Christians Are Involved

By REV. FRED L. NEAL
Pastor Congregational Christian Church

It is my firm conviction that every Christian should be a good citizen. Every Christian should be involved in some aspect of community work, endeavoring to make the City of Sanford a better place in which to live. With this thought in mind, I wish to share with you some of the things in our fair city, which make me - SAD-

1. The increase of crime on our streets-A prime example: "Purse Snatching"-where elderly women are vicimized by young thugs. This is often done to support a

2. The availability of drugs in Sanford—Drugs, which can warp the minds, corrupt the morals and destroy the character of young people, can be purchased on the campuses of our schools. It is tragic when one realizes this occurs even at the junior high level.

3. The apathy of the majority of parents who have students at Seminole High School. At a recent meeting at the school less then 300 parents were present. Parents should take a greater interest in what and how their young people are being taught.

4. The increase in pornography at theaters and in book

5. The rapid population growth causing such problems, as over-crowded schools, inferior housing and mounting 6. The lack of respect for the Lord's day. Stores are not opened on Sunday for your convenience but for your cash.

7. Hyacinths in the once magnificent St. Johns River. 8. The general decline in morals among our citizens. Then there are things that make me GLAD. 1. Churches that hold forth the Word of Life, Proclaiming

Christ as the Way, the Truth and the Life. 2. Mother Wilson of the Good Samaritan Home. 3. Mrs. Corrine Frazier and Child Evangelism

4. The "Jesus Movement" among our young people has proven to be more than just a fad. "Youth Life", a Christian Organization is doing a fantastic work wit. he youth of cur

5. Gib name of the Seriord Too 6. Dr. Luis Perez and his tireless work to awaken our citizens to the dangers of Communism. His battle against the rising drug problem is also very encouraging and he deserves more cooperation.

7. The new spirit at Seminole High School-Principal Don K. Reynolds, Head Coach Clyde Woodruff and Bank Director Roland Castro are three of the individuals, who have made significant contributions to this contagious spirit. Doubtless there are many others who are responsible for this spirit and attitude at the school. 8. The new senior citizens group and their work with the elderly of our community. It is refeshing to see that something is being done for those who are often neglected 9. Civic organizations, whose members frequently put service beyond self in their efforts to improve the city of 10. Fraternal organizations which stress citizenship

Current Hearings Unlike Originals

We should think up a new label for the hearings which reopened in the Senate because the main concern is no longer that lurid event of June 17, 1972, when a night watchman at the Watergate Hotel in Washington, D.C. noticed that someone had been taping the doors open on the way to the offices of the Democratic National

We long since learned about that incident and the trail which led from it through the Committee for the Re-election of the President on into the White House itself. The sequel to that is now in the hands of the courts, where it belongs. Those who are guilty will, we trust, be dealt with suitably by the courts.

Left incomplete so far are two different matters which now become the main concern of the continuing investigation. The 1972 American presidential campaign was unusual for the amount of money raised on behalf of President Nixon's re-election and apparently to the extent of resorting to slander and forgery. ## Ford's Lobbyist An Indiscretion

By JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON-The Agnew affair points up the limitations of investigative reporting. The bloodhounds of the press are expected to sniff out scandal in high places with little more to guide them than their nose for news.

Two years ago, for example, we investigated whispers that Spiro Agnew had pocketed bribes from Maryland contractors. We went into Maryland armed only with a notebook and a pencil. But a notebook is no substitute for a subpoena, and a pencil is a poor prod compared to the Justice Department's power to grant witnesses immunity.

We were told about the pattern of payoffs. We even dug out two witnesses who admitted to us they had slipped cash payments to Agnew. But in each case, no one else saw the money passed, and the cash couldn't be traced. Eventually we laid our findings before Agnew but he categorically denied everything. The evidence simply wasn't sufficient to accuse the Vice President of the United States of a crime. It took the Justice Department to do that two years later. In contrast with Agnew, his designated successor

Gerald Ford, has a reputation for openness and honesty. Sources close to him say he won't accept cash contributions although he has a politician's constant need for campaign

But we have never heard the slightest suggestion that he has ever diverted a dime to his own personal use.

ROBERT WINTER-BERGER

The closest to a political skeleton we have found in his closet was a bespectacled lobbyist named Robert Winter-Berger, who had been associated with fixer Nathan Voloshen and convicted House aide Martin Sweig.

The Vice Presidential nominee has now made his files on Winter-Berger available to us. These show the lobbyist gained access to Ford on the recommendation of a trusted friend. The Congressman's late administrative assistant. Frank Meyer, arranged some routine political favors for Winter-Berger's clients, such as writing a Ford endergemen for an organization seeking to standardize the world calendar and recommending International Mining President Frank Kellogg for a diplomatic appointment.

At Winter-Berger's behest, Ford also arranged an immigration extension for a Dutch psychiatrist, Dr. Albert A. Buytendorp, to continue his research work in the U.S. In a thank you letter, Winter-Berger wrote Ford: "How wonderful it is to deal with your office. Everyone is also so eager to please, so correct and so efficient."

In return for these political favors, the lobbyist made a few nominal contributions to various GOP campaign chests. These donations ranged from $125 to $500. Ford thanked him for them in letters addressed "Dear Bob" and signed

It would appear that Ford's relationship with the lobbyist, although indiscreet, was not a serious scandal. Footnote: Spiro Agnew once described Washington D.C., as a "jungle," and declared fiercely it wasn't his jungle. He had just been elected governor of Maryland. I knew him well enough in those days to call him Ted. We talked as friends about his political future. I asked whether he might be looking beyond the State House in Annapolis to Washington 50 miles away. No, he said, he intended to stay out of that jungle. But the lure of power drew him into the forbidden jungle.

BIG OIL-The consumer-oriented Center for Science in the Public Interest warns in an unpublished report that the oil industry appears to be dividing America into separate

While Big Oil has always denied that it is carving up the country to control sales and prices, the Center observes in its new study that "the major oil companies (are) concentrating their market areas in certain geographic regions and disposing of their stations in other regions."

Exxon, for example, is building in the Northeast, Texas and Louisiana, but is braking in Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and Ohio, claims the Center.

Gulf is reducing a vast area of the North Central and Northwestern states, where Texaco is expanding. Similar expansions and contractions are occurring with Standard Oil of Indiana, Standard Oil of Ohio, Phillips, Atlantic-Richfield, Conoco, Sunoco and BP. The Center's study also shows how Big Oil undercuts its own dealers by using non-brand names to compete with "independents" at lower prices. The study recommends marketing at the pump only by independent dealers, a higher gas tax to force development of more efficient engines and a world police force to control oil pollution on the high seas by tankers and other ships.

Other Thoughts

The University of Tennessee has canceled a scheduled course on voodoo. Because a First Church of Voodoo has been opened nearby since the course was originally scheduled, officials believe that to offer the course on voodoo now might involve the state-supported institution in an unconstitutional establishment of religion.

The legal reasoning is probably sound. What is intriguing, though, is the practical reasoning The implication is that as long as no one took the course seriously, it was all right to teach it. Maybe more than one course in the curriculum survives because of such reasoning.—Atlanta (Ag.) Journal and Constitution

Her pajamas, 'helmet' leave husband cold

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a male, age 52, married for 30 years, and I am still very much alive in every respect. For several years now, my wife, who is a very attractive woman, has come to bed fully clothed in her uniform of pajamas which are buttoned high up around her neck and tightly secured at the waist, the wrists, and ankles. There is just no getting in anywhere.

She also has yards of toilet tissue wrapped around her head to keep her hairdo intact, and the whole paper-head is covered with a ridiculous ruffled nightcap. I wish she would get one of those levely nightgowns I have given her out of the drawer and wear it, so I could tell I was sleeping with a woman. I just can't stand those pajamas and that helmet!

Does any other man feel the way I do? I hope to see your answer before the fire goes out. ANTI P. J.'S IN CAROLINA

DEAR ANTI: Yes, most of them do. Women, what are you saving your lovely, feminine nightgowns and hairdos for? It's later than you think. A woman who goes to bed looking like a scarecrow reminds me of the bride who came to her own wedding in rollers-because she wanted to look nice for the reception. DEAR ABBY: We are 10 mothers writing this letter because we all have the same problem. We don't know what the laws of this state are pertaining to students' rights. Here are a Sew of our complaints:

1. If a teacher can't control the class, she marks everybody zero or "F" for the day. 2. If a student loses his money [or if it is stolen] he isn't allowed to use the phone to call home so someone can either bring him lunch money or lunch. 3. Do teachers [or principals] have the right to whip a kid without his parents' permission? [They do in this

4. One child stayed out of school for religious reasons and in order to embarrass him the teacher asked the child to stand in front of the class and say a prayer.

DEAR MOTHERS: You seem to have some legitimate aplaints. Go to school and have a talk with the teacher and the principal. If you do not get satisfactory answers, appeal to the superintendent of schools. And as a last resort, there is always the Board of Education.

Sports Spotlight

By Dan Gilmartin Herald Staff Writer

Now is the time of the week when the Herald sports staffers imitate the local weatherman and see how good we are et guessing; only we guess football games and they guess

From the looks of it the weatherman is probably gaining on us and you all know what kind of track record he has. Currently yours truly is leading the pack, as we have for the whole season fellow fans, with Lee Geiger daring to come as close one game to my 23-4 log. Lee G. is followed by our fearless leader J Richards with a 21-6. Funny thing about J.

he always says he is "daring" to pick upsets when he don't The South end prognosticator John Cherwa is still trying to break out of the cellar and the way J is going he may do it.

All pickers hit on five of six last week with the exception of Mr. Richards, who snapped at a phony list of predictions written down by Lee Geiger. Geiger of course suffers at the hands of the larcenous leader and used it to good advantage as Fish Richards snapped at the hait and finished 4-2 last

Richards is becoming a recluse this week and is forced to go it alone-which means he will probably catch Cherwa and leave him in the dust on the way to the cellar. A glance at this week shows the first place picker solidifying his grasp and Cherwa moving up:

SANFORD AT MAINLAND

The Seminoles trek to another Big Eight battle with the hopes of hailing down win number 100 for Claude Woodruff. Three of the four forecasters see Mainland coming out on top with Richards the lone dissenter.

Cherwa sees 20-6, Geiger 20-12 and Gilmartin calls it 14-13 for the Bucs. Richards copied a score but his ineptitude caused a reversal of the outcome; he has Sanford winning it

JONES AT LYMAN

All the scribes are agreed on this one. Lyman being up for their homecoming and Jones comes to Longwood with a 1-4 slate with heavy losses. Nobody figures otherwise this time with Gilmartin calling a 42-12 'Hound win; Cherwa seeing 42-0; Richards thinks it will be 36-14 and Ceiger sees a tough fight for the Seminole county club at 26-14.

KISSIMEE AT OVIEDO

This is a must game for the Lions if they have any hopes of taking the Orange Belt crown. All the writers believe in Oviedo when the chips are down-even Cherwa-who has shown a marked propensity to become a turncost when Geiger calls a 35-20 score; Richards 25-18; Cherwa 28-14 and Gilmartin sees the scoreboard in the sky reading 20-8 at the end of the coming OBC fight.

Seminole teams engage in close ones.

LAKE BRANTLEY AT LAKEVIEW

The Patriots are looking tougher every week, even though Wymore will not bring out the toughness in a team. Fetter 2-15, Dowell 4-10, McKinzie I However Lakeview should prove how good the Pats are this 7, Ferris 1.5. year. All four are agreed on this one with Richards at 30-20; Kain 7-62, Zern 5-28, Malone 1-7 Geiger 24-13; Cherwa 28-20 and Gilmartin calling it 22-16 in a Junior Passing - Stroup 10.5.2.36. Zern 3 1-0-4, F.fterberry 1-0-0-0.

BERKLEY AT TRINITY PREP

Cherwa got his thinking cap on for this one. He has the prepaters taking it big at 35-6. It just so happens that this writer agrees somewhat and picks a 20-0 TP win. Geiger picked a 15-14 Saint victory and Richards calls it 21-19.

ADMIRAL FARRAGUT AND SANFORD NAVAL

'City of Brotherly Love" shows his affection for the local touch by packing them to win by a 27-12 score. The unfaithful trio of Richards, Gilmartin and Cherwa see the Middles dropping the decision by 18-12, 32-14 and 20-16

Only Geiger 322 miss this prediction. The man from the

After successfully conquering their Tangerine Bowl jinx the Lyman Greyhounds look to tonight's situation that has proven to be bad luck in past years, when they play host to Jones at 8:00 p.m.

During the past three years, Homecoming has proven to be a sad affair, at least on the football field. Since joining the Metro the Hounds homecoming game.

Starting at quarterback for the Hounds will be Metro leading passer Bob Costantine. So far this season he has passed for over 1,000 yard including 11 touchdowns.

Expected to start for Jones is David Bryant. He is the Metro's seventh leader passer throwing for just under 300 yards.

In the Hound backfield will be Art Oliver, Al Cleveland and Terry Travis. Travis will be split out as a wingback. Cleveland has left his mark in the Metro statistics holding down third spot in the conference. Not to be left out, Oliver is the fifth leading rusher in the loop.

The two split ends should be Tom Gooch and Matt Leslie. Gooch apduplicating last year's performance
