

'New Wrinkles' Abound In Toys

Science and the affluent society have been the biggest contributors of ideas for new and exciting toys this year. Notable in the new playthings are the variety of advanced designs of rockets, U-2 planes and luxury model sports racers, all in modestly priced play replicas.

Auto racing abounds with new wrinkles to add to the excitement of this game-room sport. Switch lane action dependent on speeds is a new development. A slot-lock system permits cars to spin and slide. Biggest layout is an 88 piece tri-level set. Among the new elaborations of racing setups is a phonograph record of racing sound-effects.

For the boy who has everything there are 11 car garages to house the variety of new foreign sports racers. If Dad has just purchased or is eyeing a new power-mower, select the toyland counterpart in power mowers.

For dog and horse lovers there are kennel trucks and horse-vans equipped with vista-dome roof designs, a true luxury in trucking play.

National defense has inspired a wide variety of new play equipment. A new missile launcher truck of heavy gauge steel exactly reproduces U. S. Army models and has a searchlight truck companion piece, also with clear plastic roof.

There are guerrilla warfare astronauts' suits and first-aid battle kits. An ingenious new gun design transforms into a series of seven weapons. The anniversary of World War II has inspired some historical designs and GI Joe is reported to be giving the cowboy a run for popularity honors.

Also new in the science sector of toyland is a breathing man who illustrates the ill effects of smoking! And for would-be doctors there's a new microprojector for tracing out lines of specimens and an operating stereoscope.

Mistletoe Seen As 'Powerful'

Many of the things that symbolize Christmas to us have a fascinating story — and often a very ancient one. Bells, holly, candles, and stars have been revered through the ages. Some are pagan in origin, some Christian. Today, all have melded to give a special meaning to our celebration.

To the millions of women who treasure charm bracelets, the addition of a new dangle is a Christmas tradition.

For example, did you know that mistletoe is considered powerful, as well as fun? It's supposed to ward off toothache and witches! Because it is a parasite, growing in tree branches and never touching the ground, it was considered to draw strength from heaven. Traditionally, for every kiss stolen under the mistletoe, a gentleman is duty bound to remove one berry. When the berries are gone, so are the kissing privileges. It is suggested, however, that this custom be overlooked with their mistletoe charm; the berries are cultured pearls.

Bells are important because they summon the faithful to worship. Often they are blessed and given saints' names. It is said that a bell lost at sea will ring from its watery depths just once a year — on Christmas Eve.

Candy canes? They are a bit hard to trace. However, tradition demands that children be given enough hard candy to last through the twelve days of Christmas. Probably the candy was put into cane form so that it could decorate the tree while finally comes the Christmas tree, the most popular of all.

Now You Know

United Press International The total brightness of the moon is calculated as about equal to a 100 candlepower lamp at a distance of 66 feet, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

It has been estimated that there are more than 30,000 airline flights in the U.S. daily.

7-County Boom Seen

By Julian Stenstrom
"Except for Brevard County," said Robert Doyle, executive director of the East Central Florida Regional Planning Council, "Seminole County will experience the highest percentage of population growth in the seven counties comprising this section of Florida."

This was part of brief resume presented to Seminole County Commissioners today during their regular meeting at the Courthouse.
Doyle's figures, obtained from preliminary reports by various consultants, indicate that this county's population will zoom to 155,000 by 1980. "That's just 15 years away," said Doyle, "and it's not a long time when you consider that activities at the Cape began just 15 years ago."

Doyle declared that Brevard County will undergo the largest population explosion since the survey indicates that county's numerical growth will rise from its present 175,000 to 410,000 by 1980.
Populationwise, the seven-county area's population will hit the astronomical figure of 1.6 million by 1980. "This," he added, "will almost double the present population."

Doyle said that a complete inventory of all public and private utilities in this region has been made and immediate indications are that there are far too few to adequately serve the present population much less that anticipated in the next few years.
"Airports," he declared, "are not well located, according to surveys and contacts with Eastern, Delta and National airlines." As to highways, "Standards are being very closely studied," Doyle claimed, especially in view of the site of the proposed university and the highway connections which will be required. "Further," said Doyle, "we are giving close attention to a new trend, that of putting research and industrial area right on university campuses."

In the field of economics, Doyle pointed out "By 1980 the east central Florida region will be the richest market area in Florida. It will have the highest per capita income," he stressed. "Brevard County is listed along the 16 richest counties in the United States."
"The type of industry we are attracting to this region is what areas through the country are trying to get," Doyle claimed. "We are and will be getting people with more than average incomes and that means we must also be prepared to meet the problems of more schools, more police and fire protection, and additional services these people will require."

According to the committee, once the port authority is established the board would immediately seek to locate the terminal and arrange finances for its construction.
Groundwork for the enabling act has been under way throughout the current year. Members of the chamber's port committee visited ports in both Florida and Georgia, named consultants, sifted through the maze of reports, and the recommendations of the inter-county waterways and today obtained the County Commission's official blessings.

Doyle listed "the preservation of the St. Johns River basin because one of the major reasons why people are coming into this section is because of the climate and the recreational facilities and this is the basic reason why we have all this potential today. Already," he added, "inroads are being made into our physical environment."
"In agriculture," he said, "we're working on a feasible program in the three counties which will bear the brunt of the population increase — Seminole, Orange and Brevard — to protect our citrus industry as well as water conservation because it's here we have our basic water recharge area."

Doyle thanked the Commissioners, especially Gen. J. C. Hutchinson and Chairman James P. Avery, for their cooperation with the Council during the past several years. Hutchinson and Avery will leave office on Jan. 5.

Blake Paints To Relocate In Sanford

By Harry I. Johnson
Sanford and Seminole County got an early Christmas gift yesterday when announcement was made that Blake Paint Corporation is moving to this area from Orlando.

The firm will locate its facilities in a building off Grapeville Avenue (SR 425) and an Atlantic Coast Line Railroad siding.
Blake Paint will have about 15 employees at the start with others expected to be hired as the plant expands its operations. It makes lacquers, synthetics and industrial paints.
"The plant will occupy a 20,000-square-foot area and will have 400 feet of railroad siding. Target date for work to begin is Feb. 1."

Renovation of the structure will be handled by the LeRoy Robb Construction Company, and Sanford Electric Company will wire the plant to fill the company's needs.
Papers for the industrial switch were signed yesterday afternoon at the Florida State Bank conference room.

The new industry was bought here through the cooperation of Sanford's three financial institutions and the Sanford-Seminole Development Company.
John Krider, executive manager of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce, represented the development company in negotiations. The local finance institutions participating were Florida State, Sanford Atlantic National Bank and First Federal Savings and Loan Association.
W. B. Blake is president of the company and Mrs. Marilyn L. Blake is vice president. Atty. Stuart Smith represented the Blakes in the transaction and Atty. Joe Davis the development firm.

Bryant Looks To The Future

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Farris Bryant, Finance Ed Ball and other state political figures have applied to State Treasurer J. Edwin Larson for authority to organize a multi-million dollar life insurance company.

The license for the company has been delayed because the organizers did not list the names of officials who will run the new company.
The letter of application, signed by Ray W. Richardson Jr. of Jacksonville, who will become one of Bryant's law partners when the governor leaves office Jan. 5, said the corporation would be run by the regional heads of two large life insurance companies but he did not give their names.

Coroner's Jury Gives Verdict

A coroner's jury convened for more than two hours last night and returned a verdict of "self-inflicted gunshot wounds" in the death of James H. Hall.
Mr. Hall was found dead in his store on French Avenue Dec. 9. Last night's jury was summoned by Coroner W. Hugh Duncan to hear evidence in the case.

TV Stolen

Theft of a television set from the Melodie Skating rink is being investigated by the sheriff's office. Deputies said the thief pried open a door to enter the building sometime over the weekend.

Pacific Coast Towns Hit By Raging Floods

By United Press
Drenching rains and gales caused the worst floods in years along the Pacific Coast today.
Entire towns were evacuated and houses were swept away by the raging waters.
Residents of California's Red River Canyon said the degree was worse than the disastrous floods of 1955. Hundreds of cargoes were evacuated from the area.
One town sank under five feet of water.
Flood waters chewed supporting earth from the roots of the canyon's famed red wood trees and many of the stumps were likely to topple.
Gales whipped the Columbia River into waves which pounded Astoria Ore., washing out two railroad sections of rail, collapsing two docks, sinking one barge and capsizing another.

Loops flooded over a main highway near Toms Bay. One car was overturned and several motorists were killed.
The storm was blamed for at least two deaths in Oregon, as winter's first full day vented a fury of rain and winds mixed with heavy snow in central Washington and the Sierra, Cascade and Rocky mountains.

The rains rode 50 miles an hour winds off the ocean into northern California and Oregon. Highways were cut off and homes flooded by run away rivers.

Control Board Member Quits
FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — State Board of Control member Dr. Charles Foran has written Gov. Farris Bryant and asked that he not be considered as a member of the state's new Board of Regents.

Foran said in the letter he did not want to serve as a regent because he is opposed to Gov. elect Hayden Burns.
His duties as a member of the Broward County School Board were requiring most of his time. Foran said in the letter and told Bryant he could not adequately serve as a regent.

New Warplane Flight Perfect
FORT WORTH (UPI) — The first TEX, a warplane that started some political wars of its own, zoomed to 15,000 feet in its maiden flight Monday. The test, although cut short by mechanical troubles, was called "practically perfect."
"I am a happy fellow," said Air Force Secretary Eugene Zuckert after the test flight.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Joseph (Joe) Bonanno's allegedly kidnaped Mafia chief, failed Monday to come out of hiding and appear before a federal grand jury as his lawyer promised he would.

The lawyer, William P. Maloney, appearing surprised and shaken by Bonanno's continued absence, went before the grand jury himself for 75 minutes.

Local Schools Roll Up 6.48%

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Eleven counties that have experienced school enrollment increases of more than five per cent above last year were given additional state school funds totaling $1,363,704 today.

The biggest growth came in Howard County, site of the national music test center at Cape Kennedy. The enrollment there jumped 11.2 per cent over the expected five per cent increase, entitling the county to an additional $774,298.

Other redistribution funds and rate of increase above five per cent included Seminole 1.8 per cent, $37,729.

Grim Warning For Holiday

CHICAGO (UPI) — The National Safety Council said today between 550 and 650 persons would be killed in traffic accidents during the Christmas holiday weekend.
The holiday officially starts at 6 p.m. local time Thursday and ends at midnight Sunday.
Howard Pyle, president of the safety council, said this year's production took into account the 10 per cent rise in traffic fatalities since 1963.
The record for a three-day Christmas holiday, such as this year, was set in 1955 when 609 traffic deaths were reported during last year's one-day holiday, 226 persons were killed on the nation's highways.

Pyle said that during a normal three-day non-holiday period at this time of the year about 450 persons would die in traffic accidents.

Orlando Firm Wins Contract

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — An Orlando company will build a $1.51 million training building for lunar astronaut, the Army Corps of Engineers announced today.
The contract was awarded to Smith & Sapp Construction Company, with completion set for November.
The building will be used to provide simulator training for the Apollo spacecraft's command and lunar excursion modules. It will be located near the manned spacecraft operations building in the industrial complex.

Conservatives Organize

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A new organization to help conservatives win political office has been set up by a group of prominent figures, mostly supporters of Sen. Barry M. Goldwater.

Outgoing Rep. Donald C. Bruce (R-Ind.) is chairman of the organization, the American Conservative Union (ACU). Bruce, who has one of the most conservative voting records in Congress, did not seek re-election after an unsuccessful primary bid for a Senate seat.

Vice chairman of the 17-man board of directors is Rep. John M. Ashbrook (R-Ohio) and the secretary is Robert E. Bauman, director of the Young Americans for Freedom, which backed Goldwater in the presidential election.

Other members of the board include Editor William F. Buckley Jr. of the National Review; author-lecturer Brent Bozell; columnist John Chamberlain; editor John Davenport of Fortune magazine and Rep. Katherine St. George (R-N.Y.), who was defeated for re-election.

The organization was formed at a closed meeting here last weekend.

Bruce told United Press International that the first session was unpublished because members wanted "to speak freely and without inhibitions about the form and organization of the union."

Bruce said the organization considered whether members of the John Birch Society should be permitted to serve on the union's board of directors.

Although he did say what stand was taken on the issue, he indicated it would be "incompatible" with the aims of the union for a Birch member to serve on the board.

"Let me emphasize that there is no interlocking relationship between the union and the Birch Society," he said.

The Indiana congressman said the aims of the union would be to:

- Achieve consolidation of the strength of the conservative movement through unified leadership and action.
- Hold public opinion for the acceptance of conservative ideas and proposals based on thorough research.
- Stimulate and direct responsible political action on behalf of conservative candidates for offices at all levels.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH of Geneva presented its annual Christmas program Sunday evening. Scripture readings by Rev. W. M. Grogan, pastor, were followed by the choir singing Christmas Hymns under direction of Oliver Mathews. Throughout the entire service, the Nativity Scene was presented by young people of the church who were, from left, Wade Stevens and Charles and George Glaiser, shepherds; Larry Brady, Joseph; Penny Glaiser, Mary; and Gail Burleson and Ruth Ann Steele, angels.

'A Little Luck' Required For Rocket Shot

HOUSTON (UPI) — High speed movies of a Gemini test firing that flizzed make the rocket's failure "less of a problem" than it looked like at first.

But a spokesman for the federal space agency admitted that "a little luck" will be required to get the rocket shot off from Cape Kennedy in January. Even if it succeeds, it will be 17 months behind schedule.

Scientists have to send the 7,000-pound capsule and a Titan-2 booster rocket on a crucial, 2,150-mile "up and down" flight before America launches two men on the orbital mission that will open the second generation Gemini program.

Informed sources say the manned flight probably will not be tried before May—two years after L. Gordon Cooper Jr. made his 229-orbit Mercury voyage, the last American orbital mission.

This means that most hope is gone for the United States to launch the four-manned Gemini missions originally scheduled for 1965. The four flights would have totaled some 600 man-hours in space.

SNAS 'All Out' For Holiday

Sanford Naval Air Station in keeping with past years is going all out again this year with Christmas dinner.

For the sailors and Marines who will not be able to go home for the holiday season, it will be a choice between roast beef and turkey for the main course.

Also in keeping with the season, fruit cake, pumpkin pie, minced meat pie and hard candy will be featured for dessert.

The menu includes tomato soup, saltines, corn bread dressing, mashed potatoes, giblet gravy, green peas, corn, cranberry sauce, salad, stuffed celery, sweet pickles, assorted olives, fruit cups, hot rolls, assorted breads, ice cream coffee, tea, milk and mixed nuts.

Many Navy personnel are expected to take their dependents and guests to the station's general mess for dinner in accordance with Navy custom.

Burch Confident Will Keep Job

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican National Chairman Dan Burch, battling to hold his job, claims he already has landed up all but two of the votes he needs on the GOP National Committee.

Burch met with newspapermen briefly after conferring with Sen. Barry M. Goldwater Rep. William E. Miller and other Republican leaders at Goldwater's Washington apartment.

He said he "certainly hoped" he could survive a showdown over his chairmanship at the 1st 22 national committee meeting in Chicago.

He said he "felt he had 18 of the 17 committee votes he needs to survive the contest now, with another 3 to 10 votes 'available.' There are 112 members of the committee.

Burch said he and Goldwater "didn't get into a head count" of committee votes they felt they could count on for support.

"I certainly hope I could survive a showdown vote," he added.

The general chairman said he was working on a letter to

By Maryann Miles
 The Bear Lake Elementary School fifth and sixth grade Gray Y team won the Northeast Championship Football Award presented at a banquet held at Edgewater High School with 53 local boys and their fathers in attendance.

Of the overall 600 men and boys attending from 14 other area schools, the Bear Lake club had the largest representation along with the distinction of receiving the only Sportsmanship Award given at this time. It also lacked only one point to receive the Branch Football Award which went to the Fern Creek School.

Football certificates were awarded to each of the boys. The Gray Y's practice every Wednesday afternoon after school and on Saturdays the team meets other schools in competitive games. Following last week's practice, the Tri Gray Y girls, under supervision of Miss Nan Comstock, entertained at a victory party for the boys and served refreshments of cake, cookies and soft drinks.

DeBary To Have Party Today

By Mrs. John Leone
The DeBary Civic Association will sponsor a Christmas Party at 7:30 p.m. today in the Community Center.
A special program of music will be presented by an 80-voice combined choir of the First Baptist, Community Methodist and First Presbyterian Churches under direction of Ethel Bertsch with Laura Platt Brown at the piano and Frank Woodruff at the organ. The DeBary Choralists will sing with Mrs. Brown directing accompanied by Theresa Kuzec at the piano.
Soloists will be Robert N. McGee, Isabel Reavick, Beatrice Muller and Margaret Lakeman. Accompanying will be Barbara Bellent.
Santa Claus will be at the party and everyone is invited to attend.

Good Shepherd Sets Service

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church of Sanford will have a Christmas Eve Candlelight Service beginning at 11 p.m. Rev. J. Gordon Peery, pastor, has announced that his sermon topic will be "God's Christmas Gift."
The church's choir will be featured in a program of Christmas Hymns.
Invitation to the public to attend this inspirational service has been extended by Rev. Peery.

Jap Fishermen Feared Drowned

HAKODATE, Japan (UPI) — Nine fishermen were feared drowned in stormy, snow-swept seas off Matsumae in southern Hokkaido, the northernmost of Japan's four major islands.
An empty lifeboat and fish containers from the 75-ton fish transport vessel Kikkō Maru No. 3 were found floating in the waters off Matsumae.

State Trooper Accidentally Kills Escapee

LIVE OAK (UPI) — A state trooper's pistol discharged and killed a man identified as an escaped mental patient as the two struggled over the weapon near here, the sheriff reported.

Residents of the area had complained that the victim, Kenneth Lee Miller, was beside U.S. 90, 10 miles east of here, beating his head against the ground, said sheriff Duke McCallister.

The sheriff said Trooper C. L. Tompkins was the first to arrive on the scene and Miller tried to grab the pistol from the officer's holster.

A bullet was accidentally fired, striking Miller in the neck and killing him instantly. A coroner's jury cleared Tompkins of guilt.

The sheriff said a relative of Miller told him the man had escaped from a veterans hospital in Tuscaloosa, Ala., where he was a mental patient.

Winsome Class Enjoys Party

By Frances Wester

The Winsome Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church of Lake Mary enjoyed a Christmas party given by their teacher, Mrs. Harley Wilhelm, in the Westmoreland Wing of the church, which was gayly decorated in keeping with the Christmas Season.

Devotions were offered by Mrs. Wilhelm. The group had a carol sing and testimony service around a dimly lit tree which held the Little Moon Christmas Offering Envelopes.

Refreshments of cookies, candy, brownies, punch, and coffee were served by the hostesses to Rev. and Mrs. V. C. Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Wilkerson, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scallan, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Isbell, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hamm, Mrs. Richard Stout and Harley Wilhelm.

Santa Visits North Orlando

My Margaret Cooby

On Sunday's bright and beautifully sunny afternoon, with hordes of little ones waiting and parents beaming at the excitement, Santa Claus arrived with his package of goodies by fire truck in North Orlando. He was accompanied by the North Orlando Police Car which heralded his arrival with sirens blaring. As Santa approached a crowd of anticipation and delight arose from the young admirers.

Very patiently and orderly the some 100 boys and girls waited their turn to talk with Santa and receive their goodies. Some were so full of excitement they cried after their visit with old St. Nick. Innocent 18-month-old Denise Duquette, in her red and white Christmas dress, ignored the queue of youngsters and toddled right up to Santa, reached out her chubby little hands for him, and had the nicest chat with the droll old man with the long white beard.

After Santa passes through with his sleigh and reindeer on December 25, it will be another year before he returns to North Orlando. Adults and children alike will be looking forward to his arrival for it is the true spirit of Christmas revealed in the joy and sincerity of our little ones.

Yule Tea Fetes Oviedo Garden Club

By Evelyn Lundy
The lovely home of Mrs. T. H. Ryan in Oviedo was the scene of the traditional tea given by the Oviedo Garden Club.

The handsome gold wreath on the front door and many attractive arrangements throughout the house carried out the Christmas theme.

Before the tea, the guests were delighted to be given a tour of the beautiful grounds of the Ryan home featuring a garden of strawberry plants and a little red wagon with pots of mammoth tomato plants, with the wagon used to roll the plants into the sunshine. Enormous roses of every description (this is a hobby of Mr. Ryan) were seen.

Each guest brought a gift for a shut-in and also one for the gift exchange.

The tea table in the dining room was covered with a white linen cloth and the centerpiece was a snow white tree with colored lights, flanked by hurricane lamps with red candles. Party sandwiches, fruit cake, decorated cookies, brownies, nuts and mints, tea and coffee were served.

After the delightful tea, gifts were given to each member; these gifts were either plants or some article pertaining to gardening.

Mrs. Hubert Ray, chairman of the home lighting contest committee announced that merchants in the downtown area would be contacted to see if they wished to participate in the contest. Mrs. Ray also said that judges had been chosen but their names would be disclosed later. Judging will be Dec. 27, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Ryan for the lovely tea were Mrs. Aubrey Myers and Mrs. Vera Bell.

Others present were Mrs. G. S. Moon, Mrs. Thomas Moon, Mrs. C. T. Niblack, Mrs. Lynn Mosier, Mrs. C. R. Clonts, Mrs. R. F. King, Miss Terri

Lynn, Mrs. J. R. Battle, Mrs. son, Mrs. John Ridenour, Mrs. Mrs. T. L. Lingo Sr. and John Lundy, Miss Ruth David- A. H. Ray, Mrs. Lee Gary, Mrs. Paul Slavik.

Oviedo HD Club Members Enjoy Yule Luncheon

By Evelyn Lundy
A very festive luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Daniell in Winter Park, Monday, December 14.

Her lovely home was decorated throughout with attractive Christmas arrangements. A delicious buffet turkey luncheon was served from a table covered with a bright Christmas table cloth. Tables were set up in the Florida room and each one was covered with a gay Christmas cloth.

After the luncheon, gifts were distributed by Mrs. W. T. Carter, Chairman, from a handsome lighted tree.

Guests enjoying this delightful affair were: Mrs. W. T. Carter, Mrs. Ruth Daniell, Mrs. Miriam Hartman, Mrs. Inga Gutaus, Mrs. Alma Applegate, Mrs. Lynn Mosier, Miss Myrtle Wilson, Miss Ruth Davidson, Miss Jody Michael, Mrs. Harold Barnes, Mrs. Jim Michael, Mrs. John Lundy and Mrs. J. R. Battle.

After the gift exchange, Miss Wilson showed some most interesting slides on ways to use colors in the home and various decorating ideas.

The Oaks Garden Club held its Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. James E. Wagner at 101 Park Lane in Glen Arden Thursday Dec. 17th.

A brief business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Earl Donaldson, president, and drawings for gifts made by each member was held. Many beautiful Xmas creations were exchanged.

Mrs. Robert McFadden was co-hostess and contributed the lovely floral table decoration of assorted mums.

An assortment of cookies, coffee cake and coffee was served by the hostess with Mrs. Berl Chapman assisting.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gary F. Sowers, 1690 Druid Road in Maitland at 9:30 am. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Beverly Silbey.

Woman's Club Scene Of Festive Card Party

Decorative pine and holly created a festive atmosphere at the Sanford Women's Club recently when the Social Department entertained with a dessert bridge and canasta party.

Hostesses were Mrs. Roy Tillis and Mrs. W. B. Brinson. High bridge prize was won by Mrs. Guy Ross with Mrs. W. B. Brinson winning second high.

Screeno was won by Mrs. M. E. Baker and Mrs. H. Wade Rucker.

Musical Christmas Pageant Presented At WSCS Meet

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Grace Methodist Church met at the church recently for the December meeting.

The president, Mrs. C. E. Williams, conducted a brief business meeting with the results of the recent bakeless sale reported. It was announced that the proceeds from the sale would benefit Ladipur Institute, a boys school in India.

An invitation was extended to hear the noted E. Stanley Jones at Winter Park in January, with plans announced at a later date to attend in a group.

A most inspiring program entitled "The Christmas Story in Scripture and Song" was presented by Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. James Griffin, Mrs. John Hillis and Mrs. Roy Wall with Mrs. Robert Bennett accompanying the solos and choral readings.

Climaxing the service was the presentation of gifts at the altar for the benefit of the church nursery.

Hostesses for the fellowship hour were Mrs. Jim Leonard, Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. J. E. Smith. Others enjoying the lovely Christmas decor and delicious holiday refreshments were the Mes. Wayne Thompson, Harry Klay, J. H. Powell, Alvera Kelly, F. J. Murray, Roger Harris and John Williams. Also the Mes. Jack Rossman, J. B. Crawford, Charles Clemmer, Andy Crocker, Russ Kliner, Karl Fehd and guest, Mrs. Betty Greenfield.

Members are reminded that a covered dish luncheon will be held at the January meeting at the church.

The Hendersons Honor Guests On Anniversary

By Mrs. Ritchie Harris
Mr. and Mrs. Chester Henderson celebrated their 32nd wedding anniversary Thursday with a luncheon given by Mrs. Elmer Staigler of Maitland at the New Creighton's Garden Restaurant in the Winter Park Mall. Their daughter, Mrs. Andre Ayles, also joined them for the luncheon.

The Hendersons were guests of honor at a dinner party given by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andre Ayles, at their new home in Altamonte Springs Thursday evening.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Davis and son, Richard, of Daytona Beach, Mr. and Mrs. George Smedley of Orlando, Howard Henderson of Enterprise and Sandy Meltride of DeLand.

Miss Jackie McClain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McClain of Triplet Drive, left Saturday afternoon by train for Harrisburg, Pa., where she will spend her two weeks Christmas vacation with her girl friend, Debbie Deckman. Jackie hopes to enjoy a "white Christmas," but just before she left for the north she took a quick dip in a friend's pool in order to brag a little about our warm Florida weather.

She is a junior at Lyman High School and is an apprentice dance instructor with Royal School of Dance.

Miss Darlene Shea, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Darwin Shea of North Triplet Drive, arrived home Thursday night from Emory, Va., where she is a student at Emory and Henry College, majoring in Music and English.

Her seven-year-old brother, Roger, who recently underwent emergency surgery at Winter Park Memorial Hospital returned home on Saturday and is recuperating nicely.

PLASTIC PENOLOGY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Plastic surgeons at Montefiore Hospital in New York will remove tattoos and scars from a group of prisoners in the hope that this will help prevent them from returning to a life of crime.

The work is part of a research project supported by the Vocational Rehabilitation Administration, a unit of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The researchers believe that in some cases, when an individual considers his physical appearance unacceptable to others, his behavior may as a result also be abnormal, sometimes leading to criminal acts.

Last-Minute Gifts Show Personal Preference

End-of-the-ropes Christmas shopping does little to soothe a husband's or boy friend's spleen. If you are male and hung up on what to get your favorite girl, consider cosmetics.

Executives, too, take heed. Certain beauty gifts solve your office shopping needs. Although personal, you can give lipsticks, perfumes and fun hair clips or barrettes without it being fodder for the office gossip.

Approach the cosmetics counter with confidence. Be prepared. Bernice Stern, a perfume company executive offers these timely tips:

Don't be afraid to spy. If possible, check out the beauty items your wife keeps on her dressing table or what your secretary tucks in her handbag and uses at the office. You'll be a special angel if you surprise her with a de-luxure version of something she uses often, such as a 14-karat lipstick brush.

of her skin, her hair and her salesclerk direct you to the shades needed.

Be avant-garde. This is a time to be jolly. Why not give false eyelashes, brush-on eyebrows, brush-on blushers, a gift certificate for a wig or wiglet? Chances are your woman has been wanting to try one or more of them.

Buy her a status symbol. Certain perfumes are "in." These include Cabochard, Chypre de Coty, Chant d'Aromes, Le De Givenchy, Balmain's Jolie Madame, Carven's Ma Griffe, Parfums Revillon and Fete by Holyneux. Check her beauty salon.

Any woman would appreciate a gift of six months of free haircuts, facials, make-up lessons or a massage.

The choice is broad. Why be static in your gift-giving?

Annual Christmas Program Entertains DeBary Women

By Mrs. John Leone

The DeBary Woman's Club held the Christmas meeting Friday, Dec. 18, at the DeBary Community Center.

Mrs. Charles Ulrich presided and welcomed the members and guests.

Mrs. R. Fisher gave the invocation, followed by the salute to the flag.

Mrs. Chester Bearick gave a resume of the activities of the Florida Federation of Art Convention held recently at the Community Center.

The month of February is set as Florida Federation of Art Day at Cypress Gardens and artists from the area are asked to submit pictures and attend a "Paintnik" at the Gardens. Smocks and berets will be the official dress for the day.

A trip to Nassau by members of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs is being planned, so contact Mrs. Ulrich if you intend to go.

Reports were heard from the various secretaries and chairmen. The Music Department will hold an afternoon of popular music at the home of Mrs. Harry F. Brown (Laural) on Alcantar Drive, Jan. 8 at 2 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Ewald Michelsen gave a reading for the literature and drama department about St. Augustine, relating to how the first Christmas celebration was held in Florida. The Spanish brought many of the old world festivities with them when they settled along the shores of Florida with the palm tree being the symbol of decorations, even at the birth of Christ. There is no known true date of the first Christmas on American soil, but many believe it to be around 1539.

Mrs. Harry F. Brown introduced Mrs. H. C. Eichelberger, soprano, of Sanford, who presented a varied selection of Christmas music, accompanied by the piano by Mrs. Brown.

A table overflowing with gifts for the Sunland Infirmary will be set out for the children in time for the holidays, reported Mrs. Sidney Swallow, chairman.

Refreshments and a social hour followed. The buffet tables were overlaid with an antique lace cloth, centered with an old iron-wrought centerpiece flanked by tall red candles in crystal holders. Trays of cakes, cookies, nuts and minis with the silver tea and coffee service complemented the tables.

There were no new members, but three guests were present.

Miss Beatrice J. Tyson, who donates the Christmas tree each year, was given a rising vote of thanks from the club members.

A HOLIDAY HOOTENANNY — What's Christmas without a Hootenanny if there's a teenager in the house? Consider giving your young folksinger a guitar for Christmas. Guitars now rank first among all musical instruments in popularity.

Frozen Guacamole Avacado Salad New On Market

Guacamole, a frozen avocado salad from Florida, will soon be appearing in supermarkets across the country.

Marketing specialists with the Florida Agricultural Extension say this guacamole is being introduced on a fairly large scale in the United States. Jet air-freight and improved handling practices have made this possible, specialists say.

Extension home economists say that guacamole is made with ripe Florida avocados, tomatoes, onion, a tablespoon of lemon juice or vinegar, and salt to taste. The avocados are mashed and the other ingredients added.

Served on shredded lettuce, guacamole makes a gourmet salad.

Slippery Roads, Holiday Spirits Spell Trouble

Take any intersection, add winter driving conditions, stir in exuberant holiday mood and spirits and you've got a recipe that spells dangerous trouble.

"Holiday Mood" can be defined as pre-occupation with the social whirl, or as the glow of "holiday spirits." There is no minimizing of danger from intersection accidents. You can avoid intersection accidents by being alert, which means, not to mix alcohol if driving.

4% of all accidents in urban areas happen at intersections. Reduced visibility, and reduced traction, are the main bugaboos of winter driving.

says the Safe Winter Driving League. The League distributes information on how to avoid winter driving hazards.

Winter weather makes it even more difficult to find guiding street names on the signs at intersections. Los Angeles is reducing accidents by posting name signs half a block ahead of the street.

Drivers don't have to take their eyes off their driving as they approach intersections. Darkness compounds the sighting of street signs. Other cities, including Los Angeles, are installing reflective signs that glow brilliantly in headlights.

Traction on snow or ice increases with either snow tires or chains. With snow tires on 80 m.p.h. you still need 892 feet to stop. But, chains will stop you in 173 feet.

However, some people don't like the clunk-clunk of chains on dry portions of the street. If you're one of them, then you've got to be extra cautious and proceed at snail's pace, if necessary.

As for the dangar "ingredient" holiday spirits, keep your exuberance at a safe medium. The old rule of "if you're driving, don't drink . . . if you're drinking, don't drive" still holds good.

This holiday, be safe, not sorry. Live to enjoy a very happy New Year!

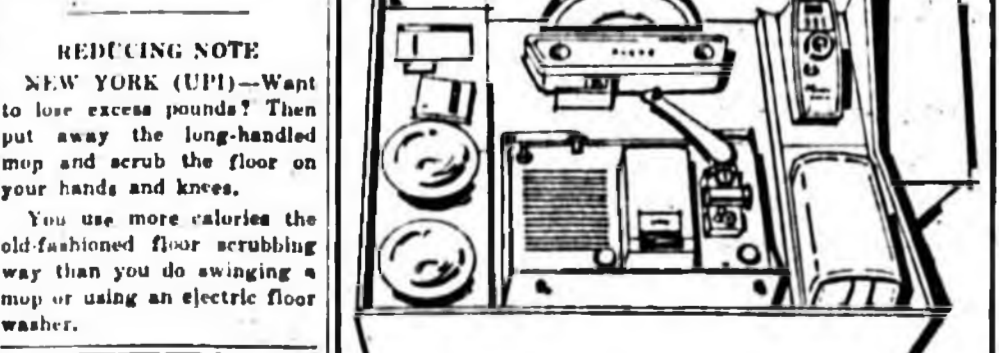

KNITS FOR HOLIDAY EVENINGS—Glitter in knits takes the stage for the holidays. Tycora intertwined with gold and silver provides feather lightness and drapability in these two designs. Topping a sleeveless sheath, three-quarter coat (left) is in gold and silver on a black background. Two-color tile pattern in pastel and metallic gives dimension to the simple Grecian-inspired gown (right). These are by Caladoma.

Cops & Robbers, Monkeys Too In Comedy Of Error

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—It was just like a two-reel comedy but nobody passed out Academy Awards. Everyone was too busy laughing.

The participants were two bumbling bandits, a pet monkey, a pair of little girls and police from four towns in a cops-and-robbers chase that wound up in a maternity ward.

Today, the bandits were behind bars, the monkey was being cared for by the Humane Society, the little girls were put in a home for dependent children and the police were still writing their reports.

The comedy of errors started when a man entered the suburban Brookfield National Bank, pushed a cardboard portfolio at a woman bank teller and said "give me everything." She gave him $1,900.

David Reddemann, cashier at the bank, raced outside, saw a red panel truck driving off at high speed. Reddemann, got in his own car and gave chase.

Change Vehicles
Two blocks away the bandits halted the truck, jumped into a parked car and sped away again. The money was blowing all over the ground.

Reddemann followed the car onto the freeway system leading to Milwaukee. When Reddemann saw a state patrol officer, he pulled alongside the bandit's car and side-swiped it to the shoulder.

The officer had stopped earlier to check a stalled dump truck. He didn't know whether to believe the suspect's story of "he hit us" or Reddemann's about that they had just robbed a bank.

The officer believed Reddemann's story when one of the bandits whipped out a gun and disarmed him.

Reddemann and the patrolman, Ronald W. Stock, were forced into the getaway car which also contained two small girls and a monkey.

Talk was the only weapon Stock had, and he used it well, persuading the robbers they were liable to be charged with kidnaping. When they reached a shopping center, the two hostages were shoved from the car.

Heard Reports
Meanwhile, motel owner Fran Burany heard the first radio reports of the robbery and remembered that some customers who checked out earlier in the day behaved in an unusual manner. A woman who was with the men was later taken to a Milwaukee hospital's maternity ward.

Police went to the hospital and arrested two men. They were identified as Harry Shinn, 21, Costa Mesa, Calif., and Frank Michel, 21, Orange County, Calif. The two were charged in federal warrants with bank robbery.

The two men were at the hospital to see the woman who was with her wife. Authorities said the two little girls—Melody, 5, and Cynthia, 3—were the woman's by a previous marriage.

Milwaukee police said about $500 was found in possession of the woman at the hospital and that the hospital bill apparently had been paid with the bank money.

Another $433 was found in possession of the suspects when they were searched, police said.

Children To Present Program

The Sunday School pupils of Ascension Lutheran Church, Casselberry, will present a Christmas Eve Service at 7 p. m. Thursday on the theme "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring."

There will be group recitations by all classes and Christmas hymns by both the children and the congregation. A Manger Scene will be placed in the chancel. The Mother Mary will be portrayed by Debbie Herzog and Steven Berg will take the part of Joseph.

Rev. C. R. Zehnder, pastor, will conduct a Christmas Day Service beginning at 10:30 a. m.

The public is invited to attend these special services.

Christmas Story Told To Rotary

An unusual version of the Christmas story told as it might be related by Joseph, the husband of Mary, was presented to members of the Rotary Club Monday by a member of the club, Rev. Grover Sewell.

Mr. Sewell played the part of Joseph as he might have spoken if he could appear on earth today, describing the birth of the Christ Child and all the events leading up to that day.

Members of the Rotary Club had come, like the Wise men, bearing gifts, but these were for the underprivileged children of the local community, and were turned over to Salvation Army Capt. Harry Foden for distribution.

Monday was the annual Christmas observance with wives of the club members, known as Rotary - Anns, as guests for the occasion. Each wife was presented with a holiday corsage as she arrived.

Bear Lake Cubs Receive Awards

By Maryann Miles
Achievement awards were presented at the December meeting of Bear Lake Cub Scout Pack 230 by Cubmaster Bob Bunnell.

Included were Gary Marles, lion, gold arrow and land badge; Kevin Steven Berg, wolf badge; Kenny Westmoreland, Phillip Kelley, Ricky Ostrander and Steve Philbrick, denier stripes; Steven Berg and Tom Van Horn, assistant denier stripes.

Pins presented to den mothers went to Mrs. Mary Krenser, Mrs. Pat Focht, Mrs. Peggy Marles, Mrs. Sig Bowser, Mrs. Christine Riddell, Mrs. Rena Rybicki, Mrs. Ginny McClellan, Mrs. Maxine Boyle and Mrs. Aggie Ostrander.

Announcement was made that Al Fiori, district leader, will be transferring to another state and will be giving up his work in this area.

Cubs and parents attending the meeting trimmed a Christmas tree with handmade decorations done by the boys and

WP Telephone Gives Hints On Holiday Calls

By Ralph Lane
Long distance calling is already on the increase as the holiday season approaches. J. K. Galloway, president of the Winter Park Telephone Company, reports that traffic on switchboards and direct distance dialing lines is keeping up with the rush-season atmosphere in South Seminole County stores and in the streets.

Long distance calls, he predicted, will literally light up telephone switchboards like Christmas trees during the busiest days of the season—On Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and New Year's Eve even the direct distant dialing circuits will be filled to overflowing.

Past experience shows that the peak load of long distance calls will come on Christmas Eve and most of Christmas Day. "During this time there may be delays on some calls," Galloway explained.

Even with all available operators and with additional circuits borrowed from business customers there will be times when the long distance network will be filled to capacity," he added.

Galloway suggested that subscribers avoid these peak calling periods if possible by placing their calls before Christmas Eve or during the Christmas weekend. Company records from last year also show that there was a slight lull in calling in the late morning on Christmas day.

Galloway suggested that subscribers follow these rules to speed calls to out-of-town friends and relatives. Use direct distance dialing for station-to-station calls. This will help reduce some of the usual holiday traffic congestion. Special DDD centers across the country will be used to provide alternate routes to aid in the completion of calls.

Galloway urged that subscribers use the Area Code number along with the telephone number when placing calls through an operator.

"We have added additional DDD equipment in our central offices since last Christmas," Galloway said, "and we expect to complete more holiday calls this year than ever before."

Dorothy Mae McGill To Marry Raymond R. Hartsfield, Oviedo

By Robert B. Thomas Jr.
322-5756
Mr. and Mrs. James H. McGill, 1991 Sipes Avenue, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Mae, to Raymond R. Hartsfield, of Oviedo. The prospective bride and bridegroom are graduates of Crooms High School.

The ceremony will be at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Kennon, 7 p. m. Monday.

The Businessmen of Thirteenth Street erected a Christmas tree across from the Cherry Plaza. It is most beautiful at night as it glows in the darkness. Bernadette Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burroughs and Mrs. Lucille W. Calloway decorated same. Charlie Jackson, who is the chairman of the group, made the following statement, and I quote: "We put up the tree to make this area look something like Christmas time." Gentlemen, it is wonderful of you to be so considerate.

A Christmas program will be held on Christmas Eve beginning at 8 p. m. at New Salem Primitive Baptist Church. Watch service will begin at 9 p. m. and extending through midnight.

The Chorus of New Salem Primitive Baptist Church was feted with a pre-Christmas party by Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bryant, of Dixie Terrace, last Sunday. Rev. P. H. Frison offered prayer. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Donnie Burke, president of the chorus, and to the pastor.

Capt. and Mrs. Lois Jewell Miller are visiting relatives and friends. Capt. Miller is a graduate of Crooms High School and Florida A and M University. Mrs. Miller is the former Julia Clark, of Orlando. Capt. Miller is with the Aero-Space Test Branch Air Defense Board, White Sands Missile Range, N. Mex.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Spencer is Mrs. Spencer's mother, Mrs. Phoebe Andrews, from Johnson, S. C. Accompanying her on the trip were Mildred and Margaret, twin sister of Mrs. Spencer; her brother, Raleigh, and nephew, Anthony.

James Hooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hooks, is visiting from Rochester, N. Y. He is a former resident of Sanford.

Ronald Henry, of Rochester, is visiting relatives for the Christmas holidays. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Henry of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Graham and daughter, Dorothy Etta, of San Bernardino, Calif., are visiting relatives. They will visit with Rev. and Mrs. Hestle, of Miami. Mrs. Graham is the former Regina Hestle.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Baskerville and children will spend the Christmas holidays in Hopeville, Va.

Willie Sabb, of Philadelphia, is visiting in our city. Sabb, a former resident, is guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mitchell.

The Young Ladies Community Club, a group of real humanitarian, had its annual Christmas party last Sunday at the American Legion Hall. Many toys and gifts were given to unfortunate boys and girls. NOTE: If we had more large-hearted people like you, what a much better place Sanford would be.

Christmas Prayer
O Thou who at Thy birth was cradled in our manger, wearing our flesh without humiliation or stain: As we approach this Christmastic, help us to rejoice in Thy Holy Incarnation, the mystery of which no dream of prophet could reveal, nor words of e'er foretell.

DeBary VFW Auxiliary Unit Welcomes Two New Members

VFW Auxiliary Unit 8093 of DeBary welcomed two new members at the December business meeting held at the Fire Hall. Mrs. A. Muth of Deltona transferred membership from Beach Haven Crest Auxiliary, N. J., and Mrs. Fred Perrick transferred from Auburndale, BaySide Auxiliary Long Island, N. Y.

A letter was read from Nora Gillespie, district, eight president, announcing the visit of the national president, Mrs. Marie Klug, to Orlando Jan. 15-17.

Mrs. Elizabeth Howard was appointed VA hospital chairman and reports were heard on rehabilitation, ways and means and unit socials. Proceeds from the poppy sales were announced at $101.85 and from the Thanksgiving pie sale at $28.20. A rummage sale will be sponsored in the spring.

Donation of $25 was made to the Fire Department for use of the building and $5 to the Garden Club for the Hwy. 17-82 beautification project. A sum of $6 was given towards the new Post Altar.

Quarterly reports were given by Mrs. Myrtle Hill, president, on auxiliary activities and it was announced that membership has reached 100 per cent to date. Books are to be audited before the January meeting.

Gifts were exchanged during the social hour and refreshments were served from a table decorated in the holiday theme. Hostesses were Mrs. Blanche Frye, Miss Muriel Clock and Mrs. Howard.

CARE Blow At Reds

Many Americans seem to be frustrated by our inability to lick communism overnight.

Many others, however, have found a simple, personal, significant way in which they can shape the future of the world—by supporting voluntary foreign aid organizations, like CARE, Co-operative for American Relief Everywhere, which are influencing the lives of millions around the globe.

In the case of CARE, each dollar buys a specific amount of food (21 pounds) and the donor frequently receives a letter of thanks from the individual or family overseas who get the package. That's personal.

There can be no "pullback" of communism until we beat hunger and ignorance, in which communism breeds.

Hunger and ignorance go hand in hand. In India, for example, the most crucial food area in the world, CARE is attempting to change a vicious situation. Children often skip school to scavenge for scraps of food.

By providing lunches in school—for seven million children a day currently—CARE is creating a situation where parents see that their children attend. Not only are they exposed to learning, but they are better able to study because of being fed.

The organization plans to help feed 37.7 million people in 84 countries over the next year. Except for three special areas in Europe, this aid will be concentrated in the developing nations of Africa, Asia and Latin America.

More than 1.6 billion pounds of food, donated by the U.S. government as Food for Peace, will form the mainstay of these programs. The governments of 26 countries will pay all or part of the costs of transporting the food. Funds for the rest must come from voluntary contributions.

While $1 buys a 27-pound package of food, $2 will buy enough seed to raise 1,000 pounds of vegetables. Calculating how much food or seed can be bought with greater amounts of money is a simple exercise in arithmetic—and compassion.

Fewer Honks

A group known as the Affiliated Young Democrats conducted annual tests to determine the decibel count on car horn blowing in New York City.

They have found that automobile drivers today have less patience than ever before and that they blow the horn at the slightest provocation.

Even the staunchest Republican has to agree with the young Democrats on this. But did it take a survey to discover it?

Anyone who has ever ventured on a public highway, inside or outside New York City or any other community, is aware that the shortest interval of time known to science is the infinitesimal fraction of a second which elapses between the first faint hint that the traffic light may turn green and the blast of the horn by the genial gentleman at the wheel of the car behind.

This quaint tribal custom seems, alas, to be the American way of life out on the highway, rude and unfriendly as it may be.

It would be interesting to see just what would happen if cars didn't have horns. We might be surprised at how few accidents actually are averted by all this bleating and barking. We might find that horns are blown more often in anger than in warning.

One thing is sure. Without horns, our motor manners would be quieter, even if no better.

For a start, we might try limiting ourselves to a honk an hour.

In between honks, we could, of course, stick our head out the window and yell.

—P. J.

Thought For Today

Set up waypoints for yourself, guideposts; consider well the highway, the road by which you went. Return, O virgin Israel, return to these your cities—Jeremiah 31:21.

Nature knows nothing of rights. She knows only laws. Man, on the other hand, has ideals and aspirations.—James Truslow Adams.

To The Editor

Editor, Herald:
An answer to "A Decree" in Friday, Dec. 18, there appeared in The Sanford Herald, a witty little jingle called "A Decree". This most likely brought smiles to many faces, but to the more sober minded such light frivolous quotation from the Bible, such profound truths mixed with such a meaningless jingle is not to be laughed at. The author evidently has quite some knowledge of the Bible, but perhaps had never heard of the story of the Man who loved us enough to send his Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. If the author of "A DECREE" were the only person in the world God would still have given the supreme gift, Jesus, for He shall save his people from their sins. Matthew 1:21

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Stough
Editor's Note: You are entitled to opinion. However, we did not consider the article a "witty little jingle" the same God who loved us enough to send his Son into the world stressed the importance of love in the commandments. One group commands that man love God, the other that man love man. The birth of Christ was based on love Jesus' preaching, teaching and healing ministries were founded on love for God and for one's neighbor. It was out of love that Christ did not let the cup of the crucifixion pass from Him.

We looked on the article as a sincere expression of God's blessing upon the men to be able to be safely with loved ones in commemorating the birth of the Holy Child.

As far as the word "decrees" is concerned, the dictionary calls it a public order. God decreed his love for man. What could be wrong with men decreasing their love for their parents, wives and children. If more love were expressed by word and deed this world would be a much better world and God would be pleased.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A little-noted meeting that took place recently in Chicago offers an important gauge of change among the country's state legislators.

The gathering here the 16th biennial of the State Governments, state lawmakers and other legislative officials from the 50 states came together to consider common state problems and related matters.

Two years ago, assembled in the same city, a similar group of legislators approved three "U. S. constitutional amendments which, if taken seriously, could have revolutionized the structure of American government.

One proposal would have established a Court of the Union, composed of the 50 state chief justices and rated superior to the U. S. Supreme Court in certain important federal state matters.

A second would have greatly eased the process by which states could initiate amendments to the federal Constitution. This process presently is an cumbersome it is never used.

A third would have barred the federal courts from taking any hand in state legislative reapportionment.

Only five state legislatures finally approved the Court of the Union idea. But more than a dozen stamped their endorsement on the other propositions.

The December 1964 Assembly of the States, though loaded as before with arch conservatives, avoided like the plague these particular proposals or any semblance to them.

This did not mean they chose to ignore the controversial reapportionment issue. They passed a resolution on the subject, but its tone is positively amazing when set beside the famous amendments of 1962.

The 1964 resolution expressed support for a constitutional amendment which would permit the states, in redistricting, to consider factors other than population in the make-up of at least one house of a legislature—provided the voters of the state approve this arrangement in a referendum test.

This is just about the mildest imaginable departure from the U. S. Supreme Court's "one man, one vote" reapportionment decree of mid-1964. Yet the fact is that not even this proposition got through the General Assembly's resolutions mill without a noisy battle.

Liberal legislators on the Resolutions Committee blasted the proposal as the "flying gump of the Old Guard". With its heavy stack of conservatives, the committee was assailed as a collection of lame ducks, potential lame ducks and other outdated persons.

Two liberal members—State Sen. Gloria Schaffer of Connecticut—filed the minority report. Though the majority report, of course, prevailed in the committee, the fight ably flour.

The liberals still thought they might win the day if they could force a roll call vote. But under the rule of the assembly it takes 10 states to force such a vote, and the opposition fell two short.

Nevertheless, when the majority resolution was whipped through by voice vote, a very large chorus of "aye" expressed the assembly's divided sentiments on the issue.

Two years ago, the majority's plan would have done little as a liberal alternative to the celebrated three amendments.

This time the conservative majority, backing this mild expression, most likely wondered whether it was hearing correctly when the "no's" resounded through the room. Times have changed.

Worry Clinic

Earl indicates a very common secret sex worry of many intelligent widowers and old bachelors. So scrapbook this vital case and by all means send for the sex booklet mentioned below. For sex-scared husbands often try to drown their fears in whiskey.

CASE U-463: Earl B., aged 58, is a magazine editor.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "I have been a widower for 7 years.

"But a few months ago I met a very attractive widow, aged 41, who is so charming and jolly that I have fallen in love with her.

"We have mutual friends, the same hobbies and belong to the same church, so it seems we are quite compatible.

"But, Dr. Crane, I am worried about sex, for I have lived alone for seven years.

"Would our marriage become platonic?"

Many intelligent Americans are ignorant of some of the simple medical facts.

For example, glands as well as muscles benefit from regular use.

"And you can develop larger muscles at any time in your life just by regular exercise thereof.

For example, a man past 50 can decide to indulge in weight lifting or push-ups and other types of callisthenics till he enlarges his muscles very definitely.

By the same token, you can take a partially functional gland and make it enlarge and secrete more fully by similar regular exercise.

Sex appetite, like your gastric hunger, is something that is supposed to last all your lifetime.

Just because you pass the age of 50, doesn't mean that you lose your desire for beefsteak or pecan pie and other delicious viands.

Nor does it mean you should likewise lose your enjoyment of a wife or husband, if.

And that big "IF" means, if you realize the true medical facts about glandular function.

But many a man hampers himself by fears and doubts.

Actually, anybody in reasonably good health should be able to function in the marital relationship till the age of 100 years if he doesn't afflict himself with a sexual inferiority complex.

A Catholic priest recently asked me how to answer this question often presented to him in Conferences:

"Is it true that there are only so many rounds of sexual ammunition in the male?"

And the answer is a great big "NO!"

So old bachelors and widowers need have no significant fear of platonic marriage though they are 50, 60 or even 75.

Even the retina of the eye remains healthier and more functional when it is used.

That is one reason why ophthalmologists (eye surgeons) urge that cross-eyes be corrected early.

Otherwise, the retina of the unused eye may grow relatively inert and blind just from disuse!

Irregularity of milking a cow will also tend to reduce the milk secretion of her udder and make her go "dry."

So send for my booklet "How to Prevent Impotence," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Judy Kinnaid Goes Home For Christmas

Howard Hood, president of the Sanford Lions Club, announced today that the present total of contributions received for the Judy Kinnaid Fund is $2,045.49 and the club is pleased at the response which has been made by all Central Florida.

Hood stated that while individual recognition could not be given to everyone, he and the club wanted to express their thanks to the individuals, business concerns, civic clubs, ladies organizations, Girl Scouts, and especially Harry Kudell, who helped make this a success.

Judy is now home from the hospital, though continued care and treatment will be needed and these contributions will be of great assistance to her.

Hood announced that the drive will close Christmas Day, but anyone who wants to make any contribution or write Judy could do so by writing Judy Kinnaid, Geneva, Florida.

"The Lions of Sanford wish to express a very special Merry Christmas to everyone who helped with their contributions and their expressions of concern," Hood said.

Christmas Eve Service Planned In Geneva

By JoAnn Hays

The annual Christmas Eve Services in Geneva will be held this year at the First Methodist Church with Rev. Charles Patterson, retired minister from Orange City, leading the service in the absence of Rev. W. E. Timms, pastor, who is confined to Seminole Memorial Hospital following surgery.

Benediction will be given by Rev. W. M. Grogan, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The service, "The Service of Light," will begin promptly at 8 p.m. and those planning to attend are requested to arrive early if at all possible.

The choir will take part in the service and members will be wearing their new robes, most of which were made by Mrs. John Stone at no cost to the choir.

Strikes . . . Spares

By John A. Szpalski
It wouldn't slip our mind entirely, but I just might start rambling and include it towards the end of the column with the possibility that you'd think it was just an afterthought . . . WHICH IT IS NOT!

From all of us here at Jet Lanes to our many warm and dear friends in the bowling fraternity . . . a very Merry Christmas and the best wishes for the New Year.

Incidentally, as you'll note from our ads in the Sanford Herald, quite a few of the leagues are off during the holidays, so you won't have to wait for an open lane. The kids really had themselves a time at their Christmas Party Saturday. What with all of the goodies in the form of cartons of soft drinks, ice cream, doughnuts and special prizes from Santa, I believe everyone turned out to be a winner of some sort of a prize.

This Saturday we'll have a special team tournament for the kids and on Monday at 10 P.M. will be the doubles event with the singles scheduled for 1 P.M. that same afternoon. In the event you missed signing to participate you may still do so by being at the lanes this Saturday.

Incidentally, two weeks ago co-coaches Eleanor Anderson and Garry Fox ran an "I Beat the Coach" kind-of-a-deal. I won't tell you which one of these two stalwarts had an excellent series (nice job! Eleanor) but there were 18 happy kids who trounced the coach. The winners in Moonlight Bowling Saturday night were Chris DeWitt for the girls and David Oldham for the guys. In the Wednesday Ball and Chain League, bowling for the Four Links-Hayden checked in a 213/344 series.

Wolverines Five Regain UPI's No. One Post

NEW YORK (UPI) — Press association favorite Michigan is back at the top of the United Press International major college basketball ratings today after a one week absence.

The Wolverines, dethroned for a week by Wichita, regained the No. 1 position in a confrontation of the nation's top two teams on Dec. 14.

Michigan handed Wichita its first loss by a slim 87-85 margin and pushed the Shockers into the runner-up spot.

Michigan received 21 first place votes from the UPI Board of Coaches and totaled 225 points.

Wichita was second on both counts with seven votes for the top spot and 236 points.

Michigan's (5-0) success of three unbratens among the elite, edged into third place ahead of San Francisco (5-0) by downing a tough Utah State squad while the Ducks tripped Hawaii in their only game last week. Both picked up a pair of first place mentions.

Defending champion UCLA, whose only loss came in the season's opener, extended its winning streak to five while taking the Milwaukee Invitational and solidified its fifth place ranking with two first place votes.

Duke gained undisputed possession of sixth place when last week's co-holder, Vanderbilt, suffered its second straight loss and dropped from the first 10.

St. Louis was up a notch to seventh and Indiana 8-0 advanced from 10th to eighth. Illinois and Davidson were new members of the upper echelon in ninth and 10th places, respectively.

College Stars Visit Hospital, Then Practice

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Shrine football players, 44 strong, visited the Crippled Children's Hospital today as their first official act on their visit to San Francisco—then got right down to the business of practice in the rain for their first East-West clash on Jan. 2.

Leading the East team on the annual pilgrimage to the hospital were head coach Pete Elliott of Illinois for the East and Johnny McKay of Southern California for the West.

But the youngsters were more interested in the likes of All-America linebacker Dick Butkus of Illinois; and All-America quarterbacks Bob Berry of Oregon and Craig Merion of California.

And so were most of the coaches. "We believe we have the makings of a fine defensive team and that's where we are going to work the hardest," said Elliott.

"We have some of the finest linebackers in the country, led by Butkus; and we have the finest secondary defensive man I've ever seen in George Donnelly."

But McKay thinks he has the offensive weapons to get around Elliott's proposed defense.

"We have two great passers in Horton and Berry," he said. "And I think we must have the world's greatest grid runner in Gale Sayers of Kansas."

"I say this because I happen to know that George Halas (owner of the Chicago Bears) paid out a lot of money to get him to sign. And George just doesn't do that."

76ers Win By 2 Over Frisco 5

By United Press
The Philadelphia 76ers figured to fade after three straight nights of basketball in the West, and they did.

But the well-balanced Philadelphia club still hung on for a 113-111 win at San Francisco Sunday night for their second win in the three games on the coast.

Philadelphia led by 16 points in the fourth quarter, when San Francisco roared back against the wobbling 76ers and closed to within 108-107 with 55 seconds to go. Then guards Hal Greer and Paul Neumann made 76er lay-ups to preserve the win.

A crowd of 4,341 saw the contest, which was the night's only action in the National Basketball Association. Walt Chamberlain tossed in 43 for the Warriors, but nobody else got more than 13.

The hard-driving Greer had 30 for Philadelphia and no less than six of his teammates were in double figures, too.

Indiana School Seeking Coach

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UPI) — The search is on for a new football coach at Indiana University where Phil Dickens has quit after eight frustrating seasons.

Dickens, 50, resigned Tuesday as football coach but will stay on at Indiana as general manager of off-campus facilities which includes the school's biological and geological research stations.

Bobby Del Greco Signed By Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Veteran outfielder Bobby Del Greco was purchased Tuesday from Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League by the Philadelphia Phillies' Arkansas farm team in the same league.

The Phillies said that as part of the deal they sold Chattanooga catcher Larry Baughman to Birmingham of the Southern League.

JUNIOR—Marcel Cerdan Jr., son of the great, late world middle weight champion, won his first professional boxing contest in Paris.

Vanderbilt Drops Miami Of Ohio, FSU Beaten

By United Press
Southern Eastern Conference basketball teams ran up a perfect record against outside competition Tuesday night.

Vanderbilt dropped Miami of Ohio from the unbeaten ranks 74-68, Tennessee downed Florida State 65-43 for its fifth straight victory, and Georgia avenged its only loss by trouncing Clemson 93-75.

The games were the last for SEC teams until next week. Clyde Lee scored 25 points and mated 28 rebounds, tying a school record, in leading Vanderbilt to its triumph.

Miami jumped into an early lead and held an 11-point advantage with a little over four minutes left in the half.

Vandy rallied, however, and left the floor at intermission ahead 41-36. The Commodores stayed ahead the rest of the way.

Tennessee, playing a deliberate game, controlled the game after the first five minutes and never was seriously threatened. Larry McIntosh was high man for the Vols with 16 points.

Jerry Waller and Dwayne Powell had 25 points each and Jimmy Pitts 23 in leading Georgia over Clemson. Both teams had 31 field goals but the Bulldogs hit on 31 of 37 free throws while Clemson made only 15 of 28.

North-South Shrine Tilt Yule Goody

By David M. Moffit
ATLANTA (UPI) — For the football fan, the biggest gift on Christmas Day may be the North-South Shrine game at Miami.

Most all-star games this time of year miss out on a lot of big-name players because of other bowl commitments. But Friday's contest offers a glittering array of college standouts.

The North has Heisman Trophy winner John Huarte of Notre Dame and his All-America battery-mate Jack Snow. The South features passing wizard Jerry Rhome of Tulsa, top pro draft choice Tucker Frederickson of Auburn and national rushing leader Brian Piccolo of Wake Forest.

In addition, the South has Navy's Roger Staubach, last year's Heisman winner; Bob Hayes of Florida A&M, "The world's fastest human; Jimmy Stille of Auburn, who last year became the only quarterback ever to rush for more than 1,000 yards; and Ken Willard of North Carolina and Larry Dupree of Florida—two of the South's finest runners.

The North squad is dominated by Notre Dame and Army. The fighting Irish, who came within one period of winning the national championship, apurred a bowl bid and the Shrine was quick to nab six of their stars. Army provided five, including third-team All-American tackle Bill Zabel and quarterback Carl Stelchew.

We're more familiar with the southern players and can report that seldom has the South ever been so well represented. Staubach and Stille, figured to be the front-runners for the Heisman award this past season, both were hampered by injuries but have had time to recover.

South coaches may have trouble deciding which four- to use in the backfield. Piccolo, Frederickson and Dupree are three of the finest power runners in college circles; few equal Staubach and Stille on the pass-run option; and records prove that Rhome is in a class by himself as a passer.

They are using Hayes at end and the North defenders will have their hands full trying to keep up with the spryter. Hayes has run the 100-yard dash often in 9.1.

If the north has an advantage it may be in the line. The South missed such great linemen as Steve DeLong of Tennessee, Harry Schuh of Memphis State and Bill Curry of Georgia Tech.

Another factor going for the North is that eight of the top southern teams have bowl dates. This prevented the South from drawing from top-ranked Arkansas, fifth-ranked Texas, seventh-ranked Louisiana State, 11th-ranked Florida State and others.

Fourth-ranked Michigan and sixth-ranked Nebraska were the only northern schools among the nation's top 11 teams which have bowl engagements.

There'll probably be some goodies under that tree Christmas morning, but if its fine football you have a taste for don't miss that nationally televised Shrine game Friday afternoon.

TAKING AIM — Jimmy Brown, hard-running back of the Cleveland Browns, seems to be taking aim at the Baltimore Colts before the two teams meet at Cleveland Dec. 27 of the NFL Championship.

Noblemen Of Golf Once Belted Golf-High Balls In Golden 20s

By Jack Cuddy
UPI Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UPI) — It's lucky that those old buddies, the Duke of Windsor and "Sir Walter" Hagen, are convalescing now from their pre-Christmas carvings at widely separated hospitals in Houston, Tex., and Detroit—and not under the same roof.

Were those two noblemen of the fairways recovering their pep in the same hospice, they certainly would be belting golf balls and highballs from surgery to maternity.

As a tandem they would be going all out to recapture the glow of the "Golden Twenties" when, as swashbuckling comrades of country club and night club, "Eddie," the Prince of Wales, and Walt, king of the courses, did more to popularize golf than any other two men in history.

Remembered as Rider the Duke of Windsor, now 70, is remembered by sportsmen as a devil-may-care rider of horses and an avid golfer and spectator.

The Duke underwent surgery at the Methodist hospital in Houston on Dec. 16 for the removal of a bulge "a lot bigger than a golf ball" from his main abdominal artery.

The great Hagen, 72, had a throat operation at Ford Hospital in Detroit last week. He is reported recovering rapidly—as his old pal Eddie at Houston.

Fred Corcoran of New York, tournament manager of the International Golf Association and a long-time friend of both Hagen and the Duke, said: "I've telegraphed my Christmas greetings to them. I didn't send cards because they'll be getting them by the hundreds from people all over the world, telling them to get well—and mine might be lost in the shuffle."

She already has been nominated for the 1964 All-America greyhound racing team on the basis of her first semester's performance.

Thirty-six schooling events are on tap tonight at SOKC beginning at 7 p. m.

Top performers in the schooling events will make up the field for the running of the opening night Inaugural Handicap Jan. 2.

Tuesday, the Orangemen worked on plays during a three-quarter speed, limited contact drill during the afternoon.

In a morning workout, quarterback Richard King concentrated his offensive work on close-in passes to end Brad Clarke and halfback Floyd Little.

Porphores of the colony at Marineland of Florida require less than one second to inhale and exhale their breath by explosive bursts through the blowhole breathing apparatus atop their heads.

Lou Saban Says: Career Sweeter

NEW YORK (UPI) — Lou Saban admitted today that being named the American Football League's coach-of-the-year sweetened a career that has had some bitter disappointments.

Saban, once fired as head coach of the Boston Patriots, directed the Buffalo Bills to their first Eastern Division title this season, climaxed by a 24-14 triumph over the Patriots last Sunday.

The normally sober-faced Saban was beaming when he learned of his selection by a United Press International panel of 24 writers who covered the AFL.

"This, to me, is a great tribute and I'm very appreciative," Saban said.

Orange Practice For Sugar Bowl

PENSACOLA (UPI)—Syracuse Coach Ben Schwartzwalder has a full scale scrimmage scheduled for Saturday to see if his team is shaping up for the Sugar Bowl game against Louisiana State Jan. 1.

Crimson Tide Rests Before Texas Tilt

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (UPI) — When Alabama football coach Bear Bryant can afford to give his national champions a one-week vacation from practice they must be in great shape.

The Crimson Tide knocked off practicing for its New Year's night meeting with Texas in the Orange Bowl last Saturday. Bryant's men won't don pads again until Saturday in Miami.

Bryant was confident his squad was in proper shape when he granted the one-week Christmas holiday vacation, although he expressed concern over certain members of his walking wounded brigade.

"We have several boys still hampered by injuries, but they should be ready," said Bryant. "It is doubtful, though, that end Mike Hopper or linebacker Jackie Sherrell will be able to play against Texas."

Sherrell suffered a broken ankle in the Vanderbilt game and missed the rest of the season. Hopper was crippled several times during the season and trainer Jim Gooch says it would be too much of a risk to his legs to play him.

The Tide's other injured players, quarterback Steve Sloan (knee), end Tommy Tolleson (knee), halfbacks Frank Elmore (knee) and Gray Canterbury (instep), all appeared ready for action.

Alabama apparently will stick to what it did during the regular season on offense and defense. There have been no personnel changes on the team which won 10 games, the national championship and the Southeastern Conference title.

The Tide rolled to 253 points in 10 games, mainly on the passing of its quarterback duo of Joe Namath and Sloan. They completed 109 of 174 passes for 1,320 yards including six touchdowns.

Namath was the No. 1 quarterback and expected to be an All America but he injured his knee early in the season. Sloan moved right in and directed the team to its unbeaten year. Namath, however, was called on at crucial times to take over for key players. He was remarkably successful, particularly against Georgia Tech.

Namath will start against Texas, said Bryant, and Sloan will be ready to back him up. Sloan, however, probably won't be warming the bench. He is Alabama's top defensive back and Bryant wants to play him in that position if his injured knee permits.

During last week's practices, Bryant was mindful of the Namath-Sloan knee injuries and forbade anyone from hitting either of them during workouts.

The Tide meets Christmas afternoon in Birmingham to fly to Miami and resume practice Saturday afternoon.

The Vitals is a pointer type of dog native to Hungary.

Once again find hope renewed,
by the star of Bethlehem.

Casselberry Firemen Lauded

Chairman James P. Avery Jr. of the Seminole County Commission Tuesday applauded the efforts of Casselberry's Volunteer Fire Department and other citizens of the area in the effort to rescue Jackie Sparks who died in a cave in Tuesday near Seminole Raceway.

"I've never seen anything like," Avery told the press and fellow commissioners during a break in Tuesday's meeting. "When the alarm was sounded," he pointed out, "members of the volunteer group stopped what they were doing and immediately went to the scene. "I thought we were going to have more casualties because I don't believe some of these fellows were accustomed to handling shovels the way they did in attempting to reach the trapped youngster."

Avery went on, "The thing that amazed me, however, was the way in which the entire rescue operation was organized. Fire and police officials were there to direct operations. Two physicians were in attendance, an ambulance was available, and the well-equipped Casselberry Fire Department's rescue unit was on hand.

"I was even more surprised," declared Avery, "by the professional manner in which the well-trained volunteer firemen assisted the doctors in attempting to revive the lad. They knew exactly what to do, how to do it and when to do it. I'm sure that if there had been a spark of life left in the young fellow when they brought him out of the cave in area," said Avery, "these Casselberry volunteers would have revived him. I just can't say too much about the way in which Chief Paul Bates has equipped, staffed and trained his personnel."

He added, "The people of Casselberry should be extremely proud of this volunteer unit."

Mansion Takes On Festive Appearance For Club Party

By Mrs. John Leone
DeBary Mansion House was beautifully decorated in traditional theme for the Christmas party of the DeBary Art-and Crafts Club with members of the Sanford club invited as special guests for the occasion.

Mrs. and Mrs. Robie Elliott, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur MacNaughton, Mrs. Lynn Reed and Mr. and Mrs. George Binko, greeted guests as they arrived.

Each fireplace in the Mansion was decorated in a different theme presenting its own complete setting while the beautifully trimmed tree was placed in the bay window of the main gallery. Christmas music, played throughout the evening, added much to the atmosphere.

Elliott acted as master emcee and a brief demonstration on sketching was given by Chester Eldridge and Arnold Hicks.

Refreshments were served from a buffet covered with lace over red and centered with an arrangement featuring tall red candles. Trays of petits fours, tiny cream puffs filled with chicken and tuna salads and cookies, cake, nuts and mints were served along with the coffee and tea at the side service. Individual tables for four, lighted by candle, were set up to allow more intimate groupings of guests in order that they might become better acquainted.

Hostesses were Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. MacNaughton and Mrs. Brooks.

The club will not meet for the Tuesday morning work-along sessions at the Mansion until after the New Year.

Realty Owners, County Reach Drainage Pact

A drainage problem at the interchange of Interstate 4 and Highway 434 may have been solved Tuesday and businesses may soon be erected there.

County commissioners approved a tentative agreement with property owners in the area to have them supply necessary materials and county crews will do the drainage work.

Other conditions are that the property owners get necessary easements and other pertinent requirements to do the complete job. Involved is property and rights of way owned by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and the State Road Department.

Robert Overstreet and Abe Kamenoff represented land owners in the area in dealing with the county. They had retained an engineer who had drawn up the drainage plan, one which meets with the approval of County Engineer William Bush.

When all terms of the project have been completed and approved by the engineer and County Attorney Harold F. Johnson, letters of intent will be submitted to the commission along with a check for materials, the latter to be kept in escrow pending start of the job.

The interchange has been a problem since its completion as water which normally was not in the area has become a major source of concern to property owners.

Now, they have joined together to provide for a solution to the drainage. The water will be diverted to the Wekiva River over property they own or, if possible, over rights of way of other owners in the area.

Jackie Sparks Dies In Cave-In

Jackie Glenn Sparks, 11, of 1555 Hillton Road, Casselberry, died Monday when trapped in the cave-in of a sand bank.

Born in Hickory, N. C., he moved to this area several years ago with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie E. Sparks, who lived in Casselberry for the past three years. He was Protestant in faith and was an eighth grade student at South Seminole Junior High School.

Survivors, other than his parents, are his sister, Miss Ann Conner, of Geneva, Ala., and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Sparks, of Spruce Pine, N. C.

Funeral Notice

Funeral services for Jackie Glenn Sparks, 11, of Casselberry, who died Monday will be held at 11 a. m. Tuesday at the Florida Lake Baptist Church, Fern Park with Rev. Leonard Jones officiating assisted by Rev. Thomas Chapman, of Casselberry. Burial will be in Casselberry cemetery. Niblack Funeral Home, Sanford, in charge.

Inter-County Project Legislation Sought

Robert Doyle, executive director of the East Central Florida Regional Planning Council, told the County Commission Tuesday that the organization was working on permissive legislation which would enable counties to carry on joint projects.

Doyle said that as soon as the proposed act was put in final form it would be presented to board of commissioners in the seven counties comprising the regional council for their approval.

"This type of legislation," Doyle said, "will make it possible for two or more counties in the region to unite for the purpose of proposing and completing joint projects for such purposes as water control, recreation, public facilities, highways and the creation of centrally located airports."

"In the case of airports," Doyle said for an example, "it would be impossible for one county to undertake such a project but several counties could jointly promote an installation." Doyle left no doubt that a centrally located airport would be vital to the economic growth and development of the area.

He also pointed out that such an act would fall into the category of permissive legislation.

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson
The regular monthly meeting of the Lake Mary Women's Club was held recently at the artistic home of Mrs. Ruth Gallagher on the Markham-Longwood Road.

Club president, Mrs. Beth Gregory, presided over the business session with chairmen of various committees giving interesting reports on their projects.

New member, Mrs. Jonnie Harmon, was introduced and welcomed by the club. Guests introduced were Mrs. O. J. Bryant, guest of Mrs. Bessie Beebe; Mrs. Ned Julian with Mrs. Virginia Tuton; Mrs. Walter Gregory with Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. Hazel Barry.

Mrs. Gallagher was assisted in serving by Mrs. Jerry Keeth and Mrs. Mabel Osburn. The dining table was overlaid with green nylon net over white linen cloth. The center attraction of the table was the exquisite arrangement made by the Gallagher daughter.

The center of the arrangement was a white iron eperge candelabra holding six red tapered candles, surrounded by red satin Christmas balls.

Around the base was placed white plastic fern. Each end of the table held gold candle holders with green candles.

Coffee and tea were served from a silver tea service with open faced sandwiches, hot ham biscuits and dainty decorated Christmas cookies.

Twenty-seven members and guests attended this elaborate affair.

Don't Neglect Dear Old Dad On Gift List

If the Christmas buying habits of slightly less than 11 1/2 million teen-age girls are a criterion, "most American males (especially dad) will get the short end of the gift stick."

This sad fact was uncovered in a survey made by a leading teen-age magazine shortly after Christmas last year.

Only mom and the current beau were swamped. From reports it's a wonder they didn't get box-opening fatigue.

Fortunately the girls tried to keep a semblance of peace in the family. When they did, the survey shows, they spent slightly more than $7 for favored gifts of shirts and ties, socks, after-shave lotions, pajamas, tie clasps, sweaters, wallets, handkerchiefs, gloves and records for dad. The boy friend rated a gift costing more than $10, with sweaters and jewelry the leading items.

Not to spoil this holiday's unwrapping ritual, these two categories will hold their position as popular gift choices. Remember, then, to smile and act surprised as you try them on.

Big brothers were next in the male receiving line with their share (under $6) of sport shirts, socks and records while the little lads had to make do with under $5 worth of toys and games and again sport shirts as the most often selected gifts.

Just a note concerning sibling rivalry: The teen-aged girls said they spend more for little sisters' and big brothers' presents than for their little brothers' gifts. Paraphrasing a well-known ad, only their analysts know why.

Another gift-giving paradox shines through at Christmas time, as the survey indicated. If daughter is the apple of daddy's eye, why does she neglect him? Shouldn't this adoration be reflected in his ration at Christmas?

In the shopping days before Christmas why not do more for the head of the house than empty his billfold?

Each luncheon table had a different arrangement to carry out the theme of an old-fashioned Christmas. The speaker's table was covered with a green linen cloth and had a miniature Christmas tree and a bright, jolly Santa as the center piece. On the stage was a lighted Christmas tree, under which were gaily wrapped gifts and also on the stage was a table with an arrangement of deep red poinsettias and a silver candelabra with lighted red candles.

On the chest in the rear of the club was the Nativity scene. Mrs. Virginia Staley, from Oviedo High School presented some of her students from the Home Economics Class, who modeled a garment which she had made.

Ouida Wolcott showed a shirt which she had made and also an identical one worn by her little sister, Lisa. Diane Murphy modeled a two-piece tailored suit. Lily Fox presented the glamour spot by wearing a short formal gown. Sherry Wolfe wore a two-piece outfit, a tailored sheath skirt, blouse and waist.

Fragrant Scents Brighten Aroma Of Home Decor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Now—something for noses at Yuletide.

It's air freshener in a variety of scents. Mrs. Lucille Bush, consumer service director for the manufacturer, says the range of scents makes it possible to match the fragrance to the decor of your room.

For example, there's "French modern" for a room done in the French manner. A room soft in color and feminine, meanwhile, calls for "floral sashet" which exudes the fragrance of a summer garden.

"Evergreen," with its plucky wood smell, is an ideal choice for any decor, but especially appropriate at Christmas to liveen your fresh pine decorations.

Wash plastic sponges in the washing machine, the same as dish cloths.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Highlights

TV Time Previews

DEAR ABBY: I have gone with this young man for a year and we have decided to be married. He told me that he wants me to make a big bonfire before we are married and I am to throw in all my old scrapbooks, letters, pictures and all the reminders of my past romances. He agreed that he would do the same, but he won't nearly the stuff to throw in that I have, Abby, what do you think of this? Is this a general practice before marriage? Personally, I would like to keep these reminders of my past good times.

SENTIMENTAL: It is not a general practice, but if you were sure of your feelings for him you wouldn't question it. Tell him you'd like a little less heat and a little more light on the subject. He obviously is plagued by insecurity. Wait until you know him better before you go for the match.

DEAR ABBY: Will you please inform brides-to-be that most churches have rules and regulations about wedding procedure? I am tired of these young girls who come waltzing into my office to tell me what kind of "schmalzy" songs they are going to have in the ceremony and all the other frills and gimmicks that are not in keeping with the church's long-standing ritual. I've seen weddings ruined because brides have insisted on having tiny flower girls and ringbearers, against the advice of their clergymen. Please, Abby, ask brides-to-be to include the clergyman while making their wedding plans instead of TELLING him what they are going to do in HIS church.

METHODIST MINISTER NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

DEAR ABBY: My husband is always telling old jokes. Should I, or shouldn't I, laugh? Not only that, but he tells the same old jokes to the same people. His feelings are easily hurt and I wouldn't intentionally hurt him for the world. But I can see when he starts to tell a joke that everyone has heard it before and he is boring them. When the "joke" is over, he gets a few polite little laughs and he is laughing harder than anybody. What should I do, if anything?

NOT LAUGHING: DEAR NOT: Tell your husband that his jokes, though amusing to those who have not heard them before, are growing whiskeys for those who have—including you. But be gentle about it. He may be boring others, but he is obviously enjoying himself. And not everybody can do that.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have just received a wedding invitation. We have never met the couple who are to be married. Our only connection with them is that the groom's mother lives across the street from us. I have a "swaying" acquaintance with her and her husband, but my husband doesn't even know who they are. Doesn't an invitation to the wedding ceremony and reception call for a wedding gift? I feel that the only reason we were invited was for the present they hoped we would bring. I resent being taken advantage of. To avoid being hypocrites, are we not entitled to decline the invitation? How should this be handled? FEELS PUT UPON: DEAR FEELS: Decline the invitation and send the couple a congratulatory card.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

One of the best defenses of the World Bridge Olympiad was put up by Bease and Durouvenoz of Switzerland against one of the few Olympiad pairs who still play the weak no-trump.

South saw no reason to stay in one no-trump doubled, but it turned out that he had jumped from the trying pass right into the fire.

East (Bease) won the club lead with his jack and led back the ten of trumps. South's jack was allowed to hold the trick and South led his singleton heart. North's jack lost to East's king and East got out of his first end-play by playing ace and another club for West to ruff.

Table with columns for NORTH (D), WEST, EAST, SOUTH, and opening lead.

mond was led and after East ducked, South was in with the queen. That gave South three tricks and he threw Bease in with his last club. West discarded a heart. Bease appeared to be end played, but he got out by the simple expedient of leading the ace of hearts for South to ruff. This gave South his fourth and last trick. He was left with two low trumps and two low diamonds while West held two high trumps back of him and East held two diamonds behind dummy. Thus, there was no way for him to keep from going down four tricks for minus 1,100 points.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

A publicity release assures me that women today do not buy furniture to last a lifetime but buy new and better furniture each time they move into a better home.

Perhaps that's the trend, but it looks to me like it's a bit hard on papa. What if he's down to it a true, is that every time papa gets a raise or a promotion, mama decides to start throwing out furniture and buying new items.

It seems to me this would be a bit discouraging to the breadwinner who hopes, when he gets a raise or a promotion that it will ease the family financial situation.

family to be replacing furniture with the regularity of a private club? A home shouldn't be just the best house a family can afford—waiting to be traded on a bigger and better house as soon as possible one to be filled with furniture that will be replaced at the first opportunity.

This is their first office in the Western Hemisphere, and it was opened with fanfare and fun! At the entrance were two Greek "gods," very much alive and dressed in their typical Greek attire of "ballet" skirt and all accessories. The skirts are short and ballet-like but the Greeks are fierce fighters and delightful people. The offices are full of beautiful Greek books, paintings and many exotic objects. # Horoscope Forecast

THURSDAY, DEC. 24, 1964
GENERAL TENDENCIES: The early part of the day is fine for communications and correspondence, for getting out almost anything that has to do with expressing the Christmas spirit, but later it's necessary to be still to avoid some pretty tense influences which are then in effect. Go after peace, serenity, the Golden Rule.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)—Morning is very fine for getting duties behind you with eclat and efficiency, so that you can later get into pleasurable outlets. Evening is best spent quietly. Don't over-tax your nerves.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)—Planning social events ahead and getting caught up on gift buying is wise in a. m., especially if you get an early start. Know how to please others best. Live the Golden Rule truly.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)—Day hours are ideal for anything connected with your kin and home matters planning ahead for any religious services. Fundamental matters are within easy grasp. Make the effort necessary to get all in order.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21)—Morning labors on whatever is of a worldly nature bring excellent results, but be sure you do not get into arguments later with friends. Write out some last-minute cards—get a thoughtful gift. Work systematically.

LEO (July 22 to August 21)—Budget your money so that you please those you like for the holidays, but avoid spending too much for pleasure tonight. Many fine things are coming your way. Be sure your clothing is just right, not too elaborate.

VIRGO (August 22 to September 22)—Greeting those in a. m. who come from afar or getting in touch with out-of-town kin is best then, before rush starts. Later, see that intimate matters are taken care of. Get ideas from a close tie. Take it easy in p. m.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22)—Get confidential affairs handled quickly in a. m., so that you have time for holiday preparations. Get things going with alacrity. They naturally work themselves out well as you planned.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21)—Although you get many invitations today, decide early which you will accept. Be with persons of charm and who are conversationally interesting as well. Get duties performed quickly and well.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21)—Getting out publicly in a. m. is good, but avoid that higher-up who could be irate. Enjoy the limelight as is your due. Don't neglect any important obligations to others, however.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20)—By understanding the true meaning of the Yuletide, you can now change your attitude to one of joy and expectation. Prepare for the New Year as well. Make your reservations early.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19)—Your intuition is very accurate and you must follow it even in the face of many pressures. Avoid getting off the track. Be devoted to loved one, but intelligently so, not maudlin.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20)—Give your opinions and suggestions to associates in a. m. and then the day rolls along very smoothly, as planned. Show you are most co-operative. Give a delightful dinner.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, he or she will be one of those fascinating young people with a most practical mind and would do very well in the fields of banking, engineering, etc., where the making of a good deal of money is possible. The desire here is to own a great deal of property. Early give the finest spiritual education available so that the Golden Rule will always be practiced.

"The Stars Impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Mr., Mrs. Carraway Retire, Plan Tour

C. McKIBBIN

By Harry I. Johnson
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carraway, of 432 Elliot Avenue, members of an insurance firm bearing the name of Carraway & McKibbin, will retire Jan. 1 after more than 25 years in the business.

The insurance business will continue under the direction of Clifford McKibbin, presently a partner.

McKibbin has been with the firm for the past 11 years. Prior to that he was a consulting engineer in the area and before that from 1949 to 1951 he was Sanford's city manager.

He served as president of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce in 1957-58 and is member of the Chamber's advertising committee. He is also president of the Sanford-Seminole Development Company.

Judy Fund Near $2,000-Mark

More contributions to the Judy Fund have come in from local persons, each giving what they can to add to past contributions, making a total to date of $1,800.

During the presentation of the Christmas Carol concert by pianist Harry Kuddell recently over the local radio station, station owner Myron Beck led off the contributions with a check for $100.

Others include John Sault, $50; Ed Hart, $50; Max Fisher, $25; Howard Wheeler, $25; Ed Hart, $25; A. B. Peterson, $25; Tom M. Davis, $25; Ed. Morris, $25; Boyd Robinson, $25; E. Carter, $25; J. T. Shepherd, $25; K. G. Galt, $25; E. A. Anderson, $25; Wilbur Bradshaw, $25.

Club Has Party For Children

By Mrs. Bitchie Harris
Sixty-eight children of members of the Florida Power Employees Club in Enterprise were guests of honor at the Christmas party held in the school cafeteria. This year since the clubhouse is undergoing remodeling.

Decorations, including the beautiful tree, were done by Don Coxon, president, assisted by Ernie Hill and Kenny Gandy.

Each child was presented a gift, chocolate containing a new 12 bill and a bag of candies.

Tiberius, Roman emperor always clasped a laurel wreath on his head at the beginning of a thunderstorm.

A. CARRAWAY

He has been chairman of Sanford's planning and zoning commission since 1955.

He and Mrs. McKibbin live at 2450 Mellonville. They have a son, Bruce, now in the ninth grade, and another son Clifford III, who is receiving his master's degree in industrial engineering at the University of Florida, and a third son, Alex, who is majoring in insurance at the same university.

Alex McKibbin will join his father in the business when he graduates May 1. Until that time McKibbin will continue operating the firm.

The Carraways plan a two-month air journey of much of the Pacific Ocean area starting Jan. 3. They will depart at Orlando and stay over about three days in Honolulu, Carraway said this morning.

From there, he added, they will fly to Christchurch, N. Z., and visit with an old friend formerly assigned at Sanford Naval Air Station, Adm. and Mrs. James R. Beedy.

Admiral Beedy is now commander of the Navy Supply Forces in the Antarctic.

Mr. and Mrs. Carraway then will visit Australia, Singapore and many other places on their two-month trip.

Carraway has been extremely active in community affairs and is credited with much of the progress in the area over the past several years.

Among offices he has held is Sanford mayor for two one-year terms in 1949 and 1950. He was a member of the City Commission from 1942 to 1952.

He also is a past president of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce, having been elected to that office in October 1951. He was chairman of the annual services committee from 1951 until earlier this year when Mark N. Cleveland took over the post. He also is on the Chamber's port authority committee.

Carraway has just been elected to his third four-year term on the board of trustees of the Seminole County Public Hospital (Seminole Memorial Hospital). He also is a director of the Florida State Bank.

Carraway came to Sanford in 1939 to work for the schools and the University of Florida. Last October he observed his 25th anniversary in the insurance business.

CHRISTMAS RECIPE

Take the crisp of a December night, add two generous parts of snow, stir in air so clear it twinkles into a generous heart and the number of a hit to give the sparkle of a girl's eyes, the love of parents and set gently before the chimney with all the lightest touch of a restless house, a single 11 bulbs, a kind of life.

Set the music to the air, the air to the stream of gold will to men.

It will be almost ready to serve when it bubbles with warmth and good feeling.

Behold the light of a star set in the East, garnish with string beads of gold, silver and red berries to the taste of an ancient carol, the number of the family tree.

This recipe has 12 ingredients, 11 men, women and children, and a Christmas.

Mayor To Veto Holiday Sales

Sanford, Fla. (AP)—Mayor J. B. Perkins is expected to veto a city ordinance that would allow merchants to hold holiday sales during the Christmas season.

The ordinance would have allowed merchants to hold sales during the Christmas season, but Mayor Perkins believes it would be unfair to the city's residents.

Cdr. Nolta Killed, Lt. Stokes Hurt

By Harry T. Johnson

CDR. NOLTA

LT. STOKES

Sanford, Fla. (AP)—A Navy Cdr. Cornelius A. Nolta Jr. is dead, a hero in the fiery crash of his sleek Avenger reconnaissance bomber in a populated section of Debary.

He rode the plane virtually to earth Wednesday afternoon as he tried hard to steer his crippled aircraft away from homes in the path. After reaching the point of no return, he ejected himself from the burning plane but it was too late.

Second Lt. Stokes, who was on the mission, survived the crash but was seriously injured.

The plane, an RA-5C, destroyed two houses, set a third fire and did a job at least 10 feet deep between the two wrecked homes. The aircraft had its left main gear up on the landing gear about 100 feet from the crash.

The crash of the Avenger, which was on a mission to drop bombs on a target in Cuba, was the first of its kind in the history of the Navy's Avenger fleet.

The crash occurred at about 4:30 p.m. on Wednesday. The plane was on a mission to drop bombs on a target in Cuba. The plane was on a mission to drop bombs on a target in Cuba.
