Five Men Burn Cross In Front Lawn Of Widow Of Doctor Murdered Recently

Mrs Lilliendahl Held By Trooper

Man Suspected Of Be- ing Beach, Wanted For Murder, Found

SOUTH VINELAND, N. J., Sept. 29.—(INS)—While detectives were searching in Baltimore for Willis Beach, 52-year old poultry farmer wanted in connection with the murder of Dr. William Lilliendahl, 72, retired physician, a spectacular demonstration was staged early today in front of the home of Mrs. Margaret Lilliendahl, the slain man's widow, held under guard as a material witness in her husband's shooting.

Shortly after three o'clock this morning, five unidentified men drove up to the Lilliendahl home, and placed a five-foot wooden cross on the lawn. The cross was ignited, and the bright light of the blaze shone into the darkened windows of the house. Mrs. Lilliendahl arose, switched on a light in her bedroom, took a brief look at the fiery cross, and then extinguished the light.

The state trooper who was assigned last night to guard the home of Mrs. Lilliendahl, who is ostensibly free under $25,000 bond as a material witness in the case, did not bother the five men.

The Ku Klux Klan is known to have been active for some months past in this section of New Jersey, but as far as is known, no demonstrations have been staged in South Vineland.

BALTIMORE, MD., Sept. 29.—(INS)—A squad of detectives and today rushed to a downtown hotel today when a tip was received that a man resembling Willis Beach was in the lobby.

The man had disappeared when police arrived and a lookout for him was sent to all police stations. The man had inquired about a road map to southern points. All roads are being watched. Police believe the man has left the city in an automobile.

Beach is wanted in New Jersey in connection with the murder of Dr. William Lilliendahl, 72, retired physician.

A gold medal and a prize of $25 in gold and one of $10 in gold were settled upon as appropriate awards for the winners in the literary contest.

Thursday Afternoon Holidays Over Today

The retail and wholesale stores of Sanford closed at 12:00 this afternoon for the last time of the summer season. Today marks the end of the holidays until next summer.

They will be missed for awhile until the store employees get back into the regular swing of the winter program. The half holidays have been a source of keen enjoyment to many residents of Sanford for several months due to the arrangement of the merchants.

POLICE SHAKEUP CLOSED MATTER WITH OFFICIALS

Four Men Are Dismissed For Good Of Service, Explains Mayor; Appointment Of New Chief To Be Delayed For Time

Recent dismissal of four members of the Sanford police department is a closed incident as far as the City Commission is concerned, according to Mayor Housholder, who expressed his disapproval of the action taken by Police Commissioner W. C. Hill. There will be no hearing on the matter before the Commission, either in public or in executive session, it was stated.

"For the good of the service," was the explanation that Mayor Housholder offered in answer to a question as to the reason for the shakeup in the police department. Other than this brief statement there was no explanation of the action taken last Saturday afternoon when notices were sent to Chief of Police Roy G. Williams, Lieutenant A. H. Beckwith, Sergeant S. L. Smart and detective J. B. Green that after October 1 their services would not be required.

"Members of the police department serve at the pleasure of the Commission," the Mayor explained "and in taking the action we did we were only acting within our province to dispense with the services of anyone we may desire."

There is a fine point involved in the Commission's action, it was learned. While the notices to the police officers were worded to the effect that the Commission had decided to dispense with their services, their formal resignations are expected to be filed.

Mayor Housholder and the other two Commissioners are understood to have had conferences with each of the four dismissed officers, but these meetings have had little significance, it was learned. The Mayor, in answer to a query, said that there would be no reinstatements, notwithstanding rumors to the contrary.

The Commission has not discussed a successor to Chief Williams, Mayor Housholder stated, and this matter will not be immediately settled, it was further intimated. An acting chief of police is expected to be named sometime this week but no decision has been reached on the appointment. The acting chief would assume his duties on Saturday as the release of Chief Williams and his three assistants is to take effect on that date.

The Mayor's office has been besieged with applications for the office, it was reported although the official gave no confirmation to this rumor. In addition to several local candidates, there have been numerous outside applications, many of them presented in person.

DANIELS URGES LIQUOR ISSUE BE FORGOTTEN

Former Secretary Of Navy In Wilson Administration Asks Democrats To Unite On "Dol- lar Diplomacy" In Campaign

Wants To Sidetrack Liquor And Religion

Democrat State Convention Expected To Make Formal Action Endorsing At Smith

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—(INS)—Ex-Secretary of Navy Daniels' advice to the party to sidetrack the wet and dry issue before the next convention struck a responsive chord among leading dry Democrats in the capital today.

They have contended that the Democrats should go before the country on economic issues and soft pedal prohibition to avoid another Madison Square Garden Fiasco.

"The Democratic party can not win if a faction that wants a glass of beer or a faction that doesn't want a glass of beer gets in control of the convention," Daniels said. "This talk of alcoholic content must stop."

He declared also that a religious issue had no place in the convention. Beyond saying that Al Smith is liked in the south "as Governor of New York," Daniels declined to be drawn into conversation on Smith's chances for nomination, or to discuss presidential candidates.

"Dollar Diplomacy" should be the Democrats' paramount issue, he stated. He conferred here with ex-Secretary William Gibbs McAdoo, who recently said he was not a candidate for the nomination.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The Democratic state convention, which gets under way here this afternoon, may take formal action on the endorsement of Alfred E. Smith as the next Democratic presidential candidate.

Although New York state affairs constituted the schedule business of the convention, the governor's presidential chances was the sole topic of discussion among party leaders. The leaders predicted that the convention would be turned into a "love feast."

For the Governor, and it was expected that a typical "Al Smith" denomination would be staged by the delegates. Governor Smith's up-state supporters and Tammany leaders are comparing notes for the first time since William G. McAdoo's hit-or-miss nomination of Governor Alfred E. Smith as the keynote speech was eagerly awaited.

The leaders were somewhat perturbed at the expressed intention of assemblyman Louis H. Cuvillier, of New York City, to call a national constitutional convention for the purpose of accomplishing the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. The leaders desired to put the act on pedal on this subject in order to avoid embarrassing Governor Smith.

The Tammany leaders, headed by George W. Olvany, are the guests of the governor at the Executive Mansion. Conference were held last night and this morning.

Financially And Socially Prominent Personages Are Flocking To Divorce City

RENO, Nev., Sept. 29.—Like stars that shoot across the sky, lending an added touch of brilliance to the heavens, the great and the near great pass through Reno's divorce mill, each having his brief spot "in the sun" in this haven of the disillusioned.

Today the divorce colony "first citizen," socially speaking, is Cornelius Vanderbilt, son of one of America's wealthiest families and erstwhile publisher of tabloid newspapers in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Miami. Yesterday it was the famous Mrs. Walter S. Ward of New York.

Tomorrow, says Dano Rumer, it will be Kip Rhineland, coming with his moot color line to add a bit of radiance to the divorce settlement of White Plains, N. Y. It is reported to have booked lodgings in one of Reno's "dude ranches" in the back country.

Young Vanderbilt, whose newspaper slogan was the public be served, had modified his motto somewhat. With only 30 days to go, he's preparing to serve his wife with divorce papers.

Vanderbilt is not found at Reno's gambling tables or his night clubs. On the other hand, he makes his hay while the divorce germinates, writing a series of articles on Reno for a magazine.

Unlike many of the fashionable divorce hunters who make their headquarters in Reno apartments or at the new Riverside hotel, Vanderbilt is located at the biggest "dude ranch" near Pyramid lake. When he comes to Reno for a visit, the greater part of his time is spent at one of the newspaper offices.

"Taking the cure," as getting divorced is characterized in Reno, is not confined to the rich, nor any class. Some 40 percent of the group seeking severance are moderately well-to-do, according to those who enter to the divorce hunters. The balance fall into the class designated as average American citizens, persons different from their farmings.

The industrious, ambitious youth who "works his way through college" has counted here in the disillusioned wife or husband mill, as the initiated term it. Fully half of the Reno divorce seekers become working members of the community after their separation proceedings.

$72,000 DROPPED BY CITY ON ONE STREET PROJECT

Figures Obtained From County Engineer Show That Under Plan County Will Pay City $23,000 For $95,000 Stretch

According to the terms of an agreement made three years ago between City and County officials, the City of Sanford will lose some $72,000 on the completion of the Highway Avenue extension leading to the County Club. Under the agreement the City expended $95,518.25 on paving a half mile strip that could now be reconstructed by the County for approximately $23,000.

This information was obtained today in figures secured from City and County Engineer Fred T. Williams. Within the next few days the engineer will complete his estimates and the County Board is expected to use these figures as a basis for reimbursement to the City for money which was expended over two years ago.

The engineer's figures show that for the grade work on the Highway Avenue extension the City paid at the rate of 60 cents per cubic yard. The County wants to settle with the City on the basis of 28 cents. For the rock base the City expended $1.20 per cubic yard and the County has agreed to pay for it at 73 cents.

The City paid 26 cents per cubic yard for sheet asphalt as paving while the County will reimburse at the rate of 21 cents, a price that it had planned to pay for a double surface treatment of gravel and oil.

As pointed out by the engineer, the difference in the cost for the City and what the County proposes to pay is in accordance with an agreement reached three years ago between City and County officials. At that time the City desired to complete the road at once in order to offer a haul surface road to the Country Club. The County had included the project in the third year portion of its three-year road program. The City agreed to construct the road and the County stipulated that it would reimburse the City, not to the extent of the expenditure, but at figures which the County could have had the work done.

With the receipt recently of funds for their third year program the County Commissioners let it be known that they were ready to pay the City as soon as the engineer's estimates are completed.

Conservative Estimate Places Value Of $2,000 On Animals In Local Zoo

A conservative estimate of the value of the animals in the City of Sanford's Municipal Zoo is $2,000, according to authorities of the zoo. However, it is believed the animals could not be purchased for twice that amount at the present time should efforts be made to stock such a place, the authorities said. The figures do not include the cages, etc.

The zoo has quite a varied collection of domesticated and wild creatures. There is even, this year, on hand from a cenary bird to a bear and an alligator to an eagle.

One of the bears is a great lover of the water. Nearly every day he takes a dip in Lake Monroe to the delight of any children that may be in the neighborhood.

The lone eagle which preys on a cage at the zoo has figured in the public prints of Sanford on more than one occasion. He was released where he cared to—but always fell into Lake Monroe and had to be fished out. He was quite a sorry sight after the dip and rarely looks in the direction of the lake nowadays. Another time the bird having been released, flew over the City and circled about the City Hall a number of times before returning to the Municipal Zoo.

One of the monkeys at the zoo is a special pet of the police department and "Bob," as he is known, is frequently "in police court" but frequently for the entertainment of the officers when court is not in session.

Two several other at the zoo attract a great deal of attention on the part of visitors because of their lightning-like rapidity in the water. There is of course a pool provided for them as for the other denizens.

There are four white leghorns in a pen which took first honors at the Florida State Fair last year. They are the personal property of Sgt. S. L. Smart of the City Police Department.

NESTLE IS NOW BEING HELD IN NASSAU PRISON

So-Called "Mayor Of Cat Key" Was Arrested By British Government On Charge Of Piracy In Liquor Dealings

Rum Runner Is Also Wanted In America

Is Said To Have Escaped From Jail But Surrendered After Threats Violence Were Made

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 29.—(INS)—Charles H. Nestle, so-called "Mayor of Cat Key," in custody of the British colonial government on a charge of piracy in connection with the seizure on Sept. 9 by an American coast guard cutter of two rumrunners alleged to have been in British waters, was today reported held in a Nassau jail.

Nestle was taken aboard a mail boat from Bimini to Nassau according to a report received here. Ensign E. E. Hahn, acting commandant of the United States coast guard base at Fort Lauderdale, confirmed a report that Nestle had been demanded for trial on a charge of piracy in Nassau after a preliminary hearing before a special magistrate in Bimini.

Radio messages from Nassau said that Nestle had escaped from jail Monday night, but had surrendered himself to Colonial authorities following threats of violence by his enemies among rumrunners playing off the Florida Keys.

It was generally understood here that British authorities were seeking custody of two coast guardmen said to have been with Nestle at the time of the seizure of the rum boats in British waters. L. A. Oates, British vice-consul at Miami, refused to comment on the report.

"We understand that a complaint was made to the commissioner at Bimini that on Sept. 9, a motorboat with a cargo of whiskey had been attacked about one mile east of Gun Key light house by a vessel resembling a United States coast guard boat and the cargo taken from the boat was landed at Cat Key," Secretary A. C. Burns of the colonial government said in a statement issued to the International News Service.

A Collymore, the stipendiary and circuit magistrate, was dispatched from here Saturday, Sept. 24, to Bimini to investigate the case. News since received from Bimini is to the effect that Nestle was committed for trial on a charge of larceny from a ship and receiving stolen property.

"Pending removal to Nassau, Nestle was placed in the jail and escaped or was removed from the jail but he gave himself up the following morning. To obviate any chance of the prisoner again escaping it was proposed to send him to Nassau by seaplane, but weather conditions rendered this impossible and arrangements were made to send from Nassau a detachment of police if necessary to guard the prisoner.

Mr. Jones' also returned to the city today after a short visit to Tallahassee. Nothing was given out as to the state capital, but it is believed to have been in connection with the local proceedings. There was nothing said today as to the progress made by the grand jury in its investigation.

The special body, requested by Governor Martin, continued in session today with no announcements made in court as to any additional indictments that might have been drawn. The court was convened twice today as yesterday, each time Judge Wallace W. Wright ordering a recess immediately after the formal opening.

The grand jury examined several people today but their identity was not disclosed, and there was no announcement as to others that are to appear for questioning.

Charges Pressed By Officials Against Fight Film Showing

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—(INS)—With the arrest of eight persons on the staff of a local theater of the Tunney-Dempsey fight, which was showing motion pictures United States government today prepared to press charges in what it claims is a conspiracy to violate the law prohibiting interstate transportation in showing of prize fight films.

A warrant has been issued in San Francisco for the arrest of Tex Rickard, promoter of the fight. Government agents were also investigating to determine whether Tunney or Dempsey were financially interested in the pictures. If they are, the agents said, they will be arrested and tried.

For the first time since the anti-prize fight picture statute was enacted, defendants in such a case are facing a felony charge rather than one of misdemeanor. In the event of conviction, the defendants are open to a maximum penalty of $10,000 fine in addition to two years in prison.

The manager of the theater, W. P. Cullen, in which the pictures were being shown, and the operator, Tom Merritt, were required to post bonds of $500. The other employees were released on their own recognizance.

FACTORY MAN IS ARRESTED FOR WHIPPING CHILD

Sentence Suspended Because Plogger Is Head Of Family Which He Must Take Care Of Warned By Judge On Conduct

ATLANTA, Sept. 29.—(INS)—As he sobbed in nervousness, and fright, Albert Peel, a scrawny boy of 9 years, hared his judge this morning before Judge Jesse M. Wood in city criminal court to display many discolored bruises which, Judge Wood was told, had been caused by a beating with a stick in the hands of the boy's father, Homer Peel.

Peel, a furniture factory worker who lives with his family in a tent was fined $50 and sentenced to six months on the chain gang for cruelty. But Judge Wood said he would suspend the sentence if the fine was paid and if Peel would be kind to his children.

"Beating is not the way properly to rear children," said Judge Wood. "You are developing in the children instincts of brutality and hatred."

"You have a family to care for, and I cannot, for their sake, send you to the chain gang. But if another report of mistreatment of your family is heard the suspension of your sentence will be revoked."

Peel was unable to pay the fine and was held in custody while his wife, who was in the courtroom with a four-month baby in her arms, went about arrangements to raise the $50.

In the tent home of the Peels live he and his wife, a daughter, Edna, 19 years old; four boys, Virgil, 14; Harmon, 12; Albert, 9; and Homer, Jr., 5, and the baby in arms.

No Arrests Made In Memphis Lynching Of Tennessee Negro

MEMPHIS, TENN., Sept. 29.—(INS)—No arrests had been made today in connection with the lynching of Tommy Williams, 29, negro, whose bullet riddled body was found in a churchyard at Bartlettville, Tenn., early yesterday.

Williams, who is alleged to have shot Mrs. J. M. Miller at Bartlettville Tuesday, was hunted down and shot to death by a mob of citizens sometime during the night. Sheriff Will Kravis, who has charge of the investigation, said today:

"Due to the intense feeling in the neighborhood, relatives of the dead negro including his elderly mother requested his body be buried in Potter's Field and they did not attend the funeral, fearing violence."

Several deputies from Sheriff their investigation and promised arrests as soon as the identity of any member of the mob was learned. Bartlettville, 20 miles east of Memphis, was quiet yesterday when deputies laid it a visit and the officers could learn nothing.

Williams approached Mrs. Miller in a potato patch near her home Tuesday and attacked her. Her screams frightened the negro away. A posse formed and the feeling was running so high that soon a great mob of citizens were asking the negro; nothing was heard at them until yesterday when the body of the negro was found literally riddled with bullets.

A coroner's inquest today found: "Cause to his death from gunshot wounds inflicted by unknown parties."

Sixty Children Escape By Close Margin As Panic Follows Blow

FORT SMITH, Arkansas, Sept. 29.—(INS)—One woman was seriously injured, a dozen others slightly hurt and 60 school children narrowly escaped with their lives when a cyclone practically wiped out the village of Rudy, 15 miles from here today.

The school house was completely destroyed, twelve of the town's 30 residences were completely blown away, eight other houses were badly damaged and the Public School, a dance and freight house were demolished.

Twenty children on the second floor of the schoolhouse and 40 on the first floor were thrown into a panic when the cyclone struck the building. As the roof above their heads was blown away the children rushed for the doors.

While the walls of the building crumbled around them, all are reported to have escaped safely although a complete checkup has not been completed. The escape of all the children is considered miraculous as the school demolished.

Sanford Minister Claims Tannic Acid May Be Taken From Florida Palmettoes

Sanford may soon have a new industry. Efforts are being made to extract tannic acid from the palmetto plant. The palmetto plant is a very common plant in Florida. It is a very hardy plant and grows in many places. The tannic acid is a very valuable substance and is used in many industries. The Sanford minister claims that tannic acid may be taken from Florida palmettoes.

The minister came to the land of Florida in the eighties. He was not here long before he began his experiments with the palmettoes which he saw everywhere and wondered about. He took some of the saw palmetto which had attained 8 to 10 feet above ground. I took a saw palmetto and trimmed off the rough bark, cut them in blocks about six inches long, broke down the fibre and with a hammer made by driving nails in a board, I cleaned out the saw palmetto, leaving the fibre about 1-2 inch thick. I moved the fibre to the center taking about 10 minutes and cutting it in 8 black sections. The saw palmetto is a very hardy plant and grows in many places. The tannic acid is a very valuable substance and is used in many industries.

The minister found both calcium and phosphorus in the saw palmetto. He found that the saw palmetto is a very hardy plant and grows in many places. The tannic acid is a very valuable substance and is used in many industries.

Tagging All Bases

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Following their fourth straight victory over the Cubs, the Pittsburgh Pirates tagged today, confident that they have distanced their pursuers in the National League scramble. The Bucs are still two games in front of St. Louis and can clinch the pennant by winning two of their three remaining games against Cincinnati, even if the Cardinals top three straight.

The Cardinals, who beat the Reds yesterday, play the Yorkville boys again today. They can negotiate a tie for first place by making a clean sweep of their remaining three games provided the Pirates lose two of three to the Reds. The Giants trimmed the Phillies but the best they can hope for is a tie with the Pirates. They are now intent on earning something like $1,500 apiece by nosing out the Cardinals whom they trail by a game and a half. The standing today:

Team	Won	Lost	To Play	PCT.
Pittsburgh	33	58	3	.366
St. Louis	31	60	3	.338
New York	30	61	4	.330

"The Spirit of Hollywood"

Did you read that piece of news in The Herald last night about the "Spirit of Hollywood"? That was good. You see it was announced a few days ago that a movie actress and her pilot, with the title of Captain, would fly from Hollywood to Chicago to see the Tunney-Dempsey fight.

It seems that two hours after leaving Hollywood their plane developed engine trouble and they were forced to land coming down in the middle of a vast lonesome desert. For five days they were stranded there while the world looked for them. On the fifth day they decided to repair their motor and were soon back in Hollywood. Even the name of the plane was appropriate, "The Spirit of Hollywood."

What possibilities aviation holds for the 1950 sheik and flapper, modern man can only guess. Time was when a one horse rig afforded all there was of privacy for those hunting it. Nowadays a roaring roadster can in a few minutes put white way lights and troublesome crowds far in the background and leave only a wicked moon, wild acorns and prying owls to spy.

The "Hopping" Airplanes

Since the recent flurry of interest in aviation and all phases of its development, there has been a great deal of discussion on the part of newspaper readers about the use of the word "hop" in connection with airplanes taking off on various flights. Not a little criticism has been directed by those who believe that newspapers in general are guilty of failure to adhere strictly to the literal definition of words.

"Fortunately there is considerable elasticity to a great many English words or there would not be even an opportunity for argument in the case of 'hopping' off. The dictionary gives its definition of 'hop' as this: 'To move, as a bird, by short brisk leaps; also to jump on one foot.' This, then, is the kind of a 'hop' that airplanes make. But no well regulated airplane has been observed making 'short brisk leaps.' Any airplane caught performing any such doings would be immediately put under observation.

"In all probability newspapers generally are quite ready to concede that 'hop,' 'hop-off' and 'hopping off' are themselves due for a 'hop-off' with destination unknown.

MR. AND MRS. Joseph Mack, arrested for kissing in a car, recovered $2675 damages, when they proved they were married. Demonstrations of affection, in public, are forbidden, because they are vulgar, or supposed to be, and set a bad example. Would Mr. and Mrs. Mack have gone to jail had they kissed 10 days before their marriage?

A VERY RICH young man, one of many or more or less ruined by inherited money, disappears, and the lady who saw him last describes him as a "sappodil," and wonders that you do not know that word. "Sappodil" is a mixture of the honest American word "sap," and of daffodils "that come before the swallow dares, and take the winds of March with beauty."

A sappodil combines the sweet gentleness of the daffodil with the easy spending of the "sap" and is most highly valued among the flora and fauna of the white light district.

MUSSOLINI'S NEW-BORN boy is named Romano and Italy rejoices at the announcement "Premier Mussolini has another son." Donna Rachels Mussolini, the mother, gets not quite the credit due her. She has a fine, sensitive strong face. Mussolini chose her wisely, and if her boy turns out to be a real Mussolini, he will have her to thank, as much as his father.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, celebrated on Monday last the seventy-second anniversary of the day on which he got his first job. He was 17 years old and is now 88. Young gentlemen will observe that Mr. Rockefeller took that first job seriously and worked hard at it, although no office boy today would condescend to accept twice as much more.

THOSE THAT SMILE when told Mr. Rockefeller still has the first dollar he ever earned—which is no laughing matter—and the second, third and fourth hundred million.

ALSO, MR. ROCKEFELLER, since he took that job, in 1855, has given away, to science, charity and education, more than five hundred million dollars.

It pays, apparently, to take your job, big or little, seriously.

DR. AYCOCK, CHIEF of Harvard's infantile paralysis commission, reports that the paralysis germ has been classified, and a suitable animal is sought to produce an antitoxin. Dr. Aycock agrees with Doctors Flexner and Nougchi, of the Rockefeller institute, that the germ is so small that it would pass through any filter that can be made.

SOME HORSE OR other animal will supply the right serum for anti-toxin, and then anti-vivisectionists will roar and another heavy load of fear will have been lifted from the hearts of mothers.

BRILLIANT, YOUNG, talented Miss Fanny Brice divorced her husband, Mr. Jules Arnstein, "because he suffered from an inferiority complex after she had her nose straightened by a specialist."

If all husbands carrying around an inferiority complex, because of their wives' superiority, should be divorced, courts would be crowded.

A HINDU, RAJ PAI, wrote a pamphlet attacking Mohammed. That prophet died nearly thirteen hundred years ago, but still has friends. One of them stabbed Raj Pai yesterday. Mohammedans and Hindus make British rule easy by violently hating each other. Rugged Afghans say the British inflict a great injustice on the world in protecting India. "If it were not for Britain, we should sweep down, murder most of the Hindus, and make the rest of the slaves, thus making a better world."

BRITAIN BRAGS ABOUT the fastest ship afloat, the five-day Mauretania, and the White Star company plans a 60,000-ton steamship to be called the Oceanic. Speed is the thing. Germans are constructing ships to cross in four and a half days. Sooner or later the 75-mile-an-hour ship will appear, cutting the trip to two days. Enough passengers would be willing to pay the price and cheap oil would cut down fuel costs.

EDUCATING THE ARMY

The army as an immense educational machine is the subject of an article on "Brains for the Army" by Colonel Lucius Hudson Holt, a West Point professor, which appears in the September issue of The Forum magazine.

"The officer in our army today," writes Colonel Holt, "is the product of an educational system designed to give him, not only the technical knowledge of his profession necessary to handle men successfully in peace or in war, but also to impart the superficial polish of the college trained man."

Starting with a college education or its equivalent, gained at West Point or else where, the average army officer is sent a year or two later through a postgraduate course of training in which he studies the duties of a company commander. After service with troops he takes a second postgraduate course, which gives him a year's training in his own special branch of the service. Again he returns to troop duty. He now goes to the General Service School at Fort Leavenworth, after which

ONCE UPON A COUNTY FAIR TIME

It is county fair week somewhere, and remembering what that jolly event meant to farm families only a little while ago one is bewildered by changes so manifold and swift. This used to be the last great outing of the year before winter shut down upon the country side up state. It was a chance to meet folks who lived fifteen miles away and whom one therefore could seldom visit; to wear one's good clothes, not put on since the Fourth of July picnic; to share urban wickedness as hidden in the sidewalks, when women who never had more than one silk dress in five years passed with lowered eyes, and to taste the incomparable thrill of public competition in quilting, pumpkin raising and making preserves and butter.

The county fair fell in the pause between the long summer harvest and time to get in apples and corn. The railroad put on an excursion special, but families often lived a long ways from the deepo, and always it took a real and carefully planned effort to get to the fair grounds. Those dwelling within ten miles so went in the big wagon wagons before the sun to do up the housework and chores, to grass the axels any curvy the horses, to fasten the shutters and clean the deepo—to remember every thing that would be needed for the necessities of going off for a whole day. You might get well down the road and find you had no umbrellas or no lantern! And at the fair, after the long, joggling journey, one found real country people. There was no mistaking them. They looked their rural part. Clothes, complexions, speech, bearing, all were different from those of the city bred.

A mere breath of time and these things were suddenly no more. The farmers and their families possess the same silks, radios, motion picture favorites and motors as belong to the city. Ten miles—ridiculous! And as for gazing at side-shows and looking forward all the way to the big county fair, why that was of another era, incredibly so. Nor is it any use now for city youths to train their cameras on fair folk with malice aforethought. No one can recognize Rheuben. Moreover, he is going out again to-morrow evening.

Interesting Program Planned For Matinee For Sanford Children

In addition to the comedy for the smaller children and the illustrated songs, there will be a corking good football picture for the older children at the matinee at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Richard Dill is the typical football hero in a game directed by the local professional. The scene is laid in Forest Hills Long Island in the grounds of St. Paul's School in Garden City.

These matinees are carefully worked out with the joint counsel of Mr. Marantette of the Movie Committee from the Woman's Club, and the President of the Sanford Parent-Teacher's Association, Mrs. J. N. Hancell. Every effort will be made to see to the comfort of the children and strict order is being maintained by the management of the theater. Boys organizations will usher each time, and chaplains are present at each performance.

The question has arisen as to the price for admittance of very young children, and in the case of an adult of the family of friends bringing such, there is no charge for the very small ones.

Lawton Praises New Plan Of Study Now Being Used By Rollins College Faculty

The first college entrance examinations of freshmen at any school in the state were held with the opening of Rollins College a few days ago. An important factor with the beginning of the 1927-28 year is the resumption of the "Two-Hour Conference Plan of Study" stated T. W. Lawton this morning to The Herald. Mr. Lawton is a trustee of the institution. The plan of study mentioned, replaces the old system of lectures and quizzes and is regarded as a strong improvement over the older methods.

This year the faculty is strengthened with men and women who, according to President Holt, "possess the rare gift of teaching." Mr. Lawton declared. The trustee has just received a report of the opening of Rollins, his alma mater, at Winter Park.

Department personnel for the coming year announced by President Holt is as follows: Arts: Ruby Warren Newby, Frederic H. Spigel, Frank French, Bible and Religion: Charles A. Cannon, J. B. Uphof, Bernice Star, W. Leon Dawson; Business Administration: Glen E. Carlson, A. S. Hino, Helen Glenshaw; Chemistry: Frederick Raymond; Economics: Economics and Political Science: Robert J. Sprague; English: Herman Fernan Harris, Emily Watts McVea, Lyde Drummond Davis, Wilford Austin Wattle, Edwin Oswald Grover, Mary Alice Kimmel, Orpha Pope Grey, Dorotina Thomas, Cate Young Rice, Jessie B. ## Miss Andrews Hostess At Delightful Party On Birth Anniversary

A very pretty social affair of last week was that of Saturday when Miss Mary Frances Andrews entertained a number of young friends in celebration of her twelfth birthday anniversary.

The young guests assembled at 10 o'clock going from there to the Milane Theatre where they attended the morning matinee after which they returned to the Andrews home for luncheon. Adorning the rooms of the attractive home were bowls of roses, antiques and ferns. The long luncheon table was spiced with a white cloth, and centered with a low mound of antiques and ferns and sprigs of ferns, with candles in pink tapers. The places of the guests were designated by cards in form of pink rose buds and at each place were miniature flowerlike baskets filled with white and pink candies.

After the tempting luncheon, games and contests were enjoyed. Covers were laid for Marjorie Du Bose, Betty McKinnon, Harriet Brown, Marcella Stevie, Anna Maria Couch, Martha Bishop, Cornelia McRae, Mary Elizabeth Foliar, Mary Elizabeth Neely and Mary Frances Andrews.

Lois Wilson Made Ohio Governor Will Famous By Picture Not Run For Office The Covered Wagon Of President U. S.

One of the greatest roles she has ever had! That is what Lois Wilson has in James Cruze's production of "The Covered Wagon" a Paramount picture which will be given a special request showing at the Milane Theatre today.

When first exhibited some four years ago it was adjudged the greatest picture of the decade. Paramount claims that the opinion still holds good.

Molly Wingate—if you have read Emerson Hough's novel, you'll never forget her! Pretty Molly! daughter of the pioneer days—forced to face the terrific struggle against the wilderness and its untamed inhabitants when the West was still unwon.

Miss Wilson is dandy cast. She is Molly Wingate to the life in temperament, appearance and character, and her portrayal has been hailed again and again as one of the screen's real artistic achievements. Lois rides a spirited horse which runs away with her and later is caught in a paralytic fire from which she is rescued by the hero, the incident being one of the most thrilling in the action of the picture.

Lampighter Would Make Boston Meet One Of World Peace

BOSTON, Sept. 29. (INS)—A humble city lampighter, who sought to carry a torch of "peace on earth, good will to men" around the world, faced the loss of his job and had city officials from the mayor down, in a quandary today.

Conceiving the idea of making the city of Boston's tercentenary a monster world-wide peace meeting, William A. Ryan organized a "League of world cities." This fifty-year old man with five children and a wife to support has been sending out invitations to prominent personages of the world and governments of cities and countries at the rate of four a day for over a year.

"City hall, the gateway to world peace," was his slogan.

"Lafayette Mulligan" created a furor by inviting the Prince of Wales to call at city hall during the reign of Mayor James M. Curley. Later the invitation writer was found to be a local newspaperman.

Senator Dill informed newspapermen that he had invited Governor Donahy to visit the west and "become acquainted." "Although he is not known in the west, western Democrats are friendly to Governor Donahy," said Dill.

"The west is dry and will oppose Governor Al Smith, or any other west for presidency," asserted Senator Dill.

Declaring that if Governor Donahy was nominated by the Democrats for the presidency, he would add strength to the ticket, Senator Dill said that "any man who has been elected Governor of Ohio three times, like Governor Donahy has, is available for the presidential nomination."

AUTOCRAT RULE GROWS POPULAR IN PAST DECADE

Political Scientists Debate Question Of Whether Great War To Make Democracy Safe Really Increased Autocracy

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29, (INS)—The whole theory of popular government on the way to philosophical junk heap? Is democracy the end illusion? Is man constitutionally incapable of self-government?

These are the questions flung in the faces of statesmen and political scientists by eleven dictators established throughout the world since the great war, says a symposium on "Dictatorship versus democracy," recently published by the Williamson Institute of Politics.

Finding more than 400,000,000 people living under the rule of political absolutism, the statesmen ask: "Did the war make the world safe for democracy and in the annihilation of democracy itself?"

One Man Countries

Russia, Turkey, Poland, Spain, Hungary, Italy and Rumania are one-man countries politically, all loosely organized on theories which give the fundamental concepts of democratic theory.

"It may well be that the political problem for the coming century will be that of making democracy efficient. How can the rigorous, far-seeing leader be utilized in popular government to achieve progress without sacrificing popular liberties or depriving people of their ultimate control?" That, says the conclusion of the report, is the great task before democracy if it is to survive.

Here is the formula for dictatorships as set forth in the symposium:

Strong Forces

1. A strong secret police and military forces must be used vigorously to establish and maintain extra-constitutional government.
2. Popularity of some large mass must be sought, "In some cases by favors to the wealthy, in others by pandering to the gaudy crowd."
3. An attempt for popular emotion must be established—anti-Semitism, for example, or intense religious, or chauvinistic patriotism.
4. Order must be maintained at any price. Dissent and criticism must be allowed. Freedom of speech and press must be rigorously curbed.

All of these steps are epitomized in a single sentence in the Williamson report:

"Since dictatorships come into being to win a sort of civil war, or measures are utilized to establish peace."

Unknown Soldier Of War Buried At Marietta

MARIETTA, Ga., Sept. 29.—(INS)—The story of an unknown hero of the war between the States, the Union side is ended here.

It was thought for many years that the last chapter in the narrative had been inscribed and the word "final" applied, but an "epilogue" was begun a few days ago while Atlanta construction forces were excavating the new Frank Stanton School.

The story was concluded in an accompanying of the sound of United States rifles, the plaintive notes of Taps, the soldiers "farewell" and the solemn burial service read by Chaplain John Hall, of the 22nd infantry, Fort Meade.

The body of the unknown soldier as found deep in the earth in an embrasure of an artillery redoubt near the location of old Extra barracks, none of the spirited soldiers that marked the Battle of Atlanta.

A tattered fragment of blue and button telling the wearer belonged to an ordnance unit was the only aid to identification found, according to meager details, furnished by Major Frank, publicity officer of the Fourth Corps area, belief has grown that this soldier was probably buried by the retreating of a Confederate bomb.

First Cold Wave Of Season Moves Into Chicago From West

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—(INS)—The season's first cold wave will sweep into Chicago today, according to Prof. Henry J. Cox of the local weather bureau. The frigid blast will sweep in from the west, where seasonably low temperature prevailed for several days.

In Western states, Colorado, Wyoming, Kansas, Nebraska and a report snow showers of greater intensity.

Just two weeks ago Sioux City, Ia., closed the schools on account of heat waves. Today their problem getting the heating plants going time to forestall another dismissal of students.

Denver experienced a mild blizzard that covered the city in an inch of snow. Temperature in Minnesota ranged from 20 to 38 degrees. Killing frosts are feared in the sections where crops are not harvested.

It is an old art. In the early days, the method used was to

Sanity Test Inquisition Faces Underworld Group In The City Of Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 29, (INS)—The underworld of Pittsburgh today faces the possibility of a sanity test inquisition similar to that instituted by Chicago authorities against the criminal fraternity of the middle-west metropolis.

Events of crime have established Pittsburgh's notoriety as a "tough" city. Murders, gang warfare, vendettas, bootleggers' feuds, bombings—Pittsburgh has experienced them all, and the police record reveal the proof.

Police Chief Michael Hughes of Chicago has ordered all gangsters, gunmen, and bootleggers picked up by the police, to be examined as to their mental soundness.

Superintendent of Police, Peter P. Walsh of Pittsburgh thoroughly approves of Hughes' plan, and if it proves successful in Chicago, Walsh said he would not hesitate to proceed similarly against the lawbreakers of the steel city.

"We hope to defeat the misuse of the habeas corpus writ," Chief Hughes of Chicago, has been quoted as saying in regard to the mental tests.

Already Used Tests

Superintendent Walsh declared the Pittsburgh police already have used the sanity test in this manner. An ex-policeman, arrested on a charge of writing threatening letters to his former superiors, was held for mental observation in the city hospital to thwart efforts of the prisoner's attorney to release him under bond pending a hearing.

During the past year Pittsburgh has approached Chicago in notoriety incurred by the escapes of its criminals. Here are testimonials to Pittsburgh's "toughness."

In downtown Pittsburgh in front of one of the city's leading theatres, two gangs, said to belong to rival political actions, exchanged revolver shots, hammered each other with fists, blackjacks and other instruments. It occurred just as the curtains closed on the evening performance, and hundreds of startled, law-abiding citizens looked on in bewildered fear.

A few days before that episode, a man in the Hill district was slain. He was the sixth recent victim of a bootleggers' feud.

A week before, Paul Jaworski and John Vaabinder, convicted murderers, aiding by a visiting gunman, shot their way to freedom from the county jail located in the heart of Pittsburgh. Two prison guards were wounded.

Crime Record

Jaworski was a member of a gang which a few months before bombed an armored paycar and escaped with $100,000 payroll. The gang "planted" explosive in the road and set it off just as the pay car and its armored escort were passing the spot. Miraculously, all in the armored cars escaped death.

From time to time during the past year, hoses and buildings in the city proper have been damaged by bombs and explosions attributed sometimes to vendettas of secret organizations, and other times to exploding stills.

Several persons have been killed by unknown assailants who speeded away in an automobile after emptying the deadly spray from a sawed-off shotgun into the body of the victim.

These are only some of the crime chapters that occurred. In the future, however, if the mental tests prove a success, the annals of criminals here may not be filled with so many daring and dangerous exploits.

Accused Nurse Race Between Oscar Underwood And Brandon Looms

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 29.—(INS)—Prospects of a spirited campaign between Ex-Governor William W. Brandon, of "24 for Underwood" fame, and Senator Tom Hefflin, for the senator's present seat, have brightened with the announcement of the former governor that if only two are entered in the race, he will be a candidate.

The former governor has already told newspapermen that he would like to run against Senator Hefflin, in a "head and head" race.

"I will be a candidate for Senator Hefflin's seat in the United States senate if he and I are the only candidates," Bill Brandon said.

Senator Hefflin, on the other hand, has already made a sharp dig at Mr. Brandon. In a recent speech at Abbeville, the Senator charged that "Bill" and other members of the Alabama delegation to the last Democratic national convention aided and abetted Governor A. Smith, of New York, in violation of the passage of the resolution which would have caused a dissolution of the Ku Klux Klan to assume in the Democratic platform.

The people of Alabama have been stirred by the prospect of a race between Senator Hefflin and Mr. Brandon, while in political circles the matter is causing much comment.

Pimples, Boils, Skin Eruptions

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of pimples, boils and other skin eruptions as being an indication of an abnormal condition of the system. This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

"I suffered from impure blood—was weak, and I had lost so much weight, I didn't look natural. I had pimples and was also bothered with a breaking-out that itched terribly. I also had boils one after another. I tried different kinds of remedies, but nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to take S.S.S. which

I did. This was some time ago. Now I feel well, and I am getting along fine. S.S.S. stopped the itching and it cured me of boils. I advise all weak and run-down people to give S.S.S. a trial. It clears up the skin; makes you strong and fills you with energy." Mrs. J. W. Barker, 1337 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

You owe it to yourself to try S.S.S. It helps Nature build up real corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the blood is nourished. It is time-tried and reliable.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Lindbergh Warns Against Air Schools Where The Training Is Insufficient

DES MOINES, Sept. 29.—(INS)—Although Col. Charles A. Lindbergh entertains the fond wish to see the skies dotted with roaring speeding airplanes, he does not want this wish fulfilled at too great a cost in human life. As a precaution against unnecessary accidents he has issued a warning against aviation schools where the training is insufficient.

"You can find," Colonel Lindbergh stated, "many schools which advertise that they will teach a novice how to fly in airplane. Some of them give the course for $100, usually turning out the student as a finished pilot after about ten hours in the air.

Practice Needed

"Ten hours of flying will not make anyone a pilot, and $100 will not buy a very good course in training. I really believe it is almost a waste of money to take such a course. The man or woman who wishes to become a pilot should be prepared to spend at least $500 for the training, and some agreement should be reached whereby the use of a plane for practice may be obtained after the course has been completed."

A great many of these accidents occur because of these men who are turned out of cheap schools,

Said Elmer Wood to Frank Stone while on a hunting trip in the Canadian Rockies.

Martin Johnson, Famous African Explorer, writes:

"While trailing big game in Africa, I have never been without my Lucky Strike Cigarette. Once on the Abyssinian border my shipment of them from America missed us, and I was miserable until the natives followed our tracks across the Kaisout desert to Nairobi with my precious cargo of Luckies. After 4 years of smoking Luckies in wildest Africa, I find my voice in perfect condition for my lecture tour in America."

Daily Letter

By International News

PERING, Sept. 29, (INS)—With out doubt the most "jobbed" man in all the world must have been Chen Chun, former official of the nationalistic government. An announcement from that government states that Chen has resigned and his nineteen concurrent posts and was busy winding up affairs before relinquishing to his successors.

Although every one of the numerous governments which China has had since the empire has declared against the periculous system of officials holding concurrent posts, the happy situation of one man drawing upwards from two salaries from the government goes merrily on as witness the good fortune of Chen Chun.

In China watermelons have yellow instead of red insides but even that difference from American melons pales in the light of a luscious one found in Honan recently.

A certain gentleman living on Double Temple Street feeling generous bought the said luscious looking melon for his children only to hear them wall over its bitterness. With grief the melon was tossed into the gutter where it remained until evening.

As the light faded the melon glowed increasingly until in the darkness it resembled a lighted lantern. Neighbors puzzled over the phenomenon and a policeman who appeared on the scene judged the melon to be bewitched.

The next day a piece was taken to the local hospital where a doctor after chemical tests, found the melon seeds strongly impregnated with phosphorus. Then came the explanation: an announcement that the melon had been plucked from a patch outside the city wall where a skirmish had taken place in the spring between contending armies. It being too much trouble to cart the dead bodies away, a thin covering of earth had sufficed for a yard, the luscious melon had found the spot well fertilized as a garden patch.

When petty officer Wang breathed his last a few days ago, his friends wept and contributed enough to buy a thin pine board coffin and lay his remains to rest in a shallow grave outside the city wall. Three days after the funeral a close friend nearly jumped out of his skin when he met the dead and buried Wang walking from the direction of the new grave toward his home.

With bulging eyes the friend listened to Wang's indignant recitation of how he found himself waking in a decidedly hard and cramped bed. He pushed at the sides but they held firm but when he lifted his arms the top of his bed moved letting in a shower of earth which filled his eyes and mouth.

Getting up he found to his astonishment that he was outside the city wall some distance from his home. How did he get there, he demanded of his friend and it took many cups of tea and several hours to relate the story of Wang's ascension from the dead to the quick.

Managers of the Far Eastern Olympics which are in progress in Shanghai, are broadminded when it comes to sports. Can this be denied in light of the announcement and ping pong teams are to participate and to be given equal honor with others.

As a result of the announcement Japan is sending her ping pong champions to match strength with the teams from China and spectators are all set for a nerve racking exhibition.

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.
