lake Ave. and Wilbur Ave. The other two are between Lake Mary Ave. and Grand Bend Ave. and between Floyd and Alma Avenues.

The other two sites considered are southeast of city hall. One is between Crystal Lake Ave. and Wilbur Ave. with Second Street running through it. The other location is between Country Club Road and Second Ave.

Site A consists of blocks 46 and 52 of Crystal Lake Shores. Lots A through H are owned by Harriet Nixon. Lots J, K and L and 48 ft. of lot I are on the Rosa Minshew life estate run by Laurette Williams. The rest of lot I belongs to J. R. Williams. Lots M through T belong to the Rosa Minshew life estate. Lots U, V, W and X belong to Laurette and J.R. Williams.

On Block 52, lots A, B, C and D are owned by Mary Mize. Lots E and F belong to Sharon Fricke and Elizabeth Williams. G, H and I are owned by Jerry Farelia.

City Manager Bob Norris said that the lot information may not be totally complete and accurate at this time.

Norris will report back to the commission with names of qualified appraisers and their fees at the next work session. The commission agreed that three appraisers be selected to evaluate Site A. Norris said when the owners of Site A find out that their property is the new city hall target site, the value of their property will not change.

"I feel that the value of their property has not changed from yesterday to today," Norris said. "That's why you hire appraisers." He added that when the property is appraised, there may be reason to select an alternate site. So far, the only thing the city commissioners have identified is the best site offered by the CFC at this point in time, Norris said.

Norris also is to form a committee to review architectural firms.

Consideration of architectural firms should include their work in municipalities and in the private sector as well as what their overall track record has been in Central Florida, according to Fess. He then asked if any members of the audience, many of them architects, would like to ask the commission any questions.

Acting as a spokesman for the architects in the audience, an unidentified architect briefed the commission on their basic working procedure. He said that an architectural firm would take the information provided by the commission and then design something which would then be discussed with the commission. Architects work best with a cooperative group who knows what it wants, he said. "All should proceed quickly from there."

The commission also agreed that Camp, Dresser & McKee, Inc., the city's engineering firm, should act as consultant in the new proposed city hall building project. CDM will review and inspect the work at the city hall construction site and report back to the commission, but CDM will not do the engineering. "They're just going to represent the city," Fess said.

Fess was pleased that the commission had finally decided on a site for the new proposed city hall. He said, "We've been beating this around for 16 or 17 months now."

Commissioner Paul Tremel said that procuring the land is now the commission's first concern.

City Manager Norris personally commended the Capital Facilities Committee for its outstanding service in preparing the site evaluation which helped the commission to decide on Site A. "If the city shows the vision that the committee showed, the city will have a facility they will be proud of for years to come."

Members of the Capital Facilities Committee are: Doc Jore; Harry Terry; Ty Dedmon; Jim Tesar and Commissioner John Percy.

rived at the scene. Deputies were told that the vehicles belong to private individuals and used car dealers who have offered them for auction.

The vehicles were left with keys in the ignitions. They do not have license tags.

Deputies said they wouldn't know until sometime today just how many vehicles might have been stolen and who owns the stolen cars.

Court Rules City Door-To-Door Canvassing Restrictions Wrong

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court today ruled that an Illinois city's restrictions on door-to-door canvassing violated the Constitution's guarantee of freedom of speech.

The court rejected an appeal brought by the city of Waukega, Ill., seeking review of a ruling by the 7th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Although the court did not issue an opinion, its action affirming the appeals court decision is considered precedent binding on lower courts. Chief Justice William Rehnquist and Justices Byron White and Sandra Day O'Connor dissented.

The case concerned an ordinance adopted by the city in October 1979 that limited door-to-door solicitation to the time between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and banned such action on Sunday or any state or national holiday.

The ordinance also required solicitors to register with the city and allowed citizens to ban all solicitation by posting a sign.

In other action, the court: —Agreed to decide if the First Amendment guarantee of freedom of the press extends to high school newspaper articles about pregnancy and divorce in a case brought by the Hazelwood School District, St. Louis County, Mo.

—Let stand a court order prohibiting anti-abortion picketing in front of a Spokane, Wash., medical building where abortions are performed. The order prevented them from demonstrating directly in front of the entrance of the building, threatening or interfering with anyone entering or leaving the building or referring to doctors or patients as "murderers" and "baby killers."

—Ruled unanimously in a Pennsylvania case that the government need not give notice before filing a lawsuit to collect employment taxes from the creditors of employers who fail to pay the taxes.

—In another unanimous decision, ruled that the Interstate Commerce Commission may exempt from state regulation and taxes the truck portion of intrastate transportation provided by interstate rail carriers with their own trucking services.

The canvassing ordinance was challenged by the Illinois Public Action Council, a non-profit group that represents the poor before state and federal government.

victim's face and cursed him and called him names. The victim twice pushed the suspect to the floor to try to stop the argument. George Kendall said.

Just before the shooting, Ms. Henderson said she was going to bed, the report said. She went from the living room to her bedroom, but returned with a rifle in hand, Lee reported.

She allegedly told Jerry Kendall not to come toward her or she would shoot. But Jerry Kendall got up from his seat and started toward Ms.

Henderson. When he was about two feet from the gun he lunged toward it but didn't touch it. A shot was fired and Jerry Kendall fell wounded, George Kendall said.

The victim was transported to Central Florida Regional Hospital in Sanford.

Ms. Henderson was taken to the sheriff's department where she was questioned and arrested at about 4:30 a.m. today.

Jerry Kendall, according to sheriff's records, works for Ms. Henderson's A-1 Tree Service, Geneva.

There was another witness to the shooting, Ray Meadows, 35, of Orlando, who, according to the sheriff's report, refused to tell investigators what he saw.

West Germany Says Kidnapping Tied To Arab Hijacker Arrest

BONN, West Germany (UPI) — The West German government today acknowledged the kidnapping of a German in Beirut was linked to the arrest of an Arab hijacking suspect and the foreign minister reportedly contacted Iran and Syria about freeing the hostage.

Airport Jan. 13 of Mohammad Ali Hamadel, a Lebanese-born Palestinian.

Genscher contacted a number of Middle East countries, the spokesman said. They included

Iran and Syria, a government source said.

Until today, the Bonn government discouraged speculation of a link between the arrest of the Arab and the kidnapping.

In the Monday Sanford Herald report of Florida A&M University President Frederick Humphries' speech at a Sanford banquet honoring Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Saturday night, Humphries was quoted as saying he was heartened by Sanford's gestures toward racial harmony while disturbed gestures elsewhere. Humphries said he was disturbed by racial violence in other parts of the country, not other parts of the county, as the story inadvertently reported. The Herald regrets the error.

...Tribute

Mrs. Smith captured the magnitude of the involvement when she thanked participants Saturday at the King tribute culminating banquet. Praised was the tribute planning committee, which was formed through the Human Relations Advisory Board, and the board's chairman, Dr. Lurleen Sweeting.

The Mayor also lauded the school board and schools superintendent Bob Hughes, Mrs. Coleman, and the teachers, counselors and parents who encouraged thousands of students to participate in contests honoring King. Also hailed were the churches and clergy leaders who participated, as well as the interdenominational choir members who were led by Mary Whitehurst and performed at two tribute events.

The Mayor also thanked her fellow city commissioners for their support and also the city's police department and the city hall staffers who provided clerical support for tribute planning.

Doris Thomas and the 200 young people who participated in her play about King were also complimented by Mrs. Smith.

Dad's 'Personal Shopper' Left Out In Children's 'Thank You'

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a man who has two children by a previous marriage. The children are 13 and 16 years old, and live with their mother in another state.

Dear Abby

Here's the problem: My husband is quite remiss about sending gifts to his children on their birthdays and holidays, so I have always done the shopping. I try to select tasteful, appropriate gifts for each child. I even buy lovely cards that my husband signs: "With love from Dad."

I find myself feeling very resentful when the children write and express thanks to him, seldom thanking me unless instructed to do so — which is even worse.

Should I quit spending my time selecting gifts for them? Or do you think I am being selfish and expecting too much? I should add that my relationship with his children is an amiable one.

RESENTFUL IN TEXAS

DEAR RESENTFUL: His children have no way of knowing their gifts were selected by you when the cards are signed, "With love from Dad" — unless, that is, "Dad" tells them. You say the children seldom thank you unless instructed to do so. Who instructs them? If the "instructor" is Dad, then it would be much more generous and straightforward if the cards read: "With love from Dad and ()" (whatever they call you). Settle this now to ensure that the relationship with your husband is also amiable one.

DEAR ABBY: Your advice to "Heidi in Paulding, Ohio" brought back some precious memories. Heidi complained that nobody ever answered her letters, so you advised her to send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

I had a younger brother I used to write to, but he would never answer my letters, so I sent him an SASE and even enclosed some paper to write one. With it I sent a note: "Please write back and at least say 'Hi!'"

Well, he did. His letter read: "Dear Sis: Hi. I'm fine. Bye. Love, Wayne."

Eighteen months ago, the day before his 29th birthday, my beloved brother died of cancer.

My little joke of sending him an SASE envelope worked because after that he wrote more often and we talked on the phone a lot. But that first letter is one of my most cherished possessions.

By the way I tried the same thing with my older brother, but it didn't work. He still writes only once a year — at Christmastime.

SUSAN IN GOSEBEN, CALIF.

DEAR SUSAN: I send my heartfelt sympathy at the loss of your beloved brother. Maybe your older brother will see this and send you a Valentine.

DEAR ABBY: Thanks for the boost to older college students. At Kennesaw College in Marietta, Ga., there is even a name, SOTA (Students Over the Traditional Age), for students who are over 25 years old.

With a fall quarter enrollment of 7,297, 1,712 students were 30 or over. Of these, 526 were 40 or over; 92 were 50 or over; and 14 were between 65 and 72!

With such a dynamic campus, there's certainly no generation gap here!

A HAPPY SOTA

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Knighton

Willie Riggins, Oscar Knighton Repeat Vows

Willie Agnes Riggins, 1120 Cypress Ave., Sanford, and Oscar Knighton, Rochester, N.Y., were married Dec. 26, at 2 p.m., in a garden ceremony. The Rev. Roosevelt Green performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. Joe Riggins and Mrs. Willie Wilkins. The bridegroom is the son of Willie C. Knighton, Babson Park, and the late Mrs. Ester Knighton.

Given in marriage by her twin brother Joseph Riggins, the bride chose for her vows an ivory gown fashioned with a fitted crystal organza bodice accented with spiral lace daisies and a tea-length Chantilly lace and satin flared skirt with a row of pearls joining the bodice and skirt. Pearls and spiral daisies edged the hem of the skirt. An organza hat that formed a point in the centerfront, held her tiered veil of illusion.

Wilhelmina Mosley attended the bride as matron of honor.

She wore a burgundy gown with a camisole top and a cocoon jacket with sequined sleeves. Her headpiece was of burgundy and ivory carnations and she carried a bouquet of burgundy and ivory carnations and baby's breath.

Oscar Redding served the bridegroom as best man. Usher was Earl Quinn. Tova Gillis was flower girl and Gregory Cauthen was the ring bearer.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Elks Home. Assistants were: Patricia Hitchman, Dorothy Adams, Camilla Bares, Theresa James, Marie Martin, Ann Hampton, Dorothy Webster, Mary Brown, Gladys Banks, Johnny Mae Hampton, Juanita Golden and George Barnes with the video by Gaster and John Bane.

The Knightons are making their home in Sanford where the bride is employed as a teacher at Hamilton Elementary School.

SCC Sets Chinese Artists

Seminole Community College and The Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce have joined together to bring the Chinese Golden Dragon Acrobats and Magicians of Taipei to Seminole County. They are taking the country by storm as they criss-cross the United States and have been called "incredible," "breathtaking," "stunning," and "quite unbelievable" to quote a few of the critics, according to Craig Orsano of SCC.

The Chinese Golden Dragon Acrobats and Magicians of Taipei will appear at the Seminole Community College gymnasium on Sunday, Feb. 1, at 2:30 p.m. The public is invited and the cost of admission is $5.00 per person. Tickets are available at The Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce (322-2212), and at the Public Information Office of SCC, (323-1450 Sanford, 843-7001 Orlando, ext. 230).

The Chinese Golden Dragon Acrobats and Magicians of Taipei offer more than a glimpse into the fascinating Orient. The group consists of sensational acrobats and the magic of the East; in addition, comedy, balancing feats, Kung-Fu, and a troupe of elaborately costumed girls who perform beautiful traditional dances. It is a show for the entire family.

The grace and precision of the acrobats are the triumph of years of dedicated training and discipline and their art was formed by centuries of tradition. Most of the acts were created and performed in China as far back as 200 B.C., and have always been an integral part of the Chinese culture and the arts. Many of the acts clearly demonstrate the achievement of perfection through finding harmony between mind and body — an ancient concept in the Orient.

Internships Open To Students

The Smithsonian Institution is offering 5-week internships to 40 students who will graduate from high school this year. Seniors may apply for positions in various departments and offices in the Institution, in areas including archaeology, biology, journalism, photography, history, veterinary science, art, carpentry, library science and computer science.

Students chosen will receive a living allowance of $500. In addition to their duties as interns, the students will tour sites that many visitors to Washington, D.C., do not see, such as the Organization of American States and the World Bank.

As part of the program, the interns will hold seminars to explain to the group both their assignments and the functions of the host office.

Acceptance is based not as much on academic achievement as on a demonstrated interest in a particular subject area or career; the program has been designed to enable students to pursue their special interests while working with museum professionals.

In addition to the living allowance, interns who come from outside the Washington area will receive housing in a nearby dormitory. The Institution will also provide their transportation to and from Washington.

INTERN '87 will offer two separate sessions of the program, one from June 7 through July 10, and another, July 12 through Aug. 14.

For an application and complete information, high school seniors should write to: INTERN '87, Office of Elementary and Secondary Education, Arts and Industries Building, Room 1163, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C. 20560, or call (voice) (202) 357-3049 or (Telecommunications Device for the Deaf) (202) 357-1696.

Applications should be requested by March 16, and completed applications must be postmarked by March 20.

Ahoy Marine Celebrates 2nd Year At New Location

Steve Meadors is proud to announce the beginning of the second year in his new location at 511 E. 25th St., east of Sanford Avenue.

"1986 was a great success, and Seminole County's only Mariner Dealer is expanding," he said.

Ahoy Marine carries a full line of marine accessories including all Coast Guard approved equipment needed to qualify your boat for safety.

In addition to Shorelander and Ram-Lin boat trailers, you can obtain a Traveler, Drifter, or Lucky Strike boat from a large inventory. Steve has just added a new line of superior quality boats from Arkansas Boat Co.

"Look forward to the welcome addition of Pontoon Boats that are expected to be in stock by the first week in February," Meadors added.

He has been a qualified marine mechanic since beginning to repair Mercury engines in the early 70s and then graduating to owning his own Mariner dealership jointly with his mother, Dot Meadors.

"The weather is finally changing, and fishing season is on the way," said Steve. "Now's the time to make sure your boat and equipment are in good working order so you don't miss a day."

Due to quantity volume, he said Ahoy Marine is offering excellent prices on all engines and equipment. "If we don't have it in stock, most items are available on over-night delivery schedules," Meadors said.

"Come on down and see us — Steve and Dot — and look at the full line of Mariner engines from 2 HP to 200 HP now in stock."

Extended warranty coverage is available on all new Mariner Engines from Ahoy Marine as well as factory approved warranty service on other engines made under the parentage of Brunswick Corporation.

OPEC Price Pact Wins Temporary Acceptance

NEW YORK (UPI) — A potential showdown between OPEC and its customers over the cartel's decision to charge fixed prices for its oil beginning Feb. 1 has been temporarily averted, Petroleum Intelligence Weekly reported Monday.

Major oil companies generally have agreed to purchase OPEC oil at official prices in February while negotiating longer-term contracts, but few buyers are willing to commit themselves beyond February or March, the authoritative oil journal said.

In December, the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries agreed to cut production by 7.2 percent for the first half of 1987 and to return to a fixed oil pricing system based on an $18-a-barrel average Feb. 1.

Iran and Nigeria — widely viewed as the 13-nation cartel's weak links — are winning contract buyers due to the combined forces of the OPEC production cutback and the recent rise in oil prices on world markets.

For the first time in nearly four years, oil sold to the highest bidder on the spot market is at or above OPEC's official prices, Petroleum Intelligence Weekly said.

Iran has signed contracts with independent refiners at official prices through the end of April, and Nigeria is on the verge of concluding fixed-price deals that will extend at least into May, the journal said.

Most of Saudi Arabia's customers have agreed to take delivery of oil in amounts close to the levels specified in their contracts in February but are making only provisional commitments for later purchases.

The Aramco partners — Exxon Corp., Mobil Corp., Texaco Inc. and Chevron Corp. — and other large Saudi clients still are debating important details before accepting the kingdom's offer of February-June contracts, the journal said.

Attempts by OPEC member

Abu Dhabi — one of the United Arab Emirates — to set official prices ahead of schedule on Jan. 1 were as thwarted by resistance from foreign oil company producers.

The Soviet Union has postponed its fixed-pricing plans until Feb. 1 because it has little oil to sell now and is using the spot market to take advantage of strong demand created by the European cold wave, Petroleum Intelligence Weekly said.

Iraq claims to have buyers for all its oil exports at the new official prices, and fellow OPEC member Kuwait has concluded deals at fixed prices for February and March.

In the non-OPEC arena, Oman will begin charging official prices Feb. 1 for its oil — a yardstick for other Middle Eastern crude — and Norway has supported the cartel by announcing production cuts. Mexico is "moving slowly on the pricing question," the journal said.

British Aerospace To Supply NATO Satellites

LONDON (UPI) — British Aerospace will supply the new generation of military communications satellites for NATO, the first time a non-American contractor will be used for the alliance's spaceborne communications system, officials said Monday.

The Ministry of Defense said it concluded negotiations for the sale of two Skynet military communications satellites and associated ground equipment to NATO in an order worth $255 million.

"The satellites will meet NATO's political and military communications needs in the 1990s," a Ministry spokesman said. "Current plans are to launch the first satellite by the U.S. space shuttle in 1990."

A spokesman for British Aerospace said it will be the prime contractor, and Marconi Space Systems, the principal sub-contractor, will supply advanced communications payloads.

Procurement of the satellites for NATO will be handled by the Ministry of Defense.

The British Aerospace spokesman said the procurement "marks the first that NATO has entrusted to a non-American contractor ... the supply of satellites to maintain its front-line, spaceborne communications system which operates to fixed and mobile earth stations."

The Defense Ministry spokesman said the satellites for NATO will be nearly identical to the three Skynet 4 satellites being contracted from British Aerospace for Britain's own defense.

He said NATO first considered competing offers from the United States, but the success of the British Aerospace offer underscored the "all-round capabilities" of British industry in the field of advanced military space communications.

50 Years In The Business Madame Katherine Offers Psychic Advice

Madame Katherine, who was named Central Florida's best psychic by readers of Central Florida Scene Magazine, has been in business for more than 50 years and at her present location at 1001 S. Highway 17-92, Longwood, for 21 years.

Of Canadian descent, she offers readings by appointment only; call 305-895-7005.

"Because I'm a psychic, spiritual adviser, palmist and card interpreter, why be sick and worried and unhappy when there's no need for it and you could be helped by the spirit of God," said Madame Katherine.

"I have been in my work more than 50 years and been given the psychic award as the best psychic in Central Florida. I'm in the privacy of my own home. I read the past, present and future. I tell them about their problems and help them to straighten them out.

"I help them to find the right employment, and to make the right investments. I could reunite the separated, help lovers quarrels, find the lost article, etc. I'm like a poor man's psychiatrist."

Madame Katherine said everyone needs someone to talk to and she provides concrete answers to problems, not just neighborhood advice. "My readings are strictly confidential in the privacy of my own home, and I have helped countless people," she said.

"No problem is too big or too small that I cannot help you with it. Why wait until it's too late? Come in now."

She said she doesn't ask her clients any questions about themselves before going into a reading. "I don't ask you any questions, but I tell you what your problems are. When I am through with the reading you may ask questions and I will answer them," she said.

Chemical Bank Cuts Credit Card Rates

NEW YORK (UPI) — Chemical Bank Monday announced it would cut interest rates for some of its 1.5 million Visa and Mastercard customers to 16.8 percent annually from as high as 19.8 percent effective Feb. 1.

Chemical said it would cut interest rates on Gold Mastercards, which require a higher credit rating, and on Visa and Mastercards issued to its Chemplus customers who maintain a minimum balance of $1,000 in any combination of accounts with the bank. The rate cuts apply to all existing card balances for these customers as of Feb. 1, Chemical said.

The bank said it would continue its 25-day grace period and would not raise its credit-card fees to compensate for the reduction in rates.

"We believe that our new credit card pricing structure is particularly innovative in that it rewards those customers who establish a broader banking relationship with us as well as those who meet the credit standards ... for our Gold Mastercard," the bank said in a statement.

Banking analysts said the move by Chemical, one of the nation's largest credit-card issuers, is in response to similar announcements by competitors, particularly Chase Manhattan Bank. Chase in mid-December said it would cut its credit-card interest rates as of Feb. 1.

Rick Samartino, banking and financial analyst with Argus Research in New York, characterized Chemical's rate reduction as a defensive measure intended to counter a more aggressive move by Chase. He said Chemical's cuts are only designed to retain its preferred customers.

"We're starting to see competitive pressures for reducing rates," Samartino said. "Mainly because the market is saturated with 90-plus percent of the people who are eligible having credit cards, the banks are getting new customers only by taking them away from others."

Hormone Unlikely To Cause Changes

Dr. Gott

DEAR DR. GOTT — Two years ago I received an injection of the male hormone testosterone to help control fibrocystic breast disease. Soon after, I noticed an increase in body and facial hair. My periods also last longer and my premenstrual symptoms are more severe. Could one shot have produced all these changes? I'm 35 and otherwise healthy.

Other nerve disorders also can cause difficulty walking, however, so your son should ask his doctor for a referral to a neurologist in order to establish a precise diagnosis.

If you're having an operation, you should know all you can about it. Dr. Gott's new Health Report, AN INFORMED

APPROACH TO SURGERY, covers everything from second opinions to outpatient surgery. For your copy, send $1 and your name and address to P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR READER — Testosterone by injection usually is given in a long-acting form whose effect lasts for several weeks. Depending on the amount of male hormone you were given, you certainly may have developed increased facial hair and other changes. However, any continuing changes probably don't result from the injection you received two years ago. Ask your doctor about this.

DEAR DR. GOTT — Why do my fingers get numb and turn white when they get cold? DEAR READER — When exposed to cold, blood vessels in the extremities tend to constrict in order to shunt circulation to the body's interior, thereby conserving heat. This constriction causes blanching and numbness in proportion to the degree of cold.

Some people's vessels over-respond to modest changes in the outside air; these people usually are cold sensitive. Still others have Raynaud's phenomenon — severe vasoconstriction that is unrelated to cold. Raynaud's phenomenon often accompanies circulatory disorders and diseases of the blood vessels. It is usually followed by a rebound reaction, which consists of tingling and flushing of the extremities.

DEAR DR. GOTT — My son is 43, can only walk with a walker and often falls. His doctor has given him many tests, but can't find anything wrong. Is it possible that he has M.S.?

DEAR READER: Yes, it is. Multiple sclerosis is a neurological disease of unknown cause that produces weakness as well as abnormal sensations.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby
Four spades was certainly playable as a final contract, but three no-trump would have been a far easier game to make. However, the game was rubber bridge and South liked his 100 honors in spades. He also liked the fun of playing the hand. Although he missed the mark in the bidding, he was up to the winning play in his 10-trick contract. Declarer was familiar with an important principle of bridge play — it's worth the risk of going set an extra trick to make a game.

Lesson: Even with a good six-card major suit, the best game contract can frequently be three no-trump when your hand is balanced and you have strength in the other suits.
