Plan to ship your truck early

HOW to get it out early is no secret, for those truckers who have been in the business longest agree that it is almost wholly a matter of supplying quickly available fertilizers.

BRADLEY'S FERTILIZERS

are this sort of fertilizer. They supply quickly available plant food in the best forms, not only to start off the crop quickly and keep it growing vigorously, but to back it up through the season, and to ripen and harden off the product. It is this sort of combination that has brought success to many Florida truckers in the past thirty years and for this reason they swear by reports are two very important features. We believe that due allowance should be made for any imperfections that appear in the reports of the boys of this, their first trial. We believe in giving full credit for results attained.

BOYS CORN CLUB CONTEST

In our judgment, all of the complete reports, that have been submitted to the boys, should be not only sent to the State Representative of the Agriculture Department (something that is required if government and state aid and instruction are to be hoped for), but also should be printed in our county papers, for the enlightenment of all of the Orange county boys, as aids in any efforts they may hereafter make in the cultivation of corn. If this first effort on the part of the Orlando Board of Trade shall result in demonstrating that the soil of Orange county can be made to successfully produce fifty bushels of sound, merchantable corn to the acre, at a cost of $17 it will be the best piece of work in the life of the Board. One boy has done this, another equalled his production, while another exceeded his production by one bushel, but his corn was of an inferior quality, probably owing to the variety planted, and the expense was greater. Others have done nearly as well.

Your committee desires to especially commend the report of Alfred Link, one of the contestants. In addition to using the Department blank, he gives us a detailed history of his effort, from start to finish, given in his own words and his own style. But it is full and comprehensive showing that his soul was in the work, that he is a true lover of nature, careful, painstaking, intelligent, and one who may be counted on to win in any future effort of his life.

After full and careful examination of the report, and due deliberation, your committee has decided upon the following awards:

- First Prize—Mallory Welch $100.
 - Second Prize—Emmett Rums, $75.
 - Third Prize—Alfred Link, $50.
 - Fourth Prize—Lonnie Dean, $25.
- Mablon Gore,
W. E. Martin,
James C. Patterson,
I. B. Yates,
S. A. Johnson,
Committee.

William Jennings Bryan Purchases More Land

GREAT COMMONER IS FARMER

Other News and Views Around Florida By Wireless Grapevine

Hon. William Jennings Bryan has purchased another small tract of Florida land. A few weeks ago he purchased 160 acres southwest from Miami. This tract Mr. Bryan proposes to turn into a model farm, on which he will grow everything that can be grown in this latitude. Mr. Bryan is a real farmer and on his Nebraska farm revels in all kinds of "hass." He wants his vegetables fresh from his own garden, instead of purchasing from the green grocer.

The Woman's Town Improvement Association of St. Petersburg has decided to commence the erection of a building on its lot in that city immediately. The structure will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000, will be at least two stories in height and will be provided with rest and reading rooms for the use of visitors.

A $100,000 hotel is to be erected in Tavares. A committee has been appointed to get plans and specifications for the building. The Tavares Herald says: "With a hotel fronting Lake Dora, Tavares will be one of the most desirable places in the state for winter tourists."

The magnificent new home of the Sarasota Yacht and Automobile Club will be opened formally Thursday, Jan. 16th. More than $1,500 worth of tasteful furnishings are now being installed in the pretty building.

An orange which is 1 1/2 inches in circumference one way and 1 1/8 inches the other and weighs 23 ounces is on display at the Palm Pharmacy, Kissimmee, Fla. It was grown near Umatilla.

St. Cloud is to have a $10,000 canning factory. The plant will have a large capacity and be equipped to can tomatoes, strawberries, beans, cabbage and other things.

Three lots in Miami, Fla., which were bought four years ago for $1,000 by Philip Ullendorf have been sold by him for $30,000 to Gaston DeBore.

The Hotel Ponce de Leon opened in St. Augustine Wednesday. This famous hostelry is already entertaining a large number of guests.

BASKET BALL NOTES

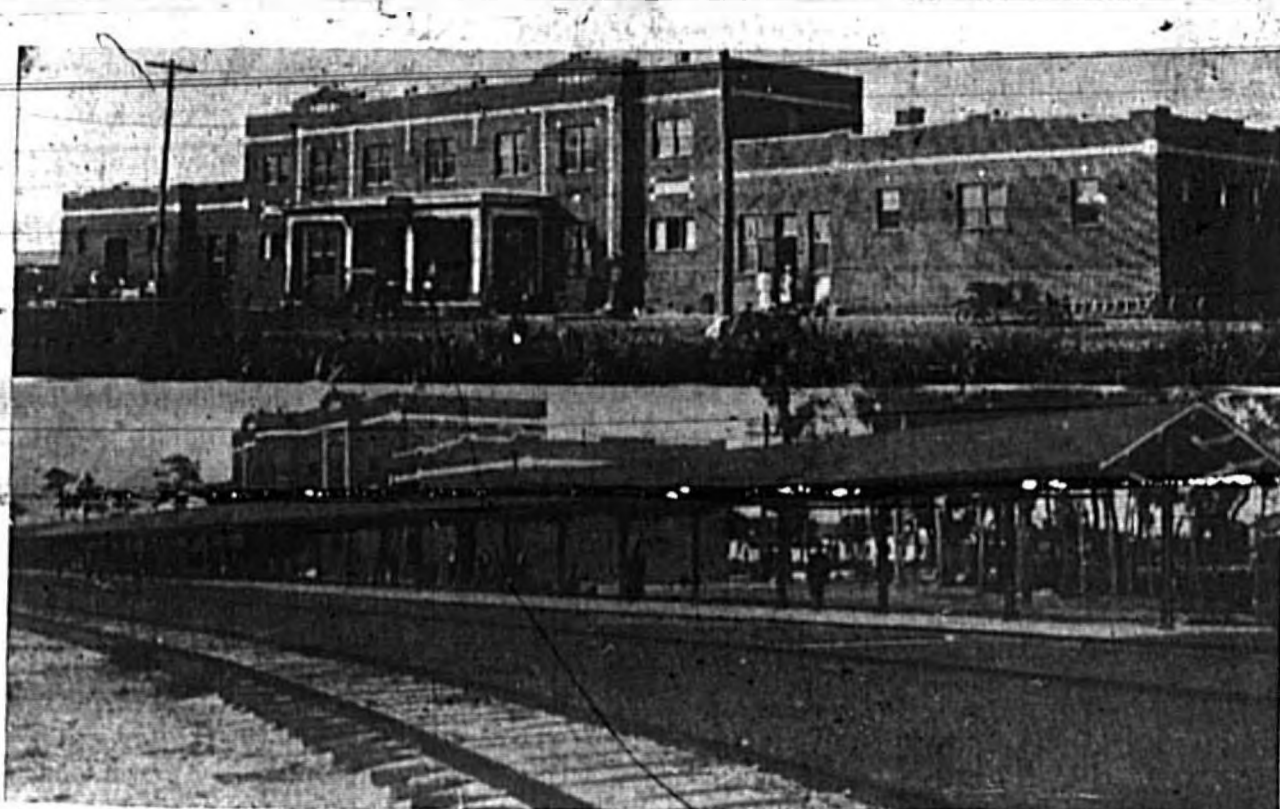

Rollins Reserves Beat S. H. S. 20-9 At Basket Ball

The basket ball fans at Rollins College enjoyed a good game Friday night when the team from the Sanford High held the Rollins Reserves down to a small score. The Sanford boys were much pleased with the score, since the opposing team was made up of much heavier, older and more experienced men and were accustomed to playing on a floor while this was the first game for Sanford under such conditions. The Sanford boys worked together better than the Reserves and the heavier weight and the better individual work of the Reserves accounts for the score to a certain extent. Most of Sanford's shots at the basket went while of the mark. The Reserves were penalized several times for unnecessary roughness, but otherwise the game was good from start to finish. For Sanford Gilbert at center did the best work. At the end of the first half the score stood 8-6 in favor of the Reserves.

SANFORD PALATIAL NEW UNION DEPOT

The accompanying cut will give a good idea of Sanford's new union depot, recently constructed with other improvements at a cost of about $70,000. The upper view shows the real front of the depot facial Ninth street and Sanford. The lower view shows the depot and train shed on the railroad side. The train shed extends many feet on each side of the depot and affords ample protection to the passengers in inclement weather.

Unfortunately a better view of this side of the depot cannot be obtained on account of the long train shed. No picture can give an adequate idea of the beauty of this fine structure which is said to be one of the finest stations in the south.

INTEREST IN BIG VOTING CONTEST INCREASING

MANY INQUIRIES MADE WITH REFERENCE TO NATABLE OFFER

In all instances the offer has attracted interest and in some instances amazement.

As a matter of fact this contest has been launched by The Herald as a combined circulation and advertising campaign. It wants to have more readers and make new friends and to have the attention of the people in its territory attracted to its merits as a newspaper. It is perfectly willing to pay handsomely for this.

A $750 player piano may justly be considered a most liberal prize, but such a prize is in keeping with the policy of The Herald not to do things by halves. It is this same policy that will have it offer other prizes later.

The Player Piano

The writer wants to tell you something about Stultz Bros' player piano. It is a player that is all but human. It will bring you one of the greatest pleasures in the world—the pleasure of giving expression to your musical feelings. It does not merely make music in a mechanical way, but it gives you that intimate control of expression and tempo which the hand-player enjoys; responds instantly to your every shade of feeling, your every movement. You play the music as you feel it. Your wishes can't be too subtle for the Stultz Bros' Player.

Because of this responsiveness, the player is a great educator. One finds it so easy to produce the proper effects that even the children are encouraged to play the best music—music which they would seldom, if ever, hear except on the concert stage.

Think for a moment what this player would mean to your home. Ask the members of the family if they would like to have it. Considered from the standpoint of what it gives, its value cannot be measured in money. You can play it with your hands with sheet music, or with 88 notes—the music rolls.

This piano player will go to the candidate receiving the highest number of votes. Votes are obtained by clipping the ballots good for fifty votes that appear in each issue of The Herald and sending them in to the Contest Department, and by securing paid-in-advance subscriptions to The Herald. Subscription votes come easy after a day or two of experience.

Nominate yourself or a friend today and ask for a subscription book and another information pertaining to the contest. The contest editor is at your service at all times and will give you any help that he can consistent with the rules.

The special ballot good for ten thousand votes appears again today and you should not fail to take advantage of this grand offer.

General Rules and Conditions

Any lady, married or single, residing in Sanford or its territory, may become a candidate. It is not necessary to become a subscriber to The Herald in order to enter. Just fill out and send in the nomination blank printed elsewhere in this issue. A nomination counts for 5,000 votes.

CELERY SOARING SOME

Growers Offered Good Prices Here Today

PROSPECTS FOR SEASON FINE

Said That $2.00 Per Crate Has Been Offered, Which Is An Excellent Price to Maintain

There are about four hundred acres of celery around Sanford. There is not anything like that much anywhere else in the United States at the present time and will not be ready to ship in time to hurt the market for the Sanford product. California celery has evidently been injured in the late freeze out there and the tops blighted badly enough to put it out of competition with our early celery. This means that Sanford celery can command a good price this season but does not mean that the growers can arbitrarily hold their celery for a price beyond all reason and the advice of The Herald at this time is to take a price f. o. b. Sanford that will net the grower a good profit and then sell. It makes no difference to the grower what the man buying the celery is going to make. The only thing for the Sanford grower to worry about is the price here in Sanford. Start the price right and it will remain right during the season. There is a limit to the price that the ultimate consumer will pay and beyond that they will not buy celery which is a luxury and is not needed to sustain life. There are many of the growers this season who are perfectly willing to make satisfactory arrangements will be made for the bulk of the crop to be sold here.

The talk of the city today is that $2.00 has been offered here for celery and that several growers have sold at $1.50. Be that as it may there is no doubt in the world about celery bringing a good price this year and the growers should make more money than they have made in several years.

Clover Club

The Clover Club, composed of the young ladies of the Congregational church were entertained by Miss Katherine Waldron. Eight members of the club with one visitor were present. The most important business transacted by the club was the election of the following officers for the ensuing year: Miss Albine Frank, president; Miss Flora Walker, vice president; Miss Claire Walker, secretary; Miss Katherine Waldron, treasurer.

It was voted to give the West Tampa Mission ten dish towels which will be hemmed at the next meeting. After a pleasant social time and refreshments the club adjourned.

BIG EXCURSION TO OVEIDO

Special Train Will Carry Crowd of Enthusiasts

Next Friday will be made a gala occasion for Sanford and Oveido folks, and a special train will carry a big crowd of county division rooters from this city. The special train will leave the old depot at 2:30 p. m., and as many of the stores will close for the afternoon a bunch of boosters ought to take in the excursion. The ladies are especially invited to go along and help in the good cause. The Sanford Military Band will accompany the crowd and keep things lively. Hot coffee and sandwiches will be on the train and the Oveido people will also prepare to feed the multitude. There will be speeches made by various orators at the afternoon and evening meeting and a general good time is expected. Only one dollar for the round trip and every public spirited citizen should buy a ticket and buy it today in order to help the committee on arrangements.

Train In Ditch

The northbound train leaving here at 1:30 a. m., jumped the track north of Palatka yesterday morning and piled the train in the ditch. The passengers escaped with a general shaking up and all of them were glad to escape a worse fate. The wreck delayed traffic all day yesterday.

Whoop'er up next Friday at Oveido. Special train leaves old depot at 2:30

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

A Budget of Opinion "Just Between You and Me"

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Promt 'Em— So Says Sawnter.

Evangeline—(1912-1913)
With apologies to Longfellow

There was once a low-down railroad
Who got "in bad" with the city—
People growled about the coal chute
And the crossings, and the station;
Some, they cursed the ticket agent—
Others cursed the scoundrel yard men,
Bolwing bells and ringing whistles
Was a nuisance, so they hollered!
And the smoke, it was so smutty!
And the noise, it was so dreadful!
Night and day, and day and night,
(Gosh! But wasn't it awful, Mabel!)
People couldn't use the crossings,
Which were always blocked with box cars
And the depot was too little!
And so dirty! And so ugly!
And the trains were all behind time,
Or they didn't run on Sunday—
No one thing was like it since '92.

But the coal chute was the subject.
On which all hands yelled the loudest—
For it blocked up Fourth and Fifth streets
To the hinder-ment of "traffic"—
And it was so bum to look at.
Being pressed hard by the people
Then the city council ordered
That the railroad move the coal chute
But there was no place to put it;
So, of course, they couldn't do it!
Or at least until they had to,

So they jawed, and fought and wrangled
Over this and that and t'other—
Till the railroad men got grouchy,
And they held a little session
After which they phoned the council:
"Do you think you've got our number?
If you do not quit your growling
We will move the chute to Monroe
And the depot to Lake Mary!
This will open all the crossings
And will make things nice and handy—
Handy for the Railroad people."

Said the council, "They are bluffing!
They would never have the gall to Move the station way out yonder!"
So they kept on with their jawing
And the Railroad up and done it!
Moved the chute from off of Fifth street
Somewhere out beyond the round house,
Where it couldn't hinder no one,
Moved the depot to Lake Mary
Or way out in that direction
On the outskirts of the county.
And they built their tracks around it,
And moved in to the new station
Moved the tickets and the baggage—
And the agents, and the flunkies
And traips didn't come to Sanford.

Now the town it is so quiet
You can almost hear Jim Woodbridge Telling what he did this morning!

I have not taken a very active part in this county division affair, being content to look on from a distance and see just what the early aspect might be. I have scanned the county papers very closely and as yet see no good reason for any one in the new county lines voting against the division if the subject ever comes to a vote. I happened to be here when the other division fight came on and remember the time and conditions very well and all have cause to remember how we were euchered out of our rights. Of course I see no reason why Sanford should suffer the same defeat this time because conditions have changed and the only reason the issue was lost then was because the boys did not go after the division the next time the legislature met. Looking into the history of county division affairs I find that at no time in the annals of the different counties has the final word been said that would absolutely prevent a county from separating for all time.
Instances there are where the first time up the parent county would run pool before the divisionists took up their stock but when the game was renewed at the next session or when the latter was left to the vote of the people in the proposed new county the divisionists always carried their point and gained the final game.

County division is not a new and novel toy in Florida, even though our state is a comparatively new and undeveloped country. Our counties have always been too large and the concentrated effort has been sadly lacking in the large counties that would have meant much more progress had the counties been made smaller many years ago.
When you find a state like Florida where the counties contain so many acres of land division is bound to occur sooner or later, especially where the population increases as fast as all Florida counties are now increasing. Any of my readers who have ever lived in Georgia or other southern states can well remember when that state had so many large counties and how quickly those counties were divided once the tide of immigration started in several years after the war and when those states caught up with the march of civilization. I dare say that if you will go to each of the counties of Georgia that have divided, and also here in Florida, you will find conditions much better than they were under the regime of the larger counties.

The rule holds good every where and as for our county seat friends fighting the measure, well, that is to be expected and is done in every state and county where county division is talked about.
The parent county never wishes to lose any of her daughters that have been assisting to bring money into the old folks and any attempt to split a happy household usually results in the parents making a stiff opposition to the plan.

However, I do not anticipate any trouble in the county division matter.
It will occur just as all other county divisions have occurred and all the wiles of the Orlando politicians will not serve to stop it.

It seems to me, though, that Orlando would be glad to get rid of us crackers in this end. They are always going on about our evil ways and quarrelsome natures and telling about our many faults.
Wouldn't it be getting rid of a burden on them should we want to break away and let them go to themselves in their high and mighty manner?

I see nothing but good ahead for the city of Sanford this season. I have been around some lately and there is no place in the state that has better prospects. I was not gambling on the celery crop but on staple prospects and today I hear that our celery crop is liable to break all the records on price and that the growers have been offered a good price right here in Sanford. Now if the growers will only take a good price when it is offered all will be well and the money will flow into the coffers long depleted.
Of course the tendency of the grower is to hold out for a better price and this is only human nature, but it is a trait more strongly developed in the vegetable growers of Florida than any other place in the world. I have done the same thing myself, and several seasons I lost out by holding my stuff when the outlook seemed to justify a better price.
The great trouble about holding out on the vegetable deal is the very unstable support accorded the growers by the vegetables themselves. One day they are looking well and the next day they have gone bad and then you are up a tree. Florida vegetables ought to be chipped when they are ready to go and I think, in fact I have found out by bitter experience that a bird in the hand is worth two on consignment and now when the good and benevolent commission merchant offers me a fair profit for my stuff I immediately fall on his neck and gently lead him to the bank. He takes my troubles and I take his money.

My old friend, Geo. DeCottes, ought to be made the county solicitor now that death has made a vacancy in the office for the next four years. He has held the positions satisfactorily for one term and although defeated by a small margin at the last primary, he is entitled to the position, having already spent his money in the race. George DeCottes could easily get the position today if another election were called, for he is undoubtedly one of the brightest legal lights in Orange county. My only regret about George being appointed to this position is that after county division he will be compelled to move to Orlando and we will lose two fine young people, Mr. and Mrs. DeCottes. But aside from that I wish him well and always like to see the young men getting ahead and especially the Sanford boys, for as George said in the campaign, "a Florida boy."

Leslie's Weekly of last week was full of good articles about automobiles and the way for agents to sell them. This was the first time that I ever heard of any difficulty in the selling of automobiles. That ought to be an easy matter.
But the paying of them—now that is where the rub comes in. If Leslie will give us an article on how to purchase and pay for an automobile then they will have really benefitted mankind.

I really think that the city council should take some steps to straw or cinder some of the side streets or at least fix them up in some kind of style, in order to allow the travelling public to get by without the use of so much profanity.
Some of our side streets are simply awful.

The Golden Egg and the Golden Fruit. An Ancient Fable and a Modern Truth

Once upon a time, so the fable runs, there lived a goose which every day laid an egg of gold. The avaricious owner, not content that his goose made him the most fortunate of all men, slew the goose, that he might come at the source of the supply of gold, but found naught of treasure. Thus he fell a victim to his own greed. So reads the fable of the golden egg.

Not unlike this is the truth of the golden fruit. In sunny Florida nature elected to plant the orange and bring it to such perfection as could be attained nowhere else, and the great markets of the North eagerly poured their gold into the coffers of the Florida growers in return for their golden fruit. But certain growers, avaricious and short-sighted, said among themselves, "If our fruit is the first on the market it will bring us the highest price. We will not wait for it to ripen, but as soon as it is full size we will pick it, color it by 'sweating,' and the ignorant public will not know the difference."

So they did as they had planned, and the ignorant bought—once.
Then, still being ignorant, it said: "Florida can no longer grow good fruit," and refused to buy.

Many of these avaricious growers are still trying to fool the public.
But the public is no longer ignorant. It has learned that it is as true now as in the past that in quality of oranges and grapefruit sunny Florida leads the entire world when the fruit is allowed to mature and fully ripen on the tree.

The responsible growers of Florida will allow in their packing houses no fruit which is not fully tree-ripened. A great number of these growers have united in a co-operative organization known as the Florida Citrus Exchange, for the purpose of marketing their fruit for what it is—the finest fruit in the world. The stamp of this organization, Florida Citrus Exchange, on a box of oranges or grapefruit is a guarantee of quality.

When you buy Florida oranges you are practising real economy, for they contain 40 to 60 per cent more juice than others of equal size; a box of them is 15 per cent larger than a box of other oranges.

Ivey on Brick Streets
Panacola, Fla., Jan. 11, 1913.

Editor Sanford Herald:

I have drifted to the Flowery City of Florida, and I am so carried away with the improvements since last here that I want my home town to know of them and get wise. Knowing that you all are on the verge of paving some more streets it would be well to get some data. This town beats anything I have seen yet for paved streets. In other words they have experimented until they have the question at a minimum. They experimented on loose brick first and found if the brick was put down solid that the brick would last longer, as well as make a smoother and more even street, and the beauty of it, you can put the brick down faster. They throw the brick down in the street loosely, in layers, and then spread cement mortar over them, then run the steam roller over to mash the mortar between the brick. Talk about a smooth street they have it. And another style is, beat pine blocks sawed to the size of a fire brick, soaked in creosote until they are almost saturated, and they put them down with hot tar. Talk about a good road they make it. And another style is a cement, and you know that is fine, just like our cement sidewalks. They also have oyster shell and clay roads, but are discarding them. Hope you will put our Hon. Council wise. I think the pine blocks make the smoothest and best road, but the brick mortar solid is hard to beat.

Birthday Party

Arthur Dickins entertained about thirty of his young friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dickins Friday evening, on Magonilla avenue.

The pleasant occasion was the fourteenth birthday of the young host and which his friends and neighbors were pleased to assist him in celebrating.

Several pretty parlor games with music, and an interesting advertising contest were the entertainment and amusement of the evening.

In the contest which was much enjoyed, Miss Frances Gonzales won the girls' prize, a pretty box of writing paper. Alfred Robson and Reginald Holly were the successful contestants among the boys and had to draw for the prize, a Mutt and Jeff bank, which was won by Alfred Robson. After the contest and games were concluded Misses Lillian Gibson and Ruth Butler assisted Mrs. Dickins in serving a delicious ice cream. The young host was the recipient of a number of pretty and useful birthday gifts from his friends and guests who were Misses Frances Gonzales, May Thrasher, Lillian and Eleanor Herring, Alice Caldwell, Marian Phillips, Fern Ward, Antoinette Luke, Dorothy Davis, Ruth McDaniel, Agnes Bothamly, Virginia Brady, Frances Chappell, Dorothy Rumph, Helen Peck, Hawkins Connelly, Sydney Chase, Reginald Holly, Robert Hines, LeClair Irvin, J. D. Woodruff, Ralph Roundlat, Raymond Phillips, Walter Rowland, Edward Millan, Alfred Robson, Virgil Lee Smith, Corey Gaines, Russell Brady, Griffin Herring.

Book Circle

Mrs. Samuel Puleston was hostess of the Book Circle Friday afternoon.

Lovely naturtiums in vases made the pretty room very attractive. Light sewing and fancy work was enjoyed with the pleasant social afternoon by the members of the circle and their visitors.

The hostess served delicious strawberry ice cream, with strawberries and cake. After the refreshments the secretary of the circle exchanged the books. Mrs. Puleston's guests were: Mrs. Cruse Barnes, Mrs. S. O. Chase, Mrs. J. W. Dickins, Mrs. F. J. Gonzales, Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Mrs. C. C. Howard, Mrs. F. L. Miller, Mrs. Robert Newman, Mrs. R. L. Peck, Mrs. George A. Speer, Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, Mrs. B. F. Whitner, Jr., Mrs. A. B. Wallace, Mrs. M. H. Bowler.

RAISING HOGS IN FLORIDA

Good Price for Pork Can Be Obtained in Sanford

The Herald has many times advocated the raising of hogs in the Sanford section, not raising them by allowing the razor backs to run wild through the woods like deer, but to enclose them in a smaller area and feed them on the many and divers forage crops that can be grown here so plentifully.

At the late meeting of the State Live Stock Association in Gainesville, W. B. Willet, an expert on hog raising from Maitland, said:

"I do know this, that any man who will work, not only with his hands but with his head, who is fond of stock, who has money enough to buy fifty acres of the ordinary Florida pine land, clear it, or better yet, buy some cheap abandoned farm or grove, cut it up into pasture lots, with hog-proof fences, first plant to crops, then buy two or three registered sows in pig from some reliable breeder—

I see no reason why, two years from the time he planted his first crop, he should not be in receipt of a good income, living an independent life, his own boss, each year growing more crops to feed more hogs. With the knowledge that hogs can be raised in Florida cheaper than in the corn belt, of as good a quality of pork, with the assurance always of a good market, I can honestly advise the prospective settler, when it comes to raising hogs in Florida, to "Go to it."

FINE CONCERT COMPANY

Sanford Elks Will Have Good Attraction Here Jan. 21st

The local lodge of the B. P. O. Elks has succeeded in making arrangements with the "Whitney" Concert Co., to give a concert at the High School Auditorium on the night of Jan. 21st.

The Whitney Company is undoubtedly the highest class concert ensemble that has visited this city and their entertainment will be a treat to the lovers of real music that they will remember for a long time. Mr. Whitney, the great American basso, is assisted in this concert by Miss Irene Armstrong, lyric soprano; Miss Marcel Gluck, violinist, and Mr. Ward C. Lewis, accompanist, and the program is a selection of the best music only.

The Elks intend to give a number of entertainments this season and wish to show by this their first production, that they will offer the very best only that is to be had to their patrons.

The next entertainment they will offer will be a minstrel show with local talent, but arranged under the leadership of the best professional players that can be obtained.

The Elks want the public to understand that all the proceeds out of these entertainments go into their charity fund and cannot be used for any other purpose than general charity work.

Any one visiting any of these entertainments will not only have the chance of spending a delightful evening for the money spent, but will also have the satisfaction of knowing that part of this money spent will help some poor unfortunate to a few brighter moments in his life.

Saw The Inauguration

The following letter has been received by M. F. Robinson from J. W. Adams, who is well known here:

Tallahassee, Fla., Jan. 7, 1913.

Dear Daddy—Park Trammell has been inaugurated Governor of Florida. It was done right for I saw it myself.

Ex-Gov. Gilchrist made a pretty nice speech, but he cried about something. I don't know what about, whether he had to quit being Governor or because he had been Governor. He said he was so full of something, I did not catch his words what it was. Trammell made a fair speech too, and he did not cry, but I don't know whether he was full of anything or not. Maybe he will cry when he leaves. It all passed off very well considering you were not here to help. I did the best I could without you, but I guess the state is saved. Will be here till Friday.
Heathly,
J. W. ADAMS.

P. S. Having all these important things to attend to is the reason I can't play pool any better. I just simply can't do everything and preach too.

Really Good Idea

A new patent that will interest men who would like to discard suspenders, but are not partial to tight belts, is a shirt with "a plurality of loops" which are designed to be attached to the trousers for their support. The trousers being thus held up, suspenders may be dispensed with and belts worn comfortably loose.

What Made Him Resigned

A tourist from the east, visiting an old prospector in his lonely cabin in the hills, commented: "And yet you seem so cheerful and happy." "Yes," replied the owner of the place and shovel. "I spent a week in Boston once, and no matter what happens to me, I've been cheerful ever since."

He Knows

"Daughter," called the conventional, comic-paper father from his regular position at the top of the stairs, of the well-known hour of going to bed, "Doesn't that young man know how to say good night?" "Good night" echoed the young man, who had just kissed his mother. "Well, I should say he does."

Seldom

People who talk merely for the purpose of attracting attention to themselves seldom get the kind of attention that is worth anything.

FLORIDA'S RECORD CLIMATE

Florida has hung up another record which should attract the attention of people all over the United States who have money to invest in land. Florida was the only state in the Union which escaped the cold wave which swept the country on Monday and Tuesday of this week. California, which claims climate as one of its biggest assets, was frozen stiff while Florida enjoyed a temperature of 74 degrees. While Texas was blanketed in snow with the freezing line extending as far south as Brownsville the people of Florida were comfortable without overcoats. While Florida was enjoying spring-like weather California, her rival in the citrus fruit and vegetable industry, was frozen from one end to the other and all the way across. As far south as San Diego, the most southern city in California, a temperature of 28 degrees was recorded. 19 degrees was recorded at Redlands and 17 degrees was the record at San Bernardino. Orange and lemon trees were killed and it is estimated that the damage to the citrus fruit industry of California will amount to more than $35,000,000. It is to be hoped that the prune crop was annihilated. When the same cold wave which blighted California and Texas reached Florida the lowest temperature recorded in Pensacola was 38 degrees. Jack Frost didn't touch the citrus fruits and early vegetables of the Land of Flowers.

Florida has so many other advantages that the people have not acquired the habit of mentioning its unbeatable climate as a talking point. As a matter of fact it is one of the state's greatest assets. One reason why the climate of California is over-rated is that it has been talked and written about a thousand times more than Florida's climate. Florida boosters do not have to exaggerate to make people sit up and take notice when the subject is Florida climate.

The weather reports of the recent cold wave ought to be worth thousands of dollars to the state of Florida. It gives the News pride and pleasure to emphasize certain points of Uncle Sam's report which deserve special notice.—Pensacola News.

WELCOME TO OUR CITY

Editor Holly of the Sanford Herald advocates the forming of a State Editorial Association, with power to acquire lands where annual outings may be held or "words to that effect." The editor of the Sentinel has a picnic capacity that greatly deceives his avoiders and naturally falls in with the scheme. Such an organization would promote a closer fraternal union among the men who have done more to bring Florida into its own than all the rest of the professions combined and why should they not have an outing grounds and club house on some beautiful lake? Orange county has many of these marvels of beauty by way of lakes, and this county is centrally located and easy of access. There are public spirited men in Orange county who would contribute a small tract of land and assist in constructing a club house that would be a credit to the state and a comfort to the great army of newspaper men and their families. "Keep the good work moving, Bro. Holly, and draw on us for all the boost there is in us. We shall be glad to come over and eat celery with you some days, and talk it over.—Orlando Sentinel.

You are thrice welcome, Bro. Schuman. Come up and see us and we will show you the city and the future capital of Harney county, and after you have seen Sanford and the surrounding country you will not wonder at our secession.

LETTUCE CELERYBRATE

The advice of the Tampa Tribune to Sanford is, Lettuce Celerybrate. Good advice from a good paper and advice that can be consistently followed by the Sanford people this season. With the county division practically assured, with the new tourist hotel assured, with twenty-five miles of brick roads assured, with celery bringing $2.00 per crate in Sanford there is no reason in the world why we should not celebrate and believe me, we expect to hold the greatest celebration in a few weeks that has ever been held in this part of the state. Sanford never does things by halves and about March the first this city will hold a jollif-cation that will eclipse anything ever held in this part of the state. We may have to postpone it until April as we would like to know how the division matter stands but when we get ready to jolly there will be something doing. Sanford has much to be thankful for and there is more coming to this city than any other favored part part of this territorial footstool. Lettuce Celerybrate.

WHERE DID HE STAND?

County division "was in the air" prior to the primaries, and Sanford enthusiasts could not smother their hopes. Candidate Robinson left no doubt in the minds of any as to where he stood on the question. Representative Robinson and candidate Robinson still agree; there is no reason for doubt. Candidate Lake left no room for doubt as to where he stood on the question. But now comes Representative Lake and puts to naught the promises of Candidate Lake. It is this Dr. Jeckel and Mr. Hyde performance that brings Mr. Lake into the lime light.—Orlando Citizen.

Will the Orlando Sentinel please inform us where Representative Robinson stood on county division and what he told the Sanford people on the county division question? You had better get your facts together, Bro. Schuman, before you bring Robinson into the lime light. We dare you to tell us about Representative Robinson.

ALREADY PERSUADED

Every citizen of Sanford has a right to espouse the cause of secession if he wishes, and if he succeeds in persuading the majority of the citizens of Orange county that they would be benefitted by dividing the county, no fair minded person will object to the division. On the other hands, if the majority is against division Sanford ought to abide that judgment. This is a government of majorities.—Orlando Sentinel.

We are perfectly willing to abide by the wishes of the majority and the majority of the citizens of Harney county are in favor of county division. Therefore, it is up to you to shut up and cease blabbing in the air. If you Orlando people really believe this majority idea why don't you sound the people in the new limits. We already have two-thirds of the people with us and are rapidly getting the other third. This being the case it is up to the Orlando people to play dead.

GIVE THE NAMES

Prominent citizens of Sanford not more than a month ago, said to a prominent business man of Orlando that they did not favor division themselves, and that Hon. Forrest Lake at heart was opposed to it, and hoped that the question would not come up. Is it possible someone is wielding the big stick over in the Celery City.—Orlando Sentinel.

Give us names, Brother. How many prominent citizens of Orlando said they were willing for Sanford to be separated. We have them on record. If you will tell us the names of Sanford citizens who do not favor county division, The Herald will give you names of prominent Orlando citizens who favored county division one month ago.

A fair exchange is no robbery. We will swap with you.

BOUND TO MAKE GOOD

The papers are devoting several columns of editorials about the new Governor and how he will make good. The editor of the Herald devoted this space to Park Trammell when he was only Park Trammell and wanted to be Attorney General. We did the same for him when Attorney General Trammell wanted to be Governor and now that he has taken his seat—the highest in the state—we have no space to take up on what he will do. We just naturally know that he will make good and after he has made good for his full term The Herald will take up some more space for Park Trammell for U. S. Senate or President of the U. S. or some other small office. Meantime, Governor, here's to you! Give us what you've got!

SANFORD IS JOYFUL

Let not thine angry passions arise, Brother Holly. The chances are ten to one that we shall dwell together many years under the same vine and fig tree, so let us not get too serious.—Orlando Sentinel.

The only people who are mad are those who reside in Orlando. Sanford is only joyful for we realize that county division is already assured. Whenever Holly gets mad the editors of Orlando will be in the Pastuer Institute. This county division matter is all one-sided and there is no reason for Holly to get mad.

Current Events, a weekly paper in book form published by the Lakeland Printing Co., is the latest acquisition to the Florida Press Gang. Harry Alexander, a well known printer and journalist of the state and E. P. Dunlop of Othis, are the editors and proprietors and the new weekly is a work of the printer's art. The progenitors of Current Events probably think the best things come in small packages, and have carried out the idea in their new departure.

The City Council should place two more lamps on Ninth street near the union depot. It is bad enough to have a poor street there without the extra annoyance of having no lights. The surroundings of the new depot are about as miserable as one could find anywhere in Florida.

For a moving picture film company in Tampa, trained lions will help reproduce the "Christian Martyrs," according to the Tampa Tribune. We can understand the trained lions part of the picture but where will they find the Christians.

Heroism in Everyday Life

Not in clanging fights and desperate matches only is heroism to be looked for, but on every railway bridge and fireproof building that is going up today. On freight trains, on the decks of vessels, in cattle yards, on lumber rafts, among the firemen and the policemen, the demand for courage is incessant, and the supply never fails.—William James.

Freak of Nature.

A phosphorescent sea, often visible in the tropics but rarely seen in the higher latitudes, was noted all along the New Jersey coast one night recently. The gleam cast a circle of light above the water and reached far up the shore. As the breakers came in their crests broke in a shower of dull, glowing fire and the air far in shore was filled with a peculiar odor.

English Stump Speech.

A correspondent, "Old Briney," sends us the following specimen of frenzied stump oratory: "Feller blokes! Thanks ter th' gov'ment, yer got yer d'minishin' wage, and yer little loaf, an' all that. Wotcher got ter do now is ter go fer devil-ootion and local anatomy, an' go it blind!" (Loud cheers.)—London Globe.

"Just Like Other Men."

Most surgeons simply go way up in the air when one of the world's great ones is stricken. When Sir Frederic Treves was called to operate on King Edward he split him open as nonchalantly as if the king had been an apple or a watermelon.—New York Press.

Emblem of Charity.

Love, kindness, toleration, whatever charity may be, or if she is compounded of them all, I know not. All that I do know is that she is rare, and that her emblem on a sailor's arm—is always drawn between the anchor and the cross.—Cunninghame-Graham.

To the Rescue.

"I am at present devoting a good deal of time to the Bacon-Shakespeare controversy," said Old Ed. Howe, writing in his own magazine. "Think of the absurdity of it," he continues. We do. Our notion of nothing to get excited about is this Bakespeare controversy.

Obsolete Garment.

A New York firm of petticoat manufacturers failed with $700,000 of liabilities recently, and gives the explanation that women's skirts are so tight they have quit wearing petticoats. Did you know that?—Kansas City Star.

Explained.

"Pop, why do they call a man a pinhead?" "Because when he attempts to penetrate any idea his head won't let him go very far."

Very Peculiar Pursuit.

The queer thing to a woman about politics is how men don't have to buy new hats to wear at their meetings.—New York Press.

Plenty for All.

Don't be too generous with the sermon; what you take for yourself is no deprivation of another.—Christian Herald.

Fault Finding.

If we had no faults, we should not take so much pleasure in noticing the faults of other people.—La Rochefoucauld.

Take the Responsibility.

Don't throw sand into your own eyes by finding an excuse for your mistakes in someone else.

What Would Newspapers Do?

If it were not for our mistakes life would be pretty monotonous.—Exchange.

Feels That Celery is Hurt
Cincinnati, Jan. 11.—Frank Wagner, of G. M. H. Wagner & Sons, Chicago, attended the League meeting. He was asked his views as to the freeze in California with reference to celery. He said it had undoubtedly been hurt, but that the freeze did not mean there would be no more celery shipped. His firm, which is heavy in celery, is waiting for marce-detailed reports before forming an opinion.—Produce News.

Queen Elizabeth's Pedigree.
One of the most interesting curiosities at Hatfield is the pedigree of Elizabeth, which is to be seen in the gallery. Those interested to make out the document wisely discovered that her descent could be traced through every important person, and especially through every beautiful person, straight back to Adam and Eve. It is on record that the Virgin Queen highly commended the work.—London Evening Standard.

A Costly Gift.
"Those Billyuncles have been awfully proud since Christmas," said the malicious Neighbor.
"What makes them so?" inquired the Curious Friend.
"Oh, their parents filled their stockings with eggs."

A Hanging Matter.
Polk—Hang up your stocking this Christmas?
Dolk—None—hunk an overcoat.

IF YOU CAN'T GO TO SLEEP

Counting, Reading and Special Diet Are Suggested as Helpful for the Woeful of Slumber.

A sufferer from insomnia retails a number of counsels he has gathered up of which the first comes from the poet M. Leconte, who says:
"Open your window wide. Lie with your head as low as possible and you will sleep like a post."
"Accustom yourself to take an hour or two's rest in a deck chair after every meal," writes another. "Take down from your shelves some old-fashioned novel of which you have an affectionate remembrance as one of the joys of your youth and read it while you are on your deck chair. The more you are wearied by it, the better you will sleep. The secret of a good night is not to tire yourself out in the evening, but to idle away the time."
"An important point, though a difficult one, is to avoid any dread of insomnia." Personally I derive benefit from calculating the multiples of two or three as far as I can go. Or else I 'count elephants'; one elephant and one elephant make two elephants, two elephants and one elephant makes three elephants; three elephants and one elephant, and so on.
"Finally, knock off your black coffee, even your morning cup on rising, and take no meat in the evening. For lunch eat nothing but fruit, and for dinner a vegetable soup, vermicelli, mashed potatoes, and one or two biscuits."
"If in spite of all this sleep refuses to come try reading. But don't read anything lively or interesting. In my own case it is very rare that insomnia does not succumb to two or three pages of Plato's 'Phaedo'."
"An eminent doctor of Lyons says much the same thing. Another suggests: 'Count slowly from one upwards. It is very rare one gets up to 200 without going to sleep. If in record, however, that one victim got up to 16,987, and then it was time to get up!'"

Very Much So.
"I daresay that grumpy old millionaire did not leave one joyful recollection behind him when he died."
"Oh, yes, he did. He left a morry widow."

"I'm with the people!" exclaimed the balloonist, as the rope broke and he fell into the grand stand.

Enough of Giants.
Little Frank had had a parental meeting with his six-foot-two papa about filling the tooth-powder bottle with water. After the meeting adjourned, he went in and asked his mother to promise him one thing. Without knowing the nature of the request she promised, and then asked him what it was. He told her: "Mamma, when papa dies, I want you to promise me not to bring any more giant men to this house to live with us!"—Lippincott's.

Peculiar Bulgarian Ideas.
Only extreme poverty, a traveler says, will drive a Bulgarian into domestic service. As a rule, widows are the only servants to be got, and they will become cooks or housemaids only if they may bring all their family with them. Servants insist upon being introduced and shaking hands with all visitors, and will leave upon the least rebuke. The only way to keep them is to let their wages fall into arrears. "So strong is the sentiment against doing anything in the nature of mental work that I know of a case where a girl refused to fetch medicine from the chemist for her own mother. But the same girl would work in a stranger's garden or do needlework, because these occupations are considered honorable for Bulgarian women."

Cribs for Baby Travelers.
Among the luxuries, comforts and conveniences nowadays provided by the great hotel are cribs for the baby guests. Even in the finest hotels these are a comparatively recent addition to the house equipment. Up to about five years ago, when a separate bed was required for a baby's use, a cot was put into the room, and many persons traveling for the first time with a baby still ask for a cot. They are agreeably surprised when informed that a crib can be supplied if desired. In a big hotel there may now be kept ready for use a dozen cribs in the care of the housekeeper; cribs simple but of the latest style of construction, ready to be sent whenever they are wanted.

Always on the Job.
The solar geese are so fond of collecting materials for their nests that they do not desert from the habit even when they are about to abandon their nests for the winter migration. Off the coast of Scotland one day patches of straw bedding were seen floating, and although the birds were on the eve of departure they gathered up every wisp, though they had their nests to build, and in the same place they were seen collecting seaweed every day.

To Write a Letter.
The art of letter writing is quite simple if you will take it in all simplicity. All you have to do is to conjure up a vision of the person to whom you are writing, pick up your pen, and—talk. When you can picture the person like, adorned with a pipe whose shape you know well, it is no difficult matter to find what to say and how to say it. A letter is a chat and the pen can be as effective as the tongue.

Maine's Needle Rock.
In Blue Hill Bay, Maine, there is a pinnacle rock of only six feet in diameter at its top, which projects to within seven feet of the surface of the water and rises nearly perpendicularly out of a depth of 78 feet. The existence of this rock is an evidence of the difficulty, even in well-known waters, of demonstrating that no isolated rocks are lying in wait for heedless victims.—Harper's Weekly.

Danger Sign in Horse.
The appearance of "white" in the eye of a horse indicates a vicious nature, because a high tempered horse constantly looks about, apprehensive of danger, or desiring to do mischief. The quick motion of the eyeball in opposite directions exposes an unusually large surface of the white, which thus becomes an evidence of the temper of the animal.

Child's Pitiful Attempt to Die.
A remarkable attempt at suicide was made by a boy of eleven in a hop garden, recently near Sandwich, England. He had been chastised for his slowness in picking hops, and thereupon he went to a secluded spot and attempted to hang himself with a piece of yarn used for tying hops. Fortunately the lad was discovered in time, and was cut down, and revived.

Somewhat Ambiguous.
The banquet hall was adorned with many beautiful paintings, and the president of the little college was called upon to respond to a toast. Wishing to pay a compliment to the ladies present he designated the paintings with an eloquent gesture and said: "What need is there of these painted beauties when we have so many with us at the table?"

Making Sure of the Present.
Mgr. Donner, archbishop of Bordeaux, was taken to task for his friendly intercourse with the Protestant minister in that city. The very tolerant prelate of the church replied: "Pray allow me to have the pleasure of seeing him in this world, as I am not so sure of meeting him in the next."

Licorice.
Licorice belongs to the pea or vetch family, and grows wild, the plant commonly reaching a height of about four feet. It is the long, straight root which is of commercial value. No means have been adopted for cutting the plant, which requires about three years to reach maturity or for improving its condition.

Hard to See Under Water.
There is no scientific instrument of the "scope" character which enables one to see down to 50 or 60 feet under water. When the sun shines vertically over water, a box or bucket with a glass bottom is often used to look into the water. A cloth covering to exclude light from the box or bucket is sometimes employed. But without electric or some other light in the water these devices are not very satisfactory.

Scotch Query.
A bluff, consequential gentleman from the south, with more beef on his bones than brain in his head, riding along the Hamilton road, near to Wiantyre, asked a herdsboy on the roadside, in a tone and manner evidently meant to quiz, if he were "half-way to Hamilton?" "Man," replied the boy, "I wad need to ken whar ye hae come frae, afore I could answer your question."—Exchange.

House Plans Important.
The care in the home and all other forms of household work are greatly facilitated by right planning and the use of suitable materials for the construction and furnishing of the home. An adequate and convenient water supply and other conveniences are essential, not only for comfort and for saving labor, but also from the standpoint of home hygiene.

Why the Distrust.
A banker in central Kentucky was in the habit of wearing his hat a good deal in business hours, as in summer the flies used his bald pate for a parade ground, and in winter the cold breezes swept over its polished surface. A negro workman on the railroad each week presented a check and drew his wages, and one day as he put his money in a greasy wallet the banker said: "Look here, Mose; why don't you let some of that money stay in the bank and keep an account with us?" The darky leaned toward him and, with a quizzical look at the derby the banker wore, answered confidentially: "Boss, I've jes' feared. You look like you was always ready to start somewheres."

Bulgaria's Resurrection.
Bulgaria's awakening, according to the London Chronicle, might be called an awakening from the dead. "The disappearance and resurrection of Bulgaria," says Sir Charles Elliot "are probably without parallel in history. For more than 300 years the national life was suspended. In 1834 Kinglake proceeded from Belgrade to Constantinople and must have passed straight across Bulgaria. Yet, in the well known description of his travels, 'Eothen,' he makes no allusion to that country or its inhabitants. Even forty years ago (written in 1900) the name Bulgarian was almost unknown, and every educated person coming from that country called himself a Greek as a matter of course."

Babylonian Invoice.
The Academy of France has received the translation of an inscription on a terra-cotta tablet discovered in the ruins of Susa. The inscription is of the nature of an invoice. In its several antique articles are listed: a leather casque, a cow's hide, a kid skin, a bronze helmet, a silver helmet, a batohet, a bow, and a lance. The inscription gives definite information concerning the quantity of bronze and silver used in making the arms mentioned and makes it a simple matter to estimate the cost of the wool used for the uniform of an Elamite warrior of the great Babylonian period.—Harper's Weekly.

Land of Peasants.
Serbia has been described as the peasant state of Europe. The Serb is a man of primitive emotions and simple tastes. With the exception of Belgrade there are few towns in Serbia worthy of the name. Practically the whole population dwells on the land, husbandry and pig rearing being the staple industries. A system of peasant proprietorship prevails. Serbia has practically no poor. Every grown man in Serbia can claim five acres of land from the government, and this land and its produce are exempt from all claim for debt.

Cat Crisis.
The cats of London are faced with a crisis unparalleled in feline history. There is a famine in cat's meat. A dead horse is as rare nowadays as a dead donkey. Horses are getting scarce because of motor cars, and when one does get too old to work it is sent to a home. They do not get killed in London street accidents with anything like the former frequency. When a smash occurs it is generally a motor omnibus that suffers and not even the hungriest cat can make a decent meal of torn tires and broken spark plugs.

One Way.
The late Wilbur Wright, says the Washington Star, put safety above everything else in aeroplane construction. Mr. Wright was once watching with a critical eye the flight of a very swift, very cranky aeroplane, when a little girl said to him: "Uncle Wilbur, can you get to heaven in one of those machines?" "Not by going up," replied the great airman, "but if you have lived a very good life you may do so by coming down."—Youth's Companion.

MASTER OF ART OF GRAFTING

Representative Burleson of Texas Describes the Operations of the King of Them All.

"No, I won't give you a cent. You are a grafter, and a smooth one, but you don't get me." Following this declaration just outside the national Democratic headquarters...

Hard to Find.

"You talk as if every man was his own collar button."

Perfectly Natural Inquiry.

"Next thing I knew he hit his father with an axe, the old man chased him for miles, firing at him with a blunderbuss all the while."

From Personal Experience.

"Hello, dearie, are you on your way to take your lesson?" "Yeth, ma'am."

Matter of Mentality.

"Do you think fishing is a congenial recreation for really brainy men?" "Undoubtedly. It takes a pretty smart person to think up any new stories to tell when he gets home."

Not at the Present Price.

"Uncle Jared—Yes, out in the country we go to bed with the chickens."

When.

"When a doctor's bill is smaller than it was expected to be the man who gets it begins to feel that there is some joy in living after all."

Quite Probable.

"If the Lord hadn't made the little apples there might not have been the delicious apple sauce.—Manchester Union."

Generally.

"Generally people pay a good deal more for experience than it turns out to be worth to them."

Things That Will Count.

"Health, necessity and success will eventually regulate foolishness.—Dr. Push."

Stick to the One Thing.

"There's no chance for you unless you spend all your time in the company of one job."

Daily Thought.

"All true wisdom is contained in these two words—wait and hope.—Dumas."

Fine.

"A good impulse is a good thing, but the disposition to act upon it is even finer."

CELERY BRINGING PRICE

Quality Is Said to Be Finest in Year.

OFFERING TWO DOLLARS CRATE

Sanford Growers Willing to Sell at Price and Are Taking Offers

This is the season that means money to the celery growers again. The freeze in California has stunted the growth of the celery there and will delay shipments for some time, thus giving the Florida celery full sway. The crop this year is said to be of the finest quality and much easier than last season and the grower will have enough early stuff to guarantee him the price. As proof of this the market has been brisk and two dollars per crate has been offered, although several growers sold for $1.50 and were willing to let go at that price and take no chances. In all there is about 400 acres in celery here and if the good price is maintained there will be plenty of money in circulation in the early spring. Most of the growers are getting off the early crop to make room for the spring crops of early vegetables and are content to start the early celery market at a fair price in order to keep the market firm during the remainder of the season. There is said to be very little celery in the state this year. Sanford's nearest competitor, Manatee county, only having in about one hundred acres and with the California crop being out of the market the Sanford growers should have no trouble in maintaining an average price of $1.50 per crate or better, this price of course being f. o. b. Sanford.

SOAKED BLIND TIGER

Judge Warlow Gives Old Offender A Good Dose

Prince Goodwin, colored, tried in the Criminal Court on the charge of selling whiskey, was found guilty and was sentenced to eighteen months in the state penitentiary. Goodwin was tried twice on this same charge, the first having resulted in a mistrial. At the last Legislature a law was passed making it a penitentiary offence for selling liquor, where the person is found guilty on the second arraignment, and the penalty may be fixed for any length of time up to five years. Goodwin's case came under the ban of the new law, hence his sentence to state prison. His first offence came in 1910, in this same court, when he was given six months on the country roads. It is not generally known that the whiskey vender stands a fair chance of serving time in the penitentiary, and this fact, which is brought out in Goodwin's case, will no doubt have a tendency to deter many from engaging in the disputable practice in the future. Heretofore it has been a fine or time on the road.

This case came up yesterday afternoon, when Judge Warlow made good the first victim from Orlando under the new law. Willie Brown, tried on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences, failed to get a month on the country roads.

MEETING COMMERCIAL CLUB

Special Meeting of Club Called For Next Tuesday Night

Vice President F. P. Forster of the Commercial Club wants every member to be present at a called meeting next Tuesday night in city hall building. The meeting is called for discussing ways and means for the Sanford display at the Orange county fair. Several of the fair directors will be present to assist the members and every one interested in the Orange county fair, whether a member of the Commercial Club or not is earnestly requested to attend the meeting next Thursday night. Sanford should have a good exhibit at the fair and the exhibit will take time and money to arrange. Let the Commercial Club have your opinion on the matter.

Welaka Club Luncheon

The Welaka Club gave a most charming luncheon on Tuesday at one o'clock. The rooms were beautifully decorated in star jessamine, pink hibiscus, ferns and palms and pink roses, the color scheme being pink and white. The tables were covered with white cloths, with centers of pink roses and ferns. A four course luncheon was served.

- Grapefruit Cocktail
- Cream Chicken in Log Cabins
- Beaten Biscuits
- Croquette
- French Peas in Beet Cups
- Polonaise Salad
- Banquet Wafers
- Coffee with Whipped Cream
- Strawberry Ice Cream
- Rose Cake

The cards were beautiful little calendars, wishing each one a Happy New Year. The luncheon was one of the most attractive entertainments of the season and was thoroughly enjoyed.

After the luncheon a bridge game was very much enjoyed by the ladies. The score cards were little Dutch boys and girls. Miss Nell Whitner won the highest score and was awarded the Club pin.

Mrs. Roumillat was assisted by Mrs. Stringfellow, Mrs. B. A. Howard, Miss Anna Lewis, Mrs. Mabel Hand and Mrs. Ward, Mabel Bowler and Mabel Hand. These ladies deserve great credit and many thanks for a most delightful day.

Those present were: Mrs. S. Puleston, Mrs. Robert Newman, Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Mrs. C. W. Brady, Mrs. W. D. Holden, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. H. L. MONROE HAPPENINGS

Rev. Gaines of Sanford occupied the pulpit here Sunday from 8 to 4 p. m., and preached to a large audience.

H. Isaman made a business trip to DeLand Wednesday.

Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock a terrible accident happened at Monroe Ferry, while the ferry boat was being transferred across the river with a pair of mules belonging to Commissioner Harden of Volusia county, and a well driving machine belonging to Mr. C. Y. Webb. Suddenly the mules became frightened and backing the wagon alighted to them off the ferry boat in the river, resulting in drowning one of the mules. One was saved by C. Y. Webb. The well driving machine and wagon are still in the river. The ferry will be closed until the 22nd inst., after that date the ferry will be in good order for the public.

L. B. Mann was in DeLand Wednesday on business.

Mr. Beeman of Orlando was seen in this section Sunday en route to DeLand. N. A. Colbert of Sanford has been transacting business here this week.

The "Big" store belonging to A. H. Jameson has recently changed hands, the purchaser being Peter E. Ahern of "Erskine Alta."

There will be Sunday school at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon and the Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 7 o'clock p. m. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Miss Ada Stanstrom was visiting Mrs. J. B. Johnson Wednesday.

HANGED NEGRO FIEND

But It Was Done According to Law

OCALA JUSTICE IS SPEEDY

Other News and Views Around the State Gathered by Wires and Tapes

J. J. Johnson, the negro man who was tried and convicted of an heinous crime last week was hanged in the court yard of the Ocala jail at 11:02 o'clock Wednesday morning. His neck was broken by the fall and in eleven minutes after the trap was sprung he was pronounced dead. The condemned man was accompanied to the scaffold by his two spiritual advisors, Rev. Gary and Rev. Bradley, colored, who had previously held prayers in his cell. Deputies Bigance and Smith escorted him to the scaffold and Sheriff Galloway sprung the trap. At the scaffold, Rev. Duke, colored, made a short prayer and the negro Johnson made a short prayer. He neither denied nor confessed his crime at the end but said he had made his peace with God and left the world with ill feelings toward none. A large crowd of idlers, curious minded and others gathered around the jail to witness the execution.

A new railroad is to be built from Tampa direct to St. Petersburg, entering the Pinellas peninsula just at the head of Old Tampa Bay and running west to Clear Water, thence south to St. Petersburg; also north to Tarpon Springs and Port Richey. The new company, the Tampa and Gulf Coast Railroad Company, has a capital of $250,000.

The contract has been awarded for the erection of the handsome and elegant new Elks' club house in Tampa. The building will be six stories in height and work will be started on it very soon and completed by next summer. The structure will cost $35,000 and will be one of the handsomest Elks' homes in the south.

FLORIDA GARDENS CO.

Board of Directors Hold An Important Meeting

FIRST CROPS BEING HARVESTED

Officers Are Well Pleased With Good Showing and Want More Land Cleared

A meeting of the board of directors of the Florida Gardens, Inc., was held last Wednesday, to consider matters of importance connected with that corporation. The board consists of nine members and those attending were: Albert Meyer, Detroit, Mich.; Franklin G. Evans, Kelton, Pa.; James L. Giles and W. R. O'Neal of Orlando, and J. N. Whitner, S. O. Chase, H. H. Chappell and J. O. Packard of Sanford.

This company has only just begun to harvest their present crops and so far have gotten good prices for their products. They have 70 acres of lettuce, 20 acres of celery, 5 acres of beets and are planting 10 acres of peppers, 10 acres of egg plant, 20 acres of cucumbers and 50 acres of tomatoes and will follow these present crops with various other spring and summer crops.

The corporation has a large acreage of Sanford land and discussed the advisability of securing sufficient additional capital to improve a considerable acreage each season. To those who are acquainted, the list of names above given on the directorate is sufficient guarantee of the success of this project, for every one of these men are of the very highest class and each successful in his own line.

The success of Florida Gardens, Inc., means a great deal to Sanford and the entire situation here. Each plan is to be carried out as rapidly as possible.

cooperative scale under scientific business management, instead of as small individual growers, each competing with the other through present haphazard methods of growing and consigning. Apparently they are on the right road to a successful future.

FOR COUNTY DIVISION

Imperial Theatre Will Donate Receipts of Wednesday's Performance

Manager Karnatz with his usual generosity has decided to assist the County Division Committee by donating the receipts of the performance next Wednesday night. There will be special vaudeville feature and a special reel, Monte Cristo, one of the best programs given this season. The admission will be twenty cents, which will include the two reels of Monte Cristo, special vaudeville act and an address by Secretary Bacon of the Commercial Club on the issue of County Division.

The evening will be devoted to fun and amusement and every one who wishes to spend a pleasant evening and also assist the county division committee should be at the Imperial Theatre next Wednesday night. The proceeds go to the Division Committee.

The $100,000 ice plant of the Lakeland Ice & Refrigerator Co., of which Messrs. O. M. Eaton and E. H. Youngs are the owners, opened yesterday for the first time, the first day's output being 136,000 pounds or 68 tons. The mammoth building is architecturally handsome and the plant is one of the largest in Florida. It is equipped with the finest machinery obtainable and has a capacity of 75 tons per day.—Lakeland Telegram.

That Presbyterian Bible class over in Miami taught by Mr. Bryan ought to, and doubtless will, become such a popular Sunday feature that the appreciative citizens of that city will cease to complain of the rigid enforcement of the Sunday blue laws. Mr. Bryan is said to be especially impressive and convincing in his treatment of the deep and solemn problems of religion.

Yachting Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gray of Rackdale, Tennessee, accompanied by Mrs. Sanders and two children, from Florence, Ala., arrived in the city several days ago from Palatka, on Mr. Gray's yacht, which had been sent from Norfolk to take the party on board at Palatka, where they were visiting relatives, having traveled to Florida by rail. Mr. Gray is a prominent manufacturer of iron ore in Rackdale. He is a relative of Mrs. W. T. Johns. He visited Sanford last winter. The party enjoyed a pleasant ride about the city viewing the suburban homes, the fine farms in the famous celery delta and also on their arrival, and expressed themselves as very much pleased with Sanford and vicinity. Mrs. Gray and party are enjoying a fishing trip to Lake Harney this week. It is Mr. Gray's intention to cruise on the St. Johns river several months.

THE ORANGE COUNTY FAIR

Meeting in February Will Be a Record Breaker

SPECIAL ATTENTION ON STOCK

Sanford Expects to Have Fine Exhibit at the Biggest Fair on Earth

The great Orange county fair will be held in Orlando February 18 to 22 inclusive and will follow out the usual plan of giving the people of South Florida one of the greatest exhibitions of farm products, live stock, fancy work and culinary arts that has ever before been attempted. The Orange county fair has held two very successful meetings and the 1913 meeting will be better than the former two. As the county improves the variety and products of the soil continue to improve and in this county where there is such a good variety of Florida products to be obtained. Sanford expects to follow the usual custom of sending a creditable exhibit and the Commercial Club will take up the matter at the next meeting. We have a number of people in this section who are raising fine poultry, hogs and cattle, and they expect to have them on exhibition. Celery never looked better than this season and in February will be in prime condition, as will lettuce and other crops.

Sanford also has some speedy horses that should pull down some of the money in the trotting, pacing and running races.

The Orange county fair has been aided and assisted in the past through Sanford's efforts and we should still lend our efforts toward making better the enterprise already begun. Sanford should have a bigger and better exhibit at Orlando this year than ever before.

Two of the principal features at the fair this year and two on which much work has been expended are the live stock exhibits and the department for colored people.

Orange county has a better grade of live stock than any county in the state and Orange county also has a large proportion of thrifty colored people who are anxious to show the products of their skill in arts and products and in both of these departments the patrons of the fair this year will receive a great surprise.

In addition to the agricultural features there will be plenty of amusements, sports, etc. A well known aviator will make daily flights in an aeroplane and there will be something doing every day.
