GERMAN VIEW ALLIED ACTION WITH SUSPICION

Stressman Decis Allied Refusal to Let Cologne Area Means Complete Bankruptcy of Polal Heads

Dawes Plan Halted Hanging Imbalance

If Decision 'Star Official Says Dawes Plans Merely Financial Rejection Plan

BERLIN, Dec. 31.—The refusal of the allies to evade the Cologne area means a complete bankruptcy of the peal leaders and parties in Germany who favored acceptance of the Dawes report. Foreign Minister Stuppman declared to the correspondents Tuesday. The whole world internal pacification in Germany endangers to the correspondents new food, he insisted.

"If the decision of the allies stands," Dr. Stresemann added, "the Dawes plan simply will be financial and economic scheme of reparations, but not what was expected of it, namely, the beginning of a new era of peace Europe." The foreign minister vigorously denied that Germany was disarmed, and he branded a refusal to evacuate Cologne as a rebuke to the treaty of Versailles.

Dr. Stresemann indicated that he is willing to accept simultaneous evacuation of thaur and the Rhine in the spring the price of the compromise, but that time of allied troops on the Rhine and in Cologne. The quest of who was the author of the promise does not seem to interest him, but undoubtedly when his reports came stating Hughes wire reports in the crisis with a formula—incidentally not a new one—the fact that America, i. e., Germany decided to give careful consideration to it.

Then came the report however, that London had originated the Mussolini in the morning, and Tuesday night L'Eclair Paris is quoted as authority for a statement that Premier Herriot backing it.

Minister Stresemann does not say, in as many words, that will accept the compromise, but he has heard him express himself before, when similar crisis occurred, could read no other interpretation of his remarks.

He began with the national announcement that the Des plan in the London agreement was bankrupt. But he qualified it with the statement that the fault of the old spirit it prevailed at Versailles, which supposed was buried with the agreement. The implication of his words was that if the Day plan is rejected to the atmosphere of the London agreement it will be saved. That this is his view is borne out by his organ, L'Zeit, which outlines the London promise formula at great length, and says evacuation by the middle of April would be acceptable.

ALLIED FINANCE MINISTERS MEET TO BE IMPORTANT

Conference Will Establish Basis For Sharing Funds Derived From Dawes Plan Meeting To Be Next Week

PARIS, Dec. 31.—The conference of allied finance ministers here next week with James A. Logan Jr., American representative with the reparations committee who will represent the United States, is expected by close observers to be far more important event than the original agenda indicated.

The conference, it is understood will be called upon not only to establish a basis for sharing the proceeds of the Dawes reparations plan, but will be asked to revise the percentages among the allies as reparations among the allies as fixed at Spa. An agreement between the French government and the leaders of the Socialist wing of Herriot's majority in the chamber, as revealed in chamber debate and discussions in the lobbies, requires the French delegate to this conference to raise these questions.

Whether war debts will also be discussed at the meetings depends it is said, upon the plans of Winston Churchill, the British chancellor of the exchequer, who is credited here with the intention of bringing this much talked of matter up in some form. Both reparations and war debts are now regarded in French political circles as having reached a point where they can no longer remain without solution.

Business Men Anxious. French business men are particularly anxious to get the debt question out of the way since, they declare, it is now the only element that prevents the final stabilizing of the international financial situation. The yield of the Dawes plan is still regarded as doubtful, but it has the advantage, the business men say, of fixing definitely what France can not count upon. They add that "when we know just what our creditors are going to insist, we can arrange accordingly."

The official viewpoint is much the same as that of the business interests. It is generally admitted in official circles that the debt question must not remain much longer in suspense, but there is a lingering inclination to link all war debts with reparations.

The position of the former Poincare government was that if France paid her war debts, she must also be paid her claims. This generally is admitted to be the present policy of Premier Herriot, although expressed somewhat differently.

Poincare, talked about the right of a debt to demand full payment if asked to make such payment. Premier Herriot has avoided the word "rights," but speaks of "equity." He brought back from London a promise from Premier MacDonald to consider the question in that light.

Herriot's Stand. Poincare, when at the head of the French, declared categorically that France could not pay her war debts unless she recovered her claims. Premier Herriot has avoided such a final sunning up of the issue. But in the meantime, since his predecessors at the French position, the French claims on Germany have been reduced by half under the Dawes plan.

SENATE PASSES 137 MEASURES BEFORE RECESS

House Passes Treasury Post-Office Appropriation Bill But Did Not Take Two Day Recess as Did the Senate

Few Measures Were of Much Importance

Lack of Quorum Keeps House At Standstill For A While; Small Bills Are Up Today

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Speeding up its legislative machinery the senate Tuesday passed 137 bills and resolutions before quitting for its New Year's recess of two days. The house passed the treasury-postoffice appropriation bill, but did not adjourn until Friday, Representative Longworth, of Ohio, a Republican leader, obtaining unanimous consent that the recess be for only one day.

Only a comparatively few of the measures passed by the senate were of major importance, most of them providing for the settlement of private claims and granting authority for the construction of bridges across navigable streams in various streams in various states.

Lack of a quorum kept the house at a standstill for nearly half an hour after a roll call had developed that more members were absent than were on the job to consider the treasury-postoffice appropriation bill. Sergeants-at-arms, by invading the offices of the absentees, however, finally rounded up enough representatives to make a quorum.

Miscellaneous bills pertaining to the postal service will be considered Wednesday. House Passes P. O. Supply Bill. Speeding along at almost an unprecedented legislative clip, the house today passed the treasury-postoffice supply bill which with its $793,000,000 total, is the largest peace-time appropriation measure ever considered by congress.

Chairman Moses announced Tuesday night, the hearings would be finished tomorrow morning and that the senate sub-committee would be asked immediately to consider the bill with a view to setting it before the full postoffice committee and reported to the senate by Monday. At that time the senate is scheduled to take up President Coolidge's veto of the postal pay bill.

While representatives of various organizations were declaring before the sub-committee today that the proposed increase threatened the future of their business, J. L. Suter, representing the National One-Cent Letter League, and urged the committee to consider a reduction in first class mail rates.

Wallace O'Dell of the National Editorial Association, in a statement read by William L. Dale, informed the committee that an increase in second class rates would imperil the existence of 12,000 weekly and small daily newspapers.

All sections of the treasury-post office bill dealing with mints and assay offices and concerning the upkeep and improvement of public buildings were approved by the house as drafted by the house committee.

MANY PROTESTS LODGED AGAINST POSTAL INCREASE

Organizations From Over Country Object to Rate Increase; Congressional Committee Ends Hearing

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Protests from business, publishing and other national organizations, against the proposed increases in postal rates were made before the joint congressional sub-committee Tuesday as it practically concluded hearing on the administration bill providing for increased rates to meet the cost of proposed postal salary advancements.

Chairman Moses announced Tuesday night, the hearings would be finished tomorrow morning and that the senate sub-committee would be asked immediately to consider the bill with a view to setting it before the full postoffice committee and reported to the senate by Monday. At that time the senate is scheduled to take up President Coolidge's veto of the postal pay bill.

While representatives of various organizations were declaring before the sub-committee today that the proposed increase threatened the future of their business, J. L. Suter, representing the National One-Cent Letter League, and urged the committee to consider a reduction in first class mail rates.

All sections of the treasury-post office bill dealing with mints and assay offices and concerning the upkeep and improvement of public buildings were approved by the house as drafted by the house committee.

Just before final action on the bill, Rep. Busby, Democrat, Mississippi moved to recommit to have the appropriation for the play of rural mail carriers raised from $88,850,000 to $89,250,000. The motion was lost 69 to 147.

October Peak Month; Every Month Except Three Show Gain

Building permits issued in Sanford during 1924 through Dec. 30 totaled $676,300 which is $223,125 or an increase of slightly more than 33-1-3 per cent over the amount of permits issued during 1923 which totaled $453,175, according to figures compiled Wednesday morning in the office of the city clerk.

The highest amount represented in permits came during the month of October when $154,710 was the total attained. February came at the bottom of the list as only $9,765 in permits were issued. The greatest total of 1923 was in September and totaled $71,820.

In all, with the exception of three months the permits for months during 1924 show material increase over the monthly reports during 1923.

Permits during January 1924 amounted to $40,777 and outstripped by $12,410 the total of $28,460 which was issued for the corresponding month of 1923. In February, however, the 1924 permits totaled a decided slump, amounting to $9,765 while the permits for February, 1923 soared to $52,995, the third highest monthly total for the year.

In March the permits for this year began to show an increase and amounted to $39,344, exceeding by $9,180 the March 1923 total of $30,165. In April the 1924 permits barely squeezed into the lead over April 1923, amounting to $28,811, thus exceeding last April by the small amount of $761.

A decided increase in May is shown when the 1924 permits totaled $63,676 against $45,475 in June the difference is still more strikingly shown, the 1924 permits amounting to $78,205, outstripping the June 1923 permits, which totaled $26,130, by $52,075.

In July the difference is smaller, the 1924 permits totaling $92,242 against the 1923 total of $45,955. In August, however, the tables are turned and 1923 exceeds the 1924 total by $16,665 the monthly totals being $59,730 against $43,225, the 1924 total.

Permits for September 1924, likewise, trail in amount those issued during the corresponding month of 1923. The figures are $71,029 against $56,316 for 1924, showing a difference of $14,713.

The next three months show overwhelming majorities in the 1924 column. The largest total of permits of the year was issued during October which totaled $154,710 against $112,275, a gain of $42,435. The permits for November 1924 drop down to $43,264 but show a heavy increase over the corresponding month in 1923 which totaled $11,515.

December permits showed a slight decrease from the November total but are several times greater than for the last month of 1923. The figures are $53,285 against $14,225.

MECCA TEMPLE IN NEW YORK IS DEDICATED TODAY

Parade Down Broadway of Arab Patrons in Picturesque Prelude to Event; Building Is Near Theatre District

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—One of New York's most unique buildings, the mosque of Mecca Temple, another temple of the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, was formally dedicated with imposing ceremonies today.

The occasion attracted thousands of Shriners from various sections of the country. A picturesque parade down Fifth Avenue of the Arab patrons, bands and drum corps of 40 temples in the east preceded the event.

The mosque, a quaint bit of the Orient, is located just off the fringe of the theatrical district, and extends between West 65th and 66th streets near Sixth Avenue. It cost $2,500,000.

An immense red tiled dome, surmounted by the symbolic semicircle and crescent, covers the main auditorium, which can seat nearly 5,000 persons. The front of the mosque is of white stone and varicolored terra cotta work. There are only a few slit-like windows on the face of the building and great bronze oriental lamps hang over the half-dozen arched doorways.

On the 50th street entrance there is a 12-story administration building, topped by a roof garden. Three lodge halls, club rooms and the quarters for officers occupy this section. Here also are stored the first records of the Mystic Shrine in North America and the original jewel of the Shrine, worn by the late William J. Florence, actor and dramatist, one of the small handful of founders of Mecca Temple in 1872. Mecca now has a membership of 12,000.

The main auditorium has a stage larger than the majority of theaters in this city, equipped with special scenery and lighted by the most modern devices. The main floor has movable opera chairs, so that it can be used for dancing. Two large galleries reach almost to the base of the dome. A feature of the auditorium is a pipe organ, costing $30,000.

Under the auditorium is a banquet hall, which can seat 2,500 persons, and modern hotel-like kitchens.

The dedicatory ceremonies were in charge of Roslyn M. Cox, of Middletown, N. Y., the illustrious Potentate of the temple. Bishop William T. Manning of the Episcopal diocese of New York delivered the invocation and the ritualistic ceremonies were directed by William A. Rowan, Grand Master of Masons in New York State. Addresses were made by Supreme Court Justice Arthur S. Tompkins, Past Grand Master, and Mayor W. Fredland Kendrick of Philadelphia, Past Imperial Potentate of the Shrine.

Tonight the first ceremonial will be held in the mosque, when 400 novices will, in Shrine language, "cross the hot sands of the desert."

Dutch Find Ruins Of Vast Old City In Sumatra Jungle

THE HAGUE, Holland, Dec. 26.—A romantic story of the discovery of an ancient unknown and uninhabited fortress city comes from Sumatra, one of the largest islands of the Dutch East Indian archipelago.

According to the Sumatra Post, J. L. Hiemstra, a forestry official, journeying in the Upper Langkat region reached a point beyond which the native guides were reluctant to proceed. They walked of a nearby silent city which they had once seen from afar, but never dared approach, as they imagined it to be haunted by evil spirits.

Hiemstra, however, pushed on with a small party and eventually reached a sheer wall of rock of great height and some miles long, with natural bastions and inaccessible except at three points, by one of which the explorers entered.

They came upon a veritable maze of intercommunicating alleys, passages, chambers and cave dwellings. In the center of this fortress town was found a large open space with one huge solitary tree. There were incursions in strange characters, and remains of what seemed ancient tombs. Silence brooded over the place, and although traces of wild mountain goats were observed, not a human soul was seen.

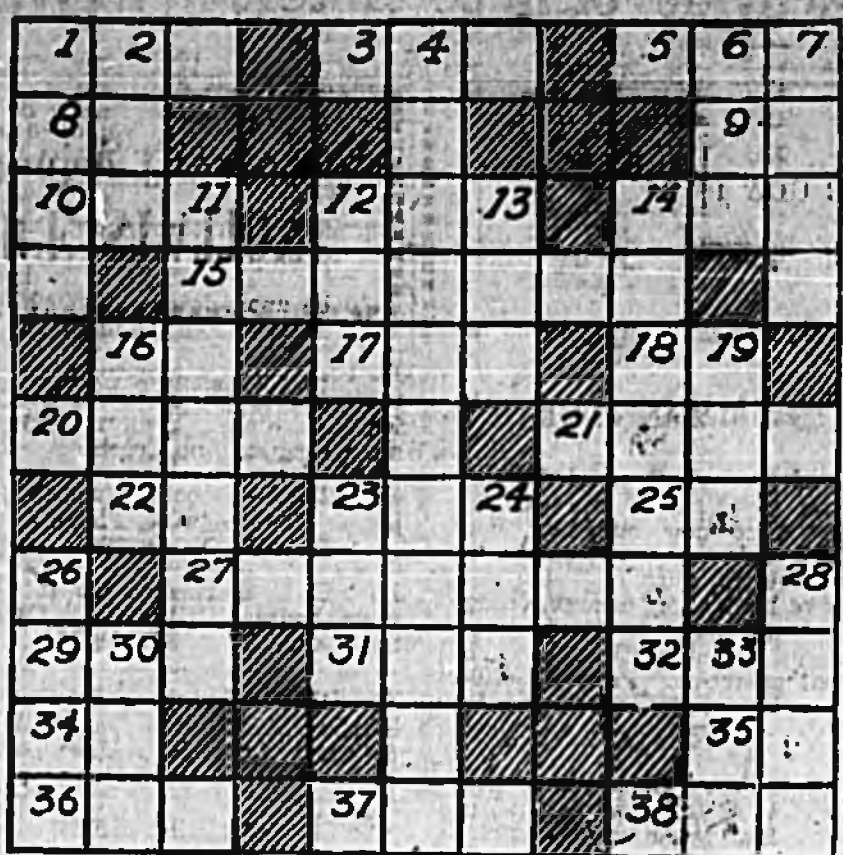

Who the ancient rock-dwellers were and why they abandoned their impregnable stronghold remains a mystery.

New Members Go Into Presbyterian Ranks Next Sunday

Three new members were received into the Sanford Presbyterian church following the morning service Sunday.

The men of the church held an important meeting under leadership of Vice-President A. W. McNeill, at conclusion of the evening service Sunday.

Two visitors were in Sanford during the holidays. Rev. Tenny J. Deane, formerly of Sanford, now assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Charleston, W. Va., and Miss Gussie Hinton, a home missionary stationed at Heidelberg, Ky.

Miss Hinton spoke to the Sunday School in the morning and to the Christian Endeavor Society in the evening, giving an account of the work of the missionaries in the mountain country.

Dr. Deane will be present at the Wednesday night prayer service.

Dr. Brownlee spoke upon the question of joining the church. He told his hearers that it was their duty, not only to God but to themselves and to other men, to affiliate with the church. Dr. Brownlee's text follows:

I think this sermon may appropriately be applied to some people who imagine that because they are honest and deal squarely and live moral lives, there is no necessity for their having membership in the church.

This is one of the ways which seems right but is not. What are some of the implications of such a philosophy? Is such an attitude enough toward God? Toward Man? Are they not relying entirely upon their own strength as a spiritual code? When we recalled that Isaiah, who was close to God, confessed that "I am a man of unclean lips" and even the mighty Paul said "The things I would not do, and the things I would do, I do not" we know that these realized their weaknesses and felt the necessity for help from God. Shall we say we are stronger than one of these? A man must think he is stronger than any other if he proposes to do this. Jeremiah, Isaiah, Paul, could not. Such a course implies an egotism of our own strength.

In the second place, it implies the thought that we are better men—that there is nothing to be forgiven us. We are under infinite obligations to God and this philosophy is not right on that account. He has placed us here, in a most blessed surroundings. Not only this, but we owe much to God because of His Fatherhood of us, and our spiritual privileges. If we withhold and deny this obligation, what are we doing except to deny our relationship to God?

And there emanates from all of us an influence, all but a few exercising this in marked degree. What shall be the result in effect on the personality and manhood of some one else? What shall be that to which you lead him through the force of this inescapable influence? For there are always some who need guidance of a great example who flounder without leadership who find it difficult to be "square" and true and noble, except through force of example.

May God guide our steps in the shadow of the Cross that we may avoid the way which seems right to man, but ends in death.

Shining Tower Of David Again Sees The Light Of Day

JERUSALEM, Dec. 29.—Excavations in progress for six months in Ophel, close to the area where stood the Jewish Temple, seem to have revealed this as the indisputable site of the City of David, according to the Rev. J. Garrow Duncan, director of the Palestine Exploration Fund.

His explorations had led him to what he is convinced is the eastern side of David's City, where he has discovered not only a wall 27 feet thick and which he has traced for 200 yards, but also a magnificent Tower of David. He is certain he has discovered the real Jebusite wall of the fort which was standing when David took it in the year 1000 B. C.

The discovery of remains of the ancient City of David is of great interest to archaeologists, who have long debated the location of the original site of ancient Jerusalem. Mr. Duncan claims that in addition to finally settling this point, he has been able to prove that the site where David's

City stood has been continuously inhabited for over 5000 years, some of the pottery unearthed at Ophel belonging to the cave-dwelling period 3000 years B. C. and before. The site has yielded also basketfuls of Hebrew pottery and any number of jar-handles with Hebrew inscriptions dedicated to Jehovah.

The tower of David, with its clean surface of white limestone, is now once more exposed to the light of day and visible from every part of the city. The Palestine government has declared this part of the ancient wall a national monument, and the tower is being restored.

German Adopting American Method Of Real Operation

DUESSELDORF, Dec. 30.—The German Railway Administration is introducing American efficiency methods.

The bureaucracy, inherited from imperial times, is giving place to business methods. Various subordinates, such as divisional chiefs, are being given much wider latitude of decision and initiative. This is being strengthened by way of reducing operating expenses, the administration is negotiating for the acquisition of saw mills, steel works, etc., in which such of the equipment needed is to be made.

The change of spirit is most noticed in connection with advertising methods. A comprehensive scheme has been mapped out for popularizing travel on the railways of the Reich through folders, maps, moving picture films, and MIAMI, Dec. 26.—The first steps to be taken by Chase when he assumes the office of sheriff of Dade county are announced. He will look after the apprehension of a special squad of emergency men and other matters that may be necessary to add a cycle squad to his force in emergency calls and to take speeders.

So long as the railway system was merely a department of government, there was little hope to make active propaganda for the roads. A trained advertising staff is now at work to change this.

Just as soon as the railway administration is on its feet financially, more comfortable cars are to be constructed and put into service.

How to Solve Puzzle.
The best way to solve this crossword puzzle is to run over the list of horizontal and vertical synonyms in search of evident or "easy" words. If horizontal, the word you are looking for must extend crosswise from the number to the first shaded stop on the right; if vertical, it must extend downward from the number to the first shaded stop below. When finished, the words should read equally well crosswise and downward.

CLEAN KIDNEYS BY DRINKING LOTS OF WATER

Putting too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.
The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate the into activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.
Jad Salts can not injure anyone; make a delightful afternoon lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

HOW TO CONQUER AN ENEMY.—When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Proverbs 10:7.

RING OUT THE OLD, RING IN THE NEW

Ring out wild bells, to the wild sky, The flying cloud, the frosty light; The year is dying in the night; Ring out wild bells, and let him die.

Good Bye 1924.

Say it with bells at midnight. Better hurry, girls, for leap year will soon be gone.

January will be known for its real estate transactions.

Just because a fellow is named Ham is no sign he is one.

At least make an effort to keep your new year resolutions for the whole of the first day.

Sanford will be just what we make it. And it will cost some money.

There are very few cities in Florida that can boast of as many pretty girls as Sanford.

Ashes to ashes and salt to salt, if Sanford doesn't progress, it's her citizens' own fault.

The town that has no boosters is like a musical comedy would be that has no music.

There is no difference between silver dollar and a paper dollar, if the fellow who hasn't either one of them.

It's nice to retire early in life provided it's in the right way, here isn't so much pleasure in being retired by a judge.

Things to worry about: scientists have discovered that the earth's crust is one billion, six hundred million years old.

Oscar Underwood, unucky in his residential aspirations, is still being pursued by the jinx since his uncle Shoals measure seems to be doomed to oblivion.

New York is getting ready for Governor Smith's third inaugural high wall, of course, be on a naller scale than that which anticipated several months ago.

Automobile owners will be able to obtain their 1925 licenses rough the Sanford Chamber of Commerce. This should result in motorist being arrested for not having a new tag.

One real estate office in Miami did so much property in one day that they had to shut down for 30 days in order to get caught up, that's setting rather a fast pace for the rest of the state.

A Harvard professor declares that in forty thousand years man's mind will be as hairless as a billiard ball. Then that ancient invention, the "ball-head row" will come extinct.

Will Sanford have a band for this year? Time is rapidly passing and many people are wondering if it will be necessary to visit Orlando in order to enjoy band concerts.

The Herald hopes Governor Mar will choose the right man to the office of county judge because able and competent men are hard more than ever to sit on bench.

If you don't believe people are coming more and more interested Florida, ask the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce about the rising number of inquiries which are swelling his mail every day.

A German engineer has invented high pressure condensing steam motive which he has chosen called hochdruckkondensationsdampfmaschine. Cross-ward rumors are urged to supply a card in four letters meaning the word thing.

Where shall I go to get it? Itally asks the man or woman who want to be supplied. "Don't come!" says the merchant advertiser. "Here are the things you want, here is the money you need." Newspaper advertiser is the most traveled bridge between supply and demand. That's what it pays the advertiser. —Augustine Record.

Nineteen-twenty-four has brought some fine gifts to Sanford. Before telling the old year goodbye, Sanford citizens could have a pleasant hour or so, counting up the blessings of one kind and another that have made their town stand forth as one of the state's best-favored. The Herald will not attempt to publish the list here. It will not even endeavor to point out the most important signs of Sanford's prosperity. Every intelligent citizen can do that for himself. But there is something bigger and finer than the best of prosperity and sturdy growth that has come into vigorous being in Sanford this year. Of this, The Herald wants to speak.

We want to speak of the unquestionable awakening of a new understanding of what makes a town worth while. Sanford has seen in the last twelve months better team-work among her citizens, better neighborliness, greater willingness to pull together for the common good than has ever been evinced before.

Reading that the good of all means the good of each, and that unity of purpose and earnest co-operation can speed up every undertaking, the citizens of Sanford—men and women, old and young—have been laying aside their personal affairs in the interest of the public welfare. They have come forward and taken hold of the big rope, and with a hearty "all together" they are pulling shoulder to shoulder for the common good.

"Selling Sanford" to the world, building Sanford for the greater days that are coming this way so fast, the awakened citizens of "The City Substantial" seem to have adopted a working slogan, that calls for "the everlasting team-work of every blooming soul."

Fine gifts old Nineteen-Twenty-Four brought to Sanford, but the best of them was the Something that awakened the new Sanford Spirit.

You can, You Know

There is magic in the coming of a New Year. This Wednesday night is quite like any other Wednesday night so far as its place in our real lives is concerned. Every day is the beginning of a new year. Every night brings an old year to its close.

But the New Year on the calendar, the year we are to number 1925, comes on magic sandals. It comes to open doors into a beautiful new land of Opportunity. And looking eagerly for its arrival we scarcely hear the closing of the door that puts behind us forever the opportunities of 1924.

Last year about this time you may have been marshaling your New Year's resolutions for their formal adoption on January 1. And today you may be feeling decidedly ashamed of how far you failed to live up to them. But if you are feeling the right call of the New Year, you will make some more good resolutions, and try again to do those better things which you know you ought to do—and CAN do.

That is it, the feeling that you CAN do the things that are worth while to do. And then the grit and industry to really do them.

As you watch the old year out tonight, there will be standing by your side the Angel of 1925, a kindly, happy-faced Angel eager to give you the hand of good fellowship, and guide you among the pleasant, prosperous places of the New Year.

What the new year is to be is very much "up to you". Start in with the determination to make every day of the entire three hundred and sixty-five count for something. Say to yourself, "I will bring out my best powers this year. I will do the best work I have ever done. I will not fritter away my time. And when I come to the end of the next twelve months I will have something good to look back upon. I will have made the world somewhat better for the service I have rendered in 1925."

Those Who Would Have Must Give.

What would you think of a rose that would say to itself, "I cannot afford to give away to strangers all my beauty and sweetness. I must keep it for myself. It is wasteful extravagance to give these things away?" But behold, the moment it tries to store up, to withhold them from others, they vanish. The fragrance, the beauty, do not exist in the unopened bud. It is only when the rose begins to open itself, to exhibit its petals, to give its secret, its life to others, that its beauty and fragrance are developed.

So selfishness defeats its own ends. He who refuses to give himself for others, who closes the petals of his helpfulness, and withholds the fragrance of his sympathy and love, finds that he loses the very thing he hoped to gain. The very springs of his manhood dry up. His finer nature becomes petrified. He grows deaf to the cries of help from his fellow-men. His tears are dried up, and he stares at misfortune without wincing.

Refuse to open your purse, and soon you cannot open your sympathy. Refuse to love, and you soon lose the power to love. Your affections are paralyzed, your sympathy atrophied from disuse, and you become a moral cripple. But the moment you open wide the door of your narrow life, and like the rose send out without stint your fragrance and beauty upon every passer-by, whether peasant or millionaire, you begin to develop a marvelous power.—Marden.

Do not let the idea enter your mind that you are opposed in your work. There is no opposition to those who are working in the name of Christ Jesus.—Unity.

The greatest part of what we say and do is really unnecessary. If a man takes this to heart he will have more leisure and less uneasiness.—Marcus Aurelius Antoninus.

MAN BALTIMORE SUN

No man can hope to conduct himself in a manner to please his fellows. If by deviation from complete neutrality he contrives to please one group, he displeases another in like degree; and if he remains neutral both sides curse him.

If he is easily persuaded to open his purse for those who have and stories to tell, he is called an easy mark; and if he keeps what is his and advises beggars to go to work, he is called a tightwad.

If he resents shabby treatment and stands up for his rights, he is called a quarrelsome fellow; and if not for the sake of peace he endures abuse and turns the other cheek, there is whispered comment concerning his yellow streak.

If he denounces reformers whose chief delight is to meddle, he is called an instrument of the devil and an enemy of sound morality; and if he espouses reform and is called a killjoy and other names of greater horsepower.

If he devotes all of his waking hours to his business, people call him a sordid materialist and a money grabber; and if he indulges in some sport to preserve his health, he is called a loafer and a bad example for the young.

If he denounces the evils that develop in all long-established governments, he is called a dangerous radical; and if he defends the present scheme of things, despite its faults, people wonder in what particular grant he is sharing.

If he marries and settles down, people wonder why he so tamely surrendered his liberty; and if he marries and doesn't settle down, they wonder why his wife continues to tolerate him.

As Disbance Sees It

If He Came Again. And Follette St. James. La Follette Beat Roosevelt. Revenge, of Course. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1924)

GREATER LOVE hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

While children should find in Christmas Day only happiness, men and women remember that the real meaning of the day is based upon those last hours on Golgotha, "the skull," a bare hill, outside Jerusalem and on the last sad words: "Father, forgive them, for they know what they do." And they had their raiment, and cast lots.

He would not be so harshly treated, while returned now to earth. The Roman punishment, crucifixion, has been abolished, by all but a few of the more savage religious fanatics.

But what sort of welcome would the founder of Christianity find here, if he returned, urging the rich to take all they have and give to the poor. Quotations from his preachings, sent to our high "Christian" authorities, would cause his deportation, unless a miracle were worked to prevent it.

AS FOR ST. JAMES, if he came to the United States, it is easy to guess what would happen to him. Our patriotic national defense societies would soon land him in jail as a rabid Bolshevik, merely by sending to the District Attorney these samples of his writings:

"From whence come wars and fighting among you? Come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members? Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth eaten.

Those three verses would be enough to send St. James looking for a bondsman, in our Christian age.

ON SUCH A day as this, the usual run of the world's news seems unimportant. If men really believed what they profess and hear in sermons, if they thought that Gabriel, at any moment, might arrive, blowing his horn, raising the dead, and taking the living up with him how unimportant the closing price of "steel" would seem.

But the stock market is real; we know it, we buy and sell it. The things of the spirit and of faith we cannot grasp, so we postpone giving them serious attention.

THE FINAL accurate figures on the selection are not exactly related to Christmas solemnity, but they interest you.

Those that were half scared to death by the La Follette campaign will be surprised at his vote, and that refers especially to those badly frightened patriots, friends of the late Theodore Roosevelt, who explained carefully that La Follette's independent campaign bore no likeness to the holy Bull Moose T. R. campaign.

HOLY OR NOT, La Follette's vote as an independent was bigger than the vote cast for Theodore Roosevelt as an independent. La Follette got 4,822,119 votes, 606,299 more than Roosevelt got. And La Follette had all the corporate newspapers lying about him and had no rich men like Munsey and Perkins spending their cash to help him.

PRESIDENT Coolidge was elected by the biggest plurality ever given to any President, greater even than Harding's plurality.

John W. Davis got fewer votes than Cox got in his attempt. Both their votes combined would have been about enough to beat Coolidge. The Democrats ought to do some thinking before 1928, unless they are content as they were last June, to pick out a candidate satisfactory to "big interests" and run him, not to be elected, but just in case of accidents.

ADVICE GIVEN to the Campaign Girls for 1925 is good advice. It includes these items: Sleep with windows open. Eat green vegetables. Use no slang. That's to improve the mind. Slang stupefies the brain. Speaking in a low tone. A voice soft and low, as King Lear said, when he lost his good daughter, is an excellent thing in woman, and it encourages marriage. A human fog horn, with bobbed hair, a painted face and conspicuous legs, may be amusing for a while, but is not chosen, by the intelligent as a steady matrimonial diet.

THE ONE DARK spot, as the new year approaches, is in Europe. The English refuse to withdraw their troops from Cologne, on the ground that Germany is secretly preparing for war. Britain formally charges that Germany's Green Police and Reichswehr are part of a much bigger secret armed force.

That charge coming from the British, anxious only to forget war and begin selling goods, is distributing to the world's peace of mind.

GERMANY, of course, wants revenge, just as the French wanted it after 1876, and got it.

Young Germans are trained for war, as a matter of course. Germany is doing exactly what the United States would be doing if, through our own fault, or otherwise, we had been crushed, humiliated and robbed by a coalition of nations.

ANNUAL WOMAN'S CLUB BALL GIVEN AT CLUBHOUSE TUESDAY NIGHT IS BRILLIANT EVENT

Never has the Sanford Woman's Club looked more attractive than Tuesday evening when the Social Department of the Sanford Woman's Club entertained with its annual Christmas Ball. Caricatures of feathery fern interspersed with gay polonaises were entwined about the balcony rail and pillars. Two small Christmas trees beautifully decorated with myriads of many colored lights were placed at each side of the stage. An abundance of bamboo was placed about to give the room an air of tropical loveliness while the shaded lights and the many beautifully gowned guests made the scene one to delight the eye.

Mrs. Walter Morgan chairman of the Social Department, Mrs. Henry Wight, president of the club and Mrs. W. D. Gardner, vice-chairman of the department formed the receiving line.

Mrs. Morgan was delightfully gowned in a creation of deep yellow ostrich.

Mrs. Wight wore a beautiful gown of white lace with corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Gardner was gowned in black velvet trimmed in sequins with a corsage of red.

The grand march which is always a feature of the "Woman's Club Ball" was lovely with many new and delightful features. It was led by Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Gardner.

During the intermission a pleasing refreshment was served. The music furnished by the Fort Pitt Collegians of Orlando was particularly splendid.

There were a large number of members of the department present and the following guests: Dr. and Mrs. Schumacher of Euclid, Miss Della F. Bouchell of New Smyrna, Miss Alice M. Dresen of Orlando, Miss Ruth Mettinger of Jacksonville, Miss atherine Ray of Panama, Miss Sheldon of New Smyrna, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Miss Stokes Entertains In Honor Of Miss Green

Miss Dorothy Stokes was the gracious hostess Tuesday evening at an informal dinner party honoring Miss Virginia Green of Jacksonville, the house guest of Miss Lilly Ruth Spencer.

The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated with radiance roses. The dainty place cards helped to make the table especially attractive as did the quantity of roses and the tall pink tapers in silver candelabra.

Covers were laid for eight. Following the six course dinner, bridge was enjoyed to a late hour. Miss Emma Spencer held high score and was awarded a bottle of perfume. The honoree was also given a bottle of perfume as a memento of the occasion.

Miss Stokes was assisted in curving for her guests by her mother Mrs. C. W. Stokes and Miss Hazel Sorrell.

The guest list included, Miss Virginia Green of Jacksonville, Miss Martha Tufts of Orlando, Miss Kitty DuBose, Miss LeClair Jones, Miss Alberta Aycock, Miss Emma Spencer, Miss Lilly Ruth Spencer and Miss Carolyn Spencer.

Lovely Luncheon Given For Miss Dutton

Mrs. Sandy Anderson entertained with a lovely luncheon Tuesday, honoring Miss Frances Dutton who is attending art school in Philadelphia and who is spending the holidays at home.

The table was attractive with its decorations of red sweet peas and favors and place cards also carried out the cheery yuletide coloring.

A delicious luncheon was served at one o'clock. Covers were laid for Mrs. Sandy Anderson, Miss Frances Dutton, Miss Margaret Zachary, Miss Anna Dollose, Mrs. Marion Hand and Miss Fern Ward.

Miss Maude Lake has as her guest Miss Rosalind Williamson of Gainesville.

won the prize. When cutting the cakes the favors were drawn by Kathleen Adams, the ring, John Minerick the button, Leon Loosing the dime and Helen Wilson, the thimble.

Ice cream and cake were served and 40 little friends of the young hostess attended.

Mrs. Adams was assisted by Mrs. Hugh Clayton and Miss Fannie Clayton of Tampa, Miss Corinne Steinmeir of Jacksonville, Mrs. Zeb Rathoff and Mrs. Sam Bradford.

LITTLE MISS KATHLEEN ADAMS CELEBRATES SEVENTH BIRTHDAY

Little Miss Kathleen Adams was the delightful young hostess to a number of her friends Tuesday afternoon at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams on the "Heights." The occasion being a celebration of her seventh birthday anniversary.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with poinsettias, Christmas greens and a beautiful, lighted Christmas tree held the place of honor upon which were the attractive favors which were given to the children. In the dining room the table was exceptionally beautiful, a large bowl of red radiance roses and ferns was placed upon a lace cloth. At one end of the table was the birthday cake for Kathleen and at the other was one for her small cousin Hugh Clayton of Tampa who was also celebrating a birthday: his second. The cakes were iced in white with red rose buds and tiny red tapers with ferns arranged about them.

Games were played during the afternoon, one an animal contest in which little Miss Edna Rivera

"GATORS" PLAY 5 CONFERENCE TEAMS IN 1925

Official Schedule For Next Year Announced Tuesday by Athletic Director White; Schedule Free From Inter-Conference Contests Which Were Prevalent This Year

GAINESVILLE, Dec. 31.—Florida university's complete and official 1925 football schedule was made public here Tuesday night by James L. White, Jr., director of athletics.

In decided contrast with the brilliant grid menu of last fall, the "fighting Gators" next season will be away but a total of eight days, while in 1924, the Orange and Blue traversed more than 8,000 miles, penetrating into the far southwest and East.

Two new opponents appear in the 1925 card, Alabama and Clemson, both members of the Southern conference.

The schedule is vastly different from the 1924 assignment. Army, Texas and Drake, all inter-sectional opponents of last season, do not hold forth on the Gators program. Director White in framing the 1925 schedule confirmed the Floridians to the South entirely, Clemson S. C., being the furthest point from Gatorland the squad will play.

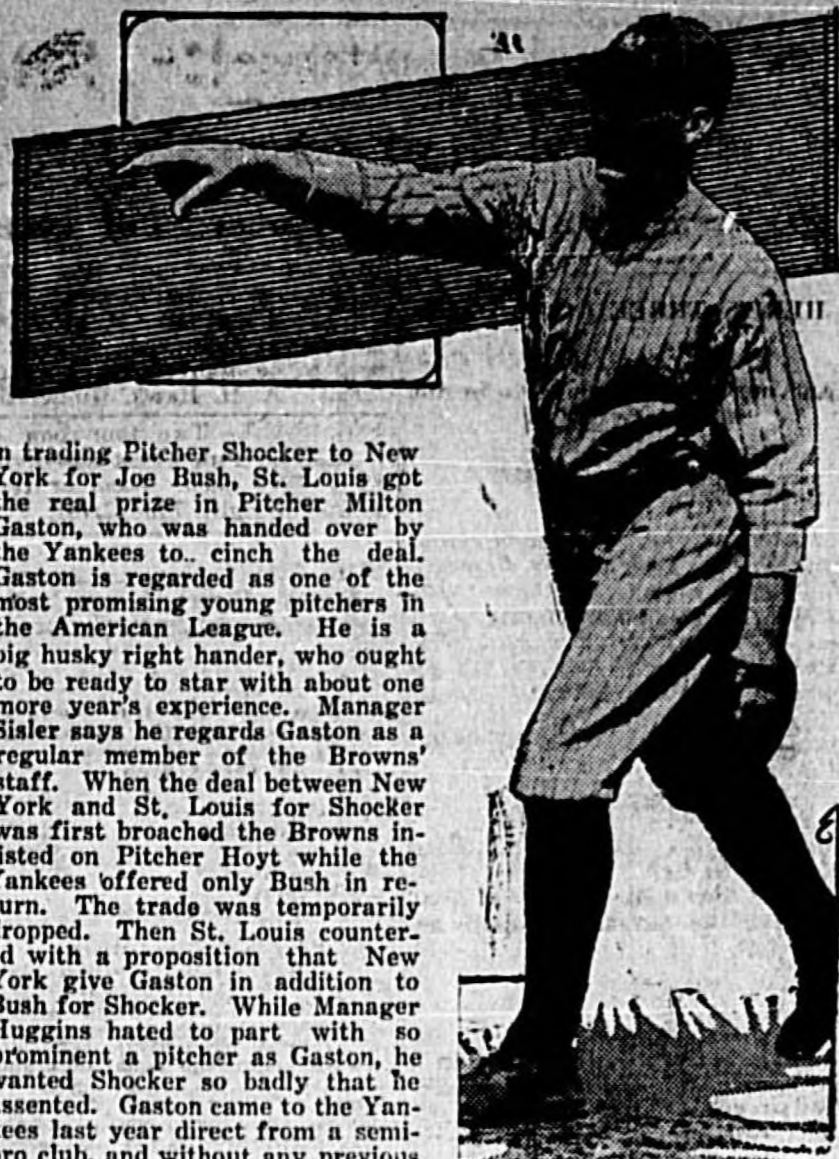

In eliminating foreign battles, director White has billed a most representative schedule from out of the Southern conference, five entries having cast lots with the Florida eleven.

The schedule will not open until October 3 when Florida vies with Mercer, an S. A. A. machine that in 1924 was the only opponent to hold the "fighting Gators" scoreless, and one of the two teams to gain a victorious verdict during the season.

As officially announced Tuesday night the 1925 schedule follows:

- Oct. 3, Mercer university at Jacksonville or Gainesville.
- Oct. 10, Southern College at Gainesville.
- Oct. 17, Georgia Tech at Atlanta.
- Oct. 24, Wakeforest at Gainesville. (Homecoming day.)
- Oct. 31, Rollins college at Gainesville.

Browns Land Young Star

Alex Gaston, who for years was called by McGraw on the New York Giants' catching staff.

In trading Pitcher Shocker to New York for Joe Bush, St. Louis got the real prize in Pitcher Milton Gaston, who was handed over by the Yankees to cinch the deal. Gaston is regarded as one of the most promising young pitchers in the American League. He is a big husky right hander, who ought to be ready to star with about one more year's experience. Manager Sisler says he regards Gaston as a regular member of the Browns' staff. When the deal between New York and St. Louis for Shocker was first broached the Browns insisted on Pitcher Hoyt while the Yankees offered only Bush in return. The trade was temporarily dropped. Then St. Louis countered with a proposition that New York give Gaston in addition to Bush for Shocker. While Manager Huggins hated to part with so prominent a pitcher as Gaston, he wanted Shocker so badly that he assented. Gaston came to the Yankees last year direct from a semi-pro club, and without any previous league experience did so well that he was used by Huggins as relief pitcher in a number of important games. Gaston is a brother of

GRID COACHES DECRY USE OF SLOW PICTURES

Movies Used For Purpose of Scouting to Coach Teams Frowned Upon By National Athletic Association Meeting in New York; Summer Baseball Not Up Tuesday

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Condemning as "unethical practice" the use of still or motion pictures in coaching or scouting of an intercollegiate football team, the National Collegiate Athletic Association Tuesday adopted a resolution forbidding the use of such modern adjuncts to gridiron science in the 230 colleges under its jurisdiction and at the same time adopted a resolution ordering a sweeping investigation of summer baseball activities of intercollegiate players.

Branding the practice of the use of movies, as a deliberate violation of the spirit of college football and contending that if such a practice was allowed to grow, football would be relegated into a business institution instead of a sport and make a football game a contest between coaches instead of between players, the association unanimously adopted a resolution introduced by J. P. Richardson of Dartmouth, barring the use of slow or fast films in either coaching or scouting.

The summer baseball issue was not discussed but the resolution authorized the executive committee to appoint a committee to investigate this practice with the idea of curtailing it.

Every phase of college athletics was discussed at today's session and reports were read by the chairman of the various committees representing the ten branches of intercollegiate athletic activities.

A communication from the Football Coaches' Association of America requesting that the N. C. A. A. appoint a member of the coaches' organization to the football committee was referred to the executive committee for later action.

The executive committee of the National Research Society of which Daniel Chase, supervisor of physical education in New York is the president, met in connection with the N. C. A. A. meeting and
