Harbert Gives Testimony Reiterating Glueck's State- ment That Loeb is Slayer

Got "Kick" of His Deed

Also Declared
Planned to Kill
Leopold, Jr.

AGO, Aug. 9.—Dr. H. Harbert, fourth of the defense witnesses to stand to confirm testimony when called to determine punishment for Nathan Leopold, Jr. and Richard Loeb for the slaying of the sixteenth day of the month.

Dr. Harbert corroborated the testimony of Dr. Bernhard Weiss, New York, that Loeb was a mental slayer of the type known as a "king-slave" phantasia. Loeb said that he had several times with intent to slay Nathan Leopold, Jr., but that he was not sufficient to cause the slaying.

Dr. Harbert discussed the slaying with his mother, and she had a "kick out of it," as he said. He revealed that Loeb saw the victim and "felt comfortable" but not "pleased" as he saw Bobby's carry his coffin from home.

Dr. Harbert delved into the mental influences in the slaying for various degrees. He said that he had examined the phantasias of the mother, and that she had suffered from an invalid and nervous condition. He said that she had suffered from phantasias of the type known as a "king-slave" phantasia. Loeb said that he had several times with intent to slay Nathan Leopold, Jr., but that he was not sufficient to cause the slaying.

New Parley May Be Held at London

Paris; Herriot Goes to talk with Clemenau

U. S. Had No Part in Latest Move

Military Evacuation of Ruhr Becomes Issue Before Conference

LONDON, Aug. 9.—A conference on the question of inter-allied debts to be held in the near future, has been definitely decided, Premier Herriot of France, announced today just before he left for Paris for a conference with his cabinet on work of the international conference.

It is understood that it has not been decided definitely whether the conference will meet at Paris or London.

It was emphasized that the United States representatives were not parties to the decision to hold the debt parley. The United States has been led to understand that only the division of reparations under the Dawes plan will be discussed at Paris. Col. James A. Logan, Jr., will represent the United States there and will present the claim for prior payment of the costs of the American army of occupation.

The German delegation has prepared its Ruhr and security proposals and these will be laid before the French at the next meeting. Herriot, during his talk with the German Chancellor Marx and Foreign Minister Stresemann last night, spent most of the time discussing Germany's proposal. There was an animated debate over Herriot's "Dixie" proposal, but the Ruhr was not mentioned.

Each side hoped the other would take the initiative. Herriot's only political remark was that he appreciated the foreign policy of the Germans. The Germans, however, did not call upon Premier Theunis of Belgium, who was ready, if asked, to start the Ruhr ball rolling.

Another Hope

The navy and army officers have another hope. This is based on the fact that the steamer Quest, built for the Shackleton Antarctic expedition some years ago, is now in these waters and may be engaged to break through the ice of some east Greenland harbor and thus afford the planes a base. The quest left Reykjavik some time ago and her present position is not known. Radio messages requesting the service of the ice breaker were sent out today. They have not yet been answered but it is hoped they may have been picked up by the Quest.

Arwans Club Blanks Plant City Baseball Team 5 to 0 Thursday

Three hits and three errors in the tally here.

The second battery, composed of McCall and Overlin, had the game in hand at all times, McCall giving up four hits, clouting a home run, and playing his position as usual, whereas Overlin excelled as usual in the clown work and played an all round game. Harry takes the cake for hits. Mathews starred on his leg from center to home, killing a runner there.

One runner on each team ran into a batted ball and, of course, put himself out.

The stars for the visitors were Larnack, Armstrong and Milsap, the latter making the only two-acker in the affair. Each player, however, played a good game throughout.

Play by Play
First inning, Plant City at bat; Larnack up, Larnack fanned, Huff hit, Milsap and Armstrong tripped.

Sanford at bat, BeBout up; BeBout hits to left, Overlin whiffs. BeBout steals. Steels singles to center, BeBout scoring and Steels taking second on the throw in, Merrivether, BeBout, Hutchinson, Overlin and McCall to down him. Armstrong singles through second, Steels, Mays is hot and fans.

Sanford: The big inning for Sanford: Merry singles to right, Steels, McCard clouts a homer, scoring Merry, also. Hutch out, second to first. Byrd safe on error when first drops it. Byrd steals. Mathews singles, Byrd taking third. Gardiner safe on fielder's choice while Byrd scores when catcher drops ball on play. Gardiner and Mathews steal. BeBout safe on error scoring Mathews. Overlin fans, and Steels pops to first.

Seventh inning: Edwards walls, Steels, Milsap, hitting for Moody, clouts a two-acker, but Edwards only makes third on it, and then tries to make home on the throw but is caught. Mathews, hitting for Hull, fans. Morgan goes out, Hutch to Merry, and the game is over.

AT THE CHURCHES

Congregational Church
All of the regular Sunday services at the Congregational church have been resumed as the pastor is now at home and at work. He has for subjects tomorrow two very interesting questions that should attract close attention. At eleven o'clock in the morning he will speak on "The Christian's Inheritance"; at night, he will answer the question "How may one become an heir of God?"
As many of our people are still away, we desire to urge every one here to make special effort to attend the services. We know it is warm and uncomfortable during the middle of the day, and that the attractions of the Atlantic are many, but let us like good soldiers of the cross be in our places in the ranks, unless we are in the hospital. A good soldier of the cross must expect to bear some hardships. After the furlow comes faithful service. Come and bring your friends.
Presbyterian Church
Church services last Sunday were well attended both morning and night. One of those present declared the church the coolest and most pleasant place they had found. It is hoped that good congregations will be present at both services tomorrow. The Session will meet for the reception of members after both morning and night preaching services. There will be a baptismal service Sunday morning, an adult service Sunday evening, and a church service Sunday morning, an adult service Sunday evening, and a church service Sunday evening, and a church service Sunday evening.
First Baptist Church
Sunday School 9:30 a. m. Morning worship and sermon 11 a. m. Subject: "The Mighty Message of Christ's Mission." Young people's union 7 o'clock. Evening worship and sermon 8 o'clock. Rev. E. A. Thompson of Euclid will speak at the evening hour. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening 8 o'clock.

Saturday Evening Sermon

pressed Him to stop with them, and Jesus remained two days, and a mighty religious awakening swept other men of the city.
Isn't it wonderful what Jesus can accomplish thru such an unpromising life? Here is a woman whose life is stained, and soiled, and defiled by sin, and Jesus touched her life and then sent her out with a message from Him, and a city shaken, and men broke thru their prejudices and surrendered to the Saviour.
We talk of our lack of opportunity. We magnify our lack of experience. We say much about our poverty of equipment. But here is a woman called out of a den of vice who, at the command of her God, went back to her city and told of her experience with Jesus, and her testimony created a mighty religious awakening.
If we are lacking today in equipment, the poverty of equipment is not in our hands, it is in our hearts. It is in our hearts that we are lacking in wonderful experiences, the poverty of experience is chargeable to us and not to the Lord Jesus. The only equipment this woman had was the fresh experience which she had just had with the Son of God. When she touched Jesus, she was thrilled thru and thru, and, at His command, she cheerfully went back to the city to tell and to tell immediately the greatest kind of her life.
You must give me the privilege of coming very near to you, and the privilege of giving expression to a conviction which is just as deep as my life. You and I should learn this morning a lesson from this woman who had been so wretchedly hampered by sin. You and I need a fresh baptism in the presence of Jesus. You and I need to go deeper in the experiences with Jesus than we have gone. You and I need to form the habit now of going out and telling others what we have experienced with Jesus.
Our churches—ours just like many others—have drifted away from the method of the master Teacher, and we are suffering—we are experiencing in many places poverty of growth. When we share the rich fellowship of Jesus in this world crusade which He is directing, and then go out along the way to tell to others the wonder of our experiences with Him, those in the halls of sin will hear our story and many of them will be powerfully influenced. This is the method of Jesus, and if this church will employ His method untenuously, a new day will come in the growth and the power of our church.
While conducting meetings some years ago in Washington, one Sunday morning a girl of ten or twelve years came forward with many others and declared her surrender to Jesus. After the service, she returned to her home and when she and her mother were alone she told what had happened at the church. She told her mother of her decision and then she said, "Mother, I sat there and cried. I do not know what the people thought of me for crying, but I just could not keep from crying. I thought of you, mother, and then she called the names of the other members of the family and said that she thought of them, and that not one was a Christian. Then she went to her mother, and sat on her lap and put her arms around her mother's neck and

STATE LEAGUE PLAYERS NOW FREE AGENTS

Revision of Schedule Makes This Action Necessary, Al Lang Says Before Leaving

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 8.—All players of the Florida State League of 1924 are now free agents, made so by the revision and shortening of the 1924 schedule, according to a decision made last night by Al Lang, league president, before his departure for the North. "According to the best information," said Lang, "a new ruling for the National Association automatically makes all players in the Florida State League free agents, on account of the revision of the State League schedule." The league president and head of the St. Petersburg club, worked all day Wednesday and Thursday in an effort to save the players.

In answer to a message to Secretary John Farrell, of the National Association of Baseball Leagues, he ruled that no player could be placed on the reserve list until at least four teams in the circuit finished the original schedule, or four teams paid the salaries until the original closing date of the league. After receiving this message, President Clark Siviter, of the St. Petersburg club, made efforts to get four clubs in the circuit to finish the schedule, without success. Only three clubs, St. Petersburg, Bradenton and Clearwater were willing to finish the season. Siviter said that the loss of the players in the league came about through a misunderstanding of the club presidents at the final meeting in Tampa Tuesday. "It was understood by all club presidents that they should be State League players, and if I had known we were to lose our men I would have opposed the shortening of the schedule."

President Lang said the loss of the players in the six clubs of the Florida State League would have no effect on the Florida State League franchise, but would put some of the clubs in a poor position to begin the season next year.

BRITISH FIGHT FANS EVIDENCE MUCH INTEREST IN BLOOMFIELD- GIBBONS RING BATTLE TODAY

American Boxer Who Meets Britisher in Twenty-Round Bout This Afternoon, Is Great Favorite Among the Fans Across Atlantic—70,000 Seats are Reported to Have Been Sold Already

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Everybody in Great Britain who knows anything about boxing and a good many thousands who pretend they don't ordinarily take interest in fisty affairs, seem to be greatly excited over the 20-round bout which is to be fought today in the Great Wembley stadium by Tom Gibbons, the American heavyweight, and Jack Bloomfield, the English boxer. Already 70,000 seats are said to have been sold, an unprecedented number for a British ring battle, and if the weather is good and it is predicted it will be, the newspaper prophets expect a crowd of 100,000 to swarm into the stadium which will hold 127,000 spectators. Gibbons is favorite. Gibbons, although he is ten years older and three and a half inches shorter than the Briton, still remains the favorite in the betting. The odds on the American, however, which ordinarily were as high as 3 to 1, have steadily shrunk the past two days. One thing that has whipped up interest in the bout to a pitch unknown in England since long before the downfall of Joe Beckett, England's "white hope," has been the belief boomed by the newspapers, that if Bloomfield should defeat the American he will have earned the right to have a chance at Jack Dempsey's title.

Must Start Early. British fight experts who have been watching the preparations of both men for the battle express the belief that Gibbons best chance for victory will lie in carrying the fight to his opponent from the sound of the gong and striving for a knockout before half of the twenty rounds have been fought. Bloomfield's hopes, the writers contend, lie not so much in knocking out Gibbons, although he is credited with having a left punch of sufficient power to put over a finishing blow, but his stamina and youth. Both these he expects to stand him in excellent stead, he believes he will have a chance to win the decision on points. Englishman Has Weight. The Englishman will weigh in at about 182 pounds, and Gibbons expects to tip the beam around 175 pounds. Bloomfield is twenty-four years old and is six feet, one inch in height, as compared with Gibbons' five feet, nine and a half inches. Bloomfield, after today's battle has ended and his bruises are well, expects to get married.

STEADY RING WORK HELPS TOMMY GIBBONS IN AMASSING HIS FORTUNE; HAS NOTHING OF 'BARROOM' FIGHTER

Says Clean Living and Right Thinking Are Better Than Strenuous Training For Keeping Man in Condition

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 9.—Fugistic prestige and big purses are at last coming to Tommy Gibbons, at a time when the St. Paul heavyweight is long past the age when most fighters are in their prime. Fighting gamely up the long, hard hill to ring fame, Gibbons achieved a formidable summit when he stayed 15 gruelling rounds with Jack Dempsey in Montana a year ago. That "moral victory" after nearly 17 years of ring experience, opened the way to the largest purses the St. Paul fighter has ever received. There was no direct remuneration for Gibbons in his fight with Dempsey, but now at the age of 33 he is "cashing in" on the showing he made, and apparently is at the zenith of his ring career. For his fight with Georges Carpentier at Michigan City, last May, he received his largest purse, $62,000. Previously, his top had been $12,500 for a match with Harry Greb. He received $50,000 for his fight with Jack Bloomfield, the English heavyweight, in London. It has been no cushioned road for Tommy, however, for under the expert eye of his older brother Mike Gibbons, he has followed a rigorous rule of living, full of self-denial. There is none of the "bar room" fighter in Tommy's make-up. He has carried the gentlemanly bearing of his private life into the ring, and finds in his home life his greatest delight. Most of the time, aside from the fight engagements, is devoted to his wife and five children.

all boys. The youngest are twins, born only a few weeks ago. His oldest boy is eight. By nature Tommy is modest and very little in the limelight that would gladly welcome him, even in his home town. Back in the days when Brother Mike's ring prowess gained him the name of "Phantom," Tommy saw the opportunity for a much more remunerative occupation than as an employe in the railroad shops here. Then he began the long, slow climb to ring prominence. "Clean living and right thinking," Tommy once said, "can do more to keep a fellow in condition than the hardest training interrupted by occasional lapses into dissipation."

In recent years Tommy has established an enviable ring record, including a long list of knockouts. Even after his 15-round contest with Champion Dempsey there still stood his record of never having been knocked down in a ring engagement. At one time, starting in 1921, he ran his string of consecutive knockouts to 20. There has been no talk from Tommy of retiring from the ring. He wants another match with Dempsey, and expects to keep after it until he lands it. But when retirement comes, unless he suffers unforeseen business reverses before then, Tommy probably will be able to retire to a life of comparative ease, for he has made income-yielding investments with his winnings. His brother, Mike, also has investments in city and other property which have "fixed him for life." Tommy, however, has turned to stocks and bonds, so that coupon clipping is his principal business occupation outside ring activities.
