Charges Fly At Oviedo

Home town boy Lee Gary told a jam-packed audience at the Oviedo political rally last Saturday night that he was "not for sale" made "no deals" and wasn't swapping "deals for votes."

The mayor of Oviedo, speaking in his own backyard, took some heavy abuse from his opponents in the District 4 race especially from Pitt Barnes and another hometown boy Robert Cameron.

Varnes, in an obvious blast at Gary's 15 year record as mayor said "I've been coming here for 12 years and can't see much civic improvement around."

He also made it a point to take a verbal poke at a so called political clique between an incumbent county commissioner and a south Seminole developer while Cameron said he was misrepresented at previous rallies discussing the clay incident at the Oviedo Athletic field. He said he had nothing against the clay being used and, in fact was an ardent supporter of Little League activities.

"However," Cameron said, "it was handled by an individual instead of a public official."

Fern Park's Walt Bonder, who admitted he was speaking in "enemy territory," asked the voters to eliminate sectionalism when you go to the polls. "Think of the county as a whole and not any one section." The county is big business and think of it this way," Bonder emphasized.

The other candidate in the race George Holder didn't show up. His son, Richard spoke for him and told everyone to vote "for my father."

In the district 2 race, John Alexander continued to hammer away at the "inconsistent representation of his opponent incumbent, Ted Williams, and said he favored a periodic roundtable between city and county officials.

Incumbent Ted Williams said he was accused of pulling the wagon for the Oviedo mayor and "there is nothing wrong with that for Mr. Gary would make a fine commissioner." Williams stood on his record of holding the tax line and added that he voted against any pay raise for commissioners.

Legislative candidates S. J. Davis and Al Lormann spoke on the need for qualified men to run for office with Davis rapping the apathy of the voting public, predicting that less than 25 percent of the registered voters will elect candidates in the May primaries.

Davis emphasized that he would hold public meetings of legislation before it is introduced while Lormann said he favored and would work to encourage higher learning institutions throughout the state and would work toward elimination of the national teacher exams.

In the district 1 school board race Kathleen Reynolds emphasized the need for more books in school libraries and a community effort to boost the schools.

Her opponent, Dr. A. W. Epps Jr. said his main plank was his five kids.

In the District 5 race, Clarence Clouse hit out at public apathy and complained the people of Oviedo for making a fine showing at the rally. He warned that the millage would have to be increased and we "must be prepared."

J Dan Wright, also in the district 5 race said he was violently opposed against state encroachment in local school problems and urged a broader tax base elaborating that "we can't continue to raise ad valorem taxes on the local level."

ALTHOUGH MOUTH TO MOUTH resuscitation was administered by the Lockhart Rescue Squad for some time Saturday afternoon after the body of three year old Susie Johnson was pulled from Big Bear Lake by Mrs. Janet Yamnicky of Winter Park, the child was pronounced dead on arrival at Florida Sanitarium and Hospital. The victim was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of W. Pierce St., Pinecastle, who had their family for an afternoon outing at the Florida Power Employees Club on the lake. (Herald Photo)

12 Cars Damaged In Mishaps

Seven accidents over the weekend accounted for a total of $4,050 in damages, eight arrests, 12 cars damaged and two minor injuries, according to reports by Troopers Bill Stringfield and Jim Chambliss, who cover the Seminole County beat for the Florida Highway Patrol.

Saturday evening at 7:20 Matthew Simmons, Oviedo, driving a 1956 Chevrolet pickup truck, collided with a 1953 Mercury driven by Tolbert W. Neeka, Orlando, when Simmons was a left turn while being overtaken by Neeka on Tucawillow Rd., north of Goldenrod. Simmons was charged, and the damages were $100 to the pick-up truck and $150 to the Mercury.

At 2 a.m. Sunday, Billy H. Snodgrass, Christmas, lost control of his 1934 Chrysler, driving on SR 419 in the rain, ran into the ditch and overturned doing $400 damages to his car. He was charged with not having his car under control by Trooper Stringfield.

On SR 46, near Geneva, a 1935 Ford, driven by John Scott, Negro, 17, Sanford, east on 46 passed a car and, being forced to pull back hurriedly, to avoid oncoming traffic struck the rear end of a 1952 Renault driven by Carl M. Rabun Jr., of Sanford. There were no injuries. Scott was charged with not having his vehicle under proper control and having no drivers license.

Miss Mildred Belcher, 37, of Orlando, lost control of her 1960 Rambler and ran into the ditch and overturned near Sandalio Springs on SR 424 about 6:20 p.m. Sunday in the rain. Damages to her car amounted to $700, but Miss Belcher suffered no injuries. She was charged with driving at an excessive speed for the road conditions.

Mrs. Helen Barnes, Altamonte Springs, was charged with failure to yield the right of way, when she made a left turn in front of the Altamonte Springs post office and ran into the path of a car driven by Mrs. Judith Kay Morrison, also of Altamonte Springs.

The two injuries reported occurred at Mobley's Corner on Hwy. 17-92, when Harry G. Penley, Sanford, 63, traveling east, pulled into the path of a 1961 Volkswagen, driven by Richard W. Hall, 38, Winter Park, who was proceeding south on the highway. Hall and his wife, Elinor, suffered lacerations and bruises and were taken to an Orlando hospital. Their car was damaged to the extent of $600 and Penley's 1956 Ford to the extent of $300. Penley was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Gary Swaim, Sanford, driving a 1959 Pontiac, sideswiped a 1956 Chevrolet driven by Gene Smith, also of Sanford, at 8:25 a.m. Sunday morning on the Ocoola Fishcamp Rd. Swaim was going south and swung out to pass an unidentified third car, when he saw Smith coming on, both cars cut to their left in an effort to pass each other but both right front fenders met and the cars suffered heavy damage. Swaim was charged by Trooper Jim Chambliss with improperly passing the third vehicle.

Sunday afternoon, a collision between a car driven by Johnny E. Lawson, 37, of 124 Country Club Drive, and a bicycle ridden by Michael Ogden, 14, 1313 E. 24th St. at French Ave. and Park Drive, sent the boy to Seminole Memorial Hospital with a bruised hip.

Ogden was treated in the emergency room and released to his home. No charges were filed against the driver of the car, as it was determined by Sgt. Leo Rock, investigating officer, that the boy cut his bike into the path of the car. There were no damages to the Lawson car and about $10 damages to the bicycle.

McDonald, Baker, Higginbotham Beat Down Wilson, Crapps On Pay

City Commissioners Tom McDonald, Joe Baker and Earl Higginbotham beat down attempts by Mayor J. H. Crapps and Al Wilson to allow salary advances for city employees for emergency purposes in special session last Friday.

Crapps and Wilson valiantly battled the board in an effort to have a recent ruling amended to allow "emergency salary advances if there is a just reason."

Wilson said stopping salary advances would not be in the "best interests of the city and would create a morale problem."

"We can hold it to a minimum and only if the circumstances allow but I just can't see stopping it completely," he added.

Wilson admitted that the practice of advances had been "abused" but "if we get so big we can't lend money we're in a heck of a shape."

"I'm just not big enough to cut those advances out," said Wilson.

He suggested a 90-day trial period but the board refused to go along with it.

Baker suggested perhaps to limit loans to two a year.

"What happens if a third emergency comes up?" said Crapps.

"It's just tough luck," added Baker.

Wilson made the motion to amend the ruling. There was no seconded motion and it died.

Commissioner Earl Higginbotham said he couldn't see any reason to draw up the franchise "unless we have some takers. Now, we will get people trying to peddle the franchise," Higginbotham said.

Baker made the motion to have a second reading with McDonald backing him up. There were no nay votes.

Last week, the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors agreed to write a letter to the city asking that a blanket franchise ordinance be drawn up in the interest of getting bus service for the city.

Commissioner Tom McDonald and Joe Baker urged the board to have the franchise ready "just in case we get an interested party."

Two Killed; Ship Sinks

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — A Norwegian freighter, damaged in a collision Sunday that killed two passengers, half sank early today in Chesapeake Bay as a tug tried to pull it to port.

The rear section of the damaged 6,224-ton Taranet settled in the water when the Coast Guard temporarily halted the tow to Newport News for fear the bulk might sink and block the bottom in about 35 feet of water, the Coast Guard said, with the front sticking out of the water at an angle. Two tugs were pumping water from the stern in an effort to reflect the Taranet and get it to port.

City Approves Blank Franchise

The City Commission authorized City Attorney William Hutchinson Jr. to have the bus franchise ready for second reading at its next meeting.

Meeting in special session last Friday, the commission voted on a "blanket franchise ordinance" despite the fact that the Seminole Transit Co. withdrew its application for the franchise.

Commissioners Tom McDonald and Joe Baker urged the board to have the franchise ready "just in case we get an interested party."

Commissioner Earl Higginbotham said he couldn't see any reason to draw up the franchise "unless we have some takers. Now, we will get people trying to peddle the franchise," Higginbotham said.

Joint Work On 25th St. May Start In June

The County and city are expected to start a joint four-laning improvement project on 25th St. from French Ave. to the Old Lake Mary Rd. by mid June.

The city board agreed to cooperate with the county on the one-mile stretch project which would include four-laning, curbs, gutters and one sidewalk.

Commissioner Ted Williams appeared before the city board last Friday asking for the city approval on the project with the city to pay one third of the materials cost estimated at $16,000. The entire project is expected to run around $30,000.

Williams asked the city to present a resolution to the county Tuesday on the project for the benefit of Commissioner Vernon Dunn.

"Maybe he'll go along with the project if you present a resolution," said Williams.

Indications are that Dunn would attempt to block the proposal. The District 4 Commissioner was not available for comment today.

Lenin Prize To Nkrumah

MOSCOW (UPI) — Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah was awarded Russia's Lenin Peace Prize today for his attacks on colonialism and support for the principles of "peaceful co-existence."

To Increase Lakeland Citrus

LAKELAND (UPI) — Florida Citrus Mutual predicts increasing sales of Florida Valencia oranges will assure the best possible economic utilization of the crop, despite a slight decrease in prices last week.

Barnes Fired; "Broke Rules"

County Building Inspector Donald Barnes was dismissed from his job by the county zoning employment board in special session Friday for failing to comply with zoning department instructions.

The board, meeting in a special closed door session, dismissed the four-year employe after he was charged with throwing a beer can out of the zoning car earlier in the week.

Serving on the employment board is Zoning Director Robert Brown, Commissioner James P. Avery and Andy Stanku.

Brown today reported that he will advertise for a replacement for Barnes this week. Starting salary is $4,500.

The county now has only one building inspector.

U. S. To Expand Testing Area

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States today expanded its atomic testing area in the Pacific and prepared to set off the third shot in its new atmospheric series.

The third blast could go off in the vicinity of Johnson Island, an atoll 600 miles from Hawaii. The two previous tests were conducted Wednesday and Friday near British-held Christmas Island. Ships and planes have been notified to steer clear of Johnson Island, effective today. The U. S.-held atoll is scheduled to be the site of high altitude shots, which may be seen as far away as Hawaii.

The government has warned that the tests may interfere with aviation and navigation frequencies. It appeared likely the schedules of American and foreign airlines would be affected.

Dr. Harold Brown, director of research and engineering for the defense department, said Sunday that the high-altitude tests would range in force from less than a megaton (a million tons of TNT) to one or more megatons.

The first two tests conducted at Christmas Island were of the medium yield range, meaning less than a megaton and more than 20 kilotons (20 thousand tons of TNT).

Early Summit Ruled Out

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U. S. officials today discounted the possibility of an early summit meeting, despite an offer by President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan to consider one if developments warrant.

These officials said the nuclear tests deadlock and continued Soviet pressure on Berlin appeared to rule out any summit conference in the near future.

But they acknowledged that Kennedy and Macmillan, who conferred here over the weekend, had left themselves plenty of latitude for a meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

In a joint communique Kennedy and Macmillan said they would consider a meeting with Khrushchev whenever there was any sign that it would be in the interest of peace and understanding.

8 Die In Traffic

MIAMI (UPI) — Traffic accidents killed at least eight persons in Florida over the weekend, including a six-month-old baby.

Titov Visit Chered By UN

NEW YORK (UPI) — Soviet cosmonaut Gherman Titov received an ovation today when he visited the United Nations during his stop here en route to Washington for a space research conference.

About 300 persons, including UN staff members and tourists, applauded the handsome 27-year-old spaceman

Cohen Plea Denied

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court today denied a hearing to Mickey Cohen, Los Angeles racketeer, who claimed he was convicted twice for the same offense in income tax evasion cases.

Treatment Plant To Low Bidder From Texas

The City Commission, in special session last Friday afternoon, awarded the low bid of Texas Midwest Contracting Co. of Dallas to construct a sewage treatment plant by Seminole Blvd.

The low bid was $388,000, some $40,000 lower than the next bidder. The board approved two alternates adding $18,500 to the low bid including a second gas cover and brick veneer.

Engineer William Laffer asked the board to approve the Texas firm but suggested "close supervision on the project."

The treatment plant construction is expected to get underway some 10 days after the bonds are validated in about six weeks.

Dabbs Elected FEA Director At State Meet

George Dabbs, principal of the Altamonte Springs Elementary School was elected to the board of directors of the Florida Education Assn. at the teachers convention held in Miami last week.

Dabbs will represent the Fifth Congressional District and is the first Seminole County teacher to be elected to a state office in the association. The board of directors is the policy-making division of the FEA.

Fred Gasas, president of the Classroom Teacher's Assn. of Seminole County, and approximately 60 delegates of the association from Seminole County attended the convention.

SHS Choral Groups Sweep Contest

Seminole High School Choralists and vocalists swept the competition under the rug at Daytona Beach's Peabody Auditorium Saturday and Sunday when they captured five Superior ratings and one Excellent out of six events entered in the Class BB competitions.

The statewide contest, featuring entries from over 60 schools, was entirely in the field of vocal music and threw glee clubs and choral units, as well as quartets, quintets and soloists against each other.

Among those winning the superior rating for Seminole was student soprano Patty Glenn Johnson and Donna Beard, also singing in the soprano contest, brought home the excellent rating.

The chorales won a superior rating as did the Girls Glee Club, the girls quartet and the boys quintet.

Numbers sung by the Chorales which won them their superior ratings were Ralph Williams' "Roots and Leaves," and "O Sing Your Songs," by the famed conductor Noble Cain.

The 80 girls in the Girls Glee Club sang "Give Ye Thanks," by Greene, and "Let Not Your Songs End" by Noble Cain.

The Boys Quintet, made up of Dale Duncan, Alan Albers, Mike Champion, Charles H. Bun and Doug Stenstrom Jr., sang an arrangement of the Negro spiritual, "Ride the Chariot," by Krone, and the Girls Quartet sang "A Nocturne," also by Noble Cain, for their superior grade. The girls in the quartet are Patty Glenn Johnson, Lynn McCord, Betty Anne Slayton and Allison Blake.

The accompanists for the group were Mary Helen Washburn, who played for the Chorales and the quintet, Pam Jones, who accompanied the girls quartet and Sandy Richards who did the keyboard work for the Girls Glee Club.

According to Miss Ollie Reese Whittle, director of vocal music at SHS, the most trying moments of the contest were the sightreading competitions. As director, Miss Whittle had one minute to study the music handed

Troops Withdrawn

ALGIERS (UPI) — French troops and police today carried out a partial withdrawal from downtown Oran where the army had been reported poised to launch an all-out campaign to crush the Secret Army Organization (OAS) in its own stronghold.

Special Ordinance

LEESBURG (UPI) — A special ordinance has been passed here setting a $25 fine against any one who breaks water rationing rules. City Manager Pat Thomas ordered the rationing last week after it became apparent that the city's water table was getting "very low."

her by the officials, and her singers had a minute and a half to absorb her instructions. Result, another superior.

Miss Whittle, who masterminded the sweeping victory for the local singers is a graduate of Florida State College with her degree in Public School Music. She has done graduate work at Columbia University and has studied at the Fred Waring Work Shop, Delaware Water Gap, Pa., and the Christiana-Choral School, Chambersburg, Pa.

Pull Together, Chamber Told

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy told the U. S. Chamber of Commerce today the time has come for business and government to stop throwing stones at each other and pull together for a more prosperous America.

In a 22-minute address to the opening session of the chamber's 50th anniversary convention, Kennedy strongly defended his administration against charges of being anti-business.

He said there was a need for all segments of the economy—labor, business and government—to "avoid inflation, modernize our industry and improve the American position in world markets."

Turned Down

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — The Florida Education Association—which represents a majority of Florida's 40,000 public school teachers—is on record as opposed to the proposed 45-cent, 104-representative legislative reapportionment plan.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

Why doesn't the county let the Railroad and Utilities Commission handle the franchise control here? The board wants them to handle it for 400 homes or more. What's the difference?

NATIONAL COIN WEEK, celebrated throughout the United States this week is proclaimed in Sanford by Mayor J. H. Crapps. "I commend these members of our Coin Club and of Coin Clubs all over the country for their study and research into one of America's forgotten heritages," the Mayor said. Shown here with him are Numismatic Society President John Kromas, (standing) Mrs. Viola Faust, program chairman.

Old Days Of Georgia Politics All Gone

ATLANTA (UPI)—The late Gov. Eugene Talmadge used to mount the stump, snap his red gaiters and tell Georgia voters from the piney woods and red clay country he never worried how the vote would go in the counties where the streetcars ran.

He didn't have to. Secure in the knowledge that he could lose the urban counties and still win the race under the county unit system, old Gene concentrated his campaigns on the small town and rural vote with great success.

Now the county unit system has gone the way of the streetcars.

A three-judge federal panel handed down an injunction Saturday which prohibits use of the system in the Democratic primary next fall.

This means Fulton Atlanta County's 556,326 inhabitants will have 296 times the voting power of the 1,876 persons in Echols County, the state's smallest. Heretofore, Fulton has had just three times Echols' voting power.

With a legislature stacked virtually the same way, Georgia's political history has been noted for agrarian conservatism and die-hard segregationism.

The court decision came in Council Sets Freedom Buses For The North

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—The Greater New Orleans Citizens Council scheduled "freedom buses north" to New York, Chicago and Los Angeles today in a chip-down test against charges that its campaign is a hoax.

United Press International learned that the council also was planning to send some Negroes to Hyannis Port, Mass., President Kennedy's summer home. George Singelmann, director of the campaign to send unhappy southern Negroes north, said the Hyannis Port schedule was not ready for announcement.

Singelmann said five Negroes would be sent to Chicago today on Continental Trailways.

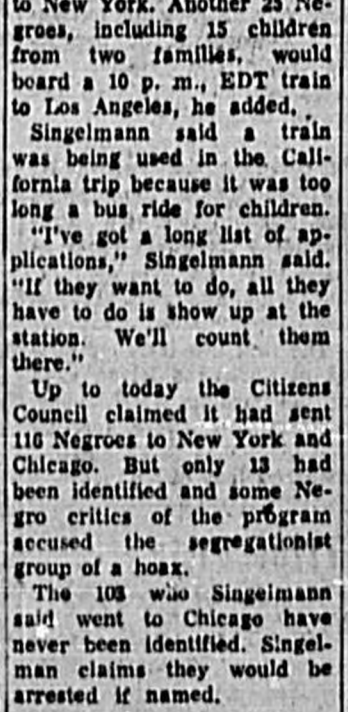

He said at least 100 would board a 12:45 p. m., EDT bus to New York. Another 25 Negroes, including 15 children from two families, would board a 10 p. m., EDT train to Los Angeles, he added.

Singelmann said a train was being used in the California trip because it was too long a bus ride for children.

"I've got a long list of applications," Singelmann said. "If they want to do, all they have to do is show up at the station. We'll count them there."

Up to today the Citizens Council claimed it had sent 116 Negroes to New York and Chicago. But only 13 had been identified and some Negro critics of the program accused the segregationist group of a hoax.

The 103 who Singelmann said went to Chicago have never been identified. Singelmann claims they would be arrested if named.

Brownie Troop Plans Tour Of Bakery

By Shirley Wentworth

Brownie Troop 111 of Bear Lake will make a field trip Tuesday morning for a tour of the American Bakery in downtown Orlando. Accompanying the girls will be Mrs. John Hall, leader of the troop and Mrs. Neel Buell, co-leader.

The Brownies recently enjoyed an Easter Egg Hunt at Mrs. Buell's home on Lake Branley. Noshbag lunches were brought by each girl and Mrs. Buell served cup cakes decorated as gay Easter baskets along with fruit punch.

Attending were Bo and Polly Brannon, Beth and Kris Dordner, Marsha Buell, Lee Conrad, Juanita Yates, Darlene Hall, Judy Hoover, Kay Riley and Jean Stevenson.

Girl Scouts Have All-Day Work Session

By Shirley Wentworth

Members of Bear Lake Girl Scout Troop 497 met at 8 a. m. last Thursday for an all day session at the home of their co-leader, Mrs. William Brannon.

Breakfast of pancakes and sausages was cooked over the outdoor fireplace as was the lunch of hamburgers and gingerbread, cooked in a Dutch oven, which were eaten with pineapple and cheese salad with iced tea as the beverage.

The girls, working on campcraft badges, received another lesson in knot tying and sawing and chopping wood during the morning.

After lunch and a game period, they made and filled May Day Baskets to be distributed to children at the Sunland Travelog Center in Orlando.

Present for the day were Vickie Brannon, Leslie Carmichael, Sandra Elliott, Jane Eppinger, Cheryl Hall, Candice Herrington, Mary Klinger, Patty Stevenson, Linda Wait and Janice Pleronek.

Girls of this troop also are taking swimming lessons two days a week with Don Hasky, Altamonte Springs Elementary teacher, as instructor.

Lake Mary COFC To Hear Requests

Numerous changes and amendments to by-laws of the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce will be recommended by the board of directors at Thursday night's meeting with perhaps the most important being to ease requirements of membership, Cliff Nelson, president of the group, reported today.

The meeting will be held at 8 p. m. in the Chamber of Commerce Hall.

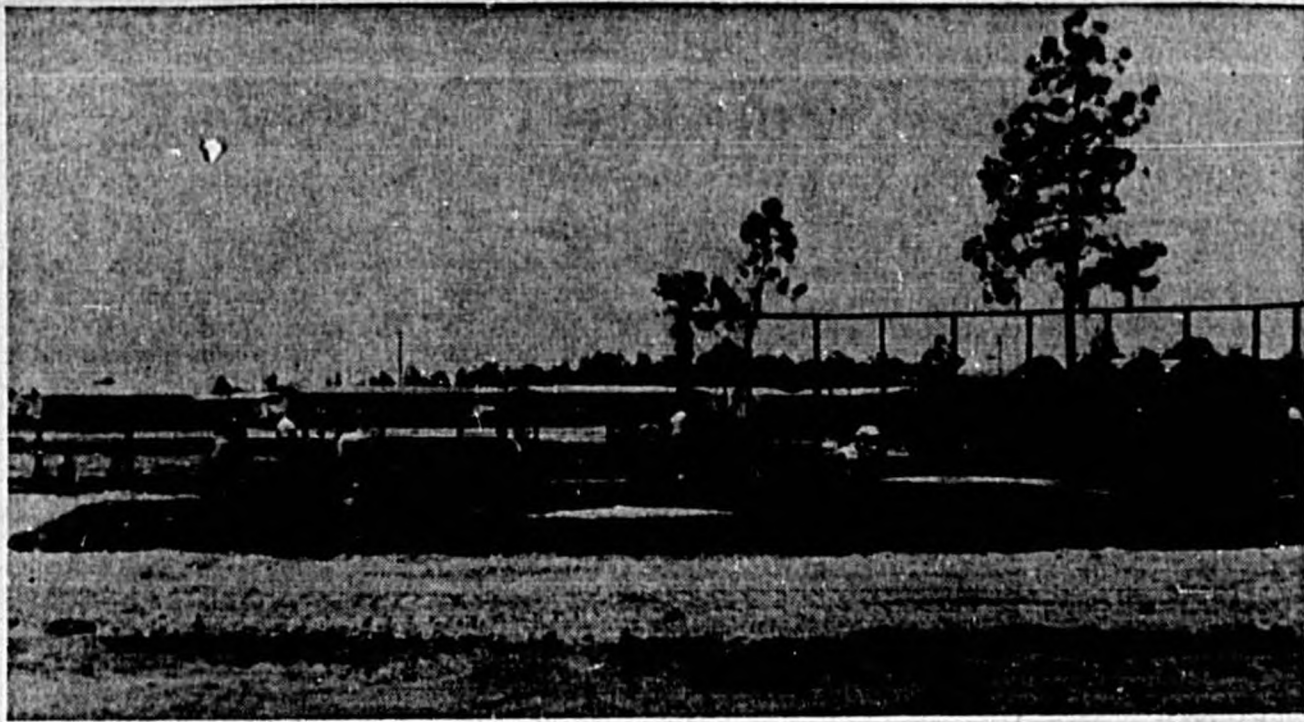

The group also will be asked to actively support a number of proposals to be recommended by safety committee men Fr. William Trainor and Harry Sandusky. A third person to work with this committee will be appointed from the membership at large at Thursday's meeting.

According to Nelson and Trainor, also chairman of the board, the proposals will include (1) installation of a fire hydrant at the Lake Mary Elementary School; (2) request for traffic warning blinker at the school to be controlled by school officials and for electrically activated signals at both rail road crossings in the community; (3) requests for a stop light at the business intersection and for signs at all approaches to the community.

Given the highest priority by the safety committee will be an immediate survey for the installation of sidewalks all the way from the school to Crystal Lake Park on the north side of Lake Mary as an added measure of protection for the children.

Nelson said that the directors, meeting twice during the past month, also considered needs in other areas of Chamber of Commerce activity which need immediate attention and that the board will ask for action in all matters as quickly as possible.

Largest Indian population of the 50 U. S. states is that of Arizona, which has 83,387 Indians or one in 16 persons in the state.

SOME REAL TEAMWORK was evidenced in North Orlando Saturday when boys who signed up for Little League Baseball in the community undertook the job of helping to sod the new diamond. Even the youngsters who aren't old enough to play turned out to give a hand. Registration for players will continue through the week at the Village Hall. (Herald Photo)

Seminoles Place 2nd In OBC Track Meet

By Ronnie Broadway
Herald Sports Editor

Cosch Jim Pigott can be justly proud of his Seminole Thinclads for their fine showing in the Orange Belt Conference Track Meet last Wednesday afternoon. The Seminole placed second in the seven school meet behind Winter Park. The meet was held in Orlando.

Don Harvey was high point man of the meet with a new O.B.C. record of 19 points. Harvey also set a new school and O.B.C. record in the Broad Jump with a jump of 21'9". Mike Champion was named the captain of the Seminole on the basis of his outstanding leadership.

Sanford racked up a total of 68 points for the day, Winter Park had 104 1/2, Leesburg had 48, Lakeview got only one, Apopka tallied 20, and DeLand had 22 1/2.

In the shot put event, Folker of Winter Park won with a throw of 46'8 1/4". Conner and Reynolds of Winter Park followed. Brown of Leesburg and Griffin of Apopka were next in line.

Barrs of DeLand ran the 120 high hurdles in 15.7, followed by Johnston of Winter Park, Axford of Leesburg, Dave Melanio and Huelan Grier of Sanford, Lansdale of Winter Park threw the discus 129'8" to take first in that event. He was followed by team mate Reynolds, Brown of Leesburg, Folker of Winter Park and Griffin of Apopka.

Don Harvey won the 100 yd. dash in 19.4. Buddy Lawson gave Sanford the first two places, Lawton of Winter Park was third, followed by Bradley of Leesburg, and Kevern of Apopka. Winter Park's Wilhitt took first, second was taken by Hill of Winter Park. Barron of Leesburg was third, Adkins of Winter Park fourth, and Dan McCall of Sanford was fifth.

Winter Park's team of Michaels, King, Savelle, and Lawton won the 880 relay in 1:34. Sanford was second, followed by Leesburg, DeLand, and Apopka. Belcher of Winter Park won the 440 yd. run in the time of 52.75. King of Apopka was second, followed by Gaines of Winter Park, Reiser of Winter Park, and Jimmy Jones of Sanford.

Johnson of Winter Park won the 180 low hurdles in 22 seconds. Sanford's Crisp Crawford was second, Rollman of Winter Park third, Savelle of Winter Park fourth, and Jim Wesslund of Sanford was fifth. Top of Winter Park won the 800 yd. run, followed by Dave MacGillis of Sanford, Curry of Leesburg, Selke of Winter Park and Ranson of Apopka. The winning time was 2:09.25.

Leesburg won the Sprint Medley Relay in 2:09.5 with the team of Lenhart, Branigan, Bradley and Axford. DeLand was second, Apopka third, and Sanford fourth. Axford of Leesburg won the high jump with a jump of 5'10". Don Harvey took second for Sanford, Griffin of DeLand and Jackson of Winter Park tied for third, and Mahaffey of DeLand took fifth.

Don Harvey took another first place as he won the broad jump event with a record jump of 21'9". King of Winter Park was second, Bubba Davis of Sanford third, Johnston of Winter Park was fourth, with Winter Park's Lansdale placing fifth. Buddy

Lawson took first place honors for Sanford in the 220 yd. dash with a time of 23.8. Lawton of Winter Park was second, followed by Don Harvey of Sanford, Jim Terwilliger of Sanford, and Moorman of Lakeview.

Reiser, Gaines, Parkes, and Michaels won the mile relay for Winter Park. Sanford was second, Leesburg third, Apopka fourth, and DeLand fifth. Leesburg's Axford won the pole vault event with a vault of 11'6". Sanford's Dave Melanio and Winter Park's King tied for second.

The Seminole must be commended for a fine track and field season with seven new school records being set during the 1962 season.

Bear Lake Cancer Drive Set Tuesday

Mrs. Alan Wentworth, cancer fund chairman for Bear Lake, announced today that a house to house collection will be made in the area on Tuesday.

Assisting Mrs. Wentworth in this year's drive for funds will be Mrs. Richard Scott, Mrs. Bernell Huston, Mrs. Stan Bury, Mrs. Raymond Jackson, Mrs. John Kirk, Mrs. Robert Conover, Mrs. Jay W. Malone, Mrs. Paul Bois, Mrs. Russell Loomis, Mrs. John Hall and Mrs. W. C. Eary.

May Fellowship Day

The United Church Women of Sanford will observe May Fellowship Day at a program and coffee to be held at the First Methodist Church on Friday beginning at 10 a.m.

Mrs. F. A. Dyson is city chairman of the United Church Women. The program will be under the direction of Mrs. L. D. Hastings, president of the Methodist Church Women. Arrangements for the coffee are under direction of Mrs. Roy Tillis.

The program theme will be entitled "One Family Under God." Reports will be heard from Mrs. S. O. Chase on work accomplished during the year with migrants in Florida and announcements will be made concerning plans for continuing the project including providing children's toys to be presented at the annual World Community Day program in November.

Mrs. Bart Hinson will report on fitted school bags sent to South American countries and will tell plans for "sewing bags" to be made by women of various church circles during the summer in time for the November program.

Mrs. Dyson has extended an invitation to all ladies of Sanford churches to attend the Fellowship Day in order to become better acquainted and to enjoy the coffee.

Arms And The Men

With the United States still trying doggedly at Geneva to find a beginning basis for major disarmament, free men everywhere can do no less than offer continuing full support of this effort.

There are plenty of reasons why we should welcome reversal of the arms buildup. Among them are its frightening cost, its sterile waste of the national substance, its diversion of effort from the vital human needs of a free society.

One argument often made by some liberal elements in this country does not stand up very well, however, in the test of 20th-century history. It is that an arms race, in and of itself, inevitably leads to war.

Bernadotte Schmitt, an eminent historian of World War I, found the direct causes of that conflict in the sharp political competition for the Balkan lands of Southeast Europe between Russia on the one hand and Germany-Austria on the other.

These competing forces — and their allies in Europe — were to be sure arming substantially in the years 1910-14. But it was the crossing of Slavic and Germanic paths of ambition in the Balkans which brought on war.

As for World War II, it was not arms competition but the very lack of it which emboldened Adolph Hitler on his course of conquest.

The diplomatic memoirs and histories of this period make abundantly clear that fears of Hitler's arms repeatedly weakened British and French resolve to resist his steadily bolder gestures toward war.

Sir Winston Churchill's history of the war notes ironically that it was later discovered Hitler at the outset had nothing like as much military substance as he was thought to have. But he was a good bluffer, and Britain and France believed in the idea that a decisive arms disparity did in fact exist. They knew they had little.

Thus the notion some liberals have that two great powers arming to high levels must inescapably clash is not supported by the big wars of this century. In one the arms buildup was a secondary factor; in the other it was one-sided.

The image of two massive arms establishments awaiting to be touched off by an accidental match does not seem to be the specter really troubling our diplomats. If some of their recent background utterances are a measure, what they may truly fear is a Soviet arms development that, as in Hitler's time, would once more create a dangerously one-sided situation against us.

A genuinely effective antimissile missile is a striking example of what worries many U. S. leaders most.

The peril, then, rests not in a balanced U. S.-Soviet buildup, no matter how huge the arms stockpile. It resides in the threat that at some point in the race the Communist enemy may score a breakthrough and end the stalemate.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Hedda Hopper deserves a tremendous salute from all patriotic Americans with "horse sense." Scrapbook this case and also send for the booklet below so you can give your children the true facts about the U.S. We need a complete house-cleaning in government and you housewives should be experts at the job.

CASE M-407: Hedda Hopper is one of America's foremost columnists.

For years she has been complaining about the movies that have been shown abroad which put us in a bad light.

Distortion of America by slanting these films can do more harm in one year than our entire State Department may offset in probably a decade.

For example, Miss Hopper says a recent movie we sent to the Edinburgh Film Festival was called "The Ediles" and dealt with American Indians on the town in Los Angeles.

Another, titled "In the River of the Streets," was an 11-minute orgy of staggering demerits on skid row—and in color, too.

As Miss Hopper so aptly suggests, why should we send such obviously inappropriate films abroad when the primary purpose of such pictures is to win friends around the world for the U.S.A.?

"Dr. Crane," some folks have replied, "doesn't it look like a deliberate 'plant' by communistic sympathizers in this country?"

Well, what do you readers think?

If you were on a committee to select the movies that were to go to Europe, Africa or Asia to cement goodwill and international brotherhood, would you pick a film showing our chronic drunks on skid row?

"Sabotage" is just a lot of loyal Americans doubting would exclaim about such inappropriate and abnormal scenes of America.

When you housewives are expecting company, you certainly try to put your best foot forward, don't you?

So you do a quick house-cleaning and thus try to show off to good advantage.

You don't try to demonstrate any cockroaches in isolated corners of the cupboard. Nor do you focus the attention of visitors on termite in the woodwork or on your unfinished washing or ironing.

But many of our films and even some of our radio broadcasts beamed toward Eastern Europe have stressed the seamy side of America. Why?

"But they are true," the smart aleck proponents may declare.

And they may be correct; but there is a vast difference between a scene that is "true but unusual" versus one that is "true and typical."

When our churches send representatives abroad, they don't pick out chronic drunks or hoodlums and gangsters.

No, indeed. They select men and women of high motives and a sincere desire to spread true brotherhood.

They don't pick chronic "tax-eaters" who are chiefly interested in remaining on a governmental payroll and throwing their weight around as bureaucrats.

So it is time that all loyal Americans began to unite in the common cause of "horse sense."

We have had too much "jackass psychology" on the part of both parties in Washington, so let's have a house-cleaning.

You wives are expert at that, so the best hope for cleaning up America and balancing our budget depends on you.

Join Hedda Hopper's crusade to inject more gumption both at home and abroad.

Dick West Says

The Capitol At Spring Tra-La

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If ever you need something to make your heart sing, I recommend that you acquire a copy of the Congressional Record and turn to page 6005.

There you will find, in all of its glorious fullness, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen's lyrical oration on spring flowers. Just the thought of it makes me choke up. This is not so much sentiment, however, as pollen dust, which gives me hay fever.

For the past two days, Dirksen has been engaged in a running—debate with Sen. Hubert Humphrey over blossom time on Capitol Hill.

Their Ferdinand-like dispute began Wednesday when Humphrey, a Minnesota Democrat and part-time robin, arose to inform his colleagues that spring was abounding in the great outdoors.

The trees were lacy with green, he trilled; the birds were on the wing. But, he noted sadly, the Capitol grounds were almost barren of the floral beauty associated with the season.

Steps should be taken, he said, to make the Capitol "fringed with gardens" so that all might enjoy "the natural colors and blossoms of nature."

Humphrey's aesthetic observations caused a stirring in the breast of Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader whose larynx is lined with rose petals.

Declaring himself "transported" by the discouraging Dirksen nevertheless felt constrained to point out that planting flowers is a risky undertaking until the danger of frost has passed.

To be sure, he said, "the gentle, multicolored panicles" would bravely raise their "dainty heads" without fear of being nipped by frost. So would the daffodil, whose "sprightly dance" inspired the poem by Wordsworth. Ditto "the stately tulip."

But dahlia, which "always entrances the eye," must be careful lest their tiny shoots

A very special note of thanks to you and the Sanford Herald is appropriate at this time. I am sure that I speak for the Florida Heart Association and the Seminole-DeBary Heart Council when I say that we feel that your tremendous help in publicizing the activities of the Council and the recent Heart Fund Drive is one of the finest community service activities in our experience.

The citizens of your area and the many readers of the Sanford Herald certainly must be more alert to the heart disease problem since you have called attention to its very serious nature. We particularly appreciate the wonderful cooperation from you and Mrs. Dorothy Higginbotham.

Please accept our thanks for your help in raising funds to help find the answers to the heart diseases. Our thanks, also, to the citizens of Seminole County and DeBary for their generous contributions.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—President Kennedy has a perfect audience to hear his views on business at the 80th annual meeting of U. S. Chamber of Commerce here April 20-May 2.

The President will make the opening address. Last year he declined an invitation to speak at the Chamber's convention. This was one of the early factors in building up an impression that the President was "antibusiness."

Now, with the steel price issue still very fresh in everyone's mind there is still some uncertainty on the question.

Republican congressional leaders have whipped up the idea that no president should use the enormous powers of the federal government "to blackjack any segment of our free society into line with his personal judgment, without regard to law."

The day before this blast the President told his press conference that, "I believe, in fact, that the leaders of American industry are in basic agreement on far more objectives than we are in disagreement."

H. Ladd Plumley, board chairman of a Worcester, Mass., mutual life insurance company, who will be installed as new president of the U. S. Chamber at its coming meeting, takes a view somewhat between these extremes.

He declares that the public and business were shocked and disquieted by both the U. S. Steel Corporation's price increase and some of the government's reactions.

After the President's reassurance quoted above, Plumley declared that it was "welcome news that no change is contemplated in holding the reins of government to the minimum level needed to protect the public interest."

Plumley expresses some concern that protecting this national interest might involve the government in every activity of business. He did not comment on how bad a president might be who failed to protect the national interest at every opportunity. But he called for co-operation of business, labor and government, which is of course what everybody wants.

The two most active lobbies in Washington are unquestionably the American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations and the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. Their duplicating machines and printing presses grind out a daily volume of releases, statements and speeches on every subject, equaling the output of the White House.

Pronouncements which the Washington headquarters of U. S. Chamber of Commerce has put out this year give a good idea of business thinking. Taken together, they might lead to a conclusion that they are not pro-Kennedy, whether the President is probusiness or not.

They want a new tax bill with a larger investment credit, larger and faster depreciation allowances and a deduction for lobbying expenses in influencing Congressional legislation. They favor freer foreign trade, but they oppose federal aid for education, health care under Social Security. They would abolish all National Labor Relations Board functions except for supervising union representation elections.

They would cut the whole federal budget by $5 billion. They would cut the $4.8 billion foreign aid program by $1.1 billion, but they would give private enterprise a larger role in building up underdeveloped countries. They would cut Health, Education and Welfare programs by $1 billion, Agriculture by $375 million and Interior by over $100 million.

But the history of the Chamber has not been all negative.

Blackford's Hot Bat Paces Lyman 9

Hounds Rap Leesburg

By Ronnie Broadway
Herald Sports Editor
Paul Blackford's four singles in five trips to the plate lifted Coach Jim Payne's Lyman baseballers to their 11th win of the season Saturday night as they rallied in the last inning to drop the Leesburg nine by a 7-5 score.

Leesburg was in control all the way until the last inning when Blackford rapped out a single to score the tie-breaking runs for Lyman.

Payne's Greyhounds jumped off to an early 1-0 lead in the top of the first inning when Blackford singled, stole second, and scored on a single by Roy Lisk. However, Leesburg came back in the bottom of the inning to take a 3-1 lead.

Leesburg picked up one run in the fifth inning on a single, an error and a passed ball. This gave the Yellow Jackets a 4-2 lead. However, the Greyhounds were not to be denied as they countered in the top half of the sixth inning to tie the score and break the ball game wide open.

Leesburg was unable to score and Jim Williams walked from the mound with his fourth win of the season under his belt. He has yet to lose a game.

SATURDAY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Am- biopole won the $85,000 Grey Lag Handicap at Aqueduct as a sacrifice fly by Roy Lisk tied the game at 4-4.

Leesburg was not to give up so easily either, as the sixth inning saw a wild pitch and a single. Leesburg once again was on top by one run, 5-4.

Things looked bad for the 'Hounds as they came to bat in the top of the final stanza, but Freddie Grant drew a free pass to first on four bad pitches. Bob Elgin sacrificed Grant to second base. Rick McCanna blasted a double to score Grant and the game was once again all even.

Lyman walked to put two Lyman runners on base. Once again, Paul Blackford came to the plate and hit his fourth single of the game. Both McCanna and Lynch scored on the hit, and Lyman led 7-5. Leesburg was unable to score and Jim Williams walked from the mound with his fourth win of the season under his belt. He has yet to lose a game.

Blackford was, without a doubt, the big hitter in the game, going four-for-five. McCanna got two safeties in three official times at the plate, and Lisk went two-for-four. The Greyhounds are now boasting an 11-4 season record.

Lyman picked up seven runs on ten hits, while the Yellow Jackets scored five runs on six hits.

Kiasimnee's nine will be in town Tuesday to do battle with the Greyhounds. Gene Griffin will probably be the starting hurler for Lyman. Payne will send Williams to the mound once again Friday when Lyman hosts New Smyrna Beach. Both games will get underway at 4 p. m. at Longwood field.

WITH ... Dottie Higginbotham

IT IS A RARE PRIVILEGE for American Catholics to be able to go to St. Peter's Cathedral in Rome, and an opportunity to do so is a memorable occasion.

Even more memorable is it to be able to bring a new baby into this world-famous cathedral for baptism. Dr. and Mrs. Howard Runge of Sanford had the privilege of having two of their children baptized there.

Before taking up practice a few months ago in Sanford, Dr. Runge (who is a native Sanfordin) was stationed in Europe while he completed his tour of duty with Uncle Sam.

First son, William, was born in Vicenza, in the Po Valley of North Italy, some of the most beautiful country in Europe. For William's baptism, the Runge went down to Rome where Lt. Col. John Rettigaglia was allowed to perform the service in the baptismal font, at the foot of the huge painting of St. John baptizing Christ. In a special burst of generosity, they were also allowed to take pictures of the event.

Later when Jim was born in the hospital in Hiedelburg, the Runge again went down to Rome, this time taking the Europa Express through Switzerland and Italy where an old friend, a Jesuit priest, Father John Long, who was attending the American College in Rome, was allowed to perform the same baptismal ceremony for young Jim as the Monsignor stood by.

At this service, which was held in the sacristy, Dr. Runge was allowed to serve the Mass, before an altar which had been donated to the cathedral by the postal workers of New York.

They also had the honor of meeting Cardinal Spellman who was on a special visit to Rome at that time.

In their travels they visited almost every country in Europe, including the British Isles and Ireland, and Sweden and Denmark.

Howard and Katherine Runge have particular reason to remember their trip to Ireland—in fact, several reasons. One was that they thought the Irish people were the nicest, friendliest and most hospitable of any they met anywhere, and the food there was delicious, the accommodations gracious and comfortable.

However, Howard's vacation leave was drawing to a close and with only a few hours left to get back to the base, the airline workers struck. So there they were, stranded in Ireland, and time running out.

The night was wild and dark with a fierce storm howling when they embarked on a small, overcrowded boat to sail from Ireland to England. The voyage was very rough, the ship small and the passengers sick and anxious . . . but they made it.

Another highlight of their travels through Europe were the visits to the castles in Bavaria, especially the one called Ludwig's Fairy Castle.

The castles are fantastic, with unbelievably rich and ornate furnishings, including exquisite tapestries, fabulous oil paintings, delicate porcelain lamps, dishes and ornaments, gold leaf all over everything, and inlaid parquet floors too beautiful to walk upon.

The Runge have many souvenirs and possessions to remind them of the very enjoyable three years they spent in Europe, including a number of items of furniture, paintings, crystal and china.

They also have two more children, little Mary Ellen, born at Fort Jackson in 1961, and a brand new baby, Ted, born at Seminole Memorial Hospital on March 20.

Thanks to personal financial means or the direct orders of Uncle Sam, thousands of Americans have been able to spend from a few weeks to a few years in Europe and on other foreign continents, and it has been my privilege to talk and discuss these trips with many of these fortunate ones. But it is my considered opinion that few people have ever learned as much, appreciated as much or enjoyed as much on these travels as Howard and Katherine Runge.

LOST-STRAYED-OR STOLEN are these 1937 graduates of Seminole High School: Pauline Dale, Edith Merritt, Robert Mauser, Virginia Murray, Betty Meyer and Jack Purdon.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts or how to reach them is requested to telephone the information to Dot Stewart (Mrs. Robert) Williams immediately as plans for the 1937 class reunion to be held June 7 are well under way. Other classmates will be receiving a letter this week informing them of planned participation at the Class Day activities to be held at 1:30 p.m. at Seminole High School. At 7 p.m. all the 1937 grads will meet at the Capri for supper and a real reunion.

TWO LOCAL RAINBOW GIRLS, Danella Wright and Ann Alken have been appointed to serve at the Grand Assembly at Miami June 17 to 20, when Rainlow Girls from all over the state will meet for their annual get-together. Danella will serve as Grand Page and Ann will sing in the Grand Choir.

EASTER VACATION served a double purpose for Charmione Miller, who has now returned to Stetson University. She visited with the Malcolm Barbers in Winter Haven, where she served as maid of honor at the wedding of her classmate, Jane Barber.

THE MODERN VERSION of the old Tom Sawyer story took place in Pinecrest last week where chinch bugs have been running rampant through everyone's lawn.

Ruby and Norris Jordan had joined the rest of the neighbors in pulling up all that was left of the pitiful, sucked-dry roots of a once-flourishing lawn. However, they must have looked pretty happy digging and pulling and raking, for the neighborhood children soon began to ask if they might be "allowed" to help.

Cautiously, the Jordans conceded that they might be permitted to join the fun. Well, they wound up with about 10 kids from age three to 11 years old all joyously pulling, digging, raking and lugging away the dead grass.

In celebration of the finish of the job, Ruby and Norris decided to throw a party for all the workers. It was hot dogs and hamburgers with all the trimmings, consumed with gusto by all the young helpers, and served in gratitude for youthful enthusiasm and the spirit of neighborliness.

IT WAS IN PINECREST, also, that we heard about the young lady, combining work and pleasure, who carted her ironing board, iron and ironing out of doors, put on her two-piece bathing suit and set to work to make the most of the situation.

A MODERN LAWYER'S description of the Trial of Christ could well become a classic Easter tradition among clubs and organizations in Sanford, as given by young attorney, Ken McIntosh.

He presented it at the Presbyterian Men's Club last week. Those who have heard this impressive oratory say it should be heard by everyone every Easter.

WORLD TRAVELERS Henry and Ruth Simpson arrived back in Geneva Saturday from their trip to the South Seas and the Far East. I'm sure they'll have lots of pictures to show and stories to tell about their adventures and travels to all us stay-at-homes. Welcome back, Ruth and Henry.

POSING FOUR YOUNGSTERS under four years old in one part talent and nine parts luck, and here are Dr. and Mrs. Howard Runge with their four children. At left, Jim coaxes the sleeping baby, Ted, to open his eyes, as young William pats baby brother tenderly, while Dad has all he can do to hold on to a squirmy little charmer, Mary Ellen, as they all "ait" for a family portrait. Anniversaries Celebrated At Reel Home

Mr. and Mrs. Watson Reel entertained with a dinner, Easter Sunday at their home on Lake Emma in honor of their 38th wedding anniversary and their son Gwynn's birthday, which was on Saturday.

The children enjoyed an Easter egg hunt, then tables were set up in the breezeway where a delicious ham and turkey dinner was served. The group sang "Happy Birthday" to Gwynn and to two of the guests who were also celebrating birthdays that week. They were August Krakaw and Mrs. W. H. Schmidt.

Those enjoying the day were Mrs. Reel, Mrs. Ramon Reel, Ramon, Stevie, Diana and Donna; Mr. and Mrs. Gwynn Reel, Marshall and Bret; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schmidt of Port Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. August Krakaw and son Roger from Baltimore, Md.

Truthseekers Plan Annual May Picnic

The Truthseekers Class met at McKinley Hall Monday with Mrs. R. W. Turner presiding. The devotion was given by Mrs. W. P. Chapman with silent prayer for the family of Miss Bessie Zachary.

Mrs. Chapman based her devotion on three short commands: "Come Unto Me," "Love the Lord Thy God" and "Go Ye Into All the World," with comments on each. Several hymns were sung and she read a poem entitled "Decease."

Mrs. Katherine Atkinson sang a solo, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus," accompanied by Mrs. Eva Harkey, and birthday greetings were extended to Mrs. R. W. Friedle.

During the business session plans were made for the annual picnic dinner which will be held in May at the home of Mrs. Chapman. Hostesses were Mrs. Eva Harkey, Mrs. J. B. Crawford and Mrs. L. E. White who served refreshments.

Members present included the Meses. Katherine Atkinson, W. P. Chapman, R. F. Crenshaw, Bertha David, R. W. Friedle, R. L. Griffin, C. L. Hewson, F. D. Hickok, J. F. McClellan, C. C. Priest, J. F. Riser, Octavia Rumbley, R. W. Turner, J. G. Walts, W. E. Timms, Olive Wells, T. E. Wilson and R. M. Mason.

Crazy Hat Party Sponsored By CPO Wives Club

Members of the CPO Wives Club met in the NAS Ballroom for the monthly session and made plans for a Hawaiian Luau on June 16.

Mrs. Roy J. Morris, vice president, gave a talk on the Federation of Women's Clubs meeting. The CPO Club has recently become a member of this organization.

New Members of the club welcomed by the group were Mrs. S. L. Wiggins, Mrs. Henry Quinn and Mrs. George Mireles.

Following the program, a crazy hat show was presented. The women wore hats representing many themes such as Easter, Spring, Cape Canaveral, telephones and many more.

Mrs. William Marsh won first prize for her silver cake pan, covered with multicolor ribbons; Mrs. Roy J. Morris was second with her original silver foil covered wicker basket hat. In the basket was every kind of costume jewelry imaginable and a sign saying "all that glitters is not gold."

Mrs. Jo Stankiewicz had the funniest creation, a small gilded bird cage, lined with Easter foil and holding a live parakeet.

On the committee for the crazy hat party were Mrs. Fred Murray and Mrs. A. E. Kelly.

Linens destined for storage should be laundered but not starched. This prevents damage by silverfish—pests who are attracted by the taste of starch.

Garden Circles

JACARANDA CIRCLE Members of the Jacaranda Circle met at the home of Mrs. J. T. Little, on Oak Ave., for the April meeting.

The Little home was an Easter wonderland with unusual arrangements of Easter eggs, tulips, an Easter egg dragon and an egg tree on the dining table.

Mrs. Irving Pryor conducted the business meeting, during which plans were made for the flower show and a project for shut-ins during the Easter season.

Miss Lucille Campbell conducted a "button garden" workshop that proved to be very interesting. Each member took home a miniature garden of unusual settings.

Mrs. Little and co-hostesses, Mrs. Boyd Gaines and Mrs. Pryor, served refreshments of jello fruit salad, in the form of Easter eggs, with wafers, nuts and coffee.

WOODROSE CIRCLE Mrs. Walter Gardner and Mrs. Robert Lockwood were co-hostesses for the April meeting of the Woodrose Circle, Chairman, Mrs. A. S. Poulter, conducted the business session. Plans for landscaping were discussed and members voted to send a child to the Junior Nature Camp, in Ocala.

Mrs. J. D. Woodruff presented a program on "wild flowers and trees." She stressed the 400 varieties which are native to this area and which if you plan to transplant a tree, it should be pruned two months in advance.

A picnic lunch and visit to the Garden Barn is planned for May.

Others attending were Meses. James Carley, D. K. Dorman, Fred Gray, A. S. Poulter, Lee Saltee, Everett Terry, John Gorman, John Walker, Carmen Jordan, James Serton, William Rogers, Ed Miller and James Walck.

Mrs. V. D. Monroe Wins High Score At VAH-5 Bridge

Mrs. J. L. Shipman was hostess for the monthly bridge of VAH-5 Officers Wives, held in the Afterburner room.

Special guests of the squadron were Mrs. Jack Bell and Mrs. D. W. Sanford. High score winner for the morning was Mrs. V. D. Monroe and Mrs. H. W. Johnson was low.

Others attending were Mrs. R. E. Farmer, Mrs. L. H. Settle, Mrs. N. W. Thomson, Mrs. C. L. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. T. E. Mead, Mrs. R. D. Cook, Mrs. D. E. Boose, Mrs. J. W. Lillis, Mrs. J. A. Latherow, Mrs. R. W. Repp and Mrs. R. D. Murphy.

Geneva Club Plans Meeting Wednesday

The last meeting of the season for the Geneva Garden Club will be held Wednesday at the home of Miss Doris A. Cline. The business meeting starts at 10:30 a. m. with Mrs. Cader Hart, president presiding, followed by a covered dish luncheon at noon.

The afternoon will be devoted to horticulture, including a garden quiz with prizes awarded to those with the highest scores. Mrs. A. C. Dickerson, of Gray Shadows Nursery, Sanford, has been invited to lead a discussion on horticulture. Mrs. Dickerson is an honorary member of the Geneva Club.

Mrs. Don Perry would like to remind members to bring plants for a sale planned at the close of the meeting. Hostesses are Mrs. William A. Yung, Miss Cline, Mrs. Charles Brumley and Mrs. William D. Curtin.

Program On Art Presented By Sorority

Mrs. Jack Erickson was hostess for a recent meeting of the Theta Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, sorority, at her home in Sunland Estates.

An entertaining program on art was presented by Mrs. Art Lee, Mrs. Donald Haynes and Mrs. Burt Revels. Color slides, used in teaching art in the elementary schools, were shown to the group.

Two Beta Sigma Phi members transferring into this area from out-of-state locations attended the meeting. They were Mrs. Charles Kruse from Memphis, Tenn., and Mrs. Bertie McDaniels from Gulfport, Miss.

Other members attending were Mrs. Tom Largent, Mrs. Jack Little, Mrs. Bob McKee, Mrs. Bill Rivero, Mrs. Don Smith, Mrs. Stuart Stetson, Mrs. Garnett White, Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mrs. Dick Houghton, Mrs. Randy Reynolds, Mrs. Walter Bohannon and Mrs. Al Davis.

Two signers of the Declaration of Independence later became U. S. presidents: Thomas Jefferson and John Adams.

Friends Honor Miss Avenel With Surprise Birthday Party

Miss Bonnie Avenel was guest of honor on her 17th birthday at a surprise party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Avenel Sr., 108 Baywood Circle, in Sunland Estates.

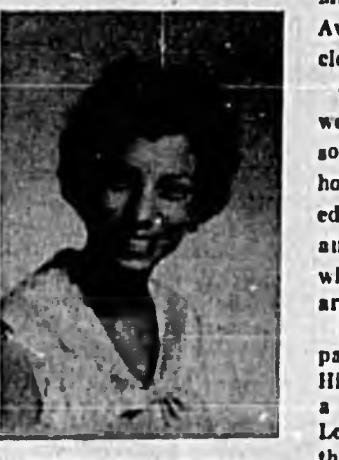

Co-chairman of the party were Cheryl and Ken Williamson. To keep her from leaving home Ken came over and asked for help on an English exam. They were busy studying when a large group of friends arrived for the party.

Dancing was enjoyed on the patio to music from the Hit Fl. Highlight of the evening was a Hula dance, led by Nicki Lewis, Darlene Knight and the honoree.

Light refreshments, birthday cake and ice cream were served during the party hours.

By "a cover," philatelists mean an envelope that has passed through the mails and bears postal markings of philatelic interest.

LOANS MADE TO RESIDENTS OF ALL NEARBY TOWNS

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I live in Anchorage, Alaska, and can tell your "Curious" reader that Eskimos DO rub noses to show affection, but it is no substitute for a kiss. Also, please tell your readers that we do not live in igloos. The only igloo I ever saw was in a picture book and I am 42 years old.

ANCHORAGE RESIDENT

DEAR ABBY: Take it from a G.I. who spent a year in Greenland: The only nose I rubbed among the Eskimos was my own!

"COLD PROPOSITION"

DEAR ABBY: Yes, the Eskimos DO rub noses instead of kissing for common sense reasons. It is so cold that if they kissed, their lips would get stuck together.

DEAR ABBY: May I quote Peter Freuchen, a Dane, and the foremost authority on Eskimos and their customs:

"A standard of beauty among the Eskimos is the nose. Eskimos do not kiss. They rub noses in greeting, but there is never any pressing of the lips together, not even when boy meets girl."

DEAR ABBY: The Eskimos DO NOT rub noses instead of kissing. Years ago, when the T. B. epidemic was a threat among the Eskimos, they avoided kissing for reasons of health. But now they kiss like any other people.

"OLD FUR TRADER"

DEAR ABBY: I am a retired Coast Guardsman who was assigned to the Alaska Seal Patrol for 18 years. We traveled so far west we were actually going east all the way out to the Siberian Pribilof Islands. Eskimos do rub noses when they meet, but it's man-to-man, man-to-woman, brother-to-sister and all sorts of combinations. It is more like a handshake than a kiss.

RETIRED SEAMAN

DEAR SEAMAN: Thank you. I am so glad to know that a kiss is still a kiss!

For a personal (unpublished) reply to your problem, send Abby a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3885, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Highlights

TV Time Previews

8-9 p. m. CBS. Golden Showcase. "The Devil and Daniel Webster," starring Edward G. Robinson, David Wayne, Tim O'Conner and Betty Lou Holland. An adaptation of the famed and fascinating tale of a New England farmer who sells his soul to the devil, then gets the voluble Daniel Webster to help him get it back. The loquacious lawyer-statesman fights a weird court of the dead. Tonight's production is one of this season's more notable attempts to adapt first-rate stories that have already been successfully adapted in motion-picture form.

8:30-9 p. m. ABC. The Rifleman. "Outlaw Shoes." A blow on the head a resultant loss of memory turns Lucas McCain into an outlaw (or so he thinks) in tonight's episode. After being knocked out by outlaws, Lucas wakes up wearing the clothes of one of the men and a gun engraved with the name of outlaw George Vale. In Lucas' battered brain, the thought that he is George Vale strikes home. Chuck Connors stars, with guests Michael Green and Mel Carter.

9-10 p. m. NBC. 87th Precinct. "The Lover." Janis Paige, a very talented singer-dancer and Broadway star, displays considerable acting ability playing a public stenographer who is hired to take the will of a millionaire. He dies shortly after and her life becomes endangered. With detective Haviland (Gregory Walcott) she helps ferret out the would-be assassin. Regulars Robert Lansing, Ron Harper and Norman Fell are also featured.

9-9:30 p. m. CBS. The Danny Thomas Show. Danny jumps to conclusions again, this time the wrong one, and he is mighty ashamed. Uncle Tonooose sends cousin Don (Don Penny) to Danny, hoping he will launch the boy's theatrical career. Danny finds the charge inauspiciously egotistical and plots a nitery debut for him that's sure to flop. But Danny discovers the reason for that rash exterior and tries to make amends. Not bad.

9:30-10 p. m. CBS. The Andy Griffith Show. There is something comical about clumminess, and a lot comical about tonight's show due to the clumminess of Barney's cousin Virgil, played by Michael Pollard. Virgil begins by disappearing from the bus that is supposed to be bringing him to town, and proceeds to upset other plans to make him welcome. He also upsets almost every breakable item that gets within his reach. Don Knotts, Ronny Howard and Frances Bavier.

North and South should have no trouble scoring par with this hand from the intercollegiate tournament. All they must do is arrive at three no-trump and make as many as eight tricks. Of course, they are supposed to make the contract if the defense slips and the tough par on the hand is for East and West. They must set the hand. Assuming that North is declarer the normal spade opening will eliminate all problems in that suit. He will have two spade tricks right off the bat. He also has three clubs and one heart and the

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR SEMINOLE COUNTY, FLORIDA.
IN CHANCERY NO. 13978
MORTGAGE PROMISSORY NOTE, DEED AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America.

vs. GEORGE COOK and CATHERINE COOK, his wife.

NOTICE OF SUIT
TO GEORGE COOK and CATHERINE COOK, his wife.

Plaintiff, GEORGE COOK and CATHERINE COOK, his wife, and all other parties claiming any right, title, and/or interest in and to the following described property, to-wit:

Lots 18 and 19 of SHADY OAK, SEMINOLE COUNTY, Florida, as shown on the Plat thereof as recorded in Plat Book 11, Page 24, of the Public Records of Seminole County, Florida.

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that the Plaintiff, WINTER PARK FURNISHING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America, has instituted suit against you in the Circuit Court of the Ninth Judicial Circuit in and for Seminole County, Florida, the nature of the suit is to foreclose a certain mortgage bearing date of November 16, 1956, recorded in O.R. Jobs For Youth Sought For Sanford

THE ANNUAL EGG HUNT sponsored by the Florida Power Club of Enterprise on Easter Sunday afternoon was attended by 41 children who hunted some 32 dozen eggs hidden earlier by a group of fathers. To give the smaller children a better chance, the hunt was staged in two separate areas, one for those under seven years of age, top photo, and one for those more than seven years old, bottom photo. (Cox Photos)

The cheetah has been employed for centuries in India and middle eastern countries in hunting antelope and other animals. It is taken to the field hooded and chained in a low car without sides. When the game is within about 200 yards the cheetah is loosed. Over short distances the cheetah can probably outrun any other animal.

Flameless Electric Water Heating

IS SUPER-FAST AND SUPER-SAFE!

Your whole family will love the modern-day comfort and convenience of a flameless Electric Water Heater. No waiting, no worry...you'll always have lots of hot water as a hurry, as fast as you can use it.

Only an Electric Water Heater is flameless, fumeless and odorless, so no flue or vent is required. The heat is sealed in...none is wasted up the flue. This spells ECONOMY.

There is no open flame or constant-burning pilot flame to worry about. The outer shell is cool to the touch all over. An Electric Water Heater can be installed anywhere you want it. It's the only kind that gives priceless peace of mind...the only water heater that's as clean and noiseless as a light bulb.

If you're building or remodeling...or just plain need a new water heater...use the new super-fast, super-safe FLAMELESS ELECTRIC models at your appliance dealer, plumber, or electrical contractor. Heating water electrically is the smartest way today—tomorrow the only way.

A FLAMELESS ELECTRIC WATER HEATER IS INCLUDED IN EVERY MEDALLION HOME

There's no match for flameless Electric Living...IT'S CHEAPER, TOO!

W. Scott Burns, Mgr. HELPING BUILD FLORIDA 207 Mag. Ave.

Joe Foy, manager of the local office of the Florida State Employment Service, announced the launching today of the local phase of the nationwide drive to find jobs for young people who are out of school and unemployed.

Noting that Governor Farris Bryant and Mayor J. H. Crapps have strongly endorsed the campaign, Foy said his office will step up its regular promotion of jobs for out-of-school youth and also enlist support in the push for jobs.

"We are calling for community cooperation to help end the joblessness of this new generation of workers. This is a problem that reaches into every home; it touches on our way of thinking and our way of doing things. We can't waste people," Foy said.

Reviewing the problem which confronts the community, Mr. Foy said that here in Sanford there are many young people qualified to step into responsible jobs but unable to find them. Others have potential to qualify quickly for trainee and other beginner jobs but haven't received an offer.

'Corruption' Charged In Citrus Industry

Rutledge Criticizes 'Some'

LAKELAND (UPI) — Executive Vice President Robert W. Rutledge of Florida Citrus Mutual has denounced some members of the citrus industry for growing "corrupt" from easy marketing years and not having the courage to demand adequate prices for this year's large orange crop.

In a special message to Mutual's nearly 12,000 members Monday, Rutledge said "Too many in this industry are being sadly weakened by their self-induced fear. When trouble comes they're trembling so hard with panic and fright they scurry to the most expedient shelter. Their business judgment has been corrupted by easy money and easy sales that came from short crops and scarcity of products."

Rutledge called on the industry to stop underrating "the value of Florida oranges and orange products." He asked it to "Look at the clear sales facts and the confidence of the American consumer in us and our products to strengthen our own faith in ourselves."

Of those who underrate the value of the product, Rutledge said "They chop out makeshift marketing deals with a hatchet too dull to cut anything but high prices."

He said Mutual was "completely confident" the industry could market in a profitable and orderly fashion the 101 million box orange crop — largest in history — that is forecast by the federal government.

He noted that sales of frozen orange concentrate, which consumes 60 per cent of orange production, were 21 per cent higher than for the comparable period last season.

Rutledge suggested measures to combat such situations—creation of an emergency advertising fund, use of the citrus stabilization amendment to enable growers to pay for their own relief measures, and a comprehensive product research and development program to find new citrus uses.

Final Political Rally Slated

The final political rally of this campaign will be held in the auditorium at Sanford Junior High School Thursday at 8 p. m. with all candidates expected to be present for this wind-up session.

Prior to the speech-making, the Seminole High School Band will play a concert of popular music from 7:15 to 8 p. m.

The program will include numbers from Broadway musical shows such as "Lil' Abner, The King and I, The Music Man and a specialty Latin number, entitled Mambo Anglo.

Develop Bigger Blasts Is Aim Of Coming Tests

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U. S. scientists testing nuclear weapons in the Pacific are expected to devote much of the next two months to getting more punch per pound into missile warheads.

Some of the blasts may run as high as five megatons—a force equal to five million tons of TNT.

Most of the tests are expected to continue in the vicinity of Christmas Island, scene of the first two explosions in the atmospheric series last week.

The development of more destruction per pound in warheads, and also bombs, was one of two major objectives President Kennedy set for the 11,800-man task force conducting the experiments.

The second prime objective determining what nuclear blasts high in the atmosphere and in space would do to attacking missiles and communications circuits—will be delayed until June or July.

This leaves all of May and possibly much of June free for testing new warhead designs which scientists believe will achieve major breakthroughs in the problem of delivering as much destruction as possible in each missile.

The Atomic Energy Commission announced Monday that the United States will fire three high-altitude shots in June or July over Johnson Island, its other Pacific testing site.

Only one of these, the AEC said, is expected to exceed a megaton.

Both of the two tests already held at Christmas Island produced less than a megaton.

The AEC said that scientists around the world would be alerted prior to the Johnson Island tests so they can make measurements.

One of the shots, the AEC said, will be touched off more than 100 miles high.

Biggest Primary Says Adams

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida politics, and credited the State Junior Chamber of Commerce and supervisors of registration with the impressive increase. The Jaycees, with the help of registrars, conducted a drive statewide to sign up eligible voters.

As a result, registration figures shot up a quarter of a million from 1960, increasing by five per cent the percentage of eligible citizens who are registered to vote.

Adams, the state's chief election official based his prediction on past voting trends and current voter registration figures of 1.9 million, an all-time high for a primary in Florida.

"Chances are quite good the balloting will go over the million mark for the first time in any Florida primary election," he said.

Highest previous primary vote was in 1960 when 937,000 persons cast ballots in a race for governor.

Adams estimated 51 percent of the voters will go to the polls, assuming good weather statewide.

He called the record voter registration for an off-year election a "healthy sign" for ed States would stand by its pledge to defend the city and Mayor Willy Brandt said: "No one will induce us to recognize or guarantee the Berlin wall."

The West Berlin rally was far larger than the one staged in the Communist zone, reportedly attended by 250,000 persons.

A 25-minute parade was the highlight of the East Berlin celebration. Communist soldiers and sailors goose-stepped ahead of tanks, armored cars, amphibious personnel carriers, howitzers, anti-aircraft guns and Russian rockets.

But in East Berlin, the Communists paraded their military might in violation of four-power agreements and declared once more that West Berlin "must and will become a demilitarized, free city on the basis of a German peace treaty."

The half-hour Red military parade, followed by hours of march-past by Communist organizations, was climaxed with the appearance of about 20 two-stage Soviet-supplied anti-aircraft rockets, which were described as "the same type that shot down 112 pilots Gary Powers."

S. Vietnamese Rescue Two GIs

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — Two U. S. Army sergeants captured by Communist guerrillas three weeks ago were rescued early today by South Vietnamese soldiers.

The two men were captured when Communist Viet Cong guerrillas swept out of the jungles and attacked An Chau Village, where they and two other American soldiers were training civilian militia volunteers. The other two enlisted men were killed in the clash.

Loan Co. Robbed

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — Two bandits with pistols got away with about $1,500 after holding up the Gulfstream Loan Co. Monday.

The sheriff's department said a third man waited in the car while the two men went into the loan company.

More Terror In Algiers

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI) — A band of Secret Army Organization (OAS) terrorists in Bone today fired three rifle grenades into a group of Moslem dock workers, wounding 21 of them as they stood around a labor center that was closed for May Day.

The 6 a. m. attack followed a bomb blast and an exchange of gunfire that broke an otherwise two-day period of calm in the port city.

May Day Rallies Held In Berlin Wall

BERLIN (UPI) — A million Berliners massed today in rival May Day rallies on opposite sides of the "Wall of Shame" that divides the city. There were no clashes in this quietest May Day on record here.

An estimated 750,000 West Berliners held the largest anti-Red demonstration in their postwar history in the square in front of the old Reichstag building and only 150 yards from the Communist wall under the slogan that "Freedom Knows No Wall." There was no parade in the West.

But in East Berlin, the Communists paraded their military might in violation of four-power agreements and declared once more that West Berlin "must and will become a demilitarized, free city on the basis of a German peace treaty."

The half-hour Red military parade, followed by hours of march-past by Communist organizations, was climaxed with the appearance of about 20 two-stage Soviet-supplied anti-aircraft rockets, which were described as "the same type that shot down 112 pilots Gary Powers."

In West Berlin three quarters of a million Germans cheered as Gen. Lucius D. Clay reiterated that the United States would stand by its pledge to defend the city and Mayor Willy Brandt said: "No one will induce us to recognize or guarantee the Berlin wall."

Monday Shower Breaks Serious Area Drought

Thundershowers Monday afternoon broke the back of the serious drought plaguing the county's multi-million dollar agriculture industry. County Agricultural Agent, reported today.

However, Tucker added "we are still not out of the woods yet."

Tucker explained that the prolonged dry spell had reached the critical point as far as the county's citrus and vegetable industry was concerned. "The rain was a real life saver but, we need much more," he said.

The county agent elaborated that considerable irrigation was required in citrus groves and the vegetable industry was severely hurt during the dry spell.

He added also that the drought had serious consequences to home owners. The weather bureau reported that almost an inch of rain fell during a two hour period during the afternoon.

Davis Accuses Smathers In Deal

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — Roger L. Davis, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, wants the State Road Department and the Lee County grand jury to investigate a firm in which he says Ben. George A. Smathers owned stock.

Davis said the firm bought 280 acres of land on the north side of the Caloosahatchee River and six months later realized a big profit because a bridge across the river was relocated.

Davis said Monday he was sending full details of the transaction to the Lee County grand jury and the State Road Department.

Marshall Next Federal Judge?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Senate Judiciary subcommittee held a 20-minute session today on the nomination of Thurgood Marshall to be a federal judge but took no action because two members were absent.

The only senator present was Roman L. Hruska, (R-Neb.), who heard testimony in favor of the former counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

Illinois had five dead. Michigan listed one fatality and Indiana reported two. Illinois had at least 50 persons injured, 40 of them in South Bend, Michigan reported 25 injuries. Five were hurt in Ohio and one at Fenton, Mo. Kentucky had 18 injuries. Arkansas had three.

Tornadoes also raked Texas and damaging winds hit western Pennsylvania. Flash floods were reported in St. Louis, Mo., suburbs.

Collapse of a school roof at Springfield, Ill., killed a 12-year-old boy. A similar accident at Shalton, Ill., injured a teacher and two students.

An elderly man suffered a fatal heart attack when an unconfirmed tornado skipped through West Frankfort, Ill. A young stone mason was struck and killed by a falling grain elevator at Frankfort, Ind.

Two persons were killed when an advertising sign came crashing through the roof of a Rantoul, Ill., supermarket Monday. A workman died when a wind toppled a chimney at Pontiac, Ill., stone works. An elderly woman guest lost her life when a hot roof caved in at Pontiac, Mich.

A man who was dashing to shelter from the South Bend, Ind., storm darted in front of a car and was killed.

Altamonte P-TA To Meet Today

The last meeting of the current term will be held at 8 p. m. today by members of the Altamonte Springs Elementary P-TA. Officers will be elected and installed during the 8 p. m. business session which will be preceded by a 30 minute visitation and refreshment period in the cafeteria.

The program will be presented by the musical study groups under direction of Mrs. Mary Frances Holten, school music teacher.

Blast Rips Cruiser In Mayport Basin

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — An explosion and fire ripped and sank a 26-foot cabin cruiser in the Mayport Yacht Basin area near here Monday but the three Brooklyn, N.Y., men aboard escaped injury.

Louis Rotondo, 51, owner of the Lady Barbara, was thrown into the water by the blast. The other men aboard, Joe Lobato, 30, and Teddy Coukakis, 42, leaped overboard and helped Rotondo to a ladder leading to the dock.

Jailed In Theft

Walter Ethridge and Robert Brown were sentenced to six months to five years in jail for pulling out a telephone booth in the Forest City area Monday afternoon, by Circuit Judge Volle Williams Jr.

Charge Leveled

ATLANTA (UPI) — Some parents of Negro school children have accused Atlanta school authorities of using the "clearly inadequate" gradual desegregation plan to avoid integration of the city's schools. They filed suit Monday asking a speed-up in lowering color bars.

First DWI Sentence Imposed

It was the moment of truth. The defendant in the case of driving while intoxicated was standing before the bench, facing Judge Vernon Mize of the Seminole County Court. On the right was County Prosecutor Karlisle Housholder, ready to read the charge against the slight, brown haired woman of middle age, wearing an aqua colored skirt and a white blouse who faced the Judge.

Housholder began to read, fast, as though the last thing he really wanted to do was read this charge. His voice was low and hearing him was difficult, but here and there a phrase came through. "... not having a proper driver's license ... and driving while intoxicated."

Tension surrounded the bar, and the three people, like a cloud. The court had promised a few days ago that, come what may, anyone charged and convicted of driving an automobile while intoxicated would have to serve a mandatory jail sentence.

Everyone in the hot, humid courtroom knew of the promise and they also knew that Mize was stuck with it. The defendant's grey-haired husband, sitting about half down the left center aisle moistened his lips and rubbed his hands together. The defendant nervously clenched and unclenched her fingers.

"Is this your first offense?" Housholder asked. "Yes, sir."

"Do you plead guilty or not guilty?" "Guilty."

Now it was Judge Mize's turn. He hesitated a long time. Then he said he would suspend her driver's license for 90 days, and the people at Tallahassee would notify her at that time that she could pick up her driver's license again.

Another long pause. "Finally he passed sentence. Three days in the county lock-up. Another pause, then, taking courage, he continued "... and a $150 fine, and if not paid then 60 additional days in the county jail."

The silence was massive. The defendant, visibly shaken, turned away from the bench and slowly walked back to her husband.

Mize and Housholder looked as though they were glad that it was over.

They should be. A new age of martyrs has come to Seminole County. According to many people in Sanford that is no exaggeration. Now, if an arresting officer smells liquor on the breath of a motorist, and the latter refuses to take a drunkometer test, he can automatically be given a jail sentence.

One comment heard was, "This makes any arresting officer a judge. You can't beat the rap when the officers say you were under the influence or intoxicated. When that happens, buddy, you've had it. It's the blink for you."

Oh, well, the people that make mouthwash and breath sweeteners can expect to do a "land-office" business in Seminole County from now on, that's for sure.
