

U.S. Keeps Canal Zone, Rusk Informs Panama

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk says the United States will not withdraw from the Panama Canal Zone or give up its military base along the vital waterway.

Asked Sunday if the United States could afford to give up the zone or its military base, Rusk said: "The answer is no, and I have not heard any responsible person take any other viewpoint."

In a television interview Rusk said all parties involved in negotiations started after the bloody rioting in Panama are agreed that "the first order of business is the restoration of peace."

Panamanian President Roberto F. Chiari has demanded renegotiation of the 1903 treaty that gave the United States perpetual control of the Canal Zone and Panamanian Ambassador Aquilino Boyd has told the United Nations that the United States must give up the canal. Rusk indicated that Chiari was in agreement with U. S. representatives in Panama that peaceful negotiations could iron out the crisis started last Thursday over flying of the Panamanian flag in the Canal Zone.

The secretary has been in close touch with Thomas C. Mann, newly appointed assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs who has been handling talks with Chiari.

Rusk said discussion was difficult under current tension in Panama. He reiterated that peace and security for U. S. citizens and property in the Canal Zone were the key matters to which "everyone is giving maximum attention."

He blamed "elements hostile both to Panama and the United States" for intensifying violence and fomenting friction between the two nations.

Rusk said Cuban Premier Fidel Castro "and Castro agents have been taking a hand in this one way or another." He added: "I think he has some responsibility for this."

RUDY L. SLOAN, an ACL engineer and local real estate broker, Friday formally announced his candidacy for the office of Tax Collector in the 1964 elections.

One Man 'Crime Wave' Keeps Police On Hop

A 24-year-old Sanford man, Oliver L. York Jr., reportedly residing at 610 West Ninth Street, kept Sanford police and other busy for a brief period Sunday afternoon . . . and is in the city jail today on multiple charges.

Police Chief Roy Williams recounted the incidents this morning thusly: York took an Air Force uniform from a car owned by Joseph W. Traylor, just passing through, at a local restaurant. Traylor protested and York punched him. York is charged with petty larceny and assault and battery in this instance.

Chief Williams said York then went to his boarding house and stole a .22 pistol. He is charged with carrying concealed weapons in this instance.

York, according to the police chief, forced Mrs. Laura Garrett at pistol point from her car at First Street and Magnolia Avenue, and drove off.

At First and French Avenue, York became involved in an accident with a truck. Chief Williams said York then proceeded to a car occupied by Tom Sayre and Sampson Harbert and demanded a ride. Chief Williams said Harbert took a gun from the glove compartment and held York until arrival of police.

Sheriff J. L. Holby said this morning his deputies are investigating the theft of several cases of whiskey from the Melody Bar, Altamonte Springs, over the weekend.

Sheriff's deputies were continuing their investigation of the $200 holdup of the U-Town grocery on Lake Howell Road, near Tanglewood, Friday evening. A white man, wearing a stocking mask, threatened the manager, Bernice Haxley, with a revolver and escaped with $200.

City-County Drafting New Site Proposals For Board Of Control

By Fred Van Pelt Seminole and Sanford leaders and an proposed university site and endeavor to agree on new proposals in an effort to bring the new undergraduate school to Seminole County. Tuesday's meeting follows the 3-3 deadlock by the Board of Control Friday afternoon at Tallahassee, when the state officers reached an impasse in the choice between the Lake Ada site, south of Sanford city limits, and the Bluestone site, 12 miles south of Orlando. Board of Control members requested Orange and Seminole County leaders to submit

WOODRUFF BUILDING, at the northwest corner of First Street and Park Avenue, will be razed and the site used for a city parking lot when deed of transfer has been formally negotiated. The City has contracted to purchase the property for a reported $60,000. Purchase price will be paid from parking meter revenues, although the City has not yet decided whether to place parking meters on this lot. (Herald Photo) other new site proposals in the two counties, but not eliminating Lake Ada, Bluestone, Econlockhatchee River and Deseret sites.

Local leaders today, in the first blurb after the Tallahassee split vote, began to express optimism that the tie vote "was a victory for the Lake Ada site, in the long run." They said they felt it was a defeat for the Bluestone site, "in that the politicians could not muster enough votes to give the university to Orlando."

Seminole and Sanford leaders this morning seemed tempted "to rest their laurels" on the Lake Ada and Econ sites but said that at Tuesday's conference they will consider other possibilities.

Orange leaders, in the heated discussion which followed the deadlock at Tallahassee Friday, informed the Board members they have four more sites to offer, over and above Bluestone and Deseret. Two of these are north of Highway 50 and east of Orlando, one bordering on the Seminole-Orange County line. Another is at Lake Apopka, already ruled out by one Board member "as being outside the area designated by the 1962 Legislature."

Members of the Board of Control are Chairman Baya Harrison, St. Petersburg; John Pace, Pensacola; Dr. Wayne McCall, Ocala; Gert Schmidt, Jacksonville; Dr. Charles Foreman, Fort Lauderdale, and Chester Whittle, Orlando.

These members, in an informal discussion, voiced their preferences: Harrison, Schmidt and Pace, for Lake Ada, and Foreman, Whittle and McCall, for Bluestone. McCall said he would prefer Econ but would vote for Bluestone.

The Board got into a hassle when Whittle proposed the door be opened to other sites in Orange and Seminole Counties. McCall, pointing out there had been no vote actually, insisted and won his point. The vote was 3-3 for Lake Ada, then 3-3 for Bluestone, and then 3-2 against Econ. Pace and McCall voted for Econ; Harrison abstained.

McCall questioned Harrison's right to vote, as chairman. Roberts Rules of Procedure was studied, and indicated Harrison could vote. When McCall persisted, Schmidt threatened to "adjourn the meeting and walk out."

Sen. Mack Cleveland and Douglas Stenstrom, from Seminole County, insisted the Board reach a decision, "whether for Orange or Seminole County." Orange spokesmen also insisted in the same vein, pointing out there always has been cordial relations between the two counties but "because of the tension created these last several months over this question these cordial relations may not continue."

Stenstrom protested extremely so in voicing his opinion the Board should decide Friday, adding that "you may as well give the university to Orange County if you are going to throw the door open. We have spent many hours and thousands of dollars to follow your instructions in our offerings . . . but we have nothing else to offer."

Board members indicated they will take up the question of a university site again at its Feb. 14 meeting at Gainesville.

County Board To Reorganize

County Commission will reorganize for the coming year with the election of a chairman and vice chairman and the naming of committees. There will be no change in the Commission membership: Gen. J. C. Hutchison, James P. Avery Jr., John Fitzpatrick, John Alexander and Leo Gary.

Art Meeting

The Sanford-Seminole Art Association will meet tonight at the Civic Center. The meeting will get underway at 7:30 p.m. There will be a demonstration of oil paintings of landscapes by E. B. Stowe.

Success Rule

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. (UPI) — Miss Alice Louise Grant 68, an English teacher at Frankfort Community High School, said upon being chosen as the Illinois teacher of the year that she had always given her long ago: "Think like a man, Look like a girl, Act like a lady, And work like a dog."

Army To Fly 4,000 Troops To Pacific

TOKYO (UPI) — The U. S. Army will fly 4,000 troops across the Pacific next month to test a new concept for stopping aggression within hours, it was disclosed today.

U. S. Army headquarters in Japan announced plans for air-lifting the 25th Infantry Division brigade task force from Hawaii to Okinawa.

Ships dispatched from a U. S. naval base in the Philippines will meet the soldiers on the beach with artillery, tanks and other heavy equipment needed in warfare.

The transpacific war games follows last autumn's airlift of a full army division from the United States to West Germany.

Washington is testing and refining methods for rapid development of combat troops and equipment in order to reduce American forces stationed overseas and to better meet sudden wars in remote corners of the globe.

The United States announced in December that it will withdraw some 3,500 Air Force men from Japan during 1964.

Other American troop reductions in the Far East may follow.

The Army said the February exercise will be the first of its kind ever staged in the Pacific.

Firemen To Install At Lake Mary

The annual installation of officers for the Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Department will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Fire Hall.

Installed will be E. Richard (Woody) Friend, president; Harvey Pugh, vice president; Roger Crocker, secretary, and Ralph Schweickert, treasurer.

Directors of the organization are Ed Zimmerman, Bob Willis, Charles Walker, Sidney Fowler and Randall Chase.

During the business meeting following the installation, final plans will be made for the firemen's annual barbecue supper to be held Feb. 8. Plans also will be made for calling the large area where the fire trucks are stored and workdays for this project will be scheduled.

All members of the department are urged to attend.

United Fund Total Stands At $31,911

The 1963 Seminole County United Fund has received $31,911 as of Jan. 10, according to a report today from Paul D. Lewis, campaign chairman, and Mrs. B. F. Ganas, executive secretary.

This amount, raised without the assistance of a professional fund raising organization this year, was greater than the amount received last year with professional help. Mrs. Ganas said. She pointed out, however, that only 67 per cent of the Fund's objective, $48,425, has been realized.

Seminole Demos Name Howell

By Jane Casselberry Roy Howell Sr., of Lake Mary has been named vice-chairman of the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee. Howell's appointment was made at a recent meeting of the committee at which time John McCloskey was named committeeman and Helen McCloskey was chosen committeewoman for precinct No. 1, Sanford.

W. O. Tanner Jr., was appointed for Precinct 3, Sanford and Jack Symes, Precinct 8, Goldenrod.

To fill the vacancies left by the resignation of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiggins of Fern Park's Precinct 23, Mrs. Lillian Severs and William Chambers were appointed.

County Commissioner John Alexander spoke before the group on the duties of his office and the progress made under the present administration.

Other commissioners who had been expected to attend were unable to do so as they were in Tallahassee.

Plans were discussed for political rallies to be held prior to the primaries.

Snow Falls In Pensacola

PENSACOLA (UPI) — It snowed here today for the second time in five years. Light snow flurries also were reported in Crestview and Milton in the Florida Panhandle.

Light snow was reported here New Year's Eve — the first snow since 1950.

With temperatures in the low 30's, the snow was expected to stay on the ground for a short time.

"It won't amount to much, though," said the Miami Weather Bureau.

Americans In Zanzibar Are Being Removed

ZANZIBAR (UPI) — A U. S. destroyer today began taking Americans off the newly independent island nation of Zanzibar, where a leftist rebellion overthrew the British-backed sultan and proclaimed a republic.

Observers in Nairobi, Kenya, on the African mainland opposite Zanzibar, said the new government was pro-Communist and some of its leaders were sympathizers with Communist China. There was speculation in Kenya that Zanzibar could become the Cuba of Africa—the first Communist foothold in the area.

Sources in Washington said some of the rebels are largely financed by the Communists, including those headed by Abdul Rahman Mohammed Babu, leader of the outlawed Umma party, and new defense and foreign minister. He was described as pro-Peking.

First reports said three persons were killed and 26 injured in the fighting that toppled Sultan Seyyid Jamshid Bin Khalife Saturday night and Sunday.

The nation's new leader is Sheikh Abed Karume, who was named president of the rebel republic.

Karume also is considered a Chinese Communist sympathizer by many observers.

Post Office Receipts Up

Sanford Post Office receipts were up $58,000 in 1963 over 1962, it was reported today by Postmaster Cecile Heard.

Receipts in 1963 totaled $297,993 as compared to $241,067 in 1962, Miss Heard said.

Last quarter receipts in 1963, mostly Christmas mail, was up 20 per cent. Receipts for the last quarter of 1963 and 1962, respectively, were $82,023 and $67,817.

Highest annual volume of the Sanford Post Office was $1.3 million prior to the reactivation of Sanford Naval Air Station when a woman's dress manufacturer operated at the air base.

Best Dressed

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Jack Benny and Henry Fonda today held claim to the title of "best dressed men of 1964" given by the California Men's Apparel Club.

Satellite Off

YANDBERG AFB, Calif. (UPI) — The Air Force launched another secret satellite over the weekend from this West Coast missile base.

Winter's Worst Storm Batters Eastern U. S.

By United Press International The winter's worst storm raged throughout the eastern half of the nation today. Strong winds and heavy snow whipped up near blizzard conditions. Drifts piled up 10 feet high in Illinois.

Hundreds of schools were closed. Roads were blocked and snowplows were hard-pushed to keep others open. Transportation was generally snarled in what was one of the worst storms in years in some areas.

At least 22 deaths were blamed on bad weather. The weather bureau posted heavy snow or hazardous driving warnings with near blizzard conditions for most of the Ohio Valley and Tennessee and from the Carolinas through most of the North Atlantic states.

Cold wave warnings stretched from the lower Mississippi Valley into Kentucky and Tennessee. The temperature dropped to 38 below in Bismarck, N. D., Sunday.

The cold pushed temperatures down to 18 as far south as Tucson, Ariz., and El Paso, Tex.

Slight citrus danger was possible in Texas' Rio Grande Valley where freezing temperatures were expected.

Coast Guardsmen and firemen groped their way through heavy snowfall Sunday night to rescue 10 men stranded on ice offshore from Port Clinton, Ohio, near Catawba Island. The Coast Guard said the men, who were ice fishermen, fortunately were not on ice that broke off in choppy water and high winds.

Eight inches of snow fell in St. Louis. There were some school closings in St. Louis County. The St. Louis basketball team, en route home from playing at Cincinnati, was stranded in Chicago, unable to get to St. Louis. Schools were closed in the Kansas City area.

SNAS Asks Bids On 2 Contracts

Area small business concerns were invited today to submit bids for two contracts estimated to cost less than $50,000 at Sanford Naval Air Station.

Bids will be open at 2 p.m. Jan. 29 for installation of toilet facilities in building 126, to cost less than $25,000.

Bids will be opened at 2 p.m. Jan. 31 for replacement of automatic line transfer and engine controls for an emergency power system, estimated at less than $25,000.

LBJ To Meet With Bryant About Visit

MIAMI (UPI) — President Johnson will meet with Gov. Farris Bryant and other Florida Democrats in Washington on Thursday to settle details for Johnson's Feb. 27 Miami Beach appearance.

It will be his first political address since assuming office. The $100-a-plate fund raising dinner will be in the plush Fountainebleau Hotel. A spokesman said indications are "several vice presidential hopefuls" will attend the Miami Beach meal.

Aliens Reminded Of Registration

Aliens now in the Sanford area are required to reregister with the Immigration and Naturalization Department before Jan. 31. It was reported today by Postmaster Cecile Heard.

As may obtain the proper information card at any postoffice. It must be filled in and handed to a postoffice clerk — it should NOT be mailed.

That wraps it up for today. Let's get that university!

With what? someone asked. With Lake Ada, of course. Bluestone was virtually eliminated. Because of its location we don't believe it could get another vote. Because of Lake Ada's location its accessibility and its built-in facilities there's all the chance in the world that it could get the one vote it needs.

We say that Bluestone was virtually eliminated because we understand that the Board of Control now has all but decided that the school must be located east of Orlando and north of SR 50. That means it must be northeast of Orlando. You can't get very far northeast of Orlando without finding yourself in Seminole, right? Right!

Let's roll up our sleeves a little higher and apply just a little more elbow grease.

The Clock hears that the Lake Monroe Inn is being sold by Frank Durzo to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pyle of Sanford.

The March of Dimes film, "At the Edge," was shown to the Sanford Fire Department and all firemen present immediately volunteered to participate in the county's 1964 campaign by taking the leadership in an area with which he is familiar. That's the way Chief Mack Cleveland and his firemen take the bull by the horns, so to speak. By the way, many more volunteers are needed, says Chairman Bill Reed.

The Herald's had numerous compliments on the special bowling series it ran on the sports pages last week. The articles were entitled "How To Teach Youngsters to Bowl." We're trying to make arrangements now to run another.

Camel Bruce, supervisor of voter registration, says that those who have not returned their postal cards to her office should do so at once. The deadline has passed for mailing them in but says her office will continue to accept them if you'll get them in quickly. If you don't you might not be entitled to vote in the coming primaries.

Campaign Chairman Paul Lewis and Mrs. B. F. Ganas, executive secretary of the United Fund of Seminole County, want to give an extra big word of "thanks" to John Daniels and his volunteers for the tremendous task they performed during the fund's most recent campaign.

Another Clock watcher's comment about trucks on First Street: "It is true," says the watcher, "that trucks can be an inconvenience to motorists and pedestrians, but only because we have become so impatient. How many of us stop to think these trucks bring merchandise we need or want? Perhaps we should consider what these truck drivers must contend with to make our shopping more pleasant." The watcher has been a resident of Sanford all her life. She adds, "I guess I was moved by thinking of people living too fast, myself included. But our gripes are only from our demands."

By Julian Stenstrom Friday was quite a day. We didn't get the university. Neither did we lose it. Some people were disappointed. Others even said we might as well give up and let Orange County have it.

"No we won't!" said the majority of Seminole leaders. "We haven't come this far to lose."

We agreed Tossing in the sponge now is the last thing Seminole ought to do. Seminole has three votes. It needs only one more. Let's get after that fourth vote.

North Orlando Committee To Meet

By Miss Griswold
A meeting of the North Orlando Christmas Party Committee will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Civic Building at which time reports on the Dec. 15 event will be heard.
A full financial report will be presented and it is expected that a fund will be established for future community celebrations with money left on hand. Funds were secured through donations and money-making projects sponsored by participating clubs and organizations.

When telephones looked this way back in 1882, you can bet there were plenty of people around predicting that this new "phone" idea would never catch on.

But phones did catch on. Constantly improving . . . providing broader service. Today, here in Florida, Southern Bell has more than 1,650,000 telephones in operation. And still the planning and working goes on. In 1964 more than $79 million will be spent in the state to add new telephone facilities and improve existing ones. The number of customers served will top 1,000,000, and some 99,000 phones will be installed. By the end of the year Southern Bell's total investment in Florida will reach $762 million.

These are some of the plans for 1964. Like Florida itself, Southern Bell is pledged to progress. And we've come a long way since 1882.

Geneva HD Club Holds Meeting

The January meeting of the Geneva Home Demonstration Club was held last Wednesday at the Community Hall with Mrs. W. E. Yarborough and Mrs. W. B. Heath as hostesses.

Mrs. Thelma Mosholder, home economics teacher, will discuss the areas covered in her classes and will present six of her students.

Mrs. Joan Battle will explain the arts and crafts program and an exhibit of her students' work will be on display in rooms 20 and 21 before and after the meeting for the parents to view.

Phillip Fletcher, mechanical drawing instructor, will give a short talk and show exhibits from his department.

The medals and electrical program at the school will also be discussed.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting by the home economics students.

All parents of children attending the school are urged to be present for the meeting as this will be their first opportunity to inspect the new cafeteria which, though completed, is not being used pending arrival of equipment.

Members attending were Mrs. D. M. Ladd, Mrs. Elwood Shaw, Mrs. Vance Wagner, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. J. W. Byrnes, Mrs. Florence Wallace, Mrs. Van Shuler, Mrs. A. Baxter, Mrs. F. S. Duvette, Mrs. Donald Norton and Mrs. A. Murphy.

Guests were Mrs. Alice Rossier and Mrs. Belle Johnson from Muskegon, Mich., and Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Martin from the Elder Springs Club.

The next meeting of the Geneva club will be held on Feb. 12 at the home of Mrs. Bruce Perry.

Lichtenstein, my Europe, as principal, has a telephone book requiring only three pages.

Light, smoke-filled air, gas fumes and fumes from industrial plants often fade or others affect colors. In addition, fumes and smoke deposit a subtle film on the surface of the fabric that not only has a tendency to change the color, but can cause deterioration of the fibers as well. In some fabrics, particularly rayon acetates, this "fume fading" won't become visible until after cleaning . . . or whenever heat is applied, as in pressing. In such cases the fabric is at fault.

Frequent and thorough cleaning will in most cases help to remove the dangers of color fading, will remove the film and keep colors clear and bright. Send us your colorful garments, and all your dry cleaning, with confidence in quick, dependable service. We pickup and deliver.

When telephones looked this way back in 1882, you can bet there were plenty of people around predicting that this new "phone" idea would never catch on.

But phones did catch on. Constantly improving . . . providing broader service. Today, here in Florida, Southern Bell has more than 1,650,000 telephones in operation. And still the planning and working goes on. In 1964 more than $79 million will be spent in the state to add new telephone facilities and improve existing ones. The number of customers served will top 1,000,000, and some 99,000 phones will be installed. By the end of the year Southern Bell's total investment in Florida will reach $762 million.

These are some of the plans for 1964. Like Florida itself, Southern Bell is pledged to progress. And we've come a long way since 1882.

Expenditures Okayed By Village Council

Expenditures coming before the North Orlando Village Council last week were unanimously approved as follows:

Membership in the Florida League of Municipalities, $31.25; Citizens Band Radio for village police department, $180; Pure Oil Station, $75.64; ABC Fire Equipment Company, $140; North Orlando Civic Association, $10; Panning Lumber Company, $7.67 and, for printing 1,000 letterhead envelopes, $7.95.

In addition, council approved payment for a helper to assist the clerk, Mrs. Barbara Peters, in making a copy of the Seminole County Tax Roll and allocated an amount up to $100 to the volunteer fire department for purchases of miscellaneous small equipment.

Fire Chief Bill Hahn recommended that in the future an operating fund for the department be set up by council, with deposits to be made on a six-month basis, in order that needed equipment required to effect lower insurance ratings for village homeowners could be purchased on a regular schedule.

Hahn also suggested that the volunteer organization be authorized to elect its own chief and assistant chief, subject to approval by council, in the future.

Council unanimously agreed to sell the old fire truck for a sum of $150 to a Winter Park man who wished to remain anonymous.

In other business it was agreed that a letter be sent to Clyde Hart, chairman of the board for Seminole Raceway, explaining that use of roads in the Ranch Area for exercising the track horses has done a great deal of damage in the few weeks since the roads were graded and put in good repair. The Raceway will be asked to provide some system of reconditioning these roads.

It also was agreed that the county sanitarian be notified that a breeding grounds for flies has been created by the Raceway which is stockpiling manure on the shores of Wonder Lake.

Plans were made to continue with building a school bus shelter after announcement was made that permission had been received from Frank Fasula, manager of the North Orlando Company, for use of the vacant lot at Edgemon and Lombardy.

Council will call a special meeting within the next two weeks to act on the special election for a charter board and to further consider an ordinance for the annual March council election.

SNAS Spends $3 Million

If anyone has any doubts as to what the U.S. Naval Air Station means to the economy of Sanford and Seminole County, he has only to be reminded that during the past year a total of almost $3 million was expended or funded for various improvement projects at the base.

During the year a greatly expanded building and improvement program was inaugurated. Included in the various projects are improvements and repair to runways which should be completed during 1964, the construction of a maintenance training building which was completed, the construction of two RASC support buildings that are nearly completed, and under construction now are nose hangars, a washrack and pressure suit facilities.

In addition, during the year the station converted to JP-5 aviation fuel, installed the aviation fuel pipeline (done with private capital), is constructing a 300-man barracks which should be completed in late March, and completed is the building of eight units for family housing.

Among continuing projects are major building maintenance and repair, the rehabilitation of mess halls and barracks facilities, and under construction is a new colli-men's swimming pool and lake pavilion.

These are just a few of the improvements which are in the process of completion or have been completed during the year.

These improvements are a part of a five-year expansion program which is estimated to exceed $15 million by 1969. Meanwhile, awaiting Congressional clearance at this time are arch 1964 projects as an aircraft parking apron and squadron hangar plus shops and offices to be built at a total cost of $1,527,900.

The installation undoubtedly in the years to come will continue to add new facilities and it will more and more play a larger role in the overall economy of this county.

Of course, there is always the complaint of the noise created by the aircraft. But when we consider being without them the jet engines sound more like insurance and safety for ourselves and our families, both here and elsewhere.

Seminole County is proud to be the home of the Sanford Naval Air Station. And thousands of our citizens, we are confident, join The Herald in wishing for the Navy base here another successful year in 1964.

Letters

To The Editor

Editor: Herald

This is a copy of an open letter to the people of North Orlando which has been read at a meeting of the Village Council and which has been publicly posted at the Village Hall.

As councilman of North Orlando in charge of recreation, I have been working diligently in the name of the people to obtain the recreation area for the village.

This project was begun several months ago, but until recently we received no acknowledgment in the meeting, I have been working on a program but the council doesn't feel that the village should put money into the recreation area until it belongs to the people. This is understandable.

On Dec. 4, I had a meeting with Mr. Kenneth Frank, and as the representative of his company, he has assured me that it will be decided over to the village. Our meeting was amiable and both Mr. Frank and I feel that with a little negotiation between the council and himself, we can be certain of a much more friendly relationship than we have had with any former arbitrators.

As to the recreation program I have in mind, I hope to have a committee of sincerely interested people, some of whom have already been contacted and have accepted the responsibility. These people will work out a good year around program and will take into consideration all age groups, the budget they have to work with, and immediate necessities. High on the list is some heavy playground equipment, bleachers for the ball field, and shelling or paving the parking area. Money is our primary problem, of course.

and the recreation program cannot be put into full effect overnight. But if this committee starts it, there will be smoother sailing in the future.

As your first fully elected council in the village, we have inherited many problems not of our choosing, and many situations have arisen which need much consideration on our part.

Some of our inherited problems are bad roads and open ditches. We are working towards correcting these things, but again time and money play the important roles.

However, as a council we have not been idle as seems to be the general consensus. I would like to commend some of our activities in the past few months: We have (1) Given you a four man police force which has worked endless hours and the men have taken special training. They have done this for the good of the community—and WITHOUT pay.

(2) Passed many ordinances—all of which have taken hours of time and hard work for research and so forth.

(3) Given you an equipped fire department—with much more on this to be done.

(4) Given a franchise to Florida power.

(5) Given a franchise to Suburban Rulane Gas Co.

(6) Given a franchise to a telephone company.

(7) Passed a small tax on utilities to raise revenue for necessary city expenses.

(8) Given the village a part time village clerk—a very nominal fee.

(9) Appointed a building and electrical inspector.

(10) Paid off debts that we inherited.

(11) Erected signs indicating trash dumps.

Many other routine business matters have been undertaken—each matter time-consuming and involved to some degree. All of this ground-work will simplify council matters for the future councils of this village.

Much of the work of the present council has been done in the face of bad publicity—originating from a few unhappy residents with minor grievances—and imaginary complaints—and the animosity of the same few people. When the school teachers, who teach our children every day, ask what is wrong in this community—when new residents and neighbors who have never attended a council meeting, and in many cases know nothing of the council work, and have never seen the councilmen and do not know them, make statements that they "hate this council" for what it has done—it is apparent that a vicious element is at work undermining every good work we hope to accomplish.

I wonder if these vicious people know that when they spread slanderous remarks they are in effect slandering themselves and the whole village—creating a bad image of the village and thereby causing property values to go down?

If these same people used these energies to work together with the council and build up the community, we could have a progressive and forward moving town—a place we are proud and happy to live in, a fine place to rear our children, and a peaceful community of congenial neighbors.

We need the support of every citizen in a community this size in order to build it up and put it on the map. We ask your indulgence; we welcome your suggestions; we are open to constructive criticism. We abhor unpleasant publicity, and statements that border on slander and libel.

Remember, a good word for North Orlando will be to your advantage. You live here and your children are growing up here. Make this a good place to live—with harmony and tolerance.

Sanford, Florida

I was unfortunate enough to be involved in an auto collision in your town about 10 p. m. on Dec. 15.

This experience gave me a keen appreciation of courteous and effective police work. I am sure that both police cars and ambulances were on the scene within a minute after we requested them. The uniformly courteous work of the policemen on the scene to all concerned made an indelible impression on me, and I will have a kind feeling for the police force of the City of Sanford for a long time! Such courteous work reflects great credit on the Chief of Police, his men; and, of course, the city government back of all of them.

It is indeed a pleasure to write such a letter and to express my own appreciation and the appreciation of my company to all concerned for the courteous and effective clean-up of this accident.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE R-455: Jack Pickering is a talented advertising man at Rockford, Illinois.

"Dr. Crane," he begins, "several years ago you spoke before our Rockford Advertising Club."

"At that time, you employed an 'audience participation' check list of successful book titles."

"Do you have a copy of them? For I am to address a group of factory management officials to explain some of these same basic principles of advertising and merchandising."

"And can you suggest any additional audience participation materials that would be appropriate for me to use?"

Jack proves his keen understanding of psychology by realizing the value of "audience participation" materials.

For the more you can get a crowd to participate in your public platform program, the more they will like it.

You are thus aware that stage magicians usually ask for a volunteer from the crowd. Why?

Because it perks up greater audience interest if one of their number is helping the platform artist.

Many musicians also get the crowd to join in a chorus or two, just to elicit audience participation.

Mitch Miller's popular "Sing Along With Mitch" on the TV is based on a similar idea.

For Mitch would urge all viewers to join in the singing, right there in their own living rooms, before their TV sets.

That makes popularity ratings rise, because people think any program is better if they have a part in it! That's an axiom of Applied Psychology!

Millions of you readers have listened to me in person from the public lecture platform, so you may recall my use of that "arm experiment" where I ask you to bring your hand down, but not till I say "Go."

And you have participated in this same advertising test which Jack Pickering refers to.

But it is also wise for every leader to name several members of the crowd during his speech, always in a complimentary manner.

For as such as we are named by the speaker, we automatically become a "junior partner" in the performance.

And another axiom of Applied Psychology says this: "Nobody belittles his own firm or partnership!"

Instead, he tends to laud it, so those people whom the speaker has deftly named in his address, will praise the talk most loudly.

This is one of the deft secrets of successful ceremonial failure to name a few parishioners in the sermon is also a basic reason why poor clergymen don't fill the pews on Sunday.

For smart public platform artists make it a habit to bring as many of the audience as possible into the speech or sermon!

Yet many erudite clergymen will struggle for 35 years and still occupy small

Don't expect something for nothing because the result is you usually get nothing.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NBA) — The day after Christmas, Pennsylvania's Democratic Sen. Joseph Clark and former Philadelphia Mayor Richardson Dilworth were hunkering quietly.

The subject of their chat: A replacement for the late Rep. William Green, long-time host of the city's Democratic organization.

Their solution: To propose Dilworth himself to serve as next regular city committee election in May.

But while these two key figures were shaping their plan, city ward leaders—secretly summoned by Green's lieutenant—were slipping into party headquarters a few blocks from the Philadelphia Club.

There is Green's old command post they signed a petition authorizing a special committee meeting for the following day, called to name Frank Smith, a top Green aide, as chairman.

When Clark and Dilworth emerged from their early lunch, they spied an afternoon paper which described the move for Smith.

They knew their own maneuver as spokesman for Pennsylvania's Liberal Democrats was lost. Next day Smith was chosen unanimously, though disgruntled Mayor James Tate stayed away.

The news of the "smooth transition" was conveyed by telephone to certain White House sources. Clark swiftly announced, however, that he would try to oust Smith in May.

He will have trouble finding a candidate, now that Smith is in. But what this episode illustrates is that the Democratic party in Philadelphia—and Pennsylvania—is in even worse shape now than before Green's death. And it has been badly off for many months.

Elements in the steady deterioration were the Clark-Green feud, grand jury inquiry into city scandals, loss of state jobs with the coming to power of Republican Gov. William Scranton, the death in mid-1963 of a potent behind-the-scenes party operative, James P. Clark, trucking executive and once part-owner of the Philadelphia Eagles.

This serious party chaos is duplicated in equally severe form in New York and Ohio, while difficulties of a lesser but still significant order threaten in California, Michigan and New Jersey.

These states, taken together with Illinois and Texas, hold 227 of the 370 electoral votes President Lyndon B. Johnson needs to win election next November.

Johnson's political aides in the White House, led by Clinton Carter, know that, whatever strength the President may show in the South and West, he has to crack some of the big industrial states.

That at least three of the top eight states are in dismal organizational condition greatly magnifies their burdens.

New York's Democratic party, faction-ridden for half a decade, is described by one party man there as "highly backward" today and making no progress. New York Mayor Robert Wagner still battles Bronx and Brooklyn leaders.

Ohio is torn by funds in Cleveland, big Democratic vote stronghold, and Cincinnati. Efforts to establish unity have failed thus far. Party men look for some kind of signal from the President's men.

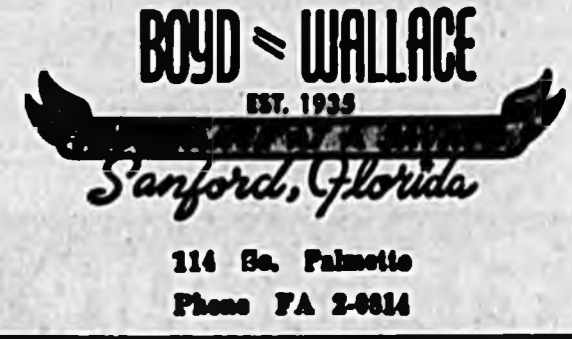

California's contending elements include Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, partly and powerfully Jesse Unruh, the liberal California Democratic Council, and Mayor Samuel Yorty of Los Angeles, who recently stirred feathers by saying—without authority—that he would be LBJ's man in California in 1964.

On these quaking structures President Johnson must depend as he makes his run for election next fall in his own right. His aides are busy trying to settle them down.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Why do so many women object to a man growing a beard? I am sure that the good Lord didn't put hair on the faces of men so that a razor company could sponsor boxing matches. And you line right up alongside the rest of the women and say, "If the beard scratches — scratch him!" Men parted with their beards about the same time women were given the right to vote and permitted to drive automobiles (you can do neither intelligently) but knowing how you women stick together I'll bet ten bucks this never sees print.

DEAR TED: You lose! Now send that ten bucks to the Cancer Society.

DEAR ABBY: I've never seen a problem like ours in your column, and hope you can help us. Three years ago my husband accidentally hit a boy on a bicycle, and the boy was killed instantly. It was a foggy night, the boy darted out in front of the car, and my husband was not exceeding the speed limit, so no charges were brought against him. He was so heartick he lost 30 pounds. Our problem is: Every Christmas since that happened we have sent the boy's family a large basket of fruit and a large wreath of flowers for the boy's grave. I have the feeling that perhaps we shouldn't do this because it reminds them that their son is dead and my husband is still living. We surely don't want to cause them any more heartaches in the future. Can you or someone who has been through this advise us?

STUMPED
DEAR STUMPED: You didn't say how the family reacted to your gift. If they appear appreciative, by all means continue. If your gifts are acknowledged coolly, or not at all—discontinue the practice.

DEAR ABBY: Your answer to "NOT MOVING" gives me the impression that you are plain stupid. I agree with the letter, NOT with your answer. I have 30 minutes for lunch and I don't aim to spend it moving around so that people can sit together at a lunch counter. I also refuse to move. Why should I've never asked anybody to move for me. I'll bet you would stand in line at a grocery checkout with 6 or 7 people who each had about $15 worth of groceries, and you'd let someone ahead of you with a loaf of bread and a pound of butter. I wouldn't, but I think you are stupid enough to. Yours truly,

HOMER IN SOUTH GATE
DEAR HOMER: You sure have me pegged, Buddy. I frequently let someone ahead of me with a loaf of bread and a pound of butter. And I'm stupid enough to enjoy it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "RATIO THE SECOND": Many successful businessmen owe his success to a colorless, dull-witted or anti-social wife, whose boring company he has escaped by putting 18 hours a day into his work.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

The late Louis Watson once conceived the idea of making a fortune by offering to listen to any bridge story for one dollar and to express sympathy if given a double fee.

I was reminded of that when West came to me with his hard luck story. He started by telling me his hand and asking, "Everyone vulnerable. Your partner opens one spade. Second hand bids two hearts. What do you do?"

Before I could reply he gave me all the bidding up to his double of seven hearts and said, "Naturally, I led my deuce of clubs. South's ace picked my partner's king. South drew trumps, flopped against my partner's jack of clubs and made his contract. Do you think I am the unluckiest player in the world?"

My full sympathy goes out to poor East and I am sure even Watson would have failed to charge for sympathy had East come to him for condolences.

East picked up a beautiful hand and bid it right up to six spades. He would have had no trouble making it, but South went to seven hearts whereupon West doubled and picked out the one opening lead that gave South the contract.

Of course, had West made his normal spade lead, South might still have guessed the club situation, but the chances are that he would have taken a simple finesse and gone down two tricks. East and West still would not have been happy, but at least they would have shown a profit rather than a 2,470-point loss.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

News item with a Chicago dateline reads: "Despite the convenience of prepackaged meat products, women want the personal attention of a butcher when buying meat..." So says the director of a national magazine's research organization.

We sure do. And for good reason. The way it is now a woman has to examine most of the pork chops or pot roasts in the meat counter to find just what she wants for dinner, and then she may not find the right number of chops or the right thickness, or ones without too much fat.

Even when she thinks a package of chops is just right, she is often disappointed when she gets them home. The top ones are nice and lean, while the ones underneath aren't so choice.

see her butcher face to face and have him make up her order.

Also, if she is a young and inexperienced homemaker, she may want to ask the butcher questions about the best cut of meat for a particular method of cooking, how big a piece of meat she will need to serve a certain number of guests, and so on.

All these assurances and bits of information a woman expected from her butcher—in the days when he stood out in the open and knew he had to face her displeasure if he sold her a tough cut of meat.

work in a back room and have to be summoned to the meat counter by buzzer, a woman at the meat counter is pretty much on her own, and she doesn't like it.

Why women haven't protested loud enough to get the butcher back out front is a mystery, since today's supermarket aims to keep the woman who pushes the grocery cart happy at all costs.

But now that many butchers

U.S. Moves Canal Zone, Bank Informs Panama

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk says the United States will not withdraw from the Panama Canal Zone or give up its military base along the vital waterway.

Rusk said the United States could afford to give up the zone or its military base, and I have not heard any responsible person take any other viewpoint.

In a television interview Rusk said all parties involved in negotiations started after the bloody rioting in Panama are agreed that "the first order of business is the restoration of peace."

Panama's President Norberto F. Chirri has demanded renunciation of the 1903 treaty that gave the United States perpetual control of the Canal Zone and Panamanian Ambassador Aquilino Boyd has told the United Nations that the United States must give up the canal.

Rusk, in a separate statement, said that the United States will not give up the canal.

Rusk indicated that Chirri was in agreement with U. S. representatives in Panama that peaceful negotiations could lead out of the crisis started last Thursday over flying of the Panamanian flag in the Canal Zone.

The secretary has been in close touch with Thomas G. Blanton, newly appointed assistant secretary of state for Latin-American affairs who has been handling talks with Chirri.

Rusk said discussion was different under current tension in Panama. He indicated that peace and security for U. S. citizens and property in the Canal Zone were the key factors to which "everyone is giving maximum attention."

He blamed "elementary instincts held in Panama and the United States" for intensifying violence and increasing friction between the two nations.

Rusk said Cuban Premier Fidel Castro "and Castro agents have been taking a hand in this one way or another." He added: "I think he has some responsibility for this."

City-County Drafting New Site Proposals For Board Of Control

By Fred Van Pelt
Sanford and Seminole leaders will get all at an informal meeting Tuesday to analyze the new organizational plan for the Board of Control.

The 33 members of the Board of Control Friday afternoon at Tallahassee, when the state officers passed an important decision in the choice between the Lake Mary site, south of Sanford, and the Woodruff Building, at the northwest corner of First Street and Park Avenue, will be paid from parking meter revenues, although the City has not yet decided whether to place parking meters on this lot.

WOODRUFF BUILDING, at the northwest corner of First Street and Park Avenue, will be razed and the site used for a city parking lot when deed of transfer has been formally negotiated. The City has contracted to purchase the property for a reported $60,000. Purchase price will be paid from parking meter revenues, although the City has not yet decided whether to place parking meters on this lot. (Herald Photo)

Winter's Worst Storm Batters Eastern U. S.

By United Press International
The winter's worst storm raged throughout the eastern half of the nation today. Strong winds and heavy snow whipped up near blizzard conditions. Drifts piled up 10 feet high in Illinois.

Hundreds of schools were closed. Roads were blocked and snowplows were hard-pushed to keep others open. Transportation was generally marred in what was one of the worst storms in years in some areas.

At least 22 deaths were blamed on bad weather.

The weather bureau posted heavy snow or hazardous driving warnings with near blizzard conditions for most of the Ohio Valley and Tennessee and from the Carolinas through most of the North Atlantic states.

Cold wave warnings stretched from the lower Mississippi Valley into Kentucky and Tennessee. The temperature dropped to 28 below in Birmingham, N. D., Sunday.

The cold pushed temperatures down to 18 as far south as Tucson, Ariz., and El Paso, Tex.

Slight citrus danger was possible in Texas' Rio Grande Valley where freezing temperatures were expected.

Coast Guardsmen and firemen groped their way through heavy snowfall Sunday night to rescue 10 men stranded on ice offshore from Fort Clinton, Ohio, near Catawba Island. The Coast Guard said the men, who were ice fishermen, fortunately were not on ice that broke off in choppy water and high winds.

Eight inches of snow fell in St. Louis. There were some school closings in St. Louis County. The St. Louis basketball team, on route home from playing at Cincinnati, was stranded in Chicago, unable to get to St. Louis. Schools were closed in the Kansas City area.

Big Dump Truck Bangs Way Into $11,000 Crash

It is difficult enough to get a new highway built without leaving it up before it is opened. But that is what happened Thursday on a section of incomplete I-4 south of the Lake Mary overpass.

A giant, 16-wheel dump truck, operated by Tom Bobbitt of Leesburg, was proceeding south when his vehicle struck the blade on a road grader and crashed into the rear of another grader.

The second road grader, a 12-ton machine, was knocked some 50 feet. The impact demolished the front end and cab of the dump truck. Bobbitt was pinned in the wrecked cab. After being rescued he was checked at Seminole Memorial Hospital. Other than minor bruises, he was not injured.

Highway troopers investigating said that Bobbitt was more hurt by getting a ticket for not having his vehicle under control than from the accident.

Trooper Bill Stringfield reported that the damage to the two road graders amounted to some $500; the 16-wheel dump truck's damage was estimated at $10,000, and the damage to the new and still unopened highway was tabbed at $500.

Total estimated damage was $11,000.

Army To Fly 4,000 Troops To Pacific

TOKYO (UPI)—The U. S. Army will fly 4,000 troops across the Pacific next month to test a new concept for stopping aggression within hours, it was disclosed today.

U. S. Army headquarters in Japan announced plans for air-lifting the 25th Infantry Division brigade task force from Hawaii to Okinawa.

Ships dispatched from a U. S. naval base in the Philippines will meet the soldiers on the beach with artillery, tanks and other heavy equipment needed in warfare.

The trans-Pacific war games follows last autumn's airlift of a full army division from the United States to West Germany.

Washington is testing and refining methods for rapid development of combat troops and equipment in order to reduce American forces stationed overseas and to better meet sudden wars in remote corners of the globe.

The United States announced in December that it will withdraw some 3,500 Air Force men from Japan during 1964.

Other American troop reductions in the Far East may follow.

The Army said the February exercise will be the first of its kind ever staged in the Pacific.

United Fund Total Stands At $31,911

The 1964 Seminole County United Fund has received $31,911 as of Jan. 10, according to a report today from Paul D. Lewis, campaign chairman, and Mrs. E. F. Lewis, executive secretary.

This amount, raised without the assistance of a professional fund raising organization, was greater than the amount received last year with professional help, Mrs. Lewis said. She pointed out, however, that only 67 per cent of the Fund's objective, $48,425, has been realized.

"This is not," she stressed, "even three-fourths of the amount needed by the member agencies of the Fund to provide adequate services to all of Seminole County."

Lewis and Mrs. Lewis said the organization was deeply appreciative of the time and effort given by numerous volunteers. "However," she added, "illness and bad weather hampered our drive tremendously. As a result, many business firms and residents of the county were not contacted."

Mrs. Lewis said that the Fund and its agencies are always grateful for contributions which can be mailed to P. O. Box 144, Sanford, at any time during the year.

Agencies associated with the Fund include the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Children's Home Society of Florida, Family Counseling, Good Samaritan Home, Mental Health Association, Red Cross, Salvation Army and the USO.

General Commercial Chairman was E. E. Kirchhoff with Howard Hodges as commercial chairman for Sanford, Lake Mary, Lake Monroe, Longwood, Geneva and North Orlando. John O. Border Jr., was commercial chairman for Fern Park, Casselberry, Forest City, Bear Lake, Altamonte Springs and Chuluota, with Al Fieri, executive director of the Boy Scouts, as sub chairman.

General chairman for the Negro division was John Daniel with sub chairman, Mrs. Ruby Lee Wilson for north Seminole and Mrs. James Foster for south Seminole.

Mrs. Lewis also declared that no neighborhood solicitation was conducted in Sanford, "since it was felt that some 90 per cent of the residents would prefer to contribute at their places of employment, perhaps using the payroll deduction plan. Also, we gave consideration to the fact that of the 23,000 residents of Sanford a large portion of them are Navy personnel and families, and—as usual—Navy participation was excellent."

Americans in Zanzibar Are Being Removed

ZANZIBAR (UPI)—A U. S. destroyer today began taking Americans off the newly independent island nation of Zanzibar, where a British-aided rebellion overthrew the British-aided ruler and proclaimed a republic.

Observers in Nairobi, Kenya, on the African mainland opposite Zanzibar, said the new government was pro-Communist and some of its leaders were sympathizers with Communist China. There was speculation in Kenya that Zanzibar could become the Cuba of Africa—the first Communist foothold in the area.

Sources in Washington said some of the rebels are largely financed by the Communist Party, including those headed by Abdul Rachman Mohammed Babu, leader of the outlawed Umma party, and new defense and foreign minister. He was described as pro-Freling.

First reports said three persons were killed and 28 injured in the fighting that toppled Sultan Seyyid Jamshid Bin Khalifa Saturday night and Sunday.

The nation's new leader is Sheikh Abed Karume, who was named president of the rebel republic.

Karume also is considered a Chinese Communist sympathizer by many observers.

SNAS Asks Bids On 2 Contracts

Area small business concerns were invited today to submit bids for two contracts estimated to cost less than $50,000 at Sanford Naval Air Station.

Bids will be open at 2 p.m. Jan. 29 for installation of toilet facilities in building 126, to cost less than $25,000.

Bids will be opened at 2 p.m. Jan. 31 for replacement of automatic line transfer and engine controls for an emergency power system, estimated at less than $25,000.

Casselberry To Swear In Two

Newly elected officials of the Casselberry Board of Aldermen, Owen Amsley as mayor and Mrs. Mary Hawthorne as clerk, will take the oath of office at today's 7:30 p.m. meeting of the board to be held in the Casselberry Women's Club.

Officials returning to office are Aldermen George Howard and Cliff Overman and Marshal Gus Sawyer.

Other business on the agenda for today's meeting includes a report from outgoing mayor Fred Heath and discussion of the proposed comprehensive zoning ordinance and a garbage collection franchise.

Firemen To Install At Lake Mary

The annual installation of officers for the Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Department will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Fire Hall.

Installed will be E. Richard (Woody) Friend, president; Harvey Pugh, vice president; Roger Crocker, secretary; and Ralph Schweichert, treasurer.

Directors of the organization are Ed Zimmerman, Bob Willis, Charles Walker, Sidney Fowler and Randall Chase.

During the business meeting following the installation, final plans will be made for the firemen's annual barbecue supper to be held Feb. 8. Plans also will be made for ceiling the large area where the fire trucks are stored and workdays for this project will be scheduled.

All members of the department are urged to attend.

Seminole Demos Name Howell

By Jane Casselberry
Roy Howell Sr., of Lake Mary has been named vice-chairman of the Seminole County Democratic Executive Committee. Howell's appointment was made at a recent meeting of the committee at which time John McCloskey was named committee chairman and Helen McCloskey was chosen committeewoman for precinct No. 1, Sanford.

W. O. Tanner Jr., was appointed for Precinct 2, Sanford and Jack Symes, Precinct 6, Goldenrod.

To fill the vacancies left by the resignation of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiggins of Fern Park's Precinct 23, Mrs. Lillian Severs and William Chambers were appointed.

County Commissioner John Alexander spoke before the group on the duties of his office and the progress made under the present administration.

Other commissioners who had been expected to attend were unable to do so as they were in Tallahassee.

Plans were discussed for political rallies to be held prior to the primaries.

Snow Falls In Pensacola

PENSACOLA (UPI)—It snowed here today for the second time in five years.

Light snow flurries also were reported in Crestview and Milton in the Florida Panhandle.

Light snow was reported here New Year's Eve—the first snow since 1952.

With temperatures in the low 30's, the snow was expected to stay on the ground for a short time.

"It won't amount to much, though," said the Miami Weather Bureau.

Success Rule

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill.—Miss Alice Louise Grant 54, an English teacher at Frankfort Community High School, said upon being chosen as the Illinois teacher of the year that she had always tried to follow the advice given her long ago:

"Think like a girl, Look like a girl, Act like a lady, And work like a dog."

First Reading Of Annexation Ordinance Set

First reading of an ordinance annexing the southwest corner of 27th Street and Sanford Avenue will be given by City Commission tonight.

Commission also will consider an amendment to the occupational license ordinance to require nursing homes to be licensed by the state, a request for transfer of a beer and wine license at 803 West Third Street, and annexation of property on Roosevelt Avenue between 18th and 19th Streets.

LBJ To Meet With Bryant About Visit

MIAMI (UPI)—President Johnson will meet with Gov. Farris Bryant and other Florida Democrats in Washington on Thursday to settle details for Johnson's Feb. 27 Miami Beach appearance.

It will be his first political address since assuming office. The $100-a-plate fund raising dinner will be in the plush Fountainsbleau Hotel.

A spokesman said indications are "several vice presidential hopefuls" will attend the Miami Beach meal.

Best Dressed

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Jack Benny and Henry Fonda today held claim to the title of "best dressed men of 1964" given by the California Men's Apparel Club.

Satellite Off

YANDEMBERG AFB, Calif. (UPI)—The Air Force launched another secret satellite over the weekend from this West Coast missile base.

Aliens Reminded Of Registration

Aliens now in the Sanford area are required to register with the Immigration and Naturalization Department before Jan. 31, it was reported today by Postmaster Cecil Heard.

Aliens may obtain the proper information card at any postoffice. It must be filled in and handed to a postoffice clerk—it should NOT be mailed.

County Board To Reorganize

County Commission will reorganize for the coming year with the election of a chairman and vice chairman and the naming of committees.

There will be no change in the Commission membership: Gen. J. C. Nicholson, James F. Avoy Jr., John Fiebert, John Altamonte and Lee Gary.

Post Office Receipts Up

Sanford Post Office receipts were up $54,000 in 1963 over 1962, it was reported today by Postmaster Cecil Heard.

Receipts in 1963 totaled $297,993 as compared to $243,967 in 1962, Miss Heard said.

Last quarter receipts in 1963, mostly Christmas mail, was up 20 per cent. Receipts for the last quarter of 1962 and 1963, respectively, were $82,023 and $97,817.

Highest annual volume of the Sanford Post Office was $1.3 million prior to the reactivation of Sanford Naval Air Station when a woman's dress manufacturer operated at the air base.

Art Meeting

The Sanford-Seminole Art Association will meet tonight at the Civic Center. The meeting will get underway at 7:30 p.m. There will be a demonstration of oil paintings of landscapes by E. B. Stews.

By John Stenstrom
Friday was quite a day.

We didn't get the university. Neither did we lose it.

Some people were disappointed. Others even said we might as well give up and let Orange County have it.

"We've won!" said the majority of Sanford leaders. "We haven't come this far to lose."

We agreed Tuesday in the orange row in the last thing Sanford ought to do. Sanford has three votes. It needs only one more. Let's go after that fourth vote.

"What what?" someone asked. With later ads, of course. Elections was virtually eliminated. Because of its location we don't believe it could get another vote. Because of Lake Ada's location its accessibility and its facilities there's all the chance in the world that it could get the one vote it needs.

We say that Bluestone was virtually eliminated because we understand that the Board of Control now has all but decided that the school would be located east of Orlando and north of SR 94. That means it must be northeast of Orlando. You can't get very far northeast of Orlando without finding yourself in Seminole. Right? Right!

Let's sell up our sleeves a little higher and apply just a little more olive grease.

The March of Dimes film, "At the Edge," was shown to the Sanford Fire Department and all firemen present immediately volunteered to participate in the county's 1964 campaign by taking the leadership in an area with which he is familiar. That's the way Chief Mack Cleveland and his firemen take the bull by the horns, so to speak. By the way, many more volunteers are needed, says Chairman Bill Reck.

The Herald's had numerous compliments on the special sporting series it ran on the sports pages last week. The articles were entitled "How To Teach Youngsters to Bowl." We're trying to make arrangements now to run another.

Capt. Bruce, supervisor of voter registration, says that those who have not returned their postal cards to her office should do so at once. The deadline has passed for mailing them in but says her office will continue to accept them if you'll get them in quickly. If you don't you might not be entitled to vote in the coming primaries.

Campaign Chairman Paul Lewis and Mrs. E. F. Gans, executive secretary of the United Fund of Seminole County, want to give an extra big word of "thanks" to John Daniels and his volunteers for the tremendous task they performed during the fund's most recent campaign.

Another Clock watcher's comment about trucks on First Street: "It is true," says the watcher, "that trucks can be an inconvenience to motorists and pedestrians, but only because we have become so impatient. How many of us stop to think these trucks bring merchandise we need or want? Perhaps we should consider what these truck drivers must contend with to make our shopping more pleasant." The watcher has been a resident of Sanford all her life. She adds, "I guess I was moved by thinking of people living too fast, myself included. But our gripes are only from our demands."

That wraps it up for today. Let's get that university!

Hounds Point For Powerful Apopka Five

Lyman's Greyhounds tangle with one of the top five in Central Florida tonight when they go to Apopka and meet the Blue Darters who have posted a record of eight victories and one loss thus far this season.

Meanwhile, the 'Hounds have been one of the hottest quintets in these parts with recent victories over Orlando's Oak Ridge Pioneers and Edgewater Eagles. They will be gunning for their fifth decision of the cage year compared with two defeats.

Saturday night the Greyhounds will go right back into action when they host the strong Ocoee Cardinals. The Red Birds were flying high until they ran into the strong Oviedo Lions Tuesday night and dropped a decision to the Seminole County cagers.

Last year Lyman split their pair of tilts with Ocoee. Saturday night the 'Hounds plan to throw their best defensive strength at the Cardinals in an effort to halt the strong Red Bird offense.

Apopka's big guns are Sheppard and Godding who boast game averages in double figures. The Darters are also a top rebounding team.

Lyman's starters will probably be forwards Jim Goplen and Richard Grant, center Don Smith and guards Gene Winkelman and Bill Tolson.

Lyman's little Greyhounds will meet the Italy Blue Darters tonight and Saturday evening they will tangle with Ocoee's JayVee five.

The Baby 'Hounds, seeking their seventh win, probably will start forwards John Burkhammer and Richard Moore. Dave Matis at center and Gary Gunter and Steve Simpkins at the guard slots.

Kroencke Top At Mid-Florida

Art Kroencke carried off top honors during Wednesday's low net tournament held by the Senior Men's Golf Association at the Mid-Florida Country Club near Santalano Springs.

Kroencke came up with a low net of 67 while Joan Reams, with a 71, took second place honors.

Tied for third place with 73's were Eric Dallman and Lenny Polhuis.

Gator Cagers Stop Dampier

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—Florida's Gators held down Rick Barry's chief assistant and outplayed rival Miami under the boards and on the floor Thursday night for a 114-91 basketball victory that set a new point record for the home gymnasium.

John Dampier, Miami's other consistent high scorer, was held to seven points.

Cubs' Coach In Warning

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago Cubs may not win the National League pennant in 1964, but head coach Bob Kennedy warned the rest of the circuit today that "We'll win more games than we did last year."

MARY SWIGONSKI AND JIMMY NORRIS, Seminole High students, are among those being coached by Wren Crelland (extreme left) and John Spolski (extreme right) as they attempt to win berths on the school's new inter-scholastic bowling conference being organized by 12 high schools in Central Florida. The loop is being sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors' Association. Each team will have a local bowling establishment as its home lanes. Seminole's team of seven bowlers will roll its home games at Jet Lanes. (Herald Photo)

Course Slated In Seamanship

Sponsored by Seminole County Sheriff Luther Hobby an eight lesson course in basic seamanship and small boat handling will be given by the U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, Sanford-Orlando Flotilla.

Lessons and demonstrations in useful knots, anchoring, boat handling, rules of the road, the use of charts and compass and safety float will be offered. At the end of the course a certificate will be awarded attesting to the satisfactory completion of the lesson.

The course is free and open to the public. A small nominal charge for the text book and training material will be the only cost. It is not necessary that participants own a boat to join the class.

The first class will start Wednesday at 8 p. m. Registration will begin at 7 p. m. Classes will be held at the Seminole County Court House.

For further information and advanced registration phone FA 2-7112 during business hours or FA 2-9305 or FA 2-2779 evenings and weekends.

New Drag Racing Season To Open

The 1964 drag racing season is tabbed as Wight's top competition.

Meanwhile, newly-elected Timing Association president Donald Witt, announced Saturday's racing program would be run under the new 1964 National Hot Rod Association Rules. The Seminole group is obtaining 200 copies of the new regulations for distribution.

"We wish to thank everyone for their enthusiasm and support," he said. "The large following we had for the last race only substantiates our idea that drag racing is a rapidly growing sport in Seminole County and throughout Florida."

Witt pointed to major improvements the Timing Association had made in the local drag strip, including a long restraining fence between the spectator and racing areas; improvements in the actual racing surfaces and clearing of the spectator area to provide more parking and viewing space.

Tribe Plays Evans High

"We're going to hike our percentage of baskets if I have to get my boys a step-ladder," said Head Coach Ralph Stumpf of his Seminole High cage squad as he prepared to put them into action tonight in Orlando against the number one team in the Metro Conference—the Maynard Evans High five.

"I guess they had such rotten luck in their first couple of games that it began to get on their nerves and they have become so conscious of it they're too tense to make baskets out of their shooting attempts," Stumpf went on to say.

But he declared without any reservation, "I can say this for my boys: they haven't quit. I feel they have the ability to win and they believe they have the ability to win. I'm expecting a good game tonight."

Stumpf will start Mike Glad and Mike Bowes at the forward slots, Ken Tyre at center, and Barry Johnson and Dennis Brown at guard. "We need a little more scoring punch," Stumpf said, "and that's why I'm going to go with Tyre at center. Barry Barks has suffered with his shooting and perhaps if we give him a brief rest it might help him. Barks is a fine athlete and we're confident he'll be a big help to us when he's back up to par."

The Tribe has a record of one win and three losses in conference play. Their seasonal record to date is one win and seven defeats.

Coach John Colbert's Jay-Vees, with a record of three wins and four losses will make an effort to come up with their number four when they meet the Evans Jay-Vees in the preliminary contest tonight.

Colbert's starters will include forwards Ronnie Hinson and Bob Spradlin, Mike Fordham at center, and guards Joe Purdy and Al Boniface.

Oviedo Gunning For Victory Over Howey

Oviedo High's cagers take to the road tonight in hopes of extending their record to five victories.

Fresh from an upset victory over the Cardinals from Ocoee 56-52, the Lions are eager to make it two in a row by beating tonight's opponent, Howey Academy.

Howey has not had a good season so far. Yet it has been up against stiff competition from Tavares.

Even though the Howey lads don't exhibit an exceptional win-loss record, they could be a threat.

Oviedo's game with Ocoee brought a new Lion eager into the spotlight. Senior Seth Rook played his first basketball game. While doing so, he proved to be a good defensive player and rebounder. Seth lacks experience, yet he may become the key man because of his 6' 3" height.

Oviedo's other starters, Arndt, Mikler, Brooks, and Bellhorn have showed sound improvement recently, while Oviedo's leading scorer Jimmy Courier has remained consistent.

Oviedo has been preparing an attack against the man-to-man defense, a pattern which many schools utilize. Also the Lions have been concentrating on improving ball handling, shooting, and developing a balanced offense against defense.

Also this week, the Lions have concentrated on developing their second unit.

Coach Miller remarked that "The team has good spirit. We played aggressive ball against Ocoee, which is a fine, well drilled team. It was a great win, and we hope to continue and build up a good winning streak."

Tonight's action also pits Oviedo's Junior Varsity (2-4) against Howey's JayVees.

Sugar Ramos Meets Derado

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Powerful little featherweight champion Sugar Ramos steps out of his division tonight to meet Vicente Derado of Argentina as a lightweight in a 10-round nationally televised bout at Olympic Auditorium.

Ramos, who fights out of Mexico City, was rated a 2-1 favorite over Derado.

ZOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO (What the '64 Plymouth has)

Plymouth has special engines for Zooooooooooooooooooooom (optional, of course). That's important to some people. Others don't feel they need that much Zoom. They stick with the high performance of our standard V-8 or the economy of our standard six. What's important to you...no matter how you like your power...is a car that's designed to make the best possible use of it.

Power-hungry or not, test drive the new Plymouth. Consider the fact that Plymouth offers you a 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty* on the parts that keep you going. Then you'll know why we say, "Get up and go Plymouth!"

*HERE'S HOW PLYMOUTH'S 5-YEAR/50,000-MILE WARRANTY PROTECTS YOU:

Chrysler Corporation warrants for 3 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, against defects in materials and workmanship and will replace or repair at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business, the engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (including manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings of its 1964 automobiles, provided the owner has the engine oil changed every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first, the oil filter replaced every second oil change and the carburetor air filter cleaned every 6 months and replaced every 2 years, and every 6 months furnishes to such a dealer evidence of performance of the required service, and requests the dealer to carry (1) receipt of such evidence and (2) the car's then current mileage.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

Near Record Kill
Hunters in Central Florida have "harvested"—and we don't like that word, personally—a near record number of deer and turkey during the 1963-64 hunting season, says J. W. Bickerstaff, central region manager for the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

The Citrus and Guano River Wildlife Management Areas are the only areas in the Central Region where all game taken must be checked. Kill reports from the other areas are strictly estimates. Game taken outside of the management areas is not reported at all.

Hunters in the Ocala National Forest management area actually checked out 337 deer at the two hunt headquarters. Many deer were harvested and taken home by the hunters that did not have to be checked. Several turkeys were known to be taken also, but none were checked.

A total of 115 deer was harvested by archers on the Citrus Area and 117 by gun hunters.

An estimated 31 turkey and 51 deer plus numerous squirrel and other small game was harvested on the Richmond Area.

An estimated 176 deer, 66 turkey, one bear and other small game was taken on the Tomoka Area.

An estimated 110 deer, 64 turkey and other small game was taken on the Farnton Area.

The Guano River Area which has been primarily a waterfowl area also produced a good population of upland game this year. Hunters were reported taking 83 hogs, 32 turkey, 23 quail, 19 rabbits as well as 1418 ducks and 287 coots.

Special quail hunts will be held on the Citrus Area Jan. 11-12, 18-19 and 25-26. Archers will be allowed to hunt wild hogs on the Guano River Area Jan. 25-26, Feb. 1-2, 18-19 and 22-23. A spring gobbler hunt will be held on a portion of the Tomoka Area March 28 to April 12.

These hunts will close out the season for management areas in the central Florida region, Bickerstaff stated.

BOWLING

How To Teach Youngsters

CONVERTING SPARES

(Fifth and Last of a Series)
Make up a large card with removable numbered circles representing the 10 pins and arrange these in a ten-pin triangle.

Point out the strike zone to your youngsters (see diagram). Explain that a light hit, a Brooklyn (left side), and a full hit can result in a split. This can be demonstrated by removing the pins that may fall on each of these hits.

Teach your youngsters the three basic spare angles: right, left and center. The target pins, 5-7-10, are the key to successful spare-making.

To convert center lane spares the target is the No. 5 pin and the bowler should assume his strike position on the approach. For all center lane spares, such as the 5-9, 1-2-9, 1-2-9, etc., approach the target pin on a straight line.

For right hand spares, the proper starting position is the left side of the approach facing the No. 10 target pin. This is the correct angle for right hand spares such as the 3-10, 6-10, 6-9-10, the 6 pin and 10 pin.

For left hand spares, take the opposite position on the right side of the approach facing the No. 7 pin. A straight line approach toward the No. 7 target pin is correct for these left hand spare combinations: 2-7, 4-7, 4-7-8, 7-4, 7 pin and 4 pin.

To convert center, left or right hand spares the bowler should approach the target pin on a straight line, in exactly the same manner as rolling a strike ball. Only the angle changes, not the line of approach.

Show examples of various spares on your number board, the 2-4 for example. Then indicate the path the ball must follow to achieve a conversion. Set up other combinations and ask your youngsters to show you the correct angles.

ABC Gets Rights

NEW YORK (UPI)—The American Broadcasting Company (ABC) plans to have former heavyweight boxing champion Rocky Marciano as a guest commentator for its exclusive radio coverage of the Sonny Liston - Cassius Clay title fight at Miami Beach, Feb. 25.

Witt pointed to major improvements the Timing Association had made in the local drag strip, including a long restraining fence between the spectator and racing areas; improvements in the actual racing surfaces and clearing of the spectator area to provide more parking and viewing space.

Philadelphian (UPI)—Bobby Morgan, a former infielder for the Philadelphia Phillies, will manage that team's Miami farm club in the Florida State League. He served as a player-manager for the Phils at Chattanooga, Spartanburg and Miami during the 1963 season.

Christ Church Gives Christmas Schedule

By Donna Estes
Two services will be held on Christmas Eve and one on Christmas Day at Christ Episcopal Church in Longwood, Fla., announced today.

Both services on Christmas Eve will be prefaced with a program of special Christmas music. The 7:30 p. m. service will be Family Eucharist and sermon. The Junior Choir of the church will present special music and the congregation will be asked to join in the singing of three Christmas carols.

The offertory anthem to be sung by the Junior Choir is based on a text written in the 15th century by Jean Mabillon and set to music in 1918 by T. Tertius Noble.

At 11 p. m. a half-hour program of music is planned. Included will be excerpts from the Messiah by George Frederick Handel. The Senior Choir of the Church, accompanied by brass and strings, will present "Pastorale Symphony" for organ and instruments.

Recitatives will be sung by soloists. Mrs. Marjory Petheridge, a soprano, will sing "See Amid the Winter's Snow" by Sir John Goss. The congregation will be asked to sing a group of favorite carols.

Instrumentalists to participate, all members of the church, are Raymond Ball, Charles Petheridge and Mrs. John Stuart, violin; Mrs. Hamilton Bartlett, viola; Tyson Marx, trumpet; Peter Stewart, French Horn and Kenneth Yeager, trombone. Choral Eucharist and service will follow at 11:30 p. m. Music for both services will be under direction of Mrs. Petheridge, organist and music director of Christ Church.

Pentecostal Church Sets Program

By Donna Estes
The annual Christmas program of the First Pentecostal Church of Longwood will be held at 7:30 p. m. today at the church on Orange Avenue.

A music and song program will be presented by the Sunday School. The Young People's Department of the church will present a pageant in which they will narrate the entire Christmas Story. Carols will be sung by the congregation and a manger scene will be on display.

Following the program a social hour will be held at which time treats will be given to the small children and classes will exchange gifts.

A worship service will be held at the church on Christmas Day at 7:30 p. m. Religious services are scheduled for this Sunday.

Elder Springs To Ordain Two New Deacons

The ordination of Clyde W. Dempsey and Ernest B. Wright as Deacons of the Elder Springs Baptist Church will be held Sunday at 3 p. m. Pastors and deacons of the Seminole Baptist Association and take part in this service. These men will make up the ordaining council which will meet at 2:15 p. m. to examine and instruct the candidates and instruct the candidates.

Rev. Bennie Baker, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Geneva, will bring the ordination message.

All friends and members of the church are invited to attend this special service. This Sunday.

T/SGT. JOSEPH Bloxom, assigned to Orlando AFB for the last 3 1/2 years, has been placed in charge of Air Force recruiting for this area. He will be at the USO Club between 11 and 1 every Thursday. T/Sgt. Paul E. Zuegg (left), who has been in charge, will continue but in specialized recruiting. (Herald Photo)

Youth Give Yule Party Sunday For Underprivileged Children

The Youth Department of the First Methodist Church will entertain a Christmas party for underprivileged children at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the church.

Members of the group will call for the children at Salvation Army headquarters and return them there after the party.

Refreshments will be served and a surprise gift will be presented to each boy and girl. Santa has promised to stop by an early visit to the youngsters.

Following the evening service, the group will return to the church for a social period and refreshments.

Hayride Planned

By Donna Estes
Members of the Intermediate and Young People's Departments of the Longwood First Baptist Church will have a hayride to the church on Monday at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the church to go on a Caroling Hayride throughout the community. Following the ride, the group will return to the church for a social period and refreshments.

Hard Lessons

The 20-mile stretch of superroad known as the Baltimore-Washington Express is the only one of its kind in the country, and it is a hard lesson for a growing America.

In the first place, the fact that this major traffic artery had to be completed through sale of revenue bonds—and set up therefore as a toll road—was a sharp reflection on the slow pace of the Interstate Highway System now building.

Highway officials simply could not wait for the Baltimore-Washington road to be built with slow dribble of federal money. Swelling traffic was overwhelming the standard route, U. S. 40, which had one of the worst accident rates in the nation.

They were ahead of the project by financing most of the needed $102 million in the bond market.

Federal road authorities are never happy over use of the toll road device. But they really have no adequate defense against the chief argument for such roads. Most which exist were built in time to meet pressing traffic needs. The free system staggers along with huge gaps in many areas while traffic mounts.

But there is another point of consequence in the Baltimore-Washington road. The toll road is a supplement to U. S. 40—had become one of the most abused major highways in the United States.

It is now a very old road. Some portions of it were built in 1950 and thereafter. It is four-lane, with a median strip. Its basic engineering is good.

But its main purpose, that of bearing the great burden of interstate traffic from New England and New York to Washington and the South, was defeated by moves which gradually converted it into what amounts to a local street.

More than a score of stoplights interrupt its traffic flow. Hundreds and hundreds of roadside business establishments have grown up along its edges. From these, cars filter on and off the roadway at countless points, greatly magnifying the peril of road-and collisions and slowing traffic generally. In times of poor weather, especially with low visibility, U. S. 40 was a route to avoid if possible.

Now the business operators along this handsome road complain that business is off from 50 to 75 per cent since the superroad opened. Many feel it is only a matter of time before they will have to close up. Traffic is down 60 per cent. Some recovery may follow, but prospects are not bright.

This is the price paid for utter planlessness. There were neither federal nor state controls to block the self-defeating growth of roadside places. Nor did any business associations exercise restraint. The result was free enterprise run riot.

Today these establishments are where they wanted to be. But because they were permitted this maximum freedom without regard to the general concern, they now find traffic moving away from them.

Certainly a bigger road would have been needed some day anyway. But the painful insolvency of U. S. 40 drove authorities to speed the parallel route by financing methods which now impose substantial toll charges on motorists.

So everybody loses—the interstate travelers and the roadside businessmen.

Thought For Today

"I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Philippians 4:13 KJV

At times, many of us try to leave off the last half of that verse and simply say, "I can do all things." Therein lies the difference between success and failure—victory and defeat.

"Jesus Christ in the same yesterday and today and for ever."

Hebrews 13:8 RSV

God placed us in a world of uncertainty—where things come and go. Great changes can come very quickly. But we can feel secure even in this world when we know Him who change not.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Reds Woo Africa

In April, 1955, in Bandung, Indonesia, 29 nations met for what Indonesian President Sukarno called "the first intercontinental conference of the so-called colored peoples in the history of mankind."

It also marked the beginning of Red China's determined drive to extend its influence beyond Asia and to the emerging new nations of Africa.

In the last two years, as the Soviet Union and Red

China have become more deeply embroiled in their ideological war, the Chinese have intensified their drive in Africa, with the Soviet Union a major target and with the difference in the color of men's skins noted at Bandung a major weapon.

At the third Afro-Asian solidarity conference held in Moscow, Tanganyika, in February of this year the head of the Chinese delegation told Soviet representatives "the whites have nothing to do here."

At a meeting of journalists in Jakarta, the Chinese sought to bar Soviet participation on the grounds that the Soviet Union is not an Asian country.

As the Chinese have pressed their claim to being the only true friends of black Africa, they have referred contemptuously to the Russians as "white" and "European," and have stressed the solidarity of yellow and black races against colonialism.

Pressing the Chinese case in Africa with personal visits this week are Chinese Premier Chou En-lai and Foreign Minister Chen Yi, first stop the flag-decked streets of Cairo. One objective is an attempt to undermine Soviet influence in personal conferences.

Another is to press for another Bandung-type conference. Red Chinese newspapers have been stressing the need for "solidarity and mutual support of Asian and African peoples on the basis of the Bandung spirit."

There could be no solace for the free world if either the Communism of rascals or Russia or orthodox China should take root in Africa.

But tragic consequences of an entirely different sort would be the result if the Chinese were to be successful in their attempts to divide the world between white and colored.

At least the early stages of Chou's tour were less successful than he might have hoped. President Nasser who was to have greeted him, was away in Tunisia.

The Cairo newspaper Al Gumboula noted that one of Chou's aims would be to try to end the "virtual international isolation" growing out of Sino-Indian border fighting "which showed China as the aggressor."

Nor are the new African nations quite so unopinionated as the Chinese seem to hope. Last February's Tanganyika conference left many delegations angry at the thought that the Red Chinese had used them simply as a cover for an attack upon the United States and an attempt to prevent these attacks on representing the voice of Africa.

HOME TO ROOST

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Miller's question deals with a problem that has not only prevented many top business executives. But it has cost thousands of other, less pretty girls a devoted husband. So overlook this vital case about "feeling tone."

CASE R-423: Mildred H., aged 19, is a pretty college coed. "Dr. Crane," she began, "just what do advertisers mean by the phrase 'feeling tone'?"

"And does it apply to any?"

The traffic of the American, English and French troops stationed in West Berlin through the territory of the German Democratic Republic (East Germany) has no legal basis.

My stay with the Mets taught me how to cope with adversity. Beverly Roger Craig, 22-year-old, after being traded to St. Louis.

Unless we do far better, 1964 will be a nightmare for all of us. Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., on Congress' poor record this season.

The unenviable fact is that pesticide residues have been found in virtually every warm-blooded animal across our land. Man is slowly building up in his body small, but relentlessly cumulative, traces of chemicals. Interior Secretary Stewart Udall.

The suppression of private property has produced a terrible loss in the quality consciousness (of workers). We have encountered this not only in the footwear industry but also in the manufacture of clothing. Cuban industries minister Ernesto Guevara.

Khrushchev is smarter on a fifth of vodka than most of our State Department are sober. Sen. John Tower, R-Tex.

Nor are the new African nations quite so unopinionated as the Chinese seem to hope. Last February's Tanganyika conference left many delegations angry at the thought that the Red Chinese had used them simply as a cover for an attack upon the United States and an attempt to prevent these attacks on representing the voice of Africa.

It led to this cold conclusion by Tanganyika Minister of Home Affairs Oscar Kambona: "We are not going to accept the enemies chosen for us by others."

body who wants to major in the field of writing?"

Because of long usage, persons have acquired distinct personalities. Thus, profanity is not only linked with ignorant or uncultured folks, but is definitely unfeminine.

Many a college man will turn away from a good looking coed if he hears her employ an oath or take the name of God in vain.

If you are interested in more complete coverage of this vital matter of "feeling tone" in advertising, as well as the literary fields, then go to your local library and read Chapters I, V, VII, IX and XII in my college textbook "Psychology Applied."

Therein I have quoted the passage from an early advertising textbook written by G. B. Hotchkiss where the different "personalities" of synonyms are illustrated.

Hotchkiss thus mentions that it is proper to refer to a "bunch" of flowers, but a bunch of girls is a "bevy." Then he explains that a bevy of elephants is a "herd" but a herd of thieves is a "gang."

However, a gang of angels is called a "hoat" while a hoat of wolves is a "pack," etc.

There are literally dozens of words that thus refer to a group of things, yet each one has its own different personality.

Synonyms are considered to be words that are "twins." They mean about the same thing.

However, they are never "identical" twins but only "fraternal" twins.

For example, notice the unpleasant feeling tone when you talk about a "gang of angels."

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It's a brand new ball game for the GOP.

The Republicans had their campaign all planned around the theme of "Beat the Kennedy in 1964." The trademark was three empty rocking chairs for Jack, Bobby and Teddy.

There was a regional GOP strategy conference going on in St. Louis on the No. 24 weekend. When news of President Kennedy's association became known during the lunch hour, the banners and posters were hauled down immediately, the rocking chairs dragged out of the hotel lobby, and the conference folded.

GOP National Committee Chairman William E. Miller's 30-day moratorium on politics during the period of mourning will probably run a little longer. Congress will—its adjournment before Dec. 22. No one wants to talk politics during the Christmas holidays.

But it will be politics as usual—only more so—after Congress comes back to town Jan. 2.

Cancelled Republican National Committee, Finance Committee and State Chairman's meetings originally scheduled for Mississippi Dec. 11-14 have been reset for Washington's Mayflower hotel Jan. 2-5.

This will be largely a session on arrangements for the GOP national convention in San Francisco July 12. It is expected that Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin will be named chairman of the Resolutions Committee which will write the 1964 GOP platform. He was vice chairman in 1960 and chairman of the 1962 Republican re-statement of policy group.

The Republican '64 campaign will be formally launched Jan. 20—without an agreed-upon candidate. GOP National Committee is holding "Go Day" rallies that night in 35 principal U. S. cities.

They will be $100-a-plate dinners, only anyone who wants to pay more for his seat will be encouraged to do so. National Committee hopes to raise $2 million. In 1960, with 60 donors and Nixon, they raised $4 million.

All the 1964 candidates, favorite ones and remote long shots will be put on the air by closed-circuit television. Gen. Eisenhower will be in Detroit, Nixon in New York, Rockefeller in Los Angeles, Goldwater in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Gov. Scrantom in Indianapolis, Michigan's Gov. Romney at the Sheraton-Park in Washington, D. C.

By Jan. 29 all of Democratic President Johnson's important policy messages will have been delivered to Congress. It will be known what he stands for and where. If the target he presents is exactly the same as the Kennedy program, the GOP will have something to shoot at and will start shooting.

GOP statements of Republican presidential possibilities and their chances generally concede that Sen. Barry Goldwater has lost some strength because he professed anti-Khrushchevism, which is now a lost issue.

Anti-Goldwater Republicans maintain he no longer has a chance. His main strength was in the South where he had 308 of the 685 GOP convention delegates needed for the nomination. The contention is that southern Democrats who might have voted Republican against Kennedy will support Johnson.

There are all kinds of rumors floating around Washington that Goldwater is getting ready to pull out. Most of this is wishful thinking or guessing.

Draft Goldwater headquarters in Washington is working harder than ever. The senator's own office shows no signs of retreat. And it has become known that shortly after the Kennedy funeral, Goldwater had a session with Leonard Hall in New York, asking him to become Goldwater campaign manager. It didn't go through.

New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's stock has shown no perceptible rise. The consensus is that most voters won't vote for him because of his divorce and marriage to a divorcee.

Gov. Scrantom's weakness is that he isn't known. "Walk him down any main street outside of Harrisburg, Pa.," says one GOP leader, "and nobody would recognize him."

Nixon is the real dark horse. One shrewd comment on him is that, "If he had just known Rockefeller was going to get a divorce and if he just hadn't run for governor of California and taken such a beating, today he'd have it made."

Q—What is the meaning of "Ezra's Birth," the name of the Jewish service organizations?

A—"Ezra of the Covenant."

Q—What honor was recently awarded the late Eleanor Roosevelt?

A—A 5-cent postage stamp was issued in her honor. The only other "First Lady" so honored was Martha Washington.

Q—How does the world population now stand?

A—It was 2.15 billion in mid-1963. For the first time in history the combined population of the Americas surpassed that of Europe—including the USSR.

Q—Who was the first Negro to serve in the U. S. Senate?

A—Hiram R. Revels of Mississippi. He took his seat February 3, 1870 and served until May 4, 1871.

Q—How long is a day on Mars?

A—Just a little longer than a day on earth—24 hours 37 minutes, 22.58 seconds.

Creative Billingsgate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson has on several occasions recently urged the American people to refrain from name-calling and other forms of intramural insults.

This is certainly a laudable admonition and to it I would like to add an appeal of my own. My plea is this:

If you insist on reviling or vilifying someone, please try to be creative about it.

Frankly, the brand of slender being circulated nowadays is not only deplorable but boring. The misting of invectives, which might be defined as verbal testosterone, seems to be a dying art.

One rarely encounters a person who is highly skilled at taking the hide off someone. At least, it is a rare experience for me.

Weeks and even months go by without my hearing a single authentically original malediction. People apparently no longer take pride in inventing vituperation.

the people and carry out their wishes, you rank head and shoulders beneath the lowest."

I enjoy shutting my eyes and trying to visualize someone ranking head and shoulders beneath a serpent, but the picture won't come in.

Nevertheless, it does present a challenge. On that score alone it sinks high above the average contemporary tirade.

Another fulmination I have admired recently was directed at me by a doctor in Ohio who became incensed over something I had written.

He dashed off a diatribe suggesting that I had "degraded from a long line of bastards."

Now that is the type of Philippic that made this nation great. If we are going to abuse each other, let us at least use a little imagination.

Mira To Have Receivers For A Change

Mira should have plenty of what he lacked during the regular season when he teamed with Dick Shiner of Maryland to make a passing show of the annual North-South All-Star game Saturday.

Mira, an All-America last year, had a losing campaign with Miami's Hurricanes this year, primarily because his receivers couldn't handle his passes.

But he and Shiner should both have plenty of catches on the South's All-Star squad, and Coach Tom Nugent has made no secret of his plans for making the most of the throwing abilities of the two quarterbacks.

"We've got to go for the passing game," Nugent said. "With Mira and Shiner both available, it's our best bet."

The array of receivers includes Stan Crissom of Duke, Russ Brown of Florida, Clem Dellinger of Tulane, Ernie Arrie of Maryland, and two of Mira's favorite targets from the Hurricanes, end Hoyt Sparks and halfback Nick Spinelli.

The sub-zero cold has wrecked Coach Bob Devaney's plans for fruitful practice sessions at home to be prepared for the Hurricanes for their New Year's date with Auburn.

Team morale plunged along with the mercury as the squad worried through a tense period before Devaney decided to remove himself from consideration as a possible replacement for Andy Gustafson at the University of Miami.

Killebrew Top League Slugger

BOSTON (UPI)—Harmen Killebrew and Bob Allison of the Minnesota Twins were the American League's most feared home 1-2 power combination during the 1963 season.

Official figures compiled by the Home News Bureau disclosed today that Killebrew won the league's slugging honors with a .555 percentage and that Allison finished second with .533. Elston Howard of the New York Yankees ranked third at .528 and Dick Stuart of the Boston Red Sox and Jimmie Hall of the Twins were tied for fourth at .521 each.

Killebrew went to bat 515 official times and had 70 singles, 18 doubles and 45 homers for 286 total bases.

Lions Travel To Seek 4th Cage Victory

Tonight the Oviedo Lions invade Mount Dora to renew a 25 year rivalry with the currently undefeated Hurricanes. The Lions will be after their fourth victory of the yet young season, and are hoping to close out the year on a happy note by upsetting Mount Dora.

Oviedo will be taking to the road after inflicting a 61-43 defeat on the tall Osceola Cowboys last Tuesday. Oviedo has shown improvement in rebounding, especially against taller teams, such as Lyman and Kissimmee. Oviedo also has improved on passing and general teamwork.

The Lions have raised their shooting percentage, yet there is improvement in this to be made. It is considered to be imperative, by the coaching staff, that the Lions continue improving in order to win the "big ones" against Titusville and Evans. Oviedo will continue practicing to develop a more balanced scoring attack and a polished defense.

Mount Dora is meeting the Lions, fresh from a 75-56 wallop of St. Cloud. The Hurricanes are unbeaten and are ranked as one of the tougher teams in Central Florida. The Mount Dora quietest is led by 6'3" center Ron Mikell, who led the Hurricanes in scoring last year. He is also aided by teammate Ted Gottfried, another fine scorer who backed Mikell's 24 points Tuesday, with a solid 21 markers.

The Mount Dora - Oviedo game is an annual game played regularly in Mount Dora. The Lions hold a lead in this long series, but were upended last year by the Hurricanes. Oviedo hopes to avenge this loss, but the Lions are considered underdogs to the high scoring Mount Dora attack.

Oviedo's JV's will also be trying to improve their 2-2 record. The JV's are fresh from a 48-34 victory over the Osceola JV's. L.L.D. by Bobby Stewart, Mike Partin, Walter Beasley and Bob Bellhorn the baby Lions have played a fine season thus far, and are hoping to stop the Hurricane's JV unit.

Both Oviedo coaches, Paul Mikler (Varsity) and Jim Palmer (JV), are optimistic and express satisfaction in the fact that the Oviedo cagers will be trying their hardest for victory.

Probable starting line-up for Oviedo follows: Courier, Bellhorn, Mikler, Brooks and Arndt.

Mount Dora will probably start, Mikell, Gottfried, Stewart, Tanner, and McCabe.

Liberty Bowl Teams Warm Up

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Brief workouts were planned today by Mississippi State and North Carolina State in a tuneup for Saturday's clash at Philadelphia Stadium in the fifth annual Liberty Bowl football game.

Both teams arrived here Thursday and paid brief visits to the stadium during windy and 30-degree weather.

Both Coach Paul Davis of Mississippi State and Earle Edwards of the North Carolina State Wolfpack hoped the practice sessions here would help the southern teams to acclimate themselves in the wintry weather which was expected to continue into Saturday.

The game, which will benefit 41 hospitals of the Delaware Valley Hospital Council, faces an uncertain future because of poor attendance. It was announced Thursday that only about 10,000 tickets have been sold in advance sales.

Martin, Garay Win Feature

Martin and Garay overcame a stubborn opposition from Ernu and Iriarte to win the feature eighth game doubles event Thursday night at the Orlando Seminole Jai Alai Fronton.

For Martin, it was the second triumph of the night. He teamed with Iriarte to take the fifth game.

Elu also had a pair of wins, the first in the opening game with Ramon and the second in the seventh contest with Irigo.

Luis and Aldas split the daily doubles, paying $44.80 on the 1-3 combination.

222 Dogs To Run In Race Tonight

Two hundred and twenty-two greyhounds school in an even 30 races at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club tonight, starting at 7.

Fans are eagerly awaiting the announcement of the inaugural Handicap field and racing secretary R. C. "Pitay" Williamson is diligently considering the schooling performances of the inaugural hopefuls and their past performance records before naming the lucky eight.

The inaugural is always the opening night feature and many of the country's top speedsters are among the possibilities.

Saturday night will be the last time to watch the greyhounds in their schooling session. Post time will be at 7 o'clock.

Return Players

NEW YORK (UPI)—Goalie Gilles Villeneuve, center Gordon Labossiere and left wing Dave Richardson were returned by the New York Rangers Thursday to their Baltimore farm club in the American Hockey League.

The players had been brought up when a rash of injuries hit Ranger regulars.

Griffith's 147-pound 6'1 1/2 will not be at stake in this nationally televised 10-rounder at the Civic Arena, but his prestige as "Fighter of the Year" and his hopes for a shot at the middleweight (160-pound crown will be hanging on every punch. His practice will plummet and his middleweight hopes will drop to zero—the temperature outside—if he loses.

Pittsburgh's Dec. 20 record of four above zero was established in 1884.

Sluggo Carter of Patterson, N. J. also will be risking his chances of soon challenging middleweight ruler Joe Giardella.

Griffith, 24, of New York, is favored at 2-1 to beat the 26-year-old Carter because of his speed, ruggedness and combined boxer-puncher proficiency, and because of the success pattern in Emile's three latest bouts—two with middleweight contenders.

Despite the frigid weather and the lack of even a Pittsburgh TV blackout, promoter Archie Litman says he expects a crowd of 8,000 and a gate of about $36,000.

The Dapper Don Christmas fund for needy children will get 10 per cent of the gate, after taxes.

Griffith gets a flat guarantee of $36,000 from the gate and TV. Carter receives $7,000 and expenses.
