Policy Sidestepped To Report Unkempt Lots

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

Two Sanford commissioners say they are violating established, written commission policy by reporting un-mowed and uncleared lots to the city for code enforcement action.

John Mercer and Bob Thomas do not live within 300 feet of the parcels they're reporting, as policy requires, but have been submitting the complaints since they took office two years ago. Private citizens cannot do the same if they do not live within the defined distance, according to Public Works Director Bob Kelly, whose department handles the complaints.

The reports were accepted without question because commissioners 'are our bosses.'

—Bob Kelly
Public Works Director

A former commissioner who helped set the policy in 1982 also says he subsequently side-stepped it to submit reports. Milton Smith was involved in adoption of the policy to monitor conditions at privately owned lots throughout Sanford. Smith says he doesn't recall the policy's clause about "complainants" having to live or operate a business within 300 feet of the parcel they're reporting.

Smith said even if he remembered the 300-foot clause it wouldn't have stopped him from making the reports. All three representatives say their actions were borne of efforts to upgrade the city's appearance.

And although their reports don't adhere to city policy, they were accepted without question because commissioners "are our bosses," Kelly said.

At the same time, "city policy" prevents the Public Works department from accepting the same complaints from private citizens if they don't live within the defined distance, he said.

Kelly said adoption of the 300-foot policy may have resulted from complaints the city received from first phase Hidden Lake homeowners in the early 1980s. He said these residents turned to the city to take care of maintenance at large undeveloped lots when the subdivision's original development group "folded."

The uncared-for lots reported by Smith, Mercer and Thomas are located in different parts of the city and total about two dozen over the last two years, Kelly said. Smith left office earlier this month after losing a re-election bid to A.A. McClanahan.

The policy requiring complainants to live within 300 feet of these sites applies exclusively to violations requiring mowing or clearing natural growth.

Mercer said he was aware of the policy but feels "as a city commissioner I represent the entire city and I can turn in anything I think is a violation of city code."

Mercer said he "absolutely" plans to continue the practice of reporting the violations, wherever they be.

Mercer has submitted several

Oviedo Clinic To Close

By Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

As a condition of its latest federal grant, Sanford's Central Florida Community Clinic will have to close its satellite facility in Oviedo.

The clinic must close by April 1, according to Susan Moore, executive director of the health facility.

Ms. Moore said she has just been notified that in order to receive the $884,706 grant from the federal government, which is the Community Clinic's only source of funding, the Oviedo clinic at 98 Division Street will have to be phased out.

"The amount of the grant is the same as last year, but in essence doesn't keep up with costs," Ms. Moore explained. "Medical costs, pharmaceuticals and insurance go up each year. The cost of malpractice insurance alone to cover the physician, the center, board members and van was $32,000 for the first six months of the year."

The clinic's full-service family practice in Oviedo is staffed by a doctor and a nurse three days a week. There were 1,000 users last year averaging 17-21 patients a day. There were a total of 2,277 patient encounters there in 1986 as compared to 27,877 encounters at the Sanford clinic at 25th Street and Park Avenue.

Ms. Moore said the clinic board of directors is in the process of planning ways in which to provide transportation as necessary to bring the Oviedo patients to Sanford, but there is no schedule as yet.

She said board Chairman Pat Southward has appointed several members of the board to meet with Oviedo community leaders to determine the needs and how best to serve the residents.

"We hope there will be other alternatives available to help meet the health needs of the Oviedo residents, perhaps through the help of the community or county health department."

"There are two issues here," Ms. Moore said. "First, the Feds felt overall the clinic could better be served by not operating the clinic in Oviedo because it is not as productive as they would like it to be. Hopefully, the Sanford facility will be able to take up some of the slack."

Although the services of the Central Florida Community Clinic are available to anyone, the patients mainly fall under

Geneva Grocery Offers Taste Of 'Real Thing'

By Kathy Tyrity

The Geneva grocery on Avenue C, Geneva, and its owner Amanda Ensor will never be the same.

Coca-Cola commercial makers discovered the grocery when their scouts came upon it a few weeks ago. And its rise to fame has been almost instantaneous.

"Do I have to pay to come in here?" asked a customer this morning after the film crew had wrapped up its two-day filming and left Wednesday evening. "You're store is famous now isn't it?"

Mrs. Ensor said the filming, went smooth as silk and the actors and crew were marvelous.

"The actors were so sweet; we had a ball," she said. "When they were working they were all business, but when they were done they were super." The actors were Irvin Mosley and Paul Hip.

Since the grocery has been a local hangout since the late 1800s, it was chosen to represent a unique way of life that most Americans have never seen, according to the New York advertising agency McCann-Erick which produced the 60-second and 30-second commercials.

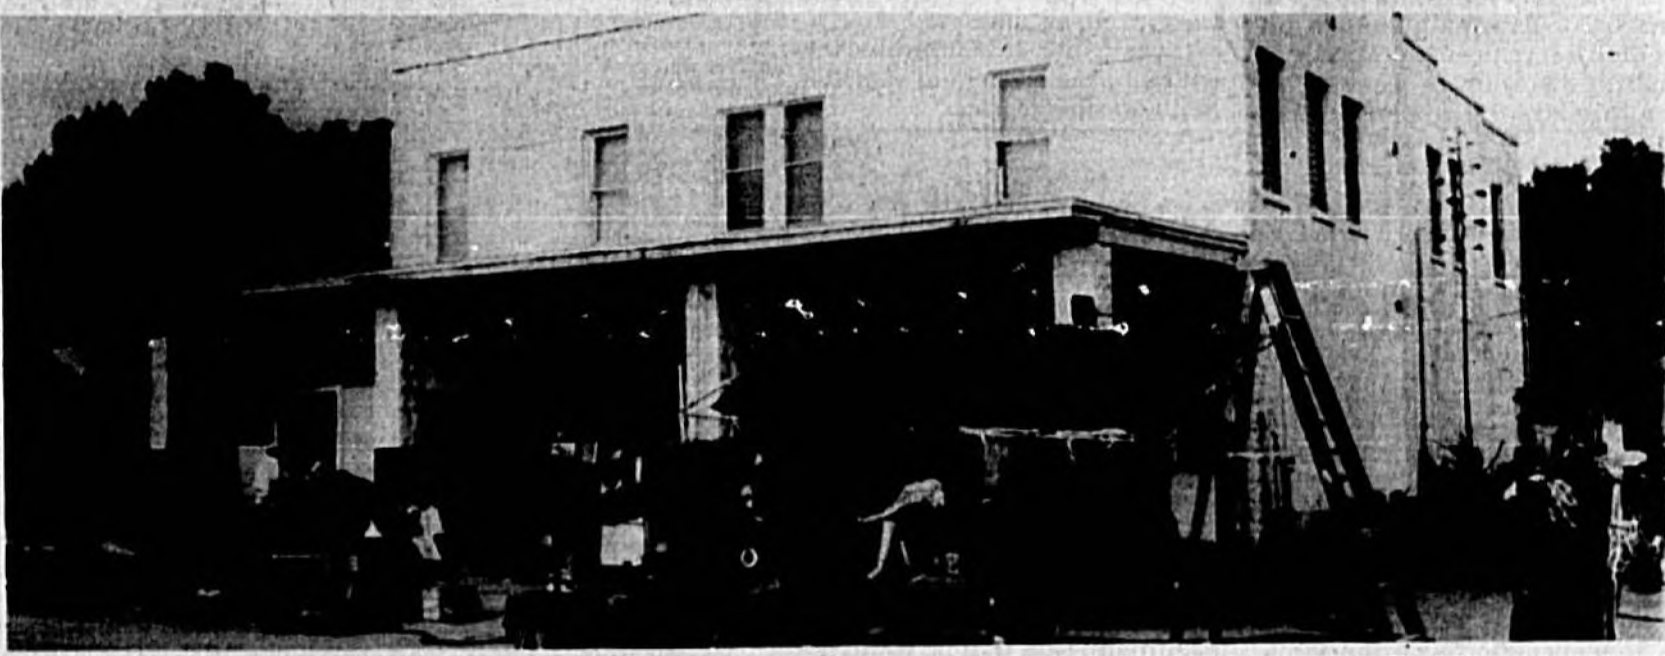

"The crew said most of them had never seen a place like this," Mrs. Ensor said. But to her, its just her everyday way of life. She lives above the grocery and handles the store, deli and gas pump by herself most days.

"My daughter-in-law comes in to help me once in a while," she said.

She has heard that the commercials may be viewed on network TV as soon as next month or as late as April.

"I was told a couple of different things, so I'm not really

Reagan Plan Would 'Hurt' Food Recipients

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

A program that provided food to about 6,000 people in Seminole County last month is one of about two dozen programs the Reagan administration plans to cut to finance pay raises for federal workers.

The administration plan would divert nearly $255 million from about two dozen government programs, including the Temporary Emergency Food Assistance Program.

Surplus government food is distributed in Seminole County under that program by the Salvation Army.

The Reagan plan has netted expressions of outrage, with critics saying the proposal differs vastly from usual attempts to provide extra government money to cover raises, and one Republican senator has broken with President Reagan to introduce a bill to protect $28 million now designated for the emergency food program.

"Transferring funds from programs for the needy to pay for salary increases for federal bureaucrats is unconscionable," declared Sen. John McCain, R-Ariz.

Elimination of the program would hurt several hundred families in 2,100 households in Seminole County, said Tom Barfield, director of social services for the Salvation Army in Sanford.

"It would hurt a lot...it's not a whole lot of food, but there's a lot of people out here right now waiting to sign up," he said. "It would hurt the elderly and those on fixed income."

The president's proposed 3 percent pay hike for federal workers began Jan. 1, but the deferrals must be approved or rejected by Congress before the fiscal year ends Sept. 30. They would finance the raises with $254.7 million now designated for 23 other accounts, including the emergency food program.

Today, McCain and his colleagues were scheduled to begin debate and possibly to vote on much larger pay hikes for members of Congress, top administration officials and all federal judges. One resolution before the Senate, from Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., was written to kill the proposed raises — including an increase from $77,400 to $89,500 a year for members of Congress.

The high-level raises go into effect automatically at midnight Feb. 5 unless the Senate and House pass a resolution of disapproval and Reagan signs it.

Even if the Senate voted to kill the pay hike for members of Congress, there was no indication Wednesday that House Speaker Jim Wright of Texas planned to force a similar showdown in his chamber before the deadline expires.

Defending the proposed federal funding transfers, a spokesman for the administration's Office of Management and Budget called them a "very routine" part of an effort to have individual departments absorb the cost of the raises being paid to their workers.

The six-year-old food program, which pays specifically for distribution of government-owned surplus food to the poor, is "no longer needed" because many

Tot Drowns In Swimming Pool

A 2-year-old boy visiting his grandmother in Winter Springs drowned in the swimming pool of her home Wednesday morning.

Victoria Archbault, 23, of Flin Brogal Belgium, told Seminole County sheriff's deputies she found her son, David Richard Hudson, unconscious in the swimming pool outside her mother's home at about 10:40 a.m.

Within three minutes of her finding the boy, Seminole County sheriff's deputy Bruce Thompson responded to the emergency call and arrived to begin cardio pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) on the child, who was described as "very cold, with no breath or pulse."

Seminole County fire rescue workers then arrived to work on the boy, but he could not be revived.

By 11:20 a.m., with rescue attempts having continued until that time, David, who had been transported to Florida Hospital-Altamonte Springs via ambulance, was pronounced dead.

Sheriff's deputy Vicki Morris reported that it had not been determined how long David was in the pool before he was found by his mother.

David, along with his mother and 5-year-old sister, Crystal, had been visiting his grandmother at 1348 Via Villa Nova, Winter Springs, the scene of his death.

Warehouse Operator Faces Charge In Connection With Meat Theft

A Sanford warehouse operator charged with dealing in stolen property in connection with his alleged acceptance at his warehouse of a portion of $7,190 worth of meat products stolen from the Seminole County school district, has been released on $1,000 bond, following his arrest at about 5 p.m. Wednesday.

Odell Hunt Sr., of 2943 Truman Blvd., was arrested after questioning at the Sanford police station by police investigator Gordon C. Reid.

Reid, on Monday, arrested another suspect in the theft case and a charges are pending against a third man. First to be arrested in the case was school district truck driver William Lawrence Davison, 34, of Orlando, who has been charged with grand theft. He has been released on $1,000 bond. Both Hunt and Davison are scheduled to appear in court Feb. 16.

The other suspect in the case also works for the school district and according to Sanford Police Chief Steve Harriett was in a school district truck with Davison when unauthorized deliveries of the stolen meat were made to a warehouse operated by Hunt at the Sanford Port Authority on Jan. 7 and 9.

National Senior Olympics Invites Input From Sanford

By Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

Sanford and its Golden Age Games will be represented this weekend at a planning session for the U.S. National Senior Olympics in St. Louis, Mo., by Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Dave Farr.

The announcement was made Tuesday at an appreciation breakfast for the Games Executive Committee at the chamber building by Games Chairman Jim Jernigan. Jernigan said Farr, in taking over his post just prior to the 1986 Games, got a "baptism of fire."

Farr said, "I'm going to tell them that the senior of senior games, the Golden Age Games representative, is pleased to be up here to show you folks how to do it."

He said he learned a lot of things during his first Golden Age Games and one thing was not to underestimate a senior citizen about to take on a 'young kid.'

Farr, 43, said he was challenged by bike riders who were between 75 and 84 after their official competition and he came in "dead last."

The 12th annual Golden Age Games held Nov. 10-15 served as the state's only regional qualifying competition for the first annual national event will be held this year June 27-July 2 in St. Louis. That senior olympics is expected to be held every two years at different locations around the country.

Jernigan said that more than 300 senior athletes qualified here during the Games for eligibility to compete nationally. The event is expected to attract approximately 5,000 qualified athletes from across the nation in categories of cycling, swimming, golf, tennis, bowling, horseshoes, archery, track and field, half marathon, table tennis and volleyball.

Sanford's Games include all of those events with the exception of volleyball.

Jernigan recognized two Games committee members at the breakfast who each qualified in several events — Kay Thomson, track and field, and Martha Parnell, swimming. Both say are not certain they will be able to go to the national olympics.

Jernigan said Post Cereals has agreed to be the principal corporate sponsor of Sanford's Games again in 1987 and this will help ensure it will continue to be a quality event.

Greater Sanford Chamber President in 1986, Shirley Schilke, said of her first involvement in the Games, "I was thoroughly impressed at the way this group of people had everything organized and how smoothly everything went."

As the new president of the chamber, Duke Adamson, told committee members he is pledged to enhance the area for seniors and make it a place where they can afford to live.

He told the Games committee, "You do a great job and are a great honor to Sanford."

Jernigan briefly outlined some possible changes and work the Games executive committee has before it in getting ready for the 13th annual Games to be held Nov. 9-14.

There may be some new events, such as indoor badminton, he said, but probably not boxing and wrestling, although there have been requests for those.

He said track and field events will be measured in meters instead of yards to relate better to other senior events around the country. Changes will be discussed in detail at future meetings.

He said the committee will meet monthly through May or June to update the rulebook, schedule and entry form in preparation for printing and mailouts. It will then adjourn until September.

Jernigan said there will be some new faces on the committee due to deaths and resignations and there may be openings in some events for sponsorships. Martha Yancey, who has resigned as chairman of the talent show after seven years, was thanked for the good job she has done.

Nearly 4,000 entrants from all around the country participated here last year. Chairman Emeritus Vic Arnett, who originally came up with the idea of the Games to stimulate business during a slow season, told the group, "There have been a lot of people coming to Sanford who otherwise wouldn't have and a lot of families have moved here as a result because they liked it here. The Golden Age Games have helped the community and the community has helped the Golden Age Games."

Soviets' Tragic Afghan Victory

What if the Soviets called a truce in Afghanistan and none of the Islamic rebels came out of the hills? The Soviet-backed puppet government in Kabul has called for a cease-fire. It offered amnesty to deserters and called for expatriates to return.

Rebels on the Pakistan border defiantly vowed to continue fighting. But the war in Afghanistan appears to be heading to a slowdown, if not peace.

The Soviets are the tenuous victors in Afghanistan. They have set up a regime not likely to fall from power soon. Although the regime only controls the cities, there is little chance of Afghanistan becoming independent.

Afghanistan has been called the Soviets' Vietnam. True, young Soviets died in that country, and the body bags caused anguish and criticism in the homeland. But the totalitarian regime in Moscow wasn't rocked by anti-Afghanistan war protesters.

If the cease-fire eventually leads to a negotiated settlement, the Soviets will maintain a hammer poised above the Afghanistan puppet regime. If Afghan leaders try to pull away from the Soviets, the sickle will slash their throats.

The West has little to be happy about in this civil war. The Soviet atrocities, the aerial bombings of villages, the reports of germ warfare all went on with impunity. Covert aid to the rebels from the West may have replaced their World War I rifles with more modern weapons; it may have given them a fighting chance against Soviet patrols. But the aid did not succeed in routing the Soviet army or overthrowing the Kabul regime.

The Soviets caused many evils by marching into Afghanistan. Not the least of them was to speed up the nuclear-arms race, which the Soviets now say they are eager to stop.

Secretary Mikhail Gorbachev didn't start the Afghanistan war and deserves credit for trying to bring it to a close. But if the Soviets want the United States to engage in more serious arms-control agreements and to abandon the Strategic Defense Initiative, then the Soviets will have to convince the American people that they are not going to repeat Afghanistan. A Soviet pullout would speak louder than a cease-fire.

Taxing Proposals

Most taxpayers have yet to fill out their new, lengthy W-4 tax-withholding forms, and already Congress is awash in legislation to reform the 1986 tax-reform bill.

According to United Press International, more than 100 tax bills already have been introduced in the 100th Congress. Some would restore tax loopholes that were eliminated by the 1986 law; others would create new and innovative tax breaks.

The 1986 changes in the income tax law were the most sweeping in half a century. Can't Congress wait at least six months before it begins to tinker with it?

Reagan's Budget Message: 'Drop Dead'

Winston Churchill's definition of Russia aptly describes Ronald Reagan's proposed federal budget: "a riddle wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma."

It's easier to understand, though, when you reduce it to its net impact on human lives.

For example, if you're a farmer, a college student, a vocational-education trainee, a handicapped preschooler, a rider of public transportation, a passenger dependent on Amtrak, a patron of the library or a user of community-service programs, President Reagan's budget has a two-word message for you:

Drop dead.

If you're an elderly person who occasionally gets sick or a poor person who requires regular medical treatment, President Reagan has the same economy of words for you:

Die slowly.

Ah, but if you're selling cocaine in Nicaragua under the guise of fighting communism or stealing military dollars by padding your defense contract with worthless hardware, the president exuberantly doubles the number of words in his message:

Who loves ya, baby?

Recently, the nation finished a guilt-ridden orgy of encomiums in honor of Martin Luther King Jr.

King, who would have opposed Reagan for belittling human needs, was especially fond of one biblical passage: "For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

The heart of Reagan's budget is an anachronistic $5.79 billion worth of war games legitimized only because Ronald Reagan is still reading Flash Gordon and Buck Rogers comic books.

With absolutely no scientific evidence that his cherished Strategic Defense Initiative can guarantee a successful shield against enemy missiles, Reagan would deprive your child or your neighbor's child of a college education by reducing the education budget by almost the identical amount invested in "Star Wars."

This is the underlying premise in Reagan's 1988 $1 trillion budget: It is better to be dumb and "safe and secure from all (communist) alarms" than to be educated and secure in the collective strength of democracy.

Reagan's budget deprecates education because he doesn't understand it.

The reason he can simultaneously advocate a robust national defense and a weak laissez-faire economy is his total disengagement with sound economic theory.

But a larger reality may finally be exposing his presidential deluge.

While the Dow Jones industrial index was skyrocketing beyond the 2,000-point barrier, the U.S. dollar was plummeting dangerously to an all-time low against the world's major currencies, especially the Japanese yen.

Having sent conflicting signals to world business leaders, the great apostle of laissez faire may now be forced to accept the humiliation of an international welfare bail-out to save the dollar.

It won't bother him, though. He's too busy fantasizing about the Irancon-contragate scandal.

Americans have grown accustomed to presidential fantasies.

Oil Fee Must Be Imposed

WASHINGTON — The Energy Daily reported in September 1986 that crude oil and petroleum product imports will increase from 26 percent of demand in 1985 to 41 percent in 1990 and 56 percent by the end of the century. Nearly 11 million barrels of oil will be brought into the U.S. daily in the year 2000 as against four million barrels a day in 1985.

As the country's exploration and production infrastructure erodes, it is relying more and more on foreign sources of oil. At the end of 1986, the U.S. was importing 23 percent more crude and product than it did a year earlier. Oil & Gas Journal reports that "With the rig count languishing at less than 1,000, discoveries are nil." The Journal concludes that "The U.S. has never had a more troublesome energy future."

In this climate, OPEC — the foreign oil cartel — will be revived and it will regain its dominance. Tragically, this need not happen. The U.S. government could renew its commitment to energy independence by establishing an oil import fee, imposing oil quotas, and putting drilling incentives into the tax code.

The nation's lawmakers unfortunately have a way of handicapping the U.S. petroleum industry with taxes, environmental regulations, and land access restrictions. Efforts are being made to block exploration of the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge. Perhaps the opponents of domestic oil drilling prefer that Americans be subjected to the tender mercies of OPEC.

It is not only oil development that is opposed by shortsighted elements of Congress and society. France obtains 65 percent of its energy from nuclear power, yet the fight against this energy source in the United States continues. Efforts to get a new nuclear power plant in the Cleveland area into operation have been repeatedly opposed by a variety of groups. Around the country, anti-nuclear groups have attempted to use the Chernobyl disaster in the Soviet Union as an excuse for shutting down nuclear power in the United States, though U.S. nuclear plants operate under very strict rules.

The 100th Congress should act immediately to impose an import fee as a first step toward ensuring energy security for the American people.

NSC Kept Key Data From State, Defense

By Jack Anderson and Joseph Spear

WASHINGTON — The intangible cost of the Iran/Contra arms fiasco continues to grow.

In addition to causing political embarrassment for the Reagan administration and serious damage to American influence in the Arab world, it now turns out that U.S. intelligence experts were denied crucial information on Iran for more than a year because of the White House's insistence on keeping the Iranian arms deal secret.

Congressional sources told our associate Lucette Lagnado that "thousands of documents" relating to Iran were probably withheld from State Department and Pentagon analysts to protect the secret National Security Council arms-for-hostages operation.

The material that was bottled up was raw data gathered by the National Security Agency, the super-secret, military-run outfit that intercepts and decodes communications traffic all over the world. NSA intercepts are an abso-

WILLIAM RUSHER

See All, Tell All?

President Reagan's critics have been singularly unsuccessful thus far in demonstrating that he knew about the alleged diversion of profits from the Iranian arms sales to the Nicaraguan contras. But they have comforted themselves with the reflection that, if they must ultimately "date" any about it, they will then be able to impale him on the other horn of a tidily constructed dilemma: He ought to have known about it.

But just how true is that latter proposition? It rests upon the comfortable assumption that a president is in a position to know just about everything — or at least everything important — if he does his job properly. Maybe so, but some of the media's biggest presidential favorites have failed spectacularly to live up to that Spartan standard.

Franklin Roosevelt, to take one memorable example, didn't know that the ambiguous warnings his military advisers had sent to our commanders at Pearl Harbor had been misinterpreted, and that the key battleships of the U.S. Navy were still lined up at anchor like so many sitting ducks in early December 1941. Ought he to have known?

Or take the beloved sovereign of Camelot himself. When, at the height of the Cuban missile crisis, Nikita Khrushchev complained that he shouldn't be required to withdraw the Soviet missiles from Cuba while intermediate-range U.S. missiles were still based in Turkey a few dozen miles from the Soviet border, John Kennedy did a fast double-take. Hadn't he ordered those missiles withdrawn from Turkey several months earlier? Yes, he had; but the Pentagon had somehow neglected to obey his order. Kennedy didn't know that. Why not?

Compared to those massive examples of presidential ignorance, the gap in President Reagan's information looks positively trivial. The proceeds of the arms sales were deposited in a Swiss bank account. The account seems to have been set up by the CIA to serve as a convenient way station for funds destined for various covert but entirely legitimate purposes: supporting the Afghan freedom-fighters, for example, and perhaps even Jonas Savimbi's forces in Angola.

Lt. Col. Oliver North knew the number of the account and was authorized to draw on it. If recent allegations are correct, he exceeded his authority and diverted some of the funds to the Nicaraguan contras. He hinted as much to NSC director John Poindexter, who later reportedly told Attorney General Edwin Meese that he "felt sorry" for the contras and therefore said nothing to anyone about it.

Just how, then, could President Reagan have found out about the episode? Say if you will that, having been deceived (or at any rate not informed) by North and Poindexter, (the least the president could do was dismiss them. But of course he did dismiss them, promptly, as soon as he found out about it.

Nevertheless, the game of attributing omniscience to President Reagan is still going on.

Oil Puts Schools On Skids

BOUDREAU, La. (NEA) — The good news for the members of Terrebonne Parish School Board is that they will not face a threatened $6 million budget deficit during this academic year.

The bad news, however, is that a school system already forced to impose austerity measures now must cope with an operating loss in excess of $3 million this year.

Those problems are directly attributable to the partial collapse of the domestic petroleum industry, a phenomenon that has wreaked havoc upon the economy not only in Louisiana but in the Southwest, the Rockies and Alaska.

The crisis began slightly more than a year ago, when members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries temporarily abandoned their efforts to support crude oil prices through marketing quotas.

The average price of a 42-gallon barrel of crude oil plummeted worldwide, from $27.50 in late 1985 to less than $9.50 last summer. Although it is now up to about $18, the economies of many cities and states have suffered irreversible damage.

In Texas, the legislature must deal with a $5.8 billion shortfall in the state's current budget, then cope with a $4.8 billion gap in next year's budget. Compounding the problem is a projected decline of almost 3 percent in tax revenues — the first such drop since the mid-1950s.

In Alaska, where each $1 per barrel reduction in the price of crude oil produces a $150 million decline in state revenues, many government employees were dismissed, furloughed or forced to accept pay cuts last year.

The scope of the economic dislocation also is reflected in unemployment statistics. In November, the most recent month for which reliable figures are available, Louisiana led the nation with 13.4 percent unemployment, while Alaska ranked fourth with 11.0 percent.

On the list of states with the largest year-to-year unemployment increases, Texas ranks second with a 2.3 percent rise and Louisiana is third with a 2.1 percent hike.

Terrebonne Parish and adjacent Lafourche Parish together have a 19.3 percent unemployment rate, the second highest in the nation. They also registered the country's second largest year-to-year increase of 8.1 percentage points.

Lake Mary P&Z Votes Unanimously: Once Yes, Once No

While the temperature outside was falling, things were getting heated up inside Lake Mary City Hall Tuesday night at the city's Planning and Zoning Board meeting as board members demanded safety at all costs from the engineer and developer of Lake Mary Woods II and III.

Lake Mary Woods, Phase II and III, turned into an emotional struggle that involved P&Z members, concerned citizens and the subdivision's developer and engineer.

"We're not taking your engineering skills to task," said Clay Simmons, P&Z board member to Jack Weinstein, the developer's engineer. "We're concerned with the health, safety and welfare issues here. It's our responsibility to the citizens of Lake Mary."

Terry Hagen, Lake Mary Woods developer, and Weinstein took turns at the city hall podium answering questions addressed to them by P&Z members concerning the maintenance and durability of a proposed pumping system in Phase II plans.

The pumping system will relieve retention areas and put filtered water into Lake Bingham, according to Weinstein. Lake Bingham was suggested at the last P&Z meeting because, during the last few years, it had experienced a very low water elevation.

All board members voted to recommend the request for Phase II subdivision upon approval that homeowner's would be responsible for maintenance of the pumping system; that a berm would be placed on the property of Terry Hagen, the developer, to retain runoff of storm water; that an agreement for an easement to Lake Bingham be pending; and that there will be vacation of Phase II roads as per the rights of way not for public use as the subdivision is developed.

Harry Beckham, a Lake Mary resident, expressed his concern about the homeowner's association maintaining the pumping system. He said, "From the taxpayer's point of view, what would be the end result? If you have an unhappy homeowner's association or a bankrupt homeowner's association, the city will have to pick up the tab."

Tim Weaver, Lake Mary city engineer, said that the pump system has a five-year guarantee and that Hagen said he would put "up-front" a $250 a year additional maintenance contract.

Board member Penny Gunn questioned whether the water going into Lake Bingham would affect its ecology and Weinstein assured her the water would not be affected.

The board voted unanimously to deny approval of the request for Phase III of Lake Mary Woods subdivision because four lots would have driveways on Highway 427.

After a number of alternative design proposals, made by Weinstein and Hagen, that the board members could not justify on behalf of the citizens of Lake Mary, board member Al Wichman said that it would be "nonsensical" to approve a design which includes access on 427.

After the meeting, Mrs. Gunn said, "We are the ones who have to live here." She added that when developers come in and develop, "We can't tell them not to develop, but we can say we want things to be safe. The citizens of Lake Mary are speaking through our voices."

Jean Stacy, planning and zoning secretary, said that the P&Z board members don't get paid for their services. "They live here and they love the city," she said. "Their service on the board comes out of their commitment to Lake Mary. It's a labor of love."

City OKs House Rental

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

Sanford commissioners voted 4-1 Tuesday to make minimal repairs on a city-owned house and rent the dwelling to an employee. The alternative would be to make more extensive renovations qualifying the house for open market rental.

The employee rental was recommended by administrative staff for an abandoned three bedroom home at a well site the city purchased last fall. It shouldn't take more than $2,000 to ready the home for the employee, while about $10,000 in repairs would be necessary for a private rental, staff said.

The employee will pay minimal rent in exchange for the on-site security his presence will provide. The home lies on a 16 acre parcel commissioners agreed to pay $400,000 for last fall. The site is west of Sanford in unincorporated Seminole County, near the city's Oregon Avenue well field.

Voting against the rental Monday was Commissioner Whitey Eckstein, who took office after the purchase. In a work session last week Eckstein unsuccessfully proposed the commission consider selling the home and about two acres near it. He said the sale could raise between $150,000 and $200,000 for "inner city recreation needs."

The commission majority opposed the proposal, saying land values west of the city are rising and expected to continue doing so. A 70 acre parcel near the city tract is going for $7 million, according to Commissioner A.A. McClanahan.

Sanford is also expanding its western borders through annexation and anticipates the well site could be used in the future for city recreation and park needs.

The new site will hold three to four wells, and they will not have much of an impact on other potential uses for the site, according to Planning and Engineering Director Bill Simmons. Staff and commissioners have begun discussing the home's use as headquarters for a recreation camp. There are no immediate plans for it, however, and a yearly lease will probably be arranged with the city employee, said City Manager Frank Faison.

Faison has received commission direction to decide who will rent the home. Staff's discussion last week focused on street superintendent Jerry Herman's interest in renting the home, but now other city employees will also be considered. The rental proposal is open to "reliable" employees and to avoid any appearance of favoritism, according to Simmons.

Herman was the only employee to express interest in the rental until recently, Simmons said.

Monies put into the home will cover "basics," like window replacement and ensuring that electric and mechanical equipment, such as the its stove and septic tank, are in working order, Simmons said.

Faison said the work shouldn't run more than $2,000.

The open market rental would have taken about $10,000 to repair the home's roof and rehabilitate its interior, Simmons said. The monthly rent could then have been about $650 a month, he said.

The employee rental probably won't exceed $225 a month, according to Faison.

Reagan: 'Conclusive' Link Between Soviet Union, Terrorism

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan, warning that terrorism is here to stay "for the remainder of this century," says there is a "conclusive" link between the Soviet Union and the growth of terrorism.

In his first "state of the world" message, a 41-page document covering U.S. foreign and defense policy, Reagan told Congress Wednesday, "Effectively countering terrorism is a major national security objective of the United States."

"The most significant threat to U.S. security and national interests is the global challenge posed by the Soviet Union," Reagan said in the report to Congress, required by last year's Defense Reorganization Act.

In addition to the Soviet threat, Reagan said, terrorism is a "worldwide phenomenon that is becoming increasingly frequent, indiscriminate and state-supported."

Hall Hospitalized in Miami

MIAMI (UPI) — Accused spy Sam Hall, who was freed by Nicaragua because of fears he might kill himself in jail, returned to the United States after 49 days in captivity and was hospitalized for a complete physical and mental checkup.

Hall, who told the Nicaraguan people before leaving, "I am sorry I brought some embarrassment," was met Wednesday at Miami's airport by his brother, Rep. Tony Hall, D-Ohio, and was whisked away to a Veterans Administration hospital.

Family attorney Gary Froelich said the self-styled counter-terrorist told his family he believed "it is in his best interest to have immediate, complete, thorough medical and psychiatric treatment."

New Transportation Chief Promises Vast Improvements

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Kaye Henderson, new director of the often-criticized Department of Transportation, promised Wednesday to cut road construction time in half and make his department "the best in the United States."

Henderson, wearing a "number 1" lapel pin he said signified his goal, announced a series of personnel and philosophy changes to improve the department's performance. He said he planned to de-centralize the agency, putting more authority in the hands of the six district administrators.

Henderson said the Legislature had lost confidence in the department because of late road and bridge construction projects that have drawn a steady stream of criticism from traffic-weary motorists. He said he would use improved management techniques to get the department on schedule.

Heart Implant Patient Improves

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — Doctors hope to have the Southeast's first recipient of a temporary artificial heart implant breathing on his own in the next day or so and will closely watch to make sure his condition continues to improve.

Rolle R. Murray, a trailer park owner from Lakeland, remains in the intensive care unit at Shands Hospital, where doctors implanted a JARVIK-7 artificial heart to function as a "bridge" until a human heart suitable for transplant can be found.

Murray also required additional surgery early Wednesday after doctors decided to clean blood clots from the softball-sized artificial heart.

sure." But whenever they are viewed, the commercials touting Coke Classic will tell how music crosses generations to connect an old man and a young musician.

Props brought to the scene were a 1978 Buick convertible, a pair of fanned-back metal chairs and some wooden Coca-Cola cases. Other than that, the scene was "the real thing."

Originally the Flynt Rehbinder Store, it was the first building on the site and contained a post office until 1961.

Mrs. Ensor, 49, originally from Maryland, has owned the store for 11 years, but she's been in these parts for 30 years. She chats and drinks coffee with her customers and together they keep up on the news of people in the 2,000-population town. She knows most of the old-timers there "and most everybody by face. I may not know their name. There are so many new people coming in."

It's basically a convenience store, and there are other, larger markets close by. She doesn't know why so many of her customers prefer the old store but she's glad they do. "We have a nice selection of food, a small line of frozen food, beer and gas," she said.

And now they also have an old table and footstool purchased by the crew and autographed by them all, she added. It will remind customers of the days the Geneva Grocery became a landmark.

"The film crews are gone today — off to Miami — but I don't think things will ever be the same here," she added, joking with the customers who insisted Geneva had "gone Hollywood."

...Theft

Police were tipped to the reported thefts from a school district warehouse at 410 E. Fourth St. in Sanford, by a witness who reportedly saw the meat being unloaded at the port warehouse.

That witness told police he was given a turkey ham and a ground beef loaf by Hunt, after the deliveries were made. Those items were given to police by the witness.

Hunt, whose occupation on his arrest report is listed as a self-employed mechanic, allegedly told police he received about 20 cases of the meat, for which he paid $250. He allegedly said he sold a portion of that buy to another man for $12.

A police report said the packaged meat was marked "for institutional use."

Missing from the school district warehouse are: 36 cases of turkey ham valued at $409; 39 cases of turkey breasts valued at $470; 42 cases of beef franks valued at $340 and 119 cases of ground beef valued at $5,971.

Harriett said, following the arrest of Davison, he did not know what if any of the meat had been recovered, other than that surrendered by the witness.

School district records show Davison is a food service delivery and receiving clerk who has worked for the district since 1973.

U.S. Forbids American Travel To Lebanon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. passports are no longer valid for travel to Lebanon under a State Department order seeking to prevent more Americans from falling into terrorists' hands.

Only families of Americans being held hostage, journalists on assignment and humanitarian workers will be allowed to use their U.S. passports to travel to Lebanon — if they seek special permission, the department said Wednesday.

Other Americans would be subject to prosecution and a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $2,000 fine if they use their U.S. passports to enter or to remain in Lebanon.

A 30-day grace period is being allowed to give Americans already in Lebanon a chance to leave without penalty.

State Department spokesman Charles Redman said, "Some of our citizens believed and may still believe that their profession, national origin, religious affiliation, or their own precautions might save them from dangers about which they have been repeatedly warned."

"The events of the past few days have demonstrated that private citizens have neither sufficient information to evaluate the threat against them, nor the means to protect themselves," he said.

The department estimates there are 1,500 Americans in Lebanon, the vast majority with dual nationality. Those with Lebanese or other national passports will be able to use them in travel without penalty.

Similar U.S. restrictions are in place against the use of American passports for travel to Libya. Although some Americans remain in Libya, no one has been prosecuted under U.S. law for passport violation.

Twenty-six foreigners are currently listed as missing in Lebanon, including eight Americans who are believed to have been kidnapped by pro-Iranian groups. William Buckley, the CIA station chief kidnapped in 1984 in Beirut, is presumed dead, but his body has not been recovered.

Abdallah Bouhabib, Lebanese ambassador in the United States, told United Press International: "As I told the State Department, I was shocked to see that Americans are still in Lebanon. This passport measure is understandable. We don't want any more hostages taken."

But Bouhabib said he feared that the new passport restrictions will make it more difficult for some Lebanese-Americans to go back to Lebanon to visit their families.

"We are loathe to impede the travel of American citizens in any way," Redman said. "Nevertheless, the situation in Lebanon, and in West Beirut in particular, is so chaotic that we do not believe that any American citizens can be considered safe from terrorist acts."

The United States has only a small embassy staff left in Lebanon, and when they travel, it is usually by helicopter or heavy military guard. The exact size of the U.S. embassy staff is not made public for security reasons.

Young Man Wants To Go West, But His Young Woman Doesn't

DEAR ABBY: What's wrong with me? I'm engaged to a wonderful man and I should be the happiest woman in the world, but I'm not. I'm depressed because of this one problem:

I was born in West Virginia and have lived here all my life. "Buddy," my fiance, moved here seven years ago from Oregon. He was offered a job in California. He says it's an opportunity of a lifetime, so he took it, so that is where we'll be living after we're married. Buddy has already re-located there, and I visited him for three weeks to see what it was like. I suppose most people would say California has more to offer than West Virginia. Not for me, it hasn't.

I don't care for the California climate, the people, the distances or their way of life. I guess it boils down to the fact that I don't want to move to California, raise a family there, grow old there and die there.

It breaks my heart to think of leaving my family, friends and the state that I love. I'm not a career-type woman. All I want to do is be a good wife and mother. I truly love Buddy. He would make a wonderful husband. But while I'm making wedding plans, I'm dreading the day.

TEARS ON MY PILLOW

DEAR TEARS: Obviously Buddy doesn't know how you feel, so TELL him at once. Let him know that you are dreading your wedding day because you and the state you love. Perhaps he will consider returning to West Virginia for your sake. (Maybe not.) In any case, put your wedding on hold until you can replace your tearful sadness with genuine joy. You may not be ready to marry Buddy or anybody else yet.

DEAR ABBY: Regarding the letter in your column from "Worried in Indiana," who said, "My son is a smart fellow. He makes good money." Abby, what is "good money"? I have heard this term used many times.

I have been a printer for more than 30 years, and the only "bad money" I have ever seen was counterfeit.

BILL LITTLE, SAN FRANCISCO

DEAR BILL LITTLE: Come on — anyone who makes "good money" is well paid. People who knowingly work for "bad money" (counterfeit) should spend good money to have their heads examined.

DEAR ABBY: On the issue of signed vs. unsigned credit cards, I am one of the "unsigneds." The reason: I work in a prison and have heard many inmates talk about how they became experts on forging signatures of stolen credit cards.

I can prove who I am by simply showing my driver's license or ID from work, both of which have my picture and signature. If anybody gives me an argument, I leave the merchandise at the checkout station.

Last Christmas season I used three major credit cards for a total of 40 times. Not once did anybody even look at my signature. Sign me ...

UNSIGNED IN GEORGIA

DEAR UNSIGNED: My mail is running 10-to-1 AGAINST signing credit cards. Read on for a letter from a sharp reader:

DEAR ABBY: An item in your column touched me where my credit cards are: in my wallet. I flatly refused to sign my credit cards, and I'll tell you why:

If I should lose a signed credit card and a crook gets hold of it, he could copy my signature and run up more bills all over town than I could pay off in two lifetimes.

I carry my I.D. and picture, and any clerk who gives me trouble will lose a sale. Guar-

DEAR ABBY: A question came up, and we hope you can answer it. A widower gets remarried. Is he a widower any longer? Some say yes and some say no.

WHAT DO YOU SAY?

JERRY U. IN FORT MYERS

DEAR JERRY: I say he is no longer a widower — he's a married man.

IN BRIEF

Church of England: Terry Waite is Safe

LONDON (UPI) — Terry Waite is safe and still negotiating for the release of foreign hostages in Lebanon, the Church of England announced, allaying fears that the missing envoy was kidnapped by Moslem extremists.

Waite, the special envoy of Archbishop of Canterbury Robert Runcie, disappeared in Beirut Jan. 20 while going to meet Moslem kidnapers. As days passed and Waite failed to reappear, concern grew that the hostage negotiator might have become a victim of the kidnapers.

"The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Robert Runcie, has this evening received fresh assurances of the safety of Terry Waite, his personal envoy, who is negotiating for the release of persons being detained in Lebanon," the church said in a statement Wednesday night.

"These assurances have been conveyed to the Church of England from leaders of the Druze community who are Mr. Waite's hosts during his mission to Lebanon.

"These leaders held conversations with leaders of the Shiite community and they have now informed the archbishop's office in London that Mr. Waite is safe, is continuing his discussions and will return on the completion of his mission."

Attacks Planned in Germany

BONN, West Germany (UPI) — Authorities reportedly believe the two Lebanese brothers arrested at Frankfurt Airport belong to a terrorist organization that was plotting attacks in West Germany or in neighboring countries.

The authoritative newspaper Die Welt said officials concluded the Arabs were planning the attacks when five gallons of liquid explosives were found in the western state of Saarland Wednesday 6 miles from the home of one suspect.

"The brothers probably belong to a terrorist group that planned attacks in Germany or neighboring countries," Die Welt said. "Security experts draw this conclusion from the explosives cache found in the Saarland."

The liquid was similar to the fluid allegedly seized from one of the brothers, Mohammad Ali Hamadel, when he was arrested at Frankfurt Airport on Jan. 13.

'War of Cities' Continues

TEHRAN, Iran (UPI) — Iran and Iraq bombarded each other's cities with Tehran radio claiming Iranian forces killed or wounded 1,500 Iraqi troops and Baghdad saying it liberated Iraqi territory east of the Persian Gulf port of Basra.

Iraq said its warplanes bombed 10 Iranian cities Wednesday and Iran said it retaliated by shelling 20 Iraqi border towns.

State-run radio in Tehran said Iranian forces killed or injured 1,500 Iraqi troops and shot down an Iraqi plane attacking Iranian positions. The radio report claimed it was the 65th Iraqi plane shot down since Jan. 9.

In the Iraqi capital, the official Iraqi News Agency reported its forces "liberated" Iraqi territory held by the Iranians east of Basra Wednesday — the 20th day of Iran's latest offensive in the 6 1/2-year-old Persian Gulf War.

Marcos' Return To Philippines Halted

MANILA, Philippines (UPI) — Rebel holdouts from a failed coup against President Corason Aquino surrendered today after a tense three-day standoff as officials said they had prevented a planned return of ousted leader Ferdinand Marcos.

The rebellious soldiers, who had occupied the Channel 7 television station Tuesday while other rebels attempted to take over key military bases, boarded nine buses in front of the station at about 3:30 p.m.

The soldiers were taken to Fort Bonifacio, army headquarters in Manila, escorted by 10 police motorcycles and four police cars with their lights flashing.

Aquino, speaking three hours after the surrender, said the pro-Marcos soldiers would face court martial and civilians involved would be charged with rebellion.

"All will be held to the fullest account for their actions, both civilian and military," Aquino said to a lengthy round of applause at a Manila university.

The surrender ended the second and most serious armed challenge to the 11-month-old Aquino government, four days before a plebiscite for a new U.S.-style constitution, which Aquino insists is vital to political stability.

Air force Col. Oscar Canlas, 45, leader of the rebellious soldiers, agreed to surrender earlier today.

Australian photographer Robert McDonald, one of the few journalists allowed inside during the siege, attributed the deal to talks between Brig. Gen. Benjamin Blazon and Canlas.

"They discussed several points, including whether there should be amnesty or not, whether they could keep their weapons and how to evacuate," McDonald said.

At one point, Canlas asked about punishment and Blazon said it "would be an option of the government." At 3:30, McDonald said, Canlas looked up at Blazon and said, "OK, sir."

The soldiers boarded the buses in single file after removing ammunition clips from their automatic rifles.

"We have prevented bloodshed," said Brig. Gen. Alexander Aguirre, the commander in charge of military troops surrounding the television complex. "They are under custody, not arrest," Aguirre said.

Vice President Salvador Laurel said today Philippine and U.S. authorities in Honolulu thwarted a plot by Marcos to return home.

The report from Philippine Consul General Tomas Gomez in Honolulu said the plot involved

Marcos and his wife Imelda returning to the Philippines aboard a private 707 leased by a Lebanese arms dealer under indictment in the United States, Laurel said.

Press Secretary Teodoro Benigno identified the firm as Pan Aviation of Miami. He said the arms dealer was closely linked to an unnamed Saudi billionaire.

Benigno said the 707 had been in a Honolulu hanger for the past three days, but that the plot was "completely aborted" Wednesday night.

In Honolulu, Marcos said he was told by a "representative of the president of the United States" Wednesday night he would not be allowed to return to the Philippines.

"I was planning to leave anytime, tonight, tomorrow evening, tomorrow daytime," Marcos said. "I feel like I am being treated like a prisoner."

A clothing store manager in the Waikiki section of Honolulu said Imelda Marcos bought about $2,000 worth of camouflage military pants, U.S. and Israeli-made combat boots and other clothing Sunday.

Marcos said Wednesday night that the military clothing was for guards at their Honolulu home.

The failed rebellion was the second against Aquino. On July 6, 1986, 300 soldiers took over the posh Manila Hotel in support of a breakaway government allied with Marcos. The rebellion ended 36 hours later.

Armed forces spokesman Col. Honesto Ialata estimated 160 troops and 100 civilians were inside the television station about 1 mile from the ministry at the time of the news conference.

"I am glad to announce we have ended another episode in the history of these disturbances that have plagued us in the last so many months," Defense Minister Rafael Iletto said. "The series of unusual events within the military have ended."

Canlas, who denied he attempted a coup, declined to characterize his withdrawal as a surrender, saying he had never broken away from the armed forces.

Raiders Can't Reach Stars, 106-105

By Mark Blythe
Herald Sports Writer
JACKSONVILLE — Aric Sinclair hit a driving jump shot with three seconds to play lifting Jacksonville's Florida Community College to a 106-105 victory over Seminole Community College in Mid-Florida Conference basketball Wednesday night before 152 fans at FCC's gym.

The Stars improved to 20-3 and stand alone on top of the MFC with an 8-1 record. The Raiders, whose nine-game winning streak was snapped, fell to 23-3 and 7-2 in the conference. They return to action Saturday at home against Lake City. Daytona Beach, which whipped Valencia (87-82) Wednesday as Sanford's Darryl Merthle hit 21 points, pulled into a second-place tie with a 7-2 mark.

SCC, which found itself 19 points down early in the second half, made a valiant comeback effort, just falling short as Sinclair's game-winner pushed the Stars to their 13th consecutive victory.

"We held together well under trying times," Seminole coach Bill Payne said. "The team never gave up and that's to their credit."

Florida got out quick and used the 8 of 9 shooting of Renaldo Young to gain a 59-52 halftime lead.

The Stars came out on fire early in the second half, building the lead up as many as 19 when Sinclair hit a jumper from the foul line for a 79-60 lead with 14:43 to play.

Payne then signaled for a time out. The Raiders then regrouped and got back into the game. Freshman Robert Williams, who scored a career-high 15 points for Seminole, connected on a power move to start the comeback with 14:32 left.

After a bucket by Derrick Mitchell, Darris Gallagher took control, scoring seven consecutive points. The shifty sophomore guard used two short-range jumpers and one from three-point range to cut the lead to 81-69 with 13:18 remaining.

Forward Claude Jackson, who also finished with a career-high 24 points for SCC, then scored three consecutive points and Malcolm Houston connected for another bucket to slice the lead to 85-79 with eight minutes to play.

After a pair of free-throws by Mitchell, Houston nailed a 3-pointer and followed with a bucket off a feed from Gallagher, shortening the lead to 89-84 with 6:59 left.

The teams then traded buckets before Houston firing one up from 3-point range but was long. Houston managed to rebound his own shot and put in while still in the air, narrowing the lead to 91-88 with 6:01 to play.

Jackson cut the lead to one with a pair of free throws with 5:09 left, but Sinclair quickly put the lead back at three with an inside move.

Vance Hall then knocked down two free throws followed by a steal by Gallagher which ended up with Jackson scoring for a 94-93 Seminole lead with 4:10 remaining.

It was the first time the Raiders had led since they held a 20-19 lead with 13:05 left in the first half.

The Raiders, nevertheless, suffered a major loss when Hall, a 6-8 sophomore center, fouled out with 3:32 left and Larry Roas hit a pair of free throws to put the Stars back on top, 95-94.

Williams and Jackson, though, made up for the absence of Hall, taking the ball to the basket and drawing fouls. They cashed in, hitting a pair each for a 98-95 lead.

Jay Caputo: Underrated But Amazing

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer
Jay Caputo, a 17-year-old senior at Lake Mary High, is perhaps the most underrated athlete in Seminole County. Not because he's a hidden talent playing on a sub-par team, but because his sport — gymnastics — is far from popular among males in the state of Florida.

He doesn't get the notoriety of a player on Lake Mary's highly regarded football team or state-ranked baseball squad. But, his personal accomplishments are just as impressive as any athlete at his school.

"He just might be the best athlete in Seminole County," Lake Mary Principal Don Reynolds said. "He just doesn't get the recognition the rest of them do."

Caputo is a member of the United States Junior National 18 and under team and, after a tryout and testing in Colorado Springs earlier this month, he is the ninth-ranked junior gymnast in the U.S.

Jay Caputo goes to the rosin bowl before a recent workout at Brown's Gymnastics. The 17-year-old Lake Mary High senior gymnast displays perfect form, above, on the parallel bars. Below, he gets a workout on the rings. Caputo, the ninth-ranked gymnast in the nation for 18 and under, has narrowed his college choices to UCLA, Arizona State and Southern Illinois. He also has his sights set on the 1982 Olympic Games.

"It's really been hard for me because it's very uncommon for a male gymnast to come out of Florida," Caputo said.

er myself really lucky because I've had very good coaching."

To make the Junior National Team, Caputo had to go through an elimination process at a regional competition. The top 20 gymnasts in the nation were chosen from the regionals and went to the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs for the national testing. To make the Junior National Team, the athlete is selected by the sports national governing body which attempts to identify potential Olympians.

At the national clinic, headed by coach Bill Miller of Reno, Nev., Caputo scored a 52.0 in the all-around testing and placed fifth. "It was probably a mediocre meet for me," Caputo said. "I scored a few 8s and 9s but I didn't really hit any routines."

Caputo said he will go back to training camp in Colorado Springs in April but said he is on call and can be sent to any meet in or outside the U.S. There is also a possibility he will compete in an international meet in Korea sometime this year.

Caputo trains at Brown's Gymnastics in Altamonte Springs where he said he works out three and a half hours a day, five days a week and on some Saturdays. Contrary to the beliefs of many, gymnasts do little if any running or weightlifting.

"It's all gymnastics now," Caputo said. "I mostly work on routines and trouble areas and over the summer concentrate on new routines. A lot of people think there's weightlifting and running but just gymnastics itself gives you the endurance and strength you need."

In men's gymnastics, there are six individual apparatuses including the floor exercise, parallel bars, high bar, rings, vault and pommel horse.

"My favorite is the high bar although it's not really my forte," Caputo said. "The one thing everyone in the sport always needs to improve on is pommel horse."

Caputo has been a competitive gymnast for eight years. Reaching the top has been more difficult for Caputo than say a gymnast in the Midwest because there are very few training facilities and little demand for coaching for male gymnasts in Florida.

And there is no competition in his sport at the high school level. Once he graduates from high school, he will also have to

Sandcrabs Put Bite On Tribe Streak, 58-57

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor
DAYTONA BEACH — Seminole High's "comebackability" came back one second too late Wednesday night.

Seminole's Jerry "Stick" Parker banked home a desperation 40-footer just after time expired as the Daytona Beach Seabreeze Sandcrabs held on to a 58-57 nonconference basketball victory before 271 fans at Seabreeze High School.

ference Wednesday. With 16 seconds to play, Smith steadily backed Parker into the paint before going up for a jumper with five seconds left. Parker was whistled for the foul and Smith converted the first free throw for what turned out to be the game-winner.

"We had a stack set up for an option," Piggotte said. "But Gerald likes the ball in the clutch — sometimes too much."

Smith said he was determined to take the ball to the hole. "I like the ball in the clutch," the talented junior said. "They had beaten twice before and we wanted to beat them this time."

The setback snapped a 10-game Sanford victory streak and dropped the ninth-ranked 'Noles to 16-5. The Tribe, which travels to Lake Brantley for a Seminole Athletic Conference game Friday, had beaten the Sandcrabs twice previously. Seabreeze, which has won six consecutive, improved to 12-6.

"You can't expect to win them all in the last two minutes," Seminole coach Bill Klein said. "We think we can wait until the last two minutes, then pull it out."

"Well, you can't do that against a good team like Seabreeze."

Klein was upset that his 'Noles, after playing sporadically for 27 minutes, attempted to turn the game around in the final five minutes. "We played about five good minutes of basketball," he said. "I hope they found out they can't do that against good teams."

Seminole's first victory over Seabreeze was quite a feat. The 'Noles rallied from a 17-point deficit on to win on Craig Walker's bucket after a steal by Roderick Henderson in the closing seconds.

"I was beginning to think I'd never win a close game against Bill (Klein)," Seabreeze coach Joe Piggotte Jr. said. "But we have finally started to win the close ones."

Gerald Smith, a swingman who finished with 10 points, provided the margin of dif-ferenced by two close calls. On one, a dunk up by Walter Hopson was disallowed with 3:56 left. A minute later, Andre Whitney's driving layup was wiped out when he charged Scott Stipits. Whitney fouled out on the in-bounds pass.

Undaunted, Seminole erased a six-point deficit in 1:13. After Sean Beckton converted two free throws for a 57-51 edge, Parker stole the ball and scored to cut the gap to 57-53 with 1:38 left. Smith obliged by missing a free throw with 59 seconds left but Michael "Spud" Edwards was off mark with a jumper.

Reginald "Spook" Bellamy, though, forced a turnover with 50 seconds left and Henderson connected from deep in the right-hand corner to pare the lead to 57-55 with 47 seconds left.

After a Seminole time out, Seabreeze tried to go long and threw the ball out of bounds. Henderson promptly took the ball to the baseline and knocked Despite career-high point productions from Sean Roberts (23) and Dwight Brinson (20), Seminole dropped an 85-69 decision to Daytona Beach Seabreeze in junior varsity basketball Wednesday night at Seabreeze High School.

Coach Tom Smith's Tribe fell to 3-11. Sanford travels to Lake Brantley Friday for a Seminole Athletic Conference battle with the Patriots.

In addition to Roberts' 23 points, he pulled down 12 rebounds. Brinson had five assists to go with his 20 points. Danny Hartley added 10 points and 10 boards.

Seminole fell behind, 24-13, after one period and could not cut the difference to less than 10 points in the second half. SB's Stacey Beckton led all scorers with 26 points. — Sam Cook

Lawrence's 3-Pointers Boost Gators Past 'Bama

United Press International
No. 16 Florida moved into a tie with No. 10 Alabama for the Southeastern Conference basketball lead with the Gators' 90-80 overtime victory over the Crimson Tide Wednesday night.

Senior forward Joe Lawrence hit two 3-point field goals in overtime to lead Florida over Alabama in Gainesville.

In other SEC action Wednesday, Louisiana State edged No. 17 Auburn 75-73. Georgia topped Tennessee 60-55 and Vanderbilt defeated Mississippi State 76-57.

Kentucky plays Mississippi tonight.

Lawrence's two long jumpers in the first 1:30 of overtime gave the Gators an 80-74 lead. Florida then made eight of 11 free throws to hold off the Crimson Tide.

Alabama center Derrick McKey hit three 3-pointers in the closing minutes to help force the overtime. He finished with a game-high 27 points.

Lawrence had 18 points, all on 3-pointers, and Melven Jones grabbed a career-high 17 rebounds.

Alabama's Jim Farmer hit 20 points and point guard Terry Coner added 17 as the Crimson Tide's winning streak ended at 12 games. Alabama dropped to 15-3 overall and 8-1 in the conference.

The Gators (16-4, 8-1) controlled early in the game and led 45-38 at the half. They led by as many as 14 points with 15 minutes left to play, but McKey hit 9 points in the last seven minutes and his third 3-pointer tied the score at 74 with just over a minute to play to force the extra period.

Farmer hit a 3-pointer to bring Alabama to within six, 83-77, with 1:36 to go, but they could get no closer as Florida hit seven of their last 10 free-throws to sew up the game.

With Auburn's loss to LSU, Florida and Alabama have a three-game cushion over the rest of the SEC.

Guard Vernon Maxwell, who was the SEC's leading scorer with 23.1 points per game, played only 25 minutes due to foul trouble and hit 14 points for the Gators.

LSU blew a 17-point halftime lead built largely on the shooting of Anthony Wilson but held on to beat Auburn. Wilson had five 3-point field goals and 19 of his 25 points in the first half, during which LSU led by as many as 22 points and built a 51-34 halftime lead.

Willie Anderson scored a game-high 17 points, including 15 in the second half, to lead Georgia over Tennessee. Tennessee had taken a 52-48 lead on a basket by Doug Roth with 4:46 left, but Anderson hit two straight field goals — one from the three-point range — to give Georgia a 53-52 lead with 3:21 remaining.

Never-Die LSU Shocks Auburn

United Press International
Louisiana State learned last season what can happen once a team advances into the NCAA Tournament. Despite winning the Southeastern Conference, the Tigers were not expected to last long in the post-season tournament. Sparked by John Williams, however, the Tigers moved to the Final Four before being eliminated by eventual champion Louisville.

This season, without Williams and two other starters, LSU is fighting to survive in the SEC and maybe earn another berth to the NCAA tournament. "These kids just refuse to die and believe they won't be back in a national tournament," LSU Coach Dale Brown said Wednesday night after the Tigers defeated 17th-ranked Auburn 75-73 in Baton Rouge, La.

Senior guard Anthony Wilson hit a short baseline jumper with 55 seconds left to lift LSU. The conference victory was LSU's first at home this season and improved its record to 13-9 overall and 4-6 in the league.

Auburn, which fought back from a 17-point halftime deficit, missed an opportunity to send the game into overtime when Jeff Moore's jumper from the lane fell short with five seconds left.

Wilson scored a game-high 25 points, Ollie Brown added 14 points and Bernard Woodside contributed 10.

"The hell with being called a streak shooter," said Wilson, who has been criticized for being inconsistent this season. "I just wanted to win and get back to a tournament."

Moore scored 21 points to lead Auburn, 11-5 and 4-4 in the SEC. Auburn has lost nine of its last 11 games in Baton Rouge.

In other games involving ranked teams, No. 1 North Carolina defeated No. 14 Clemson 108-99 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game. No. 4 Indiana topped No. 12 Illinois 69-66 in the Big Ten. No. 13 Georgetown lost to Providence 82-79 in Big East action. No. 15 Texas Christian pounded Rice 64-38 in the Southwest Conference. No. 16 Florida outlasted No. 10 Alabama 90-80 in overtime in an SEC game and No. 19 Pittsburgh clipped Seton Hall 65-51 in a Big East game.

At Clemson, S.C., senior Kenny Smith scored a career-high 41 points to help North Carolina overcome a 12-point halftime deficit and defeat Clemson. The Tar Heels improved to 18-1 overall and 7-0 in the ACC, while Clemson lost its second straight ACC game to fall to 18-2 and 4-2.

At Bloomington, Ind., Dean Garrett scored 20 points and blocked three shots in the final 40 seconds, leading Indiana over Illinois. The victory gave the Hoosiers a half-game lead over No. 5 Purdue and No. 3 Iowa in the Big Ten race. Indiana improved to 16-2 and 7-1. Illinois fell to 14-5 overall and 5-3 with its third straight conference loss.

At Providence, R.I., Ernie Lewis hit 33-pointers in the final two minutes, including the game-winner with two seconds left, to lift Providence over Georgetown. Ronnie Highsmith connected on 2 free throws with 30 seconds left to tie the score, before Lewis sank his winning jump shot from deep in the right corner. The Friars snapped an 11-game losing streak against Georgetown dating back to January 1982.

At Fort Worth, Texas, Larry Richard and Carven Holcombe each scored 17 points to power Texas Christian to its 13th straight victory. Richard also grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds for the Horned Frogs, 17-3 and 8-0.

At Gainesville, Fla., senior Joe Lawrence hit consecutive 3-pointers in overtime to lead Florida over Alabama. Lawrence had 18 points, all on 3-pointers, and Melven Jones grabbed a career-high 17 rebounds. The victory enabled the Gators, 16-4 overall and 8-1 in the league, to move into first place in the SEC. The Crimson Tide fell to 15-3 and 8-1.

At Pittsburgh, Curtis Aiken scored 21 points to lead five Panthers in double figures in Pitt's romp over Seton Hall. Freshman Rod Brooklin and senior Tico Cooper came off the bench to fill in for foul-plagued center Charles Smith and scored 17 and 15 points, respectively. The Panthers improved to 16-4 and 5-2.

In other games, it was Arkansas 76, Southern Methodist 63; Georgia 60, Tennessee 55; Maryland 90, James Madison 78; Memphis State 64, Louisville 48; South Alabama 80, North Carolina-Charlotte 78; Vanderbilt 76, Mississippi State 57; Virginia 61, North Carolina State 60; Kansas State 88, Oklahoma State 77; and Missouri 81, Nebraska 71.

LSU coach Dale Brown may not like college basketball's inequities but he enjoyed his team's two-point victory over 17th-ranked Auburn Wednesday in SEC action.

Garrett Carries Hoosiers

Basketball

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI) — With All-America guard Steve Alford shut down offensively and the score tied in the final minutes, fourth-ranked Indiana relied on Dean Garrett — and the junior center responded.

The 6-foot-10 junior-college transfer blocked three shots in the final 40 seconds and finished with a game-high 20 points and six blocked shots Wednesday night to lead the Hoosiers to a 69-66 Big Ten victory over No. 12 Illinois.

The triumph gave Indiana a half-game lead over No. 5 Purdue and No. 3 Iowa in the Big Ten. Indiana improved to 16-2 overall and 7-1 in conference play.

"Garrett really deserves a pat on the back," Indiana Coach Bob Knight said. "He played very well in that last 10 minutes and made some crucial plays on both ends. He deserves a lot of credit."

Garrett hit an 8-foot jump shot with 1:34 remaining to give Indiana the lead for good. He blocked a shot by Illinois scoring leader Ken Norman on the next Illinois possession, setting up 2 free throws by Alford that gave the Hoosiers a 68-64 edge.

matching the largest either team managed.

Garrett deflected two inside shots on the next Illinois possession and, after Illinois cut the margin to 68-66, he hit a final free throw. Illinois forward Doug Altenberger and Norman missed 3-point shots in the final seconds.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI) — Indiana basketball coach Bob Knight criticized a statement of rights for the school's student-athletes and the faculty committee that approved the measure.

The Bloomington Faculty Council had passed a measure last week emphasizing that athletes should not be subjected to physical or verbal abuse and that any such actions by a coach should be reported.

While Knight was not named in the measure, which was approved by an 18-16 vote, he was mentioned prominently in debate on the topic.

Oviedo's Lady Lions threw a defensive ambush at Lake Mary Wednesday night but the Lady Rams, led by senior striker Kelley Broen, managed to put three goals between the pipes for a 3-1 Seminole Athletic Conference victory at Lake Mary High.

The Lady Rams, ranked ninth in the state, improved to 15-3-4 overall and 4-2-3 in the SAC. Lake Mary hosts Lake Howell Friday night and concludes the regular season Saturday at Bishop Moore. Oviedo dropped to 4-10-4 overall and 0-8-3 in the conference. Oviedo hosts Lake Brantley Friday.

"Oviedo did a good job on us defensively," Lake Mary coach Bill Eiselle said. "What they were doing was either deflecting our shots or the goalkeeper (Lori Blackburn) was there for the save. They played tough defense the whole evening."

The Lady Rams pumped 35 shots on goal but Blackburn made 20 saves to keep Oviedo close. The Lady Lions had 12 shots on goal on the night with Lake Mary keeper, Tammy Scott making four saves.

Lake Mary broke a scoreless tie with eight minutes left in the first half when Broen scored on an assist from Leali Hobek. Oviedo evened the score at 1-1 with four minutes left in the half on Cathy Bergman's 13th goal of the season. The Lady Rams, however, came back to take a 2-1 lead one minute before the half ended when Broen scored her 23rd goal of the season on an assist from Crisale Snow.

"Broen's goal just before the half gave us a big boost," Eiselle said. "Oviedo still played tough defense the second half, but knowing we had the lead gave us more confidence."

Michelle Mattingly gave the Lady Rams some breathing room with 10 minutes left to play when she scored her 15th goal of the year on Broen's assist, her 22nd of the season.

"We need to keep working on the things we do well and get better at them for next week (district tournament)," Lyman coach Laura Dryden said.

On Wednesday night, Dana Boyesen's goal two minutes into the game gave the Lady Greyhounds a lead they would not relinquish. Randi Huddleston followed with an unassisted goal and Lyman took a 3-0 lead when Kim Mitchell scored on Bonni Steeves' assist. Still in the first half, Maye Belle Bryant scored her 20th goal of the season on an assist from Kerry Musante and Julia Callarman's unassisted goal.

The Lady Greyhounds outshot Lake Howell, 12-4, and Lyman goalkeeper Sarah Cobb needed to make just one save in recording her ninth shutout.

Lake Howell now stands at 7-8-3 overall and 3-4-1 in the SAC. The Lady Hawks conclude the regular season Friday at Lake Mary.

DISTRICT PAIRINGS SET
The pairings for the District 3 Tournament, the largest and most competitive district in the state, have been released with the top four seeds being Lyman, Lake Brantley, Melbourne and Lake Mary.

Robinson's basket with one minute left gave the Lady Sandercrabs a 44-42 lead, but Sheri Reddick then hit one of two free throws to pull Seminole within 44-43 with 50 seconds remaining. Robinson came right back with another deuce for a 46-43 Seabreeze lead.

Reddick answered with an inside hoop for the Lady 'Noles that cut Seabreeze's lead to 46-45 with 35 seconds left. Seminole got the ball back on a turnover and Hillsman was

Sloppy Lady Rams Escape DeLand; Ailing Arriola Rescues Lake Howell

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

After playing some tough games in the last few weeks, Lake Mary's Lady Rams and Lake Howell's Lady Silver Hawks were looking for breathers Wednesday night but both wound up gasping for oxygen before escaping with victories.

At Lake Mary High, DeLand's Lady Bulldogs took advantage of Lake Mary's sloppiness to lead most of the game but Teri Whyte's layup tied it with two seconds left in regulation and Lake Mary went on to claim a 59-53 overtime victory.

At Orlando Lake Highland, the Lady Hawks trailed the 1A Lady Highlanders by 13 points in the second quarter and were forced to insert ailing Denise Arriola to neutralize the boards as Lake Howell bounced back for a 58-48 victory.

Lake Mary, ranked third in the state in Class 4A, not only escaped with the victory but extended its school-record winning streak to 18. The Lady Rams, 20-1 overall, return to Seminole Athletic Conference action (4-0) Friday night at 6 at Lyman.

"We were really sloppy and looked out of sync as a team," Lake Mary coach Bill Moore said. "DeLand was patient and played a smart ball game and took advantage of our mistakes."

DeLand led by as much as seven points in the fourth quarter before the Lady Rams rallied to tie it on Whyte's layup with two seconds remaining. DeLand then inbounded the ball to Debbie Lovette who threw up a shot from Lake Mary's foul line that hit off the rim and the game went to overtime.

"Everyone was celebrating after we scored to tie it and then I saw the shot and said, 'that's going to go in,'" Moore said. "It had the right distance on it but just hit off the side of the rim."

The Lady Rams breathed a sigh of relief, then came out and scored the first four points of overtime, two by Sharon Bonaventure and two by Cynthia Patterson.

DeLand cut Lake Mary's lead to two points on C.C. Hayden's basket, but Bonaventure scored on an assist from Gabby Olden for a four-point Lake Mary lead and DeLand could get no closer.

"I didn't play Olden until halfway through third quarter," Moore said. "She helped bring us back but we mostly a sloppy game. And we did a terrible job on the defensive boards."

Patterson's 15 points were high for the Lady Rams while Bonaventure had another good game with 13 points and eight rebounds. Whyte contributed 12 points and 12 boards and blocked four shots. Tonya Lawson added 10 points and seven steals and Ashley Thomas chipped in with four assists and four steals.

Hayden had a game-high 24 points for DeLand before fouling out late in overtime. Shawn Lane added 11 points but she too fouled out in overtime.

At Lake Highland, Lake Howell came back from a 25-12 second-quarter deficit to pull out the victory. The Lady Hawks now stand at 14-3 overall and return to Seminole Athletic Conference (2-2) play tonight at Oviedo.

Lake Howell was without leading rebounder Denise Arriola when Lake Highland built its big lead and second-leading rebounder Carey Manuel was out with the flu.

"We were getting killed on the boards so I had to put Arriola in," Lake Howell coach Dennis Codrey said. "She wasn't supposed to play but we needed her."

Arriola wound up with six points and nine rebounds while playing only 12 minutes. When Arriola wasn't in, sophomore guard Brooke Burns picked up the rebounding slack for Lake Howell. Burns, who averaged just over two rebounds per game going in, pulled down a career-high 10 boards.

Tammy Lewis had 16 points to lead the Lady Hawks while Kelley Grider pumped in 14 and Erin Hankins tossed in 13.

Lake Highland took a 29-24 lead at halftime but Lake Howell went on a 17-4 spurt in the third quarter for a 41-33 lead.

Active Stocking Assures Striper Population In St. Johns

When a Central Florida angler bears of striped bass, they would probably think of far away places and of a fish that is too elusive to catch.

No so. Central and north Florida have plenty of strippers, and some of them are real giants. The state record is a whopping 36 pounds, 9 ounces. It was caught by Justin J. Alpin at the Jim Woodruff Dam, which spans the Apalachicola river near the Florida-Georgia line.

In 1955, Addis Hill caught a 48-pound monster just below the Jim Woodruff Dam, but the huge fish was not officially documented for a record.

Anglers in Jacksonville, frequently catch strippers from 15-20 pounds on large plugs and live bait. Strippers such as those mentioned would make anglers in the northern states jealous.

Florida is assured of a healthy striper population due to an active stocking program. Over 750,000 one-inch striped bass fingerlings were stocked in the St. Johns River last spring, according to Terry Cheek, fisheries biologist for the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

"Fingerlings were stocked at three locations in the river," Cheek said. "The Green Cove Springs area received 275,000, the Welaka area received 232,000, and 258,000 were stocked at Georgetown."

Historically, the striped bass make it as far south as the Sanford area. They may not be as large as the strippers found in the northern part of our state, but fish in the 8-10 pound range are not rare.

Most strippers in our area are caught incidentally while anglers are fishing for other species such as largemouth bass. Some anglers who catch strippers by accident get "hooked" on this hard-fighting gamefish.

Areas such as the "Croaker Hole" in Lake George are famous for their concentrations.

Salt Springs, in the northwest corner of Lake George, is also noted for producing large numbers of striped bass.

Now is the time to fish for this strong gamefish. Strippers are more active in the winter months, as they prefer cool water temperatures.

The Jim Woodruff Dam is a long drive, but the Lake George area is only an hour away. Why not add some spice to your freshwater fishing and chase some strippers? You may make a new friend for life.

SHUPE'S SCOOP — If you have to go fishing after or during a cold front, live bait is the best bet. Species such as bass become almost dormant and will not actively pursue a lure for any distance.

WEEKEND FORECAST — If the predicted cold front hits this weekend, fishing will be slow at best. High winds and cold temperatures will make fishing difficult, and species such as bass will become inactive with a falling barometer and dropping water temperatures.

fishing has slowed down with the cold weather. The best bet for a lumber bass is a wild shiner fished near heavy cover. Spotted perch have been caught in Lake Woodruff. Some strippers of 35-40 lbs have been caught by trolling Mal Piles in open water.

Dell Abernathy at Osteen Bridge reports that shad are still biting all over the river. Bass are slow due to the cold weather, but some species are being caught in Lake Weir when the wind is not blowing too hard.

Schlesinger later is very slow at the present time — perhaps the slowest it has been all year. Only a few saffron, bluefish, and flounder are being caught. Old timers are not looking for improved action until the weather warms up considerably.

Captain Jack of Port Conneral said that there is no report on offshore fishing because high seas have kept even the commercial boats in port. Bluefish and flounder are being caught inside the Port. The best bet is to fish the power plant in the Indian River. It should be loaded with trout, ladyfish, and other species in this cold weather. The residential canals in the Merritt Island/Cocoa Beach area also produce huge trout during the cold snaps.

King-Sized Pick? Gordon Leans Toward Gridiron

By Scott Sander
Herald Sports Writer

There aren't many athletes that can play two sports and excel in each to the point where major colleges are interested in giving the athlete a scholarship in either sport.

There are even fewer who are 6-foot-3 and weigh 245 pounds.

Oviedo's Gordon King, however, is that kind of an athlete. He is coveted both for his kicking and punting skills on the football field and his goalkeeping ability on the soccer field.

King, a second-team selection as kicker on the Florida Sports Writers Association Class 4A All-State Football Team, was multitasking in football as he played offensive center, punted, kicked off, and kicked field goals and extra points. A few of his many achievements last season included a school-record 52-yard field goal and record 74-yard punt.

King now faces a decision that most people would cherish: which does he choose — college football or soccer.

King said that he has already made his choice. "Right now I'd say that football is the frontrunner," King said. "Unless something drastic happens, I want to play college football."

Oviedo football coach Jack Blanton, who guided the young Lions to a 6-4 season, said that there is no doubt in his mind that King can play football at the collegiate level. "After the last five games of the season," Blanton said, "I was convinced that Gordon can play college ball. He had some trouble at the beginning of the year, but he worked very hard in the last five weeks of the season."

College

Blanton said that King's left foot was Oviedo's main offensive weapon. "We only had 12 seniors last year," Blanton said. "At the start of the year we put our experienced people on defense. We figured that if our offense stalled, Gordon could punt us out of trouble. If we got inside our opponents' 35-yard line, we knew we had three points."

King is just as much at home on the soccer field as he is on the football field. King plays keeper for Oviedo and has led the Lions to a 9-4-3 record and No. 9 ranking in the state Class 3A poll. King leads the county in saves with 113 and has four shutouts.

"I have played soccer since I have been 11," King said. "It is a fun sport and I think our team is very good this season."

Oviedo soccer coach Dave Jekanoski said that he has never seen a keeper like King. "Gordon makes tough saves look easy," Jekanoski said. "He just catches the balls and throws them out."

"He is extremely agile for his size," Jekanoski said. "He is a great athlete. He could easily step and play a field position if he had to."

King now faces a dilemma that all college-bound athletes must go through: choosing a school.

King said that he has been in contact with Colorado, Georgia Southern, Georgia, Appalachian State, and UCF. "I can't announce my favorite just yet," King said. "I'm going to have to play it by ear."

point average, said that his

"My education comes first," King said. "I want to go somewhere where I'll learn something."

King said that at the start of his sophomore year Blanton approached him and asked him if he wanted to kick. "I bought a tee and started kicking in my back yard," King recalled. "At first I couldn't kick very far but I progressed slowly."

Blanton said that he has a lot of admiration for King. "He is a good football player," Blanton said. "But my impression is he's a nice young man."

King said the feeling is mutual. "Coach Blanton worked us hard," King said. "He kept things in perspective for us. He is a good man."

Jekanoski said that King has handled himself well this year. "Gordon got a lot of publicity during football and soccer and could of gotten cocky by it," Jekanoski said. "But he has taken it in stride and is just a nice happy-go-lucky type of guy." "I think that the Oviedo football and soccer programs are definitely on the rise," King added. "We were young in football last year and there are people that can replace the seniors who are leaving. I think that the football team will be very strong."

And soccer? "Coach Jekanoski has turned our soccer program around," King said about the first-year coach. "The soccer team is getting a lot better."

Dent's Upset Can't Avert Oviedo's Loss

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

Kevin Dent's upset of highly-regarded Randy Allen was the highlight of the meet for Oviedo but the Lions didn't have enough team firepower to overtake Leesburg as the Yellow Jackets claimed a 46-25 victory Wednesday in prep wrestling action at Oviedo High.

Oviedo now stands at 4-8 in dual meets and ends the regular season with a pair of home meets. Friday night against Wymore Career Education Center and Saturday afternoon against Orlando Boone.

Dent came through with his most impressive win of the season Wednesday as he pinned Allen in 3:54 at the 168 pound weight division.

"Allen has been a really strong wrestler this year so that has to be considered an upset," Oviedo coach John Horn said. "Kevin (Dent) wrestled probably his best match all year. It was no fluke move that won it either. He put on a good half nelson and pinned him (Allen)."

Oviedo also got victories from Kenny Schrupp at 115, Charles Vela at 135, Jene Hartman at 158 and Chuck Lee at 170.

Schrupp, the SAC champion at 115, won a major decision over Edward Keller, 10-0; Vela outscored Rob Lyon, 12-6; Hartman stuck Paul Visaliani, 3-1; and Lee pinned Brad Chamberlain in 2:41.

Birdies Keep Coming For Nicklaus

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — As soon as Jack Nicklaus started talking about semi-retirement, he began playing about as well as he can play.

"I've made 19 birdies in three days," Nicklaus said Wednesday, the eve of the opening round of the Pebble Beach National Pro-Am. "The problem, of course, is that the tournament doesn't start until tomorrow."

The tournament, still known as "The Crosby," opens today with a field of 180 pros and 180 amateurs playing on three of the nation's most alluring courses: Pebble Beach, Cypress Point and Spyglass Hill.

The appearance marks the first of the year for Nicklaus and will be one of only a few he will make on the tour in 1987.

"I'm not retiring," Nicklaus said. "I'm only semi-retiring. I don't expect to be competitive all the time, but I think I can be now and then."

Nicklaus said he would probably play no more than 10 times this year — including this week's event, the four majors, his own Memorial Tournament, Doral and the Westchester Classic.

"At my age (47), I just can't expect to be competitive every week," he said. "If I thought I was capable of winning two or three majors this year, I'd be out here every week working my tail off."

"When I play, I still expect to play good. I just have to realize I can't play good week after week anymore. There is nothing I love more than playing and playing well. There is nothing I hate more than playing poorly like I did early last year."

Despite struggling early last year, Nicklaus won his 20th major title by sweeping from behind on the final nine holes to beat Greg Norman and Tom Kite by a shot and capture the Masters.

Golf

"It's just time for me to hang it up as far as a week-to-week schedule goes," Nicklaus said. "It's time for me to cut back."

Nicklaus will lead the typical all-star field at the tournament that Bing Crosby began 50 years ago and which grew to become the highlight of the PGA's winter circuit. Greg Norman, Lee Trevino, Bernhard Langer, Payne Stewart, Bob Tway and 1987 winners Corey Pavin and Paul Azinger are included in the field, along with a crowd of celebrities.

The amateurs in the field range from talented golfers like actor James Garner to the hackers like actor Jack Lemmon.

LPGA: LOPEZ RETURNS
BOCA RATON, Fla. (UPI) — After a year off to have a baby, Nancy Lopez returns to golf — painfully — on the first stop of the 1987 LPGA tour.

In addition to handling the added responsibilities of a second baby girl, Lopez experiences pain when walking because of sore toes. She also is faced with the need to take off some extra weight gained during pregnancy.

Despite the problems, Lopez is determined to play in the $200,000 Mazda Classic, which begins today at Stonebridge Golf and Country Club.

"I'm ready to get back. I want to go out and be No. 1 again," she said. "I'll be there if I have to play barefoot."

Lopez is traveling with her husband, former New York Mets third baseman Ray Knight; her two daughters, 8-month-old Erin Shea and 3-year-old Ashley Marie; and her father.

She visited the doctor for her foot condition Tuesday, and said she may have to take shots for the pain. The pain in the tendons of her toes is caused by the added weight from two pregnancies, said Lopez, who needs one more victory to enter the LPGA Hall of Fame.

Lopez expects to conquer the weight problem soon. She has lost 13 pounds since Thursday on a high-protein diet that includes 80 ounces of water and eight ounces of meat a day.

IN BRIEF

Maple Leafs Fall To Chicago; Irate Brophy Promises Shakeup

United Press International
The Toronto Maple Leafs faltered again, and an angry Coach John Brophy promised a shakeup.
Bob Sauve stopped 45 shots for his eighth career shutout, and defenseman Doug Wilson scored two goals in the second period Wednesday night to help the Chicago Blackhawks snap a seven-game winless streak with a 5-0 victory over the Leafs.

The loss was Toronto's second shutout in its last three games. In the middle came a disastrous effort against Calgary, in which the Leafs squandered a 5-0 lead in the third period and lost 6-5 in overtime.

Toronto — minus injured centers Dan Daouat and Tom Fergus, defensemen Bob McGill and Donj Salming and right wing Brad Smith — also lost for the 10th time in its last 12 games.

"We had only eight guys who played (hard) for us tonight," Brophy said. "Yes, it's time for a shakeup."
"The others are using ice time that we could give to somebody else. I can't say what we'll do right now, but if we bring up a few guys (from the minor leagues), at least we know that they'll work hard."

Elsewhere, Philadelphia defeated Buffalo 7-4, Washington edged Detroit 2-1, Winnipeg downed the New York Rangers 2-1, Edmonton topped Vancouver 7-3 and Los Angeles dumped New Jersey 6-2.

Washburn Admits Drug Problem

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI) — The troubled rookie season of Chris Washburn, the Golden State Warriors' top draft pick last year, has worsened.

Washburn disclosed Wednesday he has a drug problem, and he entered a Southern California drug-abuse treatment center.

When asked on a television newscast if Washburn has a substance-abuse problem similar to other NBA athletes with documented cases of cocaine abuse, team president Dan Finnane replied, "Yes, he does have a drug problem but the team is not disclosing whether or not cocaine is involved."

Finnane said Washburn has a tough road ahead of him.

Rodgers Jailed For Contempt

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Johnny Rodgers, who won the 1972 Heisman Trophy as the nation's best college football player, was convicted on two felony firearms charges and immediately jailed on a contempt charge for what the judge called his "flippant" attitude.

A San Diego Superior Court jury Wednesday found the former Nebraska All-America guilty of assault with a firearm and being an ex-felon in possession of a gun. He was acquitted of exhibiting a firearm in a threatening manner.

RB Winder To Replace Allen

HONOLULU (UPI) — Sammy Winder of the Denver Broncos Wednesday was named to replace Los Angeles Raiders running back Marcus Allen on the AFC roster for the Pro Bowl.

A spokesman for the NFL said an ankle injury sustained by Allen during the regular season had failed to respond to treatment, forcing the substitution. Winder, 5-foot-11, 203 pounds, completed his fifth season with the Broncos and led the conference with 14 touchdowns, including five on pass receptions. He gained 789 yards.

Webb Holds 24-Pin Edge

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (UPI) — Wayne Webb saw his first-place lead cut to 24 pins after Wednesday night's second round of the $125,000 Greater Los Angeles Open.

Webb, of Indianapolis, bowled games of 300 and 290 and averaged 256 in the opening round, and has a 238 average through 12 games. He had a pinfall total of 2,862, while second-year player Marc McDowell, of Madison, Wis., was a close second with 2,838.

Doohan Surprises No. 2 Jarryd

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — Peter Doohan, a little-known Australian, upset second seed Anders Jarryd of Sweden, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1 Thursday in the $105,000 New South Wales Open men's tennis tournament at White City.

Doohan, 25, used a serve-and-volley game to surprise Jarryd and advance into the quarterfinals of the 32-man grass-court event.

Brandenburg Player Of Week

Tracy Brandenburg, a sophomore basketball player, was named Lake Brantley Player of the Week for Dec. 12-18, Brantley Athletic Director Bob Peterson announced.

In two games, Brandenburg averaged 16 points, five assists and six steals.

Market On The Rise

NEW YORK (UPI) — Prices opened higher today in active trading of New York Stock Exchange issues.

The Dow Jones industrial average, which climbed 12.94 to 2163.39 Wednesday, was up 15.47 to 2178.86 shortly after the market opened. Advances led declines 634-306 among the 1,390 issues crossing the New York Stock Exchange tape.

Early turnover amounted to about 16,103,000 shares.

The Dow and other market gauges set highs Wednesday in heavy trading as persistent demand for stocks placed the market firmly back on an upward track only three trading days after it plummeted in its most active session ever.

The Dow, which has advanced 267 points since the start of 1987, rose 12.94 to a record 2163.39, only three sessions after the market encountered some of the most volatile trading Wall Streeters had ever seen.

Analysts said a firm bond market, investors' willingness to buy when sellers made small price concessions and late futures-related buy programs buoyed the market.

Prices surged immediately after the opening bell, but the market gradually lost its gains and turned lower. It recovered, moved into positive territory and stayed there through midday before edging lower again in the early afternoon. Prices began their final climb in mid-afternoon.

Dollar Slightly Up; Gold Turns Mixed

By United Press International

The U.S. dollar opened slightly higher on most major world money markets today following reports in Tokyo that the U.S. Federal Reserve Bank had stepped in to bolster the sagging currency. The price of gold was mixed.

In earlier trading in the Far East, the dollar closed at 152.00 yen, up 0.80 from Wednesday's close of 152.20 in moderate trading.

Dealers said the dollar hit the day's high on buying spurred by reports that the Federal Reserve Board intervened in New York to bolster the sagging dollar. Reports were later confirmed by sources in the Bank of Japan.

In European trading, the dollar strengthened at the opening in Frankfurt to 1.7805 German marks, against Wednesday's close of 1.7745; in Zurich to 1.5012 Swiss francs, against 1.488; and in Paris to 5.955 French francs against 5.925 on Wednesday.

The dollar gained in Brussels, opening at 37.60 Belgian francs, against Wednesday's close of 37.48; in Amsterdam at 2.008

Dutch guilders, against 2.004; and in Milan at 1,270 lire, against 1,261.50 on Wednesday night.

But in London, the pound sterling opened at $1.5405, against Wednesday's close of $1.5395.

In early New York, trading the dollar was slightly higher against major foreign currencies.

Gold opened $3 an ounce lower in Zurich at $410 per troy ounce and edged up 12.5 cents an ounce in London to open at $410 an ounce.

The morning fixing in London was $411, up $1.125 from Wednesday's close.

Silver opened 5 cents lower in Zurich at $5.60 per troy ounce and fell slightly in London to $5.605 per troy ounce, against $5.62 on Wednesday.

In early trading on New York's Comex, a 100-troy-ounce gold futures contract for current delivery in January opened at $408.80 an ounce, off $1.50 from Wednesday's close. A 5,000-troy-ounce silver futures contract for delivery in January opened at $5.584, off 2 cents an ounce.

Durable Goods Orders Rise

WASHINGTON (UPI) — New orders for America's long-lasting manufactured consumer goods jumped 6.9 percent in December, the Commerce Department said today. It was the best showing in nearly four years.

But orders for all of 1986 were up only 1.5 percent for the year after increasing 3.7 percent in 1985.

The December increase in orders for so-called durable goods outside the defense industry marked the first such upturn in four months.

new orders for non-defense capital goods — leaped ahead 5.5 percent to total $30 billion.

hundred alleged code violations to the city for follow-up surveys by enforcement officials. In addition to overgrown weeds on privately owned parcels, Mercer's complaints involve garbage, debris and deteriorated structural conditions. Follow-up surveys determine them to be bonafide violations 95 to 98 percent of the time, city inspectors say.

Thomas also said he was aware of the 300-foot policy limit, but defended his action by quoting a city ordinance he says authorizes city commissioners to deal with such violations. However, after he read the ordinance, it appears commissioners may not be following its guidelines in addition to ignoring the 300-foot policy statement.

The ordinance Thomas read says, in essence, that any duly authorized representative of the city "And I fall into that category," Thomas noted, who sees a violation of city codes and ordinances with respect to undeveloped lots being left in an unkempt state containing litter, debris, excessive weed growth, etcetera, "shall notify the property owner in writing" detailing the problem and giving that property owner a time certain to correct it with the warning that if it isn't corrected within that time limit, the city will do the work and bill the property owner. The bill would constitute a lien on the property.

When asked if he (Thomas) has followed the guidelines and written in detail to any property owner of a lot he deemed in violation of city ordinances, categories of medically underserved, financially indigent, and Medicare or Medicaid, Ms. Moore said. Seventy-two percent of the patients qualify for the minimum fee of $4 a visit, she said, and of the rest, half pay nothing and half are covered by Medicaid or Medicare.

The total income the clinic received last year from patient fees was $214,000.

Thomas acknowledged he has not. He said he simply turned over the matter to the appropriate city department and expected them to do so. But, according to the ordinance Thomas quoted as authority for bypassing the 300-foot residency limit, the duly authorized officer spotting the violation is to write to the property owner.

At Monday's commission meeting Thomas and McClanahan disagreed about the city ordinance relating to mowing and clearing of grass, trash and debris on developed or undeveloped privately owned parcels. The ordinance was established in 1976. McClanahan is back on the commission this year after serving as a commissioner from 1972 to 1978.

Of the ordinance's adoption during his first term in office, 1972 to 1978, McClanahan said, "We tried to act and react in a common sense manner, not in accordance with personal idiosyncracies."

The commission policy's 1982 adoption, including the bar on reporting lots less than 300 feet from one's home or business, was meant "to clearly define the city's responsibilities when it comes to the ordinance's requirements" regarding mowing or clearing developed or undeveloped lots if their owners don't act after receiving a notice of violation, Smith said.

City officials say the lots are located throughout Sanford and McClanahan contends that because they are so widespread, the commissioners' reports could prompt a lawsuit from a disgruntled property owner who feels singled out for enforcement action.

McClanahan also questions whether the reports are "infringing on citizens' rights" and "are really violations as defined by the ordinance."

The ordinance states on-site conditions "must threaten the health, safety or welfare of citizens and I wonder if the parcels being reported meet this criteria," McClanahan said. "This could very well just be natural growth of trees and grass."

Kelly called the reported properties "violations" of city code when asked about them and said the property owners had been served notice to either clear or mow their parcels.

Thomas says if legality is at question "the ordinance should be amended."

"We're not trying to violate citizens' rights," he said. "We're trying to improve the city."

Thomas said "a clean image for Sanford will be a positive drawing card" for light industry he hopes will locate in the city and provide jobs for citizens.

Although Mercer said he will continue reporting the parcels, Thomas said he'll "think about it; read the ordinance and the policy" before deciding "about pursuing it again."

Thomas also said: "I want the citizens to rise up and say to us do something where you can accomplish these things to beautify the city. Something where we don't have to worry about being sued; infringing on rights of citizens."

"I'm not comfortable with certain people using the word 'spy' in relation to reports of alleged violations," Thomas said. "but I also feel these people are in the minority."

McClanahan criticized colleagues who "spy on their neighbors" after being sworn in Jan. 6.

Smith said when he was in office he received most of the violation complaints from citizens who probably lived within the (required 300 foot) distance.

"I was providing a service for them by making the report," Smith said.

Smith also said although he "never purposely" looked for sites to report, but did turn in some parcels he saw "while driving through the city."

If he had remembered the 300-foot policy clause, "I still would have made the reports because I want to see the city clean," Smith said.

182 Receive GED Diplomas

80-Year-Old Woman, Blind Student Among Graduates

The Developmental Division of Seminole Community College presented State of Florida High School diplomas to 182 graduates during Honors Night ceremonies on Jan. 23. The presentation, held in the College's Fine Arts building, was in honor of students completing GED requirements during the months of September, October, November and December.

The GED study program allows adults who have left school the opportunity to complete their high school education and earn a diploma.

Dr. Keith Samuels Jr., vice president for instruction, presented the diplomas, and each graduate received congratulations from Dr. Ned Johnson, SCC's adult education dean, and Marilyn Mitchell, the division's director.

Ms. Lee Russell, Board of Trustees chairman, was the keynote speaker who urged the graduates to maintain their interest in learning throughout their lives.

Wanda McGowen, the student with the highest GED test score, received the Student Merit award.

Community Service awards were presented to the Wal-Mart stores in Sanford and Casselberry, and to Barbara Stump with Channel 9 T-V. Both Wal-Mart and Channel 9 made the commitment to support the GED and PLUS (Project Literacy U.S.) programs this year by publicizing the merits of literacy and a diploma.

Commendable Achievement Awards were given to Zanny O'Berry, who at 80 is the oldest person to complete her GED at SCC; and Malinda Stanton who is the first blind student to receive a GED diploma at SCC. Both of these women were an inspiration to everyone in the program.

The evening was topped off with entertainment by the Sanford Woman's Club Chorus, directed and accompanied by Mayor Bettye Smith, club president.

Faculty, staff, friends and relatives closed the evening with hearty congratulations to the proud graduates.

For The Finest Prosthesis Known Today!

From a lingere company you've come to know and trust...HENSON-KICKERNICK

The Heart Shape Form is designed for women who need only replacement of breast tissue (Simple mastectomy). This form is slightly smaller in size than the Tear Drop Form because it does not replace underlying muscle. The inward curve of the Heart Shape should be turned at an angle toward the shoulder so the extension of the chest muscle will fit comfortably at the shallow portion of the form.

The Tear Drop Form is recommended especially for women who have had major breast surgery with removal of the underlying chest muscle. The Tear Drop Form can be worn at an angle or turned sideways so the thin portion stimulates the outer extension of the breasts or underlying muscle.

The H-K Silicone Breast Form can be fitted easily, confidently and privately because:

- In most cases no special brassiere or underpadding is necessary
- One breast form fits either right or left side
- Breast form will mold to the shape of you and your bra cup (like natural breast tissue)
- Each size is graduated in circumference, depth and weight

Exercise Helps 'Restless Legs'

Dr. Gott

DEAR DR. GOTT — I had restless legs for years. Then a doctor suggested I do exercises to stretch out the muscles in the backs of my legs, and this really helped me.

DEAR READER — The peculiar sensation known as "restless legs" is caused by poor circulation that probably results from a form of muscle cramp. Since stretching is the way to overcome muscle cramps, I'm not surprised that leg exercises helped you. One of the easiest ways to stop a cramp in the calf is to stand about a giant step away from a wall, lean forward until your hands touch the wall, and then stretch your calf muscles by bouncing on the balls of your feet.

DEAR DR. GOTT — The dermatologists says that my husband has "housewife's eczema." Topical creams don't help. I've also noticed changes in his body — particularly his breasts, which are getting larger. Could a hormonal imbalance be causing his skin problem? He's 58.

DEAR READER — Breast enlargement in males is never normal. Your husband's breast-size increase could be related to a hormone imbalance, certain medicines or simple overweight. He should be checked by a physician to see if he has a serious medical condition.

The breast problem probably is not related to the skin problem. "Housewife's eczema" (or "housewife's hands") is a form of contact dermatitis, a skin rash that is caused by an allergy to soap or detergent. Years ago, you-know-who did the dishes. Although the housewife may have thoroughly rinsed her hands, tiny traces of soap were left in some skin creases, particularly under the wedding ring. With time, the skin reacted to the soap. Women would develop an angry-looking, itchy inflammation in the wedding-ring area, and this would spread to other parts of the hand. I don't see much "housewife's hand" anymore. It was easy to cure: Women simply removed their wedding bands for a few days, avoided soap and used cortisone cream. Unless your husband is a avid

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

You can probably tell from the bidding that North was not a rubber bridge player, since he chose to play six no-trump rather than six clubs. The slam is easy in clubs but cannot be made in no-trump unless the defense makes a mistake.

Against six no-trump West led a heart. Declarer played the jack from dummy and East took the queen. Noticing the weakness of dummy's diamond holding, East now shifted to a low diamond. South knew better than to think that East had led away from the diamond queen. He therefore took his ace, cashed his spade queen and went to dummy with a club to play A-K of spades, on which he threw a low diamond and a heart. Now he ran the rest of the clubs, throwing dummy's little spade on the fifth club. That brought everyone down to three cards, and poor West was trapped. If he unguarded his king of hearts, declarer would play to dummy's heart ace and back to his diamond king to take his good 10 of hearts. If West threw a diamond, South would cash the king of diamonds, felling West's queen, and play to dummy's heart ace to win the last trick with the diamond jack.

It was a mistake for East to play a diamond at the second trick. If he simply returns a heart, declarer will not be able to create the end position that squeezed West. Best for North-South, of course, is simply to play six clubs, which will always make 12 tricks.
