TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

There is a solemn satisfaction in the memory of departed loved ones. Let us do our duty to them by leaving a few of our memories for them to be comforted by. They shall be comforted.—Matt. 5:4

Don't forget to listen to Governor Warren on the radio tonight. He's going to explain about the pending situation in Florida, and how come.

So many hurricanes are being located and predicted in the Caribbean these days, you'd think they were Russian submarines. But don't worry about them. You'll know if it is one of them over here.

General MacArthur says that Formosa must be held by a trusted ally for the protection of the Pacific and the security of the United States. President Truman says this is something for the United Nations to decide. You can't take your choice as to whom you believe in.

While the United States is fighting the North Koreans and Chinese in sending them military aid and equipment, Britain continues to supply Russia with vital war material. Such lack of cooperation among the democracies might easily lead to misadventure. You can't be too sure that the United States has all been supplying Russia with military equipment.

They didn't seem to get mad when they saw Peggy Lynn of Los Angeles whose lover is being held for ransom. What were logical men to do, it is to be held in a local store where only one man was on duty with lots of money in his cash register. He really intended to kill him though. That was an accident. Oh, well, in that case turn the gas low.

The Red air force could almost take six American cities in the first month of the war. They might be New York, Washington, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Detroit and Philadelphia, in that order. Some other cities might get it too but not many. Atom bombs are too accurate even for atom warfare. Meanwhile, what would be left of Russian cities wouldn't be worth mentioning.

The new Social Security law was signed by the President yesterday and hereafter hereafter will hit servants and yard men most hard. They will have to deduct a certain amount from their employer's pay, just like any business man, and an equal amount of their own money as well as to the government. Together with a complete report on the transaction. It might be rather to work your own dirt.

Reports from Germany indicate that the Russian have increased the number of training camps for the East German army from 14 to 50 in the last six months. Those camps are not being prepared for making, nor are the East Germans being given military training for nothing. When they are ready, Germany will move into Germany. West Germany and West Germany has no troops at all to meet them, though the civilian population is three times as large.

The Declaration of Strasbourg, European Socialist answer to the Communist so-called "Stockholm Peace Appeal" in a long needed move in the way of peace between the Soviet and the West. It is unfortunate in a way that our State Department was so late in developing a counter-offensive against the "peace" campaign, however, it is now being handled by the State Department.

New Way To Cut Taxes

"We permit tax machines because the revenue paid by their owners reduced taxes for the rest of us." Tug the mayor of a small town in Northern Ohio justified his failure to enforce gambling laws. It is the subject town administration is to keep taxes low, this mayor has made a wonderful discovery. His application might even be extended. By encouraging the illegal sale of liquor and the spread of houses of ill fame, even more money could be brought into the city treasury. Another possibility would be the judicious issuance of permits to commit other crimes. A burglar would naturally expect to pay more than a street roller or a pickpocket. The yield from these ventures would reduce taxes to almost nothing, provided, of course, that not too much stock to the fingers of the local officials.

Why Rome Fell

New light may soon be thrown on one of history's most famous unexplained problems, the explanation of the fall of ancient Rome. Swedish archaeologists hope to get new information from, of all places, the bottom of the sea. Special drilling equipment is being constructed to take up mud from the floor of the North Sea. Study of these muds may reveal how the climate of Scandinavia has varied throughout the centuries. This might show why the Goths and other Germanic tribes left Scandinavia early in the Christian era and overran the Roman empire.

This ambitious program is not likely to give the entire answer. Economic weakness and a series of incompetent rulers are part of the story. And the pressure against Rome may have come not from Scandinavia but from far-away China. Invasions of the West by barbarian tribes seem to have followed the accession of vigorous Chinese emperors. They drove the tribes westward and started a series of migrations, the last of which may have toppled Rome.

All new facts, however, are useful. Even if the Swedish muds do not explain the fall of Rome, they may add greatly to the world's knowledge of other directions.

Barbarian Alexander

The movies have discovered Genghis Khan. His career will soon be filmed. This will make millions acquainted with the man who has been called the greatest conqueror of all time. A barbarian counterpart of Alexander the Great, he started as the chief of a tiny tribe. He and his immediate successors built a Mongol empire which included Russia, China and all Central Asia to the mountains guarding Tibet and India. They even projected the conquest of Japan, but were defeated by a storm which wrecked the Spanish Armada's attempt to conquer England. In the other direction, they invaded Hungary and Poland and reached German Silesia, before the unbeaten armies were called back by news of the death of their ruler, the great Khan.

Mal Fades In Minnesota

Mal Cam (Miss) Enterprises. O' Minnesota, that virtuous expanse of purty, how couldst thou have sold an American cities in the first month of the war. They might be New York, Washington, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Detroit and Philadelphia, in that order. Some other cities might get it too but not many. Atom bombs are too accurate even for atom warfare. Meanwhile, what would be left of Russian cities wouldn't be worth mentioning.

THE NATION TODAY

By JAMES MARGLOW. "Editorial Note: This is the sixth of a series of articles in the Social Security program. The first article was published in the issue of August 22, 1950. The second article was published in the issue of August 29, 1950. The third article was published in the issue of September 5, 1950. The fourth article was published in the issue of September 12, 1950. The fifth article was published in the issue of September 19, 1950. This article is the sixth in the series.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—If you feel confident, here's how to figure Social Security pensions, now and in the future. Remember:—

1. If you get a pension under the law, you'll get a certain number of quarters in a job covered by the law. A quarter is three months. It's not a quarter of a year. It's a quarter of a year.

2. Starting Sept. 1, a man now 65 or over, if he has worked six months of coverage to get a pension.

3. No matter how big a man's earnings, until Jan. 1, 1951 he gets credit for no more than $1,000 a year ($200 a month). Because no one is taxed for more than $1,000 a year ($200 a month).

4. On Jan. 1, the taxable income goes up to $2,000 a year ($500 a month). So from a man gets Social Security for $200 a month, he makes $1,800 a year ($150 a month). He needs only six quarters' coverage to get a pension.

5. For those 20 quarters (60 months, 5 years) in a covered job, he'll get $100 a month. Now that's not $100 a month but $100 a year ($8 1/3 a month). Multiply his total number of covered months by $100. That's $18,000 for 60 months in covered work.

6. But the government wants a man's average earnings in a main wage job for 10 years before the program, Jan. 1, 1951, and the time he retires. In 1950, the average was $108 a month. So—

7. To find his average for 10 years, divide his $18,000 earned in covered months by 120. He'll get $150 a month. Then—

8. The formula calls for taking 40 percent of the first 60 months of a man's average earnings and adding it to the rest of his earnings. So—

9. This is aimed at the highest possible average earnings of $200 a month. But to have that much, a man must have worked in covered jobs for 60 months. So—

10. But Jones' average turns out to be only $150. So take 40 percent of the first 60 months' earnings and add it to the rest of his earnings. So—

11. At this point the government gives a man's pension. Five percent of $200 is $10. Add 40 percent of $150 is $60. So—

12. The total pension is $70 a month. (Under that September 1, 1951, pension can be more than $60. About $66 will be average monthly pension after September 1.)

13. This is for 60 months, or five years under Social Security. Jones winds up with a pension of $420 a month.

14. So far we've been talking about the formula as it is now and will be for some time. Now let's see how it works in the future. Jones had wanted to quit in December 1950. But on Jan. 1, 1951 the amount of taxable income goes up from the present $1,000 a year ($200 a month) to $2,000 a year ($500 a month).

THE WORLD TODAY

Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek to half all operations against the Communist held mainland of China.

So far as concern the threat of a Red invasion of Formosa, the Communists are up against not only the U. S. Seventh Fleet but also the American "island" air bases. Not the least of these is the fact that Chiang has a large army, variously estimated at between 700,000 and 800,000. It could take a lot of time to land invading forces in face of that.

Still, the time may arrive when the Chinese Communists will be able to undertake an assault on Formosa, for a successful landing would win huge stakes. However, if the attempt is to be made this year, it will have to be quick.

Lake Victim of G-Man Hitting Attack Of Four Doubles And Homer By Foster

The Gainesville G-Men stopped the Sanford Giants last night by a score of 4 to 1 to wrap up the fourth place play-off position.

Veteran Buddy Lake went the distance for the Giants to lose his second game to the G-Men compared to six wins. The Gainesville nine collected 11 hits four of which were doubles, off Lake while he fanned six and walked two.

The Giants played errorless ball all night, having left eight men stranded on the bases.

Gainesville's winning run crossed the plate in the second inning on two singles and a double.

G-Man Jim Foster rapped out a home run in the top of the ninth with one man aboard to send the G's ahead with a four run lead.

Sanford's home run came in the bottom of the ninth on three successive singles by Levy, Jackson and Forsyth.

Tonight the Giants journey to Palatka to battle the Palatka Azaleas with Rookie right-hander Charlie Tedesco slated to toe the rubber for the Giants. Tedesco will be out for his 10th victory as compared with eight defeats.

Tomorrow night the Giants will return to Municipal Ball Park to play their last home game of the 1950 season, meeting the Daytona Beach Islanders, who still have a slight chance of winning the pennant, trailing first place Orlando by only two games.

A proposal for financing the terminal project was offered by Fisher Hawes, Knoxville, Tenn. investment banker. The Commission deferred action pending further study of the proposal.

DETROIT, Aug. 29 (AP)—A young man who identified himself as Hercules Petracoorgi, a brother of the kidnapped beauty of Crete, said today he may "go home to fight for my sister's honor."
If unconfirmed reports of her marriage to the Romeo are true, the 23-year-old man identifying himself as her brother told the Detroit Free Press:
"It means civil war in Crete."
But he added: "I doubt the truth of this statement by the family of this bum."
Hercules said he was working in a chemical plant here during the summer.
If necessary, if my family and their friends cannot take care of this situation, I'll go home and fight for my sister's honor," Hercules told a reporter.
He said he is mystified by reports that the young woman says she wants to marry her kidnapper-sweetheart.
"This cannot be," he said. "Once in a while there are kidnappings among the peasants. But it is disgraceful to have it happen to a family like mine."
"Behind my father stand many loyal fighters and the Liberals, the biggest party."
"I do not want this Constantie as a brother-in-law. No one but a Cretan could understand this fully. He is a bum."

"I SAVED $1000 -and it only cost me 5 minutes of my time!"

UMT Shelved By Senators Till January

Senate Crime Group Sets To Work On Actions Of Underworld In Chicago

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—(AP)—President Truman will make a 30 minute "report to the nation" at 9 P. M. (EST) Friday. The White House said Mr. Truman will deliver a "fire-side chat" to be carried by all the major radio networks. The address will cover a report on the progress of United Nations forces in Korea, the critical international situation growing out of the fighting there and the problems of the home front.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—(AP)—The House today passed 362 to 1 legislation permitting a draft of doctors, dentists and "allied specialists" for the armed services. A similar bill was passed by the Senate yesterday, but there are differences which will have to be adjusted before the legislation goes to President Truman. The House bill permits a draft of doctors up to and including age 50; of dentists through age 45.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—(AP)—The Senate Armed Services Committee today voted 8 to 3 to put off action on a Universal Military Training bill until next January. That is what President Truman wanted.

The group authorized Chairman Tydings (D-Md.) to name a subcommittee, meanwhile, to prepare a comprehensive measure for the new Congress and to demand priority for its immediate consideration upon convening the January session.

Mr. Truman had virtually killed any chance for action on the controversial UMT measure now by saying he saw no immediate need for it.

The congressional drive to repeal by Sept. 9 and arguments that a UMT program would over tax Army facilities during the Korean crisis also contributed to the inclination to drop it temporarily.

The President called Tydings and Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee.

Gulf Hurricane Is Expected To Hit Louisiana Tonight

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 30—(AP)—A Gulf hurricane with 100-mile-an-hour winds near the center was expected to strike the Louisiana coast this afternoon and reach the Mississippi and Alabama coasts early tonight.

At 11:45 A. M. (CST) the New Orleans Weather Bureau centered the storm about 135 miles southeast of New Orleans.

It was moving northward at a clip of 15 miles an hour. Galea extended out some 250 miles in the northeast quadrant, where the main weight of the hurricane apparently was concentrated.

The 100-mile-an-hour winds were reported by a hurricane hunter plane to be a short distance to the northeast of the storm center.

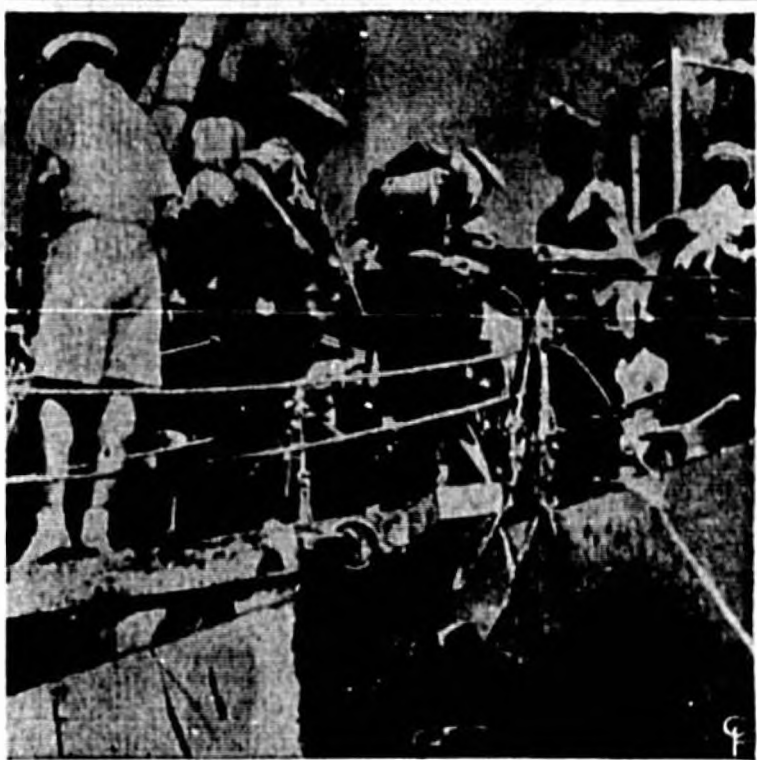

W. R. Stevens, chief forecaster of the New Orleans Weather Bureau, said hurricane center is expected to pass a little east of Baywood, La., this afternoon. Baywood is located in southwest pass at the mouth of the Mississippi river, some 50 air miles south of New Orleans.

Stevens said the hurricane's center would reach the Mississippi and Louisiana coasts early tonight.

He said winds will increase today, reaching hurricane force from New Orleans to Panama City, Fla. this afternoon or tonight.

Stevens warned that tides will be dangerously high from the east Louisiana coast to Apalachicola, Fla., and warned that persons in low places in that area should move to higher ground immediately.

'Tommy's' On Way To Join Fight

U. S. 27th Wolfhound Regiment Is "Fire Brigade" Of Korean War

By TOM LAMBERT
WITH U. S. FORCES, Korea, Aug. 30—(AP)—Where's the Colonel?

A lean, bronzed rifleman looked up. All around, doughboys relaxed. Only a trace of battle tension showed in their faces. Some splashed in a slugging river. Dirt and grime from mud-matted fatigues floated west on the current.

Other sprawled on a sand-drenched bank. A few typewriters clicked, a staccato, strangely civilized sound in this primitive land.

Pens scratched over paper, piling words on words in the inevitable letters home. Here and there a squinted or lugged, their souls draining in mild argument. The answer of the sleeping sergeant looked like the constant hum of crickets.

After three major battles with the Korean Reds, the famed 27th Wolfhound Regiment of the 25th Division was resting.

The rifleman jerked his thumb. "Mike?" he replied. "Right up there in that tent."

There was no affection in his use of the nickname. It came naturally, an unsolicited tribute to Col. John "Mike" McKeel of Lancaster, Pa.

McKeel, 37-year-old commander of the Wolfhounds, had won a promotion and become a battlefront legend in less than a month. His blond hair is silvering already, a "dead colonel," his GI's say.

The Wolfhounds, considered a run-of-the-mill outfit during the early days of the Japanese occupation, were whipped into a crack unit on the battlefront.

They went into action July 21 in the Sangnyang area, about 20 miles southeast of Taejon. Their first blood was shed at least three Red Korean tanks; Wolfhound artillery chewed an estimated 1,500 Communists.

Since then, in the words of one of their admiring staff officers at Eighth Army Headquarters, "They have been up and down that goddam front like a yo-yo."

The Wolfhounds became the "fire brigade"—an outfit to be rushed where the fighting rages fiercest.

After the 25th Division spearheaded by the Wolfhounds relieved the tired 24th Infantry Division near Taegu, the Wolfhounds were shifted south to the Chindong area when the Reds broke through on a wild and run and rolled toward Pusan. They

Acheson Says U.N. To Decide Korean Course

United States Is Declared To Be Doing All It Can To Keep China Out Of War

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson said today it is up to the United Nations to decide whether its forces should divide beyond the 38th parallel which divided North and South Korea.

Acheson told a news conference that the United States has tried to make this attitude clear.

He suggested that perhaps events might take such a course that the question of crossing the dividing line would solve itself.

By this the Secretary said he meant there would be no problem of the North Koreans created by the United States as determined by the U. N. Security Council and cooperated in working out a modification for Korea.

Acheson also said the United States by word and deed is doing its utmost to discourage the Chinese Communists from becoming involved in the Korean fighting.

He said this government is stressing the point that having the North Koreans would be wrong and a defiance of the United Nations Charter and Security Council.

This attitude is being presented, the Secretary said, in statements by President Truman and other and is stressed in "Voice of America" broadcasts to Europe.

Acheson also:

Sanford Giants Are Guests Of Local Lions Club

Ed Levy-Whitner Explains Problems Of Managing Ball Club

Members of the Sanford Giants, including Ed Levy-Whitner, manager, Fred Chadderton, short stop, Earl Murphy, catcher and pitcher and Carl Thies, pitcher, were guests of the Lions Club yesterday noon.

Mr. Whitner, who was introduced by Henry White, told of some of the problems facing a local business man and made an address for his team finishing in the second division in spite of the fact that he had predicted that it would have finished in an upper berth.

Conducting a question and answer forum, he was asked why pitchers are allowed to remain in the box when their offerings are being hit. He replied that he would like to give his pitchers confidence that they can finish a game. Another factor is that wanting up other pitchers too often results in not being able to take a regular turn in the pitcher's box.

Whitner in turn asked the Lions why in their opinion was there a drop in attendance after the first month of the season. King Lion Harry Hobson replied that there had been a drop in local business soon after the fighting in Korea had started and stated that he believed this also affected baseball.

Among the problems he faced, Whitner stated, was teaching out fielders to get throws to the center base, instructing base runners when to steal and when not to. "The boys make mistakes, but they are developing and learning how to play in higher up brackets," he added.

A pillow fight between players during a hot ride from Gainesville resulted in a special "court" the next day, including a "joke" and "blows."

United Nations Is Asked To Consider Greek Executions

Brewster Denies Wiretap Charges On Senate Floor

LAKE SUCCESS, Aug. 30—(AP)—President John A. Mahk expectedly demanded today that the United Nations Security Council add the question of Greek political executions to its agenda, crowded agenda.

Mahk also proposed that the Council take up the Greek charges that United States planes from Korea have flown over Manchurian territory and dropped bombs.

The new moves by Mahk, the monthly president of the Council, were disclosed when he published the provisional agenda for tomorrow's session, the last meeting under his presidency.

Other items on the work sheet were the two previously approved by the Council: complaint of aggression upon the Republic of Korea and complaint of armed invasion of Taiwan (Formosa).

The Greek Balkan question was originally put before the Council during its London meetings early in 1946, but later was dropped as the Greek Civil War continued with it. Mahk has sent several communications to U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie recently appealing for intervention to save a group of Greek political prisoners, reportedly awaiting execution.

Mahk's efforts to expand the agenda undoubtedly will provoke another procedural fight, but the move was seen as further evidence that the Soviet delegate will stay on in the Council after Britain's Sir Gladwyn Jebb takes over the chair Sept. 1.

TAPEL, Formosa, Aug. 30—(AP)—The United Nations Security Council's decision to hear Red China's charges of American aggression against Formosa, but this Nationalist control like a thunderbolt.

The complaint of armed invasion is certainly without foundation in fact, and Foreign Minister George Yeh on a statement.

Karl L. Rankin, U. S. Minister and Charles H. Fairfax, called on Yeh. The subject of their talk was not disclosed.

Official quarters declared U. S. Soviet Russia has scored a great victory over the United States.

Pepper Group Heard Senator Felted Political Prostitute

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—(AP)—Senator Brewster (R-Me.) called one remark about him before a Senate committee "outrageous and deeply repugnant," and today he did not plan to testify in reply.

A group of investigating writers tapping in Washington yesterday heard some testimony that a red herring was being used to make personal attacks upon Brewster.

Brewster, in a bitter reply on the Senate floor, said "a very unbecomingly character" was being used by some invidious minds to make personal attacks upon him.

Senator Pepper (D-Ind.) said he did not recall Brewster's remark.

Pohang Is Brought Within Rifle Fire: 20,000 Reds Push Assault On Taegu

TOKYO, Thursday, Aug. 30—(AP)—The Korean war front blazed with action Wednesday as Allied forces held back at mounting North Korean forces probing furiously for a breakthrough.

On the northern northeastern front American and South Korean forces at Pohang launched a mobile tank artillery attack on Reds who penetrated within rifle range of that No. 2 United Nations outpost.

The U. S. attack stalled after stalling at least one mile north of the city and Associated Press correspondent Tom Lambert.

General MacArthur's was summarized today said Red infiltration had been cleared from the main road southwest of Pohang which had been cut by a North Korean patrol early Wednesday.

Communist rifle fire continued, however, from nearby hills.

On the central front northwest of Seoul U. S. First Cavalry Division forces attempting to take a hill position were forced to withdraw under heavy Red mortar and automatic weapons fire.

Determined to clean out the increasing enemy positions, the First Cavalry vowed to renew the attack. The hill was four miles northeast of Wagon which is 12 miles northwest of Taegu.

Jumping off against an enemy of company strength or larger after First Cavalry division a 24000 Red pounded Red positions, the Americans succeeded in slugging to within 200 feet of the summit before drawing back.

On the eastern coastal area where the Reds recaptured Kyeju, the third time in 48 hours that the communications point dropped hands the Communists were threatening to cut the Pusan-Taegu road with more than a harassing force. If successful, the Red maneuver would isolate South Korean forces just north of Pohang.

The death struggle for U. S. No. 2 South Korean post on the Sea of Japan cost committed about 20,000 men to the side.

George Thurston Reports Marketing Is Slow In North

The marketing and movement of mixed vegetables in the northern states is very slow, said George Thurston, local grower, who returned Sunday from Osmore, Va., with his family after four months spent in growing produce in that state.

He attributed the low prices to over-supply. Prices of meat, on the other hand, he said, are higher than here, and told of one eating place that quit serving steaks because customers could not pay the high prices.

The buying run for commodities like sugar has eased now, but when the war broke out in Korea, it was very scarce he stated. New automobiles are also scarce, especially in regions that have benefited from tobacco sales, said Mr. Thurston.

He declared that when his return he had found his 80 acres of Sealton cotton on the west side in fair condition, and stated that about 10 percent of this had been picked. Cotton in the Carolinas is in poor condition, due mostly to boll weevil, he said.

The three children, Billy, Ann and Nancy, were with their parents on the trip north.
