Our congratulations goes to unified Jacksonville as it celebrates the first anniversary of the historic move which made its consolidated area the biggest city in the United States. The lead editorial in the Florida Times-Union of Oct. 1-anniversary day-expresses the meaning of this event so well that we reprint selected sections:

"The first anniversary of a unified Jacksonville is a time for soul-searching as well as for congratulations. It is a time to ponder not only where the community has been but where it is

"There has not been unanimity within the community itself. A minority longs for the 'good old days' before consolidation; before sewer charges and increased water charges; before increased charges on occupational licenses taxes and the like. "But all indications point to a high degree of acceptance of the new government and, most importantly, a real determination to make it

"Perhaps the greatest intangible benefit has been in the spirit of the citizenry. As we said before, there is no unanimity about issues but there has been a welding together, a sense of common determination to master the problems an awakened community pride."

Isn't it about time that Sanford citizens were first surfaced in Sanford when Gov. Claude R. Kirk, given some plain talk about the training school which Jr. was engaged in the talks with Gov. Final preparations are being made for the World Golfers Association's $25,000 tournament scheduled next weekend for the Mayfair Country Club in Sanford. The dates of the tournament are Oct. 10-12. In an exclusive report to The Sanford Herald today, the WGA announced there would be several big-name golfers playing in the Sanford tournament. Tony Pena, Dean Regram, Bob Barbarossa, Joe Lopez Sr., Skip Alexander, Lee McDowell and Gibby Gilbert have all entered the tournament, McDowell was the winner of the WGA's first tournament two weeks ago in Lakeland. Gilbert placed second in the tournament, losing to McDowell in a sudden death playoff, about the WGA: "This World Golfers Association is the best thing that has ever happened to golf in quite a long time. Imagine, this is the first tournament (Lakeland) for the group, and they have a better field playing for them than either the Florida Open or the PGA Championship," Mike Whelchel, local pro and owner of the Mayfair Country Club, commented, "This is going to be a fantastic tournament. It will be one of the real popping quarterbacks the old great sports events that has ever the pened to San- quote from the Bard of Avon
