MUST TROUD WHERE ELEPHANT STOOD ON ROAD

TAXES IN SEMINOLE CO. WELL PAID

Information received from the County Tax Collector Jno. D. Jinkins, shows that the taxes for this county have been well paid up for the year of 1922. At the tax sale held last Monday only 380 tax sale certificates were issued, a decrease of 61 under the previous year; this is a mighty good showing, especially in view of the fact that a number of new subdivisions were assessed and consequently a great many more items on the tax books. Another interesting feature of this tax sale is that nearly all of the valuable property was bid in by individuals, the state and county thereby getting the taxes at once, instead of the land being certified to the state to be redeemed in the years to come; the bidding was lively and spirited, and in several instances the purchaser took certificate on four acres having bid down from forty acres. The amount of taxes and costs being fixed, the competition comes in bidding down on the number of acres of land.

Mr. Jinkins has just received a letter from the State Comptroller reading as follows:

"In glancing over the records of this office as to the collections of the several tax collectors throughout the state, you might be interested to know that the general average up to June first is 66.18 per cent, so it is a matter of congratulation for you that your average for the same period reached 87.25 per cent."

This record is up to June 1st, and the Tax Collector hopes to make it nearly 100 per cent before making his annual report on July 1st, as the sheriff will be asked to levy at once on personal property which may remain unpaid.

This is only one more indication of the prosperity of Seminole County, especially in view of the fact that about 70 per cent of each tax dollar goes for the support of schools and roads, and the balance to the building fund, court expenses, and the various other expenses of the state and county.

SHRINERS CLOSE CONVENTION IN BIG BLAZE OF GLORY AT THE NATION'S CAPITOL

Pageant Staged on Pennsylvania Avenue Was Most Gorgeous

WASHINGTON, June 8.—A pageant depicting numerous historic events in which Masons played a part, and dancing on Pennsylvania avenue last night, brought the annual Shrine convention to a picturesque close. The pageant, moving under a canopy of colored lights, was witnessed by President and Mrs. Harding, about whom much of the activity of the convention centered.

Led by units representing various branches of the army, navy and marine corps, the pageant included 30 floats, 26 bands and 64 Shrine temple patrols. On the floats the thousands of spectators were shown the Knights Templar in the Crusades, Pochontas saving the life of Captain John Smith, William Penn making peace with the Indians, the Boston Tea party, which according to Masonic records, was enacted by members of St. Andrews Lodge of Boston, dressed as Indians, and George Washington in various crises.

Paul Revere was shown on his famous ride, and General Joseph H. Warren in command at Bunker Hill, where he fell. Another float depicted the signing of the Declaration of Independence, all the signers but one having been Masons. The ringing of the Liberty Bell by Masons was presented, and Benjamin Franklin, member of the Paris lodge, to which John Paul Jones belonged, was shown pleading the cause of the new republic in the court of Louis XVI.

Masons of the Union army were shown carrying slain Confederate Masons through the line for burial, and Admiral Perry was depicted discovering the North Pole. Theodore Roosevelt also was represented as were Albert Pike, soldier, sailor, author and father of the present ritualistic system of the Scottish Rite. Chief Justice Marshall and Lewis and Clark, Masons, who blazed the way to Oregon in 1805.

The dancing which followed the pageant was intended to represent a "United Country in Step." The music was broadcast by radio throughout the country, and was carried to the thousands of participants through amplifiers along Pennsylvania avenue. Each block was set aside for a separate state and the exhibitors along the line were invited to join the 14,000 registered Shriners and their visiting companions in the festival.

After the "Dance of the Steps" the homeward rush began.

Conrad V. Dykeman, of Brooklyn, the new Imperial Potentate, and his divan, were inducted into office late yesterday at the concluding business session.

The car and lower floors of the building were wrecked.

The child was playing in the street when the car struck her.

The car was nearing the top of the hill when it started to roll back. When it struck a switch at the bottom of the grade it was derailed and struck the building while traveling five miles an hour. Graduation Exercises at Rollins College on Wednesday Night

Large Class Goes Forth Armed With Many Degrees

ROLLINS COLLEGE, WINTER PARK, June 8.—Rollins College closed its thirty-eighth year of scholastic work with the graduation exercises held out-of-doors here Wednesday night. Some five hundred people were present at the service and at the reception which was given in honor of the graduating class after the commencement program.

A professional "Pierist" March, Atlanta, by Mendelssohn, played by the Rollins College Orchestra, opened the evening program, the graduating classes entering the out-of-door theatre by the music. Following the Rev. Harry Ingram's invocation, Miss Lillian Eldredge sang, "Where Coras Lie," by Edward Elgar.

Due to the sudden illness of Dr. J. C. Tins, of Tampa, who was to have given the address of the evening, Dr. R. J. Sprague, acting president of the college, spoke, presenting a five talk on present day needs in the educational work. The conferring of degrees followed, Dr. R. J. Sprague being assisted by W. R. O'Neal, of Orlando, treasurer of the college, and Dr. H. C. Boice, of the College faculty in the ceremony.

The banquets was pronounced by Dr. Harry Ingram, pastor of the Winter Park Methodist church after which the college orchestra played as a recital, "Stephanie" by Calbulka.

A delightful reception was held in honor of the graduating classes in Carnegie Hall immediately following the commencement program. It was an informal affair throughout, just a glad handshake time at the close of the college year for the friends of the college in this section of the state.

In the afternoon a short session of the Rollins College Alumni Association was held in Carnegie Hall. Matters of importance were discussed and passed on at the meeting, the one of most importance, perhaps being the decision of the alumni to edit a monthly bulletin in the interest of Rollins College and the Alumni Association.

A. J. Hanna, assistant treasurer of Rollins College, was chosen as editor of the bulletin, and J. Harold Hill, mayor of Maitland, was elected business manager.

INVESTIGATION OF CHARGES AGAINST BROKERAGE HOUSE POLICE TO TRACE RECORDS

CONVICT BILL SIGNED TODAY RULES RIGID

GOVERNMENT OF CONVICTS
WOULD HAVE SOLITARY CONFINEMENTS, NO RATIONS

(By The Associated Press)
TALLAHASSEE, June 8.—Governor Hardee signed the Lindsey convict supervision bill today which is designed to be far reaching in maintaining rigid inspections and places supervision in the hands of state officials as a whole.

Rigid rules and regulations in government of prisoners to take the place of the whip which was abandoned by the legislature were promulgated today by the Board of Commissioners of state institutions. Solitary confinement, restricted rations and privileges predominate in substitute disciplinary measures.

The Commissioner of Agriculture, under the terms of the measure which now becomes a law will be contact official. One of the most important changes from the present system lies in provisions for placing grade two convicts at work.

Solitary confinement, restricted rations are provided for convicts "refusing to work or refusing to do work in proper workmanlike manner" while "gross" violation of prison rules or use of "vulgar, profane or indecent language" will subject him to solitary confinement with restricted rations. For slight infractions of rules he may be deprived of freedom privileges from one to ten days. Restricted diet in extreme cases according to board's order may be reduced to half pound of bread daily and required supply of water. Prisoner must remain under this punishment until he "faithfully promises to abide by the rules and perform work to the best of his ability."

Legalized Hanging Thing of the Past— Electric Chair Now

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., June 8.—Legalized hanging will be a thing of the past in this state, and the electric chair will take its place after July 1, under enactment of the 1923 legislature.

The measure, which was introduced in the house by Representative Fred Davis and in the senate by Senator W. W. Phillips, provides that the state officials shall select a central place of execution, which will probably be the state prison farm at Raiford. Under this procedure, the sheriff or other county official having a condemned person in charge, shall after his having been sentenced by the governor, take him to the place of execution and deliver him to the superintendent in charge. Several days prior to the time of execution the condemned person shall be placed in a death chamber, situated closely to the chamber housing the chair. Only the superintendent, or in case of his absence or disability, his deputy, may administer the death penalty and it will be open only to relatives, ministers, counsel, for the condemned person and 12 citizens chosen to witness the execution.

When the person has been pronounced dead, the body, if there is no claim for it by his relatives, may either be turned over to physicians for dissection, or given a burial as usual for ordinary criminals.

The measure, which was sponsored by the various women's clubs of the state, passed early in the session and with little opposition in either house.

PRESIDENT PLANS FOURTEEN SPEECHES ON WESTERN TRIP

WASHINGTON, June 7.—President Harding will make fourteen addresses en route to the Pacific coast on his Alaskan trip and will speak in five coast cities after returning from Alaska, according to an official announcement of the executive's itinerary made public at the White House.
Final details of the itinerary with respect to addresses were worked out by the president in conference with Walter E. Brown, chairman of the commission on reorganization of government department and an advisor of the executive. Mr. Brown left Washington last night to confer with local committee on details of the president's visit in each of the Alaskan cities.
The itinerary for the visit of the presidential party to Alaska has been only tentatively worked out as the trip will largely be dependent upon the president's desire on reaching the territory and also upon transportation facilities. The itinerary announced at the White House, however, shows that the executive will spend about two weeks in Alaska with about five days to be consumed in the voyage from Tacoma to the territory and the same or somewhat less time for the return trip to Vancouver.
Details of the return voyage by way of the Panama canal and Porto Rico likewise remain in a tentative state although it has been announced that the president would sail from San Diego on the shipping board steamer President Harrison. Only a day or two will be spent in the canal zone and the presidential party will continue on the President Harrison to San Juan, where, after a short stay, its members will embark upon another shipping board vessel, the American Legion, for New York.

HARDING TO ADDRESS NATIONAL FLAG MEET

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 7.—President Harding, according to an announcement made at national headquarters of the American Legion, Wednesday, has accepted an invitation to address the National Flag Conference to be held at Washington June 14 to 15, under the auspices of the National American Legion Commission of the legion.
The conference has been arranged by the Legion to develop a uniform set of rules and regulations in regard to the display of the flag and to paying the proper respect to the national emblem.

SOUTHERN SHOPMEN AFTER PAY INCREASE

CHICAGO, June 7.—Negotiations have been started by the federated shopcrafts representing an estimated 54,000 employees of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, the Chicago and Northwestern, and The Southern railway system for an increase in wages and return of time and one-half pay for overtime and Sunday work, John Scott, secretary of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor, announced.
Union representatives are seeking a return of wages in effect before the board's cut over which the federated shop crafts struck last year. Mr. Scott said, although settlements reached so far have been at a three cent an hour rate, bringing the men's wages to 75c an hour, three cent above the labor board rate.

MEXICAN RECOGNITION JOB PLEASES OBREGON

MEXICO CITY, June 7.—President Obregon is entirely satisfied with the work done by the Mexican members of the recognition conference, says a statement given out Wednesday. The statement denies that Adolfo de la Huerta, secretary of the treasury, has been made a member of the commission.
Senators Ron and Ross "have interpreted with fidelity the high mission confided in them" in the opinion of the chief executive.

"VALUELESS," RUM CARGO WILL REMAIN IN OCEAN

NORFOLK, Va., June 7.—Offers of the captain of the rum runner Glen Beulah sunk in collision with an as yet unidentified vessel ten miles off the Cape Charles lightship last Saturday night, to have the wreck raised and salvaged, have so far proved unavailing.
The cargo of 1,800 cases of American bonded whiskey "has no commercial value in the country," say the wrecking companies, and they declare also that the wreck lies too deep for divers to work in. The Beulah will be blown up by the coast guard as a menace to navigation.

KIDNEY TROUBLE BECOMES SERIOUS

"Suffered with severe headache, backache and pains in my legs and under my shoulder blade. My kidneys and bladder were in bad condition. I was weak and nervous and felt tired and worn out. Walking made me short of breath. Every morning my face and hands were bloated. Medicine failed to help my condition and doctors advised an operation," writes Maggie Nelson, Mossdale, Fla. "Fortunately I read about Foley Kidney Pills, tried them and got relief." Sold everywhere.—Ady.

CHINA DEMANDS GOOD ROADS

Oriental Country Awakes to the Necessity of Immediate Development of its Highways.

A plea for good roads as a necessity for the proper development of China is made by the Oriental Motor of Shanghai, which began publication a year ago to encourage interest in motor use. Asking where the United States would have been if the good roads movement had not been earnestly supported throughout the country, the editor says:

"Yet at this time of greatest development in the making of roads China lies dormant. If any nation in the world needs roads, good roads and national highways, it is China. Means of communication in the country are inadequate and medieval, transcontinental travel is only possible by water at the rim of the country, while the great heart of the nation is still inaccessible to any mode of transportation except the most primitive.

"China can never become a nation until her roads are developed. With them the penetration of the interior, both for commerce and pleasure, would mean a few hours or a few days by motor. The people of the interior would be brought into touch daily with motors and motorists from all sections of the nation. They would begin to realize that there are parts of the country other than their own province and city, and the great welding influence which would make China a nation united would begin."

UNWORTHY RULER OF ROME

History Accords Low Place to Commodus, Whom Fortune Capriciously Lifted to High Estate.

Commodus was a Roman emperor, notorious for his cruel and voluptuous character. He was endowed with extraordinary strength, and often appeared in imitation of Hercules, dressed in a lion's skin and armed with a club. To display his skill and strength in arms he appeared publicly in the amphitheater. As his opponents were armed with weapons of tin or lead, while he was encased in impenetrable armor, he had naturally an easy victory on every occasion. For his amusement he cut asunder persons, put out their eyes, and mutilated their noses, etc.

Commodus was strangled by the gladiator Narcissus, who was hired to commit the deed by Marcia, the mistress of Commodus, who had plotted with members of his official family, to put him out of the way. When he died the senate declared him an enemy of the state, ordered his statues to be broken to pieces, and his name to be erased from all public inscriptions.—Detroit News.

Searching for Shock.

There are so many instances where speech and hearing have been restored by a severe shock that there is a general notion among deaf and dumb persons that their salvation rests in this direction. Consequently they are resorting to airplane trips as a means of restoring their faculties. The manager of the air station at Croydon, England, reports that he is besieged with requests from these afflicted persons who are hopeful that an experience in midair might supply the necessary shock. It has been suggested that the trip aloft does not have the desired effect for the reason that the various experiences in the air are more or less expected and therefore the element of suddenness and shock are lacking.

Warren Stories.

Warren is a Shelbyville boy five years old and fond of eating. One day he and another little boy were playing soldier, and were shooting both men and women, when Warren cried out: "Don't shoot the women, cause they do the cooking."

Warren's father was telling about transacting some business matters with a woman and said: "She is so ignorant, she doesn't know anything." Warren looked up and said: "Reckon she knows how to cook, don't she?"

One day Warren's nurse was ready to give him a bath. She called to him to come and he said: "Wait a minute." Again she asked why he didn't come and he replied: "I am trying to make my minute as long as mom's."—Indianapolis News.

Holland Restricts Flyers.

Flying regulations of the Netherlands government provide that the minimum altitude over closely inhabited areas is 400 meters (1,312 feet). All aircraft must always fly at such a height over towns or public gatherings as will permit of their landing outside of such areas in case of engine failure. No trick flying may be indulged in above closely inhabited areas or public gatherings.

OUT FOR LARK, STOLE CHICKENS, ONE MAN KILLED

And Entire Party Arrested for Breaking and Entering

JACKSONVILLE, June 8—A desire for chicken pilau by a party of young folks early yesterday is said by police to have been the cause of the death of Ralph L. Bell, 21, of Somerville, Mass. quartermaster on the steamer Comanche, and the wounding of James Hurst, and the arrest of six others, one a young woman.

Patrolman John T. Hunter, who was off duty, was awakened shortly after midnight and saw a man going into his chicken coop. He commanded him to halt and the order being ignored, fired. The man reached an automobile and the officer continued to fire. About two hours later Bell was taken to a hospital by the two men.

Yesterday Neal Stewart reported to the police that his automobile had been stolen. The car, riddled with bullets, was located, and Stewart was arrested. He admitted, police said, that he and his companions went to a coop in a residential section and took nine chickens for the purpose of making chicken pilau. Through him, it was said, the names of the others were learned. An investigation developed that Hurst, who is said to have been driving the car, was wounded. Bell, the officers said, they learned, was riding in the rear when hit.

Three of those under arrest are to be charged with breaking and entering, two with vagrancy and the woman with disorderly conduct, police said.

NO DECISION YET REGARDING SPECIAL JURY IN LYNCH CASE

WEST PALM BEACH, June 8.—Judge E. C. Davis, of the circuit court, was still undecided last night whether he would call a special grand jury to inquire into the lynching, early yesterday morning, of Henry Simmons, negro, whose body was found hanging by a rope from a tree on the Hotel Poinciana baseball park. The board of county commissioners declined to act on a suggestion by Sheriff R. C. Baker, that a reward be offered for the arrest of the lynchers, taking the view that any effort to learn the identity of the men would be futile.

The number of men in the party who hanged Simmons is estimated by some of the residents of the negro quarters, as five, and by others as twelve or fifteen.

An hour before Simmons was taken from his home, James Sandis, a Bahama Island negro, was beaten by a group of men, who took him to the place on the beach where Policeman T. N. Smith, of Palm Beach, was shot by three negroes early Sunday morning.

The funeral of the dead policeman was held yesterday afternoon, and the body was shipped last night to Rappahine, Va., where his mother lives. The inquest on the body of Simmons will be held today by County Judge Chillingworth.

CARRIES MUSIC MANY MILES

Horn Said to Have Transmitted Sounds Distinctly Yet a Most Remarkable Distance.

A length of 33 feet and an opening of 12 feet square are the measurements of the world's largest horn for broadcasting music received by radio. This giant horn is in successful daily operation at Idora park, a public amusement resort in California. The broadcasting capacity of this huge instrument is sufficient to carry radio music throughout an area of approximately 29 square miles.

In addition to the general interest in its sheer size and amplifying range, it is of absorbing importance to the radio expert because of the fact that, through the use of its electro-dynamic reproducer, such true tones have been produced as to eliminate what is technically known as "distortion."

One thousand feet of clear airplane spruce lumber went into the construction of this horn. The engineers who built it were confronted with difficulties of design and erection, owing to its giant size. It is equipped with a late type of radio reproducer and power amplifier.

Of course the construction of the horn was more or less in the nature of a spectacular stunt on the part of the amusement park, but the basic idea is nevertheless impressive. It is just another indication of a far-reaching influence which warrants attention.

Campaign Terrors.

There was a wild and frenzied scabberment. Men, white-faced and staring-eyed, fled as if pursued by a pestilence. They dropped whatever they had in hand and stood not upon the order of their going, but departed like frightened roebucks, hitting only the high places as they went.

"Why are the people fleeing?" we asked.

"A candidate who calls himself 'the friend of the people' has just come to town," replied an innocent bystander who had no vote.—Kansas City Star.

EVEREST TOP STILL UNTRUD

But British Explorers in Recent Attempt Got to Highest Point Previously Attained.

The highest point above sea level ever reached by a human being afoot, 27,900 feet, was attained, with the aid of oxygen-breathing apparatus, by two members of the Mount Everest expedition at noon, the 27th of last May, says Henry S. White in the Popular Mechanics Magazine. This brought the explorers within 1,702 feet of the summit, the highest point on the earth's surface. The final attempt was to have been made June 6, but the monsoon broke June 3, definitely frustrating any further efforts for this year at least. When the monsoon breaks on Mount Everest, there is no alternative but to get off the mountain as soon as possible.

It has now been definitely proved that the mountain itself at the highest points reached is not difficult to climb, and the two explorers who came so near to reaching the actual summit were able to proceed along the north face without ropes. The one and only obstacle that made the summit unattainable was the bad weather, and with the monsoon left out, it is certain that the summit will be reached at the next attempt. The two explorers who reached this highest point were Capt. Geoffrey Bruce, one of the leaders of the expedition, and George Finch, a scientist attached to it.

Seeking History of Tibet.

Every member of the party is a British Buddhist, and they believe through religious affiliation they can obtain what other travelers and explorers have sought in vain. Foreigners who have entered the "Forbidden City" are few and far between, and no one heretofore has been afforded the opportunity to study the religion, literature and history of this sealed country.

NEW YORKERS BURNING WOOD

Builders, It is Said, Are Being Sealed by Householders Asking for Old Lumber.

Householders in all parts of New York, according to the observations of policemen, are collecting a great deal of firewood this fall. This is taken to indicate that many of them are anticipating a coal shortage during the coming winter.

In backyard sections everywhere it is a common sight to see the mate members of the family busily engaged in splitting boards and lumber into kindling wood. This firewood, as a householder expressed it, is not intended to supplant coal, but to help save it.

"At this time last year," a builder said, "I used to give wood away occasionally when I was tearing down or repairing old buildings. I used to hang out a sign reading, 'Wood given away free for the asking.' My only stipulation was that persons applying for it should cart it away for themselves. It may surprise you when I tell you that my wood often went begging. It is quite different this year. I do not have to hang out a sign; every day I am besieged by men, women and children soliciting old lumber for firewood. There are so many of these applicants that I have to turn most of them away."

"I am sure that this demand for firewood means that much more wood is going to be burned in fires this winter than in the past."

PUTTING IT UP TO TINSMITH

Mr. Fijit Wants to Know Why Stovepipe is Always Adjusted to Such Small Dimensions.

One of the unsolved mysteries of everyday life is why a stovepipe man will always make a stovepipe too small. Give him the old pipe as a pattern and he will send a new piece that can't be put on even with a shoe horn, remarks a New York Sun writer.

Fijit had a bandage around his finger when he got to the office the other morning and explained that he had vainly tried to adjust a piece of stovepipe that was too small.

"If it had been an inch too large it would have been all right," he said, "for it rested on the stove and could not come off. But that tinsmith believed in a snug fit, and he made the pipe so small that I had to send it back after working with it for half an hour and cutting my finger."

Two other men in the office said they had similar experiences the last week and no one could offer an explanation of the business of the stovepipe.

Remarkable Family.

Marcus Aurelius has just celebrated his eighty-second birthday and the seventy-third year of his notable career as fisherman on Lake Huron. All of the brothers and sisters of Marcus have not survived to join in the celebration, but if they had all been there the list of those present would include Julius Caesar Hitchcock, Benjamin Franklin Hitchcock, Cyrus Deaun Hitchcock, Theodore Wellington Hitchcock, Euphemia Ophelia Hitchcock, Diadema Rosetta Hitchcock, Melissa Hitchcock, James Alexander Hitchcock, Apollus Napoleon Hitchcock and Samuel Lake Hitchcock. "Old Marc" as he is familiarly termed by those who choose to ignore his share in the family roll of fame, has never missed a season on the lake since he was nine years old; has saved 14 people from drowning; was a champion figure skater, and states that he will be on the ice again this winter.

Damage by Floods in Bengal.

The floods in north Bengal have affected 1,500 square miles and 1,500,000 people. The loss of life appears to be relatively small but many cattle have perished, crops have been destroyed as well as many villages. Thousands of half-starved persons have taken refuge on railway embankments and other high ground and are being maintained by relief funds and government grants. The floods have begun to subside, but an immense area is still inundated. An outbreak of disease, especially of cholera, is feared as the waters abate, owing to putrefaction of carcasses of cattle.

Devotion.

The woman took her small visiting niece to church with her. The city service was much more ritualistic than that of the village church which the little girl had been in the habit of attending, but the woman was pleased to notice that she seemed very interested and very devout.

After church, on the way home, the woman asked:

"And did you like the service, dear?"

"Oh, yes, nuntle, it was very interesting," the little girl answered politely. "Course I was sort of confused at first, but I just watched you and every time you linn-ducked I did too!"—Chicago Journal.

An Enduring Heel.

Aluminum heels for boots and shoes are the invention of a designer of Northampton, the center of England's boot and shoemaking industry. It is colored to match the shoe. To the base of the heel is screwed a piece of leather, which, when worn out, can be replaced at a cost not exceeding 12 cents a pair. The heel itself will not wear down, even when the leather has disappeared.

Wake up Sanford and take advantage of the bulkhead proposition. We should start work on it at once. It is the greatest thing we have ever started.

Dispatches in the state papers say that the watermelon crop is short this year. We knew it. Not only is the crop short but the watermelons are also short. They may be long on water but short on size, as it were.

The State Pharmacists will go to Daytona with their next meeting. Orlando was after the meeting but they could not begin to offer them as much as Maxwell Hankins and Ed. Fitzgerald and the meeting went to the best city on the east coast.

Man living near Tampa says he is too poor to buy clothes so he has been going around without them but the neighbors kicked on the "nature stuff" and he was arrested and put in jail. He at least could have worn a fig leaf and obtained a position with the moving pictures.

Tonight the growers will meet in the court house to finish their organization. It is hoped that all of them will meet with open minds and be ready to forget all their differences and join hands with the single idea of forming one of the strongest growers' organizations in the country.

"Haplat Laymen Planning Lay Movement in Tallahassee," says a dispatch in papers this morning. We thought the last legislature had a "lay movement" also since they laid a lot but hardly ever hatched anything. And if there is to be a lay movement there is no finer place in all Florida than Tallahassee. Laying around the state capital is the favorite outdoor sport of that busy city every two years.

With but very little advertising Sanford has taken a big place in the minds of the people at home and abroad. People know Sanford as the City Substantial where real money can be made in investments and yet we are not getting the money here that we need. There is the greatest opportunity here for investment that any city in the south offers and this is saying much. We want you to come here and investigate for yourself.

A BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

We have written several times about the benefits which cities and towns derive from Building and Loan Associations. The delightful city of Philadelphia is known as the city of homes. Nearly all heads of families own their own pretty homes there. That is why every Philadelphian is loyal to his city and to his country. He owns a home. Building and Loan Associations have played a large part in bringing about this happy condition. We should have such an association in Gainesville. There used to be one here and it aided many people in building and owning homes. These homes, thus built, are worth now four or five times what they cost. The Central City Building and Loan Association was organized here about 1880 and, though Gainesville was then a comparatively small town, the association did a good business for a number of years. Our fellow townsman, E. E. Voyle, who was the last secretary of that association, promises to help us in the preparation of some data on this subject. Gainesville is growing apace and, although our banks are gladly loaning money to home builders, a building and loan association which functions alone for that purpose, would be a great helper in our march of progress. We shall say more about this before long.—Gainesville Sun.

In talking with the business men of this city it develops that Sanford could use five hundred new homes this fall if they were built. It also develops that there is no money for such an investment and that the price of materials is mounting—all of this militates against the city of Sanford growing. We should all get busy at once on the proposition of bringing money here for investments and of keeping the price of building material as low as possible. Sanford certainly needs the homes and Sanford also needs a dozen fine apartment houses for the many people who are coming here this winter. They are coming to Florida where they can get accommodations. Will Sanford have these accommodations or not?

RIVER AND LAKE FRONT PROPERTY

River and lake front property is always at a premium after it has been developed and the people of Sanford are overlooking a good bet if they do not get busy at once and have the entire lake shore bulkheaded and open this beautiful shore line for tourist homes and beautiful places for country estates. We have the chance to make this lake shore drive the equal of anything in the state of Florida and Sanford would begin to thrive and grow and expand as never before if this wonderful development could be made at once. The entire state is seeking such a development but there are only a few favored cities in the state where such improvement could be made and Sanford is one of them for here we have the beautiful Lake Monroe and the St. Johns river and the navigable stream from Sanford to Jacksonville where the daily boats will assist in the project of bringing this big development to the eyes of the visitors. The Daytona Journal says:

"Never have the people of Daytona been so much of one mind upon anything as that of river front improvement. The citizens of this city are thoroughly sold upon the idea that it is the most important issue they will have to decide for many years to come. They are convinced that river front improvement and beautification will mean more for the upbuilding and progress of the city than any other one thing."

"For more than one year the agreement upon plans and the working out of a financing program have been in the hands of the city commission—not the same city commission all the time! Surely it is time something were done. It is all right to carefully consider so important a project, but it doesn't take forever to do some careful considering."

"Just because it is the people's business is no reason for unreasonably delay in giving the people an opportunity to say what they want. We are convinced that a majority of the people of Daytona would like to see a little more speed in getting the proposition in tangible shape for submission to a vote."

PALATKA HAS COMMISSION-MANAGER GOVERNMENT.

"Even the most optimistic had no idea that the commission-manager form of government would be accepted by so overwhelming a vote as was given the project yesterday; when the new charter passed by a vote of three to one."

"Every explanation which was asked for was made by those who had no reason to misconstrue, and it may be safely said that no untrue argument was used to mislead a voter. There were no politics in the project; no one was fixed; no undue promises made; no opening for graft."

"It may be that the instrument is not perfect—that time will show that certain changes in later years will make the matter more perfect. No claim was made that such a situation didn't exist. Perfection is difficult to attain in any case, and in selecting a charter which will serve Palatka now it is highly probable alterations may become a necessity within a dozen years. The dozen years may see the population increased three times, and the area doubled."

"It all depends upon the people themselves. If they so wish it and will it, and work for it to become a fact, then it will take on new life and grow beyond belief. And the first step has been taken to bring about that result. Let all take the same interest in the new charter as if they had made it and worked for it, and try to do the best for it, and Palatka will sure grow in nice proportions."—Palatka News.

And we opine that Palatka will never regret this latest move to get the most systematic and the most business-like government that is obtainable. It is only a question of time when all cities large and small will adopt the City Manager-Commission form of government and in time even the counties and the states will adopt a form of this kind. It is real business and less of petty politics in the management of our local government and that is what we are all striving for these days.

SLAIN BY IDLE GOSSIP.

Words kill as certainly as bullets. P. J. Schmidt worked in an Illinois bank for many years, rising to the post of cashier. A few weeks ago he retired, and today he is dead, a victim of thoughtless gossip. After Schmidt had given up the post he had so long an honorably filled, somebody with more time than sense, started a bit of gossip to the effect that discrepancies had been found in the accounts of the cashier. When this report reached the ears of the man it reflected on, he dropped dead. Examination of all his accounts proved that his relations with the bank were perfect. But the gossip killed him, just as surely and as suddenly as if he had been shot instead of slandered. The man who first told the story, those who repeated it, had no notion of killing anybody. A word was idly spoken, without malice, maybe, but certainly without thought as to what its effect might be. The unruly tongue is a terrible weapon; it does not always bring physical death, but it frequently deals wounds that never heal. Idle words harm reputations, injure feelings, outrage sentiments and often turn the course of life for an individual.—Omaha Bee.

MOTOR CAMPS IN THE WEST.

Running private automobile camps outside of cities, usually on forest lands in mountainous country, is becoming quite an industry in the Pacific Coast States, and many new ones are established each year. You are bowling along the Pacific Highway, for instance, in Oregon or Northern California, when you observe a sign advising you to stop at Bide-a-Wee Auto Camp, 17 miles distant. You never heard of the place, but the mileage is just about right to complete the day's run, so you keep your eye open for the camp site. Every few miles you encounter other signs, with diminishing mileage noted, and finally you come upon Bide-a-Wee. It is perhaps a little clearing in the forest on a mountainside, with a gasoline station by the road, a driveway leading up among the thinned-out trees, and a log cabin in the woods where staple camp supplies are sold. Here and there are stone fireplaces with stovepipes chimneys and sheet-iron tops. Electric lights are strung at intervals overhead, and half-a-dozen hydrants discharge running water piped from a spring farther up the mountain.—Florida Grower.

The above items are from Field and Stream, the great sporting magazine and I am printing them because we of Florida should furnish like service to motorists, not only because it would be a great accommodation for travelers but because there is money in it for camps rightly conducted and I consider the items as great endorsements of the plan proposed by W. U. C. Smith of Orlando for a series of autotels, all to be under one management and to be conducted exactly alike. I understand that the plan has met with a good reception from financiers and that two trial camps will be established, one in Orange and one in Polk county. Under right management they cannot fail to be a success and the more of them, rightly distributed, the better the chances for success and the more satisfactory the service from the viewpoint of the tourist.—Florida Grower.

PRaise FOR OUR LEGISLATORS

The present house of representatives taken as a whole, is probably the most intellectual Florida has ever had. Too many orators, perhaps—too many hot air artists, but the house has been fortunate in brains and leaders. In the house there were many superior minds, such as A. W. Weeks, of Holmes; Amos E. Lewis, of Jackson; W. A. McKenzie, of Lake; J. A. Taylor, of Highlands; Millam and Miller, of Duval; Davis and Williams, of Leon; A. T. Stuart, of Hillsboro; L. E. Wade, of Clay; Hooker and Mayo, of Marion; Kennerly, and McKenzie, of Putnam; Ogilvie, of Seminole; Stokes, of Bay, and others who came to the front as fighters for the best interests of Florida.—Pensacola News.

We don't know Mr. Ogilvie, of Seminole, but since Forest Lake's wife was with him all the time he was in Tallahassee there is no suspicion of his going under an assumed name and it must be a typographical error.

CITY PLANNING FOR SANFORD.

Sanford, always a progressive and practical city, has taken a long step in advance when it induced the legislature to authorize the establishment of a city planning commission. It is something every wide-awake and ambitious city should have, but so far as we know Sanford is the first city in Florida to provide itself with this important adjunct to the city beautiful. Most of the cities of Florida have grown up without any pre-conceived plan. Like Topsy, they "just grew," and they bear the evidence of it in their straggling, unkempt condition. Sanford has a splendid strategic position at the head of navigation on the St. Johns river; with the broad lake Monroe washing its shores, offering an opportunity for a great variety of aquatic sports; with a fertile and productive back country, shipping many cars of fruit and vegetables annually, it should be one of the richest inland towns in Florida. It has now taken a step which, if wisely and intelligently carried out, will make it one of the most beautiful. It has splendid natural advantages in its great lake and river. They should be utilized to the utmost, and the approach to the city from the water side made a thing of beauty and an eternal joy. Flowering shrubs alternating with beds of flowers and plenty of green grass would give incomers from the north and elsewhere a most favorable impression of the city. Few towns realize how important first impressions are. They are lasting and will out live other and less favorable impressions. Nature has been lavish in her gifts to Sanford, the legislature has done its best, and it now remains for its citizens to carry on the good work so auspiciously begun, and make their home city one of the most attractive in Florida, the state of attractive cities. May complete success attend their efforts.—Tampa Times.

WRITING FOR THE PAPER.

"Why was not my letter printed in The Independent?" Inquiries some irate correspondent from time to time. Well, there may be several reasons, including improper matter, but the main reason is that you do not write it so that the editor can use it without rewriting it. Remember that the linotype operator goes at high speed and that he has no time to stop and decipher words that are not plain. A newspaper is willing to "tie up a machine" while deciphering some hieroglyphic called a word or trying to make sense out of some sentence. And the editor has no time to spend in marking over and making

CELERY SEED

The Sanford Independents, were independent yesterday—of victory.

But just the same they gave Sorrento a run for her money. The crowd was so hot all over the time. You can not always tell what these Sanford sluggers are liable to do in the last inning so the game wasn't Sorrento's until the last out was made.

Manager Whiddon went in the game the ninth as a pinch hitter. Our Sanford manager can usually give the ball a terrific wallop, but he said those wide curves of the Sorrento hurler had him puzzled; so he decided to strike out and have it over with.

Rain delayed the game two hours but the attendance was good, between two hundred and three hundred were in attendance, which shows that Sanford is a real baseball town. The patronage and contribution was appreciated and it takes both to give Sanford a winning ball team.

The game was a thriller from start to finish. Fast double plays by Sorrento accounted for Sanford's defeat, by score of 4 to 3.

Next Monday contributions will be solicited from the merchants and others who are interested in Sanford having a winning baseball team. The money will be used to buy uniforms and repair the diamond.

Adkins, Sorrento's star hurler, was pitching in his best form yesterday and with almost perfect support it looked as if Sanford was going to have a blank for her score until the sixth inning when McLucas, Sanford's fine little catcher started the fire works which netted two runs.

Oviedo team, which started off the season pretty bad by two straight defeats, won her second straight yesterday in an errorless game on Oviedo's part, by the score of 7 to 4, from the Brotherhood.

Hot Dornier and McCall were in fine form but McCall got the best of Dornier with the aid of his team which gave him perfect support. Doubles by McCall and Carter at opportune times also aided in the victory.

Hoohehan was the hitting star of the game. He is manager of the Brotherhood team and when his team starts on a hitting slump he steps up and shows 'em how. He singled twice and doubled once in three times at bat yesterday.

FOR THE MOVIE FAN

Glezen Moore in "The Nth Commandment" tonight.

The story is by Fannie Hurst.

The pretty, wistful shop girl eager for a good time, the flashy lounge lizard too anxious to give it to her, the plain, hard-working lad who loves her.

These are the three intensely human people whose heart story Fannie Hurst, author of "Humoresque," has woven into a greater screen drama than that great classic.

Added attraction, the latest International News, only one day old.

And the honor guests tonight will be Mr. and Mrs. Bryan of the Bryan Cycle Co. and will see this wonderful picture without cost to them.

Monday the feature picture will be "The Little Church Around the Corner."

Don't fail to get a program tonight as there are some good ones next week including Jackie Coogan in "My Boy."

SORRENTO WINS FAST GAME FROM LOCALS

With Adkins, Sorrento's prize hurler, pitching in fine form, the local club went down to defeat in a fast game of ball yesterday, 4 to 3.

This Adkins surely had things his own way, for he was given almost perfect support and the best the Sanford boys could get off his delivery were 7 little hits. As the game was played after a heavy rain, the infield and outfield was a mass of water, and this in part, accounted for some of the errors, though the outfield errors were all clean catches.

Betts, who started for Whiddon's crew, was wild at times, and was found for six hard blows, before he retired in the seventh. However, errors behind him were responsible for the four runs, and it is doubtful if the Sorrento crowd would have scored as often as they did, if he had been accorded "perfect" support.

Sorrento started off in a hurry and after two were out in the first inning, Cowart angles to left field, steals second and then third, scoring later on Wilcox's single to center. Wilcox however, died at second after stealing the bag. They had men on bases on the second and third, but couldn't advance them. The fourth started off with a double to left field by Wilcox. He was thrown out at third though by McLucas, who was on the job. Dixon then singled to right, advanced to second on a fielder's choice and scored on Perry's line drive to left. Perry being thrown out at first on the play to the plate. Laddlaw ended it by striking out. In the 5th Betts became wild and with one out walked two men, Cowart though flying out to third for the second out. Wilcox then lays one down to third base which the third baseman missed and a run came in. Dixon then was out, catcher to first. A fast double play by McCall at second to Henderson nipped a rally by Sorrento in the 6th. The seventh inning, Browning in left was called in to the mound, and pitched in fine form, allowing only one scratch hit, an error by the right fielder being responsible for the lone Sorrento run in the 8th. Only ten men faced Browning, in the 8th three of them being struck out.

Sanford was unable to do a thing to Adkins until the third, when Durney McCall, at short, got the first hit, a single to left. It was to no avail as there were two out and Henderson filed out to center. Things looked gloom in the next inning when Browning hit a long drive to left field for two sacks, but a fast double play on Betts' infield hit, ended Sanford's hopes in this inning. Nothing happened except one, two three work until the 6th, when McLucas singling to third base stole second on a ball, went to third when Adkins hit McCall, and scored when Ayers, third base, let Royal's peg to him, roll out to the sidewalk. McCall also scoring on this play. A very promising Sanford rally began in the ninth after Connor struck out, for little Babe McCall hit a hot one to right field for a single. Whiddon, manager, then batted for Steele in an attempt to win this game, but his best offering was a second out, being struck out on three close balls. Diedrich, star third sacker, however, came through with a drive to center for a single, which scored McCall from first, and it looked as though the game would go into the extra inning kind. McLucas, always a good bet, was baffled by the smoke on the ball and struck out, with the winning run on second, thus ending the game.

A large crowd witnessed the game and if Sanford can make as good a showing against any other club they may play as they did against Sorrento, they will be up there and the fans will see some good base ball. Manager Whiddon has signed up some promising material and promises the fans some real base ball this summer.

OVIEDO WALLEPS BROTHERHOOD

In a five inning game which was shortened on account of another game on the home diamond Oviedo took a pitchers duel from the Brotherhood of St. Andrew yesterday by the score of 7 to 4. The feature of the game was the pitching of Babe McCall, who allowed the usually slugging Brotherhood boys only five hits. The game was played on a muddy diamond and with slippery balls. Another interesting feature of the game was that Oviedo was the first team in the Pepper League to play an errorless game.

AFTER TOLLS PAY FOR BRIDGES MAKE IT FREE.

Throughout the state there is a growing idea that large and expensive draw bridges should charge tolls until such a time as the structures, together with all upkeep, shall have been paid in full; then allow the bridge to be free and allow the proper salaries from the general fund of the county in which the bridge is located.

The most expensive bridge to adopt this system is the one at Jacksonville. That was the plan at its conception, but there was made no provision for the vast patronage which would follow its completion; consequently, because of the too rapid accumulation of money it has been found necessary and advantageous to reduce the tolls. Had the bonds been issued with the understanding that they could be taken up at any time the bridge would have been paid for in a much shorter space of time, the bonds would have all been retired at an early date, and therefore the bridge would have been free.

Daytona has adopted that plan in its purchase of toll bridges. When once the amount of the purchase price shall have been taken in, in addition to the upkeep, all tolls will be abolished. Now DeLand wants the same plan incorporated in its purchase of the Munroe and the Crow's Bluff bridges. There seems to be an expressed idea that the counties of Lake and Seminole should "go in" with Volusia in the purchase of both bridges, reduce the tolls one-half, and when the structures were fully paid for by the tolls the three counties should pay their pro-rata of five up-keep.

Palm Beach county seems to have gotten the shaky end of the stick. The town of Lake Worth, anxious to have something better than West Palm beach, built a handsome bridge across Lake Worth, and abolished all tolls. West Palm Beach bought a private one-cent toll bridge for some forty thousand dollars which in three years had paid three hundred per cent profit on the investment and was about to fall down, and is constructing at a cost of a half million dollars a free bridge. If it shall ever be completed it will be the handsomest thing of the kind in the state.

Volusia county realizes that the bridges it contemplates buying are very sloppy concerns that have nearly outlived their usefulness, and by the time that they have been paid for—or even before that period, will have to give way to something modern, permanent and expensive, and contains a small amount of white-of-egg. This makes it possible for representatives of the company to test it frequently for leavening strength—right on the dealer's counter. Nothing but absolutely fresh stock is permitted to remain on the dealers' shelves. It must always be up to the high Calumet standard.

White-of-Egg in Calumet a Vital Element Most Baking Powders Lack

Don't use a leavener that does not contain white-of-egg. When you do you take chances—you run the risk of spoiling your bakings.

CALUMET The Economy BAKING POWDER

Remember the white-of-egg in Calumet protects the success of your bakings. It is the economical positive bake-day aid and its sale is 2 1/2 times as much as that of any other brand.
A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce cans instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT.
Public sentiment has been accurately gauged by the News in a series of interviews from leading business men of the section in regards to the purchase by Volusia county of the Monroe and Crows Bluff bridges. County commissioners meet in regular session tomorrow at which time they will take action in regards to the purchase and it is to be hoped that they will be guided by the sentiment of the public, whom they represent. There has been no one who believes that the county should not buy the bridges. There has been a little difference of opinion on Volusia buying the bridges on its own but the time was so short that the co-operation of other counties in the purchase could not be secured when special legislation was sought and obtained to allow the county to buy the bridges. While almost everyone is in favor of having the bridges free the majority of the business men look at the proposition in the right light and believe that the best method to pursue is to charge a reduced toll on the acquisition of the bridges by the county, which would take care of the upkeep and eventually liquidate the amount of money which the county will have to borrow to make the purchase.

As to the price the bridge companies take a position, inasmuch as they are not anxious to sell their property, to take $75,000 for both bridges and will turn same over to the county October 1 of this year. The News has had little to say about this part of it for it does not know anything about engineering, what the original cost was nor what the replacement value is. It does believe that the bridge companies should be paid a fair price for the value of the bridges plus an amount for the term of the unexpired franchise.
The purchase of the bridges is a strictly business proposition. The people want the bridges; the owning companies have agreed to sell.
The News does not like to see the work already accomplished in order to make it possible for the county to buy these bridges go at naught and it sincerely hopes that the county commissioners and the bridge companies can agree on terms that will be fair to the companies and to the public.—DeLand News.
Quite right, Clayton, only we don't have to acquire the bridges now and it is unnecessary to pay a big price for them.

WRITER'S NAME WILL LIVE
Superficial Critics Have Misjudged the Work Given to the World by Sir Walter Raleigh.

It is something of a paradox that the last work of Sir Walter Raleigh, "The War in the Air," should have been the history of a great modern adventure, written upon a large scale. To those who knew Raleigh, whose death a vast number of friends and disciples are deploring, only by his works, he may have seemed somewhat detached from the life about him, and intent upon the niceties and elegancies of style.
The most of his books deal with the past, in which the superficial critic might think Raleigh was finding an escape from reality. The superficial critic of course would have been wrong.
Like all good writers, Raleigh had an intense interest in all that was about him. Whatever he read he put always to the test of life, and thus found the best, the only commentary for the books which he loved full well.—From "Musings Without Method" in Blackwood's Magazine.

AS TO DIVISION OF LABOR
With Changing Circumstances, Generally Accepted Definition Has Undergone Many Changes.

The division of labor is one of the principles evolved from the study of political economy, or economics, and is based on the claim that industry can best be carried on when each man has a special work to do. Constant practice in doing the same thing leads to a perfection which could not otherwise be attained. Though the name of Adam Smith (1723-1790), author of "The Wealth of Nations," has been closely associated with the principle of the division of labor, the importance of it has been recognized before, notably by Plato (427-387 B. C.), in his "Republic," and by Adam Ferguson (1723-1810) in his "History of Civil Society." In modern industry very little is due to the direct operation of the human hand; almost everything is done by a machine. The development of steam and electricity as the motive power both of production and exchange, has along with the parallel development of machinery completely revolutionized the conditions of industry, necessitating a division of labor on a far wider basis than that contemplated by Adam Smith. At the present day it is not a mere question of personal adaptation, but of local, national and international fitness and specialization for carrying on different forms of industry. Division of labor has become only a factor in the wider problem of the organization of labor, necessary to the success of every great industrial undertaking.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

CHICAGO PAPER TELLS ENTIRELY NEW STORY OF MOUNT CASE.

CHICAGO, June 7.—John Strom, an Evanston fisherman, was quoted today by the Chicago Daily Journal as declaring he saw a boy resembling Leighton Mount, Northwestern University freshman killed and his body placed under an Evanston pier on the day of Mount's disappearance after a class rush.

Strom's story, as related by the Journal, was told to him by Harry Cook, a chum of young Mount. Strom who declared he had told his story to an Evanston policeman on that day and that no attention was paid to it, testified recently in the investigation by authorities here and it was declared that Strom had told unusual stories at other times and little attention was paid to his statements.

It is claimed that one of the horrors of shipwreck—darkness—is overcome by a new invention consisting of powerful electric lights which can be attached to lifeboats, and which will automatically be switched on as the boats touch the water. Two lights thoroughly illuminate the whole boat.

The Modern Genie
—WHO EXCHANGES THINGS WE DON'T WANT FOR THE THINGS WE NEED

The real Aladdin of today is the classified advertising section of the Daily Herald. It is remarkable how Classified ads help folks to live better, to spend less, to put more in the bank!

As an instance: one man swapped some odd pieces of furniture that did not match his set for a fine Victrola that he needed; a sewing machine that was no longer used was sold, and the money invested in a much-desired typewriter; a piano that had stood silent for years was exchanged.

But why go on with the huge list? If you would see how simply and effectively the Modern Genie produces results, turn to the Classified Advertising Columns.
