Family Of The Year Contest Planned

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI
Sanford Junior Women's Club members are definitely on the move—and who will benefit by their movements?—The community will.
Last fall, the Juniors voted to work towards forming a youth volunteer service in the nursing homes in Sanford as a community improvement project with plans to begin immediately.
Nursing homes in the area will be asked to participate in the program by assisting in the development of a workable plan for youth volunteers.
The selection of volunteers will be made upon recommendation from churches, schools and civic organizations.
Mrs. Thomas (Jan) Freeman who is chairman of the project for the Juniors will answer questions about the program.
On March 10, the Juniors will sponsor an International Tasting Dinner that idea is really catching on, isn't it? for members and invited guests.
And on May 6, some of the area homes will be on display in the Tour of Homes sponsored by the Juniors. This promises to be an exciting event. Watch for the listing of the really interesting homes and people who have agreed to participate in this project.
But on March 22, at 7:30 p.m. at the Sanford Woman's Club, will be the community service project which is receiving the most attention and hardest work at this time. It is the "Family of the Year" Contest sponsored by the Juniors. All Sanford based organizations have been invited to submit a recommendation for this year's Family of the Year. The deadline for receipt of the entries, which should be mailed in to Mrs. William Reck, Jr., on this same night, guests will be entertained with the most smashing show of fabulous spring coutier for men, women and children. Mrs. Faye Senkark is chairman of this show.
The event is very important because it is a benefit affair, with proceeds to be allocated to the Mental Health Association.

Miss Mary Lee Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Mary A. Lee, bride-elect of Kenneth A. Lopp, was guest of honor at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Pat Spivey, in Lake Mary, Feb. 8. Hostesses were Mrs. Spivey and Miss Daisy Lee.
The honoree greeted her guests wearing a blue double knit dress with white trim and her mother chose a blue polyester ensemble.
Highlighting the evening's festivities was the opening of the gifts which were arranged on a table overlaid with a white cloth.
The refreshment table, centered with a large cake laid in white with blue and lavender trim and the inscription "Best Wishes to Mary", was flanked by white candles in crystal holders. Carrying out the same color theme the table cloth was also blue and lavender.
Served along with the cake were nuts, mints and punch. A group of friends and relatives were invited to join the festive event.

UDC Enjoys George Washington Program

The home of Mrs. M. R. Strickland on Kingswood Court in Loch Arbor was the scene of the February meeting of the UDC. The program was presented by Mrs. W. B. Kirby as co-hostess.
A patriotic motif was carried out in flower arrangements and refreshments commemorating the birthday of George Washington. Presiding was Mrs. Troy Ray, president.
The guest speaker was Cmdr. R. R. Strickland, (ret.) who spoke on "George Washington, a Southern Gentleman" giving highlights of his life, describing his high ideals and fine examples followed by all other presidents down through history and how these ideals and examples affect the present time.
Following the ritual and pledge of allegiance to the American Flag and salute to the Confederate Flag, Mrs. T. J. Taylor, chaplain, led in the Lord's Prayer. She read a Southern poem entitled "Friendship" by T. Barton Lovins written especially for friends in a chapter in Sarasota. Members and guests caught the

All About A Lady Politician

Deltonan Interested In Many Activities

By FANNETTE EDWARDS
Once a politician, always a politician. Changing one's address, even the State, doesn't change a person's habits. And this is with SALLY ROEHNER, (Mrs. Walter Roehner) of Deltona.
From the time she reached the age of 21, says Sally, she became very involved in politics. A faithful Republican, she immediately became clerk of election in the town of Mt. Carmel, Ill.
In the little town of Alhambra, Ill. where she was born, her father and mother, Guy and Lill Stroup were good Democrats. But as early as 1927, when she graduated from Mt. Carmel High School, she had her mind made up that she was going to be a Republican, and that she surely became.
One day, she double dated with her girl friend and the boy she chose, was Walter Roehner. He was a Chicago lad who had just been transferred to Mt. Carmel. It was a case of definite attraction and they immediately began dating.
Politics was not so interesting now, for Sally had a new interest... Walter Roehner. They dated for almost two years.

SALLY PRIDES HERSELF on being a good cook and baker. Here she is taking a freshly baked San Francisco sour dough bread, from the oven. It was delicious and not many people bake bread of any kind now. (Charles Edwards Photo)

But in East Berlin, it was tragic. Not many people on the streets. Folks kept indoors with their shades pulled down. Those few folks you met on the streets were sullen and didn't even answer when spoken to. "It was a sad picture and very depressing," said Mrs. Roehner. They returned in 1960. Even though Sally was kept quite busy with her husband's business, she still managed to become active in hospital work. She became a volunteer worker at a general hospital in Mt. Carmel. She performed menu service for the patients and relieved hospital personnel.
She was a member of the Auxiliary before the hospital opened and made surgical dressings, hospital gowns, operating-room items needed as well as hospital bed covers, sheets, and the like and had them ready when the hospital opened its doors. She served as the president and publicity chairman of the auxiliary for several years and was elected district chairman of Illinois Hospital Auxiliaries. She was appointed to the Illinois State Hospital Board for three years, and continued this work until they moved to Florida.

She was always interested in politics, as I said at the beginning of this article, ever since childhood. Her great grandmother was a Republican, so Sally feels she must have inherited her feeling for the party for her.
She became interested once again and in the 30s worked on the Election Board and became a Precinct Committee Woman. Later she became the Washaboo County Chairwoman, a position she held for many years before leaving Mt. Carmel.
Life went on as usual in Mt. Carmel, until one day, during the heavy winter of 1966, when they awoke one morning to find their doors and windows covered with the snow that had fallen that night and daddy Roehner said, "This is it. We are leaving this wintry climate and going south." I'm tired of shoveling snow." So, they took a trip to Florida, visiting the east and west coasts, the central and southern parts and decided on Deltona.
They had seen many brochures on Central Florida's Deltona, so they had a pretty good idea of its beauty, but were also impressed with the climate, the air and its real beauty, first hand. They picked the site they wanted, and style of home and in January of 1967, came back and built their home.
The house was ready in July so they moved in and planted trees, flowers and all the lovely shrubbery around the house. They just love it here and as most of us have said, who have come down from the North, "We'll never go back. That is, to stay, I mean."
No sooner did they get settled, than they joined the Deltona Republican Club, The Illinois Club and the Civic Association. She served as Secretary for three years and

'Candid Chatter'

(VERTIS) SAULS, City Council's candidate.
Vertis was lovely in a possumer sheer citrus orange gown fashioned with long sleeves and a ruffled neckline (see, girls, I told you men like feminine frills).
A queen was never more regal than Vertis when she slipped into the red robe, trimmed in white ermine. Sheriff Polk, honorary ball chairman did the honors of crowning the new queen.
First runner-up in the contest was BETTY MCKEE and second runner-up was a newcomer to the sorority, LESIA JOHANNE WRIGHT.
Preceding the crowning of the queen, former BSP queens making the limelight were ELEANOR BUTLER, POLLY SMITH, MARTHA LYLE and MARY ANN BOOTHIE.
The king contestants who represented local businesses and civic organizations came through with $2,700 for Little Red Schoolhouse. This is the largest amount ever collected through the annual king contest.
CHASE AND CY'S candidate, DELBERT ABNEY, was the individual to turn in the most loot and was crowned king.
LOU FELDMAN and his orchestra provided the music for dancing and everybody seemed to be having a good time in a cozy setting depicting hearts and flowers.
As ball chairman, MRS. CHARLES (DEENIE) BARRETT did a marvelous job. FRED DUDLEY was the genial emcee and other committee chairmen were JAMIE CARPENTER, LOIS FALGONER, BARBARA BROWN, MARTHA LYLE AND VERTIS SAULS.

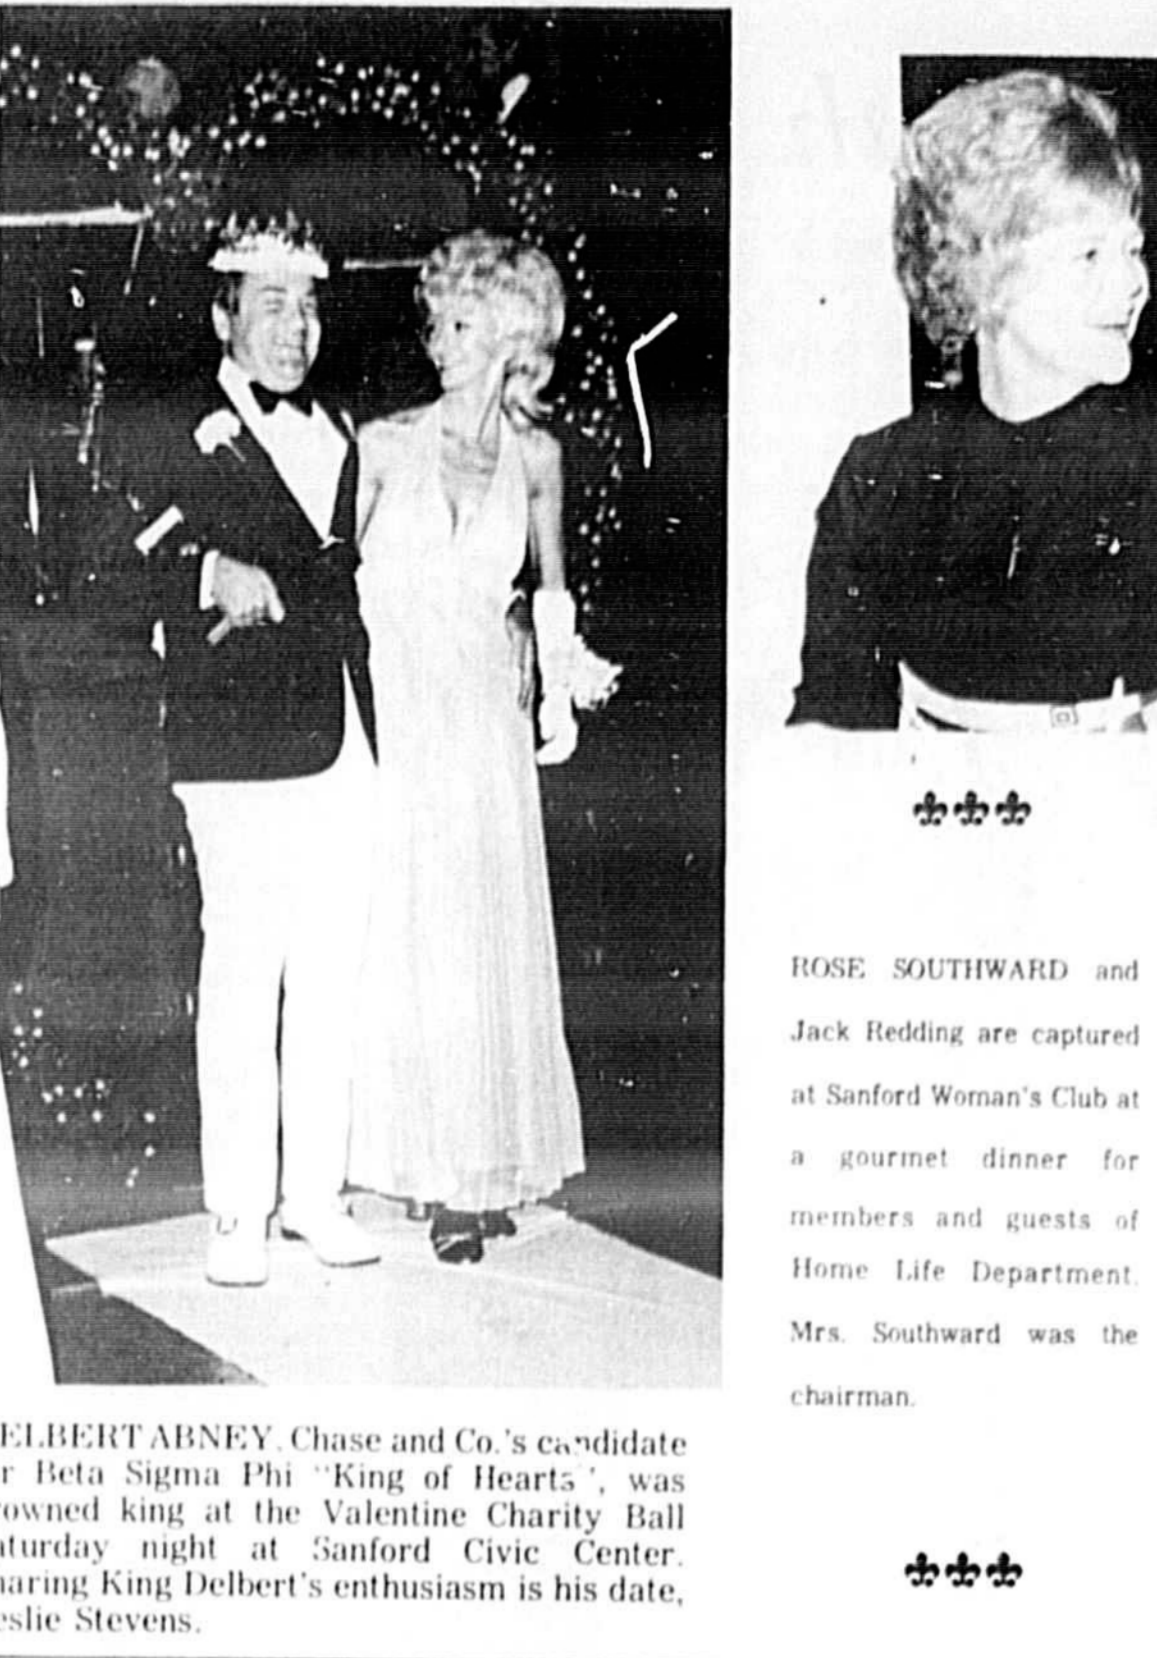

It was real nice sharing a table at the ball with CAPT. AND MRS. PAUL (DOHIS) IEBLANC.
As commandant of SNA, the couple lives in quarters in the former Mayfair Hotel, which actually used to be "where the elite would meet and eat."
Ever try living with several hundred midshipmen? Don't try it, you probably won't like it.
Anyhow, Delbert and Paul are a most attractive couple and let me add, equally as charming.

By FANNETTE EDWARDS
PERIWINKLE
The Periwinkle Circle of the Deltona Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Boyden, 1419 E. Hancock Drive on Wed., Feb. 21 at 9:30 a.m. Hostesses were Mrs. Henry McCraw and Mrs. Robert O. Bliss. A program followed the Coffee Hour with a demonstration on Rebekah flower arranging. Mrs. Cecil Halbert Jr of Deltona was the guest speaker, in charge of the demonstration. The business meeting followed the program.
All members reported on their horticultural findings, as to the number of trees, shrubs and flowers planted during the year, to the President, who, in turn will report these findings to the Garden Club. ES was voted for the Wekiva Springs Nature Camp for Young People. Also a check to be sent to C.A.R.E.
Ten members and two new members attended. Guests attending, were: Mrs. Wilbur Gibbs of Deltona and Mrs. Sidney Vaughn of Southbury, Conn., a house guest on Wed. At the next meeting on Mar. 21, there will be a tour of the headquarters of the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs in Winter Park. A luncheon at the Sweden House will culminate the tour. Cars will leave Neisners in the Plaza at 9:30 a.m.
POINSETTIA
Poinsettia Circle of the Deltona Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Norman who spoke on the history of Volusia County. Two days before the meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 13, Circle gave a luncheon for Mrs. Robert Hays, a charter member of the Circle who is moving. There were 16 members present.
The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Silas Riffe, 1089 East Paige Drive on Mar. 16th. Plans will be formulated for the Pageant of Crosses in April.

Fashion and Beauty Tips

Scarves As Accents
Scarves made into halters were a big part of summer fashion. But, even though the halter top won't be worn alone, fall and winter will keep the scarf around. As colorful accents, scarves will be worn around wide brim hats, tied as turbans, worn robelet style around the neck or "fishing out" as an ascot under tailored shirts.

For Full Figures
Shirtdresses with drawstring waists and blouson tops are a good style for women with full figures.

Healthly Hair
Electric rollers are not hot enough to damage hair, especially healthy hair. But if they're used too frequently, the hair will become dry and brittle. Those with already damaged hair should use the conditioner lotion that goes with these rollers.

Pantsuit Dress Up
A simple pantsuit with short waist jacket can be dressed up for evenings by wearing the jacket open and adding a silvery top underneath.

Couple Honored With Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Coleman entertained with a reception at their lovely South Park Ave. home, Feb. 24 from 7 to 9 p. m.

Guests of honor were Jack and Teresa Beckwith, of Atlanta, Ga., a recent bridal couple. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beckwith Jr. and the bride is the former Teresa Bowling of Atlanta. A pink and white color theme was used in decor and area decorations included floral arrangements of carnations, pom poms, greenery and a beautiful pink snifter and candle arrangement of carnations and pom poms.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, the honored couple and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beckwith Jr. The host and hostess presented the bridal couple with a cut glass rose bowl.

Refreshments were served from two tables. The round one was overlaid with a floor length cloth of white nylon net, over green and the dining table with a white embroidered organza cloth, over pink. Identical silver candelabra arrangements of pink carnations, greenery and pink lapers, adorned both tables. All silver appointments were used.

Presiding at the punch bowls were Mrs. Robert Karns, Mrs. Kelly Welch, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Ben Howland and Mrs. Charles Park Jr. Dining hostesses were Miss Diane Britt, Miss Kellethe Welch and Mrs. G. S. Blake.

Approximately 250 friends and relatives called during the appointed hours. Mr. Beckwith is employed by the American National Insurance Co., in Atlanta.

Fashion Tip

This spring fashion has no extremes. But it is extraordinarily pretty. It's a season when you can be sure of yourself in anything you wear.

Senior Club Plans Meeting

The Sanford Senior Citizens Club will meet Tuesday, March 6, at the Civic Center starting at 12 noon with the regular bag lunch.

Business meeting and program starts at 1 p.m. and Jean McClain's Kindergarten group will present the program.

Approximately 100 people attended the two-part course re-examination for driver's license at the last two meetings, conducted by Bill Payne.

A variety of programs and social activities are planned for the coming months, including bus tours to Walt Disney World and other places of interest.

I hope this list helps you to find the things your child would like to participate in this Spring.

GOODBYE AND GOD BLESS!

According to Ralph Johnson, member of the board from Winter Springs of the Seminole Little League, there has been little response from the people here regarding the Little League. There are openings in all divisions in this group starting with the Pee Wee, ages 8 and 9, the Farm and Major League, ages 10 through 12, the Ponies, ages 13 and 14, and Colts, ages 15 and 16. If you have any potential baseball player, male, of course, please contact him at 322-7221 for further details.

We also have only one den of Pack 196 of the Central Florida Council here in Winter Springs. Mrs. Stanley Foster tells me many more young boys wish to be Cub Scouts, but there are no Den Mothers or assistant Den Mothers available to head up another Den. This group consists of boys ages 8-8. They meet once a week for an hour. One of the aims of this organization is to help the youngsters becoming better citizens. If there are any women here in our city who wish to devote some of their time to making some young boys happy, please contact Mrs. Foster at 631-5089 in the evenings.

Last, but certainly not least, is your children's safety. Police Chief Don Dobson says better weather is coming. Children will be out on the roads more. Motorists should remind themselves to be doubly cautious while driving through the side roads.

Surprise Stork Shower

He hasn't landed yet but is circling around looking for a spot at the appropriate time which according to reports should be around March 14, 1973. Yes Sir! Mr. Stork is on his way.

Sandy and Mike Galarza of 472 Rainbow Drive, Casseberry, are expecting their first-born. They're hoping for a little boy but will be satisfied just so long as the little newcomer is a perfect baby.

Patty had her table set with china and silverware and for the centerpiece a tall cardboard cut-out of Mr. Stork at guest of honor. In preparation for her lunch there was a specially baked cake with pink and blue icing appropriate for the occasion.

Sandy opened some gifts and then added a few facts to this story that are important to the community interest. The young couple has resided in Casseberry for two years and are originally from New York City. Mike, her husband, is a salesman at Ivey's and incidentally is also attending Seminole Junior College. Her traveling salesman husband doesn't roam

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a traveling salesman, but I never worry about him cheating on me when he's on the road. I solved that problem years ago. Know how?

I tire him out so good when he's home, he's lucky if he has enough energy to carry his sample cases to the car.

DEAR SECURE: I hate to burst your bubble, lady, but a man can have the finest banquet in the world, and six hours later he's hungry again.

DEAR ABBY: While my parents and I were going out the Nativity Scene and wrapping the pieces in old newspapers, I found a picture of you from 1962. You were very pretty then.

DEAR DENA: Thanks, dear. It's letters like yours that keep me humble.

DEAR ABBY: Could you please give me some advice on how either to marry a rich man or get in the movies?

I would love to marry a movie star, but I live in Wisconsin and don't have the money to get to California and mingle with the stars. If I did manage to scrape up the bus fare, do you think it would help if I got myself a job as a waitress in one of the movie studios?

I will graduate from high school in June and don't have the money, or grades, to go to college. People keep telling me I am very pretty, and I'm built nice. I am not lazy and have nothing special keeping me here, so what advice can you give me?

DEAR DAIRYLAND GIRL: Before you leave the Dairyland, you'd better face a few facts. If all the pretty, well-built girls who went to California in search of rich husbands or movie careers were laid out, they'd reach Kenosha. Unless you have a job waiting for you or sufficient money on which to live until you find one, plus at least one good friend to guide you, stay home.

DEAR ABBY: I am a registered nurse, age 46, never married. I've worked hard all my life taking care of my patients, aging parents, and doing church and community work. I'm sure many people assuming that's all I ever wanted out of life.

I recently experienced something that I had given up all hope for. I nursed a young man with a serious illness back to health. We have fallen gloriously in love with each other and want to marry. This is the most beautiful, unbelievable feeling I have ever known.

My friends think that I have lost my mind because the young man is only 22. He is very mature for his age, and has a salable job skill, and is employed steadily.

Four years ago, a United States senator married a woman 43 years his junior, and now they have their second child. I live alone and have no relatives. Before I fell in love, the most excitement in my life was going home to talk to my canary. My heart has already told me what to do, but will you please confirm it?

IN LOVE IN TENNESSEE

DEAR IN LOVE: You are an adult, and need neither the approval of your friends nor a confirmation from me to do as you please. Many May-December marriages have succeeded. Yours can be one of them.

FORECAST FOR MONDAY, MARCH 5, 1973

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You have more energy now. It would be wise to utilize it constructively by engaging in various interests that are awaiting your attention. Look at both sides of any situation facing you so that you can take full advantage of this opportunity. Maintain your cool.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): A confidential talk with an influential person can bring about the support and advice you need. Show some interest in a civic matter and you get excellent results. Progress then comes easily.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20): Making new contacts via the suspension of old friends is wise. This will help you to gain some of your fondest hopes. Listen to the fine advice they give you. Make good use of it.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): You have a chance to talk to a higher-up. Keep cheerful and you can put your projects across and improve the state of affairs. Go out with mate to a fine restaurant tonight and enjoy yourself.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): After you get the right perspective when you are in a group, talk it over with associates and get right results. Avoid unnecessary expenditures on a trip you are planning.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): You can improve anything of an occupational nature by coming to a deeper understanding with co-workers. An idea you have for increasing your vitality should be put in operation without delay.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Talk with associates and find out just what they expect of you and then state your own ideas. A good day to become reconciled with one who has been unfriendly. Think kindly, act firmly.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Make sure you understand the fundamental obligations and can handle them. Show that you are a fine worker. Put your artistic talent to work with neat touch and fine benefits will result.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Get together with a good friend at places where you can have a good time and come to a better understanding. Contact one who can help you with your fine talent. Think logically. Relax tonight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Use practical methods and organize home life much better for the future. You have many talents to perform, but you are more energetic now and can get them done quickly and well. Be wise.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): You can discuss an important matter with a friend and use both sides of an important matter before coming to a decision. Good day to shop and do errands. Show that you are very much alive.

THE BADGE GUYS

OH, BOY! MY FIRST ASSIGNMENT TO DIRECT RUSH HOUR TRAFFIC WILL BE GREAT!

I WONDER IF YOU CAN SURRENDER YOUR FIRST DAY ON THE JOB?

WY DREAMS COME TRUE? I CAN'T SWITCH ON THE SPOTLIGHTS!

THEN, A BLAZE OF MUSIC SWELLS UP FROM THE WOODED REAR SLOPE!

WE DREAMS COME TRUE? I CAN'T SWITCH ON THE SPOTLIGHTS!

WE BEGIN TO DREAM OF SUMMER AND REALLY FRESH FRUIT. AS ONE WOMAN SAID TO ME THE OTHER DAY, SHE FINALLY KNOWS WHAT HEAVEN IS. IT'S THE PLACE WHERE ONE NEVER SEES A TOMATO THAT'S BEEN RIPENED IN A ROOM FILLED WITH GAS.

WE ALL LONG TO BE ONE OF THOSE CREATIVE, ARTISTIC, INVENTIVE GENIUSES WHO, WITH A SNAP OF THE WRIST AND A DASH OF SAGE, TRANSFORMS CORNED BEEF HASH INTO A HAZE OF DELIGHT.

ALAS, MOST OF US REVERT TO OUR USUAL MIDWINTER FORMULA. WE PUSH PEANUT BUTTER AT EVERY OPPORTUNITY. AND, NOT BECAUSE IT IS RICH IN PROTEIN AND/OR LOADED WITH GOOD FLAVOR AND GOOD NUTRITION.

MAINLY WE TOUT PEANUT BUTTER BECAUSE, THROUGH THE YEARS, ALL MOTHERS OBSERVE THAT CHILDREN WITH THEIR MOUTHS FULLY SHUT WITH PEANUT BUTTER ON IT TALK LESS. A DISTINCT ADVANTAGE FOR ANY MOTHER WHO KNOWS SHE IS SURELY GIVING SMACK OUT OF HER MIND THE NEXT TIME SOMEONE ASKS, "WHAT'S FOR DINNER?"

WIN AT BRIDGE

Top Trump Leads Ruin Game

"Trump never break for me," was his complaint. Do you see where he went wrong? All he had to do was to use a little common sense when he played the trump suit. He could afford to lose two trump tricks so that he had no worries about a 3-3 trump break. How about a 4-2 trump break?

If either opponent held king-queen-nine-small (the eight had dropped under the ace), there would be no need to avoid the loss of three trump tricks, but if the trump honors were divided as they were, care he would be all right if he just led a low trump instead of the jack.

Geneva Gems

By LIZ MATHIEUX

This past week has been a real doozy for me and I am kinda glad to see it go, have you ever had one week of just work, work, work? Well, that is what this was but I did have one real pleasant day to remember when I went over to the Central Florida Fair to do an exhibit of floral arrangements...it was real fun, I met a lot of interesting folks and we had a real fun evening; guess mom was right about that silver lining being behind that dark cloud, but I guess it helps if you look for it!

Say, I just heard something too good to let pass; our beautiful Society Editor at the HERALD is on a DIET! Yep, you heard right, on a diet, now if my guess is correct all 88 lbs. of her could stand a little inflation rather than deflation...I just hope that this bag of one jigger of corn oil, two of honey and lots of cream and milk will help to do the job; however, we love her like she is; speaking of delightful Doris, sorry to have to tell you that she is a bit under the weather, get well soon Doris, I miss you when you are not present.

Annie Gracey and her sister Flora Whitten came out to see Joe and me the other night and it was real good to see them, but I was so distressed to hear of the dreadful calamity which befell her daughter Doneida Whitten Bishop who was on her way to Georgia with her brand new bridegroom when they had a very serious automobile accident which claimed the life of two of their friends and left Doneida partially paralyzed and her husband in very serious condition. From what Flora said, Doneida is still in for some surgery on her eye and has to have therapy three times a week. I just bet she would like to have a card from her many friends who remember her, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Whitten of 1006 French Avenue.

We had a very lovely letter from newlyweds, Paula and Fred Pearson and Paula said everything was all settled and that they were happily busy at the task of keeping house...Paula said the snow was just great and they have a very nice home on the base; their address is Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pearson, Jr., 346 "Y" Street, Newburgh, New York. Why not drop them a note. Paula said they might get to come home for sister Debbie's graduation from Oviedo High School in June.

If you think the Azaleas are beautiful in Sanford, then just wait until you drive out to Geneva! Our yard looks so pretty, except for the Wisteria vine, which was Joe's pride and joy and which I "pruned" much to his dismay. I do believe he would try to get an annulment but how would we divide the "pets" Anyway, he has made me promise to hide the pruning shears and stay away from bushes and vines which I do not recognize...and I will, I definitely will.

I had a real good chat with Mona Bridges a few days ago and I just wish you could hear her gurgling over her brand new grandson who arrived to daughter, Diane and son-in-law, Lonnie Taylor...to hear her tell it, she is the ONLY grandnaw around, but I and a few hundred more like me, know that we form a strong union!

I saw Phyllis and Bill Best the other day at Faust's and we had fun renewing our acquaintance from last year when we were roomies at Seminole Memorial.

If I don't stop chattering, I'll never make it over to the DeBary on Sunday, March 4th to serve as hostess at the exhibit of paintings which the general president of the Sanford Seminole Art Association, Marie Richter and her friend, Eleanor Tummernan will have on display. It will be at the DeBary Mansion and I understand it is open to Florida Federation of Art members with a reception to follow. Hours will be from two to five, see you there and please drive carefully!

MR. AND MRS. COLUMBO FARINA of Longwood-Lake Mary Road celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary by renewing their vows in a ceremony at Church of the Nativity, Lake Mary, and inviting their friends and relatives to an open house.

WORRY CLINIC

By George W. Crane, Ph.D., M.D.

Rev. Tremaine would deserve an "A" from public speaking teachers, even if he were half his present age. But for a man of 93, he merits a double "A." Heed his prescription for a long and alert lifespan! Beware of vegetating in an easy chair!

CASE W-542: Guy Tremaine, aged 93, recently filled the pulpit for 2 Sundays near our Indiana summer home.

He celebrated his 93rd birthday last July 5th.

As a former Chautauqua performer (whistler), as well as talented singer, he has superb platform poise.

His voice was still steady and strong.

He also maintained keen eye-contact with his congregation. And started his address with a humorous story.

Then he employed over 20 examples and cases in his 30-minute speech, ending on a high emotional note.

"Many times," he said, "I am asked how to clarify the idea that God is a Spirit."

"Young people wonder how God can be everywhere at the same time."

"And when they pray, they feel that it is futile to address their requests to a Spirit, which is diffuse, intangible and all-pervading."

"So I explain that in our solar system the sun is located at a fixed spot and is a specific, definite entity."

"But its light is meaningful diffused all over our universe."

"And so it is with reference to God and His Spirit."

"You can thus direct your prayers to God as a fixed or central Deity but meanwhile be surrounded by His Spirit."

One of his pertinent stories also dealt with a man from Covington, Kentucky, who visited Cincinnati one night and imbibed too much.

During his resulting drunken spree, he got into a fight and was finally arrested.

While locked in the jail, he beat on the bars loudly, demanding to be released.

"Let me out of here!" he bellowed.

"I want to go back to Kentucky where people can fight in peace!"

Then Rev. Tremaine added that this same idea might motivate the North Vietnamese

"Alas," Rev. Tremaine concluded, "they seem to want our troops to come back to America so they can go on fighting the South Vietnamese in peace!"

As I sat in a pew, watching and listening to the stellar sermonizing of this 93-year-old preacher, I was wishing we medics could discover some antidote for the woody thinking and childishness of many other oldsters who aren't even 70 years of age.

If you wish to retain an alert mind into your ripe old age, that will require both medical and psychological prescriptions.

The medical includes having good teeth, normal vision and hearing, so you can stay in contact with the external world.

It also involves keeping your hemoglobin and red blood cell count up to normal, to avoid the anemia that produces foggy thinking.

But the psychological half of the prescription means you should exercise your brain daily, as by reading, watching TV, listening to radio, and conversing with people.

For conversation is a tonic to your mind.

But you must force yourself to read widely in order to be up-to-date on sports, the Dow Jones average, local news, Congress, marriages and even the obituaries.

You simply dare not vegetate physically or mentally if you wish to imitate the mental vigor of Rev. Tremaine.

He still reads one chapter daily in the Bible, plus magazines and science books, for his hobby is Thoreau's zest for Nature Study.

Always write to Dr. Crane or Liz at this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped and addressed envelope and 35 cents to cover mailing and printing costs when you send the one of our booklets.

The Sanford Herald

After last week's toils and woes, I had a real nice thing happen, my mom called from Jacksonville Beach and talked for a long while and then Jeannene, Norman and the grandsons, called from Acworth and talked for almost an hour...gosh families are great and our children seem to know when it's time to call home to cheer Joe and me. We didn't get to talk with Ray and Mai because he was trying to recover from a bad fall and a badly lacerated arm...I just wonder if Joe would consider that reason enough for a quick trip to Atlanta???

I spoke with folks over at the Ed Glazier residence the other day and they tell me that son, Ernest and grandson, George Glazier have gone up to live in Anchorage, Alaska for the next year or so. My what a wonderful experience for George, let he will have tales to tell when he comes back to Geneva. Earnie is with RCA as an engineer. Speaking of the Glaziers, sorry to have to tell you that Mrs. Ed Glazier's brother, Bernard Harris is confined to Seminole Memorial at room 235-B.

My old buddy, Mrs. Rila Kinnaird called me and did we ever talk a long time; she said that she went to dinner at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kinnaird and she thinks that she had to sample some of everything especially the pies. "Granny" said that Mrs. Ruby Kinnaird was in the hospital. As we chatted, Grandma said son Roger was really working to complete his lovely new home; recent guests at the home of Roger and Linda were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mayes from Little Pocking, Ohio.
