DEATH TOLL IN CHILE WILL REACH THE THOUSAND MARK MILLIONS IN LOSS

And Several Towns Are Almost Entirely Wiped Out in Disaster

(By The Associated Press) SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 13.—Relief forces to aid the thousands made homeless by the earthquake throughout Chile Saturday morning are being mobilized today. The death toll will probably reach at least one thousand and the property loss will run into the millions as several towns are almost entirely wiped out and heavy damage to buildings and communication lines, and particularly to ships along the fourteen hundred miles of coast affected by huge tidal waves.

ANNOUNCE METHOD TO CONTROL BOLL WEEVIL DANGER

(By The Associated Press) GAINESVILLE, Fla., Nov. 13.—Development of a satisfactory method of controlling the boll weevil on short staple or upland cotton was announced here tonight by Dr. Wilmon Newell, plant commissioner for the state plant board, and director of the University of Florida Experiment Station. Dr. Newell's announcement was made as the result of research work by George D. Smith, associate entomologist, conducted under the auspices of the state plant board.

The method involves a principle in boll weevil control heretofore not recognized by other investigators, Dr. Newell stated, and he added that the total cost of the treatment, labor included, does not exceed $1.50 or $2 an acre. In the fields treated, the cotton crop in nearly every instance has been as large as that obtained prior to the advent of the weevil.

While some poison is used, the amount is comparatively small, Dr. Newell said. By means of the improved method a cotton field is cleared of practically all boll weevil early in June and remains in that condition for several weeks. During this period a good crop of bolls is set without weevil interference.

Both the state plant board and the experiment station will issue immediately bulletins on the improved method of control.

"The boll weevil's weak point has now been found," declared Dr. Newell, "and by this method of control the farmer will be able to hand him a solar plexus blow. The treated fields have produced just about as much cotton as if there had been no boll weevils. The return of profitable short staple cotton culture in Florida is now assured."

The negress admitted the encounter today but declared she was not the aggressor, adding she harbored no ill will toward Mrs. Gibson.

LEADERSHIP IN CONGRESS BEING DISCUSSED TODAY IN WASHINGTON CIRCLES

Looks Like Simmons of North Carolina Will Lead the Democrats

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Probable changes in the leadership of both great parties in the next congress took a predominating place today in post-election discussions here and in conferences among members of Senate and House as they arrived in increasing numbers for the extra session which begins a week from Monday.

Agreement was general that sweeping alterations would occur in the roster of titular party managers after March 4 in both Senate and House, and it became apparent that the impending readjustments would be a subject for continual negotiation and jockeying throughout the next four months.

Defeat of Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican, floor leader of the House, in his campaign for reelection to the Senate, retirement from the Democratic House leadership of Representative Kitchen of North Carolina, because of ill health, and announcement by Senator Underwood of Alabama that he would not accept reelection as Democratic Senate leader, made it certain that new selections must be made for three of the chief places of party responsibility. That other changes may be made for political and other reasons cannot be the subject of wide discussion among senators and representatives.

Already a plethora of aspirants for leadership are springing up at both ends of the capital, and there has been much political soundings out of sentiment during impromptu office and lunch room conferences. Some political observers will be surprised if the later stages of the canvass do not develop heated rivalries and personal campaigning with both parties.

The party canvasses in which the question of leadership will be settled are expected to be held until the eve of the convening of the new congress, but the situation is further obscured by uncertainty as to when that will take place. Ordinarily the sixty-eighth congress would not meet until a year from next December. Should an extra session become necessary after the present Senate and House expire next March, however, the leadership shake-up would be advanced accordingly.

In the Senate, Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader, was re-elected, and his friends here expect him to seek to hold his leadership. They express confidence of his reelection, but add that, like Senator Underwood, he is not in the best of health and may finally withdraw his name and conserve his strength for other duties. Whether the Republican "irregulars" of the progressive or radical type would oppose Mr. Lodge's reelection is uncertain, but is regarded as an important factor in view of general opinion that they will hold the balance of power in the next Senate as well as House.

If Mr. Lodge should relinquish the Republican leadership, a half dozen candidates are in prospect. Among those prominently mentioned for the place are Senators Curtis of Kansas, Watson of Indiana, Wadsworth of New York, and Jones of Washington. One of these is said already to have a dozen or more senators virtually pledged to support him in event of Senator Lodge's retirement.

On the Democratic side, the men mentioned as possible successors of Senator Underwood for the minority leadership include Senators Simmons of North Carolina, Robinson of Arkansas, Walsh of Massachusetts, Harrison of Mississippi, and Walsh of Montana. Under established precedent Senator Simmons has the "ball" for the place under the custom of electing as leader the ranking senator at point of service, and word went out today that Senator Simmons probably would be a candidate.

Herald Will Issue Big Trade Edition on November 28th

Something That Will Be Good to Send to Your Friends and Will Stimulate Business

There has been no big fall edition of the Daily Herald this year as we have been waiting for the installation of the big new Duplex press to get out something good. It has been a long time since the Herald issued a trade edition and there is so much in vital statistics that should be printed just now that the big edition will cover a wide field as well as forming a good fall booster edition for the merchants.

If all our plans materialize this paper will issue a big trade edition about the 28th of November which will combine our anniversary number, our fall edition and our Thanksgiving number all in one and will also be an edition that you can send your friends in the northern states for vital information about Sanford and Seminole county. The time is short and we are very very busy with the installation of all new machinery and equipment that will make the Herald office one of the most complete in Florida but we will arrange the big trade edition in newspaper style and give some pertinent facts about the city and county that will be well worth while and will give our section the right kind of publicity.

Memorial Exercises At Central Park Were Impressive

Dr. King Gave Assemblage a Fine Memorial Address

The memorial part of Armistice Day in Sanford was not neglected Saturday and in the morning just before the parade started the American Legion members, the Machine Gun Company and Hospital Corps and the Spanish War Veterans headed by the 154th Regimental Band, marched to the Central Park where the memorial shaft to the fallen dead was decorated with a beautiful wreath of flowers. Dr. King, of the Baptist church, made the memorial address and called attention to the sacredness of Armistice Day as a tribute to the boys who had given their life in "this great struggle to make the world safe for all times to come. Dr. King's address was one of the finest ever delivered upon such an occasion and the exercises were beautiful in a well arranged program. The memorial exercises of Armistice Day are a great comfort to those who have lost their loved ones and should be given more and more prominence upon the programs of this day even though the official Memorial days come in April and May.

LETTUCE STARTS MOVING TO NORTHERN MARKETS FROM SANFORD SECTION

FIRE RAGING IN OIL FIELDS OF GULF COAST

THREE-QUARTER MILLION BARRELS ARE NOW BURNING IN TEXAS FIELDS

(By The Associated Press) HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 13.—The most disastrous fire in twenty-one years history of the Gulf coast oil fields is now raging in Humble sector, 17 miles northeast of Houston. Three-quarters millions barrels of oil now burning and with stiff wind from the north fully two million barrels are endangered. During a storm Sunday night lightning struck a storage tank and fired it. The tank contained more than half a million barrels of oil. Today the tank adjoining, containing nearly three hundred thousand barrels, took fire.

Knights of Columbus Install New Officers

With Many Prominent State Officials Here Sunday

One of the most impressive ceremonies of the Knights of Columbus in this state was the installation of officers and this installation took place in the K. of C. hall last night before an exceptionally large crowd of the local and visiting Knights.

State Deputy C. R. Rogers of St. Augustine was in charge of the work and with his able staff of assistants he installed the newly elected officers for this term, after which he delivered the address of the evening. Mr. Rogers is a very impressive speaker and held his audience spellbound throughout his talk, and left impressions on his listeners that will linger with them for days to come.

Mr. Rogers, employed in the government service at St. Augustine, and one of the most prominent men in K. of C. circles of the state of Florida, in paying this, his first official visit to Sanford, was very much impressed with the progress being made by the local council, and made the prediction that Sanford, with its fast growing town, would some day soon be supporting one of the most active, largest and prosperous Councils of the state.

Another one of the most prominent in state circles was A. J. Salano, a retired banker of St. Augustine, who, besides lending valuable assistance as the chief member of the staff, also made a talk that was especially interesting to the members of the American Legion. Mr. Salano told of his trip and experience while at the Legion convention at New Orleans, laid stress on the fact that the Knights of Columbus of New Orleans were right behind the American Legion boys during the invasion as they were behind the boys while in the service. He also told of experiences with the "shimmy dancers" while on an excursion boat, and other amusing events that took place at the time, and all in all, rendered a talk that was most interesting.

After the installation of officers and close of the evening's program, the majority of Knights and visitors retired to one of the hotels where a fine spread was laid, that kept the crowd busy until a late hour.

Mr. Rogers and his staff leave this afternoon for Orlando, where he will pay the Orlando Council an official visit and later in the evening be present at the address to be given by Bishop Barry of the St. Augustine diocese.

The following officers were installed for this term: Chas. L. Britt, grand knight; S. A. Rivo, deputy grand knight; A. M. Lees, financial secretary; J. F. Wathen, recording secretary; Peter Schaal, treasurer; Paul Pexold, chancellor; Harry Walsh, advocate; Richard Hoolehan, warden; Frank Takach and Martin Temple, guards; E. C. Bigler, lecturer; Ed. Higgins, trustee, and Rev. Father Hennessy, chaplain.

MUCH LARGER CROP THIS YEAR GIVES PROMISE OF GOOD RETURNS

COOL WEATHER

Is Needed Now to Make Perfect Heads But Crop Is Looking Very Fine

Lettuce will now reign as the queen of the Sanford section for the next month or so and the success of her reign depends almost entirely upon the cold weather. The cool nights and mornings of the past week have worked wonders in the lettuce fields and while it has not been cold enough to head it up as it should be headed to be prime stuff there will be a car go out today shipped by Felix Frank that is said to be good for this season and there will be others to follow. Partin Bros., at Wagner, will cut tomorrow and their stuff is said to be very good and many in the Sanford section will start cutting if the weather gets cool in the next few days. A car of romaine will also go out today or tomorrow and the money will soon be rolling this way. Those growers and shippers who have been in the north report conditions as very favorable in the northern markets for everything we can raise this year as the industries have all started full force and all who want work can get it and they will be more money this year than last during the winter season.

The following article in the Florida Grower of Saturday about the Sanford section is worth reproducing:

"The cool nights and warm days have a good effect on the lettuce crops especially since the heavy rains have ceased and the Sanford lettuce crop gives great promise of a fine yield and with cold weather in the next ten days to head it up there will be some money made here on this crop. A car load of lettuce was shipped Wednesday that was ready to go and while not headed up or fancy in any respect was cut and shipped and the returns are not known but the market is said to be very good and is waiting for the Florida crop. The lettuce crop this year is greater than that of last year despite the predictions of many that there would be less acreage planted this season. Last year there were 500 acres in lettuce and this year there are 789 acres.

"The celery looks fairly good but needs cooler weather as the continued east winds that have prevailed for six weeks have not helped the lettuce or celery crops any and some of the celery is being sprayed this week to keep down the blight. The celery has not made as much progress as it should but like the lettuce will come out fine as soon as the cold weather comes. There is much more celery planted here this season than last. The actual figures up to date being 1,490 acres as against 800 of last season.

"With the larger acreage in both celery and lettuce the prospects for a market are very bright providing the weather remains cool and the growers are very optimistic over the outlook. "Continued fine growing weather during the past week has brought some lettuce that was considered almost worthless out in good growing condition and it now looks as though the loss due to heavy rains the past month would not exceed twenty per cent. Some small shipments of lettuce will no doubt start between the 15th and 20th of this month.

"Celery continues to be set in the field at more than normal rate and it looks as if the acreage will be limited only by the plants and land available as there seems to be an inclination on the part of the grower to put in all of the celery that he can.

"A few buyers and solicitors from northern commission houses are already on the ground and the local associations and dealers are preparing for the biggest season in the history of Sanford, so far as volume is concerned."

Mrs. B. G. Smith and Mrs. Theo. Aulin, of Oviedo, were in the city today and report Oviedo as being in the best of shape with the fruit and vegetable growers looking forward to a most prosperous season.

BIG CELEBRATION STARTS WITH A GRAND PARADE—THOUSANDS OF VISITORS

car was decorated in moss and red flowers.

The Knight Templars as usual made a fine appearance having some forty men in line under the command of Eminent Commander Hamel Tolar and they also had the honor of the company of Grand Commander of Florida, Sam Johnson, of Orlando, who rode in the parade, being too ill to march and making the trip just to be with the Sanford Templars.

The Kiwanis float was beautiful, being decorated in pure white background of tissue leaves and trimmed with big yellow chrysanthemums and having the blue and white effect—the club colors and the Kiwanis emblem and the name "Kiwanis" in big blue letters on the side of the float. In the car rode Mrs. Ed. Lane, driving, Mrs. S. M. Lloyd, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. James Sharon dressed in white throughout and with white hats trimmed in blue.

The Seminole County Game Protective Association had a very good exposition of the association, the car being trimmed in palms and moss and with hides of animals hanging on the sides and guns and dogs and fishing tackle of all kinds on the sides. In the car were Tom Williams and Billy Parker and Jack Parker.

The Fernald Loughton Hospital created much favorable comment, the sweet young lady nurses in their white uniforms really performing their duties true to life, and they had two live babies in the little beds peacefully sleeping, guarded by Miss Dietrich and Miss Tarbell, while Miss Frances Chappelle gave the bath to a big doll baby. The float was all in white.

The Catholic Women's League car, in gold and blue trimmings, contained Mrs. Hines, Miss Takach, Mrs. Wathen, Mrs. Fellows and Mrs. Holt. The Ladies' Band was resplendent in a big float built in the shape of a ship under the command of Bandmaster Ball and driven by Billy Hoffman. The ladies were nifty in white tam o' shanter caps and white middie dresses, and they not only made splendid music but they looked the part. There were twenty-one of them.

The Sanford Shrine Club rode in three cars and, as usual, looked very distinguished in their red fezzes.

Elder Springs Water and Lord's Party Water, with a big display of bottles, demonstrated that Sanford has plenty of good, pure water.

The Elks' car was well decorated in the Elks' colors of white and purple and had the big natural Elk head on the float, the car being driven by Fred Dorner. It was followed by a car driven by Evald Ruler Dr. Marshall and Mrs. Marshall, and decorated in white and purple.

The Rotary Club had a car decorated in their colors of blue and gold and driven by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, accompanied by Mrs. E. F. Householder.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs had two cars well decorated and containing the lady members of the Rebekahs. The Rebekah car had an old-fashioned well and sweep representing Rebekah at the well, and the car was very pretty throughout.

One of the prettiest and certainly one of the most complete cars in the parade was the Woman's Club car. It was designed as a huge basket of flowers being done in green tissue paper that covered every part of the car, with a big handle in the center for the basket. The decorations were red roses, the club flower, and the car carrying out the club colors of green and red. In the car and wearing green tissue hats as flowers in the basket the ladies represented the following departments of the club: Mrs. Sara Mero, social; Mrs. Kenneth Murrell, literature; Helen Terwilliger, music; Mary Zachary, welfare. The car was driven by the president of the Woman's Club, Mrs. R. E. Tolar, and it was not only a work of art but was beautiful from every standpoint.

The K. of C. car in red, white and blue contained several members of the order and was driven in fine style by Harry Walsh, late of Michigan. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew car, in vivid red and green, attracted attention and was filled with boys of the chapter.

Lloyd's Shoe Store car, the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, the Sanford football team of the high school, the B. & O. garage, the Sanford Steam Pressery, the Grade A Coffee, Kim Milk, Kent Vulcanizing Works, Oakland cars, and several other cars representing Sanford business houses followed.

A complete bungalow on wheels attracted much attention, being the idea of W. C. Hill, of the lumber company, and S. O. Shindler, the architect. The bungalow contained two little girls as housekeepers and the float was a good one from every angle.

The colored Red Cross and K. of P. lodges were also in the parade bringing up the rear and joining the parade on Sanford avenue.

There were hundreds of cars in the parade, and it was almost impossible to get them all, but they made a fine appearance and elicited much praise from all who witnessed the parade.

One of the nicest floats was Miss Lady's Hat Shoppe, the float being in pure white and trimmings and with a large white hat box on the car and it looked the part in every detail. The car was driven by Miss Margaret Brane and in the car was the manager of the Shoppe, Miss Catherine Downing.

Armistice Day was a great day for Sanford.

And again demonstrated that Campbell-Lossing Post American Legion knows how to put on these big days.

We would suggest that they start earlier next season and put on the whole show and keep all the money at home.

Tampa is organizing another boat line from Tampa to New Orleans. Florida is waking up to her possibilities as a water transportation state.

The Herald is glad to note that several capitalists from other states are here to build apartment houses in Sanford.

ELECTION FOOLISHNESS

Sanford is the wonder city to all those who have been away for six months or more and are coming back for a visit.

The Herald office is all torn up this week installing the big Duplex press that will soon be turning out The Daily Herald every page for and supplying the started word in general with a real live newspaper.

There is something that is being passed up on Armistice Day, and that is the firecrackers and other noise makers.

Seminole county did herself proud yesterday on the Red Cross roll call and especially in Sanford did the people respond nobly to the call.

The Herald has long contended that getting heated up over politics never gets you anywhere.

measure or some candidate, and after the election is over they go back to sleep again. Stirring up partisan strife never helped a city or county or state.

Our city election Tuesday furnished a striking evidence that the people as a whole are not using their sober judgment.

The people who participated in the city election Tuesday are one people. Their interests are one and the same.

There was not even a party issue at stake.

Yet our people divided into two camps—and we believe we might say hostile camps.

Not only neighbors were divided, but even near relatives.

And what for? Who can analyze it?

Why did half the people think the town was going to the bow-wows if certain candidates were elected?

Why was the other half just as certain the town was going to the devil if the other candidates were elected?

There was not a candidate on the ticket that these same voters had not confidence in when it comes to his or her business integrity.

We can understand why every voter had his or her personal preference, but why the fierceness of the fight?

NEXT YEAR'S ARMISTICE DAY

It is not too early to think about next year's Armistice Day, and the veterans and the people generally should keep it in mind and have new suggestions for next year that will turn them over.

The Armistice Day celebration for 1922 is a matter of history. It was a great affair, from the start, to the last strains of the last dance music that night.

But how about the celebration next year?

If we go to work with the same degree of enthusiasm that we are talking, Tampa will join with the World War veterans, under the lead of the American Legion in dedicating, formally, its big memorial auditorium.

How are we going to do it? A big organization has been formed for the purpose of success in the air, all that is needed is to keep going forward.

FLORIDA SHOULD HAVE PROPER PUBLICITY

Especially is there great need in Florida for a propaganda of publicity if the state would gain a growth in every way commensurate with the possibilities to be found here.

Each time there is discussed the matter of advertising the state there are brought out facts regarding the accomplishments achieved in California during her years of campaigning in a like direction.

The Herald has long contended that getting heated up over politics never gets you anywhere.

the men who have made that state their home through investigation as a result of it California has forged ahead wonderfully.

For years Florida has maintained a campaign of silence regarding the advantages to be found in the state. There has been a decidedly apathetic condition existing—so far as the state as a whole is concerned—towards attracting new people, new ideas, new plans and purposes, new capital.

There is now a determined effort to bring about some statewide publicity, but, frankly, one suggestion made at the Orlando meeting was not one which will appeal, and not one which will be resultant in the accomplishment of what is desired.

There is but one just way to raise money for purposes of this nature—whether the funds are needed for a strictly local nature, for a county, or for an entire state.

Then will be obtained figures upon which to base outlays and expenditures, and matters can then be so arranged that there will be no possible possibility of any county or any county.

RAISE THE FUNDS FOR THIS PROPAGANDA BY STATE TAXATION LET THE NEXT LEGISLATURE MAKE THE PROPER ARRANGEMENTS FOR SUCH AN INNOVATION IN THE MEANTIME THERE WILL PROBABLY BE DONE ONLY WHAT THE VARIOUS COUNTIES THROUGHOUT THE STATE HAVE DONE IN THE PAST.

DAYTONA LINE CRUMBLES BEFORE FAST SANFORD TEAM

Sanford Adds Another Victory, the Score Being 69 to 0

(By Charles Britt)

Playing in an easy fashion, using string men in the latter part of the game, the Sanford team outplayed, out-manuevered and outwitted the Daytona boys, and swept under a 69 to 0 defeat before the largest crowds ever witnessing a football game in Sanford, on Saturday afternoon.

Sanford used many different kinds of plays, formations, etc., and at the end of the game they had Daytona wondering what was coming.

The Sanford line was like that of the rocks; was always in the proper place and by so doing rendered able assistance to the back field, bringing the back field to make many impossible plays that were only responsible for the large number of touchdowns that the Calery Peds piled up. Daytona line was like so much paper. Throughout the entire game, the Sanford boys got through the line at will, made it almost impossible for the Daytona backfield to make a play and Daytona, not only being able to cross the goal, but were unable to make one first down. Sanford scored in every period of the game. In the first quarter, Bill Moye led the pigskin across for the first time down and Sweeney followed him with a second. Both attempts at goal were missed.

In the second period that Sanford piled up the biggest number of points, scoring four touchdowns, making two of their tries for goal. Lucas, always bobbing up in the place as usual, recovered a fumbled ball on Daytona's twenty-yard line and zig-zagged his way through the line to the goal. Stone, received the first forward pass from McLucas, and the second touchdown carrying all from the thirty yard line. McLucas hitting the line on the first down scored the third touchdown during the period, while "Preacher" King, giving another perfect forward pass, scored the last touchdown of the game.

the period from the twenty-five yard line.

The third period was a McLucas period, he scoring two of the three touchdowns. The first two touchdowns were made in the first three minutes of play. McLucas, pulling one of Sanford's new trick plays carried the ball around the right end while the entire Daytona team was chasing some one going around the left end. Finding a clear field ahead he walked across and then in less than two minutes afterwards he zig-zagged his way through the entire team, stumbled three or four times, but at last fell across the line for the second touchdown of that period. Bill Moye scored his second touch down of the game with about four seconds of play left in the third quarter.

The fourth period found the second string men in the game, but Daytona was so far gone that they couldn't tell the difference, and the consequences were that the second string men scored two more touchdowns with Lee Peek's assistance. Lee, the only first string man in the back field, after Fields, Gunter and other substitutes carried the ball to the five yard line, carried it across and Gunter followed him shortly afterwards for the last touch down of the game. The game ended with the ball on Daytona's five yard line.

Sanford will play in Miami this week, according to the advance dope given out by the Chamber of Commerce or some Sanford organization will back them with enough finances to get them there. Miami pays Sanford $100 for the trip, but the Sanford boys must have an advance large enough to get them there.

The score by period was as follows:

Sanford	14	20	15	11	60

Scoring touchdowns: Sanford, McLucas 2, Sweeney, McLucas 1, Stone, King, Peek and Gunter.

SPIRIT OF CO-OPERATION REACHING THE FARM AND THE HOME

Co-operation is getting to be popular. Merchants agree to close their doors together at a certain time. Bankers combine and lend assistance to needy and worthy individuals and organizations. Different business concerns are finding it to their advantage—and to the advantage of the general public—to work together.

Now, and some will say last of all, come farmers and farm women, having caught the spirit of "helping others" or "so working that others can work with you." Instances are frequent where farmers are "co-operatively purchasing" or "co-operatively selling" farm supplies or products. And farm women, too, are doing things together.

The great thing about it is the spirit which accompanies the actual transaction, although too much cannot be said for the material advantages. But without that spirit, which makes better citizens of the participants, the practice would not be so strongly commended.

An instance of this co-operation among farm women is found in the report of Miss Gladys Smith, nutrition specialist of the home demonstration extension work in Florida, in which she speaks of a visit to Lee county. Quoting from her report:

"The woman's council met on October 17. It was quite an inspiration to see so many women sincerely interested in community problems and determined to lend their united efforts toward working them out. The fair committee is furnishing standard containers to women who will fill them for the Lee county fair. The jars will come back to the women to be used in the various community booths at the county fair. The council is planning a woman's exchange for Ft. Myers to enable its members to dispose of surplus products. This will supplement the curb market supported there during the trucking season.

SEMINOLE COUNTY ANXIOUS FOR BRIDGE

At the meeting of the board of county commissioners held in DeLand yesterday a proposition was presented from the board of county commissioners of Seminole county to build the proposed bridge across the St. Johns river to replace the Osteen ferry, that county to bear the complete expense of the construction of the bridge, with the understanding that this special road and bridge district will reimburse Seminole county for one half the expense. The proposition is that the completed bridge will cost approximately $17,250, and Volusia county is given the opportunity to return one half of this amount in annual payments, stretched over as many years as this county desires. In this proposition Volusia county is asked to bear the expense of a bridge tender and keep up the repairs on the bridge, one half of which is to be taken out of the final settlement with Seminole county.

No definite action on this proposition was taken by the Volusia board, as Commissioner Beck asked time to confer with people in various sections of this district on the proposition. New Smyrna News.
