Bozo the Clown in real life through the years has entertained in about every medium of the entertainment Manor with his son, Gerald Brenner and his family.

Now in his 69th year, Brenner is still playing an active part in his beloved role as clown, bringing many a smile to the under-privileged and erippled children in hospitals and institutions. A smile from lips that understand too little, but enough to show the power of laughter, works a special magic all it's own.

Brenner, a native of Baltimore, began his career at the age of eleven when he ran away from home to join the circus. He was duly returned, only to run away again as the magic of circus life becken-

He started learning first the walking the slack and then the tight rope high wire. From circus life he went on to bit parts in burlesque and worked in vaudeville as a black-faced comedian and became famous for his rendition of "Shaky Eyes". In 1914 he again joined a circus. This time the Barnum and Bailey outfit as a clown and thus began the colorful career of "Boso the Clown."

From 1918-1919 Bozo joined the traveling troupe of William F. Cody the famous "Buffalo Bill" road show, From here he traveled with the Miller Brothers 1001 Ranch Wild West Show touring the USA.

In 1943, after clowning with various shows, Bozo joined Ringling Brothers for he one season and then left the one season and then left circus life.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

An Open House will be held at the Altamonte Springs Library this Sunday from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. to give residents of the town, as well as those who use the facility from all neighboring communities, an opportunity to witness, first hand, progress made during the short time the Library has been in operation.

The Library is located on Maitland Ave. next to the Community House and sponsors of the facility, The Altamonte Springs Library Assn., will be gratified by a large attendance for the event.

During the past year this group, without benefit of a Ways and Means Committee, raised $828 for the Library through a fashion show. rummage sales, plastic wares parties and sales of many miscellaneous holiday items. It purchased new books in the amount of $574.23 and added storage space and repainted the interior.

In addition, Summer Reading Clubs for the children, including teenagers, were conducted and proved to be highly successful.

This year the Town of Altamonte Springs budgeted $500 for the Library which will be used, when received, for the purchase of more new books. Also, devoted members of the Association already are scheduling a number of fund raising projects, the first to be a benefit concert on March 9 featuring the Mid-Florida Pops Orchestra.

The Herald Staff joins the many well-wishers who will be attending Sunday's Open House to extend sincere congratulations to sponsors of THE ALTAMONTE SPRINGS LIBRARY.

Urgent The Santord Herlong Junks Eligible List

Guy Allen has won a reprieve, it was learned today, and will continue as Sanford's acting postmaster for at least another two months,

Congressman A. S. Herlong Jr., in a telephone conversation from Washington with The Herald this morning, confirmed a report that the three-name eligible list submitted to him by the U. S. Civil Service has been "junked" and a new list will be compiled. "It will be at least two months," the Congressman said, "before the new list will be submitted to me by the Civil Service." The Civil Service had sub-workers find little interest in their work, which often is so beautifully organized and routinized that the juices are squeezed out of it.

Untold numbers of Americans are dulied, if not irritated, by tedious hours of commuting by rail, bus or bumper-to-bumper private car.

All this is not a new problem, except perhaps in magnitude. Many people feel they make no personal mprint on life. They are engulfed, bowled along like chips in a mill-race. There is little they can conquer.

The experts on life adjustment tell them, and their youngsters, to get busy beyond the school ground or the office. Develop a hobby, take a trip, engage in some enterprise, create something.

For some people this works. But for many it does not. They cannot Guests arrived at the party with materials to fashion a "Mad Hat." While assembling the chapeaux the girls chatted and got acquainted with each other.

After the hats were made each one modeled their creations at an informal style show. Mrs. Charles Wells of Saskatchewan, Canada, a guest of Mrs. Joe Corley, served as judge.

Mrs. Larry Mann won the prize with an Easter bonnet made of grass, Easter eggs and a furry bunny, An all occasion hat of various holiday items made by Mrs. LaMar Meredith and a Valentine heart bonnet by Mrs. J. L. Blythe, were the runners-up. Everyone did such a good job it was hard to select winners.

Co-hostesses, Mrs. Banks Golden, Mrs. Billy Wynn, and Mrs. James Jones served refreshments of brownies, ice cream and coffee.

Peacemakers To Publish Newsletters

The Peacemakers Wives of VAH-7 have recently airmailed their first edition of a pioneering effort, a monthly newsletter to their husbands, who are beginning a seven months Mediterranean cruise as the Navy's first A3J Vigilante Squadron, aboard the new atomic carrier, the Enterprise.

The purpose of the printed "Round Robin" is to inform all the absent spouses of the many individual and joint activities the ladies are engaged in while their husbands are an active part of the Sixth 20. Bust 31 to 40. Size 12, 32 many individual and joint acan active part of the Sixth Fleet. Included in the news are accounts of gardening, bowling, civic work, studying for an additional degree, and even embroidering.

Each wife submits an article about her various individual endeavor at the business meeting each month. These items are combined with an account of the joint group efforts, like bridges, socials, Presbyterian etc., and brief biographies of the new feminine squadron Circles Plan office holders for the next er, publicity chairman and Monday Sessions other offices.

All this is compiled to make a mimeographed tri-pager entitled "Peacemakers Patter" which is sent not only to the sea-going husbands, but also to the Navy wives who have gone home for the cruise. Cdr. C. W. Meshier, Chief Staff Officer for Hat Wing T. Lawson; Circle 6 - with One, has generously volunteered to co-operate in printing these papers for the wives of VAH-7, as their "getting to know you better" pro-

WEEK TOUR of HOMES ... in the Sanford - Seminole Area

Weekly Tour Of Homes New Herald Feature

A new feature page of real estate in Seminole County and the surrounding area will begin this week in the Herald, Advertising Manager Ed Griswold announced today.

Advertising of both new and notnew homes, for sale and sold will be pictured and described on the feature page, by area builders, realtors and brokers.

Home-hunters are invited to watch for the special page and dealers are invited to place their advertising in this concentrated space, which will include each week, a guided tour of homes of the area in all price categories, in many locations, to suit the needs and desires of the most discriminating home buyer.

Estates, Tee 'N Green Estates and Lake Wayman Heights.

Construction companies and builders whose offerings are highlighted this week on this initial display include Shoemaker Construction Company, Kingswood Builders, Stenstrom Realty and LMN Enterprises.

Newcomers in town, who are unfamiliar with the area, and are considering the purchase of a home will find this page tailor-made for them, as it will furnish contrasting displays of homes in every category.

A cross section of builders and real estate dealers will be featured at various times, Griswold said, with service in homes, groves, acreage, lots, rentals, management, commercial, industrial, farms, and mortgage loan information.

203 CITRUS DRIVE

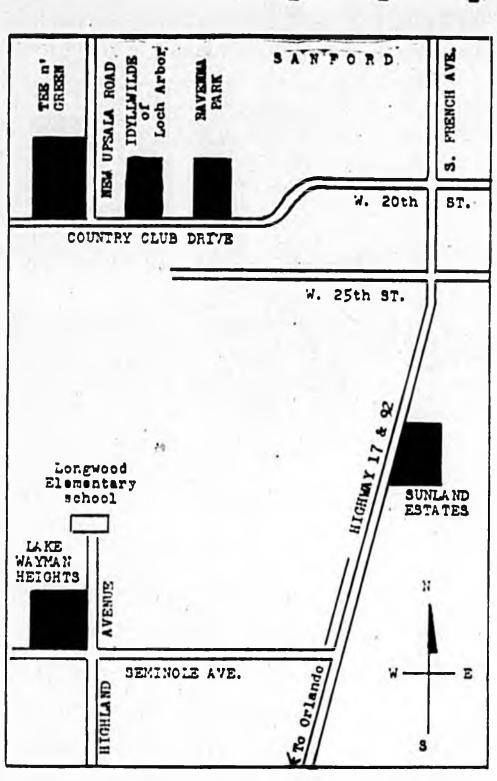

Situated in beautiful Ravenna Park on well landscaped lakefront site, this attractive 3 bedroom, 2 bath home is now available for sale and immediate occupancy. Features include built-in range & wall oven, refrigerator, heating unit, water heater, blinds, traverse rods, & lakeside patio. Price and terms very desirable.
