Iran Executes 41 More; Death Toll Nears 600

By United Press International
Iran has passed a sweeping anti-dissident law and executed 41 more opponents of Ayatollah Khomeini, raising the total number of firing squad deaths to near 600 in a two-month reign of terror.

Tehran Radio, monitored in Ankara, Turkey, also reported Tuesday, Iran's Revolutionary Guards arrested some 300 opponents, bringing the total of guerrillas imprisoned to near 3,000 this summer.

In a legislative move to root out more opponents and stifle opposition, Iran's parliament, the Majlis, passed a law Tuesday making acts dating back to the shah's rule crimes.

Under the law, provincial governors who served the monarchy could be punished.

Because of the law's vague and loose description of opposition "crimes," observers said the measure aimed to frighten suspected dissidents inside the administration into silence.

Sadat, Begin Resume Talks

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (UPI) — President Anwar Sadat and Prime Minister Menachem Begin announced today they will resume the deadlocked talks on Palestinian autonomy late next month.

The formal announcement was made in a news conference ending two days of summit talks between the Egyptian and Israeli leaders in Alexandria.

"The highlight of our talks was our agreement that we renew the talks for the full autonomy issue," Sadat told reporters at a joint news conference.

Begin, in his opening comments, lavished praise on Sadat, called the two-day summit a "very fruitful discussion" and said he understood the talks would resume on the ministerial level on Sept. 23 and 24.

If the talks take place during those days, they may do so in the United States, since Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamel Hassan Ali is due in New York Sept. 23 to address the U.N. General Assembly that week.

Pope Holds Audience

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (UPI) — Pope John Paul II, overriding the wishes of his doctors and protected by exceptional security measures, today held his first general audience since he was shot in St. Peter's Square 14 weeks ago.

"Today, Wednesday, there is a tradition of general audiences," the 81-year-old pope told a crowd of 6,000 gathered in the courtyard of his 17th century hilltop villa 15 miles south of Rome.

"The last (general audience) was supposed to have been May 13th," he said. "That audience started regularly, but then we all know what happened."

The pope went ahead with the 34-minute general audience despite advice from his doctors that he use his six-week stay at the summer villa for complete rest.

When he left the hospital Aug. 14, his doctors said John Paul should not hold public meetings any more taxing than his brief Sunday prayer appearances.

As a measure of the pope's impatience to resume his usual busy schedule, the audience came a day after John Paul hosted a folk music and dancing festival with 2,500 Irish visitors at the villa.

Goat Saga May Be Coming To Close

By BRITT SMITH
Herald Staff Writer

The saga of Ingeborg Morris, the Forest City woman who has waged legal war for more than a year in an effort to keep a small herd of miniature goats at her Lake Brantley Shores home, may be coming to a close.

Following a recent rash of adverse court rulings, Mrs. Morris has apparently relocated the last of her 18 goats, according to Assistant Seminole County Attorney Robert McMillan.

"Mrs. Morris' attorney (Richard Manzo) informed me that all of the goats were gone. Other sources have confirmed that," McMillan said. "Of course, how long they stay gone is another matter. But as of now, there are no goats out there. Maybe this is the end of the goat story. We'll see."

Morris has been under court order since June 1 to remove the animals. However, through a series of legal maneuvers, she managed to keep her goats until Monday.

On June 1, Circuit Court Judge Vernon Mize Jr. gave Mrs. Morris 20 days to get rid of the goats, ruling that the animals are livestock and as such are prohibited by county law from being kept in a residential area. Claiming her goats are pets, not livestock, Mrs. Morris defied Mize's order and was later held in contempt of court.

On July 23, the goats still had not been moved and Circuit Judge Joseph Davis Jr., sitting in for a vacationing Mize, gave Mrs. Morris another legal ultimatum—get rid of the goats within 10 days or risk county animal control officers seizing the animals and putting them up for adoption.

Mize later refused to reverse his earlier order and Mrs. Morris appealed to the Fifth District Court of Appeals. On Monday, the Daytona Beach-based court denied Mrs. Morris' request that Mize's order, in effect, be overturned.

Mrs. Morris suffered another legal setback last week when Circuit Judge Kenneth Lefler dismissed a lawsuit filed by Mrs. Morris against the county which sought to have that portion of the county's land development ordinance prohibiting the keeping of livestock in a residential area declared unconstitutional.

Saying "the goat saga has gone on long enough," Lefler dismissed the suit with prejudice, meaning it can't be refilled.

COKE AND WATER

No, that's not a new drink. It's what the folks in the Sanora residential area in Sanford got when someone dumped the clubhouse Coke machine into the swimming pool.

According to a Sanford police report, the incident occurred sometime late Monday night or early Tuesday morning. Damage to the machine was estimated at $500.

TWO JAILED FOR LSD SALE

A Mississippi truck driver and an Arizona student were in the Seminole County Jail charged with drug law violations after they allegedly sold county undercover agents 250 LSD tablets.

Jailed were Duke Raymond Ramage Jr., 20, of Columbus, Miss., and 21-year-old college student Terry Wayne Howard of Chandler, Arizona. Ramage was charged with possession, sale and delivery of a controlled substance. Howard was charged with conspiracy to deliver a controlled substance. Both men were being held under $8,000 bond.

According to a Seminole County sheriff's report, the men were arrested about 4:20 p.m. Monday in the parking lot of Sanford Plaza, U.S. Highway 17-92.

HOME BURGLARY

A set of radio headphones and $460 cash was taken from an Altamonte Springs home over the weekend.

Betty Drury, 32, of 10113 Colsona Way, reported that her property was taken sometime between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Saturday. Deputies said there was no sign of forced entry to the house.

GONE SHOPPING

Iris Dean Roberts, 31, of 304 Teakwood Lane, Altamonte Springs, took her family shopping Tuesday night and came home to find someone had broken into her home and stolen $353 worth of property.

Roberts told Seminole County sheriff's deputies that the burglary occurred between 9 and 11 p.m. when someone removed a plastic panel and squeezed through the opening between a window air conditioning unit and the window frame.

Once inside, the diminutive thief stole a watch, various pieces of jewelry, and $13 in change from a piggy bank, deputies said.

COURT SENTENCINGS, PLEAS

Four persons were sentenced in Circuit Court in Sanford Tuesday for crimes to which they had earlier pleaded guilty. Also, two Seminole County men pleaded guilty to burglary charges. Defendants and their offenses follow:

—Tommy Lewis Grady, 26, Sorrenio, Fla., battery on a law enforcement officer, three years probation and the $72 cost of his prosecution. Grady was arrested Feb. 19 after he shoved and punched Sanford policeman Jerry Gongwer who was investigating a domestic disturbance at 147 Bethune Circle.

—Robert Lewis Gohelf, 26, Forest City, possession of marijuana, five years probation and 30 days in the county jail. Gohelf was charged on March 2 after he sold 20 pounds of marijuana to county undercover agents in the parking lot of an Altamonte Springs hardware store.

—Lynn Ann Holstrom, 23, 418 George Ave., Longwood, resisting arrest with violence, three years probation and $500 for the services of her public defender. Holstrom was accused of kicking sheriff's deputies after being stopped for suspicion of drunk driving.

—Keith Jerome Harvey, 21, 704 Brentwood Ave., Altamonte Springs, grand theft, five years probation. On March 9, Harvey sold a clarinet to a Maitland music store for $30. The instrument had been stolen from Lyman High School a month before.

Also Tuesday, Nicholas Dukes, 19, of 211 Satsuma Drive, Sanford, pleaded guilty to a burglary charge in connection with the June 14 break-in at the Melodee Skating Rink, 2700 W. 25th St., Sanford.

—Jeffrey D. Halter, 20, 436 Orange St., Altamonte Springs, burglary. Halter was accused of breaking into the St. Marks Presbyterian Church, 1021 Palm Springs Drive, Altamonte Springs.

Voyager Survives

Journey Beyond Saturn

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI) — Voyager 2 flashed past Saturn today, sending scientists their closest look at its stormy gas clouds and whirling snowball rings, and providing a triumphant last hurrah for what may be a dying era of U.S. space exploration.

"We have again threaded the needle in space," exulted Project Manager Esler Davis as the nuclear-powered spacecraft soared on through Saturn's system, climaxing a four-year journey with pinpoint accuracy.

At 11:24 p.m. EDT Tuesday, Voyager 2 sped just 63,000 miles above Saturn's yellowish cloud tops — only 2.7 seconds and 30 miles off perfect targeting, after a looping 1.4-billion-mile journey to the planet.

It may have been the last such spectacle until Voyager 2 reaches the outskirts of the solar system, passing Uranus in 1986 and Neptune in 1989. In an era of shrinking budgets, no new planetary exploration missions have been given final approval.

California's Medfly Setback

By United Press International

California today faced two new setbacks in its war against the Mediterranean fruit fly — the discovery of five flies near Los Angeles, 300 miles from the main infestation, and a Japanese refusal to ease restrictions on fruit imports.

The flies, found Tuesday at a private residence in eastern Los Angeles County, were shipped to Sacramento to determine if they were fertile. If they are — as officials suspect — pesticide spraying will begin tonight in the area, which serves as California's leading produce distribution center.

Initial "microscopic tests indicate (the flies) were fertile," Los Angeles County Agriculture Commissioner Paul Engler said Tuesday.

Thousands Evacuated

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A contractor's drill pierced a gas main and sent a "whirlwind" of choking yellow-brown gas laced with cancer-linked PCBs through the heart of the city's financial district, forcing the evacuations of tens of thousands of office workers and shoppers.

The gas shot like a geyser from a 16-inch pipeline for 2 1/2 hours Tuesday before Pacific Gas & Electric Co. crews were able to stem the flow. Traces of the gas, however, continued to leak into the air until shortly after 11 p.m. when the leak was finally sealed.

One worker was overcome by fumes and hospitalized, and many of the evacuees from 20 buildings left coughing with their eyes tearing.

Nixon Payoff Confirmed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former President Richard Nixon last year paid a fired Pentagon official $142,000 to avoid a trial in a lawsuit the ex-whistleblower brought against him, Nixon's lawyers confirm.

The payment was part of an out-of-court settlement between Nixon and A. Ernest Fitzgerald, who charged he was fired by Nixon for disclosing cost overruns on the C-5A transport plane. He had sought $3.5 million.

Confirmation of the payment came Tuesday in legal papers filed by Nixon's lawyers in an effort to keep alive his appeal of the case to the Supreme Court, despite the out-of-court settlement.

Nixon's attorneys want the court to rule on whether he is protected from suits brought for acts he may have committed as president.

Altamonte Sewage Treatment Plant OK'd

By BARBARA FEARN
Herald Staff Writer

Altamonte Springs City Commissioners adopted both a wastewater treatment charge and established a wastewater treatment facility fund during their meeting Tuesday night.

The commission also ordered Jackson Street (Pleasure Island Drive) closed, terming it a "swamp".

Unanimously passed, a wastewater treatment facility charge will be adopted to "properly fund" the anticipated expansion of the city sewage treatment capability.

According to Director of Public Works Don Newnam, the commission expects to collect $80,000 in fees from each new development to help finance the project. The plant is expected to cost between $10 million and $17 million.

Newnam said the plant is needed because of recent and planned expansion in the Central Florida area.

"We provide service to unincorporated Seminole County,

Sanlando Utilities, Southern State Utilities, Utilities Inc., city of Maitland, city of Eatonville, and north Orange County.

A construction timetable hasn't been set.

"We have three possible schedules," Newnam said. "Construction may begin on Jan. 1, 1983, 1984, or 1985. Expansion should be completed July 1, 1984, 1985, or 1986."

Other monies will be gained from fees collected when a contractor receives a permit.

The sewage fee is $300 for each house or equivalent built, $421 for water inside the city limits and $525 for water outside of the city limits. These fees are usually put into a miscellaneous improvements fund that last year helped to finance an elevated water tank.

Amendments will be added to the water, sewer and drainage trust fund in order to assure funds for the plant. These amendments will include the sewer assessment receivables, $8,579 and the assessment of the Montgomery

Road sewer, $8,579.

Calling it a swamp, commissioners closed Jackson Street (Pleasure Island Drive).

"We're going to let it return back to natural land," Commissioner Dolores Vickers said. "The road leads right into Prairie Lake so there won't be any traffic cut off. There is just so much swamp and truck back there."

The city has given up all claim to the land, which is owned by Consolidated Resources Corp. of America in Atlanta.

Longwood Commission Approves New Fees Schedule

By JANE CASSELLBERRY
Herald Staff Writer

The Longwood City Commission has unanimously approved new fee schedules that will increase the cost of building, plumbing and electrical permits.

The commission acted in response to a request by the City Building Official R.A. Bryant, who said present fees were set Aug. 14, 1978.

"As you know," Bryant stated in his memo to City Administrator David Chacey, "in the three subsequent years, the cost of building has increased more than 30 percent. In order to maintain and improve the present high degree of inspection and record-keeping, it is felt the accompanying schedule should be considered for adoption at the earliest date possible."

The new schedules double the base inspection and reinspection fees from $5 to $10. The base fee applies to permits for construction valued up to an including $1,000. For all construction valued at more than $1,000 up to $100,000 the fee will be $5 per $1,000 or fraction thereof.

Valuation over $100,000 up to $500,000, the fee is $500 for the first $100,000 plus $2.50 for each additional thousand or fraction thereof. For valuation over $500,000 up to $1 million, the fee is $1,500 for the first $500,000 plus 75 cents for each additional thousand or fraction thereof. For valuation over $1 million, the fee is $1,875 for the first million, plus 50 cents for each additional thousand or fraction thereof. Other fees include: demolition permit, $25; moving permit, $50; swimming pool, minimum, $25, $5 per $1,000 and $5 for electrical inspection; and schools, $25.

Valuation is established on the basis of $15 per square foot living area; $850 for each bath over one; $500 for each half bath; $10 a square foot for closed garages; $15 per square foot or contract price, whichever is greater for small non-residential buildings under 5,000 square feet; contract price for multi-family dwellings; and large non-residential buildings over 5,000 square feet.

Minimum plumbing permit fee is $10 with $3 charged for each installation such as bathtub, hot water heater, and floor drains.

Minimum fee for electrical permits is $10 with a 15-cent charge for outlets, lighting fixtures and 50 cents each outlet controlling window type air conditioner.

Fees for electrical service installations range from $2 to $12; motors and generators, 50 cents to $10; appliances, 15 cents to $6; neon, $10 for first transformer, 50 cents for each additional one; electric welder, $1 to $2; power transformer in building, $1; electric elevator, $7.50; display case 10 lights or less $17; inspection for electrical equipment for which no fee is set, $10 per hour.

In Longwood

City Hall Expansion Work Gets Go-Ahead

Longwood City Administrator David Chacey has been given the go-ahead by City Commissioners to begin work on the city hall expansion project.

Plans call for converting the former fire station adjoining city hall at 175 W. Warren Ave., into a public meeting hall with offices for the mayor and commissioners, as well as rest rooms.

Chacey said he has consulted an architect on plans for the project, which will eventually include remodeling the exterior to make it blend-in with other buildings in the Longwood Historical District.

Included in the proposed budget for the 1981-82 fiscal year is $15,000 for funding the first phase of the project. Chacey said he wants to get started with the expansion because someone had offered to donate concrete blocks. He also said prison labor could be used to dig around the area to prepare for the addition's foundation.

Chacey said he expects blocks to be up, roof on and windows and partitions in by the end of the year.

The vote for approving the project was 4-1 with Commissioner Steven Uskert voting against giving Chacey permission to begin. He said he felt the plans need further study.

In other business Monday night, the commission passed a resolution requesting financial assistance under the Florida Recreation Development Assistance Program for developing the city's Heiter Park. The city is seeking $25,000 to match funds in the city budget.

The commission also approved a site plan for the Robert Hunt Corp. building to be constructed on the southwest corner of West Lake Street and State Road 434. The plan was approved only after Darrell Haass, vice president of Bowest Realty, called Hunt long distance to get his commitment to pave the street as far as the first entrance to his property.

The company with headquarters in London and Ontario, Canada, plans to build and sell window frames at its Longwood facility.

Purchase of a $5,000 Minolta copy machine for city hall was also approved by the commission. — JANE CASSELLBERRY

IN BRIEF

There's One In Every Crowd, But More In Wetumka, Okla.

United Press International
SUCKER DAY: They still celebrate Sucker Days in Wetumka, Okla. It's in memory of the August day in 1950 when con man F. Bam Morrison whirled into town from Chicago and talked local businessmen into buying tickets to a circus. The merchants stocked up on bread, hot dogs and even hay for the circus animals. "On the day the circus was to be here, F. Bam Morrison was gone and the town was full of people and there was no circus," said Gail Pate, chairwoman of the five-day 1981 Sucker Days festivities. Later, Morrison went to jail, and Sucker Days became an annual event. After his release he returned once as guest of honor at a Sucker Day celebration. One change this year — instead of a Sucker Queen, a local girl will be named Miss Wetumka Teenager. "The title of Sucker Queen got too many jokes about it," Ms. Pate said.

MORE MEMORIES: Bob Hope is about to chalk up another memory to be thankful for — a two-hour TV special in connection with the new Gerald R. Ford Presidential Museum in Grant Rapids, Mich. Hope says he considers this one of the most prestigious events of his life. The sold-out show will be taped Sept. 17, for airing Oct. 26 on NBC. The guest list includes Lucille Ball, Sammy Davis Jr., Foster Brooks, Tony Orlando, Danny Thomas, Mark Russell, Susan Anton and Glen Campbell. President and Mrs. Reagan head the list of dignitaries to attend the dedication of the $11 million museum. Speaker of the House Tip O'Neill and Senate Majority Leader Howard Baker are honorary co-chairmen.

Down's Syndrome Child In Lead

Beau Bridges Takes A Chance On 'The Kid From Nowhere'

By DICK KLEINER

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) - In the past, movies on TV have had real handicapped people — paraplegics, blind or deaf people — in the roles of characters with those handicaps. But when Beau Bridges wanted to use a mentally retarded child to play a mentally retarded child, most people told him he was crazy.

Apparently, he wasn't. He's done it. Bridges directed (as well as acted in) a TV movie called "The Kid From Nowhere," which will be shown on NBC sometime this fall. It is about a single parent with a mentally retarded son — and a mentally retarded boy named Ricky Wittman plays the leading role.

The background of this project is a story of coincidences, and of men and women taking chances.

It began with Judy Farrell (the wife of "M-A-S-H" star Mike Farrell) who wrote the story in the first place. It was her first attempt at a movie screen-play.

The Farrells' children and Beau Bridges' children go to the same school (the first coincidence). Beau read the screenplay and showed it to producer Gil Cates. Cates had produced something six years before with Bridges (second coincidence) and had recognized Beau's innate feeling for direction.

"I read the script," Bridges says, "and I wanted to direct it. I told Gil that I would only play the lead if I could also be the director. And he went along with me."

At about that time, Bridges happened to read a story in the Los Angeles Times about a man named Phil Brody. (That was another coincidence.) Brody has long taught the mentally retarded in the Los Angeles school system, and the newspaper story told of his newly developed method of teaching the retarded to read through sign language.

Another coincidence came to light later. It seems that Judy Farrell, when she was researching her story, had gone to Phil Brody's class, and Brody had referred her to some single parents with retarded children.

We come full circle: from Brody to Mrs. Farrell to Bridges to Cates to

Beau Bridges (left) stars with Ricky Wittman and Susan Saint James in a TV movie called 'The Kid From Nowhere.' "I had seen a picture," says Bridges, who also directs this movie. "In which a normal kid played a retarded kid. I felt that was in terrible taste and I was determined to use a really mentally retarded kid."

Bridges and back to Brody. Bridges decided early on to use a retarded child, if he possibly could. "I had seen a picture," he says, "in which a normal kid played a retarded kid. I felt that was in terrible taste, and I was determined to use a really mentally retarded kid."

He told Cates of his idea. Cates told him it would be risky because they had only a 19-day shooting schedule, and if the boy turned out to be a problem, that could put the whole project in jeopardy.

It was Brody who recommended Ricky Wittman to Bridges.

"Ricky was a former pupil of mine," Brody says. "He's now E.M.R. — educable mentally retarded. He can read at the beginning first-grade level. I knew that he would be able to concentrate, which is rare in people of this sort (Ricky has Down's Syndrome.) And I felt he wouldn't be distracted by the camera."

Woman Miner

The Work Is A Piece Of Cake, Despite Rats, Pits, Pinches From Co-Workers

SAINT CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (UPI) — After waiting on tables, Linda Sabo has found coal mining a piece of cake — despite the pits, the rats and the pinches from co-workers.

A veteran of more than three years at Saginaw Mines, Mrs. Sabo, 38, is now the only woman at that mine and one of the few women miners in Ohio. She hasn't just adjusted to the grimy, back-bending work 4 1/2 miles underground. She likes it.

"Waitressing is much harder," she says. "You have to take a lot of abuse from the customers and the boss. They make you work overtime all the time, for no extra money."

As a waitress, Mrs. Sabo says, she cleared $65 every two weeks, plus maybe another $100 in tips. Mining six days a week, she takes home $725 every two weeks.

There's the sense of pioneering too. "It's funny how people react," she says. "I had to fill out some papers for a loan and the guy goes, 'What do you do?' I said, 'I'm a coal miner,' and he says, 'No, not what your husband does. You!'"

Mrs. Sabo met the man who became her third husband at the mine. She says meeting Ray Sabo was one of the fringe benefits.

"I had to win him over," she says. "The first time we met he told the boss, 'Don't ever put me with her again.' "It was a Saturday and we were doing dead work, cleanup. It was my first time and the boss was overly protective. You have to lift these heavy bags of rock dust and throw it around, but he told me to just sit down and have some coffee.

"I kept saying 'Shouldn't I be doing something?' and he said, 'No, no.' So, I'm sitting."

Mrs. Sabo, the mother of six children, has gotten good at coping with rude behavior. She laughs about "dirty old coal miners" and shakes her head over the men who turn off the lamps on their hats so you can't see who it is. Then they run up behind and pinch you on the breast or the rear."

When a miner on an earlier shift hung a nude pinup in the shuttle car, Mrs. Sabo just penciled in a dress. She nicknamed the miner who insisted on calling her "Puss," "Boots."

"At first it bothered me, especially the language," Mrs. Sabo says. "But you got to let it pass. If you called a man out every time something happened, the mine'd be down all the time. I laughed it off or stayed away."

She added, "You can understand it (the harassment). Coal mining is known as a tough job. When a woman is doing it, that makes the men look less tough."

"It is tough. But women can do the work with all the automation they have. In the pick and shovel days, maybe not."

"I've got muscles," she says, rolling up a sleeve. "At first I had to drag the 50-pound bags of rock dust, because I didn't like to ask for help. Now I can just chuck them up under my arm and throw it out. I can carry two on my back."

She is practical about other inconveniences in the mine too — the rats, for example, "some of them the size of small pups." She feeds them meat out of her lunch sandwich.

"Rats mean the area is safe. I'm happy to see them. If you see rats running, you better get going, too."

Learn A Language By Doing, Expert Says

By the Editors of Psychology Today

Roughly 98 percent of Americans never get beyond the first two years of studying a foreign language. The reason for the high drop-out rate, according to a psychologist at California's San Jose State University, is that conventional language teaching methods "thoroughly traumatize most beginners."

The trauma is needless, says the psychologist, James J. Asher. Over the last 20 years, he has developed an alternative teaching method. It seems to show that learning a language can be, as Asher puts it, "stress-free."

He believes conventional teaching forces students to speak and memorize words that their experience tells them are meaningless. If an instructor of Japanese tells students that "suware" means "sit," Asher says "the students know from long personal experience that sit means sit."

They then "evaluate the utterances as noises that have no validity." The sounds may be stored in short-term memory, but rarely enter into permanent memory.

In Asher's method, students learn to comprehend a foreign language viscerally, before they speak it, just as they learned their own language as infants. Asher calls his method the Total Physical Response technique, or TPR.

At home, Asher points out, parents and caretakers typically do not make children speak right away, but let them show they understand language when they follow a command or request. For example, a parent may say, "Where is your teddy bear? Go find your teddy bear." The child soon attaches concrete, physical meanings to words.

Asher's students also learn by acting on a series of commands.

A lesson in Japanese, for example, starts with students seated on either side of the instructor. The instructor says "tate" (stand up), but the students, instead of repeating the word after him, as conventional language lessons require, follow his example and stand.

Then the instructor says "suware" (sit down) and sits down, again followed by the students.

Soon the class is following commands such as "hishire" (run) and "tomare" (stop). "Within minutes," Asher says, "a skillful instructor can achieve near-perfect, long-term comprehension for utterances such as, Stand. Walk to the chalkboard and write your name."

To keep the sessions interesting, instructors try to vary the commands to make them playful, bizarre and silly: "Put the chalk on your head and walk to the door;" "Give me your wristwatch, walk around the table and scream."

As the sessions go on, the commands become more sophisticated. But not until after 20 hours of training does Asher let his students speak. At that point they reverse roles with the instructor, uttering commands to manipulate his behavior and that of other students.

"As with an infant learning a first language," Asher says, "pronunciation is far from perfect," but like parents, the instructors do not correct it if the meaning is intelligible. Gradually, Asher has found, the pronunciation improves.

Asher tested his method against techniques in which students heard Japanese words and either (1) just watched the instructor obey the commands; (2) heard his English translation; or (3) read the translation in a booklet.

Students learning by all four methods came back in two weeks for a re-test. Members of the TPR group were able to understand and act out 94 percent of the single words they had learned and 91 percent of the short sentences. In contrast, the other three groups ranged from 66 to 85 percent recall for single words, and from 60 to 81 percent for short sentences.

Similarly good results have been obtained for Russian. Other tests have shown the method works well with school children.

TPR was developed with the support of the State of California and such federal agencies as the U.S. Office of Education and the Office of Naval Research. It is now being used by several thousand language teachers in the United States and elsewhere around the world.

Cellmate Of Hanging Victim Contradicts Police

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A man who spent several hours in an adjoining cell with former Long Beach State football star Ron Settles, who suburban police said hanged himself with a jail mattress cover, has testified at a coroner's inquest the cells didn't have mattress covers.

Settles was arrested June 2 and charged with assault with a deadly weapon on a police officer, possession of cocaine and refusing to identify himself. Three hours after he was booked, he was found hanging in his cell with a mattress cover around his neck, police said.

Bernard Bradley, arrested on March 30

— three days before Settles — said Monday he distinctly remembered having a conversation with a man who was released from cell No. 1 in the suburban Signal Hill jail — the same cell in which Settles was found hanging — the day before Settles arrived.

"I was talking with the guy and I told him there wasn't a mattress pad or a blanket in my cell," said Bradley. "He told me there wasn't a cover or blanket in his cell either. None of us were ever issued mattress covers. I never saw one in that jail."

Bradley was taken out of the police station and into a Long Beach court for arraignment about 2 p.m. on June 2. Settles was found dead, police said, about 3 p.m.

"On my way out I walked past Settles' cell," Bradley said, "and he was sitting on his bunk, leaning back against the wall. I looked in and talked to him for a minute, and I'm absolutely sure there was no mattress pad on that bunk. There was nothing on that bunk."

Bradley also supported claims of Settles' relatives and friends the 21-year-old football star would never have considered taking his own life.

"He was asking me about how to get out of jail, posting bail and all that," Bradley said. "He said he'd never been in jail before and he was scared. He wanted to get out of jail. He sure never talked about killing himself."

During his booking, Settles was severely beaten about the head and neck by at least two Signal Hill policemen. Chief Gaylord Wert initially said Settles had only been struck on his thigh with a nightstick when he became violent inside the police station, but later recanted the story and admitted the beating occurred.

Earlier in the day, a witness to Settles' arrest said two police officers put their guns to Settles' head while picking him up for a minor traffic violation.

Gloria Zabala said she witnessed Settles' arrest while waiting for a bus on a busy street. She said Officer Jerry Lee Brown, the main arresting officer, asked Settles for his driver's license and car registration but the football star refused to give him either.

An argument then ensued. Mrs. Zabala said, with Brown at one point calling Settles an "asshole." Moments later, another patrol car arrived at the scene and two more officers walked to Settles car. After a brief "tug-of-war" with Settles trying to keep his car door closed and the officers trying to pull it open, she said, Settles was dragged out of his car.

"Then the two officers drew their guns and placed them on either side of his head," Mrs. Zabala continued. "The guns were right against the man's temples."

Settles was then handcuffed, put in the second police car and taken away, she said.

11 Plead Guilty In Circuit Court

By BRITT SMITH
Herald Staff Writer

Eleven persons pleaded guilty in Circuit Court in Sanford Monday to crimes ranging from attempted welfare fraud to battery on a police officer. Defendants and their offenses follow:

—Connie J. Powell, 21, address unknown, retail theft. Powell was accused of stealing a $190 automatic telephone answering system from Burdines in the Altamonte Mall on June 10.

—Polly Ann Huggins, 21, Welsh Road, Apopka, grand theft. The charge against Huggins stemmed from a June 23 incident at the Caselberry K-Mart in which she stole $160 worth of auto parts and clothing.

—Beverly Branch, 21, 816 Valencia Court, Sanford, no contest, attempted welfare fraud. On June 27, 1979, Branch reportedly told welfare officials that she was unemployed when in fact she was working for Rocal Industries on Airport Boulevard.

—William Lee, 22, 214 Temple Ave., Fern Park, no contest, battery. Lee was accused of breaking into the home of his ex-girlfriend Sandra Collins, 2961 Red Bug Road, Casselberry, on April 27 and beat her.

—Keith Elliott Hasty, 18, 836 Church Ave., Longwood, battery on a police officer. Hasty reportedly choked and punched a Longwood policeman who was investigating a possible burglary.

—Jeffrey M. Dunn, 19, 2650 Oak Ave., Sanford, possession of marijuana. Dunn was arrested June 12 after police officers found several dozen marijuana plants growing in his yard.

—Keith Alan Andre, 21, 1110 W. Tulane Drive, Altamonte Springs, petty theft of a case of pastry from Kentucky Fried Chicken on State Road 436 and Interstate 4, Altamonte Springs.

—Mark Paul Engelkins, 21, 610 Baywood Drive, Sanford, petty theft. Engelkins was accused of breaking into the Sanford Garden Club building on U.S. Highway 17-92 on May 19 and spraying paint on the interior and sealing an American flag.

—Jack Donald White, 18, 802 Little Wekiva Trail, Altamonte Springs, unauthorized temporary use of a vehicle. White attempted to steal a boat motor belonging to Charles Morse, Altamonte Springs, on May 4.

—Shirri Ford, 23, DeLand, attempted forgery. On Sept. 5, Ford allegedly used a stolen check in the amount of $256.06 to make a purchase at the Zayre's department store, Sanford.

—Elmo Dean Goodson, 19, of 900 N. Lake Triplett Drive, Casselberry, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. Goodson was stopped by Casselberry policeman Ogle Damron on June 15 for suspicion of drunk driving. During an ensuing investigation, a pistol was found on the floorboard of the car. The pistol had been stolen from a Winter Springs home three days before, according to court records.

Sentencing for all 11 defendants was deferred pending completion of investigations into their backgrounds.

Gas Guzzlers

Return To Big Car Demand Seen Unlikely

DETROIT (UPI) — One auto industry nightmare — that people will again demand big cars when the current sales slump ends — appears unlikely to become a reality.

There's a precedent for that fear; it happened when the industry pulled out of its 1974-75 recession.

Forces also are developing in the car market that might be interpreted as setting the stage for a big car resurgence.

But so far, there is no sign large numbers of consumers want to abandon the small cars they abruptly turned to in April of 1979 when the Iranian revolution provoked gasoline supply shortages and huge price increases in the United States.

Through the first seven months of 1981, small cars accounted for a larger share of overall U.S. auto sales than ever before. Compact, subcompact and small, sporty models, including imports, accounted for 62.2 percent of the market in that period, up from 61.3 percent in the January-July period of 1980. By contrast, small cars in 1970 were 32.8 percent of the car market.

Sales statistics like those have prompted U.S. automakers to concentrate most of their resources in small car development. In some cases, the big car market has been abandoned.

Chrysler Corp. no longer builds standard-sized cars. The Pontiac Division of General Motors Corp. will drop its large models for the 1982 year. Chevrolet is planning a similar action in 1983.

Consequently, it could be something of a disaster if Americans abandoned small cars, the way they did in 1976-77 when memories of the 1973 oil embargo and its gasoline lines faded.

CHARLTON COLLEY

Rotary District Governor To Visit Sanford On Monday

The District Governor of Rotary District No. 698 will visit the Sanford Rotary Club and address the club luncheon on Monday, Aug. 31. He will also conduct a club assembly in the Civic Center at 8 p.m. that day.

Charlton Colley was elected Governor of the newly-formed District 698 at the International Convention in Sao Paulo, Brazil. He first joined the Rotary at the Hialeah-Miami Springs club in 1963 and served that club as secretary and director.

In 1975, Colley moved to Winter Park and joined the Orange County East club. He has served as secretary, director and extension counselor. He became a Paul Harris Fellow in 1979.

Colley has worked for 15 years in the savings and loan industry and 10 years in the mortgage banking field. He has been president of the Florida Home Mortgage Company since 1975. He and his wife, Pat, have a daughter, Doreen.

Controllers' Hours Cut

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Work hours of air traffic controllers at Tampa International Airport will be cut from 48 hours to 48 hours Sunday, tower chief Richard Allen said today.

Supervisors and controllers who remained on the job when the nationwide walkout began Aug. 3 had been on a 10-hour day, six-day work week.

But Allen said enough personnel are on the job and air traffic is moving smoothly enough to cut back in the work schedule, having controllers work four 10-hour days and one 8-hour day each week.

"We know exactly what we have to work with now," Allen said. "We know that we need."

He said about 33 people now are handling the air traffic control work, compared to 65 before the walkout. Allen said 18 are regular controllers, 17 of them members of the union, and the rest are supervisory personnel.

Allen said some controllers also are being sent home early from their 10-hour shifts at times when there are enough personnel on hand to handle the traffic.

The controllers at Tampa International are handling a reduced commercial schedule and military flights to and from MacDill Air Force Base no longer are handled by the Tampa tower.

Allen said military flights are assigned certain sectors of Tampa's airspace for

ABILENE, Texas (UPI) — Millionaire oilman Jack Grimm said today that color photographs taken of the North Atlantic ocean floor this summer "definitely show a propeller of the Titanic."

Grimm said he believes the propeller is still attached to the wreckage of the White Star Liner which struck an iceberg and sank April 14, 1912, killing more than 1,500 people.

The pictures indicate the propeller is approximately 16 feet in diameter

— the same size of the Titanic's propellers, he said.

"I'm certain we located the Titanic. The propeller blades are suspended well above the ocean floor and that means to me and my associates that the propeller is still attached to the shaft."

"The blades are definitely not rusting on the ocean bottom and it's obvious they have to be suspended from something."

Grimm emphasized that his team of experts agrees with him in his conclusion that the blades are part of the propeller.

"Two blades in particular are visible," he said. "They are sticking up (off the ocean bottom) and are quite easily identifiable."

The color photos, taken at a depth of more than 12,000 feet with exotic new deep-sea photo equipment, have been studied since the second phase of Grimm's two-year expedition concluded in July.

Grimm said the photo studies are now encouraging him and his second intervals for several days in the course of dragging operations over the area where the ship went down.

Grimm chartered the Texas A&M Research Vessel Gyre this summer for his second attempt to locate the sunken luxury liner and recover the fortune in gold and jewels believed to be in the safe in the purser's cabin.

Grimm said the photo studies are now encouraging him and his associates to consider another venture next summer in the hope of actually boarding the wreckage through the use of a deep-sea submersible known as the Alvin.

The craft carries a crew of two and has already been tested successfully at ocean depths of 15,000 feet.

"I'm more confident now than ever that we can accomplish our objective now that we have located the ship," Grimm said.

'They Want To Go Home'

'Free Cuba' Group Reportedly Demoralized

BLUE HILLS, Turks and Caicos Islands (UPI) — A group of 57 Cubans who plan to set up a "Free Cuba" government in Guantanamo Bay was dashed when their boat ran aground on a tiny British island and are reportedly "demoralized" and "want to go home."

"They've been sleeping on the lawn in the back of the police station for a week now," said Sgt. Don Grant, head of the small police contingent in Blue Hills on the tiny British Colony island of Providenciales.

"They're demoralized and they want to go home," he said.

The Cubans, he and other witnesses said, have frequently engaged in fist-fights among themselves and are regular customers at the bar at the island's tiny airport terminal, located near the docks and the police station.

"They're selling their watches to buy drinks," observed one bemused local resident.

Amid much fanfare and publicity, the Cubans had left Miami and headed toward the U.S. base at Guantanamo Bay, on Cuba's eastern tip, where they planned to set up a "government in exile" even though the Navy said it would arrest and send back anyone who tries to land there.

Their boat hit a reef last Tuesday off this 15-by-five mile island 100 miles from the British Coast and have been awaiting another Cuban-chartered boat to come and pick them up ever since.

Watergate burglar Frank Sturgis, a Cuban who flew in last week after the Cubans' 73-foot fishing boat ran aground and eventually broke up, left Monday for an undisclosed destination on a plane, saying another boat was on its way to take the group to Guantanamo.

The boat, called the Captain Jack, was due Monday morning but was delayed by bad weather and is expected today.

Grant, who said "I'm getting very tired of it all," reported that he had not been able to find a single witness who heard what some of the Cubans called an explosion that they claimed destroyed their boat as it sat on the reef.

Wilfredo Navarro, head of Cubans United who has been directing the whole operation from Miami, claimed that Castro's commandos bombed the wreck.

22 ways you can use less electricity. Right now.

1. Set your central air thermostat at 78° or above.
2. If you have window units, use "low cool" and the lower numbered settings.
3. Turn your air conditioner off completely when you're away from home for a few hours or longer.
4. Clean or change your air conditioner filters monthly.
5. Use fans—ceiling, box or oscillating—and set your air conditioner thermostat even higher for greater savings.
6. Use fans whenever you can instead of air conditioning.
7. Install ceiling insulation of at least R19 value.
8. With the circuit breaker off, lower the thermostat on your water heater to 140° if you have a dishwasher, 120° if you don't.
9. Install a water heater insulation blanket.
10. If you're away from home for more than 48 hours, shut off your water heater.
11. Put solar film on all windows exposed to direct sunlight.
12. Weatherstrip windows and doors, and seal cracks with caulking.
13. Install flow restrictors in your showers to hold down the use of hot water.
14. Run your washer or dishwasher only with full loads.
15. Turn off appliances, TVs, stereos, etc. when not in use.
16. Bake several items at once, and in the cooler part of the day—morning or evening.
17. Use a microwave oven instead of a conventional oven whenever possible.
18. If you have a swimming pool, use an automatic timer to operate your pool pump more economically.
19. Clean the condenser coils on the back or bottom of your refrigerator twice a year.
20. Keep refrigerator door openings to a minimum.
21. Keep your refrigerator temperature at 38-40 degrees. Set your freezer at 0 degrees.

Second Best Richmond Scorches Seminole For World Series Crown

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

"It should have been a one, two, three inning."

Richard Coffey rationally pointed this out Wednesday morning when trying to put Tuesday night's Bronco World Series championship game in Lafayette, La. in perspective.

What should have been and what really happens, however, are usually two different things, which is why Richmond, Cal. hung a 13-3 beating on Seminole Tuesday for the Bronco title. "We lost the game in the first inning," muttered Coffey. "After that we couldn't play our game. It just psyched the kids out."

The inning started simply enough with a ground ball back to starting pitcher Terry Miller. The Sanford righthander, though, booted the ball for an error.

A fly ball to right fielder Tracy Turner also was dropped and the Broncos were in real trouble. Richmond went on to score five runs to command a lead it never relinquished.

The Broncos bucked back in their half of the inning. Shortstop Kirk Rozek singled and stole second base. He advanced to third base when Jimmy Waring grounded out to the pitcher.

First baseman Mark Coffey followed with a single to left field to chase home Coffey with Seminole's first run.

Coffey the manager, had yanked Miller in the first inning in favor of Kelly Hysell. The hard-throwing righthander limited the Californians to a single run in the second, but the Broncos still trailed, 6-1. Hysell helped himself by drawing a walk in the bottom of the second. He stole second base and went to third two outs later on a ground ball to third base by Dale Stevens.

Left fielder Mickey Helms was then nailed by a pitch. Helms broke for second base on the next pitch and Hysell alertly streaked home with the second Seminole run. It was his second steal of home in two days.

Rozek then rapped his second of three hits for the night—a double—to right center to score Helms and pull the Broncos within 6-3 after just two innings.

"We had the momentum after the second," said Coffey. "But then we go out and make simple, routine mistakes to give them the ballgame." Waring misjudged a fly ball in the third inning and California went on to score four more runs to post a 10-3 bulge.

Center fielder Bernard Lee crashed a three-run home run in the frame for the big blow. Lee had three hits and drove in five runs for Richmond. Seminole helped the Californians with seven errors, while Richmond didn't commit a mistake.

To further dampen the Seminole spirits, the Broncos loaded the bases in the fourth inning, but failed to dent the scoring column against starter Fred Bryant.

Stevens rapped a single to open the frame and Helms reached when shortstop Charlotte Wiley came across second base too early to take the force-out throw. Rozek then dropped a bunt single to fill the bags.

Bryant, however, wriggled off the hook when he struck out Waring on a squeeze-bunt attempt, got Coffey on an easy pop fly to third base and induced Taubensee to ground out to second base.

Coffey conceded Richmond the hitting edge as the California sluggers piled two runs in the fourth and one more in the fifth inning to halt the game by the 10-run rule, but still felt his team was better.

"They were better hitters, definitely," asserted Coffey. "They were free-swingers. They got up there and didn't worry about anything. If you threw them a fastball, they'd cream it. "But that lousy first inning psychologically took us out of the game. It should have been a one, two . . . ."

RUNNING RAMS

Lake Mary's Matt Palumbo gets in a little work prior to Saturday's 9th Annual Seminole Community College Cross Country Jamboree. Palumbo and teammate Mark Blythe (rear) are two of Coach Mike Gibson's young runners for the new high school which opens Monday. See Thursday's Evening Herald for complete details on the season's first meet which is also open to the community.

Rookies Revive Broncos

COACH DAN REEVES: "I'm an optimistic person. Since we were 8-8 last year, realistically I feel we can improve with the addition of some rookies. Denver kicked our tails (when I was with the Cowboys) at Dallas last year, so I know we have the talent. Attitude plays a big part. I'll concentrate on offense."

OFFENSE
PASSING Craig Morton has 18 years in the NFL, but he still rates first shot at the QB job because Matt Robinson faltered and rookie Mark Herrmann needs to beef up a little. Big problem is finding competent set of receivers. Haven Moses is fading at 35. Rick Upchurch was more dangerous returning kicks. Riley Odums let himself get pudgy. FAIR to POOR

RUNNING No more shuffling of whole crew of backs in and out like before. Reeves wants to settle on two starters, visualizes ex-Chief Tony Reed as one. Rick Parros, hurt in '80, could surprise at fullback, pushing Jim Jensen. Rob Lytle will probably emerge as swing man. FAIR to POOR

BLOCKING One of the more stable areas on Bronco squad. They have three good tacklers in Claude Minor, Dave Studdard and Kelvin Clark and have added rookie Ken Lanier. Bill Bryan is solid center. One change might find Keith Bishop pushing Paul Howard out of guard position, but Tom Glasick sticks staunchly at other guard. Watch Lanier's development. GOOD

DEFENSE
LINE The 3-4 alignment remains in force, and strategist Joel Collier will still alternate units. Rulon Young, who came strong as rookie, could jump into starting role. They have two tough cookies for nose guard in Rubin Carter and Don Latimer. The mass rush is just fine. GOOD

LINEBACKING They were devastated by injuries in '80, with Bob Swenson lost and Randy Gradishar gimpy. But it wasn't all a loss since Rob Nairne and Larry Evans got chance to develop skills. Now Swenson has returned, and he's one of finest outside backers in game. Gradishar is in all-pro class, and Tom Jackson remains an exuberant force on defense. GOOD

SECONDARY What used to be strength of Bronco defense has become suspect. All-pro Louis Wright on left corner slipped a notch, but he's young enough (28) to regain form. Aaron Kyle might not be able to hold off Perry Smith at other corner. And 33-year-old Bill Thompson finds himself hounded by top draftee Dennis Smith, strong safety of future. FAIR

SPECIAL TEAMS
KICKING New coaching staff is perfectly satisfied with sidwinding Fred Steinfort as placekicker—he was 28-for-34 on field goals—and Lake Prestridge, AFC punting leader. VERY GOOD

PROSPECTUS
Too many question marks on that offensive unit and introduction of a new style (including shotgun formation on passing downs) will bog Broncos down, at least in '81. They'll have to rely as always too heavily on the defense.

PREDICTION Last in AFC West, but not hopeless.

Seahawks Scratch Toward Better '81

COACH JACK PATERA: "We are not a championship team, so we have to scratch for what we get. It's important to know not only that we lost, but why we lost. We lost five games in the last three minutes. To turn this around, we have to learn how to win, to perform consistently."

OFFENSE
PASSING The bloom is slightly off Jim Zorn, who was running for his life in '80 (44 sacks). If he showed a tendency to settle in the pocket, there was no pocket. Big year by Zorn is a must. He has fine outside receivers in Steve Largent and Sam McCullum. Brian Peets, who broke leg, rejoins TE corps of John Sawyer and Mark Bell. Steve Taible is spare. GOOD

RUNNING Sherman Smith's loss after three games last season changed character of Seahawks. Dan Doornink and Jim Jodal were just stopgaps—three yards and cloud of sweat (on artificial turf). One of them will line up along Smith, who carries main threat, unless rookie David Hughes surprises. FAIR

BLOCKING Failure to hold out pass rushers put offense out of kilter. So there'll be big concentration on sealing off protection. It may result in rookie guard Bill Dugan pushing out veteran Bob Newton at right guard. The solid guys up front are Tom Lynch at other guard and center John Yarno. Ron Fainik has been pleasant surprise at tackle. FAIR

DEFENSE
LINE Cast is pretty much the same, except that Jacob Green, with year under his belt and coming back from knee injury, could develop into a premier pass-rush marauder. GOOD

LINEBACKING Again, the same people figure to get most of the action. That means steady Terry Beeson in the middle, with Joe Norman, a little more agile, replacing him on passing downs. Michael Jackson and Keith Butler are both swift pursuers and good hitters. FAIR to GOOD

SECONDARY Ken Easley, the prime prospect of the 1980 college crop, is the big news. Niche has already been carved out for him at free safety. If he lives up to billing, Seahawks will thrive on pass coverage. His arrival means John Harris moves to strong safety. Keith Simpson back to a corner opposite Dave Brown, and Kerry Justin in reserve. GOOD

SPECIAL TEAMS
KICKING Efen Herrera is doing just fine, thank you, as competent field-goal booter and even catching a pass now and then. Herman "Thunderfoot" Weaver keeps warding off punting rivals. GOOD

RETURNS Will Lewis, a spare cornerback, did a good job as main man on both punt and kickoff returns. FAIR to GOOD

PROSPECTUS
Last year's dropoff to 4-12 was completely unexpected. Team just got into losing syndrome and couldn't snap out of it. If Sherman Smith stays whole, it'll mean a lot. Patera and staff are definitely on the spot.
PREDICTION Fourth in AFC West, but closer to .500.

Knights' One-Two Punch Readies For Presbyterian

The University of Central Florida's one-two punch of Don Jonas and Sam Weir has been running the Knights through the paces in preparation for the 1981 gridiron campaign. Jonas, who has piloted the Knight ship for two seasons, was joined by his old Orlando Panther buddy Weir as a co-coach for the upcoming year.

The season opens on September 12 against tough NAIA power Presbyterian College (South Carolina) in the Tangerine Bowl, and concludes on November 21 with the first UCF-Bethune-Cookman clash, also set for the T-Bowl.

Knights Coach Jonas, who has led the team since UCF started football play in 1979, calls this "easily the toughest schedule we've faced yet," with other games against Division II teams Alabama A&M and Millersville State, and Division III opponents Elizabeth City State, Hampden-Sydney, Miles, Millsaps, Savannah State and West Georgia. Presbyterian is in NAIA Division II and Bethune-Cookman is in the NCAA's Division I-AA.

Last year's UCF team went 4-1, concluding the season with a tremendous comeback victory against Emory and Henry. UCF scored 18 points in the final quarter for the victory. The first year's team enjoyed a 6-3 season in 1978.

Thirty-six lettermen return this year, including 12 starters from the 1980 squad. Leading returning players include Jeff Froehlich (Winter Park), who caught 26 passes for 275 yards last season; Mike Carter (Melbourne), a District III Academic All-American who led the team's tight ends in receptions; Turner Davis (Sanford), a tailback who averaged 4.5 yards per carry in 1980; Bob Burkhardt (Maitland), who is expected to start at quarterback after seeing limited playing time in past seasons because of injuries; senior tackles Ed Gantner (Orlando) and Mike Sommerfeld (Hialeah), and linebackers Bill Giovannetti (Casselberry), Eddie James (Lake Worth) and Rick Maynard (St. Petersburg).

Aspesi Named Wrestling Coach

Michael Aspesi, a three-time Florida State Freestyle Wrestling Champion while a student at the University of Central Florida, has been named UCF's New Wrestling Coach. He replaces Joe Corao, who resigned for personal reasons after serving as Coach for the past three years.

Aspesi, Associate Coach of the Knights' team last year and Assistant Coach the two years before, was a star athlete in junior high school and high school in Centereach, New York. He earned recognition for football, soccer, baseball, track and gymnastics, in addition to winning many wrestling honors. He was named to the All-Long Island News Football Team as a defensive back and was Suffolk County Wrestling Champion.

He wrestled for Suffolk County (N.Y.) Community College, where he earned his A.A.S. Degree, and was named New York Junior College Champion and Long Island Freestyle Champion. He received widespread recognition while wrestling for UCF, and was also named the 1980 Orlando Golden Gloves (Boxing) Champion.

Aspesi is married to the former Janet Davenport of Titusville.

Lamp's One-Hitter Lights Up White Sox

By United Press International
Milwaukee shortstop Robin Yount spoiled Chicago hurler Dennis Lamp's bid for a no-hitter Thursday night, hitting a 3-2 sinker into shallow left-center.
Lamp pitched hitless ball right up to the ninth inning for a White Sox 5-1 victory. Yount scored on a pair of infield outs for the only Brewer run in the game.
Afterward, Lamp said at first he could only ride with each pitch.
"I just told myself I was going to take them one at a time," he said. "Tonight I just went after them as hard as I could, as long as I could. I just went out there with the idea of challenging them."
But then he became intently aware of the possibility of a no-hitter. "I felt I was going to get it after the fifth inning."
Yount said he went to the plate "just trying to make contact. The guy struck me out twice before. I was just trying to hit the ball."

Chicago Manager Tony LaRussa was happy for Lamp.

"Against any club that's good," the manager said. "Against this club (Milwaukee), it's an achievement."

Rangers 6, Blue Jays 1
In Toronto, Ferguson Jenkins, 3-6, held the Blue Jays to four hits in notching his 26th career victory — his first complete game of the season. Buddy Bell blasted a solo homer in the sixth.

Tigers 4, Royals 3
At Detroit, Lance Parrish lined a one-out single in the bottom of the 10th to score pinch-runner Mick Kelleher and give the Tigers their 10th win in their last 11 games.

Twins 3, Yankees 0
John Castino socked an RBI triple in New York, in a two-run second inning as Darrell Jackson, 2-2, and Jerry Kosman combined on a seven-hitter.

Indians 2, A's 0
Len Barker tured a three-hitter and Duane Kuiper drove in two runs to lead the Indians over the A's, in Oakland.

Angels 8, Red Sox 7
In Anaheim, Calif., Bobby Grich looped a broken-bat single to left field with one out in the 10th to lead California from behind and lift Don Aase, 4-3.

Orioles 6, Mariners 5
At Seattle, Jose Morales hit a pinch-hit, three-run homer with two out in the 12th. Tim Lincecum, 2-1, earned the victory with two innings of one-hit relief.

One-Leg Carter Rips Reds, Raines Slaps Single, Double

By United Press International
Gary Carter loves playing ball so much he'd probably do it on one leg. In fact, that's exactly what he's doing.

"It will cause some pain," Carter said Tuesday night after driving in six runs, four with a grand slam, to lead the Montreal Expos to a 3-1 rout of the Cincinnati Reds. "But, I will keep on playing. It will be some time before it's healed, though."

Carter suffered what turned out to be a torn ligament in his right ankle last week when Tony Scott crashed into him at home plate in Houston. He sat out two games then decided helping the Expos win the second half should put him in the lineup.

"It's an injury that doesn't require surgery or anything like that," he said. "I'm just very happy I was able to play tonight."

So are the Expos. His first-inning double produced two runs and keyed a three-run outburst in support of Scott Sanderson, 7-4.

"It was nice to get that early lead," said Sanderson. "I have to give the hitters full credit for the victory."

Cincinnati starter Mike LaCoss was rocked for seven runs in three innings and fell to 2-7.

"I have nothing to say," said Cincinnati Manager John McNamara.

Braves 12, Phillies 2
At Philadelphia, Bruce Benedict hit a first-inning grand slam and Chris Chambliss drove in five runs to back Phil Niekro's 23rd career victory. The Phillies were playing their first game without Manager Dallas Green, who was suspended indefinitely over Monday night's bumping incident with umpire Steve Fields.

Cubs 4, Padres 3
Monday night's game in Philadelphia with the Braves.

In Chicago, Bill Buckner's two-run single climaxed a three-run fifth to help Ken Kravec, who pitched a no-hitter for the first five innings. It was his first win since June 11, 1980, when he was with the Chicago White Sox.

Mets 2, Astros 1
Mookie Wilson greeted reliever Joe Sambito with a tie-breaking home run in the eighth, at home. Mike Marshall, 1-0, gained his first victory since being signed by the Mets last week.

Giants 4, Cardinals 2
In St. Louis, Enos Cabell's RBI single in the fifth snapped a 2-2 tie. It drove in Joe Pettini who had doubled and moved to third on a sacrifice by Tom Griffin.

Dodgers 9, Pirates 7
Pinch-hitter Rick Monday singled home Dusty Baker with the winning run, and Bill Russell drove in insurance run in a two-run 11th inning, at Pittsburgh.

'Little Bit A Fool' Green Suspended

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Philadelphia Manager Dallas Green says acting "a little bit like a fool" is part of baseball.

As of Tuesday night's game between the Philadelphia Phillies and the Atlanta Braves, Green was suspended indefinitely because of his decision to put his words into action during Monday night's game in Philadelphia with the Braves.

National League President Chub Feeney suspended Green, pending further investigation, including a review of the game films.

Green and shortstop Larry Bowa were ejected in the ninth inning of Monday's game by second-base umpire Steve Fields after he ruled Bowa tripped second base during an apparent inning-ending double play.

Bowa was ejected for slamming his glove to the ground and bumping Fields in contesting the call. Green was ejected for bumping Fields, knocking off his (Fields') hat.

Rinker Schedules Fall Class, Goodman Here Thursday

Florida Baseball Schools' Wes Rinker has scheduled 10 Saturday classes for boys ages 14 and up beginning Sept. 13 at Sanford Memorial Stadium.

Rinker has helped the development of Sanford's professional baseball players Tim Raines and David Wiggins through his diversified program which includes video taping and one-on-one instruction.

The fee is $85. The 10 sessions will be a prelude to the annual fall league which includes teams from Rollins College, Seminole Community College and Rinker's own Red and Blue teams.

The fall league will begin Sept. 22 and be played on Tuesday and Thursday nights as well as Saturday and Sunday afternoons. SCC is defending champion.

Rinker's "Dugout Club" will meet Thursday night at 8:30. Scheduled guests are Pittsburgh Pirate scout Fred Goodman and Philadelphia Phillie scout Andy Semnick. Call 322-1046 for information.

Men's Softball Organizes

There will be an organizational meeting for anyone interested in playing in the Sanford Men's Softball League, Wednesday at the Sanford Recreation Department office at 7 p.m.

Participants wishing to play "A" and "B" division softball should attend.

Royal's Frey Explains All-Star Mistake

NEW YORK (UPI) — You can work 30 years to earn a reputation and lose it in less than 30 seconds.

Or, putting it another way, isn't it funny how people can pat you on the back for being a near genius one day and write you off as some kind of dimwit the next.

Jimmy Frey, the manager of the Kansas City Royals who has been in professional baseball more than 30 years, has been second-guessed probably more than any other manager in the past few months.

It was Frey who guided the Royals into their first World Series and when his team ran away with the Western Division title by 13 games, you undoubtedly heard all the wonderful things they were saying about his ability to manage.

Suddenly, however, with the Royals finishing fifth this year, 12 games out in the first half, and struggling somewhat in the second, he is getting the other side of the coin.

He's catching a great deal of criticism about his managerial strategy. He heard it after the All-Star game when, as the American League manager, he ran out of players in the ninth inning, and was ripped again on TV the other day by Ron Luciano, the former umpire, who hit below the belt by saying, "If it's true a man learns by his mistakes, Jim Frey should be the greatest manager in history in a few years."

That was a low blow that was uncalled for. Luciano, I'm sure, also has made one or two mistakes in his time. Nobody enjoys being second-guessed.

Frey is no exception, but he takes it better than most people I know.

"Sometimes when you're second-guessed, there's basis for it," he agrees, "but a lot of times those people who second-guess you don't have all the information that we, as managers, have out there on the field."

"One of the biggest lessons I've learned in this business is that if you make a mistake, you'd better face up to it. I've always told that to my children and I tell my ballplayers the same thing."

Frey admits he was at fault for running out of players in the All-Star loss to the National League, but if you listen to his entire explanation, it comes out he wasn't as much at fault as he says he was.

Milton Richman

Before the game began, he had said he planned to have Fred Lynn pinch hit at some point in the game, then put him in center field and move Dave Winfield over from center to left. In Frey's mind, that would give the Americans a stronger outfield. Lynn, however, pulled himself from the game and went to the clubhouse. When Singleton came back to the dugout, I told him, "That's it, I'm gonna put Winfield in left field for you," Frey says. "I had already put Tony Armas' name to the side on the board just to make sure I wouldn't run out of players. After our half of the inning was over, I wanted to put Lynn in left center. I had already left."

"When Lynn didn't show, I could've announced the change yet so he wasn't officially out of the game. I could've waited a minute or so, but I put Armas in left and that was my mistake. Yes, I was embarrassed."

He remembers being traded from Austin to Fort Worth in 1956 and not having the train fare to go back to Fort Worth to pick up his belongings. Frey happened to be in Dallas at the time. Joe Schultz was managing the San Antonio club which was going home to along on the train with his players.

"Everytime the conductor came along to collect the tickets, I'd get up from my seat and go to the men's room or something like that," Frey recalls. "I didn't have a ticket. The conductor kept walking up and down and finally I couldn't avoid him anymore and he sat down next to me."

"You know," he said to me, "there's one fellow in this car who hasn't got a ticket. 'No kidding!' I said to him. 'I was just traded by the Austin club to Fort Worth and I'm going back there to get my gear.' He said, 'Uh, huh, but I just wanna tell you something. In the future, young man, be very careful about the way you travel on trains.' I said, 'Thank you, sir.' He never said a word to me about my not having a ticket."

Five Children Perish In South Dade Home Fire

HOMESTEAD, Fla. (UPI) — Five children — including two of a set of 3-year-old triplets — died in a fire that swept through a suburban home early this morning. The children perished as John and Barbara Dixon, parents of four of them and grandparents of the other, and neighbors tried unsuccessfully to get back into the flaming house to save them.

The family's two watchdogs, a bird dog and a boxer, kept one neighbor, Herman McCrary, away from windows at the back of the house. McCrary said he could hear the children screaming.

The Dixons and two other children escaped and were taken to James Archer Hospital. Their injuries did not appear serious, neighbors said.

Dade Metro fire investigators said the fire may have started in a living room air conditioner. Smoke woke the Dixons, who apparently believed it was not spreading rapidly and went outside.

While Dixon was trying to move his van from the driveway, flames burst through the windows and he, McCrary and Mrs. Dixon tried but failed to get back into the house to save the other children, McCrary said.

Men Can Jog Topless Again

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Topless jogging for men is again in the affluent oceanfront community of Palm Beach, maybe for once and for all.

U.S. District Judge Norman C. Roettger ruled Tuesday that an ordinance banning shirtless joggers in the town is unconstitutional. The ruling means that both a law used to ticket attorney Allen DeWeese Nov. 11, 1979, and a new one passed after the first statute was struck down are no longer in effect.

Pair Has Biting Problem

IDABEL, Okla. (UPI) — A woman has filed assault and battery charges against her dentist, who she claims forcibly removed her dentures from her mouth.

Dr. Curtis Brookover, 38, said patient Lee Ann Stoval refused to pay for a pair of Swiss porcelain dentures, so he went to her home in Bethel and pulled them out of the 53-year-old woman's mouth.

Brookover was charged late Monday with assault and battery in the unorthodox repossession, a spokeswoman for the district attorney's office said. Mrs. Stoval also has

$1,425 In Parking Tickets

MIAMI (UPI) — Jeri Eichenbaum explained that her bosses at the telephone company in Coral Gables simply don't provide enough employee parking spaces.

County Judge Harvey Baxter said that was her problem, not his and fined her $1,425 for 181 parking tickets covering the last three years.

"Buy yourself a lot in Coral Gables next to the phone company or get yourself a bike or a moped or a skateboard. It's going to be a lot cheaper," the judge told Miss Eichenbaum.

He ordered her to pay $200 immediately and $300 a month until the fine is paid off. If it isn't paid, he warned her she will be held in contempt of court.

Students Feeling Pinch

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — A state education official says Florida schools haven't been hurt by federal funding cutbacks yet, but students seeking college loans are already being affected.

Marshall Frink, director of the Department of Education's State and Federal Relations Office, told the Board of Regents Tuesday that for the 1981-82 school year, federal education support will drop 6 percent — about $12.4 million dollars.

"The future is dim. We know additional cuts are coming, but they haven't hit us yet," Frink said.

Many students seeking a Guaranteed Student Loan won't receive one because of the "sweeping changes" in financial aid following the budget cuts, Ernest Smith, director of the Student Financial Assistance Commission, told the board.

Jail Mixup: Inmate Sought

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Hillsborough County deputies were looking today for Milton Carr, who was mistakenly released from the county jail Monday in a mixup over names.

Sheriff's Maj. David Parrish said Louis Carr, 29, was to have been transferred from the stockade to the jail where he was to be released on his own recognizance while awaiting trial on several traffic charges.

But instead of Louis Carr, Milton Carr was transferred to the jail and was signed out.

Carr, who was serving a one-year sentence for violation of parole, apparently did not intentionally mislead officers because he signed his real name when checking out,

Seminole County Disaster Plan Given The Once-Over

By DARLENE JENNINGS
Herald Staff Writer

"When Hurricane David hit in 1979 we didn't know until six hours into the critical storm period what our problems were going to be," said Public Safety Director Gary Kaiser at Tuesday's Seminole County Commission work session.

Now, after the result of several months work, the public safety director has presented an emergency communications plan which would alert and prepare the county for a disaster.

The communication system described in a document as the Seminole County Emergency Operation Conditions, was passed out to most of the county's department heads.

The document was designed by Kaiser, Deputy Civil Defense Director Chuck Swanson and Disaster Preparedness

Coordinator Harry Pinkman. Details of each individual's responsibilities are also defined in the event of a natural or man-made emergency.

Basically, the plan calls for five-phase operating conditions with the chain of action beginning from an alert up to 72 hours in advance of a storm — for example, from the National Weather Service, Miami, or the National Warning Network, Denver, or from the State Network in Tallahassee.

From this point, the Public Safety Department would then notify the Seminole County Commission chairman and the county administrator.

Phase five of the plan is described as normal working conditions with phase one being the most crucial step in the plan. It is at this point that the county is actually operating within the emergency with as little as 0 to 12 hours prior notification.

Throughout the five phases, responsibilities or a check list of duties and a course of action, are suggested to coordinate the police, civil defense, and other agencies so the county is operating efficiently.

However, Kaiser says the plan is not without its problems. "Florida is the only state which does not provide for direct monetary state assistance for the program. Any assistance must be taken care of at the local level," Kaiser said.

"Also, the crisis relocation plan doesn't consider people flooded out of their homes in Seminole County, let alone people that would be coming in from the coast."

The county commission will now study the document to determine whether the department head roles overlap, and if so, how they can consolidate the responsibilities.

All-Night Event Gets Tentative Approval

Somewhere out there is an escape artist-magician looking for a place to try to break the two-day world record for continuous magic tricks.

So Tim Bell, manager of the All American Roller Rink on Douglas Road went in front of the Altamonte Springs City Commissioners to ask for permission to stay open for an all-nighter for the planned record breaking attempt.

Bell's rink is zoned by the city to close before or at 11 p.m.

Bell proposed that on Oct. 31, the rink be allowed to remain open from 11 p.m. until 7 a.m. on Nov. 1. He told commissioners that off-duty police officers will be present (at the rink's expense) and that the parking lot adjacent to a residential area will be kept under control at all times.

Meanwhile, Robert Labby, the magician, will be doing tricks to try to beat the record and set a new one. Roller rink personnel will keep an eye on him while the skaters are gone.

The commissioners voted 4 to 1 to allow Bell to stage his Halloween special, subject to police approval. The commissioners want to be assured by police that the event will not be a hindrance to residents nearby or the skaters themselves.

Bell said he's sure the evening will be a success.

"It may help to get kids off the street and into the rink. That should make it easier on the police that night."

All proceeds from the event will go to the Leukemia Foundation, according to Bell.

If police okay the event, at 7 a.m. on Oct. 30 the roller rink will open with Labby starting his magic tricks. The rink itself will not be open for skating or anything else — just as a vehicle for Labby, Bell said. Regular hours of 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. will be honored on Friday. During the time the rink is not in operation, concessions will not be operating, skates not rented and music not played, Bell added.

Commissioner Robert Reis said he voted against the proposal because of the lack of assurance that the police themselves will not be understaffed and overworked that night causing a breakdown in police protection. He also asked for a survey of area neighbors to see if they will be affected by the all-night event. — BARBARA FEARN

Household Runs Smoothly On Combined Effort Plan

By LOIS SMITH
 Herald Correspondent

"We have, what I refer to as a combined effort household," says Judy Evans. "A combined effort household is one in which all persons are actively involved with the routine of accomplishing tasks which make a home run smoothly," she said.

Judy and her husband Mike are newlyweds. They have been married 18 months. Judy has three children, Candy, 22, Richard, 18, Amy, 13 and two grandchildren, Kolesen and Stephanie. She is a Summa Cum Laude graduate of Seminole Community College.

Currently, she is employed, part-time, by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company as a clerical sales assistant. Mike is a citrus and produce broker with the Central Florida Produce Company.

While in college and when she was working fulltime, Judy and the children all pitched in to cook, wash dishes, clean and do all the many things involved in keeping a home running smoothly.

"I felt and still do feel it's important for children to learn responsibility from an early age. They need to receive all the preparation they can for adult life," said Judy.

"When Mike and I married, the routine remained the same and he too shares in the "combined effort" plan. It works well for our family," Judy says.

"I like to cook, but for many years I had to rely on "anyone-can-cook" recipes. Often, the children would prepare dinner and I felt complicated recipes would not be fair to them. I am very fortunate to have a family that's so cooperative," Judy smiled. "We share."

"I feel I now have the best of both worlds," Judy explained. "I work in the mornings and I am home when the family gets there in the evenings." "It's really a very nice arrangement," she said.

MARINATING SAUCE

1/2 gallon soy sauce
 1/2 gallon water
 4 tablespoons vinegar
 1 tablespoon ginger powder
 2 tablespoons Crisco oil lemon or lime slices, fresh garlic and onion to your taste (chopped).

Stir ingredients together in a large container that has a lid. Place the meat or cut up chicken in it and let marinate overnight in the refrigerator, turning occasionally. This recipe makes enough sauce to use when cooking for a large group.

CHOCOLATE POUND CAKE

1/2 pound butter
 1/2 cup Crisco shortening
 3 cups white sugar
 3 eggs
 3 cups flour
 1/4 teaspoon baking powder
 4 tablespoons cocoa
 1 cup milk
 1 tablespoon vanilla

Cream butter, shortening and sugar. Add eggs and vanilla and mix thoroughly. Sift together dry ingredients and blend them with the creamed mixture, alternating with milk, beginning and ending with flour. Bake in a tube pan for 1 1/2 hours in a 325 degree oven. Baking time may be less, depending on oven. If using a teflon lined tube pan, no need to grease it, if not then grease and flour the pan lightly.

CHERRY-NUT COOKIES

3/4 cups flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon baking soda
 1 cup butter
 1 cup brown sugar (packed)
 1/2 cup white sugar
 1 egg
 1 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 1 cup chocolate chips
 1/2 cup nuts
 1/2 cup chopped maraschino cherries

Sift the first three ingredients together. Cream butter and sugars thoroughly. Blend in egg and vanilla and beat well. Add flour, salt and baking soda and blend. Stir in chocolate chips, nuts and cherries. Drop on greased cookie sheet and bake in a 375 degree oven for 10-12 minutes or until brown.

NO BAKE PEANUT BUTTER COOKIES

Chocolate
 2 cups sugar
 1/2 cup milk
 2 1/2 tea.oons cocoa
 1 stick butter or oleo

OR Plain

1 cup brown sugar
 1 cup white sugar
 1/2 cup milk
 1 stick butter or oleo

Mix above ingredients in pan and bring to a boil. Remove from heat and add 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cup peanut butter and 3 cups of quick oats. Drop by teaspoon on wax paper.

BBQ MEATBALLS

2 pounds ground beef
 1 cup ice water
 1/4 cup soy sauce
 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Mix together and shape into small balls. Bake on an ungreased pan for 30 minutes at 275 degrees.

SAUCE FOR BBQ MEATBALLS

1 10 ounce bottle of chili sauce
 1/2 cup grape jelly juice of 1 lemon
 Mix together and heat. Pour over cooked meatballs and keep warm in oven or crockpot.

VEGETABLE SALAD

2-3 cups vinegar
 1 cup sugar
 1/2 cup salad oil
 Bring to boil! Remove from heat and cool.

Mix and drain:
 1 can French style green beans
 1 can white shoe peg corn
 1 can peas
 1 can kidney beans
 1 jar pimentos (chopped)
 1 green pepper (chopped)
 1 cup celery - sliced thin
 6-8 green onions - chopped
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 pepper to taste
 Mix well and add cooled vinegar mixture. Cover and let stand in refrigerator to blend flavors. Keeps well in the refrigerator.

FRENCH PEASANT OMELET

4 slices bacon
 1 cup tiny potato cubes
 4 eggs
 4 tablespoons milk or water
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 1-3 cup chopped onion (optional)
 1/2 cup chopped green pepper (optional)
 Cut bacon in small squares; fry crisp. Remove from pan and keep warm. Add potatoes, onion and green pepper and brown in hot fat. Beat eggs until creamy and add the milk or water, salt and pepper. Pour the egg mixture over cooked potatoes, onion and green pepper and cook over low heat until omelet is puffed. Sprinkle half the omelet with bacon. Fold omelet over, remove to a warmed platter.
 Yield: 4 servings

OVEN EASY CHILI BEEF BAKE

1 1/2 pounds ground chuck
 1 cup chopped onion
 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
 1 8 ounce can tomato sauce
 1 15 ounce can chili beans
 1 2 1/2 ounce can ripe olives (drained & sliced)
 1 cup undiluted evaporated milk
 4 teaspoons chili powder
 1 1/2 teaspoon salt
 4 teaspoons flour
 3 cups corn chips
 Brown ground chuck, onion and green pepper. Pour off excess fat. Stir in salt, flour, chili powder, tomato sauce, chili beans, olives and evaporated milk. Cover bottom of buttered 2 quart casserole with 1 cup of corn chips. Pour in meat mixture and top with remaining 2 cups of corn chips. Bake in 350 degree oven 35 to 40 minutes. Serve immediately. Yield: 6-8 servings.

I.V. Additive Program: Cancer Patients Now Get Chemotherapy At SMH

"Instead of offering a crumb to our patients and our nurses, I want to offer them the whole cake".

Sharon Smith, registered pharmacist, spoke compassionately — yet wore a determined expression as she talked about the first phase of Seminole Memorial Hospital's new I.V. Additive Program just completed.

"Our cancer patients no longer have to drive to Orange County to get chemotherapy. Our nurses are freed to spend more time with patients, and the patients are assured that all drugs are mixed in an aseptic environment. With this program and new equipment, there is a built-in quality control.

The new additive or "piggyback" program is an advanced and cost effective patient medication distribution system which features two components. There is the unit dose aspect and the intravenous admixture service. It is the great potential of the latter which truly excites Sharon, along with her job of doing the actual mixing. She is a member of a new pharmacist-nursing team which is blending the traditional roles of each discipline to ensure the best patient care possible.

In the past, the pharmacy supplied nursing units with medication, while the nursing staff was responsible for measuring the drugs and administering medication. Now, it is premeasured, mixed into ready-to-administer packages in the pharmacy and then administered by nurses who have undergone hours of in-service training to put the new concept into practice.

And that is where the other member of the team becomes so important. Claire Poulin is designated the I.V. nurse. She is much more than that. A "trouble shooter", she handles most of the difficult cases, oversees the starting and re-starting of I.V.'s, trains current as well as new nursing staff members and works with patients to alleviate their fears.

"The personal touch is worth more than 25 pills", Claire stated. She went on to say how important it is to see and care for the total patient. Both of these professionals strongly believe in this approach. Although Claire deals directly with patients, Sharon says she is not just mixing solutions. "It is not just an I.V. bag they are my patients. I am personalizing their medication, a vital part of the tailor-made care developed for each person".

Sharon Smith adds mixture to intravenous bag which will allow patients requiring chemotherapy to receive treatment at Seminole Memorial Hospital rather than traveling to neighboring counties.

Both became excited and downright impassioned when the intravenous admixture service was explored. They almost spoke in unison when they indicated, "a stitch in time saves nine". The mixture contains substance essential to life: proteins, calories, vitamins, minerals, electrolytes — everything a person needs. The liquid can be injected directly into a patient's arm or in very serious cases where there is no peripheral access, a subclavian catheter is utilized.

The stitch in time refers to the great potential of complete intravenous feeding. They would like to see more nutritional assessment carried out by a team composed of a dietician, physician, pharmacist, and nurse.

With life-giving additives, the patient would heal faster, ensuring a shorter hospital stay. "Patients will feel better as their bodies will be in balance. We haven't gotten as far along with the program as we would like, but we are getting there", Sharon said, referring to phase one. Claire chimed in, "and if it hadn't been for Randy Kiser (Director of Pharmacy) we wouldn't be at this point".

This spirited team flatly says their work is a vital link in the health of their patients, particularly since the bloodstream is literally a person's lifeline. They both believe in what they are doing. They live their beliefs. Read the bumper sticker on Claire's car. It says in bold letters, "Expect a Miracle". They are helping those miracles to happen.

Drunk Driving Now Nationwide Epidemic

DEAR ABBY: The recent letter in your column from Cyd Haasner, whose 16-year-old daughter was killed by a drunk driver, reminded me that drunk drivers have just about been eliminated from the roads of Norway because of mandatory jail sentences and revocation of driving licenses. I have often wondered why we, as Americans, continue to tolerate this needless slaughter on our highways.

Our state legislature just reformed Maryland's drunk-driving laws on July 1. Now our congressman, Michael D. Barnes, has introduced in the House of Representatives Bill H.R. 2488, for legislation to combat the nationwide epidemic of drunk driving. Identical legislation in the Senate (S. 871) is being sponsored by Rhode Island Sen. Claiborne Pell.

If you agree that such legislation is a step in the right direction, please bring these bills to the attention of your readers. If they are seriously interested in saving lives and reducing injuries on our highways, I'm sure they wouldn't mind spending a few minutes writing post cards to their congressman and senators in support of these bills.

GERALDINE NORBY, BETHESDA, MD.
DEAR GERALDINE: First, some statistics provided by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration and the National Safety Council:
 —One quarter of a million Americans lost their lives in alcohol-related auto crashes over the past decade.
 —About 28,000 citizens are killed in drunk-driving incidents yearly.
 —Nearly 70 Americans are killed in drunk-driving incidents every day.
 —Over one million Americans suffer crippling and other serious injuries every year in drunk-driving incidents.

—For Americans up to age 35, the No. 1 cause of death is motor vehicle accidents, and more than half of highway deaths are caused by drunk drivers.
 —On an average weekend night, one out of every 10 drivers on the road is drunk.
 —85 percent of drivers who kill themselves in single-car wrecks are drunk.
 —Of every 2,000 drunken drivers, only one is arrested.

Now, Bill H. R. 2488: —For first offenders, would provide mandatory sentence of at least 10 days of community service, in addition to fines and participation in alcohol treatment or traffic safety programs.
 —For repeat offenders (persons convicted of drunk driving two or more times within a five-year period), would provide mandatory sentence of at least 10 days' imprisonment, in addition to fines and participation in alcohol treatment programs.

Dear Abby

 —For first offenders, would provide a mandatory suspension of the driving privilege by the state licensing agency for up to one year with provision for a restricted license.

—For repeat offenders, would provide mandatory suspension of the driving privilege by the state licensing agency for not less than one year.
 —Establishes a statewide driver record-keeping system capable of identifying repeat offenders that is easily accessible to the courts.

—A uniform standard definition of driving while intoxicated shall be set at a blood-alcohol concentration level no higher than .10 percent.
 —Provides a program coordinated in close cooperation with the local communities that includes:
 1. adequate enforcement and public information efforts;

 2. efficient arrest and adjudication procedures;
 3. monitoring to assure compliance with court-ordered sanctions;
 4. pre-sentence screening of offenders for sanctioning purposes.

New Principal On School Staff

When the school doors open at Geneva Elementary School Monday, the students will be meeting their new principal, Mrs. Nancy McNamara. Mrs. McNamara and her husband, Joe, live in Longwood with their children, Kelli and Kevin. She received her teaching degree from Kansas State University at Manhattan in 1958, and her Master of Education degree from Rollins College, Winter Park, in 1971.

Before joining the Seminole County School System in 1967, Mrs. McNamara taught in the elementary school at Hobbs, N.M., and in the junior high and high schools of Laverne, Oklahoma.

Her local teaching experiences include: guidance counselor at English Estates Elementary, where she also taught, and administrative trainee at Forest City and South Side Elementary schools.

Mrs. McNamara is currently president of the Beta Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, International Society of Women Educators, and is vice-chairman of the Seminole County School Advisory Committee.

While visiting with the new principal of Geneva Elementary School, I learned there will be open house for kindergarten students and their parents on Friday between 1 and 2:30 p.m.

Students will meet their teacher and see the classroom. Parents are requested to bring immunization records and medical forms if they have not previously done so.

All children in Seminole County are required to have started their immunization programs before

During the day, family pictures were taken, a business meeting held and historical volumes sold. Before saying their goodbyes, the family gathered to sing the traditional family song, penned years ago by a Roush, and sung to the tune of: "Carry Me Back To Old Virginia."

It was announced that next year's assembly will be in Bellfontaine, Ohio.

enrolling in public school. If you have not started your child's shots, the Seminole County Health Department's free clinic is open Friday, from 8 a.m. until noon.

The clinic, sponsored in association with the Geneva Citizens Association, is held at the Geneva Community Center on First Street.

Mrs. Florence Wallace, a 25-year Geneva resident, and her daughter, Mrs. C.W. (Doris) Lewis and grandchildren, Mike, Peggy and Frankie, attended the 270th Roush family reunion Aug. 15 at the Ocala City Auditorium.

Mrs. Wallace and her family are branches of the Roush family tree through her late grandfather, S.A. Stevens.

After being greeted at the door by Ralph Roush, the coordinator of the reunion, a catered meal which included Southern fried chicken was served to the over 300 family members who hailed from as far away as Barbersville, West Va., home of Sheldon Roush, the family historian.

This was the first time ever for the family to meet in the Sunshine State, even though 63 of them live in Florida.

It's time once again for the Cub Scouts of Pack 837 to resume their Monday meetings at the Geneva United Methodist Church in the fellowship hall.

According to Cub Master Stuart Anderson and his wife Donna, Den Mother of Den 2 (8 and 9 year olds), the pack has been on a short vacation this summer, and will begin meeting again Aug. 31.

The Cubs meet each Monday at 7 p.m. for their individual den meetings, coming together the last Monday of each month for the Pack meeting.

Other leaders of the Geneva Pack are Joy Keith, Den Mother for the 7-year-old's, Den 1; Jean Mellor, assistant for Den 2; Roy Mellor, assistant to Stuart Anderson for the Webelos Den (10-years-old and up); Sharon Ceiner, secretary; Mrs. Sini, treasurer; and Buddy Long, chairman.

For information, call the Andersons at 349-5888, before the '81-'82 registration rush.

I would like to add a special note of thanks this week to readers of "In And Around Geneva" for their warm encouragement and participation in coming forth with the "goodies" that make this column possible.

Please continue to keep my telephone line burning.

Anniversary Swanns Honored At Reception

By DORIS DIETRICH
OURSELVES Editor

Although the 50th wedding anniversary is the golden milestone in a married couple's life, it came up diamonds for Ora Mae Swann — a gift of diamonds from her husband of 50 years, George L. Swann Sr.

The Swanns were married on Aug. 23, 1931 in Grand Field, Okla. They moved to Sanford in 1936 and to Lake Mary in 1972. George retired from the United States Postal Service in 1973. The couple say "they are taking life easy."

On Sunday, their children honored them with a reception at the home of a son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swann, 175 S. 5th St., Lake Mary.

Their children include: George L. Swann Jr., Sanford; Charlotte Wilke, Houston, Texas; Charles Swann, Lake Mary; Mary Frances Lee, Azel, Texas; and Richard Swann, Sanford.

They have nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Ora Mae greeted the reception guests wearing a blue dress enhanced with a yellow rose corsage. George wore a yellow rose boutonniere in the lapel of his suit.

A color scheme of gold and white was carried out in the home decor and refreshments. The daughters and daughters-in-law cut and served the gold and white tiered anniversary cake. Granddaughter Sherry Lee kept the guest registry.

Ora Mae said one of the highlights of the anniversary celebration was receiving a congratulatory card from President and Mrs. Reagan.

Another surprise, she said, was an arrangement of flowers from Sanford Attorney Douglas Strenstrom.

"We had a great time, a fantastic time," Ora Mae said. Friends came that we had not seen in years. There were nice friends... nice neighbors... gifts... cards..."

The happy event ended with 23 family members all having dinner together at an area restaurant.

Red Cross Conference

The Central Florida Chapter of the American Red Cross will host the Southeastern Red Cross Management Conference at the Hilton Inn Florida Center, 7400 International Drive, Orlando, today through Friday.

the National Hurricane Center in Miami. The Thursday morning session will begin with a presentation by the National Director of American Red Cross Disaster Services, Robert D. Vessey, of Washington, D.C.

Also featured will be a presentation by Mrs. Patty Abraham of the National Board of Governors on the future thrust of Red Cross into the health services field. The conference is expected to close at noon Friday.

Managers and key volunteers from all major Red Cross chapters in the 10 southeastern states will be in attendance, as well as staff from Red Cross National Headquarters in Washington, D.C. and members of the National Board of Governors.

Speaker for tonight's opening dinner session will be Dr. Neil Frank, Director of

An Apple A Day Still A Good Idea

Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB — I read your column on the lady who suffered from constipation for 10 years. What a pity there was no mention of eating apples to break the laxative habit. My experience has been to eat as many as needed of whole apples to keep in good condition. I will be 90 years of age soon and I need only a few apples that I enjoy to keep fit. It is important to eat the entire apple. Too many people peel the apple and throw the best part away. It is important to thoroughly cleanse the apple because of spray residue.

Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

A spastic colon often causes frequent small stools rather than absence of a bowel movement. And alcohol is one hidden cause for bowel complaints in those who use too much of it.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Would you kindly explain what a Colles fracture of the wrist is? Will it affect the fingers and what are some of the after effects one can expect from this? I am 66 years old and fractured my wrist. The fingers seem very weak. Is there some therapy I can take to help the strength come back in my hand?

DEAR READER — A Colles fracture means a fracture of the distal end of the radius, the bone in the forearm that joins the hand region near the thumb. The tip (styloid process) of the ulnar bone (the other forearm bone) may also be broken.

The displaced bone gives the wrist a typical "silver fork" shape. It is named after the doctor who first described it in 1814, Abraham Colles.

The swelling during the acute injury can put pressure on the nerves that go through the wrist area (carpal tunnel) to the fingers. This may cause a variety of symptoms including tingling. But if you can move all your fingers and use your hand, you are doing well. Ask your doctor what exercises are best for you in view of your stage of recovery. But I should think you can expect good recovery in your case.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE USOL

For Thursday, August 27, 1981

Your Birthday August 27, 1981

Enterprises or ventures in which you become involved this coming year are likely to be rather grand in scope. Your participation could yield a large return, even if the role you play is a small one.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A surprising twist could be in the offing for you today regarding a situation where you begin as the giver and end up being the receiver. Romance, travel, luck, resources, possible pitfalls and career for the coming months are all discussed in your Astro-Graph which begins with your birthday. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You'll do well with new ventures at this time, but don't discard traditional methods just because the enterprise is fresh. Old ways still work.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Keep in touch today with persons important to your material welfare, even though they may be distant. Hearing from you will reinforce their support.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Because you have the ability to build upon that which others start, you may take a so-so situation today and turn into something very opportune.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Small thoughts bring meager rewards, so don't think in petty terms today.

Your grandiose ideas may surprise others with the size of their harvest.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You're the type who always tries to be helpful, and today will not be an exception. However, the rewards for your good deeds might.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Others will want to cooperate today because you know how to make what you are doing seem fun and important. They'll be eager to hop on the bandwagon.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Use quality materials, merchandise or furnishings if you are refurbishing your surroundings at this time. The splendor will have a favorable and lasting effect.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Unattached Gemini's who are seeking a new relationship would be wise to take advantage of any social invitations today. Mr. or Mrs. Right might also attend!

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) A shopping excursion to the right places could turn out to be profitable today. There's a possibility you may acquire an item which will appreciate in value.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Compliments from you carry considerable weight with friends today. When you see a pal do something worthy, be lavish in your praise.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your possibilities for success are better than usual today, because you might have persons working behind the scenes who are as capable as you.

A proper diet, adequate bulk and regular habits helps to relieve many of the bowel complaints that people have.

These aspects are discussed in The Health Letter number 16-4, Spastic Colon, Irregularity and Constipation, which I am sending you.

WIN AT BRIDGE

the defense got three diamonds tricks.

South was quite proud of his play and explained that if clubs had broken 3-3, he would have pulled the last trump and had 10 tricks while if East had not held the last trump, he, South, would have been able to cash his top three clubs and then ruff his last little club in dummy.

South has used a "book" play with the clubs, but he also had butchered the hand. He had overlooked a dummy reversal play that would have insured his contract against any 3-3 trump break and would not lose it against a 4-1 trump split if clubs would run three times.

At trick two South should ruff a heart with his ace of trumps. Back to dummy with the four to dummy's eight and ruff another heart high. Back to dummy with another trump lead and then ruff the last heart with his own last trump. Back to dummy once more with queen of clubs to play dummy's queen of trumps and then go after the rest of the clubs. He would make his game against a 4-2 break and an overtrick against a 3-3 break.

Exploring Why Young People Commit Suicide

By CAROL FELSETHAL
 American Library Assn.

Chicago psychiatrist Peter Giovacchini opens "The Urge to Die: Why Young People Commit Suicide" (Macmillan, 218 pages, $12.95) with a newspaper account of Jeffrey Hunter, an outgoing, athletic 16-year-old from the affluent suburb of Ridgewood, New Jersey. In 1978, to everyone's surprise, he hanged himself.

Hours after Jeffrey's burial, the mother of 16-year-old Christopher Mathison, a moody loner and a classmate of Hunter's, found her son hanging in a stairway closet. Jeffrey and Christopher were the third and fourth suicides at the Ridgewood High School in a year-and-a-half.

The rate of teen suicide has tripled since 1955, making it the second greatest killer of 13- to 19-year-olds. The adolescent suicide rate is nearly 33 percent higher than that of the overall population. An average of 13 teens kill themselves every day.

What's wrong? The teenage years are supposed to be joyful and carefree, the best years of a person's life. Aren't they? Absolutely not, says Dr. Giovacchini, who describes them as the most stressful, often the most downright awful of a person's life. After all, the adolescent has a monumental task to complete. He must establish an individual, separate identity, he must develop the capacity to function independently, he must learn how to become involved in healthy, intimate love relationships, he must learn to trust and think well of himself, he must develop an appetite for growth, for new experiences, for work that is both gratifying and meaningful. "It is an enormous task even in the most supportive and stable environments."

Unfortunately, many home environments these days are neither supportive nor stable. The rise in teen suicide, experts believe, is directly related to escalating divorce rates, to the enormous increase in working mothers, to the disintegrating of strong neighborhoods, churches, and extended families.

Interestingly, the case studies from Giovacchini's files, with which the book is generously supplied, are children from affluent, two-parent families. These are not teens who have suffered physical abuse, or incest, or even divorce. Yet these children of suburbia are killing themselves at an alarming rate.

There are, says Giovacchini, no simple reasons why. But he does make some generalizations and in his most useful chapter, describes the sort of parent who is most likely to raise a suicidal teen-ager. One example of many is the mother who hates herself. "Nothing connected with me is any good," she reasons, "and since my children are indisputably flesh of my flesh they cannot be any good either." Often parents such as these "appear to care diligently for their children but the children themselves, through hearing a steady litany of their shortcomings, learn instead that nothing about the way they look or act is attractive." These are the adolescents who do not believe there is any reason why anyone should like them.

Again generalizing, Giovacchini isolates some reasons why teens kill themselves. Separation is the major one. The adolescent can become inconsolable when a best friend moves away, when a boyfriend breaks off the relationship, when a mother dies or when a father moves out of the house. The loss of a familiar environment is another type of traumatic separation — graduation from high school being the most common example.

As timely and important as Giovacchini's book is, it's questionable whether it will reach its intended audience — parents. The book is too theoretical, even philosophical for nervous parents. They would probably prefer more of a how-to-prevent-suicide approach — lists of warning signs, advice on exactly what to do should a child threaten suicide, etc. But still, every parent of a teen-ager should read this book. Before it's too late.

Held 10 Days In Cellar

Elderly Kidnap Victim Recalls Ordeal

MIAMI (UPI) — One of five elderly women taken from their nursing home and taken to Detroit where they were held for 10 days in a cold, dank cellar said she was terrified that they were stuck there "for the rest of our lives."

"It was terrible. There was water on the floor so bad that loadstools were growing," said Grace Chamberlain, 62. "It was really cold and there was no way to get warm. The only window was at ground level and no sun could get in. There was a light but it wasn't really bright."

"I asked for sweaters but they wouldn't give them to us. When we asked for more blankets, we only got one for four beds."

Miss Chamberlain and the four other women, ranging in age up to 91, were flown back to Miami Monday by authorities who cared for them after they were abandoned on a street near Detroit Receiving Hospital.

In Detroit, Lucile Walker, also known as Cora Galvin, the Miami nursing home operator accused of kidnapping the five women and taking their life savings, failed to surrender to police Monday as she had promised.

Attorney Edward Bell had told the Oakland County prosecutor's office during the weekend Ms. Walker had telephoned him "out of the clear blue" to say she would turn herself in before noon Monday.

She and others are accused of taking Social Security checks and other financial assets of their elderly roomers at a string of boarding houses.

Ms. Walker's daughter, Lidra, 22, and granddaughter, Teresa, 23, were arrested last Friday at a Detroit motel on charges of participating in the scheme.

Authorities in Miami were still trying to account for 14 other patients who had stayed at one of Ms. Walker's nursing homes. Ray Havens of the State Attorney's Office said, however, the nursing patients could be in another home, back with relatives or deceased.

Miss Chamberlain said she thinks Ms. Walker stole $450 from her bank account, but she wasn't sure.

"I have no way of knowing," she said. "All my identification and bank books were stolen and I don't know where anything is."

Cops Miss Cue In Effort To Arrest Punk Rocker

DALLAS (UPI) — Punk rocker Rick James ditched his trademark shoulder length braided wig at the end of a packed concert and ran, bald pate shining, from Reunion Arena to slip past the 10 constables who'd been waiting to arrest him.

The constables had been sent to the concert in connection with a civil suit filed by a Denver production firm, which claimed James owed the company $250,000.

K.C. Productions Inc. filed the suit Friday in Dallas County district court in anticipation of James' concert appearance Sunday. The firm alleged James had violated a contract.

The constables had been waiting until the concert ended to move in on James.

"We had checked him out pretty well before Sunday and heard that he's a very temperamental person, that anything can throw him into a frenzy," said deputy constable Jo DeWitty. "We were trying to keep a low profile."

"And it wouldn't have been smart to issue it (the warrant) before the show. We're talking about thousands of loyal fans sitting in the audience..."

Ms. DeWitty said that shortly before the concert, lawyers for the production company tried to settle the suit with James' manager.

"But I don't think James actually believed we were there, at least not until the end. We heard... the group does one encore, but last night (Sunday) they did two long ones to sweat us out," she said.

Although James escaped capture,

$50,000 worth of his equipment — pianos, percussion instruments, amplifiers and a stage sound system — did not. The constables seized the equipment early Monday.

The five other members of James' band left Dallas Monday, but James' agents said they were unsure if they would rejoin him for a scheduled concert in St. Petersburg, Fla. Thursday.

Expense Reporting Changed

The Sanford City Commission will again amend its ordinance setting expenses which city officials may receive for traveling out of town on city business.

The new ordinance, to be adopted, will no longer state the exact expense allowance which the employees can collect, however. City Manager W.E. "Pete" Knowles has recommended the new city law state that the allowance to be paid will be in accordance with state law.

New state law calls for city officials travel allowances to be increased from 17 cents per mile to 20 cents when they use their own vehicles. The law also allows the officials to spend up to $21 for three meals daily rather than $12.35 per day. Allowable costs of rooms when the officials must stay away from home overnight have been increased from $40 per day to $50.

The last time the allowances were changed by the city was in July, 1979.

Voting Delegate Named

Sanford City Commissioner Milton Smith will be the city's voting delegate at the Florida League of Cities meeting on Oct. 22 and 23 in Orlando.

The annual meeting is to be held at the Sheraton Twin Towers. Smith, elected to the city commission last December, has officially represented the city on several occasions since that time.

Other Sanford commissioners including David Farr, Eddie Keith and Mayor Lee P. Moore will be attending several sessions at the statewide meeting.

The Florida League of Cities' meetings usually have workshops and lectures on various subjects of interest and assistance to city officials.

In Time For School

Pack An Array Of Creative Sandwiches

Ever since the Earl of Sandwich reputedly invented a dish which could be eaten without sitting down to a full meal, countless combinations have been "sandwiched" between two slices of bread. Today the term sandwich can apply to anything which contains bread and filling, or in the case of open-faced sandwiches, a topping. Having entered French culinary terminology, the sandwich has become familiar in many European countries. But probably nowhere is the sandwich as commonplace as here in the United States. It has been glorified with innumerable spreads, sauces, fillings, and toppings. Whether it's baked, chilled, toasted, or grilled, the sandwich is an unquestionable favorite.

This array of sandwich recipes, created by the Kraft Kitchens, ranges from simple to elegant. The common element is one ingredient — Miracle Whip salad dressing. And since sandwiches are popular take-alongs, some of these recipes were made especially for toting.

For example, BLT Salad Sandwiches combine all the popular ingredients of a traditional bacon, lettuce and tomato sandwich, but in this salad form, it's neater to eat and easier to tote. A sure hit with the kids is Bologna Apple Wrap, which combines chopped apples, raisins, peanuts, and salad dressing. Each sandwich begins with a frankfurter bun spread with salad dressing, lined with lettuce and a slice of bologna. Spoon in the apple mixture, fold over the bologna, and secure with a toothpick, for a neat treat for school lunches. And sandwiches go sophisticated with this recipe for Deluxe Turkey Croissants.

A split croissant, rather than bread, is the base for this classy combination of lettuce, tomato, Swiss cheese, turkey, and artichoke hearts. The savory duo of salad dressing and mustard provides a tangy flavor, while the delicate croissant and turkey are complemented by the nutty taste of Swiss cheese. A sandwich recipe made for hearty appetites is Meat and Potato Carryout. Cooked, sliced potatoes are tossed with a mixture of salad dressing and horseradish sauce. Rye bread slices hold the filling of roast beef or pastrami slices, red onion rings, and the potato mixture.

The display of distinctive at-home ideas includes Mexican Salad Tortillas. The "cups" are made easily by frying the tortillas in deep oil, pressed down with a ladle. Salad dressing accents the filling ingredients of chopped cooked chicken, ripe olive slices, and chopped avocado and pimiento, for a delightful combination of textures and flavors.

No meal or variety of bread has been forgotten, as evidenced by the recipes for Grilled Brunch Sandwiches and Vegetarian Filled Loaves. Eggs, ham, cheddar cheese, and salad dressing come together for the brunch sandwich filling. Instead of butter or margarine, the whole wheat bread is spread with Miracle Whip salad dressing on the outside before grilling to a golden brown. The last offering uses individual French bread loaves, scooped out, to hold a mixture of marinated vegetables and cheese.

These creations begin to show the endless possibilities for unique and delicious sandwiches. Whether at home or on the go, the Earl of Sandwich had the right idea for convenience and good eating.

Being a successful host or hostess requires some versatile skills in the kitchen. A capable cook can move from one type of cooking to another when the situation — or weather — calls for it.

Hot And Cold Foods

There'll Be A Change In The Weather

One time of year that presents challenges to even the most skillful chef is autumn — one day it's crisp and cool and the next it's hot and muggy.

Because you have to flex your culinary muscles accordingly, it's a good idea to have a repertoire of hot and cold food and drinks at hand that are easy to prepare.

And that's why delicious, sophisticated liqueur fits so neatly into this changeable scheme — it's versatile coconut rum taste enhances hot or cold dishes, desserts or drinks.

One winning entree for cool weather is Duckling Beatrice, an impressive dish with prunes and bananas that's flamed with liqueur at the table.

When temperatures soar, top off a light repast with Frozen Dessert, a melt-in-the-mouth, creamy refresher made with crushed pineapple, grated chocolate and a subtle touch of coconut rum.

Four delectable beverages that run the temperature gamut are a cooling, fruity punch, a creamy-coconut ice cream drink, a minty hot chocolate and a heated egg nog-based beverage with the arousing flavor of cider and liqueur.

DUCKLING BEATRICE

- 1 duckling, 4 to 5 pounds
- 1 teaspoon salt, divided
- 1/2 cup coconut rum liqueur, divided
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 medium sized onion, chopped
- 2-1/2 cups water, divided
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- 3/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 2 teaspoons cornstarch
- 1 cup cooked, pitted prunes
- 2 firm, ripe bananas, peeled, cut into chunks

Rinse duckling and pat dry; reserve giblets and neck. Sprinkle duckling inside and out with 1/2 teaspoon salt. Brush duckling inside and out with 2 tablespoons liqueur. Close cavity with skewers; truss legs. Pierce duckling skin with a fork in several places around the perimeter of the breast and on the back. Place in roasting pan (do not use a rack); add 1 inch hot water. Piercing and steaming are important to eliminate fat. Roast in a 350 degree F. oven 30 minutes; pour off liquid. Place duckling on rack; pierce skin again. Roast 1 hour and 45 minutes longer or until done (meat thermometer inserted on inside of thigh should read 170 degrees F. when done). Pierce skin every half hour to let fat run off. Meanwhile, melt butter in medium saucepan; brown reserved giblets, neck, and chopped onion over moderate heat. Add 2-1/2 cups water, sugar and remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt. Cover. Simmer 1 hour. Strain broth. Add water if necessary to equal 1-1/2 cups or reduce to 1-1/2 cups. Add cinnamon. Mix cornstarch with 2 tablespoons liqueur. Add to broth. Heat broth mixture to boiling; boil 1 minute. Add prunes and bananas; heat through. Glaze duckling with sauce; arrange prunes and bananas around duckling. Warm the remaining 1/2 cup liqueur; ignite and pour over the duckling (do this at the serving table for effect). Serve duckling with extra sauce in gravy boat.

Remove duckling to serving platter; keep warm. Skim off fat from roasting pan. Deglaze pan with remaining 1/2 cup water; add to broth. YIELD: 4 servings.

FROZEN DESSERT

- 2 egg whites
  - 1 cup heavy cream
  - 1/4 cup confectioners' sugar
  - 6 tablespoons coconut rum liqueur
  - 1/2 cup toasted, flaked coconut
  - 1 can (8 ounces) crushed pineapple, drained
  - 1/4 cup grated sweet chocolate
- Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; set aside. In small bowl of electric mixer beat cream until foamy. Gradually add confectioners' sugar and liqueur, beating until cream is stiff. Fold in coconut, pineapple chocolate and egg whites. Spoon into 8 paper cupcake liners or sherbet glasses. Freeze 4 hours or overnight. YIELD: Eight 3-ounce servings.

CREAMY COCONUT CASSIS

- 3 tablespoons softened vanilla ice cream
  - 2 ounces coconut rum liqueur
  - 1 ounce Creme de Cassia
- Combine all ingredients in container of electric blender. Cover. Blend until smooth. Serve in an old-fashioned glass. YIELD: 1 serving.

HOT CHOCO-RIBE

- 8 ounces milk
  - 2 ounces chocolate syrup
  - 2 ounces coconut rum liqueur
  - 1/2 ounce peppermint schnapps
- In small saucepan, combine milk and chocolate syrup. Heat to below boiling (scalded.) Add coconut rum liqueur and peppermint schnapps. Serve in mugs. YIELD: 2 servings (5 ounces each).

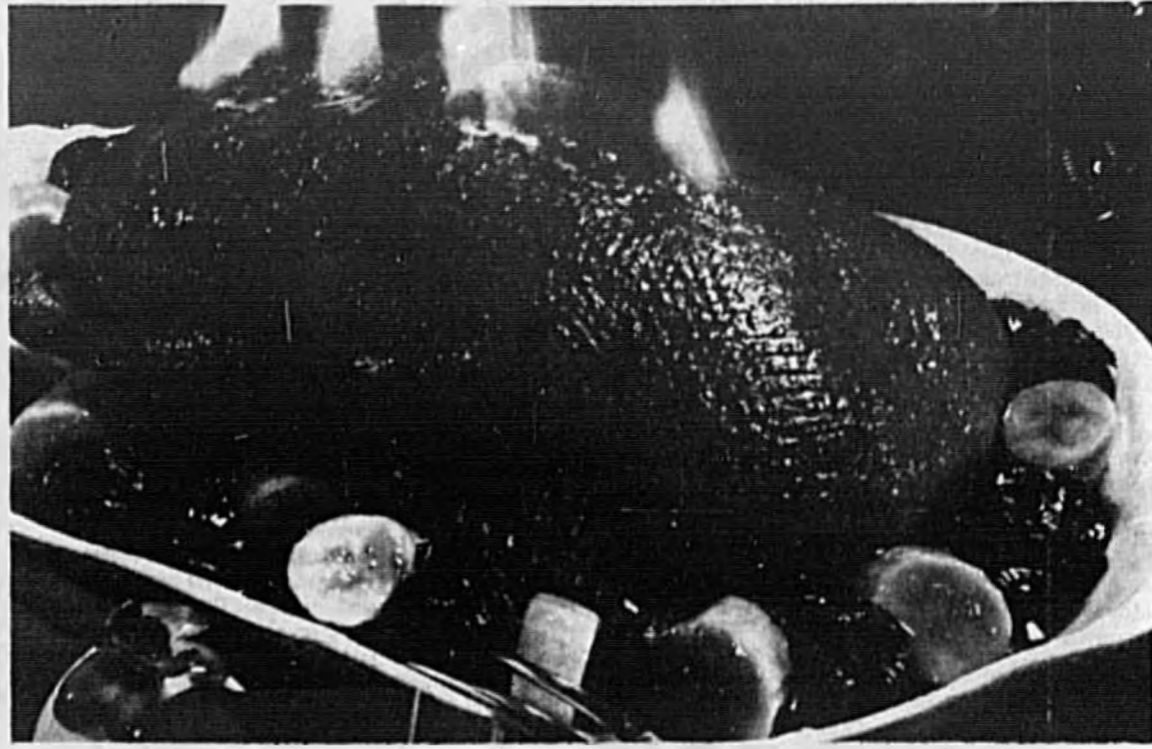

Rum Liqueur adds a delightful punch to refreshing cool beverages as well as steaming hot drinks when the weather is cool.

COCONUT CIDER NOG

- 2 ounces coconut rum liqueur
- 1 egg
- 1 ounce milk
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 3 ounces hot apple cider
- 1 cinnamon stick, optional

In container of electric blender combine liqueur, egg, milk, sugar, nutmeg and cinnamon. Cover. Process 10 seconds. Add hot cider. Serve immediately in a mug. Use a cinnamon stick for a stirrer. YIELD: 1 serving.

Impressive Duckling Beatrice is flamed at the table.

Microwave Magic

Energy-Saving Appliance Has Injury-Free Record

Summertime... and the living is easy if you have a microwave oven.

Statistics tell us that more than 20 million microwave ovens are in use in this country. This means that one kitchen in every four is equipped with this time and energy saving appliance.

Most of us accept technical advances, such as the TV, without really understanding them, but with the microwave oven people want to know how it works and if it is safe.

To put it simply: a magnetron tube inside the microwave oven converts ordinary household current into microwaves. Microwaves are electromagnetic energy similar to those of infra-red light and radio waves. The food in the oven absorbs the microwaves. When this happens, moisture, sugar, and fat molecules are vibrated. The vibration causes friction. The friction causes heat. The heat cooks the food.

Are microwave ovens safe?

The fact is that the microwave oven is as safe as any other appliance in your home. Government regulations require manufacturers to build in safety features. Double seal doors

Midge Mycoff

Home Economist
Seminole Community College

and protective interlock systems that turn off the power when the door is opened protect the user from exposure to microwaves. The safety of the microwave oven is shown by one fact: there has not been a single injury attributed to them in the 28 years they have been in use.

This does not imply that your oven does not require proper care and common sense in its use. It should be kept clean and free from food particles and should never be operated empty. Although it is very rare, there have been some incidences of microwaves affecting the operation of some pacemakers which have been implanted in a person to regulate heart activity.

Pacemaker manufacturers are aware of this problem and have shielded their devices to protect them from outside interference. A person who wears a pacemaker should check with their physician concerning problems with microwaves.

For assurance of safety, the Food and Drug Administration has recommended the following safety tips:

1. Check for damage in shipping.
2. Follow the manufacturer's instruction on care and use of the oven.
3. Clean the door, seals, and inside of the oven with water and mild detergent. Don't use scouring pads.
4. Don't insert objects through the grill or door seal.
5. Never tamper with or inactivate the safety interlocks.
6. Never operate the oven when empty.
7. Have your oven checked by a qualified technician for wear damage and radiation emission.

Following this advice will virtually guarantee a safe oven. For some cool summer cooking try this German Potato Salad with Knockwurst and Spicy Apple Crisp.

KNOCKWURST AND HOT GERMAN POTATO SALAD

3 medium potatoes
3 slices bacon, diced
3 small onions, diced
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon, dry mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup vinegar
1/4 cup water
1/2 teaspoon celery seeds
4 Knockwurst
1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley

Wash potatoes; dry and cut into half. Place in plastic bag, cut side down. Leave ends of bag open. Cook by microwave for 10 minutes on high or until tender. Remove skin and slice. Cook bacon and onion in 4-cup measure for 4 minutes. Stir in flour; sugar, mustard, salt and pepper; mix well. Add vinegar, water and celery seeds. Cook another 4 min., stirring once. Set aside. Make several cuts in plastic bag holding knockwurst. Cook 3 minutes. Cut into 6 pieces. Arrange meat and cooked potatoes in shallow bowl. Pour hot sauce over, toss to coat evenly. Sprinkle with chopped parsley. Serve immediately. Makes 4 servings.

SPICY APPLE CRISP

4 large baking apples, peeled and sliced
1/2 cup brown sugar
one-third cup raisins
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup butter or margarine (soft)
1/2 cup flour
1/2 cup rolled oats

Set power at high. Layer 1/2 apples in an 8 or 9 inch round baking dish. Combine sugar, raisins, cinnamon, nutmeg, and oats. Sprinkle 1/2 sugar mixture over apples. Top with remaining apples. Blend the butter in the remaining sugar mixture and sprinkle over apples. M-W 4 to 5 minutes or until apples are tender. Let stand 5 minutes. Serve warm.

Next weeks column will be on Microwave cooking equipment and summer cooking-hors d'oeuvres.

Microwaving Keeps Seafood Tender, Moist

Seafood is the answer to a dieter's prayer — but can sometimes be a problem with the chef. Cooking in your microwave oven keeps fish moist, tender and flaky.

CRAB AU GRATIN
(Total cooking time: 16 min., 30 sec.)

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup (2 ounces) shredded process Swiss cheese
1/4 cup sliced almonds

4 tablespoons butter or margarine
One-third cup all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon peel
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
Dash white pepper
2 cups light cream

1 slightly beaten egg
2 1/2 cups flaked dungeness crab (16 ounces)
3 tablespoons sliced green onion
Snipped parsley

In small bowl, melt the 2 tablespoons butter at HIGH for 30 seconds. Toss crumbs and cheese with butter; set aside. Spread almonds in pie plate. Cook at HIGH for 3 to 4 minutes or till golden, stirring once. Stir almonds into crab mixture; set aside.

In 2-quart glass measure, melt the 4 tablespoons butter at HIGH for 1 minute. Stir in flour, lemon peel, salt, dry mustard, and pepper. Add cream. Cook at HIGH for 6 to 7 minutes or till thickened and bubbly, stirring often.

Stir 1 cup of cream mixture into egg. Return to cream mixture. Cook at MEDIUM for 1 to 2 minutes. Stir in crab and onion. Pour into 4 individual casseroles or large baking shells. Cook at HIGH for 4 to 5 minutes or till heated through. Top with crumb mixture. Cook at HIGH for 1 minute. Garnish with snipped parsley and lemon slices. Makes 4 servings.

HALIBUT IN WINE
(Total cooking time: 10 minutes)

4 halibut steaks (16 ounces)
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
One-third cup dry white wine

1/2 onion, sliced
1/2 cup sliced celery
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 tablespoon snipped parsley
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/4 teaspoon dried basil, crushed
1 cup cherry tomatoes, halved

Sprinkle fish with salt and pepper. Place fish in 10 x 6 x 1 1/2-inch baking dish. Add wine. Cover and marinate in refrigerator for 2 hours. In 1-quart bowl, cook onion and celery in butter, covered at HIGH for 4 to 5 minutes or till tender, stirring once. Stir in parsley, Worcestershire sauce, and basil. Spoon over fish.

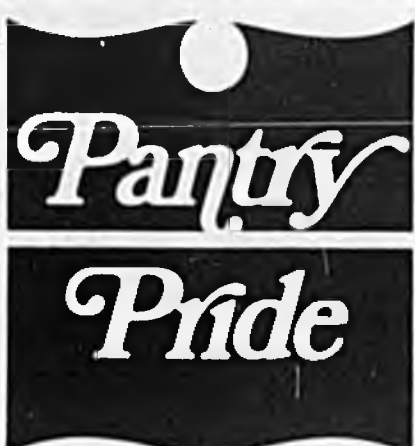

Cook covered, at MEDIUM HIGH for 5 minutes. Add cherry tomatoes. Cook, covered, at MEDIUM HIGH for 1 minute or till fish flakes easily with a fork and tomatoes are heated through. Makes 4 servings.

MICRO TIP: Mix and chill your fruit-flavored gelatin in just one bowl. First, heat the 1 cup water in a bowl, uncovered, at HIGH for 2 1/2 minutes. Stir in gelatin till dissolved; and 1 cup cold water. Chill.

Ambrosial offering is something magnificent, supremely good...

Della Robbia Ambrosia Is A 'Divine' Dessert

"Ambrosia", in the food sense, generally refers to a compote of oranges, coconut and pineapple.

According to the dictionary, "ambrosia" can be anything with especially delicious flavor or fragrance. The word originated in days of mythology, when ambrosia meant "food of the gods" and was thought to impart immortality.

Hence, an "ambrosial offering" has come to be something magnificent, supremely good, or simply divine.

This delicious dessert could refer to any of those definitions, except for the immortality claim! Della Robbia Ambrosia is a refrigerator dessert molded in a springform pan lined with ladyfingers. The filling is a creamy combination of canned vanilla pudding, gelatin, and fruits.

This refreshing light dessert is the perfect grand finale to a company meal.

DELLA ROBBIA AMBROSIA

Schoolbox Salad rates A plus.

Pack A Salad In Lunch Box

The start of the school year is quickly approaching, and with it comes the question, "What's for lunch?" Here's a delicious sandwich filling which will please even your most finicky eater. "Schoolbox Salad" combines the goodness of cut-up cooked chicken, celery, pickles and olives, all easily seasoned with Creamy Italian Dressing.

The salad can be prepared the night before, eliminating the usual early morning rush. Pack along cookies or fruit for a schoolbox lunch your kids will rate A+!

SCHOOLBOX SALAD

- 1/2 cup Creamy Italian Dressing
- 3 cups finely chopped cooked chicken
- 1/2 cup sliced celery
- 1/2 cup sliced dill pickle
- 1/2 cup sliced pitted ripe olives (optional)

In medium bowl, combine all ingredients; chill. Serve, if desired, with thinly sliced cooked ham as a sandwich filling. Makes about 6 servings.

- 1 can (11-oz.) Mandarin oranges
  - 1 can (17 1/2-oz.) vanilla pudding
  - 1 can (8 1/2-oz.) crushed pineapple
  - 1 carton (8-oz.) frozen whipped topping, thawed
  - 1 1/2-2 pkg. ladyfingers
  - Toasted coconut
- Drain mandarin oranges; reserve liquid. Add water to make 1 cup. Heat juice-water to boiling, then add gelatin, stirring to dissolve. Cool and refrigerate just until the thickness of un-beaten egg white. Blend in pudding until smooth. Add drained Mandarin oranges (save a few for garnish) and undrained pineapple. Gently fold in whipped topping. Line bottom and sides of 9-inch springform pan with ladyfingers. Pile gelatin mixture into mold. Chill for several hours until firm. Before serving, garnish with reserved orange sections and toasted coconut. To serve, remove sides of pan and slice into slim wedges. Yield 12-14 servings.

Mind Your Measures

Kids Learn At Home On The Range

PART 2 IN A SERIES
NOTE TO PARENTS: The article below explains the art of measuring and why careful measuring is important in cooking.

Let your youngster experiment to find out how many ways there are to make 1 whole cup—using halves, thirds and quarters.

The people who create recipes experiment a lot to get them to taste just right. They try all sorts of ingredients, in many different quantities, before they are satisfied.

So when you follow a recipe to make a meal, you have to be careful to add the right amounts, too.

To help you, there are many standard measuring tools. There are cups made especially for measuring liquids, and others that are best for dry ingredients.

Measuring Liquids. Measuring cups for liquids are usually glass or plastic so you can see through them, and they have a spout for easy pouring.

Measuring Dry Ingredients. Measuring cups for dry ingredients are usually metal or plastic and they usually come in sets of four.

To measure dry ingredients exactly, select the proper size measuring cup (if you need 1/4 cup of sugar, use the cup marked 1/4) and fill it heaping full.

use the cups marked 1/2 and 3/4, because 1/2 plus 1/4 equals 3/4.

Using Measuring Spoons. When small amounts of ingredients are needed, measuring spoons are used. These, like measuring cups usually come in sets of four: 1 tablespoon, 1 teaspoon, 1/2 teaspoon, and 1/4 teaspoon.

Tricky Stuff. Some ingredients are not liquids, and they are not dry either. How do you measure them? Let's use margarine as an example.

But if it comes in a plastic tub, you will need to measure it yourself. It's easy if you remember that 1/2 cup plus 1/4 cup equals 3/4 cup.

Potpourri

RIPE OLIVE MACARONISALAD

- 1 package (8 oz.) salad macaroni
  - 2 quarts boiling water
  - 1 tablespoon salt
  - 1 1/2 cups pitted ripe olives
  - 1/2 cup sliced celery
  - 1/4 cup diced green pepper
  - 1 jar (8 oz.) chopped pimientos
  - 3 green onions, chopped
  - 1/2 cup mayonnaise
  - 2 tablespoons tarragon vinegar
  - 2 teaspoons prepared mustard
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon white pepper
- Cook macaroni in boiling water with one tablespoon salt, about 10 minutes or just until tender. Drain well; rinse with cold water. Add olives, celery, green pepper, pimientos, and onions. Blend mayonnaise with vinegar, mustard, salt and pepper. Pour over salad mixture and mix well. Makes about 1 1/2 quarts.

LETTUCE CON QUESO

- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
  - 1/2 cup chopped fresh onion
  - 3 large tomatoes, peeled, seeded and chopped
  - 1 bay leaf
  - 2 tablespoons flour
  - 1/2 cup milk
  - 2 fresh green chilies, seeded, and chopped
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon liquid hot pepper sauce
  - 3 cups (1/2 pound) shredded Monterey Jack or mild Cheddar cheese divided
  - 4 cups shredded Iceberg lettuce
  - Corn bread squares
- Melt butter in saucepan; add onion, tomatoes and bay leaf. Cook, stirring frequently, until onion is tender. Make a paste of the flour and milk. Add to saucepan. Simmer 10 minutes. Remove bay leaf. Add green chilies, salt, pepper sauce and 2 1/2 cups cheese. Stir until cheese melts. To serve, place shredded lettuce over split corn bread squares. Top with cheese mixture and remaining shredded cheese. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 servings.

GREEN CHERRY TOMATO PICKLES

- 1 1/2 pounds small green cherry tomatoes
  - 1/4 cup light corn syrup
  - 1/4 cup cider vinegar
  - 1/2 cup sugar
  - 1 tablespoon mixed pickling spice
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 4 small cloves garlic
- Wash, dry and remove stems of cherry tomatoes. Pierce each 2 or 3 times with a small skewer or wooden pick. In 2-quart saucepan, stir together corn syrup, vinegar, sugar, pickling spice and salt. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat; reduce heat. Stirring frequently, simmer 10 minutes. Immediately pack cherry tomatoes and 1 garlic clove into each clean, hot 1/2 pint jar. Pour boiling syrup into each jar covering tomatoes and leaving 1/2-inch headspace. Remove air bubbles. Wipe top edge with damp towel. Seal according to jar manufacturer's directions. Process in boiling water bath 15 minutes. Cool on wire rack or folded towel. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 (1/2 pint) jars.

VIENNESE GOULASH

- 8 onions, thinly sliced and peeled
  - 4 Tbsp butter
  - 4 Tbsp oil
  - 1/2 cup vinegar
  - 1/2 cup paprika
  - Beef broth
  - 3/4 lb. chuck or rump, cubed
  - Salt & pepper
  - 1 tsp. marjoram
  - 1/2 cup tomato puree
  - 2-3 Tbsp. flour
  - 2 garlic cloves, minced
  - Peel of 1 lemon
  - 1 Tbsp. caraway seed
- Simmer onions in the butter and oil until golden. Add vinegar and paprika. Brown the meat in this mixture, tossing well. Add salt and pepper to taste, marjoram and tomato puree. Simmer 1 1/2 hours until liquid is greatly reduced (almost a glaze). Sprinkle mixture with flour, add the garlic and enough broth to just cover the meat. Simmer 30 minutes. Mix lemon peel and caraway seed in a blender and add to the sauce. Stir and serve.

ZUCCHINI STUFFED HAMBURGER

- 2 pounds ground chuck
  - 1 cup tomato paste
  - 1 cup dry bread crumbs (flavored)
  - 4 cups zucchini (unpeeled and cut in 1/4 inch slices)
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1 teaspoon pepper
  - 1 cup finely chopped onions
  - 1 cup finely sliced sweet peppers
  - 4-6 tablespoons olive oil
  - Garnish: bacon, mushrooms, parsley and tomatoes
  - 2 cups shredded sharp cheddar cheese
- In a large skillet saute zucchini, onions, peppers in oil just to make them limp. Then add bread crumbs, enough to make a dry mixture. Remove from heat to cool.
- In a bowl mix ground chuck, salt, tomato paste, pepper and thyme very well.
- On a piece of waxed paper or foil about 16 inches long, spread 1/2 beef mixture about 1/4 inch in the shape of a rectangle. Spread 1/2 the cheese on top of the beef evenly, leaving about a 1/4 inch clean border all around.
- Spread 1/2 the zucchini mixture on top of the cheese.
- Roll as in jelly roll fashion and place in a baking dish with seam on bottom (removing the paper as you roll.) Repeat as above for second roll.
- Place 5 strips of bacon about 4 inches long across the top. Place 3 whole mushrooms on each side of the roll. Cover each roll with foil and bake in pre-heated oven at 325 degrees for about 1 hour. Remove foil and place under broiler just long enough to brown bacon.
- Remove from pan and slice between bacon slices. Garnish roll with halved cherry tomatoes and fresh parsley.

SATURDAY NITE SKILLET DINNER

- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
  - 1 1/2 cups uncooked, long-grain rice
  - 1 cup chopped onion
  - 1 1/2 pounds ground beef
  - 2 teaspoons flavor enhancer
  - 3 cans (13 1/2 ounces each) beef broth, divided
  - 1 1/2 teaspoons dried leaf thyme
  - 1 teaspoon garlic powder
  - 1/2 teaspoon ground allspice
  - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
  - 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
  - 1 1/2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese, divided
  - 1 cup sliced pimiento
  - 1 cup chopped fresh parsley
- In large skillet, heat oil; saute rice and onion over medium heat until rice is golden. Add ground beef, cook until evenly browned, stirring occasionally. Sprinkle flavor enhancer over beef as it cooks. Reserve 1 cup beef broth. Stir in remaining broth, thyme, garlic powder, allspice, pepper and cloves. Bring to boiling. Reduce heat. Cover. Simmer 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in reserved 1 cup broth, 1 cup cheese, pimiento and parsley. Heat until cheese melts. Sprinkle with remaining 1/2 cup cheese. Yield: 6 servings.

Make Conserve The Easy Way

If you're searching for new ways to add excitement to the family's eating enjoyment, consider a delicious Plum Nutty Conserve. Jot down "fresh plums" on your marketing list. Be sure to include a package of powdered fruit pectin. Promise yourself to prepare this easy conserve recipe that will complement a good many meals.

Fruit in this freezer recipe isn't cooked — just mixed with sugar, chopped walnuts and powdered fruit pectin. By not cooking the fruit, the flavor stays much fresher, closer to nature.

That's a major reason why commercial pectin is added. It helps capture fresh flavor and assures a good "set." Keep in mind that natural fruit pectin decreases as fruit ripens. Because pectin helps a mixture to "jell," it's necessary to supplement natural pectin with the commercial variety.

Refrain from making any recipe changes. At the time you purchase powdered fruit pectin, it's likely you will see packages of liquid fruit pectin. Do not use liquid and powdered fruit pectins interchangeably. While both bring successful results, remember that recipes are developed for a specific type of pectin.

Before you begin to prepare the conserve, read the recipe insert tucked inside the package of powdered fruit pectin. Follow directions for preparing small freezer containers, of not over a pint capacity, with tight-fitting lids. Containers as well as glass jars should be dishwasher safe.

PLUM NUTTY CONSERVE

- 2 1/2 cups prepared fruit (about 2 lb. fully ripe plums and 1 orange)
- one-third cup finely chopped walnuts
- 5/4 cups (2 lb. 6 oz.) sugar
- 1/4 cup water
- 1 box fruit pectin

First prepare the fruit. Pit about 2 pounds plums; do not peel. Cut in small pieces; then chop very fine. Measure 2 1/2 cups into large bowl or pan. Grate the rind from orange; measure 1 teaspoon. Squeeze the juice from 1 orange; measure 1/4 cup. Add orange rind, orange juice and walnuts to plums.

Then make the conserve. Thoroughly mix sugar into fruit mixture; let stand 10 minutes. Mix water and fruit pectin in small saucepan. Bring to a full boil and boil 1 minute, stirring constantly. Stir into fruit. Continue stirring 3 minutes (A few sugar crystals will remain.) Ladle quickly into scalded containers. Cover at once with tight lids. Let stand at room temperature 24 hours; then store in freezer. Small amounts may be covered and stored in refrigerator up to 3 weeks. Makes about 7 cups or about 8 (8 fl. oz.) containers.

Homemade conserve is easy to make. By not cooking the fruits, the flavor stays much fresher—closer to nature.

There are many ways to enjoy Roquefort cheese. Many dishes, salads, or even desserts can be enhanced by the unique savor and taste of Roquefort. Of course, everyone is familiar with the famous Roquefort salad dressing, but you should experiment! Vegetable sandwiches, right, pick up flavor when a bit of Roquefort cheese is added to the spread.

Roquefort: Bread Or Spread

Once early man learned how to raise grain he pounded it in a mortar, added a little water to form a paste, laid it on a hot stone and ended up with edible unleavened bread. Appetizing when fresh and hot, it became heavy and indigestible when cold.

Egypt is credited with the discovery of raised bread. Perhaps some favorable micro-organisms drifted into a dough made from new wheat. Bread got lighter when grape juice, and later white wine, was kneaded in the dough and allowed to ferment. A piece from the previous day's baking was incorporated into the new mix, thus making a sour dough "starter."

Plain bread became flavored with the addition of cheese. Poppy seeds, honey, suet or anise to the dough. Spreads were made of olives, raw beans, figs, fish, sweet potatoes, peanuts, tomatoes and avocados, depending on the ingredients available. Chunks of bread were used to dunk in stews, wine, goat or sheep's milk.

Roquefort cheese could well have been part of these early diets because between 100 to 250 A.D., Pliny the Roman, described it as "the cheese that bears away the prize." While the Romans raised the status of cheese to a high level, they thought butter was the food of barbarian cattle herders and wouldn't spread it on their bread!

Roquefort Cheese Bread will win first prize in many households today. It's simple to make and during the baking process a delicious odor permeates the kitchen. Try it with a spread made with equal parts of mashed avocado and softened cream cheese that has been seasoned with lime juice, grated onion, pepper and if needed, salt.

ROQUEFORT CHEESE BREAD

- 1 1/2 cups milk
- one-third cup sugar
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 2 packages compressed or active dry yeast
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 1/2 cups crumbled Roquefort cheese
- 1 egg, well-beaten
- 6 to 8 cups of sifted all-purpose flour
- Melted butter

Allow all of the ingredients to reach room temperature. Scald the milk. Add it to the sugar, butter and salt. Cool the mixture to 85 degrees F. Dissolve the yeast in 1/2 cup 85 degrees F. water for 10 minutes. Blend with the cooled milk mixture in a mixer bowl. Add the Roquefort cheese and beaten egg, beating until smooth.

Add 3 cups of sifted flour, beating well after each addition. Continue adding another 3 cups of flour, beating well after each addition. Add the remaining flour only until the dough is not overly sticky and it begins to leave the sides of the bowl. You may not need the total two last cups.

Now the kneading begins. On a lightly floured board, fold the dough over toward you. Press it with the heel of the hand, give it a slight turn, fold it and press it again. Repeat this process until the dough becomes smooth, elastic and salty. The dough should no longer be sticky.

Grease a large bowl; put the dough in it turning it so that all sides are lightly greased. Dampen and wring out a cloth, cover the bowl and set the dough in a warm (75 degree F.-80 degree F.) place to rise until it is double in bulk, about 2 hours. Don't let it rise further than that or the bread may turn out coarse and dry.

Punch down the dough. Knead the bread for 2-3 minutes. Shape it into two loaves to fit greased 5 1/2-inch pans. Brush melted butter on the top. Cover the pans with a damp cloth; allow to rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in a preheated 375 degree F. oven for about 30 minutes. The loaves should have shrunk from the sides of the pan and have a hollow sound when you tap the bottom of each loaf. Let the bread cool completely, wrap and store it in a covered container that has few tiny openings for ventilation. Makes 2 5x9-inch loaves.

Roquefort spreads can enhance a variety of other breads. We seldom consider raw or blanched vegetables as an ingredient for a spread or a decoration for an open-faced sandwich. Vegetables are nutritious and possess eye-appeal with their bright, interesting colors and contours. A mixture of chopped cabbage, crumbled Roquefort cheese and sour cream spread on a slice of rye bread and topped with some apple slices dipped in lemon juice is a delicious combination. If a party is in the offing utilize cookie cutters to make some unusual bread shapes that can be beautifully decorated with bits of colorful vegetables. Here are some interesting flavor combinations to try:

A very basic spread can be made by blending 3 oz. of crumbled Roquefort with 3 or more tablespoons of soft butter until it is smooth. The vegetables you'd like to add will decide if any additional seasoning is needed. It is a good match for celery, onions, carrots and mushrooms decoratively arranged on an open-faced sandwich. Chopped watercress is a delightful addition for tea sandwiches or hors d'oeuvres.

CHEESE SAVORY

- 1/2 lb. Roquefort cheese
- 1/2 cup sweet butter
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 10 anchovy filets, finely chopped
- 1/2 cup whipped cream
- Saltines
- Paprika

Mash Roquefort with butter until smooth. Add dry mustard, Worcestershire sauce, anchovies, and whipped cream. Mix ingredients well. Spread on saltine about a quarter of an inch thick, covering entire surface of cracker. Sprinkle lightly with paprika. Place under broiler until lightly browned and puffy. Serve. Makes about 3 dozen.

ROQUEFORT COGNAC DIP

- 1/2 lb. Roquefort cheese, crumbled; 1/2 cup finely chopped pecans
  - 1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
  - 1 cup cognac
- Combine all ingredients, blending well by hand or whip with an electric mixer until smooth and fluffy. Serve with crackers, rye toast, or wedges of unpeeled apples and pears. Makes about 1 1/2 cups.

ROQUEFORT SOUR CREAM DIP

- Combine 1 cup dairy sour cream, 1/2 cup crumbled Roquefort, 1 scant tablespoon prepared mustard and 1 tablespoon capers; mix well. Make over 1 cup of basic dip.

ROQUEFORT SHERRY DIP

- 2 pkgs. (3 oz. each) cream cheese
  - 1 1/2 oz. Roquefort cheese
  - 1 tablespoon sherry wine
  - 1 tablespoon heavy cream
  - 1/2 teaspoon onion juice
- Mash cream cheese until soft and fluffy. Beat in Roquefort cheese. Beat in remaining ingredients. Chill for several hours. Serve with potato chips or crackers. Makes about 1 cup.
