HOROSCOPES

Saturday, Jan. 23, 1999

Lady Luck will give you ample chances to make your mark in the world in the year ahead. Don't take for granted the fact that they'll always be there. Act when opportunity knocks because you don't want to gamble with your future.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Although a partner's intent may be good, your friend might not be able to deliver what she or he promised. Rely only on yourself and you won't be disappointed. Trying to patch up a broken romance? The Astro-Graph Matchmaker can help you understand what to do to make the relationship work. Mail $2.75 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 1726, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 10116.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) In order to capitalize on any financial opportunities that might surround you today, you'll have to be alert. By the time you pick up on things, it could be too late to take advantage of them.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Be careful that you're not perceived by friends as putting your interests and needs above everybody else's today. They'll resent it if they think you're trying to manipulate them.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) If you find yourself making judgment calls based on emotions, let wiser heads who are basing decisions on hard experience prevail today.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Be optimistic and hopeful today, but don't let your desires overrule your reason. Optimism has its drawbacks if it's predicated purely on wishful thinking.

CANCER (June 21-July 20) You could be placed in the same category if your choice of companions have had reputations. Remember, we're all judged by the company we keep, so select your pals wisely today.

LEO (July 21-Aug. 22) Get validation from those you believe are committed to helping you with an important project. Persons you can usually depend on might be accepted elsewhere today.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Although you might be able to do something constructive with earnings generated from a second source, patience will be needed for it to develop today.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Should someone who has treated you rather badly of late be in need of your kindness today, just let bygones be bygones and do what you can to help. Don't stoop to this person's level.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) It's possible that you could unintentionally disappoint someone who has been depending on you to make good on a partial promise. Either go all the way or promise nothing to begin with.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Worldly things have their place, but so does beauty, love and generosity. Concentrate on acquiring these today instead of only being material-minded.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Generosity is what will spark success for you today, so even though you're a great telegrapher at this time, do not promise anything that you have trouble following in.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Visualize the position

By Phillip Alder

In "The Devil's Dictionary," Andrew Berns defined a cynic as "a blackguard whose faulty vision sees things as they are, not as they ought to be."

At the bridge table, it helps to have 30-35 vision (though there are a few good blind players). Not only do you need to be able to see your cards and, occasionally, those in the dummy, but you must also try to visualize the hidden hands.

If you wish to test your eyesight, look only at the North and West hands. South reaches four spades after the given sequence. You cash two top clubs, everyone following. What next?

I like the two-club overall because three no-trump might be possible, but I could live with a three-club weak

Jump overall.

This isn't an automatic problem. But if you count the points, it becomes likely that your side doesn't have another side-suit trick. There are 19 points between your hand and the dummy, yet South had sufficient to jump to game opposite a single raise. He must have a strong hand in either high-card or distribution terms. And if you have no other side-suit trick to cash, there is only one chance: You must lead another club.

Now the spotlight falls on your partner. Suppose he ruffs low, and South, having a third club, follows suit. Will the spade king serve any purpose? No, it won't. So, especially as a vulnerable two-level overall is usually made on at least a six-card suit, East should ruff with the spade king.

You can see the effect. South overruffs with the ace, but now you have two trump tricks to defeat the contract. It is a classic appeal.

ASK DR. GOTT

Treating household bums

DEAR DR. GOTT: Please advise a friend of mine in our household. When you get a bump from greasy water or something hot, what should you do to make an appropriate ointment?

DEAR READER: As a general rule, heated bases of the household are not best treated with cold compresses. If the inflammation more than mere itching — for example, stinging — and the inflammation is accompanied by a pronounced immediate allergic reaction.

Water or oil will not help a burn. Instead, use a water-soluble antibiotic ointment and/or aloe vera gel. The only time you should use a cold compress is if the burn is very superficial and the inflammation is mild. In this case, a cold compress will help to reduce the pain and swelling.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm taking a lot of medicine for my back pain. I've been taking Tylenol for years. I've also been taking Advil for a while. I'm wondering if there are any other options for me? I'm 55 years old and I'm in good health.

DEAR READER: There are many options for back pain. It's important to see a doctor to determine the cause of the pain and to discuss the best treatment options.

DR. GOTT

PETER GOTT, M.D.

Specializing in family medicine, Dr. Gott is available for consultations and treatments. He has a long history of providing quality care to his patients. Dr. Gott is board-certified in family medicine and has a wealth of experience in treating a variety of conditions. He is committed to providing the highest quality of care to his patients.

Luffas have food value

Luffa is the genus name of a group of gourds also known as vegetable sponges, dishcloth gourds, running okra, strainer vine, Chinese okra, California okra, and loofah. Two species are commonly grown in this country and throughout Florida, one produces angled fruits, while the other produces smooth fruits. The plant is native to the Asiatic tropics and is very tender to cold temperatures.

Description: Both luffas have value as food items, but are seldom eaten in Florida. Most gardeners grow them for their fibrous interior, which is useful as a rough cloth or sponge for cleaning and scouring. The two species are somewhat similar in appearance. Both are vigorous, climbing, annual vines with several lobed cucumber-like leaves. When crushed, the leaves give off a rank odor. Both male and female flowers occur on the plant with a much greater number of male flowers. The rather large male flowers are bright yellow and occur in clusters. The female flowers are solitary and have the tiny slender ovary attached. Angled luffa flowers appear later in the day than the smooth type and stay open through the night. Bees pollinate the flowers. Leaves are covered with short stiff hairs. Smooth luffa fruits are shaped like cucumbers but are larger, 1-2 feet in length and 4-5 inches thick. The exterior is green, sometimes mottled, and smooth with longitudinal lines. Fruits of the angled luffa are characterized by sharp, elevated ridges running the length of the pods. The interiors of both are cucumber-like when immature, but quickly develop a network of fibers surrounding a large number of flat blackish seeds. Smooth luffa seeds are a bit more narrow and have a pitted appearance.

Culture: Luffa is a warm season, cold sensitive genus. Being cold sensitive, luffas should be grown during the warm season. Luffa is grown mostly as a novelty in Florida gardens. However, some have been tried commercially for the sale of the sponges. Both the angled and smooth fruited species are grown throughout the tropics, including subtropical Florida. Luffa is planted mainly from seeds and requires a lot of space, so plant seeds in hills spaced 6 feet apart or space plants about 3-4 feet apart in a single row. Provide a trellis or plant along a fence for the plant to climb. Luffa can be grown in any type of soil with good drainage containing some organic matter. Prepare the soil and fertilize just as you would for squash or cucumbers. Fruits touching the soil often will decay from fungal infections so mulching will be helpful in preventing this problem. Luffa is susceptible to the same diseases, insects and nematodes that attack plants like squash or cucumber. It takes about 140 days since planting for the vines to produce mature fruits that can be used for sponges.

Use: Small (less than 6 inches long) young luffa gourds are used as a vegetable either prepared like squash or eaten raw like cucumbers. Some varieties are sweeter than others, particularly of the smooth type. Bitter types should not be eaten, as some poisonous properties have been reported. It takes about three months to grow fruits large enough to eat. When the immature fruit is about six to seven inches long it is cooked and prepared as it is done with young squash or okra. The best sponges come from mature-green fruits, although dry fruits may be used. The fruits should be soaked for several days and then peeled. They may also be washed in a disinfectant to prevent fungus from destroying the fibers. Once cleaned, the sponges should be bleached and then dried in the sun. Sponges have been used for cleaning, filtering, and bathing. The famous "luffa sponge" sold in some stores is used for scrubbing and allegedly improving the complexion of the skin.

Memory albums bring cheer to grandma

DEAR ABBY: I just want to thank you for your suggestions about Christmas gifts for seniors. My 15-year-old daughter took your advice and made beautiful "Memory Albums" for each of her grandmothers.

Around Thanksgiving of last year, she wrote letters to all their brothers, sisters, children and grandchildren, explaining what she was planning and saying she'd like a memory or a story involving them. She also asked if they had any photographs she could use or copy.

The replies were great! Almost everyone took the time to send an old memory or a funny story. Those who didn't regretted it once they saw the books.

My mother and mother-in-law both cried when they read their albums. It was something special just to watch their faces and hear all the "Oh, yeahs," and "I forget about that."

Both albums are proudly displayed in their homes and are passed around often. I'm very proud of my daughter for all her hard work on these books. She did a great job.

My question for you, Abby, is: How does she top that this year? THAT PROUD MOM, BETHLEHEM, PA.

DEAR MOM: I don't blame you for being proud of your creative and generous daughter. The answer to your question is: Sometimes it's better to wait until you're blessed with another inspiration.

Game of the Week

Jan. 27 Boys Basketball, Lake Howell at Lake Mary, 7:30 p.m.

LAKE MARY — This could just about clinch the conference for Lake Howell which is currently undefeated in the conference. The Hawks have been heads and shoulders above the rest of the conference and is more concerned about battling DeLand for the district title and top seed in the district tournament.

Chad Parsons continues to astound everyone underneath for the Hawks. The team came into the season with questions about whether Reggie Kohn had a strong supporting cast, but Parsons deserves equal billing.

The Hawks pounded Lake Mary when the teams first met, but the Rams have been the surprise of the county, playing well above .500 ball with a young team. Darius Wells has given the team a boost since becoming eligible last month, so this should be a battle of point guards with the Hawks' height being the major factor.

Tonight: Boys Basketball, Lake Mary at Winter Springs, 7:30 p.m.

WINTER SPRINGS — The Bears had a 3-game conference winning streak snapped with a loss to Lake Brantley Wednesday, but the Bears are playing .500 ball after a 3-win season.

The key to the resurgent Bears is Marcus Wiggins who has supplied the team with another go-to guy to complement Winston James, Tosa in Brian Baker's 3-point shooting and the Bears' strong rebounding skills and you have a good team that will be better next year.

Jan. 26: Girls Basketball, University at Winter Springs, 7:30 p.m.

WINTER SPRINGS — Not a really big game; in fact, it's meaningless, but it is the final home game of the year for the Bears who are ranked 5th in the state's Class 3A poll.

There are no seniors, but the final home game of the season will be a great chance to see a Bears' team that has gone from 4 wins last year to a SAC co-championship. The Bears traveled to Lake Mary last week Thursday with a chance to win outright but a 26-point run by the defending champs ended Winter Springs' night.

Missy Guadagnino has stepped up her game and Mary Lou Johnston has the offense performing wonders. The latest Bear to step up is Dana Hicks who has been yanking down every rebound in sight.

Jan. 28: Girls Basketball, Pine Ridge at Lyman, 7:30 p.m.

LONGWOOD — Here's another game that is meaningless, except that it's Lyman's Senior Night as the scrappy Greyhounds prepare for a hoped-for third straight district appearance.

The Greyhounds are 19-8 despite a loss to Seminole Thursday, but they always keep it close.

Christy Cruz and Julia Turner are the leading scorers for Lyman.

On the weekend schedule:

TODAY
Boys basketball — Bear Lake Christian vs. Liberty Christian at Sanford Salvation Army, 7 p.m.; Crooms at Oviedo, 7 p.m.; Lake Howell at Lake Brantley, 7:30 p.m.; Lake Mary at Winter Springs, 7:30 p.m.; Lyman at Seminole, 7:30 p.m.
Girls basketball — Seminole at Deltona-Pine Ridge, 7:30 p.m.; Lake Brantley at Oak Ridge, 7:30 p.m.; Winter Springs at Trinity Prep, 7 p.m.

Boys soccer — Seminole at Lyman, 7 p.m.; Lake Mary at Winter Springs, 7:30 p.m.; Lake Brantley at Lake Howell, 7:30 p.m.

Girls soccer — Oak Ridge at Seminole (SENIOR NIGHT), 7 p.m.

Wrestling — Lake Mary in Flagler Invitational Tournament at Bunnell-Flagler Palm Coast High School, 4 p.m.

Who's the best?

Big third quarter gives Lake Mary girls a share of SAC championship

By Jeff Berlinicke
ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR

LAKE MARY — The Lake Mary girls basketball team taught Winter Springs a valuable lesson last night.

You can't win if you can't even get off a shot. The Rams beat Winter Springs, 52-38, as Lake Mary celebrated before a large Senior Night crowd.

It was the final SAC game of the season for both teams and the Lake Mary win combined with the Winter Springs loss made the teams co-champions.

It was the fourth straight year the Rams have won or shared the title.

The loss snapped a 12-game winning streak for the Bears, currently ranked 5th in Class 3A. Defending state champion Lake Mary is ranked 4th in Class 6A.

Winter Springs led at the half, 20-19, but Lake Mary coach Carl Brown challenged his team and it responded.

"We had to get fired up defensively and I challenged them," Brown said. "They responded. We didn't talk too much about winning the conference but it was a very important game and the kids played excellent."

Winter Springs actually led 20-9 early in the second quarter after Mary Lou Johnston hit a three-pointer. Johnston led Winter Springs with 12 points and Missy Guadagnino added 10.

But after Johnston's three-pointer with just over four minutes remaining in the half, the Rams went on a 26-point run that didn't end until late in the third quarter. The Ram defense was stifling, forcing 10 turnovers during the run.

"We're happy with a title," Winter Springs coach Betsy Hughes said. "But we know we could have played better. We had way too many mental lapses."

And Lake Mary had way too much Lauren Bradley. The center who has signed with Florida State for next season had points during the run and 22 on the night. She was constantly open for her patented short jumper and, despite foul trouble, guard Ashlee Ballance did what Winter Springs couldn't do, finding holes in the defense.

Harvard-bound Mary Leah Sutton also scored 10 to pitch in for the Rams.

Brown said he was concerned his team would come out slow after the emotional pre-game ceremonies for seniors Lauren Musser, Becky Pedro, Ballance, Sutton and Bradley, all of whom were members of the championship team.

"I think it (the slow start) was one of those things where we were so emotional but we recovered and charged ourselves up in time."

The game meant nothing to each team's district race, but was a nice tune-up for the home stretch.

Lake Mary travels to Tavares Saturday at 3 p.m. and the Bears go to Trinity Prep tonight at 7 p.m.

Tribe girls win 16th

LONGWOOD — Jamala Mitchell scored 17 points and Seminole High School led at every break as the Tribe bested home-standing Lyman, 42-33, in a girls' Seminole Athletic Conference basketball game Thursday night.

The Fighting Seminoles took a 12-10 lead after one period and the Greyhounds would only outscore their visitors in one period, 13-12 in the third.

Seminole is now 16-6 on the season and will look to finish its district schedule undefeated when it travels to Deltona to play Pine Ridge tonight at 7:30 p.m. The Tribe will then close out the regular season with a game at Edgewater next Wednesday.

Lyman, which got a game-high 19 points from Christy Cruz, will host Tavares at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday.

Rams quintet gets emotional on 'their night'

By Kellie Werner
CORRESPONDENT

LAKE MARY — There have been many emotional nights for the Lake Mary girls basketball team.

None, however, may have been as emotional off the court than last night's senior night.

All five of the team's seniors were honored before the match-up with Winter Springs, a team that defeated the number four ranked team in the state earlier in the season.

"The last couple of days have been pretty intense," Lauren Bradley said. "We've been really hyped up about playing Winter Springs again and then the fact that it was senior night just added more emotion."

Before the game started, each senior was introduced to the crowd, had pictures taken with their parents and were given a plaque from coach Carl Brown and assistant coach Laurel Robinson.

It was pretty emotional for everyone.

"This is so sad for me," Becky Pedro explained. "I know that all of this has to come to an end but it's so close now. I just want to keep playing and not let the season end."

When the team took the court for the game, they came out a little slowly. Winter Springs was able to take the lead and has the Lady Rams down by 11 early in the second quarter.

Then something happened. Lake Mary began to refocus and the team that has dominated just about every team they have encountered came back to life. From that point on, it was all Lake Mary.

"All of the emotion of senior night took our heads out of the game for awhile," Ashlee Ballance said. "We came out real slow but we were able to get it back together."

"I actually think the fact that it was senior night helped us," Laurri Musser added. "We are so proud to be seniors here and the feeling was that we needed to come out, play as a team and pay back Winter Springs on our night."

In the end, the seniors proved why they are considered one of the most talented basketball classes to come out of the school with a huge win over the visiting Bears.

This is just one of the memories that the group of seniors will take with them when they venture off to college.

Of course, the highlight so far for all five of them is the state championship they won last year.

Just for fun, however, four of the seniors were asked what their second favorite memory is from their years at Lake Mary.

Ashlee Ballance: "It has to be when we beat Lake Weir in the regionals when I was a freshman. No one really knew who we were before then and I feel like that put Lake Mary basketball on the map."

Lauren Bradley: "For me it was beating Pensacola at home last year. They kept us from the championship the year before and beating them at home the following year meant so much to me."

Lauren Musser: "My fondest memory besides the championship will always be the Tennessee tournament that we played in this year. We all got to spend a lot of time together, including New Year's Eve, and I really realized what great girls my teammates are and I love them."

Becky Pedro: "I would have to say it was the one time

These quarters have a lot to say

It's true, money does talk. At lunchtime Thursday, several of the newly minted Delaware quarter dollars were mingled with a bunch of elderly 25-centers.

Before they were scooped by a comely waitress as part of her tip, the quarters became close and personal atop a damp tabletop at a Lake Mary eatery.

"Well, hello Dolly," one old quarter said to a shiny Delaware. "It's so nice to have you here in town."

"Let me take a look at you," another oldie (minted in 1965) said to the new coin. "What in the world is that's on your back?"

"Caesar Rodney on horse-back!" Delaware proudly replied. "He was a soldier, judge, governor and patriot. A hero of the first state. A hero for the United States. Neat, huh? Quite a quarter-back."

"Guess so," the worn U.S. quarter said. "We had eagles on our back until you came along. What's going to happen to the eagles?"

"Don't know," a second Delaware said. "no one told us."

The quarter dollars marveled at how much they look alike up front. "Our George Washingtons are the same," said the two older quarters. "But it looks like our Georges are bigger than yours."

"What's left of your Georges," the new Dolly said, jokingly. "He's just about rubbed out, old buddy. You've been around awhile, haven't you?"

"Around long enough to warn you not to be too smug," the wise old quarter said. "You're not going to be so young and fresh once you've been in ten thousand vending machines, been in a million pockets and thrown into fountains or lost in the woods."

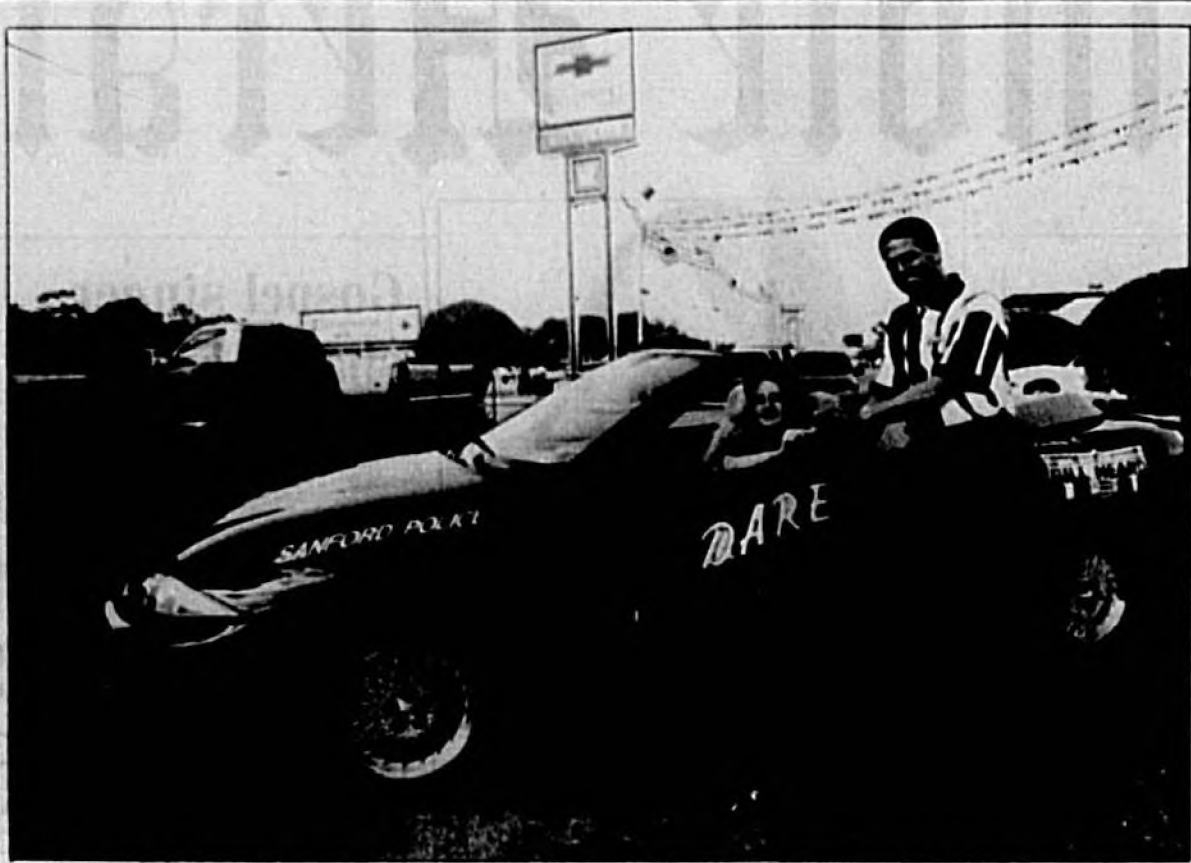

"But it's going to be exciting," the new Dolly said. "I can't wait to go off with our waitress. What do you think she'll do with us? Do you think she'll notice that I'm...well, really different?"

"You'll be noticed, Dolly," the old quarter said. "From what I see, you'll probably do better than Susy B - the Susan B. Anthony silver dollar that showed up a few years ago. She was different, too. Too different for some. Dolly. Now and then someone will ask about her."

"People can be very mean when it comes to their money," the old quarter said. "You'll be shocked how upset they are about the new bills - the $20 bill, the $50 bill, the $100 bill. Lot of folks calls the new bills 'big phonies.' No one really likes them. Poor things look just like Monopoly money."

"This is all happening so fast," Dolly sighed. "Last week I was in this barrel. I mean the biggest barrel you'll ever imagine. There must of been a billion of us Delaware ready to be sent out all over the country. We had a party the last night. Got our 25 cents worth, if you know what I mean."

"Hope what I've said doesn't discourage any of you Dollys," the older quarter said. "You'll go places that you can barely imagine. Some of you may orbit the earth. Some of you may wind up in the president's pocket. Some of you may live in some kid's piggy bank for 20 years. Remember, hardly anyone one knows where their money goes. And if they don't know, how will we?"

Dealing with holiday debt

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD

In the aftermath of the gift-giving season, millions of Americans struggle with how to pay the bills for presents and other expenses related to the holidays. For many, overzealous holiday spending may have pushed them into serious and troublesome financial situations, or aggravated existing indebtedness.

Early signs of dangerous personal financial trends include:

- *Not paying bills on time, or juggling which to pay.
- *Paying only the minimum on large credit card bills.
- *Frequent overdrafts on checking accounts.
- *Spending all income with no money going to savings.
- *Being denied credit because of a bad credit report.

If one or more of the warning signs applies, consumers might consider the following guidelines for getting back on track:

- *Determine exactly where the money is going. Draw up a budget and stick to it.
- *When having problems making payments, contact creditors immediately about alternative, more manageable payment plans. Do not wait until the matter has been turned over to a collection agency, which might not be willing to negotiate.
- *Check out companies offering debt consolidation loans carefully. Exorbitant fees, high interest rates and inflated promises can aggravate debt and credit problems rather than ease them.
- *Beware of firms or individuals who offer to "clear up" negative data reported to credit bureaus. If the negative information is accurate, credit bureaus may report it for at least seven years. Bankruptcies may be reported for 10 years.
- *Avoid using credit cards. Pay off balances each month. If debt has accumulated, pay more than the minimum due each month, if possible.
- Consumers who fall behind in paying creditors may be contacted by debt collectors. The Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act prohibits debt collectors from using harassing, oppressive or abusive tactics when attempting to collect owed money. They cannot use false statements or engage in unfair practices in the performance of their work. Consumers who believe they are victims of unfair debt collection practices should contact the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services at (800) HELPFUL (800) 435-7352 to file a complaint.
- Those who feel they need more help in solving their debt and credit problems might consider contacting the nearest office of the Consumer Credit Counseling Service (CCCS). CCCSs are local, non-profit organizations, providing education and counseling on personal budgeting and the wise use of credit. Services are free or for a reasonable fee.

When the other woman left the bar with friends later, a car came speeding directly toward her, forcing her to jump into the bushes. The car sped away. A few minutes later, the car once again sped toward her and again missed. Witnesses recognized the driver of the car as the woman with whom she had argued in the bar.

She was also arrested for possession of drug paraphernalia after deputies found a crack pipe in her pocket during a post-arrest search.

Beware of distraction burglars, deputies say

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS - Police are searching for three suspects in a so-called distraction burglary near Altamonte Springs.

An elderly couple in the Altamonte Springs area near Interstate-4 and State Road 436 reported the burglary to Seminole County Sheriff's deputies on Saturday. While one suspect kept the victims busy, two others rifled through their home.

The victims lost money, a coin collection, and several of their drawers had been ransacked.

At around noon, a red 1993 or '94 Chevrolet station wagon pulled into the victims' driveway. A suspect told the male victim he knew the lady of the home and wanted to speak with her. The suspect followed the elderly man into his home when he went to get his wife.

The suspect told the woman he had cut down her tree in the front yard a long time ago. He said he wanted to get her a deal on having the trees in the back yard cut down, for $100. The suspect took both victims to the back yard to look at trees, and discussed what trees to cut. The suspect said he would talk with his boss in the station wagon, get something to eat, and return. Approximately 10 minutes later, the victims found they had been robbed.

Police describe the suspect as a white male, 45, tall, 280 pounds, with brown hair, a dark complexion, a heavy build, with a slight accent.

Suspect No. 2 is described as a white male, 55, 5-foot-8, 175 pounds, with black hair, a mustache, medium build, and wearing a gray suit and a black dress hat. Police do not have a description on the third suspect.

This is the second distraction robbery in the last month, according to the Sheriff's Office.

The Seminole County Sheriff's Office is advising Seminole County residents to be alert for distraction burglaries. Anyone suspecting a distraction burglary is occurring should call 9-1-1 immediately, the sheriff's department said.

 ceremony will also commemorate the opening of the Airport's new Air Rescue and Fire Fighting Station.

The airport is conducting an on-going noise study. In December, White said the noise study is approximately one-third to halfway complete.

Airport officials are working with the Federal Aviation Authority to adjust the altitude that planes fly when they enter the airspace of the airport. The airport is attempting to make the air space more compatible for airlines of different sizes that are moving at different speeds, White said.

The airport is hoping to have new rules in place by August, although the FAA has not agreed to that goal, White said.

Deputies later confirmed the location of $8,000 and company officials were called to the scene. Fish Tales

Sanford resident "Cowboy Jackson," a retired school bus driver, enjoys a day of fishing and shares one of his personal philosophies, "If you don't know how to fish, go to work." Jackson holds up a 15-inch striped bass he estimates weighed 3 to 3 1/2 pounds. He caught the bass near Lemon Bluff on the St. Johns River. Jackson said he used red worms for bait to catch the big one.

City will set standards for gateway along State Road 46

By Bill Kerna
STAFF WRITER

SANFORD - The city of Sanford continues to work on proposed gateway corridor standards for Lake Mary Boulevard and State Road 46, as it prepares to discuss the issue at Monday's commission meeting.

The city will review issues including uniform buffer and entrance features, the appearance of the city's main entrance roadways, property values, and flexible height and entranceway treatments.

6 It's important to enhance property values in the area.
-Joy Marder
Planning director, Sanford

"It's important to enhance property values in the area," Joy Marder, director of engineering and planning, said. "When you have high standards, the developers are attracted to that. It tends to attract quality development."

Marder said he expects public hearings to be held within the next two to three months, when a zoning ordinance may be adopted.

The proposed building setbacks at Lake Mary Blvd. and the State Road 46 would require a minimum 50 feet from the right of way, although Marder said small businesses would have some flexibility under an ordinance.

"We want to ensure cross access between developments," Marder said. "You see some of that at Seminole Towne Center on State Road 46. You can drive between restaurants like Don Pablo's and Hips without having to get on State Road 46. It's well coordinated."

Ground signs under the proposed standards would have a maximum height of 15 feet. The standards would require an enclosed sign base and a brick planter. Sanford's current regulations allow ground signs of up to 25 feet. Existing Lake Mary Blvd. regulations set a maximum height of 15 feet.

"We'd like to avoid the excess strip and retail commercial signage you see on (U.S. Highway) 17-92," Andrew Van Gaale, associate planner for the city, said. "We want to keep our signs relatively low, with landscaped buffers."

At the State Road 46 gateway corridor, a 25-foot streetside landscape buffer would be required. Two rows of canopy trees with one live oak would be staggered every 40 feet. At Lake Mary Blvd., a 15-foot landscaped buffer would be required. One live oak would be planted every 40 feet.

"We want to have uniform design standards," Marder said. "The landscape buffers will soften the way it looks as you drive by on the road."

Service areas and mechanical equipment would be screened and oriented toward the rear of the property on Lake Mary Blvd. and the S.R. 46 corridor.

"We will screen the unattractive areas," Marder said. "We want to screen the trash receptacle and storage areas, as well as the automotive areas. You need to have careful landscaping and sign controls. If you don't, you can wind up with a stark, cement oriented landscape."

New or relocated utility lines would be placed underground at Lake Mary Boulevard and the S.R. 46 corridor.

Projects set to take off from Sanford airport

SANFORD - Ceremonies will be held for five projects at the Orlando Sanford Airport on Tuesday.

A grand opening ceremony will be held at the new Airport Fire Station on 550 Don Knight Lane. The airport is opening a new runway, Seminole County Sheriff's Office hangar, and air cargo building. A groundbreaking ceremony is also being held for an Instrument Landing System project.

The 3,500 foot, touch-and-go runway is constructed primarily for aviation flight training. The runway is located 4,300 feet from the airport's main runway. For six months, airport director Victor White said the runway will be used primarily by pilots in training, with smaller planes.

"This runway will create separation between our large commercial jets and general aviation aircraft, as well as reduce congestion on the Air-port's main runway," White said.

After six months, the airport plans to build a taxiway next to the new runway, White said. Interior taxiways will allow for increased traffic. Lights will be installed on the runway in six months, allowing for night flights.

The $1.2 million Aircraft Rescue and Fire Fighting Station will accommodate 12-16 firefighters. The station maintains three drive-through bays and an elevated observation tower. It is designed to accommodate future expansion, as the airport grows, officials said.

The Instrument Landing System provides navigational assistance for aircraft landing on the airport's main runway during poor weather. It is commissioned for operation in the spring of 1999.

Congressman John Mica will participate in the dedication ceremony, along with members of the Sanford Airport Authority and other local dignitaries. The LONGWOOD - A man who needed medical treatment after swallowing a tin foil wrapper containing heroin has been charged by Longwood police.

Lunasol Rios, 24, has been charged with possession of narcotics. The Longwood police responded at 7:07 p.m. Tuesday to the Centra Care medical facility at 855 State Road 600, where medical staff induced vomiting for the safety of Rios. He regurgitated the tin foil wrapper containing 16 individual packets of heroin, police said.

Rios, a Kissimmee resident, told police that while in the company of another individual, identified as "Joe," he swallowed a tin foil wrapper containing 16 hits of heroin. Police arrested Rios at 9:15 p.m. and transported him to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility.

"He was cooperative in that he transported himself to Centra Care and told the staff why he was there," Lt. Stephanie Ryan said. "He was certainly in fear for his life."

This is the sixth time Rios has been arrested. Previous charges include cocaine possession, two separate counts of battery, possession of drug paraphernalia, aggravated assault, and failure to appear, according to officials at the county jail.

Rios bonded out of the jail Wednesday morning for $3,000.

In 1998, there were nine reported heroin deaths in Seminole County, according to the Volusia County medical examiner's office.

Ron Pace, director of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce, and Corrie Williams of the Scenic Improvement Board, invite the public to participate in "Project Pride," a citywide clean-up campaign on Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon. For information, call (407) 322-6261.
