DRISLER SLAPS FACE OF NOBEL PRIZE WINNER

Slighting Remark of Sinclair Lewis Is Cause of Brush Between Two Authors

NEW YORK, Mar. 21.—(AP)— Theodore Dreiser ("The Genius") slapped the face of Sinclair Lewis ("Babbitt") Thursday night.

"It was an outrageous, scandalous act," said Lewis, the only American ever awarded the Nobel prize for literature.

Dreiser's comment was twice as long—it contained 18 words:

"Rash and unwarranted insults were rewarded with two slaps upon the face."

The man, probably the two best known of American writers, met in dining room of the Metropolitan Club where they, with 23 others, were attending a dinner given by May Long, editor of the Cosmopolitan magazine, in honor of Boris Pilnyak, Russian communitarian writer.

At a dinner Lewis had said:

"I feel disinclined to speak in the presence of a man who has stolen 3000 words from my wife's (Dorothy Thompson) book on Russia, and before two sage critics who have lamented the action of the Nobel committee in selecting me as America's representative writer."

There was a moment's strained silence as Lewis sat down, but nothing happened. Soon afterward the company adjourned to another room for coffee and cigars.

Suddenly, apparently to the surprise of the others, the open palm of Dreiser's hand swung out, striking Lewis' face again on the cheek. Then he struck again.

"It didn't strike back," Lewis said, "because unfortunately some time ago I joined the greasers."

Other guests jumped between the two and the disturbance was over.

An Associated Press reporter saw Lewis yesterday as the writer was preparing to board a train for Toledo, Ohio.

"Can't two men have a private audience?" Lewis said, "without all this fuss being made about it?"

"I don't care to be quoted about the incident," he added. "But that I said about 3000 words belong to me from my wife's book will stand. No, I don't intend to see anyone. The incident is closed."

The guests at the dinner included many famous in American letters—Rupert Hughes, Irvin Cobb, May Long, Laurence Stallings, James R. Quirk, Arthur Brisbane and Burton Rascoe, among them. All who could be reached declined to discuss the affair.

"He would not say what words he used," Lewis' wife remarked, "and when we weighed pretty close to 200 pounds I'll bet he could have put up a pretty good trap if they'd let me go. Still, he's pretty old. He must be 60. He was an established author in New York when I was a kid trying to get going."

Lewis, busily packing his bag as he talked so that he would not miss his train to Toledo, remarked that he once had been discharged by the Associated Press for incompleteness.

"I'd rather be the reporter I might have been," he remarked, "than the Nobel prize winner. That is, sometimes I feel that way. It is much better to be both."

Plagiarism Charged To Film Corporation

PARIS, Ark., Mar. 21. (AP)—A suit for $1,000,000 against the Fox Film Corporation charging plagiarism, was filed in circuit court today by T. J. Wear, Paris attorney. He charges the picture "The Big Trail" was based largely on his book, "Liberty and Freedom, or Out of the Mountains of the East Into the Golden West." He charges the plagiarism to Hal Everett upon whose novel, "The Shaggy Trail," the Fox picture supposedly was based.

LEGAL GAMBLING NOW FLOURISHES IN RENO, NEVADA

Throngs Crowd Rooms Where Varied Types Of Gaming Prevail

RENO, Nev., Mar. 21.—(AP)—Reno, along with the rest of Nevada went "old west" yesterday, in the flush of wide open gambling the new 42-day divorce law was virtually forgotten.

At 10 A.M., the principal gambling hall in the heart of the city was thronged by hundreds who played or strolled about the roulette wheels, faro tables, mechanical dice throwing and other gambling games.

The signing of the new gambling bill by Governor Balzar was the signal for augmented patronage of the gambling resorts rather than the inauguration of new ones for the new statute merely makes legal what has been going on under nominal cover for years.

Throughout the night there was in progress in a single downtown establishment three faro games, three "21" games, two crap games and a well-patronized "chuck-a-luck" table.

Dozens of the so-called "speakeasy" establishments, where divorcees and others play in an atmosphere of mystery and shadow, of "exclusiveness" enjoyed a generous patronage.

Dealers and croupiers work in eight hour shifts tending about or raking in small fortunes during a shift.

Viewing the operation of one of the crowded games, Mayor E. E. Roberts, picturesque survivor of the old days, gave his ideas of how a city should be run.

"It's all nonsense trying to regulate people's morals by law. For eight years I've been trying to make Reno a place where everybody can do what they please just so they don't interfere with other people's rights."

"Now we can do lawfully what Nevada has always done under cover."

Chautauqua Opens Tonight For First Of Presentations

Chautauqua time has rolled around again, and tonight in the big brown tent which has been erected to the north of the Court House on the lake-front, it will officially open for a five-day run.

"The Kibitzer" a comedy of the stock market, will be presented tonight at 8:00 o'clock. The program for the remainder of the engagement is as follows: Monday afternoon, Jay Tobias, comedian; Jean Harlow, dancer, and David Harley, violinist will be seen.

Mondays night the same trio will give a short program before Chas. H. Peale, leader of New Zealand's Parliament will speak on "America's Job as a World Leader."

Tuesday afternoon Margot Hayes, soprano, with several assistants, will give a concert recital. They will also present a lecture by W. T. S. Culp, entitled "American Knobs, split, and unspun."

Wednesday afternoon Miss Athene Dominick delivers a lecture demonstration on "How to dress well on a meager income." That night "The Big Push" a modern drama will be presented. Thursday afternoon Umberto Sopravina and his Venezuelan Troubadours will give a musical program followed by several Sanford children who will sing and dance. That same musical attraction will close the five-day engagement with an evening of music of all nations.

HOOVER GIVEN GREETINGS BY RELIEF ESCORT

U. S. Destroyer Comes Along Side Arizona With Band Playing And Crew Dolled Up

USS ARIZONA, Mar. 21.—(AP)—An impressive sight of two warships along rail greeted President Hoover today on the third day of his vacation voyage to Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands. The destroyer Dupont came alongside with its band playing and its crew dressed in white to give the president greetings before it relieved the destroyer Taylor which turned back to Norfolk.

The President and Secretaries Hurley and Wilbur accompanied Captain Freeman on his regular inspection of the upper decks. The sea was smooth, the weather fair, and the wind gentle.

President Hoover has prescheduled a complete rest for himself and his party for the next few days, but in Porto Rico he will confer with Governor Roosevelt and other officials regarding the island's needs. In two and a half days, the President will reach the island and respond to the welcoming address, but he will not touch on the policies to be developed.

Later, after his first hand observations, important steps must be taken to improve and intensify agriculture to raise the subsistence level, and rehabilitate the coffee industry, which curiously enough is largely sold in foreign markets.

The administration feels that conditions in Porto Rico are more severe than in any other American territory, resulting from the double effect of the depression and the hurricane which destroyed the island's chief industry, that of raising coffee.

The road from Ponce, where the presidential party will land and be greeted by the community, to San Juan is very beautiful.

The island's problem has been accentuated by the lowered death rate, resulting from American sanitation, and a higher birth rate increasing the population 5% per cent in 30 years.

Sanford's Bowling Team Now Occupies 2nd Place In Loop

Second place is now the position occupied by the Safety City bowling team in the 12-leaded Orlando City League after winning two out of three games from the General Tires team on the West Central Avenue ally in Orlando last night.

The Sanford team had a great chance to clinch first place, for if they had won the last game of the three played they would have had the honor, but steadier bowling on the part of the Orlando players and the surprising last game score bowled by Grand, Orlando's prettiest big fellow," the league winner remarked, "had more weight than the 200 pounds I'll bet he could have put up a pretty good trap if they'd let me go. Still, he's pretty old. He must be 60. He was an established author in New York when I was a kid trying to get going."

BIRTH CONTROL IS ALABAMA PAPER SEEN NECESSITY PRINTS ARTICLE BY CHURCH BODY BOOSTING CELERY

Careful And Restraint ed Use Gets Unani- mous Endorsement

NEW YORK, Mar. 21.—(AP)—The "careful and restrained" use of contraceptive measures to regulate the size of families was endorsed yesterday by an organization made up of representatives of 27 American Protestant churches having a total membership of approximately 23,000,000.

The endorsement was given in a majority report on birth control submitted after several years of study by the committee on temperance of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. It was issued with the approval of the council's administrative committee.

The committee unanimously agreed that, because of economic considerations and, in many cases, the welfare of the mother, "there can be no question as to the necessity for some sort of effective control of the size of the family and the spacing of children."

The committee also agreed unanimously that, whatever the final decision of the church may be, "the church should not seek to impose its point of view as to the use of contraceptives upon the officially opened for a five-day run.

The use of celery as a food is a pretty good thing for tired nerves. In other words, if you are jumpy, eat a lot of celery, and you won't jump so much. It what we have heard is true, our nerves ought to be quiet for the next year or two, anyhow.

People of Montgomery and this section of Alabama remember D. J. Garrett. It has not been so many years since he threw his lot in with Florida. And he has become a fruit and vegetable baron down there. He is located at Sanford which is one of the finest vegetable sections in Florida.

"A year ago, or thereabouts, there appeared in this column an account of the celery growing operations of Mr. Garrett. Some will remember that Mr. Garrett in his interview told of the enormous quantity of fertilizer per acre that is necessary for the production of celery. He gave the interview to this column while he and Mrs. Garrett were on a visit to Florida.

Under the direction of N. C. Glynn, former leading comedian with J. A. Coburn's Minstrels and a man of 30 years experience in Minstrelsy, the cast of nearly 40 have been rehearsing for over 10 days. Led by Sid Rice, Ed Buhman and Homer Clause, vocalists who have a wife following in Sanford, the musical end of the show is believed well taken care of. A chorus of girls, recruited from the best talent in the city will handle the dance steps.

A big street parade at 3:00 o'clock Friday afternoon through the downtown streets will be one of the features of the day's activities, for the 26-piece Elks Band will be at its head. Tickets may be secured from any member of the Elks Club, while reserved seats are obtainable at the Milano Theatre.

Opportunity To Voice Legislative Suggestions Will Be Given On Monday

Any resident of Sanford or Seminole County who has a grievance of any kind which may be remedied in a legislative act, or who has any proposition or suggestion whereby this section of the state may be benefited should be in attendance at the bi-monthly meeting of the membership of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce at the Valdez Hotel Monday at 12:15.

At that time Senator J. J. Parish, of Titusville, and Representatives Geo. W. McRoy and L. P. Higgins of Sanford, will listen to any and all advice and suggestions, and will either express their opinion on the floor, or ask that they be allowed further time in which to study the merits of the proposed plan.

A round-table discussion on each plan offered is expected to be in order, and the meeting is certain to be filled with interest from its opening. A letter has been mailed from the offices of the trade body, which reads as follows:

Dear Sir:
Yours very truly,
H. M. PAPWORTH,
President.
P. S.—
Senator Parish and Messrs. Higgins and McRoy have accepted the invitation.

One Boat Is Caught In Ice Field, Another
Blows Up After Becoming Held Fast

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Mar. 21.—(AP)—Fresh news for the rescuers and waning hopes for the missing were yesterday's tidings from turbulent White Bay, where the sealer Viking exploded and sank Sunday with a probable loss of 28 lives.

Bert Balchen, hero of many aerial exploits, flew into St. Johns from Boston, Mass., yesterday afternoon in a plane in which he and two companions hope to reach the disaster scene.

Caught in a vicious nor'easter, with snow driving all about the rescue steamer Sagana carrying 110 survivors from Horne Island, was caught fast in an ice jam. Her arrival here may be delayed indefinitely.

The sealer Sir William, companion ship of the Viking, ended her rescue efforts at the bottom of the bay. Struck in a vice-like ice grip, she became waterlogged, burst into flames and sank 15 miles north of Horse Island, but her crew of 28 escaped in dories to the sealer Eagle.

After bucking the ice fields in the bay, a half dozen rescue vessels practically abandoned hope for the missing men, including the Americans, Varick Frissell and A. G. Pehiod, who went north to take sound pictures.

The helix grew that 27 perished when the ship exploded and burned. Tracks on the ice led to the fear that the other missing man probably drowned.

Friends of Frissell and the others pinned their hopes on an unconfirmed radio message picked up by a Naugatuck, Conn., amateur operator. According to him, the operator heard vague signals with the signature "Father J. Kavanagh, Harbor Branch, (N. E.) Station V. P. R." Yesterday he succeeded in raising what was apparently the same station and was informed:

"I told you Thursday Penrod and two Americans were O.K." A Halifax message said the station is 100 miles cross-country from Horse Island.

Elk's Minstrel To Be Given On Friday Evening At Milane
