

Double Header To Be Played On Sanford Field Saturday

Tie Game Between Lookouts, G-Men To Be Played Off No Extra Charge For Admission To Ball Park Will Be Made

The first double-header of the season in the Florida State League will be played on Sanford Field tomorrow afternoon when the Sanford Lookouts and the Gainesville G-Men will play off the tie game of Thursday of last week. That game was called because of rain in the ninth inning with the score 2 and 2.

The first game will be called at 3 o'clock and the other game immediately afterwards. There will be no extra charge of admission. The usual price of 40 cents for adults, 15 cents for children and 25 cents for negroes will be charged.

Stuffy McCrone said today he expected to pitch Bob Overstreet and Red Sweeney. Joe Histrup will probably catch both games. Stuffy will play first base, Maltby and Cates will be in their places at second and third base, respectively, and Clary will be at short. The outfield will be played by Dave Swindell, Gardner Barnes and Frank Boris.

Another double-header later in the season will have to be scheduled because rain interfered with the Sanford-Palatin game yesterday. This will also be played on Sanford Field.

Newsom One Up In Feud With Former Manager

WASHINGTON, May 29.—(AP)—Buck Newsom, the gangling, talkative Washington pitcher, is enjoying hearty guffaws at the expense of his old manager, Rogers Hornsby.

As 'a' well known around the American league, there's no love lost between the pair. Hornsby has said Newsom was the dumbest pitcher he'd ever seen and couldn't carry an idea across the road. Newsom has been just as complimentary in his retorts.

Hornsby sold Newsom to the Senators last year for around $400,000 and soon thereafter began laughing at the deal he'd pulled over Clark Griffith, the old fox.

But in their first meeting in St. Louis a few days ago, Buck stood the Browns on their heads. He won his game handily—his sixth of the year—and turned in the best strikeout performance of the season, fanning 11.

It may be Hornsby's turn to chuckle before long, but right now Buck is in the pitcher's seat, and is making the most of it.

Coaches Are Rivals On Gridiron, Fairway

RALEIGH, N. C., May 29.—(AP)—Football coaches in the Carolinas are rivals on the fairway as well as the gridirons. Hunk Anderson, at North Carolina State college, matched strokes with Wallace Wade, of Duke, in the Carolinas' golf tourney at Winston-Salem.

Anderson's score was low enough to win a first flight berth, but Wade ran into trouble in bunkers and rough, falling short. His game is considered much better than average, however.

At Columbia, S. C. Don McCallister, University of South Carolina grid mentor, is a linkman of no ordinary ability.

Who's Who Among The LOOKOUTS

Bob Overstreet, who will probably pitch in one of the double-header games between the Lookouts and the G-Men from Gainesville on Sanford Field tomorrow, has been on the line-up of the Sanford Club only a few weeks. He started the 1933 season with the DeLand Reds, but was released when all the clubs had to reduce their teams to 14 men after the first 20 days of play. He was then promptly signed by the Lookouts. While with the Reds he pitched 17 innings and allowed only one scored run. He has pitched only five games for the Lookouts, two of which he won for the home team.

This is Overstreet's fourth year in organized baseball, starting with Fort Lauderdale in the Florida East Coast League in 1933 following his graduation from Mulberry High School. His home is in Plant City. He played on the Fort Lauderdale club two years, batting better than .300 each year. He played with the Ohio State League, on the Canton Club, last year, both as a pitcher and an outfielder. In the six games he pitched for Canton he lost only one.

It was Overstreet who brought in the two runs that won for the Lookouts the thrilling 17-inning game on Sanford Field from the League-leading Daytona Beach Islanders last Sunday. In both cases (the seventh and the seventeenth innings) he came to bat last and each time hit long drives that enabled Gardner Barnes to score.

Bob played baseball, football and basketball while attending Mulberry High and won 14 letters. Overstreet is 22 years of age, is six feet tall and weighs 160 pounds.

Sportsman's Club President Says State Stands To Profit From Tarpon Tourney

VENICE, May 29.—All of Florida stands to reap great benefits from the current tarpon fishing season along the Florida west coast, it was declared here today by M. T. L. Evans, president of the Venice-Nokomis Sportsman's Club, sponsoring the Venice-Nokomis Tarpon Derby now underway here.

Mr. Evans pointed to the increase in inquiries from prospective tarpon anglers and said that he presumed that the same situation existed at other points along the coast. As matters now stand, local fishing guides report the best business since the boom with indications, such as advance reservations, pointing to a greater boost.

The tarpon derby, with upwards of $500 in fishing tackle and trophies as prizes, will continue through July 31, and the month of June is expected to far surpass any like period in the history of tarpon fishing.

Tarpon fishing, Mr. Evans pointed out, has now been put on what he termed a "scientific basis of cost" allowing almost any sportsman to indulge in one or more days of the thrilling sport. Mr. Evans pointed out that arrangements had been concluded by the club to provide tarpon fishing, including boat, bait, tackle, guide, hotel, three square meals and the like for a flat price starting at $9 per day and scaling upwards to $12—figuring two anglers to the boat.

To date more than 100 tarpon have been entered at the weighing station of the club and the daily number is increasing.

Wardens Remind Anglers Of Some Sections Of Law

Statutes Set Forth What Kind Of Bait Fishermen Can Use

Fishermen who go over to New Smyrna, Titusville or other places on the East Coast, or who choose the Gulf Coast for their fishing grounds are not to be harassed by wardens, but those who fish in fresh water streams are reminded now and then of some of the following provisions in state law:

"Fishes may be taken from end of pier to end of pier, but not more than 100 feet from shore in fresh water streams; Speckled Perch, 7 in. long; As to the limit of one person may catch in a day's fishing the law is:

"Bag limit—Bluegill, 12; Speckled Perch, 10; Shiner, 20; Warmouth, 20; Redbreast, 30; Jack, 15; Pike, 30; Mixed String, 40."

The law in regard to live bait is as follows:

"None of the following minnows shall be used for bait: Bream, Crappie, Bass, Trout, Jack, Pike, Perch. If caught in nets, they shall be returned immediately to the water."

The license fee for fresh-water fishing in Florida is: Series A—Resident State, $2.25; Series B—Non-Resident State, $3.50; Series C—Non-Resident 3-Day continuous, $1.75.

"Hook and Line, Rod and Reel, Bob, Spinner and Trawl are lawful for use. Unlawful to use nets, baskets, traps, gigs, dynamite or other deleterious substances in streams and lakes of Florida."

Catholic Schoolboy Meet In June Draws Record Entry List

SOUTH BEND, Ind., May 29.—(AP)—The third annual running of the Notre Dame National Catholic Interscholastic track and field meet, June 6-8, promises to attract a record-breaking entry list. Thirty schools and over 300 competitors are expected to compete. This will represent an increase of 50 percent in individuals and 25 percent in schools entered over the 1934 inaugural.

West Catholic high of Philadelphia is expected to defend the championship. It has won both in 1934 and '35. California's motor code has been adopted by the northern district of Baja California, Mexico.

Good Fishing At Lake Promised In One Year's Time

Big Mouth Bass Will Weigh Pound, Be Foot Long In Year

Sixteen thousand big mouth black bass fingerlings were received at Lake Mary this week, sent there by R. G. Garrett, supervisor of the Winter Haven hatcheries, and in about a year Seminoles County anglers will have some "mighty good fishing" at the lake, in the opinion of Frank Evans, president of the Chamber of Commerce. The fingerlings were obtained by the fish and game committee of the trade body of which Raymond Ball is chairman.

When dumped in Lake Mary the fingerlings were from two to four inches long, but John Dobos of the Winter Haven hatcheries advised the Chamber of Commerce men that in about a year they will be a foot long and that each should weigh a pound. Disciples of Ike Walton can go after them.

This is the twentieth load of fingerlings sent into this district in the last two weeks, the shipments being divided between Lake Mary, Lake Emma and Crystal Lake. The state is divided into four districts, with Seminole County in the district extending from Orlando to Lake Mary.

Black bass fingerlings were placed in Lake Mary some years ago and they provided excellent sport for many months. They live on mosquito larvae and bugs.

National League Leaders Lose 2 But Keep Lead

ST. LOUIS, May 29.—(AP)—Big Jim Weaver held the St. Louis Cardinals to four hits yesterday and the Pittsburgh Pirates tied up their series by making it two straight over the league leaders, 7 to 2.

The Cardinals regained their half game lead over New York, however, as the Giants dropped both ends of a twin bill with Boston.

Giants Kick Away Chance NEW YORK, May 29.—(AP)—

The Giants yesterday kicked away their best chance to take a clear lead in the National League by dropping both ends of a double-header to the Boston Bees, 4 to 3 and 5 to 4, through failure in both hitting and pitching departments.

The double win for the Bees snapped the Giants five-game winning streak and jolted the New Yorkers out of their first place tie, back into second place.

Red Sox Assault Turned Back By New York Yankees

BOSTON, May 29.—(AP)—The New York Yankees piled nine runs across the plate in two wild innings yesterday to turn back the Red Sox' assault on their American League lead with a 10 to 6 victory.

With the flashy rookie, Joe Di Maggio, leading the batting parade, and the veteran Pat Malone managing to stay the distance, although hit freely, the Yankees stretched their first-place edge to two and a half games by the win, which gave them a 2-1 margin for the three-game series.

SOME OF YOUR CLEANING RAGS SHOULD STILL BE CLOTHES!

THE CONSTANT waste of life out of the wash, and ironing with temperatures that weaken fabrics, will shorten the life of any clothes. Right now, you may have cleaning rags that should still be serviceable clothes.

An electric washing machine will wash your clothes gently... soapy water cleanses every fiber, and the soft, rhythmic action of the washer gives added months of wear that is ordinarily rubbed out by harsh hand washing methods. You'll be delighted with the clean, snowy white appearance of the finished wash.

Ironing with an electric ironer is easier on your clothes and easier on you. You'll be pleased to find that the ironing can be done in one-third the time and with one-tenth the effort that is used to take. You merely sit down, and let it literally take the work right out of your hands.

Insure longer life for your clothes, and do away with dreary "wash days" forever.

Observers Have Political Puzzle

Same General Lines Followed In Most Of The Platforms

TALIAHASSEE, May 30. (AP)—The senatorial situation temporarily off their minds, some 300,000 Florida voters gave undivided attention this week-end to the eleven-hour rush toward Tuesday's first primary election.

Reports from 30 counties in a poll by the Associated Press showed 74,425 persons exempt from paying poll tax. Dade county led with 13,341. Reports were not received from 27 counties.

Political observers still were puzzled about the strength of candidates in the record field because their platforms followed the same general lines. Candidates themselves, however, had unbounded confidence. "Reports indicate I am certain to be in the second primary" was a stock phrase.

Most of the candidates centered their efforts during the closing hours in the big cities, but some made hurried sallies into rural sections to patch their lines.

At 8 A. M. Tuesday voters will begin receiving their ballots in 1,322 precincts. Polls will close at sunset.

The Associated Press, through the co-operation of The Sanford Herald and its other member papers and its correspondents in every county, will tabulate the election returns. Clerks and inspectors have been requested to count the vote in state-wide and congressional races first, and report to a designated central office in the county seat as quickly as possible.

In many sections of the state, small precincts planned to have their votes cast in early and complete the vote in a race to be the first precinct to report.

Reports from member papers and correspondents will flow into central offices of The Associated Press in Jacksonville, Miami and Tallahassee for tabulations.

Appointment of Scott M. Luffin as temporary successor to the late U. S. Senator Park Trammell and definite announcement there would be no Democratic senatorial nominating primary until later in the year tended to quiet excitement about that race.

Luffin, Jacksonville corporation lawyer and immediate past president of the Absolut Bar Association, was appointed by Governor Sholtz Tuesday and was sworn in by the Senate at Washington Wednesday.

Noted Prosecutor Is For B. F. Paty In Governor's Race

N. Vernon Hawthorne, who as district attorney of Dade county prosecuted the assassin of the late Mayor Anton Cermak who was killed by a bullet intended for President Roosevelt, and who is given the credit for ridding Miami of such gangsters as Al Capone, now in Alcatraz federal prison, will speak in Sanford at 5 o'clock this afternoon. He will tell why he is supporting B. F. Paty for governor.

Though recognized as a fearless law enforcement official, a recognition that won for a national award presented to him beneath the dome of the state capital, Hawthorne was a year ago summarily removed from office by Governor Sholtz. His friends contend that he was removed because he was faithful to his trust. However that may be, Hawthorne promises to "reveal startling facts about conditions in Florida today."

Wilcox Hopeful Of Approval Of Canal To Coast

Congressman J. Mark Wilcox has advised the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce that he has requested a hearing before the Army engineers on the St. Johns Indian River canal project, and writes that he believes "we shall have a very good chance of getting approval for the project."

The proposed canal was recommended as "meritorious" in the official report of the annual convention of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress held in Washington.

Assessed Value Per Capita Is Lowest In Seminole County, Reports Reveal

Figures taken from the 1935 assessment rolls in the office of Deputy Assessor Sanford F. Deane of Seminole County and compared with state census figures show that the assessed value of property in Seminole County is lower, per capita, than that of any adjacent county.

The assessed value of Seminole County is $4,000,000, compared with $4,500,000 for Brevard county, the population of this county is 14,544 and its assessed value is $21,230,548, or $1,460 per person, or $6.87 more per capita than in Seminole County. ## Two Gamblers Pay Forfeit, Six Are Fined

Defendants Fail To Appear For Trial And Bonds Of $400 Ordered Estreated

E. H. ("Monk") Bennett and Jack Jackson, charged with operating a gambling house, failed to appear when their cases were called in Municipal Court Friday afternoon, and the $200 cash bonds deposited by each were ordered estreated by Judge S. A. E. Wilkinson. The names of nine witnesses appeared on the docket, but as neither of the defendants put in an appearance, Bennett and Jackson were arrested by the City police last Wednesday night when they raided a gambling hall in the 100 block on Magnolia Avenue. Several boxes of poker chips and a number of packs of cards were confiscated. Some money was also scooped from the tables by the officers.

Six other men pleaded guilty to selling lottery tickets, and each was fined $50. Jack Burney, J. L. Harriet and Albert Robinson paid their fines at once, and Charles Sheffield, Alvie Clause and J. D. Dossay were expected to pay during the day.

Voters Advised Of Guard Conditions By Col. McNamara

Col. John O. McNamara, candidate for adjutant general, and formerly assistant adjutant general of the State of Florida, visited Sanford Friday, and addressed the voters of Seminole County covering the objectives of his campaign.

Col. McNamara has been making an active campaign throughout the entire state, and is now on the home stretch, heading for St. Augustine where he will address the citizens of his home town. He will close his campaign in Jacksonville Saturday evening where he will speak in Hemming Park.

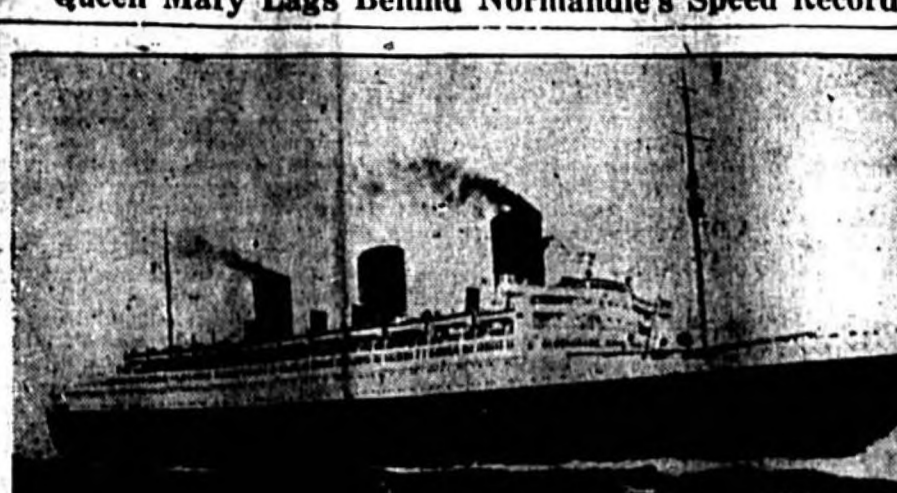

Addressing his friends in Sanford, Col. McNamara stated, that he resigned as the assistant adjutant general of Florida, for the purpose of telling the people of Florida just how the administration of their National Guard was being handled.

He charged that political favoritism was rampant in the administrative end of the Guard, pointing out a flagrant example of the promotion of the present commanding officer of the Florida Infantry Regiment, who was not qualified and was promoted without a regular examination, whereas a Sanford officer was qualified and entitled to the promotion.

He further charged "that federal payrolls were padded, that sealed bids were used to increase the slush fund, which had never been audited, that state funds were used for a $2,500 dinner in Washington, so that Sholtz and Collins could parade with 10 senior officers of the Guard before the big lights in Washington."

Closing, Col. McNamara stated his qualifications for the office, and asked the voters of Seminole County to support the Florida National Guard, by giving him their support on June 3.

Drunken Revel Of Zionchecks Injures Woman

Congressman Ejects Woman Who Leased Apartment And She Lands In Hospital

WASHINGTON, May 30.—(AP)—Forcefully ejected by Rep. and Mrs. Marion A. Zioncheck from the apartment she subleased to them, Mrs. Benjamin Scott Young was in the hospital today suffering, doctors said, from a fractured right hip. The fracture had not been verified by an X-ray. Attorney Samuel Herick, Jr., said at the bedside he would not decide what, if any, action to take until the partner of his firm returned tomorrow or Monday from a trip.

Zioncheck remained in the apartment offering drinks to visitors. Mrs. Zioncheck, red-eyed, sought refuge with a neighbor in the apartment house, after trying without avail to dissuade her husband from his antics for the entertainment of a group that had gathered there. Between drinks he said his purpose was "whoopie."

Mrs. Young contended at the hospital her injury was a direct result of scuffles last night and early today with Zioncheck.

Decapitated When Car Hits Lumber Truck

Two Of Three Others Hurt In Crash May Succumb To Serious Injuries Received

RICHMOND, Va., May 30.—(AP)—An early Memorial Day automobile-truck collision near here took the lives of five young persons and injured three others, two so seriously they may also die. The dead identified after daybreak by relatives and State Trooper Sam Redding were: Ruby Patton, 17, Ruby Lane, 17, Cornelia Lewis, 17, Opal Harroll, about 17, all of Stone Mountain, and Joseph G. Barron, about 18, of Matoaca, Virginia. The injured included Myrtle Partin, 20, Matoaca, who is not expected to live as a result of head injuries.

The eight had been to a dance at Richmond and were driving homeward at 1:15 when their car plunged into the rear of a lumber truck which had slowed up to turn into a filling station. The automobile plowed into lumber planking from a trailer. The planking sheared away the top of the car and struck the slight occupants, almost decapitating them. C. H. DuBoise, driver of the truck, was held on a technical charge. He and his helper were unhurt and their truck was undamaged.

The Cost Of Government

What the combined federal, state and local government expenditures really amount to has been brought out in startling fashion by a report made public by the National Association of Manufacturers in reference to taxation proposals now before the House Ways and Means Committee. The total government cost, according to a chart included in this report, amounts to nearly one-third of all the income of every man, woman and child in the country. Not only has it risen during the last few years at an extraordinary rate, but there is no satisfactory indication that the upward swing may be checked any time soon.

Aside from projected tax programs, actual tax collections today for federal, state and local governments are 29% of one-fifth of the total national income. The balance of governmental expenditures is being met by borrowings, and is forcing the government debt to rise at a staggering speed, and the total debt of federal, state and other political subdivisions is over $60,000,000,000, which represents an increase of some 1500% from the public debt of 1900.

During the same period the population has increased only 37%, from 76,000,000 to 127,000,000. The per capita debt has thus gone up in the last 36 years from $60 to $394 for each individual in the United States. While the World War brought a peak that was somewhat reduced afterward, the public debt has increased about $120 per capita in the last five years.

Relating government debt to national wealth, the report of the association shows further that the debt of all the governments—federal, state and local—remained at approximately 3% of the total national wealth from 1900 to 1918. The next 18 years, from 1918 to 1936, brought the public debt up to 10% of the national wealth, and the last five years has seen it climb to 17% of the national wealth. This is over five times the pre-war level, one of the greatest national debts in the history of any country.

The association attributes this increasing cost in some part to the steadily mounting government payroll, among other factors. The total number of government employees at present is 2,400,000, of which one-third are in civil and military service, the remainder in state and local employ. These figures, incidentally, do not include relief workers, government pensions, veterans assistance, and Civilian Conservation Corps members. In other words, the more or less permanent bureaus of the various governments have shown such a mushroom growth that even our rapidly increasing taxation plans cannot keep up with the rising costs of governmental functions.

Savings Insured

An "Investors' Insurance" plan which will eventually protect the savings of millions of American people is now rapidly being made available by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, an agency of the government created in 1934, which late that year began insuring deposits and share accounts in approved associations of the savings, building and loan type. Up to date, funds invested by approximately 1,700,000 persons are represented in the 1622 associations which have applied for insurance. Total resources of these thrift and home-financing institutions amount to about $1,200,000,000.

"Of these associations," says a bulletin from the Home Loan Bank Board, "1216 have already been granted insurance of accounts, and thus about 1,200,000 individual investors are now protected as to safety of their accounts up to $5,000 each, the limit set in the law. Since nearly all of these accounts are less than $5,000, it is estimated that 98 per cent of the insured shareholders and depositors are safeguarded against loss in the full amount of their holdings."

"Insurance of accounts is required by law for all Federal Savings and Loan Associations, which are local, mutual thrift organizations now operating under federal charter to the number of over 1000. Insurance is optional for state-chartered associations of this class, which include building and loan and homestead associations and co-operative banks. State chartered associations desiring insurance make application to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board and submit to examination.

"Already 182 state-chartered associations, including some of the largest and oldest institutions of the country, have been approved for insurance of the accounts of their investors after examination as to their financial condition and their investment and lending practices. Thereafter insured associations are subject to periodic federal examination. On account of their high rating, they are eligible for government investment in their shares if necessary to assist in meeting the demand for loans in their areas.

"Besides protection of savings, insurance of accounts has two main purposes, first, attracting a steady stream of funds into these sound and substantial associations and, second, by so doing, vastly increasing the amount of credit to be had for loans for the purchase, construction, repair and refinancing of homes in the communities where these associations are located. To the home owner and the prospective home owner this means moderate interest rates on safe, convenient long-term loans.

CANDLE LIGHT

"That's my last ... Looking as if she were alive."

That's the way the Ringling Art School must have felt about Helen Wilton's copy of Titian's picture of "The Queen of Cyprus" ...

It looks as if the pupil were going to follow in the footsteps of the teacher, for Helen had just become a member of Mrs. William M. ...

As far as this season's literary prizes are concerned, the National Association of American Bookdealers have certainly picked the winners. I was enthusiastic over their choice of Rachel Field's "Time Out of Mind," and I know I'll always have a permanent bias in their favor for honoring Anne Lindbergh's "North To The Orient."

The other day I was bubbling over with enthusiasm about this book, and someone said, "Be careful that you don't get stardust in your eyes."

"It's too late," I replied. "I already have when it comes to the Lindberghs."

But for that matter, why should I have qualified it? For I may as well admit that I am an incurable romanticist and take my stand with Caryle for "Hecce and Hero Worship."

In commenting upon "North To The Orient," one cannot but make some mention of the character of the person who wrote it, because this book is Anne Lindbergh. There is a quiet shyness about her, an intelligence lit by warm humanity, a disarming modesty, a genuine courage, an absolute absence of pretense and bombast.

In her preface, she explains that she has not written a technical account of a survey flight on the great circle route from New York to Tokyo, but she has not attempted to give geographical knowledge or to write a manual that could be used as a guide book. She gives as her reason for this story of their adventure that the trip held a certain magic caused by the union of modern methods and old ones of accessibility and isolation.

But through the book from the take off to the last landing, there runs another magic—that of the personality of this girl, who could fly with her husband on an unbroken track to places where no white woman had ever been seen, not as a piece of luggage, but "as crew"—this girl who always hated math, but learned how to be a licensed radio operator and fill a man's job on the trip—this girl who seemed a life preserver and jumped fearlessly into the yellow waters of the Yangtze—and yet could find the wayward in the midst of the storm in the heart of "A. I. in Wonderland."

It is this that puts a positive bloom upon "North To The Orient" for me—that in spite of her ability, her hardiness, her courage, there remains the little girl Anne who will love every day. She is always smiling up—this little girl—in the introduction when she

Dear Sir: I wish to express my appreciation of Lawyer Wilson's radio speech for Judge Pottoray and wish to say all the good words that even could be said. I, too, was born and raised in Ocala county, North Carolina, six miles from his home. I will remember the log house in which he was born, the youngest of a family of 14 children. I went to school with and was a teacher in that county for eight years with his older brother, Frank, and sister, Gertrude.

I wish to say this, that a man that the town and county of parents of such sterling worth as his could not be other than most worthy of the office he is seeking.

Mrs. Charles Marady and little daughter, Nancy Mae, are visiting this week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Clarence Moran.

Mrs. J. Fisher of New Orleans, who has been visiting her old friends in Tampa returned Tuesday accompanied by her grandson, Clay Mantle Fisher, who will make the trip home with her.

Russell Lundquist stopped over a day at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lundquist, en route to South Carolina from Dania, Russell is some better of his rheumatism.

On account of the much needed rain that came Thursday, only a few were out to the Dorcas meeting at the home of Mrs. Walfrid Pierson. ## Home Owners Rally To Nominate Hodges In First Primary

Strength of 100,000 Florida Home Owners to Play Important Role

HOMESTEAD BILL HODGES
THE HOME OWNER'S CHAMPION

One hundred thousand Home Owners, whose homes became tax free largely through the intensive efforts and campaign on the part of Wm. C. Hodges in the referendum election of November, 1934, are again rallying to the banner of their champion, "Homestead Bill," in an effort to nominate him Governor in the first primary and thereby insure their "tax free" homes against the big interests who desire to shift the tax burden back to the home owner.

The Home Owners, whose chief interest is the preservation of the Homestead Exemption, also point to their champion, "Homestead Bill," as a man of proven ability, against whom no serious charges and as an open advocate of old age and mothers' pensions. "Nominate Hodges in the first primary" has become the battle cry of these one hundred thousand Florida home owners together with the slogan: "Hodges is a past performer and not a political promoter!"

Relief 'Is Supreme Issue As Noisy Party Wrangles Precede 1936 Conventions

WASHINGTON, May 23.—(AP)—There is at least a hint of prophecy in the fact that the relief issue plays a prominent part in the final policy protests to the national political conventions.

The new tax bill may be disturbing in some industrial quarters. The farm issue may dominate the campaign in certain states. Various groups of citizens have shown special concern about the constitution. But when all is said and done, the universal issue is relief.

On the side of the Democrats, no other issue has produced such outspoken disagreement in the party ranks in Congress. No other has resulted in such open public dispute among officials of the Administration.

Among the Republicans, too, there are differences of view which it may be difficult to overcome completely. Some of the most important, however, are talking of launching the Republican campaign on the basis of a radically revised relief program, letting all other issues take secondary place for the moment.

Relief is something every voter knows about. That is the kind of issue which inevitably pushes itself to the top.

Recently a visitor to a coal mining nation brought back word to Washington that the miners and their families were not talking about the Guffey Act, nor about wages and hours or homestead projects, but about relief.

What about all of these charges of politics in the relief set-up, they asked, and would some other method of handling the problem be better?

If anyone doubts that relief has become a burning local question everywhere, he will find the proof in the columns of the daily newspapers of virtually every state in the union.

The care with which the Republican national committee recently prepared its case relating to conditions in Missouri, and the thoughtful manner in which this case was handled by the Administration, testify to the importance accorded by both sides to this far-reaching problem.

It is not that there is any dispute about the necessity for taking care of the needy. Even the ranking Republican leadership in Congress supported the new relief appropriation. But they did so after protesting that the job could much better be done some other way.

The core of the controversy is, specifically, Harry L. Hopkins' administration of the vast relief funds entrusted to him.

The under-surface conflict between the Hopkins and the Ickes schools of thought has been much more severe than the general public realizes.

Secretary Ickes has not hesitated to carry to the highest quarters his insistence that a substantial portion of relief funds be put aside for permanent public works. Those who agree with him are numerous enough in Congress so that compromise was unavoidable, but the main Mr. Hopkins still dominates.

The exact form of the Republican campaign attack remains undetermined. Many politicians doubt whether the national convention can do more than charge waste and political manipulation, and hint at some form of relief administration.

It will be for the Republican nominee to advance a tangible outline of what this proposed new approach should be. That may be, in fact, as matters stand, his first task in the campaign. Whatever he suggests is sure to provoke nationwide dispute.

And once the battle is on, can anyone think of any other issue which is likely to shoulder this one aside, so far as the ordinary voter is concerned?

New Jersey's presidential preferential primary that gave Gov. Landon of Kansas a soaring lead over Senator William E. Borah likewise returned a vote of confidence to Gov. Harold G. Hoffman. ## Playwright Must Be Poetical Fool, Says Man Who Won Pulitzer Prize

NEW YORK, May 23.—A 40-year old former cinema critic who thinks a playwright must be "something of a damn fool," has written the year's Pulitzer prize winning play.

He is Robert E. Sherwood, and his drama, inspired by those "false prophets" who insist war is inevitable, is "Idiot's Delight," a satirical condemnation of men who think only in terms of munitions and marching feet.

Writing stage hits is not a novel experience to this tall, good-natured native of New Rochelle, N. Y. He has been provoking Broadway into unrestrained hilarity since "an unshameful juvenile hero-worship of Hannibal" inspired him to write "The Road to Rome," ten years ago.

Since then he has scored with such unqualified successes as "Reunion in Vienna," in which Alfred and his wife, Lynn Kobacker, stirred on Broadway and in London, and "The Petrified Forest," last year's play which had Leslie Howard for its central character.

"To be able to write a play, for performance in a theater," says Mr. Sherwood, "a man must be sensitive, imaginative, naive, gullible, passionate; he must be something of an imbecile, something of a poet, something of a damn fool. He must be a chaser of wild geese as well as wild ducks."

Sherwood, who stands six feet four, is a Harvard man and Broadway's tallest playwright. He is married to the former Mary Brandon, of Indianapolis, and they have one daughter.

In his journalistic days Sherwood wrote screen reviews for Vanity Fair and also for Life. While employed by Vanity Fair one of his co-workers, Dorothy Parker, was dismissed after her frank critical opinion angered a Broadway manager. When Sherwood heard of this he resigned and went to Life, later becoming one of its editors.

The real germs of "Idiot's Delight" probably date back to the World War when Sherwood, as a member of Canada's famous Black Watch, got his information first hand. It was wounded at the battle of Amiens and gassed at the last battle of Arras, recovering sufficiently to be honorably discharged and shipped home.

The play itself, dedicated to and starring the Lunts is produced by the Theater Guild. Its action takes place in an Italian resort in the Alps, close to the Austrian border and concerns an American vaudeville "hooper" who is touring "the Balkan Circuit" with a bevy of Broadway blondes; a German scientist who is perfecting a cancer cure; a munitions czar who stimulates business by urging huge armaments upon distrustful nations; a renegade Frenchman who has become militantly communist; and a glamorous pseudo-Russian princess with whom, years before, the American vaudeville hooper has experienced an affair.

As the curtain rises the "next world war" breaks out, and the characters, unable to cross the border, are tossed together for a night at the inn.

Before the curtain falls on the final act, which is ostensibly 24 hours later, the Communist has been executed because of injudi-

Defends Tax Bill

Defending the Administration tax bill, Herman Oliphant, general counsel of the treasury, is shown telling the Senate finance committee that the bill was designed to place the burden "on that portion of the population where it would create the minimum remarks; the scientist has renounced his cancer experiments and heads for Germany so that his talents may be directed toward the germs that will kill enemy soldiers; the munitions magnate cunningly arranges for his Russian mistress to be "disposed" of because she has revealed her contempt for his love of carnage and the cold commercialism of his views; Italian planes have bombed Paris; and the vaudeville hooper has coaxed a confession from the Russian that it was she who knew him back in Omaha, Nebraska, years before.

Then comes reprisal from enraged France. A swarm of enemy planes swoops down on the huge airdrome near the tavern. All have fled except the American and his reclaimed amorous.

As the hotel is struck and the huge glass windows crash, the vaudeville hooper leaps to the piano. With a leer he plunges into the strains of "Onward Christian Soldiers," played in jazz time, while the earth shudders under the thunder of bursting bombs and anti-aircraft.

Fever Machine Man Accused Of Causing Ft. Lauderdale Death

FT. LAUDERDALE, May 23.—(AP)—A coroner's jury last night found Paul Edward Dettra negligent in the "cooking" death of Mrs. William C. O'Leary of Chevy Chase, Md.

Dettra previously had given Mrs. O'Leary 34 treatments in the device without serious after effects. He was working at Batt'e Creek Sanitarium, operated and founded here by Mrs. Thomas S. Jacks, as male nurse and masseur.

The fever-device resembled an operating table, and is equipped with many blankets, one of which is coarsed by electric wires to produce heat. Dr. Elliot Hendricks, of the Broward County Medical Board, testified at the inquest the device was "nothing more than a glorified heating pad."

Jim Thorpe, the famous Indian athlete, is the busiest Indian in pictures. He plays "characters."

PETTEWAY'S PROMISE:

"I do not want to make a lot of promises to do a lot of things that can not be done just to fool people into voting for me. The one promise I do make is that the people can trust me to keep faith with them."

Raleigh Petteway

He Merits Your Support and Vote

- HIS CONSTRUCTIVE PLATFORM INCLUDES:
- Environment and Home Construction.
  - Economy in Government and Tax Reduction.
  - Repeal of the Slot Machine Law.
  - Against Open Job Practice.
  - Encouragement to Tourists.
  - Full Terms for Bank.
  - Good Roads, Gas and Electric Rates and Other Economic State Institutions.
  - Sympathetic Cooperation with Organized Labor and Other Workers.

He is leading the field—deservedly!

His nearly two decades of faithful public service—backed by a blameless private life—prove his fitness for Governor.

His refusal to enter the popular type of mud-slinging campaign against personalities—his sound, constructive policies and platform—his reiterated sincerity of purposes—combine to make him the most logical and leading candidate in the race.

He is neither tied to nor owned by any individual group, faction or bloc in the politics of Florida. He is controlled only by what is right.

Florida needs a man in the responsible office of Governor who has vision, courage, conviction and ability—a man who believes a public office is a public trust.

Raleigh Petteway is such a man.

To The Voters Of Seminole County

My duties as Assistant Assessor have made it impossible for me to see each voter personally to discuss my candidacy for the office of Tax Assessor. This I regret exceedingly, but I feel that the duties of my present job come first.

I trust, however, that my official conduct as Assistant Assessor will merit your support and your vote on next Tuesday, for the office of Tax Assessor.

For Congress

A Vote for Dunn is Well Done.

MEMBER OF FLORIDA RAILROAD COMMISSION FOR 12 YEARS EVER DEFEATED. HIS RECORD HAS NEVER BEEN ATTACKED. HE SERVED THE PEOPLE — AND NOT THE SPECIAL INTERESTS.

HE IS IN FAVOR OF THE CROSS-STATE CANAL.

OF RE-IMBURSEMENT FOR DAMAGE IN ERADICATION OF FRUIT FLY.

HE IS NOT ONLY A TRIED AND TRUE DEMOCRAT, BUT IS A PROGRESSIVE DEMOCRAT.

HE IS AGAINST THE AL SMITHS, RASKOBS, LIBERTY LEAGUERS, AND ALL THOSE OF GREAT WEALTH AND POWER WHO CONSTITUTE AN INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT THAT HAVE SOUGHT TO CONTROL THIS GOVERNMENT FOR MANY YEARS.

BE NOT FOOLED, THESE INSIDIOUS FORCES THAT HAVE BEEN DRIVEN FROM POWER BY THE NEW DEAL ARE DETERMINED TO REGAIN THEIR POWER AT ALL COSTS. SOME DEMOCRATS WILL STAND BY THEM. DUNN WILL NOT. THE ESSENTIAL PROGRESSIVE PRINCIPLES OF THE NEW DEAL MUST BE PRESERVED.

DUNN IS A MAN OF THE PEOPLE, FOR THE PEOPLE, A MAN OF COURAGE AND TESTED HONESTY. HIS RECORD SHOWS IT.

ATTENTION, TOWNSEND MEMBERS

DUNN IS FOR THE TOWNSEND PLAN 1944. ANOTHER, WHO WAS ENDORSED BY A SMALL COMMITTEE OF SEVEN MEMBERS, IS CLAIMING UNITED TOWNSEND SUPPORT. THE TRUTH OF THIS SO-CALLED ENDORSEMENT IS TOLD IN A PAMPHLET WHICH SOME MEMBERS IN YOUR TOWN HAVE THIS STATEMENT OF TRUTH IS TURNING THE TOWNSEND FOLK TO DUNN. LREBSBURG HAD CHANGED OVER-NIGHT, UNMATH (WHERE THEY WERE TOLD THE TRUTH) VOTED FOR DUNN AND ONLY 3 FOR HENDRICKS. MOST FOLK LIKE JUSTICE AND FAIR PLAY. THEY ARE PLEDGING TO DUNN—A GOOD MAN AND A WINNER—AND A RESURER TO THOSE WHO DESERVE IT.
