Chicago at San Francisco, Wally's Big

On any other day Wally Dallenbach might have been an auto racing sensation. It was last Saturday, the opening day of qualifications for the Memorial Day 500-mile race, and a crowd upwards of watching for speeds by such drivers as Mario Andretti, Parnelli Jones, Jimmy Clark — big names in the sport. So when Dallenbach became the day's third qualifier at a speed of 163.540 miles per hour the fastest officially for any newcomer around the ancient 2½-mile Indianapolis Motor

Speedway, his effort went almost unnoticed. But the four-lap, 10-mile stint in his turbocharged Offenhauser earned him the outside spot in the fifth row for the May 30 event, and when he had finished he went to the garage area and telephoned his wife in East Brunswick, N.J. The New York Rangers
