

New York Yankees To Have Keener Opposition During This Season Than At Last

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service—Sports Editor

NEW YORK. Mar. 29.—(INS) One of the best bets of the day is that the world's champion New York Yankees will not be bowed politely into another American League pennant this year; that, if they win again, which is entirely plausible, they will be pursued up to the wire, not escorted, and that they may even experience a few bad moments en route.

This is not written because the Yanks are blowing a lot of exhibition games in the South. It represents, in fact, the dispassionate opinion of smart baseball men who pay exactly no attention to exhibition records. These, after all, come within the general meaning of a swell practice put. The Yanks have the stuff and some of later it will come out like a pur-doned convict.

But there is a well founded suspicion that the pitching they had and the hitting they knew last year are no more, and never again will be. They still have a great plenty of both, however, enough, in fact, so that the man doesn't live who would bet against them as a pennant prospect. The only thing is that the league is some what better and the Yanks are somewhat worse.

Any baseball man, for example, will lay you odds that Ruth and Gehrig don't hit all those home runs again. They say that it "may" may be mentioned that Ruth and Gehrig have hit precisely none to date.

The Yanks' theme for a long time has been that they don't beat the St. Louis Browns nearly as many times as they did last year. Their 1927 record against the Browns was a baseball miracle and the kind of things just don't happen more than once. It accounted for not a small portion of the Yanks' 19 game lead at the end of the year.

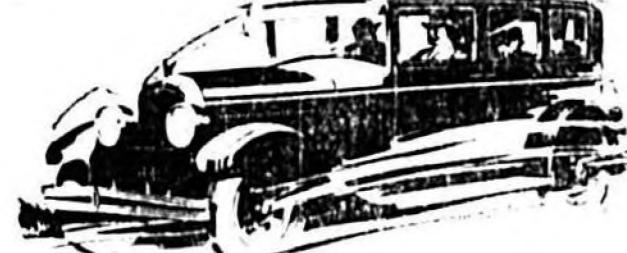

Much of their early success was due to the presence of the Boston Red Sox. The latter may be more or less a factor in Bill Carrigan's rather slow coming to perceive that he must try to win more games than anybody, including the Yanks.

The prospects for the American League race, of course, indicate little likelihood of a major upset; however, a not unfeared possibility cannot be ruled out, especially in view of the recent developments in the National League.

The Detroit Tigers were one of the most important points of the 1927 season. In one thing or another, however, both Chirico and his son count for the past year together. The Tigers just don't click. Yet they have the chance. Nobody is looking for them, and so far off the pace they are, they are having nothing to do before the draw.

The other contenders, Washington, Boston, Philadelphia, and Chicago, were all beaten by the Yanks in 1927.

SETS NEW RECORDS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Mar. 29.—(INS)—Training shows the Yale swimming team has set a new world's record. Last night, in a practice meet here, the Yale swimmers cracked three records in team relays. The new marks are: 1355.15 for 200 yards, 4550.25 for 250 yards, and 2221.35 for 300 yards.

PHILADELPHIA. Mar. 29.—(INS) After six weeks of training at Winter Haven, Fla., the Phils arrive in this city tonight. The team will spring into Shibe Park tomorrow in preparation for the opening game with the Athletics Saturday for the city championship.

FT. MYERS, Fla., Mar. 29.—(INS) Connie Mack promises to shake up his Athletics unless there is a sudden change in the attitude of several of his scolded stars. The Phils are due any minute according to the vet who looks who showed megalomania over the attitude of certain of his players than he exhibited for years.

battling cee, whammed out 11 hits and won 11 to 6.

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 29.—(INS) The Cub's winning streak apparently is gathering momentum as it progresses. Things were looking up well until McCaffery grew careless yesterday and let a rank pitcher, Joe Welch, go to work on the mound against the Holly Club. Mr. Welch went the entire route and when the dust cleared away the Cubs were victors, 10 to 6. This same Welch got three hits.

MIAMI, Fla., Mar. 29.—(INS)

Dazzy Vance and Jess Petty, Brooklyn's great pitchers, are all set for the National League pennant race. Vance held the Boston Braves to one hit in four innings here yesterday, and Petty twirled the remaining five frames without allowing a solo blow. The Robins

AUGUSTA, Ga., Mar. 29.—(INS) The New York Giants will break camp here this afternoon and leave for Chattanooga on a short tour. They will stop at Birmingham, Birmingham, and Atlanta. They will play two games each day.

FT. PETERSBURG, Mar. 29.—(INS) The New York Yankees have won only one game in the orange League this Spring and they can't even beat Minor Leaguers. They lost to Buffalo yesterday, 5 to 4, and will attempt to back at the Bisons today.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

JESUS SAID:—Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God.—Matthew 5:8.

PRAYER:—Enable us, O Lord, to come to Thee, and do Thou cleanse and make us clean every one every day that the great day may now be far off.

What Sanford people are wondering now—when Hathaway is going to speak?

We've noticed a number of local politicians up at the meetings getting pointers on how to speak.

What caused accidents? asked the Clearwater Sun. People evidently trying to cross the street.

We do not doubt that Dr. Hathaway can refute Mr. Carlton's arguments, but we want to hear him do it.

All is not gold that glitters. J. T. G. of the Jacksonville Journal reminds us. We hope that Hon. Hathaway can prove that.

During four days recently Photo City received from the sale of strawberries over three hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Clarence Darrow and Don McMillen had a debate in Tampa the other day on the prohibition question. We thought that is no bad been settled.

After some pictures of some of the Turkish ladies without their veils it is not difficult to understand why they wore them. —McCombs Telegraph.

Doyle Carlton might have won his audience with his last speech before he left, but how much it cost to repair the rear end of a Ford.

We have off two or three local candidates who might not be well worth supporting and yet feel no work but it will take an election and a long time to convince them that!

Candidate Carlton was won to his birth when he told a surprised audience that he could not afford to rent one. How well do they think that?

Bill Hathaway, the man who is responsible for the organization of L. W. W. politically all in Alachua. No doubt the who believe in the theory that they must be a great many.

It would be bad if Senator Robinson, who had so wanted another opportunity to study Freud and Carl Jung before giving his approval to the appointment, should now do the same. —The Brookings.

We imagine that Jim Duran will be delighted to learn that the Tampa Tribune has changed its mind in regard to her. —Drama. It will give strength to his argument that part mutinies are immune to this state.

Despatch from New Orleans says that a bank teller, after losing heavily on the races and turning up short in his accounts, is being hunted by police. This is the unfortunate part about horse racing, not the race themselves. —V.

The Miami police chief is spending his Easter vacation in the sheriff's home, commonly known as the Biscayne county stockade. These two gentlemen have a way of visiting back and forth considerably. It wasn't so long ago when the sheriff, after shooting up a number of prisoners trying to escape, spent a night or two in jail himself.

Wonder why Carlton wants to debate on the inefficiency and favoritism of the road department? If he knows anything, why doesn't he get up and tell it? —Sanford Herald. What was it Pittsford told the colonial soldiers at the battle of Bunker Hill? —Ocala Star. He said "Damned the nose means when we win with our nomination." —Deland News. Mayb Carlton will—Ocala Star. —He has already accepted the nomination. —Deland News. Isn't she a trifly optimistic.

Selecting A Leader

As the time for the Houston convention approaches, political observers are finding themselves no closer to the solution of the Democratic "problem" than they were a year or two ago. With Governor Smith recognized as the leading candidate, and yet utterly unable to obtain his nomination as long as the two-thirds rule is in force, it appears more and more as if it were going to be a repetition of the Madison Square Garden fiasco.

Houston is equivalent to admitting how poorly posted on political affairs one is. One might as well attempt to name the choice of California where the Democratic voters must decide between the dry Catholic Senator Walsh, the wet Catholic Governor Smith, and the wet Protestant Senator Reed.

Northern Democratic newspapers continue in their assertions that Al Smith is the logical candidate, and the only one who can carry New York state and reveal much strength in the national election. Al Smith has been successfully winning New York elections, so long as he has confined his activities to state politics, but we do not believe he could be elected president if nominated, and doubt very seriously if he could carry his own state.

Smith's strength lies solely in New York City. Official election statistics of New York show that in the gubernatorial race of 1924 Roosevelt polled in the state, outside of New York City, 410,197 more votes than Smith. They also show that in the election of 1926 Ordway Mills polled, outside of New York City, 272,308 more votes than Smith.

In New York City a clear majority of the voters are foreign born. The New York State Women's Republican Club informs us that only one person in five is born on American soil, the rest being presumably naturalized citizens.

Just whether this foreign born population would support Smith in a national election is decidedly a debatable question, and if this element were as mixed as we feel it is, I doubt very seriously that every fact would militate against him everywhere else.

The Democrats have a difficult task to select the right man to lead them to victory but they must not be fooled by Al Smith.

Courage Anyway

Miss Edie Mackay, the famous daughter of Lord Inglefield, has passed through the plane-pilot test of Captain Henshaw when that able aviator rose from the British Isles and turned the nose of his monoplane Endeavor to coast north the Atlantic, had during her life escaped many peril—but is dead now; if the long-sailed Endeavor came to grief near another trans-Atlantic flight, nothing can be done.

Her career reads like a chapter in "Pride of Fortune." Her father's wealth meant nothing to a social snob, but it enabled her to do anything and think nothing. She was Democratic and affable, a lady to be envied from afar. Some back driver, a to ride in the back of a carriage or earl.

It was not until she was about to start her first solo flight that Ruth Eddy, Lady Inglefield, the famous aviator determined to be the first to fly across the Atlantic. Miss Mackay, however, was not to be beaten, so she organized a group of women to form the first all-women's flying club.

Five years later Ruth Eddy had become the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic, "in the loop," the most difficult of all flights. —A. C. —Photo was still up in the air when they began to sing the hymn the training who had just completed and the plane had brightened itself.

YOU can save pennies or save chicks. Poultry yard facts show that ordinary untested rations and mixtures such as hard boiled eggs and oatmeal save pennies but not chicks. Usually 50% of them die. Poultrymen who are making money live one penny more per chick and save 90 to 100% of their chicks. They feed Purina Chick Starter, the buttermilk ration containing God Liver Oil. We'll be glad to tell you of a feeding plan that's as simple as A.B.C. It saves chicks and brings them through to early maturity.

O.E.S. Members Have Delightful Party

Members of Seminole Chapter No. 2 O. E. S. were most pleasantly entertained Thursday evening at a Shamrock party at the Masonic Temple. The assembly room and banquet hall were beautifully decorated with numerous lace baskets filled with white lilies, campanulas, petunias and ferns. Postage of shamrocks were also used to advantage. The rooms were encircled with tall feathered bouquets of baccharis, and the lighted incense cast a soft glow over the pretty scene.

A most interesting program was arranged by Mrs. Glenn E. Mc Kay and included the following numbers: "America" by the assembly; vocal solo, "Mother Machree" by Mrs. Robert L. Glenn, accompanied by Mrs. Walter Haynes; group of readings, Mrs. W. H. Stoner; vocal duet, "My Wild Irish Rose," by Mrs. B. C. Moore and Mrs. T. L. Hale, accompanied by Miss Anna Belle Dyson; reading in costume, "Pat's Favor to Flora," by J. Tilden Jacobs; vocal trio, "Medley of Irish Songs" by Mrs. Robert L. Glenn, Mrs. B. C. Moore and Mrs. T. L. Hale, accompanied by Miss Dyson.

After the program a number of games and clever contests were enjoyed. In the hand shaking contest, Mrs. Beatrice Higgins won the prize, while the prize for the alphabet contest, this year awarded Mrs. Tom Allen. Each person brought a package wrapped in green paper and these were auctioned and a sum realized. At a late hour the members retired to the banquet hall, where Miss R. F. O'Conor and her assistants served mint punch and trays of delicious food cake. There were no visitors who enjoyed the exceptionally delightful evening.

FAIRY BRITANNIA RACING CUTTER IS TO BE ABANDONED

King George's Britannia Is No Longer Considered Good Enough To Compete With Excellent Modern Schooners

LONDON, March 29 (UPI)—Britannia, the famous three-masted racing cutter owned by King George, will probably find her last time this season.

King George, it is understood, acting on the advice of his yacht master, has decided that the old vessel of 110 years will no longer be competitive and is being taken out of racing.

With Britannia will meet what has become almost an old story since 1923, with the exception of the war years, that of two cutters in which the old boat had no alternatives and which have been a regular attraction at the various regattas up and down the coast.

King Alfred, the first racing cutter to go racing after Britannia, has always been of great interest to the racing public, but has not been known by many.

The present edition of the cutter carries on the traditions of the old boat, but she has always been a good boat and has been racing in various sports ever since she was built.

In addition to King Alfred, the cutter King Edward, which has been racing for some time, has also been of great interest to the racing public.

The present edition of the cutter carries on the traditions of the old boat, but she has always been a good boat and has been racing in various sports ever since she was built.

The Verdict Rests With You

Paid Taxes Guarantee Safety, Progress and Prosperity

YOU are a citizen of Sanford Mr. Taxpayer. Your home is here. This is the place you have chosen in which to earn your living, to educate and bring up your children. When Sanford prospers, you prosper. When Sanford wants, you want. Sanford's welfare is your own. In other words, you and your fellow citizens ARE Sanford.

YOUR tax money gives you fire protection, law and order, sanitary conditions and a host of things too numerous to mention. Your tax money makes these things possible. Would you be willing to live in Sanford without these necessities, Mr. Taxpayer? Your taxes pay for them. If you don't pay this year's taxes, can you expect the city to give you police protection, safety from the ravages of disease and the red ruin of fire?

YOU may say "I can't pay my taxes, let the city borrow funds until I can pay." Did you know, Mr. Taxpayer, that bond houses will not buy refinancing bonds from cities whose citizens are not willing to put their shoulders to the wheel and help themselves out of a tight place by paying taxes promptly.

YOU, Citizens of Sanford, are a jury in this matter of paying taxes. The solution to Sanford's financial problems for this year lie solely within your power. By paying your taxes promptly you will provide the city with funds upon which to operate; Sanford's credit will be strengthened with the bond houses and next year's burden will be lighter. If you don't, no one knows or can visualize just what will happen.
