Smooth Young Men Worked People For Big Sum

CAPTURED AT WINTER GARDEN

They Are Said To Have Fleeced Putnam County People Out Of Ten Thousand Dollars

Marshall and Cozart, two apparently high toned young men, operating a fraudulent bond scheme, were arrested at Winter Garden Monday night by Sheriff Kirkwood and Deputy Benny Lawton, assisted by Sheriff R. L. Kennedy of Putnam county, to whom the prisoners were given to be returned to that county, where the warrant for their arrest was issued.

Sheriff Kennedy arrived in Orlando Monday and placed the warrant in the hands of Sheriff Kirkwood. Information having been received that the young men wanted were in Winter Garden, the party proceeded to that place Monday night, and were passed on the way by the parties wanted, who in company with some young ladies, were returning from the show in Orlando. The young ladies were taken to their homes, and Cozart was arrested in his auto on his way to the hotel, where Marshall was found and placed under arrest.

The warrant charged the young men with operating a fraudulent interest-bearing bond scheme, having defrauded several parties in Putnam county out of large sums.

According to Sheriff Kennedy a few citizens of Crescent City had been relieved of $10,000 in cold cash by these men since some time in October. One man had been a victim to the amount of $4,000, while others invested in smaller sums.

Mrs. Hammond, who resides in the western part of Orange county, was induced to give her check for $3,000 for some of these bonds, on last Saturday, but it was too late for them to get it cashed. Sunday she was telling her friends of her investment, and the matter getting to the ear of the bank cashier, she was advised to stop on payment the check, which she promptly did and saved her three thousand dollars.

It is not known whether other parties in this county were fleeced or not, and the smooth young men were taken to Palatka Monday night by Sheriff Kennedy.

The Sheriff stated that while the men were operating in Crescent City, they purchased a new Cadillac car, and were living in great style. They gave their check for the car, but it was returned. After the warrant was issued $3,475 of their money was garnished in the Crescent City Bank. They are also wanted in Birmingham on the same charge, but the Putnam county authorities will not give them up till they have been tried here.—Reporter-Star.

For Alderman

To the voters of Sanford, Fla.: At the solicitation of numerous friends and citizens, I have consented to become a candidate for councilman at the coming election. Have been a citizen of Sanford for over twenty-five years and have always refused office heretofore. If elected will try and do my duty to the whole people, without favor.

C. C. WOODRUFF.

Preparations are being made in Arcadia for the establishment of a canning factory to be located in that town. One of the proprietors of a like establishment that is now in operation at Brooksville has been in Arcadia looking over the ground. He made a proposition to the local business men to organize a stock company, one-half of the stock of which he offered to take himself provided the citizens would take the balance. A committee is now at work getting up subscriptions to the stock, and is meeting with success.

Notice to Telephone Subscribers

On December 1st, 1912, the following rates will take effect, applying to all telephones in the city limits only: Business private line per month $2.50 Residence private line per month 2.00 Business party line per month 3.50 Residence party line per month 1.50 Desk set instrument 25c per month extra Extension sets wall type 1.00 per month extra. Extension sets desk type 1.25 per month extra. Installation charge made on every new phone installed 3.00. This amount is deducted at the end of the year, provided the phone is not discontinued within that time.

A special rate of four winter service of four months will be made as follows: Business phone, $12.00 in advance; residence phone, $10.00 in advance.

These rates represent an advance over the present ones of only 50 cents per month. This company has been furnishing telephone service at a lower rate than any company in Florida. On account of the necessary heavy expenditures of installing underground cables and making our system metallic this advance is absolutely necessary to meet our operating expenses.

Our subscribers are now receiving the use of nearly 500 phones and the rate charged in other cities of the size of Sanford is usually $4.00 for business and $2.50 for residences.

The new rate still gives a $1.50 respite to those who will use a two party line.

Any subscriber desiring to change their service from private to party are requested to notify us at once so that arrangements can be made.

SIXTY-SECOND IS MEMORIAL

Congress Meets Today For the Short Term Session

Many of the Old Guard Will Bid Farewell to Colleagues and Retire From the Capitol

Washington, Dec. 2.—Congress met promptly at noon with crowded galleries looking down on the animated scenes below. Speaker Clark of the House and Senator Bacon of the Senate, rapped the respective bodies to order.

The Senate adjourned after twenty-two minutes, in memory of Vice President Sherman, and Senators Heyburn and Rayner. The House met for an hour and ten minutes, and also adjourned on account of the death of several members.

While the present session is merely the expiring stage of a Congress soon to go out of existence and to be superseded in political control and policy after Mar. 4, yet today's session in the Senate and House bring together for the first time since the recent overturning those leaders and elements of the various parties who have been most prominent in public affairs. The old faces and figures are again in evidence today, although some of them, like ex-Speaker Cannon, will soon pass off the Congressional stage, while others, like Speaker Clarke and Chairman Underwood have had their tenures renewed and strengthened.

As a whole, however, the dominant note as both branches of Congress assemble is that new conditions, new policies and new men have been ushered in as a result of the recent election and that about the only function of the present short session, lasting until March 4, is to pass annual supply bills and wind up what remains of the old regime.

In the Senate, Vice President Sherman has been removed by death, from the presiding officer's chair, which will be temporarily filled by Senators Bacon of Georgia, and Gallinger of New Hampshire alternating. The Republican control of the Senate with about fifty votes as against the present Democratic strength of about forty-two, will continue until March 4, although this control is conditioned largely by the presence of two elements, regular and progressive, in the Republican total of fifty. Senators Heyburn of Idaho and Rayner of Maryland, have died since the last session closed, but in other respects the personnel continues unchanged since WW personnel continues unchanged until March 4.

In the House Speaker Clark and the various chairmen of the two preceding sessions continue to direct affairs, with a total Democratic vote of 230, giving a Democratic majority of about thirty-three.

The personal aspect was very pronounced as the session began today, the air of Democratic victory pervading the capitol from end to end. Scores of men whose names have been prominently identified with affairs of Congress for many years, and who have shaped politics and legislation, faced their last three months of service as the session opened.

In this notable company were the deans of House and Senate; "Uncle Joe" Cannon, former speaker, and center of many turbulent sessions of the House; and Senator Shelby H. Cullom, for thirty years a Senator from Illinois, a personal friend and contemporary of Lincoln, and who was elected to his first term in the National House of Representatives in 1855.

There's A Difference

A man will bum around a saloon for five hours and spend $10.75 for booze and cigars and never imagine for a moment that he has a right to manage the place. But he will spend a nickel for a newspaper with the firm belief that the purchase gives him the right to dictate the policy of the sheet.—Gainesville Sun.

Play Postponed

On account of continued illness, Mrs. J. W. Barnes has decided to postpone the play, "The Union Depot for a Day," until after the holidays. Notice will be given when the rehearsals are resumed.

COUNTY DIVISION COMMITTEE

Chairman Forster Makes His Appearances for Firing Line

The question of county division was set several notches ahead when Chairman Frank P. Forster, of the committee of 100, announced his selection of an executive board and sub-committees. Considerable discussion hinged on the selecting of an official statistician, whose function it will be to gather authenticated statistics relating to the material development of the area which will be comprehended in the new county, it finally being the unanimous opinion and decision of the executive board that this most important function should be bestowed upon Mr. H. C. DuBose, a thorough and expert accountant.

The executive board is composed of Hon. D. L. Thrasher, chairman, who is also vice chairman of the committee of 100; L. R. Phillips, S. O. Chase, L. P. McCuller and G. W. Spencer, the latter being the present mayor of the city of Sanford. The personnel of the committee on county lines is Hon. Thomas Emmet Wilson, chairman; M. F. Robinson, E. E. Brady, R. H. Marks and C. R. Walker. The committee on petitions is composed of Henry McLaulin, chairman; C. H. Leffler, Geo. A. DeCottes, D. A. Caldwell and Felix Frank. The committee on finance is composed of A. T. Rossetter, chairman, W. W. Agernathy, N. H. Garner, W. J. Hill and C. H. Dingee. The committee on transportation is composed of H. R. Stevens, chairman; W. J. Thigpen, L. A. Brumley, Julius Takach, J. R. Holland, John Meisch, J. H. Overman, Roy Symes and R. J. Holly.

Mr. B. P. Whitner was made financial secretary and Thomas K. Bates was made secretary to the committee of one hundred.—Times-Union.

At the Imperial

Mazo & Marion, the act appearing at the Imperial the first half of this week was successful in entertaining a large crowd of people last evening. Prof. Waza does some sleight of hand tricks that are above the average and his comedy is funny in the extreme. He is assisted in presenting a first class act by Miss Marion, who sings several new songs in a pleasing way. The act is different each night.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday a new act will appear at the Imperial. Miss Victoria Powell, the English Comedienne and quick change artist will give the patrons of the house something new in Vaudeville. Her act is said to be a big hit everywhere.

The voting contest goes merrily on and votes are still piling up. Every evening just before 7 o'clock the front of the Imperial has the look of a real voting place and the girls and boys are in position and soliciting votes for their favorites. Next Friday and next Monday all votes will count double. Be sure to get votes on those days as each vote is then worth as much as two on any other day. Girls having credit for 250 or more votes will find their standing by referring to the following list:

Auction Bridge

Mrs. B. W. Herndon was hostess of the Auction Bridge Club Monday afternoon. Two tables of bridge were played. Mrs. O. W. Brady made the highest score, and won the pretty prize, a bronze wall vase. When the games of cards were concluded lobster salad, crackers, cheese balls and coffee were served. Mrs. Herndon's guests were Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin, Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mrs. A. P. Conrilly, Mrs. Forrest Lake, Mrs. F. J. Gonzales, Mrs. T. A. Neal, Mrs. Robert Newman.

Gov. Gilchrist has called a special election to be held in Gadsden county on the 31st of December to elect a senator to fill the vacancy made by the death of Hon. James E. Broome.

THE LODGE OF SORROW

Elks Held Annual Memorial Services on Sunday

ABSENT BROTHER IS HONORED

Interesting Program by Sanford Elks Was Greatly Appreciated by Many Visitors

The Elks of Sanford most fittingly observed their Memorial Day of Lodge of Sorrow last Sabbath in the Imperial Theatre, it being the first Sunday in December, a day held sacred by the members of the order in memory of their absent brothers.

The Imperial Theatre had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, a bank of ferns and potted plants flanked the base of the proscenium and the rear of the stage was covered with the club colors, purple and white from the centre of which purple and white streamers radiated to the corners of the stage, the whole effect from the auditorium being most striking and when the lights were off and the star of hope gleamed brightly from the centre of the stage the picture was complete.

Special music had been arranged for the occasion and while the audience assembled Miss Madge Ward softly played a voluntary piano solo. When all had been seated Exalted Ruler, E. E. Rowland arose and in few well chosen words explained the Memorial Day observance and calling the Elks to order executed the ritual work.

The roll call by the secretary, O. L. Taylor, calling for the absent brother, W. D. Holden, was one of the most impressive moments of the occasion and was followed by a beautiful solo, "O, Dry Those Tears," by Miss L. Josephine Dameron, while the lodge remained standing.

Rev. Langley invoked the divine blessing upon the members and their benevolent spirit and fraternity, and most fittingly followed a duet, "Fraternity" by Messrs. Polk and Woodruff.

Thanatopsis was to have been read by Mrs. J. W. Barnes but illness prevented her attendance and after the able rendition of "No Shadows Yonder" by Miss Dameron, Miss Stumon and Messrs. Polk and Murrell, the eulogy was delivered by Hon. Geo. A. DeCottes.

At all times a fluent speaker, Mr. DeCottes was at his best at the memorial exercises and his address was one of the best ever delivered here upon any occasion, and the eulogy on "Our Absent Brother" gave a clear and concise revelation of the sacred memorial of the Elks and their fraternal spirit that is manifested in every corner of the civilized world. Mr. DeCottes also gave a brief sketch of the life and labors of the late W. D. Holden, whose likeness in a life size portrait was displayed at one corner of the stage.

"The faults of our brothers we write upon the sand, Their virtues on the tablets of love and memory."

At the close of the address the entire audience arose and sang, "Blest be the tie that binds."

Hon. Cromwell Gibbons of Jacksonville was to have made an address on "Elkdom," but owing to illness in his family he could not be present and at the last moment Rev. D. J. Blocker of DeLand volunteered to fill out the program. Being called upon and unprepared and not a member of the Elks would have dismayed the majority of men but Rev. Blocker was equal to the occasion and gave an appreciated address on Friendship, Love and Benevolence and outlined his conception of fraternity and the power for good in the mottoes of all orders.

The male quartette, composed of Messrs. Polk, Woodruff, Moore and Murrell followed with the selection, "Where the Sun Will Never Go Down" and their rendition was highly commendable.

The ritual work of the lodge followed and after the song, "Auld Lang Syne" by the audience standing and the benediction by Rev. J. D. Langley the second Memorial Day of Sanford Lodge of Elks passed into history.

Officers of Sanford Lodge No. 1241 B. P. O. E. are as follows: E. E. Rowland, Exalted Ruler; S. Runge, Esteemed Leading Knight.

BALLOONIST DASHED TO DEATH

Ostrich Farm at Jacksonville Scene of Fatal Parachute Jump

Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 2.—Richard Frayne, aeronaut, twenty-five years of age, a member of the firm of Frayne & Crosby, Balloon Company of Boston, was dashed to death late Sunday afternoon, in the presence of fully 8,000 persons, who had gathered at the Tri-County Fair, being held at the Ostrich Farm. Frayne and his companion, Jack Crosby, started on their ascension at 4 o'clock this afternoon amid the cheers from thousands of throats.

Crosby says that when about 2,000 feet up and when he was ready to cut loose, he noticed that Frayne did not have his hands through his wristlets and warned him. When Crosby had started on his drop he was surprised to see Frayne's body shoot past him and fall to earth. His parachute opened, but the jerk threw from the ropes. The unfortunate man fell in the main driveway of Evergreen Cemetery, near the Ostrich Farm, every bone in his body being broken.

Book Lovers Club

Mrs. C. H. Dingee was hostess of the Book Lovers Club Friday afternoon at her charming home on Sanford Heights. The guests were entertained at a very delightful Salmagundi Party. Five progressive tables were played. The first prize, a handsome silver deposit vinegar bottle was won by Mrs. M. E. Symes; Mrs. N. J. Perkins received the booby prize, a game of "Old Maids." After the conclusion of the pleasant games chicken salad, saltines and coffee were served. Mrs. Dingee's guests were Mrs. Henry McLaulin, Mrs. Luke, Mrs. Deane Turner, Mrs. F. L. Woodruff, Mrs. N. J. Perkins, Mrs. J. W. Brady, Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mrs. R. E. Tolar, Mrs. C. F. Polk, Mrs. R. H. Marks, Mrs. C. C. Woodruff, Mrs. E. B. Brown, Mrs. B. A. Howard, Mrs. M. E. Symes, Mrs. J. C. Bennett.

Camping Party

Mrs. W. T. Deane, accompanied by her sons, Tenney and Robert, Misses Alice Caldwell, Alice, Lucy and Annie Whitner, with Ned Chittenden, were a pleasant party who spent Thanksgiving at Lake Jessup, in the enjoyment of camp life for a short while. They returned Friday noon and report a fine time.

Tallahassee is to have another bank. C. F. Mizelle will organize the new institution which will have a capital stock of $50,000.

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks is American in every principle and practice, and illustrates every great American doctrine. All members are equal within the portals of an Elk Lodge, and there are no ranks and titles, differing only as they may excel each other in doing good in silence and without parade. All Elks are equal, rich and poor, learned and poorly educated, famous or otherwise, alike. One of the grand aims of the order is to teach men how to live, that they may enjoy all the good things of life without abuse, and under proper restraint, curbing excess and selfishness. Manly hearts and honest records are the only requisites for admission to membership. Its ranks are the most widely representative, and the candidates have to meet no test of class, creed or calling. Possessed of those qualities that enable a man to make the world better for his having been in it. All men are welcome as brother Elks, and the nobler side of their nature encouraged, with the high aim, as has been expressed, to make its members better sons, kinder brothers, better husbands, more useful citizens and neighbors.

THE RIVERS AND HARBORS

Appropriations Will Be Passed at This Session

FLORIDA WILL RECEIVE A SHARE

St. Johns River Will Be Remembered to the Beautiful Tune of $761,800.

Estimates aggregating $56,766,992 for improvements to river and harbor works throughout the country during the next fiscal year were submitted to Congress today in the annual report of Gen. William H. Bixby, chief of engineers of the army. The sum is $16,311,373 greater than appropriated for the last fiscal year for the same purpose. Of the total $43,829,010, including $250,000 for examinations, surveys and contingencies of rivers and harbors, for which there may be no special appropriation submitted, is to be provided for in the regular river and harbor appropriation bill at this session of congress. Estimates for improvement include the following for Florida: Miami, $145,000; St. Johns river, $761,800; Hillsborough Bay, $200,000; channel from Apalachicola river to St. Andrews Bay, $130,000.

It is stated that the Chicago Cubs will certainly train somewhere in Florida this spring. The two cities under consideration for this project are Tampa and Jacksonville. Charles W. Murphy, the owner of the Chicago Nationals is going to visit Tampa some time next month and will personally look over what that city has to offer in this line. A good diamond with adjoining club quarters are necessary. If the Cubs do come to Florida they will bring twenty-eight to thirty-five players and four or five newspaper correspondents, as well as several magazine writers. In all the party would include from forty to forty-five.

A big new canning factory is being erected at Gonzalez, almost in the suburbs of Pensacola. The building is more than half completed now and part of the machinery has been installed. The promoters of the canning industry expect to begin operations in about ten days. The cannery will handle principally sweet potatoes the first year, and if this experiment proves successful all kinds of vegetables will be handled later.

The first cucumbers of the season from the Everglades, grown on the Davie farm, reached the city yesterday, shipped from Zona by Mrs. C. L. Steele. As they got in in time for the Thanksgiving market they commanded a fancy price, bringing $1.80 a dozen, or at the rate of $10.40 a hamper. A little over five dozen were realized on the first picking from five hills.—Miami Herald.

In Fort Pierce the people are delighted over the completion of the municipal lighting plant. The News of last Friday said that as soon as proper tests were made the lights could be turned on and business begin with the plant. Within two weeks it was expected that everything would be working smoothly.

A new $10,000 firm is to have headquarters in Jacksonville. The firm will be known as the Security Company and will engage in buying, selling, conveying, leasing, mortgaging and general dealing in property, and will also appraise property and sell and control abstracts of titles.

The Volusia growers will get in the neighborhood of a half million dollars for the present crop of oranges, remarks the DeLand Record. "Three-fourths of the crop will be marketed from the west or St. Johns side of the county."

St. Petersburg is soon to have an electric fire alarm system. The city has an excellent fire department with a fine record and now the efficiency of this service is to be greatly increased by installing a fire alarm system.

"The Marion county fair for this year was a magnificent success," says the Ocala Banner. "Thousands of people have been in attendance and the exhibits were numerous and attractive."

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief Is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Preat 'Em— So Says Saunterer.

Many of us miss the joys that might be ours by keeping our eyes on those of other people. No one can enjoy his own opportunities for happiness while he is envious of another.

To make a boy into a pure man, a mother must do more than pray. She must live with him in the sense of comrade and closest friend.

The truest, best and sweetest type of the girl of today does not come from the home of wealth, she steps out from the house where is comfort rather than luxury.

While rather previous in naming the baby before being born I would suggest that Sanford county does not sound good to me. Rather let us have Seminole, Garden, Palmetto, Welaka or Jessup county.

I am glad to see that notice of Mayor Spencer's in the paper calling attention of dog owners to the license that must be paid or the dogs will be shot.

Except in Cairo, Egypt and Rome, Italy, I have never been in a place where there were no many worthless curs running around scattering fleas and a standing menace to children all the time.

I wrote in last week's paper that my friend, C. C. Woodruff is a candidate for the position of alderman and he states in his announcement that having lived here many years and never having the honor of serving the city in any capacity he now comes forward to sacrifice himself.

All jokes aside this position of alderman is a serious one and upon our board of aldermen and mayor the safety, common weal and future of this city depends and every man who lives here and takes an active interest in the city should feel it his duty to serve the city.

And speaking about the gentlemen who have already announced and in advance of those who contemplate announcing I wish to remark that any of them and all of them are able and competent to fill the position. Once a Sanford booster, always a Sanford booster, and there is not a citizen of Sanford today that I could not heartily support for the position.

A NEW TUBER

The Dasheen, Member Of The Caladium Family

J. H. Reese, in writing up an interesting trip to the Hunter demonstration farm on the Kissimmee Prairie in Osceola county, gives the following description of the dasheen:

"The government has sent two experts to the farm to see how the experiment with dasheen had turned out. I shall not enter upon a dasheen disquisition, but would advise all farmers and gardeners to write the Agricultural Department and get some of the tubers for planting.

"The dasheen is of the caladium family; the leaf is very much like that of the foliage plant, a great difference being that the caladium is ornamental while the dasheen is exceedingly useful. We had dasheens for dinner. They were boiled and baked. The dasheen is a tuber and a substitute for the Irish potato.

It possesses a higher food value than the potato and is more digestible; moreover the yield is nearly twice that of the potato. The government is experimenting with the dasheen at Brooksville; one of the experiments there showed a yield of 450 bushels to the acre.

Capt. Hunter expects to increase the area planted to dasheens next year, and with proper attention expects to increase the yield by 50 to 100 per cent. The dasheen is a wonderful vegetable. At the tender age the leaves may be used as a spinach, and they are said to be the only garden greens that surpass spinach in delicacy of flavor.

Uncle Joe Cannon Explains Uncle Joe Cannon told the people of Danville, Ill., a few days ago, how it feels for a great Republican leader to be defeated says the New York World: "Since Hee was a pup" Uncle Joe Cannon has represented the Danville district in the lower house.

"I don't know as there is much for me to say. The voters of the district have spoken and I abide by the result, but when I think of some of those XXXXX it makes me hot under the collar. It isn't so much that they chose to vote against me as the OOOOOOO????? ZZZZ that makes me mad. Why, it is not more than a month ago that I met — and he assured me that he was for me. Tuesday morning he couldn't wait to get to the polls to slash me. But what can you expect of a ZZZZ—

"Three cheers for Uncle Joe!" yelled a man in the back of the crowd. The cheers were given with a will. "If I had been willing to stand for the recall and all the rest of the patent medicine policies I would have been elected," he went on. "I guess I've got too much horse sense for such a lot of ZZZZ —, and I don't give a ZZZZ who knows it. Progressives? Bah! I'd cut my right arm off before I'd vote for any such ZZZZ — as that.

And now, my friends, I want to thank you again for your kindness. You know me. You've been neighbors for 50 or 60 years, and you know that there isn't a ZZZZ — here in Washington or any other place that can point a ZZZZ finger at me.

I've always believed in plain talk. I've no sympathy with the man who hides behind a lot of fancy phrases. My successor has my best wishes, and I hope he steers clear of the ZZZZZ — that slipped it to me. To my many friends throughout the country I am extremely grateful. As for the others, anything they say doesn't bother me a ZZZZZ — bit."

What the Weather Will Do

Higher temperature will overpread the eastern states tomorrow, while considerably colder weather will advance eastward over the middle west Monday, and the eastern and southern states next Tuesday and Wednesday, according to the weather bureau.

"A disturbance, central Sunday over the middle Missouri valley," says the weekly weather bureau's bulletin, "will move east-northeastward and be attended by rains Monday in the region east of the Mississippi valley, the rains continuing Tuesday in the eastern states. Snow is probable in the region of the great lakes and the St. Lawrence Valley Monday and Tuesday.

Another disturbance now off the Pacific coast will move inland about Tuesday, attended by rains in the Pacific coast and rain and snow in the northwest. This disturbance will prevail over the middle west Wednesday or Thursday and the eastern states near the end of the week. Rain in southern and snow or rain in northern districts east of the Rocky mountains and a general reaction to higher temperature will precede and attend this disturbance."

Tribute to His Mother

Claude L'Engle, editor of Dixie and Congressman-elect pays the following beautiful tribute to his departed mother:

"My mother lived in this world a little more than eighty-two years, and those who knew her from childhood have told me that she was good to them. I have known her a little more than half of her life in this world, and she was always good to me. All of her life I have known of her among her neighbors and I know that she never gave or received the unkind word. She had faith in the goodness of God and man; she had hope for the fulfillment of the highest aspirations of the soul; she had charity broad and deep and always awake to the needs of men. The same virtues that made her a joy and comfort to those who knew her in the material world will open to her a limitless sphere of usefulness in the spirit world. To me she was a friend who had faith when others doubted, who had patience when my faults made others leave me, who had sympathy when others were unkind to me, and who had charity when others were weary."

A Postmasters' Primary

Discussion of the proposition to select postmasters by primaries is general in Florida newspapers as well as the others. Many and various are the opinions offered. The Tampa Tribune, after showing what a "party" primary might do and what "patry" primaries would likely have done in the past, particularly in the south, thinks that the plan of a primary "under Democratic administration would probably work out all right if the franchise in such elections were given to all patrons of the postoffice." The Tribune, however, is constrained to say that it believes "the process of selection now in vogue comes nearer being satisfactory than any other," adding that it is extremely difficult for an unworthy, dishonest or incompetent man to obtain for himself an appointment to an important federal position. "In the event of a popular election," declares the Tribune, "such men would sometimes win out, as they have often won out, in elections for other offices within our own range of vision."

AMONG SANFORD FARMERS

What the Growers Are Doing In Various Sections

FLORIDA, A LAND OF VEGETABLES

Fruits, Vegetables, Pecans, Etc., Grow to Perfection In Florida's Sunny Clime

Pecans in Orange County
 Remarkable results in pecan culture have been achieved at Oak Knoll Fruit and Pecan Grove, by the proprietor. In February, 1904, he planted some pecan nuts in his nursery which made rapid growth and in February, 1905, he grafted them to his choice variety of pecans from trees he planted in February, 1887. He transplanted the trees from his nursery to the border of Lake Adelaide near his house in February, 1905. This year, 1912, some of these grafted trees are bearing and from one he has gathered eighty-seven nuts that weighed two pounds and three ounces. He has given them the name of Fogg's Prolific Pecans. Many have become discouraged about starting a pecan grove on account of the long wait before the trees become productive, which was said to be about twenty years. This may be true in some cases, but in my case I have produced bearing trees in less than eight years from planting nuts. My old trees which I planted in 1887 commenced bearing a few nuts at ten years of age, and have been increasing every year since until some of the trees have produced as much as two hundred pounds.

The nuts are of such fine quality and in such demand that my crop is sold each year before they are gathered and I have to turn down many more orders than I can fill. I am writing my experience with pecan trees for the benefit of newcomers to the state. I have neither nuts nor trees to sell at present.

Cabbage is Profitable
 Cabbage are so easily grown in this section and make such large crops to the acre, and at a time when cabbage is scarce at the north, there is no reason why it should not be manufactured here into kraut, as it is done in the fall through out the north, and thus furnish an excellent article fresh when the northern supply is exhausted. That with a pickle factory here, should be profitable under takings. Cucumbers have a long season in this section, grow perfectly, yield abundantly and are easily cared for. Just now all the kraut and pickles consumed in the south are brought from the far north, a foolish waste of money paid out for transportation.

New Kind of Hay
 In the office of the Farm Bureau we have an exhibition a specimen of the recently discovered "red top", the finest stock feed grown on the soil of Florida, which grows luxuriantly at Grand Island, near Eustis. It was first discovered there nine years ago. Its origin is unknown, but its feeding qualities are astounding and its three volunteer crops almost past unbelief. The hay or grass, or whatever it may be, has been proven to possess 7 per cent more nutriment than timothy and 10 per cent better fertilizing qualities or food properties than the famous Florida beggarweed and the latter is admitted superior to timothy for stock of all kinds.

As to the five crops of "red-top" per annum, we have the incontestable word of such a highly respected citizen as Mr. C. W. Bayless, of Grand Island, who tells us it grows densely, especially on the farms of Messrs. F. B. Blake, Jim Flynn, W. M. Igou, Adolphus Pasut, and the Coddington place. These farms are all over grown with it, with the possible exception of the Igou place. Mr. Bayless himself has already cut from the four places under his control, five immense crops since last March. He says this: "Mark my words, there will be whole tracts of land in Florida cleared up and stocked with this "red top," exclusively for its marvelous feeding qualities. It will become one of, if not the greatest, money making crops grown in our state."

When we reminded Mr. Bayless that his affirmations would be considered extravagant, visionary or more than doubtful, he again reiterated his statements and referred us to any citizen, banker, merchant or farmer in Lake county, saying: "Some men who have not yet discovered the value of this feed, have complained that it overran their groves. I tell them if that is the case to cut down their groves!" Mr. Bayless has charge of seven groves at Grand Island, this county, of which three are his own. He is a man of large affairs and stands high in the community. His brother, Mr. W. H. Bayless, of Chattanooga is interested in these properties, is now visiting here, and is delighted with everything and everybody hereabouts. Mr. Bayless will bring in tomorrow a bale of this "red top" to our office. We hereby invite all those interested to call and analyze and criticize it, because the editor is not an expert in judging tall grass as he is bear-meat. Thanksgiving turkey and buttermilk. Intercity Meal Tickets.

 Restaurants where the meal ticket system prevails adopt various devices to attract trade. A New York proprietor recently posted this sign above his desk: "Meal tickets purchased here good in restaurants in Boston, Baltimore, Washington and Chicago." Then followed the addresses of the restaurants where the meal tickets would be honored. "No. I have no interest in those houses," the proprietor said, "but I know the owners, and we concluded that it would be a good plan to exchange tickets so that customers going from town to town could make sure of a square meal in case work was slack or they got extravagant and spent all their money."

Plant Secret.
 An old and experienced florist taught me many valuable and useful things in regard to plants. One of his tricks was that whenever he transplanted any flower or plant he always sifted steel filings into the new soil before he put in the plant. He explained to me that the steel filings rusted when the soil was watered and that the rust made the plants grow rapidly. In the long time that I was associated with him I never know his method of treatment to fail.

There will be no fight on county division. Seriously, we expect to leave it to the people of Orlando to decide about the boundary lines and will meet them on friendly terms.

Bob Holly is a candidate for the position of postmaster of Sanford and from his long experience as a printer he should have no difficulty in reading all the post cards. Bob is the best bald headed man that we ever knew and ought to have the office.—Pensacola News.

Florida is on the eve of having another county added to the list. The people of the Sanford section would sort to like to run their own affairs exclusively and the people of the Orlando section do not seem to care a whop, which is perfectly proper.—Miami Metropolis.

Sanford people are agitating the division of Orange county, Sanford to be the county site of the new county. There will be a number of county division propositions up before the next legislature and divisions should be made where it is shown the people of the territory affected desire it.—Marianna Leader.

TO FIGHT COUNTY DIVISION

We hear many rumors about Sanford and county division. For example, we heard it said Wednesday that certain influential citizens of the celery town were predicting that from Sanford's viewpoint the fight was as good as won the division was as good as made, and according to Sanford's desires.

We presume it is coming to the point where the other sections of the county will have to make a fight to restrain our over-ambitious sister, and if such a fight has to be made, there is no use in delay.

As we see it, the first thing to be done is to organize a committee to take the issue in hand. And the prime duty of this committee should be to make a thorough canvass of the county, to obtain a universal expression of sentiment and especially an expression from those towns that Sanford proposes to incorporate and to acquaint each member of the Legislature with the facts. Reporter-Star.

Lay, on Mac Duff. Sanford has the stuff. And if the fighting proves too rough—we will not be the first to cry "enough."

IN A FRIENDLY SPIRIT

This county division matter need not sever our friendly feelings for our alma mater, Old Orange County and Orlando. We should endeavor to meet the matter face to face and throughout the settlement of the affair there is no need for animus to creep in and destroy the friendly feeling that exists between Orlando and Sanford. Orlando will lose none of her prestige should the county be divided. Our county seat is looked upon as being one of the best, one of the most beautiful cities on the map and Sanford has never tried to detract one iota from this prestige gained by the enterprising people of our sister city.

The editor of The Herald has joked the newspaper men of Orlando time and again and they have returned the compliment with good measure. The editor of The Herald was an editor in Orlando before coming to Sanford and has as many good, warm friends in the county seat as he has anywhere else on this terrestrial footstool and his visits to Orlando are always looked forward to with pleasure because he feels that he is in the house of his friends when in Orlando. The people of that city are a band of busy boosters and this traits alone endears them to our heart.

Far be it from us to foster any spirit but pure friendliness between the two largest cities of the county. If we have come to the parting of the ways the separation should be made fairly and honestly and with the idea of giving each section a square deal. The Herald favors only one plan in the division of the county at the present time and that plan is to have a conference with Orlando and try to decide upon the division lines with a view of coming to an amicable understanding about the county division.

The majority of the people living in Orlando and in the south end of the county are in favor of a separation. They realize fully that sooner or later the question was bound to become paramount and now is the time to settle it. The majority of the people of the entire county are in favor of county division, providing the lines are drawn with no wish to pose as land grabbers. It is the will of the majority that the matter be settled amicably and the only way to settle the matter will be for the committee from Sanford to meet the committee from Orlando and arrive at some conclusion regarding the lines. Until this is accomplished nothing can be accomplished. We cannot even determine what precincts will be represented in the new territory and all the talk and all the figures and all the hot air will be expended for naught.

Let Sanford and Orlando meet as they have always met when questions of importance come up for consideration. Let them meet as friends and brothers in a common cause and let each give and take as may seem wise and just and there will be no quarrel, no bitter feelings, no fight, no useless expense and no wasted energy.

Until the people of these two cities do meet and decide upon something definite The Herald will treat the matter as a dead issue. Until Orlando has shown us that her citizens are entirely and irrevocably against arbitration in the matter this paper will be utterly silent editorially.

And if all efforts at arbitration fail and The Herald is obliged to take up the cudgel in defense of what we consider our rights in the matter, the fight will be made along the lines of sane arguments and not in the narrow channels of prejudice or animosity.

Orlando is too big and Sanford is too big to take the child's part in this controversy and the editor of The Herald will not be a party to anything but a fair and square argument—and we earnestly hope the matter will not come to a fight.

S. Runge for Alderman

In today's issue another candidate for alderman is announced in the person of S. Runge, who scarcely needs an introduction to the people of Sanford. Mr. Runge becomes a candidate solely at the solicitation of his friends who have prevailed upon him to become a candidate. He served one term as alderman a year ago and gave general satisfaction giving the position his earnest attention at all times. Mr. Runge is too busy to make an active campaign and takes this method of making his candidacy public.

United on Deathbed.

A pathetic marriage ceremony took place the other day, in a Budapest hospital. A German singer named Erdos, who was appearing professionally in the Hungarian capital, was suddenly taken ill with heart weakness a few days ago. He telegraphed to his sweetheart in Frankfurt, Germany, to come to him. The girl started at once, and arrived in Budapest promptly. They were married immediately in the hospital ward, and Erdos died an hour after the ceremony.

Chinese Barbers in Hard Luck.

Barber shops were the exception, rather than the rule, in China in the old days, itinerant barbers attending to their customers' wants in the streets or in the customers' homes. There appears to be no tendency toward the institution of barber shops since the change of hairdressing, in fact, the tendency locally is to do away with the barber altogether. Thus many families are purchasing hairclippers, which seem to be regarded as the only essential to haircutting.

The Modern Aesop.

A dog, who was accustomed to overeat, held a piece of meat in his mouth as he crossed a placid stream by means of a plank. Looking in, he saw what he took to be another dog carrying another piece of meat. Snapping greedily to get this as well, he let go the meat that he had and lost it in the stream. As a result his indigestion felt much better all the rest of the day.—Life.

Sight of the Color Blind.

A color blind person sees light as either white or gray and dark colors appear either as dark gray or black. This mutual sensitiveness is due to the fact that the light nerves and color nerves are closely interbound, but there is a different set of nerves for both light and color, just as there are different sets of nerves for temperature and for touch.

Absent-Minded Professor.

A certain university professor was noted for his absent-mindedness. One morning as he sat at the breakfast table with a scientific magazine propped up before him, his wife was astonished to see him reach out for the maple sirup, pour it down his back, and lean over and scratch his pants.

For Alderman To the voters of Sanford, Fla.: At the solicitation of numerous friends and citizens, I have consented to become a candidate for councilman at the coming election. Have been a citizen of Sanford for over twenty-five years and have always refused office heretofore. If elected will try and do my duty to the whole people, without favor. C. C. WOODRUFF.

For Treasurer and Collector Being an experienced bookkeeper and thoroughly familiar with the duties incumbent upon the office of Treasurer and Collector, I announce my candidacy for this position subject to the election to be held Tuesday, December 10th. I will be unable to see each voter personally before the election and take this opportunity of announcing my candidacy. Respectfully, A. A. PRESTON.

For Treasurer and Collector I hereby announce my candidacy for the position of Treasurer and Collector at the election to be held on Tuesday, December 10 in Sanford. I am at present holding this position and am qualified in every way to attend to the duties of the office and will appreciate the support of the people on election day. Respectfully, ADDISON L. WILLIAMS.

For Alderman I will be a candidate for the position of Alderman subject to the election called for December 10th. If elected I will give the office the same careful attention that I would my business and am a candidate for the position with the sole purpose of serving the city because it is my duty as a citizen. Respectfully, W. W. ABERNATHY.

Everybody who reads magazines buys newspapers, but everybody who reads newspapers doesn't buy magazines. Catch the Drift? Here's the medium to reach the people of this community.

Fewer Willing to Sell Their Hair. Owing to the fact that the young countrymen of France, under the spreading influence of the cities, are becoming more particular as to the appearance of the girls they "walk out" with, peasant girls are becoming less and less willing to sell their rich tresses to hair dealers. At the great Limoges hair fair, held in the market place of the city, there were fewer dealers present than ever before. The supply of hair in falling and prices ranged from $1.50 to $1.85 a pound.

Select the Beautiful Way. There is a beautiful and an ugly way in which to say almost everything, and happiness depends upon which way we take. You can upset a person for a whole day by the harsh way in which you may call him in the morning, or you may give him a beautiful start by the cheerfulness of your greeting. So not only in words, but in all the little common courtesies and duties of life, think of the beautiful way of doing each.—D. L. Porter.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church meets at 3 o'clock next Friday afternoon at the parsonage. Important business is on hand and all ladies of the society and of the church are urged to be in attendance.

Rev. George B. Waldron is attending the Federal Council of Churches of America which is being held in Chicago this week. Over twenty-one denominations are represented, with sixteen millions of Protestant members.

Mrs. M. M. Stewart and daughter, Miss Ruth have returned from their pleasant visit to Mrs. Stewart's sister, Mrs. I. J. Sims. On their return they stopped for a few days visit with Mrs. Stewart's daughter, Mrs. Chapman in Kissimmee.

Mrs. J. H. Roumillat and son, Karl have returned from their recent trip to Richmond, Virginia, to see the great Thanksgiving game of football. While in Richmond they had the very great pleasure of seeing their first snowstorm. It was a rare sight to them.

Mrs. Martin H. Long of Jacksonville arrived in the city Friday evening and is the guest of her mother, Mrs. G. B. Dickinson, who has been ill for several days but is much improved. Mrs. Long's many friends in the city will be glad to know that she will remain for ten days or more.

Next Saturday and Sunday being set apart as Orange Day by Baptists throughout the state, they will be observed by the Woman's Missionary Society and Sunday School of the Baptist church of this city. The demands of the orphanage at Arcadia require another building and a strenuous effort will be made on the two days mentioned, all through the state to raise $6,000, and to this end Baptists and all interested are asked to give a day's work or a contribution for this cause. Further details will be given in Friday's issue.

Lettuce never looked better and brought less than right now.

A. P. Connelly has returned from a business trip to St. Louis and the Mississippi Delta.

Walter M. Haynes and family expect to move into their new home on Sanford Heights this week.

F. F. Dutton of the M. O. Coggins Co. and R. J. Holly made a trip to the Geneva section on Saturday.

Rev. D. J. Blocker of DeLand delighted his many Sanford friends by a visit here over Saturday and Sunday.

Chas. Hand, Felix Frank and Arto Smith spent three days at the Marion county fair last week without being arrested.

The Junior Epworth League of the Methodist church held their regular meeting Friday afternoon in the church.

The A. M. Thrasher home, recently damaged by fire is being repaired under the supervision of Contractor Venable.

W. L. Morgan is greeting his many Sanford friends today. He is on the road for a Philadelphia drug firm and manages to break the long jumps by a side-trip to Sanford occasionally.

Bertie Pattishall spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks at Geneva. He was accompanied to Sanford by his charming sister, Miss Blanche, who will spend several days here the guest of Mrs. R. E. Tolar.

The Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church held a called meeting at the home of Mrs. T. A. Neal Friday afternoon to complete the final plans for the bazaar and supper which they will hold on the 6th of December.

The Eustis Lake Region states that three handsome men, Chas. Hand, Arto Smith and Felix Frank from the village of Sanford passed through that town last week en route to Ocala. Arto Smith says he has been accused of every thing on the calendar except that of being handsome and now in his old age to have this calumny heaped upon him is more than he can bear and he is thinking of going back to Eustis and committing suicide by smoking one of Billy Schmidt's cigars.

Mrs. Dianne Mann and Mr. Drew A. Warren were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents at Monte last Thursday. Rev. C. H. Summers of this city officiated and the wedding was a very pretty home affair attended by the relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The bride is one of the fair daughters of Monroe, where her father is engaged in farming and where she has a large circle of friends. The groom is a well known business man of this city, a member of the firm of Hawkins & Warren and his many friends are anxious to see him prosper and his bride flourish.

The young couple will make this city their future home and The Herald joins in congratulations and best wishes.

Miss Elizabeth Skinner and Mr. Archibald Brock were united in marriage last Sunday evening at the residence of the bride, corner of North street and Myrtle avenue.

Rev. C. H. Summers of the Methodist church performed the ceremony only the members of the family being present. Both bride and groom are well known in Sanford, having moved here from the Buckeye state several years ago and made Sanford their home. Mr. Brock is at present with the Fernald Hardware company and has the respect and esteem of a large circle of friends who join in congratulations to bride and groom.

The Cecilian Music Club held their regular meeting at the studio of Mrs. Fannie S. Munson Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

After the business of the club had been transacted Mrs. Munson talked to the members about the great American artist, Edward Baxter Perry, the blind pianist, who will appear in Sanford under the auspices of the Sanford Music Club, January 3rd, 1913. Mrs. Munson also read two poems written by Mr. Perry. The Cecilian Music Club voted to interest themselves in the coming recital by Mr. Perry, and to do everything in their power to assist the ladies in making the recital a success. After which the piano selections on the program were rendered by the following young ladies: Misses Lucca Chappell, Essie Purdon, Margaret Davis, Fannie Reba Munson, Hazel Packard. The juvenile members of the club contributing selections were Adel Rines, Anna Mason, Mary Howard, Miss L. Josephine Dagnert, accompanied by Miss Margaret Davis sang a group of charming songs, giving as encore Mayourneen, by Mary Ruthvan Lang.

DOG WAS MAD

Head Sent to Pasteur Proved to Have Rabies

Several weeks ago a large bird dog bit little Norma Herndon and to avoid danger the dog was instantly killed and his head sent to the Pasteur Institute at Jacksonville to be examined. Mr. Herndon received word today from the institute that signs of rabies had been discovered by the physicians and Mr. and Mrs. Herndon left today with Norma for Jacksonville. They will have her treated at the institute either at Jacksonville or Atlanta and it is thought that no bad effects will result from the injury. Her many friends are hoping for her speedy recovery.

Missionary Social

A delightfully informal and enjoyable affair in church circles last week was the thank-offering social Friday night at the Congregational parsonage, given under the auspices of the missionary society. A short program was rendered and rather original refreshments were served, creating much merriment and mirth.

Following a short talk on the Kitchen God of China, Ruth Waldron recited a poem, invoking the good will of the idol, that was received with appreciative applause.

"The Voyage of Arabella" to the Sandwich Islands, Japan and China was a humorously clever recitation by Vera Terhune.

Mr. Langley's address on "The Emigrant Situation," showing the splendid work and great need of our missionaries at the emigrant stations at home and abroad, the loneliness and forlorn condition of the stranger within our gates; giving pitiful illustrations of heartaches, separations and poverty was a strong and impressive plea for a recognition of the responsibility that rests upon us towards these aliens that come to our shores.

The announcement was made that representatives from the three foreign countries in which the Congregationalists are especially interested, Cuba, Japan and Turkey, would serve refreshments. As these ladies could neither speak or understand American one had to signify their wants by signs. Signorita Flora Walker served macaroni. The Lady of the Cherry-anthem, Miss Hazel Osborne of Japan served pulled rice, while the Turkish lady, Miss Mary Ensminger served coffee and crackers. The inability of these foreign ladies to speak or understand English created much fun and amusement.

The affair was a great success socially and financially.

Congregational Bazaar

The annual Christmas bazaar of the Ladies' Union of the Congregational church will be held Saturday, Dec. 6th, from 10 to 12 o'clock in the Harrold store on Park avenue. There will be on sale a beautiful assortment of fancy work, dainty lingerie and baby things at the fancy work booth presided over by Mrs. C. R. Walker Mrs. G. B. Waldron and Mrs. E. L. Wright.

One of the most attractive features of the bazaar will be the Japanese table on which will be displayed a charming variety of Japanese wares and specialties in charge of a committee from the Local Hand Club.

On the Clover Club booth will be found a profusion of articles useful and pretty, moderate in price to suit the most fastidious.

The Housekeepers' booth, Mrs. Secord chairman, with an able corps of assistants will be especially attractive with its tempting and appetizing display of home made cakes, pies, jellies, salads, bread and rolls and many other toothsome delicacies.

A charming little corner will be the Japanese Tea Room and Catch Penny Table of the Junior Girls' Class. At this table articles will range in value from a penny to a dime, while tea and cookies will be served for a moderate price. Little folks are especially invited to call and patronize this booth. The Junior committee are Mrs. Moughton, chairman Mrs. Bertha Hand, Ruth Waldron, Vera Terhune, Leila Hutchison, Bertha Macey. Clarence Hand will pour tea.

And then the aprons! Aprons large and aprons small, Aprons to fit the price of all. The apron white and dainty tea Will be on sale for you and me. Also the kind that grandmother wore, Yes, even the little child's pinafore. Aprons, aprons, blue and green, In checks and plaids can all be seen. So if you'll come at half past two We'll be glad to show them all to you.

The reception committee, consisting of Mrs. J. B. Langley, Mrs. C. E. Walker and other officers of the Union, and Mrs. Henry Wright will cordially welcome all visitors to the bazaar.

Wards Were Shipwrecked

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ward were among those who were marooned on a desert sand bar on the raging St. Johns last Thursday and Friday. The City of Jacksonville came into contact with a nice soft sand bar near Lake George and had to tie up till morning. When the Fred de Bary came along to give relief and after all passengers and cargo had been transferred the Fred also stuck fast and the same thing of rapid transformation had to be gone all over again. The boats finally floated and both came into Sanford dock Saturday morning none the worse for wear. The Wards and all the passengers rather enjoyed the enforced stay in the river for the meals and rooms are most excellent on all the Clyde boats and there was but little left in the stewards pantry when the boats reached Sanford.

To Meet Miss Osborne

Mrs. T. A. Newton was hostess at a very pleasant thimble party in honor of Miss Hazel Osborne of Rochester, N. Y., the charming guest of Mrs. James Moughton. The games were entered with an interesting musical and word supplying contest. The prize, a pretty picture was won by Miss Mabel Bowler, which she presented to the guest of honor. When the entertaining contests were concluded dainty refreshments were served Mrs. Newton's guests were Misses Lillie Farnsworth, L. Josephine Dameron, Mabel Bowler, Jessie Stumon, Blanche Moughton, Katherine Waldron, Claire Walker, Mrs. James Moughton.

A Real Restaurant

At last Sanford has an up-to-date restaurant, one that can be recommended to one's friends and one where you can take a meal well cooked and take it in a nice clean, well kept place where good cooking and the surroundings combine to tickle the palate.

Such a restaurant is the Celery City Cafe and it remained for a lady, Mrs. Alice Messenger to take the initiative in Sanford and equip a cafe in the proper manner.

The best advertisement that any city can have is a first class restaurant, one that will gain name and fame as a place where you can get something nice at a reasonable rate and have it served in the proper manner. The Celery City Cafe deserves the patronage that it is receiving and the people of this city can unreservedly recommend the Celery City Cafe to their friends.

Doing as Romans Do.
When I am in Rome I fast as the Romans do; when I am at Milan I do not fast. So likewise you, whatever church you come to, observe the custom of the place, if you would neither give offense to others, nor take offense from them.—St. Ambrose's Advice to St. Austin on Sabbath Keeping.

Confusions of Effects.
"Things didn't seem to work together in your series of dramatic representations." "They didn't," admitted Stormington Barnes. "When we played tragedy the box office receipts were a farce, and when we played farce they were a tragedy."—Washington Star.

A Grasp of the Hand.
There are times when a grasp of the hand is almost a sacred thing. In sorrow it may impart comfort or convey sympathy more effectively than words. Again, it may be a warrant of the reliability of friendship or a pledge of honor; also an expression of approval or of admiration. Did you ever hear of a man's growing lean by the reading of "Romeo and Juliet" or blowing his brains out because Desdemona was maligned?—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Time Brings Improvement.
Fashions in typography change like all things mortal, but the typographical fashions of 1865, as illustrated in the American Printer by a facsimile of the invitation card for the first typographic dinner, might well have been changed before they were adopted. The work of type foundry and printers has certainly improved greatly in taste since the times when those crudely ornamental designs were popular.

Something to Think About.
If a carp can live a century and a half and a pike live to be 267, why shouldn't a piker live to be 1000? Admitting that an elephant deserves to live to be 100, and that one tusker has lived to be 350, and considering that a white-headed vulture has survived captivity almost fifteen decades, and that the cat who keeps you awake at night may not expire for 20 years, did Methuselah have much to boast of, after all?

Age Limit Placed Too Low.
Think of saying a man of 60 was too old to be a judge! Yet that was New York law in 1777. It was also New York law in 1823 when Chancellor Kent was forced off the bench by it. That he was by no means decrepit physically or mentally at the time is manifest from his noted work, "Commentaries on American Law," which he wrote after his retirement.

Vehicles in Burma.
The styles mostly used in Burma are two-wheeled dog cars and buggies with spoked seat or step behind. The tops to the buggies must have closed sides (hood shaped) and be capable of being turned back. All vehicles have rubber tires and are fitted with foot bells. Local made buggies sell on the average for $165, while those imported from India sell as high as $400.

Practical Idea.
As I live in a coke country and have much dirt to contend with, I find that I save much work by putting all dishes not in constant use into paper bags, leaving out one to put on top as a sample, says a correspondent of the Pictorial Review. This plan saves washing when extra dishes are needed.

Labor Still Supreme.
Science has accomplished a lot of new things with water power and air power, but hasn't improved on man power. Nothing so far, in the history of humanity, has been discovered as an acceptable substitute for honest, steady labor.—Herbert Kaufman.

Twist Off Top.
Very few people, with the exception of those living in a pineapple country, know how to remove the top from the fruit. Hold the apple firmly with one hand, catch the top with the other, and twist around. It comes out easily.—Good Housekeeping.

Folly of Pride in Gold.
He that is proud of riches is a fool. For if he be exalted above his neighbors because he hath more gold, how much inferior is he to a gold mine!—Jeremy Taylor.

Didn't Want to Intrude.
In a Studio at Rome: Fair Sitter—The Hadrians' villa, now! When would be the best time for me to see it? I mean, of course, when the family is likely to be out?—Punch.

A Good Defense.
"How could you tell that ugly girl she had a complexion like peaches and cream?" "No lie about that. I meant yellow peaches and sour cream."

FLORIDA CITRUS EXCHANGE

"COME, LET US REASON TOGETHER."

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE ORANGE GROWERS OF ARCADIA.

Tampa, Fla., Nov. 26, 1912.

Gentlemen:

We care but little what is said about us by the dealers in and brokers of oranges in the State of Florida, but we do care a great deal as to what is thought of us, our objects and our methods, by the genuine orange growers of this State, in what ever vicinity they may be located.

A certain letter from a Mr. Parker, approved by the Arcadia Board of Trade, has been brought to our attention, and from the general tone of this letter, it would seem that the growers themselves in the vicinity of Arcadia actually feel that the Florida Citrus Exchange is a menace to the citrus growing industry of Florida, and as the Florida Citrus Exchange is in reality a cooperative association of the growers themselves, for the benefit of the growers themselves, and run by the growers themselves, we feel that we must take notice of this communication, to which we will not attempt to reply in full as yet, but would like to make a few suggestions which may bring forth a communication in the form of concrete charges against the Exchange or its methods, which we will be glad to answer fully.

If the growers of Arcadia will get together, as we are given to understand they have done, in the form of an association of growers for the protection of the citrus industry, and will formulate, after due consultation and thought, a letter to be addressed to the Arcadia News, charging the Exchange with those things which you believe it has done that are to the detriment of the citrus industry as a whole, the Exchange will gladly take such charges and answer them one by one, explaining why they have done certain things, and endeavor to clear the minds of each one of you of the slightest suspicion that the Florida Citrus Exchange may have willfully or thoughtlessly done anything to injure the citrus industry of this State.

There is no good to be gained from mere abuse, as abuse is no argument, vilification is not evidence, and passionate declarations of right or wrong amount to nothing in the clear light of reason.

If, therefore, you will take advantage of this suggestion on our part and will draw up a set of charges, each charge in a separate paragraph, numbered, so that they may be replied to by number in the answer, we will pledge you that the Florida Citrus Exchange will make its plea in answer thereto before the great bar of the people, and endeavor to, if not justify, at least give its reasons for having done or left undone anything with which it may be charged that it has injured or might injure the citrus industry of this State.

It, therefore, behooves us to begin with, to lay you a brief statement of the objects of the Florida Citrus Exchange and what it has accomplished so far towards the attainment of its objects.

"The duty of the Florida Citrus Exchange is to obtain for honest fruit, honestly packed, an honest price, and we are against anybody who attempts to bring about other than this."

—William Chase Temple.

The above is that for which the Exchange was organized and has worked incessantly up to date. It claims that every move that it has made, public or private, has been for the sole purpose of bringing about this result. How far has it attained this?

The first year of the Florida Citrus Exchange was one of immense difficulty. It was a new organization, its membership consisted of new people who were not accustomed to any such organization as this; it was confronted by the most enormous crop that Florida had ever produced; the machinery was all new; no one, from the Sub-Exchange officials down to the growers themselves, were in the least familiar with the necessities of the case, or with the steps necessary to bring about the results desired.

In addition to all this, a freeze occurred the 28th of December, which practically destroyed from one third to one half the fruit left in the State, and hundreds of thousands of boxes of fruit were shipped after that that should never have left the State.

In spite of this, the Florida Citrus Exchange averaged $1.15 per box, f. o. b. cars packing house, for every box of fruit it handled that season.

The second season of the Florida Citrus Exchange, it averaged for its growers $1.51 a box, f. o. b. cars packing house for every box of oranges it handled that year.

The third year of the Florida Citrus Exchange, it averaged for its growers $1.93 a box, f. o. b. cars packing house, for every box of oranges it shipped that season.

It, therefore, raised prices received by the growers 36¢ a box its second year over its first year, and 42¢ a box its third year over its second year.

At the close of the third season, the results obtained by the Florida Exchange being so much beyond anything obtained before, its adversaries cast about to find some excuse for the brilliant results shown by the Exchange and its methods, and they finally decided that the proper plea to make was that in the first place the Florida crop was very short during that third season, to wit: the season 1911-12; and a disastrous freeze in California still further aided and abetted the Florida Citrus Exchange in its unpardonable crime of securing for the growers of this State, for the first time in many years, "An honest price for honest fruit, honestly packed."

This brings us to the opening of the fourth season, at which time it was admitted by all authorities that in the first place the Florida crop is the greatest citrus crop it has ever had in its history, and in the second place the same is also true of the California crop, and the Florida Citrus Exchange is brought face to face with the most difficult conditions possible to imagine, to wit: the marketing of the minor part of the biggest crop Florida has ever seen, in competition with the biggest crop California has ever seen, and the adversaries of the Exchange lay low and chuckled, deciding that the Florida Citrus Exchange was now in sight of its finish; that it was impossible for it, under these circumstances, to show results approximating those of the previous year.

REMINDED HER OF OLD DAYS

Real Old-Fashioned House Cleaning In the City Interesting Because of Its Novelty.

"There's a real old-fashioned house-cleaning going on next door," said the girl who lives on the top floor.

"But next door they are beating carpets and painting shutters and they've hung all the winter clothes out on the lines and washed the blankets and whitewashed the cellar and put the window screens out and played the hose on them, and you can just imagine how clean and cool and shining the house will be when it's all over with."

Libraries in Navy.

The navy department spends every year $30,000 for libraries for its ships. Each "ship's" library includes 300 books, mostly technical and more or less expensive on that account.

About one-third of the books are replaced each year. The changes are made upon recommendation of those in charge of the ships, but it has developed that this is not a satisfactory method.

COME LET US REASON TOGETHER

In the meantime, the Florida Citrus Exchange realized from the very outset of its career that the two greatest handicaps Florida fruit had to suffer were, first, the pernicious and growing practice of shipping from the State citrus fruits that were so green and sour that they were not only practically unsalable to the consumer.

Even the enemies of the Exchange admit that it has revolutionized the methods of handling the fruit from the trees to the car, and that the Florida orange, that for years previous to the formation of the Exchange, had the evil reputation in all the markets in this country of being treacherous, uncertain and poor keeping stuff.

To attain this result was comparatively easy, although it cost the expenditure of tens of thousands of dollars on the part of a few devoted men who really desired to bring the Florida orange into its own, and has taken ceaseless thought and persistent labor to bring about.

The revolution in the method of handling Florida oranges, however, that would prevent thoughtless or criminal shipment of green, sour, immature oranges from the State of Florida has been a different matter.

The "Poison Telegram" sent last year, together with the publicity following it, still further protected the markets at the other end, and to this persistent campaign of three years on the part of the Florida Citrus Exchange in preventing the movement of, and sale for sour, green oranges, the Exchange gives credit more than any other factor, or set of factors, for the splendid price it has been able to obtain for its growers.

Among, and with, you has been waged a war of misrepresentation from interested outside factors, claiming that the Florida Citrus Exchange was ruining your industry, and had made your goods unmarketable.

Many of you have sold your oranges on the trees this season for less than 75¢ a box. The Florida Citrus Exchange, from the beginning of the season, urged all of you not to sell your oranges for less than $1.00 a box on the trees, stating to you that notwithstanding all conditions, oranges were well worth this price, and that you could get it if you held your fruit for it.

The total sales of oranges by the Florida Citrus Exchange in the month of October of this season averaged $2.05 a box, f. o. b. packing house.

The total sales by the Florida Citrus Exchange of grapefruit this season, for the month of October, averaged $2.43 per box, f. o. b. packing house.

As this is only the 25th of November, the results for November cannot be given as yet, but as an indication of how the prices are of Exchange fruit for the month of November, we give below the total results of the remittances received in the office of the Florida Citrus Exchange on the day of Monday, November 25, in detail.

It will be noted from this list that the oranges and grapefruit come from all parts of the State, including Arcadia, in this day's remittances, and that one car of solid oranges, F. C. E. 179, shipped from Arcadia, sold for $1.93 per box, f. o. b. cars Arcadia, and that the total for 6,212 boxes of fruit brought a net remittance of $13,000.06, or $2.09 a box, f. o. b. cars packing house for nearly 21 cars of fruit, for which remittances were received on this one day; and that the lowest price received for any of these shipments was for one car of solid oranges from Eastlake, for which remittances were received of $1.76 a box.

Total account sales received by the Florida Citrus Exchange in remittances for the one day of Monday, November 25, 1912.

Table with columns: Shipping Point, F. C. E. No., No. bxs. Oranges, No. bxs. Gr. frt., No. bxs. Tngns., Total No. bxs., Net returns F. O. B. packing house, Net per box F. O. B. packing house.

Oranges average $1.94 f. o. b. packing houses.

Gentlemen, the Florida Citrus Exchange will stand on this record of its accomplishment up to date, and upon that rests its claim that in spite of all the difficulties it has to encounter, not the least of which is the misrepresentation of the Exchange and its objects by competing outside interests, and the misapprehension of the growers from having listened to such maligning statements, it claims that it has fulfilled its duty to the grower, which is:

"The duty of the Florida Citrus Exchange is to obtain for honest fruit, honestly packed, an honest price, and we are against anybody who attempts to bring about other than this."

William Chase Temple.

Respectfully yours,

High School Foot Ball Team Needs Encouragement

MORE INTEREST TO BE TAKEN

Boys Have Worked Faithfully This Season to Put Up the Real Article

In October the Sanford High School football team played the Duval school team in Jacksonville.

On November 7th they played the DeLand public school team in Sanford and on Thanksgiving Day played Hillsborough High School in Tampa.

The expenses were paid by the Jacksonville and Tampa teams for games in each place.

In Jacksonville our boys were met at the station with automobiles and received every attention visitors could have looked for. More than 300 school children attended the game; the young ladies being dressed in the school colors.

Quite a number of enthusiasts came from DeLand to Sanford for the game on Nov. 7th and witnessed a first class exhibition of amateur football. It was a game that any Sanford citizen should have felt satisfied with.

The game in Tampa was witnessed by a large and very enthusiastic crowd. Our young men speak very highly of the reception given them by the football team and the people of Tampa.

The Duval team is regularly and thoroughly coached by a member of the school faculty, who is a football man, and he has a large school from which to select his material.

The public school team in DeLand is coached and trained by Mr. Fox, who is a Stetson University coach this season.

The Tampa team is coached by a Yale man, and this team has played with and defeated the Sutherland team, which has a football record.

Our Sanford team has put up good strong work every time and has played most excellent ball for young men who have no coach and have not received any encouragement at home.

Quite a good deal has been said about our defeat at Tampa, but our local critics must remember that they have not done anything to support this team and the Sanford team had to play without four of its regular men; made six points in the game and forced Tampa to make four substitutions.

The writer wishes to be plain that he is not averse to baseball—he is an enthusiast, but he wishes to make a comparison. We all go wild and spend our money to hire baseball players; for what? Two reasons, one and first to beat Orlando and second to have entertainment in summer, but we don't give one cent to help our school boys make a creditable showing in sport with other schools in the state, and we ridicule them when defeated; then we go out and get our feelings hurt if anybody says anything about us in comparison with our neighboring cities.

Our young men tried to get a second game with DeLand in DeLand, but the coach would not answer the letter.

The Tampa team will play in Jacksonville on December 6th for the school championship of the state, and if it can be arranged the Tampa team will play in Sanford on December 8th. If this game is arranged it should be largely attended, as it will be the last game of the season.

It should be borne in mind that the supply of material from which to select a high school team is exceedingly limited admirer.

Florida Good All the Time

In glancing over Florida newspapers for one day it will be noticed that fine cucumbers are just coming in around Arcadia; that new sweet corn is being gathered at St. Cloud, that strawberries are ripe in Ocala county and that Kissimmee has demonstrated that she can grow as good celery as Sanford and as many potatoes as Hastings.

At the same time Sanford is taking up the growth of tobacco as a money crop and oranges are being grown right here at home near Pensacola as fine and luscious as any that come from the peninsula of the state.

In fact, all of Florida is good all the time. It is the only spot in America has been eliminated and where spring time comes every month in the year.

The people of Florida are just awakening to the trucking possibilities of the state and this awakening is sure to be followed by a continuous stream of prosperity.—Pensacola Journal.

The board of trade of Apopka resolutely the other evening against coming into the new county that is being agitated by the Sanford agitators. Since Apopka and the rest of west Orange was never counted in the new territory the action of the Apopka board of trade is rather premature and demonstrates that at some future date they expect to break away and set up housekeeping in a county of their own. Following is a copy of their resolutions which they request The Herald to publish:

Apopka, Florida, Dec. 2, 1912.
Resolution introduced at a called meeting of the Apopka board of trade on Friday, Nov. 29th, 1912:

Resolved, That the Apopka board of trade that the city of Sanford is taking steps toward forming a new county, with Sanford as the county seat, thereby withdrawing from Orange county; and

Whereas, It is the sense of our board that it is to the best interest of Apopka and adjacent towns to remain in Orange county; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Apopka Board of trade representing the citizens of Apopka, Plymouth, Zellwood and Clarcona, are most emphatically opposed to any division of Orange county that includes any of the above named towns in the proposed new county, and that we are satisfied with the county as it is at present.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to all the boards of trade, and all newspapers in the county, to the board of county commissioners, Representatives and State Senators.

Thanksgiving Dinner

When family reunions and Thanksgiving dinners were being enjoyed throughout the length and breadth of the United States Thursday last, the noble hearted ladies of the Woodmen's Circle remembering that the thirty or more little inmates of the Orphanage at Enterprise could not enjoy family reunions, that in the very nature of things their Thanksgiving dinner would not have the same menu prepared for so many diners in homes of plenty and good cheer—these ladies determined that the orphans should have the very best dinner that they could prepare. Each member contributed a splendidly cooked article towards a menu that would have graced the table of the most prosperous family anywhere. Nothing was lacking, all the good things which usually go to make up a perfect Thanksgiving dinner were prepared by the Circle and sent to the Orphanage Wednesday afternoon by Capt. Tuttle's boat. The Captain, wanting to have a share in the beautiful deed took the box over free of charge. How true it is that "He tempers the wind to the shorn lamb." On the same boat was a box of fine oranges, sent to the children at the orphanage by Mrs. J. M. Lord of Clyde, whose motherly heart was big enough to take in the needs of that household of thirty helpless children.

At the instance of the Lend a Hand Club the school children of Sanford were given the opportunity by their teachers to contribute each an apple toward filling a barrel full of the best and finest looking apples that could be found in Sanford, for a Thanksgiving offering to the children at the Orphanage as they had had the opportunity of doing last Thanksgiving. Not only did the children enjoy a bountiful and delicious Thanksgiving dinner, but they had a barrel of apples and a box of oranges too.

The gentlemen of the Woodmen's Circle contributed money and five suits of warm underwear were purchased by the ladies for the older boys at the orphanage.

The appreciation and thanks of the children were conveyed in a letter received by the circle from Miss Louise Stork, superintendent of the orphanage. For that one day at least there were "Showers of Blessing" at that orphan's home.

The Woodmen's Circle and also the people of Sanford generally have been very kind and have done a great many things for the welfare and pleasure of the unfortunate children in the orphanage across the lake.

MANATEE IS WAKING UP

The Celery Growers Will Sell Stuff At Loading Station

WORKING FOR A CASH MARKET

Buyers Are on the Ground Ready to Contract for Celery Crop on Cash Basis

The Herald has started the agitation for an f. o. b. market for the celery and many of the growers favor the plan. The following from Manatee will be interesting:

It begins to look now as if Manatee and Manatee county will have a marketing agency for celery at least.

R. M. Glazier, who is interesting himself very much in the matter, informed the Record that in one day's ride nearly 100 cars of celery had been pledged to the agency. He also informed us that the agency established in Manatee would extend all over the county, and that each grower would have the opportunity of placing his celery with the agency.

C. R. Dorland, sales manager of the Gibson Fruit Co., of Chicago, is here establishing the agency, and is making the rounds with Mr. Glazier and getting in touch with the growers.

The idea of the agency, as the Record states, it is to sell the celery f. o. b. Manatee, which, we believe, is the best scheme yet advanced for handling celery or anything else for that matter. Under this system the grower knows exactly what he is going to get for his product and actually gets it before the shipment is made. The Record is not fully informed as to the details and methods used by the Gibson Fruit Co., neither do we care, just so long as the grower gets the cash for his celery before it rolls and the price is somewhere near the market quotations. Certainly the grower has nothing to lose by encouraging the establishing of this marketing agency. It has proven successful at other points, and why not at Manatee?—Manatee Record.

For Alderman

Owing to the pressure that has been brought to bear upon me and the earnest solicitation of my friends I have consented to become a candidate for the position of alderman of the city of Sanford. Having served the city one term as alderman I can assure the public that if elected the business of the city will receive the same care and attention that was devoted to it during my former term of office.

Respectfully,
S. RUNGE.

Welaka Club Notes

The Welaka Club has closed another month of delightful social functions, which have been much enjoyed by the members and their guests. Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin proving a most delightful hostess. She was assisted during the month by Mesdames Butt, Marks, Chappell, Hurt and the Misses Ward.

Among the pleasant events was the bridge party on Nov. 12th. Six tables of players enjoyed the game, Mrs. G. F. Smith winning the club pin for the month. Delicious ice cream and cake were served at the close of the afternoon's entertainment.

At the musicale on the 19th, a rare treat was given those present. Mrs. Wickenburg of Jacksonville rendered a number of beautiful selections and all were delighted with her lovely voice and gracious manners. Mrs. Richard Maxwell added greatly to the afternoon's entertainment by her interesting and pleasing recitations; and the instrumental solos given by Miss Ward and Mrs. Cecil Butt were listened to with great pleasure. A dainty salad, with wafers, sandwiches and coffee added much to the delightful occasion.

On the evening of the 19th a pleasant company met in the club rooms. Dancing and games were indulged in until a late hour, when coffee and tempting sandwiches were served.

Mrs. McLaughlin entertained the club members informally on the afternoon of the 26th and the Household Economics Committee served an oyster supper during the afternoon and evening, at which a neat little sum was realized.

At the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs, which was held in West Palm Beach Nov. 19th to 22nd the Welaka Club was represented by Mrs. J. W. Dickens, president of the club and Mrs. H. L. DeForest as delegates. Both returned greatly impressed with the beauties of West Palm Beach, and bringing with them much enthusiasm which will no doubt stimulate interest among the club members for better work during the coming year.

ON COUNTY DIVISION

Old Resident Writes About Facts And Conditions

DIVISION WILL LOWER TAXES

Orange County Can Offer Nothing To People Who Pay High Taxes Now

The following from Hon. Thos. Emmett Wilson gives food for thought:

I note that the Orange County Citizen and the Orlando Sentinel and Reporter Star (all published in Orlando) are warning the little children, Oviedo, Apopka, Maitland, etc., not to follow the example of the wayward daughter, Sanford, and attempt to cut loose from the maternal home of old Orange and set up housekeeping for themselves. The reasons thus far advanced for remaining forever under the parental roof are that two establishments cost more to run than one. The danger rocks pointed out and warned against are the increased taxes that must follow a county division. These are specifically named as follows:

First, "The fact that Sanford district has voted bonds for good brick roads in her special road district and that there must be increased taxation to cover the interest and sinking fund."

"Don't be frightened, little sisters, by this bugbear. Sanford is your big sister and wants to take you in her new home for your own good as well as sisterly companionship. She is not selfish and she offers her splendid brick road system to you without asking the return of a penny from you in taxation for its use. Her special road district comprises Sanford city and the territory immediately adjoining and the tax for her twenty-two miles of brick roads will and must be borne under the law solely by the territory embraced in that special road district. Sanford, therefore, instead of asking you to make a part of the new county of Sanford for the purpose of sharing the burdens of her special road system has already bound herself for the full amount, principal and interest and offers it to you as a free gift to use for your profit and pleasure."

Has old mother Orange ever done this for you?"

Second, "The increased taxation from an entirely new set of county officers, thus doubling the number within the same territory."

Don't get frightened, little girls. This is not a ghost, only a shadow. It may be had for the present county officers to have to share their fees and commissions with an equal number of officers in the new county of Sanford, but it will be distinctly advantageous to the new county to have its portion of these fees and commission spent within its bounds and these offices held by its own citizens. It will not add a penny to taxation, for the new county does not intend to have a salaried officer, but only those paid by the fees and commission allowed by law, which will be the same in the new county of Sanford that they are now in the county of Orange. Sanford will not be selfish and if her little sisters want the offices they are welcome to them for helping to get the new home into housekeeping order."

Third, "The matter of court house and jail." We will not worry about these necessary adjuncts to civilization. All counties must have them and as seventeen counties in the state of Florida with less population than Sanford county will have are able to build them we certainly can do so without fear of injuring ourselves by excessive taxation. We won't build a court house until we know where it is going to be put, and the Sanford city jail is much safer and better than any jail of Orange county until the present one was built."

Mother Orange has been rather extravagant herself in the matter of court houses and jails, having built three of each in the first twenty-five years of my residence within her borders (all at Orlando).

We will try to get along with one and make it supply all our wants without imposing burdens. We are not going into the new county venture for the purpose or with the view of increasing taxes, but on the contrary, in order to decrease them, for we all know that they have reached the limit in good old mother

BUSINESS COLLEGE OPENED

Nice Enrollment of Day and Night Students to Start With

Professor I. E. Garrett and G. E. Bynum have opened the above institution in the Pico block, rooms 13 and 14, with bright prospects for a large enrollment of students.

This school, equipped with the latest improved typewriters and adding machines, and with experienced commercial teachers in charge, should receive the hearty cooperation and patronage of the people of Sanford and surrounding country.

With both day and night classes there is no excuse for our young people not securing a business education at home and under home influences. This means much for Sanford and we wish the enterprise success.

AMONG SANFORD ENTERPRISES

Virginia Carolina Fertilizer Company Has Most Complete Factory

In the Virginia Carolina Company Sanford has one of the largest and most complete fertilizer plants in the state and our citizens are proud of the fact that in the greatest vegetable section of the world that the grower need not send out of the city for his fertilizers. The Virginia Carolina, one of the oldest and most reliable fertilizer companies in the south decided to locate in Sanford after looking over the Florida field and investigating the claims of several other sections. Our position on the St. Johns river and the railroad facilities, and being in the vegetable center decided this company in their choice and they asked for nothing in the way of land or money, but purchased a fine tract of land on the west side and put up warehouses and a large factory and have been doing a fine business since their inception into the business life of this community.

Under the able management of E. B. Brown at the general office and Mr. Rickman, superintendent at the factory, the business has increased in a most satisfactory manner and the important plant is rushed at all times with orders both local and foreign.

This is a Sanford institution and should be patronized by the home people, offering as it does the factory completely equipped for mixing special formulas and guaranteeing prompt shipments.

To the Ladies of Sanford

You are cordially invited to attend an open meeting of the Wednesday Club, which will be held in the Congregational church next Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 11th at 3 o'clock, to hear Mrs. W. B. Young, president of the Woman's Club of Jacksonville, who will be the guest of the Wednesday Club. Mrs. Young will talk on the recent biennial meeting of the Federated Clubs of America which was held in San Francisco, California.

Congregational Church

There will be no preaching in the Congregational church next Sunday owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. D. Langley, who goes to Tampa as a delegate from the church to the state meeting of the Associated Charities. Sunday school at the usual hour, 9:45 a. m.

Next Sunday week the usual services will be resumed at the Congregational church with a special musical program and short sermon in the evening. Special effort will be put forth to make these services attractive and helpful to the increasing numbers who attend.

Porch Bazaar

The Junior Epworth League of the Methodist church will hold a Porch Bazaar at the home of their superintendent, Mrs. L. R. Phillips Saturday afternoon, December 14th.

The Jacksonville News, an afternoon paper that was launched about three weeks ago by E. E. Naugle and J. W. Whitney, has suspended publication. Naugle withdrew from the concern several days ago but Whitney continued on until last Saturday night.

Orange and that she is no longer able to give us a quid pro quo.

In conclusion, little sisters, let your big sister, Sanford, give you one little piece of advice. However much you may love mother Orange, don't be always pulling chestnuts out of the fire for stepfather Orlando.

CURTAIN LETTUCE SHIPMENTS

Sanford Growers Organize to Prevent Glut in Market

Realizing that the northern growers are flooding the markets with lettuce and that the open winter is against the Florida grower this season on early lettuce shipments the majority of the Sanford growers and buyers have signed an agreement not to buy or ship any more lettuce until the 14th day of this month.

By that date the cold weather will have eliminated competition and the markets will be bare of much of the lettuce that has flooded them for weeks past and Sanford growers will have a chance to dispose of their later lettuce.

The lettuce crop now coming on is of very fine quality and would bring a high price now, but for the fact that all the markets are glutted with lettuce from more northern points.

A FINE ATTRACTION

Edward Baxter Perry Will Delight the Music Lovers of Sanford

The Sanford Music Club in bringing Edward Baxter Perry, one of the world's most noted artists, to Sanford fulfills an object of their organization, namely, to encourage the love of good music and bring to our young students opportunities of hearing artistic interpretations, without which no musical training can be finished. Every citizen of Sanford should heartily appreciate and support so worthy an effort. Should feel a natural pride and interest in so notable an occasion.

The admission is determined at the nominal sum of 50 cents. 35c Grammar School so that all may have an opportunity of hearing this masterful performer.

In confidence of the town's support the rental is contracted at a large guarantee. The fact that entire families have in several instances sent in requests for tickets encourage the musicians of Sanford in feeling their confidence of encouragement and support is not misplaced and implies a final sale to and presence of every citizen who is proud of Sanford's progress in musical and artistic, as well as business and financial lines.

Orphanage Work Day

The superintendent, Rev. J. E. Price is pleading for funds to add another building to the Baptist Orphanage in Arcadia. The present buildings are so crowded that another building is necessary in order to accommodate more children.

With the hope of raising $6,000 the superintendent requests that each friend of these boys and girls contribute his or her earnings on December 7th, the annual Orphanage Day, to this worthy cause.

Sunday, Dec. 8th, will be observed as Orphanage Day by the Baptist Sunday School, when contributions to this worthy cause will be gratefully received. Those persons who have not received an Orphanage Day envelope will kindly put offerings in envelopes and drop in collection plates Sunday or send to superintendent of Sunday school, N. J. Perkins or to the pastor, Rev. J. W. Wildman.

First Strawberries

The first strawberries of the season were brought to the city yesterday by O. W. Billingsley, one of the prominent West Side growers. These berries are probably the first in Florida, as we have seen no reports of berries from any part of the state. Mr. Billingsley is making a specialty of diversified crops and seen a bright future in the raising of strawberries in the Sanford celery delta. The strawberries are at Stockton's grocery and you can get them fresh all during the season.

Stetson Glee Club

The Stetson Glee Club will give a concert in the High School Auditorium next Tuesday night. This will be one of the finest musical attractions of the season and will be given for the benefit of the Sanford Library.

A bond election for city improvements is to be held in Hastings some time this month. The main improvement under consideration is the paving of Main street with brick.

NOW FOR KING TOBACCO

Successful Tobacco Grower Will Raise Plant Here

SANFORD HAS THE REQUISITES

Our Soil, Irrigation And Drainage Make Ideal Conditions For The Crops

Sanford is destined to become a tobacco center!

This is assured by the fact that E. K. Embry, an expert tobacco grower and jobber has made arrangements to grow the weed here and having tested tobacco that was raised here several years ago and being thoroughly satisfied with soil conditions, drainage and irrigation, has leased the ground and in the early spring will plant the seed beds and build an immense warehouse on Celery avenue.

Mr. Embry, together with Mr. Cooper, also a tobacco grower has been in the city several days and by the earnest cooperation of the Commercial Club and the enterprising citizens of the celery delta has been enabled to acquire ten acres of good land on Celery avenue east of the Brisson place and what is known as the Mix place and will build his warehouse on the Chappell place.

Mr. Embry rolled several cigars made with filler of tobacco grown on the Terwilliger place several years ago, and despite the fact that the tobacco had never been treated or cleaned it made a most excellent cigar and burned evenly and well.

This tobacco of course would not make a wrapper but the tobacco that Mr. Embry proposes to grow here and cure and sweat by the many processes known only to the tobacco trade will be used for wrappers and the gentlemen in the deal are confident that Sanford soil will make as good a wrapper as the Pearl of the Antilles ever dreamed of growing.

The tobacco now grown in Florida is not raised on irrigated soil probably for the very good reason that in the sections where it has been tried no flowing wells can be obtained. While not requiring irrigation all the time, as lettuce and celery and other tender vegetables, there are periods in the raising of the plants and after they are set in the field when irrigation would be most welcome. Sanford, of course, has the finest system of irrigation known to the world and in case the rainfall is too heavy our system of drainage would also come to the assistance of the tobacco grower and this again makes the Sanford section most desirable for the growing of tobacco or any other plant.

Again, the central location of Sanford, the fine railroad and steamship transportation, the low freight rates, etc., all combine to increase the admiration of the men who would make this the tobacco center of the south, and the gentlemen interested are greatly enthused over the prospects.

One of the most valuable points of tobacco raising in Sanford is that the planting of the seed beds will not commence until late in March, after our big money crops of vegetables have all been cut from the fields and shipped, and the raising of tobacco here means that another rich crop and one that can be stored will be raised after we have used our lands for the growing of winter vegetables and made the money from them.

As a filler, a long filler and a staple filler, King Tobacco will come to the front in favoritism and in a few years the Sanford growers should become tobacco kings.

Prominent Michigan People Here

Mr. John Marks and wife of Jackson, Mich., and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell of Leslie, Mich., were in Sanford two days this week. Mr. Marks is superintendent of the Jackson Automobile Factory at Jackson, Mich., and has been looking over his large land holdings in DeSoto county. Mr. Marks was very favorably impressed with the trucking business of the Sanford section and will invest here in the near future. While in Sanford Mr. Marks stopped at The Michigan, West First St.

The Daytona News will be issued as a daily during the tourist season, making its first appearance Monday. This will be the eighth season for this popular paper. Harry L. Rood is the editor and C. S. Harris city editor.
