COBLENZ, Oct. 25.—Rhineland republic proclaimed this morning at former quarters of American forces in Germany in Andernach, ten miles northwest of Coblenz. Also proclaimed at Archweiler, Soden, Birel and Gaistesheim, small towns situated respectively in districts of Wiesbaden, Born and Rudesheim.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Central News dispatch received from Berlin after 3 o'clock this afternoon, says large bands of communists are marching on the German capital and that the police have been rushed out to intercept them.

AIX LA CHAPPELLE, Oct. 25.—Police this morning attacked Regiering palace, only remaining public building in the hands of Separatists. Five policemen and two Separatist were killed during the fusillade. Later 35 members of the police force called at Belgian military headquarters and requested they be dismissed.

COLOGNE, Oct. 25.—Clashes occurred this morning between armed civilians and Separatists in Crefeld following the hoisting of the republican flag over Rathaus, according to reports reaching Cologne. Separatists say they are 4,000 strong in Crefeld but the Belgian officers estimate their number at about 1,700.

COBLENZ, Oct. 25.—The position of the separatists at the close of the fourth day since the proclamation of a Rhineland republic at Aix La Chappelle, is little improved, they nominally holding about one fourth of the territories under foreign occupation.
Today, however, was marked by the republicans' most signal and costly victory at Krefeld, where twelve separists were killed and fifty wounded, and the peaceful occupation of Mul-heim, and a few villages, in the vicinity of Trier (Treves).

In many instances the occupation has been limited to the confines of the city halls with the garrisons on the defensive, fighting not only for the existence of the republic, but for their own very lives.

The failure of the separatists at Mayence and Coblenz, which were counted upon as certain adherents, of important centers, the increasing effectiveness of the reactionaries' defenses and evidence of haphazard plans of a poorly organized party, itself rent, with internal dissensions, in a prematurely launched movement made it appear doomed unless a change of attitude occurs on the part of the separatists, which is not likely.

With Joseph Mathes, a member of the separatists' directory for a Rhineland republic in flight from his chosen capital after that city had declined with more than thanks the honor thrust upon it, Coblenz tonight is the eternal capital of a phantom state.
Duren, Trier, Duisburg and Mulheim are the only cities of any importance in the hands of the separatists this evening, but they are also remaining in normal control of Wiesbaden and Bonn, both of which are under martial law, with the French troops keeping order.

Calin has been restored at Aix La Chappelle, with the separatists thoroughly whipped in the cradle of their

Young Man Killed By Fall From Wagon When Team Ran

Distressing Accident Occurred On Beardall Avenue Yesterday Afternoon

While driving a team of mules hitched to a wagon containing a load of crate materials yesterday afternoon the mules became frightened and ran away throwing the driver Arnold D. Bellows from the wagon and injuring him so badly that he died later after he was brought to this city and before he could get medical attention.

The young man was born in Good-ground, Long Island, March 25th, 1898 and was twenty-five years of age at the time of his death. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Tuttle of Celery avenue who some time ago purchased the Rayner place and who have been residing here for the past year. He leaves three brothers to mourn his loss and the sympathy of the community is extended to the parents and family in their loss of the young man who was just in the prime of young manhood.

The funeral services will take place at the Baptist church at two o'clock today Dr. King officiating and interment will be made in Lake View cemetery.

SEN. UNDERWOOD OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR PRESIDENT

Says Our Leadership In Foreign Affairs
Threatened

(By The Associated Press)
DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 25.—Senator Underwood, of Alabama, candidate for Democratic presidential nomination, declared in an address at state fair here, America has surrendered the leadership in world affairs and losing herself in partisan politics.
The plain duty that lies ahead is to return to the principles guiding America in a great war and to have and exercise definite governmental policy in Europe. He opened his presidential campaign at Nacona, Texas, yesterday.

The intervention of French troops at Coblenz and Mayence provided the salvation of the lives of the local leaders in the attempt to install a republic.
At Viersen, a city of 30,000 inhabitants in the vicinity of unchen-Gladbach, the separatists hold the city hall. In many cases the occupation of the city halls is proving useless, as the occupants are unable to organize local governments and the cities are floundering helplessly without effective heads, lack of cohesion, recognized authority and communication with the nominal capital Duren.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A dispatch says communists are assembling in strong force in Iichtenberger district of Berlin, but that police have surrounded the whole neighborhood, and are not allowing any one to pass through their cordon. Serious trouble is expected tonight, the message adds.

STATE ROAD DEPARTMENT MEETING WILL BE HELD IN STATE CAPITOL TODAY

Big Crowd Present To Present Their Claims Call For More Room

PUTTING THE QUESTION SQUARE BEFORE THE PEOPLE

(By The Associated Press)
TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 25.— When members of the board of the state road department meet here tomorrow in regular quarterly session, they probably will find the delegation representing different parts of the state so numerous and so large that larger quarters than are provided in the department's headquarters here will be necessary to accommodate those wishing to present claims for the board's consideration. It has been suggested that the sessions will be held in the house of representatives chambers of the State Capitol.

The latest move on foot to have a large attendance of good roads advocates here was started a few days ago by the Jacksonville Motor Club.
S. H. Walthall, managing secretary of that organization, sent out letters to about commercial bodies along the east coast urging that numbers of representatives make the trip to Tallahassee to support appeals to the road department as to the necessity of improving the Waycross Road and State Road No. 3.

A meeting was held in Green Cove Springs last month in the interest of completing Road No. 3, which was attended by delegates from five counties who promised to be here for the quarterly meeting. The Jacksonville Motor Club has appealed to them to meet at Jacksonville and be prepared to join an automobile party that plans to leave that city at 10 a. m., October 26, for the capital city. The party is expected to number 200 persons.

In addition to the Jacksonville party, large delegations also are expected to be present from the South Florida that was perfected at Tampa several weeks ago by representatives from eleven counties in that section, for the avowed purpose of journeying to Tallahassee and put in claims for a full share of road funds for that part of the state.
These organizations will find on the ground members of the newly-organized State Road No. 1 Association which came into existence a couple of weeks ago when leading business men and farmers from twenty-two north and west Florida met in Tallahassee to lay plans for bringing speedier work, if possible, on the Old Spanish trail, which is known as State Road No. 1, extending from Jacksonville to Nunez Ferry, 18 miles above Pensacola on the Alabama line.
This association will have ready for presentation, when the road department throws its doors open to hear delegations on Saturday, the 27th, resolutions among other things that Road No. 1 be taken over and maintained by the road department, and that its completion be pushed as much as possible.
The road department chairman, Judge H. B. Phillips, has announced that the first day of the meeting will be devoted to department matters, and that the delegations will not be heard until Saturday. Among the outstanding departmental matters to be passed on will be the naming of a state highway engineer to succeed William F. Cooke, who turned in his resignation at the last meeting. It is understood that several applications have been received for the place. J. L.
Cresap, assistant under Cooke, has been acting as chief engineer since about September.

GOOD ROADS ENTHUSIASTS WILL MEET IN TALLAHASSEE WITH STATE ROAD DEPARTMENT

Secretary Brown Urges Everyone To Get Busy And Be There

The time for action is near at hand.
The State Road Department will meet in Tallahassee on Friday and Saturday, October 26th and 27th, and this committee will be heard on the 27th, but the committee must organize and certain preliminary work must be accomplished on the 26th.

Therefore, it is planned for the committee to meet in the lobby of the Cherokee Hotel at 4 p. m., Friday, the 26th, necessitating leaving Jacksonville not later than Seaboard Air Line train No. 87 at 9 a. m. on the 26th.

This committee promised to attend 100 per cent when selected by its 5000 state road No. 3 enthusiasts at the Green Cove Springs Road Rally, the greatest road rally ever pulled off in Florida in both enthusiasm and in numbers, showing in a definite manner the desires of the people as regards this most important road.

Clay county has fulfilled the requirements imposed upon her by this committee. Her board of county commissioners has complied with the requests of this committee by agreeing to turn over $20,000.00 derived from gasoline tax to apply on construction costs of this road.

Seventy-five per cent of the freeholders of Clay county have signed a petition agreeing to bond for $75, 000.00 to apply on the construction of this road in Clay county under the

BEAUTIFICATION OF HIGHWAYS BIG MEETING

At Orlando Yesterday And Today With Motorcade

ORLANDO, Oct. 25.—With more than 200 in attendance from fourteen counties, representing chambers of commerce, women's beautification commissions and other bodies, the state convention on beautification was held in Orlando yesterday. The meeting was called by the Florida development board, under the direction of their committee on highway beautification, the committee consisting of Karl Lehman of Orlando, chairman; Doyle Carlton of Tampa; Mrs. A. B.
Whitman of Orlando; H. Harold Hume of Glen St. Mary; C. G. Mc-Clure of Fort Myers, and Willis B.
Powell of Tavares.

The courtroom at Orlando, where the convention was held, was a bower of a tropical beauty, through the work of the decorating committee, of which M. J. Daetwyler was chairman.
Four truckloads of palms, bougain-villea and other potted and cut plants, were tastefully arranged in the large room. Roses and other flowers were pinned on each delegate as they entered the convention.

"Swat the skin and save the scenery" was a frequent reference throughout the many excellent addresses of the day.

Mrs. H. N. Stanton of Fort Pierce, chairman of the St. Lucie county beautification committee, responded graciously to the welcome address of Mayor E. C. Duckworth.

S. Kendrick Guernsey of Orlando and C. W. Williams of Eustis were the song leaders in the convention.
Among the speakers from the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs were its president, Miss Elizabeth Skinner of Dunedin; chairman of the highway improvement committee, Mrs. E. L. Schumacher, of Eustis, and chairman of conservation, Mrs.
A. B. Whitman, of Orlando, each of whom gave inspiring and practical addresses.

Mrs. Lilla M. White, of Jacksonville spoke for the garden clubs of the state on auxiliary garden week November 4 to 11.

Carl McClure of Fort Myers gave a splendid address, representing the Florida Realtors' Association, advocating 100-foot rights-of-way for Florida roads and strenuous and active work in beautification.

Major Charles A. Browne, Orange county's highway engineer, was most helpful, not only in his splendid address last night, but also in participation in discussions and charts displayed.

Prof. H. Harold Hume of Glen St.
Mary, gave a most valuable address last night on beautification and civic pride. It was packed full of the finest possible suggestions.

J. F. Kirkland of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad spoke of the work in beautifying railroad station grounds and what had been accomplished along that line.

The stereopticon slides shown on what had been already accomplished in Florida in beautification, was a distinct revelation to many present, and showed the possibilities in this work in Florida.

Appreciating the honor of working

WALTON REFUSES TO GO FROM GOVERNOR'S CHAIR IN OKLAHOMA STATE

Underwood
Throws Hat
In The Ring

NOCONA, Texas, Oct. 25.—Senator Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, formally opened his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination here this afternoon.

From the platform of his train here he said:

"I have come to ask something of you; I have led the Democratic party in both Houses of Congress for years.
I am a southern man, bred and born.
We are approaching the time when Democratic party must name the man to carry its banner in the next election. It has been eighty years since the South carried the banner of democracy. It has been eighty years since the south elected a president of the United States.

"I am going to give the south a chance to elect a southern man to carry the banner of democracy. The south must assert itself and I believe if the south asks, the great democratic north will recognize the right for you to carry the banner yourself.

"If you don't think I am the man to carry this banner, send your delegation to the convention pledged for another southern man, but let him be a southern man."

The senator left the train which brought him from Denison at all stops. Crowds met the train and the senator exchanged greetings with those at the stations. His only speech between Denison and Wichita Falls was a brief one at this town.

HOUSE MEMBERS LAUNCH ATTACK ON CALLAHAN

Oklahoma House Scene
Of Rough and Tumble
Today

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25.—A dozen or more house members fore-bly attacked Representative Callahan, smashed a chair and threw him out of the room when he declared in bitter arraignment of Ku Klux Klan that N. C. Jewett, grand dragon of Oklahoma realm—was dictating the kind of legislation to be enacted in Oklahoma. Hardly had he spoken when one member jumped at his throat shouting "that's a black lie." They fell to the floor in scuffle. Other members rushed at Callahan. Finally he pushed through door into the cloakroom where two members guarded him while the sergeant-at-arms ordered other members to return to the chamber.

OPENS BATTLE TODAY WITH CASE IN THE COURTS

HEARING TODAY

To Find Out Who Is Empowered Governor of The State

(By The Associated Press) OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 25.—With seven counts against him in the impeachment bill being perfected by the lower house of the Oklahoma legislature, Governor J. C. Walton last night continued his refusal to recognize the authority of the senate resolution to suspend him and awaited a hearing in state supreme court today to determine whether he or Lieutenant Governor M. E. Trapp is the legally empowered chief executive of the state.

The house yesterday approved five articles in the impeachment bill, bringing the total to seven. Every charge thus far considered has been approved by heavy majorities.

The governor last night stands accused of:

Diversion of public funds to his private use.

Prohibiting the convening of a legally ordered grand jury.

Use of his official influence to acquire private credit and property.

Accepting a bribe to approve a legislative bill.

Suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

Unlawfully preventing a meeting of the state legislature.

Attempted prevention of a special state election in violation of law.

After a long conference with his attorneys, Governor Walton opened the court action to settle the question of who is governor by filing in district court an application for an injunction against Lieutenant Governor Tripp to restrain him from assuming the duties of the executive office.

Judge Tom G. Chambers, who was appointed by the government, issued a temporary writ against the Lieutenant Governor and set today for the hearing.

Scarcely an hour later General Short went to the state supreme court with his application for the writ of prohibition against Governor Walton and Judge Chambers; and the temporary order was issued after a brief oral presentation of the case.
Attorney General Short said he represented Lieutenant Governor Trapp as the acting governor.

In the senate, plans went forward rapidly for the impeachment trial.
With Chief Justice J. T. Johnson, of the state supreme court, presiding, the senate late yesterday organized as a court of impeachment and instructed a committee to perfect rules of procedure which are to be passed on today.

It was indicated that the senate may set a date for the trial and then adjourn until the house completes its consideration of the remaining charges in the committee draft of the impeachment bill.

The way for possible criminal action in connection with matters investigated by the house committee was opened today when Representative W. E. Disney of Muskogee, chairman of the committee, announced that all evidence adduced by the committee would be submitted to a district court grand jury in session here.

It seems like needless killing to drive a motor car onto a railroad crossing of a flying train. But they did it with horses and they will do it with cars.

SEA DREAMS.

She never saw the wide and gleaming sea,
So far she dwells from any tide-washed shore; But she has often dreamed what it would be To see tall ships and hear the breakers roar.

The little sailor on the garden gate Smiles down and swings his arms in every breeze; What wondrous tales, she thinks he could relate Of foreign lands touched by far, shining seas.

The vague, hot scents of mignonette and box Drift on soft airs across the garden green;
The same slow wind that stirs the hollyhocks Drives those tall ships that she has never seen.

IN MEMORIAM
Sanford was grieved to learn of the death of Matt Tarbell which occurred early Sunday morning at the family residence, 104 West Tenth street, after a lingering illness, the aftermath of wounds received during the recent war.

Matthew Drenin Tarbell, Jr., was born January 7, 1899, in Troy, N. Y., the youngest of nine children born to Sarah Miles and Matthew Tarbell.

He was a pupil of Saint Augustine's Academy and the Christian Brothers' Institute at Troy, leaving the latter college to join the U. S. Navy, which he served in the aviation department for two years. On receiving his discharge he came to Sanford, where he had since resided, and where he could name anyone of his vast acquaintances as a friend.

The deceased was a member of All Souls' Church and a devout christian, edifying those about him by his patience and resignation during his illness.

He was a member of Sanford Council K. of C., the American Legion and Co. D., ranking as sergeant in this division.

The funeral, a military one, took place Tuesday morning at 9:00 o'clock from the All Souls' Church, interment being made in the local Catholic cemetery.

He leaves to mourn his loss his father, M. D. Tarbell, and two sisters, Miss Josephine Tarbell and Mrs. William Bossidy, all of this city, and to whom Sanford extends heart-felt sympathy.

The funeral services at the home and at the All Souls' Church were most beautiful and impressive, the members of Co. D., and the Campbell Lossing Post, American Legion, turning out in a body to show their respect and esteem to their old comrade in arms. Father Hennessy paid a glowing tribute to the deceased, telling of his many fine traits of character, of his military record and his home life. At the Lakeview cemetery taps were sounded and a picked squad from Co. D. fired the last salute over the grave, while the beautiful floral emblems were piled high on the mound to attest the respect and esteem in which this young man was held by his many friends.

Even if a girl should establish a world's record at the wash tub, she probably wouldn't get in the retrograde section.

Mr. Brownlee will speak on the "Prayer Life of Jesus" at the church at 7:30 tonight. The sermons are now a study of the life of Jesus, and His Prayer Life becomes prominent as we enter the Galilean Ministry. It is hoped that a large congregation will be present at this service.

SICKLY PEEVISH CHILDREN

Children suffering from intestinal worms are cross, restless and unhealthy. There are other symptoms, however. If the child is pale, has dark rings under the eyes, bad breath and takes no interest in play, it is almost certain that worms are eating away its vitality. The surest remedy for worms is White's Cream Vermifuge. It is positive destruction to the worms but harmless to the child. Price 25c. Sold by Union Pharmacy.—Adv.

"WORSE THAN PAIN"

Louisiana Lady Says She Has "Never Found Anything Better Than Cardui for a Run-Down Condition."

Morgan City, La.—"It would be hard for me to tell how much benefit I have derived from the use of Cardui," said Mrs. L. G. Bowman, of 1319 Front Street, this city.

"I was so run-down in health I could hardly go. I was thin. I had no appetite. Could not rest or sleep well. I was so weak, and so very nervous, I was no pleasure to myself.

"I suffered some pain, but the worst of my trouble was from being so weak and easy to get tired and out of heart.

"This nervous condition was worse than pain.

"Some one told me of Cardui, and I decided to use it.

"After using a few bottles, I regained my strength. I wasn't so nervous, and began to eat and sleep, and grew stronger and was soon well.

"I have never found anything better for a run-down condition."

"If you suffer as this Louisiana lady did, you, too, should find Cardui helpful for your troubles. Get a bottle of Cardui, today. NC-144

The hurricane that blew along the northeastern coast the past few days scattered the "rum fleet" in all directions and many of the rum ships were sunk before they could get safely anchored in the lee of a government boat.

"Five Thousand Shriners Will Inva-de the City" says the Orlando Sentinel today. We hope those boys will not take Orlando away with them for the circus holds forth there Saturday. However, we doubt if the circus will have near as many thrills as the Shriners will have.

Dreams come true in many ways as for instance the rum hound in Miami who was sentenced by the judge to be sprayed with rum three times a day and his cell sprayed with the same kind of embalming fluid. And now many other judges are writing to Miami to find out where they can get this much rum for spraying purposes in case they need it.

It looks like the Hohenzollerns will attempt to stage a "comeback" in Germany especially if the proletariat insist on having riots and trouble all the time. If the people cannot govern themselves in some sort of republican form of government it is almost sure and certain that the monarchists will come back and take over the reins of government. And when the kings ruled Germany it was some country and you cannot get around this part of the subject.

Mayors of cities are supposed to be something more than mere figure-heads and the mayor who is active in all that pertains to the welfare of his city and county is the proper kind of man to have at the head of affairs. For instance Mayor Alsop of Jacksonville is interesting himself in Duval county having more cows and chickens. Bucolic in a measure but the right idea.

ON TO TALLAHASSEE.

All roads lead to Tallahassee this week when the State Road Department will meet to hear the claims of the various counties for good roads and the same old tactics will be employed to try and get the department to do what they should be legally they are inclined to pay particular bound to do. Seminole county will be represented by Major Forest Lake, Chairman of the board of county commissioners, John Meisch, and Fred Williams, city and county engineer. They are going up to Tallahassee to push the road projects of this county and also to fight for Road No. 3. The Jacksonville Journal says:

"Persuading citizens to journey to Tallahassee to attend a meeting of the State Road Department Saturday in support of road projects in which Jacksonville is interested is more difficult than persuading them to attend a football game in some other city. But attendance at the road board meeting is more important, although attendance at an athletic contest in which the boys are participating is commendable.

"There won't be any bands in Tallahassee or colors flying in the breeze. There won't be any frenzied moments of excitement or impressive demonstrations, but the results will be of vital and lasting importance. And whether citizens of this section are interested in these results or not, they will be directly affected by them. Therefore, they should consider it their duty to be interested in them and try to direct them as much as possible.

"From a standpoint of cold calculation, members of a public board should use their own discretion in reaching conclusions, but since it has been demonstrated repeatedly that heed to organized requests, which is human, and since other sections are organizing large delegations to appear before the board, it especially behooves Jacksonville and the section surrounding it to be strongly represented at the meeting.

"Of course it will be necessary for Jacksonville to present its arguments forcibly and convincingly. Facts as well as organization are needed to win a fight of this kind. However, Jacksonville's plea for the completion of the Waycross road and the St. Johns scenic highway is invulnerable as far as imperative need is concerned, and the presentation of the facts will be comparatively easy. These facts need the support of enthusiasm and determination.

"There has been enough dilly-dallying. Empty promises do not provide roads for the thousands of tourists pouring into the state. Action—favorable action—is what Jacksonville wants.

"Civic organizations should appoint committees to attend this meeting in Tallahassee. Business concerns should send representatives. Public-spirited citizens should go.

"Organized effort to get what we want is more effective and not so much trouble as organized protest against what has happened."

SENTIMENT—Old and New

Things Worth While Picked Up Along the Way; Some From Pens Long Ago Laid Down; Some From Pens of Later Days.

Note:—It was recently stated, through the daily papers, that a divorce is granted in this country every four minutes of the day.

A CURE FOR DIVORCE

The wisest men, and women too, Are warning us against divorce.— Increasing now by leaps and bounds Polluting all things in its course, And threatening to destroy the home As lust destroyed old regal Rome.

Our legislators vainly strive To stem this evil, spreading wide; The Church declaims with solemn tone, But nothing checks the flowing tide: Both Church and State look on aghast To see this evil growing fast.

Now list to me awhile, dear friends, I have a simple, easy cure.— A remedy that sure will save The home we love, our hearts pure, And save the face of Church and State, Likewise our Land from dismal fate.

When George and Mary stand before The altar, and the man of God, With solemn words pronounce them one;— Then hand in hand, their hearts atrob, They seal their vows with amorous kisses, And all their thoughts are touched with bliss,

The months roll by and change to years, And tender words become more rare; George thinks of business more than love, And Mary is full of household care. For weeks George fails to kiss his wife, Which paves the way for daily strife.

Now, list to me, again I say,— My brothers George, and Jack and Jim,— Just kiss your wife each day that dawns, A dozen times with all your vim; Kiss till you see the blushes come, Like that dear day you brought her home.

Just keep this up, year after year, And you need never fear divorce; So kiss your wife at every chance, For this kiss is safety's only course.— Your kiss may save a world of ill, And both your hearts with love-light fill.

FLORIDA CITRUS FACES KEEN COMPETITION

California, leader in citrus production for more than thirty years, is fully aware of the imminent probability that Florida will wrest away its market dominancy. With that same tenacious purpose which placed their fruit in the lead in volume of sale, the California growers stand ready to contest the efforts Florida will have to make to sell its larger crops of fruit in their markets. Highly organized and working as one through their huge cooperative marketing plan, these California growers can wield effective competitive power when distribution of Florida fruit hinders the marketing of Pacific Coast crops.

Development of citrus culture in Texas is resulting in the shipment of an increasing volume of fruit to the leading cities of the country. Improvement of water transportation facilities is enabling the growers of Porto Rico, the Isle of Pines and Cuba to ship larger quantities of fruit to our Eastern markets from their rapidly developing citrus groves.

Apples, peaches, cantaloupes, plums, figs, cherries, pineapples, strawberries and other competitive fruits are also being produced in greater quantities each year and making a strong bid for the consuming public's favor. These commodities can seriously curtail the distribution of Florida oranges and grapefruit, as was evidenced last season when the cantaloupe and berry movement sent grapefruit prices tobogganing for several weeks.

Increasing production of fruits for consumption in American markets is forcing shippers everywhere to adopt more forceful sales policies. Competition in the fruit trade is becoming keener.

If Florida growers are to meet successfully the competition of other fruits which are threatening to curtail distribution of their products, they must stop speculative selling and unite on a program to merchandise their crops systematically. They must ship their fruit only under well-established trade-names, which are recognized by consumers as meaning only Florida fruit. They must support an effort to make these trade-marked oranges and grapefruit better known to the public for their wonderfully delicious eating and health-giving qualities, and they must develop new markets for distribution. Only by cooperation of the growers can these essentials for the perpetuation and continued prosperity of Florida's greatest industry be accomplished.

Six thousand growers, working as one through their cooperative marketing association, the Florida Citrus Exchange, has shown what producers can do by creating demand for their Sealdsweet fruit, developing new outlets for their increasing crops, and getting the high dollar for their product. In past years the Florida Citrus Exchange has eliminated enough competition among Florida shippers to make citrus growing profitable. To meet outside competition now threatening Florida fruit will require, however, the cooperation of all the growers of Florida—their united support of the Florida Citrus Exchange.

In the Florida Citrus Exchange every grower is paid just exactly what his fruit sells for, less actual marketing expenses. There are no dividends to be paid to stockholders; no "favorite" shippers who have preference over others. Besides these advantages, the Exchange gives the producers an agency to direct the affairs of an industry belonging solely to them.

Growers Advised As To Shipments Of Citrus Fruit

Attorney Hunter of Florida Citrus Exchange Points Out Importance of Complying With Acid Test Regulation.

TAMPA, Oct. 25.—Despite recent contradictory court decisions on shipments of immature citrus fruit, Florida growers should take care to send out of the state only that fruit that absolutely complies with the acid test regulations of the federal and state governments.

This advice is contained in an opinion by Attorney Hunter of the Florida Citrus Exchange, received by Business Manager C. E. Stewart of the exchange. Commenting on the matter Monday, Mr. Stewart said: "Judge Hunter's letter covers the situation as it is in the state, and is of vital importance to all growers, because, first the Florida Citrus Exchange has always been an advocate of shipping only mature citrus fruit, and second, the state authorities are very determined in their stand this year to stop shipment of immature fruit and are bending every effort to get away from the 50 per cent color proposition.

"The attitude of the federal government is quite clear. They will seize artificially colored fruit whenever it does not pass the acid test if they can possibly locate the shipment. They have made several seizures but before they act the shipment must go into interstate commerce. The state authorities, however, are going to cause endless trouble and perhaps considerable financial loss if they interfere with shipments. Therefore, we agree with Judge Hunter that it is best to ship only such shipments even if the fruit passes the color test, provided it does not also pass the acid test."

"Judge Hunter's letter to Business Manager Stewart follows:

"The two recent decisions, one of Judge Atkinson, of Dade county, and the other of Judge McMullen, of Pinellas county, on the question of the shipment of alleged green fruit, makes it important for the Florida Citrus Exchange to have its members advised of the situation.

"The decision of Judge Atkinson, as reported by the press, is to the effect that fruit, which does not come up to the acid test, is immature and unfit for human consumption, while the decision of Judge McMullen is to the effect that if the fruit is 50 per cent colored, the acid test does not apply, and it may be shipped. The federal government has fixed the standard acid tests, which have been adopted by the state.

"These two decisions are contradictory, but both agree that if fruit comes up to the acid test, it may be legally shipped. There are other circuit judges in the citrus belt, and it is impossible to tell what view they may take of the last.

"Therefore, the only safe thing for our growers to do is to avoid shipping any fruit which does not come up to the acid test. If it comes up to the test, they are absolutely safe, and if it does not, they may have great trouble and much financial loss.

"If the federal authorities should take the position that fruit not coming up to the acid test is liable to seizure, or if the state or local boards of health in the North should take that view, fruit not coming up to the test would be liable to seizure and destruction. The only safe thing for our shippers to do is to only ship fruit which comes up to, and complies with, the acid tests adopted by the federal and state governments."

Drum and Bugle Corps paraded the streets of Orlando just before the evening program and aided materially in arousing interest in the meeting.

The meeting went on record as favoring state legislation on the question of sign removal in Florida, and appointed a committee on this question, and decided that another meeting be held at Davenport in April.

Willis Powell, secretary of the Lake County Chamber of Commerce, made one of the most interesting addresses of the meeting, telling of the part chambers of commerce can play in highway beautification and the movement to swat the sign and save the scenery.

The whole program of beautification in Florida was presented, not only in the addresses, but also by the discussion which followed each address, covering such subjects as beautifying home grounds, school grounds, church properties, civic centers and many kindred topics.

Thursday morning, some 200 delegates left Orlando promptly at 8:30 o'clock for a motorecade through Orange and Lake counties to see what has been accomplished in sign removal and other beautification of highways.

The motorecade will move through Winter Park, Lockhart, Apopka, Plymouth, Zellwood, Tangerine, Mt. Dora, Eustis, Tavares, Montverde, Clermont, Oakland, Winter Garden, Ocoee and back to Orlando in time for the big Shrine parade in this city.

At Clermont the Wallace cup will be presented to that city for having won the post card week contest in Florida.

The whole convention and its success is a splendid tribute to the work and dealership of the Florida development board and its secretary, A. A. Coult, who did the work which made the meeting possible.

A Louisville editor sizes up the situation as follows: "The reason that flour and bread don't fall in price is because the farmer don't make the flour and bread."

If an editor is game enough to face his own conscience, he need have little fear of facing his enemies.

Today Neal Hart in "Butterfly Range"

A real western story full of action and thrills.

A pulsating story of "The Golden West."

If the East don't call you, "Butterfly Range" will brighten you up some.

Two shall look and tremble—afterwards nations fall.

Steve Saunders (played by Neal Hart), a true son of the west, was left an orphan at an early age.

He battled his way to manhood and success against all odds.

One of the most sensational stunts ever embodied in a photoplay, which must be seen to be appreciated.

Comedy today will be Al St. John in "The Alarm."

Coming next Tuesday return engagement of the Lester Richards' Vaudeville Review in all new shows.

Richards and Walsh. Those clever black face comedians.

Girls, Girls, Girls, with Lester Richards.

Don't forget today Neal Hart in "Butterfly Range," and Al St. John, "The Alarm."

Well, Sanford High will make a little jaunt down to Kissimmee tomorrow afternoon and take a swing at the Cowpunchers with their football lariat.

The locals are in fine shape for this fray, and the line is developed in to a stonewall of defense which was especially noticed by the writer yesterday afternoon. With an exceptionally good backfield for a high school team it looks like a victory from Kissimmee is a sure fact.

After this game Sanford will have three straight games on the home field, next Saturday with Putnam High of Palatka, Armistice Day will see Miami's Heyl-Cats here and the following Saturday the Saints from St. Augustine will be here.

For the first time in the memory of local football enthusiasts, Sanford will be the scene of a real college game Saturday when the Rollins Tars will meet Piedmont College on Hood Field. Sanford was lucky enough to get this game which promises to be second only, probably to the Wake Forest-Florida game in Tampa on the same date.

The Rollins team this year is the strongest Tar aggregation that has represented Rollins College in a number of years. The line averages 175 pounds while their backfield is just a little lighter, being 170 pounds. Seeds Class will carry the bucking burden of the "11" while the backfield outweighs Piedmont and is a trifle faster.

Rollins played the St. Augustine Semi-pros and won 46 to 0. Though beaten 28 to 0 by the Florida gridders the year proud of the fact that they held one of the strongest teams in the south to that small score.

In all, the Rollins team is in tip-top shape. All players are reporting regularly for practice and none on the sick list or injured list so it looks as if Rollins will have the edge on the Piedmont bunch.

Piedmont received rather a severe beating from the Southern College yesterday in Lakeland and will have to do some tall "recuperating" to be able to keep up with the speedy Rollins crew.

But Piedmont has been known to spring the rabbit foot before, so a good battle can be expected Saturday. The game will start promptly at 3:30.

And the people of Sanford certainly ought to back up this game. It is costing the Rollins Athletic Association quite a sum to stage this game and it will be shown by this whether it can be done again or not.

WEATHER CHANGES CAUSE SICKNESS

Extreme changes of weather during Fall cause many colds and coughs. For quick relief from throat, chest and bronchial trouble, coughs, colds and croup use Foley's Honey and Tar. Contains no opiates—ingredients printed on the wrapper. Largest selling cough medicine in the world. "Foley's Honey and Tar is the most pleasant and efficient remedy for coughs and colds that I ever saw," writes Wm. Jones, El Dara, Illinois.

Girl's Basketball Team Developing

Sanford High Has the Material Which Promises to Put Out a Real Basketball Team This Year.

For the past three weeks in the Parish House the girls' basketball team of Sanford High have been going through stiff practices in preparation for one of the hardest schedule of games they have ever had. About fifteen girls are reporting for practice every day and from these a formidable quintet is being developed by Coaches Fort and Mahoney.

Miss Maude Carraway is captain of the girls' five again this year and with her leadership and playing at guard and Mildred Holly and Emma Spencer forwards, with plenty of good material for the other positions, the girls team stands a pretty good chance of rivaling the record made last year by the boys' football team.

Celery Feds To Take on Kissimmee Tomorrow

Game Will Be Called in Kissimmee, at 4:30 O'clock.

Large crowds of local football fans are expected to journey to Kissimmee tomorrow to see the local High School team play the Cowpunchers. The game will start at 4:30 on Kissimmee's gridiron.

Coach Wilkinson's men are in tip-top shape for this fray which promises to be a real battle as both teams are about evenly matched in weight. Kissimmee has spit about even in all her games and expects to break the "split" by beating Sanford High.

The game was originally scheduled for Saturday but due to the Rollins-Piedmont fray in Sanford and the Wakeforest-Florida game in Tampa it was decided to play on Friday instead.

The Herald delivered six times a week for 15c.

"BUTTERFLY RANGE"

Steve Saunders (played by Neal Hart), a true son of the West, was left an orphan at an early age. He battled his way to manhood and success against all odds.

When Professor DeWitt and party arrive at Hesperia, the loungers, about the settlement have a lot of fun. The Professor and Percival Whitman, Florence's excess baggage, resent the taunts of the idlers who are having the time of their lives at the expense of the tourists. Steve Saunders, riding into town, takes in the situation and comes to the rescue, and he pretty near had to whip the entire community in doing so. The tourists decide that they should have a guide to "Butterfly Range" and Florence suggests that they ask their rescuer to act in that capacity. Steve, without revealing the fact he was the owner of the ranch they were going to, undertakes to guide them. En route many startling incidents happen. Percival has been rejected by Florence, and falling in with a gang of outlaws, whom he later engages to carry her off. While Steve and the Professor are out on a mineral prospecting trip, Florence is carried away from the camp by the out-laws, and Steve goes on the trail to rescue her. It may sound easy but he had a man's sized job cut out for him, and when the rescue is accomplished, it calls for one of the most sensational stunts ever embodied in a photoplay, which must be seen to be appreciated.

BISHOP'S WATCH TICKS SO LOUD AFFECTS RADIO SENDING OF HIS TALK

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Bishop William Frazer McDowell's watch ticked so loudly last Sunday night while he was addressing the Sunday evening club that radio transmission of his remarks was affected, according to complaints from New York state and Milwaukee, Wis., received by the club.

The bishop was talking about how small the world is and the ticks of the watch in front of him were plainly heard by the radio receivers.

Don Marcus, himself an editor, says: "What critics never seem to consider is that an editor feels just as badly over a roast that he deserves as over one that he doesn't."

REFUSED REGISTRATION GIRLS ASK MANDAMUS AGAINST COLLEGE HEAD

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 24.—Refused registration for their third year course at the University of Maryland, Miss Virginia Flanagan, of McKeesport, Pa., and Miss Vivian Simpson, of the District of Columbia, applied in city court today for a mandamus against Dr. Albert F. Woods, president of the institution, and the board of regents.

Judge Stump signed an order requiring Dr. Woods to show why the mandamus should not be issued. November 13 has been set for filing of an answer.

Counsel for the young women said that registration had been refused because their clients were members of a fraternity objected to by some of the faculty.

The girls say they completed their first two years at the university as exemplary students, were not suspended or expelled, and that their character has always been above reproach.
