Operators Unite To Present Lewis Bargaining Front

New Group Headed By Former Chief Of U.S. Steel Coal Mines

NEW YORK, Sept. 21—(AP)—Coal operators, representing about one-third of the nation's bituminous production, today presented a unified bargaining front to John L. Lewis for the first time in the industry's history.

The group completed organization of the Bituminous (soft) Coal Operators Association and named Harry M. Moses of Pittsburgh as president.

Moses, who is 55, accepted the position and promptly resigned from the presidency of the U. S. Steel Corporation's coal mining empire, effective Oct. 1.

In his new post, one of his biggest jobs will be dealing with Lewis when northern coal operators sit down at the bargaining table with the president of the United Mine Workers.

Operators hope their unification under Moses will prevent Lewis from success in carrying out his famous divide and conquer tactics. In the past the UMW often has won important gains by dividing the industry and signing it up piece meal to a new contract.

The Bituminous Coal Operators Association represents 152,000,000 tons of soft coal production out of the nation's total of around 300,000,000 tons. It is made up of operators in western and central Pennsylvania, Ohio and northern West Virginia.

The membership includes several steel companies which own coal mines.

Invitations have been extended to the western and southern coal producers.

President Benjamin F. Fairless of U. S. Steel, confirmed Moses' resignation with regret. He said in a statement:

"Mr. Moses has been president of our coal mining subsidiaries since Jan. 1, 1938. He has done an outstanding job in this important role under frequently difficult conditions, both in times of peace and of war."

Adding Moses as secretary-treasurer of the coal operators' group will be Joseph G. Chromis, who for 25 years has been Moses' personal secretary and administrative assistant.

Moses and Lewis are old acquaintances, dating back to boyhood when the Moses and Lewis families were on friendly terms in Lucas, Ia.

"My personal relations with Mr. Lewis have always been friendly," said Moses in a recent interview.

But the two men have tangled at times at coal contract negotiations, when Moses was the leader of the owners of captive (steel company owned) mines.

Truman Interview

American policy toward China was sketched out in the State Department while he himself was testifying in Congress in December, 1945, on the Pearl Harbor catastrophe. He said the policy was announced while he was on the way.

Some newspaper accounts of this testimony were to the effect that Marshall had discovered the 1945-46 policy.

Mr. Truman commented today that Marshall wasn't Secretary of State at the time he was sent to China.

He said Marshall went over to assist at the request of the President and the then Secretary of State James F. Byrnes. Marshall, Mr. Truman said, had instructions and they were in writing.

President Truman also said he is concerned about the high cost of living and he is working on plans to meet it.

Mr. Truman said news conference he will act as speedily as possible but is trying to avoid the mistakes of the last World War.

The President said his Administration does not want the ration to go through the travail of the last price control period when it had to follow the road of trial and error.

Mr. Truman was asked about suggestions not going up and prices rising fast. He said he agreed this was so and he is working on a plan.

Commenting on a statement made yesterday by Governor Chester B. Connerly of Connecticut, former OPA administrator, favoring selective price controls, the President said that is being discussed but no decision has been reached.

Mr. Truman endorsed the attack by his special assistant, A. V. Ross, on Senator Taft's (R-Ohio) speech before the AFL convention in Houston, Tex., last week. He said Taft's "designs of the Kremlin" by his voting record on foreign policy.

Mr. Truman said the Taft record speaks for itself.

When a reporter asked whether he knew of many Democratic senators whose records equaled or surpassed Taft's, the President replied very few and added:

"There are more Republicans who voted right than Democrats who voted wrong, so the country still has a bi-partisan foreign policy."

The President said he was very pleased with the record of Congress now about to recess. He said it had given him not all but substantially what he asked for in the new legislation, and he had accomplished the business it set out to do. He said he had no plans to campaign for election of Democrats to the new Congress.

He said the anti-Communist bill just passed by Congress has not reached him yet, but he will not keep anyone in suspense very long about his position on it. A veto has been promised.

Reminding that a group of foreign correspondents were attending the news conference, Mr. Truman said he was more than happy to hear that they were permitted to meet them after the conference and ask them how they liked the greatest show in Washington. (The President's weekly news conference).

Cinderella

The Tribune said Mrs. Rockefeller said she is afraid Rockefeller may start legal action in an attempt to have the child removed from her care today, but she added she would fight any such attempt with every possible means.

Bobo said she plans to return to New York late next month and will spend some time there before going to Florida for the winter. She said Rockefeller, 37, is in South America and will stay there until January. It had been reported last January that the couple had separated but Mrs. Rockefeller had refused last month to comment on the reports.

At that time she told reporters a Lowell Tribune article was untrue. "You can't stop them. Let people talk."

The Tribune said that the former Barbara Sears, who divorced her first husband, Richard Sears, Jr., discussed the future of her son.

"I want him to grow up to be a man who knows both sides of life. I want him to be a regular guy, not a snob in some private school."

More than 120 friends from Lowell and vicinity attended a Sunday in honor of the baby's second birthday anniversary.

Bobo, who is 34 and was a former model and actress, attended Lowell high school. She married Rockefeller on Feb. 14, 1948. It was his first marriage. The Tribune said Bobo's hair, once a natural golden blonde, has been dyed black.

Commies Taken

Colonel Lee, a stocky well-fed officer, was neatly dressed in a slightly dusty field green uniform and black leather boots.

His cap was trimmed with Red piping and had a red star in the forehead. He was freshly shaven.

The colonel said he had been in the North Korean Army five years but had become increasingly disillusioned with the Red cause.

"My ideals have changed in recent years," he told interrogators for Col. H. C. Britt of Eustis, Fla., "I favor a democratic government now."

"I had been studying ideologies for a long time. After the war broke, I saw that Communism was not benefiting the workers and the farmers as had been promised."

Flying at 10,000 feet unarmored and without fighter escort, the plane was shot down near Taegu, and a battle of a kind in the Nakdong River.

The old man wanted to take a look," explained Lt. Col. Arthur S. Stone of St. Louis, MacArthur's pilot.

On his first trip to the Korean front less than three months ago, MacArthur's plane was shot down by fighters. They beat off an attacking Yak fighter.

His key officers expressed the opinion tonight that the Allies are on the initiative and hold a firm position in the Seoul sector.

The general himself was plainly confident and pleased by the success of the gamble to land at Inchon and move inland.

MacArthur returned to Tokyo to handle the problems of the southern offensive as well as the fate of his two other jobs, Far Eastern commander and SCRAP, Whitney said.

It was not clear how long MacArthur would stay in Tokyo or whether he would return to Korea. It had been expected he would enter Seoul when it is captured.

General Leonard C. Shapard, commander of fleet Marine forces, Pacific, predicted it would be at least a week before Seoul is sufficiently secure for any sort of victory parade. Shapard returned to MacArthur's plane and will leave probably Friday for Honolulu.

Korean War

Pilots spotted the Red column 20 miles south of the Yalu River. Korean boundary 210 miles north of Seoul. It was reported Thursday morning to be possibly below the 38th Parallel dividing North and South Korea. This would put the column less than 30 air miles from Seoul.

Elite divisions of North Koreans which invaded South Korea June 25 were assumed in Communist China's Manchurian armies. They fought with Russian-made tanks and other arms. But with the Allied offensive in the south picking up steam, the Reds appear unable to muster much organized strength from that direction.

The column from the north—if it reaches Seoul, threat would pass the Red's throat.

Reds in the south were reported withdrawing, changing into civilian clothes and deserting or surrendering. And many others seemed on the verge of surrendering.

A major battle at Seoul's center and narrow streets might destroy a large part of the 500-year-old capital. The city of 1,000,000 is a mass of closely packed one- and two-story multi-colored wooden structures.

There are relatively few modern buildings strong enough for defense and virtually no cellars. The city is a maze of narrow streets and alleys. It is flatter than a pancake.

To cut off the offensive reinforcements from the city from the north, the U. S. Seventh Division drove for the last line of defense north of the highway from Seoul to Suwon.

The Seventh Division's vehicles moved on Suwon in a head-on collision with the North Korean tanks. The tanks were reported to be 10 miles southwest of the city along the road, where peasants placidly gathered in the backyard.

The harvest of Korea's staple of rice, the Allies' all-out effort to aid military, leaves the North Korean situation bleak.

His departure was timed apparently by successful accomplishment of the second phase of his amphibious gamble. The first was the swift and relatively inconspicuous landing at Inchon. But his commanders were almost equally surprised by the problem of crossing the Han River within a few days of the beachhead landing.

This has been accomplished. It is almost certain that his lines across the Han are secure.

They could have made it tough for us," Shapard said. "But now in the north bank of the Han river and we're going to stay there."

The battle for the east of Seoul probably will become a grueling match rather than a military maneuver requiring a chess player strategy.

MacArthur Returns

In Korea MacArthur had visited the Inchon, Kimpo and Seoul fronts after supervising the original beachhead landings last Friday from the air.

Flying at 10,000 feet unarmored and without fighter escort, the plane was shot down near Taegu, and a battle of a kind in the Nakdong River.

Necklines Are To Plunge To Record Low For Autumn

Fall fashion necklines are going to be hard to find. Most of them plunge lower and lower, or are left on the shoulders, cutting room floor. Bare back and shoulders are the order of the evening, and will be more so.

crush the Red's South Korean spokesmen had repeatedly emphasized the importance of the harvest.

AP Correspondent Edna Martin reported that the Marines who landed across the Han eight miles northwest of Seoul found the narrow roads too slim for their tanks. They combated tactics east to the railroad tracks leading into the city, and then swung south.

Marine veteran reporter Edna Martin, Allison and Aiken campaign, said the drive on the capital from the northwest was a big push like the big ones near the end of the last war.

Reds captured on the Han north bank, then attacked Seoul. They had been pressed into retreat only five days previously. This was shortly after the United Nations liberation force at Inchon last month and some 200 prisoners had been rounded up around Seoul by late Thursday. Some were held at 11 and 12. They were or were to hold the line at all costs.

Allied bombers and fighters kept an umbrella over the Marines and infantrymen on the Seoul front, and flew close ground support missions in the south. A record 200 sorties were flown Wednesday.

He says that these newly exposed skin areas are subject to temporary skin blemishes in youth, and that older women face the possibility of scuffed or chapped skin. One big problem, he says, will be the marked contrast in color tone to the neck and face particularly if suntanning has made this skin area dry and rough.

Mr. Factor suggests a skin treatment program for neck, shoulders and arms that is very much like ordinary care of the face.

Crack the forehead area with cold cream, spreading it on with fingertips. Massage the cleansing cream in with a good bath sponge, using firm strokes. Wash the cream into the skin just don't brush it over lightly.

When the skin is thoroughly washed in, get into the bathtub and sponge the skin gently with lots of warm soapy water. This will help shed old skin, soften dry skin and by tanning the skin area, bring color to the body.

Use the same kind of makeup as you use on your face on your neck, shoulders and arms before sunbathing. This is important because this is makeup work left at the chipping stage, worse than that which

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

When you speak the name of a departed mother there is a quality in your voice that is absent normally.

Capl. Massie Hughes, first skipper of the Sanford Naval Air Station, has been approved for promotion to the rank of rear admiral.

Senator Kefauver says that the illegal gambling racket has grown into a 15 billion dollar business.

The House has passed the so-called anti-subversive bill, and thus we abandon a little more of our liberty in the struggle for freedom.

Don Whitehead, famed AP war correspondent, was up bright and early yesterday morning.

Even though he speaks out fearlessly against Communist aggression and threatens police action anywhere in the world that it raises its ugly head.

Why don't you publish a newspaper as big as the Times-Union someone is always asking.

Accidental Deaths

About 30,000 American girls and women lose their lives in accidents each year, which is a higher toll than from any other cause of death.

Falls rank first among the causes of fatal accidents to females, accounting for 45 percent of the total number of fatalities.

Under age 65, motor vehicle accidents outrank by far the other causes of accidental death for females.

Burns and scalds, the Metropolitan points out, also claim the lives of many women and girls each year.

It is encouraging that some state health departments have taken leadership in home safety campaigns.

New Hampshire's Tobey

Senator Charles W. Tobey has weathered the heavy attack made on him in the New Hampshire Republican primary.

The state's greatest senators came in the last century. Levi Woodbury, a Jackson supporter, served in the Senate before going to the Supreme Court.

Since their day the New Hampshire senators have been mostly straight party men, not identified with particular causes or polities.

Tobey belongs to the sharp-tongued school. He has also been a non conformist Republican senator, along with George D. Alken of Vermont and Wayne L. Morse of Oregon.

Throwing Money Away

When your doorbell rings and the caller asks for money for a charitable organization, do you give to him?

Why shouldn't people give directly to the charity they want to help, instead of taking chances on unknown callers?

Marshall Installed

General Marshall faces immediate problems in reconstituting his defense family at home and in broadening and bolstering anti-Communist defense abroad.

United Nations forces in Korea have eased the immediate pressure there by the offensive now under way.

Western Europe. Within the Defense Department, Marshall's most pressing problem will be to find a successor to Deputy Secretary Stephen Early.

Marshall will also have to find a successor for Hubert E. Howard, abruptly dropped as chairman of the munitions board on Monday.

Dry Mississippi Outbreaks Wet State

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21—(AP)—The nation's two "dry" states, Mississippi and Oklahoma, appear to have had 2,964 and 943 retail liquor dealers, respectively in the 12 months ended last June 30.

The Internal Revenue Bureau reported today it said that many of its $27.50 tax stamps for retail liquor dealers in those states during that period.

Also, it said 56 of its $10 stamps for wholesale liquor dealers in Mississippi and 44 in Oklahoma.

The bureau said it sold 294,466 retail and 7,060 wholesale liquor dealer stamps in all.

Officials said the stamps are not "licenses" to sell whiskey but are receipts evidencing payment of federal taxes.

Ralph A. Smith

At the fraternity banquet, Ralph Smith, Sr., sat next to and conversed with Jean Hersholt, the noted "Dr. Christian" of movie and radio fame, who is a member of the fraternity and who was one of the leading speakers.

Mr. Smith also met there Maj. General Miller, former top chaplain of the Army, who conducted a Sunday morning service.

A fraternity brother from Knoxville, H. Mel Fawthrop, whom Mr. Smith had not seen since his Harvard days, noted the latter's name in the Chicago newspapers and invited the Smith family to his home for an enjoyable visit, said Mr. Smith.

On the return trip some of Mrs. Smith's relatives in Versailles, Ind. were visited. Stopping at Knoxville again, Mr. Smith, the president of the Sanford Kiwanis Club, visited the Knoxville Kiwanians who have 183 members.

The man I sat next to turned out to be a Smith and asked my first name, and we found we were both Ralphs, Mr. Smith told the local Kiwanians Wednesday.

We found that we both had lived in the same section of North Carolina and that we are distant relatives," he added.

On the return trip a stop was made at Atlanta, Ga., where on Friday night Mr. Smith presented a charter to the Greater Atlanta Alumni Association of the Lambda Chi Alpha.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MARKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The Decision of the Big Three powers—Britain, France and America—to end their protracted state of war with Western Germany is a strategic move calculated to maintain peace and to strengthen the defenses of Western Europe.

As would be expected, the Big Three terms constitute a warning to Russia not to interfere with Western Germany. Indeed, the Big Three say bluntly that any attack on Berlin or Western Germany will be regarded as an attack on them as occupying powers.

This means, so far as present indications go, that the old Reich will remain divided upon its present lines indefinitely.

Russia's eastern zone of 40,000 square miles, with its population of 17,000,000 will continue as a communist satellite of Moscow.

The western zone—96,700 square miles with a population of 49,700,000—will function separately under its Bonn government, with the Big Three continuing occupation.

But will Germany remain divided permanently? I don't believe so. The Germans are a clanish folk and it's in the back that something in the distant future these two positions of the Fatherland will coalesce, by force or otherwise.

The Big Three decision not to end military occupation of the country serves a double purpose: building up a potential which would permit of further aggression. It is a protection for the unarmed and at present defenseless country.

But would be expected, the Big Three agreed that the reaction of a German army would be against the best interests of Europe and of Germany herself.

However, Germany isn't to be left militarily impotent for defense purposes. She is to be allowed to create mobile police formations, and such forces can be very effective.

Madeleine Carroll Weds Life Publisher

NEW YORK, Sept. 21—(AP)—Madeleine Carroll, movie actress, and Andrew Heiskell, 35-year-old publisher of Life magazine, were married recently in Spain.

The spokesman said he did not know the place or date of the wedding or the whereabouts of the couple. They are believed to be in the Spanish and will tour Europe before returning here.

Heiskell left for Europe shortly after his first wife, the former Cornelia Scott, divorced him in Sun Valley, Idaho, last August. They have three children. She lives in Greenwich, Conn.

It was Miss Carroll's fourth marriage. Her first husband was Capt. Philip Asley of London. The others were Stuart Hayden and Henri Laverol, French movie director and producer. Who's Who gives her age as 40.

Heiskell was born in Naples, Italy, and educated at the Sorbonne in Paris and at Harvard Business School. He worked for the New York Herald-Tribune in 1936 before joining Life and was its Paris correspondent when the Germans captured the city. He has been publisher of Life since 1946.

Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 21.—An actor's best friend is his makeup man, says Jeff Corey, who asks for an Oscar to reward the craftsmen of the greasepaint and toupee.
"Sometimes the makeup man contributes 50 per cent of an actor's performance," said Corey, who is perhaps the busiest character actor in town. "He is just about the only creator in motion pictures who is not given any Academy Award. I think it's time he received some recognition."
"Makeup men are creators in every sense of the word. Many of them are fine sculptors and painters. They study the script carefully and devise the right makeup for the historical period, and the dramatic effect."
"The art of makeup is more than just slapping on some coloring and a beard. The makeup man has to know the physiognomy of the face; he must know about all the muscles and which ones sag with age."
"He must also know what happens to the faces of different types. For example, an outdoor man would have a leathery face with white furrows in his forehead. A barroom bum would have a white face with dark furrows in his forehead."
"Makeup men are career insurance for character actors, Corey said. During 1950 alone, he has portrayed a sun-baked Indian, a crazed frontiersman, a working man, a New York cop, and has just started a role as a learded Muleman.
"In some roles, I have so much makeup on that you can't recognize my real face," he said. "In that way the public doesn't get tired of my face and I can play as many roles as I want."
The actor said that movie makeup men have reached the height of a craft that began in the sixth century B. C. In the days of Thespis, presumed originator of drama, Greek actors sought ways to project themselves to the balcony seats.
They wore raised shoes to make themselves taller (as George Raft and other do today). They applied their left lips to their chests for the same reason. And they wore masks—different colors and expressions to denote different moods.
"Something not much happened in the makeup field until about 50 years ago," Corey expounded. "Until then great actors like David Garrick would play every role without changing their faces."
Movie men have revolutionized makeup in recent years, he added. "When I was first on the stage, it took 20 to 30 minutes to put on simple makeup," he said. "Nowadays, it all come in one tube and you just slap it on."
"The studio men have also made great strides in the use of plastic and rubber products for facial features."
He illustrated with some of the great makeup jobs of past and recent Hollywood history: Boris Karloff as Frankenstein; Irene Dunne as Queen Victoria; Joe Ferrer as Cyrano; Lon Chaney as the Wolf Man; Ann Rhyth as a Mermaid.

President Vetoes McCarran Bill To Curb Communism

Truman Says Measure Would Give Aid And Comfort To Enemy; Over-riding Seen

The President sent a long veto message to the House, which was waiting to override him on the issue.

He called the bill a measure which would "give aid and comfort to those who would destroy us."

Further, he said, it would help Communists instead of hurting them and "weaken our existing internal security measures."

The President sent a long veto message in unusual form. It was double-spaced with a one line letter attached asking that "every member of the Congress" read and consider the message "very carefully" before balloting on passage of the bill over his veto.

But, regardless of the seven points he raised against the legislation in a 5,500-word message, Congress was ready to make the bill a law.

Among other things, it would re-

Age Minimum For Scooter Drivers Will Be Enforced

State Highway Patrolman R. Harrison today called attention to the willful neglect of some parents in permitting the operation of motor scooters by children not old enough to ride these.

The law puts the minimum age for these motor scooters at 14 years. Harrison said that in the future this law will be strictly enforced, he declared.

The parents of violators are the ones subject to be called into the proper courts to answer charges, he added.

Motor scooters are classified as a motor vehicle, he pointed out, and it is necessary in compliance with laws covering these minors of 14 or over hold restricted operators licenses.

Patrolman Harrison urged that parents interested in better law enforcement on drunken driving attend the showing and talk on "drunkmeters" at the City Hall tonight at 8:00 o'clock. This showing will be made through the courtesy of the Daytona Beach Police Department.

A thorough check of all school buses operated in the County is being made by Harrison. This is a 35-point safety check, he said, including inspection of frame sizes, brakes, etc.

House Passes 328 To 7 Tax Boosting Bill

Quick Senate Action Is Expected Today; 4.7 Billions In New Revenue Expected

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—(AP)—The Senate today rejected a proposal by Senator Wherry (R-Neb) that it retain, in modified form, his proposal for a flat tax on economic aid to nations which trade in war materials with Russia. The vote was 49 to 28. The action opened the way for a vote on acceptance of a House provision backed by Administration forces.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—(AP)—The House today overwhelmingly approved today a "first installment" tax-boosting bill to help pay for the costs of arming against Communist aggression. Quick Senate passage was expected to put it on President Truman's desk by tonight.

A roll call vote of 328 to 7 sped the bill through the House.

Mr. Truman already has expressed himself as well pleased with the measure, and is expected to sign it immediately, even though it's estimated annual revenue of $4,700,000,000 falls short of the $5,000,000,000 he asked two months ago.

Shortly before the vote was taken, it was announced in the House that Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) has called the Ways and Means Committee to meet tomorrow. The plan is to map out procedure for bringing out a multi-billion dollar excess profits tax which comes back in November.

Democrats and Republicans alike went on record, in closing debate, as favoring passage of such a tax then.

Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, the House Republican leader, made a formal statement also. He said Republicans agreed to a recess of Congress this week-end but insist we come back and in the next session and pass an excess profits tax.

This tax, Martin said, "should make provision for reasonable and proper reconversion allowances, but should rule out profiteering by anyone."

Rep. Cooper (D-Tenn) told the

Permanent Site For Auction Mart Chosen

The permanent location of the proposed Seminole County Farmers Auction Market was decided upon at a meeting of more than 40 growers at a meeting held last night at the temporary site, the Meriwether pasture at Ginderville, C. R. Dawson, chairman, said this morning.

A decision was made by the group to purchase a 40 acre tract of land on the Orlando Highway east of Lake Minnie, about two and a half miles south of the city limits, and a short distance south of the Movieland Drive in Theater. Mr. Dawson presided, with Honner Carter serving as secretary.

Meanwhile, a group of volunteers has gone to work at the temporary site, putting up flood lights, insulating seats and preparing parking space.

The official name for the auction market has not yet been decided upon, nor have permanent officers yet been named for the organization said Oris Mathieux, president of the Seminole County Farm Bureau which is active in the project.

The final miscellaneous auction will be held tonight at the Sanford State Farmers Market auction block. On Friday night, Sept. 29, the type of auction will be held at the Ginderville site, Mr. Mathieux declared.

ELKS AUCTION

The Sanford Lodge of Elks is planning an auction sale in connection with its aid to crippled children drive. The auction will be held on a Friday night at the new Farmers Auction Market, said C. R. Dawson, market chairman.

OUR MISTAKE

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 22—(AP)—Secretary of Defense Marshall says there would be no present menace of a third World War if Congress had held the citizen army ready for mobilization after World War I.

Had Congress passed such a law, Marshall said last night, "I do not believe even a Hitler would have dared to provoke a second World War and, without the havoc of that war, there would be no present menace of a third World War."

Fierce Battle Rages Over Seoul; 1st Cavalry Advances On Sangju

20 Mile Gain North West Of Taegu Is Turning Retreat Into Rout, Says Gay

By JACK MACBETH WITH U. S. FIRST CAVALRY, Korea, Sept. 22—(AP)—A U. S. First Cavalry task force with tanks and motorized equipment advanced 20 miles today in a breakthrough drive to trap fleeing Reds in the old southeast Korean beachhead.

The column at nightfall was Sangju, a key rail and highway junction leading to Seoul, 100 air miles northwest.

The purpose of the drive was to capture Sangju, 43 air miles northwest of Taegu, and cut the Kumsong-Hanchong road. Kumsong is 20 miles south of Sangju and Hanchong is 10 miles north.

"She's a rout now," said Maj. General Hobart R. Gay, commanding the First Cavalry, who rode along with the column. "We've had a great day."

A U. S. 8th Army spokesman said elements of the 24th Division advanced eight miles today in the Allied advance sector northwest of Taegu.

The thrust placed the Americans six miles east of Kumsong, 30 miles northwest of Taegu, Kumsong is an important rail and highway hub.

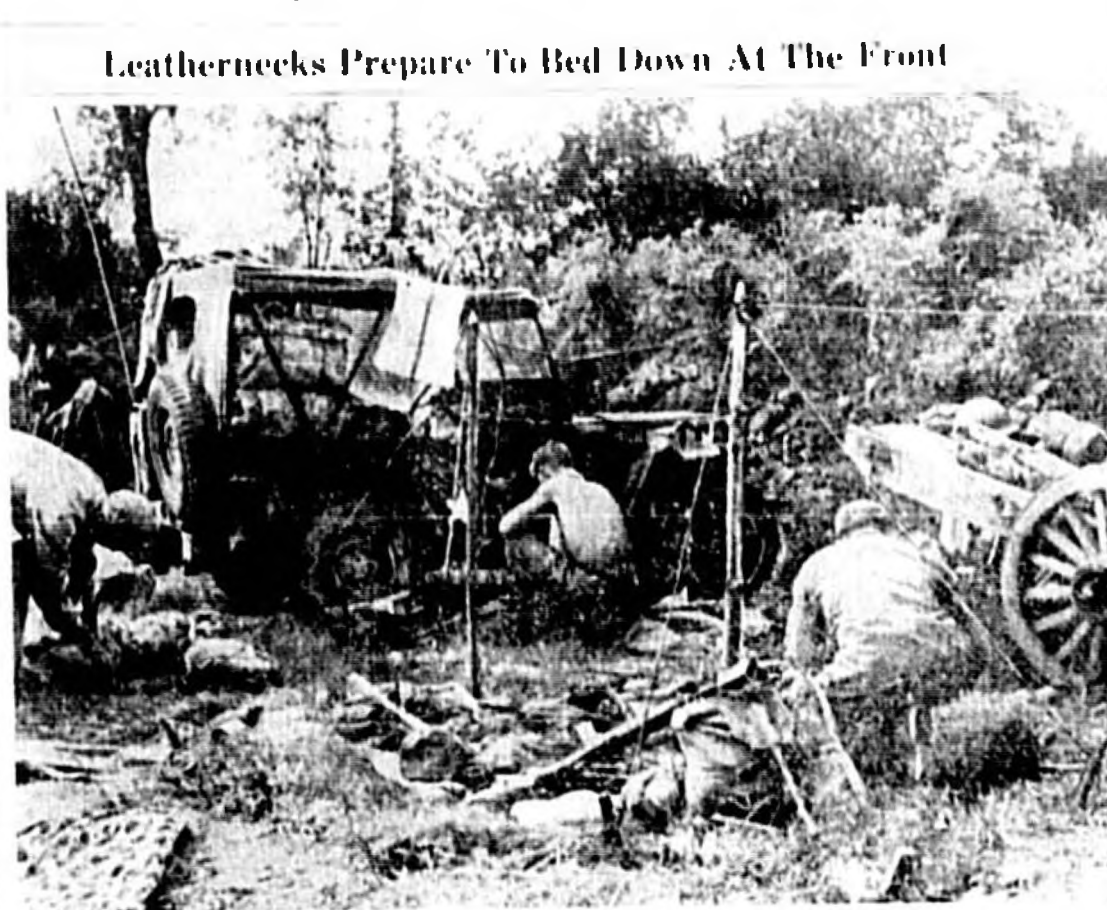

British troops fighting south of the 24th Division were halted at the base of a high hill. Enemy tanks on the hill fired down on the British troops.

The First Cavalry had been stalled in this sector since an Allied drive opened Saturday. The task force gained six miles in six hours.

The force moved for stretches unopposed, then encountered resistance. Every time an enemy pocket was cleared out the tanks rolled on with infantry troops following.

"You can see them going up to the hills by the hundreds," said

Reserve Board Studies Wave Of Sales During Pre-Controls Week

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—(AP)—The Federal Reserve Board's first shots at the inflation specter appeared today to be focusing back. But the credit control agency has a lot more ammunition left, and a well to use it.

When the board on Sept. 8 announced some fairly tight curbs on installment sales terms as a first step, it provided a 10-day advance notice before putting the restrictions into effect last Monday.

Today it was studying first results of the advance notice. A big jump in department store sales, which usually give the first clue on the general retail picture during the wartime period, Department store reports to the board yesterday from over the week showed that last week's sales jumped 25 per cent over the previous week, which was nearly double before the credit curbs were announced.

Officials concluded that was strong evidence that consumer purchases of television sets, furniture and all the household necessities had hurried to make installment purchases before the credit restrictions took hold.

Some suggested, however, that the increase in purchases suggested the board's idea that a "mild" tightening up will be sufficient.

Finance Plan For Terminal Related By City Manager

Benefits Of Private Financing Over RFC Told By McKibbin

The advantages of private financing for the proposed lakefront terminal over those proposed by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation were pointed out today by City Manager Clifford McKibbin.

He was referring to the recent passage of a local agency agreement between the City and the bonded home of Fisher Hayes and I. H. Gorman, both of Knoxville, Tenn. in the form of a 30 day option to purchase $300,000 in revenue bonds for construction of the terminal and warehouse facility.

The RFC commitment is authorized by a board of three trustees last November was for only $200,000 which in the light of price rises, he said, would not be adequate to construct the warehouse, which, trucks, mechanical

7th Division Seizes Suwon Cutting Road From South Korea; Air Field In Use

By DON WHITEHEAD WITH U. S. MARINES OUTSIDE SEOUL, Sept. 22—(AP)—U. S. and South Korean Marines blasted their way to the outskirts of Seoul today against a 10,000-man Red defense line.

(This dispatch was written at 4:35 P. M.—2:55 A. M. EST—and couriered to an airfield in Southern Japan where it was telephoned to Tokyo at 8 P. M.—6 A. M. EST today.)

By mid-afternoon the Marines had not entered Seoul proper although patrols were moving toward the city limits on the west side.

The sprawling city of more than 1,000,000 normal population may become one of the bloodiest battlefields of the Korean war. The Reds are preparing for house-to-house fighting. This could mean the destruction of a large part of the capital.

On the southern front of the Incheon-Seoul beachhead, a task force from the U. S. Seventh Infantry division rolled southward and captured the big airport of Suwon, 20 miles south of Seoul.

The infantry took the airfield with little opposition and a defense quickly was thrown around the field. It had been abandoned more than two months ago by the Americans on their southward retreat.

Civilians fleeing from Seoul say the Communists are building stone barricades at street intersections and digging trenches in the streets for stand-off defense.

On Namsan—the Korean term for South Mountain, which the city is built around and which has a large park on its slope—the Communists are firing west.
