DAVISON BURIED AT LOCUST VALLEY NEAR NEW YORK TODAY

(By The Associated Press) LOCUST VALLEY, New York, May 9.—The funeral services of H. P. Davison were held today in a little chapel here. Men and women of international prominence in finance and society mingled with the plain villagers. Davison's last wishes were fulfilled. Members of the family, although in black did not wear deep mourning. The service itself was unostentatious. The eulogy was omitted from the Episcopal ritual, which followed private services at the home and the scene at the graveside was reserved for only those nearest and dearest to the deceased.

EPIC OF WOMANHOOD

To judge from her past successes, the announcement that Pola Negri's next picture is due for screening here tonight, is one calculated to stir up the widest interest throughout motion picture circles. And there will be no proof that the popularity accorded this Continental star through her forthcoming pictures has not been replaced when her latest Paramount picture, "The Devil's Pawn" is screened at the Princess Theatre tonight. It is a story of a girl's dramatic struggle to make good despite all obstacles, and such is an epic of all womanhood. The star is supported by an excellent cast.

LLOYD GEORGE SAYS HOPEFUL FOR PEACE MEET

BIG DELEGATES AT GENOA CONTINUE TO LOOK ASKANCE AT EACH OTHER

(By The Associated Press) GENOA, May 9.—English and Italian delegates met today with members of the Russian delegation and began working out new formula concerning restoration of foreign property in Russia it was announced by the French delegation. The announcement said it was hoped to devise new clause in Russian memorandum which would satisfy Belgium and France.

GENOA, May 9.—Optimism was still professed last night by Premier Lloyd George. The little Welshman was still smiling, but most of the delegates no longer have the heart to smile.

"Many difficulties more than this have been passed and we shall pass this one," said Mr. Lloyd George to the correspondents last night after a frantic day, in which he conferred with nearly all the leading figures at the conference. "We have come to Genoa to overcome such difficulties, otherwise why have the conference?"

Genoa school with all sorts of rumors about the breaking up of the entente and the imminent dissolution of the economic conference. The French and Belgians stand firm in their opposition to the property clause of the memorandum to the Russians, and insist that failure of the Russians to accept the memorandum will mark the end of the conference.

The Russian delegates, after conferring with Premier Lloyd George issued a statement denouncing the French and Belgians for the attempt to break up the conference and calling attention to the fact that these two countries are trying to make it appear that everything hinges on the Russian reply, while they themselves have not endorsed the very document they are discussing.

FLORIDA A SUMMER RESORT

Florida has much more than one-fifth of the nation's length of sea beach. Nowhere else in the country can fishing as well be combined with the pleasures of the surf as in Florida, and neighboring states are so nearly destitute of fish that our state offers the most accessible field for the sport. Under the circumstances the Florida beaches in summer ought to be the most crowded in the country and they will be when all the people cease to entertain mistaken impressions of the state.

Only a few years ago this state was considered generally as hot and unhealthful in summer, but gradually at first, but now more rapidly, the fact is being learned that these impressions were altogether wrong and that the entire state is well fitted for comfortable residences all the year.

Summer days are shorter here than they are further north, and though the sun's rays come more directly here they come for a shorter time. The summer nights are longer here than they are up north, and so the earth is heating for a shorter time and cooling for a longer time in Florida than in any other state in the union.

Then, the straits are so narrow that the sea breezes sweep across it. No Floridian lives beyond the cooling influence of a breeze just off the Atlantic or Gulf.

Sun strokes in man or animal are unknown in Florida and a sultry night is rare. Northern people who have spent years in the state say they prefer the summer to the winter, the latter having more changes. It is declared by authorities that the sand is neither a conductor nor an absorber of heat, and that consequently the heat from the noon day sun is not stored up to worry people at night. In many of the less favored states the rock, clay and other mineral matters store up this heat and give it out during the night. And in most of the states, even those far to the north, the heat is more intense and suffocating because of the lack of sea breezes.

One only need to compare the U. S. weather reports of temperature in the country on each side of the Ohio and Potomac rivers, and he will find the record in favor of Florida. Not only do we have sea breezes, but the interior lakes and rivers help to reduce the heat, as water does not retain and reflect heat.

About ten years ago people from neighboring states began to come to Florida beach resorts—doubtfully at first but afterwards with a knowledge of the pleasures they would enjoy. The statements of Floridians and of Florida newspapers were not believed, but the visitors who first came to sample our Florida summer climate found it good and went home and said so. Then others came, and still others, and the tide of summer travel southward grew larger year by year until now a great number of people from nearby states and some from distant states enjoy the pleasures of a summer at Florida beaches and by interior lakes and riversides. Summer excursion rates to Florida begin May 15.—Moses Folsom in the Jacksonville Metropolis.

SEVENTY THOUSAND ARE HOMELESS AS RESULT OF HIGH WATER ALONG THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER VALLEY

Organizations at New Orleans Working for Relief of Sufferers

(By The Associated Press) NEW ORLEANS, May 9.—Official announcement was made yesterday by relief organizations that approximately 70,000 persons had been rendered homeless in Mississippi and Louisiana by the floods along the Mississippi river. Representatives of commercial and civic organizations in New Orleans working under the state flood relief committee, began a campaign yesterday in this city for the collection of money, provisions and clothing for the thousands or more persons driven from their homes by the crevasse in the Mississippi river levees at Poydras and Myrtle Grove, below New Orleans.

A majority of the families affected by the inundation of the territory adjacent to the two breaks have been transferred to Jackson Barracks in New Orleans. Some stragglers, however, have remained in their flooded homes.

NEW TARIFF PLAN KNOCKED BY SENATORS

DECLARE FLEXIBLE TARIFF UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND THEN SOME

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 9.—An attack on the flexible tariff plan proposed by the Senate finance committee on the recommendation of President Harding was launched yesterday in the senate and in the course of a four hours debate Chairman McCumber, in charge of the tariff bill, announced that some of the objections raised to the plan would be considered by the committee before final senate action on it.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, opened the discussion with the delivery of a prepared address in which he cited many authorities and court decisions to support his argument that the provision were unconstitutional. Senators Underwood, of Alabama, and Simmons, of North Carolina, the Democratic leaders, joined him, arguing that for the first time in the history of the country it was proposed to protect the profits of American manufacturers.

Chairman McCumber and Senator Smoot, of Utah, defended the plan, the former insisting that if the American producer raised his price to an exorbitant figure it was not contemplated that the president would increase tariff duties to protect him.

Senator Walsh told the senate that the constitution specifically reserved to congress the power to lay and collect taxes and import duties and that congress could not delegate this authority.

Senator Underwood told the Senate that not only was he convinced the flexible tariff plan was unconstitutional, but that it was wrong in principle and would lead to the "oppression of the American people," and in the end ruin of the business and prosperity of the country. The Alabama senator argued that if congress could delegate to the president the authority to levy taxes at the custom houses to the extent of 50 per cent on the value of imports it could delegate power to levy it on home consumption.

Declaring that he knew of no way to equalize conditions of competition in trade except through equalizing prices, Senator Underwood declared that the result of such a plan would be to make the consumers of the country "pay the price of industrial monopoly."

And Refrigerated Ships Can Go from Sanford Dock to New York WITHOUT TRANSFER

THUS SOLVING ALL THE GROWERS AND SHIPPERS TROUBLES AT ONE AND SAME TIME

One of the most enthusiastic and certainly one of the meetings that was filled with good results was that held at the Valdez Hotel last night when the faithful ones of the Florida Central Water Traffic League met to make plans for arranging the data for the meeting with the government engineers at Titusville next week.

President Sligh, Vice-President Knight and Secretary Tarpley were present as well as a representative gathering of Sanford growers and shippers and many representatives from a distance one of them coming from as far south as Moorehaven, T. J. Zimmerman, Judge W. T. Bland, of Orlando, former congressman from Missouri and for many years one of the inland waterways boosters and member of the rivers and harbors committee in congress, was present and gave the meeting some valuable information on the subject.

A committee consisting of Will Lefler, chairman, and R. W. Pearman, A. P. Connelly and M. W. Tarpley was appointed to meet in Orlando Friday with other members of the league to compile the data obtained from the various sections and make a recapitulation of the figures and put it into a comprehensive report for the submission to the engineers at Titusville.

It was also decided to form a motortrade to the Titusville meeting and show the world that the hearts of the people of this part of Florida are in this great work of boosting the inland waterways through Florida and especially demanding deeper water for the St. Johns river. This demand will not be made for five feet but for twenty feet and for ocean going vessels to come up the river as far as Sanford or going into the Indian river go as far as Miami is feasible and thus carry out all the fruits and vegetables from Central and South Florida by refrigeration ships from Sanford to New York without making a change or unloading a package.

Thus the people of this great farming community can see where this work is leading to and every grower and every business man of this section should join the Central Florida Water Traffic League now and help to put over these big things that will mean cheaper freight rates, better shipping, faster transportation and all the things needed to transport fruits and vegetables under proper refrigeration from the fields to the markets at reasonable rates.

It is absolutely the greatest one thing that has ever been presented to the business men and the farmers of Central Florida and there should not be a merchant or a farmer left standing outside the League that is working for you every day in the year while you are doing nothing to co-operate in something that is all for you.

The meeting last night had the proper pep and push and demonstrated to the visitors present that the Central Florida Water Traffic League means business and if it becomes necessary will put on their own line of refrigeration steamers in the near future if the government will lend us any aid at all in the obtaining of twenty feet of water from Palatka to Sanford.

SCHOOL BONDS WILL BE VOTED ON TOMORROW

There is but little interest being evinced over the election for school bonds tomorrow, probably on account of the fact that every one is in favor of the bonds and on the other hand the people are almost too busy to think about an election. However, busy or not they should go to the polls tomorrow and cast their ballot for the bonds that will be the salvation of the schools in District No. 1. The following election call gives the facts about the election and all those who have been keeping in touch with the school situation are determined to cast their ballot for the bonds that mean so much to the whole commonwealth.

Read the call: "A petition has been presented to the County Board of Public Instruction for Seminole County, Florida, signed by more than twenty-five per cent of the duly qualified electors residing within Special Tax School District No. 1, Seminole County, Florida, said Special Tax School District being also known as the Sanford School District, asking and petitioning the County Board of Public Instruction for Seminole County, Florida, to call and order an election to be held with in Special Tax School District No. 1, Seminole County, Florida, said Special Tax School District, also known as the Sanford School District, to determine whether or not there should be issued by the said Special Tax School District No. 1, bonds in the sum of $60,000.00, the proceeds of such bonds to be used for the purpose of acquiring, building, enlarging, furnishing or otherwise improving school buildings and school grounds and for the exclusive use of the public free schools within said Special Tax School District No. 1, the proceeds of the said bond issue amounting to $60,000.00 to be used for the purposes set forth in said petition, and to be expended and disbursed in a manner following, to-wit: $60,000.00 to be used in acquiring a site, building, and furnishing a primary school, and for enlarging, furnishing or otherwise improving school buildings and school grounds for the exclusive use of the public free schools within said Special Tax School District No. 1.

All those civil wars in China will cause more laundrymen to come to the United States.

We are almost afraid to look at an heiress these days. It means being deported by the rich papa.

The St. Johns river is our greatest asset. However, it will not deepen itself. It will take the efforts of the people to make it what it should be.

EDIE.-----123 4512345 1234 ? Some people never see any good in anybody or anything, probably because they are so crooked themselves.

So many people here are continually crying about what ought to be done but we note that they have never attended a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in their lives.

If they cannot settle their school troubles satisfactorily in Orlando we would advise them to send part of the children to the Sanford schools. We can take care of them and will promise perfect peace and harmony at all times.

The fire insurance agents of Florida expect to meet in Orlando on May 23rd. The life insurance agents should meet with them and between the two we should devise some sort of safety device that would save us from the fires of hell.

Even the prisoners in the county jails and penitentiaries are becoming dissatisfied and are putting on riots. The Republican administration cannot be held accountable for this, however. The prisoners are simply becoming tired of so much food and such good times and so much attention of the welfare workers. Too much high living will make anyone discontented.

Some of the roads around the Cameron City neighborhood are miserable. We do not know if these roads have been made county roads or not but from the looks of them they evidently do not belong to any county or state. There are plenty of good farms in that neighborhood and it is difficult for the people to get in or out just now on account of the heavy sand. It would be well for the county commissioners to give all the people of the thickly settled portions of the county better roads as soon as possible after the new bonds are sold.

The Herald hereby makes Judge Bland of Orlando an honorary citizen of Sanford. The judge gives us inspiration every time he attends a meeting here and for a whole-souled, straightforward, honest and courageous citizen of Florida give us Judge Bland. He has not been here long but, he already is familiar with the needs of the state—more so than some men who have lived here 100 years or more—and he not only knows our needs but the kind of remedies to apply for relief. He is a former member of Congress from

GROCERIES FRUITS AND VEGETABLES DEANE TURNER Phone 497-494 WELAKA BLOCK

Missouri, is now president of a bank in Orlando, a big orange grower and the leading spirit in everything for the good of the community. (This ought to be good for a loan.)

If the business men of Sanford would attend a meeting of the Central Florida Water Traffic League they would know what the Sanford Chamber of Commerce has started in this part of the state. This making of the St. Johns river into the inland waterway of Florida will be the greatest asset that Sanford will ever obtain. It would mean making this town into a city of 50,000 people in ten years, it would mean that every business man in Sanford would have five times as much business as they have now, and yet—few of them are especially interested. It strikes us sometimes very forcibly that some Sanford business men do not want this place to grow any larger and we are led to believe that is the reason for them standing back on every proposition to advertise Sanford and make it grow.

SUMMER TOURISTS ARE COMING

The announcement of the leading railway lines of the south, east and central west that summer tourist rates would be effective this summer tot Florida has already had its effect, and local real estate men are receiving many inquiries from other states for cottages and apartments.

As a matter of fact few people have ever looked upon Florida as a summer resort state, and the railroad announcement of rates is the first big boost this state has received along that line.

Once the people of the country at large are told of Florida's summer climate and get the inbred idea out of their heads that Florida is excessively hot in summer time this state will become the greatest summer as well as winter playground of the people of the eastern half of the United States.

The same amount expended for advertising Florida's summer attractiveness that is spent to promote winter tourist business would fill this state with summer recreationists. Instead of one big tourist crop, Florida would gather two.

Advertising built up Florida's winter business and advertising will build up Florida's summer business. —Daytona Journal.

THE OUTWARD SIGN OF AN INWARD DISGRACE

There appears to be something radically wrong with the present day public school system of the country. Instead of turning out graduates as scholars, we are turning out young men and women who have merely received a certain number of "credits" for having given a definite number of "hours" to such and such a "subject."

Proceeding on the doctrine of "not what I do, but what I tell you," the schools teach the impossibility of adding together in the same column three onions, three goats, a gallon of water, and four men, and getting a definite total therefrom, then proceed to throw together so much history, science, Sanscrit, music, social, ethics, astronomy, mathematics and psychology, and from these make an excellent addition the total of which is labeled "A. B." The numerical requirement being satisfied, it apparently matters not that each one of the terms added is as variant from the other as two umbrellas, five sheep, and four locomotives are.

But "organization" and "efficiency" have worked out a card index standard for education. This is all the more dangerous because while signifying the organization of human effort for the greatest accomplishment it gives rise too often to a blind faith in what really is nothing but external signs.

The pupil of today is given a certain amount of "home work." This is "marked" if the answer be, or the proposition is, stated according to "rule." Few papers are "corrected" these days. The result is that in the end of a course the student passes or fails according to whether or not he has answered in line with the standard set up for that subject, and the resultant marks therefor. Too great a number of failures in a class would indicate either too rigid a marking of papers, or too slack teaching, and ability to instruct. The result is that facing both horns of the dilemma, the average teacher marks "up" where often the need for marking "down" is apparent.

It is patent that the average graduate of the public schools of today is not equipped as was his father, or his grandfather, at the same age. He may pass the required "tests" but these tests indicate not ability to study and reason out for oneself, but merely that the memory has been trained to rapid functioning, and is able to recall instantaneously anything that has been put in its catalogue, and card-indexed, storehouse. A boy of almost no intelligence but gifted with fine recollective powers and a retentive memory, or a lazy lad well "tutored" for a few weeks or days, has as much, or a better, chance of success in examinations, or test takings, than the active-minded, original, searcher-after-causes, athletic boy who is endowed with a less mechanically perfect and certain memory and recollective faculty.

What is needed is some real study, more teaching how to study, instead of instruction in how to pass tests, and compelling to take part in "outside activities." A distinguished French teacher in this country recently gave as his opinion that over here "the outside activities are multiplied for the students and school pupils to an unreasonable extent." There is a word of warning and a call to real thought in this that he says:

"Without speaking of athletics, how many things there are to take their time and thought outside of the plain business learning! Hours wasted, energy consumed, concentration rendered impossible on the very subject of their studies, the illusion sometimes that they are 'men' more than they really are—a too natural temptation to think that studies can wait for other more important and more interesting activities—these are some of the things which please me less than the excellent institutions or practices which may be their cause. I should like to see the old maxim—ne quid nimis—nothing in excess, engraved in all places where 'outside activities' are performed—everywhere, except on the walls of libraries, where it is not necessary." —Tampa Tribune.

PROPOSED POTASH DUTY.

The American potash producers have been trying very hard to have an import duty placed on potash. The tariff bill, which has passed in the house of representatives, has been introduced in the senate and referred to the finance committee. As reported to the senate by the finance committee, the bill carries this proposed duty on potash covering a period of five years, as follows:

The first and second year, 2 1/2c per pound of pure potash, K2O. The third year, 2c per pound of pure potash, K2O. The fourth year, 1 1/2c per pound of pure potash, K2O. The fifth year, 1c per pound of pure potash, K2O.

For the first two years, $50.00 per ton of pure potash, K2O. For the third year, $40.00 per ton of pure potash, K2O. For the fourth year, $30.00 per ton of pure potash, K2O. For the fifth year, $20.00 per ton of pure potash, K2O.

It is more than likely that the producers of potash in Germany and France would not absorb this duty, and that the user of the potash would be the one to pay it. If this is the case, let us see what it would cost the growers of Florida.

There have been used in Florida during the past year around 300,000 tons of fertilizer. To be conservative, we will waive the constant increase in our fertilizer consumption and reckon on 300,000 tons of fertilizer being used each of the next five years.

Fertilizer varies in potash content from no potash at all to a high percentage, but an average of 5% would be a fair estimate. Each ton (2000 lbs.) of fertilizer analyzing 5% potash contains 100 lbs. of pure potash, K2O; in 300,000 tons, Florida's yearly requirement according to above conservative estimate, there would be 15,000 tons of pure potash, K2O. The proposed duty on 15,000 tons of pure potash, K2O, would be as follows: First year, 15,000 tons at $50.00 per ton $ 750,000 Second year, 15,000 tons at $50.00 per ton 750,000 Third year, 15,000 tons at $40.00 per ton 600,000 Fourth year, 15,000 tons at $30.00 per ton 450,000

Fifth year, 15,000 tons at $20.00 per ton 300,000

Total $2,850,000

In other words, on the above basis, this proposed duty will amount in dollars and cents, as far as Florida is concerned, for the period of five years, $2,850,000.00. Whoever pays this duty is going to be saddled with a bill for the five year period of $2,850,000.00. As to whether that bill is going to be paid by the Florida growers or be paid by the producers of potash, or somebody else, one can not know in advance, but according to history such duties are usually paid by the consumers, hence the Florida grower is facing an increased demand on his resources in the next five years of $2,850,000.00.

Are the growers of Florida willing to pay this amount for the protection and upbuilding of an American potash industry, or shall this industry stand on its own merits and ability to overcome obstacles?

It is a question of vital interest and each grower of Florida should express himself to the congressmen and senators at Washington at once.

NOT REAL LEADERS

Some time ago this paper mentioned the fact that this country was sorely lacking in real leaders—men of broad vision and big minds and souls who could look ahead and see big things without striving for power for themselves. If you will note those around you it will occur to you that any proposition born with the idea of being under the thumb of one man never succeeds. So many men organize something with the idea of making themselves famous out of it thinking of course that because they were instrumental in putting it over that they should have the big plums. They are not real leaders but the big men are those who stand back until they are needed and called and then climb into the breach and pull out the organization that has been put in the hole by the "big I" and the "its." The Reporter-Star sums it up as follows: "Playground directors tell us that the hardest part of their work, the most difficult to deal with is that child who always insists on "being it." Some of us have taught school. We know how this is. "Teacher can I be it?" was the first word that popped out of the mouth of some children whenever a game was announced. Sometimes this is the result of bad teaching, and sometimes it is the result of inborn selfishness. It matters not which, it is unfortunate for the possessor of that disposition and unpleasant for those who are associates.

This same trait follows on down into the greater and sterner activities of life. How natural it is for some men and women to insist on "being it." If they can't be it, they won't be at all. At the head they will work but nowhere else. They are left-handed and off color everywhere else. You can interest them in most any proposition if you put them at the head. The tanks have no attention. Some really good and serviceable people are thus constituted and it is only by diplomatic handling that their good qualities, hidden back of this one fault, can be utilized by society. In every department of human activities this condition of humanity will be found as outstanding as on the playground. It is especially prominent in political circles. It is sadly in evidence in church work; and even in our great fraternal orders where the most beautiful and unselfish lessons of life are taught, will be found the great exemplification of selfishness because a few men insist on being at the head all the time, and "being it."

Few of us want to be doorkeeper. All of us are itching to be "high potentate." Perhaps as doorkeeper we could render a real service, while as high potentate we would obstruct the orderly movement of affairs. Nevertheless we insist on "being it." But this all applies to some one we now have in mind, not ourselves.

I AM DREAMING

I am dreaming, dreaming, dreaming Of a dear one fair to see. Life is seeming, seeming, seeming Very beautiful to me.

And-I look with joy and gladness, Without trace or tinge of sadness On a face in which no badness Eyes most critical could see: For the happy days are bringing To my heart a Dear one singing And loves songs are ever ringing In the deepest soul of me.

I am living, living, living, For a dear ones joy and bliss; Life is giving, giving, giving, All ones soul in purest kiss. —D. D. ALBRAS.

FLORIDA POSTMASTERS MEET IN DAYTONA 3 DAYS' SESSION

With much interest being already evidenced in the annual convention, May 23 to 25, at Daytona of the Florida Association of Postmasters, it is believed that this will be the best annual ever held, and that there will be a record attendance of the membership, inasmuch as the department has recently ruled that it will not be necessary to obtain leave of absence for the purpose of attending the convention, but that, upon their return home, the various postmasters must report to the postoffice inspector in charge of their district as to the number of days they were away from their offices.

The meeting will be presided over by the president of the association, N. A. Stumpe, of Palatka. The preliminaries in connection with the sending out of notices has just been completed by the secretary, Mrs. Grace Barry Wise, of Jacksonville. Mr. Stumpe has been very active trying to build up the organization, and in this good work he has been assisted by a number of other postmasters throughout Florida.

The host postmaster at the convention will be L. J. Cowan of Daytona, who has the cooperation of the Daytona Chamber of Commerce in making provision for the entertainment of the guests.

With the great interest being taken in the annual meeting this year, practically all of the large offices in Florida will be represented at the convention. L. C. Lynch of Gainesville, chairman of the committee on topics, announces that an unusually fine program will be the offering this year.

The meeting will be held in the Casino at Daytona and special rates have been arranged at the Hotel Hamilton and Hotel Austin in Daytona proper, as well as the Seaside Inn and the Breakers hotel at Daytona Beach. There are many beautiful drives around Daytona and Postmaster Cowan is arranging for automobile trips, basket picnics, etc.

The Florida branch of the Postmasters' League will also hold their convention at the same time. G. N. Denning of Winter Park, is president of this organization. Mrs. Anna E. Allen of Orange Park, who is the secretary reports that the membership of that body is also large this year, every indication points to a big convention of the Florida postmasters. O. C. Cole, of the Atlanta division, has been designated by the department as its representative, and will deliver an address at the convention.

TO ASK HARDING TO APPEAL FOR AID FOR
VICTIMS OF FLOODS

(By The Associated Press)
VICKSBURG, Miss., May 8.—The Mississippi flood relief committee at a meeting here yesterday adopted a resolution to request President Harding to issue an appeal for public contributions to the fund for the relief of flood sufferers in the Yazoo basin where twenty thousand men, women and children marooned or driven from their homes by the Mississippi flood were declared to be in absolute need of help.

The call for additional aid was taken after it had been found by committee that available funds were inadequate to take care of the rapidly increasing number of destitute flood victims.

Reports submitted by a score of Red Cross field secretaries yesterday showed that the number to be provided for this week would be 20,000 compared with 17,000 last week, when the issuing of rations was started.

The board of health basing its estimate for a balanced ration recommended a per capita ration of $1.05 a week, but members of the committee declared that funds on hand would permit the allowance of but seventy cents per week. The board of health estimate, it was said, included medical supplies for preventing diseases, which would if they develop in the crowded refugee camps, entail a much greater expenditure of money as well as increase fatalities.

Mrs. R. S. Butler, member of the committee from Inasquea county reported the loss of several lives in her field, and a heavy loss of livestock.

FLORIDA LEADS WORLD
IN PHOSPHATE SHIPMENTS
ACCORDING TO ESTIMATES

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 8.—The country's sales of phosphate rock in 1921, according to estimates made by the United States Geological Survey from incomplete returns available April 1, was about 1,968,000 long tons, valued at $10,928,300, as compared with 4,103,282 long tons in 1920
valued at $25,079,572.

Florida's total production was approximately 1,675,000 long tons, almost the entire output of the country last year. The Florida product valued at $9,046,400.

Tennessee followed with an approximate total of 293,000 long tons, valued at $1,892,300, which included a small quantity of brown rock from Kentucky. The Western States were represented by only one producer and South Carolina dropped out entirely.

The general business depression, of 1921, says the Geological Survey, is illustrated in the decline in production of phosphate rock. The decrease in the selling price of agricultural products, combined with the high freight rates, prevented the farmers from purchasing fertilizer and the low rates of exchange discouraged exporters.

HOOD TIRES
ARE SATISFYING
TO THE PUBLIC
THOSE WHO USE THEM MOST
ARE THE ONES TO LIKE HOOD
TIRES THE BEST

A representative of the Herald called upon to write something about Hood Tires found out one big thing in their favor—the people who use them the most are the greatest boosters for Hood Tires and their shop that Hood Tires are all that the manufacturer and dealer claim for them.
Another big item in favor of Hood Tires is the whole souled, dyed in the wool, straight from the shoulder manner in which the local dealer, Harry Kent of the Kent Vulcanizing Co., talks about Hood Tires, the manner in which Hood users talk about them and the general satisfaction
they seem to give in every instance.
When fabric tires are touted as highly as Hood fabrics and the service of the fabrics is as good as that shown by the records compiled by the local dealers it is but little wonder that the Hood Cards are giving such satisfaction to all the auto owners in the Sanford section. Personal testimony from the people who use them and have been using them for many years are the strongest endorsement for Hood Tires and those given below are only a few of the satisfied customers of Hood:

Sanford, Fla., May 4, 1922
I have been in the automobile business a good many years and have worked on and operated them since they were first made. I have used several makes of tires and have examined the ones used by other people with the final decision that Hood tires are the best. You will find a pair on my Willys-Knight.

I sold them for several years and recommend the Hood tire for they are without doubt the best tire I have ever had.

I bought a Chandler in 1919 and equipped same with Hood tires. The tires are still in service in good condition. This car is in the city and party owning same will be glad to let anyone see these tires. Some times 1920, 1921 and 1922.
