Senator Predicts Substantial Boost In Housing Because Of Legislation

Strolling In Sanford

According to a letter received by The Herald from Barton Johnson Park, he is the newly-appointed educational director for the Florida State Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program which was created by the legislature in 1947 for the control, treatment and prevention of alcoholism. We hope to have in construction by next year, a 35-50 bed hospital in Sanford. The hospital office will also be here. We are temporarily located in the city hall. The hospital will serve as a treatment center and focal point for out-patient clinics throughout the state. We are, of course, unable to offer rehabilitation or clinical services at present. We have no particular brief for or against drinking. Our entire program is geared toward the excessive or so-called problem drinker—the alcoholic (there are an estimated 40,000 alcoholics in Florida). People will enter our program voluntarily and pay according to their ability to pay. They must have one year's residence in the state. The treatment center will offer approximately three weeks of individual and group counseling—psychiatric, social, religious. A special attempt will be made to bring his particular drinking problem under control.

NEW CHAIRMAN—Mrs. Gus Miller (above) is the new general chairman of the Sanford USO, replacing Mrs. Lowell Orlin, who held the position about a year. She has instituted a drive aimed at securing more girls as junior hostesses for the organization. An girl 15 years or older, who fills the qualifications, may be a hostess. (Staff Photo)

Confesses; Says Try At 'Perfect Crime'

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Police said an 18-year-old school boy confessed today he killed Mrs. Ora Schonarth, 52-year-old dressmaker, with a rolling pin in an attempt to commit what he called "the perfect crime."

Mrs. Schonarth was found dead yesterday on her living room floor. In addition to having been hanged, she had been stabbed through the chest.

Police identified the youth in custody as Roland S. Blumenthal, 18, of Brookline, a husky, 6-foot post school student. He was taken into custody early today at his home.

Officers said young Blumenthal, son of a Boston liquor store proprietor, had boasted he would one day commit "the perfect crime."

He said he told a schoolmate, who was not identified, that he would kill someone, that it would be a crime that would go unsolved, and that the schoolmate would read about it in the newspapers.

The schoolmate furnished the tip that led police to pick up the mentalist.

Detectives said the boy had gone to the Schonarth home about 4 p. m. Tuesday with a raincoat and a small suitcase. He had under his coat a rolling pin that fractured her skull in eight places. He said a bread knife with a six-inch blade had been plunged into her left chest after she was dead.

The divorcee's ankles were bound with a pair of men's shorts and a piece of cloth was tied around her neck. Police said she had not been raped.

FISHING TO COST 50 CENTS
TALLAHASSEE (AP)—It's going to cost 50 cents to go fishing, off the new Sunshine Skyway across Lake Okechobee.

The big bridge, which will be opened to traffic Labor Day, will have a 50-cent toll for pedestrians. Through the charge will be levied for fishing as such, practically no one is expected to walk out on the bridge except anglers.

Senate Passes Action, 59-21; House Lauded

WASHINGTON (AP)—New housing legislation, one of Congress' major actions on President Eisenhower's legislative program this session, should boost home building by 10 to 20 per cent, Sen. Capehart (R-Ind.) said today.

Capehart, Senate Banking committee member, said Saturday and Monday sessions.

Knowland also told reporters he had nothing to do with a move by Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.Y.) to push aside a motion of censure of McCarthy being pressed by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.).

Smith proposed that instead a committee of six senators, with Vice President Nixon acting as chairman, be named to investigate and report next Feb. 1 on "the alleged position or role of so-called McCarthyism."

Knowland said "It was his (Smith's) own idea. No party policy is involved in that."

Smith introduced a resolution for appointment of a committee of three Republicans and three Democrats. He told the Senate he would seek to substitute it for the Flanders censure resolution.

Knowland's decision to permit a full debate meant he was abandoning his previously announced plan for a quick motion to table the Flanders resolution. A motion to table is not debatable.

Knowland said "I have no intention of moving to table" the Flanders motion before Flanders can speak on it, and "I have no intention of letting Sen. Flanders air his views and then move to table."

The result, he said, should be "rather a full discussion of the subject." Knowland said the debate probably "will tie up the legislative program" but that if that's what senators want, he will allow it.

He called to the attention that with the amount of discussion that has been going on up to this point, it might be just as well to have a full dress debate on the subject of the proposed censure of Flanders' resolution. They shouldn't complain if they get it."

Knowland said Flanders and other "seem to be giving some inference that some in the Senate don't want to stand up and be counted," and added:

"We are going to give a demonstration that no one in the Senate is objecting to making a decision and casting a vote."

In the Senate earlier, Knowland days of debate on the Flanders should meet early tomorrow because of the possibility of "several days of debate" on the Flanders resolution.

He said he would ask that it meet at 9 a. m. unless the foreign aid bill is disposed of today.

Attending from here, according to Breckenridge, will be Mrs. Robert McCall, president of the Sanford Garden Club; Mrs. Ruby Joe Bond, Longwood, chairman of the county beautification committee; Mrs. E. J. King, Mrs. M. E. Spencer, Mrs. J. M. Jones, Mrs. J. P. Smith, Mrs. C. F. Harvey; H. J. Finch, Mrs. H. H. Duncan, Mrs. W. W. Lutz, Mrs. C. F. Lind, E. J. Springs, Mrs. Donald Fletcher, Paula, Mrs. Miriam Vinny, Mrs. Clifford Boyer, Mrs. B. Newsome and Mrs. John Fox, Paola.

Among matters to be discussed at the meeting will be various ways to beautify highway approaches to communities, and the "Mile of Beauty" competitive effort among garden clubs of the state.

According to Harold Colley, of the state CofC, the meeting is being called to promote a five-year "Mile of Beauty" program and to coordinate efforts of all groups.

Former county Doyle Carlton will speak on the theme of the meeting, "Beautification," and various panel discussions will be held in the afternoon. The beautification program will be discussed by a panel under the direction of Mrs. Vernon Gomer, Eustis, roadside development chairman.

Southern Bell, Union In Talks On New Contract
ATLANTA (AP)—Southern Bell Telephone Company and union negotiators were in early stages of new contract talks today.

Doctor Suggests Making Cigs Safe With New Tobacco

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—A try at making cigarettes safe from any threat of heart disease and cancer was proposed recently by Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond of Yale University.

The answer, he said in a paper for the sixth International Cancer Congress here, could be to develop new types of strains of cigarette tobacco free of the agent or agents which seem to be the cause of heart trouble and cancer.

This might be accomplished in two years, but it might take many as seven, the specialist said.

Hammond is a hematologist at Yale and also director of statistical research for the American Cancer Society. He and Dr. Daniel Horn reported last month that men aged 50 to 70 who smoke a pack of cigarettes daily are about twice as likely to die of heart trouble or cancer of all types as nonsmokers.

Smoking a pipe or cigars seems not to carry much if any risk, said Hammond, a pipe smoker himself. The danger from cigarettes, he went on, could be in the special types of tobacco which have been developed for cigarettes.

These tobaccos, he speculated, could contain one or more chemicals which adversely affect the heart, blood vessels, lungs or other tissues of some people.

From the viewpoint of the public, "the happiest solution is to make smoking safe," Hammond declared.

Development of a "harmless strain of tobacco plant" would be more practical, he asserted, "than to use a highly toxic strain and then attempt to remove the harmful ingredients from the tobacco by chemical means or from the smoke by a filter or condenser."

He said the chemical composition varies considerably in different types of tobacco, even in different batches of the same general type.

Navy Vessel Broadcasts Freedom Story

WASHINGTON (AP)—Per two years a sleek white Coast Guard cutter, the Corrier, has been anchored off the island of Rhodes in the Aegean Sea—a floating radio station broadcasting the American story to the Near East and southern Russia.

An old Navy cargo ship, the only such vessel afloat in the world today, her antenna, a retractable device which can shoot up to 172 feet, is pulled into the air by a small balloon which floats at 740 feet.

For 12 hours each day the call goes out: "This is the Corrier, seaboard relay base for the Voice of America." The call is in 16 languages, including Turkish, Arabic, Persian, Urdu, Ukrainian and Russian.

The Corrier staff's first job is to make friends for America in the Near East countries. Its second job is to beam the American story behind the Iron Curtain into southern Russia.

Programs to the Near East are concentrated between 6:30 p.m. and 10 p.m., when citizens of the area call in coffee houses to talk and listen. They especially like light music, drama and short stories.

Programs to Russia start after midnight when people with hidden radios can take the chance of listening.

Capt. O. C. Wey, the Corrier's commanding officer since she was commissioned, feels certain the message is reaching an increasing audience. Discussing the Corrier in Washington, on his way to a new assignment as chief intelligence officer for the part of New Orleans, he said:

"This spring we wanted the Russians were particularly anxious to

Tennessee Scene Of Hot Politics

BY JOHN A. HARRIS
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Red hot verbal brickbats are sailing back and forth across Tennessee in a Democratic political campaign exceeded in heat only by this summer's near-record hot spell.

The participants in this superheated name-calling drama—which comes to a head in the Aug. 5 primary—are:

Frank Clement, at 31 the nation's youngest governor who is being challenged by Gordon Browning, 61, whom Clement unseated two years ago; and Tall, soft-spoken Sen. Estes Kefauver who sought the presidency in 1952 and is now opposed in his race for reelection by Pat Sutton, sharp-tongued congressman from the state's Sixth District.

Besides cascades of violent name-calling and political bombast—to which Tennesseans are accustomed in political years—some new gimmicks have been added this time.

Sutton is hoping about the state in a helicopter—which he plops right down on courthouse lawns—and has thrown in a series of macabre radio-television broadcasts. Kefauver gets about by airplane.

Browning and Clement stick chiefly to automobiles for their promotion with the audience warmed up by "peeter" playing, banjo strumming hillbilly songs.

The segregation issue has gained some attention through the call of Judge Nathan Schulz of Chattanooga in the governor's sole issue on which he is campaigning.

Browning has promised he will find a way to continue separate schools for the races despite the Supreme Court ruling banning segregation. Clement thus far has said only that he is studying the matter.

Sutton is strongly opposed to segregation and Kefauver has said there is nothing a senator can do about the problem.

Because of a state constitutional amendment adopted last year, the chief executive who takes office in January will serve four years instead of two.

Historically, nomination for state wide office in the Democratic primary in August means election in November. The reverse is true in the first two congressional districts of Upper East Tennessee which always votes solidly Republican.

The Republicans will have no gubernatorial primary but Knoxville lawyer Ray H. Jenkins, special subcommittee counsel during the Army-McCarthy hearings in Washington will be listed as a candidate for the Senate.

He has said he is not running but his name will appear on the ballot because of his failure to formally withdraw from the campaign. He was qualified by friends.

Jenkins says he will not run in the November general election even if he wins the GOP nomination over Robert C. Gregory of Memphis.

With the exception of Sutton, Tennessee's other congressmen, two Republicans and six Democrats, are seeking renomination. They are GOP Reps. Carroll Reece and Howard Baker, and Democratic Reps. James Frazier, Joe Ewins, Percy Priest, Tom Murray, Baker, Frazier and Ewins are unopposed. Three young hopefuls are seeking the seat vacated by Sutton.

Upwards of 1½ million are qualified to vote and the record Democratic primary total of 647,000 ballots, cast in 1952, may be topped this summer.

120,000 Workers Of Puerto Rico Are Without Jobs

ORLANDO (AP)—Unless 120,000 Puerto Rican sugar plantation workers can migrate to the United States they are in a jobless limbo dependent on a government pension from January to January, a Puerto Rican senator said here recently.

Erasmo Carreras, chairman of his Senate Labor Committee, spoke at a state farm placement conference. He praised James T. Voelke, chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission, for stamping out what he called "race-foe" travel agencies engaged in illegal Puerto Rican migration.

Suspicious Confirmed

BOONE, N. C. (AP)—A 19-year-old suspected someone was stealing gas from his truck so he put on a lock-type gas tank cap.

Next morning his suspicions were confirmed.

Along with the gas the new cap was missing.

You Can't Tell Who Is Who Is Capital Without Program

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—We have about 230 workers," said the man from UNKRA. "We have another 200 that are attached to Kayack, although now we call it Kayack."

"There are also a few people from FAO and WHO."

Like Washington in the New Deal days, you can't tell the agencies apart without a program.

UNKRA means the United Nations Korean Reconstruction Agency. UNKACK is United Nations Civil Assistance Command, Korea. And Kayack is simply a phonetic spelling of KCAC, or Korean Civilian Assistance Command. FAO is Food and Agriculture Organization.

WHO is World Health Organization.

U.N.'s bilingual phone book is known in English as telephone directory, in French as repertoire téléphonique and in U.N. abbreviation as ST. CUIS-SER-EE in. That spells out Staff Document, Department of Conference and General Services, Series, Number 10.

The alphabetical agency abbreviation system, if any, works something like this:

There are roughly three kinds of abbreviations:

First, those used as labels for documents, usually single initials ("S-3229," for instance, as Security Council Document Number 3229).

Second, those used only in the telephone book (LEG means the Legal Department but nobody would be irreverent enough to call it that).

Third, those used generally in the texts of documents and in conversation. Here the reader enters the wilderness. Of these abbreviations some are mere initials (like A. C. C.—with periods—for Administrative Committee on Coordination—and IMF—without periods—for International Monetary Fund). At least one consists of telescoped words—ECOSOC for Economic and Social Council. Some, like IMF, are spelled out in pronunciation—like eye-em-eff. Others, like ECOSOC, are pronounced as if they were words. Still others may be treated either way—pronounced letter by letter or pronounced as words. WHO is a good example of this; so are TAC (Technical Assistance Committee) and TAB (Technical Assistance Board).

Here is a brief guide to some of the livelier abbreviations used at this HQ (Headquarters):

SG—The way many people refer to Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

UNICEF (young-ee-seeff)—United Nations Children Fund. The excess initials were retained when the name was changed from U.N. International Children's Emergency Fund.

UNRWA (un-rab-ee)—U. N. Relief and Works Agency for Palestine.

UNESCO (yoo-nay-say-see)—U. N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

UNCOK (un-sock)—U. N. Commission on Korea.

UNCURR (un-kurk)—U. N. Commission for the Unification and Rehabilitation of Korea.

ECAPF (eck-a-fay)—Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East.

UNEPF (un-pee-f)—Special U. N. Fund for Economic Development (of undeveloped countries).

ECAPF (eck-a-fay)—Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East.

UNEPF (un-pee-f)—Special U. N. Fund for Economic Development (of undeveloped countries).

REPEAL HORSE ORDINANCE. LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—The city commission here has decided old doblin can horse around as much as he wants to.

William Bendix Appeared On Radio Over 10 Years Ago

HOLLYWOOD — By the time Chester A. Riley becomes a grandfather, he will be able to retire on his cut from "The Life of Riley." But, being an actor, William Bendix, will not retire. "Because," explains Bendix, star of the perennial Riley series, "what good is an actor unless he is acting?"

Riley made his bow on radio 10 years ago last January and continued for eight years on the air. This week Riley and his family are completing their 10th TV show.

The series has paid well and will continue to do so. In addition to his salary, Bendix has a 25 percent interest in the show on returns. Replays of the series may well go on for years and years.

In TV areas that have not seen the show via network and in other cities and hamlets where stations are yet to be built, and with dubbed voices, they could, and probably will, go on in foreign countries for the next 50 years.

"That is," cautions Bendix, "unless we run smack into color. What then? I don't know. I'm afraid after TV converts to color, that 'white' won't want to look at black and white any more."

Any actor who looks down his nose at television is off his rocker, Bendix believes. The work is easier and there's more money to be made.

Bendix likes the work because each film requires only three days' work. In the fall, when filming resumes, the company will work six straight days, making two films each week. Every week he'll be off for a week. That, says Bendix, is wonderful.

But not half so wonderful as the job he had for two and a half years as one of the inseparable Howard Hughes' contract actors. Let Bendix tell it:

"Word suddenly came, 'sign Bendix,' and when Howard Hughes gives an order, RKO jumps. I don't know, because I've never talked to Hughes, why he suddenly decided he had to have Bendix. I signed up after a little haggling for a straight four years, and my options, at a big salary. Well, it was 12,000 a week for 200 weeks.

"After a few months I played a small part in a picture. Worked seven days. A few months more and I worked in another picture, for 11 days. Every week I got 12,000—for nothing. Then this TV series got hot. We always were trying to get ahead with 'Rileys' because I never knew when I might get a picture call. After all, I was getting a lot of money and if I was called to work, I had to go. But the strain became too much. I either had to quit Riley or Hughes.

"So after two and a half years—and 18 days' work—I got released from the contract. I had collected 230,000—but for what? Isn't that incredible?"

WATERMELON CUT—A large group of junior hostesses and servicemen enjoyed a watermelon cut and dance last evening at the USO. The event was held outdoors on the patio and dancing was enjoyed inside. Watermelon Cut Is Successful; Mrs. Miller Asks For Hostesses

Mrs. Gus Miller, new general chairman of the USO, expressed satisfaction with the turnout of junior hostesses and servicemen at the watermelon cut and dance last evening at the Navy Center. Senior hostesses were Mrs. E. H. Atwood, Mrs. D. L. McLaughlin, and Mrs. Miller.

The ice cold watermelon was cut outside on the patio and through-out the evening dancing was enjoyed inside. An elimination dance was conducted with Miss Katy Stenstrom and William Sloan of reserve squadron VF 911 winning the prizes for being the last couple left on the floor.

Honored guests for the occasion were members of reserve squadron VF 911 from South Weymouth, Mass. The group will be at the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station for two weeks.

Mrs. Miller stated that she was pleased to see the good turnout of junior hostesses and servicemen and that she hoped that enough interest could be created among Sanford's senior girls in high school or older that there might be a possibility of getting as many as 100 hostesses. Application blanks are available at the Chamber of Commerce and for any additional information, Mrs. Miller may be contacted at 1271 E.

Anyone wishing to serve in the capacity of senior hosts and hostesses, and those desiring to help the USO in any way are cordially welcome, according to Mrs. Miller who brought out that varied and interesting activities are being planned to provide entertainment for Sanford's servicemen.

Want those devilish eggs you are planning to take to a picnic to taste particularly savory? Add finely grated onion. Watermelon sauce and drained sweet pickle relish in the yolks when you mash them; season with salt and freshly ground pepper and add just enough mayonnaise to give a good consistency.

Etiquette Expert Is Under Scrutiny When In Public

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

It's a harrowing experience to eat luncheon publicly with an etiquette expert.

Not that Amy Vanderbilt, a friend from the days before she was a recognized and recognizable authority, nagged me about drinking out of my saucer or spooning my soup south instead of north. It was the other people, at the nearby tables.

The meal, featuring a magnificent cheese souffle, might just as well have been cardboard for the pleasure it gave me. I absorbed every forkful under the close scrutiny of the surrounding diners, who apparently were waiting eagerly to find out if Amy personally committed any blunders, and I must say the temptation to curl an elegant pinky away from the cup, slurp liquids, talk with a full mouth and otherwise satisfy the audience, was almost irresistible.

Amy, however, is accustomed to this fierce scrutiny although she's not entirely reconciled to her responsibilities.

"I've noticed that when I go to a party where there are people I don't know well, things sort of get tense when I enter," she remarked, breaking off a bite-sized portion of popovers and buttering it deftly. "People seem to get self-conscious. So I make extra efforts to be easy and casual."

There are two really difficult problems involved in helping people to mind their manners, however.

"People telephone me at all hours of the day or night with emergency questions," she lamented. "Lone widowers call, too. And most of them are about weddings."

Last night a woman called around midnight to ask me if it was all right to ignore, on her step-daughter's wedding invitation, the fact that she actually is not the girl's real mother. The mother, divorced and remarried, had been out of their lives for years. But she reasoned that you shouldn't kill a woman off even on an invitation.

Amy told the woman that the invitation should read: "Mr. and Mrs. John R. Smith request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Louella."

Etiquette problems posed by divorce are the subjects of most

Tips Given On Handling Of New Car

We've heard of ladies who boost their spirits with a new hat. Now we know of one who says she gets the same kind of lift from her rose-covered automobile. That's right. The top of it is covered with roses—wallpaper style. Maybe she'll start a new trend. Flowers, polka dots, or stripes, anyone?

More and more ladies are interested in cars these days, from colors and upholstery to the gadgets under the hood. More power to them, we say—the ladies, that is. Cars are getting so powerful that, coupled with the wonderful gasoline developed by the many different companies of the oil industry, cars practically do aerobics for you. But back to the ladies, particularly the ladies with new cars.

Today's information concerning breaking in a new car so it will have all the power, economy and speed of which it is capable. While a car is new, you actually have to make the parts wear. You see one of the purposes of a break-in period is to fit the walls and the rings—the metal parts—of the engine together. They're close as possible when you buy the car, but seldom match perfectly until after they've properly broken in.

Check these tips with your car dealer, and add his best advice. First, take a trip, don't just drive around town. Continuous driving wears in the motor under the best conditions. Keep a moderate speed. Unbroken high speed driving is bad for any car, new or old. Don't idle the engine for extended periods, because oil pressure is low then, and lubrication is inadequate. Operation at low speeds for any length of time also should be avoided.

emergency queries. A plan she vetoed firmly the other day was that of a mother of twin girls who planned a double wedding at which she wanted to have their real father escort one twin down the aisle and their step-father take the other.

"A little too modern," was Amy's opinion. "Might shock people. I suggested she use a couple of uncles or old family friends instead."

All this comes under the heading of work. Amy objects mildly, however, when her family has to live up to her reputation.

Forty Women Wear Identical Coats In Small Town

RANGELEY, Maine—There are 40 women in this little town wearing the same pink coats.

There is no embarrassment, no hasty retreat as one sweater approaches another, or a dozen, or 39. These are smiles and considerable discussion. That's the way it's supposed to be. In Rangeley, at this particular time, it's quite distinctive to be wearing one of these pink coats.

It's all part of an experiment, Rangeley, at 1,500 feet above sea level, is New England's highest village and it's halfway between the North Pole and the Equator. The lake summer resort was selected as a testing ground for the urelon acrylic fiber garments. Wanted was a place where evenings are cool enough to require a "topper" in June, July and August.

When the test is ended, the women can keep the coats, in return for reports on their comfort and durability.

The ladies were selected on the basis of varied ages, weight and occupation. Each got two coats differing only in color, a calendar on which to record the hours each garment is worn and a detailed questionnaire.

What does the fabric manufacturer want to know?

How does the material "feel" to the women? How about wrinkling, soiling, cleaning?

The women wear each coat on alternate days. The objective is to compare one with the other, from a consumer viewpoint.

Choosing the women wasn't easy. Nearly everyone wanted the coats. The tests were chosen from among housewives, school teachers, waitresses, telephone operators, store and bank clerks and stenographers. Their ages range from 19 through 59.

The coats are worth $15 to $15 each. In fact, one question is, "How much would you be willing to pay for one of these coats?" "The test is a bit of work, but a lot of fun," says Mrs. Robert Lee. "I'd like to get all my clothing this way."

"They're very warm without being bulky," says Mrs. Norma Wilbur.

American imports of mink fur have doubled in the past seven years.

Sports Selections

By PETE OSBORNE

CITY PARK, Wauchula—After looking over this small handful of a remarkable group of players, I can't help but feel that the team from the Post 53 players: "We came down here to play ball," he said after having been extended complimentary for the team's fine performance against Clearwater. Seeing the town, it is all quite understandable. They are here, 15 of them, and there is little else to do other than play ball.

It's a funny thing about the town. If you don't know just where it is and how to get there, it can seem somewhat discouraging. Ask at one place, anywhere below Lake Alfred, and probably you'll be told that Wauchula is "10 miles away" or "15 miles away" or "20 miles away." And if you travel 10 miles and see again, chances are good that you'll then be 40 miles away. The point is, of four people asked, all apparent residents of the town, not one gave a close proximity of the place.

But three hours after leaving Sanford and half a tank of gas later, you make it Sunshine! All the way from Sanford, Wauchula? It's raining like crazy.

But this party, regardless of what else may be said about it, is well equipped. Plenty of sand to cover the soggy places and John Bonney, tournament director, is bent on to let the goods stand idle when needed. Along about 7:30 p. m. Bonney said he would have the field ready.

The development is a transition from a close resemblance to Lake Monroe, relatively speaking, of course, to the Sahara Desert.

The Avon Park outfit arrived about a month before the start of the season. They were at first in uniforms which were spic-and-span. The field, notwithstanding Bonney's action, will fix that.

But the team's little situation which needed correcting, walking in, an Avon Park performer made some crack about winning a record for the season.

By now you can bet that when the boys called the boys into the dugout for a pre-game confab, he was making plans to remedy that case.

Harness Horses Rotting Off 2-Minute Miles

COLUMBUS, O.—Harness horses are rattling off two-minute miles at a record rate.

The USTA said eight miles in two minutes, faster had been registered through July 18, last year, when a record high of 70 was recorded for the season, only three had been turned in by the end of the year.

Continuation of the present pattern thus will produce a new all-time high, a far cry from the year 1947, when the record became the first horse in history to make the two-minute grade and the only one that year to do it.

All right, of the 1951 "miracle" miles have been posted now, the three-quarter mile oval at Verona, N. Y., and all have been by pacers. Seven horses have joined in the season with Bonny Brook Dean the lone repeater.

Bonny Brook Dean, owned by Adolph Wiley of Westbury, N. Y., scored in 2:00 on July 1st and followed that up with a 1:58 1/8 mile, fastest of the season, on July 10th.

Four horses racing in two divisions of the $20,000 American Pace Derby on July 16th won in 1:59 1/8, two minutes or faster—Prince Adios in 1:59, Poplar Dell in 1:59 1/8, Thomas E. Scott, 1:59 3/8 and Duke Vols in 2:00.

Heading out the list are the 8-year-old Jug Chief, who got home first in 1:59 4/8 on July 10th and the 4-year-old Hayward Hanover, who coasted the same time the next night. Jug Chief, owned by Grand Circuit and Vernon Jones president Oveas Blake, is a leading candidate for the $60,000 Little Brown Jug to be raced at Delaware, O., in September.

Ezzard Charles, Nino Valdes Top Contenders For Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Hurricane Tommy Jackson of New York and Earl White of Edmonton, Alberta, tumbled in the latest heavyweight ratings by Ring Magazine, published last night by Editor Max Fleis-

Ezzard Charles, the ex-champ from Cincinnati, remains the No. 1 contender, followed closely by Nino Valdes, the Cuban giant who stopped the Hurricane two weeks ago.

Don Cockell who fights Harry Matthews in Seattle tomorrow night, remained in the No. 3 place and Matthews moved up a notch to seventh. Jimmy Blade, the original "Spook" of the Hurricane, still ranks fourth, followed by Roland La Starza and Jackson.

Paul Adonis continues his advance in the light heavy class, ranking third behind challenger Harold Johnson, who boxes Archie Moore for the title Aug. 11 at Madison Square Garden, and ex-champ Joey Maxim. Andrews whipped Chubby Wright and knocked out Yvon Durelle in the last month. After Trinidad's Volande Pompey lost to Moses Ward at Chicago, he was moved down a peg to sixth in the 175-pound division. Ex-Olympic champ Floyd Patterson is No. 5.

Joe Giardello regained the No. 2 contender spot in the middleweight class behind Rocky Castellani. He has a title date with Bob Olson Aug. 20 at San Francisco. Billy Graham was dropped to third among the welterweights after losing to Chris Christensen of Denmark. A couple of new faces edged into the Top 10, Vince Martinez is now No. 8 and Tony DeMarco No. 9.

Johnny Sexton, who is supposed to get next crack at Kid Gavilan's crown was dropped to fourth. Carmen Basilio of Canastota, N.Y. remained in the No. 1 spot.

Johnson Upsets Jones Last Night

NEW YORK (AP)—George Johnson, the unranked Trenton, N.J. middleweight, is back in business again after his upset victory over slugger Bobby Jones, the No. 5 slug in the division.

Jones hasn't won a fight since he squandered an $15,000 "offer" before his Jones 15 bout with Joe Giardello.

Although Jones is 1-5 in 3 to 5 favorite, Johnson was a unanimous choice last night at Madison Square Garden in a national telecasted bout that drew a crowd of no more than 1,500. The International Boxing Club didn't bother to announce any figures.

Johnson, 154 to Jones' 157, simply threw too many punches for the Oakland, Calif. veteran to get pro benefit. Only in the fifth, sixth and ninth did Jones flurry. Each time he stopped before he could do any heavy damage. Johnson's jab, chopping right and right uppercut all were effective in the no-knock-out bout.

Eight Games Draw 341,986 Customers

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees, still the biggest draw in baseball, have played before 341,986 customers in their last eight appearances against the other American League contenders—the Cleveland Indians and Chicago White Sox.

That's an average of better than 42,748, starting with the Chicago game Tuesday, July 30 in Yankee Stadium and including yesterday's tilt against the Sox in the Windy City. In between, the Yankees attracted 37,222 fans to their weekend series at home against the Indians, including the season's largest major league crowd—41,446—last Friday night.

Jacksonville Beach Solidly In FSL Second Half Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rookie Ray Konkolski put Jacksonville Beach solidly in the Florida State League second half race when he pitched and batted the Sea Birds in a 1-0 victory over Orlando last night.

The third straight victory for the Sea Birds left them only 2 1/2 games back of the first place Orlando Cubs and only half a game back of the second place Lakeland Pilots who were rained out for the fourth straight night. They were scheduled to meet Deland.

Ronkoloski, besides pitching a six-hit shutout over the longer leaguers, batted in the only Jacksonville Beach run in the fourth with a double. Roy Chambers, who reached first on an error, came home on Konkolski's hit. With that run on the scoreboard, the young righthander retired the last 14 men in order.

In the other game, Daytona Beach shutout Cocoa 11 on a seven hitter by Jim Davison's fourth victory since joining the Islanders. Cocoa's Clyde Stevens gave up nine.

Man Matching Men With Age

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Burt Lancaster is getting stronger each year of his old age. If he didn't, he couldn't stand the celebrations.

When he was 30, Lancaster celebrated by playing the roles of a man in his birthday. It was so much fun, he made it an annual custom—playing one hole for each year.

Today he'll be 37, and he'll play 37 holes.

Local Legion Team Chalks Second Win In Tournament

Post 53 Beats Avon Park, 13-8; Will Play Again Tomorrow Eve

WAUCHULA—Thirty-one players representing Avon Park and Sanford American Legion Posts in the Eighth Area Junior Baseball tournament formed right angles in single file at home plate here last night and repeated the Code of Sportsmanship in unison, but from then on the script was thrown to the winds and at any time what was about to happen was anybody's guess.

As it turned out, Post 53 of Sanford gained a 13-8 victory over the Avon Park club, but along the way the local boys had to overcome a three-run deficit and quell a seventh-inning rally which threatened to further what had already been a wild and woolly affair.

Charlie Swann opened on the hill for Sanford and suffered the effects of an hour-long downpour which made the ball and turf exceedingly hard to manage. Before the lanky pitcher could produce an out, Avon Park drew three walks. Swann found the mark, however, and registered strike outs upon Jim Prevatt, his pitching opponent, and Jimmy Pearce. But with two away, Avon Park pulled a surprise triple steal which netted a score. Although Swann, on strikes, the job run looked big.

Prevatt held Sanford in the first and second frames, but his mate utilized Swann's lack of control to must another pair of markers in the second inning.

But the roof fell in on Prevatt in the third, and he fell victim to the trouble which was hindering Swann—lack of control. The Sanford pitcher led-off the period and went down via the strike-out route. But John Bowen singled and Prevatt paraded five Post Klers to first on walks before Raymond Hardy hit sacrifice. Coupled with Swann's two-bagger in his second attempt of the inning, the singles and walks manufactured seven seemingly insurmountable runs.

Prevatt was retired to the shortstop position at this point and Dale Landress moved into the pitcher's circle. The starter was charged with the defeat.

In the fourth, plagued with his troubles of the former three stanzas, Swann was lifted in favor of Jim Hawkins. The reliever came out of the frame with but a lone run annexed and coasted along smoothly until the last inning.

In his three-inning stint, Swann fanned seven while passing the lumber on walks. He gave up three runs and took credit for the win.

Sanford notched two runs in the fourth and injured the ill-fated Swann in the sixth. A few moments it appeared that it was going to take all 13 runs to account for a victory. Hawkins, who pitched a five-hitter against Clearwater in the previous game, pitched a 2-2 inning in the seventh and allowed three hits while walking two men, which produced four runs. With a three-run count on John Starling, Avon Park first-sacker, Mackins brushed his hands with rosin-bag then threw the sack to his dugout, indicating that it was all over.

A perfect strike crossed the plate and that was it. The center Clearwater in the double elimination tourney. Sanford will resume action tomorrow night at 8 o'clock against the winner. Should the Post 53 team cap the tussle they will automatically qualify for the state tournament in St. Petersburg next week. If Sanford loses, Saturday night game will be slated.

Post 53 is defending area champion, having taken the title for the past two years.

CBSTV Network To Start Color

NEW YORK (AP)—The big push in color television gets under way in the next few weeks.

In the forefront will be those perennial arch rivals of tinted TV, the Columbia Broadcasting System and Radio Corp. of America with many independent telecasters and other set makers in the parade.

CBS television network begins its first large scale color operation Aug. 22 while RCA's National Broadcasting Co. steps up its broadcast programming starting Sept. 14.

On the manufacturing side, CBS is trying to get a jump with a new 19-inch tri-color picture tube already in production by its Hytron Division. Its Columbia Division plans to start producing its own color sets, using the new tube, in late August.

RCA, which already has turned out 5,000 15-inch color sets, plans to unveil a new 21-inch color tube and simplified set Sept. 15. It plans to turn out at least 5,000 of the 21-inch sets by year-end, plus 100,000 three thousand of the tubes for other set makers.

Several other companies are coming out with big screen sets. Motorola brought out a 26-inch model recently for $895. Westinghouse first out with 15-inch models, has a 19-inch model in the works while Admiral is planning a 21-inch model. Some still are waiting for technical refinements before launching color production.

The big spurge of activity will come eight to nine months after formal approval of the present system of color telecasting by the Federal Communications Commission and a year after the FCC had definitely announced it would give its okay.

In the interim, color TV has moved at a snail's pace so far as the public was concerned although there has been feverish activity in laboratories, factories and color studios.

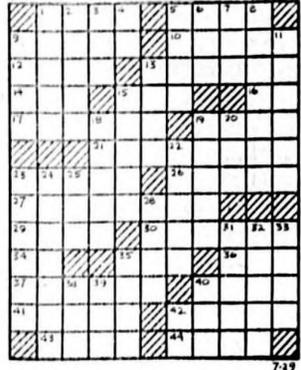

Public acceptance of color was held back mainly by the small screen size of sets, the $1,000 price and the lack of enough color programs on the air.

Hospital Drive At New Smyrna Reaches $6,500

NEW SMYRNA BEACH—More than $6,500 in contributions was received at Memorial Hospital Fund Headquarters in the first nine days of the 15-day campaign launched here to raise $15,000 by Aug. 1, in order that the Fish Memorial Hospital may be opened by Aug. 15.

Co-chairman Walter T. Slattery and David L. Shannon reported that all 9 physicians in the city were listed among contributors totaling $1,000. Many sizeable gifts have been received from outside of the city, including a former resident from Ormond and a Daytona Beach doctor. The biggest contribution, however, came from three building firms, each of which contributed $1,000. They were Mitchell-Alexander Lumber Co., Bond-Howell Lumber Co., and New Smyrna Builders Supply Co.

Campaign headquarters were opened here at 212 Canal St. July 19, official opening of the drive to raise more than $1,000 a day in order to meet the $15,000 goal by Aug. 1.

The 34-bed hospital, was recently completed at a cost of $304,170 exclusive of property on which it stands, which was given by the City of New-Smyrna Beach.
