HAPPY LITTLE FELLAH, HUH?

A clown's life is not all laughs. Herald photographer Ann Riley caught Sherric and Michelle Jordan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jordan of Longwood, with a very solemn expression in spite of the fact they were first prize winners at the Longwood Elementary School Halloween Carnival Saturday.

'Trick-Or-Treaters' Visit Tonight

By GENE KRAMER
Associated Press Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A few million of those shrill voices shouting "trick or treat" at the doorways of America tonight will belong to children unarmed with soap or other Halloween weapons. They'll have only collection boxes for UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund. If refused donations, their strict instructions are to leave politely and commit no vandalism.

By John A. Spolski

Of course this is a Halloween mask I'm wearing... no mother could raise such an ugly duckling! Treat the kids kindly tonight, please. Rather have 'em mess around with soap than grass any day.

A. K. Shoemaker, Jr. proved that he gets up bright and early. Called a little after 7 this morning and "tipped" me that we had a special guest at the Seminole Memorial Hospital. For a fellow who's supposed to be recuperating, the "patient" certainly has a "hot line" in his room. It was around 10:30 a. m. before I could get thru to Jenó Paulucci. Said he was on the mend and hopes he will be out in a short order. (That's a certain bet... with all of his energy — there's no way you can keep him down... or off the phone, come to think of it!) Nice to have you "visiting" here, Jenó.

Wonder what Sanford City Commissioner A. A. McClanahan meant when he said "there are contracts for purchase, either under negotiation or completed, for 70 per cent of the lakefront property."

Understand that the latest contract is for $400 per front foot. Chicken feed... two years ago along SR 436 it was selling for $1,000 a front foot... AND THAT WAS TWO YEARS AGO!

Overheard... The person who tries hardest to keep up with the Joneses is more than likely the bill collector.

Enjoy a round of challenging golf over Deltona's championship 18 hole course, and then relax in the friendly spacious atmosphere of the Country Club - another reason for moving up to Deltona. Pride of ownership adds beauty and charm to the exciting natural attractiveness of Deltona.

McGovern And Shriver Make Nixon Veto An Issue

By R. GREGORY NOKES
Associated Press Writer

Democratic presidential candidate George McGovern and running mate Sargent Shriver sought today to capitalize on President Nixon's veto Monday of two bills to assist the elderly.

"In an effort to obtain the votes of more than 20 million older Americans, Mr. Nixon's TV campaign ad-vertisements are filled with pious promises, most of which are plainly untrue and most of which have been flatly contradicted by this veto," McGovern said.

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, meanwhile, tried to capitalize on a statement by McGovern that he would reserve the right to try to renegotiate a Vietnam peace agreement providing for continued military aid to the present South Vietnamese government.

"After 10 years of blood, sweat and tears the United States is closer than ever before to the honorable peace for which so much national sacrifice has been made. Yet, Mr. McGovern says that he would renegotiate that honorable peace, betray our Viet-name ally and agree to an American surrender," Agnew said in a Monday night radio broadcast.

With only a week remaining in the 1972 campaign, McGovern, Shriver and Agnew all had appearances scheduled today. President Nixon had planned to campaign in Chicago today, but cancelled the trip after a train accident killed 44 persons there on Monday.

McGovern cancelled plans for a torchlight parade with Mayor Richard J. Daley in Chicago on Wednesday because of the tragedy.

City Commission May Give OK To Mobile Home Plant

Rezoning Approval Necessary Before Construction Begins

By DONNA ESTES

Sanford City Commission in workshop session Monday night indicated it will give its stamp of approval to the plans for construction of a mobile home manufacturing facility to locate on the Fleetwood property west of Airport Boulevard.

Construction of the new plant, according to City Manager W. E. Knowles, is to begin Dec. 1. Only hitch in the plan was that the land is currently zoned MH-1 (multiple residential district) while a zoning designation of MI-2 is necessary.

After looking at the zoning map and a determination that a tract with this identical zoning adjoins the Fleetwood property, the commission generally agreed to grant the change.

Official action will have to take place at an official meeting.

The Commission, last night, did call itself into special session to authorize the mayor to apply for an exemption under the Economic Stabilization program to the Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service regarding the 1972-73 city wage schedule.

Salary increases allowed under the wage freeze annually are 5.5 per cent while overall increase average under the city's new budget is 11 to 12 per cent.

During the workshop, the Commissioners discussed at length with Howard McNulty of Florida State Bank the possibility of "swapping" some city property including a portion of the city hall site and the parking facility at First and Park for a bank-owned parcel adjacent to the police station.

McNulty said the additional land is needed by the bank for expansion of parking facilities for employees, tenants and clients of the bank. The bank official also said pointedly that the city has been using the bank property adjacent to the police station to park cars.

The Commission indicated they will have an answer for McNulty in the next few days.

In other business, Commissioner Gordon Meyer asked that City Attorney William Hutchison give an opinion in writing to the board on the legality of the proposed new charter, in the event it is passed, calling for four-year terms for the mayor and commissioners while Mayor Lee P. Moore and Meyer are currently running for three year terms.

Commissioner Julian Stenstrom recommended the proposed charter be changed to require that the commissioner seeking office next year be elected to a three year term. Stenstrom said in this way, the elections would be held every two years for four year terms thereafter.

Constable Is Pistol Whipped!

By GARY TAYLOR

Three men were arrested on multiple counts after District Six Deputy Constable Hal Granberry was beaten with his own gun last night. The incident occurred about 9:30 p. m. at the intersection of Spring Lake Road and Woodling Place in Altamonte Springs.

Earlier, Granberry had stopped Robert Nelson Probst, 26, of 467 Fairview Avenue, Orlando on a traffic violation, while working radar in the area.

Probst accepted the ticket and left. A short time later, Probst and two other men, Frederick Henry Sanford, 34, of 113 Woodling Place, Altamonte Springs and Steven Troy Knouse, 23, of 467 Fairview Avenue, Orlando, returned and confronted Granberry.

The deputy constable was attacked and during the fight one of the subjects took his gun and beat him with it. The three left and Granberry managed to get back to his car to issue an alert for help over the radio.

Deputy Jim Brantley was the first to arrive at the scene, followed closely by Capt. David R. Gunter and Lt. Norman C. Floyd of the Altamonte Springs Police Department.

Gunter and Floyd were familiar with the residence of the suspects, and they went there along with deputies. The three were taken into custody at the house at 113 Woodling Place.

According to Sgt. W. A. Vinton of the sheriff's department Granberry's gun was found buried in a hedge garden at the rear of property at the Sandfort home.

Vinton charged all three suspects with aggravated assault, robbery and larceny of firearms. They were jailed in lieu of $20,000 total bond each. Granberry was taken to Seminole Memorial Hospital, where he was treated for a broken nose, several bruises, facial abrasions and cuts.

What's A Few $$ Among Friends

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Rahmi Capan had fun for a little while showing a million-dollar check to his friends.

But it was all a mistake and Capan has only the $15.95 he wanted.

Capan, a 26-year-old Turkish citizen and student at the University of Tulsa, had written a letter to look again at the amount, she leaped up and said, "Oh my God, you don't want us to give you that much money!"

The Tulsa bank cleared the matter with the Colorado bank and gave Capan the $15.95 he had deposited while working in Colorado last summer.

He said, "They didn't even thank me."

He took it to a Tulsa bank where he has an account and handed it to an employee.

"The woman at the desk said at first that she'd be glad to have it cashed for me," he said.

"She hadn't noticed the '1' in front of the number. When I told her to look again at the amount, she leaped up and said, 'Oh my God, you don't want us to give you that much money!'"

The Tulsa bank cleared the matter with the Colorado bank and gave Capan the $15.95 he had deposited while working in Colorado last summer.

Bruce Predicts High Vote Count

By DONNA ESTES

In final tallies, however, she said.

Twenty-three contests are on the ballot in addition to five constitutional amendments, one county question and a fire control district question.

There are 106 voting machines being readied for the big day and 294 poll workers and 42 deputies completing training to work in the 43 precincts.

Breakdown of the registered voters is 28,338 Democrats (39 per cent); 15,435 Republicans (37 per cent); independents 918 (2.5 per cent) 647 non-partisan and others 34 for 1.4 per cent. The "others" include conservatives, social workers party, American independents and liberal.

A 90 per cent turnout of the 44,371 registered voters in Seminole County is predicted by Supervisor of Elections Camilla Bruce in Tuesday's general election.

"We had an 87.87 per cent turnout once before and I see no reason why we cannot shoot as high this year," she said. Mrs. Bruce also pointed out that her office has issued in excess of 1,700 absentee ballots and expects the final total to be something near 2,000. Some of the absentee ballots will not be returned in time to be included

According to Sheriff Polk, Betty Lou Bridges, who listed her residence as the Twilight Motel, was jailed under a $10,000 bond. She was arrested by Det. # Attorney Rules Tickle Can't Run

By DONNA ESTES
The hopes of a land developer, who currently resides outside the municipality, but indicated his plans to move within the city bounds, to run for a seat on the Longwood City Council were dashed with an opinion from City Attorney S. Joseph Davis Jr.

Earlier, Neal was sentenced to 25 years in prison for armed robbery in Orange County. He was then brought to Seminole County and Judge Dominick Salfi sentenced him for two counts of armed robbery. Salfi meted him 20 years on one Richard Tickle, a partner in the Trim-Trick Development Company, developers of Shadow Hill Subdivision in the northeast regulatory district. Daily bag limits and possession limits remain the same.

QUICK ACTION by the Sanford fire department contained fire damage to only one room of the two-story house at 1011 Oak Avenue yesterday. The fire apparently started in a stuffed chair in one of the downstairs rooms. Jennings Hurt, who lives in the house, returned home about noon and found the fire. The house is owned by Mrs. Rose A. Hurt. According to Chief G. M. Harriett, the fire department received the call at 12:13 p.m. and two engine companies, a ladder truck and a tanker answered the alarm. According to Harriett, there was heat, smoke and water damage throughout the house. Firemen are shown here at the scene, after extinguishing the blaze.

By GEORGE ESPER

SAIGON (AP) — Communist forces made more than 100 attacks across South Vietnam Monday and early today in the sixth successive day of stepped-up activity.

Death Toll High In Train Crash

CHICAGO (AP) — Federal safety officials investigating the commuter train collision which killed 44 persons raised questions today about the strength of the lightweight steel cars used by commuter lines.
In addition to the dead, more than 300 were reported injured Monday when an Illinois Central Gulf Railroad commuter backing into a South Side station was rammed by a second IC electric commuter during the morning rush hour.
Transportation Secretary John Volpe inspected the wreckage in a 40-minute tour. He and Henry Wakeland, director of the department's Bureau of Transportation Safety, said the strength of the lightweight steel and aluminum cars would be studied.
It took six hours to extricate the last of the dead and injured from the crumpled wreckage of two of the cars, which were crushed like empty beer cans.
President Nixon expressed his sorrow and canceled plans for a downtown campaign motorcade.

'Right To Be Heard' Is Charter's Basic Issue

By DONNA ESTES
What first appeared to be a philosophical discussion among the members of the Sanford City Commission Monday afternoon may portend a serious rift between the majority of the governing body and City Manager W. E. (Pete) Knowles.
Intense discussion followed a recommendation from Commissioner Gordon Meyer to change the proposed new charter by substituting a section from the current one concerning the city manager's professional man's reputation and bring embarrassment to the city, Mayor Lee P. Moore suggested subtly that perhaps the majority of the board had been meeting out of the "sunshine."

A statement by Stenstrom in which Knowles name was mentioned specifically indicated the philosophical disagreement may in fact indicate a real problem for the city's manager for 18 years.
Meyer, meanwhile, said the city "in the future" may have an unacceptable manager and the commission might be "reluctant" to submit charges which could be harmful to the person.
Mayor Moore spoke in favor of the new section of the proposed charter insisting it would keep the governing body from "summarily removing" a man simply because the board is temporarily angry with him.

 NEW YORK (AP) — When Keep America Beautiful Inc., the national environmental improvement organization, was organized in 1963, there were no statewide laws concerned with the prevention of litter. Today 35 states have "public-private" organizations affiliated with KAB.

Also, now there are litter-prevention activities and laws against littering in every state.

Gene Mooney works hard and gets results for Seminole County

Facing up to the problems being created in Seminole County by too-rapid growth, Gene Mooney took bold, decisive action and drew up local legislation which will allow the county to control its growth and protect present residents from unfair zoning changes.

Gene Mooney did a good job as a freshman legislator when he slashed red tape and brought on schedule the four-laning of State Road 436. He also helped obtain State assistance for the Seminole Zoo. Now, let's give him a chance to use his experience to do an even better job.

No Fault Insurance Court Fight Threatened

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Florida's auto insurance industry has threatened to go to court to fight proposed no-fault insurance rate cuts which could save the average motorist up to $12 a year.

State Insurance Commissioner Tom O'Malley told 75 firms which sell 90 per cent of all automobile insurance in Florida Monday to lower their bodily injury no-fault rates 11 per cent by Jan. 31.

"We feel this was premature," said Tom Waddell, executive director of the Florida Association of Insurance Companies.

He said Florida has only had a no-fault insurance law for nine months and there was not enough evidence to show that any insurance companies had saved money under it.

Waddell said the cuts called for by O'Malley would mean between $4 and $12 in lower premiums per year for the average motorist.

"This may not seem like a lot," said Waddell, "but when you multiply this by the three or four million insured motorists in Florida, it comes out to quite a sum."

Waddell said increased hospitalization and doctors' costs have eaten up any savings most insurance companies may have realized through no-fault insurance.

He said some of the more than 100 firms represented by his organization "may consider litigation" to keep from putting the rate cuts into effect.

Premises Mitchell, public affairs manager for Allstate Insurance, declined to say whether Allstate would follow O'Malley's order, claiming the matter would have to be turned over to the company's legal division.

"We have not saved any money in Florida under no-fault," he said.

"Insurance companies have the option of not following O'Malley's directive—since he doesn't have the authority to order rate cuts—until he suggested he would make it uncomfortable for any firms that did not voluntarily comply. O'Malley told newspaper firms that did not reduce their rates would be subject to having its entire rate structure reviewed—and possibly rejected—after a full-blown administrative hearing.

He also said he planned to ask the 1973 Legislature to grant him the power to administratively order rate reductions. He said the Massachusetts insurance commissioner, whose state has had no-fault insurance since 1970, has that authority.

O'Malley added that he would ask lawmakers for the power to limit profits insurance firms can make in underwriting policies.

Committee Draws Up Measure For High Court

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The committee drawing up Senate recommendations on a death penalty law is hoping to construct a measure that won't crumble if the U.S. Supreme Court knocks out one section.

"The bill should include a separability clause so the whole bill will not go out if one section is rejected," Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice B. K. Roberts told the Senate Council on Criminal Justice Monday at its inaugural meeting.

The committee was appointed by Senate President Jerry Thomas, D-Jupiter, to draw up death penalty recommendations for a special session of the Legislature beginning Nov. 28.

Chaired by former Gov. Millard Caldwell with Roberts as honorary chairman, it opened business by voting 12-2 to recommend that the death penalty be restored.

Then it approved making execution mandatory for all premeditated murders, with a definition to be in the bill which would require that the premeditation be "fully formed for a substantial period" and not a snap judgment in the heat of passion.

The jury would determine premeditation, the panel said. Earl B. Hallow of Jacksonville, president-elect of the Florida Bar, said he could not vote for that provision because he believed it would be most likely to be overturned by the U.S. Supreme Court.

"Premeditated murder is an area where the jury can discriminate . . . against persons in low social orders," he said.

Roberts replied, "If we include premeditated murder with a severability clause, then if the Supreme Court knocks it out, we will have the other."

Approved by the panel as capital crimes were:

- Intentional or willful killing during robbery, burglary, kidnapping or rape.
- Judge Guyte P. McCord of Tallahassee, chairman of the state Conference of Circuit Judges, said making murder a capital crime when connected with kidnapping or rape would improve the chances of the victim being released alive.

An open letter to other childless couples

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Please print this open letter to friends and relatives of a childless couple.

Dear People: We are in our late thirties and have finally accepted the fact that we cannot have children. It's due to a medical problem one of us has (and please don't ask which one, or what kind, because it's none of your business).

Don't tell us "to never give up hope." It would be better if we did, so that is what we are doing. Don't suggest we take in foster children. Have you ever known the heartache of having to give up a child you've grown to love like your own? Well, we have. And we'll never do it again.

Don't suggest adoption. Where we live you need $700 just to start proceedings. And you have to be buying or building your own home, have an excellent credit rating and money in the bank. Then there is the chance that the child will be taken from you during the first year before the final papers are signed.

Also don't say, "You don't have any children? Gee, you're lucky, we have four you can have." Or, "Boy, you're smart. If we could live our lives over we wouldn't have any."

Some people are too stupid for words. "CHILDLESS AND SICK OF QUESTIONS" DEAR CHILDLESS: You may not speak for all childless couples, but I'll wager a good number of them are on your wave length.

DEAR ABBY: How do you tell a 38-year-old single woman to change her clothes and use some deodorant, or some kind of fragrance to mask the odor? For the last year she has worn TWO soiled pants suits to work, and would you believe, we have not seen her in a dress for two years?

DEAR POLLY: I have a lovely floor lamp that belonged to my mother, which is nicer than any I could buy. I want to keep it forever. The lamp is an expensive make and supposed to be solid brass, but now black appears where it is touched most. I cannot tell if the metal is discolored or if the brass is flaking off. I wonder if anyone can tell me how to refinish this, retard the flaking or whatever—MRS. J. C.

DEAR POLLY—My Pointers are for Emma who has so many leftover wooden thread spools. She has a little "ple" who need something for roasting marshmallows, in an emergency situation, can use a wire coat hanger straightened out into a dowel-like piece of wood. She has about four inches into a hairpin shape and find the spools will make a great handle by merely threading the spool centers over the hairpin end. The spools will remain in place because of the double thickness of wood and the wooden handle is fantastic for keeping one's hands from being burned by the heated wire. Three or four small spools threaded onto a section of coat hanger wire can make a wooden handle you may like to have an aid when carrying heavy packages bound with tape, twine, etc. Remember, when the stores used to give us such handles for carrying a box home? Since these seem to be a thing of the past make some of your own and save your hands—JANET

DEAR POLLY and Emma—Eight plastic thread spools (wooden ones could be used) form four legs to make an extra shelf in my spice cabinet. Each set of two was glued together to avoid slipping. If a higher shelf is needed use three. The shelf itself is a glass one from an old medicine cabinet, but a piece of wood could serve the same purpose. Another shelf from the same cabinet and an extra shelf in my curio cabinet after the spools were spray painted—JUNE

PROBLEMS? Trust Abby. For a personal reply, write to ABBY, BOX 499, L. A., CALIF. 90009 and enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

Don't tell us "to never give up hope." It would be better if we did, so that is what we are doing. Don't suggest we take in foster children. Have you ever known the heartache of having to give up a child you've grown to love like your own? Well, we have. And we'll never do it again.

Don't suggest adoption. Where we live you need $700 just to start proceedings. And you have to be buying or building your own home, have an excellent credit rating and money in the bank. Then there is the chance that the child will be taken from you during the first year before the final papers are signed.

Also don't say, "You don't have any children? Gee, you're lucky, we have four you can have." Or, "Boy, you're smart. If we could live our lives over we wouldn't have any."

Some people are too stupid for words. "CHILDLESS AND SICK OF QUESTIONS" DEAR CHILDLESS: You may not speak for all childless couples, but I'll wager a good number of them are on your wave length.

DEAR ABBY: How do you tell a 38-year-old single woman to change her clothes and use some deodorant, or some kind of fragrance to mask the odor? For the last year she has worn TWO soiled pants suits to work, and would you believe, we have not seen her in a dress for two years?

DEAR POLLY: I have a lovely floor lamp that belonged to my mother, which is nicer than any I could buy. I want to keep it forever. The lamp is an expensive make and supposed to be solid brass, but now black appears where it is touched most. I cannot tell if the metal is discolored or if the brass is flaking off. I wonder if anyone can tell me how to refinish this, retard the flaking or whatever—MRS. J. C.

DEAR POLLY—My Pointers are for Emma who has so many leftover wooden thread spools. She has a little "ple" who need something for roasting marshmallows, in an emergency situation, can use a wire coat hanger straightened out into a dowel-like piece of wood. She has about four inches into a hairpin shape and find the spools will make a great handle by merely threading the spool centers over the hairpin end. The spools will remain in place because of the double thickness of wood and the wooden handle is fantastic for keeping one's hands from being burned by the heated wire. Three or four small spools threaded onto a section of coat hanger wire can make a wooden handle you may like to have an aid when carrying heavy packages bound with tape, twine, etc. Remember, when the stores used to give us such handles for carrying a box home? Since these seem to be a thing of the past make some of your own and save your hands—JANET

DEAR POLLY and Emma—Eight plastic thread spools (wooden ones could be used) form four legs to make an extra shelf in my spice cabinet. Each set of two was glued together to avoid slipping. If a higher shelf is needed use three. The shelf itself is a glass one from an old medicine cabinet, but a piece of wood could serve the same purpose. Another shelf from the same cabinet and an extra shelf in my curio cabinet after the spools were spray painted—JUNE

Campaign Issues

More Than We Can Remember

By DON McLEOD
AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—After almost two years of campaigning on more issues than most voters can remember, the ultimate issue of the 1972 presidential election has become the candidates themselves.

In the closing days of the campaign, the camps of Richard Nixon and George McGovern, and the electorate, are talking mainly about the personalities, characters and styles of the candidates.

The overriding questions on which judgment is asked Nov. 7 are: —Is Sen. McGovern the radical, the irresponsible that President Nixon's legion of stand-ins has tried to picture him?

—Is the current administration the most corrupt in the nation's history with Nixon knowingly responsible for it, as McGovern says?

Going into the final 10 days of the campaign, Democratic vice-presidential nominee Sargent Shriver said last weekend that the Nixon administration represents "government of the greedy, for the greedy and by the greedy."

And Nixon, on the same day, said "this is no time to experiment with chancy economic theories."

These are the themes on which the two tickets chose to close the campaign, and most other issues fall in line behind them.

When McGovern announced as a candidate in January of 1971, the Vietnam war was his big issue. By July he was displaying a "K" emphasis on the economy. On Oct. 10 he chose the war as the leadoff topic for a series of television speeches.

Now, with announcement of an impending settlement in Vietnam, McGovern is alleging corruption and favoritism, political espionage and sabotage by the administration.

While McGovern was preparing for the primaries, Nixon was largely on the defensive and unable to develop issues of his own. He defended his spending policy and his economic plan.

The announcement in August 1971 of a wage-price freeze, followed by control boards, gave the administration a sense of offense on one count; the current peace-pact reports have done the same on the war issue.

The "corruption" issue began to emerge when columnist Jack Anderson wrote last February that International Telephone & Telegraph Co. had won a favorable antitrust settlement from the Nixon administration after promising money to help finance the Republican National Convention. The administration denied any deal.

Then in June, five men, including the security chief for Nixon's campaign, were arrested at a point during a break-in at Democratic party headquarters in Washington's Watergate complex.

Nixon's issue was handed to him in early summer when McGovern was beginning to break through in the Democratic primaries as the favorite for the party's nomination. When the other contenders tried to derail him in the late primaries, they sought to picture the stands which had won him a following as extreme, from the war to the economy.

Disney Title Lost

I never thought I'd have to give up my Walt Disney World golf title. But I was defeated in my bid for a second straight crown, and struck down by women's lib, at that.

Don't get me wrong, the title has nothing what-so-ever to do with being a good golfer. Actually, it represents high gross for the annual press tournament.

Two New Victims

So Roger and I had new victims in the foursome this year. Jay Bennett, sports editor of the Titusville Star-Advocate and Jim Rifenberg, sports editor of the Melbourne Times, joined us in murdering the course.

Now Rifenberg and Bennett aren't too bad at the game, but the Walt Disney World course is a challenge for everyone, no matter how good they are.

Prize Winners

Andrea Kirby, sports director of Channel 40 in Sarasota, grabbed my title with a score somewhere over 100. I always wondered why people would want to spend so much money for a pocket calculator, but I decided it would be a good investment for Andrea or me.

Getting down to the more serious prizes, Ed Haver of the Clearwater Sun took low gross and Bill Robinson of the St. Petersburg Independent captured low net.

Course Is Tougher

I was disappointed when I had a higher score than last year. I felt there was no excuse for this, but Charles Ridgeway, of WDW Publicity, explained why during a luncheon after the tournament.

The course was lengthened by about 300 yards, and some of the easy holes were made more difficult. Funny, I played last year and I didn't find an easy hole out there.

Looking For Ball

I understand that CASH, with the aid of a ball retriever, spent more time looking for balls than playing golf. You wouldn't believe the water and woods that lure the balls.

Amazing, I only lost three balls in the water. But believe me, I hit a lot more than that in, I just managed to get some of them back.

Gilmore had a shocking experience while searching for stray balls. He had gathered about six from the edge of a pond when he reached down to grab one and almost caught an alligator. He was under three feet long, but I'll bet he looked as mean as a 10-footer to Roger.

Parkers Have Lock On Metro Crown

By HEIKY CUSH
Herald Sports Writer

The race is just about over in the Metro Conference for all practical purposes. There are still a few games to be played but from all indications the unbeaten Wildcats from Winter Park have wrapped up their second straight Metro title.

Larry Gerigley's Wildcats clinched a tie for the title last week but they did not do it alone. They had some help, and surprise help at that, from both the Pioneers of Oak Ridge and the unpredictable Greyhounds of Lyman.

While the 'Cats were taking care of the Grenadiers of Colonial the Pioneers were stunning Edgewater, 7-6 and Lyman was rolling past the Trojans of Evans by 20-7.

Sonny's Future Clouded

WASHINGTON (AP)—Billy Kilmer has stepped into the Washington Redskins' job of No. 1 quarterback for the second straight year following injuries to Sonny Jurgensen.

"I feel bad for Sonny, honest to God," Kilmer said. "I didn't want the job this way."

Jurgensen, the National Football League's top career passer, was lost for the season when he underwent surgery Monday to repair a ruptured Achilles tendon heel cord.

Dr. P. M. Palumbo Jr., the team physician who performed the one-hour, 45-minute operation, said the injury was "fairly extensive. I had to sew the ends together."

The 38-year-old Jurgensen was injured in the first period of Sunday's 23-16 victory over the New York Giants. He had just thrown his first pass of the game, a 13-yard completion to Roy Jefferson, when he crumpled to the ground. "I just seemed to slip," Jurgensen said.

"It felt as if somebody kicked me in the heel, yet nobody was close to me."

A Washington doctor said he knew the extent of Jurgensen's injury as soon as it happened.

"He looked down and back like he thought somebody kicked him," the doctor said. "The same thing has happened to squash players, tennis players, soccer players and skiers. They all look back to see who did it when it happens."

Several orthopedic surgeons agreed that age was one cause of the injury.

"Our connective tissue gets brittle with age, no matter what kind of physical condition we're in," a Georgetown University doctor said. "Jurgensen's injury sounds like a classic example of an aging athlete whose legs were suffering from battle fatigue."

Dr. Palumbo said the quarterback's left foot will be a cast for 10 to 12 weeks, followed by rehabilitation for two or three months.

"We are optimistic about his coming back next year," he said.

surprise, the Lyman win or the Oak Ridge victory, it not really known. After all, the Pioneers have been making a habit out of beating Edgewater (they've done it for the last four years) and the Hounds have displayed the potential of playing a tough game of ball.

But whatever the case the Wildcats should be eternally grateful for the effort put forth by the Hounds and Pioneers, without which the 'Cats may have had to work an extra week.

There is still a slim chance the Wildcats may encounter some difficulty the rest of the way since they must battle both of the "spoilers" in their final games. This week it's Oak Ridge coming to Showalter for a rematch with the 'Cats. And the season finale for the 'Cats is against Lyman. Of course the charges of Gerigley will have the home field advantage against both of these upset minded teams.

The victory by the Greyhounds improved their season record to 4-3 on the year. They have a non-conference clash coming up this Friday night but it will be a tougher nevertheless. For on the schedule this week are the always dangerous Seminoles of Sanford. Last year these two clubs battled to a 28-28 stalemate in Sanford Stadium.

Perhaps the top game in the conference this week, other than the clash between Winter Park and Oak Ridge, is the meeting which pits the Edgewater Eagles and Colonial Grenadiers. Both teams have lost their last two starts in close decisions. The Edgewater defeats could not get any closer, 14-13 to the Parkers and 7-6 to the Pioneers. Colonial appears to have the more potent offense and this one is on the Grenadiers' home field. But the tough Eagle defense, which has

A PAIR OF players fight for position on a pass during Friday night's action at the Sanford Municipal Stadium. Bishop Moore stopped the Seminoles 15-6 in this game. On tap this week is the renewal of an annual rivalry between the Seminoles and the Lyman Greyhounds.

Japan Baseball Team Competes In Florida

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—The Japanese team bears a close resemblance to American uniforms, caps and spikes, Japan's star baseball players look a lot like American major leaguers.

Until they balk at an umpire's decision with a smile instead of a growl.

"That's the way they show the ump they think he made a bad call," said former American ball player Bob Aspromonte, who is coaching a Japanese team competing in U.S. winter league play.

"They don't usually squawk and yell and carry on. They just turn around and give him a big smile. The ump gets the message."

Japan's major league baseball team, Hiroshima Toyo Carp, is playing in the Florida Instructional League this fall on the Sunshine State's Gulf Coast. They are 2-3 in a 25-game schedule that runs through mid-November.

Through an interpreter, one of the team officials explained Japan's big problem is developing young players. "We have many rookies with us, only 10 regulars from the major league team and we hope they'll benefit from playing your teams," the official said.

Aspromonte, a retired third baseman who spent 14 years with the New York Mets and Houston Astros, is coaching the Toyo Carp. He's the only American connected with the club.

"They're great pupils," he says. "Everything you say is golden and they work extremely hard."

American ball players can learn from them, he said. "They have so much dedication for the game. In fact, too much. They'll work out for four hours before a game starts and burn themselves out."

Van Breda Kolff Fired

Colangelo Back In Coaching

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — For the second time in two years, general manager Jerry Colangelo has taken over the coaching reins of the Phoenix Suns of the National Basketball Association.

Colangelo, 32, announced late Monday that he had fired Bill Van Breda Kolff as coach. The night before the Suns had lost 133-123 to Los Angeles, putting their record at 3-4.

Colangelo said he had discussed the matter with several players and intended to have "a talk with them today after practice."

He said Van Breda Kolff was on a one-year contract and knew that he had to produce to stay.

It was the second NBA firing within three days. Detroit Pistons Coach Earl Lloyd was replaced by Ray Scott on Saturday.

She has worked with the school's football and soccer teams, as well as with women's field hockey. She dates one of the soccer players.

"The guys, they felt strange at the beginning like I did... but now I'm just one of the crowd," she explained.

"I could see how they felt in the beginning," she said. "They didn't know if I was any good or not. As the word got around, they started to come out and see me every day the line got longer at my table. You could really see the difference from the beginning to the end. They would even ask for me."

Things they ask for include taping and first aid treatments. She also keeps an eye out for player safety. "If there's a hole in the field," she said, you tell somebody to fill it in."

Linda, with one brother who is seven years older, "kind of hated to go back to women after working with the football team."

The "variety" of injuries is one of the reasons, she said. An interest in things medical, plus love of athletics, added up to her decision to become a trainer.

The guys seem to like the arrangement well, she said. "Maybe I tend to give them a little more tender loving care."

LPGA's Top 10 To Show At Lady Errol Classic

By HERKY CUSH Herald Sports Writer

Central Florida has the distinction of having the final stops on both the Ladies' PGA and men's PGA tour at the same time. The Lady Errol Classic could determine the order of finish for those spots second through fifth.

The Lady Errol Golf Classic, the first such event, will be the final tournament for the members of the LPGA. It promises to be one tremendous event with many of the top women professionals having been committed to the tourney which will be held at the Errol Estate Inn and Country Club course in Apopka.

Every one of the top 20 women on the tour at the present have consented to play in this year's Lady Errol Classic. "We have verbal commitments from every one of the top 20 money winners on this year's tour," said Tournament Chairman Joan Mann. Sandra Palmer, Marilyn Smith and Marlene Hagge, who happen to be the top 10 leaders at present.

Another of those who have agreed to play in the Lady Errol Classic is Jo Anne Prentice who captured the $5,000 first prize in the Corpus Christi Ladies PGA Civitan Open yesterday with a playoff victory over Sandra Palmer.

Miss Prentice and Miss Palmer had been tied with four money leader Miss Whitworth at the end of regulation play. Miss Whitworth was eliminated on the third extra hole and then Miss Prentice won it all with a birdie on the 10th hole Monday afternoon.

The trio had all finished with three round totals of 210. The scores for the Lady Errol Classic are not expected to be that low. Tournament officials are forecasting scores in the low 70's but do not expect the ladies to get into the 60's. The course has been playing long and this should prove quite a challenge to the pros.

Miss Whitworth is the LPGA all-time money winner and has placed by Ray Scott on Saturday.

MIKE MILLSAPS of Jacksonville Ribault approaches the finish line during the 14-team cross country meet hosted by Sanford Naval Academy last Friday afternoon. Millsaps was second individually and his team was also second. Flash Bertol set a new course record in pacing his Mt. Dora Bible team to first place in the event for the second consecutive year.

Jacksonville Netters Defeat Florida Tech

Florida Tech's tennis team had its season record "leveled" last night in their trip to Jacksonville where they lost a 2-3 decision to a tough crew of Dolphins. The teams were using the Van Allen scoring system.

The Dolphins won eight of the nine matches, losing only the number one doubles match to Florida Tech's brilliant duo of Octavia Piva and Mike DeZeew. The teams were using the Van Allen scoring system.

Tech's lone moment saw Piva, the freshman from Brazil and DeZeew, the South African sophomore win handily over JU's Bill Scabo and Steve Maier, 31-20 and 31-20.

Piva lost his singles match to JU's Dip Dankleman by scores of 31-20 and 31-28. The first set could have gone either way with Jacksonville's best taking the nine point playoff.

DeZeew played three sets with Scabo in the number two singles slot. After losing to Scabo by a 31-30 score DeZeew came back to win the next set by the same score. And the deciding set found the same score going Scabo's way.

In the number three singles FTU's Craig Linton lost a pair of tough sets to the Dolphins' Joe Cohen. Both sets were decided by 31-28 scores. The

It was a fine finish for the Seminole JC runners, which completed this season's State level competition. Since they placed in the top ten, both qualified to compete in the National Junior College Meet to be held in Pensacola in two weeks.

The top 25 finishers in the National meet receive special recognition by gaining an All-America status as athletes.

Morton Satisfied, Lives With Booning

DALLAS (AP) — "Let 'em boon," said a satisfied Craig Morton. "When I'm throwing touchdowns and the Dallas Cowboys are winning, I can live without the cheers."

The longtime No. 1 whipping boy when pro football fortunes wilted here, Morton passed for three scores Monday night and set up a fourth in a 28-24 win over the Detroit Lions.

"Sure, I heard them boo when I was introduced," said the 29-year-old Morton. "It's a free country. I'm not telling them who to vote for... and I'm not telling 'em who to applaud."

Roger Staubach, engineer of Dallas' world championship of 1971, is healed from his pre-season shoulder separation. He's ready to play, hungry for a comeback. But, Morton has the job and won't let go.

"As long as Roger stays in competition, there will be Staubach fans and Morton fans," said the 6-foot-6 Californian.

Morton was a point machine, heaving a 38-yard touchdown bomb to Billy Parks, one of 33 yards to Calvin Hill and a 15-yarder to heretofore unknown running back Mike Montgomery.

A 27-yard screen from Morton to Montgomery set up a one-yard touchdown smash by the second-year man, who came from San Diego in the deal for the controversial, inkalative, idle Duane Thomas.

Dallas, 5-2, pulled within a game of Washington's Redskins in the National Conference East while Detroit plunged back into a tie at 4-3 with Green Bay in the NFC Central.

Morton was 11 of 19 for 206 yards in a game where Coach Tom Landry's articulate plan was to control the ball and pass less than 20 times.

"Detroit is better on offense than defense," said Morton. "So we tried to play keepaway."

Joe Schmidt, the tough ex-linebacker who coaches the Lions, said Dallas' 14 quick points put Detroit in a hole from which it couldn't dig. "We're still tied," he said. "I still think we can win it."

Dallas beched its two 800,000-year wide receivers, Bob Hayes and Lance Alworth didn't unlimber until the final

Longwood Council Actions

By DONNA ESTES

The entranceway to the proposed Skylark Subdivision from U. S. 17-82 will have paving underway within a week, a principal in CAM Construction Company assured the City Council.

Wade Hardigan, president of CAM, said papers are in order increasing the 40-foot right of way from 17-82 through the gun club property and a right-of-way has been dedicated around the lake on the Seary property.

An agreement is to be executed between the developers and the city assuring the entranceway. The Council, after Hardigan's report, agreed to adopt in first reading an ordinance of annexation for the Seary tract. Second and final reading of the ordinance is to be held in abeyance until the agreement is executed.

If the city desires control of the entranceway, City Attorney S. Joseph Davis Jr. recommended officials approach the county for permission for the annexation.

Rate Raise Threatened

The controversial ordinance to raise water rates in the city is going to rear its head again. Mayor Kenneth Brown told the Council the water rates as outlined in the ordinance are exactly as presented to the federal government.

Councilman E. E. Williamson and Agnes Weber said they will meet with Attorney Davis to work on the modifications in the ordinance in the next few days. The rates, as originally outlined in the proposed ordinance, will raise rates as much as 60 per cent in some instances.

It's A Small World

Winners in the "name the mini-park" contest held at Longwood Elementary School were announced.

Names of the three parks located near the cemetery, on Church Street and Wayman Street are to be "Small World," suggested by Dennis Bixler; "Peppercorn Park," Gwen Silver and "Candyland," Michael Cotton. All the students are fourth graders at the school.

Councilman Dick Crenshaw, prime mover in the effort to build the children's parks, said the three youngsters will be present at special dedication ceremonies to be held at the parks in the next future.

Tract To Be Annexed

City Attorney S. Joseph Davis Jr. was instructed to prepare an ordinance of annexation for the tract of land bounded by U. S. 17-82, Orange Avenue and Highland Avenue. The tract to be developed by CAM Construction Company is to be zoned, at the owner's request, commercial and residential.

The parcel has 400 feet frontage on 17-82; 980 feet on Orange Avenue and 250 on Highland. Wade Hardigan, a principal in the company, said the commercially zoned lands will be used for sites for commercial and office buildings.

Plan Sought

Thirty days has been given to City Supt. Ralph Fisher to complete work on an as-built plan of the city's water system.

Councilman William Kinsky suggested the deadline to encourage Fisher to complete the plan. Mayor Brown said the request for the as-built plan was the "2700th one made" and hopefully it will be complied with now.

Councilman E. E. Williamson opposed the deadline, pointing out the superintendent cannot be in two places at the same time and has been already given numerous tasks to accomplish.

'Ghost Train' Offers Thrills

DeBary Players will present "Ghost Train," written by Arthur Ridley, on Thursday and Friday, November 9 and 10, at the DeBary Community Center, on Shell Road, 8 p.m. Curtain. This is the first play for Season Ticket holders.

"Ghost Train" has everything to make for an exciting, enjoyable evening at the theater. Love and Laughter, Surprise and Suspense, and a variety of characterizations bring to life this contemporary mystery in three acts.

The title gives you a clue of the plot, and the action takes place on Friday the 13th, in the waiting room of the Railway Station at Clear Lake Junction, on a branch line near Jacksonville, Maine. Sounds and lights help create the illusion, making the audience feel that they, too, are waiting for the next train, along with a motley group of characters who have been stranded because Yeddie, the silly Englishman, played by Dave Trof, of DeBary, has pulled the emergency cord on their train, and they have missed their connection.

Saul, the Station Master, played by Dave Bartels, of DeBary, assures the group that "there ain't no next train." And there is no transportation to get them to the nearest town, so they will be forced to make the best of it until the next morning.

Before Saul departs on his motorcycle, he tells the assembled crowd about the ghost train, and what has happened years before—a tale that makes them all shiver.

Especially charmed by this turn of events, are the honeymoon couple, played by Scott Burgard and Donna Breitengrass, of Deltona.

"Decision Day" Is Only One Week Away

One week to go! The general elections which will take place next Tuesday are of a nature which will stretch the ability of the voters to understand, interpret and decide to the utmost.

Even for a presidential election year this has been and continues to be unique. How unique it can be seen from the decisions of two widely different but equally important American personages.

One is George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO who decided some months ago to sit this one out. He will vote for neither President Nixon nor the Democratic nominee Senator George McGovern of South Dakota.

To have the powerful and prestigious labor leader, who only a year or so ago was urging the defeat of Republican Nixon as a first duty of the labor movement, assume this posture this year and to refuse to back the Democratic nominee, normally a labor favorite, is eye-opening.

But the announcement in the Miami Herald by John S. Knight in his weekly "notebook" that he could not, in good conscience, vote for either Republican Nixon or Democrat McGovern is a decision of portentous import.

This is the way he put it: "Speaking as one individual, I cannot vote for George McGovern, and mostly because I think his election would place shackles on our competitive system."

"But neither, for that matter, will I vote for President Nixon because I am outraged by this administration's abdication of moral principles."

If such as these find it hard to make a judgment on the presidential race, the great majority of voters do not seem to be laboring under this handicap.

Indeed the presidential race has so overshadowed the others that the obvious danger is that the very real and very important choices that voters must finally make next week in the congressional balloting will be given step-child treatment.

For a single factor which must be recognized by all is that the re-election of President Nixon, which now seems likely, automatically brings the contests for the senatorial and house seats into more than the usual importance.

The Republicans, quite naturally, are bending every effort and spending large sums out of their bulging war chests to bring about the election of enough Republicans to give the Republican president a legislature which would not be opposing further extension of the power of the presidency.

While bestowing no laurels on the Democratic Congresses which have watched, almost silently, the erosion of the legislature's powers under the strong presidencies of recent years, it is obvious that a strong Democratic Congress will be needed to meet a Nixon move to expand his already historic use of presidential powers.

Here in Florida there is the opportunity to not only keep in Congress the Democratic representatives that are seeking re-election but to add to the number as the newly formed

A Pageantry Of Season-Memories

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Memories are like the seasons of the year. They are recurrent miracles and each has its own pageantry.

The more memories you have to summon up on the days when your heart needs a little cheer, the more fortunate your life has been.

You've been exposed to a lot of living yourself if you can look back and remember when —

A jewelry store always kept in the window a clock that had been wound up and told you the right time.

It was considered indecate to speak of your glands in mixed company.

A jewelry store always kept in the window a clock that had been wound up and told you the right time.

It was so unusual for anyone to drink anything except straight whisky that when anyone ordered a Martini he next a barful of sneers, and the bartender would tell his wife later when he got home, "I don't know what the world's coming to."

Men who chewed tobacco or smoked cigars looked down on younger men who smoked cigarettes as weaklings or worse.

No woman who valued her reputation would think of going out in public unless she was firmly girdled by the sanctuary of a light-fitting corset.

The only thing most people districts enjoy key Democratic nominees to send to Washington.

With the polls continuing to report large Nixon support, despite some percentage changes for McGovern, there is a good deal of GOP "coattailing" going on. This is a betrayal of proper political campaigning and those who practice it insult the intelligence of the voters.

U.S. Backs Away, Asia Rule Hardens

By RAY CROMLEY

In the past number of months four governments in Eastern and Southeast Asia have sharply curtailed Democratic processes—Thailand, South Korea, the Philippines and South Vietnam.

The question now being discussed with great seriousness and urgency within the administration is how much in fact did President Nixon's visit to Mao Tse-tung in Peking and the new Nixon Doctrine, which calls for a lowered U.S. "profile" in the Far East and elsewhere, unintentionally contribute to these four shifts away from democratic government and how can this trend from democracy be reversed.

Thus far, the experts have no solution.

In each of the countries mentioned above, the head of state has limited the operation of the constitution. All said or implied the suspension of rights was temporary, but in three out of the four cases the rulers said or implied that important permanent changes would have to be made in the constitutions themselves.

The changes being prepared seem almost certain to make it legal for incumbent governments to hold office for a longer period, the exception could be the government of President Thieu in Vietnam, but that is not at all certain.

In each case, the ruling group said that the steps suspending parts of the constitution were necessary to meet the threat of a restless Communist neighbor and/or growing underground guerrilla strength aided from abroad.

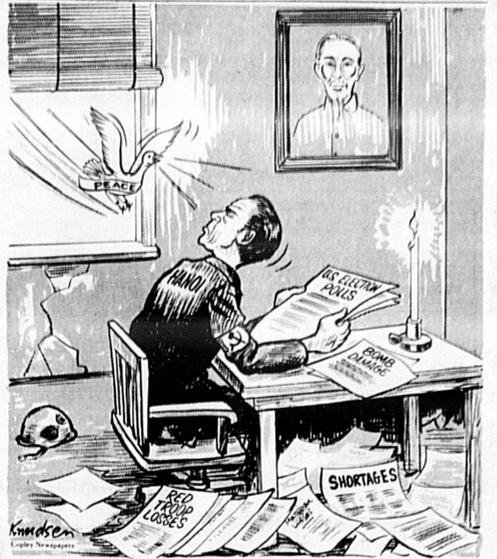

Several of the ruling groups have told their contacts privately that because of the new U.S. relations with China, the gradual withdrawal of the U.S. military forces from Asia and the lessening of U.S. political influence in the Far East, a greater concentration of domestic power and greater control over internal dissent was necessary to maintain independence.

In each of the four countries, the counter-accusation has been made that the suspending of some constitutional rights was intended above all to enable the ruling groups to maintain themselves in power. The political opposition, of course, has a vested interest in making such accusations. But it should be noted that the major opposition comes from anti-Communist groups within these groups.

But they do believe, nevertheless, that these recent suspend and change the constitution steps may stimulate dissent rather than unify the people, and thus facilitate Communist inroads.

It should be noted that the counter-guerrilla experts mentioned above are all strongly anti-Communist. Each has recognized the need, at one time or another, for domestic men such as Rhee in Korea and Diem in Vietnam in the old days.

But the feeling among these men today is that the Asian countries concerned and their people are passing out of the stage when they will rally around a "strong man" unless at the same time he convinces a sizable percentage of the populace that serious leadership is an important measure of self-government will come to them in the foreseeable future.

By RAY McHUGH Copley News Service

ATLANTA — For the first time since 1944 it looks like the "Solid South" again, but it isn't the way the Democrats planned it.

Unless every political indicator is out of kilter, President Nixon will sweep the Old Confederacy into the Republican column on Nov. 7.

In courthouses and statehouses from Virginia to Tennessee the story is the same: Nixon, the Republican seems headed for record pluralities while state and local Democrats struggle to snip off the "coattail" effect on offices that never have been in GOP hands.

National attention election night will center on Georgia, Alabama and North Carolina where Republicans are making determined efforts to capture Senate seats that have been Democratic since before the Civil War.

Alabama's Democratic-dominated state Legislature has pushed the presidential contest to the bottom of the state's Nov. 7 ballot, hoping this will encourage voters to split their tickets. This in itself is a major political upheaval in that state.

The Sparkman-Blount choice tops the Alabama Ballot.

The Texas Democratic-dominated Legislature has ordered three separate ballots, one just for the presidency.

That tactic could help Democrat Barefoot Sanders in his bid to unseat two-term Republican Sen. John Tower. Sanders is a protégé of former President Lydon Johnson and former Gov. John Connolly who heads the Democrats for Nixon movement. Although Sanders and Mexican-

Americans who have backed Tower in other years, continues to lead in Texas polls.

Republicans appear to have an excellent chance of winning Senate seat in Georgia. Rep. Fletcher Thompson is rated ahead of State Sen. Sam Nunn, the man who upset Sen. Edward Gambrell in Georgia's Democratic primary.

Gambrell was appointed to the Senate on the death of Sen. Richard Russell in 1971.

Thompson's power base is modern, moderate, racially-balanced Atlanta. Nunn's strength lies in rural counties. Colorful Lt. Gov. Lester Maddox says he thinks Thompson will win. Young Gov. Jimmy Carter, who caught many Democrats' eye at the Miami Beach convention, says he thinks Nunn has closed the gap and will pull ahead in the closing days of the campaign.

"I think it's unfair for President Nixon to remain aloof from day-to-day campaigning, and let Senator McGovern make ALL the mistakes!"

SALES MANAGER Jerry Clark (right) takes an order over the phone while counter man Randy Cooper looks to see if the parts are available. These are two of the people waiting to serve you at Action Auto Parts in Longwood.

At Action Auto Parts Service Is Assured

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI

We have been telling you about John Zabel and his Action Auto Parts operation for some time now. Aren't you glad we did? Well, we are going to tell those new folks who have come to Seminole County to live that Action Auto Parts, located on Highway 17-92 in Longwood, is the best place to go for the best and guaranteed parts in the county.

If you are in a hurry to get your car repaired or renovated, then Action Auto is the place to go.

If you want to be unquestionably assured that only quality merchandise is used for the work on your car, then Action Auto is the place to go.

If you want to be positively sure that only well trained mechanics handle the work on your car, then Action Auto is the place to go.

If you want to get parts or work done on your car at a price that is reasonable and fair, then Action Auto is the place to go.

John Zabel and his service manager, Jerry Clark as well as the other employees know that business from one end to the other. They have had long years of experience and they know what and how to do the job you need to have done.

We hope you do realize that Action Auto Parts, as large as it is, is not a junk yard, (you know he has 25 acres behind that fence which contains an immense supply of quality vehicles with parts of excellent quality to fit your needs.)

He also has a direct telephone hookup with 150 of the largest salvage yards in the southeast United States. This hookup makes it possible for Zabel and Clark to acquire the needed items within a day or two, thus providing a service unavailable in other areas.

Clark told us that in most cases, one day service is possible. He deals in all kinds of cars, carries a complete line of late model cars, stripped down, providing a complete selection of parts, mechanical and sheet metal for late model car needs.

Action Auto is a one-stop service area—there is absolutely no need to go jumping around from one dealer to another looking for what you need—just get on down to Action Auto—he already has it or can get it for you in a jiffy.

Financing is available through Master Charge, BankAmericard or personal check or good old American cash, so don't worry—anyway, his prices are so reasonable, you won't believe it.

So we remind you newcomers to the area and to you old timers, if you have a car problem and need parts, Action Auto on 17-92 in Longwood is the best place to go, for satisfaction. Just ask our friends, Jerry Zabel or Jerry Clark—they will tell you the same thing.

Forget Work-Day-World Plan Ocean Itinerary

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI

How would you like to desert the accustomed routines of your work-a-day world for the hospitality of one of several ocean-going ships which are part of the service group sponsored at Sun Travel Agency in Sanford.

May we suggest that you plan to forget the cares of this atomic age in the exciting prospect of making new friends and absorbing the fascinating parade of the blue-green paradise which is the Caribbean. Or perhaps you are interested in exploring the European markets, or Asia or Greece. Wherever it is, Ethel Drake, expert travel agent at Sun Travel, can plan an itinerary for you that will make a perfect trip possible.

If you have only a short time, there are several ships which can transport you to your three or four, or perhaps even a seven-day holiday to Freeport and the Bahamas. The M-V Freeport is one ship which we believe you will truly enjoy. Completely air-conditioned and stabilized so even the most finicky of stomachs will not succumb to the ocean waves. The food and entertainment is fantastic—the entertainment lively and fun-filled and the personnel are so eager to please you that you think you must be dreaming.

For elegance without extravagance, you might want to sail the royal Caribbean on one of the seven or 14 day cruises aboard the MS Song of Norway, M-S Nordic Prince, or M-S Sun Viking. You will feel like you are on one of the floating palaces of the Royal Caribbean. And it's all yours. A refreshing pool and soothing saunas to bathe in. A duty-free arcade to shop in, and deck chairs with sea breezes to relax in after you have feasted on the sumptuous fare in one of the elegant dining rooms.

And there is something very new, very exciting, in the future plans for tours at Sun Travel Agency.

Ethel tells us that very soon there will be cruise-car-liner service to Mexico from Miami! This is a new concept in vacation cruising—it's what America-on-wheels has been demanding.

Commodore Cruise Line is pioneering the new route with a sleek car-carrying ship—the M-S Bolero. It will carry 500 passengers and 250 cars between the Port of Miami and Mexico on a regular weekly schedule. If this is your type of traveling, why not check with the folks at Sun Travel Agency soon and start making your plans.

So many wonderful cruises are available now and at the most reasonable rates ever. And it is just too easy to go—no need to worry about details—just call Sun Travel and let them make all the arrangements for you and then you pick up your tickets and take off. Could anything be easier or more fun?

Call today. It is the time now for your best vacation ever.

Says Gardening Planting Time Is Now

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI

All of you gardening experts know that now is the time for planting your annuals so that your flower gardens will be beautiful next year. But then there might be some poor soul out there like me who just isn't sure when it comes to when to plant what and what looks good where and will grow if you put it there anyway.

So we went to the experts for the answers. And perhaps you will remember that on Aug. 8, we identified the expertise of all the experts in the Sanford area.

J. Harold Hunziker, who owns and operates GardenLand located on West First Street in Sanford.

Now there is no question about this man's knowledge of the facts when it comes to plants and planting and soils and fertilizers because he has the benefit of the very best of training possible and long years of experience in the field so when you go out to GardenLand and he tells you something, you can believe him, because, friends, J. Harold knows about that of which he speaks.

The annuals he carries are from Dutch Mill—plants like petunias, snapdragons, pansies, calendulas and these could all be planted now.

He also has some healthy strawberry plants ready for planting. And of course the Nelson line of Florida roses—they are so beautiful—raised specifically for Florida soils and climate, so that even the folks without green thumbs should be able to make their rose garden a real show place. But let me tell you of a real find at GardenLand—some of the most beautiful orchids in bloom as well as young plants with a beautiful colorful future of blossoming ahead! At GardenLand, they have the Meristems Orchids, too.

Shall I impress you with my new found knowledge? Well—I shall. Meristems are the perfect duplication of a valuable $300 to $3,000 mother orchid plant. For the first time in history, valuable orchids are being multiplied and reproduced and this brings the plants within the reach of all budgets. Now it is possible for you to upgrade your own collection of orchids. Why not go over and let friend J. Harold or his lovely wife help you choose the perfect plant for your garden?

And you do know that Sanford's own produced Sunland products are carried by GardenLand and that means that tools, equipment, fertilizers, seeds, plants, and other gardening accouterments—you

Breeders in southwestern Japan have been raising a remarkable long-tailed fowl for some three centuries. A beautiful bird evolved from the common domestic chicken. The long tail is usually black and white but sometimes red and black or all white. The Japanese call it Otagaki from "O" for tail, "naga" meaning long, and "dori" for fowl. Today the long tail is fairly numerous in Japan, and the Japanese breeders are very proud of their handicraft. So visit Japan for its delicacy, its art, its heritage, its fine vacation spots, but do not forget to look up one of these remarkable birds!

Wednesday, November 1, 1972—Sanford, Florida 32771
65th Year, No. 52 Price 10 Cents

By John A. Spolski

I knew it! I just knew that if a man got onto a horse and handed a letter it would get to its destination ahead of the one going through the normal channels.
My vote... goes to James H. Boren, the gent who hopped onto a horse in Philadelphia Monday with six horses and eight other riders and arrived in Washington, D.C. shortly after noon on Tuesday.
The letters he "mailed" should (and I emphasize should) get to the nation's capital today.

Hey, what happened to all of the kids? Only two showed-up at our house last night, and as I understand it, that was the "norm" for so many other homes throughout the county.
Wait! You see the cute story in tomorrow's Herald on this particular subject... Trick-Or-Treat!

Had a man call and invite me to read page 24 of the current issue of Newsweek... written by Bill Moyers and entitled, "My Turn."

There are some nice people around... like those who helped Mrs. Alice Best's son Bill last night. He's shown on the bottom of this page... lying on the ground after some "prankster" belted him with an object, causing him bodily injury.

All of a sudden... it wasn't so funny.
Mrs. Best doesn't know the names of those who stopped and offered aid to her son, but she did call and ask that I convey her heartfelt sentiments.
Yesterday was a special day for him... his 20th birthday! And he winds-up in a hospital...

Coulda been worse, I guess. Like those two kids over in Bellart...
One was... and the other only 4. Dressed in masks and witches' hats they knocked on the door of Benny's Bar to ask for pennies.
Just then a 100-pound bomb exploded in a car parked outside the Roman Catholic bar. Paula died instantly, little Clare is in the hospital.

FTU College of Engineering, in cooperation with the National Park Service is seeking the help of the public in making an inventory of historic engineering works in the state, such as bridges, canals, water works, transportation or industrial complexes associated with the technological or engineering progress of the region. FTU's Professor John Paul Hartman is spearheading the project.
Well, Professor, we would like to be the first to nominate our own antiquated engineering nightmare known as the Osteen Bridge.

Another downtown Sanford face-lifting coming this Friday when First Federal Savings and Loan Association breaks ground for the high-rise addition to their present offices. Appreciate the reminder about this happy event, coming from Chamber Presy John Krider.

By Paulucci Enterprises Rezoning Is Still Sought

By ANN SIECKZKOWSKI

A request for rezoning from A-1 Agriculture to PUD (Planned Unit Development) property located on the Northwest quadrant of Lake Mary Boulevard and 14, was presented to the Board of County Commissioners Tuesday night by the Paulucci Enterprises.
A hearing has been set for November 9 at 7 p.m. despite the fact that commission chairman Greg Drummond suggested it be held before the November 7 election.

This same request was before the County Planning and Zoning Board a few weeks ago and was denied, with the County Planner, David Farr, reportedly having remarked that he did not feel that Seminole County is ready for this type of development.
Since that planning and zoning meeting, however, there have been many conferences with the developers and with the planning department and other county officials and other area citizens, which resulted in a revised plan for the development which was presented to an overflow crowd (certainly more than the 150 which is the posted allowable number on that floor) during a three hour presentation.

Every Paulucci Enterprises expert, it seemed, who was in the area was present, in the interests of the development. They listened as the County Planner made his opening remarks which were tempered by recent conferences with the developers. However, his general attitude and recommendations to the Board did not reflect approval of the project as it is currently planned.

Farr said that he had attempted to evaluate the project in light of all involved areas and persons. In his opinion, and using Hawthorn methods of projection, area schools, with its 1,128 usable desk spaces remaining now, would be filled

Sanford To Vote On New Charter

By DONNA ESTES

Question posed by City Commissioner Julian Stenstrom, on the status of the petitions to have a charter amendment requiring candidates for the city governing body to live within designated geographical areas, threw the City Commission into a slight tizzy last night.
The question was quickly shuffled-off by the other members of the board as it decided on a four-to-one vote to place the proposed charter on the Dec. 5 municipal election ballot for ratification by the people of Sanford.

Nearly three hours was given by the Commission to setting last minute details in the charter ranging from minor wording to the major decisions of four-year terms for members of the Commission and the right of public hearing in event of dismissal of the city manager. Stenstrom voted "no" explaining that he believed more study should be given as to whether the city should continue under a city manager form of government. He said he might actively fight the charter's adoption by the people.
The City Commission meeting opened with remarks from Mayor Lee P. Moore chastising the board for consideration of "11th hour" changes despite the fact the Commission had had the proposed charter, patterned after a model one, in hand from the charter revision commission for a year.
He said if changes continued to be made the city might well end up with a charter worse than the 20 year old one now in use. The mayor continued that every major change was shot at the city manager and then clarified the remark to point out he was referring to the job description and not the current manager W. E. Knowles.
Moore charged the commission with trying to extend its period of service, increasing its power and diminishing the office of city manager and insisted this was not a proper direction.
He suggested if the board were undecided about whether the city should properly have a city manager type government that it study the matter further.

Railroad Sued For Accident

By BILL SCOTT

Seaboard Coast Line (SCL) Railroad and one of its engineers are being sued by the administrator of the estate and relative of a Seminole County woman, who was injured and later died after an SCL freight train struck the woman's car at a Sanford railroad crossing.
Joseph P. Hightshoe, administrator for the estate of Sylvia Johnson Hightshoe, has filed suit in 18th District Circuit Court requesting damages and alleging carelessness and negligence in the operation of a train, which on March 2, 1972 at 7:40 a.m. struck the Hightshoe auto.
The suit alleges "as a further direct and proximate result of the negligence of the defendants, the said Sylvia Hightshoe died."
The court action by Orlando attorney Michael Maher accuses train engineer W. H. Bruce and the railroad of negligence in:
"1. Railroad failed to properly maintain said railroad crossing.
"2. Failed to maintain proper lookout.
"3. Failed to properly sound horn of said locomotive.
"4. Failed to properly maintain and adequately maintain warnings of said crossing, and of said approaching locomotive.
"5. Operated said train at an excessive speed under circumstances.

Petition Signers Needed

By DONNA ESTES
Petitions to include a districting amendment on the ballot at the December 5 municipal elections in Sanford will not be completed and certified in time, according to Rev. J. E. Connelly, a prime mover in the petition effort.
Connelly told The Herald today he and Rev. Amos Jones, executive director of Seminole Community Action, have determined slightly more than 100 signatures are needed to complete the petition of between 1,100 and 1,200 names. Persons are still working in the field collecting signatures, he said.
The minister added that field workers are finding many persons "reluctant" to sign the petition believing it will increase their taxes. "I believe if it were placed on the ballot, it would pass, however," he said.

Council Approves Change PUD Is Modified

By MARION BETHA

WINTER SPRINGS — In a 3-2 vote, with negative votes being cast by Councilmen Herbert Fox and Victor Miller, City Council approved modification of Planned Unit Development (PUD) zoned property owned by Al Schacter.
The property is located west of the Sheoah golf course and north of SR 434, and no objections were voiced during the public hearing.
John Petty, representing a planning consultant firm, told council the original concept of the development was approved 18 months ago for the 95 acres of land east of U.S. 17-92 between Florida Avenue and Shepard Road.

Petty mentioned the developer proposes a small service commercial area at the northwest corner of the property with modern stores.
A single family dwelling area is planned for the area east of the power line. City Attorney Thomas Freeman injected that these patio homes are nothing more than "double duplexes." He continued that eight families living together in an apartment is not a single family dwelling.
Councilman Herbert Fox stressed he cannot conceive of anything but a "jumble of multiple family dwellings for years to come," which he contends will be a "horrible mess."
The development will entail 65-75 foot lots, with an estimated population of 2,200 persons. Some of the estimated population will be distributed as follows: townhouses, 190; single family, 116; patio homes, 186. Petty mentioned there will be a total of 722 living units, 60 more than the original plans called for with the 2,200 people distributed in a total of 100 acres.
Although Freeman had evidenced some misgivings concerning the "double duplex" concept of patio homes, nevertheless, in a tone of the future mushrooming growth of the central Florida area, he contended, "I don't think we should be scared of a new living concept. With the area developing as it is we must provide homes for persons who cannot afford to purchase $30,000 — $40,000 homes. While these units must be construed as apartments, still we must provide low cost housing for people moving into area."
Petty outlined the patio and townhouses will have a price range of $22,900 — $26,900 and the single-family dwellings from $24,900 to $30,000.
