South Koreans Push 20 Miles Farther North

Korean Reds Reported To Have Lost 200,000 Men Since June 25th Invasion

TOKYO, Oct. 6.—(AP)—South Korean troops punched 20 miles deeper into Communist North Korea today on the east coast while other Allied forces massed for the expected big push to the Red heartland.

The forward South Koreans were more than 75 miles beyond Parallel 38, the border where they had crossed into enemy territory last Sunday.

Arrayed below the boundary was the bulk of the poised 175,000 United Nations troops. Air and naval support was at the ready for an offensive.

Another vice apparently was being forged to crush the remnants of the fleeing Reds—officially estimated by MacArthur's headquarters to have suffered 200,000 casualties since their June 25 invasion.

Forty thousand of the Red manpower losses were listed as war prisoners of the Allies.

The other casualties admittedly include some duplications. This means a man might have been turned to battle, wounded again and pressed into action again.

A MacArthur spokesman denied a speculation on how many of the Red casualties were dead men.

Russian Copy Of U. S. B-29 Is Said Reds Only A-Plane

LONDON, Oct. 6.—(AP)—The only known Russian plane capable of dropping atom bombs at long range is a copy of the American B-29, the "Fat Man." The Soviet Union reportedly has a copy of the B-29, the "Fat Man," which is said to be the only one of its kind in the world.

The authoritative annual survey also listed a 682-mile-an-hour jet fighter as the fastest known military plane.

The survey said the Soviet counter has an air force found to official U. S. claims that 10 different types of American jet and rocket-powered aircraft have already exceeded the speed of sound.

Henry Watson Is Discovered Dead In His Bathroom

Abstract Co. Owner Declared To Have Taken His Own Life

Henry M. Watson, 52, owner of the Guaranty Title and Abstract Co. took his own life early this morning by burning on the gas in a bathroom located at his home at 204 West Eighteenth Street.

Richard Williams, colored yard man for Mr. Watson, smelled the gas fumes on coming to work this morning, called neighbors, including Tom Bolt, realtor, who lives back of the Watson home, and together they forced open the door of the bathroom, which had been held shut by a steel clothes basket placed against the panel. All windows in the house were closed.

According to W. E. Watson, coroner who pronounced the death a suicide, Mr. Watson lay on (Continued on Page Three)

Capitalists Banquet In Incheon, Reds Say

MOSEOW, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Pravda declared today a group of American business leaders had evaded Incheon invasion from a U. S. fleet ship and later, at a lunch banquet in Seoul, celebrated the "Transformation of Korea into a colony."

The Communist Party newspaper claimed rear Admiral James H. Doolittle, Rear Admiral James H. Doolittle, commander of the amphibious assault at Incheon had brought with him representatives of "the biggest American business firms—Rockefeller, Morgan, DuPont, and Harcourt."

From the war front, Pravda reported that the North Korean command had removed its main forces north.

Tourist Business Looks Up As Advance Reservations Increase

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—(AP)—European newspaper editors told Chicago newsmen tonight that American newspapers are "amazing and prodigious" but those in Europe are "the real deal of journalism."

In reply, John S. Knight, editor and publisher of the Chicago Daily News, declared American newsmen often are not "as well educated or informed" as European, but many European papers contain too much "mish mash" and not enough news.

The exchange of friendly criticism came at a dinner given in honor of a dozen foreign newspaper editors touring the United States.

The European view was summarized by James Murray Watson, editor of the Scotsman, Edinburgh, Scotland.

He said European editors "handle the news in a sober, responsible manner and cannot afford to be big-winded" like those in America.

"Our newspaper of eight to ten pages is much easier to read and certainly much easier to handle."

"Someone should invent a gadget with which to read yours."

He said that after buying the 36 page Thursday morning edition of the Chicago Daily Tribune he had to lay it on his hotel bed, and then lay on his back himself, to read it.

Watson said "We have never (Continued on Page Three)

Krider Announces He Will Run Again For Commission

John Krider, City commissioner, announced this morning his intention of qualifying to run for another term. He will be opposed in the election by Sam Martins, who qualified yesterday to run in January.

In casting his hat into the ring again, Mr. Krider declared he had entered into every progressive movement in the City, and will continue the fight if re-elected.

"Friendship with all the people of our community is a practice of mine," he declared, "and at the same time I intend to be independent and aggressive for the best interests of Sanford."

A former professional baseball player, Mr. Krider has carried his love of the sport into his civic activities, and with Edward Hirsing was largely responsible for inducing the New York Giants to make their farm team headquarters here, including the purchase of the Maxwell Inn. An outgrowth of this is the Memorial Stadium project of which Mr. Krider has been the leading proponent.

For 14 years a distributor with the Amoco Oil Co., Mr. Krider found that oil and baseball do not mix, and sold out in 1949 to Rupert Strickland. He now, therefore, serves as local representative of the New York Giants, as vice-president and a director of the Blue- (Continued on Page Three)

Vote Nears In Assembly On Resolution Authorizing Crossing 38th Parallel

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Ratified Russia and Communist China today that General MacArthur's forces in moving through North Korea would not advance beyond the 38th Parallel.

General Younger today announced that he had given the assembly a "strong" vote on the resolution.

The resolution would authorize the United Nations to cross the 38th Parallel.

Younger and the U. S. troops in MacArthur's command would not remain in North Korea any longer than necessary to insure unification and coordination of the United States and Communist China borders in Korea.

The Assembly rejected a last-minute Soviet attempt to gain North Korean participation in discussions of the Korean case. Then it moved quickly toward final adoption of the resolution.

The resolution was adopted by a vote of 49 to 7, with 15 abstentions.

The United States and United Kingdom already had approved the United States general plan of operations, charging that MacArthur's Air Force had dropped bombs into Manchuria. The U. S. had stated that this happened at one point, but said the bombing was accidental.

General has expressed in the U. S. that as MacArthur's ground troops moved northward they might bump into Red Chinese or Soviet military formations.

Younger said that, while the resolution of all Korea would not be a "fait accompli," it would be a "fait accompli" before the end of the year.

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday October 8.
The Golden Text is: "Salvation belongeth unto the Lord; the blessing is upon the people" (Ps. 135:3).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved" (John 3:16-17).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Fast, malice, and all sorts of evil are diseased beliefs, and you can destroy them only by destroying the wicked motives which produce them. If the evil is ever in the repentant mortal mind, while its effects still remain on the individual, you can remove this disorder as God's law is fulfilled and reformer cancels the crime" (404:10-12).

Sermon: "Where Shall We Go?"
Worship Opens Blind Eyes: "In the Death of King Arthur, Malory gives us the story of the Holy Grail, the cup which tradition says was used by the Master at the Last Supper. We are told that it traveled all over the world on a beam of glorious light. One night, borne on this same ray of light, it came to King Arthur's court. In describing the effect upon the group he uses these suggestive words: 'Then were all alighted of the Holy Ghost, and then began each knight to see His Brother Fairer Than Ever He Saw Him Before.'"
"Should it not be true that rest worship makes the face of a fellow man fairer than ever we have seen? Let's fight it out to send us out to discover values in others that once our blind eyes did not discover?"

Hard Marching ROK Troops Go Into Communist Korea After Long Trek

By HAL BOYLL
NORTH KOREA (AP)—Here is what it is like above the 38th Parallel in North Korea.

An exhausted South Korean soldier sleeps in a muddy ditch, his unhealed head pillowed in the yellow mud. Two lines of lone weary South Korean doughboys limp past over the stones and ruts of the road he has trudged along for more than a fortnight from deep in South Korea.

The stones have worn to tatters the rubber-soled shoes of some soldiers and they have replaced them with peasant slippers of rice straw.

But they manage a sweat-soaked grin as they pass. A battered truck wheezes by—so decrepit it could be held together only by the morale of the men in it. It looks like a sardine can on wheels.

Marching with them and shouldering part of their equipment are 20 or more boys under 10 years old. They are camp followers attracted by the joy of going with the winning army—and getting a bowl of free rice. A soldier pointed to a smiling eight-year-old carrying a load of mortar shells and said: "He's my house boy."

Behind the column slowly stumbles a line of civilian laborers. Each is burdened with a wooden pack to which is tied a fresh cut log almost as wide as the road and more than six inches thick. The logs are used to bridge streams. They look heavy enough to break the back of a longshoreman but the Korean workers apparently can tote them for miles.

And behind them for hours army representing 10,000 Communist-dominated North Koreans began a civil war June 25. They crossed the line to invade the territory where 20,000,000 Korean lived under the U. N.-sponsored Republic of Korea. On the map the 38th Parallel is a special neat straight black line.

But as the ROK doughboys plod on north beyond the frontier he sees not painted demarcation or chalkmark across the winding road. To his right is the peaceful blue Sea of Japan where an American destroyer swims lazily. To his left are valleys of ripening rice and rugged, yellow eroded hills with stunted, wind-twisted pine trees and cut by dry tortuous ravines.

The hills also are scarred by army dug ditches and pockmarked with well camouflaged empty concrete bunkers and pillboxes.

Some of the South Korean Army's prepared defensive positions are north of 38. Some of the more heavily fortified posts of the North Korean army are still south of that artificial boundary. Each army has followed the time-proven military principle of building a defense line along the natural pattern of the hills.

That is how the 38th Parallel looks to the individual South Korean infantrymen and it is doubtful if he even knows he has crossed the line. The men nearest to war usually know the least about it—except its dangers.

Some distance back he also passed with equal indifference a large sign lettered in a language he doesn't understand. The language is English and the sign says: "You are crossing the 38th Parallel. Courtesy of the third ROK (Republic of Korea) Division. We were first."

This is the arbitrary line that since 1945 has divided Korea's industrial north from its agricultural south. It is the line that separated the Russian and American occupation zones after the Japanese were thrown out of the country at the end of the last war.

It is the line from which an near Lake Minnie, has 500 feet frontage on the east side of the highway immediately north of Blue Bird Inn, and one mile from the city limits.

The whole tract originally had a frontage of 500 feet, but the owner, R. W. Williams, from whom the purchase is being made, is reserving the northeast corner with 200 feet of road frontage and 400 feet depth, immediately north of this corner it is planned, with County co-operation to build a road to extend to Sanford Avenue, one mile away. On the south line, the tract has a depth of 1,583 feet.

Mr. Matthews reported that the property had been surveyed and that L. F. Boyle was examining the abstract.

Francis Meliweather was directed to look after the clearing and Williams stated that he will cooperate in this work which is due to start immediately.

Mr. Dawson, as chairman of the group, was directed to pick two men to serve as a nominating committee to select candidates for a nine-man board of directors for the new organization.

After considerable discussion, it was voted that membership on the board shall be limited to "small pure" farmers, including citrus growers and cattle men, who devote at least 75 percent of their activity to these lines.

Prior to the regular meeting, T. H. Rivers, manager of the Sumter County Farmers Market at Webster, conducted a question and answer forum, and advised on the type of buildings most practical for the new market. He stressed the need of fair dealing with buyers in order to obtain their confidence.

"I think you have the possibilities here for a larger auction market than we have in Webster," he declared, and added that on busy days, lines of trucks more than a mile long, line up at that market.

He suggested that the new market be served by two roads and stated that a long truck shed should be more practical than several smaller ones.

Mr. Rivers told of how the Webster market was started one day when buyers were offering no more than 35 cents a crate, and a grower who was "gilt of tongue" climbed on a box, started an auction, and the growers "did all right" that afternoon. C. W. Turner, office manager of the Webster market, was present with Mr. Rivers.

The regular miscellaneous auction will be held tonight, and on Friday nights until further notice at the Meliweather farm in Givensville.

the bathroom floor, fully dressed, he had propped by a pillow. Dr. Leonard Manning declared upon examination that he had been dead about six hours. No use, therefore was made of an inhalator which had been brought by Fire Chief Cleveland and firemen. Sheriff P. A. Mero and Police Roy G. Williams were present.

Henry Watson was born in Fairplay, N. C. Aug. 18, 1899, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watson. He studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced law in South Carolina before coming to Sanford in 1925 with Knight and MacNeill, fire insurance agents. He then worked for Chester W. Goodrich, owner of the Abstract Company, which he later operated. An abstract attorney, he was a member of the Seminole County Bar Association. Survivors include a brother, W. G. Watson of Charlotte, N. C.; two sisters, Mrs. Thelma Mitchell of Columbia, S. C. and Mrs. Frances Hatcher of Los Angeles, Calif.; and two nieces, Miss Ruth Mitchell of Columbia and Mrs. Tom Reilly of Charlotte.

Mr. Watson had lived alone since the death of his wife, the former Ena Speede, May 19, 1946.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later by the Erickson Funeral Home.

Editor Says Atomic Defenses Not Ready

HARRISBURG, Oct. 6.—(AP)—The president of the Pennsylvania society of newspaper editors warned today that Pennsylvania is not individually in Europe, and our smaller papers are the real salt in journalism."

The American newspaper is suffering from being mass produced, as so many things in the United States are," he concluded.

"I don't like advertising and I don't like your leadership, and the way you do expose cases of power."

"Regardless of your shortcomings, you are the voice of a free country and long may you continue to be such."

Knight said the loss of the American newspaper is due to mass production and mass marketing for mass consumption.

"From the standpoint of the reader," he said, "the smaller newspaper might be wiser to read and handle but under our system of a 40-cent rate need large advertising volume."

"If it were not for 18 or 20 per cent we could not operate except at a loss," he said.

Knight said the Daily News and many American newspapers carry more word news than foreign newspapers.

He said the paper, and especially those in Europe, do not carry "too much word news" about China, Japan, and "divided opinion."

Most American newspapers give political coverage that is fair because they tell both sides, he said.

The editors are meeting under the sponsorship of the American Society of Newspaper Editors and the American Press Institute.

The dinner was given by the headline club of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, and the Chicago Press Club.

Visiting editors included men from France, Australia, Poland, Sweden, Austria, India, Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, Turkey, Japan, and Scotland.

He said the eight-power resolution gives authority for both steps and also assures the men fighting in Korea that the "Assembly supports wholeheartedly the work they are carrying forward."

"After the fighting ends, Austin said, 'the quicker Korea is permitted to live its own life without foreign interference, the better.'"

"We want nothing from Korea. We want no bases there. We do not want to and will not threaten any other country through the temporary presence of American troops in Korea on a United Nations mission."

By a vote of six in favor, 41 against and six abstentions, the Assembly rejected Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jacob A. Malik's request that both North and South Korea be invited to appear before the United Nations as equal parties to the dispute.

Coleman's Single In Last Of 9th Wins 3rd For Yankees

Hammer's 8th Inning Error Allowed The Tying Run To Score For The Yankees

By JACK HAND
YANKEE STADIUM, New York, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Jerry Coleman's single to left center with two out in the last of the ninth gave the straight World Series victory today over the Phillies, 3-2, before 64,505 fans.

Two scratch infield singles by Gene Woodling and Phil Rizzuto after two were out set the stage for Coleman's game-winning blow between Richie Ashburn and Jackie Mayo in left center.

Tom Ferrick, who came in when Eddie Lopat was lifted for a pinch hitter in the ninth, received credit for the win over Russ Meyer, third Phil pitcher. Meyer pitched only the ninth in his first Series appearance.

Coleman, who had only one hit in the previous Yankee victories, collected three off Ken Heintzelman and Meyer, driving in two of the three runs.

The handsome Yankee second baseman scored Rizzuto with the first run of the game in the third. Then after the latter was swung into the ninth, he put over the clincher.

The Phils might have won the game but for a costly error by shortstop Gran Hamner with bases full and two out in the eighth.

It was clear and cool in the stadium when Al Sechler, the famous baseball clown, started to do his tricks before the bleacher mob. Some of the crowd which almost filled the center field seats two hours before game time, had been in line through the night.

There was a good scattering of standing room customers behind the seats in the lower stands and mezzanine. All this was good news to the ball players who cut up the receipts of the first four games.

When the Phils dashed from their dugout, Hamner's error gave the Yankees a "four straight" greeted their fans. This was to be their first look at the big stadium with its 64,505 seats.

Sawyer was confident the stadium seating wouldn't give his boys the lift. All he worried about was getting a few here and there. He clubbed them into the third game with a team batting average of .147.

Watkins led off with a second single to right field to open the game. Then Lopat struck out Ashburn and retired Jones and Fanning on infield rollers.

Heintzelman of the Phillies walked leadoff hitter Rizzuto on four pitches. Coleman tried to pull the hit and run out popped to Hamner. Rizzuto easily was doubled off first. Phil was almost on second when Hamner pitched the ball. It was the Phils first double play.

The veteran left also walked Berry who was left when DiMaggio, yesterday's home run hero, fled to Ennis in short right.

The Phils put the game into a genuine threat in the second when Hamner and Sechler hit successive singles with one out. But Golit grounded weakly to Lopat and Heintzelman sent a slow chop to Johnson.

Heintzelman appeared to have recovered from his wild streak as he returned back the Yankees in order in the second.

Meyer paced into deep right center to save Lopat from trouble on Woodling leadoff blast in the third. The crafty Lopat sneaked a called third strike past Ashburn but gave up a single to Jones, the fourth Phil hit. Ennis popped weakly to Rizzuto.

Heintzelman easily retired Mays and Lopat in the third before he got into trouble by throwing four balls to Rizzuto. It was the second game for Rizzuto, who has yet to see a strike.

Phil scored for second on Heintzelman's first pitch to Coleman. When Sechler's ball threw rolled into short center field Rizzuto advanced to third. Heintzelman struck out on a double play.

Coleman singled to left-center, scoring Rizzuto, but was thrown out trying to stretch it into a double.

For the first time in the ball game, Lopat put down the Phils in order in the fourth. Sechler grounded to Mays, his 11th trip to the plate without a hit. Hamner flied to Mays and Sechler struck out. With one out in the Yankee fourth, DiMaggio popped a single into left field. Heintzelman stranded Joe on first when he made Berry fly to Ennis and got Meyer a bouncer to first.

Heintzelman and Woodling failed to get the ball out of the infield in the fifth.

There were two out in the Yankee fifth before Lopat's single advanced to third. It was a double play when Hamner was batting. Sawyer pitched off first base. Ennis opened the Yankee sixth with a single to left but was thrown out at Heintzelman's

The Phils took a 2-1 edge in the seventh on Hamner's single, a sacrifice bunt by Seminick and Golit's single. It was the first time in the series the Phils had led. The Yankees went down in order again in their half.

Ashburn led off with a right field single in the eighth. He was promptly sacrificed to second by Jones. Ennis flied to DiMaggio and Sechler ended the frame with a pop to Mays. Everybody in the Phil lineup, except pitcher Heintzelman, had at least one hit of the nine off Lopat.

The official attendance was announced at 64,505 and the day's receipts $309,940.35.

Jack Mayo went to left field for the Phils to start the last of the eighth. Lopat was lifted for pinch hitter Gene Woodling who popped to Hamner. Rizzuto homered out. Suddenly Heintzelman lost his control and walked Coleman, Berry and DiMaggio to loaded the bases with two out. He passed the last two without throwing a strike and Sawyer called in Jim Konstanty, his targetted relief ace.

Sechler countered by sending Bobby Brown, a left-handed batter to bat for Bauer. After fouling off three pitches, Brown grounded to Hamner, who fumbled the ball for an error, permitting Coleman to score the tying run.

Jackie Jensen went in to run for Brown. Mays fouled out to Jones to end the inning.

Tom Ferrick came in to pitch for the Yanks starting the ninth. Joe Collins went to first base and Woodling played left. Hamner grounded a double to deep left center. Only DiMaggio's base has been kept off from being a tie. Seminick's bunt sacrifice moved Hamner to unguarded third base. Golit was walked intentionally.

Sawyer called on Dick Whitman to pitch. He pitched to Rizzuto. He chopped the ball to Joe Collins who threw to Berry in time to hit Hamner at the plate for the second out. Watkins flied to Mays in short right for the third out.

Jimmy Woodworth now playing second base, and Russ Meyer pitching for the Phillies.

Mays struck out.

Woodling beat out an infield single to Woodworth who fumbled the tricky thrower.

Woodworth made a diving stop of Rizzuto's line, but could not advance to third. Heintzelman reached second on the single.

Pennsylvania Meets California; Irish Play Purdue In Top Games

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—East meets west and north meets south in a series of intercollegiate football games this weekend which should provide a lot of action as well as a test of strength.

Pennsylvania, a perennial power in the Ivy League, travels clear across the country to clash with California's Rose Bowl eleven and Maryland's rebounding Terrapins visit east Lansing for a crack at the high-flying Spartans of Michigan State.

These two are the standouts of the intercollegiate program and two of the best matches of the loaded schedule.

Pennsylvania, rated 20th in the with a 21-7 victory over Virginia, teed off last Saturday. California, ranked sixth, made it two in a row by belting out Oregon State, 28-7.

Michigan State assured itself of a successful season by knocking off Michigan, 17-7. That came after the Spartans had beaten Oregon State, 38-13. As a result State vaulted into second place behind Notre Dame in the Associated Press' first poll of the season last week.

But the Spartans had letter come out the clouds for Maryland. The Terps were one of the South. They were ambushed by Georgia, 27-7. Then came back to whip Navy's spirited club, 35-21.

On the surface, Notre Dame, Army, the No. 4 team, and Oklahoma, the No. 5 team, shouldn't have too much difficulty increasing their lengthy targetted strings. But they are the targets of every school they meet and an "up" club may send them tumbling.

The Irish, for instance, just squeaked by North Carolina, 14-13.

It was just another game for Notre Dame. For Carolina it was "Operation Big".

Saturday Frank Leahy's last play led to Purdue, a school which usually comes up with its best effort against the Irish. Purdue didn't look last in losing 24-26 to a strong Texas aggregation. Notre Dame has a 49-game unbeaten streak going.

Army displayed a fleet of breakaway backs in leading Colgate, 28-6 for 21-21 on its undefeated parade. Penn State, under new Coach Rip Engle, flattened Georgetown, 34-11, in its opener.

Oklahoma, which ran its winning streak to 22 by conquering Boston College, 28-0, certainly has Texas A. & M. The Aggies have to victory under their belt. They beat Nevada, 48-18, and Texas Tech, 34-15.

Southern Methodist, in the No. 3 spot following its air bombardment of Ohio State's Rose Bowl kings by 33-27, figures in an altered of the intercollegiate joust. The Mustangs hit the road to tangle with useful Missouri. Missouri was clipped, 34-0 by Clemson.

Kentucky, the country's No. 6 team, has a breather in Dayton, Texas, the No. 7 outfit, takes the week off to prepare for Oklahoma State and Washington, No. 10, tiffs with tough UCLA.

Other major intercollegiate titles on the card include Villanova-Miami tonight and the following Saturday selections: Boston College-Mississippi, Louisiana State-Carolina State-Clemson, Tennessee-Duke, Vanderbilt-Alabama, VMI-Birmingham, Virginia-VPI, Washington & Lee-Cornell, and Wake Forest and William and Mary.

Three of the four seeded women's singles players in the Pan-Am tennis tournament have reached today's semifinals.

Top-seeded Beverly Baker, San Francisco, still in the quarter-finals, met yesterday's runner-up, J. Hopkings of Goodhaven, N. Y., who was postponed because of Miss Hopkings' illness. It was Baker who won over Miss Hopkings, it will mean all four seeded players reach the semifinals.

The last Mexican was eliminated yesterday when Annalisa Bossi, the Italian women's singles champion, defeated Maria Ramirez of Mexico 6-1, 6-0. Bossi was seeded third.

Patricia Ganning Todd of Los Angeles, seeded second, defeated Nancy Morrison of New York, 6-3, 6-2. Miss Todd meets Betty Rosenquist of South Orange, N. J., in the semifinals today. Miss Rosenquist defeated Averilla McIntire of San Francisco yesterday 7-6, 6-2.

Two of the four seeded teams already have been eliminated from the men's doubles competition. Only William Talbot of New York City and Tom Brown, Jr., of San Francisco, seeded first, and Arthur Larsen, San Francisco, and Herbert Flam, Beverly Hills, Calif., second seeded, reached the semifinals.

Gators Practice Under Lights For Yellow Jackets

By TED MEHR
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Many persons seem to have overlooked the great defensive play of the Yellow Jackets in Philly for instance. The headlines went Joe DiMaggio's "game-winning home run in the 10th inning. Buried in most stories were Joe's two fielding gems that most certainly forced the game overtime.

The first came in the sixth on Del Ennis' hard smash to right center. It looked like a certain hit until DiMaggio pulled it down over his shoulder near the 400-foot mark partly turned to foot mark running at full speed in the infield.

In the ninth DiMaggio came up with another nifty. With one out Granmy Hamner lined the ball into right center. DiMaggio didn't catch it this time. Instead he scooped the ball up in his gloved hand while sprinting to his left and heaved to second base. Hamner got a double, but for a smart play it would have been at least a triple and maybe the break the Phils have been looking for.

DiMaggio wasn't the only Yankee star in the field. Little Phil Rizzuto at shortstop turned in a feat in the eighth inning that stilled a Phil threat.

With one out and the speedy Heile Ashburn on first, Dick Ennis attempted to sacrifice. Pitcher Alie Reynolds picked up the ball and threw towards second base. For a fleeting second it appeared the throw was going into the hole. But Phil Rizzuto reached out and made a fine catch of the wide throw. He seemed to be falling as he grabbed the ball, but he kept his foot on the bag for a moment.

Second sacker Gerry Coleman and outfielder Hank Bauer also have come up with fine plays and have kept Kennedy's team in the Phils' half of the ninth.

Then, with Hamner on second and Dick Whitman on first, only one out, Reynolds got in the hole with Mike Golit at third ball and one strike. Ed Lehosue unnerve? No, he got the pitch just where he wanted and Golit ran into a double play. Rizzuto to Coleman to Johnny Honn.

The Yankees still have to miscue after 19 innings.

over Tech centers around the passing of Haywood Sullivan who has hit past receivers with 21 of 37 attempts for three touchdowns and ball carriers Floyd Huggins, Sam Osterblud, Buford Long, Jack Nichols and Billy Redell all of whom showed up well in this week's drills.

Particular interest will be centered on the Hatters, who battered the Wofford Terriers last week in a 23 to 20 upset victory to keep their slim clean thus far in two clashes. Their ability to stay hot after being "up" two weeks in a row may be a telling factor in the outcome of the game.

Although Riddled By Injuries Feds Are Expected To Give DeLand Good Fight

The battered and bruised Seminole High School Celery Feds, victims of two defeats in as many starts this season, will play host to the DeLand High School Bulldogs tonight at the Seminole High field.

The contest with kick off slated for 8:15, has the indications of being a thriller from start to finish.

The Feds, although weakened considerably because of injuries, will be trying for revenge of a 14-0 defeat handed them last year by the Bulldogs.

With the loss of Walter Routh from the left tackle position, the left side of the Fed will have been greatly weakened. Routh injured in the Fed-Tiger game, has returned to school but will be lost from the Fed squad for the remainder of the season.

The Fed backfield has also suffered badly because of injuries. To date three of the more promising boys have been put on the injury list. Frankie Stentrom, predicted as one of the conference's leading backfield men earlier in the season, who was also injured in the Tiger-Fed game, is slated to return to the line-up next week. His absence was felt in the Eastville game last week and will undoubtedly be felt tonight.

The DeLand Bulldogs, ably coached by "Spec Martin", have played only one contest this season and were defeated by Palatka 6-0 last Friday night.

The Bulldogs' ground offensive will rely on Charles Manning's 195 pound fullback rated as one of the conference's best ground gainers.

The Fed offensive will be dependent upon the churning of fullback Ed Gordon and the fast and tricky running of Clarence Ennis. Both Gordon and Ennis have shown much ball carrying talent in the two previous games and are expected to continue their showing tonight.

The Fed line is dependent upon Dennis Bass, left end. Both made superb showings against the Gators' eleven last Friday and will be back battling tonight.

Center and Kenneth Gano, one of the best downfield blockers to play for SHS suffered a broken nose in practice this week and will more than likely require a nose guard to play tonight.

The probable starting line-up for tonight's game are as follows:

Better Buy Buick!

PERHAPS you've noticed that there seem to be a lot of these brawny beauties running around on America's highways—and it isn't just that boldly gleaming front that spreads this impression. It isn't just the fact that folks who own a Buick get such a bang out of it that they do a lot of driving. Back of all this is another fact. It's a fact that contains a broad hint to anyone who'd like to know what's what in motorcar buys. 1950 Buicks are breaking all past popularity records, as registered in sales.

So we suggest that you do some personal investigating. Find out, for example, how marvelous you feel, with Firchall power purring away the miles, at a polite touch of your toe on the gas treadle. Find out how the jolts and jars seem to disappear, when you have big soft coil springs on all four wheels, and fat low-pressure tires on wide Safety-Ride rims. Then there's Dynaflow Drive, which Buick owners vote the biggest automotive hit that has come along in years.

With all this, there's room, and comfort, and road-hugging felt combined with a light and willing response to your hand on the wheel—and prices that start down with the size.

Seems like almost everyone wants to own one of these Buicks—and most people can. How about you? Isn't it a smart idea to see your Buick dealer now and get your name on his list?

Only BUICK has Dynaflow—and with it goes HIGHER COMPRESSION and with it goes HIGHER COMPRESSION. Each Buick has a 263 cubic inch V-8 engine. NEW PATTERN 263 engine in 1950 Buicks. NEW PATTERN 263 engine in 1950 Buicks. NEW PATTERN 263 engine in 1950 Buicks. NEW PATTERN 263 engine in 1950 Buicks.

U.S. Proposes Assembly Get Police Power

Soviet Delegation Is In Favor Of Parts Of U. S. Suggestion, Vishinsky Declares

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 9.—(AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky said today Russia favors some points of the sweeping United States program to give the U. N. General Assembly emergency powers to combat aggression.

Vishinsky's surprising statement in the Assembly's Political Committee came after John Foster Dulles, Republican advisor to Secretary of State Acheson, outlined the American program, which calls for standby military forces to back up United Nations Decisions.

The Soviet Foreign Minister did not specify which points of the American proposal he favored. His statement puzzled other delegates. British minister of state Kenneth Younger said:

"It is a fact that the Soviet Union accepts the general outlines we are glad to hear it. It may shorten debate."

The American proposal also is sponsored by Britain, France, Canada, the Philippines, Turkey and Uruguay. It calls for quick emergency sessions of the vetice Security Council when the Security Council cannot act, peace patrols of observers to report to the Assembly on acts of aggression and the designation by U. N. members of specific units in their armed forces to be placed at the disposal of the U. N. in time of crisis.

By a vote of 48 to five with two abstentions, the committee decided on a general debate on the American proposal instead of discussions of individual points. Vishinsky had asked the Soviet Foreign Minister said it would be a more business-like to have such a point-by-point discussion instead.

Court Agrees To Review Of Civil Rights

Supreme Court Also Denies Sen. Taylor Review Of Conviction In Alabama

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The Supreme Court agreed today to review a decision that damage suits may be filed against individual rights accused of violating federal civil rights legislation.

The decision was given by the U. S. circuit court in San Francisco in a case in which members of the Citizens' Council, a Democratic Club of Los Angeles county, sued for damages. The five were accused of breaking up a club meeting at La Crescenta, Calif.

The Supreme Court also denied Senator Taylor (D-Ill.) a review of his conviction on charges of conduct charges in Birmingham, Ala.

Taylor was fined $50 and sentenced to 180 days in jail. The charge resulted from a scuffle Taylor had with Birmingham police May 1, 1948 when the Senator tried to enter a Negro youth meeting through a door marked "No Whites Allowed."

Presently, it will now go up to Alabama to begin any proceedings to enforce the sentence Taylor is now in jail.

In Birmingham, Police Commissioner Eugene Connor said "we are going to send and get him wherever he is, at once."

The city legal department planned to draw up the necessary papers in an effort to bring the Senator to Alabama.

The Supreme Court refused to reconsider a decision requiring Texas to admit a Negro student to the all-white law school of the University of Texas.

The decision was announced last night.

Taylor Not Eager To Return To Alabama

POCAHELLO, Fla., Oct. 9.—(AP)—If the City of Birmingham wants Sen. Glen H. Taylor (D-Ill.) to serve six months in jail it is going to have to wait until it can grab him in Alabama.

And it didn't appear today that Taylor is going back there soon.

"I can get along without going to Alabama," Taylor said after being informed that the United States Supreme Court had refused to review his conviction of disorderly conduct charges in Birmingham. He appeared before a judge today and was fined $50 and sentenced to 180 days in jail.

Asked if he planned to surrender to Birmingham authorities to serve the sentence, Taylor said: "No. I'm not going down there and turn myself over to that chain gang."

The Senator said he will be in Florida until the November Congress reconvenes. He will continue to serve in the Senate until his term expires Jan. 1 Taylor was defeated for re-election by former Sen. D. Worth Clark, also of Pocahellico.

ROKs Put Up Fierce Resistance To Day Against Deep Penetration Of POK Troops Into Communist Korea North Of Seoul

SEOUL, Oct. 9.—(AP)—Red Korea put up fierce resistance today against the deep penetration of POK troops into the port of Wonsan and the first American troops to cross into Communist Korea north of Seoul.

On both widely separated fronts by the Allies officers expected the local Red opposition to crumble quickly.

But the Reds gave no indication that they will heed a new "last time" surrender demand aired by General MacArthur.

The South Koreans (ROKs) may be preparing to turn at Wonsan from their 90-mile northward advance on the Sea of Japan coast and strike west across the waist of the peninsula for the Red capital, Pyongyang, 95 miles ahead.

About 95 miles distant from Pyongyang troops and tanks of the U. S. First Cavalry Division crossed Parallel 38 to regimental strength on the road leading northwest out of Seoul, the ROK capital with Pyongyang as the apparent goal.

The Allied ground fighting forces thus are in position to race for about 95 miles on the westward track, 85 on the northwest push. Such converging drives would aim to strangle the Red government of Kim Il Sung in its home base.

A first battle raged for the big industrial port of Wonsan.

AP correspondent William Jordan, with the South Koreans, said they expected to crack into the city by Tuesday morning.

The heavy fighting at Wonsan and northwest of Seoul was the first major show of Red resistance since South Koreans crossed the border Oct. 1.

AP correspondent William J. Waugh, with U. S. First Cavalry units, who crossed Monday night, estimated the Red force at

Austrian Pianist Held For Joining Nazi Jugend At 10

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—(AP)—Frank Gold, a 30-year-old pianist, was held today by the New York Security Agency.

The reason for his detention, it was said, was that Gold joined the Hitler Youth organization at age 10.

The new law passed last year authorized the FBI to investigate members of foreign espionage movements.

After Gold's detention, FBI ward J. Shughnessy and a large number of Italian citizens are to be interviewed on the issue of Gold and that under the law he would be held.
