

Feds Sign 3-Year Grid Pact With Orlando Edgewater

Sanford To Play In Tangerine Bowl On Nov. 20; Orlando Comes Here In '53

By KENT CHETLAIN
Weeks of gridiron negotiations between Sanford and Orlando Edgewater have culminated here today with the signing of a three-year pact which will see the two schools play in the Tangerine Bowl on Nov. 20 and Orlando come here in 1953.

The pact, which was signed by Sanford Principal Herman E. Morris and Edgewater Principal Fred Gann, provides for a three-year pact which will see the two schools play in the Tangerine Bowl on Nov. 20 and Orlando come here in 1953.

The pact provides for a three-year pact which will see the two schools play in the Tangerine Bowl on Nov. 20 and Orlando come here in 1953.

Both grid coaches, Bill Fleming and Fred Gann, were happy with the new arrangement since it will balance up the number of home games with the road trip in 1953.

This year the Fed will play six home and four road games. Before the Edgewater pact, the Seminoles had only three home games slotted out of the eight games scheduled for 1952. With the addition of Edgewater to the home schedule will give the Fed four home games here and five on the road next season.

The two coaches believe the Seminoles can hold their own with Edgewater on the football field. As Gann put it, "Since Orlando divided its gigantic Senior high school into Edgewater and home, we now have a better chance to play them on a equal footing."

Previously, Orlando had over 3,000 students in grades 10 through 12th grades, now Edgewater has around 600 pupils, which makes them almost the same size as we are, Gann added.

"Edgewater has won only two games this year and are not too powerful since the players were divided between the two schools," Fleming pointed out. "I would credit them no better than Ketterling."

The two coaches conceded the fact that some people will not like this new playing arrangement since it looks as though Edgewater is trying to play out of its class. However, they firmly believe the grid pact is a good thing for the team.

"There have been many people who wanted this game and thought Orlando wouldn't play us, so they should be happy," they agreed.

Negotiations were first started by Edgewater, Morris said. "We were receptive of course with an extra playing date open, but we didn't want to just play a game and lose money."

He didn't deny the fact that Edgewater wanted to play here this year but was refused because Seminoles High wanted home games for next year's expanded road-game schedule.

Leading Stetson Scorer Werner Is Lost For Season

DELAND — Stetson's Hatters, going back to work today to get ready for East Carolina State, received crushing news that their leading scorer, Fullback Herb Werner, is lost for the season.

Werner received a broken rib, after being smacked in the shoulder last Saturday's 4-6 tie with Florida State University. He has scored 60 points for Stetson this year.

Coach Jay Patton said Werner will have himself sidelined last week by injuries, will be ready for this Saturday afternoon's homecoming game as a replacement.

"We're worried," Patton said. "The Hatters had a day of rest Monday. Today Patton plans to concentrate on strengthening the offensive attack which was at a low ebb against FSU because of the players nursing injuries."

Gators LaPradd And Casares Win Honors

JACKSONVILLE — Florida's versatile Fullback Rich Casares and Defensive Tackle Charlie LaPradd were tops for state colleges in the week-end poll of the opinion of sports writers.

Casares was chosen best of the week for his great running and blocking in a 20-0 victory over Miami on Saturday. He scored 100 points in the game.

LaPradd was chosen best of the week for his great blocking in a 20-0 victory over Miami on Saturday. He scored 100 points in the game.

No. 3's Tie No. 4 In Regular Play; Bob Gaston Leads Champs In Final

Sailors on Team No. 4 staged a whitening finish to ensure the Navy Howling League championship by winning last Sunday's title play-off series with No. 3's, two games to one, at the Sanford Howling Alley.

The winning Tara forced the issue on the closing night of regular season play last Thursday evening by nipping the No. 1's in two of three while No. 3's were taking a series from No. 5 which resulted in a Tuesday deadlock.

The No. 3's had a better record of 17-10 to 16-11, but No. 4's tied the leaders on a basis of team points. The decisive play-off Sunday night, which the No. 4's rose to the occasion to win twice in three sets.

The Sailor event, which is composed of men in PARSON 821, was forced to close their eight-week season, suddenly, when the group received their transfer orders last week. VJ-62 unit will replace the Navy boys at the Sanford Howling Alleys tonight.

The consistent bowling 442 gave No. 4 their victory which gave No. 1's, Frank Marklin's 452 was the best series for the losers.

Coleman Yates splattered 192 pins in No. 3's win over No. 5, who were led by St. Peter's 475 series. In a game that didn't matter much, No. 6's claimed a pair out of three sets over No. 2. Frank Dumont paced the winning assault with a 457 while Lou Caro downed 452 pins in the series for the top score on the losing end.

The Thursday night playing date will not be filled by the new Navy VJ-62 circuit because they will play on Tuesday nights. Another Navy team may be formed in the future, Bill Hartwick, manager of the Sanford Alleys, said today.

Rogero's 164 Avg. Takes Navy Loop Pin Championship

"Hot" Rogero is the official champion of the abbreviated Navy Howling circuit the final league averages revealed today. The consistent rolling sailor maintained a 164 percentage in nine games to top his nearest opponent Bill Stapel by three pins per game.

Stapel, like Rogero only played nine games of the 27 total in the top. Stapel, whose average was 161, led the league for the highest single game with a 206 performance.

Lou Caro, who played 24 games before a transfer order closed out the season last Thursday night, led the second most pins, 3736, and captured third place among the individual Navy bowlers with a 161 average.

Coleman Yates claimed fourth high with a 156 average. Bob Gaston, the only player to roll every game in the 27-series league, downed the most pins with a 3741 total.

Rogero won the high individual series with a 527 effort. Here are the final averages for 1952 in the Navy Howling League.

At 7:30 p. m. tonight, amid the early fragmentary election returns, Seminole High School's powerful Junior Varsity football squad will be unveiled before the local fans for the first time when the Holy Fed's will clash with the DeLand 'B' team under the light at Memorial Stadium.

Newly hired coach, John "Scotty" Scott, who has rolled up an impressive record of two wins and one defeat with his JV charges this year will guide the future Sanford grid greats in a game that sees the locals an 18 point favorite over DeLand.

The last time these two clubs met earlier this season in DeLand, over 300 fans watched the power running of Johnny Jones, Randall Reynolds, Dallas Turner and Ralph Floyd's turn the game into a rout as Sanford cruised to an easy 31-6 triumph.

Half prices will be charged for tonight's game. Fifty cents for adults and 25 cents for children. In Principal Herman E. Morris presided the game would be over by 9:00 o'clock permitting fans to get home in time to hear the first large election returns.

The Junior Feds defeated Maland by a lopsided 32-0 score while losing 18-0 to Edgewater's JV's two weeks ago in posting their 2-1 record. The Seafarers will play their remaining two games in the Memorial Stadium. The next contest will pit Maland of Daytona Beach against Sanford on the night of Tuesday, Nov. 11. Then Edgewater will come to town on Nov. 18 to end the season.

Scott ventured no forecast for the evening's game other than to say, "We will be ready for them."

Tech Uses Moves To Get Ready For Big Army Contest

By The Associated Press
Fresh from their 28-7 victory over Duke last week, Georgia Tech's Yellow Jackets are preparing their wings for flight against the Army Cadets Saturday.

Coach Bobby Dodd and his aides went into darkened projection rooms yesterday to study moving pictures of the West Pointers in action.

Comment by Dodd sounded as if he's counting heavily on backs Bill Brigman, Leon Hardeman, Bill Fens and Glenn Turner to carry the torch against Army. He singled them out and said, "At its best, our backfield is without a superior in the country."

The University of Georgia also faces a tough assignment with Pennsylvania on Philadelphia's Franklin Field Saturday.

Coach Wally Butts said he's planning to use more freshmen in an attempt to spare his Bulldogs from further trampling by hard running attacks of the sort to which they were subjected at the hands of Maryland, Florida and Alabama.

Louisiana State University and Tennessee lock horns in a battle of strong men at Baton Rouge. LSU has lost five and won twice this season, but Coach Gaynell Tinsley is telling the boys not to be downhearted. "No game is ever lost until it's played," he said at yesterday's practice. "We are going to begin tomorrow to be the winners."

Tennessee's Coach Bob Neyland got the good news yesterday that the Vols came through the game with North Carolina in tip-top physical shape and that guard Francis Holman should be ready to play against LSU. Holman missed the North Carolina game because of a knee injury.

Mississippi State and Auburn resumed practice aimed at their clash Saturday in a homecoming game at Auburn. Both teams nursed some injuries in games last week but none was serious.

Tulane, flushed with victory over Mississippi State last week, looks like they will play Kentucky with some apprehension because of an injury. Outstanding guard Al Hobbs probably will be on the sidelines with a wracked knee.

Writer Predicts Tech To Receive Orange Bowl Bid

New Year's Contest Officials Refuse To Make Comment

By MORRIS MCLEMORE
Miami Daily News Columnist
MIAMI — There is every indication that Georgia Tech-undefeated, untitled and third in today's national Associated Press pollings—will bring its fleet, powerful Engineers here for the 1953 Orange Bowl classic.

This will be the fifth time since 1940 that a Tech team has played here and the second successive classic for Bobby Dodd's slick and sure operatives.

Neither Dodd nor the Orange Bowl selection committee chairman H. D. (Buck) Freeman, would say this morning that the agreement has been made, but it is known that Tech's squad has indicated to Dodd that the decision of which bowl bid to accept is up to him.

While the Orange Bowl has made no formal bid, both the local committee and the Sugar Bowl of New Orleans are hot after the Atlanta authorities. An informal decision could be reached today but the formal announcement cannot be made until the Dec. 1 deadline for acceptance of bids, established by the Southeastern Conference.

Tech's first appearance in the Orange Bowl came in 1940, when the Engineers outaged

Popularity Of Eisenhower Is Record In Size

More Votes Cast For Ike Than Were Ever Before Recorded In History Of Country

By The Associated Press
A cold appraisal of election statistics today leads to the conclusion that President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower enjoys a nationwide popularity to which few, if any, other men in history could lay claim.

The political fires which blazed across this nation for four long months have been reduced to embers and it is easier to discard personalities and examine statistics. Here are some things the statistics show:

1. Eisenhower received more votes than any presidential candidate in history—more than 35 million. No other man in history has received more than 30 million.

2. His immense vote appeal swept into office with him a majority of Republican candidates for the Senate, the House of Representatives and for governors of the several states.

3. His electoral vote total was the second highest ever piled up by a Republican—just a shade under the total accumulated by Herbert Hoover in 1928 when religious prejudice against his opponent, Alfred E. Smith, figured prominently in the returns.

4. Eisenhower shattered the once "Solid South," winning three of the most staunchly Democratic states in the country and apparently adding four of the almost always Democratic border states.

5. He punctured the Democratic strongholds of Massachusetts and Rhode Island where Irish-Catholic citizens have voted in blocs for the Democrats for a quarter of a century.

6. Of the nation's 146,370 voting units, all but 8,452 had been tabulated by daybreak today. Eisenhower had piled up a vote total of 32,497,888 compared to 26,158,658 for Adlai Stevenson, his Democratic opponent. The total was 58,656,546, nearly 10 million more than the previous record high.

7. In the Electoral College, where presidents actually are chosen, Eisenhower has won 412 votes against 89 for Stevenson. Some states might yet swing over to Stevenson, particularly Missouri and Tennessee, but it is highly unlikely that Kentucky might yet go to Eisenhower.

8. Hoover received 444 electoral votes in 1928. Eisenhower has won 412. Only one other Republican—Warren Harding—got more than 400 electoral votes. That was in 1920 when Harding won over James Cox, 404 1/2.

9. Virginia, Florida and Texas went Republican. In addition to Missouri and Tennessee, the border states that went for Ike were Maryland and Oklahoma.

10. Eisenhower ran far, far ahead of his party, sweeping Republicans into office with him and easily over strong Democratic opposition. In Wyoming, for instance, Sen. Joseph D. Mahoney, a highly ranked Democrat, lost to Sen. Frank E. Barrett when Eisenhower took the state, ending a Democratic grip on its voters. The same thing happened in Arizona where Sen. Ernest McFarland, Democratic majority leader, lost to Barry Goldwater, a political novice.

11. Whether Eisenhower will retain his tremendous popularity through the next four years remains to be seen. His majorities in both houses of Congress are very thin indeed—48 in the Senate and 110-101 in the House. Eight races in the House have not yet been decided, but Democrats are leading in all of those contests and if they all win, the 230-214 alignment will result.

12. Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon holds the key to whether the Republicans will have a working majority in the organization of the Senate. He was elected a Republican but bolted the party to support Stevenson.

13. If he lines up with the Democrats, the alignment will be 48-48 with Vice President Richard Nixon having the opportunity to resolve the tie in favor of the Republicans. Republicans gained five governors in Tuesday's voting, boosting their lead in the states' gubernatorial mansions from two to 13. That ratio will hold if the two races still in doubt, in Michigan and Montana, go the way they are headed now.

14. Before the voting, there were 25 Republican governors and 15 Democratic. Now there are 29 GOP governors and 17 Democrats.

Official Returns Are Completed By Canvassing Board

No Changes Indicated Over Returns As Reported Yesterday

Official election returns today, including some 400-odd absentee ballots, failed to change the outcome of any race or issue as reported yesterday in the Herald's unofficial returns of Tuesday's election in Seminole County.

The 84-year-old Democratic dean of the House, known as "the congressman with a golden heart," had just been elected Tuesday to his 24th straight term in a district in the heart of Chicago.

Sabath had served under eight presidents, starting with Theodore Roosevelt in 1907.

For many years he had been chairman of the powerful House Rules Committee, which decides what bills will come up for floor action.

He was a prime figure in "New Deal" and "Fair Deal" legislation—author of a workman's compensation act, sponsor of the first old age pension, champion of a subcommittee on Peace Power.

This indicated that while the county went for the GOP's candidate, Eisenhower, it was by no means backing the Republican's state slate.

The hospital bond issue was endorsed by both the city and county voters. Sanford supported the hospital by almost a 10-1 margin while county voters backed the projected bond issue by a better than 2-1 plurality.

Final figures on the hospital were 4,242 for and 912 against. Only 883 voters in the City were opposed to the hospital while 870 were opposed to it in the county.

Somewhat closer was the fight for a new county zoning ordinance. A 2,186 to 1,614 vote on Sanford beat out carry the act over the county as rural voters opposed the new law by a 1,046 to 854 margin. The final vote was 8,010 to 8,664 in favor of the zoning law.

Illinois Legislator Had Been Elected To His 24th Term

The hospital bond issue was endorsed by both the city and county voters. Sanford supported the hospital by almost a 10-1 margin while county voters backed the projected bond issue by a better than 2-1 plurality.

Final figures on the hospital were 4,242 for and 912 against. Only 883 voters in the City were opposed to the hospital while 870 were opposed to it in the county.

Somewhat closer was the fight for a new county zoning ordinance. A 2,186 to 1,614 vote on Sanford beat out carry the act over the county as rural voters opposed the new law by a 1,046 to 854 margin. The final vote was 8,010 to 8,664 in favor of the zoning law.

Ike's Vote In State Is Over Half Million

General's Margin Of Victory Has Been Whittled Down To Less Than 100,000

By The Associated Press
Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower polled more than half a million votes in Florida Tuesday, but Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson whittled down his margin when late returns came in from scattered precincts.

At one time Eisenhower's lead was more than 100,000, but later returns cut it to 87,077.

With 1842 of 1784 precincts reported, the vote was Eisenhower 510,560 and Stevenson 423,482.

In the race for governor, Democrat Dan McCarly led the ticket with 333,500 against 194,045 for his Republican opponent, Harry S. Swan. The totals came from 1484 precincts out of 1884.

Florida also elected seven of eight Democratic congressmen and one other race was still in doubt. The first district congressional race between Democrat Courtney Campbell, Dunedin and Republican William Cramer, St. Petersburg, may be decided by absentee ballots.

With all 207 precincts reported, the vote was: Campbell 63,600 and Cramer 64,526. About 7,500 absentee ballots remain to be tabulated.

Eisenhower's margin in Florida was 54.6 per cent compared with 58.8 per cent for Herbert Hoover when the state last went Republican in 1928. Hoover defeated Al Smith by 144,169 to 101,764.

On the same ballot, McCarly received 73 per cent of the vote for governor, compared with 60 per cent for Republican William J. Howe in 1928.

While some Republicans called the Eisenhower victory "the real beginning of the two-party system in the south," "freedom of the South from economic bondage and a sign that the people of Florida were ready to accept the new system of the statements sounded like those issued after Hoover's victory 24 years ago, as revealed in old newspaper accounts.

G. Harold Alexander, Republican executive committee chairman, said the presidential returns "are a two-party system and a sign that the people of Florida were ready to accept the new system of the statements sounded like those issued after Hoover's victory 24 years ago, as revealed in old newspaper accounts.

Alexander said Wednesday the party is putting aside patronage matters for the present to concentrate on consolidating its gains and "building up a real two-party system in Florida."

Among jobs open when the top takes over are U. S. district attorneys for the Northern and Southern Districts, their assistants and collectors of customs.

Alexander said the Republican party probably will lead in passing a congressional bill providing for another federal judge in Florida.

Professionals Prove Cautious As Press Predicted Outcome

NEW YORK (U. S. — Several newspaper surveys outdid the professional pollsters this year on the presidential election. However, no body's ear caught the rumble of the advancing Eisenhower landslide.

The Gallup, Homer and Crosby polls all seemed to give Dwight D. Eisenhower an edge during the hours before Tuesday's election. But some flaky jokers hid him.

The only professional poll that did was Kenneth Fink's Princeton Research Service. But his margin was far short of the actual one.

An Associated Press survey of editors across the nation showed Eisenhower the probable winner in 29 states, and with an edge in eight, with a total of 327 electoral votes. He actually carried all 28 states.

Samuel Lubell, who surveyed pre-election sentiment for the Scripps-Howard newspapers, said in advance that Eisenhower "should win." Lubell terms himself a reporter and not a politician.

State Department Personnel Getting Set For New Jobs

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER WASHINGTON (U. S. — The State Department, target of Republican attack for six years, got ready today to face the inevitable a Republican shakeup.

Washington outside the White House was so stunned by Gen. Dwight Eisenhower's election victory Tuesday night, it was questionable if it meant that heads will roll. Estimates of the number of high officials and diplomats who will get out range from around 40 to 100 or more.

That Secretary Dean Acheson is out is no one disputes. He has planned for months to return to his Washington law practice. Whether Eisenhower or Gov. Adlai Stevenson succeeded Truman, the top echelon under Acheson embraces upwards of 20 persons, including an under secretary, deputies, and assistant secretaries.

In addition there are men who have been closely identified with Acheson's policies, such as Philip Jessup, ambassador at large, and policy planning chief Paul Nitze, former Wall Street investment banker.

Many changes in foreign posts are expected to be worked out by the Eisenhower administration over the first few months of next year.

The speculation is that he will accept resignations of all the political appointees including such ambassadors as Richard C. Patterson Jr. in Switzerland, Charles Ulrich in Norway, Walter S. Gifford in Mexico and Pete Jaramon in Australia.

Eisenhower also may weed out career foreign service officers who for one reason or another have outlived their usefulness or may want to be relieved of their duties.

The big mystery in the department is what will happen to two career diplomats who have been repeatedly assailed by various Republicans in Congress, including Sen. McCarthy of Wisconsin. They are John Paton Davies, now attached to the U. S. diplomatic staff in Germany, and John Carter Vincent, diplomatic agent and minister in Tangier. Both men were identified with China policy prior to the loss of China to the Communists.

Among Cabinet prospects could be listed Govs. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, Earl Warren of California, Edward F. Arn of Kansas, Dan Thornton of Colorado, Sens. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., defeated for re-election in Massachusetts, Frank Carlson of Kansas, Fred Seaton of Nebraska, James Duff of Pennsylvania, John Foster Dulles, former State Department adviser, Paul G. General Gives Reply To Truman's Wire Suggesting Parley On Difficult Issue

By REILMAN MORIN AUGUSTA, Ga. (U. S. — Gen. Dwight Eisenhower suggested today that he meet in about 10 days with President Truman to discuss the problem of peace.

Eisenhower replied this morning to a telegram yesterday from the President in which Truman proposed such a meeting. The President-elect massaged back "I've tentatively plan the proposed meeting for the early part of the week beginning Nov. 17."

Meanwhile, he said, he plans to appoint representatives "for indoctrination in several other departments in the federal government. In this way our own conference can achieve maximum results."

Following is the text of Eisenhower's telegram to the President: "Thank you for your telegram. I am gratified by your suggestion that we have a personal meeting in the interests of orderly transition. Because I obviously require reasonable time for consultations and conferences leading up to the designation of important assistants, I respectfully suggest that we tentatively plan the proposed meeting for the early part of the week beginning Nov. 17."

"In the meanwhile, with your permission, I shall try to take immediate advantage of your suggestion concerning a budgetary representative and will additionally propose other individuals for indoctrination in several of the other departments in the federal government. In this way our own conference can achieve maximum results. I share your hope that we may present the world an American unity in basic issues."

Truman proposed an early discussion at the White House on the problem of world peace. In the earlier message he reminded Eisenhower that the next national budget is being prepared and suggested that Eisenhower have a representative confer with the director of the budget.

The general replied before leaving New York. "I shall try to do this within the next few days to have a personal reprieve to sit with the director of the budget."

He gave no indication of the man he may choose for that assignment. There has been some speculation that he might ask his friend Lewis Douglas, an Army aviator, to represent Douglas, formerly served as director of the budget. He also served a term as ambassador to Great Britain.

Eisenhower's aides were silent on the President's second proposal for a discussion of peace problems. There was an indication in Truman's statements about specific aspects of the question that might be examined.

Eisenhower's personal idea for a beginning is to go to Korea himself to study the situation there and search for a solution. He put this in the form of a pledge during his campaign and repeated it several times. He told Truman yesterday that he intends to do this "as soon as possible of my proposed date of departure."

Meanwhile, the general is simply taking it easy. He has a picnic with him at the golf club. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Eisenhower and her (Continued on Page 5)

Truman Will Retire On $95.66 Per Month
WASHINGTON (U. S. — When President Truman returns to private life Jan. 20 he will be eligible for a government pension of $95.66 a month. That's all, the White House said today.

The $95.66 could be drawn by retired Colonel Truman because of his World War I military service and his later service in the Army reserve. Qualified reserve officers start drawing a fraction of their active duty pay upon reaching 60. There is no compensation of any kind that Truman will be entitled to as an ex-president. A White House spokesman said, "A little not even rate free postage." Free postage is granted to widows of presidents.

Members of Congress have a pension plan which was set up in 1940. Truman quit the Senate before it went into effect.

Movement Is Afoot For Another Draft Of Stevenson In '56

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's presidential headquarters today but his top lieutenants already were talking of another draft-Stevenson movement for 1956.

Out of the wreckage of the Democratic defeat has grown a strong feeling here that Stevenson—still titular head of the Democratic party—will be the top challenger against the Republicans in another four years.

The Illinois governor remained silent on his future plans so far as the party leadership was concerned. But those around him did not consider his draft Tuesday by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as the finish of his political career.

Stevenson was expected to make clear within the next few weeks after a vacation what his personal plans will be. Those around him saw the governor as the leader of the party in the months ahead and expected an effort to be made to rebuild the organization from the bottom up.

Wilson Wyatt, Stevenson's presidential campaign manager, told reporters yesterday that he and others in the governor's headquarters had discussed the future with Stevenson and he added:

"Our feeling is definitely that it will be Adlai Stevenson in 1956." The Stevenson command still was trying to put together an analysis of just what had happened in Tuesday's election—and what were the reasons for the Stevenson defeat.

Wyatt told a news conference that the Republican theme of "Time For a Change" had snowballed into such proportions that no one could have stopped the trend.

He said that even before the campaign started, he and others had recognized that the time perhaps the greatest obstacle they had to overcome. And he said even at that early date they felt it was the decisive issue.

"There always had been the possibility that this current was running strongly," Wyatt said. "If the current was there, we knew we couldn't win. But if it wasn't running strongly, then there was always the chance of a Democratic victory."

In Korea, Eisenhower will come to grips with the first and perhaps most difficult question of his presidential term:

What to do about an unpopular war almost 28 months old, stalled on a heavily defended front, fought against an enemy with major supply sources outside the theater of combat, and supported by Russia, the potential major and powerful enemy of the United States.

Eisenhower, in his campaigning, made one proposal: assign an increasing amount of the front-line fighting to troops of the South Koreans.

Beyond this, there exists an odd and explosive question which figured in the controversy over the ousting of Gen. Douglas MacArthur from the Far East supreme command:

Should the United States turn to true strategic warfare in an attempt to destroy the Asiatic Communist war-waging ability and bomb supply centers and airfields in the Chinese homeland?

Truman and the State Department rebuffed any such thought, and the Joint Chiefs of Staff subsequently followed that up with explanations of the military, in practicality of such an operation. However, the administration goes out of office next January and the terms of all but one member of the JCS expire next summer.

With the White House occupied by the general who in World War II commanded more troops than any other American in history, the military has no doubt that the office of commander in chief will be a more directly active one than it has been in a long time — if ever.

Baseball's Thorniest Problems May Undergo Sweeping Changes

By RALPH RODEN

NEW YORK (AP)—Two of baseball's thorniest problems—payment of fabulous bonuses to untied youngsters and inter-league waiver deals after the trading deadline—may undergo sweeping changes next month during the major-league meetings at Phoenix, Ariz.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick expounded at length during a press conference in his office yesterday over proposed legislation which the big and little moguls of the game will be asked to vote on at their confabs.

The important rule change, recommended by a special committee, would extend the current trading deadline from midnight of June 15 to the witching hour of July 15.

After the trading deadline no player deals could be made with the exception of the waiver route.

Inter-league waiver deals will be tougher to make, however, if the new proposals are adopted.

The new rule stipulates that a player must first be waived out of his own league and then offered first to club lowest in the standing of the rival circuit and furthermore the purchase price must not exceed $10,000.

This would sharply curtail the passing of stars from one league to the other such as Hank Borowy from the New York Yankees to the Chicago Cubs in 1945 for $100,000.

Some observers feel that this rule is aimed at the New York Yankees who in the past few years, outside other American League clubs for the services of Johnny Mize, Johnny Hopp, Johnny Sain and Fwell Blackwell after they were waived out of the National League.

Frick was quick to point out that this is not the case.

"The Yankee deals during the past few years were entirely legitimate," he said. "I believe this new rule is good because it would erase any suspicions the fans might have. I have received more letters from fans regarding inter-league transactions than about any other rule."

The new bonus rule drawn up by the committee provides:

1. Any player paid in excess of $4,000 by any club from a league of Class A classification and up to a Republican governor.

Unofficial returns from all but 42 of 137 precincts gave Steve Sen. J. Hugo Aronson, Republican, a lead of nearly 5,000 votes over the incumbent Democratic governor, John W. Bonner. Aronson had 129,702 votes and Bonner 124,795.

Summerfield said he wants to make deals in his automobile business in Michigan and Lodec said he would secure a cabinet post in favor of going back into the newspaper business. He formerly was a reporter.

Eisenhower has talked about putting a woman in the cabinet and Owen's Colin Hilly, co-moderator of the Houston, Tex. Post and Mary Ford, co-chairman of the Citizens for Eisenhower Committee, have been mentioned in this connection.

Eisenhower had an invitation yet to be acted upon, to sit down with President Truman at the White House for consultation, which as Truman put it, would demonstrate to the world that "two people are united in the struggle for freedom and peace."

There were indications Eisenhower may accept the invitation before the end of the year.

Truman also offered the general his White House plane for the trip to Korea, but Eisenhower said in effect he would rather ride in a regular Air Force transport.

Giveaway Winner Is Given No Sympathy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission ruled today that it will not take sides with a disappointed, winner on a giveaway broadcast.

The commission dismissed, in a brief memorandum, a protest filed by Betty Lou Summers of Washington against the recent renewal of license for WNIW, National Broadcasting Company television outlet here.

Miss Summers said she won a contest on the TV program known as "Juga's Angle" early this year, and had been promised prizes worth $2,000 to $3,000, including a milk stealer. Instead she said she received a fur piece made of Oriental wool, and other alleged substitutes.

The station, now defending a $2,000 damage action brought by Miss Summers in Federal Court, has denied any misrepresentation.

The FCC, which has long frowned on giveaway programs, simply refused to get involved. It said Miss Summers did not qualify as "a party in interest" entitled to challenge station license under the communications act.

Death Of Trucker Reveals 2 Wives, 8 Children Survive

TROY, N. Y. (AP)—The death of a 31-year-old truck driver has unfolded the tale of his two wives, four children by each wife, and two homes 60 miles apart.

Eugene Wood's seven years of double life were revealed yesterday when Mrs. Anna Wood of Schaghticoke tangled over certain rights to his estate.

Wood was killed Sept. 30 in a collision at Paramus, N. J. Anna's attorney, Max Goldstein of Albany, said that until then neither wife knew about the other.

Goldstein said Wood worked it this way:

He drove for a suburban trucking company, which ships produce to New York City and New Jersey. On trips Wood stayed with the wife and four children in Sangerites, about 45 miles south of here.

Otherwise he was at home with his family at Schaghticoke, about 15 miles north of Troy.

Goldstein said Wood married Anna in 1941. Jean in 1945. Anna has four children, one to 10 years old, and Jean has four. Goldstein said.

The county surrogate had issued letters of administration in Wood's estate to Jean, who intended to file a negligence suit in connection with his death. Anna, seeking similar letters, asked to have Jean's revoked.

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

We need firm anchors to faith and truth, then we stand firm. As a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence. — Psalm 127:1

An American actress cost a Spanish hotel a five dollar fine because she failed to comply with a law that required her to state her age when she registered. Perhaps the hotel clerk was charmed by her beauty and allowed her to stay without divulging her age, or he may have been prompted by the knowledge that such a question could discourage valuable feminine tourist trade from patronizing his hotel. Whatever his reason the hotel was fined.

Good Americans are apt to believe that there was no civilization in this part of the world until the present United States was settled.
Unfortunately for this theory, the first university in the New World San Domingo, was founded as early as 1538, and the University of San Marcos, in Lima, Peru, in 1551. At that time our land was inhabited only by Indians, with perhaps an occasional visitor. The first university in the present United States,
Harvard, was not set up until 1636.

Well, now that the campaign is over the newspaper columnist will have to go back to work. Oh, yes, they have been turning out teams of stuff during the past few months on the virtues and vices of their favorite candidates, but that is not work. It is easy to write about things you feel strongly about. But what is hard is to perform the same daily stint, to fill up the same 15 or 20 inches every day when there isn't anything more important, or soul-stirring, going on than the regular drive for funds and the Plant A-Pansy-for-Papa Week. Then it is sheer drudgery.

The school amendment was the only one of 11 proposed constitutional amendments which carried in Seminole County, just as it did in the rest of the state. Some may say that the people of Seminole County were pretty smart to be able to figure out in advance just how the people of the rest of the state were going to vote on these amendments, but we prefer to believe that they merely confirmed our judgment that the school amendment was the only one which deserved to pass. We do not believe anyone would have been against it if he had taken the time and trouble to study it and thoroughly understand it.

Two motorists stopped beside the road in Vermont to eat lunch. The crows were especially noisy, prompting a discussion as to whether the "caws" which varied so in tone constituted a language. Over the stone wall a farmer was doing some planting, and they asked his opinion.

"Sure, they talk," he said. "Just had a conversation with one."
"You mean to say you can talk crows, talk?"

"Nopes! crows caw English. He flapped onto a branch of that elm over there and looked down at me and asked, 'Caw-w?' I looked up at him and said, 'Nopes. Beans.' 'Aw,'
he said, and off he flew."—Readers

The Hospital Election

The people of Seminole County won a number of important victories at the polls Tuesday but none of them was more meaningful than that achieved on the hospital bond issue. As they have on five different occasions in the past, the freeholders in this county went to the polls and voted in favor of bonding themselves in order to obtain adequate hospital facilities.

It is rather significant that the people in the rural precincts, where some opposition was supposed to exist, gave the hospital a resounding majority. The outside precincts combined voted 1234 to 563 in favor of the bond issue, according to the Herald's unofficial tabulation. Even in the extreme south end of the county precincts like Slavia and Bear Lake supported it.

But it was of course in the Sanford area that the most impressive majorities were rung up for the hospital. Precinct
No. 3 voted 1232 to 103 in favor of the bond issue, or about 12 to 1, while Precinct 15 was not far behind with 1138 to 131 or nearly ten to one. The entire city vote, including the surrounding areas was 2848 to 811, or nine to one. And for the entire county it was 4082 to 874 or nearly five to one.

In at least one previous hospital election the bond issue was defeated through the failure of 50 percent of the freeholders to participate. This was not so in Tuesday's election.
With 7882 registered freeholders in Seminole County, some 4966 cast their ballots. With 3941 required for the majority to make the election valid, there were actually 1015 more than necessary.

In view of this overwhelming public sentiment as expressed at the polls, we do not believe it is rational for anyone to question any longer the desires of the people of Seminole County with respect to the hospital. To do so would simply raise the issue of the doubter's sanity. The only way to argue that the people don't want a hospital is to insist that the people don't really know what they want.

And so we believe that those handful of people who do not believe that modern hospital facilities are good for the people, or who are more interested in keeping their taxes down than they are in relieving the suffering of friends and neighbors who may be ill or injured, will adopt a somewhat different tack. They will argue that of course the people want a hospital, but they do not want a good one, and they will suggest that we build for 1940, rather than 1960.

To such people we can only refer again to the figures in Tuesday election, figures which represented the sentiments of freeholders only, that is those who would have to bear the burden of taxation, and did not include those who for one reason or another, maybe because they are too poor, or maybe because they put their money in government bonds instead of real estate and hence are not freeholders, and figures which would have been even more overwhelming for the hospital if they had included everyone.

It is also worth noting that the people supported the hospital bond issue even though there is every assurance that the Fish Estate is going to build a hospital here anyway within the near future. The people were willing to go on record in favor of taxing themselves to get a hospital now when they might have waited and let the Fish estate give it to them for nothing. And furthermore, they were willing to spend up to $800,000 on it.

These are simply indisputable facts which might be worth considering when anyone wonders whether the people want a hospital, and whether it should be a good one.

Union Of Exiles

It might be thought that all refugees from the Soviet Union would be in accord as to what should be done about Russia. It might also seem that the fact that all these people have been the victims of Red terror would give them a common bond stronger than their nationalistic bias.

This is not entirely true, however, as American agencies trying to unify refugee groups for action against Communist have discovered. Some of the political exiles are suspectious of those who wish to see independence for certain countries which are now part of the Soviet Union.
Others are suspected of Communist sympathies.

Recently nine refugee groups, four Russian and five non-Russian, joined forces to work for "establishment of a democratic form of government." They also renounced any groups which deny the principles of self-determination on the national question.

It may seem futile to talk of what form of government is suitable for Russia when there are no indications that the present regime will fall. But it is important that the thought of freedom for the peoples of the Soviet Union be kept alive in the hearts of those brave people who risked so much to escape from the Communist terror. The political exiles may some day be able to fill the gap which would be caused by collapse of the present government of Russia. It is well for them to consider the problem of how that could be done with peace and justice.

Polls

The final story of the Associated Press survey, appearing in Sunday newspapers, Oct. 26, started this way:

"Newsmen over the nation believe 1952 would go down as a Republican year with Gen. Dwight D.
Eisenhower the probable winner over Gov. Adlai Stevenson, if the presidential election had been held in mid-October.

"Newspaper editors and political correspondents who made two political surveys for the Associated Press clocked Eisenhower as leading the presidential sweepstakes around Labor Day. They estimate he has picked up strength since then in 30 of 48 states."

In 11 states, the AP survey showed newsmen picking Stevenson the probable winner. These included Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and West Virginia, which Stevenson did win.
Also Missouri, Arizona and Oklahoma, which went to Eisenhower.
Five states—Massachusetts, Tennessee, Utah, Virginia and Washington—were classified in AP surveys as doubtful with an edge to Stevenson. All were taken by Eisenhower.

There were four tossups in the AP survey tabulation. Eisenhower took three of them—Florida, Rhode Island and Texas. Stevenson got the other—Louisiana.

Among professional pollsters,
Fink gave Eisenhower a little over 50 per cent of the popular vote and Stevenson a little over 48 per cent.

George Gallup, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion, presented pre-election figures which showed Eisenhower leading Stevenson by a margin of 11 to 9 per cent of the electorate as understood.

Gallup admitted afterwards he advised his poll "played down Eisenhower's margin of lead."
Adlai Stevenson, however, said that he had no doubt that he would win the election.

However, his figures gave Eisenhower a 50 per cent lead.

Al Sabath

cial security benefits and the eight-hour work day.

Death came at Bethesda Naval Hospital as a result of complications from a major operation last June. He entered the hospital several days ago—and was seriously ill when he won a 2-1 victory at the polls Tuesday.

A special election must be held to name a successor.

Sabath saved pennies as a sawmill helper in Bohemia, now Czechoslovakia, to pay his way to America. He became a salesman, cashier, bookkeeper and later entered the real estate business.

He took pride in his reputation as a friend of the poor, a champion of the underdog.

He expressed his role of helping the underprivileged this way:
"The oppressed—those are the ones who need it, the big fellows—they don't need it."

In 1917, he married Miss Mae Fuehr. They had no children.

Over Stevenson with 9.9 per cent unopposed.

He said afterwards the big Republican effort to get out the vote apparently turned the trick.

Time Rover, Editor of the Roper
Poll, did not try to break down the pre-election findings into percentage. He said, instead, "There ought to be enough people still undecided to throw this election either way."

He conceded after the election
he was "open to the charge of being every cautious this year."
"I made no prediction," he said,
"and I don't even intend to make one now. I don't think many people tell us what they intend to do."

For a supper dish that's tasty, bake breast of lamb in a spicy barbecue sauce. Have the lamb cut into serving-size pieces, brown in a heavy skillet, pour off the drippings, add sauce, and bake for 1 1/2 hours. Uncover the lamb about twenty minutes before it's done, so the barbecue sauce is almost all absorbed.

Grammar School BRANDA YECKLE

We have had several visitors lately. Mrs. Sines, Judy's mother, came Thursday afternoon and heard our Spanish lesson. We dramatized our lesson and reviewed it in a Spanish song. Mrs. Remusat spent a day with us and Mrs. Priest came to bring us a jack-o-lantern and stayed to hear our geography lesson. Linda Taylor's mother came to see us Wednesday.

Charmion Miller, Frances Jimenez and Joyce Benton received letters from Vera in Germany. Linda Taylor is a very good student and another of her school. She goes to school in an old castle because her school was bombed in the war.

The room looked very spooky last week. We have been making masks and decorations for our Halloween party. The party was in honor of Mr. Spooky House. Mrs. E. C. Moore had a collection who came to live in Room Eight four years ago. He keeps the class diary every year. Of course we help him.

We had a chapel program Friday. Joyce Benton, Lynda Yeckle, Judy Singer and Frances Jimenez did "The Dance of the Scarecrow." Charmion Miller read a story about the scarecrows and a choral reading "The Pirate Don Dick of Doodler."

Several members of our class won prizes in the window painting contest. Tonya Carter won second prize, Judy Singer won $1.50 from McCrory's. Harrison Smith won a ukulele from Touchton's Drug Store and Charmion Miller won a prize.

After which Miss Ann Raborn told of visiting the Supreme Court building and watching the justices in action. On the last day of the gathering each girl received a Girls' State pin and certificate.

Nobel Prize Is Won By French Writer Francois Mauriac

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Two U. S. scientists were awarded the 1952 Nobel prize in physics today for their development of a new refined method to measure magnetic fields in atomic nuclei.

The winners are Dr. Felix Bloch, 47, Stanford University, Calif., and a Harvard University physicist, Dr. Edward Mills Purcell, 40, who helped develop radar during World War II.

The Royal Swedish Academy awarded the 1952 Nobel prize for literature to French novelist Francois Mauriac, a leading contemporary Catholic author.

Mauriac, 67 and internationally known for such novels as "The Desert of Love" and "Vipers' Tangle," also is a poet, playwright, essayist, biographer and contributor to newspapers. He will receive 171,134 Swedish crowns ($33,037) from King Gustav Adolf at the Nobel prize presentation ceremony to be held here Dec. 10.

The 1952 prizes for physics and chemistry were scheduled to be announced later today, completing this year's list of honors bestowed under the will of Alfred Nobel, Swedish inventor of dynamite, which established the $9,000,000 foundation which pays the prizes.

The award for medicine, announced Oct. 23, will go to U. S. Dr. Selman A. Waksman, of Rutgers University, co-discoverer of streptomycin. A committee announced earlier that no peace prize would be given this year, the second time since World War II that no candidate has been picked to receive this honor.

Mauriac is the eighth French writer to win the literature prize since the creation of the Nobel Foundation in 1901. He is considered an outstanding interpreter of human psychology.

Ike Proposal

three children, Dwight, David, 4, Barbara Anne, 3, and Susan, 9 months, and Mrs. J. S. Doud, his mother-in-law, are also here.

There are some new members of his entourage too.

Secret Service agents who are now charged with the responsibility for his safety moved in on the golf course before Eisenhower and his family even arrived. Other agents were on hand in New York almost as soon as his election was confirmed. Some rode with him on the flight to Georgia.

They are seldom obviously around — until you try to pass through the gates of the clubhouse grounds.

Eisenhower's arrival in Augusta was a carbon copy of the hundreds of appearances he made while he was fighting for the presidency. About 1,500 persons were at the airport and they gave him a warm cheer when he appeared in the door of the plane.

An old friend, Brig. Gen. Frank Allen, was waiting at the bottom of the ramp. Allen served as Eisenhower's chief of public relations in Europe in the closing months of World War II.

Eisenhower shook hands all around with the same warmth he showed during the campaign, waved to the crowd, and went immediately to the motorcade to take him to the golf club.

Crowds lined the streets along the 15-mile route. The warmth of their greeting matched some of his best receptions.

Brannan Thinks Farm Vote Wasn't Factor

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Brannan said today he does not believe the farm vote swung as heavily to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower "as did other segments" of the population.

Asked by reporters at an informal session in the secretary's office whether he thought the farm vote was decisive in Eisenhower's win over Gov. Adlai Stevenson, Brannan replied: "It is impossible to say at this stage of the game, but I have the feeling that the farmers probably did not go as far along with the trend as did other segments."

The secretary said he is going back to Colorado to engage in law practice as soon as he leaves office Jan. 20.

Asked what he thought was the major reason for Eisenhower's election, Brannan replied: "I think it was the women's vote based upon promises — implied or otherwise — to bring an end to Korea."

Bankers Are Getting Line On Farm Outlook

GAINESVILLE (AP)—Florida bankers are getting a line on the state's farm prospects at their fourth annual Bankers Agricultural Credit conference which ends today.

At Wednesday's session the bankers were told Florida crop prices will be higher this year, but dairying will be more favorable than for the rest of the nation, beef cattle is a safe financial bet if the accent is on quality, peanuts and corn will be good money crops but tobacco and cotton prices will drop.

Dr. T. J. Cunha, head of the University of Florida animal husbandry and nutrition department, advised the group of the quality emphasis on beef. He also said farmers keep indebtedness "at a minimum" now.

The other predictions were made by N. H. Mohrhorf, head of the university's poultry department; Dr. E. L. Fouts, head of the dairy science department, and Dr. E. W. Coker, marketing economist with the University's Agricultural Extension Service.

Legislature To Have Six Members Of GOP

By The Associated Press
Six Republicans will sit in the Florida Legislature next spring, the greatest number since Reconstruction Days.

Four of them will come from Pinellas St. Petersburg County, including J. Frank Houghton, who will be the only Republican in the Senate.

The Pinellas House delegation, all Republicans, will be Donald Medford and Fred C. Peterson.

Lynn and B. E. Shaffer, re-elected.

The other two Republicans in the House will come from Sarasota County, where W. H. Washburne Jr. and Henry Bartholomew won that county's two seats.

Republicans swept almost every county office in Pinellas and all contested county offices in Sarasota.

In Broward County, Democrat John Burwell won re-election, defeating his Republican opponent Guy Davenport, by 14,578 to 12,687.

Dade County's legislative delegation was returned by majorities of approximately two to one and Democrat Harry Westberry won in Duval County.

Dixie Crosby Leaves Fortune To Family

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dixie Lee Crosby has bequeathed her half share of crooner Bing Crosby's fortune to her immediate family.

The remainder of her holdings is to be divided into two trusts. The income from one, comprising two-fifths, goes to her mother-in-law, Mrs. Catherine Crosby, her father, Evan L. Wyatt, her stepmother, Mrs. Nora Wyatt, and Crosby. The other, of three-fifths, is for the four Crosby sons, Gary, 19; Philip, and Dennis, 18, and Lindsay, 14.

Mrs. Crosby died last Saturday at the age of 41. The value of her estate was not disclosed.

Sheriff A. Heno received the greatest write-in vote with 19 against Sheriff-elect J. L. Hobby who polled 6,390.

Senator Speegard L. Holland has received the second greatest number of votes, 6,327, in his race for re-election. Holland's opponent, John P. Booth, withdrew his name from the GOP state ticket just prior to the election.

Judge Douglas Stenstrom who was one of the many unopposed candidates on the ballot, polled the greatest number of votes in the county in his successful bid for re-election as County Judge with 6,327.

The official canvassing, which began yesterday morning, was completed yesterday afternoon at 5:30 p. m.

Pigs Set Off Firing Of Border Soldiers

ISTANBUL (AP)—An Army statement today said a 30-minute exchange of fire between Turkish and Bulgarian soldiers on the frontier Tuesday was set off by some wandering pigs.

The statement said Turkish troops opened fire in the direction of the Bulgarian frontier when they heard suspicious "noises." In the morning the soldiers found the dead pigs. Prior to the Army explanation, some Turkish papers had called for reinforcing of border posts and retaliatory measures.

Revolt Against Reds Reported By Chinese

TAIPEI, Formosa, (AP)—Nationalist sources said today 21,000 Chinese revolted against the mainland Reds six weeks ago, temporarily captured three towns, killed 2,000 Communists and burned 1,000 homes.

The report came from Tatan news agency, which operates under the ministry of Interior. The ministry claims to have good underground contacts in Red China, but such reports are impossible to confirm here.

The agency said the revolt, in northwest China, was the biggest since the Reds overran the country in 1949.

Red reinforcements rushed to the area and recaptured the towns.

Chavez Wins Senate Contest Over Hurley

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Democratic Sen. Dennis Chavez has won re-election over Republican challenger Patrick J. Hurley for the second straight time. But the result may not become official for weeks.

Chavez, head of the Senate Public Works Committee, led 121,503 to 117,018 in the unofficial count with all but 13 of the state's 891 divisions reported.

Declining to concede, Hurley, former secretary of war and at one time ambassador to China, had ballot boxes in four Northern counties impounded. The counties gave Chavez about 2,700 votes of his lead.

It may be weeks before the ballots are checked and released by the State Canvassing Board.

A VITAL MESSAGE TO MOTHERS OF GROWING CHILDREN.

Most of us take it for granted that our children are well nourished... we give them enough food to fill their stomachs and assume they are getting enough nourishment as well.

But recent studies of child nutrition have come up with facts that challenge all our complacency about our family diet.

Children in all income groups partially undernourished

Over the past several years many nutrition studies have been made by private, state and federal agencies... including medical examinations of thousands of school children.

These studies showed that—even with the world's finest food supply—more than half our children are not getting all the nourishment they need for peak health. Serious nationwide nutritional deficiencies occur regardless of family income... largely because of our poor eating habits.

Bone weakness and teeth decay prevalent

Two of the most widespread problems are bone weakness and tooth decay.

Skeleton X-rays showed that a high percentage of the children had bones that were not as hard or strong as they should be—many even had some bone malformation. In thorough dental examinations most of the children were found to have tooth decay.

U. S. diet needs more calcium

These findings indicate that large percentages of our children are not getting enough of the calcium they need to build strong bones, and teeth that resist decay. Calcium, as you probably know, is found chiefly in milk and milk products... it is absolutely essential to growing children.

Yet nutritionists report the American diet is more lacking in calcium than in any other food element.

Bread research Aids help for problem

As bakers of bread, our most universal food, the makers of Enriched Tip-Top Bread were in a natural position to help supplement the American diet with needed calcium. And that is exactly what they have done—after a series of careful experiments and consultations with health authorities.

Bone-building element doubled

The bakers of Enriched Tip-Top Bread have now doubled the bone and tooth building calcium in every loaf of New Tip-Top.

From now on when your children eat the New Tip-Top Bread they will get twice as much as before of this element so vital to the nourishment of strong bones and teeth.

New bread helps build up daily quota

Good whole milk, of course, is the first and foremost source of bone and tooth building material—children need at least a quart daily. But the fact is that many children do not drink that much.

Now—by serving the New Tip-Top Bread—you have a pleasing, effective way of reinforcing the essential element, calcium, in your child's diet. Eight slices of this new bread contain bone and tooth building calcium equal to a full glass of milk.

Most children eat that much bread daily as a matter of course. If you make sure your children eat the New Tip-Top Bread, you will automatically help them build up their quota of bone-building, tooth-building nourishment.

ESPECIALLY IMPORTANT TO CHILDREN— ADULTS PROFIT, TOO

In addition to calcium...

The added calcium in the New Tip-Top Bread is of benefit to everyone. For children it increases the supply of bone- and tooth-building material while they are still growing and developing and is an insurance for later years.

For adults, both men and women, the New Tip-Top Bread provides additional calcium to help keep the bone structure strong.

Expectant mothers must have sufficient calcium to protect both themselves and the child.

Extra calcium is conducive to a feeling of well-being at all ages.

New Tip-Top Bread brings you added milk nourishment with important minerals and high-quality protein essential to tissue building in the young and tissue repair in the adult. The new loaf not only gives you increased nourishment but even more delicious, home-baked flavor.

Seminole JVs Down DeLand, 14-7, In Sanford Debut

Jones Scores Both TD's; One Is 100 Yard Punt Return In Final Period

Two second half touchdowns, one a 100-yard punt return by Fullback Johnny Jones, gave the Seminole Junior Varsity a 14-7 victory over the DeLand Bulldogs in the Memorial Stadium, Tuesday night.

It was the first local appearance by the Junior Feds, who were under the guidance of new coach John Scott. The hard-fought gridiron battle gave the future Seminole football greats a clean sweep of their two-game home-and-home series with DeLand this year. Earlier the Feds overthrew the Bulldogs, 31-0, in DeLand.

The Scotties, who now have won three and dropped only one this year, were held scoreless in the first half. The Bulldogs started the scoring fireworks in the second period with a 65-yard yardstick march which was capped by Gene Hillson's 15-yard touchdown end-around sweep.

With the locals trailing going into the third period, Harold Pate recovered a Bulldog fumble on the Sanford 25-yard line. Jones and Ruddy Reynolds alternated carrying the ball down to the DeLand one. It took three plays, but Jones finally bulled his way over. Reynolds scooted around end for the successful conversion, tying the game at 7-7.

In the fourth period, a DeLand punt went sailing to the Seminole end zone where Jones gathered it in and went roaring down the sidelines with a tremendous 100-yard run, which was ably supported by excellent deadfield blocking on the part of the Seminole.

Reynolds repeated his conversion sweep around end of the third period to give Sanford a 14-7 final score.

Tackle Larry Bates stood out, making key offensive blocks while forming the cornerstone of the Fed defense on the forward wall. Harold Pate also stood out with excellent blocks and defensive rushing. Ellison, who was a thorn in the side of Sanford all night, was the individual star for the visitors.

The Seminole will next play

Larry Bates, Seminole player.

Mainland of Daytona Beach in the Memorial Stadium next Tuesday night at 7:30 p. m. The Junior Feds defeated the central eleven last month by a whopping 32-0 score.

Claassen Picks Tech Over Army In Selections

Vanderbilt Is Seen Defeating Miami; Spartans To Win

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP)—Who says that picking football winners is as easy as picking apples? Not this forecaster, who had only 36 correct selections in 49 decisions last Saturday. That's an average of 73 percent.

Last Saturday's debacle dashed the seasonal mark down to 771 on figures of 229 won, 68 lost. Here are the mislaid winners of this week's end game.

Michigan State over Indiana. NCAA statistics show that Michigan State has the most fearsome attack in the land. The statistics say nothing about Indiana's defense.

Oklahoma over Notre Dame. Wuerterback Crowder and center Catlin, Oklahoma's C.C. boys, to turn the tide even though the game is as picky as apples. Not this forecaster, who had only 36 correct selections in 49 decisions last Saturday.

Georgia Tech over Army. Two teams of whirlwind speed. In addition to all that speed Georgia Tech has an awesome backfield trio in Turner, Tamm and Hardman.

UCLA over Oregon State. Should be easy unless UCLA relaxes too much.

Southern California over Stanford. Too much Trojan defense. Kansas over Nebraska. The game is at least one up in the Big 10 but this doesn't appear to be the place for it. Purdue on its way to the Rose Bowl.

Duke over Navy. A squeaker. Texas over Baylor. Arkansas beat Baylor, Texas crushed Arkansas. Off comparative scores.

Penn over Georgia. Some day these Quakers will break loose and this could be the Saturday.

Princeton over Harvard. The venerable Big Three series is resumed and for the first time in a decade all have fashionable records. Princeton, however, has met the stauncher opponents.

Finishing the rest in a hurry: Friday night, Detroit over Boston College, Bucknell over George Washington, Miami of Ohio over Marquette, Vanderbilt over Miami of Florida.

Saturday, East: Trinity over Amherst, Fordham over Clemson, Connecticut over Brown, Columbia over Dartmouth, Holy Cross over Colgate, Rutgers over Lafayette, Maine over Bowdoin, Syracuse over Penn State, Coast Guard over RPI, Temple over Wake Forest, Wesleyan over Williams.

Midwest: Toledo over Bradley, Michigan over Cornell, Colorado over Missouri, Iowa State over Drake, Illinois over Iowa, Wisconsin over Northwestern, Ohio State over Pitt, Villanova over Tulsa, Wake Forest over Wake Forest.

South: Alabama over Chattanooga, Kentucky over Tulane, Auburn over Mississippi State, Washington over Washington, Arkansas over Transylvania.

Davidson over Richmond, South Carolina over the Citadel, Virginia over North Carolina, West Virginia over VMI, William and Mary over VPI.

Southern: Mississippi over Houston, Rice over Arkansas, Southern Methodist over Texas A & M, Texas Christian over Wake Forest.

Far West: Washington over California, Idaho over Montana, New Mexico over Denver, Colorado A & M over Utah, Washington State over Oregon.

Breaks Go Against Bear Wolf's Tulane Eleven All Season Long

By The Associated Press
Easy going Raymond (Bear) Wolf, whose infectious good humor belies his nickname, could easily be pardoned if he became a snarl.

Before the season began, the Tulane coach lost his top halfback, Ronnie Kent, who suffered a fractured knee and was declared out for the season. And yesterday Wolf ruefully announced that his next best halfback, Les Kennedy, would be lost for the rest of the season because of a broken bone in his left wrist. Kennedy was disabled in the Mississippi State game last week.

So Wolf sighed, moved Jim Partidge to the left halfback and banded for the best Tulane faces rebounding Kentucky this week.

At Lexington, the Southeastern Conference's other "Bear" Bryant of Kentucky reported he was satisfied with his team's performance in a light scrimmage. Bryant said there would be no more contact work for his squad before the Tulane game.

Murray Warmath cancelled a scheduled scrimmage for his Mississippi State warriors to avoid adding to a rather formidable injury list.

Marion quarterback Jack Parker, center leading scorer, and fullback Joe Fortunato both hurt in the Tulane game last week. Warmath hopes they will be ready for Auburn.

And Auburn hopes it will be ready for Parker. Coach Ralph Jordan devoted most of a long workout to defensive work.

Offensively, halfback Charles

ROCKY MARCIANO, world's heavyweight champion, relates amusing experiences to Sgt. Robert B. Hill of Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y., during visit to wounded veterans at the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C. Sgt. Hill is a double-amputee of the Korean war.

Sugar Bowl Looks For Grid Team To Oppose Engineers

By JAMES HAGGUN
NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The Sugar Bowl grabbed Georgia Tech and began combing the meager list of remaining eligibles today for a team capable of matching football with the nation's third ranking team.

Officially the Sugar Bowl had no comment about an opponent for unbeaten and undefeated Tech here Jan. 1. Privately, however, one Sugar Bowl official said he would like to see either Maryland or Oklahoma—two tested Sugar Bowl favorites.

But both now are hampered by the light 'Hama' drill because of a cold. Six Alabama ends are on the ailing list.

Georgia drilled against Pennsylvania's single-wing attack. The Bulldogs leave today for Philadelphia and their first look at the single-wing system this year.

Mississippi's defense, which met Houston Saturday night, Florida, with no opponent this week, continued to lead ahead to Louisiana Tech.

From what we hear, Saigh has, in fact, appealed to Erick to give him some relief from the capricious Brownie president, a clear indication that Vecek is ahead on points.

For one thing he is almighty tired of Vecek claiming every young player whom he seeks waivers for farming-out purposes. Saigh is convinced that Wild Bill has no intention of promoting such players to the Browns, but still claims them for the hell of it.

That is only one of the petty annoyances to which Saigh feels he has been subjected since Vecek gained control of the Browns and became the Cardinals' landlord at Sportman's Park. The list is long, one, and Saigh, considering that he is a lawyer by profession, has proved to be delightfully thick-skinned from Vecek's point of view.

The ex-Marine obviously is having a wonderful time for himself.

However silly the war of nerves between the two magnates looks to the casual observer, though, it has undertones of seriousness. Unless Erick does take a firm hand, the Cardinals could in time be forced out of St. Louis and the entire structure of the major leagues be jeopardized.

The Cardinals' lease on the park owned by the Browns has only seven more years to run, and Saigh has abandoned all thought of building a park of his own. Thus, if Vecek means to settle down and stay for the long haul in St. Louis, he eventually will have Saigh over a barrel.

Each of the Sugar Bowl teams will get one-third of the seats in Sugar Bowl stadium, which holds more than 80,000. The arrangement follows the pattern set forth by the NCAA.

Dodd said he was not concerned much about the hotel reservations. Each of the Sugar Bowl teams will get one-third of the seats in Sugar Bowl stadium, which holds more than 80,000. The arrangement follows the pattern set forth by the NCAA.

The issues over which Tech and the Sugar Bowl had differed were location of seats allocated Tech and assurance of hotel reservations for Tech fans.

The Georgians became the nation's hottest bowl prospect by smacking Duke 28-7 last week.

The 1953 Sugar Bowl will mark Georgia Tech's ninth bowl appearance—the second here. Tech's first trip to the Sugar Bowl was in 1944. Tech has also appeared in the Orange Bowl four times and once each in the Rose, Old and Cotton Bowls. The game Jan. 1 will net each team about $130,000, with possibly more coming from radio and TV rights.

The Miami Orange Bowl, fourth of the big four bowls, will hold its 10th annual meeting this week end, and members declined to discuss any possible teams until then.

A spokesman commented, however, that "November is an important month in football and we want to pick the best teams."

A rundown of the top 10 teams shows that only one other team, eighth-ranked Tennessee, is eligible for a bowl bid. The Volunteers, who have appeared in many bowl games in past years, are still trying to live down an early season loss to Duke, which was whopped, 28-7, by Georgia Tech last Saturday.

Michigan State, No. 1, is a member of the Big Ten, although not eligible for conference football competition until next year. Maryland, No. 2, is barred by a Southern Conference ruling against bowl games.

Oklahoma, No. 4, and Kansas, No. 7, are members of the Big Seven, which frowns on bowls, while UCLA, No. 5, will meet sixth-ranked Southern California, Nov. 15 in the battle for Pacific Coast honors.

Purdue, No. 9, is the current favorite to meet the UCLA-USC winner in the Rose Bowl, and Notre Dame, No. 10, does not go in for bowl games.

Tech's Hardeman Has Piled Up 660 Yards This Year

BIRMINGHAM (AP)—Georgia Tech's great Leon Hardeman, 18-year-old running back, has piled up 660 yards in 121 carries, the SEC statistical bureau reported today.

Maryland, rated No. 2 team in the country in the Associated Press poll, just one place ahead of Georgia Tech, also maintains a slim lead over the Technion in the battle for defensive honors, figures released today by the NCAA Service Bureau disclosed.

Maryland has limited seven foes to a total of 1,093 yards both rushing and passing for an average of 124 yards per game. Tech has given up 1,097 yards in seven games for a 157.7 average. Both teams, incidentally, are unbeaten and untied, as is Southern California, which ranks fourth in total defense with a 175.8 yards per game figure.

Southern Cal. No. 6 team in the AP poll ranks just behind Tennessee, which has 1,735 total defense figure. Tennessee is eighth in the AP poll.

Fordham is leading in rushing defense with an average yield of only 82.8 yards per game. Despite its good rushing defense and lightning passing offense, which rates No. 1 statistically, the team now have dropped four straight without a victory.

Behind Fordham in rushing defense are Michigan State, the top team in the AP poll, and Maryland. Michigan State's rushing defense average is 84.2 and Maryland's 85.

Brightman Young sets the pace in pass defense, yielding only 42.5 yards per game. Colorado is tops in punting with an average of 44.1 yards per kick.

Woodruff Prepares U-F For Vol Clash

GAINESVILLE (AP)—Coach Bob Woodruff is making every minute count in getting his Florida Gators ready for their meeting with the Tennessee Vols Nov. 15.

With an open date this weekend, the Gator grid master has planned every minute of the drills designed to counteract the powerful string attack of Gen. Bob Neyland's forces.

In Wednesday's workout, Woodruff kept offensive lines shuffling back and forth from blocking drills to runner protection. Backs alternated from passing to running tactics while the defensive line worked on stopping B team running and passing.

The Gator-Vol meeting in Knoxville will be the first between a Neyland coached team and one tutored by one of his ex-teaches and former pupil.

Yoni Berra of the Yankees hit his first pinch-hit homer in World Series history against the Dodgers in the 1947 classic.

Davidson over Richmond, South Carolina over the Citadel, Virginia over North Carolina, West Virginia over VMI, William and Mary over VPI.

Southern: Mississippi over Houston, Rice over Arkansas, Southern Methodist over Texas A & M, Texas Christian over Wake Forest.

Far West: Washington over California, Idaho over Montana, New Mexico over Denver, Colorado A & M over Utah, Washington State over Oregon.

Pattee Shifts Ends For Game Saturday

DELAND (AP)—Down to two hale and hearty ends, Stetsion Coach Jay Pattee has shifted Halfback Hod Lonsinger to a defensive end and Tackle Earl Looman to an offensive end for Saturday's homecoming football game with East Carolina State.

Freshman End Mark Hafford, Johnson City, Ill., was hospitalized Wednesday with a fractured neck vertebra. He was injured in Monday's scrimmage.

Pattee gave his squad a workout under the lights Wednesday night with an eye to strengthening an offense to penetrate East Carolina's effective defense. Seven Techs scored only 34 points on the Pirates. Stetsion also is concerned with a defense for the sharp passing of East Carolina's Dick Cherry.

There has been talk about Penn State and Villanova, but none came from Sugar Bowlers—even unofficially. The Sugar Bowl never lists teams under consideration.

Tech accepted the Bowl's invitation last night after ironing out two points of difference.

Fred Digby, general manager of the Sugar Bowl, said immediately after the announcement that the contract had been signed. But Bowl president Irwin Pochs said later only a "gentleman's agreement" had been reached.

Charlie Griffin, Tech's business manager for athletics who came to New Orleans to discuss the invitation, said Tech players voted to accept the Sugar Bowl bid.

Coach Bobby Dodd said in Atlanta: "I haven't any idea who we'll play—and I don't think the Sugar Bowl folks have either. I know they'll get a good team—I just hope it isn't too good."

"But I feel sure our boys won't disappoint the fans," Dodd added. "Dodd's Southeastern Conference powerhouse has been anything but disappointing this year. Tech has defeated the Citadel, Florida, Southern Methodist, Tulane, Auburn, Vanderbilt and previously unbeaten Duke, Ahead are Army, Alabama, Florida State and Georgia Tech."

Tech has played 21 straight games without a loss. The only blemish on the string which extends back to 1950 is a tie against Duke last year.

The Georgians became the nation's hottest bowl prospect by smacking Duke 28-7 last week.

The 1953 Sugar Bowl will mark Georgia Tech's ninth bowl appearance—the second here. Tech's first trip to the Sugar Bowl was in 1944. Seminole Must Win To Keep Southern Title Bid Alive; DeLand Now Leads

After extending a two-year winning streak to seven straight victories, Seminole High School's griders have lost to St. Augustine in a conference clash and were tied last Friday night by the Whiteats in Winter Park. Tomorrow night the Celery Feds will be seeking to bounce back into the victory column which will be essential if they hope to annex the East Florida Conference football title this fall.

The Seminole will journey to New Smyrna Beach for tomorrow night's encounter. The Whiteats will play the third conference team in the local league played this year. Despite the so-so 1-1 record this season, Sanford has a chance under the new divisional conference setup to go on and win the EFC grid pennant this year.

P. K. Yonge, of Gainesville, has already annexed the northern league title with wins over DeLand, Palatka and St. Augustine. The southern title will probably not be determined until DeLand, which is currently leading the southern teams in the EFC, and Sanford meet here on the No. 25 homecoming clash under the arches in the Memorial Stadium.

Both Seabreeze and New Smyrna have lost twice or more to almost eliminate them from contention in the south. Under the new conference setup this year the best team in the north, comprising Yonge, Starks, Palatka and St. Augustine, and the top southern team, composed of Seabreeze, New Smyrna, DeLand and Sanford, will battle it out for the league title at the end of the season in a play-off tilt.

Currently, DeLand and Sanford are leading for the southern title berth, each having been defeated in league play only once. DeLand has two conference wins and Sanford only one. The Whiteats, still have to play Seabreeze and New Smyrna before meeting DeLand. A win against the next two foes would grant aspirations of the Whiteats to the EFC crown.

Injured center Terry Corbell may be ready for tomorrow night's clash with the Whiteats.

Reds Observe 35th Birthday With Parade

Shortest Military Review Ever Seen Is Staged In Moscow Before Joe Stalin

By EDDIE GILMORE
MOSCOW (AP)—One of the shortest military parades ever seen in Moscow marked the 35th anniversary celebration today of the Bolshevik revolution. Prime Minister Stalin reviewed the parade from his usual place atop the marble tomb of Lenin in Red Square.

Because of low clouds there was no display of Soviet airpower, as has been the case in past years.

Before the parade started, Marshal Semyon Timoshenko, commander of the White Russian military district and one of the Soviet Union's military heroes in World War II, told the nation the armed forces of the Soviet Union have everything necessary to repel an invader.

He denounced "warmongers" saying they dream of a new world war while carrying on a barbarous war against the Korean people. He said Russia "can be confident that the Soviet armed forces are prepared to fulfill the task of defending the peaceful labor of the Soviet people."

Stalin wore his generalissimo's uniform. The Russian leader, who will be 73 on Dec. 21, walked up about 40 steps to a landing, where he raised his right hand in greeting to foreign diplomats, including those of the U. S. and other Western powers, who were in reviewing stands to see the show. Then he walked up the remaining 30 or 40 steps to the usual reviewing place.

It was a raw, gray day in the snow-blanketed capital.

When Timoshenko ended his speech a band of 1,000 men struck up the hymn of the Soviet Union, cannon roared a 30-gun salute and the parade got under way.

The military section of the parade included motorcycles, anti-aircraft weapons, armored cars and anti-aircraft weapons, motorized tanks, tanks, armed paratroopers, rocket firing trucks, motorized artillery, including great open-mouthed cannons with 20-men crews assigned to each.

Athletes of the Soviet Union marched in the civilian section of the parade. These included champions of the last Olympic games in Helsinki.

McCarty Selects Blackmon As His Office Assistant

FT. PIERCE (AP)—Warren Blackmon, who was named as McCarty's general election campaign for governor, will on Tuesday have with him as administrative assistant when McCarty takes office in January.

Blackmon's appointment is the first McCarty has announced.

McCarty is expected to announce others during the next few days. "I'm not trying to be coy," McCarty said, adding that his consideration of men for key positions has been reached the stage at which he is ready to announce decisions.

"I haven't promised any jobs and it makes life enjoyable for me. I've got a clear conscience. They may be disappointed but no man can say I promised him a job."

Most general speculation has been that Richard H. Simpson, former speaker of the State House of Representatives from Monticello, to head the State Road Department. McCarty declined to confirm the report but indicated Simpson may have a major position in his administration if he wants it.

Blackmon looks to have a major role in McCarty's primary campaign. He was at that time secretary of the Ft. Pierce Chamber of Commerce. He also is president of the Florida Chamber of Commerce Executives.

McCarty said Blackmon's selection was not in the nature of a political reward. "It's strictly a matter of doing a job. I feel one can contribute to the official operation of the office."

Blackmon, 34, is a native of Atlanta and a graduate of the University of Georgia. His wife is the former Della Rhodes, Jacksonville, a 1946 graduate of Florida State University. They have two sons.

PTA Of West Side Has Meet At School

The regular business meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association of the West Side School was held yesterday afternoon at the school.

Mrs. Clyde Humphrey, president, opened the meeting, with Mrs. C. W. Jones in charge of the devotion. During the meeting Mrs. J. H. Lee led a vocal rendition of "The Star-Spangled Banner" in the Home, H. B. Beckstead.

Mrs. Humphrey read the object of the PTA and introduced the officers and chairman for the year. A vote of thanks was given Mrs. Constantine for her work on the Halloween carnival. Hostesses for the social hour which followed the meeting were members of the hospital.

C Of C Committee Sets Membership Drive Next Week

"Kickoff" Breakfast To Be Held At Montezuma Monday

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce membership committee met at the City Hall yesterday afternoon under the chairmanship of E. C. Kilpatrick, Jr. and made plans for the annual membership drive which will be made next week.

The kickoff breakfast will be held at the Montezuma Hotel at 7:30 a.m. Monday morning with all team captains and their co-workers present when cards and literature pertaining to the Chamber will be distributed and arrangements made for concluding the drive within the week.

Among those present at the meeting were Manager Forrest Breckenridge, Wallace Dietrich, William Clark, Wilson W. A. Patrick, Roy Britt, H. Perkins, Jr., Karyl Housholder, Roland Lane, Clarence Redding, Al Lee, Mark Cleveland, and M. R. Strickland.

Other team captains include the Rev. L. W. Scott of Lake Mary, L. J. Hauman, Charles Cole of Geneva, B. F. Wheeler, Jr. of Fort Pierce, and George Touhy.

Letters are going out today to members and prospective members of the organization outlining the work during the past year. Former members are being urged to mail in their membership dues and not wait to be called on as this requires an unnecessary amount of time by those who are making a voluntary contribution of their efforts to the Chamber of Commerce.

The report shows that the Chamber of Commerce had a total of 537 memberships last year, or 81 more than the year before. Members of the membership committee expressed the hope that this may be increased to 100 or more this year.

In addition to memberships amounting to $9,302.50, the Chamber of Commerce received $8,000 from the City of Sanford and (Continued on Page Three)

A committee composed of the Rev. J. E. McKinley, the Rev. A. G. Malsala and Dr. J. Bernard Root was appointed to consider the advisability of having a non-denominational course of Bible study in the high school. The group commended the citizens of Seminole County for the passage of the non-partisan bond issue, the Rev. McKinley, publicity chairman, said this morning, and added that the association urged the authorities to proceed immediately to provide our country with an adequate hospital.

Caldwell Resigns As Civil Defense Head

WASHINGTON (AP)—Millard Caldwell today resigned as civil defense administrator, effective Nov. 15.

Caldwell, former governor of Florida, had said repeatedly he wanted to quit the federal job. White House spokesman announced President Truman's acceptance of the resignation, said James J. Wadsworth, Caldwell's deputy, will act as administrator.

Caldwell is the son of the late Sen. James W. Wadsworth (R-N.Y.) and a brother-in-law of W. Stuart Symington, Democratic senator elect from Missouri.

Flagman Demanded By Longwood Group

LONGWOOD (AP)—Frate citizens of Longwood demanded at last night's meeting of the Longwood town council that the council demand that the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad put a flagman at a crossing here where a woman motorist was killed by a train Wednesday.

The group of citizens attended the council meeting in protest of the lack of signals at a crossing on Church St. at which Mrs. Elsie Breckler Dresher, 37, of Pine Park, was killed Wednesday.

The council instructed Mrs. H. R. Gray, clerk, to contact L. E. Windham, Tampa, superintendent of the railroad, by phone this morning and ask that flagman be stationed at the crossing to stop motorists when a train is approaching.

Tampa Republican Appears As Winner

TAMPA (AP)—Courtney Campbell has all but sewed up victory in the Third District congressional race over William C. Cramer, the Republican Party's surprising young vote getter.

Campbell, a Dunedin and Tampa businessman, led the St. Petersburg lawyer by 3,144 votes on the basis of complete official returns from Hillsborough and Hernando Counties and complete unofficial returns from Pinellas and Pasco Counties.

Counting 3,238 absentee ballots in Pinellas, which gave Cramer 60 per cent of its unofficial total, won't be finished until late today, but the trend hasn't been strong enough to make up the GOP deficit.

Campbell should get the majority of the 238 absentee votes in Democratic Pasco County.

Traffic And Alley Problems Slated For City Meet

Traffic and alley matters hold a prominent position on the agenda for the City Commission meeting Monday night.

A petition will be presented from home owners on Valencia Drive to have an alley opened from Locust Avenue to Sanford Avenue for the collection of trash and garbage. A report also will be given concerning the opening of an alley running north and south between Locust and Mellonville Avenues, between Catalina Drive and Twentieth Street.

A letter from Mrs. Raymond Lundquist, 1703 Magnolia Avenue, has been received by the City, requesting signs, streamers, slower automobile speeds on Magnolia Avenue, between Fifteenth and Eighteenth Streets, for the protection of children of the neighborhood. A report on a meeting with State Road Department engineers regarding a request for relief of a traffic problem on South Park Avenue also will be given. Marion Harmon, chairman of the traffic committee, will present a report.

Bills will be brought up for consideration regarding the purchase of pipe fittings and other materials for the Water Department, and for the purchase of a public address system for the Commission room. Discussions will be held concerning ordinance No. 206, dealing with handbills, circulars and the like, on the suggested trash ordinance, dealing with rates for pick-up service, and on forming the Tourist Center.

Letters of answer to nominations to the City Planning Commission will be presented from Ira Southward and Arthur L. Wilson.

The Celery City Classic Committee, composed of Dr. George H. Starke, chairman, William Dingle and John Lawson, has made a request for a hearing before the City Commission. George Williams has requested a special meeting of the Commission to discuss City auditing.

Witness Says South Has 5 Million Slaves

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND (AP)—Sielon Kennedy, Switzerland, Fla. told the United Nations Forced Labor Committee today more than five million Negroes, Mexicans and white sharecroppers were being forced to work against their will in the Southern United States.

Kennedy's testimony was the first to be presented in the committee on alleged forced labor practices in the United States. The overwhelming mass of evidence hitherto has concerned forced labor in the Communist countries.

He told correspondents that he was at one time an undercover investigator of the Ku Klux Klan in Georgia on behalf of the Georgia Department of Law and still carries his Klan membership card.

Kennedy, a writer, was an active supporter of Progressive Party Presidential Candidate Henry Wallace in 1948.

Sanford Industry Gets Big Write-Up In Business Week

J. M. and Irving Feinberg and their Freewax Corp. are the subjects of an extensive article in the Nov. 1 issue of Business Week which details at length how their floor polishing insecticide ("the greatest discovery since soap") was invented and promoted.

The Business Week article goes back to 1947 when Irving Feinberg was operating his small insecticide plant here in Sanford and his brother, Jack, was running the Southern Electric Co. in Tallahassee.

The growth of the corporation is traced from the early struggles with various wax products mixed with insecticides to the perfection of Freewax in September of 1949. The formation of the Freewax Corp. the next January, and the big promotion job which followed.

Mistakes were many in the beginning Mr. Feinberg admits, according to the article, but finally an arrangement was made with Winn & Lovett Grocery Co. in Jacksonville and the success of the product assured.

Currently Freewax is selling in 12 states at the rate of $100,000 a month," says Business Week. "The new Sanford plant, with three employees has a capacity of 30,000 cases of Freewax a month. But Feinberg will probably franchise manufacturing operations in other parts of the country and overseas."

Bean Movement Reported Better At Farm Market

Small Volume Of Peppers And Other Vegetables Indicated

A total of 14,403 bushels of beans have moved through the Sanford State Farmers' Market through Thursday this week, according to Sandy Anderson, showing a constant increase from about 3,500 bushels Monday to approximately 4,400 bushels yesterday.

A small volume of peppers, eggplant, cucumbers, squash, parsnips and cabbage is moving through the market, he said, with the anticipation of volume increasing daily.

A break down of the commodity report for July through October, which totaled $281,059 in sales, showed the following figures for Florida products: Beans, 17,153 bushels; peppers, 2,631 bushels; eggplant, 137 bushels at $3.35; radishes, 15 five-dozen baskets at $2.25; yellow squash, 12 bushels at $3.25; tomatoes, 208 crates at $8.25; turnips, 50 dozen bunches at $2.75; water (Continued on Page Three)

UN Artillery Rocks Valley With Barrage

Claim Is Made Bloody Battle Of Hills Is Being Won As Enemy Guns Get Works

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
SEOUL (AP)—The biggest guns in the U. N.'s Korean arsenal hammered Red positions on the Central Front today and jubilant artillerymen claimed they were winning the bloody battle of the hills.

Allied officers said about half of the 200 Chinese field pieces around Triangle Hill and Sniper Ridge have been destroyed or damaged and mortar fire chopped them to bits under the impact of the all-out Allied barrage.

As the big guns roared, the first snowfall of the winter sifted down from leaden skies. Infantrymen of both sides huddled in bunkers and foxholes, leaving them only for scattered patrol clashes across the dismal 153-mile front.

Chinese Reds threw two feeble attacks at Sniper Ridge in the pre-dawn darkness. Allied artillery and mortar fire chopped them to bits.

The U. N. high command turned over the Central Front battle to the artillerymen Wednesday night.

Allied correspondents John Waindolph at the front said Allied artillerymen figure it will take them about 10 days to destroy the Red guns if they stay there and shoot it out with us.

The continual barrage already was showing its effect Tuesday about 23,000 rounds of Chinese fire only 11,000 rounds were counted Thursday it dropped to 4,000 Friday was quieter still.

Handolph said the big guns can't do the job alone. Some Chinese field pieces are protected by log and earth parapets up to 23 feet thick. Others are hidden in tunnels and caves.

The artillery hopes to get most of them Air Force attacks with searing napalm and big bombs which are being dropped.

The U. S. Eighth Army said the Reds launched several "hit and run" attacks along the front Friday night. Some Communist harassing attacks only, with no intent to capture Allied ground.

All were beaten back.

Handolph said the Chinese brought a bitter taste of the miserable months ahead.

Last night B26 invader bombers rained fire and flames in their continuing attacks on Communist transport lines reported 120 Red hit the Allied lines Wednesday destroyed.

County Secures Rights-Of-Way For Road Work

One Parcel Holds Up Start Of Work On South Ovidio Road

All of the right-of-way on approximately 12 1/2 acres of land on a two-mile stretch of the South Ovidio Road has been secured in an improvement project except the site of the old coffee plantation at Ovidio, according to information presented by M. C. Hagan, Sanford surveyor, at the regular meeting of the Seminole County Board of Commissioners this morning.

The improvement program is being taken in two portions as the budget allows, it was stated at the meeting, with a two-mile stretch beginning two miles from the Orange county line slated for immediate improvement, while that portion adjacent to the two-mile stretch will be improved later.

Holding up the immediate portion of the program is settlement with D. K. Keever, owner of the plantation site, who is asking $500 in ranking adjustments to his property.

This proposed settlement was not agreed upon by the board at the meeting, but it is expected to be agreed upon by the board at its next meeting.

Mr. Hagan said work will start in a few days.

Sanford Industry Gets Big Write-Up In Business Week

J. M. and Irving Feinberg and their Freewax Corp. are the subjects of an extensive article in the Nov. 1 issue of Business Week which details at length how their floor polishing insecticide ("the greatest discovery since soap") was invented and promoted.

The Business Week article goes back to 1947 when Irving Feinberg was operating his small insecticide plant here in Sanford and his brother, Jack, was running the Southern Electric Co. in Tallahassee.

The growth of the corporation is traced from the early struggles with various wax products mixed with insecticides to the perfection of Freewax in September of 1949. The formation of the Freewax Corp. the next January, and the big promotion job which followed.

Mistakes were many in the beginning Mr. Feinberg admits, according to the article, but finally an arrangement was made with Winn & Lovett Grocery Co. in Jacksonville and the success of the product assured.

Currently Freewax is selling in 12 states at the rate of $100,000 a month," says Business Week. "The new Sanford plant, with three employees has a capacity of 30,000 cases of Freewax a month. But Feinberg will probably franchise manufacturing operations in other parts of the country and overseas."

Witness Says South Has 5 Million Slaves

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND (AP)—Sielon Kennedy, Switzerland, Fla. told the United Nations Forced Labor Committee today more than five million Negroes, Mexicans and white sharecroppers were being forced to work against their will in the Southern United States.

Kennedy's testimony was the first to be presented in the committee on alleged forced labor practices in the United States. The overwhelming mass of evidence hitherto has concerned forced labor in the Communist countries.

He told correspondents that he was at one time an undercover investigator of the Ku Klux Klan in Georgia on behalf of the Georgia Department of Law and still carries his Klan membership card.

Kennedy, a writer, was an active supporter of Progressive Party Presidential Candidate Henry Wallace in 1948.

County Secures Rights-Of-Way For Road Work

One Parcel Holds Up Start Of Work On South Ovidio Road

All of the right-of-way on approximately 12 1/2 acres of land on a two-mile stretch of the South Ovidio Road has been secured in an improvement project except the site of the old coffee plantation at Ovidio, according to information presented by M. C. Hagan, Sanford surveyor, at the regular meeting of the Seminole County Board of Commissioners this morning.

The improvement program is being taken in two portions as the budget allows, it was stated at the meeting, with a two-mile stretch beginning two miles from the Orange county line slated for immediate improvement, while that portion adjacent to the two-mile stretch will be improved later.

Holding up the immediate portion of the program is settlement with D. K. Keever, owner of the plantation site, who is asking $500 in ranking adjustments to his property.

This proposed settlement was not agreed upon by the board at the meeting, but it is expected to be agreed upon by the board at its next meeting.
