Longwood Moves To Halt 434 Paving

Charges State, County Ignore Specifications

Longwood councilmen agreed at a meeting Thursday night to turn over to their attorney the matter of filing an injunction against the state and county to halt construction on SR 434.

The action is under consideration by the city in protest against the width and depth of drainage ditches along the highway which are being left open. Original plans called for tiled drainage.

Mayor Al Lormann told the council that he had talked to one of the county commissioners just prior to the meeting who asked, "What do you want down there... a boulevard?"

Lormann said that when he informed the commissioner of plans for the injunction suit, the commissioner "just laughed and turned away."

"I feel that this is an engineering error which could be corrected, although levels on the town paving are being completely ignored," he said.

Chairman R. C. Carlson pointed out that on numerous previous occasions the city had consulted the County Commission and the District State Road Board Officials without being given any consideration and that the state is quite arbitrary when building primary roads and "will do just what it wants to do."

A report from Attorney Webber Haines will be on the agenda for a meeting scheduled next Thursday night.

Bulletin

Casselberry Mayor Joseph Laird today released Attorney Kenneth McIntosh as the town's legal representative and advised the lawyer that his services would not be needed at Saturday's 9 a. m. meeting called by two members of the Board of Aldermen.

First Street Rezoning Protested

Board Favors Duplex Class Along Strip

The city zoning and planning board was barged with howls of protests Thursday night as it considered the rezoning of W. First St. from Popular to the city limits.

The zoning and planning board is considering rezoning the area for duplexes while most of the objectors want the area for a commercial strip.

One violent objection by the zoning board was the fear that if the area went commercial it would open the door to speculation and zoning fees that they must protect the property values of residents now occupying the land.

At the present time, according to City Manager W. E. Knowles, that area includes 33 homes, one church and seven commercial establishments.

Knowles said today that a public hearing on the rezoning will come before the City Commission on Jan. 22.

He added that neither the commercial nor residential property owners realize the full impact of the request.

He emphasized that the move would restrict the area to commercial construction alone and none of the resident property owners there would make any major improvements to their homes.

French, Arabs Fight In Oran; 13 More Killed

ALGIERS (UPI)—French troops traded bullets and bombs with Arab "commandos" in the heart of Oran Thursday, boosting Algeria's new year toll to 76 killed and 106 wounded in four days.

The wave of violence and terror left 13 dead and 46 wounded Thursday alone. Most of the casualties were Arabs, but five of the dead and 15 of the wounded were Europeans.

Terrorists opened fire on a hearse here Thursday night, wounding one Arab and one European.

The "battle of Oran," in which at least 9 persons were killed and 30 were wounded, began when Arab tommygunners raked a native cafe with bullets, killing a soldier and a policeman.

Regular troops of France's famed Zouaves, supported by an armored car, harried the Arabs with hand grenades and submachine guns.

The Arabs, who had fled to the shelter of a house near the scene of the original attack, replied in kind.

Police held back a mob of Europeans who cheered on the troops with shouts of "Kill them! Kill them!"

Some of Sanford's most progressive citizens aren't giving up on the downtown mall idea yet. . . . We hear that new planning is being discussed. . . . Wish we could mention these citizens who are devoting so much of their time to revitalize the entire area.

The old Florida State Bank building looks good with a fresh coat of paint. The latest news is that architect Jim Chapman is going on his own and will set up offices in part of the building and we hear the A. C. Allyn Company will also take up some office space there.

Heart Fund drive coming up for the Sanford area Jan. 22. Merle Warner is chairman this year.

Is that a hot dog stand or central switchboard being installed on the ground floor at City Hall?

The Sanford Public Library got some added help this week while one of the librarians was hospitalized. Mrs. David Mathes volunteered to help out.

What happened to the new Sanford post office? Guy Allen, postmaster, said no word yet on when work will start on new facility.

County Engineer Carlton Bliss will advise the County Commission Tuesday on whether rights of way are available for the Pineway Bypass project—one of the biggest projects the county plans to undertake this year. Bliss also is working on a rights of way policy which should also be ready by Tuesday.

By the way, the Commission will meet at 9 a. m. Tuesday.

The dance craze that has socialites in all sorts of contortions these days was demonstrated next Friday night, at the Capri Restaurant by Arthur Murray dancers for the first all twist party of Sanford. The twist can best be described as a frantic effort of using the right foot to stamp out a cigar while using the left bath towel motion for hip action.

The twist dance starts at 9 p. m. and "twist" fashions will be shown between 7 and 9.

The Society for Crippled Children and Adults will meet next Wednesday at the Health Center at 8 p. m. Mrs. Layman Goodman announced today. All interested persons are invited to attend this first meeting. Plans for the coming year's activities will be discussed and groundwork laid for the annual Easter Lily Seal campaign.

Florida Nurses Assn., District 37 will hold its January meeting at the Health Center on French Ave. at 8 p. m. Monday. All registered nurses, members and non-members, are invited to attend. A. B. Peterson Sr. will be the guest speaker.

Speaking of Peterson he has received booklets on fallout protection. Anyone interested can get them at the St. John's Realty office on Park Ave.

Talks Scheduled

PARIS (UPI)—France and Tunisia announced today they will start top level talks in Paris "shortly" on the future of the French-held key air and naval base at Bizerte, scene of a bitter four-day battle last July.

Repaving Work Starts Tuesday

The city's resurfacing program this year will get underway Tuesday, City Manager W. E. Knowles said today.

Knowles reported that the Orlando Paving Company was awarded the low bid to do the job for a total of $23,403.

Six projects will be included in the resurfacing program for the 1961-62 year. They are 24th St. from French Ave. to Park; Myrtle from 24th to 25th St.; Sanford from 24th to 25th St.; First St. from First St. to Fifth St.; First St. from Sanford to Park; Magnolia from the railroad to 20th St. and Palmetto from Seventh to 20th St.

Knowles said that $25,830.80 has been set aside in the budget for this improvement program.

Seminole Fallout Survey To Start

Nine more Florida Counties will be surveyed immediately to locate prospective fallout shelters. It was announced today by A. B. Peterson Sr., local county Civil Defense Director.

This brings to $1 the number of Florida Counties which have started public fallout shelter surveys. The remaining counties will start surveys within the next few weeks.

Sanford Comes Through In Fire Disaster - - And How!

Clothing, Food For Family Piled High

"That's enough! That's enough!", cried benefactor Cotton Brown, Pig and Whistle manager today, as contributions and gifts of clothing, shoes, food, bedding, furniture and money continue to pour in for the Joseph family who lost their home and two of their children in a tragic New Year's Day explosion and fire.

Brown said that he has five pickup truck-loads of things, most of it "real good stuff, not junk," on hand now and more coming in all the time. He also has calls from persons with furniture to be picked up.

"The overwhelming response of the people of Sanford is something unbelievable," he said.

"I'm in a position to know for I remember how good and kind people were to our family when our home and contents were destroyed by fire following a plane crash a few years ago. (Seven persons died in that crash and fire, including all but one member of the Lowe family who lived next door to Cotton Brown.)

to help these people in their desperate need, perhaps I can repay some of the wonderful help that was given to my family in our time of need," he added.

The Joseph's 18 month old daughter Carolyn, who suffered critical burns, seems to be progressing satisfactorily, according to hospital authorities. They said that she is eating now, but will have to remain in the hospital for an indefinite time.

Brown described the Joseph family as a fine young couple, who had bought a shell home, finished it inside themselves, furnished it nicely, and surrounded it with an attractive well-cared-for yard.

"All this is gone now, and they must start over from scratch," said Brown.

Grand Opening Set Tonight

Grand opening for the newly-constructed Orlando-Seminole Jai-Alai Fronton, located in Fern Park at Hwy. 17-92 at 438, will take place tonight at 7:45 p. m. as first nighters get an introduction to Seminole County's newest attraction.

A capacity turnout, made up largely of Sanford and Seminole County fans, according to box office reservations, will witness the opening of the $1,500,000 entertainment attraction.

A special trophy match will highlight the opening program. Winners will be presented with a player trophy sponsored by a merchant. Sponsor for tonight's trophy will be George Stuart.

A preview press party for special guests was held Thursday night. It was attended by several city, county and state officials.

Exhibition matches were played, with explanation of the rules and explanation of the numbers and colors used by the teams.

Executive Vice President Norman Stabell and other officials of the Jai-Alai organization were on hand Thursday night to welcome guests and introduce out-of-town Jai-Alai organizers. Out of town guests included Vance Schwartz of Daytona Jai-Alai; Bud Acker and Treasurer Kramer, principal Fronton backers from Tampa.

I'd Fire Many, Says Bryant, Irked About Merit System

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Gov. Farris Bryant told his news conference Thursday that he is not opposed to the Merit System and doesn't want it abolished—but that there are a lot of state employees he would fire if the Council weren't protecting them.

Bryant said his administration inherited many employees who got their job status because they happened to be there when the system went in and not because of any particular qualification.

"There are agencies," said the governor, "where we feel substantial personnel changes should be made for the benefit of Florida, but because of the merit system we have left them alone. We do not believe they are doing a job, but we can't prove it to the degree required by the Merit System Council."

Bryant refused to cite either employees or agencies by name.

Bryant said the Merit System Council needed to come to some sort of understanding with his administration. "This administration is almost being governed by the

Milwee, Henley To Conference

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee and Carlton Henley will attend a conference in Orlando Monday and Tuesday on the subject "School Plant Facilities for Educational Television."

This conference will be held at the Cherry Plaza Hotel under the sponsorship of the School Plant Administration, State Department of Education, Tallahassee and Educational Facilities Laboratories, Inc., New York City.

Adm. Masterson To Visit NAS

JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—Rear Adm. K. S. Masterson, deputy chief of the Naval Weapons Bureau, will begin a tour of Florida naval facilities here Monday.

Masterson will visit Jacksonville Naval Air Station, Cecil Field, Sanford Naval Air Station, and Navy installations at Pensacola, Key West, and other points.

Fire Destroys W. 11 St. House

The Longwood Volunteer Fire Dept.'s new two-way radio system was used for the first time Wednesday evening to call Bremen out to a burning 1960 compact automobile just outside the city limits on SR 434.

According to Chief Claude Lajo the fire apparently started from a cigarette or a shorted lighter in the vehicle after the owner, Robert Arthur Hodges of Saginaw, Mich., left it parked while he went for gas. Lajo said that by the time he spotted the burning automobile and the department got to the scene, flames already were coming through the top and from under the body. Firemen were unable to prevent a total loss.

Florida Forest Rangers from the Longwood station also answered the alarm.

World War I Vets Of Florida Meet

TAMPA (UPI)—Florida's World War I veterans met here today for their mid-winter conference to discuss veterans legislation and membership extension.

On the eve of the meeting, National Commander John Barbara Sr. of Norfolk, Va., announced that leaders of three other major veterans organizations had accepted his invitation to a meeting in Washington to discuss a joint action for veterans.

Bliss Deplores Council's Move

County Engineer Carlton Bliss today said any threatened injunction action by the Longwood Town Council regarding SR 434 would seriously hurt the county's secondary road program and bring about legal action by the contractors for damages resulting from any construction delay.

Bliss in an angry statement said that he "can't understand the attitude of the council and that the County Commission had consulted with the council throughout the entire project."

Bliss stressed that road plans were changed at the council's request "and an additional $25,000 was added to the cost of the project."

Bliss explained that it was a "compromise" by the County Commission to satisfy the major portions of the objections.

Fire Destroys Compact Auto

A fire caused by a defective oil heater destroyed a house on W. 11th St. Thursday night, the fire department reported.

It took firemen close to an hour and a half to extinguish the blaze at the house located at 615 W. 11th St. Fire Chief Mack Cleveland Sr. said.

Assembly Backs Portugal's Chief

LISBON (UPI)—The national assembly followed up Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar's threat to pull Portugal out of the United Nations by voting Thursday night for the "eventual revision of Portugal's foreign policy."

The assembly expressed disgust over India's seizure of Portugal's India-coast provinces of Goa, Damao and Diu, describing it as "an aggression contrary to all moral and legal principles."

First Federal Assets Advance To $14.57 Million During 1967

The year-end statement of First Federal Savings & Loan Assn. shows total assets of $14,571,201.10, a jump from $11,346,902.33 from the close of 1966.

During the year, the savings outstanding moved from $10,136,287 to $12,837,647, according to E.C. Harper Sr., president. He pointed out that in the year just closed, First Federal paid to its savers dividends of $434,796 at the rate of 4 percent a year and that the anticipated earnings for the first half of 1968 would be at 4 1/2 percent.

Commenting on the savings activity, Harper said that nationally, savings and loan associations accumulated savings reached a new all-time high of $8.5 billion, even though the activity on the accounts was rather keen, especially in the latter part of the year. The local company saw an increase of 44 percent in income credited to its savings accounts to total almost $6 million, with the withdrawals stepping up only 10 percent. The resulting 32 1/2 percent was used to meet a local demand for loans.

Harper said that the number of loans in 1967 was 29 percent above the figure of last year and that the dollar total exceeded 1966 by 38 percent.

Almost a quarter of a million dollars were added to the already substantial reserves, the savings association officer said, and that they now amount to $1,537,983. Related to savings outstanding, this places the local association among the leaders in the state.

There are 5,314 savings accounts on First Federal's books now, an increase of 27 percent over Dec. 31, 1966, it was said.

Although the local association has been serving Seminole County and the surrounding area since 1934, it has been operating in its attractive modern building at West First and Elm Avenue just one year.

Harper expressed confidence in the continuing field of business conditions in the territory in which First Federal does business and said he felt that the figures at the close of 1967 would reflect continued progress.

High Officials Deny Any Rusk, Clay 'Riff'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—High U. S. officials denied today there was any basic policy difference between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President Kennedy's special representative in Berlin.

These officials acknowledged that Clay had commented from time to time on some of the Allied contingency plans for handling possible trouble along the Iron Curtain in divided Berlin.

But they denied that Clay had made any specific protest against Washington's tight rein on the U. S. commander in Berlin, Maj. Gen. Albert Watson. Reports said Clay felt Watson should be able to act more on his own in countering Communist moves.

The administration was said to realize that keeping a "tight rein" on the Berlin commander has disadvantages. But officials said this was the only way in which the United States could remain in constant control of the potential dangerous situation in Berlin.

Clay is scheduled to return from Berlin this weekend and report to Kennedy Sunday at the White House. Officials said this meeting had been arranged sometime ago to give the President a report, and had nothing to do with any alleged differences between Clay and Rusk.

The impression was growing in Allied quarters here that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev now might be willing to let the Berlin crisis die down and work out a status quo agreement for another year or two.

He already has succeeded in sealing off East Berlin and has prepared to incorporate it in a sovereign East German state, of which it is eventually expected to be the capital.

Khrushchev also has made more permanent the division of Germany, thus consolidating his power position in central Europe, where the greatest fear of satellite leaders is of a strong, united Germany.

Jack Kennedy, now president of the United States, attended Princeton University in 1936 before switching to Harvard.

Kennedy Ends Florida Stay

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—President Kennedy concludes an 18-day stay in Florida today and flies to Washington for a weekend of intensive preparation for Congress.

The Chief Executive was scheduled to take off at 4 p. m. for Andrews Air Force Base outside Washington.

Saturday and Sunday were set aside for White House meetings preparatory to re-opening of Congress next Wednesday, except for a few hours Saturday night when Kennedy will speed by jet to Columbus, Ohio. He will speak at a Democratic fund-raising dinner honoring Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

Before departing for Washington, the President and his family were expected to take advantage of warming weather and cruise briefly on the White House yacht, the Honey Fitz.

The First Lady and the two Kennedy children, Caroline and John Jr., will remain in Palm Beach until next Wednesday. Then Mrs. Kennedy will fly back in time to see her husband deliver his State of the Union message to a joint session of the House and Senate Thursday or Friday.

When the work load incident to the early stages of Congress permits, the President was expected to return to Palm Beach for occasional weekend visits with his father, former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy, who is recovering from a stroke suffered Dec. 29. The elder Kennedy was being improved slowly and should be able to leave the hospital for his oceanfront home within a week or two.

Teams from various churches in the conference are studying the Book of John and sponsoring intergroup contests using questions compiled from the study, Dollar said.

Was Arms Cut To Balance Budget?

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Despite further increases in military spending, President Kennedy's new defense budget is expected to raise the question of whether any arms programs were cut to insure a balanced federal budget.

A defense official told newsmen that more than a dozen last-minute changes had been made in the military budget. The new military blueprint, covering the year starting next July 1, will go to Congress in a few days as part of the overall federal budget.

The defense official stoutly maintained that no money "reallocating" had been imposed during formulation of the new military plan, which other sources have revealed will

Four Day N. Y. Bus Strike Ends

NEW YORK (UPI)—Three bus lines agreed on a new contract with the Transport Workers Union (TWU) late Thursday ending a four-day strike that affected 1.3 million riders.

Fifth Avenue Coach Lines and two subsidiaries reached a one-year contract with the TWU calling for a 13-cent-an-hour wage increase. TWU President Michael Quill said fringe benefits added 2 cents an hour to the package while management contended they were worth 1 cent.

The settlement, which was made under a threat by Mayor Robert F. Wagner to turn some of Fifth Avenue Coach's routes over to new operators, maintains the citywide 15-cent subway and bus fare at least for this year.

The New York City Transit Authority, which runs both subways and buses, and other private bus lines had settled with the TWU last month and continued running during the strike. They carry nearly 7 million daily riders. Subways, taxi pools and private cars filled the transportation gaps left by the walkout of more than 6,000 union members Jan. 1.

Holy Cross Episcopal Church Sets Feast Of Lights Service

Fr. John W. Griffith, curate at Holy Cross Episcopal Church in Sanford, has announced that the church will observe the beautiful and moving service of the Feast of Lights Sunday at 8 p. m.

In explanation of the traditional service and following ceremony of cutting the Epiphany Cake, Fr. Griffith included a brief history of the feast day to be celebrated Saturday. "It commemorates the actual arrival of the Three Wise Men to see the Christ Child and gets its title from the Greek meaning 'showing forth,'" he said, explaining that "even from birth the Christ was not for Jews alone and that the Gentile Wise Men were the first of many to come to worship God in flesh, Jesus the Christ."

The general public is especially invited to attend the Feast of Lights Service on Sunday according to Griffith. The Adult Choir will sing and the Episcopal Young Churchmen will participate in the presentation for which no offering will be included.

After the service the entire congregation annually has a procession into the Parish House for a social hour where the Epiphany Cake with its hidden items is cut and served.

"The Feast of Lights and the cutting of the Epiphany Cake are a happy tradition at Holy Cross. Members of the community always have enjoyed it as a fitting conclusion to the Twelve Days of Christmas," Griffith concluded.

Mrs. K. A. Juthe Guest Speaker For Altamonte Springs Club

By Shirley Wentworth
Mrs. K. A. Juthe was guest speaker at Wednesday's 2 p. m. meeting of the Altamonte Springs Civic Club at the Community House.

Using as her topic a trip abroad and her schooling at Oxford University, Mrs. Juthe told of the amusing situations at the University arising from the fact that everyone had to wear a short gown and oversized mortarboard regardless of dress called for by the occasion. She said that she often found it quite comic in appearance to see the most formal evening attire topped by the cap and gown.

The speaker told of her trip to Russia in 1939 and said that even then one was not permitted to take photos. She continued by describing her trip to Norway, Finland and Scandinavia adding that the flowers were most beautiful in Norway and that the loveliest time of year to visit Scandinavia was in July or August.

Sample articles of handcraft of these countries included a sweater-coat from Norway and a collection of beautiful Norwegian ashtrays, spoons and miniature cedar chests.

During the business session of the meeting plans were made for a ham dinner to be held in the Educational Building of the Altamonte Springs Community Chapel on Feb. 10.

Start Good Life... Now

Alfred Hitchcock is a man who likes to eat good food in large amounts. It is said that he once attended a dinner where the food was served in such small portions that he was still far from being satisfied when the dinner was over. Coffee was being brought in and his host said, "I do hope that you will soon dine here again." Hitchcock replied by saying, "By all means, let's start now."

How all of us need to start now in cultivating the more mature spiritual life. How we need to claim the deep blessings that God has put before us until we are satisfied, but it is urgent that we start now. A missionary tells of the natives, in the land where he labored, fishing all day in rice paddies in one foot of water while they were actually in sound of the rolling breakers of a great ocean filled with an inexhaustible supply of fish. How much this tells us of our spiritual lives. We think of faith and remember that everyone must have faith in something or someone. One of the most common ways of keeping shallow spiritual life is to trust oneself as the ultimate. If we do this, we know that frustration and futility come in such force that life does not seem worthwhile. How different life is if we cast ourselves upon the Lord. Life takes on new meaning and as God's Spirit works through us we find a surge of power which will sustain those about us as well as ourselves. Our lives will grow deeper and more mature. The important thing is to get started now. How we waste time when there is no need to! Then there is service to God. It is so easy to agree that one's life should be lived for God, and also so easy to put it off until tomorrow. We simply cannot afford the luxury of waiting and waiting. Time is short and we all should know that now is the time.

Once I visited a person near a church which I formerly served and found that this person had joined a church in another state many years before. I asked her to let me send for her certificate of church membership and her answer was that she had been considering it but did not know how long she would live in the area. I asked her how long she had been there already. She blushed, dropped her head and said, "Almost twenty years." Not many people are as slow as this, but how wonderful if all of us would determine to start now in living wholly for our Lord.

West German Boss Observes 86th Birthday

BONN (UPI)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer observed his 86th birthday today at the peak of a second successful political career started long after most men have retired.

As the federal republic's first and only chancellor, the seemingly indestructible Adenauer has been in office one month longer than Adolf Hitler, who built and destroyed an empire in 12 years and 3 months.

"Der Alte" — the old man, as Adenauer is affectionately called by his people — re-emerged politics at the age of 72, which would have been Hitler's age if the Nazi leader were alive today.

It was Hitler who forced the chancellor into premature retirement in 1933 after Adenauer had been mayor of Cologne for 16 years.

Brink Family Honored At Open House

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Horton Sr. held open house last Sunday afternoon honoring Lt. and Mrs. Robert Brink and children, Phyllis and Bobby, of Patuxent, Md.

The Brink family formerly lived in Sanford when he was stationed at the Sanford Naval Air Station. They were spending a few days with Mrs. Brink's parents in Jacksonville.

Since their time was very limited they could only be in Sanford a few hours. The Hortons decided to give all their friends a chance to see them. Lt. Brink's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brink, of Deer Lodge, Mont., came to Patuxent to visit during the holidays. They accompanied the family to Jacksonville and also to Sanford.

A holiday motif was carried out in decorations at the Horton home both in the party room and dining room. Assisting the hostess in serving refreshments of fruit cake, cookies, coffee and punch were Mrs. W. H. Young, Mrs. Marvin Rohlfis and daughter, Kahla. About 25 or 40 former friends of the honored family called during the appointed hours of 2 to 4 p.m. Another daughter of the Brinks, June, did not know of the planned visit to Sanford and was visiting a friend in Jacksonville so was unable to be present.

Richard Keoghs Get Cards From Former Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keogh of Lake Mary entertained 24 members of their family and friends for dinner on Christmas day. The high light of the occasion was the arrival home of Mrs. Keogh's father, Homer M. Gleason, from the hospital. He got there in time to watch his grandsons open their Christmas presents.

Among the many cards that the Keoghs received this year were two from former residents of Lake Mary who wanted to be remembered to everyone they knew here. They were from Carla Newberry, who taught in the Sunday School of the Community Presbyterian Church and her family now living in Washington but hoping to come back to Lake Mary someday, and Alice and Bill Pulver, who also live in Washington, D. C. Bill has been made a chief since he left here. They have four boys and hope to be stationed here again.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wallin had a pleasant surprise when they went to Hollywood, Fla., to spend the holidays with their son Earl Dunn and his family. Another son Richard Dunn of Buckrow Beach, Va., and a friend Tom Dodge were also in Hollywood. The Wallins had not seen Richard for nearly two years.

Richard Keoghs Get Cards From Former Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keogh of Lake Mary entertained 24 members of their family and friends for dinner on Christmas day. The high light of the occasion was the arrival home of Mrs. Keogh's father, Homer M. Gleason, from the hospital. He got there in time to watch his grandsons open their Christmas presents.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Just how much affection is it proper to display in public?

Someone in our family married an Irish girl. She thought Americans were cold. She always sat with or walked with, her arms around her husband. She kissed him in company, in the streets, stores, etc. Not just quick little pecks, but the long, lingering movie-style kisses.

In company, they sit cuddled up next to each other like a pair of lovebirds. He is 43 and she is 35. Wouldn't you say they are old enough to know better? When they were newlyweds, folks would say, "Aren't they cute?" Now they think it is downright disgusting. What do you think?

NAUSEATED RELATIVE

DEAR NAUSEATED: Lovebirds, of all ages, can fly as high as they want to when they are alone, but should keep their beaks off each other in public.

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with a man who wants to eat his cake and have it, too?

DEAR KATH: Bake plenty of cake. And vary the icing!

DEAR ABBY: Neither my mother nor my father wishes to attend my wedding. They believe that large weddings are a waste of money. I have always wanted a nice church wedding, so I have worked and saved my own money for it. I have no uncles on either side to give me away. My father has refused. Whom shall I ask?

DEAR STANDING: Ask a male friend, whose friendship you value, to do you the honor.

DEAR ABBY: How many times have you printed letters like this one, and how many times have girls like myself read, and ignored, their messages?

I am 19. Too young to be messing up my life. I was going with a very nice boy for a long time, and I planned to marry him. I gave him ALL my love. Now he's gone, and I hate myself. I am sorry, and I've learned a lesson, but what good is it now?

Abby, please print this letter. Any girl who is old enough to read is old enough to understand it. And if just one girl benefits from my mistake, it is worth your trouble.

SADDER BUT WISER

We The Women: By Ruth Millet

Would a man flying a plane prefer to have a man's voice or a woman's voice giving him routine information and instructions?

An Air Force research study has come up with the answer—and it's a man's voice, of course.

That shouldn't surprise women who know that men have the ability to tune out the female voice at will—an ability little boys seem to develop in grade school when most of their teachers are women and which they perfect all during their married lives.

Once they are married, men begin tuning out their wives whenever their womenfolk start chattering about subjects dear to the feminine heart but less than fascinating to the masculine mind—such topics as fashion, such petty gossip as "What do you suppose he sees in her?" and who said what at last night's party. They quickly learn to tune out the chatter of other women, too, when they find themselves at a social gathering where the conversation is woman-dominated.

"So—even if the female voice were as easy to understand as the male voice (which the researchers say it definitely is not) still it might not be so good to have women handling routine transmissions for aircraft communications systems.

Just from long habit the men might tune out the feminine controller instead of giving the respectful attention required.

It's a well-known fact that men tire easily of a woman's voice, and the temptation to mentally cut it off when it persists in talking always is great.

Unless, of course, the feminine voice is making such wise and discerning statements as "Tell me more about your work," "You're wonderful!" and "You know how much I respect your judgment and value your opinion."

Many are the ways discussed in Ruth Millet's booklet on "How to Have a Happy Husband." Send 25 cents to Ruth Millet Reader Service, c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Gambling bids pay off frequently and once the queen of hearts was opened success of this gamble was practically assured. However, I would not recommend this particular type of pot-luck three no-trump as a steady diet. It wouldn't figure to win as often as it would lose.

TV Time Previews

7:30-8:30 p. m. (NBC) International Showtime. "Circus Douglone." If you like circuses you must like animal acts and, if you like animal acts, you must like the lion tamer. If there is logic in this syllogism and it refers to you, watch tonight's show for some of the best lion-taming pictures you will ever see. Filmed in Paris, the show's producers prevailed on the circus producer to cut special holes in the lion cage to permit better filming though far more dangerous facilities.

7:30-8 p. m. (ABC) "Music For The Young." (Special). Arthur Fiedler, distinguished conductor for the Boston Pops Orchestra, is host and conductor for this first in a series of three special musical programs for youngsters and teenagers. Tonight's special guest soloist is 16-year-old violinist James Buswell of the Juilliard School of Music who began studying music at the tender age of five years and gave a concert with the New York Philharmonic when he was only seven.

8-8:30 p. m. (ABC) The Hathaways. "Waltzing With Walter." The Marquis Chimps aren't seen enough in this one to save it from being a tired revamp of a plot that's as old as silent movies. Ellnor (Betty Cass) wins some free dancing lessons, but Walter, who has no enthusiasm for dancing, refuses to share them with her. Ellnor feigns a romantic interest in her handsome dance teacher (Valentin De Vargas), so jealous Walter takes dancing lessons from the teacher's beautiful wife (Louise De Carl).

8:30-9:30 p. m. (CBS) Route 66. "To Walk With a Serpent." Powerful stuff and most timely, too, is this controversial drama that almost wasn't aired after it was postponed two months ago. It's only controversial, however, to those who espouse extreme "right wing" movements.

'Never On Sunday' For Drive-In

"Never On Sunday," starring Melina Mercouri, winner of the Cannes Film Festival Best Actress Award, will open Sunday at the Movieland Theater.
"Never On Sunday," a Lovert Pictures Inc. release, was produced and directed by Jules Dassin. The film was made entirely in Greece.
Producer-director Dassin wrote the screenplay.
The other feature on the program is "Deep Adventure."

'Back Street' Coming To Ritz

A breath-taking collection of new fashion creations is displayed by Susan Hayward and Vera Miles who co-star with John Gavin in the Ross Hunter screen production of "Back Street." The Universal-International picture, based on Fannie Hurst's drama of unlawful romance, opens Sunday at the Ritz Theater.
Already acclaimed for the opulence of his recent screen attractions, "Imitation of Life" and "Pillow Talk," producer Ross Hunter endowed "Back Street" with even greater feminine appeal by photographing fashion sequences as staged in New York, Rome and Paris.

To insure an exciting array of costumes that would be beautiful and at the same time blend in with the character portrayals of his stars, Susan Hayward and Vera Miles, Mr. Hunter called upon the internationally famous designer, Jean Louis.

Humane Approach

No little part of the national concern over the rising "welfare problem" seems to center on the matter of aid to dependent children. Tangled with that is worry over the climb in the number of illegitimate births.

Secretary Ribicoff of Health, Education and Welfare scoffed recently at the argument advanced by some that many unwed mothers are deliberately enlarging their families to make themselves eligible for more welfare assistance. He believes the amounts involved are too small to act as an enticement.

Nevertheless, his department does view the problem of dependent children as one deserving stronger effort and attention. Part of his newly announced welfare reorganization calls, for instance, for stepped up attempts to ferret out deserting fathers and make them responsible for family support.

Ribicoff's agency also has just prepared a new guide to the problem of "unmarried parents," which is intended both for public use and for various state and local agencies involved in the matter.

In a recent 17-year span, illegitimate births are estimated to have increased from 3.8 to 4.7 per cent of all live births. The number of unmarried mothers of all ages was roughly figured at 210,000 in 1958.

The continued upward trend is disturbing. Yet welfare officials point out that in late 1958, the illegitimate children in families drawing ADC comprised only about 13 per cent of the estimated number under 18 whose births were reported as illegitimate.

Illegitimacy plainly has many social and economic aspects besides the welfare issue. What federal authorities seem most eager about right now is to set a course that will not substitute punishment of affected children and parents for the more constructive approaches needed.

For example, they want to encourage unmarried mothers and fathers to resume their schooling wherever it has been interrupted as result of illegitimacy.

They also favor fullest use of all aids designed to keep both mothers and children in good health.

To resort instead to punishment, by public disapproval and a withholding of aid funds, is, according to the HEW guide, to foster "more deaths among the babies, more cases of infanticide, abandonment, neglect, and hiding of children," among other evils.

The suggestion is clear throughout—and it would seem hard to refute—that the social and money costs of the "tough attitude" toward this problem conceivably may be far higher than the one which focuses upon full salvage and rehabilitation of the individuals involved.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Divorce doesn't suddenly destroy your marriage. No, it first gets a small foothold. So don't let yourself be seduced by such temptation as has been offered to Joyce. Many young couples have allowed divorce to creep upon them in this manner without realizing the danger until too late.

CASE 1-408: Joyce B., aged 23, is engaged to a young engineer.

"Dr. Crane, my sweetheart and I have been going together for three years," she began our interview. "He has a good office job, but his mother insists that he live at home and care for her."

"She is practically an invalid, but has enough money to support herself comfortably."

"So I suggested that my sweetheart hire somebody to look after his mother, in order for us to get married and start our own home."

"But when we suggested this idea to his mother, she absolutely refused to have anybody stray around her. And she asked us to move in with her after our wedding."

"I don't like the idea, though, because then we would not be free to make our own home life. Dr. Crane, what would you recommend?"

Divorce Creeps In

It is usually very unwise to start marriage by moving in with the in-laws, regardless of their good intentions. Don't do it!

It is better to rent a single room and live from the cans, then to join the parents of either party to the marriage, even if they have a palatial residence and argue that it is silly to let all their empty rooms go to waste.

Joyce is a self-reliant, modern young woman with enough intelligence to look ahead. She is planning a marriage that will be both happy and permanent.

Her prospective husband, however, is a "mamma's boy." He doesn't realize the fact, and Joyce apparently doesn't appreciate his hazard as a mate.

In previous Case Records I have told you of my analysis of more than 5,000 divorced persons which showed that the "only" child was nearly 10 times the risk of an "in-between" or "middle" child.

Live Alone

Some late research is pointing out that the "only" child is socially as well adjusted as other youngsters. But this research is based on such contacts as the school marks of the "only" child, his knowledge of Emily Post and ballroom technique.

Don't let such data delude you! Of course an "only" child can be brilliant in his lessons and play baseball. He can dance and join a fraternity. But marriage is not lived in a dance hall or college frat house.

Men and women can be very gallant in public or appear very sweet and charming at a party, yet be the very opposite

Your Pocketbook

In retailing, the headline of the year is the rise of the discounter. Are you really getting a bargain when you buy at a discount store? How reliable are discount merchants?

First, what is a bargain? A bargain is something which fills your requirements in quality and performance and which is bought at a price lower than the going rate. Several hundred dollars saved on a car constantly in need of repair is no bargain, nor is the $10 coat that does not fit you and is unbecoming.

As to the reliability of the discount merchant, remember he can be as reliable or unreliable as any other kind of merchant. Today, more than ever before, there is a science to wise buying. The best guide I've seen evaluating the discount operation is offered in "Everybody's Money," a quarterly publication of Credit Union National Association, Inc., Madison 1, Wis.

The article points out that not all discount houses are alike. The large nationally known discount firms cannot afford shoddy dealings. Most product guarantees are made by the manufacturer and not the dealer. Big name companies stand behind their products regardless of where you buy. The larger discount house, however, may add its own guarantee, refund money if merchandise is returned within a specified period of time.

Some discount houses are mere catalogue houses where you place a mail order. How good the merchandise you receive will be depends upon the reliability of the catalogue company. Such a discount house rarely assumes responsibility.

Other discount houses are real gyms, sell cheaper grades of merchandise, sometimes at the full retail price, often above it when they offer "easy payment" plans. Watch out, says the article, for the discount "broker" who shows you sample merchandise, takes your money and fails to deliver the specific item or model you selected.

Be wary of discount clubs. You seldom need to join a club or pay a fee to get merchandise at a lower price. Many a survey has shown that prices are absolutely comparable at some discount stores and regular department or appliance stores.

To get the best price on whatever you buy—know prices, not merely the price of an article but the prices of identical goods. This takes some shopping.

—Ask for a further discount when you go to a discount store. You might be pleasantly surprised. You may also get a discount for a cash purchase.

—Avoid buying from a discounter not located in your town.

—Avoid buying from the establishment that promises to "get it for you wholesale," especially if you are unknown to this merchant.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Election of a new Democratic speaker of the House of Representatives to succeed the late Sam Rayburn of Texas and election of a new Senate Republican Policy Committee chairman to succeed the late Styles Bridges of New Hampshire will give some indication of just how liberal or conservative the leadership of this next session of Congress is going to be.

A lot of political wisecracks are saying that the trend is conservative now. If this is so, the more conservative man should win in the two races for congressional leadership.

The most convenient gauge of conservatism available is the cumulative rating of all congressmen's voting records put out recently by Americans for Constitutional Action—ACA.

This is the self-styled "non-partisan" political action group which raised money and campaigned to help elect conservative congressmen in 1960.

Its chairman is retired Admiral Ben Moreell. Its trustees include ex-President Herbert Hoover, ex-Gov. Charles Edison, ex-Hop. Ralph Gwinn of New York, ex-Farm Bureau President Allan Kline of Illinois, businessman Lloyd Wright of Los Angeles, banker Edgar Eisenhower—not Dwight—of Tacoma, Wash.

With a group like that setting the standards, the ratings which ACA gives all members of Congress is based on how acceptable their voting records are to conservatives.

ACA found only one senator rating 100 per cent—John G. Tower, R-Tex. Senator Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., got only 99 per cent. Only 18 House members had 100 per cent ratings.

This rating should of course be balanced by one compiled by a liberal organization. AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education—COPE—makes its scorecard only in election years for a complete two-year record of Congress. But Americans for Democratic Action—ADA—compiled voting records at the end of the first session last fall.

They came up with scores almost exactly opposite to the ACA ratings. But both show relative conservatism.

So this is the way the five Democratic members of the House so far mentioned as possible choice for Speaker and Majority Whip rate in the two surveys, 100 per cent being perfect.

Rep. John W. McCormack, Mass. 0% 90%
 Rep. Richard Bolling, Mo. 2 100
 Rep. Carl Albert, Okla. 5 90
 Rep. Hale Boggs, La. 15 80
 Rep. Francis Walter, Pa. 22 80

So by either scoring system, if the House elects the more conservative Democrat as Speaker, it will be Walter or Boggs. But the smart money is betting it the other way, with the odds on McCormack or Bolling as favorite.

Of course, if the House were really conservative, a lot of the southern Democrats might switch over and vote with the Republicans. Their candidate for Speaker is of course GOP Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana. He scored 86 per cent in the ACA rating and 10 per cent in the ADA rating.

But the Democratic caucus Jan. 9, the day before Congress opens, and the election is held.

They'll agree to back one candidate for Speaker and one for Whip, and they'll vote on party lines. With the House divided 262 Democrats, 174 Republicans and two vacancies, conservative coalition leader Halleck isn't given much chance.

The Senate race for Republican Policy Committee chairman is a little closer. It is being described as a contest between a New England progressive and a Middle West conservative.

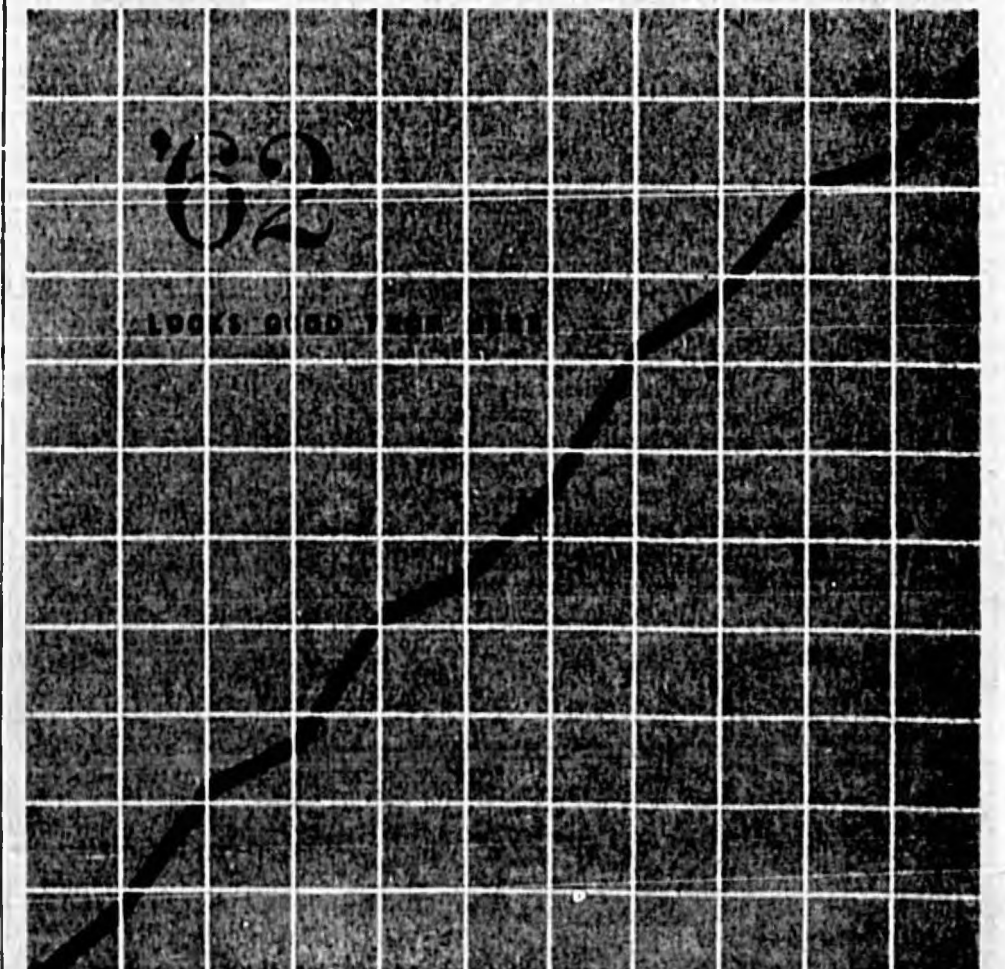

This is how they score in the two voting records: ACA ADA
 Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, Mass. 70% 20%
 Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, Ia. 84 11
 Both records indicating that Hickenlooper is the more conservative, he should win.

The Seminole cages are taking their (4-1) season record against the Leesburg team that two weeks ago whipped the Oviedo Lions in second round playoffs of the Elks Bowl Tournament in Leesburg with the Yellow Jackets the host team.

The Oviedo team is taking to Titusville a (2-5) record for the season after Tuesday's loss to the Oak Ridge Pioneers. The Oviedo team is reportedly in top condition with Thompson back in the playing ranks after a brief bout with the flu.

Sanford has run into the same kind of trouble with Bubba Davis laid up for the Seminoles and not in condition to start for the team tonight. Mike Woodruff, top scorer for the Seminoles lineup, has also had some virus infection which may affect his play if he is able to start tonight.

The Seminoles have had a touch-and-go battle all season barely edging opponents in three of the four straight wins before falling to Wildwood Tuesday. Winning three games by only a small point margin, Oviedo was the only major victory for the Seminoles with a 53-37 victory.

'Hurry Now' Shoots For SOKC Win Column

Charles Lovely's sensational young Hurry Now, will be out to get back into the win column tonight at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club in the grade B ninth race.

The speedy pup who went right up the ladder from his maiden race to grade B without tasting defeat gets his second shot tonight at a grade B victory and graduation to feature competition. A victory in tonight's race will elevate Hurry Now to grade A races and a chance to prove himself against the best runners at the track.

In the featured 10th race on tonight's card, Grady Lumpkins' Lovely Boy also will be attempting to get back into his winning ways. The top-notch runner has gone four times without victory and will be attempting to preserve his grade A status with a victory tonight.

Also running in the feature will be Wade Tray, George McLain, Lashes, Nite Magic, Friero Freight, Step in Style, and Saddle Mark.

Just one week from tonight two SOKC stars, Inaugural winner O.B.'s D.D.T. and Tuffy O'Leary will clash on the local oval with two ace speedsters from Tampa and two from Jacksonville in the second of three Tri-City match races which get underway at Tampa tomorrow night. The final race in the series is slated for Jacksonville Jan. 20.

Hatters 'Surprise' Tampa Quints

The Stetson Hatters surprised the favored Tampa Spartans here Thursday night with a strategy filled game that saw the Hatters come out on top by the score of 31-19 with the game being decided in a five minute overtime.

The game was expected to be a high scoring affair but from the time the first basket was made, it was obvious that the game was going to be a hard fought defensive battle with only three field goals being made in the first six minutes.

Jeel Hancock and Dalton Epting once again led the Hatters in scoring as Hancock racked up six field goals and six free throws for a 18 point total and Epting tallied for only two field goals but adding nine all-important free throws. Don Boyd led the Spartans with 19 points.

The game began at a slow pace with Tampa scoring first and in an attempt to open up the Spartan defense, the Hatters passed the ball back and forth for a couple of minutes and then scoring on their famous jump shot from the outside. The game proceeded at this slow pace throughout the first half and at the end of the half, the scoreboard showed the Hatters in front 23-19.

A near capacity crowd saw the fired-up Hatters return to the second half with victory in their eyes, but the Spartans closed the gap. With a little more than eight minutes left in the second half, they took the lead only to see it change hands continuously until the final gun.

The game ended in a 45-43 deadlock. By this time nerves were tense and tempers hot, with numerous fouls being called. As the overtime began, every fan in the gym was on the edge of his seat, tense with ever-increasing excitement. Stetson jumped off to a short lead which was quickly evened by the Spartans and free throws by Epting and Hancock put the game on ice at 32-49 but a last minute rebound and long pass downcourt enabled

Ray Moody to sink the final basket alone.

It ended with the Hatters winning one of their most important victories of the season 51-49. The Hatters now have a 9-3 season and are on first place in the Florida Intercollegiate Conference with last minute rebound and a 2-0 record. The Spartans are now 6-1 for the season.

Goalby Defends Tourney Crown

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Bob Goalby, a former Illinois football player, starts defense of his Los Angeles Open golf crown today as he goes to the tee in the first round of the $45,000 event-opening wedge to goldfom's richest tour.

Goalby, a longshot, won the event last year as he whipped such stars as Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Art Wall and others—and they all are back for another crack at him this time.

Victory is worth $7,500 to the winner and every man in the field has his sights set on the jackpot.

"I've been playing well recently," said Goalby on the practice tee. "My putting has been particularly good so I think I've got a good chance."

Passing Aces To Pace Senior Bowl Classic

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) — Passing aces Ed Wilson of Arizona and Mike Cotten of Texas square off Saturday in the 13th annual Senior Bowl all-star game as 50 college gridlers get their first taste of "play for pay" football.

Cotten's southerners are favored by six and one-half points to hand the North squad its eighth defeat in the series. Some 37,000 fans, and a national (NBC) television audience, are expected to witness the kickoff.

Baltimore Colt coach Weeb Ewbank, making his third appearance as southern mentor, plans to utilize Cotten's accuracy with a three-end offense—ends Gary Collins of Maryland and Dave Edwards of Auburn on the line and end Bill Miller of Miami as a flanker back.

Along with the aerial attack, the southerners will have the running of halfback Ronnie Bull, the third string All-America from Baylor, and powerhouse Earl Gros, the big LSU fullback.

The Yankees, coached by Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys who is making his first appearance here, will be out to avenge last year's closing seconds defeat. In the 1961 edition, South quarterback Norm Snead connected with just 10 seconds left to give the southerners a 33-24 victory.

Landry had one problem most coaches would like to have—an abundance of good quarterbacks. But the Cowboys coach decided to go with Ed Wilson, the flashy little ace from Arizona. And understandably, during the regular season, the 164-pound aerialist completed 79 of 164 for 1,294 yards and 10 touchdowns.

As receivers, Wilson will have ends Larry Vargo of Detroit and Dave Vill of Boston U.

The North's running attack will be centered around halfbacks Jim Dillard of Oklahoma State and Tom Larche of Utah State and fullback Steve Binms of unbeaten Rutgers.

Pittsburgh Mum Of 6 Suspended

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — University of Pittsburgh officials maintained a tight-lipped attitude today concerning a report that six members of the school's football team had been suspended.

University officials refused to elaborate on the suspensions or why they were imposed. However, athletic director Frank Carvey confirmed the disciplinary moves but said he was not certain of their durations.

Listed among those suspended was sophomore backfield star Paul Martha who figured highly in coach John Michelosen's plans for 1962.

LSU Meeting On Dietzel Fate

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — LSU's governing board met today to decide whether or not to fight coach Paul Dietzel's going over to Army, which could virtually strip the university football staff.

Dietzel continued to say only "no comment," but it was no secret a special meeting of the LSU board of supervisors was called to consider his request for a contract release so he could become head coach at West Point.

Board Chairman John P. Dolas said Thursday of such a request, "I understand it is forthcoming." But he said the formal purpose of today's closed-door meeting was "to consider matters of importance to the university."

Despite angry reactions from individual members—including a threat to seek "immediate legal action" to hold Dietzel to the four remaining years of his contract—the board was expected to let Dietzel go.

POWERFULLY IMPORTANT!

Are we letting it fade away?

In America, you can speak your piece...openly and without fear. Our Constitution guarantees you the right to speak and write what you think.

Half the world has lost that right. And, unless we keep America powerful... strong enough to defend this freedom against all threats... it could fade away. Only so long as we guard freedom of the individual and of enterprise will America continue to be the most powerful and prosperous nation on earth.

Freedom of enterprise is the reason America is the world's most powerful electric nation. Investor-owned, tax-paying power companies have made her so and will keep her so. That's why, together with Florida's other power companies, we are bending every effort to enlarge, improve, and strengthen our interconnecting network for all Florida.

It is the reason we are engaged now in our greatest expansion program. Projects now under construction will add 1,875,000 kilowatts to our generating capability by 1966—virtually doubling our present system capability. The purpose: to help make Florida... and America... more and more powerful!

16 Area Youths Attend Clinic

Five members of the Seminole High School band and 11 members of the Glee Club left Thursday for Miami and the annual Music Educator Assn. clinic meet, to be held through Saturday.

Band members who are attending are Sara Priest, clarinetist, who will play in the all state concert band and Billy Bower, oboist, who will also play in the all state sight reading band.

It was emphasized that the two groups are attending by invitation only. The clinic is not a competition, a spokesman said, but is an instructional school.

'Rough' Terrain Warned On Federal Housing Move

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A top Senate Democrat warned today of rough terrain ahead on Capitol Hill for President Kennedy's plan to raise the Federal Housing Agency to cabinet rank.

"I think the opposition is increasing," McClellan told a reporter. "There is more sentiment against it now than when the plan was initiated last session."

Business Briefs

Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc. recorded a sales increase of 3.41 percent during the 52-week period ended Dec. 16 compared with the corresponding period a year ago, it was announced.

The volume was $762,891,311 compared with $737,710,015 last year, an increase of $25,181,296.

For the 24-week period ended Dec. 16, sales were $348,387,300 compared with $337,849,581, an increase of $10,537,719, or 3.12 percent over 1960.

The bill would transfer all the duties of the Federal Housing Agency to a department of urban affairs and housing. This would include sales clearance, home mortgages, grants for mass transit and other existing community development programs.

An increase also was registered for the 4-week period ended Dec. 16, when sales totaled $61,015,671 compared with $59,046,842 last year, an increase of $1,968,829 or 3.33 percent.

Proponents contend that with the transformation of the nation to a predominantly urban economy, the 70 per cent of the population which now lives in cities needs representation in the cabinet.

Winn-Dixie, which operates a number of supermarkets in the local area, now has 545 retail stores throughout the South compared with 525 units a year ago.

Opponents have attacked the proposal from several firing positions.

Herman Gade of Winter Park, has been admitted as a General Partner of A. C. Allyn & Co., Douglas Casey, managing partner, has announced.

McClellan was one of four members of his committee who signed a minority report last session, calling it a "big city bill" which would lead to more lavish spending and new federal encroachments on local government.

A. C. Allyn & Co., a New York Stock Exchange member firm and one of the country's leading investment banking firms, recently opened four new Florida offices in Winter Park, Melbourne, Sanford, and Tallahassee. These offices are under the direction of Mr. Gade who originally opened them while President of Security Associates, Inc., and directed them while a partner of Sterling Grace prior to its acquisition by A. C. Allyn & Co.

Mrs. Kennedy Heads The List Of Best Dressed

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy heads the list of the world's best dressed women for the second year in a row and was joined at the fashion summit by her sister, Princess Lee Radziwill of London, and a close friend, Mrs. Charles B. Wrightman of Palm Beach.

The New York Couture Group, which conducts the annual best-dressed poll among 2,000 fashion experts, added two other new names to the 1961 list. They were Mrs. Herve Alphonse, wife of the French ambassador to the United States, and Mrs. Umberto Agnelli, a member of the Italian family which manufactures Fiat cars.

Making room for the newcomers on the list of the most chic dozen were actress Audrey Hepburn and Mrs. Norman K. Winston, wife of a New York real estate developer, both of whom were elevated to the couture group's permanent fashion hall of fame.

Two women among 1960's best dressed were dropped from the list—Mrs. Stavros Niarchos of the Greek shipping family and Mrs. Patrick Guinness of the Irish stout-brewing family.

The other winners of the fashion world's highest accolade, all repeats from the 1960 list, were Mrs. Gloria Rubio Guinness, Mexican-born wife of banker Loel Guinness of the brewing family; Queen Sirikit of Thailand, petite consort of King Phumiphon Aduldet; Donna Marcella Agnelli, wife of Gianni Agnelli of the Turin automotive family; Mrs. Evangeline Bell Bruce, wife of U. S. Ambassador to Britain David K. E. Bruce; Princess Alexandra of Kent; Vicomtesse Jacqueline de Ribes of Paris; Mrs. Dorinda Dixon Ryan, wife of New York millionaire John Barry Ryan III.

Chapel Names Committee

A pulp committee to select and recommend a new minister for the Altamonte Springs Community Chapel was appointed at a special meeting Wednesday night according to A. G. Burroughs, chairman of the board of trustees.

The resignation of Dr. Walter Cremons who has been serving the Chapel became effective January 1.

RAINBOW "BEAU" for 1962 is Alex Carman, who was chosen by the girls of the Order of the Rainbow as their "Beau." His name was announced at the Rainbow-DeMolay Ball held at the Shrine Club Friday night.

Fresh Attempts Made To Bring Peace To Laos

GENEVA (UPI)—The Russian and British co-chairmen of the 14-nation Laos peace conference may ask the jungle kingdom's three rival princes to come here for a fresh attempt to settle their differences, it was learned today.

Lin and MacDonald, but that no firm decision was reached. Today's meeting—the first full session of the new year—could decide to listen to "neutralist" Prince Souvanna Phouma before calling in his Communist half-brother, Prince Souphanouvong, and pro-Western Prince Boun Oum, premier of the Laos government, the sources said.

Solon Not Disposed To Vote For Proposed Bond Issue

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Chairman Richard B. Russell of the Senate Armed Services Committee said today he was not disposed to vote for the proposed United Nations bond issue. He termed UN use of force in the Congo a tragic mistake.

The Georgia Democrat said in an interview that when the United States "joined with Russia" in moving to control anti-Communist Katanga it gave Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru "the excuse he was looking for" to invade Portuguese Goa. The action, he said, also has caused Indonesian President Sukarno to threaten invasion of New Guinea.

Dance Planned

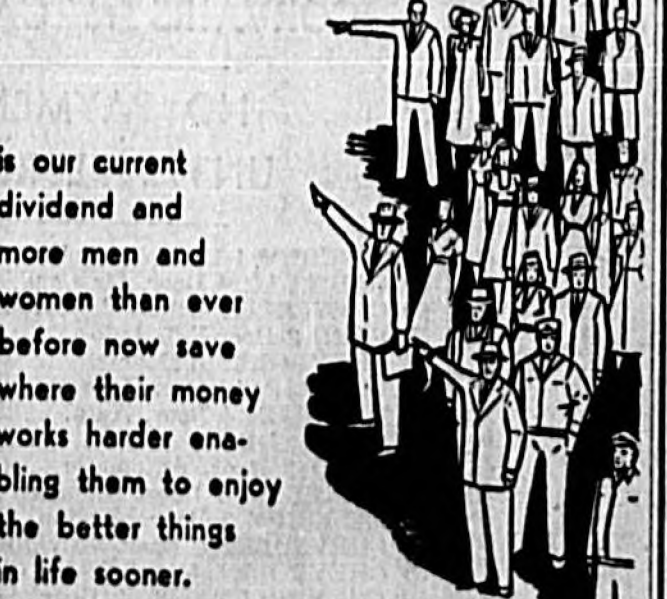

A post-basketball game dance has been planned for tonight in the SHS cafeteria, beginning after the game and progressing until 12. The National Honor Society is the sponsoring organization and refreshments will be served.

Russell, a member of the Senate appropriations and space committees, and congressional atomic committee, is the Senate's senior military authority. He is probably privy to more military intelligence than any other senator.

Medical Care Near End Of Agenda

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy's No. 1 domestic goal-minded care for the elderly financed by Social Security taxes—seemed likely today to wind up near the bottom of the list of things Congress will consider this year.

ance yet that even a skeletonized version can be enacted. This is the situation despite assertions by Democratic party strategists that a presidential victory on this issue would give a major boost to Democratic prospects in next November's elections.

Bing Crosby Has Surgery

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—Singer Bing Crosby, 57, undergoes surgery today for the removal of kidney stones.

The outlook for action on the bill undoubtedly will be a major topic when Kennedy confers at the White House Saturday with Chairman Wilbur Mills, (D-Ark.), of the House Ways & Means Committee.

Fresh Attempts Made To Bring Peace To Laos

GENEVA (UPI)—The Russian and British co-chairmen of the 14-nation Laos peace conference may ask the jungle kingdom's three rival princes to come here for a fresh attempt to settle their differences, it was learned today.

Mills' committee also has jurisdiction over three other major items of the administration's legislative program. All of them are tabbed for action ahead of the medical care bill. The three are Kennedy's liberal tariff-cutting program, his tax revision package and a major overhaul of the federal-state welfare program.

Solon Not Disposed To Vote For Proposed Bond Issue

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Chairman Richard B. Russell of the Senate Armed Services Committee said today he was not disposed to vote for the proposed United Nations bond issue. He termed UN use of force in the Congo a tragic mistake.

The controversial plan to expand Social Security benefits into the new field of hospitalization and nursing home benefits has been pigeonholed since last spring in the 25-man committee. Kennedy still does not have the 13 votes needed to squeeze out even a compromise.

Dance Planned

A post-basketball game dance has been planned for tonight in the SHS cafeteria, beginning after the game and progressing until 12. The National Honor Society is the sponsoring organization and refreshments will be served.

State Rep. Gordon Frederick said today he would not consider any draft as far as running for the legislature. As a matter of fact Frederick today turned over qualification papers to the Herald with a note. "Be My Guest!" Said Mr. Frederick: "If you can muster the $50... you run."

By the way only 76 days to qualify for the legislative race... Anyone want to lend me $50?

The word is that garden clubs around town are up in arms over the landscaping around City Hall and the Courthouse... And are they mad about Sid Richard's rock garden.

Mayor J. H. (Jimmy) Crapps will have his new name plate at tonight's City Commission meeting... Did you know that the name plate comes from submerged wood 115 years old out of Lake Monroe?

The city will once again discuss the condemnation ordinance tonight... what the ordinance does is set procedure for condemning structures in the city.

Sheriff J. L. Hobby has ordered his men to start clamping down on motorist speeding in posted zones.

Some trouble developing between the city and School Board on allowing the city recreation department to use school gyms to carry out its program... A special meeting has been set up between Dept. of Schools R. T. Milwee and City Manager W. E. Knowles to iron out the problem.

Earl Higginbotham tells us that Seminole Raceway will open up the first of next year... Plans are now being drawn for a spanking new clubhouse.

Drug Store Robbed Of Narcotics

Several hundred dollars worth of narcotics were stolen from Keyser's Drug Store at the Longwood Plaza Friday in the first of three major break-ins Friday and Saturday, the Sheriff's office reported today.

Sheriff J. L. Hobby ordered an extensive search on for three men wanted in connection with the three break-ins that hit the area. Other break-ins were at Senny Holding and Mortgage Corp. and the Mid-Florida Golf Course.

Hobby said that "quite a lot of narcotics were stolen from the drug store as well as $1,200 in cash, 20 cartons of cigarettes, lighters and lunch meat. Entry was gained by breaking a hole through the wall in the bathroom and then entering the main building.

The mortgage company was entered by breaking a lock on the back of the building with $125 stolen.

The three then went to the Mid-Florida Golf Course near Sanlando Springs and according to Hobby were arrested off by officers.

Deputies found the safe lying over on its side in the middle of the floor. Apparently nothing had been taken.

Petition Blasts Phone Service

A petition will be circulated for signatures of Longwood businessmen and residents this week in protest of services in the area by the Winter Park Telephone Co.

Authorized by the City Council at its meeting last Thursday night, the petition will point out what was termed as "gross unfairness" to small businesses which are charged business rates although they presently must share party lines with residential listings.

"We wouldn't be so opposed to the rates which we feel are excessive if we had service to warrant such charges. There are many times when our business houses are hampered by residential parties who tie up the service for hours," the city officials explained.

Circulating the petition will be G. T. Waltz who was advised by Longwood Mayor A. R. Lormann to list all points of grievance in the petition including a statement advising that if relief is not forthcoming, the city will take the matter before the State Utility Commission.

Young was identified as an Inglis motel owner.

Casselberry Sunday Liquor Ban Attempt Fails

A meeting of the Board of Aldermen, called in an attempt to halt Sunday sales of alcoholic beverages in Casselberry, failed to materialize Saturday morning when only the two aldermen who called the meeting and the town clerk, Mrs. Lillian Beisel, showed up at Municipal Hall.

Called by Mrs. Hope Bennett and Rohn Lady, the meeting also lacked the services of Attorney Kenneth McIntosh, the town's legal representative, who Friday was advised by Casselberry Mayor Joseph Laird that he would not be needed for the special meeting. Neither had he been asked to attend the 7:30 p. m. regular board meeting today when newly elected officials will be sworn into office, McIntosh said. However, there was an attorney from an Orange County legal firm employed by Hibbard Casselberry, developer of the town in the audience along with 10 Casselberry residents. Casselberry, who had a tape recorder in operation on a second row seat at his side, said, when asked, that he thought he would record all meetings of the board from now on.

When it became obvious after nearly half an hour that a quorum would not be available, Mrs. Bennett and Lady called it quits and told the audience that in view of the tape recorder they would answer questions outside the building.

Notice of the meeting was posted according to town regulations and copies of the notice were sent to ministers and area officials as well as to all other members of the Casselberry Board of Aldermen, Mrs. Bennett said.

"They all were called and told not to come but I've been advised that a number of ministers will be present for Monday night's meeting to see what we do after the new board takes over," she added.

"I think this is a fine example of the Mickey Mouse government our town has had to put up with in the past and I think the people are getting tired of it and are going to call for us to put an end to it," Lady commented.

Today's meeting will be held in the Casselberry Women's Club Building on Overbrook Dr.

She's Willing To Pay Legal Fee

Mrs. Bennett said this morning that she will offer to pay personally Attorney Kenneth McIntosh to draft an ordinance rescinding that which allows beer and liquor sales in the town on Sundays in an effort to get the issue under discussion by the Board of Aldermen.

"I've tried repeatedly to have it included on the meeting agendas without success and I've also tried to question legality of the manner in which this Lillandale Subdivision plat was accepted without any results," Mrs. Bennett said.

"I'm not against anybody for taking a drink... that's his own business. But I do think that we ought to do the thing that is fair to other businesses selling beer and liquor and come in line with county regulations. I've learned that prices are raised here on Sunday and that certainly is not fair to other county businessmen," she added.

"We've issued seven licenses for the sale of alcoholic beverages in this town. The mayor even went so far as to issue a beer license to a filling station that isn't in the city limits of Casselberry. When I found out about it I questioned the operator and he said that he didn't need to be in the town, he had a post office box in Casselberry. I called this to the attention of the board and the license was rescinded and the man's money refunded," she continued.

Fermented Berries All Picked

12,000 Robins Learn Sober Truth

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI) — Earl Lopez likes to look out the window of his Oakland home on a Sunday morning and take proprietary notice of a robin or two hopping across his lawn.

But Sunday his morning visitors brought some friends, and their families, and a few hangers-on—and at added up to an estimated 3,000 robins occupying his lawn, his porch, the sidewalk and the street.

It was the second wholesale robin invasion in as many days in the San Francisco area. Saturday an estimated 12,000 of the red-breasted set converged on a neighborhood in Los Altos, 25 miles to the south, and got happily swack-ed on overripe pyracantha berries.

"I was still in bed when they came," he said. "They were really making a racket. The berries, when overripe

I never saw so many birds in my whole life."

Branches on trees in front of his house sagged under the weight of the robins, and the birds so gorged themselves that they wandered dazedly around the street, refusing to flap their wings even when cars approached.

And drunk, said residents of the Los Altos neighborhood, was what they were. "They wouldn't even walk away from you when you approached them," said one. They wouldn't fly—on one wing or two.
