

HOUSE WILL REMAIN AT PRESENT NUMBER MEMBERS HAVING VOTED

BILL TO INCREASE MEMBERSHIP DEFEATED 198 TO 77

TWO STATES LOSE LOUISIANA AND MISSISSIPPI REPRESENTATION 18 CUT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The house of representatives voted yesterday against increasing its membership, which is now 435.

The vote to keep the membership at 435 was 198 for to 77 against.

North Carolina will gain one seat by the vote today. Louisiana and Mississippi will each lose one.

The house yesterday refused to postpone consideration of the reapportionment bill, defeating 192 to 97 the proposal to strike out the enacting clause. This put the matter of determining the size of the house squarely before that body.

An amendment by Representative Jones, Democrat, Texas, to reduce the membership to 307 was voted down overwhelmingly.

Under the amendment the house would be reapportioned by shifting 12 seats from 11 states to 8.

Apprehending defeat of the bill in its present form, however, members of several states that would lose representation under the amendment had mustered forces today for an attempt to shut off any reapportionment legislation at this time. Leading the group, Rep. Bland, Republican, Indiana, announced he would offer an amendment to strike out the enacting clause of the bill which, if carried, would automatically kill the measure and probably defer settlement of the reapportionment issue until the next congress.

Views of the Federal Trade commission on the feasibility of carrying out the cost publicity provisions of the Calder bill for regulation of the coal industry were sought today by the senate manufacturers committee on resuming hearings on the measure. The committee had called Huston Thompson, chairman of the commission, which under the bill is charged with the function of gathering and giving of publicity to coal data.

Heads of two other government agencies, charged with administration of regulatory provisions of the bill, Chairman Clark, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and Director Smith, of the geological survey, expressed approval of the measure yesterday and declared they believed it entirely workable.

Opposition of organized coal operators to the Calder bill was voiced before the committee by J. A. D. Morrow, vice-president of the National Coal Association. He prefaced his argument against the bill with the statement that mine operators generally had not taken excessive profits during the coal shortage last year.

"We have collected statistics upon 100,000,000 tons of production made prior to October," he said, "which mine to have been $3.47 a ton and show the average selling price at the cost of producing $2.76. That left a margin of 71 cents which does not represent profit, because the overhead costs, depletion charges and taxes have to come out of it."

FRUIT AND VEGETABLE SHIPMENTS DECREASING

TEN CARS OF FRUIT MOVED PAST THREE SHIPPING DAYS.

Fruit and vegetable shipments have been rather slack since the last issue of this paper. Nine cars, or an average of three cars a day, sums up the carload lots of orange shipments for Friday, Saturday and Monday. The express company handled 212 boxes of oranges and grapefruit in small lots during the same time. Only 90 packages of vegetables have moved from Plant City since Thursday.

Four cars of oranges each day were shipped on Friday and Saturday and one car of oranges moved on Monday. The express company's fruit shipments of 212 boxes amounted to about one box car load, making ten cars for the three days.

Outside of a mixed car of oranges and vegetables shipped Saturday, vegetable shipments have been very light. About thirty crates each of lettuce and cabbage with half as many crates of celery constituted the principal vegetable shipments. There were just a few English peas and peppers and one package of carrots.

There is no market for turnips in crates. There has not been any pepper this week. Other vegetables on the market at present are selling, according to buyers, as follows: Beets, $1.50 to $1.75; cabbage, $1.50 to $1.75; carrots, $1.50; celery, $1.75; lettuce, $1.25; English peas, average price, $2.50.—Plant City Courier.

CORK'S LORD MAYOR MUST GO BACK TO ERIN, STATE DEPARTMENT SAYS

PERMISSION TO RE-SHIP AS A SEAMAN IS PROPER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Jurisdiction of the state department in cases of aliens arriving in this country without passport is recognized by the department of labor in a formal statement sent today by Secretary Wilson to the chief of the immigration bureau.

It was announced, however, that the decision of Secretary Wilson that Donald O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, should be allowed to re-ship on a foreign vessel by reason of the ruling that he occupied the status of a "seaman," had not been rescinded.

The labor secretary's letter to the immigration bureau said that the decision that O'Callaghan be permitted to re-ship should be "consummated at the earliest possible moment." Earlier in the day it had been announced that the labor secretary had written to O'Callaghan's counsel directing that the lord mayor be surrendered "promptly" to the immigration inspector at Norfolk.

Lord Mayor O'Callaghan was paroled in the custody of his counsel, Judge Lawless of Norfolk, soon after he arrived at Norfolk from Cork as a stowaway and without a passport. He is now in New York, but whether he will appeal to the courts has not yet been announced.

THIS CITY IS THE GATEWAY TO ALL SOUTH FLORIDA

MANY STOP HERE GOING FARTHER SOUTH IN THE FALL AND GOING NORTH IN THE SPRING

Sanford welcomes people of all classes. Sanford wants them all to come here and spend the winter months and if possible to spend the summer months for they will like the summer months as well or even better than the winter months. The Chamber of Commerce is looking after the wants of the visitors to the city, and the Chamber of Commerce wants to go on record as being in favor of inviting all tourists no matter what head they may come under or what the variety may be. This city welcomes them all and their stay will be made pleasant if the plans of the Chamber of Commerce can be put through this season. This applies to the auto campers and arrangements will be made as soon as possible to open a big camp south of the city where hundreds of the auto campers can be accommodated for the months of February and March and longer if they wish to remain until all danger of cold weather in the north has passed. This city has been the gateway into South Florida for years. The tourists stop here several weeks on their way south and stop over several weeks again on their way north in the spring and it is hoped that when they begin their migrations this spring that Sanford will be better prepared than ever to put them up for several weeks as they go north by easy stages. The Chamber of Commerce and the City Commission are working on a plan whereby the auto tourists or "tin can tourists" as they are now known over the country, can be better accommodated. The temporary camp on Sanford Heights is too small and will be abandoned for the larger camp that will be provided with all the necessary conveniences for the campers and those who prefer the out of doors. Winter will soon be over and the balmy air of springtime in Florida will be an inducement for the many thousands in South Florida to tarry here in March and April and this city will provide for them.

RATE REDUCTIONS ON FRUIT AND VEGETABLES SOUGHT BY AGENCIES

American Fruit Growers Are Among Those Who Are Active

ORLANDO, Jan. 12. — J. S. Crutchfield of Pittsburgh, president of the American Fruit Growers, Inc., here tonight in consultation with local officials of the American Fruit Growers, gave an interview in which he discussed the present freight rates in application to fruits and vegetables. He pronounced the existing freight rates prohibitive in marketing of Florida fruits and vegetables and stated that the American Fruit Growers, Inc., is seeking to secure from the railroads an immediate reduction of the existing freight rates on fruits and vegetables.

Mr. Crutchfield termed the rates for which they asked as emergency rates, which would not necessarily mean a lowering to a pre-war charge, but one that will enable growers and shippers to move their product at a profit to the present market.

Stress was laid by Mr. Crutchfield on the fact that this rate would not necessarily have to be reduced to a pre-war level. The railroads, he said, were asked to assume the initiative, any reduction of rates they might put into effect being subject to the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Asked if what the American Fruit Growers, Inc., is agitating for was the same as what the Florida Citrus Exchange sought in urging pre-war rates, he again emphasized that it was an emergency rate and not a pre-war rate which his concern was after.

Mr. Crutchfield pointed out that what would benefit the growers and shippers would of necessity benefit the railroads. The present rates, in his opinion, were absolutely prohibitive, threatening the very life of the citrus and vegetable industry of the state. Hundreds of carloads of citrus fruit and vegetables were not moving because the high rates were absorbing every cent of profit. This condition was robbing the railroads of a large revenue and facing growers and shippers with disaster, he said. Asked if definite action by the railroad officials would be taken shortly, he stated that they were hoping to get their answer any day, if relief is to be had from the existing rates it must come at once, he said.

Trammell Has Acted
"Have urged Interstate Commerce Commission to give Florida growers relief from the high transportation charges and also introduced in the senate a bill to require a reduction in rates. Will do all I can."

The message above, from Senator Park Trammell, was received yesterday by Dr. J. H. Ross, president of the Florida Citrus Exchange, in reply to a message which he had sent the junior senator, in company with messages to other members of Florida's representatives in Congress. In his message Dr. Ross urged that the railroads should establish the pre-war rates on foodstuffs and fruits as emergency rates, in order to provide more tonnage for the carriers and to prevent untold losses to Florida producers.

The citrus exchange has asked all farmers' and growers' organizations to co-operate with it in securing the reinstatement of pre-war rates and has received assurances from a number of organizations that they will back the movement. Senator Trammell's prompt action in introducing the bill which he mentions has given added impetus to the move for lower rates, in the opinion of officials of the exchange, who express the hope that the absolute necessity for the readjustment which is requested will be so apparent that favorable action on the bill in question will follow.

Secretary L. P. Dickie of the Tampa Board of Trade is in receipt of a letter from the Interstate Commerce Commission, stating that the commission has no power to reduce freight rates, on any single article or commodity, to a lower level than was authorized by a recent act of the commission, allowing a certain rate of profit for the carriers.

The letter further states that the best thing under the circumstances will be for the shippers and growers to themselves take up the matter of rate reduction directly with the railroads, as if the rates are so high as to cause reduction of shipments the roads will find it to their advantage to so adjust them as to give relief to the shippers.

The letter follows a recent resolution adopted by the growers of the board of trade regarding the shipment of fruit and vegetables from Manatee county.

C. G. Beck and R. L. Boyd, prominent officials of the Southern Bell Telephone Co., of Jacksonville, and F. L. Thorp, manager of the Orlando Telephone station, were in the city today enroute from Orlando to Daytona. All of these gentlemen have many friends here and elsewhere in the state.

They are greatly surprised at the growth of Sanford since they were here about two years ago.

WEATHER AND CROP CONDITIONS IN FLORIDA FOR THE WEEK ENDING JANUARY 11

Temperature: The temperature averaged much above the seasonal for the period, the daily excess being as much as 5 degrees in the northeastern portion of the state.

Precipitation: The week was without rain, except in the extreme south where it was locally heavy on one day. And there are localities in the central and southern divisions where rain would prove beneficial; the soil is in good conditions, however, except that low lands are still wet in the north and west.

Condition of Crops: General farm work made progress during the week, and plowing was more active, except portions of the north and west. Up-lands are rather dry in the south and central divisions. Oats, rye, celery and truck are in fair to good condition; the week was rather too warm for lettuce. The planting of Irish potatoes continues, and some tomato plants were set out. Seed beds are being prepared for tobacco in Gadsden county. Moderate shipments of truck continue, and shipments of citrus fruits are increasing; strawberries are fair to good. Pastures are good for January. Rain is needed locally in the south and central counties.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE MAKES BIG HAUL OF MOONSHINERS

SUCCEEDED IN CATCHING SOME
SHINERS AND QUANTITY OF MASH

(From Friday's Daily)
Sheriff Hand and his deputies have been active ever since the first of the month when they took the oath of office and promised to do their full duty toward the commonwealth and the people who had elected them for this purpose. Breaking up stills does not entirely eliminate distilling but breaking them up and jailing the shiners all the time will have a most disheartening effect upon them all and the word has gone forth that all of them, irrespective of color or social position, must quit making and selling booze or suffer the consequences and there will be some startling surprises to be sprung in the next few weeks in this respect.

Last week Sheriff Hand and deputy sheriffs raided a still near the Wekiwa river west of the city and while the distiller had been frightened away before the arrival the still was there doing business and a quantity of mash and whiskey was confiscated as well as the still.

Wednesday the sheriff and deputies landed on Steve Lowrey at his still house in a barn on Beardall avenue and landed Steve and two barrels of mash.

Last night they were after moonshine in the moonlight and succeeded in landing J. I. Hodgen in Mecca Hammock where one of the most complete stills in the country was discovered and 23 barrels of mash and much whiskey was found together with the 250-gallon copper still.

Sheriff Hand says it may be a big job to get them all in a few weeks but he intends to get them as they come if it takes all summer and he certainly is making a good start.

UNION OFFICIALS TO MEET ATTACKS BEING MADE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Representatives of 109 national and international unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor have been called to meet in Washington, February 23d, "for the purpose of considering attacks now being made on the trade union movement," according to announcement today by Frank Morrison, secretary of the federation. The call for the meeting was sent by Samuel Gompers, federation president.

Secretary Morrison said that the forthcoming conference "is one of several similar gatherings that have been called by the American Federation of Labor during its history to consider unusual conditions." In explaining further the intention of organized labor to give attention to attacks on trade unionism, Mr. Morrison said:

"These attacks include attempts to establish the anti-union shop, wage reductions, anti-strike laws, compulsory arbitration, labor injunctions and a publicity that would mold the public mind to accept these backward steps.

"I believe labor will formulate a plan to expose the pretense of men who are only interested in cheap labor and a continuance of their profiteering policy. The trade union movement is alert to the forces against it and proposes to act vigorously and courageously.

"Our opponents are mistaken if they imagine they have made the slightest progress in alarming the workers, or that they will humbly accept a policy of reaction.

"The proposed conference will consider the publicity and other methods of our opponents and it is quite possible that labor will launch an offensive movement against those who imagine they control practically every avenue of publicity."

SANFORD'S DAILY PAPER THIRTY-FOUR YEARS AGO

J. D. Hood brought several copies of the Sanford Daily Journal to the Herald office several days ago. While we have seen copies of the Journal at various times it is most interesting to glance over them and see the names of those who were in business then and some of whom are still with us. Dr. Harris, the father of Mrs. Bowler and Mrs. Junie Roumillat, of this city, was the editor. The Herald will comment upon some of the older residents in a later issue.

BRIGHTER PROSPECTS FOR CELERY CROP

UP SITUATION IN A MOST ABLE MANNER

The pessimistic look that has prevailed among the vegetable growers for the past three or four weeks is beginning to fade and a cheerful expression is seen in its place.

The vegetable markets have improved everywhere. Lettuce has gone up about twenty-five cents, and where the grower lost money on his lettuce a few weeks ago he is now breaking even and can afford to ship and take a chance on market conditions being better. The lettuce crop is about gone now and the whole crop will be gone within the next week or ten days.

The growers, who a few weeks ago were taking out insurance on their celery crop are now boarding it up and preparing to ship it. Celery has sold in Bradentown this week for $2.00 and $2.25 f. o. b. That means that the markets in the north are offering from $3.50 to $4.00. The price of $2.25 means that the grower will make a profit on his celery crop and will do better than break even. The prices just quoted above are for the very best grades of celery; that is, celery that has been well bleached and is of a uniform size and a good pack. For some reason or other buyers can not be interested in the inferior grades of celery unless they can get the bulk of their shipment first class stuff. What does that mean? It means that the growers who will make a profit this year are those who have taken the care to grow their celery so that it will be the best that they have ever shipped. The grower who has not paid any attention to his crops and has let them grow just as they would will find no market this year nor any other year. A standard pack, uniform grades and well bleached celery is going to take the market this year as well as the years to come.

There has been quite a little agitation all over the country asking that the railroads reduce their freight rates to a pre-war level. The railroads have been consulted in this matter and the railroad officials have been about equally divided in the matter. Those who have taken the matter up with the railroads have pointed out that unless something is done to relieve the present high freight situation that the railroads will be the real losers for they point out that already numerous crops have been plowed under and therefore the railroads have lost that business. With a cheaper freight rate the crops would have been shipped and the railroads would have had the business to handle.

Some railroad officials, and they might be termed the progressive element or the "new blood" that has been injected into the management of the roads, have expressed themselves as willing to meet the shippers' half way and reduce present freight rates to a pre-war basis and go after the business that is rotting on the ground for them. The other sect, and they might be termed the reactionary or conservative railroad officials, are content with the guarantee that has been made them by the government of a net return and they assume the attitude that the shippers, before they will let their crops rot, will ship them no matter what the rates may be. These conservatives are wrong; the growers will never ship their produce any more when they lose money on it. They will use the crops for fertilizer and go after better crops for the next year. Shippers of non-perishables will store their produce and wait for more opportune times to ship.

The railroads must come to terms with the growers and a more equitable rate must be established. There is no necessity of communities organizing to meet with the I. C. C. because the National Industrial Traffic League will hold a number of hearings before the commission at an early date will make recommendation for reduced rates, and there is a likelihood of them being successful.—Bradentown Journal.

Despite the twelve bullet wounds, Mrs. Morton has a chance for recovery, officials stated.

According to statements to the police, by his wounded woman, Morton was intoxicated.

BOYS WIN, GIRLS LOSE IN BASKET BALL

BILL MOYE AND LEONARD Mc-
LUCAS WIN FOR THE LOCALS.

(From Saturday's Daily)
The Sanford High School boys proved too much for their opponents, the fast Umatilla High School team, and defeated them 26 to 13 last night at the Parish House, in one of the prettiest exhibitions seen this year.

This game was the second game of a double bill and was a real game from the start, with the Sanford boys playing their best game. They seemed to get better as the game progressed and local fans who witnessed the contest were loud in their praises of the team work and fast playing of the boys.

The individual stars of the game were Bill Moyer and Leonard McLucas, playing like professionals, and playing their best game of the season to date. These two boys were the chief reason for the Umatilla boys losing the game, and they kept the crowd on their feet during the entire game. It is hard to decide which of the two played the best, for they both scored the same number of points, and it seemed as though each star play on the part of one was as quickly superseded by another even more brilliant play on the part of the other. However, it was Moyer who did all the playing in the first half and it was through his part that 14 of the 16 points made during the first half were made and with a lead of 7 points at the beginning of the second half, McLucas then put the game on ice and scored all but two of the rest.

The first half was closely contested and at three times the score was tied but it ended with the score 16 to 9 in Sanford's favor. The second half began with a rush and the Umatilla boys made great efforts to try and stem the tide, but with McLucas in the S. H. S. boys went through their opponents and it ended 26 to 13.

Perfect teamwork on the part of Lovell, McLucas and Moyer was the chief feature of this half and as fast as one goal was made Lovell would by his perfect guarding and keen judgment, begin another play which would end in another score. He deserves much credit for his splendid showing and no better exhibition of perfect guarding has been seen this year, than was shown by this player last night. Next to Moyer and McLucas, he made the best showing. Mason, Barber, Ed. Moyer, Jim Stone and Dick McLuulin all come in for their share of the honors and were very much in the game at all times and they were all well aware that perfect co-operation and confidence in their fellow players, are important factors in winning games.

The Umatilla boys made a good showing and played hard all through the game, putting up the stiffest opposition seen this year and if they had been just a little more successful in passing, and just a little faster in beginning their plays, and if they had just one-half the team work of the S. H. S. boys they might have won the game but as it was, they were outclassed, and it did not take them long to find it out.

Many fouls were made on both sides and this with the poor attempts at passing made by both sides, were the only bad features of the game.

The first game of the double header ended disastrously for the S. H. S. girls and they lost 31 to 16. They played hard all through the game, but were outclassed in size, ability and the breaks were against them. However they expect to clean up with their next opponents and a good game is to be expected.

A large crowd witnessed the two games and all went away feeling that S. H. S. is to be considered in the basketball field in this state.

THIRTEEN CASES AGAINST PATRICK

MACON, Ga., Jan. 17.—Thirteen criminal cases against U. H. Patrick, former cashier of the Citizens' Bank here, are first on the docket for the session of Bleckley county superior court this week. Patrick is alleged to have absconded last March leaving an alleged shortage of approximately $140,000. Of the thirteen cases charging him with embezzlement, eleven represent time certificates and two overdrafts on two Macon banks, where the local bank had deposits for $150,000.

The young New Year has certainly been kind to us here in Florida so far as the weather is concerned. Too warm think the growers who fear their trees may start to grow prematurely, thus putting them in the position of being unable to withstand very severe attacks of Jack Frost.

COAST LINE LETS CONTRACT FOR ROLLING STOCK

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 15.—Contracts for new rolling stock costing $6,220,000 have recently been let by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, according to an announcement made by John R. Kenly, president of the road.

The new equipment includes 25 huge, Pacific type locomotives, 5 six-wheel switching engines, 400 modern steel coal cars, 500 modern box cars, 200 phosphate cars, and 25 all-steel passenger coaches.

This is one of the largest contracts ever let for equipment by the Atlantic Coast Line and, although it is an acknowledged fact that the Atlantic Coast Line, like all other railroad systems, is doing a greatly reduced freight business at the present time, the tremendous investment in new rolling stock speaks highly of their faith in the future.

President Kenly states that the purchase of this equipment does not mean that the Atlantic Coast Line is contemplating any large extensions at this time, or that the company is spreading out. He declared it was primarily for the replacement of worn equipment.

Recently the Atlantic Coast Line said, through the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., $4,500,000 of 6 1-2 per cent, one to fifteen-year equipment trust certificates, the proceeds of which will partly pay for the standard new railway equipment. The Atlantic Coast Line will pay cash, $1,720,000, for the new rolling stock. This financing was approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission last week.

The thirty new locomotives will be built by the Baldwin Locomotive Works. The twenty-five Pacific type engines will be for freight service and similar to the larger class of engines now used by the road. The five switch engines will also be similar to the present class of larger locomotives in this service by the Atlantic Coast Line.

AVIATION TAUGHT CHILEAN OFFICERS AT CARLSTROM

CARLSTROM FIELD, Jan. 17.—With the advent of the new year comes an influx of army and naval officers to the Carlstrom Aviation School of Instruction, from all parts of the United States, the naval officers coming mostly from Pensacola. There are also six Chilean officers at the field undergoing a course of instruction in flying.

During the past week eighteen naval officers graduated from the school of instruction, qualified as pursuit pilots. Twelve of these officers will proceed Monday to Kelly Field for further instruction in aviation, one to Rockaway Beach, L. I., for duty, one to Indian Head, Ind., for duty, and one to Hampton Roads, Va., for duty. The other three are awaiting assignment.

Major Gilkeson, Captain Ford and eight second lieutenants left Thursday for the Aviation Repair Depot at Montgomery, Ala., for the purpose of "ferrying" ten new Curtiss planes to Carlstrom Field. The planes are to be used in the Aviation School of Instruction.

This week in Broward is notable for the fact that they made their first delivery of caprons to the Urmine Hotel of Miami. The hotel seemed glad to get them at that price. The poultry industry is in its infancy here, but nevertheless it is booming.

HARDING WILL CALL SPECIAL SESSION CONGRESS FOR TAX REVISION ACT

SENATE COMMITTEE WILL REPEAL WAR TIME TAX TARIFF BILL UP

PROLONGED STRUGGLE IS EXPECTED BEFORE DECISION REACHED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—President-elect Harding practically has decided to call a special session of the new congress on April 4th, members of the house ways and means committee were informed today by Chairman Fordney, who has just returned from a conference with Harding at Marion.

Mr. Fordney conferred with the president-elect on general taxation and tariff measures which will be among the more important subjects to come before the special session of the new congress. The chairman was understood to have told Mr. Harding that the date of the session would have a direct bearing on the tax revision hearings which the committee is now conducting, and it was understood Mr. Harding told him April 4th had been practically been decided on definitely.

The house resolution proposing repeal of most special war-time laws, was approved today by the senate judiciary committee. Under a committee amendment the operation of the food and fuel contract act would be continued.

The house emergency tariff bill, as amended by the finance committee, was presented to the senate today by Senator Penrose, committee chairman, who promised that he soon would make every effort to prompt early passage.

Supported by agricultural interests during the week of hearing on the bill as affording vital protection to farm products, the measure on the other hand was strongly attacked by others as an instrument for maintaining abnormal price levels.

Ten amendments, broadening the measure to include practically all farm products instead of the limited number approved by the house, has been added to the bill by the committee opponents who served notice that an attempt would be made to load on more when the measure had reached the senate floor. Several senators who opposed the bill in committee were understood to be prepared to repeat their attempt, unsuccessful in committee, to add such extraneous legislation as the bill to rectify the federal laws and the soldiers' bonus bill. The determined and apparently growing opposition to the measure in the senate promised a long struggle with many hours of debate before the final action.

INTER-CITY DISCUSSION OF TRANSPORTATION

The transportation and traffic committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce met with the industrial committee of the Orlando Chamber of Commerce yesterday morning. A luncheon was held at the St. Charles hotel, after which the important question of improving the prevailing transportation conditions for the cities of Sanford and Orlando were discussed.

The plan adopted is as follows: Those having shipments in car load lots will fill out blanks which will be furnished by the two chambers of commerce, with the complete information concerning their shipment, which in turn will be forwarded to a representative at the various transfer points, who will give the record thereon of the car while in that terminal, such as the time of arrival, time of departure, whether or not the car was received in good or bad order, whether or not it was sent to the shop for repairs, if sent to the shop whether or not it could have been repaired by the crew, etc.

With this information we can, if a discrepancy exists, go to the railroads, or the Interstate Commerce Commission, and demand better service and present our case with the data which we will have compiled. If nothing else we will be convinced the railroads are giving us the best service which can be rendered.

It has been decided to install this service for a period of thirty days, and practically all arrangements have been made.—Orlando Sentinel.

PRESIDENT-ELECT AND MRS. HARDING COMING TO FLA.

(By The Associated Press) MARION, Jan. 19.—Harding's engagement calendar clear today and he turned his attention to personal affairs in preparation for departure tomorrow for six weeks in Florida. Harding leaves tomorrow night for St. Augustine and will be joined later by Mrs. Harding. He will make St. Augustine his headquarters during February.

ALLYN'S PAPER MUM ON MURDER

FLORIDA FISHERMAN DEVOTES COVER TO WALLOP AT NUDES.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—Rube Allyn's monthly paper, the Florida Fisherman, published here, contains no direct statement regarding any of the circumstances which culminated in the arrest of Allyn charged with the murder of Harry L. Higel at Siesta Key on January 7. The mere statement is made that owing to "circumstances over which I have no control" Mrs. Evelyn Allyn has charge of the editorial direction of the publication. The editor made use of the front page of his paper to "take a fall" out of persons who have recently started an agitation over nude art works. He said:

"People who claim an abhorrence of all representations of the nude human body, themselves expose shamelessly a starved heart, a withered mind and a naked soul. * * * Florida Beaches, laved by the warm tropic waters, invite the display of physical perfection, maturing womanhood alone can reveal. Here poet, painter and philosopher finds justification for the theory that, as in the past, civilization attained its highest physical and mental status around the Mediterranean, the future's nearest approach to perfection will mature along the borders of the Gulf of Mexico."

On another page of the publication the eccentric editor voices the following sentiment:

"Life is nothing but a mountain range. I have known the hills and valleys that bound the level plains. I have yet to accomplish the great heights from which the whole world of experience can be seen, and I have still to pay the debts of love I owe." After a day spent in going over the ground on Siesta Key, and in interviewing persons acquainted with details of the tragedy, Fred Thomas, who has been retained by friends of Harry Higel to examine into the circumstances surrounding the latter's death, returned to Tampa Monday with a mass of notes but no definite theory of the crime. Mr. Thomas said he would piece out the facts he had collected into an orderly whole, and that until he could do that he could make no statement regarding his investigations.

AU REVOIR PARTY AND EVERYONE SHOULD HELP THE LADIES IN THIS UNDERTAKING

An Au Revoir party was given in honor of Mrs. J. M. Dresner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moses Sunday evening. A select crowd of young folks from Sanford and Orlando gathered to spend an enjoyable time.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms, poinsettias and vines entwined with roses.

Delicious refreshments and punch was served throughout the evening. Four prizes were given to the best dancing couples. At 1 a. m. a crowd escorted Mrs. Dresner to the depot from where she left for New York.

BE FRANK AND ADVERTISE IS LATEST ADVICE

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 17.—"Be frank and advertise," was the advice given public utility companies tonight by P. H. Gadsden of Philadelphia, president of the American Electric Railway Association, at a meeting of the Indiana Public Utility Association. By this method, Mr. Gadsden said, public understanding of utility problems can best be obtained and necessary rate adjustment and credit restoration hastened.

"It is absolutely necessary," he said, "if public utilities are to continue to function that they create a flow of new capital into their securities. The answer to this whole problem is the granting of rates to public utility companies which will insure return to the security holders that will induce them to invest. Nothing less than this sort of an arrangement will save the utilities from ruin."

"Adjustment of public utility rates that will attract new money into the field will be hastened by a thorough public understanding of the public utility problems.

"The best way to bring about that understanding is to be frank and advertise.

"Frankness must go hand in hand with advertising else advertising will fail. Therefore be prepared when you begin presenting your story to the public, to tell the whole truth about your business to everyone. As the only customer of the public utilities, the public is entitled to know all about their business and any public utility which can not stand the searchlight of honest public inquiry can not hope to obtain help through favorable public sentiment. Put your house in such order that you will fear the questions of no man."

"Advertise by every possible channel and hit it hard. Tell your story everywhere that there is blank space which you can fill.

"Make it plain that the public utility problem is the problem of every man, woman and child who uses your service. Strive by frank statement to convince consumers that you are trying to do the best thing for their general good and that it is in their own interest, if nothing else, that they should enlist themselves in your cause. The way to accomplish this result is not to make the mere statement that it is your intention to give good service, or to submit to the public a large indigestible volume of statistics and then sit down and wait for the millennium. The thing to do is to explain your situation in understandable terms to just as many folks as possible. If you have a good case and will tell the whole truth about your situation in a simple and convincing manner and give it deserving circulation through the best available advertising medium you are certain to rally the public to your support."

"Every man desires good electric railway, gas, light, telephone and telegraph service, and he will help you give it to him if you can show him that his help is needed to accomplish this very desirable end."

WORKING ON PLANS FOR BETTER RATES TO SOUTHERN PORTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Representatives of Florida interests who are seeking to have rates in the South Atlantic ports placed on an equal basis with those to northern ports, met here today in conference. The cities of Tampa, Jacksonville, Charleston, Wilmington and Norfolk were represented. The conference will continue over tomorrow and it is understood that a plan will be agreed upon to be presented to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Senator Fletcher said tonight he was hopeful that there would be no discrimination against the southern ports and that he would fight for fair treatment.

AN APPEAL CLASSIFIED WANT ADS

THE CRY OF THE STARVING CHILDREN

The following poem was written by a Sanford lady last year when the appeals came for relief for the starving children of the Near East and it is so appropriate for this time that it is re-printed by request:

O, our brothers we are dying! Starving for a mite of bread; Cold and dreary, weak and weary, With the awful growing dread.

Sick and sighing—worn and weeping Can't you hear our bitter cry? Hasten brothers—little sisters— Swiftly—swiftly—ere we die!

You were never starving, brothers, In your great land o'er the sea— You have never felt the gnawing Of the gaunt white wolf, like we.

Your rich tables groan with plenty— Our's bare as a blanched bone! Hasten little brothers—sisters— Kind, sweet hearts not made of stone.

Christmas Day you will be smiling O'er the season's precious joys; Little brothers—little sisters— Send us bread—you keep the toys.

Bread, Oh! bread, our little brothers Let the good ship fly a-maine! Angel hosts will guard the burden, Bringing life to us again.

Heaven bless your land of plenty— Rich and free and grand and true— May the awful pangs we suffer— Never—never come to you!

"The Farmer's Worst Enemy—Rats. The Farmer's Best Friend— Rat-Snap."

These are the words of James Baxter, N. J.: "Ever since I tried RAT-SNAP I have always kept it in the house. Never fails. THE GREATEST LECTURE IN THE WORLD IS "ACRES OF DIAMONDS"

(From Tuesday's Daily)
The lecture that has harnessed rivers, caused villages to grow into cities, established colleges and schools, and inspired thousands of discouraged men and women to do something for the good of humanity, thus finding happiness and prosperity, literally in their own back yards. "Acres of Diamonds" has been delivered over 5300 times, and the proceeds have realized nearly five million dollars to their discoverer. The entire amount over and above expenses has been devoted to the education of students in the college grades. Over three thousand young men and women have been assisted in their education by Dr. Conwell during the last fifty-nine years.

Russell H. Conwell was born in South Worthington, Mass., February 15, 1843. He attended Wilbraham Academy. In 1860 he entered Yale University; in order to economize his time he took the law and academic courses together. He earned his expenses by daily labor during his attendance upon both schools. In 1862 he enlisted as captain of infantry in the Civil War and served through the entire war.

At the close of the war he graduated from the law department of the Albany University. Shortly after he moved to Minnesota. There he practiced law and edited a newspaper. In 1867 he represented the State of Minnesota as immigration agent to Germany, and became the foreign correspondent of his own newspaper. In 1868 he became a correspondent for the New York Tribune, and in 1869 the traveling correspondent of the Boston Traveler. In 1870 he was sent by these papers to foreign countries and made the entire circuit of the globe, giving many lectures in India and England. He afterwards visited England exclusively on a lecture tour. In 1870 he published his first book, "Why and How the Chinese Empire." It has been followed by a number of others, one being the biography of Charles H. Spurgeon, which reached a sale of 125,000 copies in four months.

Upon his return to this country Dr. Conwell practiced law in Boston, Mass., for eight years. In 1879 he was ordained to the Baptist ministry, accepting a charge in Lexington, Mass. From there he was called to the Grace Baptist church of Philadelphia. The active membership numbered less than one hundred when he came, but since Dr. Conwell has been pastor of the church it has grown to a membership of about 3,000 and has built the Baptist Temple, Broad and Berks streets. The Baptist Temple has a seating capacity of opera chairs of 3,125. Out of this work has grown the Temple University, enrolling at present, yearly, 5,000 students.

Both as a lecturer and writer, Dr. Conwell has been associated with and known intimately some of the country's greatest men, including Gough, Beecher, Whittier, Longfellow, Holmes, Bayard, Taylor, Wendell Phillips, Garfield, Blaine, Emerson, Grant and many others. In his travels abroad he met Gladstone, Garibaldi, Tennyson, Dickens, Ruskin and other eminent statesmen, writers and public men.

Dr. Conwell today is America's most popular speaker both in the pulpit and on the lecture platform. He brings to his hearers a rich harvest of help and inspiration gleaned from his years in the service of humanity.

Dr. Conwell will speak in Sanford Wednesday, January 26th. Tickets will go on sale tomorrow.

EDW. E. SPARKS WILL LECTURE IN SANFORD

Classes in American Government and Citizenship have been organized and will begin work in Central Florida during the week of January 24th. Sanford will be included in the list and President Edwin E. Sparks of the Pennsylvania State College will make the addresses which are free and open to the public. However, the work is being sponsored by the Woman's Club which is taking up a systematic study of the subject following a bulletin especially prepared by an Extension Specialist for this work. Every man and woman in the city, whether a permanent resident or a visitor, is welcome and should plan to attend these lectures.

President Sparks is a national figure and has appeared on every important lecture and chautauqua platform some time during the past twenty years. This work is a part of the plan of the general extension division of the University of Florida to carry valuable information and instruction on important subjects to the people of the state, and to make education on all lines commanding public attention and interest, available.

Mrs. J. G. Leonardi will have charge of the arrangements for the local class.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—By decision of the United States supreme court yesterday, the Oklawaha Valley Railroad, a short line in Florida, can be sold only to those who will continue to operate it as a common carrier. This decision prevents a move to "junk" it as a non-paying property.

Some time ago the state secured a writ from the district court restraining a sale to persons who would have "junked" the railroad, and this writ is now upheld by the highest federal court.

The Oklawaha Valley railroad, which runs from Silver Springs to Palatka, was originally built as a logging road by the Rentz sawmill interests at Silver Springs. It is said never to have paid its way as a common carrier and some months ago it was sold at auction, the new owners preparing to "junk" it. The state intervened, holding that the road, as a common carrier, must continue as such, and the supreme court has upheld that decision.

The specialists of the State Experiment Station urge the cutting away of all dead wood on citrus trees, but be careful about cutting the green wood. Dead wood, they say, is usually diseased, and the safe way is to get rid of it. Cut away water sprouts but avoid trimming away vigorous new limbs.

WANNAMAKER BANGUINE

MIAMI, Jan. 18.—With the inauguration of President Harding will come a return of normal business conditions and a general decline in prices, John Wannamaker, merchant prince, said today in an interview.

SANFORD MEDICAL SOCIETY HELD MONTHLY MEETING AT THE HOTEL VALDEZ

Discussed Plans for Addition to Fernald-Laughton Hospital

WANT ESTIMATES ON IT
MEDICOES ASK THE DENTISTS
TO JOIN AND MEET WITH THEM

The regular monthly meeting of the Sanford Medical Society was held in the palm room of the Valdez Hotel on Wednesday evening, with a good attendance. Various matters of interest were taken up, most important of which, perhaps, was the discussion on plans for the new addition which is to be erected at the Fernald-Laughton hospital.

Col. Knight was present and presented a tentative plan, which was fully discussed and revised, and he was asked to present estimates as soon as possible regarding the cost of same. More room is very badly needed at the hospital, especially for colored patients and the new addition is contemplated to take care of them.

The staff for the hospital for the ensuing year was also appointed as follows: Medical staff, Dr. J. T. Denton, chief, January to April, inclusive; Dr. C. J. Marshall, chief, May to August, inclusive; Dr. B. C. Dodds, chief, September to December. Surgical staff, January to March, Dr. J. N. Tolaz; April to June, Dr. R. E. Stenens; July to September, Dr. S. Puleston; October to December, Dr. W. T. Langley.

It was unanimously decided to ask the dentists of Sanford to join the medical society, and meet regularly every month on the first Friday evening, and it was further decided that at least one scientific paper should be presented at each meeting with a full and free discussion on all subjects pertaining to the medical welfare of Sanford and surrounding territory.

At these regular monthly meetings much of benefit to the hospital is brought out and all of the members are working hard to further its best interests.

RATE DECISION TO BE BASED ON WHAT BOOKS OF THE BELL CO. SHOW

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 17.—It was announced at the railroad commission's office today that the contract and agreement between the railroad commissioners and the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company for an examination of the property and an audit of the books, accounts, contracts, etc., had been signed, and that the actual work will begin tomorrow, January 18.

It will be recalled that on November 15, last, the railroad commissioners heard the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company and upon its petition to increase all of its charges, both exchange and toll, and that the railroad commission announced at the end of the hearing that the meeting would be recessed until an examination of the property and an audit of the books might be made before passing final order as to the rates to be charged in the future by the Bell Company.

FLORIDA SAW GRASS PAPER INDUSTRY

The news of a great paper-making industry, although it is still in embryo, is spreading over the state and over the country. The erection of a saw-grass paper pulp mill at Leesburg has been commented on by many of the state papers and by leading technical and manufacturing journals throughout the country, says the Florida Times-Union.

Recently William B. O'Neal, the fiscal agent for the Grass Fibre & Paper Pulp Corporation, which is proceeding with this new industry in Florida, has spent some time in Miami, interesting capital from various sections of the country and the information he has been giving the Miami papers has been eagerly read by the tourists and visitors to the state.

Paper has been among the most scarce and highest priced of all the materials during the past two or three years and, unlike some of the others, it has continued scarce and high, because the raw material, which is mostly spruce pine, has been greatly depleted in this country and Canada. The publishers and printers have been driven almost wild at times to secure a supply of paper and the prices they have had to pay has made many of them prematurely gray and thin.

Coming on the heels of such a condition, the announcement that Florida has an unlimited supply of saw grass, which has been proven to excel the spruce for paper pulp and that it can be made into paper at much less expense than the wood pulp, it is little wonder that the publishers and printers have almost fallen on the necks of the promoters of this wonderful industry and wept tears of joy at their promised deliverance from worry and financial loss. Many of these have become stockholders in the corporation that will soon be producing paper pulp and as soon as several of the mills can be erected and operated in different saw-grass sections of the state, it is planned to establish a first-class paper mill in Florida and make the finished product.

The saw-grass paper pulp will produce all grades of paper, from common news print to the finest craft papers. The fiber has such a quality of toughness that even good imitation leather has been made from it, also roofing paper and other valuable materials. The best feature of the whole thing is that, while there are millions of acres of saw grass in Florida, it can be cut at least twice a year and will continue to renew itself at this rate interminably. When spruce pine is cut it is gone and a second crop would be a quarter of a century in growing to a size sufficient large to be cut for pulp.

With mills at Leesburg, Fort Myers, Moore Haven, Palm Beach and Miami and other points and a big paper mill at Jacksonville, Florida should soon become one of the most important paper manufacturing centers in this country and the indications are that the industry will grow to immense proportions in the years to come, while the older paper mill sections will naturally deteriorate as the supply of raw material is depleted.

Work of draining the Palm Beach drainage and highway district, a project involving $1,500,000, authorized by the last legislature, already is under way, according to information reaching E. B. Jennings, of Jacksonville, attorney for the district board of supervisors. The Palm Beach district takes in the headwaters of the Miami, Fort Lauderdale and Hillsborough canals.

CIRCUIT CLERKS TO IGNORE THE OLD FEE LAW

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 14.—Until it is definitely known what steps should be taken in the matter of handling fees received for the performance of their official duties, circuit court clerks who met here today will continue operations under the former system. This decision was reached by vote of the association today. A court decision definitely fixing the statute of the law and the duties under this law, or a modification of the statute by the next legislature is expected.

The association effected organization at the chamber of commerce today, elected T. C. Smith of Lake county as president, B. M. Robinson of Orange county, vice-president, and W. Roger Watkins of Hillsborough county as secretary-treasurer. Virtually every circuit court clerk in the state was present at the meeting.

J. Will Yon, state auditor, who was present at the meeting, today declined to interpret the new statute, but stated that he had been advised by lawyers that the new law is unconstitutional, as it creates a trust fund for the surplus collected in fees and not paid officials, without naming beneficiaries. He advised the clerks to continue operations as in the past, until the law has been clarified, in the meanwhile keeping monthly records of receipts and expenditures and rendering monthly reports.

The Lakeland Star, formerly an evening paper, is now a Morning Star. The change was made because Editor Bloom is now able to get the Associated Press service for the morning paper.

The Lakeland Telegram is now published upon a Goss Comet perfecting press that turns out 5,000 papers per hour. We are just wondering how many hours the Telegram's press runs.

No city ever amounted to anything without a live Board of Trade or Chamber of Commerce or some such boosting organization from which all petty jealousy and rivalry is eliminated and all are working for a bigger and better city.

Many neighboring cities have been charging the tourists such exorbitant rates that they are leaving by the hundreds for some place that is more reasonable and many are leaving the state. It is just such grafting that will drive the tourists from Florida never to return. Well, Sanford is not sticking any of them and all who are here are satisfied with the hotel rates. And they will tell their friends about it and come to Sanford next year.

We are all feeling good over the prospects for our celery crop and our spring crops. It looks as though the growers and the buyers will get together for the mutual protection of both and in joining forces they can accomplish much in the selling end of the business and standing together we can fight for a better freight rate and better service of all kinds. The grower needs the buyer and the buyer needs the grower and they should be one and indivisible. By starting off the celery crop at a living figure and standing by it the cash buyers can tell exactly what to do and there will be harmony and smooth sailing throughout the season.

Oh, you tin can tourist; you are certainly having your day, for every town in Florida is apparently doing something for your comfort and convenience.—Times-Union. Which only goes to show that Gainesville must put over that Tin Can Tourist Jubilee in great style to show her visitors that she is not following the wake of other cities but actually setting an example for all of Florida to follow. We not only want to bring the tourists to Gainesville, but there is a great deal of room throughout the state for good northern citizens who may be convinced of the great advantages of living in this wonderful state of ours.—Gainesville Sun.

We are proud of the manner in which Sanford did homage to the first boy whose remains came back from France for burial. The funeral services at the Baptist Temple, the large outpouring of people, the obsequies at the grave, all attested the deep feeling of the people toward those brave lads who gave their all that this country might be safe from the militarists of the world. We cannot do too much for the living or honor too much the memory of those who sleep in the city of the dead. Only those who did nothing to win the war will ever stand back when it comes to showing respect for the veterans of the world war.

Looking around Sanford in any direction you can see so many new buildings going up, so many new industries started or contemplated, so many improvements and so much thrift and enterprise on every hand that it gives one that joyous feeling that we have the real city, the real chance, the real people here who will go ahead in the face of every difficulty and build this place into a city of twenty thousand people in the next few years. They all want to come to Sanford. It is simply a question of getting them houses and hotels and apartments. And then—give them living rates for their accommodations. Let the good news go out that Sanford never gouges anybody. Keep the prices down to a living level and we will all profit hereby. Don't kill the goose as other cities are doing. It is the constant supply of eggs that we want and not the goose itself for slaughter.

OUR BANKS

The banks of Seminole county, as exemplified in their last statements published this week in the Herald show that they are in the best of condition and that it is the faith of the people—that ever-abiding faith—that makes them what they are. The large sums on deposit show that this faith is sincere, the large large amounts in resources demonstrate that they are as strong as the rock of Gibraltar and the amounts in loans show that they are taking care of the people of the community in a manner befitting the conservative methods of banking that have made them solid and made them stable and made them secure. Seminole county has four of the best banks in the state. They have been tried and tested, the First National Bank being the oldest and the only one that successfully weathered the financial storms after the big freeze. The Peoples Bank, the Seminole County Bank and the Bank of Oviedo of course were not in business at that time but had they been they could have survived because they do business along business lines. All of our banks are officered and manned by home people who have faith in the community, faith in the growth of the city and county, faith in their fellow man to make good and to carry out his moral obligations as well as his financial debts. We are all together in this big purpose of putting Seminole county in the forefront of counties and putting Sanford on the map in large letters. It is a case of helping one another, working in co-ordination with all the power, all the money and all the brains of the entire commonwealth and in this work we have the hearty support and the co-operation of our banks. Their statements this week show what they are in the financial status. They work as individuals and as corporations in this community show their earnest endeavor to assist in every way every worthy enterprise.

To the First National Bank, the Peoples Bank, the Seminole Bank and the Bank of Oviedo, the Herald extends greetings and best wishes for greater success in the future.

A FINE SHOWING FOR FLORIDA

State Treasurer J. C. Lunings' annual report for 1920 shows a balance in the state treasury of $2,270,950.98. The total expenditures for 1920 were less than the total receipts by $425,051.52. The total cash brought forward at the beginning of 1920 was $1,825,899.96. The state is, therefore, piling up cash above its needs, approximately half a million dollars annually.

From the standpoint of the state as a whole this is a fine showing. From the standpoint of the taxpayer it indicates need for a tax reduction somewhere, amounting to fifty cents for each man, woman and child in the state.

With no bonded indebtedness, save a paltry six hundred thousand dollars held by its own school fund, there is no good reason why Florida should have an idle two and a quarter million dollars lying in the bank vaults of the state's depositories, even if it is drawing a minimum of interest.

We note this report shows the state prison fund and the state prison (tax) fund both exceeded their income by several thousand dollars, the combined excess of cost over income being some $16,000. It is also noticeable that the "flying squadron," the runabout teachers' examining board, costs more than its income.

The educational institutions and the hospital for the insane are not expected to produce revenue. All of these need attention, and modernizing as well as enlarging. A good place for some of that two and a quarter million the state now has, would be in the educational and hospital needs of the state.

There are few states which will show a better financial standing than Florida, and the encouraging part of it is that this surplus of two and a quarter million dollars has been accumulated during four years of the most riotous spending Florida has known. It speaks volumes for the state's financial handling, for the efficiency of the treasury department; and with a sane administration facing us, it means there can be relief from high taxes.—Tampa Tribune.

All of the old croakers and fossilized backbiters are not dead yet but they are gradually being chased farther into the Everglades and some of these days they will either become boosters and whole-hearted boosters or they will be cut off the list. EVERYBODY'S GOAT

Why not give the farmer a square deal? If he is to receive greatly reduced prices for his crops, then the labor he employs and the things he buys to produce these crops should be reduced in proportion. So should everything else that he uses.

At the present time there is a marked tendency in this country to "let George do the reducing." Everybody wants prices reduced in every line but his own, with the result that manufacturers, wholesalers, distributors and dealers throughout the business world are straining themselves in an effort to keep prices up in order that they may revel a little longer in the golden waters of excessive profits.

Every human being depends upon the farmer for the food that sustains life, and every hand is leveled at him in an effort to beat him down in his price.

A great wave of protest against food prices has swept this country from one end to the other, and yet this avalanche of criticism which has engulfed the man who feeds us has been voiced principally by men who have been reaping even greater profits than the farmer.

We are not the champion of the man of the soil, any more than we are of the other man or woman in this community, or this country.

We are just as averse to paying excessive prices for the food that we eat as any other person can possibly be, because we have to dig deeply and cough up mightily to meet the strain.

But we are an advocate of the square deal in business.

That the farmer is not getting. He is everybody's goat. We do not believe the high prices in this community are due to excessive profits on the part of our local dealers. Their reputations for fair dealings are too well known for that. But there are too many hands through which the goods pass before they reach this town, and every hand grabs off its "pound of flesh."—DeLand Record.

KILLING THE GOOSE

The following from the Orlando Reporter-Star shows which way the wind is blowing in some of the tourist towns:

"Many times we have called attention in these columns to the harm which can be done in this city by an excessive charge in accommodations for the strangers within our gates. If Orlando was the only city in the state where such a condition existed, we would hesitate to make these remarks, but as the same state of affairs is faced in most every city of the state, and not only the state, but the nation, where the population is a fluctuating one, whether winter or summer, we feel that a frank discussion of the facts will not reflect upon our city particularly, but all tourist towns in general.

"In some instances prices for accommodation which have come to our light is wholesale robbery, or in the term of the day, plain profiteering. We will not always experience the same crowded conditions which have been our good fortune this season. If we take advantage of the crowded condition to extort whatever sum we may wish, just because we can get it, there will be a day of reckoning sooner or later. There are a few such cases in Orlando, not so many, but enough to give the town considerable trouble. Our civic organizations should take the question up and stop this killing of the Goose which lays the golden egg.

On the other hand, there are people who come south for the winter with the expectation of living upon the community in which they locate, they wish everything handed them on a silver platter. If their winter's expense in Florida would be donated them, they would kick. It is perhaps this stamp of tourist that is circulating a petition in an effort to secure names from people pledging themselves not to return to Orlando next winter. There has also been some talk of painting over the signs on the roads leading back north, slogans purporting to make Orlando out a robber city. This nefarious conduct was indulged in last year, Miami being the victim of a few disgruntled visitors. Our signs were posted at considerable expense along the highways to the north, east and west, and any such mischief should be dealt with severely.

"But as we said, handle the goose with care, don't kill the bird that lays you a golden egg."

THE SUNDAY PRESS MEETING.

The Associated Dailies of Florida met in Jacksonville Sunday morning, Jan. 16, at 11 o'clock. Practically every meeting of this organization since its formation has been held on the Sabbath day, some of the editors claiming it is the only time they can leave their business for such a conference.

The writer is going to attend the meeting this Sunday, but he earnestly hopes the association will abandon the practice of holding its bi-monthly sessions on the Lord's day, for we will not attend any more Sunday meetings and it is not our desire to be absent from any of the Associated Dailies sessions.

We have attended several political caucuses in the past held on the Sabbath day, and no good ever came from any of them. Defeat followed in every instance. Little of the business we have transacted on Sunday in days ago has resulted in profit. In future we are going to try to give Sunday to the Lord and the other six days a week to business and politics, paying as little attention to the latter as is consistent with good government.

The peace treaty of Versailles contains no mention of Almighty God and the sessions of the League of Nations and the peace conference were not opened with prayer. The United States is still at war with Germany, half of Europe is fighting or threatening to fight, nations are increasing armaments in preparation for the next war, Argentina has withdrawn from the League of Nations and America never become a member. An effort was made to bring about world peace without invoking Divine aid and the effort failed.

GET BUSY OR GET OUT.

The stroller met up with a downcast merchant the other day and was listening to him tell of his discouraged outlook on business, when another wide-awake, hustling business man came by and stopped for a moment to listen to the conversation. After a little he broke in on the "blue" song of the downhearted merchant, with a line something like this: "Don't quit. Take into consideration that business conditions have changed. Business for the past few years has been dumped on our door-steps. All we had to do was reach out and take it. We are getting back to the good old days of the survival of the fittest—we must either fight for business or quit. There is plenty of business if you go after it. The most important thing now is to keep your goods before the people by advertising."

There was a whole volume of truth in this advice and the stroller added: "Buy space in the Gainesville Sun and get in touch with the people who have money to buy what you have to sell."

Business conditions are largely what we make them. Judicious advertising to newspaper readers who take a paper because they believe in it, is a fertile field for any merchant to cultivate with advertising to move his stock. "Can the blues" and tell the people what you have to sell, how cheap you will sell it and tell them in black and white, keep on telling them day after day. Join the "business booster's club." Advertise.—Gainesville Sun.

LIGHTS VISIBLE FOR EIGHTEEN MILES

Autoists when in Sanford or Kissimmee can at night see the cluster of lights on the pole above the store of Yowell-Drew Co. at Orlando, some twenty miles distant. These lights are on a steel pole whose summit is 220 feet above the earth, casting a brilliant light at night over the city and adjacent country.

The idea of erecting these lights was suggested to Mr. Yowell by the similar lights on the steel flag tower at Monteverde Industrial School, the latter lights being about 100 feet high and visible at Mt. Dora, sixteen miles due south. Mr. L. M. Thomas, of the latter place, is authority for this statement. The Monteverde light serves as a beacon to fishermen on great Lake Apopka, but more particularly as an illuminant for the school campus and surrounding territory.

The government may authorize the use of the two towers for wireless stations, as they are by all odds the tallest in the entire peninsula of Florida.

Since the above was written we hear that the New Ocklawaha Hotel in Eustis, will install three powerful searchlights which will cast rays for fifty miles in various directions, writing upon the clouds in flaming letters that may be visible far and wide. More about this later.—Eustis Lake Region.

RUBE ALLYN.

Rube Allyn may be guilty of killing a man and he may not. History records many instances where convictions on circumstantial evidence proved a grave injustice, the real murderer confessing after an innocent man had been executed or served long years in prison. But one thing is sure, Rube Allyn is a red-blooded American, who worked with his hands and his brain for the successful termination of the World War with victory for the American flag. He has never been weighed in the balance and found wanting, except in ability to accumulate money. Being an idealist, he has never stored up treasures on earth, but who can say that he has not stored up many treasures in heaven? Kind of heart, generous to a fault, Rube Allyn has ever extended a helping hand to those less fortunate than himself. He has instilled beautiful thoughts in many minds; his writings have helped thousands. Now is the time Rube Allyn needs help. Will succor come in time? We hope so.—Clearwater Sun.

OLD SETTLERS ANNUAL PICNIC AT LONGWOOD

EIGHTH ANNUAL REUNION OF THE PIONEERS OF THE LONGWOOD SECTION

January 15, 1921, was a "red letter" day for the old settlers who attended the eighth annual reunion of the Longwood and West Longwood Old Settlers Association held in Longwood on that date. The ladies served the usual good basket dinner consisting of baked beans, brown bread, baked chicken, corned beef, ham sandwiches, bread and butter, potato salad, fruit salad, olives, cheese, orange pie, cake, coffee and fruits. After dinner the president called the house to order and the secretary read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved? Letters were read from Dr. C. E. Walker and family of Redmond, Wash., Miss Helen Flamm, Jacksonville; and Rev. Chas. Frazier, Jacksonville, all expressing regrets at not being able to meet with the old friends on this date. Miss Alice Wetherly, of Orlando, was elected president and Mrs. J. S. Dinkel, of Longwood, was re-elected secretary.

The president presented to the secretary a fountain pen, which was a present from the members of the Association showing their appreciation of her past service.

The secretary accepted the gift with great pleasure and many thanks to the donors and a promise to use it for the glory of the old settlers association.

There was one vacant chair. Uncle Joe Clouser, one of the oldest settlers having passed into the Great Beyond, March 26, 1920.

Aunt Patsy, who always came to see "all her white folks and do the dishes" was unable to attend owing to the serious illness and was missed by all.

Although the Florida sunshine-playing hide and seek, everyone voted a successful and pleasant reunion and a wish to meet again January, 1922. Those attending were: Mrs. Helen Greenwood, Miss Alice Tetherly, Mrs. Caroline Morton, Miss Gertrude Morton, Mrs. D. A. Clouser, Orlando; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Neimyer, Mr. and Mrs. John Searcy, Mrs. C. B. Searcy, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bistline, Mrs. J. S. Dinkel, J. E. Phipps, Longwood; Mrs. Griggs, Sanford; John Dunbar, Miss Elsie Dunbar, Willow Grove, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hardy, Farmington, Me.; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bistline, of Pennsylvania; and A. C. Dickson, of Longwood.

Too long have they fattened upon the body politic and sat back upon their dew claws with their incessant croakings of "it can't be done" while other communities were doing it and after it was really done here by the boys who are eternally boosting and spending their money the same hold-backs would enrich themselves from the efforts of those who were doing all the boosting and spending for the building up of the city. But times are changing and they are changing for the better. Better days are coming and prosperity is in the offing.

MOOSE COMMITTEE HERE INSPECTING HOME SITE MILLION DOLLAR PROPOSITION

WOULD ESTABLISH HOME FOR THE AGED IN FLORIDA

GOOD PROSPECTS

AND HAS MANY ATTRACTIVE
POSSESSED BY NO OTHER
SECTION OF FLORIDA

(From Wednesday's Daily)
General Counsel Henning and General Secretary R. H. Brandon of the Loyal Order of Moose are in the city today looking for a site for the location of the million dollar home for the aged and infirm members of the Order of Moose. This big idea of locating those members of this great order after they have reached the age and condition where they can not expect to make a living at strenuous duties and work is one on a par with the great work done by the Moose Order at Mooseheart, Ill., where they are taking care of hundreds of orphans and hundreds of old folks and doing what is probably the greatest work along this line that has ever been undertaken by any lodge or any body of men or women. The news that they proposed to establish a home in the South along similar lines excited the several locations where the committee has visited and Jacksonville and several other cities in the state have been entertaining the committee or will entertain them before they leave and many locations will be put up to them as being the ideal place for the big home. Messrs. Brandon and Henning were met here by the committee from the Chamber of Commerce yesterday when they landed from the boat and they have been shown every courtesy while in the city and they expressed themselves this morning to the representative of the Herald as being well pleased with all that they have seen here. They were taken over the east and west sides of the city yesterday where they could see the great farming game as it is practiced here and shown several tracts of land that would be suitable for a location.

They expect to visit all of the several locations and will return again in February to get more definite information and to bring other members of the council appointed to select a site and meantime they wish to state that they have not decided and will not decide for some time as to the best location in their estimation and that of the larger committee. Messrs. Brandon and Henning are business men of large affairs and are taking many things of vital importance into consideration, looking into every detail connected with this great proposition and with the view of choosing a location that will fulfill every requirement. They do not want land donated, they do not want anything handed to them. They are to locate the proper place, call the committee to inspect it and pass upon it and then purchase it and go to work to make it one of the finest places for the aged and disabled members of the Moose that can be made.

Sanford has all the requirements of a man who wishes to make a small home for himself and family on an acre or two of land. It has all the requirements for the hospital, for one who enjoys the great outdoors, has the climate, has the precipitation, has the drainage, has the irrigation, has everything necessary and has a good chance to locate the home here but nothing has been decided as yet and the committee have worlds of work ahead of them before any decision is made and they will not even talk about any section at present but will simply look them over and then practice the system of elimination and get down to the few that will answer the requirements.

Messrs. Henning and Brandon were well pleased with all they saw here, were well pleased with their treatment and expressed their thanks to President Ball, Secretary Pearman and the committee of the Chamber of Commerce for their treatment while here and their willingness to show them this great section.

We hope they will return in February and see Sanford at its best and stay long enough to really get an idea of the wonderful development here along every line of agriculture, horticultural and manufacturing. Sanford has the goods and does not need any brass bands to make a display of these goods and facts are better than experiments.

Delicious cakes and coffee were served, three tables being set to accommodate the guests who voted it a jolly good time.

Our hard road connecting Sanford, Upsala and Paola, is really in sight. It looks like dreams come true after all. Maybe we will appreciate it more because we have waited so long. BIG BARGAINS HERE

AND SEASONABLE GOODS MAKING GREAT HIT WITH BUYING PUBLIC

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Sanford continues to be the place where the best prices are available on all kinds of merchandise and the fact that at least six or more big sales are starting or happen to be going on this week is the kind of news that brings the people here from everywhere. In fact this city is gaining a reputation all over the state for being the natural trading center for this part of Florida and the tales about the wonderful low prices are bringing new faces into the city every day.

Tomorrow, for instance, three big Sanford firms are opening a ten-days sale in which the goods will go at half price or even better. The firms are Woodruff & Watson, the Sanford Shoe & Clothing Company and the Caldwell-Irwin Company. The first two firms go in for men's clothing and furnishings with women's shoes and stockings and the latter firm is in the dry goods and ladies' wear line, but all of them carry full and complete lines of up-to-date merchandise and they are offering these fine new stocks at prices that are away below any other firms in this part of Florida. These mammoth stocks and the very low prices are the talk of this community and the people are flocking there to take advantage of these sales.

And then D. L. Thrasher, Dressmer, Perkins & Britt, Yowell's, Bandel's Emporium and several other stores have been running a sale for the past week and have been doing a fine business.

In fact Sanford stores are getting into the habit of putting on sales and advertising the same in the Daily Herald and their efforts have been rewarded to the extent that never before have they ever done so much business and they are also cleaning up the stocks and getting ready for the new lines that are coming into the markets.

In truth, Sanford has at last come into her own as the trading point for Central Florida. Keep up the work and bring in the new people.

It used to be the bright lights that dazzled; now it's the moonshine that blinds.—Seattle Times.

LINE SHARPLY DRAWN ON REAPPORTIONMENT BILL WHICH CAME UP TODAY

ANY WILL FIGHT BILL THAT MEANS ADDED EXPENSE

OUTH LOSES NONE

FLORIDA WILL NOT BE AFFECTED EITHER WAY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Lines are sharply drawn last night for a bill today to defeat the re-apportionment bill, which would increase membership of the house of representatives from 485 to 486.

After a final check-up, leaders announced that the measure as reported would be voted down decisively and a substitute plan, holding seats to the present total, would be adopted by a big majority.

There seemed little sentiment for a new house. Members from states which would lose representation under shifting of twelve seats from eleven to eight states, declared they would vote against adding forty-eight representatives at a cost of approximately $1,500,000 a year, when there is a crying demand from all quarters for a government economy.

As mapped out today the program, under which the bill will be called up tomorrow, provides for five hours of debate. While there was some objection to so much oratory, it was agreed to permit members to express their views at length, and then by a roll call vote let the country know that the house is big enough as it stands.

The Republican steering committee reported solidly against the increase, not as a committee, but as individuals. Several Southern Democrats it was said, were not expected to oppose the lower total as a body, the shifting of seats would leave the present number intact.

Under the provision of the bill these leaders expect to be adopted, increases will be as follows:

California, three; Michigan, two; Ohio, two; and Connecticut, New Jersey, North Carolina, Texas and Washington, one each. To make up the number without changing the 435 Missouri would lose two seats, and the following states one each: Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Mississippi, Nebraska, Rhode Island and Vermont.

By this arrangement the South would gain in North Carolina and Texas, and lose in Louisiana and Mississippi.

MOONSHINER GETS FINE OVER $1,000 AND COSTS OF CASE

(From Monday's Daily)

The trial of I. A. Hodgson for distilling liquor, having same in his possession and carrying concealed weapons, came up before Judge Houser Saturday morning and after the prisoner had plead guilty the judge imposed one of the largest fines that has been put upon any moonshiner in this county. He was fined for the manufacturing of liquor, $450 or five months, for having a still in his possession, $500 or six months, for carrying concealed weapons, $100 or four months. The total fines amounted to $1050 and the defendant gave bond and will probably pay the fines rather than go to jail. The officials of Seminole county are determined to break up the making and selling of liquor in this county. In this work they will receive the support of all the right-thinking people of the county, regardless of the fact that whiskey may be needed in many cases and regardless of the fact that many good people drink it, all of them recognize the fact that crime is on the increase, passion runs riot and there is not the proper respect for the laws as long as the making and selling of liquor is winked at and that a determined effort on the part of the sheriff's office and the judge's court to catch the offenders and give them the limit. All the stills that were found will be destroyed and the sheriff has gone forth that the making of liquor and the selling of liquor will be countenanced in Seminole county any longer and regardless of who the offenders may be they will get the same dose. And public opinion has ceased to shelter the offenders or any of those who may be in business with them.

FLORIDA AWAKE FRUIT MEN URGE SPEEDY ACTION

PROMPT STEPS MUST BE TAKEN FOR MARKET RELIEF.

LEESBURG, Jan. 13.—A committee of all independent operators of the fruit and produce interests, covering the entire state, will meet at the San Juan Hotel, Orlando, January 20th, at 11 o'clock a. m. to discuss prices, general marketing conditions and such matters of vital importance to the industry. Notices are being mailed to members of the general organization committee by Chairman R. P. Burton. It is the opinion of those present at the meeting held January 11, that if the opportunity is permitted to pass without concerted effort to bring about the desired results, it will be useless to pursue the matter further. It is also the opinion of the committee that the independent operators should work out and adopt an organization, which may, in conjunction with the Florida Citrus Exchange, perfect plans by which matters of statewide importance can be efficiently handled without interfering or upsetting in any way the sales organization.

Those designated on the committee of fifteen independents include the following operators: Lawrence Gentile, Orlando; John S. Taylor, Largo; F. L. Skelley, Orlando; S. O. Chase, Sanford; Dr. P. Phillips, Orlando; J. J. Parish, Titusville; F. E. Lane, DeLand; H. T. Montgomery, Tampa; A. J. Nye, Orlando; S. J. Sligh, Orlando; W. E. Lee, Plant City; E. H. Walker, Orlando; Chas. Turner, Umatilla; A. J. Thomas, Jacksonville; Walter Preston, Tampa.

Members assigned on the organization committee are: R. P. Burton, chairman, of Leesburg; F. E. Lane, DeLand; J. H. Sadler, Winter Garden; S. O. Chase, Sanford; F. D. Walte, Palmtoet; John S. Taylor, Largo; J. W. Sample, Haines City; A. B. Michael, Wabassa; J. M. York, Arcadia; H. L. Boreland, Ocala; W. J. Krome, Homestead; H. O. Hamm, Palatka; D. C. Gillett, Tampa; and L. C. Edwards, Thonotosassa.

Dr. M. Sample, chairman of the committee on materials and supplies, participated in the conference of the organization committee and submitted a resolution which he said would be presented at the meeting of the crate manufacturers to be held in Jacksonville January 12. This resolution cited reasons why the crate people should readjust their rates for materials that they would conform in a measure to the prices now being received by the growers for their fruit, and remarks following its reading led to support of the points enumerated for early action towards reductions as suggested.

THE FLOWER SHOP

Under the direction of Mr. Jack Ward, picture producer, and actor, the finance committee (Mrs. S. Puleston, chairman) of the Woman's Club will present the "Flower Shop," one of the most charming spectacular plays ever produced upon the Florida stage, which will include in the cast one hundred and fifty of Sanford's best musical talent and attractive little folks.

The "Flower Shop" is an after-war inspiration, a musical comedy, sweet and wholesome, brimming over with tuneful melody and the charm of floral effects lending harmoniously with the brilliant beauty of gorgeous costuming. The play is a snappy, professional production, introducing 12 musical numbers, and surprising novelties, in two hours of pleasing comedy. It has proven the biggest thing in spectacular plays, touring the country and has had phenomenal success financially and artistically, playing to capacity houses in the larger cities of Florida. A pretty theme and wonderful love story running throughout the play, fascinating scenes, and bewitching choruses maintains a lively interest and has won for the Flower Shop, thousands of admirers.

In the "Basket" and "Trellis" choruses the effects are wonderful. In the latter, pink roses rambling over a golden trellis, the chorus wearing blue satin costumes achieve one of the prettiest spectacles ever produced, while six girls, spirits of the baskets, in their flower bedecked receptacles form a very lovely and charming scene. The "Palm Tree" and "Single Jonquils" are cleverly represented. Groups of small tots are used in the pictorial scenes only, the cast and choruses being carried by adults.

The lead is played by Mr. Ward himself, a clever actor, impersonating the character of "Tom, only a mortal." Other principal characters are "Flora, the Goddess of Flowers," "Lily," "The American Beauty," "Violet," "Old Maid," "Ivy Vine," "Sun," "Man-in-the-Moon" and last but certainly not the least, will be the "Sunflower" and the "wind," two negro impersonations.

Added to the charm and novelty of the mammoth spectacle will be a cast composed of local talent for which Sanford is far-famed and which invariably assures crowded houses. Two performances will be given here, the place and date to be announced later.

Mr. Ward will produce the whole show and brings with him the paraphernalia for scenes, and also the costumes. He is well known as a picture producer and plays in legitimate attractions. He returns to pictures in September.

Watch the columns of the Herald for further announcements.

"For two months I never went in our cellar, fearing a rat. One night in bed I smelled fire. Sure enough the rat had been nibbling at the matches. If I hadn't acted promptly my house would have been burned. Later we found the dead rat. RAT-SNAP killed it. It's great stuff." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. ROB DAYTONA STORE OF A $50,000 STOCK

DAYTONA, Jan. 13.—Choicest stock, valued at $50,000, was stolen by thieves who, sometime between 11 p. m. Saturday and 9 a. m. Monday broke into Jabaly's women's wear store here and are believed to have taken away their bulky loot in an auto truck. The burglarly is believed by the police to have been done by experts, as the highest priced gowns, underclothing, etc., were picked out by the thieves.

Entrance was effected by breaking the metallic covering of a rear window, smashing the window glass, and unloosening the hook. The only clue to the robbery so far discovered is a piece of an old Ford automobile which was found in front of the store. It is thought that the goods were taken out through the back window.

Jabaly's is a fashionable women's store which was just opened here two weeks ago and contained the newest stock obtainable. The proprietor also operates a summer store in New York City.

The police have informed the sheriff's office and bloodhounds have been put on the trail.

FLORIDA U. GOES ON THE HONOR LIST

GAINESVILLE, Jan. 13.—The U. S. War Department has placed the military department of the University of Florida among the distinguished colleges of the United States, being the highest military honor that it can bestow for military efficiency. Staff officers from Washington inspect the different colleges all over the country every spring and the awards are announced by the war department later on in the year.

There are two divisions of the reserve officers training corps. In the first two years of this course, the foundation training takes place. During the last two years of the four year course, the government furnishes both a complete uniform and a daily subsistence. This subsistence amounts to 53 cents a day, running through the entire year including the summer vacation time, with the exception of the time spent in summer camp. This materially helps a man working his way through college.

Your citrus trees

Citrus trees are most exacting as to the source of their plant food, and groves in bearing need heavy applications of the best fertilizers to assure profitable yields and high-grade fruit.

Bradley's Bone Mixtures

meet all the requirements in fertilizing citrus crops. The plant foods they carry are so balanced as to supply the needs of the tree both in growing and bearing fruit. They are readily assimilated; and being free from acidity, the most delicate roots feed upon them without injury.

"Citrus Culture" is a book of practical information. It is based on Florida experience and is profusely illustrated. It will be sent free to grove owners on request.

SEMINOLE COUNTY EXHIBIT AT THE SUB-TROPICAL FAIR WILL BE GOOD ONE

To Have the Support of County and the City of Sanford.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HELP

AND SEMINOLE WILL HAVE THE FIRST PRIZE AND MUCH PUBLICITY

Seminole county will have an exhibit at the Sub-Tropical Fair in Orlando in February and it will be a real exhibit and one that will carry off the first prize if possible.

For the past three years that indefatigable worker, Frank L. Miller, the president of the fair association, has been making these exhibits at Orlando and Jacksonville on the small sum of money that was left in the treasury from the time that the first Seminole County Fair was held.

Get ready for it now and let everybody help.

THE AWFUL SITUATION IN CHINA

It is becoming more and more appalling. A telegram reads: "One thousand men, women and children frozen to death one night at Nankai."

"Fourteen million now facing starvation or death from disease or cold. The wolf is at their throat."

"Wild-eyed mothers with shriveled breasts throw their babes into wells."

"China is rising to the emergency, but can not cope with it single-handed."

"Our people must do their best and do it quick!"

This appeal comes from Bishop W. R. Lambuth, just arrived from China, and who has been appointed on the Famine Commission by President Wilson.

Can we not do something more? We have been giving—but can't we do more? We, the comfortable, well-fed, healthy, happy citizens of our beautiful God-favored city.

Can't we appoint a famine commission and get busy. If the appeal is prayed over and pressed, we might get hundreds of dollars. If we do our best Heaven will smile upon us.

Can not a famine commission—a member from each church—be appointed to canvass the town?

May the Bountiful Giver of all good inspire our hearts to generous noble response.

—CONTRIBUTED.

The winter so far in the North has been milder than for several seasons. Last year at Christmas time the rivers were nearly all covered with thick ice and the harbors of the great lakes were closed.

TEARING DOWN AN ANCIENT LANDMARK

Many old landmarks in Sanford have been torn down during the past six months, among them being the old Sanford House that has stood the storms of time for forty years or more.

There are several others that should follow suit and probably will follow suit in the next few months.

MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sjoblom, of Lake Mary, announce the marriage of their daughter, Amanda, to Mr. J. R. Reeves, of Ocala.

The many friends of Miss Sjoblom in Sanford and Lake Mary will be pleased to learn of her marriage and although they regret to lose so amiable and beautiful young lady, they compliment Orlando upon adding Mrs. Reeves to its younger set.

TO THE BOYS AND GIRLS OF SANFORD

You are in training to take the place of your parents in the active affairs of this town, county, state and nation.

You should learn as much about this town as you can so you can talk intelligently about it.

This town is not perfect. If it were it would be a "finished product."

In your hands must soon rest the welfare of this town. On your loyalty, on your faith in your own home, on your pride in your people and their enterprise, must depend in a large measure the future growth and permanency of this town's business and general interests.

You can make this town cleaner and more attractive by not throwing paper, fruit skins, or rubbish of any kind in the streets, and asking your companions to be more careful in these things wherever possible.

Be always saying a good word for this town, especially to strangers. To exploit the good points of your home town should be a pleasant duty.

Mention the good things you know of this town when you write to out-of-town friends or relatives, or when they come to see you.

You will find much to study in what already exists in this town, and you will find much to be proud of.

Don't gamble. Don't bet on games of chance. You can't beat another fellow's game.

Be careful of your health. Take plenty of exercise in the open air. This is possible in Florida every month.

A sound body is a great asset. Your dad may be able to get a new automobile if the old one wears out, but he can't get you a new body.

Do your best in whatever you are doing. Get all the fun and knowledge and comfort out of your work and studies that you can.

Do you know that there is no need of going away for a college education when we have such fine institutions as the State University at Gainesville, the College for Women at Tallahassee, the Stetson University at DeLand and the Rollins College at Winter Park?

Do you go to Sunday School? If not, why not? Don't you believe the Golden Rule is a good one to live by? Don't you believe with James Russell Lowell, who said in "The Present Crisis," that

"Behind the dim unknown Standeth God within the shadow Keeping watch above his own."

William James, a great writer and thinker, said a man should do two or three times a day that he does not want to do, just from practice. Why not, boys and girls? Do this and salt down the fact that when you cannot get what you want you will want what you get.

Urge your parents to buy everything they can in this town—their own and your clothing, hats, shoes, books and all else needed. Every dollar spent in this town makes possible the building of more homes, more churches, more schools, more store and office buildings, and more money in taxation for all kinds of improvements.

Do you know that birds are among our best friends? Do you shoot them for mere sport or rob their nests? If so, please don't do it any more. "Please," is a good word to use, it will help to make easier your path in life.

COMPLETION OF DIXIE HIGHWAY IS ASSURED

JASPER, Tenn., Jan. 17.—Completion of the Dixie highway which will provide a hard road from the Great Lakes to the extreme end of Florida, is assured by the recent vote to issue $250,000 in bonds by Marion county, and the headway on projects along the highway planned by the Georgia highway department.

The Marion county portion has been the line between the North and the South which prevented tourists from traveling in comfort over the noted thoroughfare. Tennessee and the federal government will match the amount of Marion county with $750,000, making a total of $1,000,000 to be used on the highway in the county this year.

SOUTH LOSES NONE

FLORIDA WILL NOT BE AFFECTED EITHER WAY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Lines were sharply drawn last night for a fight today to defeat the re-apportionment bill, which would increase the membership of the house of representatives from 435 to 485.

After a final check-up, leaders announced that the measure as reported would be voted down decisively and that a substitute plan, holding seats to the present total, would be adopted by a big majority.

There seemed little sentiment for a larger house. Members from states which would lose representation under the shifting of twelve seats from eleven to eight states, declared they would vote against adding forty-eight representatives at a cost of approximately $1,500,000 a year, when there is a crying demand from all quarters for government economy.

As mapped out today the program, under which the bill will be called up tomorrow, provides for five hours of debate. While there was some objection to so much oratory, it was agreed to permit members to express their views at length, and then by a roll call vote let the country know that the house is big enough as it stands.

The Republican steering committee was reported solidly against the increase, not as a committee, but as individuals. Several Southern Democrats it was said, were not expected to oppose the lower total as a body, as the shifting of seats would leave their present number intact.

Under the provision of the bill house leaders expect to be adopted, the increases will be as follows:

California, three; Michigan, two; Ohio, two; and Connecticut, New Jersey, North Carolina, Texas and Washington, one each. To make up this number without changing the 435 total Missouri would lose two seats, and the following states one each: Louisiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Mississippi, Nebraska, Rhode Island and Vermont.

By this arrangement the South would gain in North Carolina and Texas, and lose in Louisiana and Mississippi.

MOONSHINER GETS FINE OVER $1,000 AND COSTS OF CASE

(From Monday's Daily)

The trial of I. A. Hodgson for distilling liquor, having same in his possession and carrying concealed weapons came up before Judge Householder Saturday morning and after the prisoner had pleaded guilty the judge imposed one of the largest fines that has been put upon any maker of liquor in this county. He was fined for the manufacturing of liquor, $450 or five months, for having a still in his possession, $500 or six months, for carrying concealed weapons, $100 or four months. The total fines amounted to $1050 and costs. The defendant gave bond and will probably pay the fines rather than go to jail. The officials of Seminole county are determined to break up the making and selling of liquor in this county. In this work they will receive the support of all the right-thinking people of the county. Regardless of the fact that whiskey may be needed in many cases and regardless of the fact that many good people drink it, all of them recognize the fact that crime is on the increase, passion runs riot and there is not the proper respect for the laws as long as the making and selling of liquor is winked at and that there will be a determined effort on the part of the sheriff's office and the judge's court to catch the offenders and give them the limit. All the stills that are found will be destroyed and the word has gone forth that the making of liquor and the selling of liquor will not be countenanced in Seminole county any longer and regardless of who the offenders may be they will get the same dose. And public opinion has ceased to shelter the offenders or any of those who may be in business with them.

FLORIDA AWAKE FRUIT MEN URGE SPEEDY ACTION

PROMPT STEPS MUST BE TAKEN FOR MARKET RELIEF.

LEESBURG, Jan. 13.—A committee of all independent operators of the fruit and produce interests, covering the entire state, will meet at the San Juan Hotel, Orlando, January 20th, at 11 o'clock a. m. to discuss prices, general marketing conditions and such matters of vital importance to the industry. Notices are being mailed to members of the general organization committee by Chairman R. P. Burton. It is the opinion of those present at the meeting held January 11, that if the opportunity is permitted to pass without concerted effort to bring about the desired results, it will be useless to pursue the matter further. It is also the opinion of the committee that the independent operators should work out and adopt an organization, which may, in conjunction with the Florida Citrus Exchange, perfect plans by which matters of statewide importance can be efficiently handled without interfering or upsetting in any way the sales organization.

Those designated on the committee of fifteen independents include the following operators: Lawrence Gentile, Orlando; John S. Taylor, Largo; F. L. Skelley, Orlando; S. O. Chase, Sanford; Dr. P. Phillips, Orlando; J. J. Parish, Titusville; F. E. Lane, DeLand; H. T. Montgomery, Tampa; A. J. Nye, Orlando; S. J. Bligh, Orlando; W. E. Lee, Plant City; E. H. Walker, Orlando; Chas. Turner, Umatilla; J. J. Thomas, Jacksonville; Walter Preston, Tampa.

Members assigned on the organization committee are: R. P. Burton, chairman, of Leesburg; F. E. Lane, DeLand; J. H. Sadler, Winter Garden; S. O. Chase, Sanford; F. D. Waite, Palmto; John S. Taylor, Largo; J. W. Sample, Haines City; A. B. Michael, Wabassa; J. M. York, Arcadia; H. L. Boreland, Ocala; W. J. Krome, Homestead; H. O. Hamm, Palatka; D. C. Gillett, Tampa; and L. C. Edwards, Thonotosassa.

Dr. M. Sample, chairman of the committee on materials and supplies, participated in the conference of the organization committee and submitted a resolution which he said would be presented at the meeting of the crate manufacturers to be held in Jacksonville January 12. This resolution cited reasons why the crate people should readjust their rates for materials that they would conform in a measure to the prices now being received by the growers for their fruit, and remarks following its reading led to support of the points enumerated for early action towards reductions as suggested.

THE FLOWER SHOP

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Under the direction of Mr. Jack Ward, picture producer, and actor, the finance committee (Mrs. S. Puleston, chairman) of the Woman's Club will present the "Flower Shop," one of the most charming spectacular plays ever produced upon the Florida stage, which will include in the cast one hundred and fifty of Sanford's best musical talent and attractive little folks.

The "Flower Shop" is an after-war inspiration, a musical comedy, sweet and wholesome, brimming over with tuneful melody and the charm of floral effects lending harmoniously with the brilliant beauty of gorgeous costuming. The play is a snappy, professional production, introducing 12 musical numbers, and surprising novelties, in two hours of pleasing comedy. It has proven the biggest thing in spectacular plays, touring the country and has had phenomenal success financially and artistically, playing to capacity houses in the larger cities of Florida. A pretty theme and wonderful love story running throughout the play, fascinating scenes, and bewitching choruses maintains a lively interest and has won for the Flower Shop, thousands of admirers.

In the "Basket" and "Trellis" choruses the effects are wonderful. In the latter, pink roses rambling over a golden trellis, the chorus wearing blue satin costumes achieve one of the prettiest spectacles ever produced, while six girls, spirits of the baskets, join their flower bedecked receptacles form a very lovely and charming scene. The "Palm Tree" and "Single Jonquilla" are cleverly represented. Groups of small tots are used in the pictorial scenes only, the cast and choruses being carried by adults.

The lead is played by Mr. Ward himself, a clever actor, impersonating the character of "Tom, only a mortal." Other principal characters are "Flora, the Goddess of Flowers," "Lily," "The American Beauty," "Violet," "Old Maid," "Ivy Vine," "Sun," "Man-in-the-Moon" and last but certainly not the least, will be the "Sunflower" and the "wind," two negro impersonations.

Added to the charm and novelty of the mammoth spectacle will be a cast composed of local talent for which Sanford is far-famed and which invariably assures crowded houses. Two performances will be given here, the place and date to be announced later.

Mr. Ward will produce the whole show and brings with him the paraphernalia for scenes, and also the costumes. He is well known as a picture producer and plays in legitimate attractions. He returns to pictures in September.

Watch the columns of the Herald for further announcements.

ROB DAYTONA STORE OF A $50,000 STOCK

DAYTONA, Jan. 13.—Choice stock, valued at $50,000, was stolen by thieves who, sometime between 11 p. m. Saturday and 9 a. m. Monday broke into Jabaly's women's wear store here and are believed to have taken away their bulky loot in an auto truck. The burglary is believed by the police to have been done by experts, as the highest priced gowns, underclothing, etc., were picked out by the thieves.

Entrance was effected by breaking the metallic covering of a rear window, smashing the window glass, and unloosening the hook. The only clue to the robbery so far discovered is a piece of an old Ford automobile which was found in front of the store. It is thought that the goods were taken out through the back window.

Jabaly's is a fashionable women's store which was just opened here two weeks ago and contained the newest stock obtainable. The proprietor also operates a summer store in New York City.

The police have informed the sheriff's office and bloodhounds have been put on the trail.

SANFORD, THE SHIPPING CENTER OF THE STATE, PRICES ARE LOWEST

AND THE VISITORS ARE NOT BEING GOUGHED IN SANFORD

People are coming to Sanford to trade and people are coming to Sanford to live because they can get an honest return on their money here. The merchants of Sanford becoming tired of seeing so many home people and visitors going to neighboring cities to trade have inaugurated a series of sales and bargain days and now the tables have been turned and the people are coming here from the neighboring cities instead of our people going there to trade.

All of this opens up wider fields for our wholesale and retail merchants and demonstrates that the business men who are alive to the present situation will cut the prices very low, advertise and bring in new business. The people are now coming to Sanford for a radius of one hundred miles and they are going away with their autos filled with our goods, and prices just as advertised and they are going away with the idea that Sanford in the future will be their trading center.

And then our guests. They have come here because they learned that Sanford has good accommodation at a fairly reasonable figure. They have learned that Sanford needs more hotels and apartment houses but we will have them next season in plenty and this season are doing our best to give all the people accommodations at reasonable figures. The hotels are of the best and they are not charging exorbitant rates. In fact Sanford is getting many people from neighboring cities and east coast resorts because the accommodations are good, the people are friendly and the prices are right. Keep the sales going, keep the prices low, keep the people coming.

FLORIDA SURE TO GET MOOSE HOME-BRANDON

PROBABILITY IS THAT INSTITUTION WILL BE ESTABLISHED IN JACKSONVILLE

Florida will get the Mooseheart of the South and Jacksonville will in all probability be the site of the Moose institution, according to Rodney H. Brandon, Supreme Moose secretary, Monday afternoon at the conclusion of the exhaustive inspection of tracts in all Southern cities.

All officers of the supreme council participating the final inspection of the nine cities of the South for a location, agree with Mr. Brandon, he says. They believe that Florida has everything that they wish for the Moose home. It was decided, however, to make a last survey of two other cities of the state, Sanford and St. Petersburg, to assure themselves that no possible site had been overlooked.

This idea was seconded when Jas. J. Davis, director general of the supreme lodge, was suddenly called north to confer with President-elect Harding Sunday. Since no action can be taken without Mr. Davis' presence it was voted to spend the time intervening until the officers of the lodge could be in session in Mooseheart, Ill., in further searches.

Mr. Brandon in company with E. J. Henning, general counselor, from San Diego, Calif., will inspect sites available in Sanford and St. Petersburg, two cities representing the central and the southern parts of the state.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Goldsmith contended he did not know the machine was to be put to such use, but the government's contention that he assumed the risk of loss from whatever cause it might occur.

SANFORD SOLDIER WAS BURIED WITH MILITARY HONORS

(From Monday's Daily) No more fitting day could have been chosen for the last sad rites to be paid our soldier dead than yesterday when the sun shone bright and the entire populace was able to turn out to honor the memory of Carl Vidor Malm, who died in a hospital in France at the close of the war. The funeral services were held at the Baptist Temple at 3:00 o'clock at which time the remains were brought to the church from Miller's Chapel by an honorary escort and the pallbearers, all from the Campbell-Lossing Post, American Legion.

Dr. George Hyman of the Baptist church and a chaplain in the World War had charge of the obsequies, assisted by Captain Herring and the squad from the American Legion. Dr. Hyman paid a beautiful tribute to the soldier dead and all of those boys who had gone from Seminole county. Four of those who had died in the service were members of the Baptist church and memorial windows had been dedicated to their memory. The choir, composed of Mesdames Phillips, Maines, Barnes and Pitts, rendered several beautiful hymns and after the services at the church the remains were taken to Lakeview cemetery where the military burial services were carried out. Dr. Hyman delivering a short service and the firing squad firing three times-over the grave and the bugler blowing "taps."

ARREST FLORIDIANS ON CHARGE OF ENTICING GEORGIA'S NEGRO LABOR

MOULTRIE, Ga., Jan. 17.—Two men charged with enticing negroes away to work on tobacco plantations near Quincy, Fla., have been arrested in Mitchell county, west of here, and another has fled after being flogged by irate farmers, according to reports received here today.

The men arrested on charges of violating the state law governing labor agents gave their names as H. L. Luton of Amsterdam, Fla., and R. F. Taylor of Quincy, Fla. They were released on bond pending trial at Camilla. Taylor was said to be manager of a tobacco company. The name of the man reported whipped could not be learned here.

Farmers are said to be upset by loss of negro labor just at the time they are preparing to get to work on their crops and claim also that many of the negroes enticed away owed money for advances made last year and which they were unable to pay because of the drop in the price of cotton they had raised on shares. Labor agents are said to have been bringing large automobile trucks in at night and moving several negro families with their belongings in one load.

SEMINOLE COUNTY BANKS MAKE FINE SHOWING WITH THEIR RECENT STATEMENTS

AND IS REFLECTED IN THE STATEMENTS OF THE COUNTY BANKS

(From Saturday's Daily)
The banks are the financial barometers of any city or county or community. While very few people read their statements or if they do read them know but very little about them afterward it is certain that the general public knows what resources mean and it is the resources only that we propose to call attention to in this article. Resources of the First National Bank are given in the statement at the large figure of $1,153,193. The Seminole County Bank shows resources in the sum of $1,011,389. The Peoples Bank shows resources at $770,764.56. The Bank of Oviedo shows resources in the sum of $190,137.66.

Two of our banks have resources of over one million dollars each, one over seven hundred and seventy thousand and one in a much smaller community with more than one hundred and ninety thousand dollars in resources.

Everyone is familiar with deposits in a bank. The First National shows $981,137.62, almost a million in deposits. The Seminole County Bank shows $802,898.68. The Peoples Bank more than half a million and the Bank of Oviedo with $181,374.

The banks of Sanford are among the best financial institutions in the state in financial circles. They are known far and wide for their sound banking principles, for their stability, for their conservative policy and for their ability to handle the difficult situations that arise in every farming community.

Seminole county is proud of her financial institutions for they are among the best in the state and in the south.

SOME REASONS FOR BEING OPTIMISTIC.

Some of our good friends have intimated that we are inclined to be too optimistic in our view of the future conditions of trade and business in this country of ours. But we just can't help it. As we look over this grand new country with its immense resources awaiting development, with its rapid growth in population that must be housed, clothed and fed; its thousands of new homes to be built; its many thousands miles of roads to be built for which hundreds of millions of dollars must be expended; and the millions of hungry and half-clothed people of the old world who are looking with hopeful and expectant eyes to America as the only nation that is willing and able to relieve their distress; as we see all these visions and many more similar ones, we cannot believe that present conditions can last very long. All that we lack now is confidence and faith in the future, and that is gradually coming back to us. Quiescence under unfavorable conditions is not characteristic of the American people. They are certain to grow restless under such conditions, and find some vent for their energy.

The process of readjustment which we are now going through may be painful and uncomfortable for a time, but it cannot be lasting, and we have faith to believe we have seen the worst of it. As justifying the faith that is in us we take the liberty of quoting the opinions of well known and eminent financiers. Henry Clews & Co. say in their weekly financial review of January 8:

"The opening of the new year has at least brought with it a prospect of distinctly better condition at home. There are already indications here and there of decided power of industrial revival, not a few factories resuming business, while there is good evidence that the process of readjustment has about run its course in a number of important lines. This is a situation which lays the foundation for improvement. Prices are still on the down grade, but there has been little change in those branches of industry where the slump had already been considerable. Within the past week the most marked recession of prices has been in the retail trade field, where it was needed as a matter of readjustment to wholesale levels. In the steel industry there is still, according to the best authorities, further readjustment to be developed, but in some branches the revision of prices has made progress during the past few days. Suspension of dividends on the part of some considerable enterprise is attributable rather to a desire to conserve their cash resources in the present money situation than to lack of earnings or uncertainty of business prospect. Altogether while the outlook is certainly not yet brilliant it shows an improving tendency.

And the Guaranty Trust Co., of

New York, proceeds in similar vein to say:
At the opening of the new year most resumes and forecasts of business conditions are sounding an optimistic note. It may be observed that practical men of affairs who are acquainted with an understanding of the underlying conditions in this and other countries, are confident that a turn for the better will soon disclose itself.

Reduced to its simplest terms, the situation is that most other countries, and particularly those of Europe, need the things which America produces, but are unable to pay for them at the present time, an inability which increases as prices rise, and which cannot be overcome entirely until they fall. So long as prices remain at high levels, therefore, both the foreign and domestic demand for American goods will be curtailed. When these prices return to a level that reflects the relation of the demand for goods to the supply of goods, and only that relation, we shall have normal buying and selling again, and, considering the losses of the war years and the long time it will take other countries to re-establish their productive and distributive processes, there can be little doubt that the results will be advantageous to this country.

These are the opinions of financial experts, men who have made the financial and business conditions of the United States a lifelong study, men who have great interests at stake, but men withal who are likely to be imbued with all the proverbial timidity of capital. They certainly cannot be suspected of being unduly optimistic, and when they speak in such encouraging tones, the rest of us may feel that our optimism has some justification.—Tampa Times.

PRESIDENT'S FIRST APPOINTEE UNDER LEAGUE

It's first appointment the president has made to any bodies meeting under the League of Nations since the senate refused to ratify the Versailles treaty.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 4, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. I saw after taking some Cardui... that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person.

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me... My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere.

FLORIDA PEOPLE SHOULD DRINK MORE MILK

(By J. M. Scott, Animal Industrialist and Vice-Director Florida Experiment Station)

Dairying has its ups and downs in this state the same as elsewhere. As a rule the dairyman thinks he has the poorest business of anybody. But he supplies one of the most life-giving commodities in the whole world of commerce. Milk produced and distributed under proper conditions is never dangerous, never harmful. No one ever heard of murder or suicide in connection with the drinking of milk. On the other hand, it is wholesome and beneficial. It is good for the young baby, and it is good for the man of three score and ten years. And for those of middle age there is no better food in sickness or in health. People in general do not use enough milk for best health.

In Florida we hear much about the surplus milk produced during summer months. There are enough people in Florida during the summer season to consume all the milk produced, if they could be induced to buy and use it. It is largely a question of the public's not realizing the value of milk as a food, rather than an overabundance of milk.

There are many other ways of using milk as food, than by drinking it whole. For instance, ice cream is a wholesome and sociable way of serving milk. Buttermilk could well be served over the counters of soft drink stores. There are dozens of recipes in modern cook books that call for milk in some form.

Another way to overcome the surplus of milk in summer is for the dairymen to arrange for a large market, August, September or October. Then jority of their cows to freshen during the time of year when the demand for milk is least, they will have but a small amount to put on the market, as most of the cows in the herd will be dry or nearly dry.

The following motto ought to be adopted universally in this state: "Drink milk now, ye who never drank before; and ye who drank of old, drink still more."

HIGH EXPRESS RATES HOLDING UP VEGETABLES

Cabbage shipments are holding up to what they were last week, but are nothing like as large as they were at this time last year. It is said that there are plenty of cabbage in the fields, but that the express rates are almost prohibitive to the profitable shipment of them. There have been 62 crates shipped in small lots since Monday. Cabbage are bringing $2 a crate.

Peas jumped into prominence this week, with 149 hampers shipped since Monday. Peas are bringing $2.25 a hamper. Twenty-one hampers of lettuce have been shipped since Monday, selling on an average at $1.25 a hamper. Twenty crates of turnips were handled by the express company in the last three days. Turnips are selling at around $1.25 a crate.

Other vegetables to sell on the platform this week were beets, carrots, celery and pepper. Only a small quantity of each was sold. There have been only 33 packages of these vegetables sold on the platform since Monday. The prices being paid for them, as quoted by some of the buyers, are: Beets, $1.50; carrots, $1.50; celery, $2.25; pepper, $3.50.—Plant City Courier.

ENGAGED A DETECTIVE IN THE HIGEL MURDER CASE

BRADENTOWN, Jan. 15.—There was one development in the Higel murder case today. Frank Higel of Sarasota engaged Detective Fred Thomas of Tampa to take charge of the work of bringing home the crime to the murderer of Harry L. Higel.

Mr. Higel is convinced that the man who killed his brother is in jail at Bradentown—Rube Allyn. He is morally certain that none other than Allyn had any hand in the awful deed committed on Sesta Key last Friday morning. He holds that everything connected with the case that has been brought out to date points to the eccentric writer as the one man who could have committed the deed.

If Allyn's relatives have engaged the services of a detective to work on the case nothing has been said about it. So far as has been disclosed the only move Mrs. Allyn and Rube's brother, Dr. Charles B. Allyn of Tampa, have made, is to engage Col. John B. Singletary of this city to represent the accused man. It looks very much just now as though there will be no further developments before the trial unless the chemists analysis of the spits on the pair of shoes Allyn was wearing on the day the crime was committed, show these spots to be human blood.

FLORIDA'S AUTO GROWTH

The report of State Auditor J. Will Youn, gives the total number of automobiles licensed during 1920 as 76,908. An automobile census made by the research department of the Simmons Hardware Company, St. Louis, gave the number in Florida for 1919 at 55,400. The year's growth is, therefore, 21,508, a pretty fair showing for a population of 968,470.

The figures given by the state auditor show one automobile to about every twelve and a fraction persons, or a little better than one to every two and a fourth families. Florida thus takes its place ahead of all the states in the Union but fourteen, in the number of automobiles per capita. When it is considered that below it are such states as Illinois, Missouri, Massachusetts and even Ohio, the home of the auto industry, it speaks volumes for the state.

The eternal question of which preceded the hen or the egg? is almost as easy to answer as the one in Florida; which follows, the auto or good roads?

It is not necessary that any paper editorially "boost" automobiles, the dealers, agents and owners, and the general public do that. But it is not without some pride that the Tribune points to the high class and the clear vision of the men who handle the automobile selling industry in Florida. To them is due in large measure the quick action which so often has followed the cry for a better road to some sections; to them also is due in great measure the fact that practically all makes of the car—American—are sold in the state, and have been proven adaptable for Florida's needs. The increase shown by Mr. Youn indicates something like 39 per cent in a year. The total, in cash, these licenses have brought to the treasury is $4564,695.14. The amount net, is not given, nor is the cost of collecting it added to the figures published, to date. It is clear, however, that this state will have a handsome sum to go into its road and maintenance fund from this one source alone.

It is not without a natural optimism that the state looks forward to its growth and prosperity, after seeing its automobile figures for the year. There is no greater developer, or prosperity indicator, than the

DO NOT WAIT TOO LONG

Materials in all building lines are now at a lower mark than they have been for years, and are at a lower level than they will be in a few weeks hence, if all indications point true.

Conditions in the lumber market are such that every indication points to an early rise in the price of building materials. The simple law of supply and demand, if there were no other influences, is such as to indicate that the present low prices cannot long prevail.

For the past 60 days prices have maintained the unprecedented low level and still remain at that point, but it's not a safe proposition to expect them to remain at this point long.

At the present low prices an opportunity is offered the prospective builder for a tremendous saving in building materials. BUT IN ORDER TO GET THE FULL BENEFIT OF THEM IT WILL BE NECESSARY TO START NOW. SO DON'T DELAY.
