

State League Ball Is To Go Ahead, Says Rex Packard

Working Agreement With Chattanooga Club To Continue

Sanford Club of the Florida State League will go forward with the same, irrespective of the removal of Sanford of the Chattanooga Club of the Southern Association, Rex Packard stated today. The Chattanooga Club has nothing whatever to do with the Sanford Club of the new league, he declared, and he wishes the league to be assured that Sanford will have baseball this coming spring and summer "regardless."

Further, Mr. Packard said that in all probability the working agreement between the Sanford and Chattanooga clubs will continue just as though nothing had happened. The Chattanooga are to train in Daytona Beach, but Daytona has a working agreement with the St. Louis Cardinals. Chattanooga must obtain new players from time to time. Mr. Packard said, and he is confident that it will continue to look upon Sanford as a "farm" in that respect.

The State League season opens on Apr. 19, with the first game in Sanford.

Chattanooga Baseball Club Quits Sanford

(Continued from Page One) up. "But that was before the club here leaks like a sieve; before we knew that Sanford did not live up to its agreement," the younger Griffith said.

The position taken by the Chattanooga Club is set forth in the following letter to the Valdes Hotel, where club officials and members of the team were to make their headquarters while in Sanford, signed by Calvin Griffith as vice-president and secretary of the baseball aggregation.

"We regret very much that it will be impossible for us to remain in Sanford for the training season during 1936. We had anticipated training in Sanford and secured a contract from the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce to put the Sanford Municipal Baseball park and grandstand, including the clubhouse in condition for us by the 7th day of March, 1936.

"Upon arrival in Sanford we tried our best to secure co-operation from the City of Sanford. A Mr. Moughtin was in charge. Everything we asked for seemed to draw an argument from Mr. Moughtin. He apparently did not want to do anything to assist us. The ball park was not in condition and today during the down-pour of rain the grandstand and clubhouse leaked so badly that all of our equipment, including uniforms, medical supplies, etc., was literally drenched. We immediately contacted Mr. Arthur Branan who offered his aid. When we went to the office of Mr. Papworth, the president of the Chamber of Commerce, and requested that something be immediately done to protect our property, Mr. Papworth in a very unkind manner demanded to know why we wanted to bother him with our troubles. We thought, having signed a contract with the Chamber of Commerce, that he was the man to contact and we believe we are right in that assumption. However, after receiving such treatment at his hands we immediately decided to seek new training quarters. We were warmly welcomed in Daytona Beach and decided to move our quarters there.

"We were very well pleased with the accommodations provided for us by your hotel and we regret that we did not meet the people of your city who were willing to co-operate with us until it was too late. We wish to thank those citizens who came to us tonight and offered to and did put up the money to repair the grandstand and clubhouse.

"The situation became generally known last evening. As a result many in large numbers dropped in to the Valdes and they did everything they could to get the Lookouts to stay.

Garland W. Spencer, Pete Thurston, Fred and J. A. Zerringer and others offered to put up any amount of money required to put the playing field, grandstand and clubhouse in the condition required by the baseball club. Mr. Spenger put $100 on the counter, another $100 was quickly deposited by others, a promise of 1500 more if needed was made, but vice-president Griffith could not be moved from his position to take his club and go to Daytona Beach, where arrangements had been made to train. He said and his team were leaving Sanford because of "the principle of the thing" and no inducements could make him change that decision.

It seems that Daytona Beach agreed to transport the entire club free of charge (and that was done this morning); agreed to provide daily free transportation between the hotel and the playing field, and agreed to pay the difference between the price the club usually pays for hotel accommodations and the price that might be charged by the Daytona Beach hotel selected by Mr. Griffith as headquarters for his team.

Valdes Hotel management reported today that the traveling public had been advised that accommodations could not be obtained at the hotel this month, but that with the leaving of the baseball club it now has many vacant rooms that cannot well be filled because of that notice.

President H. M. Papworth of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce said today that "we did everything we possibly could" to put the baseball field and equipment in proper condition, but "when that unfortunate calamity came up yesterday and the roof of the clubhouse leaked and the players' uniforms were utterly disintegrated."

"The whole responsibility rests with the Chamber of Commerce executive continued. "We went before them and pleaded for funds with which to repair the grandstand and clubhouse, but all we got was a paltry $150 that didn't even pay for repairing the fence. With the little money the committee had left we went into the basement and built lockers, put in hot and cold water showers, and fixed things up nice. We also built a fine diamond. Everything looked fine until that rain came up yesterday.

"When they came to me and threatened to leave because their uniforms got wetted a little, I told them that we had done all we possibly could and that if they wanted to leave that was their business. I had heaters going last night, drying out their uniforms."

"It is of course regrettable but there was nothing more we could do. If it had not been for that rain, or if the City Commissioners had given us the money with which to fix the roof and I've told them repeatedly that the City has too much money invested out there to spend a little and save our investment—everything would have been all right."

Ill Health Forces Woodruff Out Of Senatorial Race

(Continued from Page One) their offer of support," Mr. Woodruff said in a signed statement, "and I very deeply regret that ill health causes me to make this withdrawal."

Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff planned to leave this afternoon for Asheville, N. C., to be gone some time. Mr. Woodruff's withdrawal leaves State Senator J. J. Parrish of Tusculum as the only announced candidate for the office.

Mr. Woodruff today issued the following signed statement regarding his withdrawal from the senatorial race:

"On account of continued illness it has become necessary for me to be out of the state for some time to regain my health, and therefore it will be impossible for me to make an active campaign for the Senatorial race in the June primary.

"I have, therefore, decided in fairness to my many friends who have pledged to me their support, it will be best that I withdraw from the Senatorial race at this time.

"I wish to express to the citizens of Seminole and Brevard Counties my sincere appreciation for their offer of support, and I very deeply regret that ill health causes me to make this withdrawal."

Three Sanford Men Elected Officers Of Audubon Society

(Continued from Page One) The number of these birds has been so reduced by tropical storms and killing by wandering fishermen who have been using the young birds for their fresh meat supply, that the species is threatened with extinction. A warden is now being maintained on certain of the lower keys used by the birds for the location of their breeding colonies.

Dr. I. N. Kennedy, executive secretary of the State game commission, was the main speaker at the annual luncheon at which Mrs. Wm. F. Blackman of Winter Park presided as toastmistress. Dr. Kennedy, in order to emphasize to the state game wardens the necessity of protecting the hawks of Florida, many of which have been killed due to the fact that the citizenry generally does not appreciate that the majority of our hawks are protected by law, secured a number of copies of the new edition book of hawks to form a circulating library for the Florida wardens.

The major attraction of the afternoon session was an illustrated address, "Wanderings of a Bird Lover in the South," by Aldin H. Hadley, former educational director of the National Association of Audubon Societies. Mr. Hadley for almost two hours kept his audience spellbound with the beauty of the pictures shown and his entertaining narrative of bird adventuring along the coast from Texas to Virginia.

The meeting adjourned after endorsing the eight point program recently adopted by the Florida protect and conserve sections of Conservativ committee to further Florida's wild life. The first meeting of the newly elected executive committee will be held at the Hotel Mayfair, Sanford, on Saturday, Mar. 28 at 10 A. M. This meeting will be followed by a luncheon for the committee and a Audubon members.

Freak Storm In Miami Last Night Hurts 30 Persons

MIAMI, Mar. 10.—(AP)—A freak, 43-mile wind and rain storm that struck Miami last night injured some 30 persons, flattened a carnival show, damaged many small buildings and blew down electric lines in the northwest and southwest sections of the city.

It apparently was an offshoot of a winter storm of moderate intensity reported moving northward through the Gulf of Mexico.

Circulating circus wagons, falling hundreds of persons employed at the carnival unaware as the wind, which had been blowing about 20 miles an hour shortly before 7 o'clock jumped to 43 miles, as measured by the Weather Bureau; tents collapsed and wagons overturned.

Several sections of the city were left in darkness when power lines fell before the wind or failed because of lightning. Other damaged localities kept all the city's ambulances and police cars busy more than an hour hauling injured to hospitals. Most suffered bruises and cuts. None was reported seriously hurt.

The wind ripped roofs off several houses, broke plate glass windows, tore down signs, and uprooted trees.

Damage at the carnival, where five tents were leveled with much of the canvas ripped was estimated at $20,000 by Ernest Deladate, in charge of one of the midway expositions.

Trade Body Of County May Be Reorganized

Committee Named To Suggest Plan Will Report At Special Meeting March 17

Papworth States He Will Resign

President Of Group Says Members Are Lacking In Interest

Steps were taken at a meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce last night to reorganize the trade body.

A committee to propose a plan of reorganizing was appointed by President H. M. Papworth, and it will hold its first meeting at 8 o'clock this afternoon and will report back to the Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting of the board of directors on Tuesday evening of next week, March 17.

The early report was suggested by W. A. Laffler for the reason that "it would not be well to let the matter rest in uncertainty." "There has been a little discordant note," he said, "but that will work out all right. However, we ought to do something without delay."

The committee is composed of H. H. Coleman, chairman, H. B. Foss, Fred T. Williams, Charles Dunn and E. H. Laney.

Before appointing the committee Mr. Papworth declared that irrespective of what action the committee takes and irrespective of the success he has at a meeting with the State Road Department, he will resign as president of the Chamber of Commerce upon his return from that Orlando meeting.

Mr. Papworth advised the committee that in proposing a reorganization it should consider a possible change in secretary, but Hawkins Connelly stated that "Hawkins Connelly's services have been very satisfactory in these troublesome times since Karl Lehmann left us," and he moved a vote of appreciation to the secretary. The resolution was adopted by unanimous vote. This brought from Mr. Papworth the statement that he was pleased to say he could not have had more able assistant than Mr. Bagwell.

The president of the Chamber of Commerce delivered a long address at the meeting, mainly about what he declared was a lack of interest in the organization by the membership. But he spoke at some length on the expense of the Seminole County exhibit in the Central Florida Exposition at Orlando last month of his efforts to get more road work in this County, and of the Chattanooga Baseball Club situation. He also made several references to "allying" by the Chamber of Commerce in the last four years, which he decried, and declared that after putting in seven or eight years of hard work for the organization what he had heard in the last few days had "disgusted" him, hence (Continued on Page Five)

Prizes will be given to the school each day 10 prize baskets of groceries will be given away along with the food Miss Rahn cooks and valuable electric prizes.

Expenses At Fair Ordered Paid By Commerce Group

Chairman Says That He Was Told That 'Sky Is The Limit'

All expenses incurred by placing a Seminole County exhibit in the Central Florida Fair at Orlando last month were last night ordered paid by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. The action was taken after President H. M. Papworth of the Chamber of Commerce advised County Agent C. R. Dawson for spending too much money and for placing "refuse" produce on display, and Chairman A. G. Wagner of the committee had declared that Mr. Papworth had told the committee that the "sky is the limit" in the matter of expense.

The motion to pay the bills, amounting to about $500, was made by L. Hawkins Connelly, and was seconded by W. A. Laffler and was passed by unanimous vote. Prize money amounting to (Continued on Page 3)

$25,000 Asked For Accidental Death Of Girl By WPA, PWA

Suit Filed Against Tourist By Father Of Girl Asked To Go On Auto Ride

Twenty five thousand dollars is the sum demanded by Stanley H. Anderson of Carlton W. Smith, of Dayton, O., for the death of his daughter as a result of an automobile wreck last October. According to a suit on file in the office of the County Clerk of Courts.

According to the information filed, Margery Lynn Anderson, a minor, daughter of the plaintiff, died on Oct. 14 the day following the accident which, it is alleged, was caused by the negligence of Jane Lorraine Smith, minor daughter of Carlton W. Smith, and the driver of the car. The accident was on the night of Oct. 13, last, about 10 miles south of Sanford, on State Road No. 12 between Sanford and Water Park.

Margery Lynn Anderson was a guest of the Smiths and was invited by the daughter of the defendant to go on the automobile ride. But, according to the information, Jane Lorraine Smith, who operated and drove "and automobile with the permission, consent, and knowledge and authority of Carlton W. Smith" drove the machine "at a high, reckless, unsafe and unlawful rate of speed" on a wet and slippery pavement of which the defendant was warned signs erected upon and along said highway.

It is alleged that the car skidded for 125 feet on the wet pavement, and finally turned over, inflicting fatal injuries to Margery Lynn Anderson. It is also alleged that five persons were riding in the front seat of the automobile.

Confidence Seen By Insurance Men In Local Realty

Returning confidence in the local real estate situation was expressed this week by representatives of the Metropolitan Insurance Company when they made their regular spring call upon their Sanford representatives, A. P. Connelly & Sons.

The visiting officials from New York were C. D. LeBay and J. L. Flower, and they told A. P. Connelly that real estate values and returns are improving constantly throughout the state and that the movement, which has its origin in the lower East Coast has, unquestionably, spread to the lower West Coast and is proceeding northward in regular course. Properties owned by the Metropolitan are returning better rentals to the company and sales have been made at prices which are most satisfactory.

"The company's confidence in Sanford is evidenced," according to A. P. Connelly, "by its determination to improve, modernize, and repair those properties which it owns in the city." Work will begin in the very immediate future on Metropolitan properties in Sanford, under the supervision of the office of A. P. Connelly & Sons.

Nation Threatens To Quit League Unless Britain Helps Oust Nazis From Rhine

GENEVA, Mar. 11.—(AP)—Representatives of five nations allied in the Little and Balkan Ententes decided today to support the French protest against German re-occupation of the Rhineland. The nations represented were Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Yugoslavia, composing the Little Entente, and Greece and Turkey which, with Rumania and Yugoslavia, make up the Balkan Entente.

PARIS, Mar. 11.—(AP)—A high source declared today that France will quit the League of Nations unless Great Britain backs her demand that Hitler withdraw his troops from the Rhineland. This source said Foreign Minister Flaminio will take the warning of such possible action with him when he goes to London tomorrow for the conference of Locarno treaty signatories.

Official said Flaminio was prepared to tell Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, that France was not alone in her stand against further occupation of the Rhineland by German troops.

An authoritative spokesman declared: "We know war is coming in two years anyhow. We might as well have it now, while we are prepared. The only way in which Hitler's troops will leave the Rhineland is for the Locarno signatories to drive them out, but a stitch in time saves nine. There comes a time when a nation refuses to be humiliated in front of the world. French honor is at stake and we are ready to draw the sword if necessary to keep it unsharpened."

The French attitude was described by Flaminio had conferred with Ambassador Potemkin of Russia, the nation which France signed a military assistance pact upon which Hitler stated he based his denunciation of the Locarno treaty.

French officials said it was necessary for Great Britain to back France at this time to prevent "the death of the League of Nations." One official said: "This time, France will be satisfied with no gestures. Germany must remove at least 70 percent of her troops from the Rhineland. The world must know that Germany has ceded."

"This is a poker game, but France knows that she has a royal flush, and, if the cards are laid on the table, she is certain of winning. Therefore, she is willing to go the limit."

A spokesman for the French foreign office spent the morning denying flatly all suggestions that France was willing to compromise or negotiate in case Hitler would make a few gestures, such as withdrawing a few troops and promising not to build fortifications in the Rhineland.

Premier Albert Sarraut and Foreign Minister Pierre-Etienne Flaminio told a cheering parliament the world must turn to war "if the will of the strong can destroy treaties."

Nazi Citizens In America Are All To Be Conscripted

NEW YORK, Mar. 11.—(AP)—Siegfried von Nostitz, attaché at the German consulate in New York, announced yesterday that by command of Reichsfuehrer Hitler all German citizens living in the United States are to be conscripted for possible service in the fatherland's Nazi legions.

Upon receipt of the order in New York, notification was immediately transmitted to all German consulates in the United States.

All male subjects were ordered to report immediately either to their local consulate or to the consulate-general in New York.

They will be registered, Von Nostitz said, although exemptions will be given to those in financial straits or suffering physical disability.

They will not be subject to immediate military service, he said, but will be held in readiness in the event of an emergency.

Those who disregard the order are liable to a fine of 105 reichsmarks (about $65), Von Nostitz said.

The only way in which Hitler's troops will leave the Rhineland is for the Locarno signatories to drive them out, but a stitch in time saves nine. There comes a time when a nation refuses to be humiliated in front of the world. French honor is at stake and we are ready to draw the sword if necessary to keep it unsharpened."

The French attitude was described by Flaminio had conferred with Ambassador Potemkin of Russia, the nation which France signed a military assistance pact upon which Hitler stated he based his denunciation of the Locarno treaty.

French officials said it was necessary for Great Britain to back France at this time to prevent "the death of the League of Nations." One official said: "This time, France will be satisfied with no gestures. Germany must remove at least 70 percent of her troops from the Rhineland. The world must know that Germany has ceded."

"This is a poker game, but France knows that she has a royal flush, and, if the cards are laid on the table, she is certain of winning. Therefore, she is willing to go the limit."

A spokesman for the French foreign office spent the morning denying flatly all suggestions that France was willing to compromise or negotiate in case Hitler would make a few gestures, such as withdrawing a few troops and promising not to build fortifications in the Rhineland.

Premier Albert Sarraut and Foreign Minister Pierre-Etienne Flaminio told a cheering parliament the world must turn to war "if the will of the strong can destroy treaties."

Roosevelt Asked Court Dissolves By Water Group Chain Store Tax Collection Halt

TALLAHASSEE, Mar. 11.—(AP)—The Supreme Court yesterday reversed an injunction which Circuit Judge J. B. Johnson of Tallahassee restrained collection of the chain store taxes beginning last July 1, but the court did not decide what date the tax actually became effective.

There was an evenly divided opinion among the six justices, but Justice Fred H. Davis, although holding the tax did not become effective until Feb. 25, 1936, concurred with three other justices in dissolving Judge Johnson's injunction.

The effect, it was explained at the court, is that Comptroller J. M. Lee virtually is left to his own determination whether to require payment of the taxes from last July 1. He previously announced he would follow the legislative act which fixed July 1 as the effective date. Authoritative sources estimated collection of the tax of July 1 would bring in $1,500,000 more than would be obtained by starting collections as of Feb. 25.

Chain store operators contended the tax was not effective on July 1, but was suspended in its operations until the Supreme Court ruled on whether the law was unconstitutional. Last October, the court upheld parts of the law and threw out other parts and then on Feb. 25 it reaffirmed the October decision after a rehearing of the case.

Eight Candidates For County Offices Talk At Meeting Of Oviedo Men's Club

Eight candidates for political offices were introduced at a meeting of the Oviedo Men's Club in Oviedo last night and delivered short speeches in support of their candidacies. All other candidates, it was announced by President F. W. Talbot of the club will be given an opportunity to "state their case" during the campaign.

The eight appearing last night were G. W. Spencer, Jr., Rex Peckard, Sanford Dondrey, Ed Melich, Herbert Mosser, S. F.

Invitation by telegraph was today extended by President Roosevelt to come to Sanford upon the occasion of his visit to Winter Park on Mar. 21 when he is to be given an honorary degree by Rollins College. The invitation was sent by the Central and South Florida Water Conservation Committee, over the signature of Fred E. Dorner, chairman of the committee, and asked that the President make a "personal investigation into our water problem" and make an "official investigation" of the committee to disprove a charge that its activities are political.

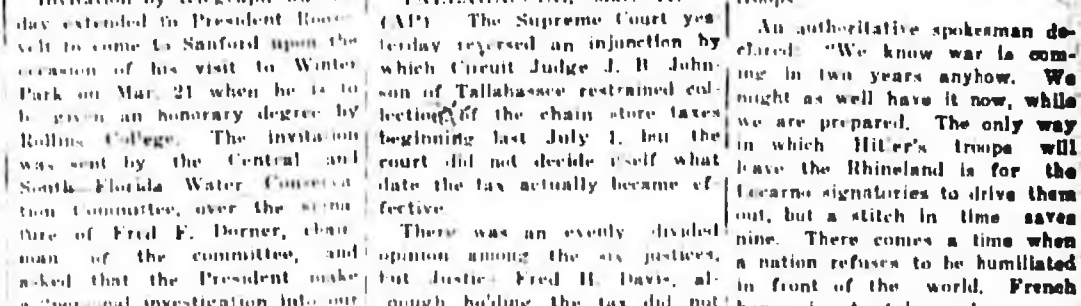

In the event the President cannot come to Sanford, the committee "humbly requests" him to permit a small committee from the water group to call on him and explain the situation.

Mr. Dorner's telegram to President Roosevelt reads as follows: "On the eve of your approaching Florida visit we again invite your presence in Sanford en route to Winter Park, assuring you a most hospitable welcome. We urge your personal investigation into our water problems which cannot fail to result from construction of the canal. If visit to Sanford is impossible we humbly request you to receive briefly a small committee from this organization while at Winter Park or some other point."

"We feel despite our appeals there has been no adequate investigation into water dangers, and can establish that the highest geological and engineering authorities confirm our fears. We also feel our status has (Continued on Page 3)

Labor Saving Machinery

Machinery is revealed as a creator of jobs rather than a destroyer of employment opportunities in a study of technological advancement made by the Machinery and Allied Products Institute and reported in "Ten Facts on Technology and Employment."

"Machinery exerts one of the major influences shaping American civilization," says the foreword to the report. "It is credited with making available countless goods and services unknown to an earlier generation, and with removing from modern life much of the hard physical labor of past years, both industrial and domestic. At the same time it is unjustly blamed for many of the economic and social problems of the day."

The pamphlet points out that a study of technological advancement over the past two generations reveals that the net result of it is a great increase in employment and the attainment of a higher standard of living through the efficient production and distribution of goods and services.

Following is a brief summary of the "Ten Facts":

1. Between 1870 and 1930 the population of the United States increased 218 percent and the gainfully employed increased 291 percent. At the beginning of this period, before the great strides in technological advancement had taken place, 32.4 percent of the population was employed, and in 1930 the demands for more goods and services for a higher standard of living furnished employment for 40 percent of the population. There were 20,000,000 more jobs in 1930 than there were in 1900.

2. Employment today is nearest normal levels in the most highly mechanized industries, such as automobile and textile manufacturing, in the paper and printing trades and other intensely developed industries. Most unemployment is in occupations in which machines are used least.

3. One of each seven factory workers today has a job making some product that was unknown to his grandfather fifty years ago. It may be conservatively estimated that one out of every four persons gainfully employed today owes his job to one of eighteen new industries which have been developed since 1880.

4. Between 1920 and 1930 the nineteen principal growing occupations gained almost three times as many workers as the nineteen principal vanishing occupations lost. In almost every case work in the growing occupations was less strenuous, less hazardous and better paying than work in the declining occupations. This improvement has been true throughout the development of machinery. Child labor, for instance, declined from one out of every five children between the ages of 10 and 15 years in 1900 to less than one out of twenty in 1930.

5. Only 4 percent of about 2,500,000 unemployed studied in the Federal Unemployment Census of April, 1930, reported that they lost their jobs on account of "industrial policy," under which the displacement of men by machines were listed as one of several sub-classifications.

6. Eighty-four percent of all machines invented are "labor saving" and only 16 percent have as their primary purpose "labor saving."

7. Real wages more than doubled between 1900 and 1935 as a result of greater production. In this period production per wage earner increased 68 percent, but to make this increase possible manufacturers installed 331 percent more equipment, measured in horsepower. While production of American factories increased 216 percent between 1889 and 1929, wages paid to labor increased 479 percent.

8. Industries which advance most rapidly along technological lines draw most heavily on the labor supply, while those mechanized more slowly absorb smaller portions of the available working force.

9. Had it been necessary to increase hand labor in the same proportion as production between 1900 and 1930, every adult man and woman in the nation and several million children would have been needed in jobs. It would have required more than 60 percent of the entire population to provide the goods and services of a higher standard of living whereas only about 40 percent ever seeks employment.

10. A 75 percent increase in the 1929 production level would be necessary to provide a "reasonable" standard of living for every family in the United States, according to the Bureau of Home Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. From this it would appear that there is still plenty for both men and machines to do.

Harmful Advertising

"Roadside advertising is unpatriotic," says Roger Babson, the well known economist, in an address before the Garden Club of Babson Park, in which he declared that all "bootleg advertising" should be discouraged as harmful to the country. "With our national anthem known as 'America the Beautiful,' it is a crime for anyone to mar the country roadside with cheap advertising signs."

Among the reasons which Mr. Babson gives for his opposition to roadside advertising are not only such aesthetic objections as their defacement of natural scenic beauty, but also such practical reasons as their frequent cause of highway accidents and the unfair competition which roadside advertising furnishes against merchants and others who will not stoop to use it.

"These roadside signs must increase automobile accidents," says Mr. Babson. "Drivers naturally look at them. Instinctively, we think signs give some important instructions or directions. As a result, these roadside signs distract one from watching the highway and are one bad cause of highway accidents."

"Finally, I don't believe such signs pay those who erect them. Owing to the work of garden clubs, women's clubs and other civic organizations, a constantly increasing number of people quickly refuse to stop at a hotel or store which is decorating the highway. Better by far to invest this money in good newspaper advertising."

There are all kinds of advertising in this world just as there are all kinds of people. When one concludes that it pays to advertise, he does not mean that it pays to advertise in a cheap or shoddy way, that it pays to advertise something that is not worth having, or that it pays to advertise as an end in itself, which you are looking for. But the fact that it is not worth having, or that it pays to advertise as an end in itself, which you are looking for.

Use Of Nets And Seine In Fishing Draws A Protest

Citrus County Board And Attorney Seefeld Are Scored

By DAVID NEWELL, Chairman, Executive Committee Florida Conservation Council. The Florida Conservation Council, composed of the Florida State Junior Chamber of Commerce, Florida State Chamber of Commerce, Florida Kiwanis Clubs, Florida Rotary Clubs, Florida Lions Clubs, Florida Exchange Clubs, Florida Civic Clubs, Federation of Women's Clubs, Florida Audubon Society and over 40 more service and civic clubs and sportsmen's associations, moved through their executive committee to publicly denounce the action of George W. Seefeld, Citrus County prosecuting attorney in failing to prosecute the case of the State of Florida vs Frank Thompson.

Thompson was arrested, charged with violation of the laws governing the use of a seine in fresh water after numerous complaints from Citrus County sportsmen, but at the request of the Board of County Commissioners, Seefeld elected to not prosecute the case.

It is the purpose of the Florida Conservation Council to bring to light such abuse of the public trust and to put a stop to illegal activities of organized minorities which would rob Florida of her natural resources. Game and fish constitute a natural attraction of inestimable value to the state and the council proposes to work for their protection.

Game and fish cannot vote, and the time has come when they must cease to be political footballs.

For many years, commercial interests have written their own laws and the result has been a sad decrease in all natural resources—fish, game and timber. Draconic action is needed if Florida would preserve a remnant of her former beauty and abundance of game and fish. Sufficient seed stock is left but there must be protection.

The failure of the courts to punish game and fish law violators is something of which the state may well be ashamed. It is useless to pass laws and to arrest violators when the courts fail to do their duty. It is discouraging to game wardens and other officers and it leads to more open and flagrant violation.

The United States has become conservation minded. In the present, on the air, and in the magazines there is a national trend

Boil Eggs 80 Hours, Is Ethiopian Recipe

MAKALE, Ethiopia, Mar. 11.—(AP)—If an Ethiopian waits an egg for Monday's breakfast, he puts it to boil in the family pot on Thursday night. There it cooks for 80 hours—in Friday's cabbage or soup. Saturday's meal stew and Sunday's grain mash—until "well done" by Monday morning. The Abyssinian claims that the three and a third days' cooking softens, mellows and sweetens the egg. He's right, at least one war correspondent found.

Chaplin Picture Was Two Years In Making

Two years in production, "Modern Times," Charlie Chaplin's new comedy, comes to the Ritz Theater tonight and Thursday. Half that time was taken for a complete preparation of the script.

The story, which was written by Chaplin, is that of a factory worker in a huge steel plant, going through a mechanical routine of tightening belts on a moving track. This nightmare of cold shining steel, mammoth dynamos, pulleys, levers and switches is said to provide a veritable panorama for Chaplin's inimitable brand of comedy.

In his criticism of the exhibit and the expenditure it necessitated, Mr. Papworth declared that Mr. Dawson "went to the state market on Monday and bought up a lot of refuse produce from last week, instead of getting it from the farmers," and that Mr. Dawson "must have known that we had only $250 or $300 to spend."

Replying to the Chamber of Commerce executive, County Agent Dawson said that several weeks before the fair he mailed to 1,500 farmers letters asking for contributions of fruits and vegetables; that nearly all of the fruit exhibited was furnished by Chase & Company, and that judges told him the exhibit should have received first prize. He also read a letter from Karl Lehmann in which the latter expressed the opinion that the exhibit was the best Seminole County had ever made.

Earl Beatty, Hero Of Jutland, Died In London Today

LONDON, Mar. 11.—Admiral Earl Beatty, naval hero of the battle of Jutland, died early today after a three-week illness.

He was 65. He contracted a heavy cold while marching bareheaded in the funeral procession for the late King George V. Later, he suffered a severe chill and his heart weakened steadily.

The famous naval hero's condition became grave two and a half weeks ago. His doctors announced that the Admiral's condition was slightly improved, but it was evident that they held little hope for his recovery.

In 1916, Admiral Beatty succeeded the late Lord Jellicoe as commander-in-chief of the British grand fleet. After the World War he became First Lord of the Admiralty, the highest post in the British navy.

His greatest fame and popularity, however, came in the battle of Jutland when he fought the Germany navy against great odds in order to give the British grand fleet time to arrive for the decisive battle.

The climax to his career came at the end of the World War when he personally received the surrender of the German navy. It was then that he issued the famous order that the German flag be hoisted down at sunset and not be hoisted again.

Caught Severe Cold While Bareheaded At King's Funeral

LONDON, Mar. 11.—Admiral Earl Beatty, naval hero of the battle of Jutland, died early today after a three-week illness.

Papworth Details Baseball Trouble In Talk To Board

Head of Chamber of Commerce Declares Body Not To Blame

President H. M. Papworth of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce told the board of directors of that organization last night that the group can not be blamed for the Chattanooga Baseball Club leaving Sanford, where it had played for the past month, and moving, bag and baggage, to Daytona Beach.

come here to train but that when officials of the Club came shortly before the training season they wanted the Chamber of Commerce to sign an agreement to meet the entire expense of putting the baseball field in shape and also to guarantee $300.

"I told them 'nothing doing,' the Chamber of Commerce will not be a party to it," Mr. Papworth recounted last night. "Representatives of the different clubs reported they were not authorized to sign anything. The Club finally decided to come without a guarantee if we would put the park in shape.

"But then came that east rain Monday and we were drowned out. I didn't know the roof leaked. The baseball men came to my office and said: 'Papworth, what are you going to do about it?' I told them that storms are liable to happen but that we would put heaters in and dry out their uniforms. We did that. The next I knew they (the Club) had gone.

Wilkinson Hopes To Bring Dundee Here March 24th

Coach S. A. B. Wilkinson of the Seminole Boys' Athletic Club announced today that plans are being made to bring "Texas Joe" Dundee to Sanford on Mar. 24 for an exhibition bout as a benefit for the club. He is practically certain that "the famous boxer" will be here. He also expects two fighters from New York, two from Virginia and some from Clyde Harnage's club in DeLand.

Four bouts were put on by the local lads in the Harnage arena in DeLand last Monday night, and some of the lads are going back tomorrow night to put on another exhibition for the Volusia county fans. Those on the Thursday evening program are Bob Smith, Bib Bickel, Frank Van Volkenburg, George Denlinger, and Howard Booth, all new members of the club.

Chance Charlie Will Return To Track Tonight

Chance Charlie, Dr. C. M. Dunne's greyhound star, returns to active competition at Sanford-Orlando Krenel Club greyhound race track in the feature ninth race over the futuristic distance tonight. He will be opposed by the brilliant Molly Malone, and sturdy Wild Pansy and Par K2, and the surprisingly speedy newcomer Hawks Light among others.

But we had become accustomed to this enthusiastic leadership, 'kick off breakfasts' and 'victory suppers,' constant and never-waning enthusiasm. But the committee still exist, the men still exist, and there is no reason why they won't work. We had goals in the past, and we reached many of those goals. We must have something definite to undertake. I think we can carry through."

Directors from the Geneva and Forest City sections advised Mr. Papworth they would attend the road meeting in Orlando and argue for the improvement of State Road No. 11, and the group adopted a resolution offered by George McRory advising State Senator J. J. Parrish that since he was able to get so many appropriations for roads in Bradford county the Chamber of Commerce expects him to "do something" for Seminole County.

Camp Fire Tales Laud Courage Of African Fighters

Ethiopians Classed Among Bravest, Fiercest Warriors

By EDWARD J. NEIL
WITH THE ITALIAN NORTH-ERN ARMY IN ETHIOPIA, Mar.
10.—(AP)—The wind is howling around the tent and outside hungry jackals growl in the blackness, barking mournfully because there's no food there for them.
Inside the tent around a kerosene lantern on the floor, sits a group of Italian officers, all of them old Ethiopian fighters by now, some of them even having had time enough to recover from wounds.

The gloss and glory of this colonial conquest is off them for the moment. They see only the hard biting work.

Across the valley, through the misty fogs, the enemy's camp-fires flicker. One officer stares out that way.

"We'll be after them in the morning," he says. "Tough job.
They can run like deer through these mountains. They can cover 50 miles in a night. They don't even seem to need to eat. What do you think of them? Can they fight?"

A lieutenant who still limped from a rifle bullet that ripped the calf of his leg in the battle on the Taccasse, patted his knee.

"You can have my share of them," he said frankly. "They're fanatics. The guy that popped me rose up suddenly from behind a rock. The bullet knocked by legs from under me. He let out a scream and charged all by himself, right through our skirmish line.
Everyone took a crack at him and missed."

"He jumped clean over the head of a private kneeling ten yards in front of me, and came racing for me with a big curved sword. He looked ten feet high, and had the face of a madman."
He shook his head, the story finished.

"So?" someone asked.
"I managed to pull over and get up. I got him with my automatic about ten feet before he got to me. I have his sword."

(He hasn't it now. I have it.)
A captain fresh from a fight in which the blackshirts took the heights overlooking the Gheva river in the Taccasse region and started fortifying them for the long respite through the rainy season took up the story.

"I've been in the colonies ten years. I've seen all these natives in Africa fight," he said. "There's no question in my mind. The bravest, fiercest fighters of all the Abyssinians."

"They had a field piece on the Gheva heights so cleverly masked we couldn't find it with our own guns. So we charged up the hill.

"We broke up group after group,
but we couldn't make them run.
We found the field piece, but we had to kill everything in the way to get to it."

One after another they added their experiences, all agreeing that the road has been hard the way may be long.

'Hell Drivers' To Give Exhibition Here Next Sunday

Thrill-Packed Show Sponsored By Two Posts Of Legion

Lloyd Boyle, commander of the Sanford Legion Post, announces that the Legion will co-sponsor with the Legion Post of Orlando the show "Lucky Teter and His Hell Drivers" which will be given at the Seminole Driving Park (Sanford) next Sunday.

Mr. Boyle said that a committee from the Legion who witnessed "Lucky" Teter's performance at the Florida State Fair in Tampa declared it to be one of the greatest attractions ever to appear in Florida.

"Lucky" Teter is bringing his entire troupe and will present every stunt Sunday afternoon that he presented to the many thousand thrill fans who attended his performance at the Florida Fair. The maestro of thrills will crash a car over and over at a speed of more than a mile a minute remaining at the wheel.

Another stunt that has brought him much fame is known as "truckin'" in which he brings a car down the runway, driving up a ramp 48 inches high, and attempts to jump a parked truck.

Another champion, who will share the spotlight is "Jumping" Jack Owen, considered one of the greatest daredevils of all time, who brings his motorcycle down the runway at a speed of 60 or 70 miles an hour, riding up a 54 inch ski, and attempts to jump a two-ton truck and two motorcycles which will be parked in his path. Owen's record for this jump is 102 feet, 3 1/2 inches which he set at Dallas, Texas last spring.

"Lucky" Teter and his Hell Drivers are coming direct from Tampa and are bringing with them over $50,000 worth of brand new shining automobiles and equipment. The Legion is making all arrangements to handle a capacity crowd as this show has been breaking attendance records wherever presented. The

Stunts Like This Will Be Seen In Sanford Next Sunday

McClintock Cites Elevated Roads As Traffic Cure

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Mar. 11.—
(AP)—Express highways, permitting speeds greater than 40 miles an hour, alone will relieve cities of traffic congestion, studies by the Harvard Bureau for Street and Traffic Research show.

The bureau has found that such highways, free from all intersections and built usually as elevated roadways, will eliminate the cause of 72 percent of fatal accidents.

In most cases the express highways would cost less than widening streets to carry the same volume of traffic.

Dr. Miller McClintock, director of the bureau, said the time that commercial vehicles would save on express highways alone would justify their cost.

Pointing to the need for drastic innovations in street construction,
Dr. McClintock said:

"No type of improvement of surface routes nor control of traffic over them can materially speed up traffic in urban areas."

The Harvard traffic bureau, established in 1925, seeks to reduce congestion and accidents, for it has found that as congestion is relieved, accidents diminish.

Next fall it will offer two graduate courses in the principles and problems of street and highway traffic control. Money donated by the Automobile Manufacturers' Association has enabled the bureau to offer 15 graduate fellowships.

These receiving fellowships must be college graduates, and most of will have had experience in police departments, motor vehicle bureaus, highway departments and city engineering offices.

Each student will study a specific traffic problem as a research assignment. Of each fellowship, $200 will be for traveling expenses, permitting research in various parts of the country.

Previous research has taken bureau investigators to Chicago,
New York, Kansas City, San Francisco, Los Angeles, New Orleans, Washington and Boston.

Big Gold Seal Awes Officials Of Mexico

AUSTIN, Tex., Mar. 11.—(AP)— A big gold seal and six inches of red ribbon are now attached to letters of introduction from the Texas governor to Mexican officials. "You'd be surprised how a document like that helps to get one out of tight spots," said one man who crosses the border frequently.

When Jim Simpson of Otta-

For centuries the world has gone to the Near East for its flavors and aromas and spices.

...and today Chesterfield imports thousands of bales of tobacco from Turkey to Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Turkish tobacco is expensive. The import duty alone is 35 cents a pound.
But no other place except Turkey and Greece can raise tobacco of this particular aroma and flavor.

The Turkish tobacco, blended with the finest American tobacco in the world, produces a flavor and that it makes Chesterfield Cigarettes the most delicious and the most

WPA Program Gives County Many Projects

Five Farm-To-Market Roads Among Important Works Of Relief Organization

Immense Sum Is Spent In District

Money Also Provided For Improvements Within The City

Five farm-to-market roads that will open the way to some productive acres of farming lands in Seminole County were listed today by O. P. Swopes, district works director, as "major phases of the WPA construction program" in this section. The five farm-to-market roads are the Gabriella, Longwood-Lake Mary, Altamonte, Winter Park-Oviedo, and Elm Avenue.

In addition to building these roads, WPA is furnishing the bulk of the money needed to widen Park Avenue and First Street in Sanford and relay the brick pavement extension of the sewer system, the National Guard Armory, the green house for the agricultural experimental station, lighting the Municipal Airport and the sewing room projects. The whole has entailed the appropriation of large sums.

The Gabriella road consists of grading and drainage for a distance of three miles north of west from Gabriella toward the Oviedo road, connecting with a portion of the road already completed. The project was financed by a WPA allotment of $1470 to which the sponsor added a contribution of $975.

The Longwood-Lake Mary road includes grading and drainage from Lake Mary to the intersection of the Longwood-Sanford road at the Big Tree crossing. The WPA allotment was $2,082 to which the sponsor added a $470 contribution.

Another road opening the way to fertile celery lands, known locally as the Mitchell Hammock road, is listed by Mr. Swopes as the Winter Park-Oviedo road, graded, ditched and rock surfaced. WPA appropriated $3,000 and the county appropriated $1,830 for the project.

Seven and one-half miles of roadway is being reworked on the Altamonte road west through Forest City to the county line at a cost of $2,381, of which amount $1,480 was allotted by the WPA. The project includes clearing, grading and construction of clay shoulders to conform to state standards.

The Elm Avenue road extends from a point northeast of Oviedo through Black Hammock to Lake Jessup.

The largest WPA expenditure within the corporate limits of Sanford is being made on street No. 19, 231 on First Street and $19,200 on Park Avenue. To these sums the City added $3,180. Work projects called for installation of concrete gutters and curbs of the brick pavement, in addition to this work, Park Avenue is being widened to uniform width and whitewash lamps are being reset. Park Avenue, the main north and south artery through Sanford, is being widened.

Papworth Of Opinion Chattanoogaans Desired A Chance To Break Contract

"My personal opinion is that they were looking for a chance to get out of Sanford," writes President H. M. Papworth of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, about the flareup with the Chattanooga Baseball Club which moved last Tuesday to Daytona Beach to train there this spring instead of in Sanford.

In his letter, addressed to the editor of The Sanford Herald, Mr. Papworth praises the work James Moughton did in putting the ball park in as good condition as it was possible with the funds he had at his disposal, refers to the letter Calvin Griffith, vice president of the Chattanooga Club, wrote the Valdes Hotel management as being unsigned, says it is "passing strange" that the fans did not come to the assistance of the Chamber of Commerce earlier, and that he "regrets the termination of the visit of the Chattanooga Club."

Mr. Papworth's letter is, in full, as follows: "Inasmuch as you were pleased to publish an unsigned letter, presumably written by a Chattanooga baseball man accusing James Moughton, Sr., and the

Proposals For Peace Will Be Recalled In Nations Demand Rhine Evacuation

French Troops On 'Alarm Footing'

320,000 Under Arms In France, Mobilization Is Denied

LONDON, Mar. 12.—(AP)—The French announced today that, unmoved by the German threat to seek isolation, they would insist absolutely on the removal of German troops from the Rhineland. This announcement came as delegates from the Locarno treaty signatories met to discuss a British plan which informed sources said sought a middle course of action in the present crisis.

BERLIN, Mar. 12.—(AP)—Germany warned the world today that if an attempt is made to force her to renounce her sovereign rights, such as the movement of troops to wherever she desires on her own territory, the government will withdraw its proposals for peace.

In a public statement the German government threatened to "choose honorable isolation" if other governments did not agree "that the only peaceful course is built upon the voluntary decision and action of equal European states and peoples."

The official statement said the present militarization of the Rhineland is truly "symbolic," but that Germany "is ready, if this be deemed expedient, to declare that for the duration of negotiations and on the assumption that the French and Belgian governments will act unambiguously, she will effect no change in this situation."

But the statement said, "under no circumstances, however, would Germany renounce any sovereign rights, in the conviction that the future pacification of Europe would again rest upon compulsory renunciation and thereby upon moral discrimination, which would then contain the germ of growing disgrace on one hand and of latent dissatisfaction on the other hand."

'Alarm Footing' Ordered

PARIS, Mar. 12.—The French war ministry announced that "all active foreign forces have been placed on an alarm footing."

Although the orders are but one step removed from mobilization, army commanders denied that mobilization is impending.

The war ministry, after establishing a virtually war time censorship on military news, said France now has 320,000 trained men under arms, with 500,000 more available exclusive of reservists.
