Searchers locate JFK, Jr. and plane

The wreckage of John F. Kennedy's single-engine airplane has been located by underwater searchers off the coast of Martha's Vineyard.

Government sources confirmed this morning that searchers, using ship-based sonar equipment, found the plane with Kennedy's body still aboard.

There were no immediate details on whether the bodies of his wife, Carolyn, and her sister, Lauren Beesette, also were found.

The plane is believed to have crashed into the ocean Friday night in an area seven miles from the southwest tip of the Massachusetts island. Divers from the Massachusetts State Police and Navy salvage vessel USS Grasp were part of the search effort.

CNN carried a story that the Kennedy family does not want an Arlington funeral for the son of the late President John F. Kennedy.

The Washington Post ran a story today that JFK, Jr. told acquaintances he was happy to fly solo after having a cast removed from his ankle the day before he flew his Piper Saratoga II on Friday.

Man bares buns in Altamonte Mall

Altamonte Springs — A loss prevention specialist at the Sears Department Store in the Altamonte Mall played a role in an unusual arrest Monday.

After observing Ellis Michael Morris, 30, of Foxridge Run Longwood, acting suspiciously in the men's department, they placed him under observation with video cameras and alerted mall security.

Morris exited the men's department, walked to the main concourse area and lifted his shirt, exposing his bare buttocks.

Altamonte Springs police arrested him for indecent exposure and for trespassing.

Morris has previously been arrested for trespassing at the Altamonte Mall in December of 1996.

Charity run Sept. 6

Arnold Palmer Hospital for Children & Women will host the first-ever Miracle Miles 15K Run at 7 a.m. Monday, Sept. 6. The event kicks off the hospital's 10th Birthday celebration and is expected to draw more than 2,000 runners. Proceeds will benefit the hospital.

The cost is $15 through Aug. 28, $18 from Aug. 30-Sept. 4, and $25 on the day of the race. For more information, call (407) 898-1313.

Long-time aide resigns court mediator post

Ryan says he doesn't like the 'tone' new director is setting

By Joe DeSantis
Staff Writer

SANFORD — Saying he's had enough and he doesn't care for what he sees and hears, a veteran of Seminole County's Volunteer Mediator program has quit, turning his attention and time to other activities in public service.

Jim Ryan, retired Director of the Sanford Port Authority, and a charter member of the mediation program, submitted his letter of resignation to county judges July 1. His resignation comes less than a month after administration of the program was transferred away from the Seminole County Bar association and taken over by county staff.

"I hope they continue to do well," said Ryan. "I don't want to offend anyone but it's time for me to take my marbles and go home."

Ryan said he understood a few other mediators who have been with the program since its inception plan to leave as well. Now six years old, the Volunteer Mediation Program handles civil cases involving sums of less than $5,000. Its role and benefit to the county court system has grown since 1993. Mediators lightened the county court docket by handling 760 cases last year with a 90 percent success rate.

County judges transferred administration of the program away from the Seminole Bar Association at the end of June. The Bar's executive director, Bobbi Bullington labeled the move a political playback for See Mediator, Page 3A

Former SCC employee arrested for stealing

School missing between $20,000 to $99,000 in computer equipment

By Joe DeSantis
Staff Writer

SANFORD — A former employee and student at Seminole Community College has been arrested in connection with an on-going investigation into the theft of computers and computer accessories from the college.

The Seminole County Sheriff's Office, in cooperation with Apopka police, served a warrant on Christopher Ryan Chupp of Cervidae Drive residence. A search of his home revealed a number of computers and computer related equipment. Police reports indicate Chupp admitted taking the equipment from the SCC Computer Resource Center over a two year period.

Chupp, 24, has been formally charged with burglary to a structure-unarmed, and grand theft of property valued between $20,000 and $99,000.

Technology played a role in the apprehension of Chupp, who was employed at the col- See Stealing, Page 2A

Police bust heroine ring

Police recovered handguns, computers and several hundred bottles of pills as a result of a six-month investigation that uncovered a statewide heroine ring operating out of Seminole County. Below, Assistant Statewide Prosecutor John Craft speaks during a press conference.

Statewide operation based in Altamonte Springs

By Bill Kerns
Staff Writer

SANFORD — Police have broken up a statewide heroine ring based out of Seminole County and are investigating the possibility the group may have had a nationwide distribution system.

So far, authorities have arrested 10 people, including three Seminole County residents and two doctors.

Drug agents on Tuesday arrested Ronald Joseph Centrone, M.D., in Ft. Lauderdale.

Investigators said Centrone and Orlando doctor Linn Robert Klotz, M.D., were both supplying illegal prescriptions for hydromorphone, a synthetic form of heroine.

The group was dealing in additional drugs as well, including street heroin, Methodone and marijuana. Seminole County was the hub of the operation, although other suspects have been arrested throughout the state, investigators said.

Investigators believe the organization may have nationwide ties. An additional 30 to 40 See Heroine, Page 5A

School board provides incentive funding

By Bill Kerns
Staff Writer

SANFORD — The Seminole County School Board provided $100,000 in state incentives Monday to schools with high scores on standardized tests.

Six schools received the maximum amount awarded by the school board of $6,122 each. Keeth, Lake Mary, Partin, Stenstrom, and Wekiva elementary schools, as well as Lake Brantley High School, received $6,122 each in funding.

Nine schools received $4,081 each from the school board. The elementary schools include Carillon, Goldsboro, Heathrow, Lawton, Longwood, and Rainbow. The high schools receiving $4,081 include Lake Howell, Oviedo and Seminole. Thirteen schools received $2,040 for increasing student performance from the previous year as well as for receiving high test scores. See School, Page 3A

Woman injured in car vs. bike accident

A bicyclist was struck by a car Tuesday at about 11 a.m. on Lake Mary Boulevard at Waymont Court. Investigators said the bicyclist, Karen MacDonald, was not wearing a helmet. Seminole County and Lake Mary Fire Department personnel prepared the bicyclist for transport to Orlando Regional Medical Center. She was complaining of rib pain and bruises to her right arm and wrist.

Democrats promise more active role in county political races

Bob Poe: 'There's no place for us to go but up'

By Russ White
Staff Writer

The Democrats say they are no longer an endangered species in Seminole County. Like the bald eagle, they're re-emerging.

Bob Poe, the newly elected chairman of the county's Democratic Executive Committee, said after more than a decade of decline the party is alive and well. Area Democrats are raising funds and preparing candidates for office.

According to figures supplied by Supervisor of Elections Sandra Goard, there are 63,719 registered Democrats and 93,550 Republicans in the County. For several years the Democrats have had no candidates to support.

"There's been more excitement in the last two months than in the last two years," Poe said Tuesday. "The pendulum has definitely begun to swing. There's no place for us to go but up."

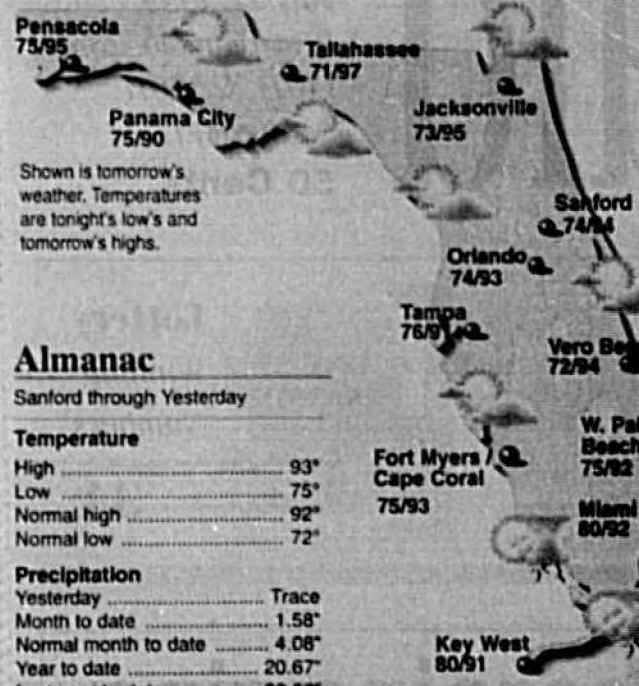

He said the party has an Aug. 12 meeting in Sanford that will feature a debate between Sanford Mayor Larry Dale and those opposed to the city's plans to build a conference center/hotel at Fort Mellon Park. See Democrats, Page 7A lege from January 1995 until his resignation in February of 1998. He was also a student at the college from 1991-98.

Video cameras mounted in SCC's Building L revealed that Chupp entered the facility at 4 a.m. on Sunday morning, July 18. His identity on video tape was confirmed by school employees. The Sheriff's department then secured a search warrant.

According to the arrest record, Chupp admitted to authorities during the search of his residence that he took computers and other equipment over a two-year period, gaining after-hours access with keys he said he got from an ex-SCC security officer. He was booked into the John E. Polk Correctional Facility on $1,000 bail.

Sue Putnam, 61, of Sanford, was also arrested after investigators said she confessed to providing the keys to Chupps for the thefts. She had a stolen computer in her home at Park Avenue Trailer Park #60 that is worth $4,000.

Robert Lyles, Media Relations Director said the college wanted to withhold comment at this time because the investigation is still on-going

Volunteers needed for Junior Achievement

ORLANDO - Junior Achievement of Central Florida is seeking volunteers to assist with classroom programs in Seminole, Lake, Orange, Osceola, and Volusia counties.

Volunteer responsibilities include working with area teachers in grades K-12 to serve as role models and help students understand economic fundamentals and career opportunities. Classroom training and materials are provided by Junior Achievement.

Volunteer programs are available at three levels. Elementary school programs teach students the relevance of their education to the workplace through activities and require approximately 30-45 minutes of volunteer time per week for five weeks.

Middle school programs use problem-solving activities to encourage students to develop skills and require 45 minutes of volunteer time per week for five to eight weeks.

High school programs prepare students for the business world through courses in economics and business and require 50-55 minutes per week for eight weeks.

George Gershwin was a composer for the ages

George Gershwin surely would have been pleased at the way his music was presented at a concert Sunday night at Lake Howell High School.

To be sure, Mike Arena's Altamonte Jazz Ensemble got Gershwin.

Strike Up the Band. Fascinating Rhythm. Rhapsody in Blue. Our Love is Here to Stay. A Foggy Day. Nice Work if You Can Get It. A Porgy and Bess medley.

Gershwin songs are so good that you wish the kids would blare it out from their cars or boom boxes. Yeah, I Got a Crush on You.

When's the last time anyone complained about too much Gershwin or too loud Gershwin or too much Gershwin? Can't happen. Can't be enough of such a good thing.

Ira Gershwin said that from his brother "emanated a new American music not written with the ruthlessness of one who strives to demolish established rules but based on a new gusto and wit and awareness."

Truly, Gershwin's exquisite music will live long after the artist formerly known as Prince has been long forgotten, as have others such as Madonna and Ice-T. Gershwin will be played when folks begin worrying about Y2K. His songs are here to stay.

Arena is one of those who will guarantee Gershwin is played. His arrangements at the Sunday concert were outstanding. Tom Mitchell, one of the ensemble's trombonists, arranged the Porgy and Bess medley, featuring piano player Brad Bietry.

"Please don't let this end," I whispered to the Woman I Loved.

As we get older, most of us find fault with new trends — especially those in music. I don't doubt this has happened to me. I preferred Ozzie Nelson to Ozzie Osborne. Peggy Lee to Mariah Carey. Big Band to Big Noise.

What ever happened to taste? What ever happened to melody? Whatever happened to love songs?

A few years ago some of today's music stars did a Gershwin album. Bon Jovi was on it. So was Cher. It was good music. So was Natalie Cole's album with her dad's music. Their "Unforgettable" duet was just that - unforgettable.

It was nice to see young people enjoying the Gershwin concert on Sunday. They were outnumbered but they were there. Some of Arena's musicians were young men. They knew how to play Gershwin and they appreciated his musical gift.

Jack Simpson, the jazz host for WUCF-FM, was the emcee for the concert at Lake Howell High School. He's a charming fellow, born and educated in England but very much a Central Floridian today. Catch his "Jazz on the Beach" radlib show on Saturday mornings on WUCF.

And try a little Gershwin, too.

Russ White's column appears Tuesday through Saturday in the Seminole Herald.

her involvement in judicial campaigns. County Judge Fred Hitt said the move has always been in the judiciary's long range plans, and the upgrading of a staff position cleared the way for the county judiciary to take over administration of the program effective the first of this month.

In his letter of resignation, Ryan wrote that he and the new director of the program, Cassa Robinson, got off on the wrong foot when she asked him, "If I was going to stay or leave HER program."

Ryan goes on in his resignation letter to say that he has heard Robinson state to judicial assistants and other mediators that Seminole County's claimed success rate of 80 to 92 percent was not true and ridiculous.

He concluded his letter to the judges by informing them he did not want to be berated by "the new kid on the block," as Robinson has referred to herself, and that he didn't like the "tone" of things to come.

"That kind of atmosphere only harms the program," said Ryan. "It didn't sit well with me in what I was hearing and seeing."

Ryan added that he enjoyed his relationship with judges and the program's founders, and he said he learned a great deal in his five-and-a-half year involvement.

A veteran of three wars, Ryan said he will now devote his time and energies to working with the Veterans Administration clinic in Orlando.

Robinson, who took over administration of the program said she didn't think she and Ryan got off to a bad start. "I was trying to make a smooth transition," she said. "The news kid on the block statement was a fragment of speech. I have left the door open for Jim Ryan to come back to the program. I don't take his resignation personally or professionally and I don't wish to get involved in court house politics. I wish to do my job as professionally as possible."

Schools

The elementary schools receiving more than $2,000 include Altamonte, Casselberry, Hamilton, Midway, Sebal Point, and Woodlands. Middle schools receiving $2,000 include Greenwood Lakes, Milwee, Rock Lake, Sanford, and Teague. The high schools include Crooms and Lake Mary.

The schools were awarded points in the incentive program based on their performance on Florida Writes!, the FCAT, as well as CTBS or HSCT.

Other funding actions were also discussed by the school board. The Board discussed possible funding for the Central Florida Zoo. The Zoo is requesting more than $1 million in funding to help pay for renovations. The Board will discuss possible funding for the Zoo in a June 27 budget work session at 3 p.m.

"We have 10,000 students yearly who participate in programs at the Zoo," said Board member Sandra Robinson. "It's very important to us. We'll see what we can do about finding some funding for the Zoo."

The Board also received a presentation on the school district's preparation for the Y2K computer problem. Funds have been approved and equipment has been ordered to replace hardware and software in business education laboratories in high schools and middle schools that were known not to be Y2K compliant.

The volunteers from the Business Advisory Board have created a project plan to coordinate the Y2K compliance activities that have been taking place.

"We're off the critical list," Robinson said. "We're in good shape."

In other action, the board also:

- Approved revisions to the Zero Tolerance policy as discussed in the Board's June 20 meeting. The policy is scheduled for final adoption at the August 10 School Board meeting.

Students will be subject to expulsion for a minimum of one semester for possession of a controlled substance, such as narcotic or hallucinogenic drugs, amphetamines, barbituates, and marijuana.

Survivors include brother, Frank Pugh, Fort Wayne, Ind.; daughter, Dawn P. Davis, Sanford; daughter, Rita A. Hawkins, Sanford; daughter, Mildred Susie Stubbs, Sanford; daughter, Jeri Rich, Los Angeles, Calif.; daughter, Eva Spald,

Your View

Angry over development

To the editor:

Leslie Pulk and other WATCH DOG members are justifiably upset at the Seminole County Commission's decision on July 13th to rezone 90 acres near Paola from Agricultural to Planned Unit Development, over the objections of many local residents. She may, as reported, feel "betrayed ... and shocked. Ninety-nine percent of the people pleaded with them to stop. They ignored us." Personally, I wasn't so surprised.

The unprecedented growth in Seminole County over the last year or two is not likely to be controlled by groups of homeowners (such as WATCH DOG) showing up at commission meetings only when they see a threat to their own neighborhood. Instead, a much broader approach is needed.

These interested persons need to work to prevent all inappropriate development, and this needs to be done on a pro-active basis. We need to elect commissioners who will be more protective of the environment, and who will consider the needs of wildlife and the lifestyles of the county's current residents before the demands of developers and investors.

I would love to see these activists work with some of the excellent environmental groups already operating in Seminole County. Rather than objecting to one particular development, they could work to control development throughout the county, whether in especially sensitive areas like the Wekiva River Basin and the Econlockhatchee River, or in Sanford (I refer to the plans for another hotel and marina on Lake Monroe, presumably with jet skis and air boats).

Vince Carter send congratulations

To the editor:

Positive recognition for the extraordinary work of young people too often seems to take a back seat to negative headline-grabbing news narratives. This fact was brought to my attention by a recent letter to the editor from the principal at Devon Charter School in Sanford.

According to the letter, local media arrived at the school on May 26 to cover a school awards ceremony for some 90 emotionally-handicapped and emotionally-disturbed students, six of whom would receive presidential academic awards.

One of the two invited guests of honor was John Williams of the Pittsburgh Steelers. The other was to be Vince Carter of the Toronto Raptors, a Daytona Beach resident. Unfortunately, Vince had to miss the event at the last minute as the announcement was being made that he would receive the 1999 NBA Rookie of the Year Award in Toronto that day.

Apparently, when the reporters discovered that Vince would not be in attendance, (all except the Seminole Herald) opted for the exit.

My company represents Vince and knowing the kind of man he is, I know he would have insisted on other arrangements had he known the outcome.

As the president of a children's charitable organization — the Embassy of Hope Foundation — a regular visitor to local schools, and a tireless advocate of children's causes worldwide, Vince understands the importance of instilling a sense of worth in all young people.

The students at Devon Charter School should be commended for their efforts, not just by their teachers and administrators, but by the community as a whole.

Vince regrets he was unable to attend the ceremony and sends his congratulations to each award recipient. He looks forward to visiting Devon Charter School in the future.

We hardly knew ye, JFK, Jr.

For the past few days the ingenious writers have been offering requiems for John F. Kennedy, Jr. Carolyn Bessette Kennedy and her sister Lauren Bessette.

Most of us knew of the three solely from newspapers, magazines or TV clips. We really didn't know them.

So it is, we mourn the loss of their lives.

Each child who comes into this world has the potential to make it a better place by loving and respecting others and developing individual gifts or talents.

Some are born into poverty, some into wealth. Some are healthy, some are not. Some live only hours or days. Some live 100 or more years.

It matters not how long anyone lives but how he or she lives during the allotted span.

In other words, there are no untimely deaths.

Jesus Christ lived on earth 33 years. Yet no man ever accomplished as much.

No man ever affected as many lives. No man ever taught more about love. Could Christ had done any more in 34 years or 35 years?

From what I observed — be it at a distance — JFK, Jr. was a fine young man. Well-mannered, decent, fun-loving, perhaps fool-hearty. He was as his uncle, Ted Kennedy said, "the shining light in all our lives ... he had many gifts and gave us great joy."

Could JFK, Jr. done anymore in 39 or 40 years?

We're never going to know if he would have ascended to the presidency as his dad did. Friends say he was considering a Senate bid. He backed off when Hillary Clinton talked of running. JFK, Jr. was in no hurry. He was merely 38.

Russ White

In that time, he grew to manhood, married and began George, a political and pop culture magazine. He was a charismatic speaker, unruffled before thousands of people. Few celebrities ever dealt so pleasantly with the ever present paparazzi.

Like his dad, JFK, Jr. had a twinkle in his eye and a charming wit. Enough to be chosen once by People magazine as the Sexiest Man Alive. He graduated from Brown University and NYU Law School. He needed a couple of extra stabs at the New York bar exam. Apparently, he did well in a half-dozen court decisions. He was a fine public speaker.

Some may say, "Only the Good Die Young." We know better than that. Good people die young and old. Theologian C.S. Lewis wrote how different God's Time is to man's time. We scurry along a life line from A to B to C.

God has other grander designs.

Russ White is the senior writer for the Seminole Herald.

A nation grieves the loss of its son

A chill ran through the spine of the nation Saturday morning as households woke up to the news coverage ... JFK Jr., MISS-ING.

"What? They'll find him I'm sure." But the hours dragged on, and we began to see the 24-hour coverage turn into 48-hour coverage, and still no Camelot Prince to be found.

The voices of cynics pierced the graveness of the situation. "Are they still doing non-stop coverage? This is crap!" "When will they put back on the golf game? This overdramatized search is taking over all the good programming!" "If it were a normal person they wouldn't search this long!"

Ahh, but JFK Jr. was not a normal person. The coast guard was not scavenging the seas for a dead president's son. They were searching for the nation's son.

Little John-John to some, the hunk JFK Jr.

to others. Either way, the little boy who saluted his father's passing coffin was immediately adopted by the nation. This child who lost a father gained a parenting nation.

Summer Copeland

We watched JFK Jr.'s transitions into a grown-up life. He entered Brown University with dreams of a Hollywood star, but those later melted into the technicalities of the law at NYU law school. We watched with the embarrassing pain of a parent as he failed the bar twice, finally passing on the third try.

We swooned over his fantastic romance with Daryl Hannah. We felt betrayed at being kept in the dark as he wooed and later married Carolyn Bessette, but quickly learned to accept and love her as the new queen of Camelot.

What was it that made us fascinated with this young man? His rugged good looks? His name? His "most eligible bachelor" status?

Perhaps it was the fact that John Jr. was a decent human being. We waited and waited for scandal to find this man, as it has found almost every other Kennedy, but John-John kept his nose clean. He was the son we were all proud of.

He chose not to follow in the footsteps of his predecessors, and steered clear of the political arena. Sadly, though, his path ultimately followed that of his father and uncle Bobby, who left this earth too soon.

Now we as a nation face the awesome task of burying our son. The boy we watched grow into a man, a lawyer, a publisher, a heart-throb.

A hope. Some will miss the idea of his potential. Others will miss the fantasy of the handsome man. But no matter how he will be missed, every citizen in the nation will have a void without our American Prince.

Heroine

arrests are expected in the ongoing investigation, said Lt. Sammy Gibson of the Seminole County Sheriff's Office.

"We believe we have arrested and charged the main members of the organization," Gibson said.

Pharmacy records indicate that members of the organization illegally obtained tens of thousands of prescription pills since 1992, with millions of dollars in estimated profits, investigators said. Each tablet had a street value of between $25 and $50.

Investigators said Seminole County residents Sandra Mitz Belcher, 47, Stephen Christian Spillers, 27, and John Joseph Hoovers, 47, illegally obtained prescriptions and resold pills on the underground market. Investigators said that Belcher alone illegally obtained more than 7,000 pills since 1992.

The three were arrested on Friday, charged with conspiracy to sell a controlled substance without a prescription, and each given a bond of $200,000.

Belcher and Spillers both live at 517 Oak Haven Drive in Altamonte Springs, while Hoovers resides at 4025 Honeybee Point in Sanford. Investigators believe Belcher was the leader of the organization. Gibson said Belcher organized the receipt and distribution of the drugs statewide.

Altamonte Springs police received an anonymous tip in January that Belcher was dealing in synthetic heroine. The investigation spread statewide, and investigators said the drug ring's ties reached into Orange, Brevard, Hillsborough and Polk counties.

"They were very active in Altamonte Springs," Gibson said. "They were also operating from coast to coast throughout Florida."

The drug was being purchased under the brand name of Dilaudid. Investigators are looking into several pharmacies where illegal prescriptions may have been sold.

"It can be taken in tablet or liquid form," Gibson said about Dilaudid.

Since at least 1992, the organization built a network of people who were purchasing the drugs, Gibson said.

Investigators have confiscated a scanner, computer equipment, prescription bottle, drug paraphernalia, and two handguns from the organization.

"Certainly handguns are tools of the trade of drug traffickers," Gibson said.

Gibson said investigators are searching for financial records, plus records of orders for prescriptions.

The next stage of the investigation will involve seeking pharmacy records and doctor records for suspects who may have been involved in the organization, Gibson said.

Those arrested for the purchase or sale of narcotics include Catherine Turner, Orlando; Lavern James Cox, Bithlo; Ralph Thomas Odice, Lakeland; Lisa McGee, Brevard County; Eamond Gains Moyer, Jr., St. Petersburg.

Trafficking in more than 28 grams of narcotics carries a possible sentence of 25 years or more, said John Craft, an assistant statewide prosecutor under the attorney general.

"We want the penalties to be so stiff that we close down this organization," Craft said.

The Altamonte Springs police and Seminole County Sheriff's Office conducted the investigation with the City-County Investigative Bureau, Florida Department of Law Enforcement, the Drug Enforcement Agency, Lakeland and Orlando police, and the Polk County, Orange County, Brevard County, Broward County, and Hillsborough County sheriff's departments.

Television programming is the key to curbing teen violence

By Amy Guenther
Schools Page Contributor

Many people are curious as to how the teen crime rate could be reduced, especially during the summer when teens have more time to get in trouble.

There is a way to keep teens occupied during the day. Many people may not like the idea, but it is sure to improve the crime rate.

The main reason for juveniles to get in trouble is the lack of activity. The first thing most teens do before heading out the door is a quick check to see if there is anything good on television.

After the channel surfing is complete, some teens get ambitious and see what is playing at the movie theater.

Once they remember they are experiencing a cash shortage they call up their friends. If their friends are also having a lack of ideas of what to do, they decide to hang out.

Hanging out immediately leads to creative ideas and combined with a shortage of money it leads to petty theft or even worse.

The most effective way to prevent it would be to stop it before teens get to the hanging out phase.

There is not much to be done about the shortage of money, except encouraging teens to get jobs. However, the first things teens do is check the television.

The television should have programming that has high teen ratings during the day in the summer time. Shows don't have to come on until 11:30 a.m. because most teens don't get up before then anyhow.

The television programming is the key to the prevention of teen crime. Many people may think that exposing teens to even more violence on television is more harmful than helpful.

I hate to be the bearer of bad news, but violent television is what my generation has grown up watching, and besides we could watch the news and see more gruesome footage than if we watched a slasher movie.

With this in mind how can one rightly accuse television programming of being the cause of teen violence.

It is not. It is too late to change the behaviors we have grown up with.

Teen violence escalates from the television being hired as a regular baby-sitter for young children.

If parents really cared about their child's level of violence, they would more closely monitor what they were allowing the children to watch on television.

It does not matter what 16 and 17 year olds watch as much as it does what 6 and 7 year olds watch. The programming for the two age groups should not be the same.

Increasing what teens want to see on television would not make teen crime totally disappear.

At this point I'm not convinced that anything would, but it would help.

The only way to put teen crime to a stop, people must look to the younger children, those who are addicted to video games, television, and the internet.

There is nothing wrong with allowing children to watch television, play video games, or surf the internet, but too much of anything is dangerous.

Time should be limited. Alternative activities should be presented. These things together could help the crime rate to dwindle in the future.

Putting on more of what teens want to see during their free time would help reduce the crime rate.

Of course parents would have to be sure to make sure their younger children are watching Nickelodeon and not MTV.

Son's ex-wife finds way around his mother's will

DEAR ABBY: My ex-wife, who continued to be a friend to my mother after our divorce, has, in my opinion, recently overstepped her bounds. On the day of my mother's funeral, my ex-wife arrived early at Mom's house and commenced to help herself to several pieces of personal property. I found out later that all of the personal property was willed to me.

Where does this kind of behavior fit in the realm of manners or etiquette — or maybe even criminal activity? My mother had specific items listed in her will to give to certain people.

CONFUSED IN ANCHORAGE, ALASKA

DEAR CONFUSED: The kind of behavior your ex-wife displayed does not fit into the realm of manners or etiquette, but it certainly qualifies in the category of criminal activity. Have your attorney demand (in writing) that the stolen items be returned immediately, or the police will be notified and a theft report filed.

DEAR ABBY: A number of years ago my husband's sexual interest stopped. Initially, because I begged him, he consulted a few doctors and we went to several therapists. Nothing worked. There are no indications that there is another woman. The only other "woman" he seems to be interested in is "Mary," as in "Bloody Mary."

I recently met a much younger man (I'll call him Joel), and there is a strong mutual attraction. He will be working in this country only a couple of months, after which he will return home to his fiancée. In light of my imposed celibacy, would a tryst with Joel really be adultery? For many reasons I will never divorce my husband.

UNTOUCHED TAMALE

DEAR UNTOUCHED: Yes, a tryst with Joel would really be adultery. A short fling won't quench your thirst — it will only stimulate your appetite and create more problems. I'd advise against it.

ADVICE COLUMNIST

DEAR ABBY: I am 26 and have been engaged for two years. The problem is that my fiancé doesn't want to make a life for us. He is 28, and still lives at home with his divorced 51-year-old mother and her 38-year-old live-in boyfriend.

My fiancé has no living expenses and operates his own business. He talks about finding a place for us, but it's just talk — he never makes any effort. I have tried everything to motivate him, but nothing seems to work.

Abby, his living arrangements and his procrastination about finding us a place to live together don't seem normal. Should I just throw in the towel?

UPSET IN MISSOURI

DEAR UPSET: Not yet. Since your fiancé hasn't moved forward in finding the two of you a place to live, begin looking on your own. If you find something affordable, take him to see it so you can sign a lease together. If he starts making excuses — then it's time to throw in the towel.

Picnic fare without the picnic pests

By Marialisa Calta

I love the idea of a picnic. It's the reality that I hate.

The idea of a picnic is indeed lovely: dining al fresco, in a casual yet naturally beautiful setting, convivially sharing tasty morsels with friends or (in the case of a romantic picnic) a single loved one. The reality? Damp ground, dirt (or sand) in the food, lipped wine glasses, a host of uninformed guests in the form of ants and yellow jackets, and the smell of bug spray.

I am, in fact, a picnic wimp.

I prefer to eat my picnic fare on a screened-in porch, where the table is level, the dirt is outside and the bugs are kept at bay. But I do indeed like picnic fare, those aforementioned "tasty morsels" designed for easy transport, hassle-free eating (tensils are often optional), and maximum fun. A picnic meal needn't be organized in courses; all the food can be jumbled together in a smorgasbord-ish sort of way. It can be caviar-and-truffle-fancy or peanut-butter-and-jelly-down-to-earth. A picnic can consist entirely of take-out (cheese, bread, olives, fruit), or you can spend all day preparing. Picnics can be served on good china or paper plates.

Here is a menu of recipes for a great picnic, from a cheerful, summery new book called "Picnics," by Barbara Scott-Goodman. These dishes are suitable for packing into a hamper and taking to the beach or the park, if you must. But I'll be on the porch.

GRILLED STEAK AND ROASTED RED ONION RING SANDWICHES

For the steak:
1/2 cup red wine vinegar
1/4 cup low-sodium soy sauce
1/4 cup olive oil
2-1/2 pounds skirtin, 1 inch thick

For the onion rings:
4 medium red onions, peeled and cut into 1/4-inch-thick rings
2 tablespoons olive oil
salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste

For the sandwiches:
12 slices pumpernickel or rye bread
mayonnaise or mustard
Boston or Bibb lettuce, rinsed, drained and coarsely shredded

Combine the vinegar and soy sauce in a small bowl. Whisk in the olive oil. Place the steak in a large glass or ceramic baking dish and pour the marinade over it. Cover and refrigerate 3 hours, or overnight. Turn the steak occasionally.

Prepare a gas or charcoal grill. Grill the steak over medium-hot coals, 4 to 5 minutes on each side for rare meat, 6 to 7 minutes on each side for medium. Baste with the marinade several times during grilling. Remove the steak to a cutting board and carve on the diagonal into 3/8-inch-thick slices. Cover the meat slices with plastic wrap and refrigerate to chill.

To prepare the onion rings: Preheat the oven to 350 degrees. Place the sliced onions in a roasting pan. Toss with the 2 tablespoons olive oil and salt and pepper. Roast the onions until fork-tender, about 1 hour.

To assemble the sandwiches: Generously spread the bread with the mayonnaise or mustard. Divide the sliced steak between 6 of the bread slices and cover the meat with the roasted onion rings. Top with the shredded lettuce and the remaining bread, and cut the sandwich in half. Yield: 6 sandwiches.

RED CABBAGE, PEPPER AND ONION COLESLAW WITH ORANGE-CUMIN VINAIGRETTE

1/2 head red cabbage, thinly sliced (about 6 cups)
1 medium red bell pepper, seeded and thinly sliced
1 medium yellow bell pepper, seeded and thinly sliced
1 medium red onion, peeled, quartered and thinly sliced
1/2 cup golden raisins
2 tablespoons red wine vinegar
4 tablespoons fresh orange juice
1 tablespoon fresh lime juice
1/3 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon ground cumin
1/2 cup extra-virgin olive oil
salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste

Put the cabbage, red and yellow bell peppers, onion and raisins in a very large bowl. Toss together until well combined.

In a medium bowl, mix the vinegar, orange juice and lime juice together.

Gently stir in the mayonnaise and cumin until well combined. Whisk in the olive oil until the vinaigrette is creamy and thickened and all of the oil has been incorporated.

Pour the vinaigrette over the cabbage mixture and toss well. Add the salt and pepper to taste and mix well again. Cover the coleslaw and chill until ready to serve. Yield: 8 to 12 servings.

LEMON WAFERS

Butter or other shortening for greasing baking sheets
6 tablespoons unsalted butter, at room temperature
1 cup granulated sugar
1 egg, at room temperature
1-1/4 cups unbleached all-purpose flour, plus more for flaring fingers
4 ounces almonds, ground
1-1/2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice

Center a rack in the oven. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Lightly grease 2 baking sheets.

In a large bowl, mix together the butter, sugar and egg with an electric mixer on medium speed until smooth. Stir in the flour, almonds and lemon juice and mix until well combined.

Spoon the dough onto the baking sheets and press the dough into 2-1/2-inch rounds with floured fingers.

Bake 10 to 12 minutes, until the edges are lightly browned. Remove the cookies with a spatula and let cool on racks. Store in an airtight container until ready to serve. Serve alone, or with ice cream or sorbet; or with iced espresso, for dipping. Yield: 2 dozen wafers.

Evelyn McGee Stone performs July 22 in Orlando

ORLANDO - Orlando jazz performer Evelyn McGee Stone will perform during a celebration of Ageless Heroes luncheon on July 22, in the Presidential Ballroom of Church Street Station in Orlando. The two-hour luncheon begin at 11:30 a.m.

The cost is $35 per person, or $35 for two seniors 65 and older. Stone, named the 1999 Ageless Hero in Creative Expression, received an award from former-President George Bush in May at the National Ageless Hero Awards celebration in Chicago.

The Central Florida celebration will honor seven area seniors for their achievements. The Florida Ageless Heroes program is part of a national initiative of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association to recognize older Americans.

Democrats

"Some of us (the Democrats) are for the plan, others against," Poe said. "What we want to do is get this issue and others such as the efforts of WATCH DOG out in the public. We want to resolve issues not put them aside like the Republicans have. Democrats look at both sides of an issue."

The biggest lift the dormant Democrats are getting, Poe believes, is from Republicans in Washington and in Seminole County.

"The Clinton impeachment process soured voters everywhere," Poe said. "Sure, the president behaved poorly, but the mean-spirited, partisan nature of the Republicans was what really gnawed at them."

Poe predicts that Rep. Bill McCollum, one of the Republican House managers, will take a sound beating in his bid for the U.S. Senate. He said it was "a more graceful way" for McCollum to bow out than be beaten for his own House seat in 2000.

At the same time, county residents have become more and more disappointed at unresponsive Republican commission, Poe said.

"There's a huge degree of frustration by those who feel they have been taken for granted."

Add to this a surge in the ideals of Democrats from the tragic loss of lives in the John F. Kennedy plane disappearance last weekend.

"This event, though very sad, has caused us to reflect on a time when we believed in the ideals of the political process," Poe said.

Poe, 45, has been a Central Floridian since 1969, the year Man walked on the Moon. He graduated from Evans High School in Orlando and from the University of Central Florida. He ran for the state Senate in 1980 but lost. He was more successful as he organized the bid by the Orlando Magic to join the National Basketball Association.

Poe and others have begun stirring up the local Democrats. Recently, former Orange County Chairperson Linda Chapin talked to the party about "The Democratic Party in Central Florida: On the Doorstep of the 21st Century."

"We're excited, we're in business," said Dr. Victor Oglivie, one of those on the party's Executive Committee. "The Republicans have left the door open for us."

Republican Executive Party Chairman Jim Stelling said Tuesday that his party would remain the party of the county because it had a philosophy more appealing to the voters.

"Whoever we select from three or four candidates in a primary will be a better candidate than they (the Democrats) will find," Stelling said.

Sanford Mayor Larry Dale, who sifted from Democrat to Republican in 1978, said he welcomed any efforts the Democrats make in an effort to re-emerge in county politics.

"With no opposition, the Republican Party here has split into factions," Dale said. "We'll be better organized and less fragmented with the Democrats in the fray."

Vintage View

Submitted by Grace Stinecipher

This must have been a Seminole High School faculty party during the early 1940's. Mr. Morris became its principal in 1943. The picture was found in the effects of Herman and Gladys Morris by their son, Ernie. Pictured left to right: Mrs. Mae Ford, Unknown, Gladys and Herman Morris, Unknown, Unknown, Mrs. Elizabeth Lynch, Unknown, Mrs. Elmina Bisbee, Mrs. Gladys Smith, unknown, Miss Ollie Reese Whittle. The person next to Mr. Morris looks like Mrs. Beulah Wells and the person between Mrs. Lynch and Mrs. Bisbee looks like Mrs. Jewel Riser (not to be confused with Miss Ethel Riser), but I don't know what connection they would have had with the faculty. Mrs. Wells could have been a PTA member; she also was "the button hole kin" to Mrs. Morris as the mother of her brother Bill Stemper's wife. Have I thoroughly confused you yet? Call me if you have any thought in this and/or to identify the other unknowns. Grace M. Stinecipher, (407)322-4381.

For tasty meals and folk music entertainment, come to Appleton's

Co Partner Chad Frank of Appleton's Cafe in Lake Mary.

The homestyle Appleton's Family Folk Cafe in Lake Mary will tickle your fancy, whether it be the tasty meals or the folk music entertainment.

While in the homestyle restaurant, begin with a luscious glass of wine and warm basket of country bread, eaten while listening to the weekend Folk Music, performed live Thursday through Saturday.

The set up is open, yet cozy, each seat being within six yards of the stage.

The food at Appleton's, will please all, varying from salads, fish, turkey, meats, savory vegetables, and mouth-watering desserts, all made with fresh ingredients with attention to detail. The prices of food range from $6-$15.

Sunday through Wednesday the restaurant still serves its famous food, but in a quieter non-music environment.

Join in the atmosphere of a cozy little restaurant, terrific music, fresh food and attentive service, all with reasonable prices.

We invite you to visit Appleton's Family Folk Cafe. Come in for a unforgettable meal, or just drop by and sample our apple cobbler a la mode with drizzled caramel sauce. Appleton's also serves American and British-style breakfasts to get you going right. Drop by or call the Lake Mary cafe at (407) 323-7663.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

How May We Help

A2Z Janitorial Supply Co.

Our front door swings open, as we all look up a smiling face we can't quite place steps halfway into our store. "As I was driving down Sanford Avenue I saw your sign and was wondering, I don't own a business, but I have this problem at home, can you sell me something that works?" This is one of the most asked questions we here at A2Z Janitorial Supply are asked and the answer is "YES WE CAN." As a matter of fact we are remodeling our retail store because walk-in business has increased so much as more and more people are finding us.

A2Z has built a reputation as a value added supply company since 1989 in the metro Orlando market. Our whole team lives our mission statement:

- We are here, we are hometown
- We are available darn near 24 hours a day. We don't necessarily want to make deliveries on Christmas eve, but we will any hour, day or night, if you need it!
- We are not bureaucratic; we can and will work things out. We have a broad range of products to sell and a vast amount of knowledge to pass on.

Terry is our counter sales person and purchasing agent. Believe me I have seen her find things from our suppliers, for our customers, I didn't even know they carried. Then 85% of the time she'll get them to drop the price to us, which we in return pass on to you, that's part of the value added service. Tammy runs the outside sales and delivery route. She has been with us about 8 months now and gives what she calls "in your face service." Jerry is our newest team member and is assisting everyone. The man does not let grass grow under his feet, or any of ours as a matter of fact. Right now you will find him working in the store under Terry's direction resetting the shelves and getting to know product line.

If you haven't tried A2Z or haven't been reading the Seminole Herald and seen our coupon offers you need to give us a call at 324-4015 or better yet stop in and see Terry at 2589 Sanford Avenue.

Bombats claim tie for AAA crown

By Dean Smith
SPORTS EDITOR

LAKE MARY - The Bombats got a scare and a gift as it clinched at least a tie for the Championship in the City of Lake Mary Department of Parks and Recreation AAA Spring Slow Pitch Softball League at the Lake Mary Sports Complex.

On July 7th, Cross/Bones scored two runs in the top of the seventh inning to tie the Bombats at 8-8 and force extra innings.

In the top of the eighth inning consecutive singles by Jimmy Gonzales, Sheryl Stock and Steve Chapman gave Cross/Bones a 9-8 lead.

But the Bombats had the answer as Bob Markos walked and Larry Allen singled ahead of a game-winning triple by Vic Pascucci to give the league-leaders a 10-9 victory.

The Bombats were then handed at least a share of the title last Wednesday when Map Attack failed to field a team.

Second place I.S., which trails the Bombats by just a game, kept pace in a similar manner, getting a 7-0 forfeit from Map Attack on July 7th, then taking an early lead and holding off a late challenge by Liberty Mutual I to win 9-4 last week.

In other games, Liberty Mutual I ended Liberty Mutual II's championship hopes with a 9-1 victory on July 7th, but Liberty Mutual II held on to third place by crushing Cross/Bones 23-10 last Wednesday.

With the results, the Bombats are now 8-1 and leads I.S. (7-2), Liberty Mutual II (5-4), Liberty Mutual I (4-5), Cross/Bones (3-6), and Map Attack (0-9).

The league will conclude the season with a triple-header this Wednesday night at the Lake Mary Sports Complex on Rantoul Lane, between Country Club Road and State Road 46-A, across from the Mayfair Country Club beginning at 6:30 p.m.

In other City of Lake Mary Department of Parks and Recreation action, none of the three scheduled games in the Men's Spring Friday night League were played last week.

Co-leaders Sunrise Funeral Home and Blue Haven Pools both showed up and received 7-0 forfeits, but none of the other four teams could field enough players.

As a result, Sunrise Funeral Home and Blue Haven Pools are both 6-2 and lead ADAPCO and Nice & Easy (both 4-4), Seagate Software (2-6) and Elegant Lawn Maintenance (1-7).

The league still has two weeks of rained out games to make up from May 7th and July 2nd and will make up one of those two this Friday night with a triple-header beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Lake Mary Sports Complex.

Providing the offense from the AAA games were:

JULY 7

Wiginton Fire Sprinklers heats up

Three wins moves team into third place in Thursday Softball

By Dean Smith
SPORTS EDITOR

SANFORD - While they won't win the championship, the Wiginton Fire Sprinklers team is proving they do belong in the City of Sanford Recreation and Parks Department Men's Spring Thursday Night Slow Pitch Softball League.

Tuesday night in make-up games at Pinehurst Park, Wiginton Fire Sprinklers ran its winning streak to three games with a 7-5 and 16-13 double-header sweep of the Regulators to get over the .500 mark and move into sole possession of third place.

Last Thursday in regular action at Pinehurst Park, Wiginton Fire Sprinklers had begun its run topping Kenny's Klan 10-6.

In the other games from last Thursday, the undefeated leaders of the league, Wolfys and Stenstrom Realty Incorporated, continued to win handily, with Wolfys winning 15-5 over Celeste Industries and Stenstrom Realty Incorporated blitzing the Regulators 12-2.

With the results Wolfys (10-0) remains a half-game up on Stenstrom Realty Incorporated (9-0). Completing the standings are Wiginton Fire Sprinklers (6-5), the Regulators (4-7), Psycho Softball (2-7), Celeste Industries (2-8) and Kenny's Klan (2-9).

This Thursday at Pinehurst Park, Stenstrom Realty Incorporated meets Wiginton Fire Sprinklers in an important game at 6:30 p.m. If Stenstrom Realty Incorporated wins they would move into a tie with Wolfys for first place, while a Wiginton Fire Sprinklers victory would give them a winning record for the season.

In other games on Thursday, Celeste Industries takes on Kenny's Klan at 7:30 p.m. and Psycho Softball battles the Regulators at 8:30 p.m. Wolfys

Two Lake Mary Little League Girls Softball teams qualify for Sectionals

Special to the Herald

LAKE MARY - For the first time in Lake Mary Little League history, two girls' fast-pitch softball teams will be headed to this weekend's 1999 Little League Section 3 Tournament in Tampa.

Both the Minor and Major division teams of the Lake Mary Little League Girls Softball League qualified for the Sectional Tournament by winning their respective division championships at the 1999 Little League District 14 Tournament last week at Central Winds Park in Winter Springs.

The Lake Mary Little League Minor Division (for players 9-and-10 years old) squad had to bounce back from an early loss to win five straight games, including beating host Winter Springs twice, to claim their title.

Lake Mary Little League opened the tournament with a 32-10 clubbing of Oviedo, but then dropped a 14-7 decision to host Winter Springs.

The Lake Mary girls, with their backs to the wall and facing elimination, went to work, whipping South Lake 14-4, Oviedo 26-11, and Apopka 19-6 to earn a spot in the finals.

Lake Mary then claimed the District 14 Championship banner by besting Winter Springs 14-9 and 11-7, giving the girls a 6-1 record in the tournament.

The Lake Mary Little League Girls Softball Minor All-Stars are managed by Teresa Edelman and coached by Statina Perkins, Roger Perkins and Curtis Tabor. Making up the team are Jennifer Cherry, Erin Crowe, Sarah Dill, Amanda Edelman, Jamie Ensrud, Robyn Gary, Ann Hawkins, Allison Perkins, Ashley Ritz, Christine Roser and Lynsey Schall.

The Lake Mary Little League Major Division (for players 11-and-12 years old) team appeared to have a much easier time of it as it posted three straight victories to earn its place in the Sectional Tournament.

But it was anything but easy as Lake Mary had to eke out the win in each game.

Lake Mary opened the tournament by outscoring Oviedo 22-20, then nipped host Winter Springs 10-9.

Winter Springs worked its way back through the Loser's Bracket to earn another shot at Lake Mary, but the local girls were equal to the task, topping Winter Springs 4-1 in the Championship Game.

The Lake Mary Little League Girls Softball Major All-Stars are managed by Gary Wain and coached by Mark Valentino. Making up the roster are Emilee Edelman, Beth Laurence, Alex Lofton, Amanda Mann, Christina Ulliana, Tiffany Pore, Melissa Salsbury, Kathleen Schaffer, Ashley Tabor, Danielle Valentino, Andrea Wain and Andrea Weisen.

Both teams are very excited about the opportunity to play in the Sectional Tournament and family and friends, as well as the All-Stars, are looking forward to heading to Tampa for the Sectional Tournament that will run from Friday, July 23rd through Wednesday, July 28th.

Five Seminole tennis teams advance to USTA Regionals

Special to the Herald

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS - Five tennis teams from Seminole County -- including three from Sanlando Park in Altamonte Springs -- have advanced to the USTA (United States Tennis Association) Eastern Regional Championships which begin this week at the Sanlando Park complex.

Sanlando Park will be well represented at the three-day tournament, which begins Friday, July 23, with three teams qualifying including its Men's and Women's 4.0 teams and its Women's 4.5 contingent.

Also qualifying are Riverside Park's 3.0 team out of Oviedo and Red Bug Lake Park's 3.5 squad from Winter Springs.

The lone Orange County team to advance to the Regionals is the Men's 4.5 team from Orlando Tennis Center captained by Roger Fogle. It received an automatic berth by virtue of winning its league.

Most of the action, however, centered on women's play.

A total of 13 women's championship teams from Orange, Seminole and Osceola counties participated in the USTA District round-robin tournament June 25-27, with the winners of the 3.0, 3.5, 4.0 and 4.5 divisions moving onto the next round.

Comprising Riverside Park's winning 3.0 team captained by Gale Poleschuk are Diane

Sharp scores first IRL win of season

Special to the Herald

ATLANTA - Scott Sharp passed Robby Unser with 31 laps remaining and went on to win the Kobalt Mechanics Tools 500 presented by MCI WorldCom Saturday night at the Atlanta Motor Speedway, his first victory of the 1999 Pep Boys Indy Racing League season.

Sharp, from Carmel, Indiana, took the lead for good on Lap 178 of the 208-lap race in the Delphi Automotive Systems Dallara-Aurora. Sharp held off Unser in the closing laps on the 1.5-mile quad-oval, winning under caution when Jaques Lazzer spun on the backstretch with two laps to go.

"I just can't say enough about the Delphi team," said Sharp. "I just love coming to Atlanta. This is my favorite of the 1.5-mile tracks we go to. I prayed every lap out there tonight. Hat's-off effort."

Unser ended up second in the PetroMoly-Team Pelfrey Dallara-Aurora, tying his career best. Defending league and event champion Kenny Brack was third in the A.J. Foyt Power Team Racing Dallara-Aurora.

Sharp earned $120,500 and averaged 141.546 mph in a race slowed by six caution periods. Sharp climbed from a tie for fifth to second in the Pep Boys Indy Racing League point standings in a points-shuffling race, as the top three entering this event - Scott Goodyear, Jeff Ward and Greg Ray - each encountered problems.

Eliseo Salazar finished fourth in the Nienhouse Motorsports Racing Special G Force-Aurora for his best finish of the season. Buzz Calkins recorded a season-best fifth place finish after starting 20th in the Bradley Food Marts/Sav-O-

VARITEK LEADS RED SOX PAST MARLINS

BOSTON - Former Lake Brantley High School and Georgia Tech star Jason Varitek (shown in his Southern League days) raised his average to .260 after going 2-for-4, including a two-run home run in the fourth inning, and driving in four runs to help lead the Boston Red Sox to a 7-1 victory over the Florida Marlins Tuesday.

The switch-hitting catcher also threw out speedster Preston Wilson trying to steal and now has 13 home runs and 40 RBI on the season.

Westview stays in Church Softball battle

From Staff Reports

LAKE MARY - After losing two games in a row Westview Baptist Church was in jeopardy of falling out of the race for the City of Sanford Recreation and Parks Department Spring Church Slow Pitch Softball League at the Lake Mary Sports Complex.

And things were still looking bleak as Westview Baptist Church fell behind Sanford First Church of the Nazarene early in Monday's game.

Westview Baptist Church battled back to take a 9-4 lead, but Sanford First Church of the Nazarene scored eight runs in the fifth inning to take a 12-9 lead only to see Westview Baptist Church regain the lead, 16-12, by scoring five runs in the sixth inning and two runs in the seventh inning.

Sanford First Church of the Nazarene was not ready to quit, scoring three runs in the bottom of the seventh inning before the game ended with the tying run on second base.

In the other game, Celebration Church of Lake Mary jumped out to a 7-0 lead after two innings before Christians United turned to its three veteran players, who are a combined 167 years of age, to get on and score in a bizarre play to open a seven-run third inning and the club went on to win 16-8 and take over sole possession of fourth place.

In the other scheduled game, Sanford Central Baptist Church scored four runs in the top of the fifth inning to take a 5-3 lead on the Knights of Colum-

RAINES GAUGE

Tim Raines is a Sanford native and Seminole High School graduate now playing for the Oakland Athletics. His statistics for the 1999 season is in the first column, personal-best season totals in the second column and career totals (including 1999) in the third column.

The flu-like symptoms turned out to be much worse as Raines went on the 15-day disabled list on Tuesday after he was diagnosed with kidney inflammation. Raines said he had put on about 11 pounds over the past couple of weeks, was retaining water and was feeling tired a lot.

HOROSCOPES

Thursday, July 22, 1999

Life could take on greater meaning for you in the year ahead especially in your social area. There's a good chance things will become far more active for you than you've experienced for some time.
CANCER (June 21-July 22) By the end of the day you should be feeling pretty good about yourself, because you could be sought out for advice, admired for your initiative and invited for your effective methods. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. The Astro-Graph Matchmaker instantly reveals which signs are romantically perfect for you. Mail $2.75 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 1758, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 10158.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Gentle measures, rather than push and shove, will work wonders for you today as you easily move others in the direction you'd like them to take. You're a good leader.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Luck favors you today in dealings you might have with large organizations or big groups, so if there's something special you wish to promote, now is the time to do so.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) The higher the stakes involved, the more apt you'll be at putting your shoulder to the wheel today. You'll be exceptionally responsive to material motivation.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Because your perspective could be rather expansive today, it could enable you to take small things and turn them into something grand. Take the initiative!
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Chances are you'll have the wherewithal to be a major league coach when it comes to mastering things for others today. The service you render could produce enviable rewards.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) If you should require a particular favor today, you'll probably not even have to voice your requests. Friends seem to be on the spot the moment you'll be in need.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) The achievement cycle you're in at the present moment has excellent potential to do something important, so don't waste your time on petty goals today. Aim for the stars.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Cupid might have some interesting changes in store for unattached Capricorns today, so be alert if romance should beckon you to come and participate.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) It's to your advantage today to finalize something on which you've been working. Once it's completed, it'll open up new avenues of opportunities.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Because your judgment is particularly keen today, now is the time to take on that tough decision you've been dodging. You'll correctly weigh the merits and disadvantages involved.
GEMINI (May 21-June 20) To your credit, it doesn't look like you'll be using any red ink today when it comes to matters that pertain to commerce or finances. You'll be pretty shrewd in these types of negotiations.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Reality and abstract

Who said this? "As far as the laws of mathematics refer to reality, they are not certain, and as far as they are certain, they do not refer to reality."
Sounds like the introduction to a bridge deal built around percentages, but that's not the theme today! The normal contract is four hearts by South. How should the play go? Now consider an unlikely contract: three no-trump by South. Can the defenders defeat it?
Against four hearts, West leads the spade jack, which East probably wins with the ace. (If East ducks, it isn't fatal, but makes life more difficult for his side.) Having no reason to switch to a minor, East will continue with the spade two, his lowest card acting as a suit-preference signal for clubs. (If East wanted a diamond return, he would have led the spade nine, his highest spot.) West ruffs, switches to a club, and gets a second ruff for one down. No great sweat.
Three no-trump, though, is a much more difficult nut to crack. After the spade-jack attack, declarer waitizes home with at least nine tricks, and probably more. Yet there are two leads that overthrow three no-trump. West must start with the club jack or eight. (The three and six aren't good enough if declarer, using his seven to full advantage, guesses the distribution, which he probably would do, based on East's overcall.) However South maneuvers, the defenders can get one spade, one heart and three club tricks. Yet how would West ever find either of these leads? They do not refer to reality.

The opening comment was made by Albert Einstein.

ASK DR. GOTT

Could doctor have misplaced something?

DEAR DR. GOTT: My mother had her gallbladder and several stones removed about 10 years ago. Now, for the past few months, her attacks of abdominal pain have resumed. Her doctor told her that the pain is all in her head, and he prescribed Valium. Is it possible the surgeon left something in her?

DEAR READER: Yes. The surgeon could have inadvertently left a gallstone. Sometimes, small stones are missed during gallbladder surgery and can later cause symptoms.

I assume that you are also asking if the surgeon may have accidentally left in something else, such as an instrument. Again, my answer is yes. This type of accident is unlikely, but possible.

A far more common cause of your mother's symptom would be new gallstones. If she is a stone-former, she may have made a whole new set of stones that could be causing pain, although she is lacking a gallbladder.

I think that it's risky for any doctor who has failed to carry out a thorough evaluation to insist that abdominal pain is in the head. Head pain is called headache, abdominal pain may be elusive to diagnose — but it is usually real.

At the very least, your mother needs medical tests to identify the cause of her pain. I'd start with an ultrasound and follow up with a CT scan. Perhaps your mother could obtain better medical care if she found a doctor who was more willing to take her complaint seriously. Valium is a great drug, but it is too frequently prescribed. I believe that in your mother's case, other treatment would be far more satisfactory.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I slipped and fell two weeks ago and developed a big painful lump at the point of impact, about 6 inches below my hip. Will this bump go away by itself?

DEAR READER: The blow to your leg probably caused bleeding into the muscle, a sort of huge bruise called a hematoma. The blood that leaked into the muscle will eventually be absorbed and reused by the body, but the process may take weeks.

In some people, for unknown reasons, calcium deposits form in large bruises. Calcified hematomas are more painful, may take longer to disappear and could require surgery for removal.

If the swelling you described is due to your fall, leave it alone and let your body take care of it naturally. However, should it remain uncomfortable for a month or two, see your doctor for further advice.

I should add that some people bruise very easily because of defects in blood coagulation. If you bruise excessively — or in the absence of trauma — you should check with your physician for an examination and blood tests. Ordinarily, however, bruising is a normal consequence of bodily injury and can be minimized by ice packs or cold compresses applied promptly at the time of the accident.
