ABOARD U. S. CRUISER, East of Cape Farewell, Greenland, Aug. 25.—The cruiser Richmond rescued Lieut. Locatelli, missing Italian aviator, at 11:35 o'clock last night. He was picked up 125 miles east of Cape Farewell. The Italian flier and his companions were uninjured although worn out with fatigue. Motor trouble had forced Locatelli on the water during the flight Thursday and he was unable to again take to the air, drifting 100 miles.

Locatelli requested that his plane be destroyed, and his wish was complied with.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The American army aviators reeled off another lap on their round-the-world flight Sunday, and now are at Iqvitut, Greenland.

Skirting the coast, they covered the 125 miles from Frederiksdal, where they found a haven after their hazardous journey from Iceland, in a little more than two hours.

In a message announcing the arrival of the two planes at Iqvitut, Lieut. Smith, in command, said the motors would be changed and both machines completely overhauled before the next lap of the flight—500 miles across water to Indian Harbor, Labrador—is attempted.

Lieut. Smith made no reference to Lieut. Locatelli, missing Italian aviator who set out with the Americans from Iceland but failed to arrive with them at Frederiksdal.

Danes Assisting. From the cruiser Milwaukee in waters nearby, came word, however, that the search for Locatelli was continuing, with Danish authorities cooperating.

Lieut. Smith's message, addressed to Major General Patrick, chief of the army air service, said that a pontoon on his plane had been damaged by the last night and that sailors and natives had been employed to keep the ice away.

Another radio dispatch also addressed to General Patrick came from the Milwaukee and gave the information that the planes took off from Frederiksdal at 1:50 (Greenwich mean time) and had arrived O. K. at Iqvitut at 4:09 p. m.—two hours and 19 minutes later.

Neither message indicated clearly that the flight was made today, although army and navy officers were certain this was not true. Smith's dispatch was not timed nor dated. The message from the Milwaukee arrived here at 3:55 p. m. eastern standard time.

Weather Better. Before the getaway from Frederiksdal was made the Milwaukee sent another message, which mentioned Lieut. Locatelli.

This dispatch, garbled considerably, said that the search for the missing Italian had covered "4,500 square miles," and that the Danish authorities were sending out searching parties and doing their utmost to locate him.

Army air service officials were gratified that Lieut. Smith and his companions had advanced to Iqvitut without mishap, although they had contemplated no difficulty in bridging that relatively short distance.

A real test, it was agreed, faced the two pilots and their machines on their next jump, which will be entirely across water, although the distance is considerably shorter than that successfully covered before.

Tourist Camp To Be Ready Occupancy Within Short Time

A tourist camp modern in every respect and conforming to the State Board of Health specifications for auto camps, will soon be ready for occupancy, according to M. M. Lord, who lives near this city.

Mr. Lord stated to a representative of The Herald this morning that the camp will be located on the Orlando road about five miles from Sanford and when finished will be one of the largest and best equipped of any in the state. The tract of land to be devoted for this purpose contains eight acres, and if needs be, he declared, the size will be increased.

The camp grounds will be equipped with running water, septic tanks, flush toilets, recreation grounds and other essentials for the comfort of those who reserve spaces. Mr. Lord further said that the size of the lots will be even larger than the state specifications of 25 by 35 feet.

The camp is almost ready for occupancy now and will be complete within a short time, said Mr. Lord.

SLAYERS WEEP AS THEY HEAR LAWYER'S PLEA

At the outset of his argument, Mr. Darrow declared that the millions of dollars possessed by his clients' families, had been a positive handicap to the defense. He spoke too, of the attitude of the local newspapers, which he charged, had inflamed the public opinion against Leopold and Loeb.

"There are times when poverty is fortunate and this is one of those times," he said. "Wildly extravagant stories were published without basis of fact. They said this was to be an effort to save the two boys by the use of money."

Mr. Darrow denied that, pointing out that the experts called by the defense were to receive fees based upon their regular charges for professional services and that he and his associates had agreed to take such an amount as the Chicago Bar Association thought proper.

He declared the state's attorney was asking for a death sentence in the face of conditions that made it contrary to precedent, asserting that only one murderer had ever been sentenced to death in this county after a plea of guilty. He took a fling at Mr. Cowan, pointing out that it was the latter, while chief justice of the criminal courts who had sent that man to the gallows.

Then Mr. Darrow frankly admitted the defense had pleaded guilty because they were afraid to place the cause before a jury.

He said he and his associates fully realized the heavy responsibility they had placed upon the scales, and added:

"It is responsibility is divided by twelve boys having there can be no division of responsibility. You can never explain the hanging by saying that other courts were wrong."

OFFICIAL WORD RECEIVED FROM GLOBE AIRMEN

The American airmen round the world fliers, winging their way yesterday afternoon and evening from Reykjavik, Iceland, to Frederiksdaal, Greenland, where they arrived Thursday night, passed the United States cruiser Richmond and the United States destroyers Reid, Billingsley and Barry on schedule time, according to a message from the Barry.

A later dispatch from the Barry declared that the flash reporting the arrival at Frederiksdaal of Lieut. Lowell H. Smith and Lieut. Erik H. Nelson did not mention the arrival of Lieut. Locatelli, the Italian aviator who was accompanying them.

Lieutenant Locatelli, who had flown to Reykjavik from Pisa, Italy, in order to accompany Lieutenants Smith and Nelson across the Atlantic, was using a faster plane than the Americans and in the earlier stages of flight yesterday had outdistanced his companions.

Weather Turns Bad

Weather conditions in the early stages of the flight were favorable with good visibility, and a helping wind but as the airmen neared Cape Farewell at the southern tip of Greenland, they had to cut their way through a mist and a drizzling rain.

Battling a dense fog over the last miles of their perilous trip, and feeling their way toward Frederiksdaal with utmost caution, Lieutenants Smith and Nelson landed almost an hour apart under conditions described by the Danish gunboat Islands Falk, patrolling off Cape Farewell, as "extremely dangerous."

A motion was passed authorizing the board of directors of the association to act as a committee on the co-operative marketing plan to look into the matter and make a report at the next meeting which will be held in Longwood, Sept. 18 and 19.

G. V. Stuart of Longwood was present and urged all members of the association to attend the two day meeting at that place. At dinner on the first day, he said, the poultrymen will be guests of the Longwood Chamber of Commerce. The second day everyone will bring a picnic lunch and will have dinner at Palm Springs where they will be admitted free of charge.

During the meeting five new members were taken in, making the total enrollment 30. They were M. G. Camp, B. F. Whitner, J. A. C. Lasing, John Hunter and John R. Jones.

COMMUNICATION WITH MARS GETS SETBACK FRIDAY

After government sending stations had broadcast orders to all naval receiving stations to be on the alert for any possible Martian messages, B. A. Mabry and B. G. Cowan in charge of the powerful receiving set in the office of the chief dispatcher of the Atlantic Coast Line railway, picked up a message unlike anything they had ever heard.

The message was not in any known code and the tone was described as "distant and warbling like a far away train whistle." As near as they could make out, the radio men said, the signals corresponded to W F in the universal code but was composed of a queer mixture of dots and dashes. It continued for about fifteen minutes.

The railway set, one of the most powerful in this section was tuned in at 2500 meters. Both Mabry and Cowan are veteran operators.

British Tunes In
LONDON, Aug. 23.—An attempt by British wireless experts to "listen in" on Mars resulted in strange noises being heard at 1 o'clock Saturday morning. The source of the noises could not be ascertained by the experts.

The attempt was made on a twenty four valve (tube) selected on a hill at Dulwich. Representatives of the Marconi Company and of London Universities were present.

Tuning in started at 12:30 o'clock a. m. and at 1 a. m. on a 20,000 metre radius, sounds were heard which could not be identified as coming from an earthly station.

The sounds were likened to harsh dots, but they could not be interpreted as Morse code. The noises continued on and off for three minutes in groups of four and five dots.

SOME floors are beautiful in themselves, but all floors, old or new, can be made beautiful with a glossy coat of paint that hides the old, worn surface, or new unattractive surface perfectly.

Devco Floor paint is easy to apply, is spot-resisting, dries rapidly and is hard enough to protect the floor against a great deal of vigorous wear. Its coat is not brittle and does not crack, check or peel but wears down gradually and evenly, to the end.

You Can Have That Home---

How long have you been dreaming of home? Stop and think. The longer you wait the more you lose—because the money you are sinking for rent and other expenses could just as well be going into a HOME.

Listen—talk it over with your wife. You will find she has been thinking along these same lines. Her friends—they live in their own homes. They built them and own them without any hardship. You know that a home means everything to a family. It is not a speculation; it is a real profitable investment.

Talk it over with us. We are practitioners in building. We know building and building materials. We will give you the kind of service that will make you a friend of ours.

TAKEING CANDY AWAY FROM THE BABY

FOR GENERAL DAWES: You may do your running mate, President Coolidge, a good deal of good, and might do him a great deal of harm.

COMBATting INJUSTICE

GENERAL DAWES is a powerful personality, a fighter, not a poser. He could add a great deal to the strength of his friend Coolidge. But he should not ignore W. J. Bryan's statement.

Make The Constitution An Essential Subject

California has made the study of the Constitution of the United States compulsory in all its public schools. This might be something worthy the emulation by Florida.

Text books on United States history used in the schools are always equipped with pages devoted to the text of the Constitution. But, apparently for the purpose of showing children that the document is not meant for study or even reading, the pages are tucked away in the back of the book and the type used is almost too small to be legible.

By waiting until the last year in the high school for the formal study of civil government in Florida schools, only about two per cent of the state's boys and girls receive any formal instruction in civics. They learn something about a few of the amendments to the Constitution, and receive a hazy outline of the duties of the different branches of the federal government.

The schools of Florida, and of every state in the Union, should have civil government text books graded from the sixth year on up through the high school. The Constitution of the United States should be presented to children year after year, until it is as familiar to them as is the Lord's Prayer.

We have taken too much for granted. In our zeal for teaching the history of wars, we have neglected the more important things. He have been assuming that boys and girls learn about their government without being taught.

If the schools of the United States should have no history lessons for a year except lessons based upon the Constitution of the United States, with daily lessons in stewardship, public trust, honesty and efficiency, inestimable service would be done for the country's better citizenship.

As Brisbane Sees It

Easy, General. Cosmic Advertising. France Takes It. White Slaves in Africa. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1924)

FOR GENERAL DAWES: You may do your running mate, President Coolidge, a good deal of good, and might do him a great deal of harm.

Mr. Dawes, arriving in New York, indicates that it is possible to overdo the "Hell and Maria" business. In one newspaper he exclaims, seeing the crowd waiting and photographers ready, "Oh, Hell, what's this for?"

EVEN CYRUS H. K. Curtis' little paper, which is ardently for Coolidge and Dawes, carried in its Postscript Edition this heading: "Dawes Here: 'Damned' If He'll Pose, Comment or Snake Hands."

"CUSSING" was all right for pirates and on the stage or perhaps when you really hit your thumb with a hammer it has its place. But there are some men and many women in the Republican party to whom "cussing" is not an added attraction.

YOU WON'T find Mr. Coolidge indulging in any profanity. If the Washington monument fell down or the Treasury blew up, "Dear me" is the roughest talk you would get from him.

GENERAL DAWES is a powerful personality, a fighter, not a poser. He could add a great deal to the strength of his friend Coolidge. But he should not ignore W. J. Bryan's statement.

There is no "Hell and Maria" about W. J. Bryan, but there is deep knowledge of the American people. Bryan didn't gather in his millions of votes with every well organized dollar in the United States against him without knowing something about Americans.

MEN THAT SEND radio messages through the ether were requested to keep quiet when Mars came within 35,000,000 miles of earth. Some scientists hoped for some sort of message. They didn't get it, or if they did get it, they didn't know they were getting it.

WONDERFUL IS advertising, and great its power. It can help, even stars, planets, moons, nebulae, and the Milky Way itself, to attract attention.

SIXTEEN HUNDRED million people on this earth haven't paid any attention to the planet Mars for years. Several hundred millions of them were looking around in the sky for that planet Friday night and Saturday night simply because it had been advertised in the newspapers recently.

LEAVE HAS decided, without asking a vote in Parliament, to accept the London arrangement for the payment of German reparations. Germany borrowing from us, to build up France and Belgium, then taking whatever Germany can produce.

HERIOT, the Socialist Prime Minister, warned the French "you will take this plan here, as I look at it, London, or you will be isolated to stand by yourselves."

WHITE PEOPLE read with horror the story of white men and women "held in slavery by the Bokwena blacks of the great Kalahari Desert," called "The Great Thirst Desert."

IT IS HORRIBLE to think of whites held in slavery by blacks in Africa. But there is no reason for our getting too much excited about it.

In the first place, the story about Sebels and his white slaves is probably a press agent story. In the second place, the "highly cultured" white people of the world were able for so many years to convince themselves that it was all right to separate black mothers from their children on the auction block, and work black slaves under the lash.

BIG MOVIE BALL WILL BE STAGED AT DAYTONA BEACH AUGUST 28, 29

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Aug. 25.—An event of state and even south-wide interest, which is to take place in this city on Aug. 28 and 29, an event which never before has been attempted on so stupendous a scale, is a gigantic "Movie Ball" which is to be staged here on those dates and at which, visitors from not only Florida, but all parts of the South, are expected to gather to witness the unusual happenings scheduled to take place.

According to Harry Fleck, chairman of the committee on arrangements, the work of planning the event, organization of the various features and getting all the little details into "ship shape" has been a man's size undertaking but he stated recently that final arrangements have been completed and everything is now ready for Florida's most brilliant affair of such a nature.

CORSET DISEASE DISAPPEARS

Colored Ripe Fruit Replaces Water Color Pictures Modern Dining Room

The fruit chromo, water color, or oil has been banished from the up-to-date dining room along with the picture of the defunct fish, but in its place has been substituted one of the handsomest of table decorations, the fruit itself. The decorative possibilities of fruit has led to ornamental baskets of very life-like artificial fruits, but it is such a simple matter to arrange artistic bowls or baskets of real fruit that these artificial pieces are of value only in winter seasons when fresh fruit is not so plentiful as in the summer and more expensive.

Alternating with the bouquet or floral piece on the sideboard and table, fruit-groups offer most attractive dining room ornaments before the diner reaches the consumption of the fruit.

Red-checked peaches and purple clusters of grapes form an artistic grouping. A bowl of perfect peaches is a picture in itself, especially when garnished with peach leaves.

Sprays of cherries, blackberries or currants at the individual plate are effective table ornaments with a center piece of fruits of the season. The highly colored apples lend themselves to this style of ornamentation very handsomely, as do the purple plums in their season.

The aroma of the ripe fruit and the attractive appearance of a well-designed fruit grouping are appetizing and valuable adjuncts to the well-appointed table. Such decorations are even more effective in the late summer months than in flowers, and the combine well with small bouquets.

SENATORS ARE PUSHING NEW YORK FOR LEAD

Detroit Tigers Defeat Huggins' Men while Washington Takes Third of Series From White Sox; Senators Within Half Game Leaders

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The Detroit Tigers took the final game of the year in New York by a score of 7 to 2. Dutch Leonard made his second start of the season for Detroit and held the Yankees to six hits. Babe Ruth's thirty-ninth homer with Dugan on base was the only scoring done by the New Yorkers. It was his first homer since the Yankees came back to their home lot.

Manush, the Tigers' left-fielder, made a homer with Jones on in the third while Cobb duplicated this feat with Manush on in the seventh.

Evaritt Scott pulled up lame on his single in the fifth and McNally replaced him at short.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 25.—Cleveland backed Smith's fine pitching with brilliant fielding and opportunistic hitting Sunday afternoon and defeated St. Louis 8 to 1. ## Hoover to Meditate Rio Grande River Irrigation Dispute

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 25.—In an effort to permit relaxation of a reclamation service decree virtually by tying up all irrigation development on the upper reaches of the Rio Grande, the Rio Grande Commission will begin a series of hearings early in September at points between Alamosa, Colo., and El Paso, Tex.

Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover will represent the United States government as mediator. The party will include representatives of the federal government and the state governments of Colorado and New Mexico. The trip will be made by motor and hearings will be held at probably 20 points along the river. They will be attended by river commissioners and engineering experts.

Development of the upper portions of the Rio Grande above the Elephant Butte dam project dates from 1903, when the Mexican government protested to the United States that development in southern Colorado and northern New Mexico was robbing the Juarez district of its water supply. This difficulty was ironed out three years later when, by an international treaty, the United States agreed to deliver 60,000 acre feet of water annually to the Juarez section. The Mexican government renounced all further rights to the waters of the Rio Grande.

Yanks Land Divie Slugger

The home run king of the Southern League, Ben Paschal, Atlanta outfielder, has been sold to the New York Yankees for $20,000. Paschal hits either right or left handed and is a slugger of the Ruthian type. No player in Dixie has more friends among the darkey biographers than Paschal, whose long drives into the stands are always a signal for violent cheers.

Prohibitionists Ask Support of Women in Coming Election

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 25.—Plans for a nation-wide campaign on behalf of his candidacy for President on the National Prohibition ticket are seriously hampered by a lack of funds, Herman P. Faris of Clinton, Mo., has declared here. "We'll never have to worry about being investigated for having a 'slush fund,'" he chuckled "for we haven't got one. If we had one dollar for every hundred the big party had, we'd win this election!"

Mr. Faris, a 65-year old banker and Sunday School superintendent, believes in the success of Prohibition and in the ultimate success of the Prohibition party.

Radio is going to play a prominent part in this year's presidential campaign, Mr. Faris said, and he hopes to utilize its possibilities frequently in his own campaign. By way of firing the opening gun in his battle for Prohibition victory, he radioed an address from a large station here.

Mr. Faris is at the service of his party and is ready to speak any time, anywhere, he said. The actual plan for his campaign are in charge of Dr. H. E. P. Prugh, national chairman, at Harrisburg, Pa. Central branch headquarters of the party is in Chicago in charge of John P. Corbin of Johnstown, Pa. Western headquarters in Los Angeles is in charge of John C. Bell, vice chairman of the national committee.

ADVANCE STATE EDUCATION IN SALIENT FACTS

Rapid and Persistent Population, Increased Property, and Public Sentiment

Knights Of Pythias Give Scholarships For Florida Boys

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 25.—The names of the 10 young men who will receive scholarships this year as a result of donations made by the Knights of Pythias of the state have been received by W. S. Lawton, state superintendent of public instruction. In the letter giving the names of the successful candidates, Dr. J. H. Coffey, state secretary of the fraternal body, stated that the movement is gaining in popularity and that the indications are that contributions will be sufficient to award a total of twelve scholarships before the University of Florida, to which institution the scholarships are given, opens for the fall term.

Ten scholarships so far awarded to the following young men:

T. S. Kirk, Jacksonville, Fla.; Orion A. Mann, Lakeland, Fla.; Edgar A. Simeak, Pompano, Fla.; Tom H. Graham, Kissimmee; Reggie Jones, Lake Wales; James A. Scott, Arcadia; William H. Swindle, Chap. by, D. R. Moore, Burlington; Fred C. Ward, Eustis; Merle O. Barned, St. Petersburg.

The resolution creating the scholarships, the letter from Dr. Coffey pointed out, provided that the awards should be made so as to distribute the recipients over the entire state. This has been as nearly as possible considering the applications received, it stated. Some parts of the state made no applications at all while some others sent in more than could be granted. The young men selected by the board, supervising the scheme, appear to be everything that could be asked, stated Dr. Coffey, who added that "if this project is the success that it now appears to be there is no doubt about the girls being included next year."

Girls Are Alarming

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 25.—J. C. Lanier, county probation officer in announcing that a meeting of all women's organizations in the city is planned in an attempt to remedy the situation, declares that delinquency among girls in Duval county is becoming alarming. The problem is the most serious one faced by the probation department and the juvenile court, Mr. Lanier asserts. Contributing factors in the conditions, he declares, are "unsupervised dance halls, the wide open city with no effort to check or restrain immorality, the suggestive moving pictures, of which there are entirely too many."
