Bids To Buy Old Hospital Sought Again

By MICHEAL BEHA Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County commussioners will be asked Tuesday to readvertise for bids to purchase the old Seminole Memorial Hospital building in Sanford.

County Administrator Roger Neiswender has included the request in the board's agendafor its 9:30 a.m. meeting

A first advertisement, in July, received no bids for the hospital building, although several bids were received for several smaller buildings on the 5.7-acre parcel on First Street.

Commissioners r jected those bids and contacted Bethesda, Md., developer George Kline who had written a letter of interest in buying the building.

If no buyer is willing to meet the $1.5 million asking price, the county will probably convertit into office space.

Commissioners also have the option of selling the property to Hospital Corporation of America, the firm which operates Central Florida Regional Hospital. A Jan. 14 ileadline is set for that action in an agreement between the hospital and the county. The hospital is also key to the future of the Department of Health and Human Resources. It has been named as one of the countyagencies which could relocate to the building if the county keeps it.

The survey, compiled for "Principal," the journal of the National Association of Elementary School Principals, suggests the electronic link between the administration office and classrooms should be disconnected.

"There is a time for announcements and the principal has legitimate needs to contact various teachers or students but an all-call bulletin in the middle of an instructional time to announce that 20 students are wanted by the principal to investigate something that happened on the bus early in the morning makes a mockery of instruction," the report chains.

Epps agrees with the report, "It's counterproductive and disrupts the train of thought of students," he said, "It disturbs them right when the teacher is making a point."

But Epps said the intercom is a necessary tool and for some jobs there is no alternative.

"We try to restrict its use to things that are mandatory," he said.

"We're set up to minimize disruption," Boothe said. "We try not to use it. But we do use it, say when a family needs to reach a student quickly." Boothe, who was interrputed by the PA system during this interview, said Lake Brantley is also equipped to contact individual classrooms rather than interrupting every class in the school. Assistant principals, deans and maintenance workers, who are paged often, have been given beepers to eliminate the need for all-call PA bulletins.

Boothe said some use of the intercom is essential. You have to understand we only have the students for part of the day. If we have school business we have to do it then."

After school, the intercom is used more often, Boothe said

Kline visited privately with commissioners and staff members on Friday and discussed his proposal for the building.

Kline refused to say how much be is willing to pay for the facility, which was abandoned when Central Florida Regional Hospital opened its doors in June.

Commissioners have said $1.5 million is the minimum price they can accept for the building since that is the price of constructing comparable space for county offices.

GOP Has Primary Contest

Oct. 5 Library Referendum Groups Start Work

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer (Second of two articles)

The Republican Party officially has one primary contest on the Oct. 5 primary ballot. Seminole Elections Supervisor Camilla Bruce was notified by Secretary of State George Firestone at 10:30 this morning.

State Sen, Van B. Poole of Ft, Lauderdale and State Attorney David Bludworth are vying at that time for the GOP nomination for the U.S. Senate.

The winner will face two term-incumbent U.S. Sen, Lawton Chiles, D-Lakeland, in the Nov, 2 general election.

Mrs. Bruce immediately ordered printers to begin printing ballots for the Oct. 5 election, held up awaiting certification from Firestone.

Another issue of countywide significance --- a $7 million bond issue for up to 30 years to expand and improve the county's library system - also will be on the ballot.

County Commissioner Robert G. "Bud" Feather urged his colleagues to change their minds and set the library issue for the Nov. 2 general election when a good turnout of voters can be expected.

Feather noted a poor turnout of voters has been the rule in a second primary election in an off-presidential year. He could not convince them, however.

Friday, Mrs. Bruce predicted a 10 percent turnout on Oct. 5. of the county's nearly 75,000 voters. No Democratic races will be on the ballot.

And Seminole County's Democratic State Committeenian William "Bill" Wack said, "It is a disservice to the public to have a library bond issue on the ballot Oct. 5 which traditionally has the lowest turnout of all elections." Republican State Committeeman Fred Streetman said the timing increases the chances of the bond issue passing.

"The people who are really into the library issue will make, an effort to vote for it," he said.

FRED STREETMAN WILLIAM WACK

Commissioner Bill Kirchhoff reaffirmed his position and that of the other three members of the board - Commissioners Sandra Glenn, Barbara Christensen and Bob Sturm - that the Oct. 5 vote on the library bond issue will not be rescheduled.

"That's when (Oct. 5) it's going to be," Kirchholf said. Kirchhoff said the time cannot be changed. "It's already advertised. The Library Advisory Committee has already set it up and got campaign literature already for that time."

Kirchhoff said special referendums generally are held at different times so the voters aren't distracted by other issues. on the ballot.

He said by holding the election Oct. 5 the county will get true feelings on the library itself. "Voters will be coming out to vote for or against the issue," he said.

County Librarian Jean Rhein said the referendum study committee has formed a political action committee to solicit and accept donations to inform the voters on the library bond issue

In addition, the Seminole County League of Women Voters and the American Association of University Women have been assisting in the effort.

She said the political action committee and the other two organizations have organized a speakers bureau on the bond issue and have been making telephone calls and providing information to the public.

Ms. Rhein said the date for the bond issue was set after the advisory committee got advice from other libraries in the state on the preferable time to hold such a bond election. Ms. Rhein said the committee was advised to schedule the election when the ballot would not be "overloaded with controversial or confusing issues."

She said the committee also looked at the numbers who would vote in the Oct. 5 election.

Members of the "Library Referendum Study Committee for Library Development" are Joyce Baker and Helen Smith, both of Altamonte Springs; Marilyn Crotty of Maltland, Carolyn Durak of Sanford; Mary Jo Garrison of Oviedo, Dottie Laudermilk of Longwood, Helen Wolf of Winter Springs and County Commissioners Glenn and Kirchhoff.

The political action committee, formed on June 14 with Mrs. Durak as chairman, Mrs. Baker as secretary and Irene K. Brown as treasurer, has reported contributions totaling $1,050 with expenditures of $90 for petty cash as of Sept. 2.

The documents filed in Mrs. Bruce's office by the "Seminole County Library Committee" notes it was "created to research and prepare a countywide referendum package for library development." The documents also note that if the committee is dissolved, its remaining funds will be donated to the "Friends of the Seminole County Public Library" system for support of the public library.

The committee's address is listed as the Central Service Building, Park Avenue and First Street, third floor, Sanford - 1 the county library system's administrative offices. And Betty Flippen, a county employee in the library office is listed as deputy campaign treasurer.

Those who have donated funds include: Flagship Bank of Seminole, $25, First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Sanford, $35; Michael or Carolyn Durak, Sanford, $25; Mrs. Bill Kirchhoff, $75; Edgar or Velma Williams, $20, Elizabeth R. or Mills Boyd, $50 W.A. or Andrew C. Munroe, $50, Earl Wilson, $25, Stenstrom, McIntosh, Julian, Colbert and Whigham, $50, all of Sanford; the Huskey Co., $25, and Marilyn Crotty, $25, both of Maitland; Ann and Clair Marks, $10, Richard J. and Barbara Green, $15, William H. or Marilyn A. NATION IN BRIEF Crime Fighting Package Going To Capitol Hill

Monday, Sept. 13, 1982

WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Reagan today prepared to send Congress a legislative package intended to help law enforcement agencies and prosecutors cambat a nationwide "crime epidemic."

Because of the complex and controversial nature of the proposals, along with the short time that remains before Congress' scheduled adjournment, administration officials concede there is little chance of passage this year.

Among the key proposals being made by Reagan are revision of the "exclusionary rule" on evidence, limits on federal court "interference" and state criminal proceedings and restrictions on the use of the insanity defense.

The "exclusionary rule" provides for judges to disallow the use in court of evidence obtained illegally. Reagan, who contends crucial evidence is sometimes thrown out because of "a small technicality," wants such evidence permitted as long as the police officer acted "in good faith" in obtaining it.

Reagan also wants to limit criminal appeals to federal courts. Such restrictions, he said Saturday, would "reduce the great number of cases which now overburden our courts system and slow the wheels of fustice."

Protestant Factions Linked

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) - A surprise vote has linked three million Episcopalians and five million Lutherans in new kind of brotherhood allowing joint communion and shared worship.

The overwhelming approval, which was hailed as historic by church officials, was celebrated with the singing of Martin Luther's famous hymn "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

On Thursday the Lutheran bodies - the American Lutheran Church, the Lutheran Church of America and the Association of Evangelical Lutheran Churches approved the plan for reciprocal sharing of the Eucharist.

Under the new policy, clergy of one denomination may also preside over the other denomination's services, with approval from the local church bodies and the bishops.

Drug-Crazed 'Gopher' Dies

LOS ANGELES (UPI) - Police say a man under the influence of the hallucinogenic drug PCP apparently believed he was a gopher, burrowed into a hole and suffocated.

Walter Murphy, 27, was found dead in the hole last Friday. Authorities said he burrowed into a hole beneath a concrete slab in his backyard, apparently having a hallucination he was a gopher. Officials said he was taking PCP at the time.

His mother, Olga Davis, said her son had first started digging holes last April, staying in them for up

Woman Indicted In Boyfriend's Murder

By TENI YARBOROUGH Herald Staff Writer

The trial of a 23-year-old Sanford woman accused of the firstdegree murder of net ex-boyfriend is slated for Oct 22 before Circuit Judge Kenneth M. Leffler.

Susle Mae Davis, of 1410 Williams Ave., was indicted by a grand jury Wednesday in the shooting death of Bryon L. Brooks, 21, of Lake Mary. Brooks was shot and killed Aug. 24 at the Sanford Landings construction site on W. First Street where he worked as a laborer. Ms. Davis has been in the Seminole County jail without bond since the shooting, jail officials said

On the day of the shooting, a woman drove onto the construction site, parked her vehicle and began shouting at Brooks. The woman returned to her car, pulled out one of two guns lying on the car's front seat and began shooting at Brooks, police said.

Brooks was hit in the back by one bullet fragment as he tried to flee, fell to the ground and attempted to crawl away, as the woman continued firing, police said.

The woman then got into her car attempted to drive away when a construction foreman jumped into his truck, rammed her car and held her at gunpoint until police arrived.

Brooks was pronounced dead on arrival at Central Florida Regional Hospital.

DeBARY WOMAN MURDERED

Volusia County sheriff's deputies say a 70-year-old DeBary woman, found dead in her home Saturday, may have been murdered by two men whom her husband met earlier that day in a Sanford bar.

Deputies said the body of Thelma Elizabeth Stevens, of 224 Angeles Road, was discovered by her husband Joseph Preston Stevens, Jr. in the couple's bedroom at about 5:20 p.m. Saturday. Deputies said Mrs. Stevens had been stabbed numerous times in the upper chest area and may also have been stranggled during the assault.

An autopsy is being performed today at Halifax morgue to determine the exact cause of death, deputies said. Deputies added that there was no sign of robbery or sexual assault.

According to sheriff's Lt. E.L. Carroll, Stevens had been in a Sanford bar earlier that day handing out business cards in an effort to solicit clients for his gun dealership which he operates at his home.

Deputies said they believe the murderers may have been in the bar and received a card listing Stevens' address.

Residents in the area of the couple's home told deputies that they observed a light green pickup truck at the residence between 3:45 p.m. and 4:45 p.m. The truck was occupied by one or two men, witnesses said.

Deputies added that a knife, believed to be the murder weapon, was found in the home.

When he became belligerent, Owney told police that he pushed him away and the holdup man turned and ran out the doora

The getaway car, a black Pontiac Gran Prix sped out of the station and was spotted in the parking lot of a nearby motel. Seminole County Sheriff's deputies and Longwood police converged on the car and arrested the occupants.

William Lyles, 45, was arrested on a charge of first degree armed robbery.

Arrested for being a principal in an attempted robbery were: Betty S. Miller, the alleged driver of the car; Donnie L. Payton, 26; and Marie L. Starrett, 21. No addresses were given for those arrested.

Lyles is in the Seminole County jail in lieu of $8,000 bond. The others are in jail in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Body Still Unidentified; CRIMEWATCH Seeking Clues

On April 11, two men in a four-wheel drive vehicle stopped in the Phillips 66 station in Lake Mary to get lunch, and then they were going to go "mudding."

As they were driving toward a popular "mud hole" just off Lake Mary Boulevard in Lake Mary, they spotted the body of a man about 10 feet off the road.

They found he had been strangled and stabbed to death. The medical examiner determined the time of death to be between midnight and 2 a.m. earlier that same day.

Five months have passed and the victim has yet to be identified, let alone the homicide solved. Lake Mary investigators have discovered the victim frequented gay bars. in the Daytona Beach area and he was last seen alive at 8 p.m. on the night of April 10 at the Greyhound bus depot in Daytona.

The victim is a white male in his early to mid 20s, 5'10" 165 pounds. He had short blond hair, a moustache, a neatly trimmed two-week-old beard. He also had blue eyes.

When he was found, he was wearing blue jeans, a blue plaid long sleeve western style shirt, and tan tennis shoes with an orange stripe down the side. Found next to the body was a tan T-shirt with "Camel-Daytona 82" on it.

She then cocked the gun fired two or three and one bullet struck the child in the head," Spolski said. "Allison was not injured." Spolski said two witnesses to the shooting,

FLORIDA IN BRIEF Did 'Junk Food Professor' Die Because He Was Gay?

GAINESVILLE (UP1) - Friends and relatives of Howard Appledorf are now worried that the publicity in the wake of his gruesome murder will tarnish his accomplishments.

The Miami Herald said Sunday many people now believe that the "junk food professor" was a homosexual and that led to his murder,

The case against the three youths charged in the murder will go before the Alachua County Grand Jury on Wednesday and a decision on whether to indict them could be made as soon as then and no later than the end of the week.

The body of the 41-year-old Appledorf, a popular instructor who was dubbed "the junk food professor" when he championed the nutritional value of fast foods, was discovered Sept. 5 in his ransacked condominium, blindfolded and bound_

Man Poisoned By Paraquat

GAINESVILLE (UPI) - A Pompano Beach landscaper with severe paraquat poisoning is listed in critical condition at Shands Teaching Hospital two weeks after his exposure to the controversial herbicide

Dr. Robert Somneberg, who first examined Scott Wilson, 25, Sept. 5, said he has only a 40 percent chance of surviving exposure to the weed killer recently used by Florida officials to spray a marijuana field in the Florida Panhandle.

State officials, backed by Gov. Bob Graham, have promoted the use of paraquat for spraying marijuana fields. Opponents have said that some of the paraquatsprayed pot will probably find its way to the market place where it will become a health hazard

FP&L Wants Still More

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) - Florida Power & Light Co. got a $257 million rate increase last year, the largest in the state's history, but now the giant utility is coming back for more.

The Public Service Commission will begin two weeks of hearings today on FPL's request for another increase of $281 million, and a lot of opposition is expected.

FPL's request would raise the average monthly residential bill for 1,000 kilowatt hours by 12 percent, from an average $63.63 to $71.28.

The commission is not scheduled to vote on the request until Nov. 22 and therefore, any increase that might be granted would not go into effect until January.

Company officials argue that if they don't get what they are asking for. FPL won't be able to grow fast enough to serve the 100,000 new customers it gets annually.

for emergency services in Seminole County will be the topic of a Seminole County Commission work session today. Commissioners, Public Safety Director

Gary Kaiser and other staff members, will discuss the renewal of the county's contract with Herndon which expires at the end of this month. The meeting will be held at 2 p.m. in commission chambers at the courthouse on Park Avenue, Sanford.

A Longwood firm, Aero Products Inc., has expressed interest in competing with Herndon for the county's contract for emergency medical service. The county paid about $105,000 for the service this year and an increase is expected next year.

On Reagan's Bid For Peace

Palestinian rights for Israeli security.

This exchange is the basic principle of President Reagan's Mideast peace proposal, the most far-reaching framework for settlement since the Camp David accord. Out of the blood and rubble of Beirut has emerged the American will and the fleeting international opportunity to attempt to return the West Bank to Palestinian control and to establish an enduring peace between Israel and its Arab neighbors.

President Reagan has declared that the United States will not tolerate an independent Palestinian state in the West Bank and Gaza, nor will it tolerate Israeli annexation of the West Bank and Gaza. He says self-government of the Palestinian people in association with Jordan and recognition of Israel by Arab nations must be achieved through negotiation — not force of arms.

These aims will take perseverance to achieve. They may also take aid — or threat of its removal — to bring parties to compromise. A peace initiative without teeth can unleash the dogs of war.

The Israeli Cabinet angrily, unanimously and systematically rejected the Reagan peace plan as a violation of Camp David and a threat to Israel's security. A communique said that on the basis of the proposal Israel "will not enter into any negotiations with any party." But a venting of frustration must not be confused with a final rejection. Many Israelis are anxious to begin talks. Shimon Peres, leader of the opposition Labor party, said, "The American proposal can serve as a basis for dialogue between Americans and us."

Reaction in Jordan and the Arab world was quietly, but unofficially, positive. A meeting of the Arab League, being held this week, will test whether that response can be translated into constructive action. If Arab moderates and hardliners refuse recognition of Israel while demanding Palestinian independence, they will stand accused of using the Palestinians as pawns of Arab intransigence. Israel's rejection and the Arab's quiet reception of the plan might be interpreted to indicate a tilt of the United States toward the Arabs. Rather, the tilt is a balancing action --- in the direction of U.S. interests. Our policy has been biased toward Israel to the point at which American arms were used in an invasion of Lebanon, killing innocent civilians. And that bias has done our Israeli ally no good. For, by its Goliath-like conduct, Israel has lost its moral support in much of the world, and even among many Americans. We do not want that support to erode further, but want instead to rebuild it on a firmer basis. Only by a more balanced policy toward Israel, with clear enunciation of the U.S. position, can Israel see the consequences of following the path of force. The United States has no right to interfere in Israeli politics, but we do have a responsibility for the way our weapons are used. Israelis must see the clear choice between pursuing a policy of annexation and support from the United States.

The war of double taxation between the seven cities In the county and the county commission has been a real thorn in the side of countywide cooperation over the years.

That's the way County Administrator Roger Neiswender sees it. The county's and cities' rapid growth has made local government's trials and decision-making more and more complex. Neiswender said if the issue can be settled once and for all, the elected officials and their staffs can give full attention to other plaguing problems.

The simple issues were paramount in years past. The overriding concern in those years was getting enough money in hand to operate and serve the citizens.

Today, the issues are not only money, but also zoning, planning for the future, drainage, land planning, land development. And what one governmental unit does affects not only the people governed in that city or the county, but neighbors as well.

As everyone has been bearing for years, drainage problems do not stop at the city boundaries, nor at the county boundaries.

When the double taxation issue is finally resolved, "we've got to put a lot of history behind us," Neiswender said.

Well, Neiswender and administrative and to some instances elected officials from the cities are at least trying in earnest to settle this double taxation issue this time. At least it appears that they are. And maybe peace and harmony will come to pass.

It was a pleased Elections Supervisor in election returns to the state last week. Finding Seminole was the first in the state to get the job done, she was even more delighted.

It was less than 90 minutes after the polls closed before the election results were nicely printed on computer sheets for all who were interested.

It wasn't always an easy task for Mrs. Bruce's office to get the returns in and the results out so rapidly in the past.

For some years awkward and buge voting me kines were used and the absentee ballots were hand counted, requiring rooms full of assistants to work days on end to complete the job.

It's to Altamonte Springs City Manager Jeff Etchberger's credit, that while he was assistant county administrator, he spurred on the purchase of the punch card system of voting.

New Right

PARK CITY, Utah (NEA)—In this year's major political contest here in Utah, the senator from Pennsylvania is battling the senator from Massachusetts.

The senator from Pennsylvania is Sen. Orrin Hatch, R-Utah, who was born here and whose family ties to Utah date back three generations, including a great-grandfather who was one of the state's pioneer settlers. The senator, however, was raised in Pennsylvania and the Democrats' campaign to portray him as an out-of-state "carpetbagger" includes distribution of a bumper sticker which says "Send Orrin Hatch Back to Pittsburgh."

The senator from Massachussetts is Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., who isn't on the ballot here but who is regularly cited by the state's Republicans as the personification of the too-liberal-for-Utah politics allegedly embraced by Salt Lake City Mayor Ted Wilson, Hatch's Democratic opponent.

The Hatch-Wilson race has special significance extending well beyond Utah's borders because it poses a crucial test for the New Right" which only two years ago emerged as a political force so potent that it was able to topple four vereran Democratic senators—in Indiana, Iowa, Idaho and South Dakota—all denied re-election after being portrayed as being too liberal for their constituencies.

Hatch, on the other hand, is an unabashed supporter of virtually all the economic, social and political goals embraced by the "New Right." If he fails to win-re-election in this exceptionally conservative state, that outcome could suggest that the political strength of the "New Right" is neither as broad nor as

ROBERT WAGMAN Money Speaks Loudly

WASHINGTON (NEA)—There is one thing on which everyone in Congress can agree: the soaring cost of winning and holding onto their seats.

Norman Lent, a New York Republican, is running for his sixth term in the House. A conservative from a conservative Long Island district, Lent should not be worried about having to fund a sizable re-election campaign. But he is.

"This year I will spend about five times what I spent 10 years ago when I was challenging a Democratic incumbent in a much more liberal district," he says. "The ability to raise funds has become one of the most important aspects of campaigning. It has also become a year-round job."

The figures bear out what is being said by Lent and most of his colleagues on both sides of the aisle.

The Federal Election Commission reports that $240 million was spent on Senate and House races during the 1979-1980 election cycle. The commission estimates that the 1982 congressional races will cost at least $325 million.

The most expensive Senate campaigns used to cost $1 million. And that would buy a multimedia extravaganza.

Now $1 million has become the minimum amount for a Senate race.

Gov. Edmund "Jerry" Brown and San Diego Mayor Pete Wilson will each spend upwards of $4 million this year on their California Senate campaigns.

These days the million-dollar campaign is not unusual in the House.

Six years ago House races rarely cost more than $100,000, even in urban districts. But

Plot To Kill The Pope

In a recent column I noted that Claire Sterling, the author of "The Terror Network" and a recognized authority on 20th century political terrorism, has established persuasively in a major article in the current Reader's Digest that Mehmet Ali Agca, the Turkish terrorist who tried to kill Pope John Paul II, was programmed by the Soviet KGB through its Bulgarian catspaw to do exactly what he tried to do. I said that, outside of the Borchgrave posit an actual communist apparatus in the major media that "spikes" kills—crucial anti-soviet stories.

I myself do not necessarily believe that theory.

In the present case, the KGB killing attempt upon the pope, if it came to light, would have been a major Soviet disaster.

There are hundreds of millions of people around the world, including the Third World,

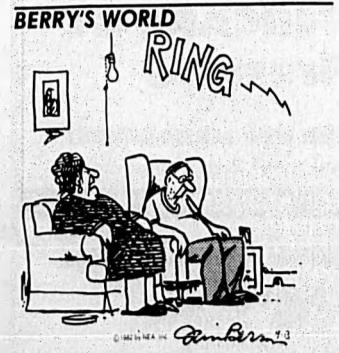

So too, the Arab proponents of war and terrorism should not take heart from the Reagan proposals. Our nation will never countenance a militarized Palestinian state aimed like a dagger at Israel's heart.

In his autobiography, "The Revolt," Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin wrote:

"And when the gates of the (Soviet) prison were opened and the car slid into the deserted street, somebody whispered: "This is the beginning of the journey to Eretz Israel."

"Impractical faith? Maybe. Yet faith is perhaps stronger than reality; faith itself creates reality."

As the last Palestine Liberation Organization members were evacuated from the gates of Beirut, the president of the United States presented a plan to give Palestinians selfgovernment and give Israel peace. Our faith in the future of the Mideast must be stronger than the history of hatred and violance. Our faith must ereate peace.

"Answer the door! Maybe it's Sheik Mohammed al-Fassi, and he wants to give you a lot of money." official figures show that 1980 House campaigns averaged $190,000 for winners and losers alike; the average for winners alone exceeded $260,000.

Most political consultants now warn potential House candidates that they should not even consider challenging an incumbent unless they can raise at least $400,000.

The key question, of course, is whether the congressional process has been perverted by the constant scramble for campaign funds and the willingness of special-interest groups to provide them.

"No," insist most members of Congress, even as they decry the high cost of politics. "Sure, there are a lot of special interests willing to contribute to your campaign," says Rep. John LeBoutillier, R-N.Y. "But by law they are limited to giving me $1,000. No one can buy my vote for a $1,000.

"This year 1 am going to spend about $400,000 winning re-election. The most anyone can give me is 1-400th of that total. Thus, no one contribution, even at the maximum, becomes that important."

Variations on those comments are echoed by most members of Congress; "You can't buy me that cheap."

But a very different answer is given by two highly respected congressmen who are retiring this year for a number of reasons, not the least of which is their distaste for the rising cost of politics and the need for constant fund-raising.

William Brodhead, a liberal Democrat, has represented his Detroit district since 1974. In 1978, he won re-election with 95 percent of the vote. In 1980, President Carter received 51 percent of the district's vote while Brodhead collected 73 percent.

Brodhead probably could stay in Congress for as long as he might want. But he is calling it guits.

Reader's Digest, this blockbuster story had received little or no coverage in the major media.

I stand corrected. Information reaching me from Dallas, Tex., indicates that the story has received full coverage there, at least, as it has in major European newspapers, and if it has been covered in Dallas it has probably been covered also in other cities across the country.

In the Boston-New York-Washington media corridor, however, it has met with silence. It has not been dealt with by CBS-TV or the other major networks (although an NBC White Paper titled "The Man Who Shot the Pope—A Study in Terrorism" is scheduled to air September 21). It has been downplayed by the New York Times and relegated to back pages. It has not made a splash in the Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times, or the Chicago Tribune.

There is an ancient saying, certainly redolent of regional chauvinism, but containing some truth, that if it is not reported in the New York Times, it didn't happen. As far as the Eastern corridor brand of major media is concerned, the Soviet plot to murder the pope didn't happen.

Now, of course, the Reader's Digest has 12 million readers, no insignificant segment. Those readers, if they have read Claire Sterling's piece, now know the facts. But, though much of its audience is serious and intelligent, the Reader's Digest does not count for much in so-called "opinion-making" circles. And these have definitely laid off the pope assassination story.

Why? In effect, the story has so far been "spiked." In the best-selling novel called "The Spike," Robert Moss and Arnaud de who believe that the pope is the Vicar of Christ. If a communist plat, directed from Moscow, to kill the Pope ever became widely credible, it would be a psychological catastrophe. In launching this assassination operation, the Soviets were terribly provincial and Euro-centered. They were thinking specifically of Poland and secondarily of Turkey.

What seems to me to be the case here is that the major media have an investment in the idea that the Soviet Union is a "normal" country, and that "normal" countries just do not program a Turkish terrorist to kill the pope. This conception took precedence over the facts in the specific case, which therefore became "unimportant," just not "news."

Come to think of it, "The Plot to Kill the Pope" would make a fine movie. Mehmet Ali-Agea was recruited and equipped and pointed toward the Pope with his Bulgarian-supplied Browning automatic and his $50,000 in cash. He thought he was going to shoot and escape. Two henchmen were to create a disturbance, which would give Agea a chance to run for it. The Soviets did not want it that way. The shots were fired, and the two henchmen left. him in the lurch to be captured. They were photographed running away, one jumping on a bus. The Soviets wanted Agca captured, because he is a Turk-thus making Turkey seem less desirable as a NATO ally, an unstable terrorist country. No doubt, the Soviets hoped he would be killed in Vatican Square, his last political service.

But, Agca lives on in jail. He has given Claire Sterling just enough correct information to indicate that he can give a lot more. He has escaped from jail before. Stay tuned. deep as both liberals and conservatives previously presumed.

Although he never held any public office prior to 1976, Hatch staged a political coup that year when he upset Sen. Frank Moss, D-Utah, a three-term veteran. In the ensuing six years, Hatch has emerged as a leading national spokesman for the conservative wing of the Republican Party.

But that role may have cost him some support in this insular state where voters generally prefer locally oriented politicians. Sen. Jake Garn, R-Utah, has a voting record virtually identical to Hatch but is widely assumed to be far more popular here because he displays no desire for national prominence.

Like Garn, Wilson is an affable, easy-going politician, while Hatch is often described as aloof or stand-offish—a characterization his friends and supporters say is an unfair exaggeration of his natural shyness.

To a great extent, the campaign is a test of the extent to which Utah has undergone a metamorphosis in recent years, abandoning its earlier role as the unquestioning host to a panoply of dangerous if not lethal military programs.

The state has been the country's principal site for the storage and testing of chemical and biological weapons, its residents were contaminated by the atmospheric testing of nuclear weapons in neighboring Nevada during the 1950s, and it was selected, along with Nevada, as the base for a controversial tand subsequently abandoned) MX missile system.

Popular opposition to the MX missile (led by the Mormon Church which claims 71 percent of the state's citizens as its adherents) may have marked a turning point for Utah.

Terrorists Threaten Oman Takeover

WASHINGTON — In the subterranean world of terrorists and revolutionaries, no movement is more obscure than the Popular Front for the Liberation of Oman. Yet this ragtag Bedouin band is threatening to seize the sluice gate through which oil flows to the industrial nations.

Oman overlooks the Straits of Hormuz at the bottom of the Persian Gulf. Whoever controls Oman could easily plug up the gulf and prevent oil tankers from reaching the open walers of the Arabian Sea.

Yet this is precisely what the Popular Front means to do. Its scraggly guerrilla fighters seek to overthrow the Sultan of Oman, Qaboos bid Said, who now guards the entrance to the vital Persian Gulf. The guerrillas are well armed, trained and disciplined for revolution. They have all the Soviet arms they can use, and they were taught how to use them by the PLO.

Now a revolutionary prophet has risen up to inspire them on against the foe. He is none other than Iran's ancient, bearded cleric, Ayatollah Khomeini, who is fanning the fires of revolution throughout the Persian Gulf area.

His glowering visage and patriarchial beard give him the look of an Old Testament prophet. This gives visual impact to a fanaticism that can whip the Shiite Moslems into a fury, and the Persian Gulf countries are heavily populated with Shiites.

I found evidence of Khomeini's underground warfare in the ruins of a PLO field headquarters in Lebanon. The fleeing guerrillas had left behind teaching materials, including a cutout of Khomeini, proclaiming his revolutionary doctrines. One discarded tract appealed to the people of Oman to support the Popular Front for the Liberation of Oman, which is "leading an armed struggle" against "U.S. imperialism" in the Persian Gulf.

Khomeini represents a dedicated, calculating incorruptible danger to U.S. interests in that area. Yet the U.S. policy toward Iran is ambiguous and ambivalent. The State Department wants to forgive the ayatollah his trespasses, appeal to his selfinterest and try to normalize relations with Iran. But the Pentagon wants to stop Khomeini's revolution in the Persian Gulf by military means, if necessary. Military exercises are scheduled tentatively in October, complete with the landing of U.S. Marines in Oman, to demonstrate U.S. determination to protect the entrance to the Persian Gulf.

NEW "DIRTY WAR": In the political rubble of the Falkland Islands fiasco, an ugly right-wing organization has reappeared in Argentina. Called "Defenders of the Victims of Subversion," it purports to be made up of families of persons killed by the leftist Montonero guerrillas in the 1970s.

The group's particular target is the pathetic "Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo." These are the determined women who daily picket the downlown Buenos Aires square demanding an accounting of their sons and daughters who died or disappeared in the military regime's "dirty war." The number of these "desparecidos" is estimated at perhaps 20,000, believed to have been kidnapped, tortured and shot by officially sanctioned death squads.

The mothers are an embarrassment to the discredited military regime, a constant reminder of the army's bloody war against the Argentine people. My sources tell me the government wants to issue a blanket amnesty covering those responsible for the crimes of the "dirty war," and sees the mothers as an obstacle to this plan.

So the "Defenders" are being used to discredit the mothers. Thousands of posters have appeared in Buenos Aires accusing the mothers of receiving funds from the remnants of the outlawed Montonero movement, and labeling them "mothers of terrorists." The "Defenders" have also been harassing the mothers in various ways, including telephoned death threats.

But as one source noted, there are 300,000 Argentines living abroad, at least half of them political exiles. Many lost family members in the "dirty war." "No matter if there's an amnesty," the source said, "these people know who the murderers are, and they'll return to settle old scores." Fall Fashion Sale

Lyman Takes Invitational, Seminole Boys Finish Third

Monday Afternoon Quarterback

Marshall Law Rules Gridiron

If you witnessed the Seminole-Astronaut High School football game Friday and the Florida-USC game Saturday, you know it was the weekend of the Marshall's. Wendell ran for 146 yards to lead Titusville Astronauts over Seminole, 16-10 while Wilber's defensive exploits were instrumental in the Gators' 17-9 victory over the Trojans.

Titusville ate the 'Noles up with its ground attack, compiling 250 yards rushing. "I didn't think we would be able to run on them as well as we did," Astronaut coach Jay Donnelly said.

Two key Five Star Conference matchups are slated for this Friday. Seminole will meet Lake Howell's 1-0 Silver Hawks at Seminole High's Stadium. The Hawks knocked off Bishop Moore, 20-9 in the season opener behind the 164-yard rushing, two touchdown performance of Jay Robey.

In another conference battle, Lyman's walking, running and TD scoring-wounded face the Mainland Buccaneers. "I never listen to Bill Scott (Lyman's coach) when he complains

Both the Lyman and Lake Mary cross country teams got off to rousing starts. Saturday, each winning the boys and girls competitions in the respective meets.

Lyman, host of the Greyhound Opener at Seminole Community College, won by a 20 point margin over Bishop Moore while Seminole High was a distant third in the boys competition.

Lake Howell's Ken Cheeseman was the individual winner with a time of 16:03 for the three mile event. Lyman's Doug McBroom was third with a 16:20.4 and the Greyhounds' Brian Hunter was fourth at 16:25.8.

Seminole's top finisher was Michael Wooten, who was 12th with a time of 17:46.5. Chris Colloway (17:49) was 14th, followed by Kent Troutman (17:51, 15th), Scott Meck (18:19, 23rd) and William Boyd (19:15, 31st) for the Tribe.

"Our first three guys ran fairly close," Seminole coach Ted Tombros said. "We need to get Scott (Meck) and William (Boyd) closer to those three guys. Williams is just starting to round into shape."

The Lady Greyhounds also turned in an impressive showing with a team score of 66 while second place Boone finished with 84. Lake Howell was fourth, Lake Brantley seventh and Seminole was 10th.

Spruce Creek's Carmen Gardner was in a class by herself Saturday, winning the individual two mile run by over a minute. Gardner crossed the finish line at 11:26.7 while Bishop Moore's Liz Lewis clocked in at 12:39.2 for second place.

Lyman's Showanda Williams was fourth at 12:48.1, Lake Howell's Kerry Ryter was fifth (13:03.1), Lake Brantley's Ellen Stern was sixth (13:04.8), Cindy Gaskell of Lyman was seventh (13:10.5) and Lady Greyhound Angie Dilello was 12th at 13:31.5.

Sabrena Cashe was the top finisher for Seminole with a time of 15:53 and 52nd place. Cashe was followed by Lisa Grant (16:42; 57th), Tammy Clandom (18:43, 65th), Vera Rammassar (19:26, 76th) and Tanya Payne (20:02, 71st) for the 'Noles. Seminole's number one runner, Lori Eckler, dropped out due to illness.

Other Brantley times included; Barbara Holmes (14:24), Laura Barnhill (14:43), Beth Glasbrenner (14:56), Kim Pacetelli (15-45) and Melissa Maghdadi (15:44).

Lake Howell's Angle Smith won the junior varsity individual event with a time of 13:51.3, the only JV runner under 14 minutes in girls competition.

Robert Davis, a member of the Brantley JV, recorded a third place finish with an 18, 19.3 while Lyman's Rick Martin was fifth at 18:27.1.

Seminole's top JV runner was Billy Penich (20:05, 19th). Andre Jackson (20:57, 23rd) and Mike Wohlgemuth (21:16, 24th) helped the Tribe JV to a fourth place finish.

Meanwhile, the Rams of Lake Mary outclassed the rest of the field to win both the boys and girls competition at the Luther Invitational at Trinity Prep.

"It was our first varsity sweep ever for boys and girls," Lake Mary coach Mike Gibson said.

Derek Tangeman, in his first appearance as a Ram, crossed the finishline at 16:56, edging Westminster Academy's Dave Vila (17:01.3) while Trinity Prep's Tommy Matthews placed fifth at 17:38.

Lake Mary's Mark Blythe was sixth at 17:39 and the Rams' Turn Cournacki was ninth at 18:50. Trinity's Brandon Peters was eighth at 17:59.

The Rains overcame Trinity to win the team event, 49 to 64.

The Lady Rams, behind sophomore Kim Averill, pulled off somewhat of an upset in knocking off the Trinity Prep's girls squad, considered one of the best in the state. Lake Mary finished with 47 points while the Lady Saints posted a 52. Trinity Prep's fleet-footed freshman, Adrienne Politowicz, won the individual battle with Averill with a 13:13 while the Lake Mary standout finished at 13:34

Averill was aided by the efforts of Shannon Weger +14:52, 7th place), Liz-Stone (14:55, 8th), Andrea Beardslee (14:56, 9th) and Chrissy Marshall (16:24, 21st), Katie Sams of Trinity Prep was sixth at 14:36.

Upcoming meets are: Seminole at Lake Mary, Friday at 4 p.m., and the Edgewater Invitational Thursday at Trinity Prep.

Mainland is another team hurting. The Bucs were devastated by New Smyrna Beach Friday night after being tabbed the Five Star's top team by the conference coaches.

If you look in this week's classified section you may see the following add - WANTED: Quarterback with speed and good throwing arm to fill vacated slot. If you meet requirements call coach Roger Beathard at Lake Mary High School.

The Rams are set to play at Bartow this Friday.

Oviedo's Lions, fresh off a 9-0 whitewashing of Umatilla, will face St. Cloud in a key Orange Belt Conference confrontation. Oviedo, St. Cloud and Kissimmee are expected to fight for the conference crown.

Lake Brantley will try to rebound after a 20-0 loss to Colonial against conference foe Apopka. If you didn't see high school football highlights you missed one of the weirdest plays in history. The Apopka return man received the opening kickoff, ran about five yards, and threw a forward pass for a touchdown. Of course the play was dissallowed and the Blue Darters went on to lose. Brantley hopes Apopka will break a few more rules this week.

Trinity Prep got off to a good start by edging Tampa Temple Heights, 14-13 in overtime. The Saints will do a lot of praying this week as they prepare for the state's third ranked (on the Dunkel ratings) 1A football team, Frostproof. - CHRIS FISTER

Dolphins Devastate Jets; Bucs Lose

NEW YORK (UPI) - Mianii Don Shula is considered a perfectionist, a man who does not take kindly to losing.

One of the things that has rankled him most in recent years has been the Dolphins' incredible futility against the New York Jets.

Miami had not beaten the Jets since Nov. 6, 1977, going 0-7-1 over that span, and Shula seethed inside every time the losing streak was mentioned.

He won't need to suffer anymore, thanks to a devastating display by the Dolphins Sunday, Miami reeled off 21 points in a 1:46 span of the third period to build a 31-point lead and crushed the Jets 45-28 in their season opener.

During that stretch, quarterback David Woodley caught a 15-yard touchdown pass from running back Tony Nathan on a "flea-flicker" and Glenn Blackwood and Don McNeal returned interceptions for scores.

The Dolphins had built a 24-14 halftime lead on Andra Franklin's two 1-yard TD plunges and Tom Vigorito's 59-yard punt return for a score.

"It was a great way to start the season," Shula said. "Anytime you beat the Jets after the way we've played against them in the last few years, you've got to be happy.

Richard Todd threw a 29-yard TD pass to Wesley Walker in the first period and Mike Augustyniak plunged two yards for a score in the second quarter. Todd had TD passes of nine yards to Jerome Barkum and five yards to Walker in the last period when the Dolphins were well ahead and playing conservatively.

The Jets' lone bright spot was the running of Freeman McNeil, who carried 13 times for 116 yards.

Don Shula lined up in a shotgun formation, about seven yards behind the center. He pitched out to Nathan, who ran right, stopped and heaved a pass crossfield to eligible when he's under the center," Shula explained.

Kramer Stops Tampa Bay

The Dolphins' big play came in the MINNEAPOLIS (UP1) - Tommy third period with Miami leading 24-14. Kramer would like to see the Minnesota With 3rd-and 10 at the Jets' 15, Woodley offense score more than the Vikings' defense.

Pro Football

"I felt we should have had more points," said the Vikings quarterback who threw one touchdown pass and set upanother in Minnesota's 17-10 victory Sunday over Tampa Bay in the NFC Central Division regular-season opener. "We got all the points our defense presented us with and that's all," said Knamer, who completed 16-of-28 for 131 yards. "That was disappointing."

Three Minnesota defensive players, in turn, were presented with game balls. Defensive backs Willie Teal and John-Turner and linebacker Scott Studwell were each rewarded for their interceptions of Tampa Bay's Doug Williams, who was 21-of-38 for 290 yards including a 20-yard TD pass to Jimmie Giles.

"You can't win with just offense," said Minnesota coach Bud Grant, whose defense had 16 interceptions in 1981. "You have to have defense, too. We had Teal's theft thwarted the Buccaneers' final drive. Tampa Bay was headed for a tying touchdown with 1:58 left Williams threw 17-yard passes to Giles and James Wilder but a 5-yard penalty put the ball at the Vikings' 30.

The Raiders used an exciting new knockout punch Sunday to complete their nifty 1-2 over Bay Area football fans.

After winning a legal battle to relocate from Oakland to Los Angeles in 1982, the Raiders returned to the area of their past NFL glory and beat the defending NFL champion San Francisco 49ers 23-17 this year."

behind a smashing pro-debut by rookie running back Marcus Allen. Allen, the Baiders' No. 1 draft choice after a record-shattering season at Southern Cal that earned him the Heisman Trophy Award, accounted for 180 of the Raiders' 255 yards in total offense and scored his first NFL touchdown.

Lynn Dickey shrugged off a mightmarish first half to fire three second-half TD passes, including a pair in a 17-second span, as Green Bay rallied from a 23-0 deficit to spoil Bert Jones debut as the Rams' quarterback. Dickey committed four turnovers before intermission then riddled the Los Angeles secondary as the Packers ended a five-game losing streak to-the Rams.

"That's the greatest comeback I've ever witnessed," said Green Bay coach Bart Starr. "I'm at a loss for words to tell you how proud I am of this football team."

Bengals 27, Oilers 6-

Ken Anderson, last season's AFC Player of the Year, passed for 354 yards, threw two TD passes and ran for anotherscore as the Bengals romped. Anderson, who completed 29-of-40 passes, had TD tosses of 18 yards to Dan Ross and 7. yards to Charles Alexander.

Redskins 37, Eagles 34

Mark Moseley's third field goal of the Allen, Roiders Drop 49ers game, a 26-yarder at 4:47 of overtime, lifted the Redskins. Washington, which ripped apart the NFL's No. 1 defense for Myer to a successful NFL debut. The 487 yards in total offense, tied the game triumph also gave Frank Kush a loss in on the final play of regulation on Moseley's 48-yarder.

"Thank God for the players we have," said Washington coach Joe Gibbs. "Last year, we might have fallen apart, but not with 58 seconds remaining rallied the Falcons over the listless Giants. Safety Bob Glazebrook ran 91 yards for a touchdown with a fumble recovery to move-Atlanta within 14-13 early in the fourth quarter. Chargers 23, Broncos 3

Mick Luckhurst's 29-yard field goal

Falcons 16, Giants 14

Rolf Benirschke kicked three field goals, Dan Fouts threw for a touchdown and Chuck Muncie ran for another score to power the Chargers over the Broncos, who committed six turnovers. Bills 14, Chiefs 9

Joe Ferguson threw TD passes to Jerry Butler and Frank Lewis to pace the Bills. The Chiefs were limited to three Nick Lowery field goals.

Cardinals 21, Saints 7

Neil Lomax and Pat Tilley hooked up for a 12-yard TD pass and the St. Louis defense checked New Orleans - which lost halfback George Rogers, the NFL's leading rusher in 1981, and rookie kicker. Morten Andersen with injuries. Lions 17, Bears 10

Chicago castoff Bob Thomas kicked a tie-breaking 38-yard field goal with four seconds left in the first half and Billy Sims, who missed all of training camp in a contract dispute, scored on a 3-yard run as the Lions spoiled the NFL coaching debut of the Bears' Mike Ditka. Patriots 24, Colts 13

Matt Cavanaugh fired scoring passes of 30 and 15 yards and Tony Collins ran for 137 yards to help Patriots coach Ron his first game as Baltimore coach. Browns 21, Seahawks 7

Mike Pruitt rushed 30 times for 136 vards and two touchdowns to power the Browns, who sacked Seattle quarterback Dave Krieg eight times.

RIS IN BRIEF

Gilder Claims Classic Crown Despite Flaky Personality

SUTTON, Mass. (UPI) - Bob Gilder is the first to admit he won't win a personality contest on the golf course, but he's having better luck with something more important - the final score.

Gilder established humself as one of the tour's rising stars Sunday by winning a $300,000 PGA tournament for his third title of the year. He is the sixth player to win three times this year and with names like Watson and Stadler on the list, Gilder has joined some pretty select company.

"To me it is just overwhelming that I could win threetournaments this year," said Gilder, who carded a final-day no-bogey 67 to edge Fuzzy Zoeller by two strokes.

"It's something you always think about but you never really expect to do. It's an uplifting experience that I'm capable of doing that.

Gilder's earlier triumphs this year came at the Byron Nelson Classic in May and at the Westchester Classic in June, where he made a double-eagle on the 18th in front of a national television audience.

"I really think that doubleeagle helped my image more than the three wins," Gilder said. "You really have to be a personality to be accepted and, while I'm not a bad guy, I'm not humorous on the course. I'm intense out there, just like everyone else at work."

Gilder's triumph earned him $54,000 and this season, by far his best since joining the tour in 1975, he has earned $296,598. Only five players have made more money this year.

Gilder's victory Sunday wasn't along the lines of his two earlier triumphs, where he won by five shots by shooting spectacular golf over four days. He was two shots off the pace entering the round and, once he took the lead, he then made nine straight pars which normally spells run.

Spuzich Improves With Age

DALLAS (UPI) - Players on the LPGA tour do not age gracefully, it seems

Instead, the older players on the tour are apt to beat the dickens out of the younger ones, just as 45-year-old Sandra Spuzich did Sunday at a $155,000 tourney.

The event is known as the Mary Kay Classic. This year's leading money winner, JoAnne Carner, is 43. Sandra Haynie, second behind Carner in earnings, is 39. Kathy Whitworth, Donna Caponi and Sandra-Palmer — all among the top 16 on the money list this year - are 42, 37 and 41 respectively.

Spuzich earlier this year became the oldest player ever to win an LPGA event.

"I would just tell older people not to quit," Spuzich said Sunday after fighting off youngsters Carole Charbonnier and Chris Johnson to win the seventh tournament of her career.

She earned $23,250, which raised her money total this year to $87,956. It is easily the best year of her career, the previous best being 1980 when she won $43,295.

"I hit the ball as well as I could hit it," said Spuzich, who earlier this year - a month after her 45th birthday - won the Corning Lady Classic.

Spuzich used only 25 putts and salvaged the championship by getting up and down from a bunker at the 17th for a par.

Student Wins Marathon

ALPINE, Utah (UPI) - Graduate student Ben Dewell overcame a weekend snow storm and muddy mountain trails Sunday to easily win the third annual Wasatch Front 100-mile Endurance Run by more than five hours.

Dewell of Clovis, Calif., covered the 100-mile distance in 30 hours, five minutes and 32 seconds. He was one of only three runners to finish in the required 36 hours.

The student at Cal-Davis University said Sunday's conditions were the worst for the two-day run. "We had to run through several inches of new snow, and the trails were very muddy," he said.

Dr. Jim Gills, and ophthalmologist, and Bill Athey, both of Tampa, Fla., came across the finish line together to tie for second. They were both timed in 35 hours, 25 minutes and 53 seconds.

Race officials said the temperature Sunday morning dropped to 19 degrees at the Catherine Summit above Brighton Ski Resort, one of seven summits in Utah's Wasatch Mountains the racers had to cross.

JACKSONVILLE - It's been a long time between football victories for Georgia Southern. Then again, it's been a long time since the Eagles have had football. Forty-one years to be exact.

Georgia Southern resurrected its program here Saturday night by holding off a last-second drive by Central Florida to secure a 16-9 victory before a disappointing crowd of just 2,350 at the Gator Bow1.

Coach Erk Russell, who started the Georgia Southern program after 17 years as defensive coordinator at Georgia, was ecstatic after the victory.

"This win is every bit as sweet as any at Georgia, including the national championship (1980)," said Russell while lighting up a victory cigar.

The game was a tough defensive battle, slowed by fumbles and interceptions, until UCF's Dana Thysen engineered a last-second drive which ended on the seven-yard line of the Eagles with an incomplete pass.

It was the lone Knight drive of the evening as four fumbles and four intercepted passes ruined an otherwise magnificent defensive effort by UCF.

"We should have killed them," groaned linebacker Billy Giovanetti after the game. "Eight turnovers. What are you gonna do? The offense has got to move the ball and put the points on the board.

"This is just like last year."

The 31-yarder, at the 11:16 mark of the first quarter, gave the Knights a 3-0 lead. The kick was set up when Darrell Rudd recovered a fumble on the third play of the game at the GS 26.

Carl Carlson, a prep star at Lake Howell two years ago, rambled for nine yards on the first play after the fumble to the 17, but the attack, directed by Winter Park's Jaime Lugo, sputtered the rest of the night.

"Jamime had a bad night, but Dana (Thysen) did an excellent job for us," said UCF coach Sam Weir. "We've got to settle down and play better. We missed a lot of assignments out there."

The Knights ran the ball 31 times for a paltry 49 yards. The passing attack generated 210 yards as Lugo, Thysen and Raymond Agee completed 13 of 37 tosses.

Agee came off the bench to throw a 48yard bomb, which Mike Collier hauled in with a great catch, to set up Ryerson's 42 yard field goal with one second left in the half

Point-Leader Fitch Claims 4th

NEW SMYRNA BEACH, Dick Anderson drove the Mitton Electric-Hole Shot Engineering Camaro to victory in the 25-lap late model feature on Saturday night at New Smyrna Speedway.

Top thunder car runner Jerry Fitch, who leads the point chase in that division, stretched his winning streak to four in a row in the crash-filled finale.

Benny Gibson led the Ford parade to victory in the street stock main, with the top three finishers driving the "Better Idea" brand first across the stripe.

After finishing second even more times than Harry Gant did in Winston Cup racing, Stan Eads, a quarter midget graduate who just turned 18 in May, won the four-cylinder heat and feature. He was at the wheel of the Olsen's Garage-Herb Daniels trucking Pinto.

Dale Clouser ruled over the spectator racers, while young Frank Oliva of Longwood, with the help of Joe Brown Motors and Keiser Pontiac (DeLand), outlasted a large field to win the giant demolition derby.

Outside front row starter Anderson took the lead at the green and powered away. On lap two, previous week's winner Pat Bresnahan was already up in second spot from his fifth place starting berth and took up the chase. At half-way, leader Anderson ran up on slower traffic and Bresnahan moved up on his rear spoiler. The duel heated up in the closing laps, but Anderson held on for the win, besting Bresnahan, Joe Middleton, Chris Dellarco and Jim Ownby. Heat winners were Henderson and Bresnahan.

In thunder car action, Fitch took the trophies.

lead on lap three, but the infighting was hot and heavy close behind and overheated discussions among some of the drivers involved took place after the race.

Nineteen-eighty-one rookie-of-the-year Ken Copley who made an unbelievable "door die" move on the wet infield grass to go around a slower lapped car whose driver did not obey the move over flag, finished second, while the lapped car was black flagged and suspended for two weeks. Pete Starr was third, with Tom Balmer and third high point man Eddy Perry rounding out the top five. Heat winners were Fitch and Chuck Burkhalter.

Maintenance mechanic Benny Gibson, driving the D and J Auto Sales Mustang, bested the big-block Cougar of Bill Kinley by less than half a car length across the finish line.

"I had to run so hard in the turns that I really didn't know if I was gonna make it or hit the wall," Gibson said after the race. "I just had to hang in there and hope for the best," a very happy Gibson added. Third to fifth were George Dietz, Mike Barfield and Ron DiCandio. Heat winners were Kinley and Dietz.

Eads, who studies engineering at Embry-Riddle, drove quarter midgets from the ages of six to 14, winning major races all over the midwest, south and northeast, collecting well over 200

Connors Blunts Lendl Forehand, Claims U.S. Open Title

NEW YORK (UPI) - It seemed appropriate that Jimmy Connors, shortly after defeating Ivan Lendl to win his fourth U.S. Open title, should impishly break into an imitation of Muhammad Ali.

"You may not see me back here because I may retire," Connors said Sunday after his 6-3, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4 victory. "I'm going to take a little time off and my schedule may be cut down substantially.

"Now that I've won Wimbledon and the U.S. Open this year, I don't have much more to prove to anybody. I may have to decide other priorities are more important at age 30. It's time to sit down and think."

Connors stopped short of saying "I am the greatest" or anything else associated with Ali, but any such hornblowing would have been understood. For Connors, extending his 5-foot-10, 155-pound frame to the limit, truly dominated his opponent. He played bravely, repeatedly blunting Lendl's formidable forehand while matching the Czechoslovakian power for power. His unrelenting charges to the net forced Lendl into 29 forehand errors, seven service breaks. It was the 22year-old's first defeat in 131 matches. "I was very slow getting started and he was not," said Lendl, losing yet another chance at winning his first

Pro Tennis

Grand Slam event, "I played too loose. I played badly. My footwork was very slow and my forehand ... Well, I wish I could blame something but I can't. It is not the end of my life, though."

Lendl appeared to have regrouped after dropping the first two sets on sloppy play. He stunned Connors and the capacity crowd at the National Tennis Center by breaking Connors' serve to take the third set.

"I could see that icy stare of his getting collier and colder," said Connors, who stood during his post-match news conference because he feared leg cramps. "He blew me away in that break with some great forehands. But then it was my turn."

Connors stymied Lendl with a service break to open the fourth set, lashing a strong forehand past a suddenly weary Lendl. Though Lendl answered with a break in the fourth game, Connors more than returned the favor in the crucial fifth.

"I don't know what happened to him," Connors said. "He seemed to get very nervous at that point and I knew I could press my advantage. It was also as if a voice inside me said 'nail him now.""

Connors did so. With the score at break point 30-40, Connors short-hopped a Lendl forehand like a Gold Glove third baseman and charged the net. Wooshing his racket through the suddenly still air, he smacked a backhand on the line as it zipped past the flat-footed Lendl. Connors pumped his fist while Lendl stamped his foot.

And the match was soon over. The 3hour, 9-minute affair ended as Connors served out to take the $90,000 first prize and moved to the top spot of the ATP computer.

Lendl, who earned $45,000, is second in the rankings as former No. 1 John McEnroe dropped to third.

As the junior varsity Fighting Seminoles have undergone a coaching change, so have the freshman Crooms Panthers Former coach Bill Klein has vacated his position as the panther head coach, and Bill Zeiss replaced him.

Zeiss will be looking to maintain and improve upon an outstanding 4-2 season, and he has some talented players to help out. Crooms opens Tuesday at Seminole High against Lake Mary, Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Dexter Franklin will fill the quarterback position, backed up by Hal Posey. "He's a decent quarterback with good aim. He's also a good thinker," said Zeiss.

Running from the backfield will be fullback Mike Hickman, and tailbacks Alvin Jones and Mike Wright, Mike Levant will also add to Crooms' backfield, which according to Zeiss, "Has good speed, size, and attitude."

Melvin Brinson will take the wingback position this year, and receiving Franklin's passes will be tight end Tony Posey, and split end Hal Posey. The two aren't related, though Hal is Seminole varsity coach Jerry Posey's son.

"Tony has good size, and Hall has good hands, which is why he will be our backup quarterback," said Zeiss.

Zeiss' offensive line will consist of center Terrence Flanders, guards Carlton Tipton and Steve Bradley, and tackles Tom Paladino and Scott Carter. "They have medium size," stated Zeiss.

Carter and Lavant will double up on the defensive line, with Vince Howard and Don Gorman filling up the other two spots. Gorman will most likely be the Panther's punter.

In the linebacking positions will be Brinson, Wright, and Larry Bird, while Kenneth Morris and Alan Kendall will be defensive guards.

Theron Liggons and Craig Dixon will be the chief pass defenders in the secondary, along with Jones. David Sullins will be kicking the field goals and extra points for Zeiss.

"We're trying to get our squad up to two platoon, but right now, most of them are going to have to double up," Zeiss said.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I were planning a 40th anniversary celebration, but Icalled it off three months ago when I learned from someone that my husband had had an affair with a young woman while he was stationed in Alameda, Calif., during World War II.

The affair lasted about a year while he was waiting to be shipped out, but never was. When I confronted him with the facts, he admitted it, but said it was "nothing serious." We had been married three years and had one child when all this took place, and I thought we had a perfect marriage.

I am devastated. I feel betrayed, knowing I've spent the last 37 years living with a liar and a cheat. How can I ever trust him again? The bottom has fallen out of my world: Now he asks me to "forgive him," but it's 37 years too late. Our relationship is deteriorating and our marriage is hanging by a thread.

We raised five children, among them a lawyer, engineer, teacher and other. professionals. I felt secure and fortunate to have such a solid marriage all these years. I am miserable and sick inside. How can I overcome this terrible feeling of betrayal? I've been to my minister and two doctors-one a psychiatrist-but nothing makes me feel any better.

Should I hang on for the financial benefits, or go it alone?

ABOUT TO CRACK UP DEAR ABOUT: To dwell en something that took place 37 years ago is useless and selfdestructive. You must let go of your obsession with the past and concentrate on the present and future. Your husband's affair was not an act of "betraval" against you - it had nothing to do with you. He was lonely, she was there, the temptation was strong, and he was weak. Had it been "serious," he would have chosen her.

You need to work out your anger and outrage with a therapist. Find one who is right for you. Forgive, and your own pain will be healed. Who among us has not needed to be forgiven many times in our lives? God bless you. Please write again and tell me how you are. I care.

DEAR ABBY: I am 11 years old. My exboyfriend, who is 12, dumped me for an uglier girl. I am not beautiful, but I'm not exactly ugly either.

You may think I am too young to have a boyfriend, but I am very mature for my age. Why do I get dumped by every boyfriend I ever have? Is it me, or the boy?

DUMPED AT 11 DEAR DUMPED: Please don't worry about It at this stage in your life. Perhaps you're lucky. It would be a sorry state of affairs if every man chose his lifetime partner when she was 11. And vice versa.

DEAR ABBY: I was amused at your column on the various methods used to get a letter out of someone who rarely wrote to concerned loved ones. It reminded me of what I did after a number of unsuccessful attempts to evoke a reply from a relative who, at the time, was a Roman Catholic priest in a small Midwestern 10WIL-

His unmarried sister, a social worker, resided in the rectory and did double duty as a secretary and housekeeper. In a sort of mischievous desperation I addressed a letter to The Rev. and Mrs. James F. O'Malley (made-up name) in care of the rectory.

Needless to say, I received not one, but two very prompt, though somewhat curt, replies. G.K. IN CORRALES
