BRIEFS

Home, at last

SANFORD — Sgt. Robert E. Hosford Jr., son of Lou and Bob Hosford of Sanford, returned home from the Persian Gulf March 10.

Hosford is stationed at Maxwell Air Force Base in Montgomery, Ala., where he lives with his wife and two daughters.

Hosford is an operating room technician at Maxwell Hospital.

Hosford was sent to Saudi Arabia in January.

Anyone in the Sanford-Lake Mary area with family returning from the Persian Gulf may call The Sanford Herald at 322-2611.

Lake Mary officer suspended

LAKE MARY — Though cleared once of the charges that he acted improperly during an arrest last summer, Lake Mary Police Cpl. Tom Dale was suspended for three days on Tuesday.

Dale will not fight the suspension or continue to seek a hearing with the police review board, which he had requested at the conclusion of last summer's investigation, according to Lake Mary police officials.

Capt. Sam Belfiore said a copy of the investigation into the incident will be sent to the Department of Justice to determine if criminal charges against Dale are warranted.

In the course of a July 26 arrest, an internal investigation by the Lake Mary Police Department revealed, Dale allegedly put his foot on the neck and back of Anton Lamar Sanders, who lived at 1814 Knox Ave. in Sanford.

Sanders, with support from the local chapter of the NAACP, had filed the complaint against Dale after his arrest last year.

Compiled from staff and wire reports.

Scholarship fund lags

Sanford chamber annual drive near end; official optimistic about 11th-hour gifts

By VICKI DeSORMIER
Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD — Dave Farr, director of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce, said he isn't worried that less than 40 percent of the chamber's goal of $20,000 has been met with about a month to go in the annual scholarship campaign drive.

"It always comes in a rush at the end," said Farr who said he is sensitive to the fact that hard economic times are making it difficult for many members to donate as much as they did last year.

To date, $7,500 has been received by the chamber for the fund.

Last year the chamber raised $20,500. Most of that, Farr said, was raised in the last few weeks of the fundraising drive.

"I've tried to be sensitive about not hounding them," Farr said.

Often, he noted, the money has come in without warning and from unexpected sources.

"It'll come from left field all of a sudden," Farr said.

On Friday, he said, the chamber got a call from William Howard Jewelers of Sanford with a donation of $500. According to Farr, the business had just decided to contribute that morning.

"A lot of places just haven't made their final decisions yet," he said.

Southeast Bank of Sanford has pledged to contribute $50 to the cause for each home improvement loan closed between now and the end of May.

They will also contribute $25 for every new InvestSmart account opened at the Sanford office.

"That is an incredible commitment," Farr said.

Airport eyes tourists from foreign lands

By NICK PFEIFAU
Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD — The Sanford Airport Authority members had a look into the future Tuesday, to a time when tourist flights from overseas would be using Sanford as a destination point.

Bonnie Manjura, who had recently represented the Central Florida Regional Airport at the ITB Trade Show in Berlin, Germany, addressed the members about the reaction she had received regarding what Sanford has to offer, during the Berlin showing which is the largest trade show in the world.

Steve Cooke, Sanford's Director of Aviation who was also at the showing, said every nation was represented. "It was so large," he said, "you couldn't see all if it in four days of walking around."

Manjura said the many foreigners were especially interested in the Sanford area for use as a destination landing sites for tourism flights. She said she had received inquiries from a number of airlines that carry tourists to Florida from Canada, Central Europe and several islands. She added, "Florida is the number one destination point for tourist flights from Germany."

She would not discuss specific airlines with which she had discussed the use of the Sanford facility, but said they were highly prominent.

Affordable homes goal of 'brainstorm'

By LAURAL SULLIVAN
Herald staff writer

SANFORD — Social workers, developers, affordable housing advocates, government officials and business people came together yesterday to brainstorm on ways to keep the working poor from homelessness.

Seminole Housing Advocacy Coalition (SHAC) formed last year as the Homeless and Hungry Committee, a network of social service agencies serving the county. Yesterday the group held its first open public forum on affordable housing in Seminole County.

"Social workers see the problem, but we don't always have the clout to solve the problem," said Angie Romagosa, SHAC president and South Seminole Christian Center director.

The average rent for a two-bedroom, one-bath apartment in Seminole County is $516 a month.

"We would like to see more housing being built so that we don't have to build more shelters in Seminole County."

-Angi Romagosa, coalition president

Romagosa said.

"Most people (social workers) see every day can't afford $500 a month and still eat," she said. "We would like to see more housing being built in Seminole County so that we don't have to build more shelters in Seminole County."

Chamber finally gets a home of its own

By J. MARK BARFIELD

LONGWOOD — Home at last.

More than 150 business leaders and local officials officially opened the doors on the offices of the Greater Seminole County Chamber of Commerce at 1939 Boothe Circle Tuesday, ending 17 years of reliance on cities for workspace.

"The biggest significance of the grand opening is that we are not beholden to any special interest or city government," said Bob Lewis, the chamber's executive vice president. "We are now completely independent. We're a free agent."

The $408,000 offices, located in the Cambridge Square office park next to Interstate 4, was made possible by the fundraising efforts of Mack McReynolds, Barnett Bank senior vice president, who raised $250,000 from 55 contributors, said Lewis. Another $125,000 was raised through the sale of the chamber's lease of offices in the Altamonte Springs City Library back to the city Tuesday.

The remaining balance will be paid during the next five years through chamber annual revenues, Lewis said.

The chamber was first housed in the Altamonte Springs Community House, actually an 80-year-old building.

Lotto winners make plans

TALLAHASSEE — A Fort Lauderdale man who won more than $2.2 million in last weekend's lotto jackpot has decided it's time to cut back on his hours at work.

"I called my boss Monday and said, 'You're talking to a 40-hour a week man now,'" Louis DuPuy, who identified himself as a maintenance engineer, said Tuesday.

DuPuy, 52, and his wife Cora, 47, will receive 20 annual payments of $112,333.33.

A retired couple from Pinellas Park also showed up at lottery headquarters to claim their share of the $6.7 million prize.

Granville Sigourney, 76, and his wife Esther, 73, bought one of the three tickets that carried the winning combination, 03-07-21-28-37-40.

The Sigourneys, who live in Michigan part of the year, said they will use part of their winnings to help their son and grandchildren.

Vacant Biltmore Hotel purchased

CORAL GABLES — The regal, yet vacant Biltmore Hotel has been given new life as a European investment group takes steps to reopen it.

London-based Faringdon UK Ltd. agreed in a letter of intent to pay $20.5 million for a long-term lease on the 270-room Mediterranean-style inn that towers above the posh neighborhoods of Coral Gables, officials said Tuesday.

The hotel was first opened in 1926 as a favorite spot for the rich and famous. Johnny Weissmuller set his first swimming record at the gigantic Biltmore pool and many of the Esther Williams movies used the swimming pool billed as the largest hotel pool in the United States.

"We are very optimistic about the hotel's future," said Hans Wilof, Faringdon chairman. "I have been engaged in hotel projects all over the world and recognize the exceptional charm, elegance and beauty in the Biltmore. However, she is a sleeping beauty, and we are now about to wake her up."

Man sentenced for assaulting children

WEST PALM BEACH — A man was sentenced to 25 years in prison after pleading guilty to six charges of assaulting children while he was on probation for molesting a child.

In addition to the prison term, Robert Colon, 53, of West Palm Beach was placed on house arrest for five years and probation for 25 years by Circuit Judge Richard Wennet.

Colon was arrested last September on eight counts of lewd assault and attempted sexual battery.

Under a plea agreement struck Monday, prosecutors dropped two of the eight charges in exchange for a guilty plea.

The eight children, ages 5 to 10, were in a home day-care center run by a distant relative of Colon's. He lived in the home during the week, according to statements by the victims' parents.

As a condition of probation in the previous case, he was not supposed to be alone with children, but prosecutor Elizabeth Johnson said Colon managed to spend time with the children outside the presence of adults.

Chief recommends officer's suspension

DELAND — The police chief has recommended a 10-day suspension for an officer who broke the leg of a suspect with a police baton as the man lay face down on the ground.

Police Chief Richard Slaughter recommended Monday that officer Chris Dillingham, 27, be suspended without pay.

John Wesley Hill, 31, was injured when he tried to get up as two officers were trying to handcuff him last Dec. 2, according to a police investigation.

Dillingham was one of six officers participating in an undercover narcotics operation when Hill approached a pickup truck that the officers were hiding in and offered to sell some crack cocaine, according to an internal affairs investigation.

Hill ran when police tried to arrest him. He was tripped and fell, and officers were trying to handcuff him when Dillingham hit him on the back of the knee, the report said.

Sailor shown mercy after DUI death

CLEARWATER — A police officer asked a judge for mercy in sentencing a sailor in a drunken driving accident that killed his son.

Clearwater Sgt. Vic Gentile said his 22-year-old son, Michael, and Keir Walton were close friends, and a prison sentence would ruin Walton's career in the U.S. Navy.

Pinellas Circuit Judge Anthony Rondolino complied. Although state sentencing guidelines called for three to seven years in prison on a conviction of DUI-manslaughter, the judge Monday sentenced Walton to one year of house arrest followed by four years probation.

"The main reason for a non-prison sentence was the victim's family requested that the defendant be allowed to continue his career in the Navy," the judge said.

Walton was arrested Sept. 23 after he crashed Gentile's girlfriend's convertible into a tree near Oldsmar.

NEWS FROM THE REGION AND ACROSS THE STATE

Student charged with extortion

Associated Press

SEFFNER — A sixth-grader charged with extorting $30 in breakfast and lunch money from another student told authorities he used it to treat a friend to movies and roller skating, police said.

When a mother discovered money missing from her wallet Friday, she questioned her son.

He broke down crying. He told her he had been bullied and threatened for about two months by the youth who had upped his demand from $2 to $3 daily, she said.

"The threats were that if he didn't give him the money, he would be caught in the bathroom and beat up," she said.

The mother talked with Lopez Elementary

"If the child had done the socially responsible thing as a good citizen and reported it, it never would have gone so far."

—Harris Carter, principal

School Principal Harris Carter, then went to see Hillsborough County Sheriff's deputies.

Deputies charged the youngster with strong-arm robbery and released to his parents. His name was withheld by sheriff's officials because of his age.

The case may be transferred to juvenile authorities for further investigation. Both youths are 12.

Carter said he suspended the robbery suspect Friday.

"This isn't a really bad child. He found out he could get by with this so he did," the principal said.

Carter said he and teachers were unaware of the threats and theft until Friday.

The victim's mother described the other boy as "huge. ... He looked like he could have been in the ninth grade."

Carter described the boy as a little taller than his peers and blamed the intimidation on peer pressure.

"If the child had done the socially responsible thing as a good citizen and reported it, it never would have gone so far," Carter said.

Portion of pornography law amended

Associated Press

TALLAHASSEE — It no longer would be a crime in Florida to possess a photograph of a mother breast feeding her baby under a bill passed Tuesday by the Senate.

That example was cited by the reform bill's sponsor, Sen. Robert Wexler, D-Boca Raton, before the Senate voted 34-3 to pass his measure (CS 152). It now goes to the House.

The 5th District Court of Appeal in Daytona Beach used similar examples in striking down the state's ban on depictions of children engaged in physical contact involving clothed or unclothed genitals, public areas, buttocks or female breasts.

The appeal ruled that provision of Florida's child pornography law was unconstitutional over-broad.

Wexler's bill would fix the law by making such a depiction illegal only if intended to arouse or gratify sexual desire.

Although no one debated against the bill, three senators voted no: Richard Langley, R-Clermont; Lincoln Diaz-Balart, R-Miami, and Jack Gordon, D-Miami Beach.

Hospital staff members take poison prevention to schools

By NICK PFEIFAU
Herald Staff Writer

LONGWOOD — Staff members of the South Seminole Community Hospital started visiting ten elementary schools throughout Seminole County this week, giving presentations on poison prevention.

Cary Alberts, director of pharmacy at the hospital in Longwood, with the help of Dan Britcher and David Stacey, staff pharmacists, have prepared a half hour program entitled "How to be a Poison Prevention Detective." The program is being presented to students from kindergarten through the second grade as part of the national poison prevention week across the nation.

At the conclusion of each presentation, Alberts conducts a verbal quiz, helping the students identify poisonous household products. The students receive poison prevention awards for their attendance and participation.

According to Alberts, "This year, 500,000 children will accidentally overdose or swallow something poisonous. More than 90 percent of those will occur at home, and 62 percent will involve children under the age of six."

Although National Poison Prevention Week ends on March 23, Alberts said the school presentations will continue throughout the month to increase awareness among children.

Cary Alberts, director of pharmacy at South Seminole Community Hospital, instructs Sterling Park Elementary School students on avoiding poisonous household products.

Navy seeks a few good dolphins

Associated Press

FORT LAUDERDALE — The Navy is contacting marine theme parks about offering its dolphins for breeding stock in a captive-breeding program, a newspaper reports.

Contact has been made through a national marine-park association, and the parks and military would split the off-spring, the Sun-Sentinel of Fort Lauderdale reported Tuesday.

"The intent to doing that is to breed animals, rather than capture them in the ocean," said Thomas LaPuzza, a spokesman for the Naval Ocean Systems Center in San Diego.

The program would save money and eliminate uncertainties associated with the quality of dolphins captured in the wild.

Explosion may have been sabotage

Associated Press

MIAMI — A late night explosion that ripped apart a building housing a Haitian activist group, a Haitian restaurant and a furniture outlet could have been caused by a bomb, police said.

Detectives investigating the recent murders of two Haitian radio personalities in Miami joined bomb squad members and Miami Fire-Rescue teams already at the site in an area known as the "Design District" north of downtown early today.

"I think the fire department has ruled out any incendiary device, but they have not ruled out sabotage," Sgt. David Rivero, spokesman for the Miami Police said early this morning at the scene of the blast.

"It's a design warehouse that has some furniture and some decorating-type things for homes, houses," he said. "It also has a Haitian-American federation or foundation."

He identified the Haitian firm as Cayard & Associates, Inc. The company's card describes the firm as "Community Government Affairs Consultants."

Bystanders also informed police that the building housed a Haitian restaurant, Rendez-vous, which opened earlier this month.

Rivero said the exact cause of the explosion at 11:25 p.m. EST Tuesday, heard or felt up to two miles away, wouldn't be determined "until daylight."

Both Rivero and Miami Fire Capt. Henry Cepeda said no injuries had been reported hours after the blast rocked the blocklong building at 3800 N.E. 1st Ave. The force of the blast flung sections of roof onto the street and scattered smaller debris in a two-block radius.

Transmission at nearby television station, WPLG-TV, was interrupted shortly by the force of the explosion, while debris littered State Road 112, which runs along the south side of the building.

Rivero confirmed that detectives investigating the murders of local pro-democracy Haitian radio commentators Fritz Dor and Jean Claude Olivier were on the scene.

Dor, 33, was gunned down in Miami's Little Haiti section last Friday evening as he approached his car after leaving work. Olivier was killed in identical fashion as he got into his car outside a popular Haitian-American night spot in the same neighborhood Feb. 18.

Earlier, Cepeda said it was too soon to tell what caused the explosion.

"We don't have any indication that it was a bomb," he told the Associated Press at 1 a.m.

"We got calls from as far as a couple of miles away from people who said they either heard it or felt their building shake," Cepeda said. "And we've got debris as far as two blocks away from the building."

Cepeda said at least 15 fire vehicles and more than 60 firefighters brought the fire touched off by the blast under control. He said firefighters couldn't immediately enter the warehouse because it was structurally unsafe.

POLICE BRIEFS

DUI charged

Terry Lee Seyk, 35, of 641 E. Palmetto in Sanford, was arrested on Monday and charged with driving under the influence of alcohol.

Sanford Police made a traffic stop on Seyk after he allegedly was seen driving erratically in the area of Persimmon and McCracken.

When he was stopped, he was given a field sobriety test, which he failed on several counts, police reported.

He was transported to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where he was held on $500 bond.

Warrant arrest made

Raymond Russell Ragsdale, 32, of 2616 El Portal in Sanford, was arrested on Monday.

He was charged with failing to appear in court on charges of failing to pay fines.

He was taken to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where he was held in lieu of $500 bond.

Retail theft charged

David Edwards, 31, of 2081 W. 18th St. in Sanford, was arrested on Monday and charged with retail theft.

According to the arrest report, store security personnel at the Winn-Dixie store at 1514 French Ave. in Sanford, allegedly saw Edwards put a package of cigarettes in his pocket before going through the checkout line where he allegedly paid for a candy bar but not the cigarettes.

When he was stopped by security personnel as he attempted to leave the store, he allegedly had two packages of cigarettes and a bottle of wine in his shirt for which he allegedly had not paid, police reported.

Edwards was transported to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where he was held in lieu of $100 bond.

Man in jail arrested on warrant

Charles Wayne Hester, 50, of 2301 River Tree Circle in Sanford, who is currently in the John E. Polk Correctional Facility, was arrested there on Monday on an outstanding warrant.

The warrant was on grand theft charges. Bond on the grand theft charges was set at $1,000.

Garden Club burglarized

An incident report filed with the Seminole County Sheriff's Office on Monday said that someone broke into the back door of the Sanford Garden Club at 200 Fairmont Dr. in Sanford.

The report said that a microphone and a telephone cable were stolen from a file cabinet in the Club's office.

The report noted that latent finger prints had been found at the scene.

Tow truck stolen

An incident report filed with the Seminole County Sheriff's Office on Monday said that someone stole a tow truck from Robertson Tire and Service at 4239 U.S. Highway 17-92 in Sanford.

The report noted that the truck had been on the premises when the owner left at 5 p.m. on Friday, but was not there when he returned at 4 a.m. Monday.

Family sets fundraiser

SANFORD — A Sanford family will spend a day in the park trying to raise money for a heart plant needed by their mother.

Nancy Dukes, mother of 10 children, needs a heart transplant to survive. Her daughter-in-law Gina Dukes said. In order to be put on a waiting list for the transplant, Gina Dukes said, the family must raise $75,000.

The family will hold a fundraiser April 13 from 1 to 6 p.m. at Fort Mellon Park in Sanford. The fundraiser will feature children's activities, live music and concessions.

Gina Dukes said the family has placed donation cans at several businesses in the Sanford area, but those cans have produced few donations. The family has also established an account for donations at Sun Bank in Sanford. Donations may be made to Sun Bank account number 0538000179272.

Nancy Dukes has 10 children between the ages of 18 and 29, and six grandchildren.

Hospital waste

Hospitals in the United States will dispose of more than 3 million tons of infectious waste this year. Most of it will be disposed of properly. But some will be mishandled, subjecting the public to an unnecessary health hazard.

A new study by the congressional Office of Technology Assessment recommends the federal government develop a comprehensive policy for disposing of medical waste. At present, federal rules for handling medical waste are issued on an ad hoc basis by various agencies.

The Environmental Protection Agency, the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration share responsibility for regulating medical waste disposal. The OTA study suggests that one of these three agencies should take the lead role in monitoring the practices of hospitals and other medical facilities.

Medical waste disposal problems have been documented for a long time. But the situation gained national attention three years ago when used hypodermic needles, vials of contaminated blood and tissue, and other medical debris washed ashore at beaches in California, New Jersey, New York and elsewhere. On the East Coast, the problem was so bad that several miles of beaches were closed temporarily.

Some 40 separate incidents were reported in Southern California. The exact source of this debris was never determined positively. But at least some of the times were traced to Navy ships and other military sources.

In response, the California Legislature passed a measure last year that tightened state regulations. The new law imposes detailed restrictions on the transfer, treatment and disposal of wastes. It also extends the regulations not only to hospitals and physicians but also dental offices, laboratories, veterinarians and funeral homes.

The only generator of medical waste that is excluded from coverage under the new California law is the military, which is exempt from most state regulations. Consequently, the only way to ensure that the military conforms to proper standards of waste disposal is to insist that it be covered by whatever policy is developed at the federal level.

Considering the dangers posed by improper medical waste disposal, one federal agency should be given a lead role in setting down uniform guidelines and enforcing compliance. And the military services should be covered by the uniform rules. There should be no repeat of the summer of 1988, with used hypodermics and vials of contaminated blood on beaches, before the federal government is spurred to action.

Editorial missed amendment

It is interesting to note that in your editorial appearing in the 10 March issue of the Sanford Herald, you chose to leave out one of the most important amendments of the "Bill of Rights." This is the Second Amendment which gives the people the ultimate means to protect all the rights guaranteed by our Constitution.

The second amendment states: "A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

While arguments are made by some that this refers only to the organized reserves and the National Guard, court decisions and federal law state otherwise.

Last February, the court commented... that "the people" referred to in the Second Amendment are the same "people" guaranteed the freedom of peaceable assembly and protected from unreasonable searches in the First and Fourth Amendments.

From 1792 to present law...nearly everyone who is not a member of the National Guard or organized state guard, is a member of the unorganized militia.

Further, the framers of our Constitution knew that words on parchment alone could not guarantee the freedoms spelled out in this Constitution and therefore insisted, that before ratification, that the Second Amendment be included.

When you refer to the "Bill of Rights" in your editorials, please don't skip amendments as important as this. They exist whether you agree with them or not.

H.D. Hood

Democratic presidential dumbkopfery

Rarely has it been easier to describe, and harder to find, what the Democrats need for a presidential candidate. The oversimplified litmus labels are these: "non-liberal" and "pro-force."

Potential candidates who can't clearly claim those words in 1992 will be swimming upstream against powerful currents of American opinion. They would, deservedly, be forced to spend a general election campaign explaining what they really meant.

Until Jan. 12, four prominent and tough-minded Democratic senators would have fit the bill. On that day Congress voted Yea or Nay on the president's position regarding use of force in the Gulf. One of the four, Sen. Sam Nunn, led the Nay fight. Two others, Sens. Lloyd Bentsen and David Boren, followed suit.

It is now said that, "Then There Were Nunn." Not so. A fourth prominent non-liberal/pro-force horse remains unsullied: Sen. Charles Robb voted Yea. For years, Robb had an all-purpose deflector when asked to run for president. "Let's support Sam," he said. But Nunn says he won't run this time.

There are those who believe that Robb now has not only an opportunity, but a duty, to make the race and make a fight. For salvation, the Democratic Party needs a public intramural struggle. Robb says he's ready to fight, but will not run. Absolutely not. He says he would disown and disavow a draft.

Who else passes the litmus tests? Sen. Al Gore wisely voted Yea on the Gulf, but he has a liberal voting record on all but foreign policy issues. Rep. Steve Solarz is in the same boat.

As governor, Bill Clinton of Arkansas didn't have to vote, wavered and came out Yea after the vote, but before the war.

As for the rest, forget it. Mario Cuomo, Jesse Jackson, George McGovern, Bob Kerrey, Bill Bradley, Doug Wilder and Dick Gephardt all flunk at least one litmi, and typically two. It gets worse. Democrats are shaping the 1992 electoral battlefield like dumbkopf, not Schwarkopf. Having destroyed their credibility on foreign affairs, they seem eager to achieve a total self-inflicted rout.

This is a national party that hasn't smiled in 25 years. Overarching their unpopular politics, and shaping those politics, has been a pall of pessimism. Now, tone-deaf, they say, hey, here's a fresh idea, let's move the debate back to America's terrible domestic problems, let's peddle a little more doom and decline.

On the other hand, John Kennedy in 1960 had perfect political pitch for an opposition candidate in a successful country. "Let's get America moving again," he said, and "We can do better."

Could the Democrats do anything else wrong? Don't ask. They could push legislation that the most popular president in polling history calls "a quota bill." And that's what they're doing. (Why isn't there a political suicide prevention hotline?)

Has there ever before been a political party, whose only valid proposition is that the election is 20 months away and anything can happen?

And so, if one should be interested in the future of the Democratic Party (why?), one most look to less well-known Democrats.

Fate of the terminally ill

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash. — When Washington voters go to the polls this autumn, they will be confronted by an extraordinary ballot measure. Initiative 119 would give physicians the authority to assist in ending the lives of their terminally ill patients.

Specifically, the ballot proposition establishes a procedure under which a conscious, mentally competent individual would be allowed to request in writing a doctor's assistance in ending his or her life through suicide.

Two physicians would have to independently certify that the patient had no more than six months to live. Then, a doctor could administer a lethal dose of morphine or use another humane method to cause the patient's death.

Physician-assisted suicide is legal nowhere in the nation — or in the world, with the exception of the Netherlands. But consideration of Initiative 119 is a logical next step in a countrywide debate that has grown in intensity in recent years yet remains far from resolution.

Although it is an especially complex and contentious issue, euthanasia unfortunately has been the subject of a limited public dialogue focused on individual cases instead of the broad philosophical, religious, medical, legal, ethical and moral considerations involved.

Thus, we were privy to more information than outsiders should have been given about the private anguish of the families of Karen Ann Quinlan and Nancy Cruzan. We were regaled with self-promotional claims from Dr. Jack Kevorkian, the proud inventor of a suicide device used to end the life of Janet Adkins.

We lived through the terrible episode in which a distraught Chicago father, Rudy Linares, held off hospital workers with a handgun while he unplugged a respirator to perform a mercy killing on his own 15-month-old, hopelessly afflicted baby son.

We were regaled with truncated versions of "It's Over, Debbie," a 1988 contribution to the Journal of the American Medical Association written by an anonymous doctor who described giving a lethal injection of morphine to an incurably ill cancer victim.

More recently, we indirectly shared the account in the New England Journal of Medicine written by a New York physician who says he prescribed sufficient barbiturates to allow a suffering cancer patient named Diane to take her own life.

We have not, however, seriously considered and resolved most of the questions spawned by advances in medicine that prolong but do not necessarily enhance life. Among them:

What distinctions, if any, do we want to make between active and passive euthanasia? If one or both are appropriate when death is imminent or the affliction is incurable, how do we define those terms to take into account both the vast majority of cases and the one-in-a-million instance of miraculous recovery?

Can we sanction a physician prescribing medication in quantities both the doctor and patient presumably know are suitable for suicide? Is a physician who feigns ignorance of what is likely to occur in a different position than one who offers advice?

Is removing the surgically implanted tubes that pump fluids and nutrients into comatose patients to keep them alive the same as withdrawing respirators and other artificial life-supporting equipment? If the patient cannot make those decisions, who should choose? Parents? Children? Spouses? Judges? Others?

Is life sacred in any form? Do some measures prolong death rather than prolong life? What should we do about patients in the final stages of dreadful ailments whose ravaged bodies are racked with pain? How do they differ from patients in what the medical profession euphemistically calls PVS — a persistent vegetative state — who are incapable of expressing their wishes?

Finally, there are the most difficult questions — those dealing with economics. How much, for example, should a couple take from the family's savings, earmarked for their children's college education, to keep alive an elderly, incurable parent?

At a time when medical care is rationed among people whose ailments are curable, what limits — if any — should be placed on treatment of the terminally ill?

VA scrambles to cope with vets'

WASHINGTON — When more than a half-million American soldiers were facing the Iraqi army, the Department of Veterans Affairs was facing problems of its own. If Saddam Hussein's network of booby traps in the desert had proved as daunting as it was advertised to be, the VA medical system would not have been able to cope with the results.

Wheelchairs, braces, artificial limbs and other devices known as prosthetics are in short supply at the VA, and the injured men and women of prior wars are already on waiting lists to get what they need.

"Jim" is a Korean War veteran with a spinal cord injury. He depends on the VA to supply him with wheelchairs. A year and a half ago, he asked the VA to replace his worn-out chair. They put him on a list and told him he could expect to wait at least 15 months. He didn't have 15 months, so he bought his chair through Medicaid and had to spend $300 of his own money.

Investigators for the Senate Committee on Veterans Affairs have uncovered a host of problems in the VA's prosthetic services including discrepancies in how the money is allocated to each hospital, differences in the quality and cost of prosthetic devices and a general lack of oversight by the VA.

Veterans are being forced to wait for everything from wheelchairs to artificial arms. One regional manager in the VA's prosthetic services estimates that as many as 10,000 vets may be on waiting lists.

Until last October, the VA hospital system was not centrally funded. Money was allocated to individual hospitals, and their administrators spent it as they pleased. One prosthetics manager explained the situation this way: "Individual hospitals say, 'I can get more wheelchairs for my dollars than artificial legs, so I'll order more wheelchairs and let him use that old leg.'" The same manager reported cases of hospitals that spent their money for prosthetics on organ transplants and then came begging for more money for prosthetics.

The VA isn't sure how widespread the problem is because it doesn't inspect its own hospitals often enough. In the past three years, on the average, only three of the 172 VA hospitals in the country got a thorough shakedown from VA officials each year. The reports from those few visits documented serious problems with the distribution of needed prosthetic devices.

The VA Inspector General's Office audited the prosthetics program and found plenty of room for improvement. In one region alone, the hospitals could save $300,000 simply by coordinating with each other on the purchase of only 12 items.

The VA has tried to solve the funding problem by earmarking $130 million more to be spent just on prosthetic treatment and devices, and the VA has tried to solve the bigger picture by centralizing its funding of the hospitals. The number of inspections has increased too since Congress began nosing around.

More improvements have been promised to the Senate committee, but the time frame for change will keep many vets on the waiting list without wheelchairs and artificial limbs. The VA's master plan for cleaning up its prosthetics program stretches into 1993. "It sounds good," one source told our reporter Cindy Gerner, but much of the planning is "process stuff that doesn't change the real world or help a vet waiting to get a replacement leg."

Injured men and women of prior wars are already on waiting lists.

Judge who called rape victim 'pitiful' wants name cleared

Associated Press

SANFORD — A private investigator has been hired to help a retired judge rid himself of the "scarlet letter" he has worn since calling a rape victim "pitiful" and freeing her confessed attacker.

Casselberry attorney Gerald Rutberg said he has hired an investigator for his close friend, retired Judge Kenneth Leffler, who left office Dec. 31 under a cloud of bad publicity and criticism.

Leffler, who announced his retirement months before the rape controversy, said he approves of the effort.

"I just think that the whole story needs to be fully aired and let people draw their own conclusions," said Leffler, 62. "Just for truth's sake it is good to know what the real story is."

Rutberg hopes the investigation will answer unresolved questions about the rape case and show whether the otherwise respected judge was in fact, wrong or somewhere in between.

"I would like to see him with his head held high," Rutberg told The Orlando Sentinel for a report in today's editions. "I don't want him to walk around with a scarlet letter."

The inquiry infuriates the rape victim, who says any information Leffler gleans about her case is irrelevant. The only issue, she says, is whether Mark David McCulloch, currently a fugitive, raped her at her home near Casselberry almost a year ago.

McCulloch also lived at the home at the time.

"I just wish Leffler would be man enough to say, 'I made a mistake,'" she said.

Seminole County investigators said McCulloch, 37, confessed. In July, he pleaded guilty to sexual battery, false imprisonment and battery. A plea agreement called for prison time, but in September Leffler gave McCulloch two years of probation and told him to be more careful about choosing women in the future.

"Anyone who could be so stupid to take up with this woman deserves some consideration," Leffler said at the time. He had handled the woman's divorce several years before.

In January the 5th District Court of Appeal ruled that McCulloch must be resentenced because Leffler did not file a written report explaining why he ignored state guidelines in sentencing McCulloch.

Last month a judge issued an arrest warrant for McCulloch, but he has fled. He had been living in Sanford after his release. Investigators do not know where he is and the victim says she fears McCulloch might harm her or other women.

McCulloch's lawyer has asked a judge to allow his client to withdraw his guilty plea and begin the case again. Assistant Public Defender Arthur Haft argues that McCulloch's rights were violated when he spoke with investigators.

Rutberg said part of the reason he decided to look into the case was because of an account of the case presented on the television show, "A Current Affair."

That report included comments from the rape victim's son and daughter-in-law, who said they did not believe McCulloch had raped the victim and that the two were lovers. The victim maintains McCulloch was merely her tenant.

Rutberg said the inquiry is not intended to interfere with the pending criminal proceedings and has no official purpose. Rutberg said. The Judicial Qualifications Commission, which had accused Leffler of violating several canons of judicial ethics, lost any power over Leffler when he retired in December.

Leffler continues to stand by his most noted decision.

"I am happy with what I did because in my own heart I know I am right," Leffler said. "I am not bothered. I did what I should have done."

He said that some smaller businesses are giving what they can this year, though it is becoming increasingly difficult.

Farr said that he believes that many young people have decided not to attend college at this time because financial restraints prevent it.

Even with assistance, college may be an unaffordable luxury for many. According to Farr, the financial need of many of this year's scholarship applicants, who now attend Seminole and Lake Mary High School, is acute.

"The students who have applied have a tremendous need for assistance this year," he said. "They are all fine students who need assistance if they are going to be able to go to college."

There are 38 graduating seniors hoping for assistance from the chamber this year.

The average cost of attending a state college is rising at a rate of about five percent per year according to the Department of Education. A year at a four year college in the state university, including room and board, may cost upwards of $7,000 per year.

The scholarships will be awarded on May 20 at the chamber's education committee's award night in the Fine Arts auditorium at Seminole Community College.

Businesses or individuals who would like to contribute to the scholarship fund are asked to contact Janice Springfield, who chairs the education committee at 331-2133; Jim Young, the chamber president, at 330-5190 or the chamber at 322-2212.

Police: 2 boys killed for thrill

Associated Press

PORT ORANGE — Two teen-agers strangled a 14-year-old girl to find out what it was like and then burned her body in a satanic ritual, one of the youths told investigators.

John Linsens of Port Orange and Judson Vedder of Merritt Island, both 17, were charged with first-degree murder earlier this month in the slaying of Tammy Whittington last December.

Linsens choked the girl while

Vedder held her arms behind her back in woods near Port Orange, an arrest affidavit said. Vedder had sex with the dead girl before the two set her body on fire, the affidavit said.

Linsens told investigators he and Vedder often played Dungeons & Dragons, a fantasy game set in medieval times, and were satanists.

"They had their own little brotherhood," Volusia County sheriff's investigator Bernie Buscher said Tuesday.

"Those buildings are just sitting there empty while people are walking the streets. There's something inherently wrong with that," he said.

Studies of affordable housing should include all costs of living in a house or apartment, said L.P. "Lou" Maltre, Florida Public Utilities Company district manager. Low-income families should be encouraged to seek energy management programs to reduce their utility bills, he said.

Representatives from the Heart of Florida United Way, Habitat for Humanity, Good Samaritan Home, Catholic Social Services, Jewish Family Services, Seminole County Human Services and the Sanford Christian Sharing Center attended yesterday's SHAC meeting.

The year before the merger, the Altamonte-Casselberry chamber snatched up the rights to use the name "Seminole County Chamber of Commerce," held by the Sanford chamber of Commerce since 1945, Lewis said. The new name, "Greater Seminole County Chamber of Commerce," was first used in 1980, Lewis said. In 1983, the Members of the authority have been seeking such tourist flights for quite some time, promoting the idea that the airport is large, has excellent facilities, is very near Central Florida tourist attractions, has excellent road systems for tourist transportation, and is close to the eastern beach area. Cooke said that while in Berlin, he found that foreigners seemed to prefer beach vacations, even beyond theme parks.

The Sanford airport facility will also have a display at the AMTECH trade show in Orlando in the near future, which is primarily designed to promote maintenance facilities at various airports.

On another matter during yesterday's meeting, Hewitt Contracting Company, of Leesburg, which submitted the lowest bid, was selected to undertake the widening of taxiway "C" at the airport. Cooke said. "The widening will increase the width from 50 to 75 feet." The work will also include some lighting improvements and other needs. Hewitt's bid on the job totaled $1,018,425.

The Airport Authority members voted to accept Hewitt's bid from the four that were received, pending final grant approval from the Federal Aviation Authority.

Another lawmaker resigns in scandal

PHOENIX — Sen. Jesus "Chuy" Higuera became the fifth state lawmaker charged in a vote-selling scandal to resign, and the Senate Ethics Committee unanimously recommended expulsion of a sixth legislator, Sen. Carolyn Walker.

Meanwhile, a lobbyist pleaded guilty Tuesday in the scandal and signed a statement implicating former Rep. Bill English, another of those charged.

In all, 16 people, including seven lawmakers, have been indicted in the case. Four of the lawmakers have pleaded guilty.

More officers were at L.A. beating

BEVERLY HILLS — Twenty-one Los Angeles police officers — six more than authorities first admitted — were present when a black motorist was beaten in an attack captured on videotape, the Police Department said.

Meanwhile, the Los Angeles Times said today that arresting officers vastly understated Rodney G. King's injuries after the beating, describing them as minor cuts and bruises. The officers also reported they believed — contrary to medical evidence — that he was high on drugs or alcohol, the newspaper said.

Four officers, including a supervising sergeant, have been charged with assault in the March 3 beating. The 25-year-old Altadena man was beaten with nightsticks, kicked and shocked with a stun gun in an attack videotaped by an onlooker.

King's attorney, Steven Lerman, announced plans to sue for $56 million — $1 million for each blow inflicted. Lerman said at least 25 officers were present.

Woman, daughter charged with murder

NEW YORK — A woman who wanted to present her boyfriend with a baby despite a stillbirth invited a friend over and with the help of her 13-year-old daughter killed the woman and kept the victim's infant son, police said.

Pamela Andrews, 37, and her daughter Shakota Andrews, both of Brooklyn, were arrested Tuesday and charged with murder and kidnapping.

Ms. Andrews, the mother of two children and two foster children, was eight months pregnant when her baby was stillborn in mid-February, Inspector Edward Capello said.

"Her boyfriend was out of town, her boyfriend knew that she was pregnant. She lost the baby, she didn't want to disappoint her boyfriend. Hence, she was looking around for a child," he said.

Lower income taxpayers focus of audit

By JIM LUTHER
AP Tax Writer

WASHINGTON — White House officials proposed earlier this year to force the Internal Revenue Service to audit more low- and middle-income taxpayers but target fewer large corporations, documents obtained by House investigators show.

The Office of Management and Budget contended that stepping up simple mail audits — which affect mainly those with lower incomes — was the easiest way to boost tax collections quickly.

IRS Commissioner Fred T. Goldberg Jr. argued vehemently against that approach.

"IRS would not direct any additional effort into low-income, individual income tax audits as proposed by OMB," IRS officials wrote. "All resources provided for the examination (audit) program should be directed toward the high-asset business and corporate areas consistent with the service's overall compliance strategy."

The dispute came in late December and January as OMB was putting together President Bush's budget for the fiscal year that begins next Oct. 1.

Papers relating to the discussions were obtained by the House Ways and Means oversight subcommittee in preparation for a hearing today on the $6.7 billion IRS budget, which is up 10.2 percent from this year.

OMB officials refused to comment on the papers because they were internal documents. The budget office was invited to send a witness to the hearing but declined.

According to the documents, OMB proposed that part of the IRS enforcement budget for the current year be shifted "into individual income tax correspondence audits in order to realize the quick revenue payback of this investment."

The Treasury Department, parent of the IRS, eventually asked that an extra $77 million be earmarked in this year's budget for auditing upper-income individuals and big corporations. OMB cut that back to $58.7 million. An additional $35 million requested for 1992 was slashed to $6 million.

"The commissioner won a good part of the round but was unable to get all he wanted for high-income audits," said a Ways and Means Committee aide who follows the IRS budget and spoke on condition of anonymity.

"One immediate effect will be to reduce direct enforcement revenue (increased tax collections caused by higher audits) over the fiscal year 1992-1996 period by about $1 billion," an IRS document said.

"Unless the government as a whole makes a long-term commitment to improve the tax system, a substantial risk is erosion in voluntary compliance, which could cost billions of dollars in lost revenue."

Although the IRS collects 90 percent of the revenues on which the government operates, it was required to take spending cuts with all other agencies as the government tried to contract during the Reagan years.

The battle over the new IRS budget comes at a time when the agency acknowledges a long-term decline in the percentage of returns being audited. Only about nine of every 1,000 returns will be audited this year.

From 1981 through 1990, there was a more dramatic decline in audit coverage of big corporations, Goldberg told a House Appropriations subcommittee earlier this month.

However, he added, "Thanks to wage withholding and the development of our information reporting programs (computer matching of income-earned forms against tax returns) during the past decade, the plain fact is that working men and women of this country are substantially compliant with our nation's tax laws. To an overwhelming extent, they do indeed pay their fair share."

Hostage release predicted

BEIRUT, Lebanon — A newspaper said today that Western hostages in Lebanon will be freed this week, including all six Americans believed held by pro-Iranian factions. It said the Americans would be in Syria on Saturday.

The front-page report in the conservative Ad-Diyar newspaper comes amid intensified cooperation by U.S., Iranian and Syrian officials aimed at securing the hostages' release.

The longest-held hostage, Associated Press chief Middle East correspondent Terry Anderson, 43, was seized on March 16, 1985.

The Ad-Diyar report said the Americans would be freed Friday at an unnamed hotel in Beirut in the presence of Interior Minister Sami Al-Khatib and the commander of Syria's military intelligence in Lebanon, Brig. Gen. Ghazi Kenaan.

Serbian leaders agree to talks

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia — Under increasing pressure to resign, Serbia's hard-line president has toned down his call for a military crackdown and agreed to talk with the presidents of rival non-Communist republics.

Today, Serbia's Communist-dominated parliament began discussion of who should be blamed for the crackdown 10 days ago that set into motion a series of events that have eroded the power of Serbian President Slobodan Milosevic.

Serbia is the largest and most populous of the six republics and two semi-autonomous provinces of Yugoslavia, with Belgrade serving as both the national and Serbian capital.

Polish leader expected to get U.S. financial aid

By W. DALE NELSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON — The United States is expected to lend a helping hand to Polish President Lech Walesa by forgiving an increased share of his country's debt as the beleaguered leader begins a week-long American visit.

Walesa, who arrived in Washington late Tuesday, planned to confer today with President Bush, Secretary of State James A. Baker III and Defense Secretary Dick Cheney.

The United States and other Western nations agreed last Friday to write off at least 50 percent of Poland's debt to their governments, which totals $33.5 billion and on which no payments have been made in recent years.

A senior administration official, briefing reporters on condition of anonymity, said Tuesday that the United States "has the authority, and I think we will be using the authority, to go beyond the 50 percent."

"I think we will want to do a little more, and perhaps other will also do a little more," the official said.

"Poland very much needs this," he said.

KUWAIT CITY — The crown prince has dissolved the Cabinet in response to public anger over its inability to provide leadership and services after the devastation of Iraq's seven-month occupation, a government minister said today.

Crown Prince Saad Abdullah al-Sabah, who is also prime minister, offered the resignations late Tuesday, said Sulayman al-Mutawa, minister of planning. He said, however, that the country's ruler, Sheikh Jaber al-Ahmed al-Sabah, would probably ask the prime minister to form a new government immediately, indicating the ruling al-Sabahs do not intend to relinquish any power.

Besides being criticized for delays in restoring essential services and providing food and water, the al-Sabahs have been under pressure both at home and abroad to implement democratic reform.

Al-Mutawa said the 22-member Cabinet decided to resign because of the "criticism of us. Many people kept on saying 'What have you been doing?'"

"It may ease the pressure that is building up," he said. "Let us hope it speeds up the return to parliamentary changes."

The ruling family has promised democratic reform, but has been vague on when it might come.

Kuwait's ambassador to the United Nations, Mohammad Abulhasan, said in New York that the Cabinet resignations were immediately accepted by the emir. He said the new Cabinet should be named in about a week.

"This is the first step in putting the house in order," he said.

Reacting to the announcement, a pro-democracy activist, Eman al-Bedah, said: "That's good news. Maybe something will get done now."

The al-Sabahs suspended Parliament in 1986 and many Kuwaitis who braved the Iraqi occupation — including women who have never had the vote — are now demanding they have more of a say in how the country is run.

Al-Mutawa said the massive destruction inflicted by the Iraqis had made it virtually impossible for any government to lead effectively. He cited the setting alight of 550 oil wells and extensive damage to power stations.

But many say the damage is no excuse and that, three weeks after its liberation, oil-rich Kuwait should not still be short of food and largely without power and water.

The emir did not return from exile in Saudi Arabia until Thursday — and then received only a lukewarm welcome from his citizens, some of whom thought he should have returned sooner to take charge.

Most reconstruction work is being done by the allied military forces and private foreign organizations, and there is little sign of government activity in rebuilding.

Government ministers have been criticized for bringing in huge stocks of water and food for their private use while ordinary citizens linger in lengthy food and water lines.

Gobbledygook

Woman launches campaign against awful use of language

By ROBERT H. ANDREWS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON — Carolyn Boccia Bagin is a lonely crusader for plain English in a world that speaks gobbledygook.

Her enemy is the growing avalanche of badly written forms, unintelligible letters and confusing documents that drive millions of Americans nearly bonkers every day. The enemy, she says, is everywhere.

College students can't understand the loan applications they're supposed to fill out. The elderly are stumped by insurance claims. Telephone bills are a puzzle.

Sweepstakes entries are verbal jungles of legal jargon.

Think those Form 1040s from the tax people are a headache? Try tackling Form 171, the accordion-like federal job application that's a bureaucratic nightmare in small, green type.

"If you have the persistence to fill out this form, you ought to get the job anyway," Ms. Bagin says.

A former high school English teacher from suburban Philadelphia, Ms. Bagin is director of the Document Design Center at the private American Institutes of Research.

Her job is to transform the unintelligible paperwork of government and corporate clients into user-friendly models of simplicity and clarity.

"What's wrong with being direct and clear?" she asks. "Why isn't simplicity the goal?"

The center has redesigned Pennsylvania Electric's customer bills and Citicorp's collection letters. One of its biggest projects was a top-to-bottom rewrite of the owner's manual for Ford Taurus automobiles.

That job was commissioned after a senior Ford executive couldn't understand the old manual's instructions for setting the digital clock in his new car.

Declining competition threatening

By MARTIN CRUFTINGER
AP Economics Writer

WASHINGTON — The United States is losing badly to foreign competition in numerous high-technology fields considered crucial to the country's economic future and national security, said a study released today.

The Council on Competitiveness found that in areas from silicon production to robotics, U.S. industry is not expected to be a factor over the next five years.

"America's once-commanding lead in the critical technologies driving economic growth and national security is being seriously challenged by foreign competitors," the council, an organization composed of industry, labor and education executives, concluded in its two-year study.

The report surveyed nine technology-intensive industries, ranging from aerospace to telecommunications, and came up with a list of 94 technologies considered crucial for U.S. economic prosperity in this decade.

In a sobering assessment, it found that in 15 of the 94 critical technologies, the United States is so far behind that it is not likely to have a presence in the world market through the mid-1990s.

Among these technologies judged lost are two — display materials and computer memory chips — considered vital for development of high definition television sets, the next generation of TV receivers in which the United States is trying to catch up to the Japanese.

Other technologies listed in the lost column were computer circuit board technology and robotics and other automated equipment.

In 18 other areas, the U.S. position was listed as weak, with American industries behind in technology developments or likely to fall behind in the next five years.

In this category were included such critical fields as advanced metals development, precision bearings and lasers.

Lake Mary holds off Lyman

LONGWOOD — Brian Marotta struck out 10 and walked just one in a three-hit complete game performance that improved his personal record to 4-0 as Lake Mary (11-2) defeated Lyman 6-3 on Tuesday night.

Ben Rovito tripled and singled in three at bats to pace the Rams' six-hit attack. He also scored a run and drove in a run.

Matt Diemer and Chad Kesaler each had a single, one run scored and one RBI while Mike Werner scored two runs and Brian Milner scored one run. Eric Leister contributed a single and RBI. Jason Crain also hit single.

For Lyman, 5-7, Chad Beland singled and scored a run. Charlie Chapman singled while Brian Saunders added a double and two RBI.

Berzovich leads Patriots

SANFORD — Mike Berzovich shot an even par 36 Tuesday over the front nine holes at Mayfair Country Club to lead Lake Brantley to a 156-185 victory Seminole in a Seminole Athletic Conference dual match.

Also figuring in the scoring for Lake Brantley were Jason Opal (39), Ryan Stead (40) and Brian Hunicke (41).

Seminole was led by John Musick's 42. Royal also carded a 42 while Arcangeli came in with a 49 and Barrett shot a 52.

Lake Brantley, now 8-0 overall and 8-0 in the SAC, will play again next Monday against Oviedo at Sable Point Country Club. Seminole, 0-8 and 0-8 SAC in the conference, will play Thursday against DeLand at Village Green Country Club.

Orangewood tops Trinity

ORLANDO — Orangewood Christian improved its record to 6-1 with a 172-176 decision over Trinity Prep (4-4) on Tuesday afternoon at Rosemont Country Club.

Scott Armstrong guided the OCS Rams by shooting a three-over par 39 over the par 36 from nine at Rosemont. Billy West came in with a 41, Andy Braddock carded a 45 and Matt Kuchor shot a 47.

For Trinity Prep, Doug Smith finished with a 40, Mike Vallillo had a 41, Matt Brown shot a 47 and Bill Tenrey finished with a 48.

Orangewood's next match will be Thursday against Eustis at DeBary Plantation.

Knights extend win streak

ORLANDO — The University of Central Florida stretched its win streak to nine games here Tuesday with a 9-5 win over Princeton, 1-2, in the nightcap of the opening day of the Dr. Pepper UCF Classic.

Left fielder Eric Martinez and second baseman Ty Lynch each had two hits for the Knights while right fielder Chad Motola hit his fifth home run of the season in the second inning.

Starting pitcher Todd Africano, 2-0, scattered six hits over six innings while left-hander Brian Huie collected his fifth save after pitching the final three frames.

In the opening game of the Classic, Missouri's John Detmer pitched a complete game to lift the Tigers past Bradley, 4-2.

On Tuesday morning, the Knights swept their American South Conference series with Arkansas State, defeating the visiting Indians 8-4. Martinez hit a two-run homer, his seventh of the season, in the third inning.

The Knights continue tournament action this evening at 7 p.m. game against Missouri at the UCF Baseball Complex. Bradley and Princeton will play at 1 p.m.

BASKETBALL

Heat lose fifth straight

MILWAUKEE — Dale Ellis scored 17 of his 29 points in the first half as the Milwaukee Bucks beat Miami 101-88 Tuesday night to sweep the season series and hand the Heat its fifth straight loss.

Ellis scored six points in an 8-0 run at the start of the second quarter as the Bucks, 4-0 against the Heat, took control. They led 48-43 at halftime.

Willie Burton had 24 points and Glen Rice 19 for Miami, which lost its fourth consecutive road game. Rony Seikaly had 17 rebounds and 14 points for the Heat.

Burton had 16 first-half points, but the Heat shot 38.1 percent and committed 13 turnovers.

'Polar Bears' end season

Liquor Store cops crown

From staff reports

SANFORD — The Liquor Store capped a season-long comeback effort with a 4-2 triumph over Captain Nemo's in the playoff game for the championship of the Sanford Recreation Department Wednesday Night Polar Bear League at Chase Park.

The Liquor Store lost three of its first five games of the season at Pinehurst Park but fought back to finish the regular season tied with Captain Nemo's at 8-4. Included in the streak were two wins in three games with Nemo's.

The champs opened the scoring in the bottom of the second inning when Brian Jones reached on an error, advanced to second on a Robert Burgess single and scored on a single by Dennis Carroll.

They upped the lead to 3-0 in the third when Shawn Wyman and James Cox singled and scored on a triple by Tom Shanley.

The score remained 3-0 until the top of the sixth inning when Captain Nemo's scored its only runs. With one out, Craig Split reached on an error, advanced to second on a single by Chris Colon and scored on a single by Rocky Morris. After a pop up, Bubba Split cut the lead to one when he singled in Colon.

The Liquor Store added an insurance in the bottom of the sixth inning when Tim Waddles singled, went to second on a ground out by Jones and scored on a single by Robert Burgess.

Winning pitcher Glen Burgess and the defense did an excellent job holding the usually hard-hitting Captain Nemo's offense to seven singles and no earned runs.

Sanford Landing Apartments takes title

From staff reports

SANFORD — Sanford Landing Apartments scored five runs in the top of the fourth inning to erase a 5-3 deficit and went on to post a 12-5 triumph over the McClanahan Law Offices A's in the playoff game of the Sanford Recreation Department Tuesday Night Polar Bear League at Chase Park.

The win capped a late season comeback effort by the Sanford Landing Apartments team. They trailed the A's by a game and a half going into the last week of the regular season and responded by sweeping a doubleheader to tie for the championship with a 10-2 mark.

The victory was Sanford Landing's third in four games with the A's this season and erased the memory of losing in a playoff for the Fall League Tuesday Night title.

The Sanford Landing Apartments team got off to a fast start with three runs in the top of the first inning. Bill Gracey walked and went to second on a single by Don Anderson. Winning pitcher Tom Gracey followed with a double to score his brother and Jim Smith singled to score Anderson and Tom Gracey.

But the A's came back with three runs of their own in the bottom of the first. Jeff Madsen and Kevin Baker singled before Pete Mueller doubled to score Madsen. Tony Madsen followed with a grounder to score Baker and Mueller scored the tying run on a sacrifice fly by Nick Brady.

The A's took the lead in the third with a pair of See Tuesday, Page 3B

Lost inning costs Raiders vs. Patriots

By PHIL SMITH Herald Correspondent

SANFORD — Baseball is a nine-inning game. When you play for only eight of the nine innings, the results can be disastrous.

Such was the case Tuesday afternoon when the Seminole Community College Raiders dropped an 8-3 decision to the Central Florida Community College Patriots at Raider Field.

Already trailing 1-0 in the top of the fifth inning, the Raiders (6-14 overall and 3-7 in the North Central Conference) committed a pair of errors during a six-run outburst that gave the Patriots (18-10 overall, 10-2 in the conference) a 7-0 lead.

SCC came back with two runs in the sixth inning and one in the seventh.

In the sixth, Jason Sandberg led off with a walk and Jack Niles followed with a single. Sandberg See Baseball, Page 2B

Rams claim 'revenge win' over visiting Silver Hawks

From staff reports

LAKE MARY — Lisa Mastilunis singled home Marti Citarella with the eventual game-winning run Tuesday afternoon to give Lake Mary a 5-3 win over Lake Howell in a Seminole Athletic Conference slowpitch softball game.

With the score tied 3-3 going into the bottom of the third, Citarella reached on a one-out Lake Howell error. After Diane Duber drew a walk, Mastilunis singled in to score Citarella.

Duber ending up at third. Pam Davis then hit a sacrifice fly to score Duber.

"This is a revenge win for us," said first-year Lake Mary Coach Jeannie Fisher. "We lost to them in extra innings earlier in the season."

Today, we were able get people on and get runners in. See Rams, Page 3B

Scoreboard for Lake Howell vs Lake Mary: Lake Howell 201 000 0-3 7 3, Lake Mary 212 000 2-5 12 3

That's been a problem we've had. After the third innings, the defense tightened up. We still had situations where we had people on but couldn't get them in. We played well offensively for three innings, then we shut down. Lake Howell jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the top of the first as pitcher Diann Lowe hit a triple and Joy Joseph added a double. But the Rams got the runs back in their half of the inning. Heather Golden doubled and eventually scored. Rene Sanville hit a sacrifice fly and Tara Calvin had a single and an RBI.

Pats escape Fort Mellon with sweep of Seminoles

By BILL KERNS Herald Correspondent

SANFORD — Lake Brantley defeated Seminole 9-3 and 3-2 in nine innings for a sweep of a Seminole Athletic Conference girls' softball doubleheader Tuesday evening at Fort Mellon Park.

Lake Brantley, 14-2, is ranked fourth in the Florida Athletic Coaches Association's Class 4A state poll. Seminole, 3-7, had won two straight games.

In the opening game of the season Lake Brantley crushed Seminole 13-1. But, as Lake Brantley Coach Renny Betris pointed out, Seminole has improved since then.

"Seminole is much improved," said Betris. "With every game, they get better and better. Coach Register and his assistants are doing an excellent job. I told the girls before the game not to expect to blow Seminole out again 13-1."

Scoreboard for Lake Brantley vs Seminole: Lake Brantley 430 002 0-9 12 2, Seminole 200 000 0-3 6 7

Scoreboard for Lake Brantley vs Seminole: Lake Brantley 000 200 001-3 9 1, Seminole 200 000 000-2 7 5

Betris' point was underscored by the second game, when Seminole took Lake Brantley into extra innings before losing. "Those were two excellent games," said Seminole head coach Greg Register. "Any time we take Lake Brantley nine innings, we've played a great game. The girls did a See Sweep, Page 3B

Miami junior among five 1991 finalists for Florida Mr. Basketball

Associated Press
GAINESVILLE - Junior Steve Edwards, who led Miami Senior to its third consecutive Class 4A state high school championship last weekend, is among the five finalists announced Tuesday for the 1991 Florida Mr. Basketball award.
 Other leading vote-getters in first-round balloting by prep basketball writers from around the state were seniors Dwight Brown of St. Petersburg Gibbs, Ray Donald of Pensacola Washington, Russell Evans of Plant City and Oehiel Swaby of North Miami.
 A second round of voting will be held to determine the winner, to be announced April 12. Clifford Rozier was the 1990 winner and Douglas Edwards, Steve's older brother, was the 1989 recipient after also helping Miami Senior to a state title.
 The younger Edwards, a 6-foot-6 forward, is the first junior to become a finalist since Doug finished third in 1988. Steve averaged 23.5 points, seven rebounds and six assists per game to help Miami Senior to a 35-2 record.
 Brown is a 6-4 guard who averaged 26.7 points and eight rebounds in leading St. Petersburg Gibbs to a 31-3 record. He and Donald, a 6-7 forward who scored 24 points a game and paced Pensacola Washington's second-place finish in the Class 4A tournament, have signed letters of intent to attend Florida State.
 Evans, a 6-4 forward who's signed to play football at Northeast Louisiana, became Hillsborough County's career scoring leader this season when he averaged 34.8 points to help Plant City go 28-5.
 Swaby, a 6-7 forward who has verbally committed to attend Miami, set a state scoring average record last season with 47.4 points per game despite playing for a team that finished with a 6-18 record.

 lecting only six hits over the first five innings.
 Trailing 4-1 in the bottom of the seventh, Seminole tried to come back when Jennifer Thomas and Peters each singled with two outs and Bobbie Osborne reached on an error to score Thomas, cutting the lead to 4-2.
 But Barton flew out to end the game.
 "We've been starting slowly of late. In the doubleheaders, we been waiting for the second game to start hitting," said Seminole Coach Ileana Gallagher. "I moved the lineup around in the second game to try to get some more offense and it seemed to pay off."
 Seminole bounced back in the second game for 20 hits and 14 runs, scoring at least two runs in each of the first five innings.
 In the first inning, Barton reached on an error and scored on Gerry McCreary's single. McCreary advanced to third when the ball was mis-played in the outfield and scored on second on an error on a pick-off play with Niles advancing to third. Stanley Evans then reached on an infield single, scoring Niles.
 In the seventh, Blane Barroso led off with a single. An out later, Ralph Luciani singled, Barroso then scored on a wild pitch, but that was as close as SCC would get.
 "We played a good game except for one inning and that hurt us," said SCC Coach Jack Pantelis.
 The Raiders will try to bounce back this afternoon when they host Lake City Community College in a make-up game at 3 p.m.

Inter-County Basketball Association crowns 1991 division champions

From staff reports

OVIEDO — The 1991 winners in the six divisions of the Inter-County Basketball Association (ICBA) were the Tusawilla Warriors in the Varsity Boys, the Jackson Heights Kittens in the Girls, the South Seminole Hurricanes in the JV Boys, the Spurs in the Midgets, UNLV in the Peepees and the Steelers in the Peanut.

Varsity
Tusawilla romped over the Jackson Heights Razorbacks in the Varsity finals, 72-57. Xan Manning and Kelvin Chisholm led the Warriors scoring with 22 and 21 points, respectively. They also combined to dominate the backboards as well. Corey Brooks added eight points and Kyle Dobson and Ricardo Miranda four each for the winners.

Shareef Jackson led the Razorbacks with 18 points. Also contributing were Matt Sims (16), Jason Priest and Aaron Church (six each) and Chris Tulip and Joel Freund (five each).

Tusawilla had advanced to the finals by knocking off regular season champion South Seminole 58-42. Manning led the way with 34 points while R.J. Arceo topped South Seminole with 11.

GIRLS

South Seminole earned the right to meet the Kittens in the finals of the Girls Division by knocking off regular season champion Winter Park Bullets.

The Championship contest was close throughout with South Seminole holding a narrow lead after each of the first three quarters. But Jackson Heights used a typical fourth quarter comeback to rally from four points down at the break to win 33-32.

Lisa Liljenquist was the big gun for the Kittens with 18 points. Jackson Heights' leading scorer on the season, Stephanie Noisoux, was saddled with foul trouble the entire game and only scored nine points. Shyonna Tossie added four points for the winners. Also contributing were Carrie McAuliffe and Christine Markey with their defense and Tossie and Angela Goff with their rebounding.

Stacey Gomes (nine points), Sabrina Young (eight) and Angel Rhodes and Christine James (seven each) did the scoring for South Seminole.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The South Seminole Hurricanes won going away behind the long-range bombing of Reggie Kohn. Nate McCoy did most of the damage for Tusawilla with most of his points coming on three-point shots.

MIDGETS

The Spurs routed the Sixers in the final, 65-45, with Brian Kennedy scoring 27 points and dominating the backboards. Greg Ickes and Josh Craig added 14 points each while Mike House and Travis Van Eron chipped in with four points each.

Randall Smith continued his outstanding play for the Sixers with 31 points. Brent Herman and Brian Hanson supported Smith with six points each.

In a thrilling semi-final match the Spurs edged the Pistons 37-34. Kennedy (21), Craig (nine) and Ickes (five) did the damage for the Spurs while Mark Pipkin (14), Matt Lynch (13) and Scott Harrell (six) were the scoring leaders for the Pistons.

PEEPEE

UNLV beat the regular season winners, Indiana, 31-25 in the playoff final with Reggie Kohn leading the way with 21 points and several assists. Nick Hargrave added five points for the winners. Leading the Hoosiers offense were Sean Bennett (nine) and Scott Dean and Seth Fowler (six each).

In a semi-final game Indiana nipped Florida State 26-25 on Dean's three-pointer. Dean had eight points while Fowler added five and Kenny Birch and Kevin Caldwell four each. Mike Perez led the Noles with 19.

PEANUT

The Steelers beat the Chargers 23-17 in the Championship contest. Alex Torres (10), Ryan Butler (five) and Matt Young (four) led the scoring for the winners.

Leading the Chargers were Matt Gaudet (five) and Steve Maszy and Brad Awsumb (four each).

In the semi's, the Chargers edged the Giants 25-24 and the Steelers beat the Dolphins 31-20.

Doing the scoring for the Chargers were Maszy (nine), Butler (eight) and Alex Lemke (four). Erik Johnson scored nine, Winston James six and Rocky Centolanza five for the Giants.

Torres poured in 16 to lead the way for the Steelers with Butler adding nine and Young six. Zach Warner paced the Dolphins with eight. Also contributing were Mark Bierkan (four) and Justin Wikus and Ryan Robertson (three each).

great job. I have no complaints." Betris added that "as far as I'm concerned, there is no such thing as a moral victory, but Seminole played a very good game, and this was sort of a victory for them."

Lake Brantley took the early edge in the first game with four runs in the top of the first inning. Shelley Davis tripled while Tania Diaz, Kristi Wilson and Nic Rathburn singled to fuel the Patriot rally.

Argie Walker, Val Wilks and Nakia Riggins singled in the bottom half of the first inning as Seminole rebounded for three runs.

Three runs in the second inning widened Lake Brantley's lead to 7-3. Wilson hit a home run, Davis tripled and Diaz and Christa Schroefel singled during the rally.

A pair of Lake Brantley runs in the sixth inning capped the scoring. Shelly Sturdivant and Schroefel each singled in the inning.

Pacing the Lake Brantley attack in the first game were Davis (two triples, three runs, two RBI), Diaz (two singles, three runs), Wilson (two singles, two runs), Sturdivant (two singles, run, two RBI), Schroefel and Rathburn (two singles each) and Jen Soost (single).

Contributing to Seminole's effort were Walker (two singles, one run scored), Wilks and Riggins (a single and one run scored each) and Rita Frison, Tiffany Jones and Koscia Kennon (one RBI each).

Seminole came back in the second game and almost upset Lake Brantley, taking the lead in the bottom of the first inning with two runs as Andrea Ruffin, Walker, and Jones singled while Rita Frison contributed an RBI.

Lake Brantley tied the score in the fourth with two runs. Davis, Sturdivant, and Wilson singled in the inning.

The game remained tied until the ninth inning as Lake

Brantley collected only two hits and Seminole three hits from the fifth through the eighth innings. Kelly Hartman singled home Soost with the winning run for Lake Brantley.

"The defense was excellent," said Reglater. "Our bats have got to be a little bit better, but Lake Brantley is a good team."

Leading Lake Brantley were Davis (double, single, run scored), Wilson (two singles, RBI), Schroefel (two singles), Soost (single, run scored, RBI), Sturdivant (single, run scored) and Hartman (single, RBI).

The Seminole offense was led by Walker (two singles, one run scored), Jones (single, RBI), Ruffin (single, run scored), Tina Rathburn, Kennon and Alexis Weber (one single each) and Frison (RBI).

"They played great," Betris said of Seminole. "Kennon (third base), their shortstop (Walker) ... their first baseman (Frison) was scooping balls out of the dirt. The outfield (Ruffin, Riggins, Rathburn, and Turner) and the pitcher (Jones) all played great."

Lake Brantley was also perhaps not up to their usual level of play after playing in a half dozen games last week, including three on Saturday in a tournament in Coral Springs.

"I kind of expected to be a little down," said Betris. "But we're a team that rises to the occasion, although just barely today. Seminole did a very good job and we're happy to escape with a pair of wins."

The doubleheader was played to fill a hole left in the schedules of both teams when Orange County switched to fast pitch softball and cancelled all games with Seminole County teams. Only the first game of the twin-bill counted in the conference standings.

Seminole travels to Lake Howell Thursday for a 4 p.m. game. Lake Brantley travels to West Palm Beach to play defending state champion and No. 1-ranked Palm Beach Gardens Friday at 4 p.m.

runs. Ron Rinehart and Jeff Madsen singled but Baker lined into a double play. Mueller followed with a single that sent Madsen to second. Tony Madsen singled to score his brother and Brady singled to score Mueller.

But Tom Gracey, a Class C ASA All-American, would allow the A's only four base runners and no runs the rest of the way.

The champions' offense final awake in the fourth, thanks in part to wildness on the part of the A's pitcher. Dan Gracey and Arron Johns singled before a strike out, but then the pitcher lost the plate and the next three batters, Mike Dalton, Chris Davis and Bill Gracey, all walked to force in two runs and tie the game.

Anderson then grounded to third but the throw to first for the double play was late and Dalton scored the go ahead run. Tom Gracey and Smith followed with RBI singles to cap the big inning.

Sanford Landing Apartments added a run in the sixth inning on singles by Anderson, Tom Gracey and Smith and an RBI fielder's choice by Mike Laubert.

The scored their final three runs in the seventh inning when Johns singled, pinch hitter Brian Burgess reached on an error, Davis singled to load the bases, Bill Gracey singled to score one run and another run scored when the throw from the outfield got away. Anderson followed with a single to score the final run.

Contributing to the 17-hit Sanford Landing Apartments attack were Tom Gracey (double, three singles, run scored, two RBI), Anderson (four singles, three runs scored, two RBI), Smith (three singles, three RBI) and Johns (three singles, two runs scored).

Also contributing were Bill Gracey (single, two runs scored, two RBI), Davis (single, run scored, RBI), Dan Gracey (single, run scored), Laubert (RBI) and Burgess and Dalton (one run scored each).

Providing the offense for the McClanahan Law Offices A's were Mueller (double, two singles, two runs scored, RBI), Brady (two singles, two RBI), Jeff Madsen (two singles, two runs scored), Tony Madsen (single, two RBI), Baker (single, run scored) and Jim Brodie and Rinehart (one single each).

Levels VIII, IX and X girls of Brown's Central head into state championships

From staff reports

LARGO — The Level VIII, IX and X girls of Brown's Central of Altamonte Springs joined gymnastics teams from throughout Florida at La Fleur's Gymnastics on March 9 and 10 for the Women's United States Gymnastics Federation (USGF) Sectional Championships.

The qualifiers for this event will advance to the Level VIII, IX and X State Championships at Hillsborough Community College in Tampa this weekend, March 23-24. Level VIII qualifiers from this event will advance to more regional events, the Level IXs will go to the Eastern Nationals and the Level Xs will move on to the Nationals.

Level VIII and IX are optional levels. Routines are composed specifically for the gymnast. Level Xs compete both optional and compulsory programs in all events. The girls spend at least 20 hours a week in the gym to perfect their skills.

Level VIII State qualifiers include: Heather Mellin, Christin Horn, Gina DeBellis, Jana Waring, Jessica Durs, Taryn Wendelchaefer and Rachel Thompson. Level IX qualifiers were Kristen Hoferlin, Meghan Chase and Angie Deloach. Qualifying from Level X were Jenni Beathard, Chrissy Vogel, Dana Horne, Jennifer Wilder, Jamie Graziano and Tara Hollander.

Other competitors from this area to qualify were Level VIII's Kelly Greeno and Chrissy Van Fleet and Level IX Heather Crucey. All are from the Sun-twisters in Orlando.

Level VIII Senior Christin Horn finished fifth in the All-Around with her best individual score being a 9.0, good enough for first place in the uneven bars. Level VIII Senior Heather Mellin also had a good meet placing seventh in the All-Around after a third on the uneven bars (8.5) and third in the vault (8.8). Level IX competitor Angie Deloach placed seventh on the beam with a score of 9.1.

Rams

Lake Mary took its first lead with a run in the bottom of the second as Laurel Mcoll reached on an error scored on Golden's single. Then it was Lake Howell's turn to respond, tying the score in the top of the third. Kristy York led off with a single and scored on Tina Lehman's single.

For the Rams, Maria Montalvo was 3-for-4 while Calvin finished with a pair of singles.

In Tuesday's junior varsity game, Lake Mary defeated Lake Howell 9-4.

Wednesday

Neat mom's credo: Put it away, give it away or throw it away

DEAR ABBY: I would like to respond to a recent letter you received from "Down and Almost Out," whose 12- and 17-year-old children's rooms have begun to look like the local landfill. My advice may be too late for her, but it may help parents whose children are younger:

DEAR DOWN AND ALMOST OUT: Where have you been for the last 10 or 12 years? I presume you've been living in the same house as your children, right? I have a 12-year-old and a teen-ager. From the time they could understand, these were the ground rules:

1. No clothes on the floor or draped over chairs. Clothes go in the closet or a drawer. If they are soiled, they go into the hamper.
  2. Wastebaskets are emptied on a regular basis (and not by me).
  3. No storage of anything under the beds. Captain's beds with drawers underneath are wonderful for storage, and nothing gets dusty.
  4. Absolutely, positively, no food or drink in the bedrooms. (No exceptions!) We have a kitchen for eating.
- As for hairspray on the walls and ceilings, I guess you'll have to tell your children to work on better aim, or else they should scrub it off.

ADVICE

My teen-ager is neat as a pin, totally organized. My younger child is not as neat and needs more reminders, but when I see that his room is starting to get out of control, he has to work on it. If it ever gets to the point that I know it is beyond him, then I help him get out from under. I don't do it for him. My motto: "Put it away, give it away or throw it away." We use three bags, one for hand-me-downs for relatives, one for charity and one for garbage. Everything else is put back in its place.

Don't let your kids ruin your house. Take control right now and try to turn those bad habits around. Someone else is going to have to live with your kids one day.

Asparagus sure sign of spring

A sure sign of spring is the appearance of fresh asparagus on the produce counter. Early spring is peak season for asparagus, so enjoy it while it is at its best. Look for fresh appearing, crisp stalks with tightly closed tips. It will keep for 1 to 2 days, refrigerated in an airtight container. The microwave cooks asparagus beautifully. Wash well, trim scales on stalks and snap off bottoms. (They will break just between the tender and tough portions). Allow about 1/2 lb. per serving for whole asparagus. Basic microwaving for asparagus is as follows: wash and trim and arrange spears in a 10 X 6 glass baking dish. Add 2 tablespoons of water. Cover with plastic wrap. Microwave on 100% power, 6 1/2 to 7 minutes or until tender. Drain. Serve with butter or one of the following sauces.

HOLLANDAISE SAUCE IN SECONDS

- 1/4 C. butter or margarine
- 2 tsp. lemon juice
- 2 egg yolks, beaten well
- 2 Tbsp. evaporated milk
- 1/4 tsp. salt

Melt butter in small bowl or 2-cup glass measuring cup for 30 seconds. Stir in lemon juice, egg yolks, and milk. Microwave on 100% power for 15 seconds, stir and microwave 15 seconds more, or until mixture begins to thicken. Let stand a few seconds, stir and serve.

CREAM DILL SAUCE

- 1/4 C. sour cream
  - 1 Tbsp. mayonnaise
  - 1/4 tsp. Bean Monde seasoning
  - 1/4 tsp. dill weed
- Combine sour cream, mayonnaise, seasoning and dill weed. Spoon over cooked asparagus.

Asparagus combines with water chestnuts for an oriental side dish.

ASPARAGUS AND WATER CHESTNUTS

- 1 lb. fresh asparagus spears
  - 2 Tbsp. water
  - 1 can (8 oz.) sliced water chestnuts, drained
  - 2 Tbsp. butter or margarine
  - 1 tsp. lemon juice
  - 1 tsp. soy sauce*
- Wash and trim asparagus. Arrange in 10 X 6-inch loaf baking dish. Cover with plastic wrap. Microwave on 100% power, 6 1/2 to 7 minutes or until tender. Drain; add water chestnuts. Microwave on 100% power, 30-45 seconds or until melted. Add lemon juice and soy sauce; blend well. Drizzle over asparagus and water chestnuts; mix lightly. Microwave on 100% power, uncovered, 1 to 1 1/2 minutes or until hot. Serves 4; 85 calories each.

MICROWAVE MAGIC

*Soy sauce is available in low sodium as well as regular sauce.

For a colorful vegetable combination to serve with Spring ham and lamb entrees, this herb-glazed side dish will be a nutritious change.

ASPARAGUS AND CARROTS TARRAGON

- 3 carrots, peeled and cut into 1/2-inch slices
- 2 Tbsp. water
- 1 lb. fresh asparagus, cut into 1-inch pieces
- 2 Tbsp. butter or margarine
- 1/2 tsp. tarragon leaves

Combine carrots and water in a 1-quart casserole. Cover with lid. Microwave on 100% power, 3-4 minutes or until carrots are tender-crisp. Add asparagus. Cover. Microwave on 100% power, 5 to 5 1/2 minutes or until asparagus is tender; stirring once. Drain. Add butter and tarragon; mix lightly.

Chilled cooked asparagus is wonderful combined with other vegetables for a salad.

ASPARAGUS VINAIGRETTE

- 1 lb. fresh asparagus spears
  - 2 Tbsp. water
  - 1/2 C. cooking oil
  - 2 Tbsp. wine vinegar
  - 1/2 tsp. garlic powder
  - 10 cherry tomatoes, halved
  - 2 Tbsp. Parmesan cheese
- Wash and trim asparagus spears. Arrange in a 10 X 6 glass loaf baking dish. Cover with plastic wrap. Microwave on 100% power, 6 1/2 to 7 minutes or until tender. Drain. Add oil, wine vinegar, and garlic powder; mix lightly. Cover and refrigerate until well chilled. Just before serving, mix in tomatoes; garnish with ripe olives and hard cooked egg. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese.

Easter lamb is a traditional meal, (recipes below), served with asparagus, a spring favorite, (recipes left).

Easter lamb is meal's centerpiece of tradition

By Alison Claire
NEA Food Editor

Easter Sunday is the most important date on the Christian calendar. It follows the solemn Good Friday observance of Jesus Christ's crucifixion; Easter is the joyous celebration of his rising from the dead.

Early spring is filled with the signs of revival, as nature springs back to life following the end of winter. Spring flowers, such as the lily, decorate churches and homes across the country.

In many homes, the Easter lamb is the meal's centerpiece. It recalls the Paschal Lamb that was served in a Passover rite on Maundy (Holy) Thursday. Jesus took part in the Last Supper on the night before his crucifixion.

Thus, the lamb, which signifies the natural fecundity of spring, has become a symbol of the crucified and risen Christ.

CROWN ROAST OF LAMB

- 2 lamb rib racks, 7-8 chops each (about 2 pounds)
  - 1/2 teaspoon fresh rosemary or tarragon, chopped
  - freshly ground pepper
  - 1 clove garlic, cut in half
  - 4 tablespoons olive oil
  - salt to taste
- Apricot and Walnut Brown Rice Stuffing (recipe follows)
- Preheat oven to 375-degrees. Season meat with pepper and rosemary; rub meat with cut sides of garlic. Place on a rack in shallow roasting pan. Stuff center of crown with crumbled piece of aluminum foil so it will hold its shape. Rub meat well with 2 tablespoons olive oil.

Roast in 375-degree oven 30 to 40 minutes or until a meat thermometer reaches 140 degrees for pink, 150 degrees for medium and 160 degrees for medium-well. Baste meat with remaining olive oil, two or three times during roasting. Sprinkle with salt, remove from oven to serving platter and take off string and foil. Fill crown with Apricot and Walnut Brown Rice Stuffing. Garnish with apricot quarters filled with fruit preserves and sprigs of fresh herbs. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 servings.

(Have the butcher tie the lamb rib racks together to form the crown roast.)

APRICOT AND WALNUT BROWN RICE STUFFING

- 1/3-cup onions, chopped
  - 1/3 cup celery, chopped
  - 1 tablespoon olive oil
  - 2 cups cooked brown rice
  - 2/3 cup walnuts, coarsely chopped
  - 2/3 cup dried apricots, coarsely chopped
  - 3 tablespoons pine nuts, toasted
  - 3 tablespoons seedless raisins, soaked in warm water to plump, then drained
  - 1 tablespoon fresh parsley, snipped
  - 1/2 teaspoon dried thyme leaves
  - 1/4 teaspoon dried sage leaves
  - salt and ground black pepper
  - 1/2 cup chicken broth
- Cook onions and celery in olive oil in small skillet over medium heat. Combine all ingredients in large bowl; turn into greased 2-quart baking dish. Cover with foil and bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 servings.

Dress up traditional brunch for Easter with Salmon Benedict, Poppyseed Muffins and fresh fruit.

Traditional Easter brunch served with elegant flair

GLEN ELLEN, Calif. — In California's wine country, Easter Sunday usually brings warm, Spring weather for the family to enjoy outdoors. Unlike many holidays, the family meal may be lighter fare, or served earlier to coincide with activities of the day.

"Good cooks usually enjoy the challenge of adjusting menus to suit the occasion," said Stella Fleming, chief chef for an area winery. "At the winery, we're often asked to develop creative variations for guests who visit throughout the year." For example, the following Easter Brunch menu offers variety to a traditional dish and can be served before or after an Easter egg hunt.

Smoked salmon adds a new look to traditional Eggs Benedict, while the Beurre Blanc replaces a more difficult hollandaise sauce. In busy weeks can also enjoy the day, Fleming said.

A light Chardonnay Spritzer provides added zest to the early occasion, and blends well with the recipes that follow.

SMOKED SALMON AND AVOCADO BENEDICT (serves 4)

12 oz. smoked salmon
2 avocados, pitted, peeled and sliced
8 large eggs
2 Tbsp. vinegar
4 English muffins, lightly toasted
1 bunch of dill
Beurre Blanc:
1 c. Glen Ellen Proprietor's Reserve Chardonnay
¼ c. lemon juice
1 stick chilled unsalted butter, cut into 8 pieces

Place wine and lemon juice in small non-reactive skillet and bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce liquid by ¾. Remove pan from heat and whisk in 4 Tbsp. of butter. Over low heat, whisk in remaining butter one piece at a time. Remove from heat and keep warm.

Bring 2 inches of water (in a non-aluminum skillet), a dash of salt and the vinegar to a boil. Add the eggs one at a time and reduce the heat to a simmer. Cook for approximately 3 minutes until whites are set.

Place 2 English muffin halves on each plate. Top with avocado slices, smoked salmon and poached eggs. Spoon Beurre Blanc evenly over each egg and garnish with dill.

CHARDONNAY SPRITZER

Add 2 oz. of sparkling mineral water to 4-8 oz. of Glen Ellen Proprietor's Reserve Chardonnay. Garnish with a lemon twist.

ORANGE POPPY MUFFINS (yield: 12 muffins)

½ c. butter
1 c. sugar
2 eggs
1 tsp. baking soda
1 c. buttermilk
2 cups all-purpose flour
2 Tbsp. poppyseeds
Grated zest of 2 oranges
½ c. orange juice
½ c. brown sugar
Preheat oven to 400 degrees.

In large bowl, cream butter and sugar. Add eggs and beat until well mixed. Dissolve baking soda in buttermilk and add to mixture. Add flour, poppyseeds and zest. Fill buttered muffin tins ¾ full and bake for 15-20 minutes.

In small bowl, mix juice and brown sugar. Pour 1 tsp. over each hot muffin.

Sweet potato isn't just for holidays

By Aileen Claire
NEA Food Editor

Many families serve sweet potatoes only as part of a traditional holiday meal, especially Thanksgiving dinner.

However, this relative of the morning glory is a year-round staple. It is especially important in the diets of those in warmer climates, where it grows the best. For that reason, it is not surprising that the largest producers in this country are North Carolina, Louisiana and California. It is also a valued crop in other Southern states, as well as Texas.

The flesh of the sweet potato lends itself to such treats as puddings and pies — even ice cream.

GOLDEN SWEET POTATO SOUP
2 cups orange juice
2 cups chicken broth

1 pound sweet potatoes, peeled and diced

½ cup celery, diced
¼ cup instant minced onion
¾ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon ground cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground nutmeg
1 cup half-and-half cream or milk
½ cup pecans, chopped (optional)

In a large saucepan, bring orange juice and chicken broth to a boil. Add sweet potatoes, celery, instant minced onion, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer, covered, for 10 minutes.

Place one-half of the liquid and vegetable mixture into the container of an electric blender. Blend until smooth. Repeat with remaining liquid and vegetables. Return all soup to saucepan. Add cream or milk; heat until hot. Serve sprinkled with pecans, if desired. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 4 servings.

Surgery may relieve this knee condition

DEAR DR. GOTT: My wife has been diagnosed with chronic chondromalacia patellae and has been told by her doctor she is headed for life in a wheelchair. Can you enlighten us and recommend appropriate treatment for this condition?

cannot be repaired or treated with anti-arthritis medicine, she may be a candidate for more complicated surgery to replace the knee with an artificial joint. Such an operation will enable her to walk and exercise normally.

MEDICINE

PETER GOTT, M.D.

(C)1991 NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.

DEAR READER: I think you misunderstood your wife's doctor. Chondromalacia patellae, softening of the cartilage in the kneecaps, is a temporary disorder that affects young people. It causes pain and stiffness of the knees. These symptoms are worsened by repetitive exercise, such as running and climbing stairs.

Treatment consists of rest, anti-inflammatory analgesics (such as aspirin and ibuprofen) and special leg-strengthening exercises. In my experience, the condition seems to be related to the rapid growth phase of adolescence, and I cannot remember a single patient who suffered any degree of long-term disability from it. In short, healthy kids outgrow it.

This is why I doubt chondromalacia is your wife's diagnosis, unless she is an active girl in her teens. In any case, chondromalacia patellae will not cause her to end up in a wheelchair.

On the other hand, your wife could have another disease, such as osteoarthritis, that affects her knees. This could progress to the point where she becomes handicapped.

I believe she needs an orthopedic surgeon to make a diagnosis. She may require arthroscopy, a procedure during which the specialist introduces a lighted tube into the joint and examines the lining to detect flaws and imperfections. Some cartilage damage can even be repaired through an arthroscope.

If, as I suspect, your wife has advanced osteoarthritis that

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby
Everyone is told not to play immediately after the dummy is tabled. But even experts do not always take this excellent advice.

Place your thumbs over the East-West cards and decide how you would play in five clubs when the spade king is led. West having opened with a weak two-bid in spades.

This hand was played during the Cap Gemini Pandata World Top Tournament in the Netherlands last January. One East-West pair scored plus 790 in four spades doubled. Two North-South pairs tried six clubs, which was too high.

The other five North-South pairs were in five clubs. When West was on lead, a diamond would have defeated the contract immediately, but every West led a top spade.

Now you have to be careful as declarer. If you make the reasonable assumption that you will lose two diamonds, your 11 tricks must come by way of five trumps, two top hearts, two established diamonds and two spade ruffs in dummy. But you have to watch out for your entries.

The correct play is to ruff the spade lead high in the dummy. Next cross to hand with a trump, ruff another spade high, east the A-K of hearts, discarding the last spade, and draw trumps. Finally lead a diamond to dummy's 10. You lose two diamond tricks, but that is all.

The same play works if North is the declarer and East leads the queen of spades.

One anonymous expert ended with egg on his face. As soon as the dummy appeared, he ruffed the spade lead low without further thought. He couldn't recover.

HOROSCOPE

By Bernice Bede Osol
YOUR BIRTHDAY
March 21, 1991

More opportunities than usual may come your way in the year ahead; put them to good use. And, don't make the mistake of thinking this trend is inexhaustible.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) If you're buying something expensive today, it might be wise to bring along a value-conscious advisor. There's a possibility that you may not recognize a bum deal. Trying to patch up a broken romance? The Astro-Graph Matchmaker can help you understand what to do to make the relationship work. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) In order to be more effective today, it's best to understate things rather than overstate them. Ostentatiousness or displaying poor taste could severely damage your image.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Usually, you strive to be realistic, but today you might feel that the world owes you a living. Unfortunately, the world may not agree and disappointments are likely.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) If you get involved in a pleasurable pursuit today, make certain you can afford what you choose to do. Make doubly certain that your cohorts are willing to pay their fair share.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) This is not a good day to take important things for granted, especially where your career is concerned. If you get too complacent, it could lead to your downfall.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Instead of assessing developments from a practical perspective, you might see things today as you would like them to be, instead of as they actually are.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) For some strange reason today, you might feel obligated to someone to whom you owe nothing. This will be readily apparent to others, yet you'll be hard to convince.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) If you join forces with someone who treats an issue you take seriously rather lightly today, the results aren't apt to be notable. Be selective where allies are concerned.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You won't be plagued with a lack of imagination today, but what you conceive might count for nothing; you may be too lazy to translate ideas into action.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You may be tempted to get involved with someone whom your better judgment says is best to avoid today. If you ignore your advisor, you may regret it later.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) In order to be successful today, you must manage your own endeavors through to finalization. Things you do not personally supervise could run amok.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) This might not be a good time to start a program requiring self-discipline, such as dieting or a regular exercise routine. Wait until your resolve is stronger.
