few cuts, the owner of the club, Harry Siebold, appeared on the field decked out in catching apparel and took over the duties just to get a closer look at this young man. (Staff Photos)

Strolling In Sanford

Any Daughters of the American Revolution who are visiting in the City are invited to attend the regular meeting of the Sallie Harrison Chapter tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. E. Talar, 807 Magnolia Ave. The Rev. J. B. Root, pastor of the Congregational Christian Church, will be the guest speaker.

County Judge Ernest Householder will speak at Crook's Academy at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow on "The Relationship of the Parent, the Juvenile and the School."

Oddity Department—Many stunned eyes were focused on the middle of E. First St. in the downtown section shortly before noon today as a large metal drum broke away from a soft drink truck and nonchalantly rolled down the street defying all traffic. So much for the lighter side. The fragile ending came when the carefree barrel decided to terminate its little tour by resting comfortably in the fender of a shiny new automobile. Apparently everyone was so fascinated to stop the drum that decided to "take a stroll in Sanford."

Alexander Infant Dies This Morning

James Patrick Alexander, six weeks old, passed away very suddenly this morning at 8:45 o'clock. He was born in Orlando Jan. 24, 1955 and was living at 619 Laurel Ave.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Doris Alexander, one sister, Loretta Alexander, grandmother, Mrs. Mable Alexander and grandfather, C. T. Reed, Trenton, N. J. Services will be held at the graveside 9 a. m. Friday at Evergreen Cemetery.

County Seeking To Give Vaccine

Detailed plans now are being worked out for the possible administration of polio vaccine to 1,700 Seminole County children who will be eligible to receive it if it is licensed, Dr. Terry Bird, County Health Officer, said today.

As was announced by state health officials, all first and second grade pupils in public, private and parochial schools in the state are included in the planned program. Vaccine also will be available to others through physicians at the same time.

But parents were warned by Dr. Bird not to jump to conclusions that the current planning indicated the vaccine already had been proved effective.

"The vaccine which will be furnished by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is the same vaccine that was given to 400,000 children last spring," he emphasized.

"We do not know yet whether it really prevents paralytic polio. Until April, when we will learn the results of the evaluation study now being conducted at the University of Michigan, we cannot know if the vaccine is effective."

Dr. Bird added:

Life-Long Ambition Finally Comes True

By CARL OVERSTREET
Herald Staff Writer

Today I realized every man's top ambition. No, I didn't meet Marilyn Monroe, swim the English Channel, or receive a million bucks through a rich uncle's will.

I was—if only for an hour—a professional baseball player.

Clad in an official uniform emblazoned with the number 97, I tried out with the Richmond baseball club at its Spring training camp here.

Every man secretly believes he would make a wonderful ball player if given the opportunity. I had that golden opportunity.

As I did my stuff at the old stadium, I was closely watched from all sides. But not by big league scouts. The players were afraid I might beat one of them with a bat or a ball.

"You look just like Dom DiMaggio," another newspaperman commented.

"Did you see that?" I asked. "You look like Dixie Dean," still another spectator shouted. I noted that he put the emphasis on "Dixie."

The important thing was that I started at the top. Harry Siebold, owner of the club, took time out to size me up himself. He even served as catcher as I clouted a few.

I waited for him to hand me a contract. After all, I am no hold-out. I was even willing to furnish the fountain pen.

Turning over and over in my mind was the question: Should I ask for a bonus the first season or wait until later?

I knew I was a born baseball player.

After playing baseball for an hour, I wished I had never been born. I kept putting my foot in my mouth—and those spikes hurt. Everybody ducked. Why? I had walked up to the plate. I was going to murder that ball. I pointed

$200,000 Sale Is Made By Whiddon

The largest grove in the Central Florida area so far this month was sold for a reported $200,000 by Benjamin and Samuel Echelman to A. F. Powell of DeLand through C. A. Whiddon Sr., local real estate broker.

The 110 acre bearing grove is located in West Orange County in what is known as Windemere.

In recent reports from several Central Florida counties, there has been a considerable amount of activity in the citrus industry with quite a large number of grove sales being transacted in and around Seminole County.

Industry Subject Of McKibbin Talk At Jaycees Today

Planned industrial districts was the subject of an informative talk presented today at the Jaycees noon luncheon by Clifford W. McKibbin Jr. who pointed out the available sites for industry and the many new business opportunities in the Sanford and Seminole County area. The speaker further brought out in his speech that "industrial growth does not just happen. It must be planned."

McKibbin came to Sanford in January, 1949, to serve as City Manager which capacity he also held in Winter Park before coming to this City. He has had an active part in the local organization of the Boy Scouts of America.

A short report on the progress of the newly formed Jaycees was given by Tommy Stinger who announced that the boys' group had elected temporary officers and has drawn up and accepted its by-laws.

At the present time the Jaycees are sponsoring a membership campaign with George Andrew Speer and A. B. Peterson Jr. as co-chairmen of the drive. Membership cards may be obtained from the Jaycees Information Booth or by contacting any Jaycee.

17-92 Four-Laning Calls For Property

Collins Removes Smith As Chairman Of Barber Board

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Gov. Collins today removed Joe L. Smith of Miami as chairman of the Florida Barbers Sanitary Commission because of alleged irregularities in issuance of licenses last year.

The governor has the power to remove a barber board member. Confirmation of the Senate is not necessary.

The governor announced removal was not intended to cast any personal reflections on Smith who had offered his cooperation. But, he said, while he believed Smith had no intent of wrongdoing he had to share responsibility for the wrongdoing of the board.

Smith told the governor he had information he was willing to present to a grand jury of license purchasing by applicants.

The two other members of the barber board resigned last week. The governor said he would not ask the Leon County Circuit Court at this time to call a grand jury to investigate the situation.

"I will ask the new board I shall appoint to confer with the attorney general as to what action should be taken to prevent recurrences," he said.

Smith said he knew of barbers who received licenses without taking examinations. He said some told him they bought their licenses.

"I don't know where he got the licenses," Smith said.

He described the go-between as "a Miami man . . . an Italian . . . a dangerous man . . . a racketeer."

Smith told the governor that on four occasions last year he was introduced to higher license applicants by C. B. Rankin, then chairman of the board, and was told by Rankin that "Mr. Peter had told him to give the man the examination on the short form, which was referred to as the Negro paper."

Ten Puerto Ricans Convicted By Jury

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal court jury early today convicted 10 Puerto Rican Nationalist party members of seditious conspiracy after deliberating the case for nearly 16 hours.

The group had been charged with trying to bring about the "political independence of Puerto Rico from the United States by force and violence and armed revolution."

Testimony at the trial linked the Nationalist party with the 1950 attempt to assassinate former President Truman and the wounding of five congressmen in the U.S. House of Representatives March 1, 1954.

In charging the jury, Judge John F. X. McGuehey said it must decide whether the defendants helped in these shootings. If the jury found that the shootings were the isolated act of a few persons unaffiliated with the defendants, the jury could not consider them against the defendants, he said.

The new convictions brought to 27 the number of Nationalist party members who have been convicted, or pleaded guilty to, seditious charges in the past six months.

U. S. Finally Gets Touch Of Spring

Another mild, pleasant day appeared the outlook for most of the nation today.

The later winter spell of spring like weather sent temperatures into the upper 80s in western and central Texas yesterday. Readings were in the 70s northward into west central Nebraska, the central Mississippi Valley and southern Virginia.

General warming was reported throughout the Gulf and Atlantic coastal states with temperatures as much as 25 degrees higher early today than yesterday. Readings in the 60s were reported from Texas and the west Gulf states northward to the lower Ohio Valley.

Exercise Is Secret Of Youth, Says Dr. Gibbs Who Is 99 Today

The secret of maintaining youth is exercise. So says J. C. Gibbs, retired Michigan doctor now living at 802 Magnolia Ave. here in Sanford, who today is marking his 99th birthday.

"You have to keep your muscles limber," he said, "and you have to exercise the brain too." To explain the latter comment he waved his hand at the books surrounding him on the porch swing.

With the century mark just around the corner, Dr. Gibbs is very unconcerned that he does too much exercise. He lingers those "muscles" by pushing a lawn mower, walking nine blocks to the Post Office every day, picking fruit, and doing most of the chores of a yard attendant. Consequently his home and yard are one of the tidiest in Sanford.

Mrs. Gibbs says "I can't do a thing with him. If I go to town in the car he walks; says he needs the exercise. The only thing wrong with him is that he is a little hard of hearing."

"His friends have kept him busy all morning," she went on. "As soon as one leaves another comes. Just give him a book and he's completely happy."

Mr. Gibbs, with a twinkle in his eye, remarked that people nowadays don't get enough of the muscle building exercise.

He was born in a log cabin at Kalamazoo, Mich. and began a general practice of medicine in Crown Point, Ind. in 1886. In 1922 he retired at the young age of 65. While in Florida on a trip he decided to stay in Sanford and has made his home here ever since. The climate "just agreed" with him.

As The Sanford Herald reporter left Dr. Gibbs, he was seen reaching for the rake to complete his unfinished chore. Seems as though the kindly gentleman is thoroughly confident of his theory that the secret of youth is exercise.

Dr. Harry Jessop Will Speak Sunday

Dr. Harry E. Jessop, author of college textbooks, lecturer, and president emeritus of the Chicago Evangelistic Institute, will be the guest speaker at the 10:45 o'clock Sunday morning service of the Church of the Nazarene.

He will also speak at a special afternoon union service of the following churches: Free Methodist Church of Sanford, Wesleyan Methodist Church of Sanford, and the Lake Mary Nazarene Church.

Special singing is being planned and the public is invited to attend.

TEA PARTIES BANNED

LONDON (AP)—The House of Commons was told that the British Malay government has banned Communist-sponsored tea parties there because the Reds were using them to indoctrinate students.

Owners Determine Future

Need Is Told Of Right-Of-Ways

The future of the move to four-lane U. S. Highway 17-92 rests with owners of the abutting property.

That was the opinion of the Chamber of Commerce's Long-Range Roads Planning Committee as it met last night at Elmer's Restaurant.

"Four-laning of U. S. 17-92 to current standards," said Braxley Odham, chairman of the committee, "will require a lot of right-of-way. If this right-of-way can be bought cheaply enough, the project will go through. If not, it won't."

The help of all Seminole County residents is needed to insure the completion of the project, Odham said in requesting that property owners join in the great cooperative effort.

He cited the danger of "jeopardizing our opportunity" and warned that if cooperation is not shown on right-of-way, the state might go ahead with a bypass.

Odham again emphasized the importance of the project to the county.

Four-laning of U. S. 17-92 has been tagged by the committee as the county's number 1 road project. The State Road Board has appropriated $800,000 for the project.

Campbell Thornall, fifth district member of the State Road Board, said recently that the amount will cover the portion of the highway from Orange County about to the "Big Tree Road, approximately eight miles south of Sanford.

Four-laning of the highway, the Chamber committee pointed out in a resolution recently, "will not only aid and promote the development of the economic life of Seminole County, but will also materially decrease the death and traffic toll through traffic accidents on the said highway."

The highway is the principal arterial highway running north and south through Seminole County and has one of the highest traffic counts of any road in Florida, according to the State Road Department.

Rickey Green, district engineer for the Highway Department, showed preliminary maps at the meeting last night. Two of Green's assistants were also present.

Fire Department Answers Alarms

The Sanford Fire Department answered four fire alarms yesterday. The first came at 1:20 p. m. when it was called to assist the Forest Rangers at a grass and wood fire at Elder Springs.

The second fire at 1:50 p. m. was also a grass fire out of the City at Mulhawk Ave. The men were gone 40 minutes.

At 2:35 p. m. another alarm was turned in at 118 W. Second Street at the Automatic Laundry operated by Fred Kennedy. The cause was a defective boiler, however nothing was damaged.

The last call came at 2:53 p. m. when another grass fire was discovered at 2615 Mulhawk Ave. This was out of the city.

Fla. Supreme Court Affirms Sentence

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The Florida Supreme Court yesterday affirmed Samuel J. Hornbeck's death sentence for the 1953 slaying of a Duval County patrolman.

Hornbeck, who was fleeing a bank robbery charge, had just robbed a restaurant and with a companion was attempting to shoot his way through a police cordon when patrolman Thomas Allen Robinson Jr. was killed.

Defense attorneys claimed Hornbeck should not have been tried for first degree murder because none of the robbery victims was killed and premeditation had not been proved as far as the patrolman was concerned. They said Robinson could have been killed by a wild shot from another officer.

Justice B. K. Roberts, writing the court's opinion, said the patrolman was slain in the course of the robbery and that was all that counted.

Reckless Banning

Over the years the effort has been to root out arbitrary governmental power. One stronghold which has never been stormed is the Post Office Department, which reserves the right to forbid the mails to any publication it thinks likely to corrupt morals. This has led it to ban many books that are freely sold in every bookstore.

A recent activity has caused the American Civil Liberties Union to seek a court injunction against a prohibition which it thinks arbitrary and ridiculous. A translation of a well-known play by the Greek comic dramatist, Aristophanes, one of the world's great authors, was forbidden to a California bookseller because to reach him it had to go through the mails.

The customs house used to do things like this. Since 1934 the Treasury Department has relied on a special adviser, Huntington Cairns, a Baltimore lawyer with a wide knowledge of literature and a sane outlook. He examines cases where exclusion is proposed, and if in doubt, consults authorities and book reviews. His judgments consequently are generally respected.

Unfortunately people like Cairns do not grow on every bush. The Post Office Department might do well to run one down. Otherwise it will find itself more and more often brought into court.

Soap Operas

Advertising men are responsible for many new developments of American life, as most people realize when they stop to think of it. Certainly keeping up with the Joneses would be much harder if we did not read in every newspaper and other advertising media full accounts of the delightful possessions just acquired by said Joneses.

One of the most successful advertising men, the late Albert Lasker, is recalled by extracts from his memoirs, published in the "American Heritage" magazine. One feat not usually associated with him, which has meant more to millions than many a better publicized invention, was the idea of the daytime radio serial.

"Soap operas" are often derided, especially for their endlessness. In this they resemble comic strips, which may have suggested them. Both while away idle moments, or, in the case of the soap operas, make household chores less tedious. Both are as a rule morally acceptable, though neither would ever be called intellectually stimulating.

Few persons are entitled to the distinction of having thought up a successful form of mass entertainment. Lasker, for better or worse did that.

First Pacific Railroad

The first railroad to run clear across the American continent was not an achievement of the United States or Canada, but of Panama. The 100th anniversary of the first train run from the Atlantic to the Pacific has just been celebrated. By contrast our first transcontinental railroad was not completed until 1869, and the Canadian Pacific through trains did not begin to operate until 1885.

Panama had a great advantage over the United States and Canada, being situated at a point where the oceans came within 70 miles of each other. Still construction had to be undertaken through a thick jungle, and at this early period of railroad construction, to build even a short railroad there was quite a job. The republic of Colombia, to which Panama then belonged, deserves much credit for its achievement.

Silver Moves In With Industry

NEW YORK (AP) — Silver has marched into industry with the electronics age. And this year more of that metal is going into industrial products than into silverware, jewelry or the arts.

Two chief talking points for silver's use in industry are: 1. Its use as a conductor of electricity known to man, and 2. They say that silver alloys used to join two metals make so strong a solder that the metal parts themselves will break before the silver joint will.

Last year silver was too good for the silver people, however. Some 85 million ounces were used by U.S. industries and in the arts. But this was a drop of 19 per cent from the year before, and the lowest since 1941.

Handy & Harman — which began as a silver brokerage firm in 1907 but is now primarily a silver manufacturing and research organization — blames the drop on last year's slowdown in the heavy industries where silver is used.

For silver goes into autos, farm tractors, bicycles, dishwashers, washing machines, sewing machines, lawn mowers, guns and phones, as well as into TV and radio sets, radar equipment and the like. Also, the silverware and jewelry makers had some bad months last year.

Use this year is picking up with the general business revival. Production of many of the goods that use silver has increased.

Now silver men are eyeing a new field in TV and radio set production, that of electrical circuits printed on paper and using silver as the ink. The current follows the silver to where the electricity is needed.

The printed sheet of circuit substitutes for the mass of wires in older sets. Thus new sets can be made smaller and more compact. General Electric engineers estimate that perhaps one million sets with printed wiring will be made this year.

Silver has plenty of competition in industry from the other metals. At 85¢ cents an ounce silver's price for more than two years — it is an expensive metal.

Copper and aluminum are much cheaper conductors of electricity. And not even the most avid silver man contends that electric power and telephone companies should string silver across the land.

Basal metals are much cheaper as solder. But silver men have some sales points for certain uses. Because of a low melting point, silver solder flows easily and a small quantity does an effective job, lowering unit costs.

Hearing Is Planned For Barber Officer

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Gov. Collins will hold a hearing at 3:30 a. m. tomorrow to determine whether Joe L. Smith, of Miami, chairman of the Barbers Sanitary Commission, should be suspended.

In summoning Smith to the hearing yesterday, Collins said it was called to determine whether "facts and circumstances as reported in recent barbers board meetings and through the press are such that you should be suspended."

Resignations of Smith were announced last week by the governor's office in the wake of a disclosure the board issued some 30 licenses improperly last year.

Smith, however, denied he had resigned and said he would give up his post until he had been given a chance to defend himself.

BUBBLE, BUBBLE, TOIL AND TROUBLE

HAL BOYLE

It's Hard To See Under Shiny Ego

NEW YORK (AP) — There are no people like show people. But they are generally easier to love at a distance than they are to like after you get to know them. Seen up close, it is often hard to glimpse the human being beneath the shining ego.

An exception is Gisele MacKenzie, the sprightly young singing star of "The Hit Parade." She's a natural. Right now I'm desperately in love with her. So are at least a dozen guys I meet every day, from executives to countermen in drug stores.

The funny thing about Gisele MacKenzie is that each of us thinks he "discovered" her all by himself. But we are united in a firm belief that a Hollywood or Broadway producer is a fellow who would starve to death in a gold mine, otherwise why hasn't some producer taken the scales off his eyes and starred our girl in a big film or musical show?

My wife has taken my autumnal adulation for Miss MacKenzie in great stride. She has been through this kind of thing before.

"Any day now I expect you to tumble for Lasse," Frances said philosophically. "After all you've been moon-eyed over Helen Hayes and Martha Scott for years. Does this mean you're throwing them over? What has Gisele got that's so different?"

"About everything," I replied. "She can sing and dance and play the piano and the violin. All kinds of talent. She's wonderful at light comedy, and —"

"But what kind of girl is she? Why don't you take her to lunch?" So I did. We met at the new celebrity filling station run by P. J. Moriarty, who is known on Sixth Avenue as "the taxpayer's Sixth Son."

Gisele showed up in a fur coat. For some reason I showed up in a schoolboy with an apple in my hand, which Miss MacKenzie accepted very graciously. She is just over 5 feet 5 weighs 120 pounds, and has snapping dark brown eyes that are fun to let your mind wander in. Over a plate of corned beef hash topped with one of the most romantic looking eggs I've seen in years, I asked Gisele to tell me about herself.

"I'm from Canada, and my father is a doctor. I studied to be a concert violinist, and became a singer by accident. Never did take a lesson."

"I'm mad about trees. I live near Center Park because I like to walk there with my two dachshunds."

"But I'd rather cook than do anything. I name my recipes after the friends who gave them to me — such as chicken Morgan, pork chops Paul, Casserole Aunt Esther, meat loaf Diane."

"My own favorite is a compote, but it is made with vegetables instead of fruit, and I never tell anyone all the ingredients I put in it. But it has mushrooms, bacon, scallions, fresh tomatoes, and all kinds of herbs."

"I've made about 38 records — my latest is an album of French nursery songs I learned as a child — I've never had a really big hit. Sure I'd love to be in a Broadway show, but only a rich man's daughter can wait around for the right part."

"But I'm happy with what I'm doing now. I love living, and I believe in happiness. But doesn't happiness consist in liking what you get as much as getting what you like?"

"What am I afraid of? Oh, spiders and all creepy things. But most of all I'm afraid of making a mistake while singing a lyric with about 30 million people watching. I don't sleep much the night before a show."

"My hobbies are movies, TV and perfume. I spend four nights at home watching television and answering fan mail. I've learned to do both things at the same time, but sometimes I get the plot I'm watching mixed up in the letter I'm writing."

"I keep about 14 kinds of perfume, and douse myself with it before I fall asleep. When I get tired of several kinds of scents, I mix them all up and make a new one. My favorite right now is one called Vent Vert, or 'Green Wind.' It makes me feel like a Christmas tree."

"She smelled like one, too, a nice clean spruce odor. And that's what Gisele has herself — a fresh forest scent. When I came home my wife took one look at me and said: 'I see you're really gone this time. What about poor little Lasse Hayes?'"

"I'm afraid," I replied suddenly, "Lasse will have to struggle the rest of the way to get even. There really hasn't been a case of theatrical puppy love like this in the family since grandpa wrote anonymous mash notes to Lillian Russell."

Parentage-wise, a human being grows more in the first year of life than at any time afterward.

Demos Take Double Look At Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Now, for the first time since President Eisenhower entered the White House, the Democrats are able to examine his employee security program. They're taking a double look, starting today.

This program has generated a lot of Democratic heat, no doubt much of it political, ever since 1953 when the administration began issuing numbers on the people hired from the government as security risks.

Because the administration didn't say how many of them actually were subversives, the Democrats called the whole performance a "numbers game." The administration claims 8,008 "security risks" have quit or been discharged.

There has been wide concern inside and outside Congress, that the program, for lack of sufficient safeguards, may be working injustices. Eisenhower stands pat on his program. Over the weekend Atty Gen. Brownell came up with a few alternatives but they were minor.

Until they got control of Congress this year the Democrats couldn't set up an investigation. Now they're ready.

Sen. Humphrey D-Minn. and Sen. Stennis D-Miss have proposed creation of a special 12-man commission to look into the whole broad problem of government security — ranging from the Eisenhower employee program to laws on spying and sabotage — and report back in March 1955 with recommendations.

Today, Humphrey, head of a Senate subcommittee, opens hearings intended to acquaint Congress, if it sets up the commission, with information on the broad problem of security. So his hearings won't be on Eisenhower's program alone.

But soon the Senate's Post Office and Civil Service Committee, headed by Sen. Olin D. Johnston D-SC, will start hearings concentrated on the Eisenhower program alone. That will probably be a stormy one fall of political implications for 1956.

Eisenhower's administration didn't like President Truman's program for getting rid of government employees who might endanger the country if allowed to keep their jobs.

Eisenhower, on April 17, 1953, substituted his own program. It differed from Truman's in two main ways:

1. Under Truman the test was a man's loyalty. Under Eisenhower a man can be fired if he's a security risk. What's that? It might be a Communist or a drunk or a homosexual or a person with a Communist relative.

2. Under Eisenhower a man about to be fired can appeal to the head of his agency or department. If turned down there, he's out. Under Truman such a man, if turned down by his agency head, could appeal to a special loyalty review board whose word was final. Eisenhower abolished this appeals board.

erful auto worker's union, which merger or not, will be the peace-maker for the pay demands of organized labor.

Housing — The government wants to find out just how sound is the continuing boom in the housing industry. Federal mags are making surveys to check vacant houses and apartments against home-building activities.

A Commerce department spokesman says there is nothing alarming about the high rate of home construction since there are unfilled housing requirements in virtually every state. However, what is lacking is up to date information on which the expansion can be accurately measured. The last survey of this kind was in 1950.

NO RENT, NO TV! BECCLES, England (AP) — The Town Council decided Monday that tenants in municipal housing projects will be denied permission to put up television aerials if they are behind in their rent. "If a tenant can't afford to pay the rent, he can't afford a television set," a council spokesman explained.

Union Unity — Look for fewer strikes when merger of the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations takes effect sometime within a year. That is the word from labor experts who contradict speculation that walkouts will become more frequent because of labor unity and the resultant increase in the power of organized workmen.

These experts point out that many strikes are caused by jurisdictional disputes between unions. The merger will largely do away with such disputes, since there will be far less competition for collective bargaining rights.

However, more important, the experts say that, although the merger will mean larger strike funds, union leaders are likely to scale down their pay-rise demands when they no longer have to "make a record" to keep their workers from thinking they could do better with some other union, or to attract workers who are still un-organized. Thus management will be better able to meet union demands or compromise on the without a strike.

Incidentally, the experts say Walter Reuther is far from through as a powerful labor force despite the fact that George Meany will be the first AFL-CIO president. They point out that Reuther is still president of the post-

Party Is Given Miss Warmoth

Miss Margie Warmoth, popular bride-elect, was honored with a party Tuesday at 4:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Vernon Davis, 2408 S. Sanford Ave.

The home was beautifully decorated with roses and orange blossoms to carry out the bridal theme. In the archway between the living and dining rooms hung four white bells tied with orange blossoms and ribbon. In the center of each bell was a fortune which the honoree had to read aloud. On the refreshment table stood a bridal doll surrounded by orange blossoms with two metal candlesticks holding burning tapers. A light refreshment course was served.

The hostesses Mrs. Vernon Davis, Mrs. Lavonne Edwards, Mrs. Bill Glenn and Mrs. Mildred Balcock, presented the honoree with a piece setting of her chosen dinner ware.

After being taken through the house trailer where Miss Warmoth and her future husband will make their home, the guests returned to the Davis residence where they were given a memory quiz to determine how much they could remember about the tour. Excelling in the unique brain-teaser was Mrs. Marguerite Graham.

About 40 guests were present.

Cadets Of Future Air Force Academy Can Finally Relax

HOLLYWOOD (AP) Cadets of the new Air Force Academy can relax. They won't be wearing togas or armor, even though Cecil B. DeMille is designing their uniforms.

This I ascertained from a talk with the pioneer film maker in his office. The place was filled with painting of uniforms from past pictures like "Samson and Delilah" and his future and most costly epic, "The Ten Commandments."

The producer-director showed off a handsome painting of an Egyptian in battle uniform. "Now this is what he will produce for the picture," he remarked.

"Notice how the wings envelope the chest, forming a protective armor for him. This is perhaps the first use of wings on a uniform."

He said with a sly smile: "But that isn't the kind of thing we will design for the air academy."

Last month, Lt. Gen. Hubert H. Harmon, superintendent of the new academy near Colorado Springs, Colo., announced that DeMille would design uniforms for the cadets.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—There is a mistaken idea, says Manager Al Lopez, that the American League champion Cleveland Indians will stand pat on their 1954 outfit.

"We're not set like a lot of people think," he explained as the Indians met the Chicago Cubs today in the first of their exhibition games. "There are several positions yet to be decided. There are several young fellows we have to look over."

Newcomers given strong chances include catcher Hank Folles, first baseman Joe Altobelli, outfielder Rocco Colavito and, of course, left-handed pitcher Herb Score. All four spent 1954 with Indianapolis of the American Assn.

Lopez would like a strong left-handed pitcher to go with right-handers Bob Lemon, Early Wynn, Art Houtteman and Mike Garcia on the front line. Score might fill the bill, but Don Mossi, an outstanding southpaw reliever last season, would like that starting assignment. Rookie Hank Aguirre, up from Reading, Pa., is getting attention and veteran Lefty Bill Wright, who played for San Diego last season, isn't counted out.

Veteran right-hander Bob Feller counts on another good season with spot assignments.

At first base Vic Wertz is No. 1 as expected but Dale Mitchell, previously an outfielder, makes a bid along with Altobelli.

Al Rosen at third and George Strickland at shortstop appear secure. The same is true of Bobby Avila at second when he signs.

The outfield is filled with talent so an interesting battle develops. Home run hitter Ralph Kiner, acquired from the Cubs after 1954, probably has the hardest fight of his career for a regular job.

Larry Doby in center and Al Smith in an adjacent field appear well assured. But fighting for the other spot along with Kiner are the rookie Colavito, veterans Dave Pope and Wally Westlake plus Harry Simpson, trying for a big league comeback after spending 1954 with Indianapolis. Dave Philley, currently a holdout, played in 133 games last season, so can't be counted out.

At first base Vic Wertz is No. 1 as expected but Dale Mitchell, previously an outfielder, makes a bid along with Altobelli.

Al Rosen at third and George Strickland at shortstop appear secure. The same is true of Bobby Avila at second when he signs.

The outfield is filled with talent so an interesting battle develops. Home run hitter Ralph Kiner, acquired from the Cubs after 1954, probably has the hardest fight of his career for a regular job.

Larry Doby in center and Al Smith in an adjacent field appear well assured. But fighting for the other spot along with Kiner are the rookie Colavito, veterans Dave Pope and Wally Westlake plus Harry Simpson, trying for a big league comeback after spending 1954 with Indianapolis. Dave Philley, currently a holdout, played in 133 games last season, so can't be counted out.

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—You think you were surprised to hear that a fellow named Mayo Smith had been hired out of the minor leagues to manage the Phillies? Then how do you think Smith felt?

He's practically covered with welts from pinching himself. "It came right out of the blue," says the former outfielder, whose entire big league career was squeezed into a brief season with the Athletics in 1945. "Until I got that phone call from Roy Hamey (Phillie general manager) I had no more reason to think I might be managing this club now than you had."

"I wasn't even in the Phils farm system. All I knew about this team was from reading the box scores—the same as I knew about all the other teams. That's really all I know about it now, or will know until we have played some exhibition games."

"I know that we finished fourth last year, and that the team was short on power to go with its good pitching. It was shut out 16 times, five times by the Giants at the Polo Grounds. Such things as that I've picked up just by reading. I expect to learn a lot more as we go along."

If the 40-year-old Missouri native sounds engaging, he is. He is a trim figure in a uniform and his smile is quick and friendly. One senses that he realizes fully the stern nature of the task confronting him—trying to make something of a club which has wrung out three managers in as many seasons.

The most important step Smith has taken to now is in advising Granny Hamner that he can quit playing second base, where he was less than happy, and go back to playing shortstop, where he is one of the real good ones.

"That was one thing I had to get straight before I agreed to take the job," Smith said. "He may say that I would be the boss, and that if I wanted Hamner at shortstop, that's where he would play. That was all I needed to know."

One is free to gather from this that Smith is a rather strong-minded individual, who was not too awed at the chance of piloting a big league club to lay down a condition. We have an idea he's going to do all right.

Major League Clubs Open Exhibition Contests Today

By LARRY MERCHANT

With opening day only a month away, 14 major league teams move into the Grapefruit and Cactus League phase of baseball's spring training today.

Seven exhibition games are on order, including one after-dinner affair between Brooklyn and Milwaukee at Miami. Five other operators are scheduled in Florida: New York Yankees vs. St. Louis Cardinals; Washington Senators vs. Boston Red Sox; Cincinnati Redlegs vs. Chicago White Sox; Detroit Tigers vs. Philadelphia Phillies and Kansas City A's vs. Pittsburgh Pirates.

In the three-team Cactus League, the American League champion Cleveland Indians play the Chicago Cubs at Tucson, Ariz. The world champion New York Giants cool their spikes until tomorrow when they launch their exhibition schedule where they left off in October—against the Indians.

Baltimore, which switched training bases from Arizona to Florida this year, is also idle. The Orioles open with Cincinnati tomorrow.

Some managers will start "experimental" lineups for the inaugurals but most pilots are leading with their ace.

Casey Stengel, starting his seventh season at the Yankee helm, wants a fast look-see at his Baltimore import Bullet Bob Turley.

Turley, who came to the Yanks in that big winter deal, will pitch the first three innings against rookie Larry Jackson of the Cardinals.

Managers Chuck Dressen of Washington and Pinky Higgins of Boston are going with a couple of fastballing right-handers, Bob Porterfield and Frank Sullivan. Yearlings Al Schroll and Al Curtis will follow the 6-7 Sullivan to the mound for Boston.

Three rookies will toll for Detroit as Bucky Harris takes charge of the Tigers for the first time. Opposing them for the Phillies will be the big guy himself, Robin Roberts.

Bob Garver, 19-4 with Denver in 1954, has been given the first three-inning job for Pittsburgh by Fred Haney. Lou Boudreau, another of the managers with new teams, will counter with Marlon Fricano, Carl Duser and Bill Oster.

Towering Gene Conley has drawn the starting assignment for Milwaukee and rookie Ed Roebuck, with a highly touted fast ball, for Brooklyn.

Mike Garcia is Al Lopez' choice to start things off for Cleveland against rookie Joe Stanka for Stan Hack's Cubs.

Virgil Trucks (19-12) will be the first of three White Sox pitchers for Marty Marion. Art Fowler (12-10) has the nod for Birdie Tebbetts' Redjags.

NATURALIZATION COURT GOES TO LADY
NORTHFIELD, N.J. — The four-man Atlantic County Naturalization Court traveled 15 miles from the county seat at Mays Landing to administer the oath of citizenship to a chipper, bedridden old lady, Mrs. Daisy Lovelady Lewis, 74, born in England, is paralyzed in the right side and could not go to court.

Gov. Collins Gets Kingsize Seal

Buddy Hunter, 10 year old Perry youth, is shown presenting a kingsize Easter Seal to Governor LeRoy Collins at the Governor's Mansion in Tallahassee to open the annual appeal of the Florida Society for Crippled Children. Buddy, a victim of Perthes disease, was confined in bed for two years during the past five, but now is attending school and playing cowboy in spite of crutches and a sling to hold up one foot. He is a patient of the Florida Crippled Children's Commission which referred him for home treatment to the Easter Seal Society's Mobile Therapy Unit currently operating in the Perry area, providing a practical demonstration of cooperation between state and voluntary agencies.

Governor Collins, who is honorary president of the Florida Society for Crippled Children, autographed the Easter Seal and gave it to Buddy as a keepsake.

America Relying On Allies Economy, McCloy Tells Group

WASHINGTON — John J. McCloy, board chairman of the Chase National Bank, said today the United States is becoming economically more dependent on its allies "as the free world grows stronger."

McCloy, former U.S. high commissioner for Germany, told the Senate Banking Committee this trend works the other way too—that other Western countries increasingly need the support of the American economy.

The committee, headed by Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.), called McCloy and Marriner S. Eccles, former Federal Reserve Board chairman, as today's witnesses in its week-old "friendly study" of the recently sign-sagging stock market.

Share prices dropped sharply on the New York exchange for the second day yesterday although a fairly broad recovery followed.

Fulbright stood by his contention that the Senate inquiry didn't cause the price break.

Merry 20 Club Has Routine Meet

The Merry 20 Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Bernice Jones, No. 14 William Clark Court. Plans were made for the club to attend the 10th anniversary of the ACL Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Mt. Zion Church on Peach Ave.

The meeting was adjourned and Mrs. Jones served refreshments.

Career Military Servicemen Pay Boost Approval Predicted

WASHINGTON — Two key Democrats predicted the House will approve today President Eisenhower's program to boost the pay of career military servicemen from 6 to 25 per cent.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee and Rep. Kilgus (D-Tex.), a senior member, said they had heard of no important opposition. The measure would add 745 million dollars to the annual five-billion-dollar military payroll.

A House vote is expected in late afternoon. The Senate has not acted.

The measure calls for an average increase of 11.9 per cent for enlisted men and warrant officers with over two years' service and officers with over three years' duty. An estimated two million men would be due to raises on the first of the month after the President signs the bill.

An Army private with over three years' service would get an added $7.80 per month, or $101.40; a first lieutenant with over three years' duty would get $61.23 for $335.40 monthly; a brigadier general with over 22 years' service would be jumped $49.92 to $855.20 monthly.

No increases are provided for men with less service. Administration spokesmen said the main purpose is to encourage trained men to make a career of military service.

Vacancies Open For U. S. Women In Marine Corps

Vacancies for qualified women are still open in the United States Marine Corps according to Major W. F. Lane, Officer in Charge of Leatherneck recruiting in Florida.

An attractive career for women eighteen to thirty, inclusive, is offered high school graduates who like to travel, meet new friends and learn valuable skills. Such interesting places as San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego on the west coast are among the cities where Women Marines serve. Other stateside cities include Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Washington, D. C. and the Florida cities of Miami and Jacksonville, to name a few.

Overseas, Women Marines are filling billets in Hawaii and many of the European capitals. Travel opportunities such as these are commonplace to Women Marines and provide that "once in a lifetime" thrill that usually only the very rich can afford, the Major said. Money is no problem, either. The Corps picks up the tab for all living expenses and provides complete wardrobe as well. In addition, Women Marines receive the same pay and allowances as their male counterparts, the recruiting officer emphasized.

However, the big carryback to civilian life is the skill the Women Marine acquires while in the service. These skills are in great demand in civilian life and pay high wages, especially to women who have a background of training and service with the United States Marine Corps, Major Lane concluded. For further information regarding enlistment, call or visit your Leatherneck recruiter at Federal Office Bldg., Orlando, Fla.

U. S. Economic Aid May Receive Boost

WASHINGTON — The Eisenhower administration was reported today planning to ask Congress for $1,500,000,000 to step up by about a fifth the rate of American economic aid to the Communist-threatened Far East.

This sum—some 200 million dollars more than Congress provided last year—would go to buy raw materials, food and equipment for the war-torn nations during the year beginning July 1.

Any proposal to increase economic aid is subject to Senate approval in Congress.

Foreign Aid Director Harold G. Moore plans to talk over the aid bill with Senate leaders before it goes to the Senate, where it is expected to pass.

Mrs. Rickett is a passenger on the freighter Pine Tree Mariner of the Far East Pacific Lines. It is taking on supplies here and leaves tomorrow.

Collins Names Two Men To Barbers Commission

TALLAHASSEE (P) — Gov. Collins named two new members of the Barbers Sanitary Commission and said he expected the new board to look into reported sale of barbers licenses.

The new members are Green H. Ashmore of Miami and Jack Carter of Orlando. He will make another appointment later to replace C. R. Rankin of Monticello.

DR. HARRY JESSOP will be the guest speaker at the Sunday morning service of the Church of the Nazarene. He will also be heard at a special afternoon union service of the Free Methodist Church of Sanford, the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Painesville, and the Lake Mary Nazarene Church. The Rev. Robert Spear Jr., pastor of the hostess church, has invited the public to attend these services.

Ashmore was named to replace Joe L. Smith of Miami who was removed by Collins yesterday after a hearing, and Carter was appointed to succeed A. L. Dickinson of Orlando who resigned.

At the hearing, Smith said he had evidence and was willing to present it to a grand jury that a Miami "racketeer" had been selling barbers licenses.

Collins said he was not ready now to ask a grand jury indictment but added:

"I shall expect the new board to obtain advice from the attorney general's office as to what remedial and corrective steps should be taken."

Answering a question by Collins as to what he had done about alleged sale of barbers licenses, Smith said he and Dickinson had gone to Atty. Gen. Ervin and requested an investigation. He said Ervin advised against it because "it would plaster the papers and blast the administration" of former Acting Gov. Johns.

Ervin said in Miami that "nothing like that happened."

"He (Smith) and another board member did come to me for legal advice on a purely internal matter in their board, their belief that a secretary was wielding too much power. I did suggest that they take their problems to the governor as I believe he would straighten it out," the attorney general said.

"But they said nothing about the gross irregularities now charged. Had they mentioned that, I definitely would not have counseled against an investigation."

City Board Okays Zoning Variance For Dr. Saunders

The City Board of Adjustment, at a public hearing yesterday, granted the request of Dr. Frank K. Saunders for zoning variance.

The board gave Dr. Saunders permission to use not more than 50 per cent of the ground floor area of his residence at 201 E. 12th St. for an office.

The variance is effective for the term of his lease or for three years, whichever is the lesser time.

In other action, the board approved the request of Nina Black for permission to construct a building at 1003 Bay Ave. The property is owned by Hattie L. Reed, of New York City.

The board denied the application of Clyde M. Beers, 448 N. Rhine St., Orlando, who asked to be permitted to build a duplex house on the southwest corner of 23rd St. and Sanford Ave.

Deferred until the next meeting was the application of Otto Borsdorf and his son, Robert, for permission to start a nursery at 2537 Palmetto Ave. for the sale of plants and flowers.

BOY FOUND DEAD
AFTER LEAVING HOME
BACINE, Wis. (AP) — A 13-year-old boy was found dead yesterday on the rocky shore of Lake Michigan, Keweenaw County Coroner William Raven said. Richard Benz Jr., apparently fell into the lake and drowned.

The weather bureau said they were heading east.

Violent winds demolished a school in New Philadelphia, Ohio, and knocked over a signboard that fatally crushed a woman in Resh, Pa.

A severe power line in Union City, Ind., started a fire that swept through a business block. Winds up to 30 miles an hour uprooted trees, blew roofs off homes and farm buildings, overturned parked semitrailers in Connersville, Ind., blew a freight car off the tracks. A 150-foot television tower was snapped off in Pittsburg.

The weather bureau said severe thunderstorms, high winds and possibly hail were expected today in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island and New Hampshire.

Old Icebox Takes Lives Of 2 Youths

BOWDON, Ga. — Two small children, playing hide-and-seek, smothered to death near here yesterday when they were trapped in a discarded icebox.

Donnie Richey Balesgar, 4, and his sister, Gwendolyn Faye, 3, were playing with their 3-year-old sister Carolyn Lyons, when the tragedy occurred.

The youngsters were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Richey Balesgar of Bowdon, Ala., a small town about four miles west of Bowdon.

Mrs. Balesgar said the two old children apparently crawled into the icebox which was located in a back yard. She said she discovered the bodies when "something" told her to look in the abandoned box.

County's Schools Offer Cooperation For Polio Vaccine

Full cooperation with health officials in planning for possible polio vaccinations in Seminole County, elementary schools was pledged today by R. T. Milwee, superintendent of schools, following a meeting with Dr. Terry Bird, county Health Officer or physician in charge.

"If the Salk polio vaccine is found effective and is licensed, we will be prepared immediately to start vaccinating 1750 children in the first and second grades of every public, private and parochial school in Seminole County," said Milwee.

The vaccine will be furnished to Health Departments by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis without cost for the product. It will be part of a $3,000,000 supply purchased with March of Dimes funds.

"The size of this job and the need for advance preparation can be realized when you consider that this involves 32 classes in 14 public schools throughout our county," Milwee continued. "Some of these classes are in small schools and children may have to be transported to clinics held in bigger schools."

A polio vaccine program of this size is a challenge principals and teachers are eager to meet because it presents an opportunity for widespread health education."

Milwee said he has held meetings with principals to discuss with them details of the program. All plans must be finished in advance of the possible starting date for vaccinations.

No eligible children will receive vaccine unless their parents first sign a form requesting it. These forms will be distributed through the schools during the third week of March.

Soviet Government Publicly Admits Shortage Of Food

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government, openly admitting food shortages, today ordered its farm system revamped to give the man on the land more chance for initiative in crop planning.

At the same time state farm managers were warned they will be held strictly accountable for any failure to meet production quotas.

The decree, signed by Communist party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin, aimed at decentralization of planning which the upper echelons have hitherto controlled.

It was seen as another attempt to use the private profit incentive, which Khrushchev has been pushing over the past year to prod Russia's lagging livestock production.

The new directive told collective state farms and machine and tractor stations to use their own judgment. This apparently would end the old system of faraway bureaucrats overriding the man on the scene and ordering him to grow crops he feels are not suitable.

"Serious shortcomings and mistakes have been observed in the practice of agriculture," the decree said.

But despite the recent on local enterprise, the new minister of state farms, Ivan A. Benediktov, in a separate announcement warned state farm managers they must meet production quotas or face public reprimand or dismissal.

Southern Bell Pays Large Income Tax

One of the largest tax-payment checks received by the State of Florida in payment of public utilities taxes was delivered to the State Treasurer today from the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The payment totaled $225,117.79 and was delivered by Southern Bell Representative Don Rickitt to M. C. O'Berry, Gasoline, Automobile, Transportation and Utilities Tax Representative.

Southern Bell is one of Florida's largest taxpayers. Today's check, for an estimated $3,100,000 to be made by Southern Bell to the state of Florida and its counties and cities for the year, exclusive of income, social security, and estate tax payments to the Federal Government.

Take another example: Joe Jones went to see his broker. Jones had his eye on a certain blue-ribbon industrial stock. He had so much faith in this stock that he wanted to buy as much of it as he possibly could.

If he paid cash for it, he would only be able to buy three shares. But by buying on margin like making a down payment on a refrigerator, the rest to be paid later he could get 100 to five shares.

"A month ago, before the Fed raised the margin requirement from 30 to 60 per cent, you could have bought six shares on margin for the same money," Jones' broker told him.

Or maybe you are a housewife like Mrs. James Johnson, who had wanted a new living room sofa for several years. Mrs. Johnson favored saving up the money, so they could pay cash and save interest and handling charges. Mr. Johnson wanted to buy the furniture when they had about half the cost saved up. Unnecessary Costs Seen In Old Age Law

ORLANDO (P) — The absence of a lien and recovery provision in the old age assistance law makes Florida's welfare program unnecessarily costly, says Chairman Charles O. Andrews Jr. of the State Welfare Department.

Reporting on a survey of 31 states having a lien law, he said those states have millions of dollars more available for persons in need of help because of removal of non-essential recipients from the rolls and recovery of part of the money spent on aid.

Andrews said he made the survey to answer criticism of a proposed amendment by State Rep. Harry Gleaton of Citrus County. The amendment would give the department a lien against property of recipients and enable the state to recover all or parts of amounts paid in old age assistance grants after prior claims were settled.

Gleaton struck at a contention that the amendment would save the state money and force the children of parents on welfare to support them. "In a very few cases this might be true," he said. "But in most cases the children have their own families to look after and this plan would not be practical."

Furthermore, it would be unfair because a person not owning any property could draw as much assistance as a property owner and not have to pay anything back at all."

Andrews said welfare directors of 36 non-law states made these comments:

South Dakota: "We estimate that our caseload would be about one-third larger if we had no lien law. The law is generally accepted by the old people as something they can pay in part and have some pride in the fact they are helping themselves."

Montana: "The lien law discourages persons from applying for assistance who have adequate resources and prevents children from profiting as heirs through their failure to support their parents."

First Lady's Health Controversy Indicates Republicans Want Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political squabbling over the state of the First Lady's health pointed up today that many Republicans want President Eisenhower to run in 1956 while some Democrats may hope he won't.

Republicans attacked and Democrats defended the latest statement yesterday by Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler on an issue that exploded in Congress with GOP cries of "smear" and "accusation."

Butler said there had been "published reports... Mrs. Eisenhower has not been in robust health, that her strength has been taxed by her official duties and that her mother does not want her to live in the White House for another four years."

Butler said that "if these reports are true, I would think they would exert some influence on her husband" when he decides whether he will seek a second term.

Sen. Bridges (R-Mt.) said Butler's statement "shows clearly that Mr. Butler and his party don't want the President to be a candidate because they think he will win and the wish is father to the thought he won't run."

Sen. Kuchel (R-Calif.) said in a separate interview that vicious GOP reaction in the Senate and House yesterday to Butler's suggestion demonstrated Republicans believe Eisenhower would be re-elected "and they want him to be a candidate."

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) said he found "nothing insulting" in Butler's statement.

"I doubt if the whole incident has much significance," he said. "Heaven knows we all hope the President and all of the members of his family enjoy the rest of their lives."

Eisenhower himself went to Walter Reed Army Hospital yesterday to begin a new series of treatments for bursitis in his right shoulder which has troubled him occasionally for years. Mrs. Eisenhower was reported "much improved" in a bout with a cold or mild influenza. Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said that except for that attack, her health is fine.

Defend Without America

Papers Report Maneuvers Held

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Chiang Kai-shek's Chinese Nationalists are determined to fight for their off-shore islands, Quemoy and Matsu, with or without American support, Premier O. K. Yu asserted today.

Nationalist determination to defend the islands is all the more certain, the Premier told the Legislative Yuan Parliament in reply to questions.

Two newspapers reported with out confirmation that units of the U. S. 7th Fleet and the Nationalist navy had conducted maneuvers March 4-10 off Formosa.

The report said the combined fleets equaled the great armada which evacuated Nationalist forces from the Tachen Islands last month.

As Yui spoke, fresh warnings were issued of danger of air attacks against Formosa. The Reds are reported moving air strength southward and building a huge air base at Luchuan, 230 miles north of Formosa in Chekiang province.

Yui said the Nationalists have proved their determination to do for Quemoy and Matsu since last Sept. 3, the day the Reds poured 8,000 shells into Quemoy, killing two American officers in the harbor.

Yui said that since then the Nationalists have shelled the island 120 miles west of Formosa, had retailed shell for shell.

"Our determination to continue hitting back," he said, "has not changed and will not change."

The renewed warning against possible air raids was followed by a statement by Mayor Kan Yu-shu that Taipei's shelters would accommodate only 200,000. He suggested that some 300,000 old people, women and children be placed as non-essential and moved out of the city.

Cooperation Need Reported To Place Burden On Florida

TALLAHASSEE (P) — Gov. Collins has been told that lack of cooperation of centralized administration was placing an undue financial burden on the state.

The report was made yesterday by a citizens committee which has been looking into public health problems.

The committee recommended that there be a well organized and centralized administration for such institutions as the mental hospitals, the tuberculosis hospitals, and farm colony and the Crippled Children's Commission, Council for the Blind and the vocational rehabilitation division.

Reporting that per capita expenditures for public health had been declining in Florida since 1930, the committee urged the Legislature to reappropriate expenditure of state funds for all services in the light of their relative importance.
