How Celery City Vanity Fair While Away the Golden Hours—Social Gossip.

NO observant goer-about in the Celery City can fail to notice the large number of majestically tall young women in our midst. They tower above the men in the most discomfiting fashion. Asking one who ought to know if there was any underlying reason for this, the following answer was received:

"Yes. The young women are going in more and more for physical culture with good results, and the young men are cigaretting themselves into pigmies."

As this discrepancy in size is principally noticeable among Celery Cityites of both sex, fancy took a precipitate flight into the near future. Then the young men will have to get upon tall stilts to look into their best girls' eyes, and the fiancées of the little men will have to kneel on hassocks to submit their Amazonian fingers for the betrothal ring! It will not be lovely to have giantesses and no giants in the land in those days.

Silver Tea

On last Friday afternoon Mrs. M. M. Steward entertained the ladies of the Baptist church at a Silver Tea given for the benefit of the Pastorium.

Quite a number of ladies were present and all report a most enjoyable time.

A very interesting program was rendered as follows:

- Instrumental Solo... Miss Marget Davis
- Instrumental Solo... Miss Johnell Garner
- Recitation... Miss Gladys Gardner
- Instrumental Solo... Miss Nannie Gillenberg
- Vocal Solo... Miss Minnie Steward
- Recitation... Mrs. Barden
- Vocal Solo... Mrs. E. E. Webb

Dainty refreshments were served after which all departed to their homes pronouncing Mrs. Steward and her daughters excellent entertainers.

Merry Party at Wekiva Springs

There are great preparations being made at Wekiva Springs this week to entertain the many visitors. Sanford has added her quota to the gay circle, and quite a party left this city on Wednesday to enjoy a stay of three or four days at this famous resort. Among those in the party are Mesdames Butt, Roumillat and Frank, Misses Frank, Bowler, Mitchell and Harris and Messrs. Case, Roumelatt and Felix Frank.

Fishing Party

It was a merry party that went in Dr. Stevens' houseboat on a camping and fishing expedition to Turtle creek last week, and a happy time was had by all. Those who composed the party were Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Davis and daughter, Miss Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall.

Miss Lucille Richards, one of the popular teachers of the Sanford High School, has returned home from a vacation of two months spent in northwest Georgia, and is ready for her work in the school.

Mrs. E. J. Hoolehan is spending a month with her father, J. B. Brinson.

Miss Eva Walker of Longwood returned home last Friday after a very pleasant visit with her uncle, C. B. Walker, and family.

Mrs. J. H. Bruton and family took advantage of the St. Augustine excursion and enjoyed the sights of the Ancient City this week.

Mrs. M. E. Holly and Mrs. E. G. Tyler left Saturday for a visit to relations in Gainesville. They returned Wednesday.

Miss Helen Boltwood and Miss May Petris of Oakland, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. N. B. Sharpe, on their way to DeLand.

Mrs. J. D. Litson went on the excursion to St. Augustine, Monday. After spending a few days there, she will go to Jacksonville to visit a week with her sister.

Mrs. J. N. Blaine and Mrs. Lyman Phelps left for Jacksonville, Monday, where they will spend a brief season with their children.

Mrs. Charles Rice and little son of St. Petersburg, who have been visiting Mrs. S. M. Baker, left Monday for Leesburg where they will spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. F. A. Granger and daughter, Miss Mabel, are home from a two weeks visit to Georgia friends.

Mrs. A. W. Baxley and Miss Baxley left Wednesday for Asheville, N. C., where they will spend two months with relatives.

Misses Mabel and Charlotte Hand are guests of Jacksonville friends.

COMING AMUSEMENTS

An Artist of Rare Ability to be Heard Here September 21st

Vilona, the great violin virtuoso, who is now on her third American tour, will favor the music lovers of Sanford by giving one concert in the Opera House on Monday, September 21st.

Those who have read of the enthusiasm over her on her previous tours in the cities of the north and west will be prepared to enjoy a great musical experience when she plays here.

Unassuming and simple as a child, Vilona is untouched by the world's fawning admiration, and as her marvelously supple fingers glide without effort through the most amazing intricacies of the composer's art, one's mind is not distracted, but carried into an ecstasy of delight by the grace and beauty of it all. She is modestly and sincerely herself—of lovable personality—devoted to her art, but still a great home-lover.

It is not the women alone who are hypnotized by the magic of her playing—men without musical knowledge are carried away and revel in new sensations while listening to sounds which no mere fiddle ever produced. The youth and gladness which dance through the music brings a joy and freshness to the heart that makes the world grow young again, and where is the man who would refuse to be transported back to the "golden days."

Mrs. O. O. Likins, of Orlando, who is so well and favorably known by the music-lovers of the state has kindly consented to render several vocal numbers with violin obligato.

Burial of J. N. Blaine

J. N. Blaine, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Sanford, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lyman Phelps on last Thursday at 2 p. m. The funeral service was held on Friday afternoon at the house and he was buried in Lakeview cemetery, Rev. J. T. McKinnon, officiating.

Mr. Blaine was 75 years old, and came from Ohio to Sanford 28 years ago. He leaves a wife and three children. While he had been failing for several months, the end came suddenly and was unexpected. Mr. Blaine was well known in and about Sanford, and has many friends who will regret to hear of his death.

Special Correspondence to The Herald. Conclusive Evidence. WHEN man knows how to match a ribbon...

GOOD MORNING—"Is Everybody Happy?" Depends on Legs

The Tampa Tribune, always a forerunner of approaching events in the Cigar City, thus announces a new fashion for the male sex:

Sheath pants are next. We have the authority of the leading authorities on tailoring that there is a logical sequence of the sheath gown, just as the little green hats now shown in New York show windows and designated "merry bachelors" have followed the "merry widow" and its expansive reign.

The sheath trousers are to be like other trousers from the knee up, but below that convenient point of distinction they are to be "slit" and laid the rest of the distance downward.

Wide latitude will be allowed in the character of the lacing and also in the hosiery and undergarment that will be exposed by the "slit."

The well-rounded calf will doubtless obtrude in gaudy covering, while that of less handsome proportions will be more modest in display.

The sheath trousers, however, we are forced to assert, will be popular only with male beings who "run to legs" and who can afford to expose their underpinning to the curious gaze of the populace.

Willie Thin-Shanks will studiously avoid the new fashion, while Johnny Fat-Limb will adopt it with avidity. The same consideration that prevents the general use of the sheath trousers is of only partial popularity—and they will be worn, like the feminine article only for exhibition.

The ultra-fashionable young men to make a departure from the "staid white duck." Who will be the first to put on the sheath pants?

"Is it true, doctor," asked a Sanford girl just home from a trip to the country, "that eating cucumbers will remove freckles?"

"Of course," replied the doctor, "under certain circumstances."

"Indeed? Under what circumstances?"

"Well, provided the freckles are on the cucumbers."

The world learns slowly to perceive the good to which it has been blind. The world is very loath to leave its long established wrongs behind with many doubts and halts and turns. The old world learns—but it learns.

By Orlando papers I notice that candidates are announcing themselves for the various municipal offices, although no date has yet been named for the primary. Here in Sanford there is a slight undercurrent apparent in the political field. The principal interest seems to be in the Mayorality and Marshalship contests, and no doubt in due time these will develop into a heated campaign. I shall watch the game with interest and endeavor to keep my readers fully posted as the campaign progresses.

The announcement at column of THE HERALD it will be noticed that E. C. Morris has determined to be a candidate for Marshal, and I am reliably informed that friends of J. A. Harold have prevailed upon him to enter the Mayorality contest. Of course friends of Mayor Lake will insist upon him being a candidate for re-election, and J. T. Lee will also stand for re-election as Marshal, while Green Smith will enter the race for that office.

"Try not the pass," said the old man in the poem dear to "dearliest skule" boys on declamation days. If he had it to say over again, he would doubtless advise: "Try not the pass of the Sanford street crossings in the dark of the moon."

Don't be a meddler—don't be a butt-in—keep your nose out of other people's affairs. Bradstreet, the reporter and commentator upon commercial operations, particularly of a credit character, not long since stated that seventy-five per cent of the failures in the business world could be traced, directly or indirectly, to the butting into another people's affairs by fool friends and relatives. The same may be said of the meddler in purely personal affairs. How many homes have been broken up, how many lives have been blasted, and happiness destroyed by the venomous tongued retailer of scandalous gossip—or exaggerated and perverted statements, relative to some simple indiscretion. If you cannot speak well of any one, do not say anything, is a good rule to follow.

The underlying basis of meddling is an over-developed egotism, or else jealousy at seeing other people more successful than themselves. Busy-bodies and meddling Matties are universally despised by people who attend strictly to their own affairs.

I find the following piece of wit in the Ocala Bander last week, and suspect it is the perpetration of my friend, Leaven-good, manager of that great illuminary: There's a young lady in the second ward who has two beaux. One is a favorite and calls every evening that the weather is good and takes the girl to the Berlin and to Troxler's. The other kneaux that he isn't in it, seau he only geaux rainy evenings, and always carries a box of candy. She calls him her rainbeau. If this weather continues, the Star will put its money on his winning.

I have noted with much pleasure, and increasing confidence in the future of our beautiful little city, the deep interest the public is taking in the effort to advance the general welfare of the Celery City. Since this crusade began, and as a result of it, property has stiffened in price, individual enterprise has been quickened, the merchant has more confidence in his business and municipal pride has been awakened to a degree never before witnessed in Sanford.

Every citizen views with pride, and pleasure as well, the magical effect of the harmonious manner in which every Sanford-loving man is striving to make the city appear at its best, and, in his mind, plans for further improvements, that a few months ago would have seemed ambitions. It is all a matter of confidence and the unity of our forces. "United we stand, divided we fall," is as true when applied to a municipality as to an army about to engage in battle. Its success depends upon the perfect co-operation of its thousands of soldiers, one with the other and their confidence in their ability to win. Our success as a municipality depends upon the same factors. No unreasonable improvement is too ambitious for us, if we all, with one accord, say it shall be done, and join our forces to have it done.

Many improvements in the way of paved streets, concrete walks, and more sewerage are easily within our reach, not in the far distant future, but NOW, today, if the people so will, for the Council stands ready to do what the people will them to do, and the effect would be immediate, beautiful, permanent improving.

The Boston girl who was scolded for using too much gas, and then turned on all the gas and killed herself, evidently did not have any young man to teach her the economy of sitting in the dark.

What a burning shame it is that a handsome large building such as the Stone-Gore at the corner of First street and Palmetto avenue, should be permitted to remain in such a dilapidated condition. If it was put in repair at once, I venture to assert that every foot of space would be promptly rented at a good price. It can not long remain in its present condition, for sooner or later the authorities must condemn it as unsafe.

There is one feature of amusement and sport hereabouts of which little is said. I refer to the fox chases in which our local sportsmen indulge. Almost every week a party on horseback and with numerous dogs hunt the country over for miles and generally they are successful in capturing several of the tribe of Sir Reynard. It is great sport, and when our northern friends arrive they should be invited to participate in the chase, thus giving to Sanford another great attraction.

Local hunters anticipate good sport this winter hunting deer, of which there are said to be a great many in the woods. The season opens November 1st.

The most that Sanford needs is plenty of confidence, and THE HERALD is doing a good work along this line.

The city has grown in spite of croakers, and is much better off today than the average town of the same size, has natural advantages second to none, and may easily be made more beautiful. Let us stand together and make the pessimist leave town.

There are some needed improvements that will probably have to await better times, but there are some things we can do now. We can improve the appearance of the town for our pleasure and for the encouragement of settlers.

We can plant more shade and ornamental trees. We can build good, hard roads and we can improve our streets and sidewalks and create pleasant driveways.

We can put grass and rose bushes in our front yards and we can beautify our parks.

Many houses need painting and it is cheaper to put the paint on than to leave it off. These are small things, but they make the difference between a good town and a poor one. Let us adorn the Celery City royally as she has a right to be.

I believe that everyone ought to go to church at least once on Sunday. It is the proper thing to do, and one is always better for it. So many men stay away from church that the question is asked why they do it. The answer is, that they do not want to go. The question why they do not want to go is another matter that I may discuss at another time.

Paul Révere's famous ride was limited on Sanford avenue last Sunday, and Paul as a rider was put in the background by the wonderful feats performed by one of our "sporty" young men. But please don't mention this around Billy Hand's place, nor Tell Tom Williams about it.

A popular local sportsman, and one who is particularly fond of the fox-chase, takes umbrage at the remarks of "Suburbanite" in last week's HERALD regarding the blowing of horns to corral dogs for the chase. But he advises his colleagues to pay no attention to these criticisms and philosophically says: "Oh, well, let the 'old boys' get used to the wind of the horns, and when Gabriel blows his horn at the last great day (about 2 a. m.) they will only turn over and resume their slumbers in the delusive thought, that it is only those fool fox hunters winding their pack of dogs."

Yours, for Progress, THE SAUNTERER.

WHERE TO REGISTER

Sanford Voters Have Two Places for Registering

It behooves every man of Sanford to see that his name is upon the registration list in order that he can vote in the National election in November. There are two places where this can be done, as Sanford has been divided since the primary election, on account of the great increase in the number of voters. All those living west of Park avenue in District No. 25, should call upon City Clerk, M. L. Scott, where the books will be opened.

The books for District No. 3, for all those living east of Park avenue, will be open at the office of the Marks Real Estate Agency, in Sanford, Fla.

Every voter should see that his name is on the list before the expiration of the time for the books to close.

The Man Who Pays

To the Editor of The Herald: If there is any particular individual in this world who should have an extra star in his crown when he shuffles off this mortal coil and takes his seat with the saints above, we believe it is the man who, while toiling here below, paid his debts as they came due, or at least made an honest effort to do so. Really, we believe that debt-paying is going to be one of the requisites necessary to pass St. Peter, and that many a "good citizen" whose record is full of flagrant lapses in this respect will have serious trouble in getting in at the golden gate.

Too many people go through life on the plan of letting the man they owe do the worrying. Too many of us are prone to become careless when our own sordid aims are in the balance, and we need a wholesome revival of the sacredness of our obligations. There is something wrong in the makeup of the man who does not worry about his debts.

Some individuals with means amply sufficient to pay what they owe, prefer to invest their money and reap dividends, or store it in a bank's strong box while their creditors' noses are held to the grindstone; others would pay if they had more money than they need, but feel under no obligation to retrench or stint themselves in order that the men they owe may be paid; while others still will not pay at all—they do not contract debts with the intention of paying them. The latter are undesirable in all that the word implies.

"The poor ye have always with you," and misfortunes are liable to befall the man with the highest respect for his obligations, rendering it impossible for him to pay his debts, but these form only a small percentage of the debtor class, and an honest creditor's inability is never taken advantage of by an equally honest debtor.

What an impetus would be given to business, how many sleepless nights, and how many failures would be avoided if every man in Florida made a firm resolve tomorrow morning to pay what he owes, as far as lay in his power, millions of debt would be discharged, credit and confidence restored, and we would all be immeasurably happier and none any poorer.

About every business man in Sanford, and indeed in every town and city in the country, has felt the blight of bad debts—it is the millstone about the neck of industrial prosperity. No man has the right to take his neighbor's substance without rendering value received. In truth, the noblest work of God is an honest mind.

—A CAPITALIST.

GOOD!! Mr. "Farmer."

To the Editor of The Herald: Were there more like you, those who are sportsmen, and take things as they find them where they live, are with you. We—when I say we, I mean to include those who abide by the game laws as laid down by the statutes of Florida—and to enforce those laws, every sportsman should use every effort to punish those who take advantage of the closed season to "pot hunt" game of any kind, and make monkeys of those who abide by the laws and take their sport when the law gives them the privilege.

The good work has been started and great credit is due the ones who have taken the initiative in the matter.

There are those who think they are mighty smart when they sneak out with a sawed-off shot gun loaded with a handful of number ten shot and wipe out with one load a covey of 25 or 30 quail bunched on the ground. They don't take a chance at them on the wing for they are too small and stingy to take a chance of wasting a load.

The open season is near at hand, and it is up to every sportsman in the county to see that our game is protected for the benefit of those who abide by the laws, and are willing to take their chance in the field when they are allowed to, under the laws of the state.

Don't kill game out of season, and "game boys" take notice.

—SPORTSMAN.

The Mail-Order Business

To the Editor of The Herald: Returning from a trip through the Northern states, I find that most papers up there are making a determined fight against the mail-order business, and as that pernicious habit of our people sending to the large city mail-order houses for goods is growing in this section, I submit the following editorial from a New England paper in the hope that you will give it space, as the same applies to Florida towns as well as in the North.

"The mail-order firm is to our mind not only an enemy of the home merchant, but of every resident in the rural communities and the smaller towns of the state. The mail-order firm injures even the man or woman that doesn't patronize it because it takes money from the town which would be better for the town if it was left at home.

Many times in the past we have paid our respects to firms which continue to secure from our citizens patronage which should be given to the home merchant. Just why this patronage should go to the local merchant has been discussed until it seems almost an undisputed question. It should be enough for our readers to know that the mail-order firm which many of them patronize look to the rural communities for their support. They make no attempt to secure patronage from those nearby, from those who know them and their method. The mail order firm takes your money and it does not contribute to the support of your schools, your public institutions or your good roads. The name of your local merchant is listed among the tax-payers of your town, but a portion of the money you give the mail-order firm does pay taxes, but it is in a city many, many miles away. Why, patron of the mail-order firm, do you prefer to buy goods with no opportunity to examine them or to test their worth, when you can buy as well of a local merchant whose honesty and integrity you cannot question, and whose willingness to replace unsatisfactory purchases is admitted?"

The one reason why the mail-order firm secures patronage is because it advertises. The local merchant, to hold the trade that goes to others must advertise—must meet competition as he finds it. The local merchant must tell the residents of his territory what he has to sell and what he offers in the way of bargains. Many times in the course of the year we are brought face to face with this "mail-order firm" proposition by merchants who never spend a dollar for advertising. Foolishly, they expect to get rich on other people's thunder; to continue to sell goods while others are spreading broadcast their alarming advertisements. No merchant can say he cannot afford to advertise until he has all of the trade of his field. We hear quite a little about the obligation of the press in this matter. The press is not a charitable institution although some seem inclined to so consider it. Publishers have pay rolls, paper bills, power bills, insurance bills, and rent bills and many other bills to meet. It cannot be by the gratuitous advertising organ of any person or persons. It is safe to say that the press will always oppose the mail-order firm so long as it threatens to take the business of the towns and villages. It has a right to expect cooperation from those very persons who are assisted and benefited by such a crusade. It is interesting to note that our consistent and regular advertisers have but little complaint to make. To our readers we say—put your faith in your local merchant; we have found him honest, fair and progressive.]—Editor.

WHAT THEY SAY OF US

Comment of the State Press on "The Herald"

Volusia County Record: Sanford's new paper, The Herald, is a credit to the Celery City. There are newspaper men of vim and enterprise behind it. It is brimfull of news, and in typographical appearance it is a gem.

DeLand Supplement: We are glad to see among our exchanges a copy of The Sanford Herald, edited by our friend R. J. Holly, who is a man of great experience in newspaper work and just the man to make a live sheet for Sanford.

Lake Butler Star: The first issue of The Sanford Herald has struck our exchange table. It is a twelve page five column paper, neatly gotten up by a good all around newspaper man. We are personally acquainted with Mr. Holly and extend to him greetings and best wishes for his every success in his new field.

West Palm Beach News: Another newspaper looms upon the political horizon. This time it is The Sanford Herald. Vol. 1, No. 1 of which is just at hand, with R. J. Holly as managing editor. W. S. Osborn is also connected with the paper, which is to be Democratic in politics. It is a live newspaper, and will "fill a long felt want," is conscious of its great responsibilities, and intends to fill the bill in every way regardless of expense. Success to The Sanford Herald.

Starke Telegraph: The Sanford Herald, R. J. Holly managing editor, has made its appearance and is a credit to Florida weekly journalism.

Malden Enterprise-Recorder: The first number of The Sanford Herald, R. J. Holly managing editor, has reached our exchange table and we hope its visits will continue indefinitely. It is a handsomely printed, well edited, five column quarto, and boosts the Celery City to a finish. Holly is an experienced newspaper man and if he is given proper encouragement will furnish the people of Sanford with a newspaper of which they may be proud.

Bricktown Herald: The initial number of The Sanford Herald is on our exchange table and is a publication of which, any more pretentious city might well feel proud. Its news and editorial columns are bright, pithy and to the point. The Herald welcomes The Sanford Herald to our exchange list and compliments Bro. Holly on his efforts.

True Democrat, Tallahassee: One of the newest and neatest of the Florida exchanges came to our table this week, a weekly "The Sanford Herald," Vol. 1, No. 1, R. J. Holly managing editor. It is made up like the True Democrat, twelve pages, five columns to the page, and is well filled with advertisements and a choice selection of reading matter. Success to the newest one, and may it live long to good work for its home people and Floridians.

Jasper News: "In Sanford—Life is worth living," is the motto of a brand new paper, The Sanford Herald, the first copy of which has just reached our table, and which is published by R. J. Holly, as managing editor. The paper is a 6-column, 12-page paper, one of the best we ever saw and as neat as a pin. If the people of Sanford will give The Herald a liberal patronage, it will be to the Celery City—a blessing.

Florida Advocate: The Sanford Herald, with R. J. Holly, managing editor, made its initial appearance last week, and is entitled to a place well to the front in Florida Journalism.

Lake City Citizen-Reporter: The Sanford Herald is a new launch on the sea of journalism. It is in all respects highly creditable. It says: For nearly a score of years there has been a crying demand for a live newspaper in Sanford that would worthily represent the liberal and enterprising citizens of this commonwealth. It is to supply that public demand that The Herald has been established. R. J. Holly is managing editor and the holly is known as a most beautiful "evergreen."

Fl. Mess Press: The Sanford Herald, a bright and sparkling 12-page, 5-column paper, has reached our exchange table, and we are pleased for two reasons to get it. The first is, it places us in closer touch with an old and valued friend, Bob Holly, who is a brainy writer and a hustling newspaper man, who is managing editor. Second, it is naturally a good paper anyhow. We wish the new paper success and congratulate the "Celery City" on securing same.

Sanford at Wekiwa Springs

FOR beautiful women and gallant men commend us to Sanford.

The famous—Celery City was well represented at Orange county's famous resort—Wekiwa Springs—this week. In the party were Mrs. C. G. Butt, Mrs. M. Frank, Miss F. R. Frank, Miss Bowler, Miss A. Mitchell, Miss Edna P. Harris, Mrs. F. E. Roumillat, Karl Roumillat, F. S. Frank, Nixon Butt, M. Fox, W. J. Thigpen, L. P. McCuller and W. S. Hand.

Thursday was a gloomy day and the clouds hung low and threatening, but as the sun came out the clouds vanished and the pale faced moon, full, bright and clear, shone with exceptional beauty.

The large dancing pavilion was handsomely decorated with large-leaved palms, and floor smooth and easy, and well lighted. About nine o'clock Professors Newell and Withington opened up with bearing the name of the lady whom he was invited to make his partner and "colleague" in devouring the toothsome contents. Ice cream and cake was also served to the "greedy" throng, and a most enjoyable evening spent by all. Each and every guest, as well as the Auxiliary ladies, feel under great social obligations to Mrs. Thrasher for a happy evening.

Miss Renie Murrell is spending a few weeks with her uncle and aunt at Lakeland.

Mrs. J. N. Whitner and daughters, Misses Alice and Mell have returned from a pleasant trip to Lake Chautauqua, N. Y., where they have been spending the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. DeCottes were the guests of friends at Orlando this week. It is a pleasure to know that these good people will retain their residence in Sanford, and that Mr. DeCottes will be able to attend to his official business at Orlando after January first without making the county seat his home.

Mrs. W. E. Moye is at home again, after a pleasant visit with relatives in Port Tampa.

Mrs. E. E. Andrews from Orange City, sister of W. F. Leavitt, is visiting at J. E. Terwilliger's this week.

Miss Mary Hunter, who has been visiting in North Carolina, returned home Thursday.

Miss Bertha Hunter, who spent a week in DeLand, returned home Tuesday.

A Correspondent Believes Those Who Pay License to Do Business Should Reap the Benefit of Advertising

To the Editor of The Herald:

I noticed in a previous issue of your paper an editorial on the real estate dealers and the part they play in the development and upbuilding of our prosperous little city. I for one am glad you thought of this subject, and that you are farsighted enough to see that the real estate men are not getting fair treatment at the hands of the property owners here.

Who is doing the advertising for Sanford? Who is it that is booming the industries at this place? Look over the advertising matter that is being sent out broadcast over the country, look through the newspapers that are being published here in our own city, see who is the booster, the advertiser, who is responsible for the influx of investors!

The investor, capitalist, manufacturer, and home-seeker, when about to purchase property, either for business or residential purposes, if he be wise, should always seek the advice and aid of the real estate agent of repute, a fact which makes him one of the most important and necessary factors of any community. To him every city owes, to a material extent, the prosperity enjoyed, and through his efforts largely new industries are located within her boundaries.

Now, Mr. Editor, we are coming to the point that I want to place before the good people of our town. Our real estate agents here are spending their money for about all the advertising that Sanford is getting, except through the charity of the newspaper men. Yet it is a fact that there are some who are hanging around the hotels, catching the investors as they come here to purchase, and warning them against the real estate agents, who they are so envious of getting a few cents commission, setting themselves up to know all about lands, and how to get rich quick on the first crop, and that they can save the buyer the real estate man's commission every time.

They are not even as much as paying a license, to say nothing of advertising, which is so necessary to get our propositions before the homeseekers and investors that we are inviting to our fair state and city.

There is another class here about as bad as the one above mentioned. I can think of no name that fits them better, than what we style "Curbstone Real Estate Agents." They own their property, it is true, as they will tell you. Even if they do, is it fair for them to mind the street corners and catch the customers that legitimate real estate agents through their advertising have induced to come here to invest? The real estate agent has to pay office rent, license, team hire, advertising, that and he can't live on the wind is a sure thing, no more than can the newspaper man.

Now, Mr. Editor, look at the two classes of men that we have called to your attention. To the law the first should be committed, to public sentiment the other. These people remind one of a little pesky insect that sticketh closer than a brother.

—A REAL ESTATE MAN.

Orphanage Day

The first Saturday in October will soon be here. This day used by the generous people throughout the state has been a great help to the orphanage. Why call attention to this one day in the year? Because we ask that everyone in Florida give the earnings of that one day to the orphanage. We ask nothing for ourselves. What we ask is for the children, that they may be cared for, clothed, fed, educated, trained in a life of industry and economy and reared for a life of usefulness, and God's glory.

The orphanages throughout the South have their annual Orphanage or Work Day. It is called My Work Day, because it is desired that everybody engage in work on that day and send to the orphanage what is earned. With many this is a very happy day, because they are working to help the orphans. This is our fifth annual orphanage day. Our first brought us $80, our second $800, our third $1500, our fourth $2,000.

Will not merchants, every business organization, people in every occupation, churches, Sunday schools, women's societies, young people's unions, secret orders, every individual in the state send us the earnings of the first Saturday in October? If you will do this, I am sure you will put into our hands $3,000 for completing the sanitarium which we need.

guitar and violin with a beautiful waltz, when the room was soon filled with many couples, and as they whirled, turned and tipped on toe, it looked as though the graceful forms were floating in the air.

As the soft, gentle rays of the moon rested on the dark green palms, they would shine like silver threads, and broke through the boughs of the massive oaks, and well-leaved gum trees, and danced upon the earth with its carpet of leaves. The scene was weird, beautiful, enchanting.

Sanford ladies offer weighty prayers sometimes. As one good, devout lady went to offer up thanks for all those blessings of life, and especially thankful for the privilege of the party with her, she grew so fervent and exhorted so strong that the powerful strength of jappanned double-weight springs on her bed gave way and her light-weight companion (215 lbs.) came to the floor, where they remained until morning.

Another cute, sweet Sanford girl (we say cute and sweet, for we are told that all Sanford girls are that—celery perhaps accounts for it) did execute that barn dance to perfection.

They certainly had a jolly good time and drank nothing but spring water.

Last night was a scene of great festivity at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, the occasion being a "box social" given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Thrasher, in her wonted way, made every guest feel at home, and the spacious lawn, as well as the gracious home, was surrendered to the guests.

A box containing a delicatessen lunch was presented to each gentleman and within the box was found a delicate card

Clinton Routh to Become Identified With Sanford

Clinton Routh of Richmond, Indiana, has purchased ten acres of celery land on Celery avenue and will make his future home in Sanford. Mr. Routh will prove a valuable addition to the city, especially in musical circles as he is a musician and teacher of merit, having taught music for a number of years in the Hoosier state.

He had been in Sanford only a short time when he recognized the future possibilities of this city as the great center for vegetable growing in the South.

Mr. Routh expects several of his friends from Richmond to arrive in Sanford later to locate and engage in the culture of vegetables.

New Celery Bleacher

W. F. Ratzien of Daytona was in the city this week exhibiting to the celery growers of this section a new celery bleacher. It is made of lath closely woven together with wire, and he claims that among its special advantages is that it will let air and moisture through the apertures between the lath. Several hundred feet can be rolled up like carpet which facilitates the handling and is a great advantage over lumber. He claims that this new bleacher can be made for about $10 a thousand feet. The growers hereabouts are much interested in this new patent, and some will test its efficacy this winter. It is largely used in Volusia county.

E. A. Hemfield Co. is at the same old stand selling more goods than ever. The people know the best place to go to.

Miss Stuck's family had onion soup for dinner last Sunday.

Gil Plummer took his regular semi-yearly bath last Monday in Monroe Lake and seemed much refreshed.

Sile Rathbone's wife is laid up with triplets and Sile is laid up with nervous prostration. The hired girl has handed in her resignation.

Bill Jones got into a racket with his mother-in-law last Saturday night and has been sleeping in the barn ever since. The swelling hasn't got out of his eye yet and his jaw is still quite sore.

At the old settlers picnic Jane Hoplight got a chicken bone stuck fast in her throat and Doc Reed couldn't pull it out without lacerating Jane's gullet and had to cram a half loaf of bread down her throat to push it into her stomach. Jane has been warned many times to be more careful when eating chicken, but gluttony seems to run in the Hoplight family.

A wagon load of slab stove wood was delivered to Jim Sutcliff's house last Saturday. Guess Jim's getting ready for winter.

Elkamer Perhamus has been elected deacon in the Newlight church and will hereafter take up collections for the benefit of the heathen, except $1.50 that goes to the preacher.

Steve Higgins' wall-eyed girl is corresponding with a Sanford football player. Some say they are engaged, but you can't most always sometimes tell as college men, specially a Sanford man, can fall in love as easy as falling off a log.

Uncle Darius Pitcher, who was 87 years old, passed away last Sunday morning without any fuss and with much celerity. His family will erect over his cold, cold clay a $10 monument, if arrangements can be made to get it on the installment plan.

Old Bill Joslyn and Uncle Ike Korpeter caught a fine string of suckers in Jessup lake last Sunday and sent them to preacher Bunker. Deacon Jason Snodgrass said fish caught on the Lord's day ought not be accepted by the minister, but the preacher's family has been suffering for fish so long a time he hadn't the heart nor the stomach to refuse 'em.

Rev. Bogardus Goodbelcher will take a month's vacation and visit several relatives who are in jail in Missouri.

Amos Bumgardner has bought the soft drink privileges at the old settlers' picnic at Bungalow Corners next week. Amos sold out his huckster wagon last fall and retired from business, but he's one of them energetic cusses that can't keep still, no-how. Last year quite a number of old settlers got quite hilarious on soda pop and some think Amos put too much Jamaica ginger or peppermint into it.

It is said that Jim Boliver and Mart Skinner will unite their "two-cow" dairies and boost the price of skimmed milk. The law again trusts don't seem to worry these heartless cormorants.

The devilishness of the Bixler boys was shown last Sunday when they put a lot of fly paper on Deacon Sidebottom's seat in the Hardshell church. The deacon's eyesight is nearly as bad as his earsight and when he got up to pass around the contribution box he was a sight as the boys had painted on the other side of the fly paper: "Our preacher's wife needs new underwear. Chip in, chip in, ye ungodly sinners."

Aunt Hulda Gilchrist's corns are bothering her quite much of late.

Lib Peters has bought a gilt frame looking-glass and too spittoons for her chirpody parlor. When it comes to style, Lib's got 'em skinned to a frazzle.

Punk Jones and Skinny Jane Slocum went over to Sanford last Monday and were seen to visit an installment furniture house. Punk told "Jack" his intended father-in-law would go his security all right, all right.

A social function came off at the charming home of Col. Bill Hockenspitz's last evening. It was attended by our literary people mostly. Lycurgus Dollarhide, Demetrius Attwater, Deidemonia Smoot, Cascaretta Snodgrass, Belladonna Sniffles, Punk Jones, Skinny Jane Slocum and the charming daughters of Mose Soakenheimer and Pete Skinemquick, leading second-hand shoe dealer in Bungalow Corners, and others. The spread was quite sumptuous, consisting of boiled tripe, fried liver, red lemonade, Garfield tea and the question "Who writ Shakespeare," was much discussed, and it was decided that it was either Lord Bryan or an eastern chap named Bacon who did it. George Ade, Slocum and Booth Tackington Gullett related comic stories and much hilarity prevailed. —HAYRUBE.

FIRST CLASS CRATE MATERIALS Sanford, Fla.

THE SANFORD HERALD Published Every Saturday Morning at Sanford, Fla. R. J. HOLLY, Managing Editor.

SANFORD, FLORIDA: SEPT. 10, 1908

MORE HOME AFFAIRS. If some of the weekly papers in this State would devote more attention and space to home improvements and local affairs generally and less to political matters, they would perhaps be more appreciated and their town made more attractive and prosperous.

Work for the upbuilding of your immediate section. Tell about the crops that are being, or could be, raised on the soil around you; the fat cattle, fine horses and other prize stock that are being grown on Florida-made corn, fodder and hay.

Here in Sanford we have Republicans and Democrats, and all that could be said within a year would hardly change the political sentiments of a single adherent of either party, so it is nonsense to give so much space and attention to political matters, platforms and dogmas when no converts are made.

The rapid strides that Sanford is making toward a large city is the subject of much comment by the papers of the State. Note the following, from the Palatka Times-Herald:

The City Council of Sanford has been asked for a street car and an electric franchise. Progress appears to be the watch-word in that city just now.

Indeed, "Progress" is truly the watch-word of the Celery City, and it is confidently believed that ere another year has passed it will have acquired all the comforts, conveniences and necessities of a city of great magnitude.

In this issue of THE HERALD is an article on "Curbstone Brokers" in real estate and the writer, who is one of the sufferers from this class of insects, can hardly be blamed for voicing his sentiments upon this matter.

The true "Nestor of Florida Journalism," Hon. Frank Harris has gone to New York for a vacation and during his absence the Banner is under the editorial management of his accomplished daughter, Mrs. Sara E. Harris Lloyd, than whom no more efficient or brainy writer ever had charge of a Florida paper.

The public-spirited citizens of Sanford should do everything in their power to encourage the great enterprises that are seeking for a location in our midst. Opportunity knocks at our door but once and if our city can secure such factories as the mill and crate factory, employing 250 people with an investment of over a half million dollars, it means that Sanford will not only be the center of the trucking industry but the center also of the greatest manufacturing industries of the entire south.

Bro. Bullock, of the Gainesville Elevator, complains that he has lost his "own head" together with final extremities to the Orlando Sentinel.

One of the crying evils of Sanford is the large number of ugly alleys and badly kept outbuildings, fences and back yards.

THE HERALD apologizes to the Ocala Daily Star for giving credit to the Banner of that city for the beautiful things said of the first issue and the City of Sanford.

MAY BE A DAILY Since the last issue of this paper one hundred and thirty-six new subscribers have been added to the already large list of regular readers of THE HERALD.

We find on every hand a demand for a daily issue of this paper, and while we have turned a deaf ear to this demand, it seems that we cannot further ignore the wishes of the people, hence it is altogether probable that ere long a daily edition of THE HERALD will be issued.

The management of THE HERALD anticipating this demand, fully equipped the printing plant of the paper with fast-machinery, type, etc., so that in an emergency of that kind it could put a daily paper on the streets within a very few hours after a substantial demand for such was made.

The great and unprecedented growth of Sanford in business and population makes the demand almost irresistible and we take this occasion to say that when this emergency occurs THE HERALD is amply able to meet it and will give to the people of the Celery City and Orange county a daily paper of which all will be proud.

It requires some work and the investment of no little capital to get out a live daily paper, but the people of Sanford and Orange county may be assured that when THE SANFORD DAILY HERALD is published it will be all that they can desire.

A DRAINAGE SYSTEM The recent heavy rains have demonstrated the fact that it is necessary to have a comprehensive system of drainage for the Sanford trucking district.

Realizing the difficulty of effecting a proper system of drainage by mere private subscription, a number of our prominent citizens and large-property owners have decided to avail themselves of the provisions of an act of the Legislature of 1901, which empowers the county commissioners upon proper petition, to effect public drainage in their respective counties.

This law, Chapter 3035 of the Act of 1901, gives the county commissioners full and complete authority to condemn rights of way for drains, to appoint officers to supervise the construction of such drains and for the assessment of the benefits to abutting and adjoining property. It provides also for the extension of the payment for such work over a period of six years.

Messrs. A. T. Rossetter, J. N. and R. H. Whitner, M. M. Smith and Holden Real Estate Co. are behind this movement. A petition to the county commissioners can be found at the offices of J. N. Whitner and Holden Real Estate Co.

It is desired that this petition shall be in proper shape to go before the county commissioners at their October session. A majority only of the property owners are required, but it will have a great deal more weight with the commissioners if every one signs.

C. E. Howard has resumed the editorial charge of the Orlando Reporter-Star and W. D. Yowell will be business manager. Mr. Howard is one of the brightest lights in the profession of pencil pushers and his many friends will gladly welcome him into the ranks again.

W. D. Yowell has been with the Star since its first appearance in the journalistic firmament and afterwards with the Reporter-Star, being one of the principal stockholders and knows the business thoroughly.

The First National Bank of St. Petersburg offers monthly prizes of five dollars for the best written advertisements of their business. In Gainesville all of the five banks advertise and change their advertisements almost daily in the Sun.

THE HERALD apologizes to the Ocala Daily Star for giving credit to the Banner of that city for the beautiful things said of the first issue and the City of Sanford.

A man once prominent in business and social circles had fallen to the lowest depths of degradation when a relative placed him in the Keeley Institute and he is now back in his former class, successful and respected.

The Ocala Star received a long tirade from a Populist abusing Wm. J. Bryan and Bro. Blittinger in denying admission of the same to the columns of the Star, says:

If there has been a man true to his convictions it has been William Jennings Bryan. Mr. Bryan has a larger place in the hearts of the American people than any man who ever became a powerful leader in this or any other country, and this trust in him has been growing wonderfully in the past few years.

Have you noticed that THE HERALD does not in the least lean toward yellow journalism—that it makes no specialty of parading "criminal news"? The courts of our land take care of such features.

A community with good roads is at the top; with soft roads it is at the bottom. The Sanford Herald is doing a great work for that town.—Tampa Tribune.

The cost of the sandy road comes out of the farmers' profits. A community with good roads is at the top; with soft roads it is at the bottom.

SIDEWALK TALK

Do you realize the necessity for a substantial foundation as a part of that sidewalk which you intend building? A nicely finished top lends beauty, but not stability. This is to be attained only when the same care is exercised in selection of materials for the foundation as for the top coat.

With this fact in mind, I am importing clean hard crushed stone, which when mixed with standard engineering specifications, gives an absolutely dependable foundation. If you want a walk in which you can take pride in the years to come, be sure that that foundation is right. This is one of the characteristics of my work. Let me figure on such a walk for you.

COMING AMUSEMENTS

An Artist of Rare Ability to be Heard Here September 21st

At the Opera House next Monday night, September 21st, the people of this city and vicinity will listen to one of the greatest musical treats ever offered. The violin is conceded to be the sweetest, most charming of all instruments of music—who has not heard the name Stradivarius, the maker of the sweetest toned, most perfect violin in the world. Kubelik paid ten thousand for one.

At the concert Monday night Vilona will play on her marvelously sweet-toned Stradivarius to the people of Sanford as she only can play—an artist of the first rank, whom Mr. Augustin Daly heard on her arrival in this country from Europe and hastened to secure for an engagement to play before a company at his palatial home—and later for a season in his New York theatre. She is one of the most gifted artists in the world of music, a graduate of the Conservatory of Music in Berlin. She made several successful tours in Europe and America and will this winter tour in the South, delighting admirers with her beautiful playing.

Mrs. O. P. Likins, of Orlando, the talented singer, so well known by Sanford people, will kindly assist upon this occasion in the rendition of some of her charming songs, which always delight her hearers.

The Jacksonville Carnival

Jacksonville is to have a carnival celebration lasting for an entire week, from October 26 to 31 inclusive.

This will be good news to our readers, for the thousands of people who attended the Jacksonville carnivals in past years have pleasant recollections of the splendid attractions presented by the Jacksonville Carnival Association. The same gentlemen are in charge of the carnival this year, and they promise to give the very best carnival ever seen in the South.

Very low railroad rates for the round trip, from all points in Florida, are assured, and that the city of Jacksonville will be thronged with visitors from all parts of the state is a certainty.

Jacksonville is growing faster than any city in the entire South, and this will be an excellent opportunity to see the Metropolis of the state.

Please Stop My

Times are hard, money is scarce, business is dull, retrenchment is a duty—please stop my whiskey! O, no, times are not hard enough for that. But here is something else that costs me a large amount every year which I can save—please stop my—tobacco, cigars and cigarettes! No, no, not those; but I must retrench somewhere—please stop my—ribbons, jewels, ornaments and trinkets? Not at all; pride must be fostered if times are ever so hard; but I believe I can see a way to effect quite a saving in another direction—please stop my—tea, coffee, and needless and unhealthy luxuries? No, no, not those, I must think of something else. Ah! I have it now. My paper costs $1 a year, two cents a week, I must save that. Please, stop my paper! That will carry me through the panic easily. I believe in retrenchment, and in economy, especially in the matter of intellectual pabulum.—Ocala Banner.

"Fan" Items

Commenting on the game of ball between the Sanford team and Eustis last week, Capt. Jolly, of the latter team, says in the Eustis Lake Region:

Our boys certainly deserve more credit for their work than was shown them when they returned last night. The Sanford "fans" showed them by far more appreciation of clean ball-playing than those of our own town. Not even given a chance to explain how the game was lost, we were told to "take the back street home, boys, you've disgraced the town enough," and many other kind remarks like that. That's sympathy. At Sanford yesterday a stranger could not have told which was the home team from that place, except for the suits, as both teams were applauded alike for their good plays, and the Eustis boys were given quite an ovation at the end of the game.

Will Soon be a City

Sanford is advertising $15,000 worth of bonds for sale for the purpose of street paving, comments the Orlando Reporter-Star. These bonds are the ones left over from the $45,000 issue of 1894, and are 6 per cent bearing interest. They are $1,000 each and appear to be a good purchase for capitalists. Our sister, "The Celery City," is certainly forging to the front, and when horses make a fuss going down the streets she will be a city.

Winter is coming on. Socks and stockings will be in demand. We have them galore, fresh from the factory. Men's, ladies' and children's. Guaranteed, not guaranteed, black, tan, gray, blue, mixed, striped, spotted and ribbed, cotton and Lisle, all the way from 4 1/4 to 12 in size, and from 10c to $1 a pair. D. L. Thrasher.

The General News of "The Land of Flowers"

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Apopka Citizen:—The Times-Union of last Monday says that "all" the orange trees in the orange belt are loaded with fruit; that the branches have to be supported, and that the crop will aggregate about 4,000,000 boxes.

Miami Cor. Times-Union: There is a movement on foot for the organizing of a company to foster and aid in planting all beans in this portion of Dade county. Capt. C. J. Rose of this city is at the head of the movement.

Responding to a call for volunteers to furnish skin for a little girl who was burned in Jacksonville recently several young men visited the hospital and had skin grafted from their arms to furnish the sufferer.

More than $15,000 will be spent by the St. Petersburg and Gulf Railway and Electric Light Company, in improvements and new equipment.

A petition has been presented to the State pardoning board at Tallahassee for the release of Henry W. Day of Tampa, the aged white man who killed P. W. Wren at the Atlantic Coast Line depot in Tampa about two years ago.

The Ocala Banner's enumeration of what that city has, counts seven saloons. It is suggestive there are twenty lawyers, eleven physicians and three undertakers.

Tampa is prepared for anything now. The Tribune stiffens its backbone and says: "The sheath" down hit Tampa in two places at the same time and the town is in a fair way to recovery, when we learn that the Salome dance is to be attempted here.

The Fort Myers Breeze says that several 50-cent coins have been in circulation there, lately which have been defaced to try a certain liniment. Such coins have ceased to be legal tender and the firm manufacturing that medicine, if it is gully is exceedingly foolish.

Times-Union: "Alachua is undoubtedly leading other counties in the construction of hard roads," says the Gainesville Sun, "sufficient attention is not paid to keeping these roads in repair after they are constructed. The Sun has called attention to this matter time and again, but the county commissioners turn a deaf ear to such matters. We again remind them, however, that it is a truthful saying that a "stitch in time saves nine." This is a truth which the Times-Union has been trying to force on the minds of boards of county commissioners generally.

Times-Union:—The attempts of cattle and hog raisers to discourage those efforts at improvements which interfere with the free range of their stock over their neighbors' property is inimical to the prosperity and settlement of the state. It is a class of lawlessness which is worse than larceny, and the administration is working in the interest of the state when it comes to the aid of the sufferers. The Fort Myers Tropical Breeze tells of such an instance: "In addition to the $100 offered by the county commissioners for the party or parties who cut E. E. Goodno's pasture fence, Governor Broward has also offered an additional $100 reward. Three times Mr. Goodno's fence has been literally cut into shreds and it is to be hoped that the parties guilty of this despicable crime will be caught and made to suffer the severest penalty of the law.

"A man caught a crab off the coast of Florida that had a Spanish doubloon in its claw. How in the world did those Florida Hotel men overlook that?"—Atlanta Georgian.

Live Oak True Democrat:—A number of the shaded tobacco growers are preparing to put in lettuce on a large scale to ship to northern and eastern markets. The ground have been prepared, seed beds made and planting about begun. It has been found that preparing the grounds, the use of fertilizers, etc., in addition to making the lettuce crop will put the ground in even better shape to follow with next year's crop of Sumatra shaded wrapper tobacco.

The first car of grapefruit has been shipped from Florida and the oranges are soon to follow. Sounds almost as good as watermelons and blackberries.—Thomasville Times-Enterprise.

The Tampa Tribune is beginning to assist in the warfare waged in favor of governor-elect Gilchrist being suitably equipped with a wife to help occupy the chair of State.—Thomasville Times-Enterprise.

A Miami, Fla. woman has created sensation in New York by the announcement that she toured Europe with one dress and an outfit that could be carried in a suit case. The Florida women are wonders.

SEPTEMBER FORECAST

Geo. Adams and Nat. Berman Co-operate in a New Business

Mr. Nat. Berman, the famous $13.50 made-to-order-suit gentlemen, who has conducted these sales throughout the State, and has recently had a great and successful one in Orlando, has come to our city and will co-operate with George W. Adams of the Pressing Club, and offer to the people here for 15 days the most wonderful values of the 20th century.

Mr. Adams and Mr. Berman will give the citizens here exceptional values, as a means of gaining their confidence, for it is their intention to settle permanently here in the Merchant-Tailoring line.

The opening of this rare and extraordinary sale is September 15, 1908, and the public should take advantage of these offerings and give these enterprising gentlemen a liberal patronage.

Winter Baseball

There are rumors afloat of a baseball circuit for next year, says the Orlando Sentinel, to be composed of the following towns: Orlando, Sanford, Palatka, Lake Land, Bartow, Ocala, Arcadia, Lake City, Live Oak and Gainesville. These are all enthusiastic baseball towns and could support strong teams. A regular schedule should be arranged so that each city could have games every week, and would be a benefit to all in the circuit.

The Celery City Laundry has installed up-to-date pressing and cleaning machinery and are now prepared to do your cleaning at reasonable prices. Give them a trial.

Mrs. Poleman Dies in Philadelphia

Word was received in this city last Monday of the death of Mrs. Poleman, which occurred in Philadelphia on Tuesday, Sept. 8. Mrs. Poleman was a former resident of Sanford and was well known to everyone, having lived here for a number of years with her daughter, Mrs. H. C. White-man.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN.

The photograph from which this interesting and characteristic picture was made was taken a few days ago at Lincoln, and Mrs. Bryan considers it an excellent likeness of her distinguished husband on the eve of his third race for the presidency. Mr. Bryan is in his forty-ninth year.

A NEW PICTURE OF MRS. BRYAN.

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, who has been of great assistance to her husband in two presidential campaigns, is now preparing to be his "right hand man" in a third. Before her marriage to "the commoner" in October, 1884, Mrs. Bryan was Miss Mary Elizabeth Baird of Perry, Ill. Mrs. Bryan is a member of the Nebraska bar and a woman of unusual culture and ability.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN AND HIS GRANDCHILDREN.

After Many Years

Joseph Bumby of Orlando was a visitor to the city last Saturday and to a Herald scribe related some interesting data regarding Sanford's early history. Mr. Bumby was greatly surprised at the marvelous growth of Sanford in late years and remarked that his early recollections of the city showed a remarkable contrast. He carried the mail from Sanford to Orlando before the days of railroads, and was accustomed to tie his horse to a tree on what is now the most populous part of First street. At that time there was but one store in Sanford, and the waters of Lake Monroe lapped the shores where are the business houses now standing. Had he invested a few dollars in Sanford real estate at that time he would now be a millionaire.

The Florida State Board of Health has issued a quarantine order against Havana on account of the report that yellow fever exists in Cuba.

Capt. D. E. Maxwell, one of Jacksonville's well known and beloved citizens, died suddenly in Gainesville, Ga., Tuesday evening, where he had been visiting with his wife and daughter.

A wandering Greek at St. Petersburg, Fla., last Wednesday held the entire police force at bay and killed Constable Diamond George. The fire company turned water in the jail where the Greek was confined and an effort was made to shake him out. When entrance was finally made the lifeless forms of both George and the Greek were found.

Salt Lake City, Utah, has been selected as the place of encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in 1909. Col. Henry M. Nevins, of Red Bank, N. J., was elected Commander-in-chief, after which the encampment at Toledo adjourned last Saturday.

Owing to many complaints received recently, secret service officials believe that a well organized gang of crooks, operating all over the country, is engaged in passing notes of defunct State banks upon the careless and ignorant. Evidently a vast quantity of these notes have been secured by the sharpers. They are just as good in workmanship as the real government money and some of the notes bear a close resemblance to Uncle Sam's currency. The notes most often passed by the sharpers are those of the State Bank of New Brunswick, N. J., which has been out of existence for forty years, and the defunct State Bank of Savannah, Ga. Several arrests have been made already in an effort to stop this illegitimate traffic.

Two colored men were killed, another was injured and a white man, name unknown, is missing, as the result of a wreck on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway, near Sudusky, Ohio, which made kindling wood of fourteen freight cars between Huron and Vermillion early today. The four were riding in a freight car.

A can of oil standing near the stove in the kitchen at the home of John G. Roush in Marion county, West Virginia, exploded early Sunday, and as a result one child was burned to death, and Mr. and Mrs. Roush and three other children were so seriously injured that they may die. The house was consumed.

There was a net increase of 209,000 in the population of the country as the result of immigration, fiscal year ending June 30, according to the department of Commerce and labor. The total immigration was 324,000, while the alien emigration was 719,000.

In the farewell banquet to the American fleet officers Friday night, the governor General of Victoria, Australia, declared in his speech that the "Visit of the American fleet is a forerunner of an Anglo-American union to preserve the world's peace." The speech occasioned the warmest of applause.

The following item is clipped from the Cork, Ireland, Examiner: "Information wanted of Jeremiah Hayes, who left Bank Place, Tipperary, Ireland, three years ago; last heard of was in Mulberry, Florida, seven months ago. Any information regarding him will be thankfully received by his mother, Mrs. Margaret Hayes, Bank Place, Tipperary, Ireland."

The postoffice department has taken cognizance of the baneful effects of the sale of cocaine through the country and has issued an order, designating the drug as contraband in the mails; in other words, in future "dope" will not be considered mailable matter, and when caught in the mails will not only be confiscated, but parties mailing it will be prosecuted and possibly denied the use of the mails for other purposes.

The supreme court may be called upon to decide who is the Republican nominee for governor of Michigan. The returns give Governor Warner a plurality over Dr. J. B. Bardley of 391 out of a total of 200,080. The Warner people openly charge illegal voting and the use of money in the big cities. The Bradley party claims that in the backwoods counties more votes were given to the Warner ticket than were cast in the presidential election.

Lieutenant Governor Chandler was nominated by acclamation for Governor of New York in the Democratic convention Wednesday. Governor Hughes has been nominated by the Republicans of the Empire State.

Maine Democrats gained thirty-two per cent over the Republicans in the State election.

Fourth Quarterly Conference

Monday and Tuesday nights, the fourth quarterly conference for the Sanford Methodist Church was held, with the Presiding Elder, Rev. Edward F. Ley, in the chair. Mr. Ley preached on Monday and Tuesday nights. The business session of the conference was held Monday night, a large per cent of the officials responding to their names at roll call. The reports made to the conference indicate a very healthy state of the Sanford church, and the outlook is good for the best report of any year under the present pastorate. Rev. D. B. Sweet is closing out his third year of service as pastor of this church. There have been more than fifty additions to the church this year, and all the financial obligations will be met in full. Some improvements have been made during the year, adding to the material side of the work. The following were elected stewards for the ensuing year: L. R. Phillips, J. K. Mettinger, W. W. Long, B. J. ### Talked About Sanford

W. J. Hill, while not a young man, in years, is still youthful in action and during his recent trip to New York and the New England states busied himself with distributing literature and descriptive matter pertaining to Sanford's possibilities, and never lost an opportunity to boost the city. Mr. Hill has resided in Sanford since the early days of civilization and takes a pride in the growth and development of the city.

More Houses on Celery Avenue

Walter H. Barclay has just completed a contract with L. C. Hughes for the construction of a fine house on Celery avenue to cost not less than $2,000. ## A GIGANTIC ENTERPRISE

Sanford Will Soon Have Large Mill in Operation

LARGEST FACTORY IN FLORIDA

To Make Crates, Hampers, Baskets and Carriers of All Kinds—An Investment of Half Million.

Messrs. S. I. Wood and H. J. Drane, of Lakeland, are in the city for the purpose of locating a site for a gigantic saw mill and crate factory and if such a location can be decided upon one of the greatest enterprises since the advent of the railroad will soon be in operation.

Mr. Wood and his associates have acquired 80,000 acres of timber in Orange county and intend to begin mill operations as soon as a plant can be erected. They are favorably impressed with our city and if they can be assured of a mill site with water and rail facilities they will erect the plant and begin operations by the middle of February next. The plant will mean an investment of over $150,000 and when in operation complete will cut 150,000 feet of lumber per day, manufacturing lumber for export and domestic uses, crates, boxes and baskets for the fruit and vegetable trade of Florida and Cuba.

The plant will give employment to over 250 people in Sanford beside the numerous employees in the logging and timber operations. Mr. Wood is a man of wide experience in the lumber and mill business, having been for a number of years at the head of the Lackawanna Lumber Co., of Scranton, and the mills in Potter county, Pa. He is now engaged in the wholesale lumber business in Lakeland and has control of the output of the Carter lumber plant at Carter, Fla., and buying lumber and shipping in cargo lots from several southern ports.

This is the opportunity for Sanford to come forward and help this enterprise in every way possible. The location of manufacturing plants in the state of Florida and one of untold value in building up the city along the lines most needed at the present time.

Sanford people are always alive to their interests, and the gentlemen forming this company can rest assured that the site will be granted and every other inducement offered in securing this great enterprise.

The amount of capital invested by this company in Orange county will amount to between $600,000 and $700,000 and will place Sanford in the front rank of manufacturing cities in Florida.

LIST OF TEACHERS

Sanford High School Will Open With Large Faculty

The Sanford High School has long held the reputation of being one of the best in the state, and this scholastic year will open under most favorable circumstances. In the High School Prof. N. J. Perkins, the principal will be assisted by Miss C. A. Guild and Miss Alice Tetherly.

With such a faculty and a school board composed of men like C. R. Walker, Geo. Fox and B. F. Whitner, Jr., the Sanford High School will continue to maintain the same high standard this year that it has in the past, and the teachers should receive every encouragement from the parents in this great educational work.

The school will open on Monday, Sept. 28, and every pupil should be in his place when the bell sounds the knell of vacation days.

VAUDEVILLE IN SANFORD

The Breton-Runkle Company will Fill the Season at the Opera House.

W. T. Johns, manager of Sanford Opera House, has returned from Tampa, where he completed arrangements with the Breton-Runkle Opera Company to fill a full winter's season at the local play house.

This company has just completed a similar engagement at Ballast Point, Tampa, and is one of the best all-around opera and vaudeville troupes that ever came South. High-class vaudeville will be put on the boards here every night, and all acts will be interspersed with moving pictures, illustrated songs, etc. In fact it will be akin to an electrical theatre.

In this arrangement Mr. Johns does not entirely surrender the management of the Opera House, but will continue to give the house over to all high-class dramatic companies that may come over this circuit. He has already booked a goodly number of companies for the season so that it is safe to say Sanford will have no famine in the amusement line this winter.

The Breton-Runkle Company will open here October.

J. N. Whitner Returns

J. N. Whitner returned this week from a trip to points in the North. Mr. Whitner never leaves Sanford without boosting the city and his last trip was no exception. While at Trenton, near Pittsburg, Mr. Whitner addressed the people upon Sanford and the great opportunities of vegetable growing in the sub-irrigated district. His remarks made a profound impression upon his hearers, and several investors will arrive in this city shortly as a result of Mr. Whitner's trip.

Will Soon Have an Orchestra

Mr. Melrose Wade, of England, has accepted a position in the hardware store of A. E. Hill and will make Sanford his future home. Mr. Wade is a talented musician, having been connected with some of the best orchestras in England.

Sanford has a number of good musicians and with the advent of Mr. Wade and several others of note our city should have a good orchestra formed for the winter season.

A Handsome New House

A Herald man was shown the plans for the handsome new house to be built for Dr. Samuel Puleston by Snead & Venable. It is to be two stories, containing nine rooms besides bath and clothes rooms and wide porches on both floors. It is to be located at the corner of Park avenue and Third street. The house now occupying that property will be torn down at once.

OUR CROP PROSPECTS

A Trip Over the Farming Section Full of Surprises

WILL REAP A RICH HARVEST

Sanford Growers will Experience Most Prosperous Season in the History of Crops

A trip to the vegetable districts in and around Sanford at this time is a most interesting study of crop conditions and gives a good insight into the prospects for the coming season. The celery growers are busy with their seed beds and the recent rains have not prevented the planting to any great extent as many of the beds are sprouting in good form and several growers have plants about ready to transplant. Celery conditions were never better and this great crop should do more for the growers this season than ever before.

Cauliflower and lettuce plants are looking fine and promise a good crop.

This year finds a new Richmond in the field in the shape of strawberries, a crop that promises much to the grower of moderate means. The plants that have been put out are growing rapidly, being greatly aided by the recent rains, and already there are some twenty acres planted to this fruit. With the system of irrigation they have the Sanford growers should put strawberries in the northern markets earlier than any other point in the state, and under the same conditions the vines will hold fruit longer.

The large cold storage plant recently erected at Rand's siding will play an important part in the vegetable industry of Sanford, and for the first time the growers can be granted the opportunity of keeping the vegetables upon cold storage until the markets are right.

One of the important items connected with the growing of vegetables around Sanford is the hay crop that can be harvested after the vegetable crops are over and just now many of the farmers are busy stacking or baling hay. The quality and quantity of the hay crop this year is beyond all expectations and as the crop is purely a volunteer one, and costs nothing to grow, the farmers can have enough for their own use and still some to sell at a good price. The hay crop now being harvested is of the finest quality, and the prospective settlers in Sanford this week were greatly surprised at this Florida crop of which they had never heard until they visited the farms in this section.

Since Sanford's future depends largely upon the many crops now in the process of being planted, the outlook is very favorable and with the great number of new people coming in every day and buying property our people can well feel jubilant.

Football Team organized

The Sanford football team met at the City Hall Tuesday night and effected a permanent organization, with the following as officers:

- Geo. A. DeCottes, manager;
- J. D. Davison, Treasurer;
- C. F. Hoskins, Coach.

A. G. Krueger presided at the meeting and all details were arranged. The colors of the eleven will be white and maroon, and Mr. Hoskins was instructed to procure uniforms for the team at once and he has been in Jacksonville this week for that purpose.

Another meeting will be held Monday night, at which it is hoped all interested in having a good football team in Sanford this winter will be present.

Capt. and Mrs. Marks Return.

Capt. and Mrs. R. H. Marks returned Thursday night from an extended visit to points in North and South Carolina and Georgia. Their many friends are glad to welcome them home again.

Capt. Marks combined business with pleasure and distributed printed matter and extolled the praises of the Celery City wherever he sojourned.
