REAPPORTIONMENT MEASURE TAKES TIME OF SENATE HOUSE ON TABERT CASE

MEASURE TO CHANGE VENUE WOULD HAVE HELPED THE WHIPPING BOSS JOINT SESSION

Of Legislature Committee Will Meet Today to Hear Score of Witness Who Saw Flogging

TALLAHASSEE, April 12.—The house tabled the bill by McCall, which in effect would have paved the way for a change of venue in the case of Walter Higginbotham, convict boss, charged with murder in connection with the death of Martin Tabert. The bill, while having no reference to Tabert case would have provided that state's attorney could be granted a change venue in felony cases upon properly substantiated motion placing him in the same standing as defendant.

A joint legislative investigating committee in the Martin Tabert flogging case held its initial formal session today and organized and adjourned until later in the afternoon, to hear evidence to be presented by scores of witnesses. During the brief session members of the committee sought to broaden authority invested by the legislature to investigate other cases of alleged flogging in convict camps in the state. Representative Kennerly sought to hold a full investigation of flogging Paul Revere, whit, of Baker county, in connection with John Roddenberry, convict boss, has been indicted.

The house unanimously adopted a joint resolution, which if considered by the senate, would invest joint investigating committee so as to probe the death of Martin Tabert with authority to probe all cases of report of convict brutality in the state, especially the case of John Roddenberry, on convict farm, of State Senator Knabb, in Baker county. The resolution was immediately sent to the senate but no action was taken by that body before adjournment.

The announcement of the resignation of Sheriff Tippetts of Lee county, oldest sheriff in point of service in the state, was made at the executive office. Tippetts resigned, it is understood, to take over care of a large estate in Lee county.

TALLAHASSEE, April 12.—Senator John P. Stokes, of Pensacola, was instructed by the senate constitutional amendment committee tonight to draw up a committee resolution looking to reapportionment on the basis of giving the five most populous counties three members each in the house, the next fifteen or twenty most populous two each, and the remaining counties one each.

The senate, in line with the thought carried from the committee by Mr. Stokes, will be equitably reapportioned according to population insofar as county lines would permit with a membership of 38.

This action followed a three hours' session, at which several members of the house from south Florida were heard. Indications at threat of the meeting were that the committee would adopt unanimously a measure drawn along these lines by Mr. Stokes, and tonight the proposition was looked upon favorably by those south Florida representatives who attended the meeting.

The proposition presented by Mr. Stokes was a thought taken from a measure introduced by Senator Campbell, which the committee had under consideration, and which in its present form would provide that the 20 most populous counties have two members each in the house, and the others one, while the senate with a membership of 38 would be apportioned equitably.

This plan would be embodied in a proposed constitutional amendment to be presented at the next election, the legislature of 1925 to effect the reapportionment, and if it failed, the governor would do so by a proclamation. The committee also had before it a measure by Senator Phillips embodying the same plan as voted down

CONSOLIDATION OF FIVE ROADS MADE TODAY

FIVE MIDDLE WESTERN ROADS UNDER DIRECTION OF VAN SWEARINGEN INTERESTS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 12.—The consolidation of five middle western railroads under the direction of Van Swearingen interests of Cleveland was officially consummated here today when incorporation papers for the consolidated road which will be known as the New York, Chicago & St. Louis were filed with the secretary of state.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT GIVES HEED TO VOLSTEAD ACT

LONDON, April 12.—The British government is giving due deliberation to representations made by the United States government concerning the smuggling of liquor to the American mainland, from Nassau and West India ports, the house of commons was informed tonight by Ronald McNeill, under secretary for foreign affairs. The question came before the house when members asked whether attention had been called to the participation in the traffic by ships flying the British flag and whether steps were being taken against this action, against the law of a friendly power.

Mr. McNeill in confirming that representations had been made by the United States, said that the liquor appeared to be introduced subsequently into the United States by the small craft from the American coastwise ships manned by United States citizens.

"It is very difficult," he said, "for his majesty's government to interfere with the legitimate export of any article from British territory, especially as action by the British government alone would merely drive the trade into other channels.

Airplane Will Try to Get Supplies to Stranded Autoists

MIAMI, April 12.—An aeroplane piloted by Capt. Carr carrying Chas. Hunt, one of the Fort Myers motorcycle crowd, who made his way across the Everglades into Miami at midnight last night, left this morning with supplies for the other twenty-two members of the party who were left yesterday morning 63 miles west of Miami short of food and smokes. The plane will try to land food near the stranded motorists.

Last November with the exception that the membership of the senate would be definitely placed at 38, rather than limited at that number, and with a promise by Mr. Phillips to meet the previous objections regarding the senate apportionment were not specific.

Another measure by Senator Mitchell would have figured the house units on a basis of 15,000 population, with an additional member for each 25,000 population. The state would be redivided regardless of county lines for the senate apportionment.

Mr. Campbell also had a plan whereby the present legislature would effect the reapportionment by giving seven counties two members each in the house and redistricting the state for the senate apportionment.

Probably a dozen senators and representatives spoke before the committee. Oratory and pleas of state unity and fairness for south Florida gave the hearing the aspect of a regular senate session.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HAS OUTLIVED USEFULNESS AND HAS NO FUTURE AFTER HUNDRED YEARS SERVICE

Dr. Gardner Says Young People Are Looking at Religion From a New Angle

OMAHA, Nebr., April 12.—Sunday school has outlived its usefulness and is without future after more than a hundred years of Christian service, Rev. Dr. William Gardner, executive secretary of the Department of Religious Education of the Protestant Episcopal Church, said in his address in opening the annual conference of educational leaders of the denomination here today. Boys and girls who are growing up today will not carry on religious quarrels of past. They are looking at religion from a new angle, he said. In religious education, he added, the primary question is "Can you convince the boys and girls there is a personal God and that he has laws spiritual and physical which express relationship that these are invincible laws that cannot be tampered with."

NATION'S STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE WILL BE THE LARGEST ON RECORD IN EVERY STATE THAT GROWS

This Fine Fruit and Florida Alone Ships Nine Million Quarts

CHICAGO, April 12.—Indications that the nation's strawberry short cake this year will be the largest of record reported today by the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Statistics on early shipments and average in berry producing fields showed this year's crop in all probability would exceed last year's record output of 18,740 carloads, not including numerous express shipments and vast quantities consumed locally or manufactured into preserves and jellies.

The forecast of production in Florida this year is nearly nine million quarts or one hundred and ten per cent more than last year. Carlot shipments to April 7th were 107 cars, almost three times as many cars as came from Florida all last season.

WHIPPING BOSS INDICTED FOR FIRST DEGREE MURDER BEFORE MADISON GRAND JURY

Death of North Dakota Boy in Convict Camp Will Be Avenged at Last

MADISON, Wis., April 12.—Walter Higginbotham, "whipping boss" at a convict camp of the Putnam Lumber Company at Clara, Fla., was indicted here late today by the grand jury on three counts charging first degree murder in connection with the death of Martin Tabert, North Dakota youth.

Tabert died three days after he had been whipped by Higginbotham in February, 1922, according to witnesses, who appeared before the grand jury today, but camp officials contend the youth died of natural causes.

Higginbotham was released tonight on bail of $10,000 pending his trial. Circuit Judge Horne announced that Higginbotham probably would be tried at a special term of court May 15 at Cross City, Fla., the county seat of Dixie county, where the whipping is said to have been administered.

The former camp boss had nothing to say when informed of the grand jury's action. Higginbotham's attorneys said they would admit that the lash was used on Tabert, but that the blows given him were light and were administered because of his failure to work. The blows were not hard enough to have inflicted severe injuries, it was asserted.

GROWERS AND SHIPPERS IN THE SANFORD SECTION TO FORM ORGANIZATION WHICH WILL ELIMINATE THE HAZARDS IN GAME OF SELLING THE CROPS

PATHFINDERS ARE FOUND IN EVERGLADES

SUPPLIES BEING RUSHED TO THEM FROM MIAMI AND MINNI

MIAMI, April 12.—Supplies were being rushed to twenty-two members of the Tamiami trail pathfinders, who it was reported by three of their comrades who reached Miami early this morning are about sixty miles west of here and making only small like progress on the trip to Miami. Hopes were expressed, however, that they would reach here by tomorrow night.

Drives Blindfolded Orlando to Sanford, Many With Thompson

Hayward Thompson, the ex-marine injured in the war who seems to have a second sight and can drive anywhere over strange roads blindfolded with a heavy silk cloth drove a car from Orlando to Sanford this morning and arrived here about noon with several cars ahead of him and behind him. He drove over the city without any trouble and seemed to avoid cars and obstacles as well or even better than people seeing with both eyes. The Orlando Reporter Star says:

How does he do it? What is the source of the gift of supreme fearlessness, of confidence that he can thread the mazes of traffic, his eyes blindfolded and yet be warned by some inner voice when there is danger, when to stop and when to go ahead. Hayward Thompson does not know and is not questioned so closely.

Hayward Thompson is the man who, for the past year, has been under observation by some of the greatest scientists of the country. They have sought by every means to explain the remarkable feats performed by this psychological mystery. But there has yet to be advanced a theory in which Mr. Thompson himself can place complete credence.

Through here Mr. Thompson will at noon tomorrow give a demonstration of one of his most difficult feats; one which tries his physical endurance to the utmost, and one which he declares there is no record of any other person in the world having performed. With his eyes securely blindfolded tomorrow at noon, he will drive a Maxwell automobile over a route mapped out for him over the city streets. A committee, consisting of prominent citizens, will examine the blindfold and officiate at the start, making sure that there is no possible opportunity for fraud.

"People generally don't believe in things they can't see," says Mr. Thompson. "I know that and I expect innumerable tests. I know that the things I do are incredible—I can't explain them to myself. And the most remarkable of all are the ones of which I can not speak publicly, because I have not sufficient definite proof."

It was after a complete lapse of memory in November, 1921, that Mr. Thompson's case first attracted attention. Roaming over the country under the name of Thomas A. Anderson, it was revealed in Denver, Col., that he was Hayward Thompson, disabled ex-marine. A quest in search of health caused him to visit the leading brain specialists throughout the United States. Dispairing of relief, and as a last resort Thompson visited a leading chiropractor of Denver, Col. Examination disclosed that Thompson was suffering a subluxation of the second vertebra of the spine, restoration of the bone to its normal position culminated in the most remarkable recovery credited to the science.

Congressmen and Senators probably think this is their vacation, but the American public knows whose vacation it really is.—Boston Shoe and Leather Reporter.

ELIMINATE CHANCE

And Haphazard Methods of Growing, Packing, Shipping and Selling Fla. Products

As many of the growers and shippers who can possibly do so are asked to be present at the next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce which will be held Friday, as usual, at the Valdez Hotel at 12:15 p. m.

There is a strong sentiment prevailing at this time for the organization of the many interests concerned in the production and marketing of the staple crop of this section, into an association that will eliminate the hazards which now prevail in the distribution end of the business. A large number of the growers are insistent that some method be perfected toward this end and at the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, the subject was presented with a view of ascertaining the attitude of the various interests. At Friday's meeting the subject will again be discussed and it is believed that some plan can be evolved that will prove practical and placed in operation before next season.

However, in order that this be done it is obviously necessary that the majority of the practical men in the business cooperate without further delay. While the idea of a centralized marketing association is a new one for Sanford, it has proven practicable in other sections of the country. Snap judgment as to whether it can or cannot be done here should be withheld until the situation has been thoroughly analyzed by those competent to do so.

It would indeed be a reflection upon the resourcefulness of the community, if it were unable to provide remedial measures for a condition which threatens the economic life of Sanford.

Those individuals intending to be at the meeting Friday are asked to phone the Secretary, 51, so that sufficient accommodations can be arranged in advance.

HEAT IN EARTH'S INTERIOR

Official of United States Geological Survey Has Come Forward With Some New Facts.

Long-established theories regarding the intense heat in the earth's interior may have to be revised, if the inconclusive evidence adduced by temperature tests in 107 deep wells in this country by Dr. C. E. Van Orstrand of the United States geological survey should be confirmed by further investigation.

According to this expert, the steady increase in temperature, so great that a miner could not live at a depth of one mile, appears to be less rapid a little beyond that depth.

Combined with the fact that mathematicians have not yet found the law of distribution of temperature from the surface to the center of the earth, this makes uncertain the estimate of some scientists that the heat at the center is as high as 180,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

Observations at a depth of about 7,500 feet have been taken, but Doctor Van Orstrand has not been able to carry his investigations further.

FLORIDA WATERWAYS TRAFFIC LEAGUE IS SEEKING WORLD MARKET FOR STATE PRODUCTS

the great program of waterway construction outlined by The Florida Waterways Traffic League.

"As I view it the Water-Traffic League plan is the only solution of the problem of how to get to market the perishable products of the state.

"The roads are not able to handle the traffic offered them now, and there is no prospect of their being able to take care of the vast acreage of new groves, ne wtruck and vegetable lands—the product from which will soon be seeking—and must find—broader and freer markets, a lower carrying charge and above all, a certain means of quick transportation in properly equipped carriers.

"Beyond question the plan of the Florida Water Traffic League to secure a channel 200 feet wide and 20 feet deep in the St. Johns river between Jacksonville and Sanford, with ultimate extensions through canals covering virtually all the territory from Jacksonville to the Everglades and west from the Atlantic at Titusville almost across the state, is the most forward looking question in Florida today.

TOWN PLANNING GROWS

City planning includes two lines of preparation for the city's future growth. One involves provision for parks, streets, public places and public buildings, so that these will be in the right places and adequate for future needs.

Zoning dictates the height, area and use of buildings in specific sections of the city, so that every landowner may be protected from impairment of his share of light and access, and so that none may be made to suffer unvoluntarily from offensive smells, noises or sights.

There is now a national conference of city planning, carrying an educational publicity and able to advise communities wish to do some local city planning before it is too late.

MID PLEASURES AND PALACES

President Harding never looked more like a typical American than in the news that he had purchased his birthplace and would retire there when through with public life, to write and play golf.

Mr. Harding differs from the average only in that he lives when at home in the same state in which he was born. Most Americans have traveled further before taking root, and would find it more difficult to return.

Even the North Bloomfield farm is different, as the President will discover. Trees are gone, trees have grown up where there were none, the contours of the land are strangely shifted.

OUR NEXT VICE PRESIDENT.

A farmer boy, born at the foot of the Catskill range of mountains in New York state, left school at the age of fourteen, and started out alone, without means or influence, to make his livelihood.

That he became eminently successful in his chosen profession would be nothing more remarkable than that which has been accomplished in many lines of effort by thousands of our American youth.

But there is a very interesting sequel to this story of the unsophisticated country lad, "who was born in the mountains."

His name is Charles Haines, and he lives in the village of Kinderhook, New York. He has built and operated several small steam and street railways, and it is said that his plans and processes in railway construction have challenged admiration and that the rapidity with which he has prosecuted great works have never been surpassed.

The Democrats were to meet in convention to nominate a candidate from the 19th Congressional district for member of congress. This district was strongly republican. It was Colonel Samuel J. Tilden, a nephew of former Governor Samuel J. Tilden, once a candidate of the Democratic party for the presidency, who surprised his fellow delegates by announcing: "I know the man, Haines of Columbia county."

Kindershook was the birthplace and the home of Martin Van Buren, the 8th president of the United States, and the aristocracy of that old Dutch town were indignant over the possibilities of being represented by a "greenhorn," while the Republicans of the district claimed he would prove a nonentity if elected.

It was but a brief time after young Haines took his seat in congress that the good people of the 19th New York congressional district were startled one morning over the big headlines in the New York dailies.

The ind "who was born in the mountains" was quickly recognized as a statesman of very marked ability, and he has since that time demonstrated this fact by his course as a member of the House of Representatives.

THE CENSORS

PROMPT ACTION.

The majority of the Legislature appears to be desirous of doing the right thing in the Martin Tabert case. A full investigation has been provided for by the appointment of a joint committee of the two houses.

It was a proper and graceful thing for the House of Representatives to vote that the committee exonerate the body of young Tabert and to give it proper clothing and a decent burial at the expense of the state.

After all is said and done, the fact remains that all this disgrace and shame, the death of this boy, the world-wide unfavorable publicity which Florida has received as a result of that death, would have been avoided had the sheriff's office of Leon county delivered to Martin Tabert the registered letter containing the money for his release.

CONVICT LEASE SYSTEM AND PUBLIC HANGINGS OUT OF DATE EXCEPT IN FLORIDA

Because the convict lease system and public hangings as practiced in Florida are of particular interest to the people of the state at present, the General Extension Division of the University of Florida has compiled some interesting information and published bulletins on these subjects for the convenience of the public.

The bulletin on the convict lease system shows the states which lease state convicts and under what conditions; states which permit counties to lease county convicts and under what conditions; and, states which have had a system permitting the state or the county to lease convicts.

The bulletin on public hangings gives information on the question of capital punishment as handled in other states; how persons are executed, where executions are held, states which permit public public executions, persons permitted to attend executions, and the opinion of many citizens of Florida on this subject. From the answers to a query sent to governors and attorney generals it is noted that it has been fifty years or more since public hangings not only have been abolished but the law observed and the practice discontinued in most other states.

WHERE ARE THE CONVICT INSPECTORS

Florida employs a bunch of convict inspectors. They are paid a good salary to travel over the state and see that the convicts are properly cared for and get good treatment. At least we formerly had these inspectors and suppose we have them yet.

This matter seems to be up to Governor Hardee about as much as anyone in the state for he is the head of the state and has charge of the convict inspectors. And Governor Hardee and the state of Florida has much to answer for in this respect.

FLORIDA GROWING, SAYS DAVID LAIRD OF SOUTHERN BELL

NOW FLORIDA MANAGER AND IS IN CHARGE OF ALL OF THE FLORIDA BUSINESS

David Laird, Florida manager of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, was in the city yesterday on a tour of inspection visiting the various stations and in a conversation with a representative of the Herald said that Florida was growing more rapidly than any state in the union. Mr. Laird is in a position to know whereof he speaks since the Southern Bell Telephone Co. feels the impetus of growing cities and states as quickly as any other line of business in the world and the work of installing new connections is the best sign of rapid growth.

Mr. Laird states that the Southern Bell Telephone Company is making over a million dollars worth of improvement in the State of Florida in the endeavor to keep up with the needs of the state and to give the people service.

Mr. Laird is well pleased with the outlook in Sanford and predicts that Sanford is one of the coming cities of Florida. The plant here is said to be one of the best in the state and is up-to-date in every particular and the local manager, Howard Overlin, is keeping it up to the standard in every way. Recently the Lairds moved from Savannah to Jacksonville to make their home and their many Georgia friends gave them a silver service to attest their feelings and friendship as they had been residents of Savannah for seventeen years while Mr. Laird was in charge of Georgia and Florida. The business in this state has increased so rapidly that a Florida manager was needed and Mr. Laird was chosen for the position and as he states he is now a full-fledged "Florida Cracker" and living in the state where he is perfectly at home.

Dr. Blackman, president of the Community club called the meeting to order and gave a short talk upon the many benefits of such an organization to a community. He also highly complimented the Athletic Club for the wide awake, hustling spirit of its members and encouraged the juniors in every way towards true, clean sports. S. S. Allegheny, New Ship Added to The Merchants & Miners Coastwise Fleet

The steamship Allegheny, a new passenger and freight steamship which represents in construction and equipment nearly one million dollars, has been added to the fleet of the Merchants & Miners Transportation Company. The vessel is the last word in the Atlantic coastwise service, and is now in port in Jacksonville having just arrived at the Gateway City on its maiden trip from Baltimore.

All the conveniences and comforts available on ocean liners are embodied in the ship. She is fitted to accommodate more than 200 cabin passengers, and fine quarters for third class travelers are in a pleasant part of the ship. Although destined for coastwise service the Allegheny is equipped with a regulation ocean going life saving system, consisting of powerful motor boat and seven passenger lifeboats capable of accommodating 280 persons.

In the engine room all pumps, electric generators and condensers are installed in duplicate, making a breakdown impossible. Captain Thomas P. Pratt, officer and master in the Merchants & Miners since 1895, is master. Public receptions have been held on board the Allegheny at the Baltimore and Savannah ports and yesterday and today the steamer is being inspected by the public at Jacksonville.

Dempsey Quits Ring to Become Head of Coal Mine Company

(By The Associated Press) SALT LAKE CITY, April 12.—Jack Dempsey may never fight again, Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, made that announcement last night after Dempsey had been elected president of the Great Western Coal Mines Co., of which he is said to own the controlling interest.

"This proposition is so big," Kearns said, in detailing the plans for the development of the Dempsey mines, "that he is thinking of retiring and devoting his entire energies to making this enterprise his life work in the future."

"If Dempsey does fight again," Kearns said, "he will train at Dempsey City, Utah, a town being built at the site of the Dempsey mines."

Kearns is secretary and treasurer of the coal company.

The company owns 2,000 acres of coal lands and 6,000 acres of agricultural land in Castle Valley, including the town site. It also has a three and a half-mile railroad and is building three additional miles.

"President" Dempsey announced he was going back to an old love in returning to the coal mining business. In his earlier years he worked as a miner in Colorado and West Virginia.

WRESTLING MATCHES OF MERIT FOR SANFORD FANS FRIDAY NIGHT

Events Comes Off in Park Avenue Garage and It Will Be a Fight to the Finish

The fans are going to be given a real treat in the way of a wrestling match at the Park Avenue Garage, Sanford, Friday night, April 13th (tomorrow). Two matches of real merit will be staged, the place being placed in proper shape for the affair, with plenty of good seats, good lights, etc. The preliminaries will start at 8:00 o'clock sharp and the first start on the program will be a bout between Sanford's best, Collie Biggers, and Young Londos, of Miami. Young Londos challenges any wrestler at 125 to 135 pounds, and he doesn't confine that challenge to Florida, or America, but takes in the entire world. Every Sanford fan knows Collie's ability and this should be worth the admission price alone.

The big match of the evening, however, is the fight to a finish between Ralph King, champion light heavyweight wrestler, and Jack Ross, champion middle-wrestler of the South. The Sanford fans are fortunate in having such an exhibition staged here and they all should turn out and see it.

The curtain goes up at eight sharp, the affair will be handled by competent judges. The price is 50c, $1.00 and $1.50, plus the war tax. The night is Friday, the 13th, and the place is the Park Avenue Garage.

SANFORD HIGH ANNOUNCES PART OF SCHEDULE—ORLANDO FIRST

Games Arranged With Orlando, New Smyrna and Winter Park—More Later

The Sanford High School will officially open their 1923 season Friday, the 13th, and will play Orlando in Sanford. The Feds will return this game the following Friday. Sanford plays New Smyrna at New Smyrna May 3rd, the boys from the coast playing here the Friday following that. Games have been arranged with Winter Park but the exact date has not as yet been decided upon.

These boys, with their coach, are working hard to give as good a representation as possible, and although the critics state that Sanford's baseball team will not make the same smoke as their football and basketball teams did, yet they will give a showing for themselves that will entitle the fans consideration.

These games will be played on the Ninth Street Park and although the park will not be fenced, the ones in charge of the High School's finances are in hopes that there will be no one hold out on them when the hat is passed around. It takes money to run any kind of a base ball team, and every Sanford fan should get behind this team as they have in the past season and come across with the little two-bits or four-bits which ever it may be.

Remember that the opening game is at Sanford this coming Friday and our old friends Orlando will furnish the chief amusement. Be on hand—you'll see a good game.

Babe Ruth Wants to Go Back And Show 'Em Next Year

NEW YORK, April 12.—With all his printers-ink titles—Sultan of Swat, Behemoth of Bust—Hedjcz of Hit—Babe of Baseball—George Herman Ruth, rightful king of home run hitters, fell uncrowned today. Somewhere out in the war west the Babe is ploughing eastward from Tulsa, Oklahoma, with a heavy heart, sad memories, a strong resolution and the remainder of the New York Yankee team who won a game there Tuesday from the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5 to 4. Two Yanks and two Dodgers made home runs—but not Ruth. Instead, Babe, the object of 2,000 school boy eyes, stood up and struck out four successive times. After the game, the hero-worshippers followed their idol to the club house, cheering him, but not in derision. Ruth was touched and said: "I want to come back here next year. I'd like to hit a homer for you

EDWARD EYRE HUNT CLARENCE M. WOOLEY JOSEPH H. DEFREES

The special committee on unemployment from the depressions in the business cycle appointed by Secretary Hoover, as chairman of the President's Conference on Unemployment, has made public the conclusions reached after more than a year's study. The Committee comprises: Owen D. Young, chairman of the board of the General Electric Company (Chairman); Joseph H. Defrees, former president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce; Mary Van Kleeck, of the Russell Sage Foundation of New York; Matthew Woll, vice president of the American Federation of Labor; Clarence M. Wooley, chairman of the American Radiator Company, and Edward E. Hunt, Secretary. The committee enlisted the services of more than 200 employers, labor leaders, economic experts, financial advisors and social workers. It was requested by Secretary Hoover that they make an exhaustive investigation into the facts and causes of periodic business depressions—hard times—and to see if suggestions could be made of remedial steps that might be taken by the business community to avoid such interruptions to prosperity and employment. The Committee has now issued its own summary of conclusions and suggestions. This will be followed at an early date with the complete publication of the facts and material collected. The Committee analyzes the various economic phenomena of the periodic business boom and sequent depression and its conclusions are that preventive measures must lie in the better handling of business in boom times because depression and hard-times are due to over expansion, inflation, loss of efficiency, waste and extravagance of the boom periods; that therefore the first point of attack on the problem must be more informed action by individual business men in periods of rising markets in order that excessive expansion may be prevented and the extent of the decline reduced. Stress is laid upon the necessity for better understanding of the business cycle by the business executives generally. The suggestions for control of excessive expansion embrace recommendations as to the control of credit by individual banks, possible control of inflation by the Federal Reserve System, the control by individual business men of expansion in their own business and the retardation in boom times of Governmental and large utility building and construction. The methods of reducing the extent of the decline lie in the building up of Governmental and public utility construction in times of depression, the use of unemployment funds and the expansion of Federal, state and farm employment bureaus. The better control of credit against our existing Government and public utility individual banks and the guidance of business itself by danger signals of over expansion are fundamental. The Committee considers that before the banks, business men and others can take constructive action in the enlightened conduct of business in this relation, there must be recruited and constantly disseminated the fundamental information on which the trends in business can be properly adjudged by each individual business man, and it strongly recommends the recruiting of enlarged and more systematic statistical information by the Department of Commerce and its wider dissemination. The Committee calls attention to the fact that the ebb and flow in demand for consumable goods is less controllable than that of construction of buildings and equipment both Governmental and private; that the tendencies of boom periods is to thrust a double burden on the community of providing for increased consumable goods and at the same time undertake the larger burdens of construction; that, therefore, the construction industries are to some extent the balance wheel on the ebb and flow of boom and depression. The Committee points out the part that Federal Reserve Banks can play in restriction of speculation and over-expansion and at the same time in liberalizing credit in times of depression, and it points out that at the present moment the Federal Reserve Banks hold a larger supply of gold than is necessary to support the credit machinery of American commerce, and suggests that consideration be given to earmarking a special reserve of this gold as against probable future gold shipments from the United States and thus accomplish the double object of preventing both temptation to inflation of credits on the basis of this surplus gold supply, and at the same time the great embarrassment of possible financial credit difficulties that would arise if foreign drafts were made upon the gold which had been used as a credit basis. The Carnegie Foundation made appropriations toward meeting the cost of the inquiry. The National Bureau of Economic Research, The Russell Sage Foundation, the Federated American Engineering Societies, the United States Chamber of Commerce, the American Federation of Labor, the American Statistical Association, the American Economic Association, the Bureau of Railway Economics and the Department of Commerce were among the bodies which contributed services. The vast compilation of fact and opinion on which the committee based its conclusions was effected under the direction of the National Bureau of Economic Research, whose director, Wesley C. Mitchell, is nationally known as an authority on the business cycle.

NO GETTING AWAY FROM IT

Washington Man's Name, in Some Way, Intimated That He Was an Easy Mark.

Before Frederick W. Steckman became the Washington representative of certain financial interests in New York, he occupied just a simple office of his own, with his name painted on the glass door. Steckman had always complained that he was a sort of easy mark, a sympathetic fellow who was susceptible to more than his share of hard-luck tales.

One night as Fred Steckman sat in his office alone a wayfarer came in the door, related a sorrowful tale and touched Steckman for the price of a meal. As Steckman handed over the money and exhibited just a bit of impatience he asked:

"Say, I wish you'd tell me one thing: Out of all the men and offices in this big building why did you select me and this office to make a touch?" "Well," said the panhandler, "I dunno exactly, except that your name sorter looked easy. I looked 'em all over all down the corridor, and when I came to Steckman it somehow suggested to me that here was a kindly fellow who'd fall for my yarn. And you did. I don't know why it struck me that way, but it did."

"Well, I'll be d—d," said Steckman, as he turned back to his desk; "even my name costs me money."—Washington Post.

CITRUS SALES HAVE RETURNED FLORIDA GROWERS $31,000,000

Shipment for Season Thus Far Exceed Last Year's By 6,414 Cars. Says Business Manager Stewart, of Florida Citrus Exchange in Monthly Review

TAMPA, April 11.—Shipments of Florida citrus fruit for the season up to April 1 were 6,414 carloads in excess of shipments for the same period during the previous season, according to the monthly citrus review of C. E. Stewart, business manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange. The total amount of money that has been brought back into the state this season by the sale of citrus fruit, says the review, is now more than $31,000,000.

Discussing crop conditions, Mr. Stewart says: "The recent rains have had a very beneficial effect and the groves are in a satisfactory condition with a heavy bloom reported from all sections. While the rains have been generally light they have been well distributed over the citrus growing areas and with a favorable season the next crop should show a substantial increase over the present one.

"The serious shortage of refrigerator cars occurring all through the month of March has been relieved, to some extent. The carriers' now advise that every effort is being made to secure a more prompt return of empty refrigerators to the loading territory. The American Railway Association has authorized the sending to Florida of all additional western line refrigerators unloaded east of Pittsburgh.

Will require approximately 150 cars per day for the balance of the season to handle the citrus crop and a large percentage of these should move under refrigeration.

"Inquiry for canned grapefruit is steadily increasing and the demand continues to exceed the supply. The entire output of the Eagle Lake plant of the Florida Citrus Exchange, for the remainder of the season, will be required to fill orders that have already been received.

"Active preparations are now under way for the increase in the production of canned grapefruit next season. Indications are at this time that the net returns to growers from the sale of grapefruit in cans will be very profitable, and that the development of this industry will greatly increase the value of the citrus crop of Florida.

"Unsettled weather conditions in the north, with the continued heavy arrival of undesirable sizes, have had a tendency to slow the movement of both oranges and grapefruit at the close of the month's trading.

"Market price difference between small and large size oranges is becoming more apparent. Since the first of the month the demand for smaller stock has been steadily increasing and prices have correspondingly advanced. Large fruit, on the other hand, is meeting with less interest and prices have been gradually dropping. Shipments of 126s and larger are going at a discount.

"Grapefruit is in active demand, but the trade wants only the best stock. There is an absolute indifference toward the off sizes and low grades of inferior fruit. Heavy shipments of this undesirable stock have had depressing effect on the markets and are affecting the price of good fruit. This condition applies not only to outside markets, but is also reflected in the auctions, where good prices are paid for good fruit but other stock is meeting with little favor.

"The general range of prices for oranges in the leading markets is from $4.50 to $6.75 a box delivered, though some ordinary fruit has sold as low as $1.50 a box. Grapefruit prices at the close of the month range from $3.00 to $4.75 a box delivered. Prices have shown a general tendency to increase during the month, especially on good stock, and if the markets are not flooded with too much low grade fruit further advances may be expected as the season gradually draws to a close.

"During the month of March 6,143 carloads of citrus fruit moved from the state, consisting of 3,115 cars of oranges and 3,028 cars of grapefruit. Shipments during the last week of March dropped to 1,035 cars. This reduction may be attributed to general conditions during this period and the inclination of growers to hold back shipments in anticipation of an increase in prices.

"Carload shipments of oranges this season now total 20,892, as compared with the shipment last season of 16,403 carloads up to April 1 of that year, an increase for this year of 15,580 carloads, compared with 11,055 carloads for the same period last year, an increase of 1,925 cars for this year. The total increase in citrus shipments up to April 1 this year, over the shipments for the same period last year, is 6,414 cars.

"The total shipment of 34,472 cars to April 1 at 360 boxes to the car equals 12,409,920 boxes that have

ATTENTION YOUNG MEN.

If your Uncle Sam ever gets into another war wouldn't you like to be more than one of the rank and file? Wouldn't you like to be able to fill an officers' shoes? The National Guard offers you this chance of training and since the reductions in the strength of the standing army the United States has only the trained guardsmen to fall back on for future emergency. The guard is now the backbone of the fighting forces, a nucleus to build an army around and every man in the guard is considered a potential officer or instructor for the mass of fighting men that would come, untrained, to the colors.

The army of Uncle Sam is reduced to a mere handful and you owe it to your country to prepare yourself as much as possible for another National emergency.

Company D of Sanford offers you much in the line of military training in a much different manner than most organizations of this kind. Most of the usual drill is unnecessary as this outfit turns out machine gun experts that know their business, there are also several novel features attached to this company that make it more like a club than a government institution.

The Company would like a few 100 per cent Americans to round out the personnel before the summer encampment and anyone interested in this feature would do well to get in touch with company officials in the next few weeks.

ELECTROCUTION FOR HANGING

(By The Associated Press)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 12.—Electrocution would be substituted for hanging in bills now pending in both the house and senate. Representative Fred H. Davis, of Leon county, is author of the house measure while Senator W. W. Phillips, introduced the measure in the senate. Under the terms of both measures an electric chair would be set up at the state farm, and all executions would be carried out there.

The Herald for first class job work.

An Unequaled Distribution

While gratifying to the organization, and to the growers it serves, the success of the American Fruit Growers Inc. in obtaining top-of-the-market prices should not be emphasized unduly.

In these markets where prices are definitely recorded and printed, the higher average prices daily paid for Florida citrus fruits sold by the A. F. G. are clearly established.

Those who wish comparisons may tabulate the results—not comparing A. F. G. prices with those for all other fruit, which must include much that is inferior; but with those obtained for fruit from any other single source. The results of such comparisons are significant.

However, distribution is to be considered even above the matter of prices. Distribution is the all-important thing in marketing Florida's citrus crops; and in point of widespread and effective distribution A. F. G. service must be acknowledged supreme.

...MAGIC NAMES...

The influence of advertising is apparent in every turn of my daily life. I find I cannot disregard it. It is always with me, guiding me in my pleasures and in my duties, telling me what I should eat, wear, and use and what I should buy for my family.

I find that there is on the tip of my tongue a multitude of names the mention of which will bring from some shelf nearly everything that I can use in my daily life and in the daily life of my family.

In every instance that name means a very definite promise and assurance of something substantial and which will make me feel completely satisfied about having exchanged my money for it.

Let me say a few things which these names—these old friends of the newspaper and magazine pages—mean to me.

They mean good taste. For certainly I desire to do the thing that I believe discriminating people have judged best.

They mean convenience. It is not necessary to describe the thing I want. Even the most intimate articles may be purchased without embarrassment since the advertisers have given us handy names.

They mean assurance in shopping. There is no indecision. Even before I enter the shop I know what I want to buy.

And certainly they mean satisfaction. For the advertiser whose product is not good cannot continue to advertise. The fact that I have seen a name repeated over and over again assures me that it stands for a product of quality. In speaking that name to the clerk I know I am asking for the best.

I am a more judicious shopper because I buy advertised goods. I patronize the shop that sells them.

NUMBER 13

SHERIFF OF LEON COUNTY CALLED BEFORE LEGISLATURE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE

INQUIRING INTO DEATH OF TABERT AND MONEY PAID TO SHERIFF MAKES STATEMENT

That Means Nothing and It Throws No Light on Blot on State's Fair Name

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 13.—Sheriff Jones, of Leon county, was today called before the joint legislative investigating committee inquiring into the death of Martin Tabert, North Dakota youth, to recite his connection with the case.

TALLAHASSEE, April 13.—Both houses are expected to rock along today with minor bills and adjourn shortly after noon for the customary week-end recess.

TALLAHASSEE, April 13.—The house today moved to make special order of business for 11 o'clock Wednesday morning to consideration of the measure looking to the abolition of county convict lease system, and to prohibit corporate punishment in this state.

TALLAHASSEE, April 13.—Flogging of convicts in county leased convict camps in which one death is involved, will be the center of legislative action here today.

A bitter fight is expected in the senate over the concurrent resolution, it means that if the resolution is adopted, Senator T. J. Knabb, owner of a convict leased camp at MacClenny, Baker county, will be placed under fire.

The joint investigating committee, after a day of preliminary meetings will get down to business at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The committee will also investigate

WINDSTORM SWEEPS ALA. LAST NIGHT

ALL WIRES ARE PARALYZED IN COMMUNITY AND RESULTS ARE UNKNOWN

(By The Associated Press) CELLMAN, Ala., April 13.—Three persons were injured and several residences and barns blown down and scores of livestock killed in a violent windstorm which swept Sinton section 15 miles northeast of Cullman at midnight last night according to advices reaching here.

the office of County Judge J. D. Willis of Leon county, who is said to have held court sessions at any time of day or night, whenever a prisoner was brought in by Sheriff Jones, and imposed the customary fine of $25 or three months.

Before entering upon the flogging phase of the Tabert case, the investigating committee will await the action of the senate on the house resolution, which seeks to make the committee's inquiry "cover every other instance in the state of Florida, where it has been publicly charged cruelly to convicts has occurred in county convict leased camps, particularly the instance attributed to MacClenny in Baker county."

Much resentment has cropped out in both branches of the general assembly over the resolution adopted by the North Dakota legislature, and during the debate on the resolution today, it is certain that the action taken in the northwestern state will be again attacked.

A lengthy telegram was sent to Governor Nestos of North Dakota today by the joint investigating committee informing him that the committee was ready to proceed with its investigation, and asked the governor to supply it with the names of parties who presented evidence in which the North Dakota legislature based its action.

Senator W. A. MacWilliams of St. Augustine, who introduced the resolution calling for the joint inquiry into the death of Tabert, declared today while the committee was in session that "my resolution asks for an investigation into the testimony upon which the resolution passed by the North Dakota legislature was based."

"In the first place," continued the senator, "I want to say that in my opinion, North Dakota legislature had no business to pass the resolution. In drafting my resolution, I so worded it because I wanted to show to the people of the United States that the North Dakota resolution was prejudiced upon an ex-parte view and was unwarranted."

"Higginbotham has been indicted," he declared, "and I understand that there is a civil suit pending against the Putnam Lumber Company. While it might be wise for us to take testimony on certain points, and on the charge relating to the sheriff of Leon county (J. R. Jones), it would be a very reprehensible thing if the sheriff were to take $20 a head for prisoners he turned over to the lumber company, for us to usurp the functions of the court in civil and criminal matters might not be at this time wise."

Walter Higginbotham was indicted by a grand jury at Madison for murder in connection with the Tabert death. He was a convict boss.

Senator MacWilliams read a telegram from the Putnam Lumber Company requesting that it be allowed to present evidence at the investigation. The committee informed the company that it would be allowed to present its side.

Representative C. H. Kennerly, a member of the committee, in urging that a full investigation be made into every phase of the case, declared "all of the newspapers in the country are calling us rotten, and how about the people down here? Must they depend

ENTERTAINMENT AT HIGH SCHOOL WAS A BIG HIT

GOOD CROWD TURNED OUT TO GOOD CROWD TURNED OUT TO HELP HIGH SCHOOL

The entertainment at the High School last night was well attended and the two playlets were greatly enjoyed together with the dances and songs and good orchestra music. The High School orchestra is one of the best in the state and is composed of twenty pieces all of the members being High School pupils.

"Miss Civilization" was the principal piece put on by the pupils, and assisted by Miss Florence Henry, who took the title role of Alice Gardner. This is the second time this has been featured at the High School and was put on the program last night by special request.

Alice Gardner, daughter of James K. Gardner, President of L. I. & W. R. R.—Florence Henry.

Joe Hatch, alias "Gentleman Joe"—Ed Moyer.

Brick Meakin, alias "Reddy the Kid"—Byron Stephens.

Harry Hynes, alias "Grand Stand Harry"—William Moyer.

Captain Lucas, Chief of Police—Victor McLaulin.

Polliceman—Leonard McLucas, San Fleischer.

Trainer—Robert Williams, Merton Aycock, Morris Moyer, Lewis Hughes, Fred Pope.

"Box and Cox" is a farce in which "Box and Cox" are badly mixed all through the play and Byron Stephens as Box, Victor McLaulin as Cox and Mae Holly as Mrs. Bouncer were all very clever in their parts and the farce was enjoyed throughout.

To give music to the general program music and dances and vocal solos were rendered that were excellent in every particular. The stage was all set for La Paloma and the balcony scene with Miss Lilly Ruth Spencer as the Spanish senorita on the balcony and Byron Stephens as the Spanish cavalier in which they both sang the song in Spanish which was one of the finest bits of singing and acting that has ever been put on in Sanford.

Their Spanish and their rendition of this well known Spanish song was simply great and the effects of the scenery and stage settings was complete in every detail. After the song the Spanish folk dance was put on with the following taking part: Helen Verway, Gladys Wilson, Melba Rizenstein, Ollie Vera Gilson, Byron Stephens, Douglas King, Ed Moyer, George Cowan.

They were all dressed in Spanish costumes and the effect was very pretty and artistic in colors and effects.

Another good sketch was put on by Byron Stephens and Clarence Fields depicting Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Sheen in which they sang the well known song of these popular comedians and they were very good and brought down the house.

A description of the entertainment would not be complete without special mention of Byron Stephens who took part in all the plays, all the songs and all the sketches and dances showing that Byron is one of the most versatile young men in the High School and as a portrayal of many parts and with his excellent voice he is invaluable in the entertainment line and will be greatly missed next year. In fact the High School pupils are to be congratulated this year in their work along every line and the entertainments have been above the average in this amateur line.

Travelling Salesman Killed Near DeLand

DELAND, April 13.—The body of George Laffles, salesman of Jacksonville, was found early today beside the road to Daytona. The car turned turtle, was lying beside the road. The man drowned in shallow water.

WOMAN'S COUNCIL HIGHEST BODY IN THIS WORK

WOMEN WHO ATTENDED MEETING IN MOBILE WILL BE IN SANFORD.

The Woman's Council is the highest executive body in the women's work in Southern Methodism. Through this body all of our Women's Missionary work is projected and carried on. This council meets once a year in some one of our large cities. The last session has just closed at Mobile, Ala., and the next one will be held in Tampa, Florida. The president and corresponding secretary of the Conference Society are members of this council. As they come fresh from the sittings of this great body to Sanford they will have much of thrilling interest for the women who meet here next week.

On next Monday a number of the conference officers and some of the council officials will arrive in Sanford preparatory to the opening of the great meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church. An executive meeting will be held Monday night. The first session of the conference will begin at 4:00 p. m., Tuesday.

On Wednesday afternoon a pageant will be given by the Orphanage people from Enterprise, demonstrating the Children's Missionary Society, at work. The entire session of Wednesday will be full of interest.

The public will be more than welcome to all the meetings of this body. Probably Sanford has not for years, entertained a body of women of such prominence, and who are doing so much for society at home and abroad.

The delegates representing the local society are, Mrs. W. S. Thornton, Mrs. J. D. Parker, Mrs. C. H. Smith, Mrs. P. M. Elder.

MRS. W. J. CARPENTER, Chairman, Publicity.

G. O. P. Leaders to Wipe Out Deficit Soon as Possible

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Preliminary discussion relative to the 1924 convention city of the Republican party together with the making of plans to wipe out the remainder of the deficit incurred by the Republicans in the 1920 campaign and a survey of the general political situation, constitute the outstanding developments of a series of conferences with Republican leaders concluded here last night by Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the Republican national committee.

Participants in the conference with Mr. Upham included John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican National Committee, who returned to Washington yesterday after a trip abroad, Secretaries Weeks and Davis, Rush L. Holland, assistant attorney general, and others prominent in the councils of the party. Mr. Upham during his two day stay in the capital also has had two conferences with President Harding but at these policies have been entered upon it was explained, only in a general way.

Tornado Sweeps Over Louisiana, Killing Many

(By The Associated Press) THIBODEAUX, La., April 13.—Two negroes were killed and a score of whites and negroes were injured when a tornado swept across Bayou Lafourche early today. Many houses in the path of the tornado which was estimated two hundred yards wide were wrecked. A courier on horseback rode into Thibodeaux after daylight and told of the destruction. Sheriff Stark immediately visited the scene and reported conditions there extremely grave. Physicians and hundreds of citizens left for the village carrying supplies and medicine.

POLAND DEPORTS JEWS

WARSAW, April 13.—Hundreds of Jews are being deported daily in accordance with the Polish order for the expulsion of Jewish refugees from Poland. In view of the American immigration restrictions, a majority of them are going to Argentina.

SEMINOLE BANK SHOWS GROWTH IN STATEMENT

RECENTLY INCREASED CAPITAL AND BUSINESS SHOWS 167 PER CENT INCREASE

A further indication of the continued progress of Sanford is the action recently taken by the directors of the Seminole County Bank increasing the capitalization of that institution.

Organized in 1913 by Forest Lake, with a capital stock of $50,000, the bank has always taken the initiative in any movement that has had for its purpose the advancement of Sanford. It is today recognized as one of the strongest and most progressive banks in the state, due to the fact that the confidence it has always displayed in Sanford has, in turn, been reciprocated by the people of the community. That this has been the case is forcefully demonstrated in the comparative statement showing the growth of deposits which in April, 1915, totaled $185,000, and as of April, 1923, $1,650,000 an increase of $865,000 or 467 per cent in eight years.

Since its organization the bank has invariably paid an annual dividend of 8 per cent and for a two year period paid 10 per cent. This latter figure is the amount now being paid annually to its stockholders. April 1st of this year a 30 per cent stock dividend was declared which represented $15,000 of the new issue. The Seminole County Bank is now capitalized for $100,000 and it is a matter of gratification to the officers and directors that the new offerings was oversubscribed, the stock bringing $25 over a par value of $100 per share, this premium being placed to the bank's surplus.

The officers and directors of the bank are as follows: Forest Lake, president and A. R. Key, first vice-president and cashier; G. W. Spencer, second vice-president; R. W. Deane, assistant cashier; L. P. McCuller, Joe Cameron, A. T. Rosseter, J. C. Bennett, A. P. Connelly and Thomas E. Wilson.

PRIEST KILLS SUPERIOR WHO SPURNED HIM

KALAMAZOO, Mich., April 13.—The Rev. Father Charles Dillon, assistant rector of St. Augustine's Catholic church, shot and killed Rev. Father Henry O'Neill, rector of the church as they sat at the dinner table last night, then calmly went to the telephone and notified the police and coroner.

Dillon fired four shots, all of which took effect. As Father O'Neill fell dead, Dillon turned to the Rev. Father McCullough, the only witness of the tragedy, and handed him a phial containing holy oils, with the request that he administer the sacrament of extreme unction at once.

According to a statement the assistant rector is said to have made to police and county officers, he was "driven to fury" by alleged ill treatment at the hands of the dead priest.

"He treated me with disrespect ever since I came here, 13 months ago, from Battle Creek," he is reported as having told the police. "He assumed toward me the attitude of a czar."

"He treated me as a little boy, refusing to permit me to visit the families of the parish, or take any part in the life of the parish. I protested in vain against this attitude and tonight when we quarreled over the matter at the dinner table, he ordered me to pack my belonging and get out. "I got up from the table and went upstairs to pack up, but it was a revolver, not a suit case, I packed. I picked up a phial of holy oil and then went down stairs where Father O'Neill and Father McCullough were sitting. I intended to give him a chance to confess and repent before I killed him, but as I advanced into the room with my hand holding the revolver extended, I saw him grab a salt cellar to throw at me and I fired twice. After that I do not recall very well what happened."

The cycle won't be complete until some one starts a taxpayers' bloc.—Chicago Journal of Commerce.

REWELDING ALLIED FRONT EXPECTED FROM MEETING TAKING PLACE AT PARIS

It is Said to All Inter-Allied Countries and Makes it Easier on Germany

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, April 13.—A rewelding of the interallied front is expected to result from today's meeting of the Franco-Belgian ministers here, at which the reparations plan drafted by the French experts will be compared to one drawn up by the Belgians. It is understood that the two differ only slightly. It is also believed, therefore, the discussions today should prove fruitful. The French plan prepared by the foreign office experts in close collaboration with the reparations commission, Le-Matin, which prints a resume of the draft says it leaves the total German indebtedness at one hundred and thirty-two billion gold marks but provides for the method of payment which would lessen the burden of debt and at the same time accelerate installments during the next few years.

AUTO PARTY SAFE AND WELL IN EVERGLADES IS SATISFACTORY

(By The Associated Press) MIAMI, April 13.—The airplane which left this morning with food for the Fort Myers motor party which is stranded in the Everglades reached Bill Camp at 9:30 this morning and found nine members of the party with four cars. The remainder of the party were two miles west and were seen by Captain Carr and N. C. Toxstet in a plane. The plane returned at noon bringing back L. A. Whitney a newspaper man of St. Petersburg who said all members of the party were safe.

Suit Against House of David Reopened at Grand Rapids

(By The Associated Press) GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 13.—A motion asking suit of John W. Hansell against Israelite House of David, here recently, be reopened was filed in the United States district court. Attorney representing the money asserted in filing the motion that he has new evidence tending to prove Hansell plotted to "bomb the buildings at the colony and make away with large sums of money kept in the vaults there."

Hendry Has Bill Defining Vagrancy in View of Situation

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 13.—Representative W. T. Hendry, of Taylor county, where is located the lumber company around which the storm over the death of Martin Tabert, alleged convict whip victim, has centered, has not only actively supported all steps looking to an investigation of Tabert's death, but has introduced a bill designed to limit and prescribe the broad terms constituting vagrancy in this state. Mr. Hendry's bill would also provide that warrants be required for the arrests of vagrants. In cases where the arresting officer thinks the delay incident to procuring a warrant might effect the escape of the vagrant, he can act without a warrant, but such an instrument must be secured before the vagrant shall be jailed. Mr. Hendry's measure follows:

Who Are Vagrants—Rogues and vagabonds idle or dissolute persons who go about begging, common gamblers, persons who use juggling, or unlawful games or plays, common pipers and fiddlers, common drunkards, common night walkers, thieves, pilferers, traders in stolen property, lewd or wanton persons, keepers of gambling places, common ratters and brawlers, persons who habitually neglect all legitimate employment or mispend their earnings without providing for themselves or the support of their families; persons wandering or strolling around from place to place without any lawful purpose or object, habitual loafers, habitual disorderly persons, persons habitually neglecting all lawful business; persons who habitually spend their time by frequenting houses of ill fame,

WOMAN'S CLUB COLUMN

Mrs. Henry Wight, Reporter Phone 345-W

Music Department

The regular monthly meeting of the Music Department of the Woman's Club was held at the Comfort Cottage through the courtesy of Mrs. M. Martin, Wednesday afternoon, April 11, at 3:30 o'clock.

A regretted illness deprived the department of the presence of its chairman, Mrs. W. L. Henley, at this meeting.

Preceding the program a suggestion was offered that an annual exchange of programs be made by the music department of the Woman's Club and the Cecilia Music Club, the Junior Music Club of the city, which under the guidance of Mrs. Fannie Stenbridge Munson has for many years had an important factor in the musical life of Sanford. This was put in the form of a motion, was seconded and unanimously carried.

Attention was called to the next and last program for this season, which will be "Junior Day" in charge of Mrs. W. Gwynn Fox and Mrs. Tom Moore, at the studio of Mrs. F. S. Munson, May 9th.

The following delightful program was given, being in charge of Schulle

Peer Gynt.

A dramatic prose reading arranged from the famous drama by Ibsen, with musical numbers—Grieg.

Mrs. Ernest Householder, Reader. The story: Solweig's Song, Second Peer Gynt Op. 55 No. 4.

Mrs. A. M. Phillips, Miss Virginia De Coursey, accompanist.

The story: The Death of Ase. First Peer Gynt Op. 46, No. 2.

Mrs. H. C. DuBose, Miss Virginia De Coursey (piano duet).

The story: Anitra's Dance. First Peer Gynt Op. 46, No. 3.

Misses Mildred Simmons, Nan Paxton (piano duet).

Conclusion of the story.

Mrs. Householder read the story with fine dramatic power, and the musical numbers were all charmingly rendered. Mrs. Maines reserves much credit for arranging this program.

Excerpts from an article in the Literary Digest for March 3, telling of the revival of "Peer Gynt" by the Theatre Guild of New York, were read by Mrs. Gwynn Fox; the illustrations, showing the very modern scenery used in the production were interesting.

Mrs. Martin, in her pleasing manner, told of her pleasure in having the privilege of hearing Edward Baxter Perry, the famous blind pianist (her house guest at the time) play the Peer Gynt Suites.

Members and visitors present will long remember this pleasant meeting.

The plans for Garden Week are promise to be full of interest. The co-operation of churches and of all civic organizations is being asked, and an effort towards a general observation of this one week of the year for expression of appreciation of "the green things growing." Prizes are to be offered school children for collections of ferns and grasses, and for the best built bird houses. A complete program will be published in this column next week. Garden Week is to be celebrated from April 22nd to the 28th, inclusive.

The April meeting of the Welfare Department has been called off, out of deference to the great gathering of women to be in Sanford next week in attendance at the State Missionary Conference at the Methodist church.

Our club women should not forget the State Flower Show, which is to be opened at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon, April 17th, in the Fair Grounds in Orlando. Sanford gardens should capture some of the ribbons.

Club women are watching the daily reports from Tallahassee with great interest as several bills are to come before the legislature which will mean much to the young life of our state. The legislative program in Tallahassee is in the capable hands of Miss Skinner, Florida's Federation's fine young president. Mrs. Muade Lyle of Quincy, legislation chairman, Mrs. W. S. Jennings, whose lifelong association with legislatures and legislators fits her wonderfully for such service, and other prominent women who go from time to time to the State Capitol during the session.

Do not forget the State Flower Show in Orlando Tuesday, April 17. It is to begin with a great floral parade and the gates of the Fair Grounds will be open at one o'clock in the afternoon. In addition to the amateur list printed in this column last week, two entries have been added—one for the best potted plant and another for the best potted fern and silver cups are to be the prizes. It is to be hoped that there will be many exhibits from Sanford gardens, and a large attendance of Sanford people. The time is fast approaching when Sanford may stage a Flower Show of her own as a stimulus to floriculture in this community, but this great show in Orlando will take in a good deal more than merely local and state achievements.

SEARS TELLS HOW MAIL SERVICE GOT INTO PRESENT JAM

William Joe Sears, congressman from the fourth Florida district, told the members of the Chamber of Commerce at their regular weekly luncheon today how it happened that the post office here got in a jam (and Postmaster McLean sat through the speech an intense listener). And the congressman also told how he brought relief for the situation not only here, but in West Palm Beach, Ft. Pierce and Daytona.

The congressman's speech, and a musical program, featuring songs by the assemblage, and violin selections by Merrill Evans, described as a new Orlando resident, accompanied by Miss Hazel Maurer, daughter of A. Phil Maurer, a member of the chamber, were the big attractions of the luncheon.

Young Merrill got a hand that brought down the house, and gave an encore, so that the diners were in high good humor when the gentleman known to his friends here as Joe Sears got up to speak.

At one point in his address abounding in jokes and colloquialisms, he referred to his home burg as "Kissimmee, once Cow-Simnee." Again he declared: "I don't give a tinker's dern. And also gave vent to the thought that "I don't know whether I have sense enough to represent you in congress or not."

He characterized the postal dilemma as growing out of a misunderstanding, and was the result of the same sort of stupidity which built here a post office for a town of 2,500 people, instead of one to accommodate a population of from 15,000 to 25,000 people.

He didn't lay the blame at the door of the republicans, but gave out the reminder that the democrats were in power when the post office emporium was erected here.

When the congressman got a wire from the West Palm Beach office, reciting that conditions there were as congested as here, he wired the postmaster general to consult the president, who had just been down, as to conditions.

But he said that the next day after he sent the wire he got a message saying relief has been granted that office as well as the other two on the east coast.

Mr. Sears had a good word for that defunct institution known as free seeds, and declared that if ever the issue came to the fore again he would vote to bring it back. He said by cutting off this great boon to the farmer congress saved the taxpayers $230,000 out of a total of $4,000,000,000.

At one point in his address, he declared all the taxpayer gets by way of a run for his money is mail and the privilege to die. At that point he said they used to get free seed, but that boon was no more.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

SHERIFF OF LEON COUNTY CALLED BEFORE LEGISLATURE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE

On what those newspapers say? "The papers have told of how a young convict by the name of White said that he had been beaten until the flesh was rotting off his body," declared the representative in referring to the Baker county flogging, which has resulted in an indictment against a whipping boss.

"It was further declared," continued Mr. Kenerly, "that Senator Knabb, owner of the turpentine convict camp, did not interfere. What will the people think? We are just 'in bad' and we have got to get from under. If we are guilty, we ought to have nerve enough to come out and say so. I'm in favor of the investigation to the fullest extent."

A movement to try Higginbotham, outside of Dixie county, his home county, failed in the house today, that body acting unfavorably for the first time on any matter connected with the Tabert case.

It was the tabling of a measure by Representative McCall whereby the statutes would have been amended so as to give the prosecution the same right in seeking change of venue as the defense in felony cases.

Higginbotham was released shortly after the indictment on bail of $10,000. This cation was regarded in legal quarters here today as most unusual. Attorneys for Higginbotham had planned such action when the court order granting bail was signed. It was taken into consideration by the court in granting bail, it was said, that Cross City, the seat of Dixie county, is sparsely settled and has no jail.

Orlando Sentinel says that the people may oppose the manager idea in the new city charter election. If the commissioners are doing all the work free gratis for nothing they do not need the manager but unless the commissioners are paid a salary and do the work the city manager is certainly needed. He is a right good man to have about at any stage of the game as Orlando will find after they get a manager.

We are glad to note that two other streets will be opened in Orlando to relieve the congestion on Orange Avenue. It was getting bad on that one street and the new streets will relieve the congestion somewhat. All Florida cities are up against the same thing with their main streets. The parking of cars is becoming a serious question and one that is puzzling the city fathers of many cities throughout the world.

Harry L. Brown, of the Lakeland Star-Telegram, was elected Grand Generalissimo at the meeting of the Knights Templar in Orlando this week. We do not know how much stuff this carries with it but suppose Harry will be just the same toward us as he was before he obtained this commission. Some of the Generalissimos we saw during the world war were bad medicine and did not even recognize a common ordinary newspaper man.

Next Tuesday is Flower day in Orlando and that city will be gayly decked for the occasion. There will be beautiful flower parades and many innovations for the day and it will start something new in Florida although Flower Days are old in California. Florida has long been known as the land of flowers but our winter visitors fail to see them many times and the Flower Shows will be a revelation to those who do not think there are many flowers in this state.

Someone has discovered that Florida is not all flat. That someone is a stranger to Lake county and the ridge section. There are Crackers in this section 100 years old who have been building campfires on these ridges, using the best fuel on earth for that purpose—"lighter knots"—for at least 94 years. They learned the art of camp cookery at an early age, and they were not making mud pies, either. They were roasting a leg of venison or the plump, juicy body of a young wild turkey. It was because of the invigorating atmosphere of the highlands, coupled with the outdoor life which they preferred to lead, that they lived to such a ripe old age. And those pioneers loved their native land as devotedly as any Scotchman ever loved his native heather. A gentleman once told the writer that unless he had been south of the Caloosahatchee river he had not seen Florida. With the same propriety we can say that he who has never seen the ridge section of this state has not seen Florida—Eustis Lake Region.

A MILLION DOLLAR CITY.

St. Petersburg is to have a million dollar cannery. And then DeLand rears up on its hind legs and says there shall be another million dollar cannery there. Good for that. A million dollars apiece for those two canneries. To save our life we can't see what they need a million for, but then—we are glad. We have been thinking about a cannery here in Gainesville and had about concluded we could worry along with, let us say, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. And that too, in the face of the fact we are right in the middle of the finest vegetable section in the known world. That million dollar business sounds sort-of-discouraging to us.—Gainesville Sun.

Years ago when for the first time there was prospect of congressional appropriations reaching that figure and somebody warned in alarm of "a billion dollar congress," Tom Reed retorted, "well, this is a billion dollar country," and nobody has been surprised at the size of an appropriation bill since. It is that way with St. Petersburg now. She is a million dollar city, and announcements of million dollar enterprises no longer surprise anybody here.—St. Petersburg Times.

Certainly not. Especially since you can always build a million dollar plant on paper.

KILL THIS GRAFT!

Sheriffs have no business making any profits out of feeding prisoners. The Tabert and the Paul Revere White cases should be lesson enough to the state legislature to cause it to act against any system which permits a public official to make money out of the misery and suffering of prisoners.

Sheriffs should be paid an adequate salary to perform their duties. They should have no other personal fees. Their duties should include the feeding of prisoners. In Duval county, for instance, the sheriff is paid 55 cents a day for feeding prisoners. That 55 cents should be spent for this purpose. If there is a balance it should be returned to the county instead of to the sheriff's private bank account.

Sheriff Merritt, however, should not be blamed if he does not return any money to the county treasury. The law does not contemplate that he should. As long as it remains as it is, the state of Florida is putting a premium on inhuman treatment of prisoners, some of whom, although held in jail, may be innocent and are merely awaiting trial. It is putting a premium on rotten food and on insufficient food.

A large part of the trouble in the Tabert case could probably be traced to a desire on the part of an official to make an extra fee.

It is a blot upon our civilization when we allow private pocket books to fatten in this manner. The fee system, at least so far as it relates to arrests, convictions, and feeding of prisoners, is a stench in the nostrils of decency.—Jacksonville Journal.

WHAT OUR CHILDREN COST

A man with a big family should have special privileges granted him and instead of the government trying to tax him to death the government should grant him a pension commensurate with the number of children that he has brought into this world and raised up to maturity. It is easy enough for the people with no families to get along and save money but the folks with families have a big expense and there is no denying that they cost money and keep the head of the family with his nose to the grindstone until they are able to get out and shift for themselves which in many cases is never. It is said that every boy costs his father $10,000 before he reaches the age of maturity and the men who are raising families and who have raised them know this to be about the right figure on a general average. We had not seen the cost of the girls but knew they were rather expensive and now comes the Jacksonville Journal with a statement about the girls that is interesting:

"Girls in a big city high school have been keeping expense records during the year to see what it costs their fathers to support them and keep them in school. A final review of the budgets showed that the average cost per girl is $69.68 per month.

"In making these budgets the girls took into consideration the cost of books, carfare, lunches, club dues, entertainment, clothing, food, a pro rata share of the rent, laundry, medical attention and recreation. Some of the girls in more affluent circumstances figured their costs as high as $99 per month. From this the figures ranged downwards to a minimum of $22 a month.

"The experience in keeping these budgets was most valuable to the girls themselves. They will find this knowledge gained in the process useful all their lives. The average cost per girl as arrived at finally gives economists, employers, computers of the 'living wage' and people generally something to think about.

"These girls are the daughters of the plain people, living for the most part simply and fitting themselves to be wage-earners. If it costs $60.68 per month per girl, the advocates of low wages had better think again, especially as this group could be considered as representative of the majority in any part of the country."

It has been some time since the city voted bonds for the boat basin and the pier and other improvements on the lake front. Now that the library question has been settled it is high time the City Commissioners were giving some attention to the boat basin and the pier. It will take a long time to build this pier and basin and they should be finished before the yachtsmen start south next fall in order that Sanford can advertise to the world that they have a fine place in which to keep the boats of the tourists. If there is any valid reason for holding up this work let us have it. If there is no reason for holding it back then let it go forward at once. Why the delay?

We did not hear the speaker at the Ku Klux Klan meeting last night as we were elsewhere and could not attend. We did not hear what he said about the "controlled press." We did hear something about it this morning on the streets but we never take any rumors for the whole truth. And regardless of what he said about the "controlled press" we take no exceptions to it since the Herald is not controlled by anyone except the editor, whose name appears at the masthead and we are absolutely responsible for all the editorial utterances. This paper has always been fair to the Ku Klux Klan when they were fair. We have pointed out to them where they erred in a few instances and have commended them when they were right. We still believe that they have done and are doing a good work in many cases. If the speaker said the Associated Press garbled the reports of the Louisiana troubles he spoke of something that he knows little about since the Associated Press is very careful about its news stories and because it is absolutely correct in every detail we take this great news gathering service and pay for it. We still believe that in nine times out of ten the people will find the Associated Press right. As we have stated before in these columns the news department of the Herald has nothing to do with the editorial policy and whatever the speaker said about newspapers did not apply to the Herald.

THE MODERN NEWSPAPER.

Just as fashions travel in a circle, so habits travel by a circuitous route. Our first newspapers were News Papers. On file in the National Library are many of the first American newspapers. They are small, four page papers devoted to the news and to editorial comment on political and economic questions of their day. It is interesting to note that the editorial policy and style of those early-day papers resemble the best journalism of today.

The news pages of those early publications, however, differ very materially from the newspaper practice of the present day. The news was not spread or smeared over so much paper. It was confined to facts and condensed. There is unmistakable evidence that the early publishers cared more for quality. The big, bulky paper, no doubt would have been regarded as a burden to the business and professional men of that day.

That same condition is coming to pass again. People are getting of the armful of trash that comes to the office or home under the guise of a big newspaper. People haven't the time, if they are people who exist to any worthwhile purpose, to mull over a great roll of paper to dig out a little news. Sensing this disposition on the part of the busy men and women to get away from the sorting task, a number of publishers are getting out editions that compare more favorably with the early day newspapers. Notably the New York Herald which puts out a daily edition in miniature form for the benefit of people who have no time to waste. Mr. Frank A. Munsey, the seasoned publisher, says of the effort: "The average man hasn't more than twenty minutes to devote to his newspaper. The average newspaper would take twenty hours to sort over and read."

For several years there has been published in Boston, a very popular eight-page paper that so condenses its news on all subjects that it became the widest read paper in the city. Its one page of editorial has the punch, and the news is just news without a lot of gush and gab.

Shortly after the war, when business was in an unsettled condition the Merchant's Association of Indianapolis called in all the publishers of that city and requested them not to play up certain disconcerting subjects, saying, "the American people are great heading readers and will not take time to read, a long article through and thus very often get a wrong impression." It was but another way of saying that the average newspaper occupied too much space to get a proper reading. A small paper with the news condensed and to the point is much better read and more satisfactory.

A prominent professional man of Chicago said that he noted the street sales of several newspapers one evening and was surprised to see the demand twice as great for a certain small publication that condensed everything even to its sporting news within a few lines.

When one stouts to consider the question it appears perfectly plain that the average man and woman does not care to wade through columns of reading matter to get what could be fully and plainly told in twenty or thirty lines. Especially are sport writers given to wordy contributions that give too much bulk to the average daily paper. As the Portland Oregonian says, the day may not be far distant when there will be special sporting papers independent of the regular newspapers, and the newspapers proper will be in more condensed form.—Reporter-Star.

TREAT THEM ALL ALIKE.

The public in general and especially those men who want a clean state are of the opinion that the men who are selling liquor in direct violation of the law should all be pulled regardless of their color or standing in the community. It is a violation of the law to sell intoxicants or to have the same in your possession and this law applies to all people everywhere. The fact that officers go out and pull a few negro shiners now and then is not camouflage strong enough to shield the real men behind the liquor traffic and the call for real action in the matter is so insistent that the officials of all cities and counties in the state of Florida will have to get busy at once and "pull them all" without regard to where the blow may fall. The Melbourne Times says:

"There are some niggers and a few white men in this immediate section who ought to be on the chain gang for making and selling moonshine liquor, and this paper believes that if the local officers were backed with the right amount of public sentiment these violators would be placed where they belong. But we do not approve of the methods used by the federal officer who tried to start a reign of terror in colored town Saturday night. He caught several colored fellows and a white man in a nigger joint and would probably have caught others if he had not been so noisy with his pistol. His worst mistake was made when he entered the home of John Stone without a search warrant and beat his son, who was sick, over the head with a gun, while the real guilty parties were making their get-away in other parts of the town.

"John Stone is a colored man who has always worked for better things in his community, and on several occasions he has had dire threats made against his person if he did not quit interfering with the bootleggers. The officer's excuse for entering his home in the brutal manner he did was that he thought Stone's son had liquor hid in his room. None was found.

The white man who it is generally thought, makes the moonshine and sells it to the colored men, was not taken to jail. It is understood, however, that from now on his bootlegging business is going to have a hard road to travel which, if true, will be good news to the community."

GOLF MAY PROVE POPULAR EVENING GAME.

Golf by electric light. Sounds foolish, but that is the latest scheme of the Sunset Valley Country club, situated in the beautiful rolling lands northwest of Chicago. It is proposed to have two eighteen hole courses and one of nine holes, the last to be illuminated at night. Only the women can use it in daytime, but at night it will be open to men.

Up in Scotland golfers can play till nine or ten o'clock at night and even later, due to the long twilight. This, of course, means a lot of business men. The Chicago idea will be a great boon for golfers who cannot get out early. It is said that there are about four million golfers in this country. One out of every man, woman and child, is a golfer. As the open air sport freshens their bodies and clears their minds, it is bound to grow in popularity far beyond these figures.

The great problem is to get enough links to accommodate the crowds wishing to play. The idea of an electric lighted nine-hole course will help relieve congestion. It is perfectly feasible, but, of course an expensive proposition. The Sunset Valley Country club has offered a substantial reward to the individual or company that produces a thoroughly practical illumination scheme for a nine-hole course.

At the Racquet club, court tennis can be played by artificial lighting and also racquets. It is much harder to hit a moving ball than a motionless one in an artificial light. The only trouble would be finding the ball after it was hit.—Tampa Tribune.

ROUSCH CASH IN ENDED AT LAST

CINCINNATI, O., April 13.—All hope of a reconciliation between the Reds and Eddie Rousch, its holdout star, appeared to have vanished today, when the board of directors of the club again decided to decline the proposition by Rousch and voted to stand by its original offer. This offer is that Rousch accept a $15,000 salary and pay a fine of $50 a day for absenting himself from the training camp. Rousch, who was in calling distance of the Cincinnati club headquarters, while the meeting was in progress, said the decision of the directors ended everything. He said he will probably have to sign up with the Massillon or a Wisconsin club.

WEEKLY WEATHER AND CROP BULLETIN.

There was much sunshine throughout the week, especially in the southern and central divisions; the amount was generally near the average in the west and north, although the several damp, cool days were features of the week's weather. Showers fell in some locality of the several divisions; and the rainfall was heavy in the west and portions of the northern divisions, where the soil, especially on low lands, was too wet to be worked. Although beneficial rains occurred over much of the south and south-central counties, there are still considerable areas where rain is needed, particularly on or near Sanibel Island, Lee county, where droughty conditions have continued for several months. There are tracks inland where uplands are still dry. Sections adjacent to the middle-east coast received beneficial showers and locally heavy rains, and the improvement in citrus fruits and truck has been decided. The planting of corn and cotton continued in the peninsula, where some cotton is ready to be "chopped out;" early planted corn made good progress, although low night temperatures were unfavorable in low lands. The planting of cotton was delayed in the western division, especially on low lands; and the growth of corn was retarded; some corn is yellow as the result of cool nights. Oats are mostly poor; some have matured prematurely. Most of the peanut crop is up, but local plantings of peanuts, corn, and cane continued. Tobacco plants made fair to good progress. Citrus trees are doing well, especially noticeable in the south where recent rains were badly needed. Truck generally was improved, and shipments of beans, tomatoes, peppers, and other truck continued. Some local damage resulted to aid tomatoes in the Miami and Dkechobee districts as a result of some recent rains. The digging of early Irish potatoes continued in the northern and central divisions; the crop is short; late planted potatoes made fair to good progress.

SEMINOLE COUNTY GROVE AND FARM NEWS NOTES B. F. WHITNER, JR., COUNTY AGENT

On Saturday the County Agent can be found in his office in the basement of the Courthouse. At any other time he may be reached through the office of the Chamber of Commerce. Leave all calls there.

A Country Girl's Creed. I am glad that I live in the country. I love its beauty and its spirit. I rejoice in the things I can do as a country girl for my home and my neighborhood.

I believe I can share in the beauty around me; in the fragrance of the orchards in spring; in the abundance of our harvests in autumn; in the morning songs of birds and in the glory of our sunsets. I want to express this beauty in my own life as naturally and as happily as the orange trees bloom in spring and in June.

I believe I can have a part in the courageous spirit of the country. This is the spirit that sings and croons in the brook that runs past our school house. It dwells in the tender bud that swells and bursts, and in the seed case that imprisons new life till it pushes through the dark earth to light. It sounds in the nestling notes of the meadow lark. With this courageous spirit, I, too, can face the hard things of life with gladness.

I believe there is much I can do in my country home. Through studying the best way to do my every-day work I can find joy in common tasks done well. Through loving comradeship I can help bring into my home the happiness and peace that are always so near us in God's out-of-the-door world. Through such a home I can help make real to all who pass that way, their highest ideal of country life.

I believe my love and loyalty for my country home should reach out in service to that larger home we call our neighborhood. I would wholeheartedly give my best to further all that is being done for a better community. I would have all that I think and say and do, help to unite country people near and far in that great kingdom of neighborly love which the Master came to establish—the Master who knew and cared for country ways and country folks—Iowa Ext. Sulphur To Be Tried Here by Mississippian For Nematode Control. Sulphur is unpleasant to other animals than those on poultry. Some persons believe that it may be just as effective in repelling those little animals that live in the soil and injure the roots of the plant friends of man, as when used to smoke mosquitoes out of the house. Sulphur is to be tried out as a control measure of the small nematode worm, which causes root-knot on many of the more important cultivated field, truck and orchard crops. To determine "The Value of Sulphur in the Control of the Root-Knot Nematode" is a task assigned to R. L. Trigg, a recent graduate of the Mississippi A. & M. College. Mr. Trigg's work will be done in Florida under the direction of J. R. Watson, entomologist of the Florida Experiment Station. He will work as a fellow, studying for a master of science degree. His scholarship is given by the National Research Council. Professor Watson himself has spent years investigating the control of the nematode, and his discoveries and advocated remedies have meant the saving of thousands—possibly millions—of dollars to the agriculture of this state. He worked out and now strongly advocates controlling the nematode by growing the bunch velvet bean on the infested soil through the warm summer months, keeping the soil constantly cultivated in the meantime. This gives the worm's eggs in the soil a chance to hatch out and then the young worms starve, since there are no roots they can feed upon except those of the bunch velvet bean which are immune to the nematode. WORLD COURT OF JUSTICE UPHOLD BY SEC. HOOVER DES MOINES, April 12.—American membership in the permanent court of International Court of Justice, organized by the League of Nations, was advocated in this city, tonight by Herbert Hoover, secretary of Commerce as "An essential step" in the direction of world peace. He replied to criticism by Senator Borah, who he declared really wanted now to go "further" than the American people were willing to follow him. Secretary Hoover spoke before the annual convention of the National League of Women Voters, and his address was the first detailed reply from administration quarters to those who have assailed the court proposals since it was laid before the senate by President Harding. It marked the beginning of the public debate in which most of the leading public men of the country are preparing to take part. To go into the court, Mr. Hoover said, would not be "entering the League in any sense." On the contrary, he argued, it would aid in placing international relationship on a basis of law rather than politics, and would at the same time continue the American policy of conciliation and good will exemplified in the arms conference and in recent relations with Latin-America. "The proposals to join the court," he said, "have been criticised from various angles. The first of these is that it leads us into some undesired political entanglements. This is untrue, for the decrees of the court are based on the processes of law, not upon political argument; their enforcement rests wholly on public opinion, and not upon force. In supporting this court, we subscribe to no compulsion whatever. For quick results, try a want ad.

MURDER BARED BY TIRELESS "GHOST"

Wraith Prowled Neighborhood for Seven Years Until Crime Was Uncovered.

Paines Hollow, O.—A "ghost," which farmers living near here say haunted them for seven years, now is "at rest." It disappeared several days ago with the burial of the body of Henry Lipenstick, which was found in an abandoned well on a farm.

Lipenstick, a farm hand, disappeared seven years ago. Since then the farm is said to have had poor crops. A farm house burned down, and the "ghost" was blamed for that.

"Ghost" Bared Murder.

Owner after owner had come and gone. Carl Logies purchased the farm about a year ago. Whenever he went to his barn at night, Logies declares, he would see "a white, wraith-like figure" walking about.

At times, he says, he followed with his gun in hand, and it always disappeared in the direction of the well. Determined to find out what caused the apparition, Logies cleaned out the old well, which had been filled with stones. He came upon the body of Lipenstick.

Sheriff Spink was called, and he and his deputies suspected murder. The next day the sheriff ordered the body buried, and now the "ghost" is gone. Frank Loran, who owned the farm at the time Lipenstick disappeared, is in the Lake county jail. He is bound over to the grand jury on charge of murder.

LOST COUPLE NEAR DEATH

Man and Wife Found in the Mountains in British Columbia Almost Starved.

Prince Rupert, B. C.—Lost in the mountains, Peter Stafford and his wife were found recently in the last stage of starvation by two constables on the Kayer river, 32 miles from Skeena Mills. The couple had not eaten real food for 20 days, the only thing that kept them alive being soup made by boiling strips of old beaver skin. Stafford's condition was pitiful, as he had been suffering from tuberculosis for some months. How he was able to survive the terrible experience is a mystery to physicians.

Stafford and his wife were discovered in a small tent pitched under a big tree. The man, too weak to move, was placed in a canoe and the woman was assisted along the shore until a point 22 miles from the railway was reached. Here they were left with friends with enough food to last six weeks and a store of medicine was sent in.

SHORTHAND WILL IS VALID

Unusual Method of Devising Large Estate is Approved by English Court.

London.—A will written in shorthand on a telegraph blank has been admitted to probate in solemn form, its validity upheld by the Probate court of England. It was written by Charles S. Orrin, a commercial traveler, who adopted phonetic writing as the quickest means of expressing his wishes regarding the disposition of his large estate when informed by the doctors that he had only a few hours to live.

The stenographic characters were so perfectly executed that they were readily translated by the official shorthand reporter of the court in which the will was offered for probate.

Ats Needle at Breakfast. Sterling, Ill.—Rudolph Jacobs, a farmer living near here, felt a sharp pain in his throat while eating breakfast. He went to a physician, who removed a large needle from his throat. How the needle got in his food is a mystery.

Now that you've paid your income tax, go to work and earn it.—Wall Street Journal.

CARRIES MUSIC MANY MILES

Horn Said to Have Transmitted Sounds Distinctly for a Most Remarkable Distance.

A length of 35 feet and an opening of 12 feet square are the measurements of the world's largest horn for broadcasting music received by radio. This giant horn is in successful daily operation at Idora park, a public amusement resort in California. The broadcasting capacity of this huge instrument is sufficient to carry radio music throughout an area of approximately 20 square miles.

In addition to the general interest in its sheer size and amplifying range, it is of absorbing importance to the radio expert because of the fact that, through the use of its electro-dynamic reproducer, such true tones have been produced as to eliminate what is technically known as "distortion."

One thousand feet of clear airplane spruce lumber went into the construction of this horn. The engineers who built it were confronted with difficulties of design and erection owing to its giant size. It is equipped with a late type of radio reproducer and power amplifier.

Of course the construction of the horn was more or less in the nature of a spectacular "stunt" on the part of the amusement park, but the basic idea is nevertheless impressive. It is just another indication of a far-reaching influence which warrants attention.

EVEREST TOP STILL UNTRIED

But British Explorers in Recent Attempt Got to Height Never Previously Attained.

The highest point above sea level ever reached by a human being, about 29,000 feet, was attained, with the aid of oxygen-breathing apparatus, by two members of the Mount Everest expedition at noon, the 27th of last May, says Henry S. Wylie in the Popular Mechanics Magazine. This brought the explorers within 1,702 feet of the summit, the highest point on the earth's surface. The final attempt was to have been made June 4, but the monsoon broke June 3, definitely frustrating any further efforts for this year at least. When the monsoon breaks on Mount Everest, there is no alternative but to get off the mountain as soon as possible.

It has now been definitely proved that the mountain itself at the highest points reached is not difficult to climb, and the two explorers who came so near to reaching the actual summit were able to proceed along the north face without ropes. The one and only obstacle that made the summit unattainable was the bad weather, and with the monsoon left out, it is certain that the summit will be reached at the next attempt. The two explorers who reached this highest point were Capt. Geoffrey Bruce, one of the leaders of the expedition, and George Finch, a scientist attached to it.

Rough Men and Robins.

A few days ago a car inspector, looking over a coal train at Arkville, N. Y., discovered a bird's nest on the top of a journal box of an empty car. Investigation disclosed two baby robins in the nest. The orphan birds at once became the center of attraction for the yard men and the various train crews. It was quite evident the young robins needed parents.

In an effort to find the home of the young travelers it was learned that the empty car had been picked up at West Davenport, 84 miles distant. A delegation of watchmen, yardmen, trainmen and other interested persons immediately waited on the division superintendent. The car was hooked on to an engine and taken back to West Davenport, where it was spotted in the railroad yard at the exact place from which it had been taken. The frantic mother bird found her little ones and everybody was happy.

Campaign Terror.

There was a wild and frenzied scatterment. Men, white-faced and staring-eyed, fled as if pursued by a pestilence. They dropped whatever they had in hand and stood not upon the order of their going, but departed like frightened rebucks, hitting only the high places as they went.

"Why are the people fleeing?" was asked.

"A candidate who calls himself 'the friend of the people' has just come to town," replied an innocent bystander who had no vote.—Kansas City Star.

Seeking History of Tibet.

The "Forbidden City" is to be visited by a British mission in the hope of obtaining real information on the history of Tibet. Every member of the party is a British Hinduist, and they believe through religious affiliation they can obtain what other travelers and explorers have sought in vain. Foreigners who have entered the "Forbidden City" are few and far between, and no one heretofore has been afforded the opportunity to study the religion, literature and history of this sealed country.

EXEMPTION OF WOMEN FOR JURY DUTY

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 13.—Further exemption of women from jury duty is the aim of Representative VanRoy of Citrus, who has introduced a bill in the house looking to that purpose. It would provide that a woman be excused, upon her request, when she has a child under 12 years of age; when domestic duties take up her time; when someone is sick at home who needs her administration, and when she herself is ill to the extent that jury service would impair her health.

Committee Named To Study Business Cycles Urges Caution In Boom Periods In Report Just Issued

MATTHEW WOLL

The Federal Reserve banks now hold a much larger amount of gold than is needed to support all the credit requirements of American industry and agriculture, according to the committee on Unemployment and Business Cycles, appointed by Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, which has just made its report. One of the propositions brought forward by the investigators, who have been seeking a way to guard against future periods of depression such as those which have always followed prosperity in the past, is to set aside a special reserve of this gold against the foreign demands that will come with resumption of normal world business, thus removing from the field of temptation an easy means of inflating American credits to the danger point.

Banks are urged by the report to use extreme precaution in granting loans near the peak of the business rise. Individual business men are warned that their best protection is to study all available sources of authentic information regarding world and national stocks of their respective commodities guiding their purchases accordingly. The Federal Government and the states are asked to delay public works and not compete with private building expansion during the current boom. Many other interesting correctives are advanced by the committee, whose personnel makes the report carry weight. Owen D. Young, president of the General Electric Company, is chairman. The other members are Joseph DeFrees, former president of the United States Chamber of Commerce; Mary Van Kleeck, of the Russell Sage Foundation; Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor; Clarence M. Wooley, president of the American Radiator Company, and Edward Fyfe Hunt, secretary of the President's Conference on Unemployment, of which the committee is part.

The National Bureau of Economic Research gathered the mass of facts from which the findings were deduced. Its material, edited by Wesley C. Mitchell, nationally known authority on the business cycle, is shortly to be published in book form. The committee report itself will be part of the book, and can be had separately by applying to the President's Conference on Unemployment, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C.

CANADIAN GROWERS SEEK DUTY ON AMERICAN FRUIT

(By The Associated Press) OTTAWA, Ont., April 11.—A plea of the Niagara Peninsula Fruit Growers Association for higher duty on fruit from the United States is based upon the premise that the public's appetite for fruit becomes surfeited before the Ontario crop ripens, and that the home-grown crops of strawberries, peaches and cherries are therefore thrown upon a limited market. It is probable that the minister of finance will send a representative to the Niagara fruitbelt to discuss the situation with the fruit growers.

LEGISLATORS CANNOT HAVE ELECTRIC FANS

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 13.—Legislators will have to sweater under their oratorical burdens right on for despite the efforts to give relief on the part of Senators Wells, there is no such relief in sight. Mr. Wells also had feeling for the galleries, for his measure which would have instructed the board of commissioners of state institutions to install electric fans in both houses took in the comfort of those who hang over railing upstairs throughout the session. Mr. Wells got a two-thirds vote for waiving the rules in favor of consideration of his measure; in fact everybody seemed to be in favor of letting it ride through to its third reading, when it was killed by 12 to 16 votes.

NO MORE TOLL ROADS AND BRIDGES.

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 13.—It would be unlawful for any person or firm, or corporation to collect a toll from any state road or bridge crossing such road in this state under the terms of a measure introduced in both houses. The measure goes further to prevent the connecting of any private toll road with a state road. Their authors are Senator Butler and Representative Miller.
