

Lookouts Take Two Of Three Games From Orlando Nine

Locals Win Opener 6-3 And Lose Nightcap 7-4

Hudson Hurts For Afternoon Fray While Joe Pinder Lasts For Seven Innings In Contest At Night

By JULIAN STENSTROM

The Orlando Senators and the Sanford Lookouts fought it out yesterday afternoon and last night at the Municipal Athletic Field and Sanford, after winning the opening encounter 6 to 3, committed six errors which aided the Senators in taking the night affair by a score of 7 to 4 after ten innings.

In the first contest, the Lookouts gathered 12 hits off Harold Conn for the six runs while the Orlando boys necked Sidney "Swede" Hudson for only six bingles which were good for their trio of markers.

Hudson's breaking curve ball fooled no less than nine of the Senators as they went down swinging. Hudson walked only two men while Conn fanned a pair and walked none.

Sanford started the scoring in the first inning as Moore singled in the right and scored on Eddie Davis' double to deep left field. Pitman's infield hit caught Davis off third but Pitman scored on Hudson's double to deep left. An error by Frye allowed Hudson to tally.

The Senators gathered two in the fourth when Ruggiero singled and took third on Smith's single. Cole went out to Stith, allowing Ruggiero to tally and an error by Ads allowed Smith to score. A single by Langston, a passed ball and Davis' second double accounted for another Lookout run.

In the eighth Ruggiero was safe on Davis' error, took third on Cole's single and scored on Mihalic's infield out. The Lookouts gathered two more that inning when Stith singled, was sacrificed to second took third on Bonner's miscue and scored on DeRamus' infield hit moving Schmidt to second. Schmidt scored on Moore's drive to right. Moore led the hitting with a trio of bingles in five trips.

Joe Pinder took the mound in the final tilt and allowed the Orlando crew four hits in seven innings. The Orlando outfit recorded three more fluke hits off Dutch Schneider who went in as a relief hurler but bad breaks proved fatal for the southpaw. The local nine collected 12 hits off Orlando hurlers.

Orlando got two in the first on a walk by Ruggiero, a passed ball, Smith's triple and Mihalic's flyball.

Sanford scored in the first on Langston's three-bagger and a fielder's choice. Two more registered in the second on two hits an error and a fielder's choice. The last Lookout marker came in the fifth on two hits and a stolen base.

The Senators tied it up in the eighth when Emmet Clonts, hitting for Dusty Cook, doubled, Joe Ruggiero walked and both advanced on a passed ball. Smith was safe on DeRamus' misplay. Clonts scoring. Mihalic's single pushed in Ruggiero.

With the count deadlocked as the tenth opened, Alabama Smith was safe on Davis' error. Pete Mihalic laid down a sacrifice, Cole walked the runner. Cole advanced and Johnny Frye few out to right. A passed ball, doubled, Joe Ruggiero walked and both advanced on a passed ball. Smith was safe on DeRamus' misplay. Clonts scoring. Mihalic's single pushed in Ruggiero.

OH DEARY ME! MY DEER—Horrie Thomas, manager of the Pelatka entry in the Florida State League, is taken from the Assala Bowl to the adjacent Ravine Gardens by Pennuto, the Assala mascot, where the doxy pilot and the good luck deer stage a conference on the finer points of the game.

Perhaps Pennuto is saying, "If those legs could run like I can we'd scare more runs." And maybe he's mumbbling, "How about a hamburger?"

Dill Approves $197,310 For WPA Projects

State Administrator Takes First Step Toward Increasing Relief For Needy

Hike In Local Rolls Expected

WPA Headquarters Announces 441 Are Enrolled In County

JACKSONVILLE, July 23.—(AP)—Administrator Robert J. Dill took first steps today toward increasing Florida's Progress Administration rolls by 11,500 with the authorization of seven projects calling for an expenditure of $197,310. The projects will employ more than 400 men.

The authorization followed Dill's announcement that the Florida WPA quota had been increased from 38,500 men at work to 50,000, the largest force ever employed by the WPA in this state.

Following the announcement it was learned that no word had been received by the local WPA office regarding the number, who will get work in this county through the federal relief agency.

However definite word as to the number who can be added to the rolls is expected early next week. At present there are 441 on local WPA rolls, 156 women and 286 men.

Describing unemployment in Florida as "the worst in five years," Mr. Dill said he had been assured by relief authorities that the increase does not relieve the situation.

The WPA now employs 38,500 persons and 20,600 others have been certified by the State Welfare Board as eligible for relief work. An undetermined number of unemployed have applied for WPA jobs, but have not yet been investigated by the Welfare Board.

"I am very happy to get the increase," Mr. Dill said. "We have had complaints from virtually every county, commissioners saying the number employed by the WPA was not sufficient to alleviate suffering."

Administrative employees will work overtime in an effort to fill the quota by Aug. 1.

"I want to stress the necessity of cities and counties and other eligible sponsors cooperating by providing useful projects to take care of the new load."

Private business will be helped by the increased payroll, the administrator added. He said it was impossible to determine now whether the new quota will be adequate. It depends upon the course of private business conditions, Mr. Dill explained.

Dill said the Florida WPA had spent $5,890,876 of its own funds and contributors' money on projects in this state during the three months prior to June 30.

He said the total amount spent in Florida since federal work relief was inaugurated by the WPA in July, 1935, was $47,825,543. This figure also included both federal funds and contributions by sponsoring agencies.

Dill said $1,848,478 had been spent on roads, streets and highways. (Continued on Page Three)

$445,000 Paid To Farmers At State Market

Michael Says Sales Could Be Doubled If Growers Supply All Truckers Needs

Farmers in this section sold approximately $445,000 worth of farm products at the State Farmers Wholesale Market this year, according to figures in the annual report of market activities released by Market Manager J. G. Michael. Out of state products sold at the market amounted to approximately $40,000, the report shows.

Gross returns at the market this year are approximately the same as for last year although the sales volume increased considerably, Mr. Michael reported, and declared that had higher prices prevailed the farmers would have received nearly $1,000,000 for the volume of produce that was sold.

In his report, Mr. Michael declared that if all trucks that called at the markets for Florida products during the season could have been supplied, the sales at least would have been doubled.

The market manager also declared that farmers are passing up many opportunities of producing commodities which are in demand at the market. He pointed out that new revenues for farmers could be obtained through these cash sales of produce.

Demanding an approximate average of $1.11 per crate, celery sales lead all other commodities in both the number of units sold and the gross returns, the report shows. A total of 50,828 crates of Howard or 10 inch crates were sold from the market platform for total gross returns of $56,141. Over $4,000 worth of celery hearts were also sold. Nearly 6,000,000 pounds of cabbage was sold during the season. The average price paid for this product was $23.24 and the gross returns amounted to $69,417.88.

A total of 47,124 boxes of oranges were sold at an average price of $1.36 per crate. The gross returns amounted to $64,108. Grapefruit sales averaged $1.22 cents per crate and the 15,422 standard boxes sold brought a total of $18,737.

Demanding an average price of $1.10 per crate, snap beans was another of the leading commodities sold at the market. A total of 47,025 hampers were sold and returns amounted to $51,728. A total of 71,639 pints of strawberries were sold at an average price of over nine cents per pint for total gross returns of $6,526.21.

Packed 50 pounds of tomatoes brought $7,998 while 21,859 crates of 60 pounds net were sold for an average price of $2.04 each. Total sales amounted to $44,701. A total of 18,017 bushels of Red Bliss potatoes were sold for $16,177.

A total of 12,601 bunches of tomatoes were sold for $8,892, a total of 18,706 bunches of beets sold for $8,137, while 9,121 dozen bunches of carrots were sold for $3,397. A total of 4,878 bushels of yellow squash were sold for $6,707.

Large Turnouts In Control Vote

County Agent Asserts Voting Is Greater Than Last Year

Voting by growers on the continuation of the Celery Marketing Agreement is greater this year than when the proposition was first given to the growers for a decision last year, County Agent C. R. Dawson announced.

Until noon, the county agent reported that nearly 150 growers had ballots for or against the agreement. The polls will be closed in all sections tonight at 5:00 o'clock.

The large turnout, Mr. Dawson said, was due largely to the definite views of factions for and against the agreement.

Among those who turned out for the referendum yesterday was Seminole County's oldest farmer, W. H. Lucas of Lake Monticello. The 102 year old celery grower declared that he was opposed to controlled celery shipments.

Pointing out that no one can vote after this evening, Mr. Dawson stated that only votes that are being mailed in can be accepted after that time and even then, he said, ballots sent in will have to be mailed before midnight tonight.

Votes will not have to be counted here, he asserted, adding that the votes will be certified and sent to Washington where they will be counted in the office of the Secretary of Agriculture.

In charge of the polls in Seminole County are Roy Symes and E. J. Myers in Sanford and G. N. North and R. P. King in Oviedo.

Atlantic Coast Is Harassed With Damaging Rains

Weather Bureau Says Unusual High Pressure Area Is Cause

It was the seventh consecutive wet day in many sections and prospects for immediate clearing of skies was slight.

The weather bureau said the rain was the result of a high pressure area off the Atlantic coast from Maine to Florida. This area acted as an effective barrier against the natural eastward movement of the low pressure area and caused the precipitation.

The Southwest also suffered. In west Texas two persons were reported drowned, several missing, nearly 500 were driven from their homes and damage was estimated at $300,000. In California, the San Joaquin River, fed by torrential rains, rose above its banks.

New York's great beaches, generally jammed at this season with thousands of persons, were soiled and gloomy today after several days of cloudy and rainy weather. Steady downpours isolated several villages in the Catskill Mountains.

In varying intensity rain has fallen for four days throughout the Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama were likewise drenched. Columbus, Ga., measured five and one tenth inches in last five days. Alabama's rainy weather was ideal for propagation of boll-weevil, enemy of the cotton crop.

In the far west forest fires ravaged timber lands in Washington, Oregon, California and northern Idaho and Vancouver Island.

Whole Washes Ashore On Titusville Beach

TITUSVILLE, July 23.—Residents and Summer visitors of DeSoto Beach were telling a whole of a fish story yesterday—all about how a 45-foot whale had washed ashore on the beach.

The giant of the deep, supposedly dead for several days, was sighted near shore by T. Lewis, Coast Guard, in mid-afternoon yesterday and as soon as the large mammal was on shore, large crowds gathered to gaze in awe.

The creature had either been slashed fatally by sharks, or else had been harpooned and lanced by whalers, only to break free and swim off to die later of his mortal wounds.

It was the first time a whale had ever been seen on DeSoto Beach, but many who saw the giant remembered that not so long ago a similar denizen of the oceans had washed ashore near New Smyrna.

Lakefront Warehouse Is Damaged By Fire

A fire of undetermined origin today razed the roof and inside of the Winn and Lovett Grocery Company warehouse which extends over the lakefront on Seminole boulevard.

Firemen were called to the scene of the blaze about 2:45 o'clock.

Firemen got the fire under control in about 30 minutes in spite of dense smoke which filled the inside of the warehouse. Firemen had to use masks to enable them to get inside the burning building.

Tension Between Nations Tightens As Japan Replies To Soviet Rejection

Plan For Czech Peace Is Sought

Assault On Chinese Positions At Klu-kiang Is Started

By Associated Press
ZARAGOZA, Spain, July 23.—The insurgent high command reported the advanced right wing of Generalissimo Franco's army descended today from Salada peak and set foot for the first time in Valera's province. The reported point of entry, nearly 40 miles northwest of the provincial capital, the insurgent major objective, was near where Teruel, Gistel and Valencia provinces meet.

The Far Eastern tension was renewed today by a second incident on the border between Soviet Russia and Manchoukuo as powers of western Europe groped for a formula to secure their peace.

Just as tension was subsiding over Japan's charges that Russia had invaded Manchoukuo soil near Chankoung and Moscow's rejection of Japanese protests, reports came of a new clash and the Jap Dispatchers from Khabarovsk, Siberian city near the Manchoukuo border, said that Japanese Manchoukuo motorboats landed a military detachment Thursday on the Russian island of Yankov in the Ussuri River.

Talk of "face-preserving" alignments stirred cautious optimism in western Europe as British, French and German leaders sought a formula for settlement of the autonomy demands of Nazi-supported Sudeten Germans in Czechoslovakia.

In China, Japanese land and naval forces began the long awaited assault on Kinkiang, 130 miles down the Yangtze from Hankow. A Japanese naval communiqué announced that landings had been effected from warships at several points along the southern shores of the river.

Defendants Given Order To Remain Within Courtroom

LONDON, Ky., July 23.—(AP)—Federal Judge U. Church Ford, hearing the Harlan anti-labor trials, yesterday ordered all defendants to remain in the courtroom while court is in session.

Those who disobeyed, Judge Ford said, would have their bonds forfeited and they would be placed in jail.

The court's order came when three Clay countians were brought before Judge Ford late yesterday after a deputy United States marshal reported they were seen "parading past" the rooming house where the jury is quartered.

They identified themselves as Clarence Chesnut, postmaster at Sexton's Creek; W. M. Roach, Manchester, former warden of the Frankfort state reformatory, and F. E. Sizemore, who served as Clay county clerk eight years until last January.

Redistribution Of Wealth

In spite of the almost incessant campaign which has been waged by the government during the past five years against "money-changers", "economic royalists", and in general any people of wealth, the number of millionaires in the United States has continued to increase, and the old story of the rich getting richer and the poor getting children is as good today as it was at the height of the Coolidge boom

Government reports just released by the Treasury Department show that the number of persons with million dollar incomes increased from 41 in 1935 to 61 in 1936, or about 50 percent. They also show that the million-dollar income group had aggregate incomes of $64,510,000 in 1935 and $88,222,000 in 1936, an increase of about $24,000,000.

In spite of all that has been said about the redistribution of wealth in this country, there was one man in 1936 who had an income of between four and five million dollars, there were four with incomes between three and four million dollars, 14 with incomes between two and three million dollars, nine with incomes between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000, and 33 with incomes between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000.

Altogether there were only 2,861,108 persons in 1936 who paid any income tax at all. And so if you paid any income tax in 1936 you must have been among the 2,861,108 richest persons in the United States, even though your income may not have been more than $3,000. But small as the number of income taxpayers was in 1936, it was 750,218, or 35 percent more than in 1935.

The aggregate income of the income taxpaying group amounted to $19,240,109,644 in 1936. This was $4,330,297,619, or 29 percent more than the same group made in 1935. So it is evident that while the number of millionaires in the United States has been increasing, the number of "thousandaires" and "hundred thousandaires" has also been increasing even while the number of unemployed, and the number of those with incomes below the income taxpaying class has remained fairly constant.

It can be seen from these figures that the task of redistributing the wealth of the country is not as easy as it first seemed five years ago and that as fast as government money is pumped into the hands of the unemployed it is sucked away from them by the same old crowd that has always been at the top.

Sun Baths

With the summer season already well advanced, hundreds of Sanford people are regularly making their weekend excursions to the beach while scores of others have taken cottages at New Smyrna or Daytona Beach where they will spend their vacations. All of them have succumbed to the lure of the sea and the sun's rays.

"Florida's sun, if taken as medicine, under the direction of a physician, or taken in sensible moderation by those who like to prescribe for themselves," says the St. Augustine Record, "will work wonders. People come to this state wheezing with asthma, coughing with bronchitis, gasping with heart affections, tormented with eczema, crippled with arthritis, and have left for their homes able to enjoy life once more."

There is no doubt about the benefits which are to be derived from intelligent sun bathing. There is, however, some danger it may be overdone, and in too much exposure to the sun's rays there may be considerable harm for some people. Fifteen minutes a day is enough for the average person who is not used to it. However after a few weeks of "conditioning", most people can stand the sun for several hours.

IN SPITE OF the tremendous efforts of Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace and the billions at the disposal of the Department of Agriculture, the success of his crop reduction program has been as nothing compared with the destruction caused during the last few weeks by grasshoppers in the grain producing areas. "My wife and I thought it was rain when they struck our house," says a Montana farmer. "We thought we heard the drone of motors when the hoppers moved in. Millions of insects darkened the sky. They took over half our crop," another one said. Between the periodic droughts and the grasshoppers, the time may even yet come when plow-under campaigns will be unnecessary.

THOUSANDS OF RUSSIANS are making flights from a "parachute-catapult" in Leningrad's Kirov Park of Rest and Culture. The apparatus, which can handle 70 people an hour, consists of a powerful motor with a screw-fan revolving in a horizontal plane, with a metal grating above, on which the jumper stands. The fan generates a tremendous vertical air current, which fills a specially designed parachute and drives it into the air until it reaches a point at which the force of the current equals the downward pull of the jumper's weight. This "ceiling" varies with the weight of the jumper; usually it is some 200 feet. The jumper lands just as if he had leaped from an airplane—Illustrated London News.

MUSIC IN A BANK... The Union Savings Bank and Trust Company of Davenport, Iowa, faced a crisis on September 30, 1931. Someone started a run on the bank. The situation grew more tense hourly; hundreds of people jammed the lobby of the bank in an effort to withdraw their savings. Mob hysteria, that dangerous, driving force that does not listen to reason, threatened to result in tragedy. The officers and directors of the bank were at a loss to control the mob and subdue the run. Despite the fact that business men of the community backed the bank and the bank itself was on a sound basis, the depositors were not in a reasoning frame of mind. Next morning the run continued; the mob still clamored at the bank's windows. Then Fred Zahel, vice president of the institution, got an idea. Working on the assumption that "music hath charms" to soothe disturbed temperaments, a jazz band was hired to play popular selections from the balcony. Almost like magic the rhythmic strains took effect. The crowd relaxed. Customers tapped their feet on the marble floors, changed their minds and left the bank. Many actually re-deposited their money which they had just taken out! Next morning found the Union Savings Bank back on a normal operating basis; the music had completely swept aside the un-reasoning fears of the public. AGED AUTOMOBILE... Seventeen years ago Gus Gainney, Dunn, North Carolina Negro, bought an automobile for $800.00 cash. The dealer, to close the bargain, threw in five gallons of gasoline. Happily Gainney drove and drove—until he ran out of gas. The odometer showed 100 miles. Disgustedly, Gainney pushed the car under a "used and broken" sign. He was too much of a financial strain to keep it in gas. Last Spring Gainney died, and among his effects was found the car of 1921 vintage. The odometer still showed 100 miles.

More Children For French Mothers Urged

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—France is doing something about her missing population. The American commercial attaché in Paris reports that the French are using a system of family allotments to encourage larger families. Under the system a family's income is increased by specific amounts according to the number of children supported. A recent survey showing that births declined in France by 210,000 between 1930 and 1937 has led to an increase in allotments during last year by more than 8 percent.

Continued From Page One. launched an offensive in Catalonia to relieve the insurgent pressure on Valencia after a week of reversals. In London Great Britain gave Germany a clear signal to bring the whole Berlin-Rome axis into accord with the western European democracies as King George VI and Queen Elizabeth ended a triumphal state visit to France. Prime Minister Chamberlain was understood to have told Dr. Herbert Von Dirksen, the German ambassador in a 45-minute interview that he shared fully Chancellor Hitler's desire to settle Europe's major problems peacefully. But King George's pledge before leaving France that "the passing years can never weaken" Anglo-French ties made it clear both to Germany and Italy that Britain's partner across the channel must have a place in any general appeasement scheme. Dr. Von Dirksen's call at No. 10 Downing Street followed the trip here of Capt. Fritz Wiedemann, Hitler's adjutant, with what Chamberlain announced yesterday as renewed assurances that Germany desired peaceful settlement of outstanding questions. The ambassador is returning to Germany in several weeks' leave and official quarters did not signify formal opening of Anglo-German political negotiations.

Helps For Housewives

Egg tests: Fresh eggs will sink when they are placed in a pan of cold water. Held in front of a candle flame in a dark room they will appear clear. Store salad oil in a dry, cold place. Keep coffee, tea, sugar, baking powder, spices, soda, cream of tartar and cereals tightly covered in a dry, dark place. Metal teapots sometimes give a "musty" flavor to tea made in them. To prevent this, store a lump of sugar in the pot. When you're ready to use the pot rinse it in boiling water. Save your kitchen towels this way: Place a roll of paper toweling near the sink. Use the paper to clean greasy pans, to wipe up spilled foods, and to wipe out the sink strainer. Want some juice-appetizers? Try the following juice combinations: Tomato and clam, tomato and pineapple, grapefruit and orange, grapefruit and grape juice, lemon and cherry, apple and pineapple, prune and orange, raspberry and lemon, and grapefruit and cherry—with a bit of chopped mint. Standard food measurements: Two cups of solid fat equal one pound, as do two cups of granulated sugar, two and two-thirds cups of crystalline sugar, two and two-thirds cups of dark brown sugar, three and three-quarters cups of regular flour or four cups of pastry flour. Three teaspoons equal one tablespoon. Sixteen tablespoons equal one cup. Two cups make a pint.

Researchers Didn't Count On Lightning

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 22.—(AP)—For seven years agricultural officials carefully selected Oklahoma seeds that resisted drought, pests and disease. Finally they had strains which they believed would grow exceptionally well in dry weather and would escape disease. They stored between $10,000 and $20,000 worth in an Oklahoma warehouse near Woodward. Unseasonal rains swept the region, lightning struck the warehouse. The carefully chosen seeds were destroyed. Now some of the experiments will have to be started all over again.

Italian Cadets Are Attacked In Dublin

DUBLIN, July 23.—(AP)—Shore leave of visiting Italian cadets from the naval training ships Vesuvio and Colombo was cancelled last night after a group of anti-fascist demonstrators attacked the cadets as they marched through Dublin streets. The demonstrators, shouting "Remember Abyssinia" and "Down With Mussolini!" attacked the Italian cadets. They tore off the cadets' hats and threw them on the ground and the cadets fell into mass formation and charged the demonstrators. Police were rushed to the quayside where the vessels were tied up as groups of boisterous demonstrators followed the cadets to the waterfront.

Federal Money Mints Make Pennies Mostly

WASHINGTON, July 23.—(AP)—The federal government may talk in millions, but it does its biggest coin business in pennies. Three out of every five American coins minted in the fiscal year just ended were pennies. The federal money factory turned out 366,876,920 coppers compared with 11,868,338 half-dollars, 25,864,873 quarters, 73,890,000 dimes, 61,744,005 nickels. Coins also were manufactured at cost for Honduras, Nicaragua, Columbia and China.

Small Animals Are Killed And Embalmed

NEENAH, Wis., July 22.—(AP)—That bees kill and then embalm mice, snakes or other invaders of their hives was discovered here by E. E. Lampert, amateur beekeeper. Lampert found by experimentation that when a live mouse or snake was placed in a hive a swarm of bees descended upon it and stung it to death. Then, unable to remove it, the bees embalmed it by covering it with wax to prevent contamination.

Mail Carrier Builds Car To Suit His Job

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., July 23.—(AP)—When John Duckwall, rural mail carrier, goes out in his automobile for a pleasure drive he just slides from the right to the left side of the front seat. He has two steering wheels, one on the right and the other on the left side of his car. Mail must be delivered from the right side, hence the extra wheel.

Frank Morgan Plays Romantic Role In New Film, "Port of Seven Seas"

Trite is the phrase "nothing is torn from the arms of a new under the sun," but Holly sweetheart by the lure of his wood sent the thespians some- thing new when they produced "Port of Seven Seas," coming to the Ritz Theatre Thursday and Friday.

Starring Wallace Beery, and with a splendid cast including Frank Morgan, Maureen O'Sullivan, John Beal, and Jessie Ralph, the picture presents an entirely novel theme.

As the gruff, but understanding father and owner of a waterfront tavern, Beery is outstanding as usual, and his dramatic work with Frank Morgan is equally as enjoyable, as their comedy.

Romance is supplied by Miss O'Sullivan, who rushed back from London where she appeared in "A Yank at Oxford" with Robert Taylor, who was last seen in "Double Wedding" and Frank Morgan. No, that's not a mistake. Morgan does something entirely new in screen characterization and turns romantic time on an "Opera" sequence and dramatic with outstanding results.

The story concerns a boy who is torn from the arms of his sweetheart by the lure of his wood. He promises to return and marry her in three years. In leaving he also breaks his father's heart. In the meantime, another suitor, twice the girl's age, asks for her hand. At first she refuses, then agrees to marry him when she sees the happiness it will bring. She's still in love with the boy, but feels they'll never be happy if his love for adventure is greater than his devotion for her.

He returns to find the girl married. He demands that she leave her husband and go with him. His father makes him see that it would be impossible to break the old man's happiness, so the boy returns to his first love, the sea.

STAND-IN ROOM ONLY.

"The Rage of Paris" Features Debut Of French Star, Danielle Darrieux

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, JR. and Danielle Darrieux in a scene from Universal's "The Rage of Paris."

Danielle Darrieux, France's eye-filling, gams and remains to be seen—but no doubt will conquer. There need be no hesitation in adding the dainty, winsome, peering, prancing Parisian who flashes through every feminine mood in the space of a couple of hours will sway the entire country. Universal's fair victor is supple and her first American film, "The Rage of Paris" is a gorgeous comedy romance.

And why should it not be. Look what it has in the way of a cast. It stars Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., in co-starring with Danielle. Mischa Auer, looking his most delicious and in a comedy writer, Helen Broderick is teamed with him as a worldly-wise, cynical, whose advice gets Danielle Darrieux into all sorts of tangled trails. Then there is Louis Hayward, one of the more interesting Hollywood leading men, as the third side of the romantic triangle and such dextrous veterans as Charles Coleman, Sammie Hinds, Nella Walker and Harry Davenport appear in fetching character portrayals.

The film star has all the verve that popular novels and travelers' accounts describe her to French beauty. She can say more with her eyes than the average star can say in a page of dialogue. She is a creature of moods, turning from grave to gay in the flash of an eye, and speaking French again in the most beautiful but not afraid to make mistakes and play scenes in a full of rich, pleasant that she can't say a word. Yes, Danielle Darrieux is what it takes and we hope she is going to stay with us a long time.

MICKEY ROONEY and Judy Garland in the latest of the Judge Hardy series "Love Finds Andy Hardy."

Mickey Rooney Named "Speed Demon"

Mickey Rooney has a new title to the name, "Speed Demon." The boy actor's latest interest is a racing car which he expects to do better than a hundred miles an hour.

Mickey recently purchased an old fiver. With the help of fellow-actor Dan Quill, who appears with him in "Love Finds Andy Hardy," coming to the Ritz Theatre, he hopped up the motor and straddled the body so that the car did not touch the ground for hours on a first run at a speed of 100 miles per hour.

The youthful player has been driving the car, with a speed of 100 miles per hour, in the coming test.

Louis Stone, Judy Garland, Cecilia Parker and Fay Holden have featured roles in "Love Finds Andy Hardy," which was directed by George B. Seitz.

HE WON'T TATTLE!

Madge Murphy is the latest of actor-writers to turn down offers to write Hollywood gossip from the "inside." The young actor is associate editor of one Hollywood publication but, like the others in his position, doesn't of his double-threat position. Murphy is in "My Bill."

Because Maureen O'Sullivan decorated the interior of the portable dressing-room she used during filming of "Port of Seven Seas," the actress refused to accept a new one from the

Miami Advertising Contract Awarded

MIAMI, July 22.—(P)—The city commission, at a meeting yesterday called to study tax equalization, disregarded a call for competitive proposals and adopted yesterday a surprise resolution renewing the city's $30,000 publicity contract with Carl Byoir and associates for another year.

Norman L. Graves, chairman of the publicity advisory board, said various organizations had been asked to submit plans at a meeting tomorrow but added there was no use holding that meeting now. He said several organizations, including the Hamilton M. Wright group of New York, had prepared proposals in response to the board's invitation.

Byoir first secured the city contract three years ago. Headquarters of the organization are in New York.

Late Reports Give O'Daniels Big Majority

Flour Salesman, Novice Politician, Hits At Reports He Will Begin Dictatorship

Opponents Jibed At His Methods

Campaign For Governor Conducted With Band Of Hillbillies

DALLAS, July 25.—(AP)—W. Lee O'Daniel, the novice politician who made the shambles of Texas a political precedent, assured the public he would be "regular fellow" as governor and scoffed at possibility of dictatorship. Latest reports gave him a clear majority over eleven opponents for Democratic nomination.

O'Daniel, a flour salesman, mounted a sound truck with a hill billy band and struck out after "those professional politicians." Others scoffed at his methods but he won without need for a run-off.

Two potent members of Congress, Representatives Maury Maverick and Morgan Sanders, apparently test him for renomination.

Maverick, who in two terms held his name high in the House of Representatives, was belatedly told by Paul J. Kilday, San Antonio attorney, who compiled an impressive record as a county prosecutor. Maverick declined to comment when almost complete returns showed him trailing Kilday by 589 votes. Only a few ballots had not been counted.

Blocky, bespectacled Maverick, full of oratorical fire, contended Kilday had the support of Maj. C. K. Quinn's political machine. Reports were persistent that a recount would be demanded. The New Deal was not an issue, although Maverick was a known Administration man and Kilday said he would favor the Administration but "never be known as a rubber stamp congressman."

Representative W. D. MacFarlane, who only two weeks ago was referred to by President Roosevelt on a train trip through Texas as "my old friend Congressman MacFarlane," ran behind Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls. He polled 22,186 to MacFarlane's 20,147. Gossett ran against MacFarlane in 1934.

O'Daniel, whose mountain music deriding professional politicians swept the plains of Texas like a prairie fire.

"I chose the Ten Commandments as a platform because I thought they would make a good one," said the affable, 48-year-old flour jobber.

The strange medley of hill billy tunes and rousing attacks on professional politicians plus appeals for higher and more liberalized pensions defounded veterans of Texas campaigns. Evidently it appealed tremendously to thousands of voters.

O'Daniel spread his political grass fire over Texas from a platform equipped with which covered hundreds of miles daily in this largest state of the union. When the bus approached a town where O'Daniel was to speak it passed outside the city limits. The entertainers piled out, mounted to the platform and affixed flags and pennants. Then with the orchestra members at their stations, the bus wheeled majestically down Main street, rolling cheers following its meandering course.

O'Daniel's appearance on the platform invariably was hailed as a popular stage performance. The orchestra struck up popular songs, such as "The Hillbilly Politician" and "The Hillbilly Politician." Another was "The Hillbilly Politician."

EYES OF TEXAS ARE UPON HIM

Pirat returns to the Texas election bureau in the Democratic gubernatorial primary showed W. Lee O'Daniel, the flour merchant who made mountain music a political issue, to be well in the lead. Here he's shown studying a map of the Lone Star State at Fort Worth.

Lehman, Leonardy Rotarians To Attend Caucus Of House Nominees

Representatives Have Good Time Prior To Parley, Lehman Says

Seminole County's representative, H. J. Lehman, Monday reported, an enjoyable two days of fun prior to the caucus at Moon Lake which resulted in the selection of G. Pierce Wood of Liberty county as Speaker of the next House session.

Mr. Lehman, who was accompanied by John G. Leonardy, Seminole's other representative, and John Lindsey, Dade representative, stated that although he voted for LeRoy Collins, prominent Leon county representative, he was well satisfied with the selection of the Liberty county candidate.

Mr. Lehman pointed out that Mr. Wood was influential and well liked and declared that the nominees for the 1939 House of Representatives "couldn't go wrong by voting for either Wood or Collins."

Seminole's two House members left Friday for Tampa where representatives from all over the state were entertained with a cocktail party at the Tampa Terrace Hotel from 5:00 to 7:30 P. M. A motorcade was then formed to the Columbia Restaurant in Ybor City where the Mayor of Tampa and many dignitaries from over the state joined with the 1939 House nominees for a banquet.

Saturday the candidates for speaker were active at their headquarters. Mr. Lehman reported and later the group motored to Dade City where they were guests of Rep. John Burch of Dade county, also Dade county and Dade County, also Dade county and Dade County. The representatives enjoyed a chicken dinner after (Continued on Page Three)

Governor Of Puerto Rico Is Attacked

Gov. Winship Is Shot At By Radical White Reviewing Parade During Celebration

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, July 25.—(AP)—Miguel Gual, Blanton Winship, governor of Puerto Rico, escaped an assassin's bullet at Ponce today while reviewing a parade. First reports said neither the governor nor any member of the party was injured.

Police immediately detained five among the large crowds watching the celebration of the 44th anniversary of the landing of American troops in the Spanish American war.

One man was killed by police and a number injured. Police also made arrests. They said the first shot was fired by a member of the nationalist party, a group demanding independence for the United States. Another possession Order was quickly restored and the parade continued.

Lieutenant Colonel Izary of the Puerto Rican National Guard was wounded fatally. Among the injured were Miguel Angel Garcia Mendez, speaker of House of Representatives, and Francisco Lopez Dominguez, commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce.

A few minutes after the shooting Gov. Winship delivered a speech in which he urged Puerto Ricans to let nothing occur which might give the wrong impression of their real affection for the United States.

Floods In North Believed Waning As Rains Cease

By Associated Press
Clearing skies in many sections gave hope of an early end to the ruinous floods and rain storms which took 12 lives and caused property and crops damage totaling millions of dollars in a dozen states.

New England was hardest hit by the week-long downpours which sent rivers out of banks all along the Atlantic seaboard. Damage was conservatively put at more than $3,000,000. The tobacco crop loss in Connecticut was reported as $1,000,000 and similarly heavy tolls were exacted of crops in Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

The textile mills were shut down in many towns, throwing thousands of persons temporarily out of work. Hundreds of families were homeless in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New York.

The storms claimed four lives in New Jersey over week-end. Three persons were killed by lightning in Ohio. An unidentified hero who swam the raging Sandusky River at Sandusky, Tex., a score of persons marooned on roof tops. Earlier the river had claimed two victims. Thirty houses were swept away, leaving 300 homeless.

Continued downpours were forecast in North Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and adjacent states but little immediate danger of widespread floods was seen.

Columbia Plane Crash Victims To Be Paid Expenses

President Lopez, Who Narrowly Escaped, Visits Hospitals

BOGOTA, Colombia, July 25.—(AP)—The government announced today it would pay the funeral expenses of 31 persons killed at a military review yesterday when a stunt airplane crashed into a crowd of spectators. The state decided also to pay the medical expense of the 150 persons injured, many of them gravely.

President Alfonso Lopez, although he was in the stand struck by the falling plane, visited various hospitals where the injured lay.

The plane piloted by Lieut. Alberto was doing aerobatic stunts 90 feet from the ground when it attempted to pass between the grandstand occupied by the President and President-elect Eduardo Santos, and the diplomatic stand.

A tip of the wing hit the stand occupied by diplomats and then struck the presidential stand. The wildly cheering crowd crashed and cut through bystanders like a scythe.

The inauguration was being viewed by more than 50,000 people. The steps of the stand from which President Lopez was viewing the review to which Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador and Venezuela had sent sports delegations were brushed off.

Shrieks from the whole crowd almost drowned the noise of the plane tipping through the mistle roof of the stand and of the explosion of the gasoline tanks when the ship hit the ground. The plane caught fire immediately. The crowd ran in every direction but some were powerless to escape, and some of those in the path of the propellers were decapitated.

Some of the injured, soaked with the spray of burning gasoline shrieked in desperation and pain. The body of the pilot was destroyed by the flames.

Orlando Fisherman Gets Cramps In Lake

A fishing trip which might have ended in tragedy was the experience of two Orlando fishermen in Lake Monroe Saturday night, according to reports of the Sanford Outboard Association.

Dorsey Hockaday and Pat Sweetman of Orlando put in their boat near here Saturday night and for a trip down the river to Lemon Bluff where they planned to spend the week-end. The outboard motor broke down in the lake and Sweetman attempted to swim to shore since they had no oars.

He took a cramp in the water and took refuge on a nearby channel marker where he remained until early Sunday morning when he was picked by a fisherman. The broken down craft and its occupant was later found and returned to Sanford by a party composed of Henry English, Bill Johns, Ernest Lundenburg, Dwight Smith, and James Cowan.

County's Citrus Growers Urged To Attend Meeting

Dawson Says Organization Is Important Forward Move

Urging all bona fide citrus growers in Seminole County to attend the meeting tomorrow night in Dade City for the purpose of forming the Seminole County Citrus Growers' Association, Frank Dawson, Dade county citrus promoter, said today that the organization would mean more to the citrus grower than any other in the county.

The meeting, which will begin at 8 o'clock, will be under the direction of Fred Foxwood, who will act as temporary chairman.

Mr. Dawson said he expected about 60 to 80 growers to be present at the meeting in the Dade City school house. Mr. Foxwood is reported to have said more than 30 growers will attend from the First City section.

The association will become a unit of the statewide association of citrus growers now being organized.

Those eligible for membership must be bona fide growers. Mr. Dawson defined "bona fide" growers as those who do not "buy and sell fruit for profit." A one dollar fee will be assessed for membership in the organization.

Limiting membership in the organization to "bona fide" growers, Mr. Dawson said, does not mean that the growers are fighting shipwreck. It merely means that the grower is forming an organization that will look out for his own interests. Heretofore, Mr. Dawson pointed out, the grower has had practically no voice in his own affairs, especially in Washington where little attention was paid to him.

Now, he added, the grower will have a voice in all power represented in the organization.

Regarding the purpose of the association, he said, a marketing pact of some sort will probably be one of the issues but far from being the main one. The group will work out problems such as that of selling green fruit, size of boxes and many other details.

Mr. Dawson declared that never before has there been such a spontaneous effort on the part of all growers to work together and co-operate as at the present time.

New Insurgent Successes In Spain Reported

Rebels Take Province In Southwest Spain As Forces March On Catalonia In North

Japanese Launch Kiukiang Drive

39 Arabs Killed By Bomb Thrown Into Marketing Center

By Associated Press
Spanish Insurgent offensives carved Spain into three war fronts while Japan intensified her campaign in China and terrorists spilled more blood in a feud between Jews and Arabs in Palestine. A sudden, swift Insurgent offensive in southwest Spain pushed off 3,125 square miles of important government territory. The area in Extremadura province has 11 important towns and a population of more than 100,000.

Loss of this important territory seemed to be government's price for holding the Insurgent drive on Valencia almost to a standstill in the north war area. On the third war area in Spain, in the far north within control of the French frontier, almost continuous artillery barrages heralded the Insurgent drive on Catalonia.

Japan's air, land and naval forces continued in a drive to beat through Kiukiang, key Yangtze River port. Its bullets riddled Chinese troops' provincial capital. The Chinese declared Japan had failed to take Kiukiang by direct naval action and was depending on air attacks to silence defense guns.

Thirty-nine Arabs were killed and between 50 and 60 injured when a bomb blasted Jerusalem's crowded Arab market place for the second time since strife in the Holy Land flared into violence on July 9. Now racial clashes immediately followed the shooting. At least one Jew was killed and others were injured.

The spearhead of Japan's Yangtze River columns smashed through the outer line of Chinese defense east of Kiukiang and began driving a bloody wedge toward the heart of that city, last stronghold guarding Hankow from the east.

Reports from both Japanese and Chinese sources indicated the loss on both sides was terrific. The Japanese, braving an almost solid wall of machine gun fire, stormed the bank of the narrow neck connecting Poyang lake and the Yangtze River, and began pushing toward Lun Hill.

Chinese reports said scores of Japanese warships had lined up in the Yangtze and along Poyang narrows over a 20-mile front and were engaged in a fierce artillery duel with Chinese gun emplacements along the western bank.

One of the most sanguinary battles of the war was expected within the next few days.

MOSCOW, July 25.—(AP)—Tens of thousands of young Russian athletes and youths of the Red army massed before Dictator Josef V. Stalin in Red square yesterday, shouting their readiness for orders to teach Japan a "holocaust lesson."

The Soviet's annual physical culture parade, representing an organization of 10,000,000 young men and women, was turned into a massive demonstration in defiance of Japan whose protests against Russia's occupation of a strategic hill on the Siberian Manchukuoan border has precipitated a tense diplomatic situation.

Insurgent dispatches said the most important victory came with the capture of Castuera, a town of 30,000 near the Portuguese border in southwestern Spain. The (Continued on Page Three)
