

Seminole High School To Hold Student Election

By Grace Marie Stinephor
The elections for various offices of the Student Body and classes of Seminole High School are to be patterned after the City, County, and national elections this year.

The plan originated within the Student Council organization with the help of Principal Herman E. Morris and the sponsors, Mrs. Virgil Smith and Miss Ethel Riser. Various committees, headed by Walter Routh, president of the Student Body have worked diligently "ironing out the wrinkles".

Finally the plan was okayed by the faculty and presented to the Student Body and it was passed unanimously.

The qualification period of one week has just passed and campaigning has begun in earnest.

The qualifying officers of the Student Council were Jack Sch-rod, Sammy Jacobson, seniors; Grace Marie Stinephor, junior; and Eleanor Nix, sophomore. The incoming freshman class will hold their elections next year. A scholastic and department average of not less than 85 percent is required for each candidate. Many students have qualified for the various offices.

The registrars are: Robert Miller, Tommy Kuhn and Beverly Gray. The week-end voters will register. Some may vote unless registered. There will be a campaign period with speeches by the various candidates.

Competing for president of the Student Body are Sammy Jacobson, Bobby Morris and George Harbin; for vice-president, Grace Marie Stinephor and Tommy Kuhn; and for secretary, Gail Hitting and Mary Lou Copehand.

Senior Class candidates include Terry Goodell for president; George Patterson, Edwin Lockett, and Banks Register, vice-president; Alice Brown and Wesley Hamill, secretary; Ray Davis and Betsy Ann Carter, treasurer; and Rose Boyle and Beverly Benton, chaplain.

For representative to the Student Council are Janice Reel, Ann employees if he became governor. Odham's aides said the candidate received 5,600 questions to answer and took in $322 in campaign contributions during his Jacksonville talkathon. Odham said the program cost $1,800, and would be his last, although he plans shorter radio quiz shows, running up to six hours, in several cities before the May 6 primary.

Adams insisted there is no "hoax," as Gov. Warren suggested about the documents he exhibits to support his claim that high administration figures plotted two years ago to build a Jacksonville-Miami turnpike without competitive bids.

Ell Fink and William Joe Sears, the Jacksonville lawyers whose names were on the memorandum about joining of building the road without bids, issued statements at Jacksonville declaring they never gave such a memo to any official state board. They didn't sign anything, though they said they could not discuss matters of their law clients.

Adams has declined to name the man in whom the memorandum was addressed, but said he was "very high" in the administration.

Fink said "The very fact that more than two years have elapsed since the alleged conspiracy is undeniable fact that at no time have I ever discussed such a project with a state agency having authority with reference to same should be conclusive proof of the falsity of the statements."

Odham was accused of an "absolute lie" by Charles Ausley, Tallahassee attorney and McCarty supporter.

Adams has said Ausley directed state workers to the location of some mislaid 1941 race track bill veto messages that he claimed were embarrassing to McCarty. He said Ausley was a "race track lobbyist" who had been paid $7,500 by Hialeah Park.

Ausley said "Odham's statement is an absolute lie. I have never been a race track lobbyist and have never received a single cent for lobbying for any race track. The payment referred to by Odham was a legal fee for services in a law suit involving a constitutional question. The veto messages referred to were located by state employees."

Four of the delegates known to favor Taft were elected, and two more were running strongly in the district races. One Stassen man was elected.

The Democratic ballots were studied with write-in votes.

President Truman, despite having formally taken himself out of the presidential picture, received more than 100, Stevenson considered the President's personal choice as the Democratic candidate, also was represented with about that many votes.

Eisenhower's name was written in by more than 300 Democrats, and Taft had several dozen.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith, Republican incumbent who remained neutral in the preferential balloting, was renominated by an overwhelming majority. He defeated Carl Ring, a Rutherford attorney.

Smith will be opposed in the November election by Archibald S. Alexander, former undersecretary of the Army, who was an opponent for the Democratic nomination.

queries and his replies would be published in full. Only one of the governor's long list was put to him by a newsmen a "revelation you keep your Crime Committee out of Tennessee?"

Kefauver replied his home state was omitted because the committee's investigations did not show it occupied an important place in the interstate crime setup. He added it would have helped him politically to take his committee into Memphis because local political heads were opposed to him.

He told reporters he has "no plans" to accept Warren's invitation to debate him on his "fitness to be President" and repeated that the governor had been given an opportunity to appear before the Crime Committee.

He said he will not renew his call on the governor when he returns to Tallahassee April 30, but added if Warren wants to greet him he will welcome that.

Commenting on his chances in the Florida preferential primary May 6, Kefauver said he realized "I have a hard uphill fight in the state because of the virulent opposition of Fuller Warren. I have no personal ill will to Fuller Warren, I am sorry he hates me with such a vengeance."

He said he is pleased with his showing in the New Jersey primary Tuesday where he was opposed on the Democratic ticket and commented he considers the vote "morally binding on the delegates. I hope they will be for me."

Kefauver took off from here for Panama City, where he planned a brief meeting with supporters. He will be in Pensacola tonight.

Test Expected Tonight On Omaha Levees

River Level Passes 29 1/2 Foot Stage As Crest Of 31 1/2 Feet Is Predicted Soon

OMAHA (AP)—Levees strait-jacketing the monstrously high Missouri River along Omaha and Council Bluffs, Ia., still held the upper hand today but the situation was touch and go.

River forecasters continued to predict a crest "sometime tonight" in this metropolitan area of some 300,000 persons.

Round-the-clock and almost inch-by-inch vigilance was being maintained along the 23 miles of primary levees which so far have kept the raging waters from the two cities.

Sand boils developed but were quickly choked off as the tremendous pressure kept increasing. The water crept above the original flood wall height in spots to push against flashboards which have been erected in recent days. But pumps lifted the spilled water back into the channel.

The river level today passed the 29 1/2-foot mark. Flood stage is 19 feet. The previous record high, in 1903, was 24 1/2 feet. The crest is expected to measure 31 1/2 feet.

For a week the twin cities have been preparing for the worst. They marshaled armies of men with fleets of trucks and heavy earthmoving equipment in dikes, levees and built auxiliary levees behind them.

From threatened areas of the two cities nearly 40,000 persons have been evacuated. Full-blown civilian defense organizations functioned in the face of disaster. Some 8,000 troops have joined the flood fight.

The peril which have joined the flood fight.

The peril which has mounted day by day will reach its climax with the arrival of the crest.

Still, relief workers prompted watchful waiting in other areas of the flood-ravaged Midwest. As the floods surged southward, thousands turned from the levees to the dikes.

Senator Douglas Offers Support To Senator Kefauver

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) today threw his support behind Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee as the best available candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Douglas' announcement came just 24 hours after Gov. Adlai Stevenson declared he could not accept top place on the Democratic ticket. Douglas had been supporting Stevenson.

At a news conference, Douglas said he repeated what he has said before—that he would not accept the party nomination for President.

"I am in Kefauver's army," Douglas said. "I am enlisted for the duration."

The Illinois senator said he believes Kefauver has a very good chance to be nominated.

However, Douglas said he did not know whether Kefauver could defeat Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in the November election, if Eisenhower is the Republican nominee.

"Let's let the people decide that," Douglas said.

"I do not believe that I can certainly do better than Kefauver could do," Douglas said. "I believe that Kefauver could do better than I could do."

Douglas' announcement brought a barrage of questions dealing with the controversial civil rights issue.

Asked whether he felt the minority groups in the Northern states would vote for Kefauver, Douglas replied that they "apparently were not voting for Kefauver."

Asked whether he felt Kefauver was further than Stevenson regarding civil rights.

Stevenson has said he feels the civil rights matter is one for the states to handle, but that if they did not legislate it, the federal government should step in.

Kefauver has said he is against such proposals as a compulsory Fair Employment Practices Commission, but he also has said he will support such a proposal if included in the party's platform this year.

Harriman Looms As Possibility For Democrats

Candidates Gather In New York For State Committee Dinner

By The Associated Press

All the announced candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination, except one, gathered in New York tonight for a dinner that may shove W. Averell Harriman into the limelight.

The 400-plus party affair, sponsored by the New York State Democratic Committee, brought strong expressions of support to give Harriman the state's 44 National Convention delegates.

One Democratic spokesman said Harriman, if chosen, would be a full-fledged candidate and not merely a favorite son. The 60-year-old Harriman, now mutual security administrator, has worked closely with President Truman and the late President Roosevelt.

The organized campaign behind Harriman opened last Saturday but he has not announced as a candidate. He said he would "consider it an honor" to be endorsed by the New York Democratic organization.

Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia is the only announced Democratic candidate expected to attend tonight's dinner.

Speakers at the affair include Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, Sen. Brian McMahon of Connecticut, Sen. Robert H. Kerr of Oklahoma, all announced candidates—plus Vice President Alben W. Barkley, Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois and Sen. Herbert H. Lehman of New York.

Barkley is one of those who has not announced but who has been mentioned as a possible Democratic standard bearer.

Stevenson clouded the picture Wednesday by saying he "could not accept the nomination" for any office other than governor of Illinois "this summer." He is a candidate for re-election as governor. He had been looked on as a potential candidate who might rally the split Democratic camp.

Kefauver and Russell got boosts today in the wake of Stevenson's announcement.

Sen. Douglas of Illinois (threw his support behind Kefauver. Some had been suggesting Douglas for the top spot on the Democratic ticket but he rejected that possibility.

"I am in Kefauver's army," he said. "I am enlisted for the duration."

He said, too, that he believes Kefauver has a very good chance of being nominated.

Sen. Harry Byrd of Virginia said Stevenson's withdrawal has helped Russell's cause greatly. The Virginia said:

"The definite withdrawal of Gov. Stevenson as a candidate will tremendously enhance the possibility of the nomination of Sen. Russell."

"Sen. Russell is the strongest candidate of those mentioned. With his long experience and great leadership," he said.

Prison Break

TRINITY, N. J.—Officials at Trinity State Prison today watched for signs of a break in a revolt by 68 convicts barricaded in the prison printing shop.

The prison administration is "waiting it out" in an effort to insure the safety of four employees held as hostages by the rioters since 10 a. m. Tuesday, when the revolt began.

Reports so far indicate the hostages have not been harmed by the convicts.

The rioters have been without food, water or electricity since they took over the 3-story stone building, one of a group of industrial buildings near the prison's walls.

Prison officials have been surprised since the disturbance.

Education Meet

MIAMI (AP)—Some 2,000 Florida school teachers are expected to have a prediction for a wage increase when they open the Florida Education Association's annual convention here today.

The Florida Education Association, president of the P.E.A. announced the prospect of a wage increase Wednesday when he received a telegram from State Rep. Roy B. Bland, leader of the union.

Bland has been successful in securing a bill for higher teacher pay in the Legislature last year.

Elks Meet

The Elks today will meet in regular session tonight at 8:00 o'clock. A treasurer will be elected. Saturday night there will be a barbecue sponsored by Al Coe and John Cameron to purchase a neon Elks sign.

Voice Of America Is Attacked For Religious Bans

Propaganda Device Is Accused Of Distorting U. S. Attitude

CHICAGO (AP)—A clergyman-editor declared today that the Voice of America has refused to carry action addresses by Evangelist Billy Graham and Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, noted Catholic lecturer and author.

Dr. James Tipton, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati, editor of United Evangelical Action magazine, told the convention of the National Association of Evangelicals that the government sponsored overseas network has not given a well rounded picture of American religious life.

Dr. Tipton told the convention "Information reaching me indicates that Evangelist Billy Graham's messages have been ruled out by the program directors on the basis that his appeal for conversion to the Christian gospel is too strong."

He said he believed Bishop Sheen's addresses "have been rejected because of their being 'too political' in Christian philosophy and ethics."

A Voice of America spokesman said that Tipton apparently was misinformed, since Bishop Sheen has been used extensively in the overseas broadcasts, and the Voice had never refused to carry Graham's addresses.

"The element of refusal has never entered into the picture, because there has never been any request of any offer," the spokesman said.

He explained that a religious advisory board to the State Department, including prominent representatives of Protestants, Catholics and Jews, aided in compiling and guiding the program so as to give a well rounded picture of religious life.

He added that the Voice in recent months has been steadily increasing the amount of religious and inspirational content programs.

Dr. Tipton presented a resolution asking the convention to protest the religious policies of the Voice of America.

Problem Of City Managers Is Aired

OCALA (AP)—City managers were told today the problem confronting all cities is a tremendous increase in demands by citizens for added services while labor and material costs are mounting—in the face of the reluctance of people to pay taxes.

The speaker, Clarence Ridley, director of the International City Managers Association, spoke at the opening of the University of Florida's sixth annual 3-day short course for city managers.

Forty are attending, including Gov. LeRoy Collins, Mayor R. H. Smith, Lake Alfred city manager.

Dr. Frank Goodwin, university marketing professor, emphasized good relations between city government and the private citizen. "Doing good is not enough," he said. "You've got to tell people about it."

Back To Civics

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Veterans Administration estimated today that 710,000 members of the armed services have returned to civilian life since the outbreak of the Korean War.

It noted, too, that "more and more veterans disabled since the beginning of the Korean conflict" are turning to the VA for medical care and other disability benefits.

Eventually, the agency estimated the number of veterans of the post-war period—the war began June 25, 1950—will equal the number of World War I veterans.

Ike's Cousin

Carl Eisenhower, a third cousin to General Eisenhower, is a real Sanford booster, and comes here every winter. He and Mrs. Eisenhower, who left Tuesday for the north, are looking forward to attending the Eisenhower family reunion in August this summer in Pennsylvania and hope General "Ike" will be there.

Family Re-union Set For Eisenhower Clan

More than 500 of the Eisenhower clan, including possibly General Eisenhower himself, are expected in the near future, the announcement of the selection field is delayed until after Gen. Eisenhower departs in June from his North Atlantic Treaty force command.

Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery of Great Britain, deputy Allied supreme commander, will assume the NATO command for the interval between Eisenhower's departure and the arrival of the new commander, Gen. Lauris Norstad.

Present plans of the Joint Chiefs, Johnson added, call for the appointment of Gen. Mark W. Clark to the NATO command in order to insure continuity of command.

Russell's Delegate Problem Is Eased

MIAMI (AP)—Sen. Richard B. Russell's problem of too many candidates for Democratic convention delegate being pledged to him was eased a little today in the Fourth Congressional District.

Robert M. Yoder, Miami, withdrew in favor of former Congressman J. Mark Wilcox in the race for delegate from the popular Southeast Florida congressional district.

If both had stayed in, Russell's vote might have been divided sufficiently to assure election of the single candidate pledged to Sen. Estes Kefauver.

Russell still has 50 candidates pledged to him running for a total of 24 delegate seats from the eight districts and the state at large.

U. of F. Report

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Despite an inadequate accounting system for early use at the University of Florida all receipts of record were properly accounted for and expenditures properly supported for the year ended last June 30, the state auditor said Wednesday.

A new system of accounting was put in effect July 1 and an improved budgetary procedure has been established, the audit said.

It showed the university started the fiscal year 1951 with a balance of $4,000,000 and ended it with $4,100,000. Funds available to the university during the year were $2,200,000. Net expenditures were $1,900,000.

Adams Rapped By Road Board For Trickery

McCarty Attacked By Adams And Odham; Sen. Shands Denies Charges By Odham

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—Florida club women today called for a halt to bureaucratic, thoughtless, and unproductive administration of the state's highway department. The 57th annual convention of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs assessed road conditions regarding these, emphasizing they wanted the government to live within the budget "just as women find it necessary to do in our homes and clubs."

By The Associated Press

The State Road Department board, meeting in Lakeland yesterday, put into its official record a resolution assailing the Adams of "clever political trickery" in his attacks on the agency.

Meanwhile Bradley Odham was accused of lying by State Sen. W. Shands, Gainesville, and Mayor Hayden Harris, Jacksonville.

Odham and Adams resumed their free-wheeling campaigns with talks in the Jacksonville area—both centering their attacks on their major opponent, the Democratic nomination, Dan McCarty, following a luncheon yesterday given by the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs.

McCarty kept counter-punching with his claims that the others are "practicing deceit," and saying things about him that aren't true. "I am convinced the people of Florida are sick of their mud-slinging," he said at 80 August, and declared the others should "elevate their level of campaigning."

In their women's clubs speeches, Adams outlined his program for wholesale revision of the administrative branch of government to take some power from the governor and give more to the Cabinet. He expressed a desire to "bring the government back into the hands of the people under the Constitution."

McCarty said the state needs a man in the governor's chair "who has the courage to say 'no' to the politicians and who will not be a coddling fox." He repeated his claim that his hands are not tied by campaign commitments.

Odham said the state's greatest problem is the lack of a strong executive. He said he has had the threat of Florida and its duty to the nation.

He pledged to oust from office any local officer who makes the top men duty and to make the top men duty and to make the top men duty.

Ridgway Is Urged By Joint Chiefs To Succeed Ike

Reports Indicate Announcement May Be Delayed Till June

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme commander of United Nations forces in the Far East, has been recommended by the Joint Chiefs of Staff in Washington to succeed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in Europe, the Chronicle said today in a copyrighted story from its Washington correspondent, Vance Johnson.

In Tokyo, Ridgway's public information officer said he could not comment. Col. George Patrick Welch reported.

Gen. Ridgway has asked me to state the personal conviction by which he is unreservedly convinced that senior officers of the Army should express no personal interest in conjectural assignments subsequent to their present duty. He believes that officers should willingly accept and faithfully discharge any assignment decided upon by superior authority."

Johnson said that Ridgway's name had been suggested to the other 13 North Atlantic Treaty nations, and although approval is expected in the near future, the announcement of the selection field is delayed until after Gen. Eisenhower departs in June from his North Atlantic Treaty force command.

Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery of Great Britain, deputy Allied supreme commander, will assume the NATO command for the interval between Eisenhower's departure and the arrival of the new commander, Gen. Lauris Norstad.

Six Organizers For County Named By Odham Group

Six organizers, representing as many sections of Seminole County, were selected last night by the Bradley Odham County Campaign Committee and at a meeting at local headquarters in the Touchton Building.

Volunteering to serve as organizers in the county were: E. C. Smith, Mrs. Julia H. Under, Carl Price, Robert Hagau, Malcolm MacNeill and Herbert Provant.

Each was assigned a section of the county to organize in order to secure donations and to distribute campaign literature containing Mr. Odham's record and pledges.

Organizers will each select four captains who in turn will each choose eight lieutenants to carry on the work.

Among those present last night were Dr. W. B. Roberts, Gordon Swenson, Mrs. Raymond Hines, Mrs. H. F. Cannon, Mrs. C. H. Schirer, Mrs. J. A. Rice, Mrs. Donald Jones, Mrs. Camilla Bruce, Mrs. James Torweller, Evans McCloy and Mabel Farris.

It was reported that Mr. Odham received $3,022 in campaign donations at Jacksonville where he conducted a 25 3/4 hour talk.

Day of Prayer

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman today signed a congressional resolution calling for an annual day of prayer.

The day to be designated by the President will be other than a Sunday.

The purpose of the resolution is to have the public assemble in churches, synagogues and other places of worship to offer prayers for world peace.

Vandenberg Calls Air Sitdown Strike

Tempest In Teapot

AIR FORCE CHIEF REVEALS CONCERN OVER GROWING SCARCITY OF FLYING OFFICERS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Hoyt H. Vandenberg said today the "so-called" stay-down strike of fliers is a "tempest in a teapot."

The Air Force chief of staff told members of the public given in charges brought against a "small" number of airmen "is not a reflection of anything as great as seems to appear on the surface."

The trouble will continue in the Air Force's stalled recruiting services involuntarily for months.

The Air Force is nonetheless concerned about the possibility of a serious shortage of fliers to man the nation's military planes.

Vandenberg lists three reasons for the situation:

1. Insufficient "hazard" pay for airmen.

2. Reserve officers recalled to duty claim they are being asked to do more than their share.

3. Stay-down strikes have been reported at Biggs and Randolph Air Force Bases in Texas and at March Field in California. One flier has been convicted of dereliction of duty by a court martial and sentenced to prison.

Vandenberg in testimony before a Senate armed services subcommittee, Wednesday, said fliers who refuse to fly probably will be tried by court martial and face prison terms.

He also said that Congress pass legislation that would provide higher hazard pay for fliers to give them a greater incentive to man their planes.

Vandenberg noted, too, that Russia is turning its best youth into flying duty by offering almost double pay and other benefits.

The Air Force chief of staff said: "The increasing risk is dampening the enthusiasm for flying. I would not like to see what I consider that our youth is losing its sense of duty or its zestfulness."

But the fact cannot be linked to the Air Force's meeting in increasing difficulty in attracting sufficient numbers of young men physically and mentally qualified for flying.

The first protest by airmen came from eight reserve officers at Randolph Field. They demanded a congressional investigation of the situation.

Good Government Award Is Won By Judge Stenstrom

Kirk Cites Senator Russell's Record In Endorsing Him

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—Judge Stenstrom won the highly coveted Good Government Award today.

Judge Stenstrom won the award for his leadership in the fight against the highly organized "stay-down" strike of fliers.

James President Tom Crawford cited Judge Stenstrom's outstanding record of public achievement and stated: "It was the great pleasure in presenting this government award to you on behalf of the county and national Junior Chamber of Commerce."

After expressing the appreciation of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Judge Stenstrom went on to thank the county and national Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The award was presented to Judge Stenstrom by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon meeting in the Touchton Building today.

Candidates For Sheriff Featured At Longwood Meet

The five candidates for sheriff of Seminole County will be the initial speakers at the Democratic rally at Longwood, Friday night, Andrew Caraway, secretary-treasurer of the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee, announced today.

The rally will follow a luncheon and banquet which will be served at 4:00 o'clock at the Longwood Park. The Longwood Civic Club will sponsor the program.

Candidates for superintendent of schools, the County Commissioner, Justice of the Peace, State Senator, State House county clerk and county prosecuting attorney will next outline their qualifications and platforms.

Attendance at the rallies so far has been better than four years ago, indicating more interest in the political race, said Mr. Caraway. Starting on Mar. 26 at Lake Mary, the rallies have been held weekly at Oviedo, Chulahoma and Altamonte Springs.

Four more rallies are scheduled in addition to that at Longwood. On Apr. 22, a supper and meeting will be held at the Lake Monroe School, on Apr. 29 a meeting will take place at Bear Lake, and on Apr. 30, a supper and meeting at American Legion Building, Fern Park, is scheduled.

On Saturday, May 3 at 8:00 p.m. the final big meeting will take place at the Seminole County Court House, James H. Lee will continue to preside at the meeting.

The first primary election on May 4, said Mr. Caraway, will settle any race in which there are only two opponents, or in cases where one candidate has a majority vote, or more than all his opponents combined. Runoffs will take place in the second primary on May 27.

Winners will be Democratic nominees. This is tantamount to election as there are no opposing Republican candidates.

Elliott's 2-Homer Debut Makes Giant Fans Forget Irvin

Raschi And Yankees Register 8-1 Win Over A's; Tribe Nips Chisox, 1-0

Associated Press Sports Writer
Bob Elliott's crashing 2-homer debut chased the Monte Irvin blues out of the Polo Grounds.

New York Giant fans, dubious of the value of a 35-year-old Boston leaver, "castled" Irvin in the Polo Grounds Wednesday night to be shown Elliott sure showed them. He made Irvin's ankle fracture seem less tragic.

When the Giants bought Big Bob from the Braves April 8, 1930, Joe and Fletcher Sheldon Jones, Manager Leo Durocher shouted "He'll be my crusher." Now the fans know what Leo meant.

First a home run deep into the upper leftfield seats in the fourth inning. Then No. 3 into the rightfield seats in the eighth. Elliott sprayed new optimism into the Giant cause.

Elliott's home runs plus steady ball pitching by Sal Maglie made New York's first night opener a success with a 5-3 win over the Phillies. It was Sal the Barber's ninth straight over the White Sox. He struck out eight and restricted the trouble to the 3-run fifth.

If Elliott keeps it up, the Braves probably will swear off trading with the Giants. They gave them Al Dark and Eddie Stanky, the middle of a pennant winner. And now Elliott, who was holding out, comes to life in a new uniform.

Ironically, the Braves staggered through a rugged afternoon, absorbing a 1-6 pining from the slugging Brooklyn Dodgers. The Brooks flattened Max Karp in the first inning and kept it up all day for 20 hits.

That man from St. Louis—Stan Musial—got hot with the bat to drive home three runs with a homer and double in the Cardinals' second straight night victory over Pittsburgh, 6-5.

Via Raschi got the World Champion New York Yankees off to a flying start in their drive toward a fourth straight pennant with an 8-1 romp over the Philadelphia A's. Big Vic won a lifetime 2-3 record against the A's. However, he needed help from Johnny Rains when he pitched a wild 7th inning and walked three straight in the ninth after the first night's debut for the first night's games.

Cleveland and the surprising St. Louis Browns kept step in their rivalry in the American League lead. The Indians shipped Chicago, 12, on Rookie Jim Friday's homer and Bob Lemon's 3-hit pitching while Rogers Hornsby's Browns clipped Detroit, 5-4.

Hornsby got some help from Tommy Byrne, that good hitting pitcher, for the Browns' second straight win. Hornsby lifted two regulars for pinchhitters in the seventh inning but let Byrne hit himself. Tommy doubled home the first run as St. Louis rallied three to tie. They were out in the eighth on Tom Whitt's solo, a triple by Rookie George Bellness and double by Hank Arr.

Floyd Baker, supposed to be a good field, no hit man, was a quiet game in Washington with a single off Eddie Stanky's pitcher Kinder with two out in the 7th. Irv Noren's double and two walks loaded them up. Julio Moreno went all the way for the Senators.

Cincinnati and Chicago had no new date in the National.

ROLLING WINS

WINTER PARK (N)—Rollins College scored a triple victory Wednesday, beating University of Tennessee in basketball and tennis and Jacksonville Navy's baseball team.

Key led Rollins players to 10-0 in a triumph over the Navy par on Dismal Beach. Key's Alfredo Miller paced as the 7-5 tennis sweep by Rollins. The 10th straight victory over the Navy was rolled up by Rollins.

Rollins' basketball team, according to figures released by the Commission, scored 100 points in its 10th straight victory over the Navy. The team hit safety 15 times in the game.

Rollins also had the same Gov. who are based in the town of Key.

Jimmy Cochran Wins Bradenton Tourney

Jimmy (Speck) Cochran, son of Mrs. J. D. Cochran of Lake Mary, was declared the new champion of the Bradenton Country Club, at the annual Bradenton Country Club Tournament held there recently, according to an article appearing in the Bradenton Herald.

Climaxing a series of upset triumphs in his march through the 52-player field, Mr. Cochran scored a lopsided 6 and 5 victory over Joe Bill Root in the 98-hole final of the tournament.

Cochran, a once a week golfer, manages a grocery store in Bradenton. The article stated that this was his first major links victory. He formerly lived in Sanford and attended the local schools, assisting his father the late J. D. Cochran, after school hours at the Lovett's Grocery Store which Mr. Cochran managed for many years.

Leading from the start in the tournament, Cochran was ahead 3-up after the first nine and 4-up following the morning 18. He hoisted his lead to six holes in the first nine of the afternoon round and closed out the match on the 18th hole of the last 18. He succeeds Dick McCleery as Bradenton champion.

Ushering in the 1932 baseball season in the first home hit of the season for the Sanford Blues vs. the Deland Red Hats, Mayor William H. Stumper feels that he is right back in his boyhood days as he hurled the initial pitch in the new Memorial Stadium. A 10 inning game followed Tuesday with Sanford winning, 7 to 6.

St. Augustine Halts Blues, 5-2; Seminoles Play Palatka Tonight

By KENT CHETLAIN
The law of averages and a courageous one-legged war veteran, Port Sheppard, combined to give a Seminoles Blue 2-game winning streak and a 2-game St. Augustine losing streak last night as the Saints dropped Sanford 5-2 before only 107 chilled fans in the coastal city.

The "old pro" Chuck Aleno drove in both the Blues' runs on a first inning bludge that drove in Nat Haber and an eighth frame single that scored Joe Parise who had doubled.

Parise's against-the-wall two-bagger was the only extra base hit of the evening for either team.

Saint manager Sheppard, who has been playing first base, took to the hill and brought a halt to the 17-0 and 25-4 shellackings his charges had absorbed in the first two States encounters.

The former Washington Senator hurler scattered five Seminoles hits and wasn't bothered with his artificial leg on the mound. However, Sheppard had to retire in the dugout when he fell running out a hit which bounced over Parise's head.

Sheppard was granted a courtesy runner while he retired momentarily for adjustments.

The Saints scored all five of their runs in the bottom of the third on four singles and two errors.

The Blues will travel to Palatka tonight to play the Azaleas for the first time this year. Manager Aleno will probably go with one of his new arrivals from the St. Louis Browns farm system.

The Blues will play in Sanford tomorrow night against the Cocoa Indians. On Saturday night the Seminoles will again be home to face the league leading Gainesville G-Men.

Tickets to all home games can be obtained at Faust's Drug store in advance to eliminate the long lines at the park. President Joel Field said today.

Gainesville Forges Into State Loop Lead By Defeating Cocoa

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The pitching of Francisco Lopez, backed up by the hitting of Al Pirtle and Bob Smith, gave Gainesville 10-3 victory over Cocoa Wednesday night and put the G-Men alone in front of the Florida State League.

Jacksonville Beach continued to slam the ball all over the lot in a 16-5 win over Daytona Beach. Orlando beat Palatka, 8-1; Deland trimmed Leesburg, 9-5; and St. Augustine defeated Sanford, 6-2.

Gainesville bunched five hits for three runs in the first inning and that was all the lead Lopes needed. He gave Cocoa eight hits in the Indians' first defeat. Pirtle and Smith had perfect nights at the plate.

Orlando's Wayne Sewell pitched in a masterful early-season pitching job—a 5-hitter—on Palatka. He had a shutout until his own error let Palatka score in the ninth. Ed Levy's 3-run single sparked a 3-run Orlando rally in the fourth inning.

Jim Clarich and Charlie Brewster teamed up for the Deland Red Hats' triumph over Leesburg. Clarich, on the mound, struck in after his mates scored five times in the fifth inning. Brewster hit the winning blow, a home run.

Nine errors by Daytona Beach helped the Jacksonville Beach Sea Birds to their second straight scoring binge. A night earlier they counted 25 runs against St. Augustine. Bill Herman pitched the Sea Birds Wednesday night triumph, giving the Daytona Beach Islanders nine hits.

Ushering in the 1932 baseball season in the first home hit of the season for the Sanford Blues vs. the Deland Red Hats, Mayor William H. Hawkins Wins 2nd Game For Rotary Giants In 2 Days

For the second straight day the pitching of Jimmy Hawkins paced the Rotary League Giants to victory as they rolled over the Cubs and Randy Reynolds, 8-1, yesterday afternoon on the Ninth Street Diamond.

Hawkins limited the Cubs to three hits and one run in chalking up his second win in two days. Reynolds won't the route leaving six hits and eight runs. Earlier this year Reynolds fashioned himself a no-hitter for the Cubs.

The triumph placed the Giants in a two-way tie with the Pirates for the league lead. By losing, the Cubs fell from a tie for first place to third place, one full game behind the leaders.

Because of a school holiday for the next two days, the Rotary loop has suspended games for today and tomorrow.

Fort Lauderdale Braves Are Still Trying For Win

Barney Lutz's Ninth Inning Encounter

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Fort Lauderdale Braves haven't won a game since the Florida International League opened a week ago but they've been trying. Wednesday night they battled the Tampa Smokers for 16 innings before losing, 8-5, for their seventh straight setback.

The Braves have played three of the six extra-inning games out of 23 so far in the season.

The Smokers held their lead over Miami and Havana, who also won and are tied for second. Miami opened at home and defeated Miami Beach, 2-1, while Havana edged the Pilots in Lakeland, 9-8, in 10 innings.

West Palm Beach dropped into a tie for fourth place by losing a pair to the Saints in St. Petersburg, 6-3 and 10-1.

Tampa got five runs in the 15th on four hits, an error and a walk, and the Braves came back with two on Chuck Harig's double.

Billie Darden allowed four hits, his second such performance of the season, to give Miami the edge before 3,408 Miami Stadium fans. Paul Armstrong scored both in Miami's runs. He walked in the second and scored on Max McCone's infield hit and doubled in the eighth to score on Cecil Detson's fly.

Havana's Cubans, playing their second extra-inning game of the season, won in the 10th on Tony Pacheco's double, an intentional pass to Bumberlando Eiba and Mike Guerra's single to left. Lakeland rallied for four runs in the ninth to tie the score on a walk, Harry Geis' homer, four more walks and an error. Woody Fairholmer for Lakeland and Bobby Ortiz hit for the circuit for Havana.

A 3-run homer by Herschel Held, former manager of West Palm Beach, dropped the Indians in the first game and a 3-run circuit clout by Nesbit Wilson in the eighth, sewed up the nightcap before 700 St. Petersburg fans. The Indians got six hits off George Green in the opener and an equal number off Dinty Moore in the afterpiece.

Landlords Are Urged To Use Rent Office

W. R. Williams of the Sanford Area Rent Office today advised landlords to make better use of the services performed by that office. "A simple phone call to the Area Rent Office will often clarify a landlord's rights under the federal rent stabilization law," Mr. Williams said.

"Once he knows the facts he can often save himself time and trouble in deciding how to proceed with a rental problem."

Mr. Williams also pointed out that the Area Rent Office has a standing offer to tenants, as well as to landlords, to drop in and talk over any question on the rent law.

Governor Race

around him "men with glass pockets."

Later, at a Democratic rally, Odham renewed his attacks on Mayor Burns, who has publicly endorsed McCarty.

About the same time, Burns was on the radio and television accusing Odham of "copying Hitler's tactics of hating and hating, lying and lying, blaspheming and blaspheming" during a 25-hour Jacksonville radio talkathon.

He said if Odham's speech is believed "it will do untold damage to our city because he falsely said that not only did all gambling in Florida originate here, but he implied that wives and daughters would not be safe on the streets."

And another target of Odham's criticism, Sen. Shands, struck back from Gainesville.

Odham had called Shands the "fat cat" of the McCarty campaign and said McCarty would give the Road Board chairmanship to the senator, a wealthy road material dealer and outdoor advertising executive who ran for governor four years ago.

"This assertion by Mr. Odham is an absolute falsehood and he knows it," Shands said. "He does not have any basis for making such a statement, and he knows full well he is uttering a falsehood for the purpose of gaining favor with others."

"So that the record will be straight from now on, Mr. McCarty has never discussed this appointment or any other appointment with me. Furthermore, I am positively not interested in holding the board chairmanship or any other state office within the power of the chief executive. Moreover, I would not accept any state post if tendered to me."

But the most voluminous statement of the day came at the meeting of the Road Board, which adopted a resolution condemning Adams and heard Chairman Alfred McKethan read a 12-page answer to Adams' major charges against the highway agency.

The board's resolution denounced the Adams accusations as "utterly without substance or foundation, and polluting more than cheap political trickery."

McKethan took up the charges one by one, and gave these answers:

1. That the Road Department will put the state into debt by building the Jacksonville-Miami turnpike. "He is confused," the Road Board and Improvement Commission have taken the position that "no commitments of this nature would be made on this project based on an impartial origin and traffic destination survey" which now is being made.

2. That there hasn't been an official Road Department audit in 12 years. "A complete misstatement. It was this Road Board that demanded periodic audits by the State Auditing Department. The State Road Department records were audited up to date in 1951 and will be audited, according to law, again this year."

3. That the Road Board spent $500,000 for an engineer's retainer to provide plans for a tunnel in Broward County. "The project was approved by the preceding Road Board" in 1948, and "every approval that any project should the great task of rehabilitation. The Missouri, the Mississippi, the Milk in Montana, the Red River of the North in Minnesota and the Minnesota River all have with punishing blows and have a lot left to deal out.

At least two persons have died in the floods.

Wednesday night, Mrs. Rosemary Mohr, 28, was being rowed to her home in St. Paul's west side by Volunteer Ferryman Ed Thelen when the boat capsized. Rescuers heard Thelen's cries and pulled him out but were unable to find Mrs. Mohr in the darkness. Her body was recovered later from seven feet of Mississippi River flood water.

On April 6, William J. Red Bay, 24, Poplar, Mont., drowned in the Cannonball River, a tributary of the Missouri south of Bismarck, N. D. Floodwaters on the tributary were far runners on the main stream.

There was made of this project before proceeding."

4. That the East Coast turnpike may be constructed without competitive bids, a completely absurd statement. Doesn't he know that the State Road Department is required to build roads on a competitive bid basis?

5. That the Road Board is beholden to contractors, doesn't he know honest bids, and contractors do not build roads on honest bids? "The State Road Department is beholden to no contractor, and couldn't favor one contractor over another if it so desired. Competitive bidding on each project is required by law and the low responsible bidder gets the contract. Qualified engineers execute these contracts" and see that they "are carried out to the letter."

6. That McKethan wants to stay on as road chairman and that McCarty would keep him: "I am not interested in serving another term as chairman of the State Road Board, no matter who may be governor." McCarty has said he won't keep McKethan or any other top aide of Gov. Warren.

7. That the Jaxon Construction Co. is an example of favoritism in granting road contracts. "The Jaxon Construction Co. or no other road building company gets any contracts unless it bid happens to be low on a project. The Jaxon Construction Co. has been paid $702,000 for work performed during this administration," or less than half of one per cent of the total money spent by the board.

8. That a $191,000 fiscal agent's fee for helping finance the 22 million dollar Lower Tampa Bay Bridge was improper. "The fee was approved and was approved by the State Supreme Court in a validating decree in which Adams concurred while he was on the bench."

At the north end of the Council Bluffs dike standby teams of workmen were building a huge ring of sandbags behind a point where the rush of water against the bank was "piling up" higher than the rest of the stream and actually trickling through the sandbag-and-flash-board topping on the dike. Nearby, there was some seepage through the levee itself.

The Red Cross estimates that in the flooded areas of the four major river basins there are 100,000 persons displaced, the majority in need of rehabilitation help and many more to be in the same need if the Missouri can break the Omaha Council Bluffs dike defense behind which three-quarters of the population of the Bluffs feel the needle of fear.

President Truman flew over the area where the Missouri has ripped and torn at the land and summed it up Wednesday with "It's worse than I thought it would be."

Then he appealed to seven Midwest governors who were here to join in a fight for flood control projects which he said were threatened by a congressional "economy block" that has wiped out some of the most important projects he recommended for this control.

The President, the governors and several members of Congress of Engineers Lt. Gen. Lewis A. Pick state that if the 1946 plans recommended by the Engineers were all in operation now, these river rampages "could have been avoided."

In short, President Truman expressed his position as "I want to get the job done. There is no excuse in fooling around with it. This is the breadbasket of the nation and this breadbasket should be protected."

Mrs. Mohr's death came at the height of the flood at St. Paul. The Mississippi crested there Wednesday at 22.2 feet. Early today Army Engineers said it appeared to be falling slightly.

The misery-dealing Missouri, having sent thousands of families hiking for high ground in one of its worst rampages, was beating at the metropolitan Omaha-Council Bluffs area, the biggest segment of humanity it has had a chance to hit in this outpouring of wrath. A record crest of 31.5 feet is due tonight.

It was a vigil fraught with uncertainty for the huge force of Army Engineers who built the walls and dikes, and the soldiers and civilians who raised them much beyond the original height. There was nothing they could do but wait—one of the hardest jobs there is. They had built those walls and levees originally to stand a 25-foot crest, a couple of feet over the best the wide stream had ever recorded before.

But the Missouri had a punch they hadn't reckoned on—the predicted 31.5-foot walltop. Today it was up over 29 feet.

Irving Vieno Hurt In Deland Rodeo

DELAND, (AP) Marion Gagliardi, took first place in the 4-H Club tractor driving contest which opened the Cracker Day celebration at the fair grounds yesterday.

The annual festival sponsored by the Volusia County Cattleman's Assn. included a barbecue at noon and square dancing last night on completion of the sporting events.

Jerry Foster, Deland, was second in tractor driving. Third went to Johnny Reichel, Samsula.

The contest was won both on a written quiz and actual driving of a tractor pulling a trailer. Driving scores were given according to how well a boy checked equipment and handled operational procedures as well as for skill. Skill was judged both on a time test and on a test for ability to maneuver the equipment.

A grand entry of horsemen followed the tractor contest. Mrs. Pat Brooks, Lemon Bluff, placed first as best dressed cowgirl. Mac Riley, Windermere, was judged the best turned out cowboy. Judging was based on appearance of both horse and rider.

Only casualty of the performance was suffered by Irving H. Vieno Jr., 23, Osteen, who broke his right leg during the saddle scramble event. He was taken to Deland Memorial Hospital.

A record crowd estimated at nearly 2,000 turned out for the events.

Senator Douglas Makes Attack On Chairborne Pilots

Defense Department Denies Charge Of Joy-riding Missions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Douglas (D., Ill.), let fly again today at the Pentagon's "chairborne pilots" and at extra "hazard pay" that is not allowed to the infantry.

The Senate preparedness subcommittee gave him two hours to vent his feelings, and he said he would need at least that long.

Defense Department officials denied vigorously at a public hearing Wednesday that "chairborne pilots" collect extra hazard pay allowances for joy-riding aerial missions, as charged by Douglas.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, top Air Force general, and Vice Adm. J. H. Casady, deputy chief of Naval Air Operations, both challenged Douglas' demands for a sharp cut in extra pay to airmen and men in the submarine and other services deemed extra hazardous.

Vandenberg told the subcommittee that the country's reserve of trained airmen already "is dangerously small." He predicted a cut would bring wholesale losses of skilled fliers which the country cannot afford. Casady backed him up.

Great Future Seen For St. Johns If Pollution Problems Are Solved

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—The St. Johns River basin has bright promise of increased financial and recreational development if pollution problems are solved to a few areas, a federal state health report said today.

The State Board of Health released the report made by the U. S. Public Health Service in cooperation with the State Game and Fish Commission, Army Engineers, Federal Fish and Wildlife Service and U. S. Geological Survey.

Starting 50 miles north of Lake Okechobee and 25 miles west of Florida's East Coast, the St. Johns flows 257 miles north to Jacksonville, then 25 miles east to the Atlantic Ocean. The river includes 7,012 square miles in its basin.

The report finds that "the water resources are not currently used to their utmost. There is an adequate quantity of water, both ground and surface, to sustain the additional industrial expansion, population growth, recreational development and other legitimate uses provided the water resources can be guarded against pollution."

The report notes "the surface waters of the basin are not extensively damaged by pollution because of the large volumes of water available for dilution and because a large proportion of both municipal and industrial wastes are discharged to underground caverns in the porous limestone strata. There are, however, a number of local areas where pollution is a serious problem."

Places where pollution creates health problems and affects the use of the basin's waters include the river and tributaries around Jacksonville and certain sections in the vicinity of Green Cove Springs, Palatka and Sanford.

"But one of the factors which tend to keep the river clean is providing damming to the area's ground water resources," the report says.

"The subsurface disposal of municipal and industrial wastes is damaging the ground water resources. This practice results in a definite health hazard as well as lowering the quality of water for industrial use."

Forty-two municipalities and 123 industries are at present discharging polluted water into the waters of the basin, the report notes.

In addition to problems created by discharge of municipal sewage, rapidly expanding food processing plants, primarily citrus, also are said to be creating their share of problems.

The report recommends:

1. Water quality standards be established for all waters of the basin as a step in the development of a comprehensive water pollution control program.
2. The city of Jacksonville develop plans and proceed with the construction of municipal sewage treatment facilities and that other municipalities needing improvements for the abatement of pollution proceed with the planning and construction of suitable facilities for this purpose.
3. The practice of discharging wastes into subsurface drainage be discontinued and that adequate treatment be provided for all wastes before their discharge to surface drainage systems.
4. Industry adequately treat its own wastes where access to municipal sewers is denied or is not available.
5. Research work on citrus wastes be accelerated to develop the most economical means of establishing waste treatment and/or their disposal through by-product manufacture.

Britain Agrees On Aid To European Army

LONDON (AP)—Britain agreed today to lend her own to automatic and unimproved war to help any of the six nations in the proposed European army if they are attacked in Europe.

The six continental powers like France have agreed to fight for Britain if she is hit in Europe.

The new treaty, which Britain said had been agreed on and would be drawn up, in effect would extend British pledges of military aid formally to West Germany and would strengthen her commitment to fight off any attack on Italy.

The new pact would take effect when the six nations ratify a treaty establishing the European defense community (EDC) and its unified army.

Britain already had promised to help defend France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—the other members of the proposed EDC—under the 50-year Brussels pact. She also had been committed to aid Italy under the 20-year Atlantic Pact, but Foreign Office officials said the new pledge is more profound.

Five divisions of British occupation troops in Germany also are a practical guarantee to help defend the Germans as long as they remain. The new pledge, however, would extend through the remaining 17 years of the Atlantic Pact a period longer than the troops are likely to stay.

Two Justices Rap Electoral College System Of Voting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Supreme Court justices consider the Electoral College method of electing a President and vice president "a disturbing and disturbing" system.

At worst it is "open to local corruption and manipulation." Justice Jackson wrote Tuesday in a dissenting opinion concurred in by Chief Justice Warren.

The 5-2 majority opinion held that a candidate for president should not be required to be elected by a majority of the electoral college votes chosen by his party.

Specifically, the decision reversed that of the Alabama Supreme Court ordering that State Senator Edmund Blair's name be placed on the ballot as a Democratic candidate over the party's State Democratic Chairman, Ben F. Day.

Justice Jackson said he could not pledge his vote for President Truman "for anyone who advocates the Truman civil rights program, the Supreme Court's majority opinion, by Justice Reed, and the constitutionality of the electoral college system."

Thrill Leads Man To Kill Woman And Wound 3 Others

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The man who admits he is Los Angeles "Phantom Gunman" the sloto-andron sniper who has killed one woman and wounded three others and a girl, gave sheriff's deputies this explanation for his acts:

"When I shot at women I get excited and get a thrill out of it."

Evan Charles Thomas, 29, husky, sun-tanned railroad switchman, was arrested Wednesday after a shot in the night narrowly missed a woman in the Los Nietos district.

Mumbling and nervous, Thomas, father of two children and whose wife Harriet is expecting a third, told deputies this story:

"Eight months ago he bought a .22 rifle which he kept under the back seat of his car. His depressions began one night when his wife and children were visiting her mother and he felt 'at loose ends.'"

"I remember the first time I pulled the trigger," Thomas said. "I was driving past this little coffee stand on Atlantic. I saw this girl sitting there. I stopped about 200 yards away and went into an alley with the rifle."

"She had the cup to her face. I aimed at it. I wanted to knock the cup out of her hand. But I hit her in the head."

Thomas attributed the shootings to an unnatural urge, but said he had "no rhyme or reason for shooting victims."

Deputies said the coffee stand victim was Mrs. Nina Marie Rice, 25, mother of three. They said Thomas also implicated himself in the shootings last fall of Mrs. Lavinia May Kreutzer, 21; Ellen Bryant, 19; Mrs. Arma Negrdle, 18; and Mrs. Aubrey Murdock, 42. Mrs. Kreutzer was shot in a telephone booth. Mrs. Murdock in her home, the others in front of their homes.

Thomas was arrested after deputies noticed him hovering close as they investigated the firing of a .22 bullet into the home of Mrs. Joan Miles, 22, his neighbor.

Aged Tampa Man Found Shot To Death

PANAMA CITY (AP)—A Tampa, Fla., man was found shot to death in a Panama City hotel room Tuesday.

Panama City police identified him as Joseph Versch, about 70. They said he apparently operated an organization named United Colonians.

Hotel employees said they forced their way into the room after hearing a pistol shot. They added that Versch was in the room with a woman, an estimated half million dollars were found in the room.

Justice of the Peace Wilford Varn said a .25 caliber pistol was in Versch's hand. Two other fire arms, a German Luger and a .22 caliber rifle, were found in the room.

At Tampa, Versch was reported to have operated the United Colonians from a small trailer in a suburb of that city. Neighbors said they had little knowledge of the nature of his activities.

 (Special to the Herald)

On the ground, the Reds threw a series of light flares at Allied planes on the eastern front. All were hit.

The Navy said in Tokyo that the American destroyer-escort Silverstein recently escaped unharmed from the heaviest attack at the front of the Korean War against a United Nations warship.

Had shore batteries south of Hwangju on the east coast fired rounds at the Silverstein. Crewmen reported 20 splashes within 100 yards of the ship.

The Navy said "Hwangju and vicinity are the scene of the heaviest and most intensive fighting in the area."

The Navy said in Tokyo that the American destroyer-escort Silverstein recently escaped unharmed from the heaviest attack at the front of the Korean War against a United Nations warship.

Had shore batteries south of Hwangju on the east coast fired rounds at the Silverstein. Crewmen reported 20 splashes within 100 yards of the ship.

The Navy said "Hwangju and vicinity are the scene of the heaviest and most intensive fighting in the area."

On the ground, the Reds threw a series of light flares at Allied planes on the eastern front. All were hit.

Circuses Recruit Majority Of Their Talent Overseas

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—The Greatest Show on Earth is dominated by European headliners. How come? It seems leading American acts are few and far between and what few there are are usually seen on television. So the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus recruits most of its top talent in West Europe.

Deacemants of American circus performances are more apt to be seen on television or radio. They don't like the hard work attached to becoming a top circus performer," said a circus spokesman.

There is still a strong family tradition in European circus families, he said. The children are trained to follow their parents on a trapeze or into a lion cage. They are put into the act as soon as possible.

Richard Romoff, circus manager and owner of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus, said he has seen a number of American performers who are losing their interest in the circus because of the hard work attached to becoming a top circus performer," said a circus spokesman.

Hints to Housewives

By Alice L. Cromartie

It is common knowledge nowadays that a woman who has had 60 children or 70 or more, aren't healthy and happy as they might be if they would make a few alterations in their diet. It helps every possible way.

At the present time, the U. S. Department of Agriculture, has issued a new bulletin, "Food for the Housewife," by E. Bruce Ross, Director of the Department of Agriculture.

All through life, says the bulletin, you need food that contains protein and minerals. Protein is needed for the building up of the body. Some people work very hard and their diet is not balanced. They eat too much fat and sugar and not enough protein and minerals. This leads to a condition known as "protein deficiency."

Protein is found in meat, fish, eggs, milk, and soybeans. It is also found in some grains and nuts. If you eat a balanced diet, you will get enough protein to keep your body healthy and happy.

LAKE MARY By VIRGINIA P. ANDERSON

Mrs. W. P. Burke and daughter Gayle and Mr. and Mrs. M. Flanagan of Winter Park, Fla., arrived in Jacksonville this morning, April 16, to spend the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. Wilson, returned with them to Lake Mary.

After spending the winter in Lake Mary, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Spalden left for their home in Wilmington, Ohio, April 16. Mrs. Spalden will be in Jacksonville for a short time in April, and the children will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Johnson, Jr., until such time as they can visit him in Germany.

J. L. Bullard is home again after spending some time in the hospital and is recovering from his illness. He is expected to be home in Jacksonville in a few days.

Mrs. Ernest J. Cole, Sr., is receiving treatment at the Florida Sanatorium in Gainesville.

Mrs. Ed. E. Eason of the Country Club Hotel left Saturday for a short time in Florida. She is expected to be home in Jacksonville in a few days.

Mad Missouri Throws Worst At Omaha Dike

OMAHA (U.P.)—The mad Missouri river, which at Omaha and Council Bluffs today with an army of angry soldiers, is expected to hold its great river in its strait. The river creeps—stretch of maximum water flow—was so long and so subject to fluctuations that it couldn't be pinpointed but river forecasters said the rampaging river is at creating state and will continue to create.
