

BRVES TO MEET GRAVES TUESDAY AT GAINESVILLE

Georgia Tech Nine To Invade Gatorland Friday For 2 Games

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Gainesville, April 1.—(Athletic News Bureau)—Florida University turns her thoughts to a baseball way to the visit of the Boston Braves to the campus on Tuesday April 2. For a number of years the Gators always played one or more of the big league clubs during the spring, and the coming of the National loop Braves here Tuesday has occasioned wide interest.

The clash with the Braves however is but the start of a busy week for the proteges of Coach Joe Bedenk. Georgia Tech's hard-hitting nine will be in Gatorland Friday and Saturday to open the conference season at home for the Orange and Blue.

In three engagements thus far, Florida has shown possibilities of another fine varsity this year. Though the collegians were defeated in both tilts recently with the Jacksonville Tars of the Southeastern League, Bedenk's men displayed beautiful speed, brains and ability.

"Lefty" Fisher turned in a marvelous pitching exhibition in dropping a 4 to 3 verdict, limiting the Tars to six hits. The lanky south paw looks to be in line for ace honor of the 1934 Florida club. Royal Untrier, veteran right hander and for two seasons mound star of the 'Gators, was hit hard by the Tars in the second game, but every pitcher in baseball meets that experience now and then.

No immediate changes are contemplated by Mentor Bedenk. "Nat" Shriver is the main cog behind the bat, with able support being given by two sophomore receivers, Tom Perry and Bob Rencher. "Red" Evers at first; Tommy Owens at second; Al Lagano at short; and Kenneth Black at third round out a strong infield combination. The injury Captain Owens suffered January 1, and which was thought to have greatly mired his baseball for this season, has apparently mended to perfection for against

SPORT BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Apr. 1.—(INS)—The veteran Willie Hoppe is a 6 to 5 favorite to defeat Allen Hall in their 600 point three-cushion billiard match which begins here this afternoon. The winner may meet Johnny Layton world's champion, in a match later this month. Another match will start today when Walker Cochran, of Hollywood, Cal., meets Felix Grange, French champion, in the first of 12 blocks of 182 balkline.

PINEHURST, N. C., Apr. 1.—(INS)—Glenna Collett, national woman's golf champion, was the favorite as the twenty-sixth edition of the North and South women's golf tournament got underway today with a field composed of the outstanding women stars of the country.

ATLANTA, Apr. 1.—(INS)—Frank Roy Speer, all-American tackle of the championship Georgia Tech 1923 football team, was married secretly Aug. 31 last year, it became known here today. Mrs. Speer was formerly Miss Frances Evelyn Shell of Atlanta.

NEW ORLEANS, Apr. 1.—(INS)—The Cleveland Indians today awaited the invasion of the New York Giants with seven victories over the New Orleans Pelicans as their record to date. The Indians defeated the Pelicans 4 to 3 yesterday, Ken Holloway and Jimmy Zinn both pitched well for the American leaguers.

BEAUMONT, Tex., Apr. 1.—(INS)—The Cubs like the Detroit Tigers so well, and vice versa, that the schedule has been rearranged to allow a three-game stand here between these clubs. They will play today, tomorrow and Wednesday weather permitting. On this diamond yesterday, the Tars Tommy fiddled steadily, and brilliantly. The outfield continues to be a problem for Bedenk. Maury Black, sophomore, largely because of his terrific hitting ability, seems assured of the left pasture. Dale Vasaakka's inability to hit his batting stride has upset plans in the local camp, and Moran Derr, a fast sophomore is being used regularly. Johnny Donahoe however remains as a strong contender. Buck Watson another first year man on the varsity, and Sam Slough, last year an infielder, are alternating in the right pasture. Leonard McClucas and Wilbur Strickland are Bedenk's chief understates for the infield.

the Braves whitewashed the Kansas City club 9 to 0. The Cubs have acquired pitcher Claude Johnson, recently made a 2 to 1 agent. He reports for work Thursday.

MCKINNEY, Tex., Apr. 1.—(INS)—Having thrice been frustrated by rain the Chicago White Sox will try again today to play that long scheduled game against a local team. This is the home town of pitcher George Cox. Yesterday the Sox lost to the Giants at Dallas, 9 to 2.

MIAMI, Fla., Apr. 1.—(INS)—The Braves play the Brooklyn Robins at baseball today and tomorrow. Then the tribe leaves Florida and moves north to Virginia for a final week's training. The Braves' outfield had improved, according to observers.

BRADENTON, Fla., Apr. 1.—(INS)—Two bustling baseball teams, the Red Sox and the Buffalo Bisons, meet here today in the initial go of a two game series. The Sox regulars rested Sunday while the team B. youngsters trounce Tampa, 9 to 5, at Tarpon Springs.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Apr. 1.—(INS)—The Harvard track team has cancelled its southern trip this year. Instead the squad started practicing today for the Penn Relays and the international meet in which Crimson and Yale athletes will compete against a combined Oxford-Cambridge team. Present.

Sunburn Craze Is Cause For Styles In Reddish Colors

PARIS, Apr. 1.—(INS)—The continued vogue for sunburned femininity, so popular during the past summer, has brought in a group of orange-red, red-orange and the entire gamut of red and rose tones as featured colors for this spring and summer.

Rose-pink is one of the newest shades launched on the Riviera, a soft peony-rose color which makes charming combinations with black or gray. Patou has produced three new nautarium colors, called deep-burnt-orange, real orange and sunshine yellow. They stand out conspicuously in all types of costumes shown at this popular house, particularly those designed for sports and evening wear where the sunburned skin would be most in evidence.

This de rose tint has returned after a eclipse of several seasons and it seems to have renewed vigor and freshness. Poppy-red will be popular, according to predic-

Appetizing Apple Sauce

AND a case of apple sauce. I think that will be all for today." So Mrs. Perkins hung up the receiver, her grocery order completed. Then she turned to the children who were watching her.

"Now," she said, "when the delivery boy comes you can have some bread and butter and apple sauce, and I'll make you an apple sauce pie. Or maybe you'd rather have apple snow? Or an apple sauce cake?"

There was a moment of silence, the children thinking deeply. Then Betty thought of the solution, and her face lighted up.

"Let's have them all!"

Of course, Mrs. Perkins rebelled at that suggestion, but she did manage to have all of them soon, for apple sauce was a favorite with her family—as witness her buying it by the case. (Of course it is cheaper by the case, too). And the minerals and vitamins contained in the sauce make it a most healthy dish.

Mrs. Perkins' Recipes

When Mrs. Perkins makes apple snow, she drains three-fourths cup of apple sauce, and beats three egg whites on a platter with a wire whisk until stiff. She adds the apple pulp gradually and continues to beat until it is well mixed and fluffy. Then she piles it lightly in a glass dish, chills it and serves it with the syrup which she had drained off.

For a plain apple sauce pie, Mrs. Perkins combines the contents of a number 2 can of apple sauce, and one teaspoon of lemon juice. She pours it into a pie-tin lined with pastry, dots liberally with butter and sprinkles with nutmeg. Then she puts the top crust on and bakes in a hot oven (450°) for ten minutes and then lowers the heat to 350° for the rest of the baking, about twenty minutes.

tions. A charming model in crepe de Chine seen at a Ritz tea recently has an elaborate pattern of frills torn from the width of crepe de Chine and left with rough edges.

Reds with a yellowish tinge like vermilion and sealing-wax tones abound in all the chic collections, as well as raspberry tints which are putting in a strong appearance. Some new reds have a delightful tone of "old red" embroidered with small milky white and black beads.

Parts Of Versailles Need Quick Repairing

PARIS, Apr. 1.—(INS)—Unless a Rockefeller or some other rich American comes to the rescue the celebrated little farm of Marie Antoinette in the grounds of the chateau of Versailles will soon be in ruins.

French newspapers are sounding a cry of alarm and urging the state to take steps in the matter if no other funds can be secured. The old wind-mill, the milk-house, the little dove-cote and the huntman's hut are all showing signs of long years and bad weather. The doors are dajointed the windows broken and the roofs leaking.

Napoleon I put the little "hamlet" into good shape immediately after the Revolution; Louis Philippe, took a turn at restoring it and the government under the Second Empire saw to it that the buildings were cared for. It is now time for the Republic to prevent one of the most charming corners in old France from disappearing.

GOLF SENSATION TO SEE GOTHAM FOR FIRST TIME

Horton Smith, Who Has No Bad Habits, Will Come To Broadway

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Apr. 1.—Broadway, the corrupt, depraved Broadway that Hollywood keeps telling us about the sinister street of "missing men", no less, seems due to lose at least one decision in a career of absolute conquest over that lining they call the soul of man. They'll be setting those words to hearts and flowers one of these days but I venture to say that turkey in the straw will do well enough right now, because Horton Smith, the nine o'clock boy, is coming to town.

The nine o'clock boy they tell me, neither smokes nor drinks nor stands on the corner leering at housewife gals as they go by on their way to work in the night club and, if one expresses a desire to gamble, I have no doubt that he hopes one will have the foresight to bring one's own lambs to the trough. Indeed, yes, the script calls for everything that is big and fine and noble and if you can reconcile that character with the fact that his name today is the toast of every locker room in the land, then you have a composite photograph of the most unusual personality that has come to the links in years.

A great golfist perhaps the greatest professional the world now knows; yet apparently he is simplicity itself. And he never seen Broadway.

Quite a bundle for a 29-year-old whose name, three months ago, probably hadn't penetrated even to the outskirts of the old home town of Joplin, Mo. Three months ago he would have had to die to get in the newspapers. Today, he couldn't be kept out, even by a press agent.

He is the sort of overnight notoriety that usually goes to one's head, provided one hasn't any to speak of. Sometimes, it gets even the guys who are far from being chumps in their own right. Babe Ruth never was any man's sup but he couldn't take the jump from poor boy to popularity. In fact, it's only in recent years that (Ruth) has been able to play the thing like the normally intelligent man he is.

Broadway is no place for an emotional type and I'm sure that will be all right with Horton Smith

Jeanne Eagels Secures Triumph In "The Letter" At Milane Theatre

Jeanne Eagels in the Paramount Picture "The Letter"

Another Attack Will Be Made On Ape Law

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Apr. 1.—(INS)—Another attempt will be made to repeal Tennessee's famous evolution law, it was learned here today. Dr. John R. Neal, chief defense counsel for the Scopes evolution trial, announced he will ask the state teachers' association in session here to petition the legislature to repeal the anti-ape law.

"Every science teacher in high schools, state colleges and universities of Tennessee is faced by the dilemma of either violating the law or failing to teach the accepted truths of science," said Dr. Neal. A bill repealing the law was introduced in the present session of the legislature, at Dr. Neal's request, but was defeated by a unanimous vote of the House.

Jeanne Eagels captured a triumph last night at the opening performance of "The Letter," Paramount's all-talking production of the W. Somerset Maugham stage success. The picture will be the featured attraction at the Milane theatre today and tomorrow. "The Letter" is an ideal all-talking picture presentation and Jeanne Eagels, supported by an excellent cast, will seldom be seen better advantage on stage screen.

Mrs. Eagels, as a lady who loved neither too wisely nor too well gave a characterization of woman scorned that will not be forgotten easily by local theatregoers. Her magnetic personality held the audience in suspense from the opening scene to the closing one. Her voice registered well and proved aptly suited to the new form of screen entertainment. Little wonder that this superb actress has been worshipped by lovers of the drama in two hemispheres.

O. P. Heggie, brilliant portrayal of many characterizations on the stage, has the important role of the lawyer who saves Miss Eagels from conviction of a murder charge by sacrificing professional ethics. Reginald Owen, as the outraged husband, has a strong role.

Jean de Limur directed and much praise is due him for the manner in which he transplanted the stage success to the screen. The heavy scent of the bromide; sunlight gleams; fresh raindrops on the leaves; Malaya's improvisation; strange melody on the mandolin; the swirl of a fan coming from beyond the veranda; while people loiter languidly in such costumes—all the atmosphere of the tropics blossomed in New York recently while the mercury hovered near the zero mark!

Filling the largest stage at the Paramount Long Island studio, the set described was used in filming "The Letter," starring Jeanne Eagels, the famous stage and screen actress. It marked the resumption of film production activities in the east after a lull of almost two years.

To the layman, the set was more than an ordinary accomplishment but, to the scenic artists and technical staff, it was just another location set and part of the day's work. Visitors who wore cumbersome recon coats, for it was during a winter cold that the picture was filmed, stood awestruck at this sudden transformation and shyly discarded their winter overcoats while witnessing a scene being filmed.

the HILL...

SSOMETHING has happened in Florida! The trailing shadows of pessimism, born of the boom and extraordinary economic conditions created by its aftermath, have passed in the experience of a great winter season—undoubtedly the most remarkable in all the history of this state.

Optimism, the normal state of mind in this commonwealth and our marching companion in a hundred years of progress, is again established on the horizon and beckons our vision to witness the bright years ahead.

All of Florida's problems are not solved. But if there were no problems there would be no progress. However, the unusual and unprecedented era of speculation and easy money which reached its zenith in 1925 takes its rightful place in history; the future stretches ahead a new opportunity and a new challenge!

This season establishes the fact Florida is a commodity which the whole nation wants; that the prejudice inspired by hectic times and the general inclination to judge this state unkindly have passed into the discard.

This season establishes the fact Florida is a commodity which the whole nation wants; that the prejudice inspired by hectic times and the general inclination to judge this state unkindly have passed into the discard.

The measure of Florida's future will be by the willingness to work and the comprehensive application of this labor. Many things have been done, many more are still to be done. The way is now clear for us to set out own heights of achievement.

Year-round travel, agricultural development accompanied by adequate marketing facilities, beautification, industries, all-state advertising, diversified recreation for all classes of people, airports, foreign trade, especially with South America—these things at the moment present themselves as definite problems in establishing the permanent destiny of Florida. Still more strictly local problems bid for consideration and intelligent settlement.

And yet, with all these problems and others which will present themselves in the natural order of things, Florida is over the hill . . . marching triumphantly towards the day which will crown her the brightest star in the assembly of states!

BIG PROFIT

Classified Ads are popular for a number of reasons, they get RESULTS quickly, they are easy to use and they cost ONLY A FEW CENTS a day.

This small cost offers big profit to advertisers. Let us say you have a house that is empty; you have been renting it for $35 a month. If it stays idle for a month you have lost $35.

The average classified ad run for a month costs less than $5.00. Granting that you spent that much to get your house rented, you still have a good profit left... a sum you would not have had otherwise.

Historical day... the discovery of Florida by Juan Ponce de Leon in 1513; the founding of the City of St. Augustine by Pedro Menendez in 1565 and the other historical and allegorical phases which are so closely associated with the tradition of St. Augustine, would tend to confuse the average visitor and it is because of this fact that the amplifying equipment is to be installed at a cost of approximately $100 each performance. In this manner the audience will be able to see and hear at the same time all that is being enacted before them each day even though the scene may include several hundred characters. The celebration itself is to be produced this year on the plain of ancient Fort San Marco, the approximate spot where Pedro Menendez founded St. Augustine. On this site a huge grandstand capable of holding approximately 4,500 persons has been erected. An entire Indian village has been erected, palm-trees, palms, shrubs and other foliage has been transplanted and arranged to simulate the actual conditions under which Florida was discovered and her first City founded.

Two hundred horses have been imported as mounts for the gorgeously arrayed grandees who follow Ponce de Leon and Menendez and for the mounted Indians. Spectacular gilded carriages, true to their historical era in detail, have been conditioned to carry the Spanish Queen, her attendants and ladies in waiting and the whole celebration is to be reproduced this year on a greater and more comprehensive scale than ever before in the history of the City.

ANNUAL FETE AT ST. AUGUSTINE IS TO BE PUT ON AIR

Giant Hookup Will Describe Events During De Leon Celebration. ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Mar. 2. The annual Ponce de Leon Celebration being produced at an approximate cost of $17,000 by the St. Augustine Junior Chamber of Commerce on April 2, 3, and 4, will be broadcast this year by the same concern that handled so effectively the opening and dedication of the Bok Singing Tower at Mountain Lake, Florida, recently.

Arrangements have been completed to hook up the giant amplifying and broadcasting equipment for the entire three days so that the whole of the gorgeous pageantry can be carried not only to the 4,200 grandstand and box audience but also to those who are not on the ground themselves. Three years ago this system was used and met with overwhelming popularity, amongst those who attended the celebration and would otherwise have been at a loss to grasp the full significance.
