Pot Study Produces Headache

By GREG CONNOLLY
Copley News Service

OTTAWA—A federally appointed Royal Commission has produced a report on marijuana so confusing as to be embarrassing to the Canadian government, rather than helpful.

After three years of inquiry and investigation, the best the commission declined to recommend the legalization of pot.

The commission chaired by Gerald Le Dain, head of the Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto, was supposed to give the government some practical procedure for handling the marijuana problem. But as it turned out there were three different views presented as the five-man body split on its findings.

The majority opinion of three members was that it should be legal to use marijuana or hashish publicly or to hand it around in small quantities or to grow it for personal use.

But this Alice-in-Wonderland document would give police the right to seize and confiscate the drug or plants whenever they saw them.

The government of Prime Pierre Trudeau has been uncertain what to do with the pot problem and it appointed the Le Dain Commission to get the hot seat. Now it appears the commission's work has been a waste of time and Trudeau, the Canadian courts and police still have a hashish headache.

Polls show younger people are in favor of legalization. But the federal government and provincial governments are involved in the administration of regulations. A majority of provincial premiers evidently oppose legalization of marijuana. Premier W.A.C. Bennett of British Columbia put legal for Canadians to grow pot for their own use but that police, if so inclined, could seize the entire crop.

Trudeau faces a general election this year and it would be a serious political error for him to take a firm stand.

One of the more confusing recommendations of the Le Dain Commission is that it be legal for Canadians to grow pot for their own use but that police, if so inclined, could seize the entire crop.

It's Just The Club For Non-Joiners

By BOB ORTMAN
Copley News Service

For a lifetime I have dedicated myself to the pursuit of my avocation, which is being a nonjoiner. I never saw a club too large or too small for me to avoid as if it were an out-of-work brother-in-law. I always preferred lions, eagles and elk in their natural habitat.

I probably wouldn't have joined the human race if I hadn't been born into it. I have considered retiring, but the alternative is even less attractive.

My children drowned me when, like salmon swimming against the current, I persisted in my antiquated hairstyle and continued to wear such outdated attire at narrow ties, button-down shirts and cuffed sleeves.

Then, while rummaging through a neighbor's small one day, I came across an announcement about a wondrous organization called E. Clampus Vitus, a name which stands for nothing, and a group whose reason for being is none. Members are called clampers, and a couple times a year they go on clampspreks. What a lofty purpose!

To keep out the riffraff, there is a membership fee, naturally, but the best things in life and most of the worst are not free. To the paroled letter, I learned that "despite the good intentions and the Solomonian sagacity of the administration's new economic policy, the cost of doing things (or just sitting there) has gone up."

It was revealed that members would be assessed $27 a year, which would cover the cost of two clampspreks and a $17 donation to the Widows and Orphans Liberation Fund (WOLF)."

So it is with extreme pride that Patricia Chapter No. 1, E. Clampus Vitus, announces a reduction in the cost of doing things (and a very slight increase in the cost of just sitting there)."

Tens Of Thousands Flee Major Disaster Developing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A new rainstorm deluged the East in the wake of tropical disturbance Agnes today, sending the mighty Ohio River and many smaller streams out of their banks.

Tens of thousands in New York and Pennsylvania fled their homes some evacuated by helicopter. National Guard rescue units were in force.

There was no immediate end in sight. The death toll stood at 47, with scores missing. The National Weather Service warned that a "major disaster was developing."

Typical of the storm's caprice was the fate that befell a Baltimore mother, evacuating her home with three young children in her car. A wave inundated the vehicle, and she was carried away while the youngsters were trapped inside.

Virginia was placed under a state of emergency, as the capital city of Richmond was inundated by the flooding James River. Much of the downtown area of the city was without electricity. Three times, advancing waters drove police and national guardsmen from their control stations.

Mass evacuation was under way in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., a city of 65,000 on the Susquehanna River.

Far to the southwest, the Susquehanna cut off the state's capital city of Harrisburg in all directions. Much of the city's power was off. Hospitals pressed emergency generators into use.

Homes and automobiles were swept away in half a dozen upstate New York cities, beset by raging flood waters. National Guard units were out and evacuations were under way in Elmira, Corning, Orleans and Painted Post, where helicopters lifted many to safety.

Besides the Ohio, Pittsburgh faced the fury of the Allegheny River, which buffeted loose an estimated 140 pleasure boats and dashed them to pieces against a spillway.

The Brandywine Creek, cresting at a record 16.5 feet, poured into the first floor of a Chadds Ford, Pa., museum and $2.5 million worth of N.C. Wyeth paintings were rushed to safety on upper floors.

New 'Pill' Is 90% Effective

By KATHRYN JOHNSON

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Once a month, when the moon is full, thousands of women in Mexico and Chile take an oral contraceptive developed by a Ginecologia doctor who says it is 90 to 95 per cent effective.

"It does away with the tyranny of taking a pill 365 days a year and reduces it to 12 times a year," said Dr. Robert B. Greenblatt, a Ginecologia, development of the once-a-month pill.

"Other countries are getting the advantage of it first," said Greenblatt, chairman of the endocrinology department of the University of Mexico.

It's being used extensively in Mexico and Chile.

"Probably will be about 10 years before the Food and Drug Administration allows it in this country," the researcher said in a telephone interview. "It's not a telephone interview. It's not the advantage of it first," said Greenblatt, chairman of the endocrinology department of the University of Mexico.

"The monthly pill, then, is a

But it's a satisfactory one, particularly for underdeveloped nations," Greenblatt said. "For example, say in Thailand or Taiwan, or in any country where you have great masses of illiterate people, how do you get them to take a pill every single day?"

"The monthly pill, then, is a you explain to them that they should take the pill on the 25th day of their menstrual cycle?"

"So, you tell them to take it when the moon is full, so they'll take one once a month. The first month is hazardous for still getting pregnant. But when the body regulates itself to the pill, then it becomes effective."

"A few bad side effects such as bleeding and nausea. But there's no medicine in the world that's so effective."

"The pill contains both estrogen, which has a protracted effect so that it acts to prevent ovulation for the next month, and progesterone, which insures a period in the current month."

"During latter stages of development several years ago, the monthly pill prevented pregnancy in all 138 trials in 10 Georgia women."

"Most of his patients, Greenblatt said, were 'entrained' with not having to remember to take a pill a day."

Swofford's Pay Increase Is Under Fire By U. S.

AROUND THE CLOCK

By John A. Spolki

Memo... to dear friend and Mayor of Longwood, Ken Brown: I know that the photo we ran of you yesterday was "slightly" old... and that since that time, you have lost at least 30 pounds (according to you—making you that much more handsome!)... and that you offered our reporter Donna Estes $100 if she'd "remove it" from our files.

I agree with your sentiments entirely. (But, I could have gotten it for you "wholesale," ole buddy. A hundred bucks, phew!)

And that reminds me of the question posed to me by reporter Estes in her column (Page 5) of today's edition. She's wanting me to respond to what's going to happen when that train starts cutting thru those homes which are being built on Rosedale and Grant Streets in Longwood?

You see they're brand new homes... and there's a railroad easement right smack-dab thru the center of same.

Well, the first thing I'd do... check where in the heck the bedroom's gonna be. (Nothing like a trainman coming thru around 3 in the a.m., eh?)

Question... if according to the National Weather Advisory Bureau (see map on page 2A) the names of the hurricanes for '72 season start with Abby... how 'cun Agnes is giving us such a fit?

(Just goes to show what'll happen if you call a gal by the wrong name, right?)

Just between us... that local company which is "trying out" the talents of a young secretary, and after three days decides that she just doesn't measure up, and that they're not going to pay for the services of the individual... write the young lady a check before you wind up in the courts.

Auto-Train rates going up, folks. Effective immediately, instead of it costing $190 for an auto and four passengers to travel from her to Lorton, Virginia (or vice versa), it will be the same price of $190, but only cover two persons.

For each additional passenger, add another $20 and it's not to exceed the designed seating capacity of the automobile.

NEARLY $10,000 TOTAL DAMAGE

Jerald Huff, of Jacksonville, driver of this Greyhound Bus bound for New York, unloads parcels to put into another bus after an accident shortly after midnight on Interstate-4 at the Lake Monroe Bridge. None of the 35 passengers on the bus were injured. According to Trooper Terry McIntyre, a vehicle owned by Thomas W. Campbell of Belle Glade was disabled on the bridge and part of the vehicle was protruding into the north-bound lane, without lights. The bus hit that car, knocking it into the path of a south-bound automobile. Trooper P. E. (Phil) Dixon and the sheriff's department assisted at the scene. (Related photo page 3A). Cross' Only 'Chair' Is A Rocking Chair

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Lonnie Cross, who got "right with the Lord" when he surrendered on a 37-year-old murder indictment, went free today when the charge was dropped.

Cross, 66, who had been living under another name in New Orleans since 1937, walked into the sheriff's office here the evening of June 7 and said he was surrendering in connection with the 1935 murder indictment.

Amazed officials checked and discovered that Cross had been indicted in connection with the murder of Edward Bozier but was never apprehended.

State Atty. Don Nichols dropped the charge today, saying "the purpose of the penal system is rehabilitation. It appears this has been done without the necessity of confinement. Prosecution of the case would serve no useful purpose."

Cross rose to his feet and proclaimed, "I thank you and I thank the Lord."

He had come back to face the charge and whatever came of it, Cross said, because he had become a religious man and the spirit of the Lord told him he was right with the Lord; now he should get right with Jacksonville and the state of Florida.

Public Defender Louis Frost, who had been named to represent Cross, said Nichols made "a very good decision. This man is one of the most righteous and Godfearing men I ever met."

Cross said he will probably either go back to New Orleans, where he has been living under the name Richard Mosley, or go to Savannah, where he had lived previously.

FTU's Impact On Area Seen

Florida Technological University will have a major impact on the economy of the area by the beginning of the 1980s when its leveling-off period in construction is reabsorbed, it will be reached, according to statistical data from the university.

A sharp increase in value of the physical plant at the school of higher learning, at 275 per cent from the current $19 million to $75 million is anticipated by 1980. At the same time the annual operating budget will rise 50 per cent from the present $13 million to $20 million while faculty and staff will go up 40 per cent from 373 faculty and 441 staff this year to 3,500 faculty and staff.

A 25 per cent increase in student body is expected from the September 1972 roll of approximately 7,200 to 25,000. By the 1980 year, there will be a need for more than 10,000 additional family dwellings for faculty and students of the school while more classrooms and schools from the elementary level through high school will be needed with at least 250 additional teachers, 150 more police officers and more than 50 firemen.

More and larger access roads to the university will be a major need.

Bulletin

Longwood Fire Chief Carl Lammier, who had planned to leave the city today for a camping vacation on Marco Island, suffered a heart attack early this morning and was taken to Florida Hospital, Lammier, who has served as a volunteer with the department for the past 15 years, was named full time paid chief only a few weeks ago.

Paperdoll People

By REV. KENNETH MILLER, Community U. Methodist

"How do you build a tomorrow on a thin, threatened today? There are no tools to borrow, just a sack full of paper-mache."

We are living in a world of paper-doll people, people with "fixed faces and fronts," people of only one dimension, "speaking at each other in copy-cat conversation."

honesty is a required tax statement, compassion a nickel or dime handout and religion something you get when you join the church.

The prospects of a meaningful tomorrow based upon these paper-mache values is bleak indeed. There is an unmistakable need today for real people, those who have purpose and depth with eyes uncovered and ears opened.

It is true that we can find many examples of paper-mache people within the church itself. Others are quick to point this out. But the essential question remains, "What do you think of Christ?"

"Paper-mache people are not honest with themselves, they do not acknowledge any spiritual needs. Like is distorted and self-centered. Real people are not only aware of their needs but commit themselves to seeking spiritual truth with determination to apply it to their own lives."

Local Blind Children Are Invited To Camp

Blind children from this area will be eligible to attend a free summer camp this year held especially for visually handicapped and blind children.

All normal activities enjoyed by sighted youngsters are scheduled for the blind boys and girls. These include horseback riding, archery, water sports, crafts, tumbling and water skiing.

Ray Hubbard, director of "National Camps for Blind Children" points out — "Hiding camp for blind children is more expensive than conducting camps for the sighted ones. Experience has taught us many improvements and it is now possible for each blind child to fully enjoy the activities offered."

THOUGHTS

"Whoever rebels against your commandment and disregards your words, whatever you command him, shall be put to death. Only he who endures to the end will be saved." — John 1:18

Only in winter can you tell which trees are truly green. Only when the winds of adversity blow can you tell whether an individual or a country has courage and steadfastness. — John F. Kennedy

Love is patient and kind, love is not jealous or boastful; it is not arrogant or rude. Love does not brag as if it were superior to others. Love is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at its enemy's misfortune. — 1 Cor. 13:4, 5, 6

Love cannot be forced. Love cannot be coerced. Love cannot be teased. It comes out of heaven, unasked and un-sought. — Pearl Buck, author.

Swofford's Pay Hike Under Fire

Complaint from an unnamed individual, he told the official, "fine, when you get through, I'll get you more salary."

Davis admonished with a terse, "I wouldn't make those comments," when Swofford alluded to the complaint by referring to the official.

Swofford said he told the official a judge may not interpret the matter in the same way as the IRS; that there has been an increase in city personnel, the size of the city, etc., the salary increase.

Davis concurred, noting council stipulated with the agreement that the mayor's office would be a full-time position. Derriman again queried if the federal act does not change the salary with the scope of the job, and Davis answered it is the position of the government the job hasn't changed, Davis went on to explain the law is relatively new, and "just now they are prosecuting and finding violators."

Derriman alleged the difference between running a grocery store and running General Motors.

Davis maintained the government has said the city council and restore Swofford to his former salary. Derriman suggested the council, prior to Tuesday's meeting, check merit pay raises.

Davis cited the ridiculous situation of the fact that the city could have hired a city manager at a salary of $20,000 yearly and continued to pay Swofford $7,200. However, with this saving to the city of almost $13,000 the government contests Swofford's salary. Nevertheless, Davis said, "the Economic Stabilization Act is a new creature."

Swofford adding the last quip contended, "Well, the IRS is just people doing a job. They don't have the judges and jury authority yet."

Supreme Court Justices Varrar B. Carlton (left) and Richard W. Irwin exchanged pleasantries prior to "teeing-off" this morning at the Mayfair Country Club in Sanford. TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Chaiting-shame in Florida could top $15 million, Gov. Reubin Askew today asked President Nixon to declare 25 Florida counties a disaster area.

The move would pave the way toward outright grants and low-interest loans for cleanup.

W. C. McMillen, regional director for the U.S. Office of Emergency Preparedness, said Nixon would act on Askew's request "within a week."

"Reports now indicate that the tornadoes, torrential rains, flood tides and high winds of the hurricane caused estimated damages of more than $5 billion to public property and more than $10 billion to private property in wide-ranging areas of the state," Askew told Nixon.

Announcing his application for a federal disaster aid at a news conference, Askew urged Florida coastal counties to halt all new construction along Florida's beaches until each county has adopted a coastal setback and regulations governing such structures.

He said Floridians should take the view that the great damage done by the hurricane was a warning of what could happen if a larger hurricane ever hit a lowlying, heavily populated area head on.

Another ordinance establishing occupational fees in the city was defeated by the "nay" vote of the city council.

Mayor Keyser, Nixon and Mayor Lawrence Swofford.

Prior to the action, Councilman Thomas Radloff considered the ordinance would only benefit the man who is willing to pay or who did not have the funds for litigation. "This," he said, "is going against the little guy who can't afford to fight City Hall."

The specific complaint in his remarks was directed at an apartment complex in the city which has not paid the fee under new rulings. Radloff said these "operate a $1 million business with no license, and they don't go to jail, but if a painter came to town and didn't get a license he'd go to jail."

Elmer Aluda Jarrett, 55, of Rt. 1 Box 196, Sanford, was driving a 1972 Oldsmobile. His wife, Goldey Jarrett, 54, was injured. Both vehicles were totaled with $2,000 damage to the bus. (Related photo page one.)

Deputy Clarence W. Smith arrested William Lyvans Jr., 48, of 1370 LAM Lane, on a $5,000 bond. Constable Fred Galloway reported the arrest of Raymond Harold Grey, 27, of Zellwood on the charge of larceny of an auto No bond was set.

Mark Williams, Apt. 1081, Grand Apartments, told deputies someone gained entry to his car through a wing window and stole a tape player valued at $20 and $40 worth of tools.

Clarence Sannuels told Deputy Scott Grant that someone stole a 27-foot Westwood trailer from his property at 504 Marker Street. The trailer was valued at $1,400.

James H. Barrett, 19, of 130 Highland Avenue, Apopka, told Deputy Jim Hibbard he was charged with grand larceny and breaking and entering with a pistol.

Altamonte Okays Beer On Sundays

By MARION BETHEA

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Deputies of John Hartley, with their Sunday request will find joy in action by City Council last night in adopting their first reading an ordinance permitting the sale of beer on Sunday, with certain stipulations.

The ordinance includes hotels, motels, private clubs and restaurants, whose gross income is derived from 60 per cent or more from food service. Voting against the action were Councilmen Keith Nixon and Helen Keyser.

Another ordinance establishing occupational fees in the city was defeated by the "nay" vote of the city council.

Mayor Keyser, Nixon and Mayor Lawrence Swofford.

honor guest: Miss Howland, honoree: Mrs. Allen Bowling, mother of the bride and groom and Mrs. Charles Winsup, hostess.

Bride-Elect Honored With Shower

coffee and spiced tea. Prior to the exciting gift opening, bridal songs were enjoyed.

Invited guests included Mrs. Ben Howland, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Allen Bowling, the future bridegroom's mother; Mrs. Donna Moore, Charles Koke, John Morgan and Vincent Roberts.

Also the Misses Susan Super, Wilson Gordon, Carlton Todd, Charles Meeks, Brian Schanel, Mona Brides, Robert Bessner, Raymond Ceynowa, Darlene Horn and the Misses Marlene Wyche, Pat Helay and Candy Wharton.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The church was decorated with two seven-branched white candelabra and an altar arrangement of white chrysanthemums and gladioli.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of pink and white carnations.

A reception followed in fellowship hall of the church with the serving table decorated with pink and white mums and white candles with doves in crystal holders.

Following the reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. June 29. They will study in London, Paris, Salzburg, Rome, Madrid and Greece.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Ken Turner, Gainesville and Mrs. Fred Bishop of Warwick, R. I.

arrangement of yellow and white mums in the milk glass bowl adding the final elegant touch.

Refreshments continued the color theme of yellow and white, with a white cake, accented with yellow roses, yellow mints, assorted nuts, and golden tinsel punch was served.

Guests assembled, and a real old-fashioned bag session ensued. Many of the girls, just graduated from college, enjoyed the first meeting with old friends in a long time.

The honoree, Ann, recently graduated from Stetson University, received many lovely gifts, all of which will be treasured during her married life.

Guests attending included the hostesses, Ann and her mother, Vincent Roberts.

White shoes can be a perfect accent to a summer outfit, but only when they're really white. A few tips to keep the color: Never use a white shoe polish over badly soiled shoes. First, clean the stains with saddle soap. Then use a polish. Waterproof your shoes in preparation for unexpected showers.

Dear Abby

Mother sulks on her day

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and have an 8-month-old girl. My mother is 65 and she has left me. She lost a 12-year-old son in Vietnam three years ago. She has one daughter, 17, who is dying of leukemia. Abby, this woman is so brave and wonderful. With all her trouble she never complains.

I decided to drive up to be with my mother on Mother's Day, but first we stopped off at my mother's so I could give her a Mother's Day present. We found her making like a child, and you should have heard her carry on. She said she was hurt that I chose to spend Mother's Day with my mother in law instead of with my own mother. Abby, my mother has three other children (all healthy and living nearby) and she had been invited to spend Mother's Day with them, but she stayed home instead, and told them all that I gave her a migraine headache! Now she's barely speaking to me. She says she could have forgiven me if it had been any day besides Mother's Day. Was I wrong?

DEAR ABBY: I am 20 years old and have a 5-month-old baby, which makes me a mother. I think I should be honored on Mother's Day, don't you? My mother doesn't seem to think so. She wants all her children to honor her, regardless.

The Church...

...THE HOPE OF OUR COMMUNITY, OUR NATION!

SPACECHIPS AND SANDWICHES

"Okay, we've landed, now let's get out and look at this old moon!"

My two small boys are at it again. Today, the old gray stump is a spaceship. Tomorrow it may be a fort or a castle. More practically, at luncheon it's a picnic table.

Right now the ride yard is my sons' world. Behind a picket fence, they roam the seas and sky in imagination, the sound of their voices reassuring me of their safety.

It won't always be this way. Someday, they'll leave the back yard forever, washbacking through a world of schools and camps, friends and parties.

How strange it will be—not to guide their every footstep. Where am I to get the courage? Fortunately, I can answer my own question. I have faith, and so do my boys. As a source of great goodness, it will guide them all their days.

Mitchells In Hassle On Politics

NEW YORK (AP)—Martha Mitchell says the election campaign "is nothing but a cops and robbers game, and I'm trying to get my husband out of it."
 The wife of former Atty. Gen. John Mitchell flew in from California Sunday and told the New York Daily News in an interview, "All I want is my husband back."
 "There is no reason for us to be involved in politics," she told reporter Marcia Kramer in an interview at her two-room suite at the Westchester Country Club in Rye, N.Y.
 Mrs. Mitchell's husband left the Cabinet to head the Committee to Re-elect the President. She declined to talk about the "dirty things" she knew about politics, but was voluble about her dispute with a security guard that she said led her to leave her Newport Beach, Calif., villa.

Murder Suspect Enters Guilty Plea

Michael Francis Whalen, charged in the murder of Richard Franklin Day, assistant manager of a Casseberry liquor store, this morning entered a guilty plea to the charge before Circuit Judge Dominick Salfi.
 Judge Salfi accepted the guilty plea and a hearing will be held tomorrow upon aspects of the case.
 State Attorney Abbott Herring asked for the death penalty, while Defense Attorney David Ervin requested mercy. Each will argue his position before Judge Salfi tomorrow; Herring citing the aggravation factor in the case, which the state feels warrants the electric chair and the defense arguing the mitigating circumstance aspect. Herring probably will place witnesses on the stand to support the state's contention.

Whalen, 34, already faces a life sentence in a guilty plea on May 23 to robbery of the store. In this instance, he and Fulton Perkins forced store manager Walter Barone to open the store. The state, in the negotiated plea, dropped charges of kidnapping in the case.
 The murder occurred last Dec. 27, when Day was found stabbed to death on a remote road near Trinity Preparatory School.
 Perkins pleaded guilty to the murder charge on May 1, and was sentenced to life imprisonment. The state dropped robbery and kidnapping charges against Perkins.

 Ambulance attendants and police work to get Phyllis Morrison, 17, out of this car after a Saturday afternoon accident at 25th Street and Sanford Avenue. The driver of this car, Starla Marlene Durrant, 16, of Geneva, was charged with failure to yield right of way by patrolman D. H. Whitmore. Damage to the 1970 Ford was set at $1,000. The other vehicle, a 1970 Buick, was driven by William Arthur Carroll, 48, of Winter Park. Damage to that car was estimated at $400. Whitmore was assisted by Sgt. Bill Foster and Patrolman Gene Pharris.

Claims 1st Ballot McGovern: Over The Top

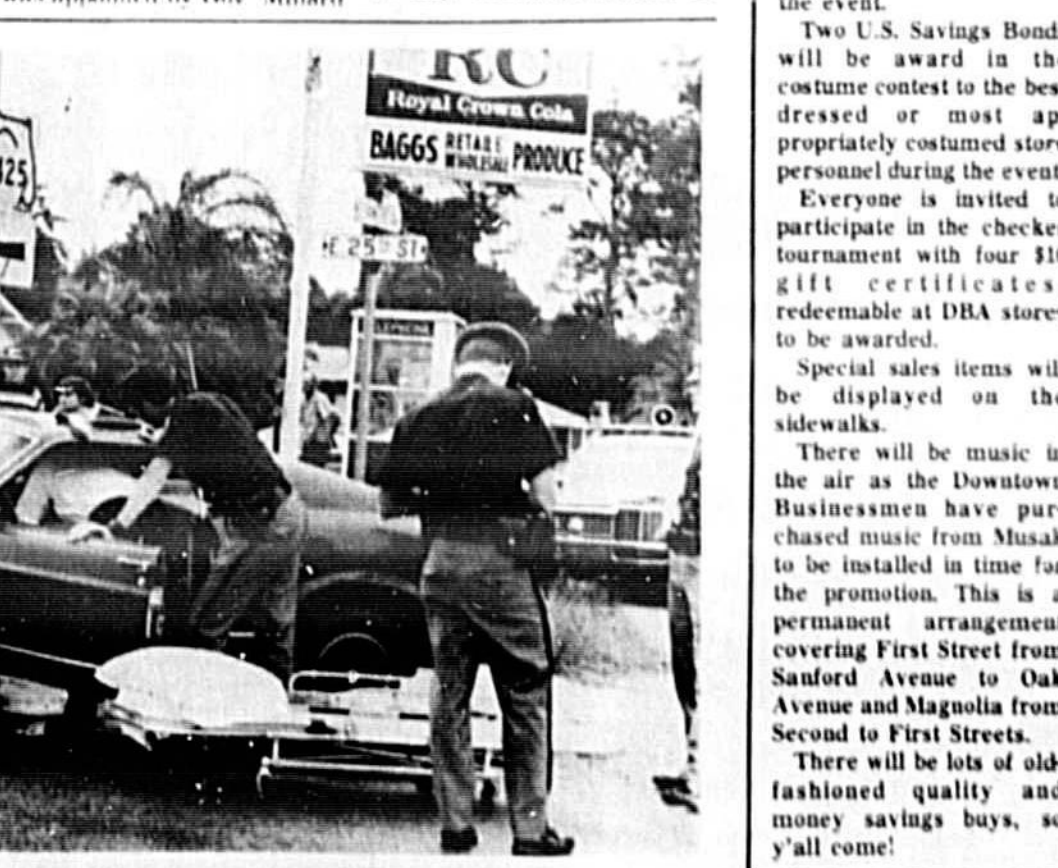

By GREGG HERRINGTON
 Associated Press Writer
 WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George S. McGovern said today he has received assurances of enough added support from blacks to assure him of a first ballot nomination at the Democratic National Convention.
 McGovern, Rep. Walter Fauntroy of the District of Columbia, Rep. Louis Stokes, D-Ohio, and other black delegates in the past several days 96% previously uncommitted delegate votes for the South Dakota senator.
 "There is no question now," McGovern said, "that this is enough to put us over the top in July on the first ballot. It gives us a generous margin of 1%," he said.
 In return for the commitments of black delegates from 12 states and the District of Columbia, McGovern has assured black leaders that blacks would be appointed to federal judgeships and posts within a McGovern administration "in reasonable proportion" to their numbers in the population.
 Fauntroy told newsmen the new McGovern delegate strength includes:
 Alabama 1 vote; Connecticut 4; Louisiana 14; Ohio 8; Mississippi 15; Illinois 3; Missouri 8; New Jersey 3; South Carolina 7; Georgia 8; and D.C. 12%.
 The figures added up to 96% rather than 94%. There was no immediate explanation for the discrepancy.
 The announcement culminated several days of meetings and long-distance telephone calls seeking the previously uncommitted black delegates.
 At an earlier news conference this morning, Stokes, head of the congressional black caucus, said the McGovern campaign had secured 96% of the black vote.

Altamonte Will Fight For Mayor

By MARION BETHEA
 ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — City Council, at a 4:30 p.m. meeting tomorrow, probably will make a decision on a course of action to be initiated in the possible difficulties Mayor Lawrence Swafford faces with the U. S. Department of Internal Revenue.
 An agent of the IRS, Trevor Hawk, has challenged a salary increase Mayor Swafford received last December which hiked his remuneration from $7,300 annually to a full time position of $12,000.
 According to Hawk, the increase exceeds the federally approved limitation of 3.5 per cent. Hawk also proposed the salary increase be rescinded. However, Mayor Swafford has contended, and the council has concurred, that the increase is justified with the added responsibilities which he has assumed as well as the growth factor in the city.
 Council also will consider the Legacy of Parks program, which is being developed in phases. The city, it is felt, is in need of recreational facilities but possibly a priority will be placed in erecting concession stands at existing baseball diamonds as well as sanitary facilities.
 The city's planners, Harlan Hansen, George Huffman and Al Lewis, will be on hand to present the new city and county zoning map and Lewis presumably will discuss regulations which are being initiated governing fences.
 Council probably will approve plats of Northwood and Barclay Woods. The plats were tentatively approved last week subject to appropriate bonds and, according to City Clerk Jane Richards, the bonds now have been received by the city.

Man Shot, Suspect Arrested

By BILL SCOTT
 A Lake Mary man was treated Saturday at Seminole Memorial Hospital for a gunshot wound in the left leg following an argument with another man in the parking lot of the Royal Castle restaurant, French Ave.
 Det. Sgt. Charles Tate reported Jerry Isles, 25, of 311 Oak Street, was charged with brandishing a firearm, assault with a firearm and discharging a firearm after he allegedly shot Billy Ray Noe, 22, with a .32 pistol.
 A car containing Isles was stopped shortly after the shooting and the arrest was made.
 George Harris, of 418 Pine Street, reported to Patrolman Dennis Whitmore he was robbed of $128 by three men at the intersection of 14 and U.S. 17-92. Harris also reported the incident to Lt. Edward Stanley, county deputy, and stated the men escaped in a red Falcon automobile.
 Gloria Washington, 22, of 411 East Ninth Street, was treated for a gunshot wound in the foot Saturday after the inadvertently shot herself while trying to load a .22 caliber pistol.
 She told Policeman Don Anderson she heard a prowler outside her window and was trying to load the gun when it discharged.

Trucker Held For Income Tax

JACKSONVILLE — Franklin John Rathbun, West Palm Beach trucking firm owner and former head of the Florida Trucking Association, was arrested in West Palm Beach by special agents of the Internal Revenue Service, intelligence division.
 Rathbun was charged with 36 violations with respect to the withholding of social security and income taxes from the wages of employees. The criminal information filed by the U.S. attorney in Miami specifically charged that on 36 different occasions during 1969 and 1970 Rathbun withheld over $11,000 in taxes from the wages of the employees of Scarlett Truck Service but did not deposit the funds in a trust account for payment to the Internal Revenue Service as required by law.
