

FINE FUTURE FOR SOUTHERN GRID LOOP PREDICTED

President Of Conference Relates Aims, Ideals Of Members

By C. P. MILPS.
President of the Southern Conference.
(Written for The Associated Press.)

I can see only a bright future for the Southern Conference as it begins the second decade of its history next month.

No one can deny that the first decade was marked by very definite progress, looking toward the accomplishment of the high aims and splendid ideals of its founders.

A new era is dawning—an era in which I look for closer harmony and greater understanding among members, still higher academic and athletic standards, and an ever finer conception of the place of athletics in American university life.

The December meeting of the conference in New Orleans showed conclusively which way the wind is blowing. The consideration by the conference body of proposals submitted in the name of higher standards and the adoption of a number of amendments to that end, can well be taken as a gauge to the advancing thought and ideals within the group.

The conference, probably never remote from the old principles of athletics for the student, is going back to these principles. It must go back to them if it is to play a greater role in improving the physical and moral fibre of college students throughout the South and in sponsoring athletics as a worthy part of modern education.

This trend to old principles speaks through some very worth while amendments adopted at New Orleans. One will put scholarship and loan funds—long the bane of college administrators—on a basis whereby the college administrator will be informed as to what is being done with all such funds. The adoption of a uniform entrance requirement, including no more than four vocational units, assures that every athlete, in order to be eligible, must have a definite number of academic units. Thus, no athlete can enter any Southern Conference institution with units which would not be accepted by any standard college.

Another amendment adopted requires that a man pass three-fifths of his work in the preceding semester or quarter and three-fourths of his preceding year's work to be eligible to compete. Still another requires that a student to be eligible for repeated participation shall have a full year's attendance to his credit as compared with the former rule requiring one-half year.

It is impossible for me as president to comment on the amendment adopted by the conference regarding appointment of a conference commissioner of athletics. I am not in position to state what the outcome of this move will be. The conference has appointed a committee to study this matter carefully and to report its findings to the conference meeting in Atlanta in February. The committee may recommend the appointment or rejection of a commissioner. There is some opposition to it, due to cost and other objectionable features. A number are in favor of it.

The conference is attempting, and I think it will not be long before it will go on record as absolutely prohibiting subsidizing, recruiting, athletic scholarships and like evils which now exist.

The conference is aiming only at those things which will accomplish higher standards and greater harmony, fellowship and sportsmanship among members and toward opponents. With such aims and with a climate conducive to all-year round participation in athletics, the future is bright.

The amendments adopted at New Orleans bid fair to usher in a new era in conference progress. The greatest opportunity lies ahead. Then why should not the Southern Conference be the leading athletic body of its kind in America?

To this end I dedicate all my energies as president. It shall be my earnest effort during my term of office to preside over this great athletic body with fairness, dealing out justice as far as I can see it, playing no favorites, and seeking by hard work to accomplish those ideals for which the Southern Conference was founded—the betterment of athletics in the Southland.

CHAMBERLAIN'S FOOT IN BLIZZARD

ATLANTA, Jan. 22.—(A.P.)—A. C. Chamberlain, a Georgia athlete, was last night with feet frozen in a blizzard, but not in Georgia. He was driving from New York when his automobile skidded on ice and he was forced to stop during a blizzard.

SCHMELING MAY BE RELIEVED OF CROWN BY N. B. A.

Action Is Seen Likely Due To His Failure To Defend His Title

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—(A.P.)—Max Schmeling, world's heavyweight champion, faces the possibility of losing the title without throwing a glove.

This was indicated last night as the result of a poll made by the Associated Press of members of the National Boxing Association, who will vote on a proposal to vacate Schmeling's championship because of his failure to defend it or to sign to defend it within six months time limit prescribed by the N. B. A.

General John V. Cline, president of the N. B. A., dispatched ballots to the membership and expects them to out the German titleholder.

"The rules are made by the membership of the N. B. A.," General Cline said last night, "and I expect them to be followed out to the letter. That, at least, has been the practice since the membership has been asked to vote on questions of vacating a champion's title."

General Cline said the complete balloting would not be available until probably the middle of February, as the vote must come from 26 states, several boxing commissions in Canada, from Cuba, Porto Rico, and Mexico and from affiliations abroad.

Karl D. Malone, secretary of the Kentucky state board of athletic control, said he would vote to uphold the rules of the N. B. A. and further declared that the N. B. A. would vote 100 percent to vacate Schmeling's title.

Commissioner Tom McGrissey, of Colorado, also said he would vote to uphold the N. B. A. rules. Some support for Schmeling, however, came from the east with the declaration of Edward C. Foster, N. B. A. member for Rhode Island, that he would support Schmeling's stand.

General Cline's decision to send out the ballots came after the collapse of the Walker-Schmeling fight scheduled for Miami. Schmeling's time limit to sign for a fight in defense of his title Jan. 3, but on that date negotiations were in progress for the Walker fight.

If Schmeling is stripped of his title he may not be allowed to appear in exhibitions in states with N. B. A. affiliations. At least he will not be allowed to advertise himself as champion, General Cline indicated.

Stage Is Set For Orange Festival At Winter Haven

WINTER HAVEN, Jan. 22.—Everything is now in readiness for the Orange Festival, the more than 150 booths being under way and assured completion by midnight Monday. County, state, and federal exhibits are being completed and the whole will present a bigger and greater festival than ever before. Everything points to a great week ahead with assurances that the 69,339 attendance last year will be equalled or surpassed. The resume of the week's program follows:

Tuesday, Jan. 26 — SCHOOL DAY — Miniature float parade, 11 A. M.; Washington Bicentennial Pageant, continuous free acts in afternoon.

Wednesday, Jan. 27 — GOVERNOR'S DAY — Reception to Governor Carlton; Washington Bicentennial Pageant in afternoon; crowning of Orange Festival queen in evening.

Thursday, Jan. 28 — ALL-STATES AND TOURIST DAY — Program of interest to all tourists; Ohio-Virginia Wedding, 8 P. M., at platform.

Friday, Jan. 29 — GROWERS' DAY — Fifth annual meeting of citrus growers at Ritz theatre; evening and afternoon programs; State Press Breakfast on festival grounds, starting 11:30 P. M.

Saturday, Jan. 30 — AMERICAN LEGION DAY — Program for and by Legion; special concert by life and drum corps of Winter Haven Legion Auxiliary; Boy Scout rally.

Shuffleboard and lawn bowling clubs of the estate have been invited to participate in tournaments to be staged on the respective courts here, Jan. 27 through the 29th. Prizes will be awarded.

MacFarlane and Pairman will play 36-hole finals today with Eddie Williams, Cleveland, and Earl Howell, Miami. The latter pair upset Charles McAllister, Queens Valley, N. Y., and Jack Hagen, Salisbury, N. Y., favorites to win the tournament, by the long score of 5 and 4.

Williams' utter stole the spotlight of the tournament from the McAllister-Hagen team, which advanced from a dark horse position at first match play.

The rest of the semi-finalists were known before averse cross winds, but Willie, carding a 36 on the first nine, one-putted eight greens after marvelous approach shots, to put his side 2 up at the turn. He repeated the feat on the tenth to stand 3 up.

Boone won the 11th, after all were wild on tee shots, and McAllister dropped a 20-footer for a birdie three on the 12th. They halved the 13th, and MacFarlane's only putting failure of the day cost his team the next hole to square the match.

McAllister and Boone hung doggedly to their position, and halved the next four, to finish "18-hole play without advantage to either team."

MacFarlane and McAllister halved the 19th with par fives. On the 20th, Willie's long pitch shot against the wind left him 15 feet from the pin, while McAllister's 250-yard drive and a pretty approach laid his ball dead to the pin. MacFarlane's 15-foot putt for a birdie three saved his team by halving with McAllister.

MacFarlane's drive, screamed down the fairway on the 21st, and his second was 10 feet from the cup. The others were "trapped" with their seconds. Willie took two easy putts to win the hole and match.

Williams and Howell had easy going to stand 1 up at the ninth hole, the former playing an individual 35, below par, to carry the burden. He won the tenth, but coasted through the next four holes to halve, ending the match at the 14th cup.

Assists Team To Enter 36-Hole Finals In Miami Golf Meet

MIAMI, Jan. 22.—(A.P.)—Willie MacFarlane one-putted nine out of the first 10 greens yesterday to go into finals of a professional four-ball match here as the Tuckahoe, N. Y., player and Charles Pairman, Kokomo, Ind., defeated Wild Bill McAllister, New York City, and Walter Bourne, Princeton, N. J., 1 up in a 21-hole match.

Railways Agree To Use Efforts For Unemployed

On all other proposals made by the brotherhoods and unions, the rail executives gave little if any ground. They indicated they were unwilling to agree to labor proposals regarding the six-hour day, coordination of train crews and train lengths, the protection of labor in railroad consolidations and a billion dollar bond issue for grade crossing elimination.

"We believe," said the presidents committee in a formal statement, "a reduction in the compensation of all persons engaged in railway service is an essential step forward enabling the railways to improve their credit, increase their employment and purchases, and thereby contribute toward a general revival of business."

As to the necessity of the saving of about $215,000,000 which could be made in the pay reduction, Willard said 72 railways failed to earn their fixed charges last year and that unless net earnings could be increased this year the number would be "much larger."

Two Little Theater Plays Are Presented

Playing to a large audience, at the Women's Club, the Sanford Little Theatre opened its winter season of activities at 8:15 o'clock last night when it presented two one-act plays, "Pink and Patches," a drama; and "Rich Man, Poor Man," a comedy with casts composed entirely of members of the organization, and with Mrs. Evelyn D. Cooper as director.

Miss Margaret Cuman as "Tox," a poor mountain girl, in "Pink and Patches," who rebels at the thought of a life of toil, ugliness, and patched brown calico dresses, gave a splendid performance, and was ably supported by Mrs. May H. Maxwell who took the part of her mother; Frank Jacobson, as "Reverie," her brother; and Mrs. Lillian N. Harrison, as "Lillian," a fashionable tourist hotel.

During the short intermission between the two plays a male quartet composed of F. S. Lamson, B. C. Moore, Mrs. H. W. Rucker, and J. M. Stinebaugh, with accompaniment by Mrs. Moore, rendered "The Viking Song" by St. Coleridge Taylor, "Until the Dawn," by Parks; and "A Pastoral," by Florence Turner Maley.

Character parts were musically well done in the second play, "Rich Man, Poor Man," when Mrs. May H. Maxwell as Mrs. O'Brien, a Swedish woman; Mrs. Betty Hall Brown as Mrs. Bonelli, an Italian; Mrs. Gladys Hall as Mrs. Heston, an Irish woman; Mrs. Christina Moll as Mrs. MacPherson, a Scotch woman; and Joanne Azzarello as Yetta Goldstein, a young Jewess; furnished merriment as they entered the Thrift Shop, the scene of the play, attempting to purchase goods for their families.

Miss Margaret Cuman, as Emma, a young society girl, who has charge of the Thrift Shop, manages her customers in a diplomatic way and supplies them with their desires at great cost to Maxwell Stewart, who, as Peter, her lover, has to surrender practically all of his clothes from behind a screen in the shop.

Mrs. Margaret Z. Wright portrays the part of Kitty, a debutante, and that of a nurse with equal ability, while Mr. Lillian N. Branan, as Mrs. X. Y. Smythe, evidently a social leader of the town, impressed the audience with her lognettes and prim manner. Other merriment was furnished by Frank Jacobson as Tommy, a man about town, who is jilted by Emma; and by P. M. Vickery as Large, the negro janitor.

Mrs. Caswell Honors Daughter With Party

Complimenting her daughter, Eugenia Ann Caswell, who celebrated her sixth birthday anniversary yesterday, Mrs. B. D. Caswell entertained with a doll birthday party yesterday afternoon at her home on Magnolia Avenue. Eugenia Ann wore for the occasion a pink chiffon frock trimmed with French flowers. Completing the costume was a corsage of pink sweet peas.

Each guest arrived with her doll after which a doll show was conducted in which Mary McKory received a prize for holding the lucky number. During the afternoon a peanut hunt, a donkey contest and other games and contests were enjoyed. Geraldine Couch received a corsage of sweet peas for excelling in the peanut hunt while Patsy Hodge was given a framed picture and Nell Stewart a jump rope for the donkey contest.

Late in the afternoon the guests were ushered into the dining room where the refreshment table was centered with a bouquet of sweet peas and fern. The large birthday cake was decorated with pink rosebuds and six lighted pink candles. Each guest received a miniature umbrella and pop corn balls as mementoes of the occasion.

Assisting the hostess in entertaining the guests were: Mrs. June Tarnahill, Mrs. Leo A. Conoley, Mrs. G. H. McCall, Mrs. Edmund Malach, and Mrs. E. M. Warren. About 35 guests, members of the honor guests' kindergarten and dancing classes, were present.

French Deputies Vote Confidence In Premier Laval

PARIS, Jan. 23. (A.P.)—After Premier Laval had celebrated France to a policy of refusing to forego German reparations unless there is a corresponding reduction in the debts France owes, the chamber of deputies today voted confidence in his new emergency last night.

The government majority was 38 in a vote of 302 to 265. Laval immediately thereafter the premier sponsored a resolution, declaring France would be faithful to its policy of international collaboration and the granting of peace, which a post-war conference would determine, but that any action in this regard must be taken by a majority of 51.

The meeting of the chamber occurred in the two years since Laval's appointment as premier. The vote was a triumph for the government and a defeat for the opposition.

After a debate which lasted for an hour and a half, the first vote of the new Laval cabinet, which was dropped after seven hours in the foreign office, the chamber was adjourned until Monday.

The premier confirmed reports that neither a five days nor a 10 day suspension of parliament would be proposed. He said that the government would continue to work for a solution of the country's problems.

Charles Farrell And Janet Gaynor In Film

Janet Gaynor-Charles Farrell fans will be pleased to learn that these two popular players are the stars of the new romance, "Delicious," coming Sunday to the Midland. Also present in the cast and contributing countless hilarious laughs to the proceedings is the comic, El Brendel.

"Delicious" is the type of romance which has made Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell two of the screen's best beloved players. In the production they are the central figures of a romance which, as in all true love stories, has its ups and downs. Needless to say after many amusing and interesting complications have been effectively interwoven into the plot, these two lovers are once again happily brought into each other's arms, which is a conclusion especially suited to the charming make-believe of love stories and her likable co-star, Charles Farrell.

It is El Brendel who deserves much credit for the successful culmination of the Gaynor Farrell romance in "Delicious." Cast as Farrell's money well meaning valet, El Brendel doubles for Cupid and is at the right moment, true forward with a grand solution for the lovers' difficulties.

Attracted by the excellent production of confidence, the first test of the new Laval cabinet, which was dropped after seven hours in the foreign office, the chamber was adjourned until Monday.

The premier confirmed reports that neither a five days nor a 10 day suspension of parliament would be proposed. He said that the government would continue to work for a solution of the country's problems.

CATCHING EYES

Like Cinderella—both the advertising and the product that wins today's markets must possess appearance as well as merit. To catch the buyer's eye, to stop the hasty hand and open the stubborn purse, advertising must wear attractive colors to suggest value at first glance. Cinderella's charm was hidden in scullery clothes. When she was attractively dressed, she won a prince.

MUCH PROMISED IN NEW RUSSIAN FIVE-YEAR PLAN

Outline Is Revealed Of What Is Hoped To Be Accomplished

MOSCOW, Jan. 23. (A.P.)—Outline of the Soviet worker's standard of living to new heights was pledged by the state yesterday in an extensive outline of the second five-year plan.

First instructions for executing the successor to the present five-year plan, now drawing to a conclusion, were contained in reports by Premier Molotov and V. V. Kuybyshev, head of the state planning commission. They were approved by the political bureau of the communist party and published in Moscow newspapers.

A speedier rise in living standards than under the first five-year plan must be assured, the reports stated, and the population must be supplied with the principal articles of consumption from two to three times the present schedule. The realization of these tasks was said to depend on technical reconstruction of industry, transportation and agriculture.

It will be necessary to increase the output of machinery under the second five-year plan by at least three and one-half times. It will be necessary to reach by 1937 a production of 100,000 kilowatt hours of electric energy against 17,000,000 in 1932.

Two hundred and fifty million tons of coal must be produced by the end of the plan against 90,000,000 in 1932, the output of oil must be raised 2½ to three times over the present, and the production of iron must jump to at least 22,000,000 tons.

Railway transportation must be completely reorganized, the reports continued, and from 25,000 to 30,000 kilometers of new road must be built. Larger and more powerful rolling stock must be introduced and the lines must be electrified.

Further developments in the production of non-ferrous metals, chemicals, water, transportation, airways, roads, light and food industries were envisaged. Agriculture must be completely reorganized along socialist lines so that machines and tractors will be available on all collective farms.

The cattle breeding problem must be solved by increasing herds and marketable produce. The output of cotton flax must be doubled, and that of sugar beets trebled, and that of grain must rise to at least 1,300,000,000 cwt. (pounds).

Since these problems are inseparably connected with the mastery of technique, it was explained, it will be necessary to create a new technical intelligentsia from the workers and peasants and the cultural level of all toilers must be raised.

The utmost development of Soviet trade will be necessary and the Soviet republic, it was promised, will assume first place in Europe in technical respects.

The task proposed at the party congress in 1921 to "insure the economic independence of the Soviet state by safeguarding it against being converted into an appendage of capitalist world economy" will finally be achieved, the reports pledged.

The most important result attained in the first five-year plan, it was stated, was the final uprooting of capitalism in villages and the abolition of classes.

The first plan was said to have laid the groundwork for a more powerful growth of socialism, placed heavy industry on a firm footing, and transformed the Soviet republic from a country of small agriculture into a country with the largest agriculture in the world, based on collectivization and extensive application of the machine technique.

3 Men Prominent In National Guard Under Indictment

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 23. (A.P.)—William H. Jones, Jr., former adjutant general of the Kentucky National Guard and two former captains in the Guard were indicted by a county grand jury yesterday. Two true bills charging embezzlement of Guard funds were returned against Jones and one each against C. L. Gullett and Albert E. Ely of Glasgow.

In its report, the grand jury said it had investigated "irregularities in some of the departments of our state government and was convinced that there are most likely grave irregularities in other departments." It suggested that the investigation be continued by the next grand jury.

The indictments against Jones, Ely and Gullett grew out of charges presented to a military court of inquiry, appointed by Gov. Ruby Laffoon, to investigate expenditures in the National Guard department while Jones was in charge. The court was appointed Dec. 10, shortly after Jones was relieved by Brigadier General Henry H. Denard of Bowling Green.

The court of inquiry said Jones had "unlawfully" expended approximately $5,000 for which no warrants or receipts could be found. It said his total expenditures while in charge of the department approximated $300,000. Some of the vouchers issued under his name were handled through Gullett and Ely, the court of inquiry said.

Effort Made To Better Finance Local Hospital

lections. If an appropriation from some source of $100 or $200 per month could be secured I have no doubt about the future of the institution. This is a matter that should be given careful thought and consideration.

That suggestion brought about a long discussion which concluded with the suggestion that Mr. Lehmann be approached and asked to lend a hand, and that the County Commissioners also be asked for an emergency appropriation of $500 and $1000 for the immediate relief of the financial condition of the hospital. The committee which will meet with the County Commissioners is also authorized to submit a request that the commissioners incorporate in their budget an appropriation of not less than $150 per month for the hospital during the ensuing fiscal year of the board.

From the hospital record from Jan. 1, 1931, to Jan. 1, 1932, it is revealed that 675 cases received hospital care during that time, including 71 births, 82 minor cases receiving hospital care, and 522 patients admitted. About 28 per cent were colored patients. A total of 289 operations were performed, 137 major and 152 minor operations, upon 243 white and 46 colored patients.

Fifty-one deaths occurred in the hospital during the year; 10 deaths occurred less than 24 hours after admission; 30 occurring more than 24 hours after admission; eight babies being stillborn; and three babies dying within 12 hours after birth.

The average number of patients at the hospital during a day was 9.3; the average number including babies, 10.3; the average number of days each patient remained, 6.6, and the average bed occupancy, 47 percent.

The total amount charged for service during 1931 was $18,720.78, of which $15,349.80 was collected, leaving an uncollected total of $3,370.98, or an 82 per cent collection in 1931 as against an 85 per cent collection in 1930. Colored patients paid about 50 percent of the amount charged against them, while white patients paid about 90 percent.

The actual number of patients admitted to the hospital was 522, whereas for the previous twelve months the number was 545; the number of patient days (the aggregate number of days for all patients) exclusive of new born babies, was 3435 compared with 4091 for last year. The average charge per patient was $35.86; the charge per patient day was $5.45, whereas the collection per patient day was $4.47. The cost of operating the hospital for the year was $15,820.85, or $4.01 per patient day.

This indicates that if every patient admitted had paid in full, a charge of $4.01 per day would cover the actual cost, whereas a charge of $5.45 per patient day was the average with a collection of $4.47 or an actual net loss of 14 cents per patient day.

If the necessary repairs and improvements had been made to the hospital the actual cost would be in the neighborhood of $4.75 per day; or the Association should have spent about $500 on repairs and general improvements, and equipment which it was unable to spend due to unpaid charges.

Before adjourning J. E. Fox and Karl Lehmann were elected to the board of directors representing Paola and the Chamber of Commerce, respectively, while all former directors were re-elected.

Present at the meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. Endor Curlett, secretary, in the absence of H. C. DuBois, chairman, were: Mrs. Cassandra Schultz, Mrs. Harry Kent, Mrs. L. S. Vornay, Mrs. Endor Curlett, Mrs. E. M. Gallaway, Mrs. G. G. Wagner, Mrs. H. N. Lehman, Mrs. R. T. Haines, and F. T. Williams, Jan. D. Jinkins, Ray Fox, C. W. Entsminger, A. P. Connelly, T. L. Dumas, R. M. Ball, James G. Sharon, and T. W. Lawton.

Upon adjournment, the board of directors met in short session, to re-elect all the officers of the Association, as well as members

Pinchot Condemns Help For Business As People Starve

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23. (A.P.)—Gov. Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania last night condemned federal relief for business and finance while the government has "forgotten that distress is centered in human beings."

Speaking before the conference on government responsibility for unemployment, Governor Pinchot declared "I do not believe we have come to the point in this country where we are ready to admit that money is more important than men."

"Nothing about this depression is so deplorable and un-American as the inability of our so-called leaders to think of distress in human terms. Their only genuine worry has to do with financial collapse. Their sole aim has been to revive business. Money first, and men afterward. Apparently human beings can, as far as they are concerned go hang to starve."

"Here is the philosophy that lies behind the stubborn opposition to federal relief. Here is the indictment of the administration which refuses to sanction the appropriation of a single dollar to help the millions of men, women and children who are in actual physical distress. Our government leaders have turned their backs of the executive committee. A rising vote of thanks was extended to all officers, directors, nurses for the efficient manner in which they had conducted the affairs of the hospital during the year.

The officers re-elected are: T. W. Lawton, president; Mrs. Endor Curlett, vice-president; Mrs. Cassandra Schultz, secretary, and H. C. DuBois, auditor. Members of the executive committee are Mrs. Endor Curlett, Mrs. H. J. Lehman, Mrs. A. G. Wagner, A. P. Connelly, and H. C. DuBois.

Appeals Of Eight Convicted Negroes Under Advisement

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 23. (A.P.)—Appeals of eight convicted negroes whose cause various organizations have championed so vigorously as to lead Justice John C. Anderson to denounce from the bench "efforts to bulldoze the court," were taken under advisement by the Alabama Supreme Court yesterday.

Normally the court hands down its decisions within a month, but there is no limitation on its deliberations.

In the closing argument of the state, Attorney General Thomas E. Knight, Jr., told the court outside pressure had been applied to him also. Joseph R. Brinkley, chief counsel for the International Labor Defense, expressed confidence an "honest decision" would be rendered.

Knight started from the record of the case to review yesterday's revelation that the court had been bombarded with letters and resolutions described as "threatening." He said he never before had seen such conditions as surround the case under consideration.

"I never before received a telegram," he said, "while waiting as an officer of the state to perform my duty, as I did yesterday demanding the 'immediate release' of the eight negroes."

The negroes, the oldest 21, were convicted at Scottsboro last April of attacking two white girls who were "blimming" their way home to Huntsville from Chattanooga, Tenn., on a freight train.

Scientific Group Is Going After Data Upon Gulf Stream

MIAMI, Jan. 23. (A.P.)—The course a drop of cold water follows after entering the Gulf of Mexico until it flows out again in the great Gulf Stream, weather maker for Eastern United States, will be traced by a Yale University scientific expedition sailing from here today.

Where the water comes from is another question to which the expedition will seek the answer.

Dr. A. E. Parr of Yale University, will head the expedition. His five month cruise, his companions will be M. B. Bishop, Gifford C. Ewing and Drayton Cochran, owner of the schooner yacht Mabel Taylor, on which the journey will be made.

The time a drop of cold water stays in the Gulf, Dr. Parr said, is vital information in weather forecasting. Also, its direction from the time it enters the Gulf until it is warm enough to rise to the surface and flow out again is important. When scientists know the answers they may be able to forecast weather conditions for months or even years in advance, he said.

The Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean Sea are protected from the Atlantic by a reef that ranges from 1100 fathoms below the surface to places where it rises above the water to form islands. This reef keeps the cold water of the Atlantic out of the Gulf, and allows the warmer water of the Gulf to roll out and start northward.

The greatest depth of the Mediterranean Sea is about 14,136 feet.

"Sure, Sailor..I used to Roll my Own"

"I CARRIED the makin' for years, but I so I could roll 'em single. But there's no real economy in it. The way I figure is that a fellow don't spend so much on himself but what he can afford to enjoy the best in smoke."

"Myself... I smoke Chesterfields. They cured me of rollin' my own. First off, you get better tobacco. I'm not knockin' the makin'... but it stands to reason Chesterfields wouldn't be where they are today if they didn't give you the finest tobacco. I like their aroma."

"Henry of Turkish in Chesterfields... you don't get that in the makin'."

"I don't know what's something about Chesterfields... you can't get a milder, better taste... not anywhere!"

"Got a right good opinion of myself but I don't figure I'm as clever as those cigarette-making machines. Every single Chesterfield is round and filled right... beats anything you can roll yourself. Besides, it smokes cooler and lasts longer. I've tried both, so I know."

Nothing remarkable about Chesterfield's Radio Program, either! Nat Shilkret's Orchestra and Alex Gray, popular soloist, entertain you every night except Sunday, at 10:30 Eastern Standard Time, on the Columbia-Cascadia Coast Network.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 23. (A.P.)—To date 15 Democrats and two Republicans have announced their candidacy for the governorship of Florida, among the 41 candidates thus far announced for 16 state and national offices.

The Democrats seek nomination in the primary election of next June. The Republican nominee will be chosen at a party convention to be held at Orlando.

The Democrats who have announced for governor are:

E. C. Howard of Miami; Stafford Caldwell of Jacksonville; Charles M. Durand of Jacksonville; Fred O. Eberhardt of Tallahassee; Arthur Gomez of Key West; Thomas C. Hammond of Tampa; Cary A. Hardee of Live Oak; T. S. Hart of Jacksonville; Foss A. Hatha of Jacksonville; John W. Martin of Jacksonville; Montgomery Potter of Jasper; David Sholtz of Daytona Beach; and J. Tom Watson of Tampa.

The two Republicans are William J. Howey of Howey in the Hills and Edward Partridge of St. Cloud.

Seven Democrats seek the nomination for Congress from the state at large. They are:

John T. Aleop of Jacksonville; W. D. Bell of Arcadia; Frank Clark of Miami; Asher Frank of Tallahassee; Lester Jennings of Jacksonville; Ossie Johnson of Jacksonville; and Joe Sears of Jacksonville.

So far United States Senator Fletcher of Jacksonville and Congressman Ruth Bryan Owen of Miami, representative from the fourth Florida district, are without opposition in their race for re-election.

Congressmen from the first, second and third Florida districts, however, face opposition within their districts. In the first Florida district Congressman Drane of Lakeland is opposed by George O. Lea of Bradenton and J. Hardin Peterson of Lakeland.

In the second Florida district Congressman Giam is opposed by J. Marry Dell of Gainesville. In the third Florida district Congressman Von is opposed by Robert Mathis of Panama City.

Commissioner of Agriculture Mayo of Tallahassee and Sumner, field is the only state cabinet officer whose re-election has been opposed so far. F. M. Ironmonger, Jr., of Miami, has come out for the office now held by Mayo.

Other state cabinet officers seeking re-election are Secretary of State Gray, Attorney General Landis, Comptroller Ames, Treasurer Knott, and Superintendent of Public Instruction Cayton. They all reside at the state capital.

Five candidates have announced their intention to run for the place on the Florida railroad commission which must be filled this year. Tucker Savage of Tampa now holds the office by appointment and will seek election for a full term. Other candidates are R. Hudson Burr of Tallahassee, Olden A. Byrd of Jacksonville, W. D. Douglas of Lake City and J. W. Newbern of Newberry.

Chief Justice Rivers H. Buford and Associate Justice William H. Ellis of the state supreme court seek election for another full term. Associate Justice Davis seeks election for the unexpired term of Louis W. Stern whose plan he fills by appointment following Judge Stern's resignation at Jacksonville. So far the three supreme court justices are unopposed.

Revolt Movement In Catalonia Looks To Have Collapsed

BARCELONA, Spain, Jan. 23. (A.P.)—The revolt movement in Catalonia, Province appeared to have collapsed last night as troops played hide-and-seek in mountain passes to ferret out fleeing bands of insurgents.

Labels leaders said Premier Azana's vigorous handling of the situation had been successful through this trouble region. High snidegates told the strike probably would be concluded today.

The major development of the day was the discovery of 150 bombs in revolutionary headquarters in nearby Puig, and the arrest of seven persons there. Twenty more were arrested here and many in other parts.

Minor disorders were reported in Figueras and Dalada, where insurrection fought refuge when driven out of other towns.

Two battalions of infantry, two battalions of artillery and three companies of civil guards, some 1,000 men in all, were sent to the region to restore order. About 10,000 men were reported to be in the region, but most were kept open.

litical gatherings, an assessment of one percent of the approximate earning of each office-holder will cover all expenses.

Upon that basis, all candidates and prospective candidates will be assessed by the committee as follows: County clerk, $40; tax collector or tax assessor, $37.50; sheriff, $35; superintendent of schools, $30; county judge, $29; justice of the peace, $23; prosecuting attorney, $22; constable, $4; representatives, $3; supervisor of registration, $1; county commissioners or members of the school board, $2. In addition to the assessment by the local committee, candidates must also pay a three mill assessment to cover costs of the state Democratic committee.

The matter of holding public meetings throughout the county was tabled until late in March. It is believed that by that time all candidates will have announced and, if it is their desire, to state meetings of that type, the county committee will accede to their wishes, and call a meeting to set dates for each public gathering.

The committee, believing the move may tend to keep the appointment of a person to fill a vacancy caused by the retirement or death of an office-holder, passed a resolution calling upon the State Democratic Executive Committee to use its influence in seeing that the county committee's recommendation as to filling a vacancy be final, as well as the state committee's recommendation as to filling a state vacancy. Hitherto, the governor has had final choice in the matter.

The committee also went on record as favoring the election and not the appointment of state delegates to the national Democratic conventions, and urged on the state executive committee the importance of establishing a Democratic platform for the various state and county candidates.

These resolutions will be sent to state headquarters at once, it was decided.

No action was taken on W. V. Dunn's suggestion that some steps be taken to prevent a successful candidate from taking into office with him, several members of his family.

Those present at the meeting today beside the chairman were: R. W. Waga, secretary-treasurer and D. H. C. Balun, Lake Monroe; J. J. Jagley, Longwood; O. E. Downs, Bear Lake; W. V. Dunn, Lake Mary; J. W. Owen, Altamonte Springs; G. M. Jacobs, Chuluota; members of the committee, and the following candidates and other interested persons: O. B. Herndon, Paul Rogers, E. E. Brady, F. L. Woodruff, J. P. McClelland, John G. Leonard, C. M. Hand, J. G. Sharon, V. E. Douglas, Joe. D. Jenkins, and Bill Hag.

sions, notably the message to the special unemployment session of the legislature used state papers as vehicles for delivering his views on general subjects, but they also applied to state affairs.

In the unemployment relief message he enunciated the doctrine that all citizens were in effect wards of the government and entitled to aid when destitute.

Roosevelt in his annual message to the state legislature last Jan. 6 called for a "new leadership" in national affairs, and criticized the Hoover administration for its program during the economic slump.

Until the governor's candidacy is before the public, it will not be known how many of the presidential primaries he will enter. But his proponents have said he would go into most of them where "native sons" were not entered.

After the North Dakota primary will come two on Apr. 5, Wisconsin and New York. On the twelfth there are two more, Illinois and Nebraska, and on the twenty-sixth of April Pennsylvania and Massachusetts signify their presidential preferences.

Other primaries are Maryland, May 3; California, May 3; South Dakota, May 3; Ohio and West Virginia, May 10; New Jersey, May 10, and Oregon, May 20. Alabama, on May 10, and Florida on June 7 have primaries for Democrats only. Two other states with primaries in 1932, Indiana and Michigan, since have dropped them.

Dictionary of America cost about $200,000 in terms of cost. It was published by the American Book Company in 1928. It was the first book of this kind.

MacDonald Saves His Cabinet With Unexpected Action

LONDON, Jan. 23. (A.P.)—Prime Minister MacDonald saved his cabinet from breaking up yesterday by a political stroke as swift and unexpected as that by which he formed the present national government.

Divided against itself as to whether the country will have a general tariff, the ministry not only remains in existence, but will face parliament when it opens Feb. 2 with the breach still unhealed.

For two days the ministers argued the tariff program, but when they adjourned yesterday it was announced officially that they had been unable to reach an unanimous agreement.

Ordinarily this would mean resignation of the cabinet, but Mr. MacDonald played an unexpected card. The ministers who found themselves unable to agree with the majority of their colleagues "are to be at liberty to express their views by speech and vote," the statement said.

This means that, if they want to, the dissident ministers may campaign up and down the country against the tariff measure, which the government of which they are a part intends to present to parliament. The holdouts are Philip Snowden, now Lord Inchiquin, and Sir Donald Maclean, a Liberal, president of the board of education.

Nothing was said about whether they would resign if parliament should pass a tariff bill involving a departure from the traditional British free trade policy, which they represent, but it was not.
