Military Spending Cut Billion

Savings Of $4 Billions Predicted

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara reported to President Kennedy today that $1 billion was chopped from military spending for supplies and maintenance during the year ended July 1.

Raising his sights, McNamara said he expected economies totaling $4 billion annually in purchases of military supplies and spare parts and in operating costs within the next five years.

The actual and prospective savings were one-third greater than the Pentagon chief estimated would be possible at the start of a cost reduction program in 1962.

But they only partly offset increased combat outlays which have pushed the defense budget up from $15 to $51 billion a year since McNamara took office.

McNamara, in a long memorandum addressed to the President, said $700 million was saved in purchases alone during the last 12 months.

The largest part of this reduction occurred in spare parts for aircraft and missiles," he said. "The Air Force has been able to reduce repair cycle time on high cost items from 30 to 45 days. The Navy reduced stocks of high demand spare parts on aircraft carriers by 50 per cent."

McNamara cited a 100 per cent increase in nuclear warheads in the strategic alert forces and a 60 per cent increase in U. S. nuclear forces in Europe as evidence that economies had not affected combat strength.

Russian Armed Might In Cuba 'Growing', Say Refugees

MIAMI (UPI)—Russian troops and rocket installations in Cuba are "steadily growing," particularly along the northern coast closest to the United States, newly arrived Cuban underground members said today.

Members of the Cuban Freedom Fighters Organization gave details on Russian activity in the area around Calbarien, a key port on the northern Las Villas coast.

They were among a group of 31 persons, including eight women and seven children, who escaped the island in a 33-foot sailing boat last week and reached the Florida Keys after a four-day journey.

There are approximately 10,000 Soviet troops in the Calbarien zone alone, the refugees said.

Lawmakers Shy At Enacting Rail Controls

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress, which has never legislated a solution to a national railroad labor dispute, was uneasy today over the prospect of having to do so now.

Republicans and Democrats alike shuddered at the thought of imposing compulsory arbitration to settle the current labor management clash over rail work rules. Federal seizure of the carriers likewise was viewed with alarm.

Key legislators predicted a long debate, possibly extending beyond the week President Kennedy has given Congress after he submits his legislative recommendations on July 22.

Railway management and unions have agreed to do nothing until July 29 that would cause a nationwide strike.

There was no indication what the President would propose, but some congressional leaders said they believed it would seek only to settle the dispute at hand.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., said: "I can see no other course than legislation—dealing with the dispute, but we should understand that this will be putting a president on the statute books, and it may rise up to haunt us."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., assistant Senate Democratic leader, said Congress could "open up a Pandora's box of troubles" if it had to pass legislation to deal with the situation.

Humphrey said a law requiring compulsory arbitration could seriously harm collective bargaining, and railroad seizures could lead to nationalization of the rail industry.

Way Cleared For Execution Of 2

DENVER (UPI)—The state of Kansas was given a go-ahead to reset an execution date for two convicted killers Wednesday when a 10th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals affirmed their conviction.

The admitted killers of seven persons, James Douglas Latham and George Ronald York, escaped the Kansas gallows 12 hours before their scheduled hanging June 19. The Circuit Court stayed the execution in order to allow defense attorney Roy Cook of Kansas City, Kan., time to file a petition of habeas corpus with the court.

The petition was filed and the court heard arguments Monday.

Cook, who was expected to take the case to the U. S. Supreme Court, claimed the jurors were prejudiced by a television interview with the two young soldiers made shortly after their capture in 1961.

York, 20, of Mauriceville, Tex., and Latham, 21, of Jacksonville, were convicted at Russell, Kan., of the murder of Otto Zeigler, a railroad employee.

In confessions, they admitted killing six other persons in five other states after escaping from the Ft. Hood, Tex., stockade.

Stymied Again, Red Talks Halt

MOSCOW (UPI)—Russia and Red China, apparently stymied in the attempt to lead their rift, recessed their ideological talks again today to allow deliberation of their respective positions.

Informed Communist sources said the secret discussions probably will be resumed Friday. It was believed the Chinese negotiators were asking for fresh instructions from Peking.

Midwest Areas Hit By Drought

By United Press International
A widespread drought threatened to reach disaster proportions throughout parts of the Midwest today, cutting the wheat yield and posing a threat to the fall crops.

A U. S. Department of agriculture disaster committee was to meet in Washington today to consider Gov. John Reynolds' request to declare 20 Wisconsin counties drought disaster areas.

In the Oklahoma Panhandle a request was made for a drought designation, but Gov. Henry Bellmon rejected it, saying dry weather was one of the hazards of farming.

Some areas of southwest Kansas have been declared drought stricken. The wheat crop suffered considerable damage in western Kansas, although farmers said they got a better yield than they expected.

In southwest Iowa and northwest Missouri farmers decided to reactivate a cloud-seeding program they said was highly successful in 1957. They said they were eight inches deficient in rainfall for the season.

Violence Flares In Two Towns

United Press International
The nation's integration struggle took a violent turn today. New racial upheavals in Cambridge, Md., and Savannah, Ga., resulted in arson, threats, gunfire, rock hurling and tear gas.

In Cambridge two empty Negro houses went up in flames and white men drove through a Negro section hurling bricks at pedestrians. State and local police were hard put to break up an angry crowd of Negroes who threatened to march into the white neighborhood.

In Savannah, police broke up a demonstration by an estimated 2,000 Negroes early today and used tear gas and high pressure water hoses.

The demonstrators, shouting for the release from jail of their leader, slashed police car tires, pulled open the door of a police station and were arrested, and lay down in front of the police vehicles when they began to move.

3 Killed, 7 Hurt As Cars Crash

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—A northbound car swerved into the southbound lane on U.S. 41 last night, sideswiped one car and smashed head-on into another killing three persons and injuring seven, the Highway Patrol reported.

The dead were Mrs. Elizabeth Sanders Bowron, 57, of Umatilla, Shirley Diane Smith, 11, and Harry Smith, 19, both of Lake Wales.

The Highway Patrol said the accident occurred when a car driven by Ross Frederick Bowron, 72, husband of Mrs. Bowron, veered into the opposing lane.

He sideswiped a car that tried to get out of his way, then crashed into a car driven by Chester Alis Smith, 41, of Lake Wales, the Patrol said.

Smith's son, Harry, and cousin, Shirley, were killed and two other sons were hospitalized. His wife, Alta, was hospitalized in "very critical" condition.

Also hospitalized were Bowron, 2-year-old Barry Bowron and another passenger in the Bowron car, Gary Frey, 13, of Umatilla.

The Highway Patrol said Bowron would be charged with driving on the wrong side of the road.

POSTMAN ED DREBERT has had a companion on his mail rounds every day but one for the last five months. He is joined every morning by this dog at Fourth and Myrtle and the canine accompanies him as Drebert delivers the mail. Herald photographer Bill Vincent Jr. was on the job Wednesday morning to "shoot" Drebert and his companion but for the first time in five months the dog failed to appear. This picture was snapped this morning.

Ferry Sinks

BUENOS AIRES (UPI)—The Argentine ferry boat Ciudad Asuncion caught fire and sank today in the River Plate Estuary. All 425 persons aboard were reported saved by the Argentine minesweeper King.

Tot Killed

MIAMI (UPI)—A one-year-old girl was killed yesterday when her mother accidentally ran over her while backing a car out of a driveway. Police said Mrs. Mary Ann Beardsley, 30, of Jamestown, N. Y., backed over her daughter, Laura Aug.

Appointment Announced By Herlong

Congressman A. S. Herlong Jr. this morning from Washington notified The Sanford Herald of the appointment of Miss Cecile Heard as postmaster of the Sanford post office. She will assume office Aug. 2.

MISS CECILE HEARD

Capt. Mayo Assumes Air Command Friday

Capt. Joseph M. Tully Jr., Friday will pass command of Sanford's Heavy Attack Wing One to Capt. James O. Mayo, ending an association with a community and a Naval program that began eight years ago.

The far-reaching aviation command will be changed at 11 a. m. in formal ceremonies in the Sanford Naval Air Station.

For Capt. Tully the ceremony will be his last official contact with three of the six squadrons he has guided since June 27, 1961. The Wing's other three squadrons are currently deployed with the U. S. Second and Sixth Fleets.

For the relieving officer Capt. Mayo, it will be an introduction to the men he will lead for the next two years as commander of the Navy's long-range, carrier-based air strike arm.

Many of the estimated 200 civilians who will attend the ceremony have already paid homage to Capt. Tully in an "Appreciation Day" banquet staged by the Sanford-Seminole County Chamber of Commerce June 27.

But the ceremony will mark the end of a personal relationship which began in 1953 when Tully first came to Sanford as executive officer of Heavy Attack Squadron Five (VAH-5).

The widely-known Naval leader is now slated for instruction at the National War College in Washington, D. C., the traditional grooming school for high-ranking officers scheduled for top-level decision-making.

The strike, which followed the breakdown Wednesday of contract negotiations between the company and Local 824 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, caught the telephone company by surprise.

(R. F. Shadden, Sanford manager of Southern Bell, said today the West Coast strike will not in any way affect local telephone service.)

Healthy Gains For Seminole Banks Reported

Seminole County's four banking institutions are included in a report "indicating continued healthy increases in loans and deposits of the state's 302 commercial banks" released today by Floyd Call, executive vice president of the Florida Bankers Association at Orlando.

Central Florida banks show a 12.7 per cent increase in loans and an 11.1 per cent increase in deposits as compared with totals of a year ago.

Seminole County banking figures, as reported by Call in comparison between the years ending June 29, 1963, and June 30, 1962, are:

Sanford Atlantic National Bank — 16.3 per cent increase in loans and discounts, $5,288,000, up from $4,528,000, and 12.9 per cent increase in total deposits, $11,061,000, up from $10,833,000.

Florida State Bank — 2.9 per cent decrease in loans and discounts, $3,103,000, down from $3,258,000, and 13.6 per cent increase in total deposits, $11,795,000, up from $10,327,000.

Oviedo Citizens Bank — 28.2 per cent increase in loans and discounts, $1,017,000, up from $792,000, and 3.1 per cent increase in total deposits, $2,814,000, down from $2,726,000.

South Seminole Bank at Fern Park — 41.8 per cent increase in loans and discounts, $2,106,000, up from $1,485,000, and 21.7 per cent increase in total deposits, $1,541,000, up from $1,264,000.

Phone Strike In Tampa Bay Area

TAMPA (UPI)—The Electrical Workers Union went on strike today against General Telephone Company of Florida, which serves six Tampa Bay area counties.

The strike, which followed the breakdown Wednesday of contract negotiations between the company and Local 824 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, caught the telephone company by surprise.

(R. F. Shadden, Sanford manager of Southern Bell, said today the West Coast strike will not in any way affect local telephone service.)

Court Orders Carolina Parks Opened To All

COLUMBIA, S. C. (UPI)—South Carolina was under court orders today to desegregate its university and its parks. Peaceful compliance with the university ruling was considered likely but the parks might be closed to avoid integration.

U. S. District Judge J. Robert Martin of Greenville handed down the ruling Wednesday. Both are expected to be appealed. Both are effective in the fall.

Martin directed the University of South Carolina here to admit Henri Monteilh, the Columbia Negro teacher, to its semester starting in September.

Except for the processing of an appeal, the state is expected to do nothing to block her enrollment as the second Negro to attend a white public school in South Carolina. Harvey Gantt became the first in a completely peaceful scene at Clemson College in January.

However, Martin's order that the state's 27 parks be desegregated could result in the closing of all of them. The state has said in court that integration would present serious problems of maintaining order and that facilities likely would be closed.

Martin, recognizing that his ruling had "far reaching consequences," gave the State Forestry Commission, which operates the parks, 60 days to desegregate. His ruling therefore could not be effective until after the peak summer season.

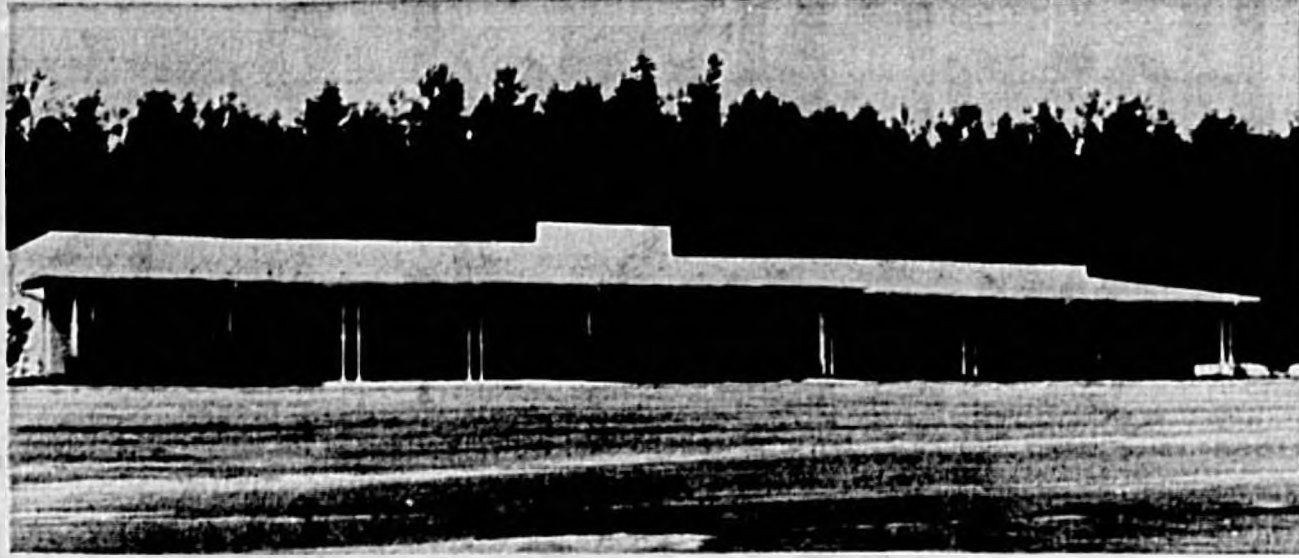

Nine Negroes filed the park suit in 1961. They had tried to enter state parks at Myrtle Beach and near Columbia and were told the parks were closed. Martin pointed to evidence that in neither park were whites required to leave.

Deadline Set On Astronauts
HOUSTON (UPI)—Civilian pilots have four more days to apply for jobs as astronauts, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said today.

The deadline for applications was originally July 1 for civilian applicants and July 15 for military applicants. The spacecraft center said, however, it had not intended to stop receiving applications from civilians July 1.

The new deadline for both military and civilian applicants will be July 15. More than 175 civilians, including two women, have applied.

Fly casting became a common fishing method about the middle of the 16th century, when it flourished in the British Isles.

DELTONA SHOPPING PLAZA will be formally opened about Aug. 1, it is reported by Mackle Bros., owners of the building at the new community across Lake Monroe. Leases have been signed with a chain supermarket, beauty shop, hardware store and utilities firm.

BRADENTON, Fla. (UPI)—A lightning bolt touched off a spectacular fire at a Pure Oil Company distributing plant just south of here early today, destroying the plant and causing an estimated $100,000 damage.

Shrine Elects

CHICAGO (UPI)—Harold C. Close, past president of a Connecticut m-a manufacturing company, today was elected imperial potentate of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

A Roman named Martial was the first person to write about fly casting, between 10 B.C. and 80 A.D.

'Tired Of Being Pushed Around,' Says Defector

BERLIN (UPI)—A Polish air force major who flew to asylum in West Berlin with his family in a two-seater training plane looked forward today to building a new life "where people are not pushed around."

"I was tired of pressures," he said.

Maj. Ryszard Obacz, a decorated 34-year-old jet pilot, packed his 27-year-old wife, Maria, and their two sons, Leslow, nine, and Krzysztof, five, into the cramped Polish air force plane Wednesday in Nadarzycze, Poland, 80 miles north of Poznan.

Then he coolly flew the slow-moving single-engine aircraft near tree-top level 150 miles across Poland and East Germany to the U. S. Air Force's Tempelhof Airfield in West Berlin, where he landed and requested asylum.

It was the first time anyone had fled to West Berlin from behind the Iron Curtain in an airplane, although other defectors have flown to West Germany itself. West Berlin is separated from West Germany by 110 miles of Communist territory.

An American official, asked if the request would be granted, said, "He's here, isn't he?"

The plane probably will be returned to Poland. To keep them from worrying, Obacz had told his wife and children they were heading for Stettin, just east of the Polish-East German border, to visit friends.

"It was the first time I ever lied to my wife in our marriage," he said.

Mrs. Obacz appeared happy with his decision.

Speaking through an interpreter, Obacz said he made the flight because he "wanted to come to a place of open friendships."

"I wanted to work toward truth . . ." he said. "I wanted to go where people are not pushed around."

Obacz said morale is low in the Polish air force. "The mood is very bad," he said. "Most officers are fed up just as I was. We want the right to travel where we want to, the right of free speech, the right to work for a good cause."

Bathing Beauties 'Bore' Reporter

By Dick West
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Unless you happen to enjoy bathing suits, a Miss Universe news conference is rather a letdown.

A group of the participants in this year's Miss Universe contest stopped off here for a visit en route to Miami Beach, where the pageant will be staged later this month.

They held a press conference on the shores of a hotel swimming pool, but it turned out to be more visual than oral. Either their time was monopolized by photographers or they were unable to speak English.

It was most disappointing because I had been looking forward to discussing the common market with Miss Belgium, obtaining Miss France's "grand design," hearing Miss Italy's opinion of the new Pope, and so forth.

I could, of course have interviewed Miss England, but only one thing has been happening in England recently and I was reluctant to bring that up.

I was afraid one of the chaperones might overhear us and get the wrong idea. So there was nothing much for a reporter to do but deposit himself on a chaise longue and watch some 20 of the world's most beautiful young women parade around in powder blue swim suits.

Pity. Beauty pageants continue to attract large crowds in this country, but actually they do not provide much of a challenge for a veteran girl-watcher.

When a bird-watcher has a yen to gaze upon a great racket-tiled drongo or a rufous-browed pepper shrike, he does not go to an aviary. That would be considered unimportant.

He goes into the parks or woods to seek out the birds in their natural habitats. Spotting a red-whiskered bulbul is only fun for a bird-watcher when it is accompanied by a case of poison ivy.

It is much the same with girl-watching. Organized displays of feminine pulchritude take a great deal of the pleasure out of this ancient pastime by removing the element of chance.

Spotting a pretty girl at a beauty contest simply is no accomplishment at all.

Some of the best girl-watching grounds in the world can be found in Washington. Among the more favorable locations is the cafeteria in the House Office Building during the lunch hour. A person wouldn't suspect, judging from some of the legislation they pass, that members of Congress were capable of such discernment in the employment of clerks and stenographers.

Mutual Thinks U. S. Orange Figure High

LAKELAND (UPI) — The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimated Florida's orange crop at 74.6 million boxes Wednesday, but the Florida Citrus Mutual said it would stick to its figure of 50 to 60 million.

"We see no reason to change the prediction for next season's orange crop made by our annual meeting of 50 to 60 million boxes," said Mutual Vice President Robert W. Rutledge.

The USDA also estimated next year's crop of grapefruit at 30 million boxes; tangerines at two million boxes and tangelos at 750,000 boxes.

The USDA crop reporting service will release its first estimate of the 1963-64 season on Oct. 10 and Rutledge said the Florida citrus industry "will be keenly interested."

Rutledge said Wednesday that the final pack of orange concentrate for this season was 51.6 million gallons, less than half of last year's 116.1 million gallon pack.

He said consumption is running lower this year because prices are higher.

But he added the Florida canner's association reported an inventory of only 39 million gallons as of June 20. The inventory was more than 71 million gallons the same time last year.

6-Month Tag Sales Up 4.86

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Sale of automobile license tags produced revenue totaling $54.4 million during the first half of this year, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arch Livingston said today.

Livingston said the amount was a 4.86 per cent increase over the $51.9 million worth of tags sold in the same period last year.

Declaration Of Dependence

We hear from many quarters these days the cry that American individuals should be "left alone." The cry really implies a question: "Left alone to do what?"

No American who truly prizes the ideal and the practical substance of freedom can consciously wish to see himself and his fellow citizens plagued by unreasonable taxation, unwarranted interference in private affairs, unfair restriction on the exercise of individual rights.

But in a society governed by law there is no such thing as total freedom. The law is the basic means men have devised for accommodating with each other. Without it, they would be forever trampling on each other, and their "rights" and their "freedom" would be lost in mutually destructive chaos.

The freedoms they enjoy tend to shift somewhat in extent and character, depending on the needs and problems of their changing society.

They are wise to be ever-vigilant to keep freedom functioning through as wide an expanse of their lives as is compatible with the common good. Yet in fighting this battle it is not enough to say: "Leave us alone."

For freedom is not an endlessly celebrated birthday party, a perpetual "binge," a lifetime of loafing on the sand or staring at television or riding around in a car.

It is a responsibility. You have to use it not just for yourself, not just for the enjoyment of life, but for your companions in freedom.

If you do not undertake some tasks beyond the limits of your family, your circle of friends and your immediate job, then society itself — acting through your government — will take on the broader assignments.

More than a few hardheaded conservatives have declared over the years that government in this country would have undertaken far less than it has if the American people, acting responsibly as individuals and in smaller local and regional groupings, had in larger numbers reached beyond their narrow personal concerns.

Too often the loud individual champions of freedom have defaulted on their responsibilities while demanding their privileges. They have wanted to be left alone to do nothing but gratify themselves.

The call upon individual human effort in a free society is well expressed in a new report by the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association. It says:

"The Declaration of Independence is more than a declaration of individual supremacy. It is also an expression of faith in the concern of free men for the public welfare.

"For a free society must rely heavily, if its values are to be defended and realized, on the voluntary actions of its citizens."

When men who are "left alone" take on their part of the public burden—as they should do—they will not likely find government encroaching further on the soil of their personal freedom.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—It's almost automatic now that when the automobile business in America is good, all business is good. If this sounds a little like, "What's good for General Motors is good for America," maybe there's something to it after all.

Anyway, 14 per cent of the American labor force is employed directly in the manufacture and sale or indirectly in the supply, servicing and repair of automobiles and trucks. So it is not the No. 1 business barometer, ahead of steel.

"The automobile industry now has so many favorable factors working for it," says Robert J. Eggert, marketing research manager for Ford Motor Co., "that we feel no qualms in envisioning a steady upward sales trend in the years ahead.

"The industry's second straight seven-million sales year back-to-back—1962 and 1963—now appears to be a laydown. While it may be too early to make a specific prediction about 1964, surely we can anticipate that car sales will average more than seven million units a year the next several years."

The market research that goes into a sweeping statement of this kind is of interest to all business. It goes into consumer intentions, buying power and credit availability.

Eggert reviewed his research with charts before the U. S. Chamber of Commerce mid-year business outlook session in Washington. It was a revealing forecast of continuing growth.

First is the population factor. Everyone knows it is exploding, without stopping to figure what it means to business.

This year there were a million more teenagers reaching 16 than ever before. They were the 3.1 million war babies. There will be three million more of them reaching age 16 for the next three years, then the number goes up to 3.7 million again in 1968.

The economic significance of this for the auto industry is that 16 is the driver's license age in most states.

One-third of the young people in the 18 to 24 age group buy a new or used car each year. In the next 10 years there will be over 12 million people in this age group—a 50 per cent increase over the last decade. Here's a "new" market.

University of Michigan's Survey Research Center has found that for every 100 spending units in the 18-24 age group, four buy a new car and 27 buy a used car. For all ages, the figures are 8 per cent buying new cars and 16 per cent buying used cars. So one-third of all auto sales are new cars.

The long-run growth rate of new car sales has been rising about 2.8 per cent a year on the average since 1950. The forecast is that new car sales will rise to 7.5 million by 1965, to 8.6 million by 1970 and 10 million by 1975.

U. S. per capita disposable income has been rising at an average rate of 1.6 per cent a year, increasing a pending power. The average was $1,500 in 1947. It is over $2,900 now. Projections indicate it will be nearly $2,800 by 1975.

Another important factor is that consumer credit is good, for 7 out of 10 car sales are financed purchases. But banks and other finance sources have plenty of money now and are ready to lend it. And consumers have enough confidence in the economy to know they will be able to make the last payment on a new car when they sign for the first.

Increased income and credit have meant that the number of families with more than one car has been rising unbelievably. In 1949 there were only 1.5 million two-car families—3 per cent of all family spending units. In 10 years this nearly doubled to 3.9 million two-car families, over 10 per cent of all spending units. But from 1958 to 1963 the number doubled again to 11.3 million—nearly one out of every five spending unit.

Interesting, too, is that there are now 1.2 million three-car families—which is nearly as many as the 1.5 million two-car families of 1949.

As to car prices for the future—high volume production will help keep prices down, assuming steady material prices. Also, the average car is better made and lasts longer. Average car life of six years in 1925 has been more than doubled to 14 years in 1960, according to Automobile Manufacturers Assn.

The unsolved problems are building enough highways for the 65 million passenger cars and the 14 million trucks and buses to roll on—and places where they can all be parked.

"It's Just a Little Workout We Have Every Couple of Years!"

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Mitch Miller has a new middle name, as shown below. And he opposes the snobbery that often invades the realm of music, as well as newspaper writing. For when some people get an M. A. or Ph. D. degree, they grow disdainful of simplicity. They become intellectual four-flushers.

CASE P-488: Mitch Miller is probably the world's most widely known musician. Whenever I telephone him or write him a letter, I also address him as Mitch Tyrtaeus Miller.

For Tyrtaeus was a famous musician in ancient Greece. Athens had entered into a mutual assistance pact with Sparta.

But when Sparta, the militant city state, finally begged Athens to send her aid, Athens secretly hoped Sparta would be vanquished.

However, Athens had to fulfill at least the technicalities of her contract.

She had promised to send aid, but nothing was mentioned as to how many men were involved nor who they were to be.

So Athens sent Tyrtaeus, the poet and musician, figuring he would be of no help at all to beleaguered Sparta.

But the Athenians misjudged Tyrtaeus, for he composed some stirring music that raised the morale of Sparta and led to a great victory, much to the dismay of Athens.

Mitch Tyrtaeus Miller is our modern, superb composer, arranger and popularizer of good music, as on his "Sing Along With Mitch" show.

He says that musical snobbery is a curse of modern music. So he urges greater simplicity in modern music.

"Many of the most eloquent things," Mitch adds, "have been said very simply. And the simplest things are hardest to say well.

"Yet at times people will confuse simplicity with lack of talent or lack of knowledge.

"Conversely, many people think that if music is complicated, it therefore simply has to be good."

This same snobbery occurs even with reference to spoken and printed language.

Many supposedly erudite professors and clergymen look with disdain on the newspaper, feeling that journalism is too simple to be profound or scientific.

And they have often criticized this column "because Dr. Crane uses 2-syllable words."

Yet the average word in the Bible has only 2 syllables! Besides, it is inefficient to waste precious newspaper on 3-syllable words when we have 2-syllable words that say the same thing.

But there is always a certain percentage of people who are what we call intellectual four-flushers.

They try to obscure ideas (or music) by complicated language which leaves the average person floundering.

Many clergymen and college professors thus indulge in "polysyllabic circumlocutions."

They try to throw their weight around in jawbreaker jargon.

They actually become intoxicated with their own verbosity. They make words but say little or nothing.

Mitch Miller is thus criticizing this same snobbery in the realm of music.

Remember, when a man proposes marriage or says farewell at the death bed of his wife or child, he employs short Anglo-Saxon words, as: "I love you! I do mean the world to me! I do want you to leave me!"

Notice that all those are one-syllable words!

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

The nickname "Old Glory" was first applied to the flag of the United States in 1831 by William Driver, master of the brig "Charles Doggel," out of Salem, Mass.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The articles appearing in the Sanford Herald of 23 June concerning the determination of a South Seminole County Little League champion was most enlightening to the unenlightened.

Information material to the issue was omitted in the above mentioned items. Further the Herald apparently accepted this version as a complete story.

Agreements made prior to the seasons beginning, and accepted as league policy, fully within limits granted by the parent organization, cannot be changed to accommodate (sic) a would be winner. The recommendation made by Little League District Supervisor would clearly have voided this policy, and in effect taken from the people who have labored to make this league as strong as possible the right to act under the charter granted the league. With these agreements and policies duly (sic) considered, Sunland, with an unchallenged (sic) win in one round and a tie in another round, clearly is champion. The voting of six managers (Sunland and Lake Mary did not vote) confirmed the desire of the majority to adhere to the original policy and named the Sunland team to a well deserved and earned victory. Sunland defeated Lake Mary in regular seasons play two games to one.

Lake Mary's team was notified prematurely of victory. This notification was based on the assumption that the Little League District Supervisor's letter of recommendation would be accepted. This was Lake Mary's sole hope for victory.

The League President is to be congratulated on upholding league policy. Both managers, Sunland and Lake Mary, plainly stated they contended for the youngsters concerned which is quite understandable. At least one Lake Mary found it necessary to harass the umpire who worked the rained out play off game, his contention being that the umpire had failed to rule the game "no contest." The fan was quickly set straight on this point.

It is hoped this will set the Sunland championship in its true light.

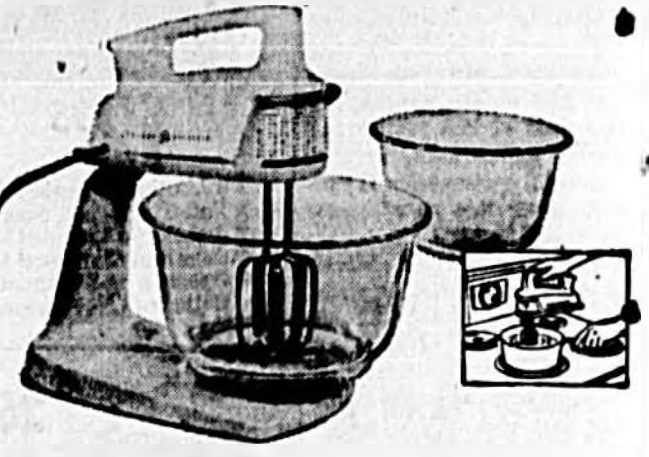

Incidents occur in games. Policy of the league is maintained to assure an equitable chance of reward after accomplishment. Sunland is champion without backing, assuming major policy changes, or moaning over umpire decisions. Sunland is champion under policy set up and correctly upheld by league officials acting in their official capacities.

(Ed note: The Herald has yet to hear a clear concise presentation of this argument between Sunland and Lake Mary. Only thing that has been learned is this: It is not the kid ball-players who are arguing—it's the adults. The Herald has no axe to grind in this fight—but the record does show Lake Mary with a 17-4 record and Sunland with a 16-5 record. So, it is repeated: Sunland and/or Lake Mary is the champion; take your choice.)

Probe Group Law Put On Statute Books

TALLHASSEE (UPI) — The bill continuing the life of the legislative investigating committee with a $155,000 appropriation to hunt for homosexuals, subversives and Nazis was one of 315 new laws put on the statute books Wednesday.

The bills, last of thousands passed by the 1963 Legislature, automatically became law at midnight without the approval of Gov. Farris Bryant.

The seven-member investigating committee was appointed by the presiding officers of the two houses before the law became effective. But it has not yet held an organization session to elect a new chairman and set its schedule for the biennium.

A House member is scheduled to succeed Sen. Charles Johns, Starke, as chairman. Johns will continue as a member, along with Sens. C. W. Young, Pinellas Park, and Robert Williams, Graceville, and Reps. Richard Mitchell, Tallahassee; Earl Faircloth, Miami; George Stallings, Jacksonville, and Leo Jones, Panama City.

Several other appropriations bills also became law without the Governor's signature.

They include $125,000 from the alcoholic rehabilitation trust fund to build a 25-bed addition to the Avon Park Hospital; $5,000 to commemorate the Battle of Olustee; $20,000 for the Florida wing of the Civil Air Patrol; $50,000 for construction of a small boat channel at the mouth of the Suwanee River, and $16,200 for a $25 monthly cost-of-living allowance to incapacitated teachers who taught 25 years or more in Florida.

Revenue measures included in the batch would:

- Increase from three to four per cent the handling charge on trust accounts in the state treasury to provide an additional $3.5 million in general revenue per biennium.
- Impose a registration fee on pleasure boats, with boats of less than 10 horsepower exempted. The revenue goes to the counties and the state.
- Repeat exemptions granted Santa Rosa Counties from the state gross receipts tax.
- Impose a $250 per office annual license fee on sales finance companies.

- Set a $125 yearly license fee for liquor dealers selling tax-free whisky at international airports to travelers leaving the United States.
- Other new laws: Set salaries for county officials.

- Provide $200 summer school scholarships for teachers in exceptional children programs at the Sunland Training Centers and School for the Deaf and Blind.
- Designate the Florida State University orchestra as the state symphony and permit it to help support itself from attendance fees.

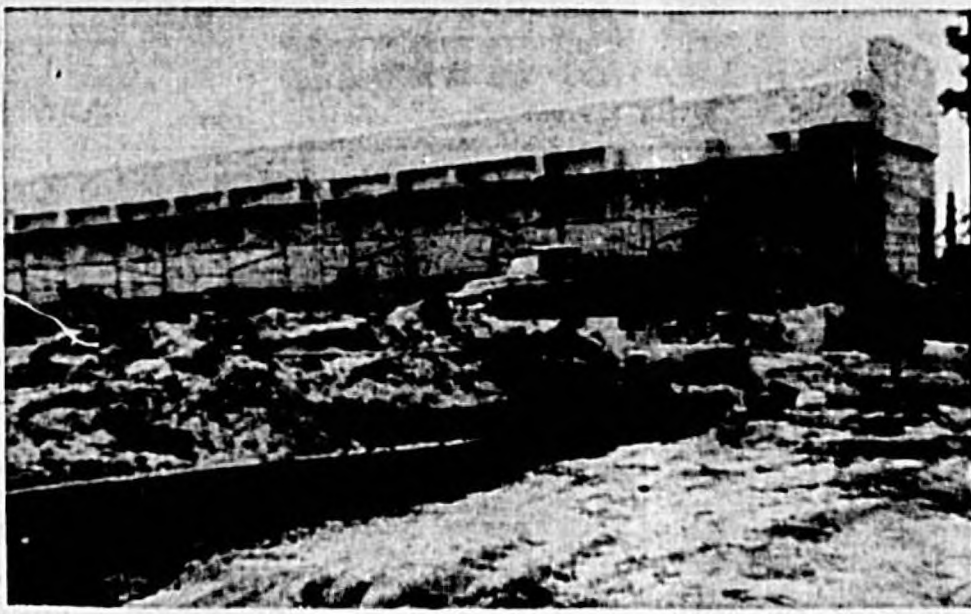

- Exempt from taxation real and personal property of non-profit hospitals licensed by the Board of Health.
- Increase from 1,050 to 1,550 the number of state teacher's scholarships and provide if the student attends three trimesters the value of the grant will be $600 per year instead of $400.

- Amend Florida's anti-lottery law to exempt licensed retailers giving away merchandise to persons selected by lot for promotional reasons if the person is not required to pay anything or buy anything to be eligible. Newspapers, television and radio stations are permitted to advertise such lotteries.

- Make it a misdemeanor to take egg-bearing blue crabs.
- Authorize the prison division to sell canned goods to school lunch rooms and jails in 21 counties.

- Create the Florida Keys Road Study Commission to investigate feasibility of double-laning the Overseas Highway from Miami to Key West and plan road and bridge improvements and method of financing them in Monroe County.

- Exempt owners of property designed as fallout shelters from liability for ordinary negligence for death or injury of persons or loss or damage to property.

THIS BUILDING being constructed by Guy and J. L. Andrews, of Belco Enterprises, Starke, for Winn-Dixie at Mobley's corner, Longwood, will have 17,000 square feet of floor area and is scheduled for an opening around Nov. 1.

Motorists To Pay $60 Million For Tags In 1963

TALLHASSEE (UPI) — Motor Vehicle Commissioner Arch Livingston said the state general fund will not begin to feel the impact of increased license tag prices until January, 1964.

New tag prices became effective July 1 of this year but Livingston said 95 per cent of annual license tag revenues were accounted for on the first half of each calendar year. Tags for 1964 will go on sale in January at an approximate 30 per cent increase in price. The 1963 Legislature upped the tag price for all vehicles $2.50 to $10, depending on vehicle weight. Livingston reported the state collected $51,426,183 from sale of tags in the first six months of 1963. This, he said, was an increase in excess of four per cent over the $51,902,000 worth of tags sold in the same period last year.

He predicted that the state would collect in excess of $60 million for the 1963 calendar year.

In addition to the new tag prices, starting in January the state's car licenses will be sold for a 13-month period, which will add about $1 to the tag cost. And in 1963, rectorized tags will be put into use, which will again up the per tag cost about five cents each.

Houk's Snub Builds Fire Under Stuart

United Press International — New York Yankee manager Ralph Houk may have done the Boston Red Sox a favor when he snubbed Dick Stuart for the American League All-Star team.

Houk apparently not only stirred up the hottest controversy of the 1963 All-Star game but also lit a fire under the big first baseman.

In any event, Stuart returned from the two-day vacation resulting from the snub with a pair of homers and five runs batted in in a 1-4, 16-inning victory over the Min-sota Twins Wednesday night. Stuart's second homer was a three-run, 10th-inning wallop that ended Minnesota's rally as Bill Dalley's string of 34 consecutive scoreless innings.

Stuart's first homer in the fourth inning was his first roundtripper since June 30, and the two runs he knocked in were the first for him since June 21. The two homers and five runs batted in for the night increased his season totals in those departments to 19 and 64.

Dick Radatz, who was removed for a pinchhitter in the 10th inning after shutting out the Twins on one hit for three innings, received credit for his ninth win against one loss. The victory moved the Red Sox into third place and dropped the Twins into fifth.

Miami Blanked By Sarasota's Bob Gordon

By United Press International — Sarasota showed off its Florida State League leading style last night, blanking Miami 4-0 behind the pitching of right hander Bob Gordon.

In other action, Daytona Beach toppled Lakeland 9-3, Fort Lauderdale defeated St. Petersburg 4-3 and Orlando topped Tampa 6-3.

Left fielder Ramon Webster and short stop Nellie Castellanos drops in three runs each to pace Daytona Beach to its win over Lakeland.

Orlando raked up its third straight win by taking advantage of three Tampa errors to score three runs. Right fielder Tom Thompson got a single and triple to drive in the Twins' other three scores.

Right fielder Dick Sims and left fielder Jim Covington paced Fort Lauderdale to the win over the Saints by driving in two runs apiece.

Tonight, Lakeland travels to Sarasota, Miami plays at Daytona Beach, Fort Lauderdale goes to Orlando and St. Petersburg plays at Tampa.

Whiz Kids Now Get As Little As $10,000

NEW YORK (UPI) — High school and college baseball whiz kids have found out that the major league giveaway program has drastically cut down on its prizes.

Bonus payments to young prospects are down approximately 75 per cent from the past few free-spending seasons, a United Press International survey showed today.

So far, Jeff Torborg, Rutgers University catcher, is the only $100,000 bonus baby in the 1963 graduating class. The 21-year-old Torborg, who won the national collegiate batting championship with a .587 average, signed with the Los Angeles Dodgers and is playing for Albuquerque in the Texas League.

Dave Bennett, younger pitching brother of the Philadelphia Phillies' Dennis Bennett, and Wally Bunker, a high school hurler from San Bruno, Calif., are next in line with $75,000 bonuses. Bennett, who pitched for the University of Oregon, signed with the Philadelphia Phillies and is playing for Albuquerque in the Texas League.

After these top three, the bonuses drop off to around $50,000, although most youngsters are settling for $10,000 to $20,000 inducements to turn pro this summer.

That is far short of the $125,000 to $150,000 bonuses paid in 1961 to Bob Bailey by the Pittsburgh Pirates, and to Bob Garibaldi by the San Francisco Giants last year.

The big reason for the decline in bonus handouts is the first-year draft rule, which was pushed through by the "have-not" clubs to curb such lavish spending.

Meanwhile, the "have" clubs like the New York Yankees, Milwaukee Braves and Dodgers complain that the rule is "socialistic" and an unwarranted curb on their efforts to sign good talent.

The deterrent in the rule is this: All first-year players must be promoted to the parent club's roster by the end of the season in which they are signed; and only one such player can be optioned to the minors during first-year status.

A first-year player not promoted to the parent club's roster becomes subject to the December draft at price of $12,000 or $8,000.

The Houston Colts, for example, have several first-year players on their roster. If they signed any more, they would be faced with the dilemma of overloading their 40-man roster with inexperienced talent or letting some of last year's bonus kids go to another club at a bargain price.

Cards Used To Raise Stars; Now They Swap For Them

CLEVELAND (NEA) — Remember way back when the Cardinals found and developed them in wholesale lots?

"The sales department keeps us solvent," Branch Rickey used to say when the blocks in red blazers had St. Louis surfeited with sustained success.

Now the Red Birds do it a much easier and less expensive way. They threaten with a club that was traded to them practically en toto, one that is leading the National League in batting, hits, doubles, triples, home runs and runs.

The All-Star Game at Cleveland Stadium is a striking reminder of this, although no one was in the least surprised when their opponents elected Café—Bill White, Dick Groat and Kenny Boyer—as three parts of the National League infield. In line with owner Gusla Busch's new scheme of things, Boyer alone was home-grown.

White, Groat and others suddenly throw the glare on unobtrusive Vaughan P. Devine as one of the greatest traders since David Harum used to start with a race horse.

General Manager Bing Devine learned well, it seems, from Frank Lane while that compulsive trader was in St. Louis. For a comparatively short time at least, Devine's volume compares quite favorably with that of Lane while the quality of athletes obtained is vastly superior to that of the old baseball official who delighted in keeping his hired hands transients.

A lot of learned baseball men shook their heads when last winter Joe L. Brown traded away three-quarters of the Pittsburgh infield—Dick Stuart, Groat and Don Hoak. They are still shaking their heads in regard to Groat, the All-Star shortstop once more bidding for the National League betting championship.

The extraordinary Stanley Musial also shakes his head when asked about Groat. "I don't know how in the world we ever got him," Stan the Man repeats.

The Pirates kindly responded when the Cards were sorely in need of a shortstop and in May, 1960, the same outfit, now the freshly-minted have-nots, was kind enough to come through when a second baseman was needed. They forked over Julian Javier, the bespectacled leadoff man who would not look at all bad making the All-Star National League infield unaccountably St. Louis.

White and Ernie Broglio, the big, strong right-handed pitcher, came from the San Francisco Giants for no one of consequence now. Two-thirds of the regular outfield, little Curt Flood and big George Altman, came from the opposition, Flood from the Cincinnati Reds for three guys named Joe.

About the only one of real worth the Cards gave up in all their transactions were pitchers Larry Jackson and Lindy McDaniel, who last October wound up with the Chicago Cubs in the three-way deal which delivered Altman, Carl Sawatski came from the Phillies for no one in particular. Red Schoendienst, a turned to his alma mater as a free agent when he recovered his health.

When the Phillies made Curt Simmons a free agent, the Cards picked up the left-hander for a postage stamp. Bobby Shantz came from Houston for Carl Warwick and a pitcher named John Anderson, present address unknown. Ron Taylor was acquired from Cleveland for Fred Whitfield.

More recently when the Cards needed another right-hand pitcher, they landed the cagey veteran, Lou Burdette, from Milwaukee for Gene Litterer and Lee Burke, the latter a handyman.

As long as the other clubs, particularly their rivals, are throwing good performers around, Bing Devine will gladly give them guys he isn't using in exchange.

Dempsey Helps Bury Old Pal

MIAMI (UPI) — Jack (Doc) Kearns, the man who gave boxing the million-dollar gate, was buried here Wednesday.

His longtime friend and greatest pupil, "Manassa Mauler" Jack Dempsey, helped carry the body to the grave.

During a long and colorful career, the 80-year-old Kearns made eight world champions, including Dempsey. He once estimated he had made and spent more than $35 million during his life.

About 100 friends and associates gathered for the simple services. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery. Kearns died Sunday.

Clay's Manager Asks More Than Mere Million

NEW YORK (UPI) — Manager Bill Favreham is demanding indirectly that Casius Clay, Kentucky's "mighty moose," get more than $1 million at the age of 21 for his 20th professional fight.

That's the Favreham platform today in the negotiations for a Sonny Liston-Casius Clay heavyweight title match at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium Sept. 30.

Pilot Bill is demanding "more than 20 per cent of all net proceeds." He didn't say how much "more."

Negotiations will be resumed Monday or Tuesday by telephone, said Favreham today as he headed back to Louisville, Ky., after Wednesday's five-hour conference at a New York hotel with President Bob Nilon of Inter-Continental Promotions, Inc.

Nilon is a brother of Jack Nilon, advisor to champion Liston.

Although brothers Bob and Jack are not associated in the Inter-Continental Corporation, Bob does share Jack's confidence that Liston will keep his crown on July 22 in his return fight with Floyd Patterson at Las Vegas, Nev.

Accordingly promoter Bob is moving briskly with plans for the September extravaganza. And it is Bob who disclosed that he already has offered Clay the equivalent of $1 million in "20 per cent of all net proceeds from the fight."

The Massachusetts Bay Colony, in 1683, granted a patent to John Clarke for designing what probably was the first American stove.

Schlee Finally Gets Chance To Play Sikes

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — John Schlee, a towering salesman from Memphis, Tenn., keeps a date with destiny today when he tangles with defending champion Dick Sikes in the third round of the National Public Links Golf tournament.

Schlee, as hot as the 90-degree-plus weather Wednesday when he was seven under par while winning two matches, has been waiting for two years to get another crack at the all-conquering Sikes.

"He beat me in the semi-finals in 1961," said Schlee. "The score was 2-1. But I'm playing much better. I've been waiting a long time to get even."

It should be a good match. Sikes, who also owns the NCAA championship, was four under par in trouncing Dave Hellman, Wakegan, Ill., 6 and 3, and then beating John Kirsch, Detroit, 5 and 4. Schlee turned back Jim McMurray, San Leandro, Calif., 3 and 2, and then walloped Paul Franks, Louisville, Ky., 3 and 4.

Former professional baseball player Wayne Osborne, of Oak Park, Ill., also moved along with a pair of victories over Dennis Reger, Spokane, Wash., and Paul Creasey of Sacramento. He will meet Siffen today.

Emperor Nero is said to have been the earliest known player of the bagpipe.

Lutheran Pastor Resigns Here; Will Continue Studies For Ph.D.

Rev. Ernest B. Bolick Jr. has tendered his resignation as pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, effective Sunday.

REV. BOLICK

Rev. Bolick has been accepted in the graduate school of the University of North Carolina, and will pursue studies there leading to a Ph. D. degree. He plans to teach for a while but will remain in the ministry.

Rev. Bolick accepted a call to Sanford in 1958 to organize and develop a mission of the Lutheran Church in America. The church, Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, was organized, and now has a baptized membership of 283.

A first unit building was constructed and occupied for the first time Oct. 31, 1961. Pastor Bolick also was elected dean of the eastern district, Florida Synod for the year 1963.

During his stay in Sanford, Pastor Bolick has been active in civic affairs—a member of the Kiwanis Club, president of the Ministerial Association, president of the Mental Health Association, chairman of the USO for three years, and has been military contact pastor of the National Lutheran Council at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Rev. Bolick is married to the former Theresa Feesor, and they have one daughter, Maria, three years old. Mrs. Bolick has been active as music teacher in the public schools of Seminole County. She also has been church organist and choir director at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

The congregation of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church invites all friends of Rev. and Mrs. Bolick to attend a farewell coffee to be held at the church immediately following the morning worship services Sunday.

More than 41 million men and women in the United States use their automobiles to commute to and from work, according to the National Automobile Club.

3 Southern Governors To Testify On JFK's Public Accommodation Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Three southern governors have accepted invitation to testify before the Senate Commerce Committee on President Kennedy's public accommodations proposal. It was learned today that

Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi, George C. Wallace of Alabama and Donald H. Russell of South Carolina are tentatively scheduled to appear late this week or early next week. Today, the Senate group called mayors of two cities which peacefully segregated their public facilities to testify on the measure. Ivan Allen of Atlanta, Ga., and Frank Morris of Baltimore, Md., were to be questioned about how desegregation has affected business and what other effects the move has had in their cities. A committee aide said Atlanta represented a southern city in the medium-size class and Cambridge a small city identified northern city also was invited to attend but declined, the aide said.

Farm Surplus

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government's board of grain and other farm produce continues to swell. Agriculture Department figures show value of stockpiles at the end of January rose $600 million to a record $8.5 billion. The previous peak was $9.2 billion in March 1959.

Homemakers Corner

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson

Good afternoon. While "up North" this past few weeks I had a few nice recipes given to me, so I will share them with you. The first one is a salad for your patio supper some time. It's called Confit Cheese Ring.

2 pkg. unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1 tsp. sugar
1 tsp. salt
3 tsp. lemon juice
1 lb. (2 cups) creamed cottage cheese
1 cup evaporated milk
2 tbsps. chopped pimento
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
1/4 cup chopped celery
1/4 cup chopped cucumber
1 tbsps. minced onion

Add gelatin to cold water and let stand to soften, about 5 minutes. Dissolve over hot water. Place dissolved gelatin in medium size mixing bowl. Add all of the remaining ingredients. Stir to blend thoroughly. Turn mixture into a lightly oiled five cup mold. Chill until set, about 2 hours. Makes 8 to 9 servings.

Now try Cranberry Fruit Soup.

1/2 cup quick cooking tapioca
1 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
4 cups cranberry juice
1 cup water
Sour cream

Combine tapioca, sugar, salt, cranberry juice and water in a sauce pan and mix well. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil. Remove from heat. Cool, stirring once after 20 minutes. Cover and chill thoroughly. Serve in cream soup cups or glass dessert dishes. Top each with a spoonful of sour cream. Serves 8 to 10.

Still another. Ye Old Ham loaf.

1 lb. ground cooked ham
1 lb. ground fresh pork
2 eggs slightly beaten
1 cup cracker crumbs
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 cup canned pineapple chunks
3 maraschino cherries

1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
2 tps. dry mustard
1/2 cup vinegar
Combine sugar, mustard and vinegar; mix well. Arrange pineapple and cherries in the bottom of a 10 x 5 x 3 inch loaf pan. Spread half of the sugar mixture over the fruit in the bottom of the pan. Top with meat mixture, packing it firmly over the fruit. Spread top of loaf with the rest of the sauce. Bake in 375 degree oven for 1 1/2 hours. Serve hot or cold. Serves 10.

A leftover hint. Chop up any liver that's left over, mix with seasoning and mayonnaise, serve later on celery sticks or rye crackers with grated egg on top.

Give your fruit salads a new treat. Add a little honey to the mayonnaise or salad dressing.

Powdered sugar sprinkled on a cake plate keeps a cake from sticking to the flat surface.

Slice cream cheese with a piece of thread to get thin even slices without crumbling.

For a delightful company cooler, chill a can of V-8 Juice and serve it with floaters of cucumber, or hang the slices over the rim of the glasses.

For those who have to dash to work, an orange eggnog provides a healthful, delicious breakfast-in-a-glass. The nog is high in vitamin C as well as protein. For two servings add one and one-half cups orange juice to two eggs. Beat with a rotary beater until foamy serve in tall glasses.

Pineapple Macarons
Mix together:
1 can (8 1/2 oz.) crushed pineapple, well drained
1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk
2 cups shredded coconut pinch of salt
Drop by spoonfuls on greased cookie sheet. Bake at 350 degrees about 12 minutes. Makes 2 1/2 dozen.

Toasted Coconut Pie Shell
Makes one 8 or 9 inch Pie Shell.
Combine in ungreased pie pan:
1 pkg. (7 oz.) moist toasted coconut
1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
Press evenly over bottom and sides of pan. Chill. Fill with favorite filling, cream or ice cream filling. Or try this Grape Paste Party Pie.

In a 2 quart saucepan stir until dissolved:
1 pkg. (3 oz.) lemon flavored gelatin
1 1/2 cups boiling grape juice
Add by spoonfuls:
1 quart vanilla ice cream
Stir until ice cream is melted. Chill until thickened but not set. (15-25 minutes). Turn into chilled crust (above). Chill until firm. (15-25 min.). Garnish with whipped cream and chopped nuts.

Farewells Said At Sunday Coffee

Last Sunday the Rev. and Mrs. Paul E. Shultz were guests of honor at a farewell coffee given by the parishioners of the All Saints Episcopal Church in Enterprise. The event was held at the Parish House.

Rev. Shultz is retiring after five years in Enterprise and after a vacation will make his home at 138 Naranja Road in DeBary.

Refreshments were served by the women of the church.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Lee have been their three daughters, Mrs. Rachael Wayda and daughter, Robin of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Bobby Davis and children, Tricia and Donna, and Miss Linda Rush of Columbus, Ga.

Barry Leinbart of Texas is spending the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gary and Mr. and Mrs. Max Leinbart of Oviedo.

Constable and Mrs. George Kelsoy of Oviedo recently entertained members of the Seminole County Sheriff's Department with a chicken barbecue held at their home. Other guests included Mayor and Mrs. Lee Gary, Mr. and Mrs. John Courier, and Justice of the Peace and Mrs. Thomas Moon, all of Oviedo.

The beautiful printed and embroidered ribbons make unusually effective belts and, in the 5 inch wide varieties, scarfs.

Buttons are a never ending source of fascination to almost everyone. They come in such a broad range of sizes, shapes and colors that I often wonder why we don't make more use of them. It's so easy to pin on the solid-fronted ones from the wrong side of a dress giving it a whole new look that is quickly removed. And it takes only seconds to turn a length of gold braid into a headband.

Why don't you stop and have a look for yourself the next time you're out shopping? Will be waiting for your summer recipes and hint ideas. Send them to me, Rt. 1, Box 31-B, Sanford. Will be glad to print them in the column.

SENATOR GEORGE A. SMATHERS played host to the Bill Kirk family when they recently visited in Washington, D. C. Pictured here after a special Congressional tour of the White House are Mr. and Mrs. Kirk with their sons Buddy and Scott, and Senator Smathers.

all round town!

WITH ... Dollie

BILL AND JERRY KIRK and sons Scott and Buddy had a great time on a recent trip to Washington, D. C. due to their friendship with Sen. George Smathers, who is a close family friend.

The Sanford family took a special Congressional tour of the White House, talked with Senators Spessard Holland and Syd Herlong, Hon. deLesseps Morrison, U. S. Ambassador to the OAS, and Bill Haley, congressman from Florida.

While lunching in the dining room they saw Senators Barry Goldwater, Strom Thurmond, Jacob Javits (Jerry had a little encounter with this one), Everett Dirksen and Hubert Humphries.

They also were much interested in a televised appearance of Secretary of State Dean Rusk as he spoke before a committee on foreign affairs, and also accompanied Sen. Smathers to another TV studio where he taped a television program.

Like most other Washington tourists they visited the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the FBI headquarters, the National Archives, and the fascinating Museum of Natural History and Smithsonian Institute.

Gen. Lee's home at Arlington, and his birthplace at Stratford House were high on the list of "things to see" for these Floridians and they also visited Thomas Jefferson's home at Monticello and Mt. Vernon, which of course was the home of the First President.

There was one other person that the Kirks were looking forward to meeting, but this meeting didn't come off. While waiting in the White House for a scheduled meeting with President Kennedy at 2 p.m., Jerry got so interested in looking at the new snap-on wallpaper which Mrs. Kennedy has had hung in the famous rooms that they completely missed the appointment, and when they arrived at his office about 15 minutes late, it was "too late."

But the trip was a memorable one and will spark their conversations for many days as they recount the fun they had and the interesting people they met.

Your reporter having lived at the capital for some time, we can agree with the Kirks that there probably is no more exciting and interesting place in the country, with more famous people to the square inch and more fascinating and soul-stirring things to see than in the nation's capital city.

"THAT'S MY BABY SISTER!" young Ernest Lundberg Jr., tells the photographer, as Mrs. Lundberg holds newcomer Kathy Jane, who recently joined the family at their Sunland home. (Herald Photo)

Former Resident Returning For Visit

A former Sanford resident and popular Navy wife Lou

(Mrs. St) Johnson and her daughter, Nancy, are returning here July 20th for a visit and will be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Ivey.

They have been living in Newport, R. I. where Captain Johnson has attended War College. He now has orders to Mayport, Florida, and soon will be leaving on a cruise.

The Johnson's son, Bobby, is remaining in R. I. but will return to Florida in August to attend the University of Miami.

Chuluota

Mrs. Doris Beach and daughter, Linda, are visiting with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. George Monor of First St. in Chuluota. They came here from Appleton, Wisconsin and plan to stay for about six months.

BETTY MANN

Nebraska, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mann of Sanford has added another honor to her list of accomplishments.

Miss Mann has been awarded a $1,850 graduate assistantship in the field of Home Economics Education by Florida State University.

This program consists of supervising FSU Home Economics student teachers in the junior high school classes at the University Demonstration School.

Miss Mann has taught home-making at Sanford Junior High from 1961 to 1963, and during the 1962-63 term served as supervising teacher for the FSU student teacher here.

While a member of the faculty at SJS, she was a member of the Florida and Seminole County Education Assn., the Classroom Teacher's Assn., American and Florida Vocational Assn., American Home Economic Assn. and secretary of the Central East Coast District of the Florida Home Economic Assn.

At the University of Nebraska she became a member of Omicron Nu, National Home Economic scholastic honorary, and Phi Upsilon Omicron, national professional Home Economic scholastic fraternity.

Last spring Phi Upsilon Omicron announced Miss Mann as the winner of the annual $500 National Candle Scholarship for Master's Degree work. She served as Nebraska Chapter president and convocate delegate while a student at the U. of N.

ATTENTION Civic Clubs, organizations and particularly women's groups:

If you want to hear one of the sincerest, most interesting and eye-opening speakers to appear on the local scene in many a day, see if you can prevail upon Dr. Luis Perez to speak to your group.

What this personable young doctor has to say about the insidious way in which Communists operate and how easily you can be duped, will stop you dead in your tracks.

He's not a rattle-brain nor a flag-waver, and his talk is spiced with humor and wit, but what he can tell you about Communist psychology will make you sit up and listen... and THINK!

MURIEL SCOTT passes the word along that if you want a cute little kitten or a puppy, a local vet has a plentiful supply of them.

She took him a cuddly little stray kitten that had been left on her doorstep and found that the good vet, who finds himself extremely reluctant to "do away with" such strays, has a little orphanage home out there and is looking for foster homes for these pets.

JOY REIGNS supreme in the home of the Ernest Lundbergs since a baby daughter has come to live with them.

We told you a couple of years ago about the arrival of young Ernest Jr., who was adopted soon after birth in St. Pete.

Now little Kathy Jane has joined the family, adopted June 21 and both big Ernest and little Ernest and Mama are pleased and delighted with her.

As for Kathy, she seems happy, too, as she snuggles down contentedly and trustingly, sleeping away.

Miss Gloria Jean Crews Marries On July 4th

Miss Gloria Jean Crews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crews was united in marriage with Robert O. Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cohen, before the altar of the First Baptist Church, Thursday, the Fourth of July. Miss Crews entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage.

She was attired in a street length gown of white, with a Chantilly lace bodice and full chiffon skirt over white taffeta. The scalloped neckline accented the double strand pearl necklace that she wore, which was the "something borrowed" from Mrs. Betty Yost, who had worn them at her own wedding.

The long sleeves came to a point over the wrist and a row of white satin buttons accented the back of the bodice. On her head, the bride wore a coronet of pearls from which fell a veil of white silk illusion. She carried a white Bible and a white orchid corsage. White mandarin slippers completed the ensemble.

Preceding the bride were the maid of honor, Miss Ruby Cohen, sister of the groom, and Miss Linda Mahoney, bridesmaid, the bride's sister.

Miss Cohen and Miss Mahoney wore identical styled dresses patterned after that of the bride. Miss Mahoney's gown was pink and she carried a bouquet of pink and blue flowers. Miss Cohen's gown was blue and her bouquet was of pink flowers.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. Crews, wore an ice blue silk brocade sheath accented with a hat of blue flowers, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The mother of the groom was attired in an embroidered rayon beige ensemble complimented by beige accessories.

Don Yost served as best man for Mr. Cohen and his brother, Clifford Cohen, as the attendant. Ushers were Freddie Knight and Jimmy Cohen. Rev. Fred B. Chance officiated at the nuptial rites.

A program of wedding music and the traditional wedding marches were played by organist Mrs. Robert Carter, who accompanied Mr. Carter as he sang, "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The double ring ceremony was performed before the flower-banked altar, lit on either side by glowing tapers in candelabra. Baskets of white gladioli, palms and greenery formed a hower of floral beauty for the wedding ceremony.

Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held in the social hall of the church where a beautifully appointed table was centered with the four-tiered wedding cake and graced with bouquets of summer flowers. Guests were also served punch, nuts and mint.

Mrs. Betty Yost was in charge of the bride's book and Miss Margo Dunn and Miss Linda Harvey served as floating hostesses.

For her honeymoon trip, Mr. Cohen changed to a pink embroidered silk sheath with a matching jacket on which she wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

After a trip to the southern part of the state, the newly wed couple will be at home at 725 Bryon St. in Titusville, where Mr. Cohen owns a radiator shop.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Esle Burks, of Tavares, aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crain, of Cocoa, sister and brother-in-law of the groom.

Wedding Date Set For July 21

The wedding of Miss Helen Jean Harrison and Douglas McArthur Miller will take place Sunday July 21 at 9 p.m. at the Orlando Baptist Temple on West Colonial.

Miss Harrison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mathew Harrison of Orlando and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Glenn Miller.

All friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend.

Everyone Welcome

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Aren't there men in this world who shave twice a day? My husband shaves at 7 A. M. and by 6 P. M. he needs another shave. If we are going out in the evening I have to beg him to shave again. It's always a battle. He says he'd rather stay home. In all our nine years of marriage, this is the only thing we've ever fought about. He says if I loved him I wouldn't nag him about shaving. I DO love him, but I don't want to be seen with a man who looks like he's on his way to hold up a bank! Can you suggest something? MARCIE

DEAR MARCIE: Many men shave twice a day and don't mind it a bit. If your man is one of those unfortunate fellows with a heavy beard and a tender face, lay off. If he's just lazy, promise him anything, but give him persuasion.

DEAR ABBY: Did you ever see a grown man cry? Well, I just did and it's enough to break your heart. I'm stationed in Germany and one of my buddies here just got a "Dear John" from his girl back home. They'd been engaged two years. He was nuts about her and talked about her day and night. He used to "dance" with her picture and sleep with it under his pillow. He never looked at any other girl, and he had plenty of chances. His girl just wrote and said she was giving his engagement ring to his mother because she was marrying another guy. Please Abby, tell girls back home not to write guys news like that, but to wait until they get home to break the news. My buddy says he doesn't want to live any more.

A BUDDY'S BUDDY
DEAR BUDDY: I've said it many times, but I'll say it again. When a girl promises to "wait" for her man who's gone in the service, she should keep that promise. Frequently, that's the only thing that keeps a guy going.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of people who invite you to their home for a visit and have the TV going full blast all the time you are there? By the time the evening is over your throat is sore from trying to out-shout the television.
SORE THROAT

DEAR SORE: Guests who are asked to compete with the television all evening should decline the second invitation.

CONFIDENTIAL TO EDDIE AND PAUL: Get the lettuce together, boys, and you'll have no trouble finding the tomatoes.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.
For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

I have often stressed the importance of the key word, "Arch." I am indebted to George Gooden, President of the American Bridge Teachers' Association for the first three letters of that word. I added the "H," which asks "How can I make or set the contract?"

The ABTA will be holding its annual meeting in Los Angeles the 25th and 26th of this month and anyone interested in learning the latest things in teaching will do well to attend.
The "C" stands for "Count your winners and losers." George points out that South can count nine sure winners at his three a-trump contract if he wins the ace of clubs immediately. George points out further that if South tries a spade finesse and East holds the king a heart shift will beat the hand in the event that the heart finesse is wrong. Of course, it is tough luck to lose two finesses, but George says that a winning player should not depend on luck when he doesn't have to. South's correct play is to take the ace of spades and go right after clubs. East will take his ace and shift to a heart and now South can try the heart finesse. It will lose, but South won't be hurt. He will still gather in four diamonds, three clubs and the two major suits aces for his nine tricks.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

Stop to consider: Your husband has rights, too: He has a right to some privacy. That means you shouldn't make a habit of asking, "Who was that on the telephone?" "Why are you half an hour late?" "What were you and so-and-so talking about?"

He has a right to some relaxation at home. You haven't the right to think up an odd job for him to do every time he settles down in his favorite chair.
He has a right to his ideas of how the children should be brought up. You haven't the right to veto any suggestion he makes, just because you think you understand the children better than he does.

He has a right to do as he pleases in his own house. That means you haven't the right to nag him if he likes to put his feet on the davenport, spread the Sunday paper on the living room floor, etc.
In short, he has a right to be the head of the house.

Rapaports Return From Europe Tour

DR. AND MRS. STANLEY J. Rapaport, of Casselberry, and children "Herky" and Kathleen, stand in the doorway of their "home on wheels" which took them across two continents. (Herald Photo)

By Jane Casselberry
Dr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Rapaport of Casselberry have returned home and reopened the office after a fabulous tour of Europe and the United States with their children, "Herky," 5, and Kathleen, 3.

They picked up their Volkswagen "camper," which they christened "Brunhilde," on arrival in Rotterdam, Holland. It was fully equipped for sleeping, cooking and eating and enabled the Rapaports to travel economically and simplified the matter of finding accommodations.

This resulted in such unusual overnight stopping places as the Eiffel Tower in Paris, the Coliseum in Rome and the Leaning Tower of Pisa. They dined in style in their VW beneath the balcony of Princess Grace and Prince Ranier in Monaco.

In the absence of landermats, Mrs. Rapaport solved the universal problem in the manner of the local housewives by washing their clothes by hand in the village fountains.

Dr. Rapaport's knowledge of German and his wife's French were very useful during the trip and enabled them to get to know the people better in the countries which they visited.

Arriving in Holland at tulip time, they saw the flower auctions. Mrs. Rapaport finds the wooden shoes which she purchased as a souvenir are very comfortable to wear. The Dutch people find them very practical where the streets are muddy and there are no sidewalks.

While in Spain, they saw the colorful annual festivals and spectacular fireworks displays at Valencia and Castle Leon. The open air meat markets with the many flies drove them to a diet of sardine sandwiches, however.

They visited Portugal, where they found the women wear six petticoats and go barefooted, and then on to Gibraltar.

They found Italy to be the most interesting country in Europe and were fortunate to be in Rome before the death of Pope John and attended a public audience in St. Peter's.

Like every tourist they enjoyed the gondolas in Venice and the flower market of San Remo. They also found the natives very adept at squeezing the "last lira" from tourists.

Driving into Switzerland, our stalwart travelers found many of the alpine passes blocked with snow, which meant turning around and detouring 200 miles. They drove through Austria and into Germany, where they had their only peek behind the Iron Curtain when they visited East Berlin.

It took about an hour of going through the complicated procedure to get into East Berlin, where guns were much in evidence and it appeared to be only one-fifth as prosperous as the Western zone, Dr. Rapaport noted.

They toured the Scandinavian countries of Sweden, Norway and Denmark and found Norway to be the prettiest country which they saw in Europe with its spectacular scenery.

Dr. Rapaport carried on advance studies at a hospital outside of London and found British Socialized Medicine to be a failure.

After sightseeing in England and Scotland, they went to Ireland by way of an overnight ferry from Liverpool. This was a "must" since Mrs. Rapaport is of Irish descent and they all kissed the Blarney Stone before boarding ship for home.

On arrival in New York they headed their faithful "camper" westward for a visit with Dr. Rapaport's family in California. They stopped off at such spots as Yellowstone, Zion and Bryce Canyon National Parks, and are convinced the scenery in this country far surpasses that of any of the other lands which they visited.

On the return trip they stopped off in Texas to visit Mrs. Rapaport's folks.

They are very glad to be back home in Casselberry and say the most important thing they learned from their travels is what a privilege it is to be an American and what a wonderful country in which we live.

Chuluota Fiesta Attracts Crowd

By Pearl Jackson
The Fourth of July Picnic and annual Chuluota Fiesta was an outstanding success, reports Mrs. Dorothy Fox, chairman.

Crowds gathered throughout the day from many miles around for the carnival midway with everything from Fish Ponds to grab-bags and the delicious ham dinner served by Mrs. Jean Mello, Mrs. Loretta Silver, Mrs. Peg Stewart and Mrs. Dolores Martin.

Mrs. Bert Chittick and Mrs. Arnold Jackson were in charge of the Midway and ticket chairmen were Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Peg Crowlale and Mrs. Doris Beach.

The winners of the swimming contest were as follows: Adults, Dan Bocks; 14 to 16, Jerry Murphy; 10 to 12, Stephen Brack; 5 to 9, Robert Davis and 1 to 5, Arnold Jackson Jr. Mrs. Katy Coffy was in charge of this activity.

The prize of the day for collecting the most money on the Dishless game was taken by Mrs. Hattie Jones.

The winner of the Bean Jar Guessing Contest was Buck Sargent and winner of the dinner drawing was Donald Coffy.

The evening hours were spent dancing and swimming and in just good old fashioned socializing, Mrs. Fox reported.

"The Fiesta proved very profitable and all proceeds will go toward the betterment of the community," said Mrs. Fox.

"A good time was had by all and that's something no amount of money can equal," she added.

She expressed her appreciation and thanks to all the women of the community who worked to make it such a success.

Casselberry Youth Does U. S. Research

By Jane Casselberry
Dale Birkenmeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Birkenmeyer Jr., of 281 Lake Griffin Circle, Casselberry, has returned to San Salvador Island in the Bahamas, where he is engaged in research for the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Entomological Research Division.

Young Birkenmeyer came home, Friday, June 28, for a week's visit and surprised his family with a two months growth of beard.

His work on San Salvador involves a test program for trying out a method of eradicating insects by sterilization, which is proving very successful.

Between 40 and 60 thousand flies are sent to the island

each week in the pupa stage. They are kept in cages when they hatch out and are fed chemi-sterilants mixed with sugar.

After being sterilized the flies are released on the island. The normal female fly, whose life expectancy is five weeks, mates only once during her lifetime and lays an average of 99 eggs. The male fly lives 4 weeks and under ideal conditions may mate with as many as 54 different females. Thus for each male fly sterilized the world is spared a possible 5,346 additional insect pests.

Birkenmeyer claims that he can distinguish between the male and female of the species by looking into their eyes.

The island, which serves as a site for a missile tracking station operated by PanAmerican, is an ideal spot for the test program because of its remote location and small area.

Two other islands in the chain Mayaguana and Grand Turk also have testing programs with the methods varying slightly on each. The program is scheduled to continue to next June.

Dr. Rapaport carried on advance studies at a hospital outside of London and found British Socialized Medicine to be a failure.

After sightseeing in England and Scotland, they went to Ireland by way of an overnight ferry from Liverpool. This was a "must" since Mrs. Rapaport is of Irish descent and they all kissed the Blarney Stone before boarding ship for home.

On arrival in New York they headed their faithful "camper" westward for a visit with Dr. Rapaport's family in California. They stopped off at such spots as Yellowstone, Zion and Bryce Canyon National Parks, and are convinced the scenery in this country far surpasses that of any of the other lands which they visited.

On the return trip they stopped off in Texas to visit Mrs. Rapaport's folks.

They are very glad to be back home in Casselberry and say the most important thing they learned from their travels is what a privilege it is to be an American and what a wonderful country in which we live.

On arrival in New York they headed their faithful "camper" westward for a visit with Dr. Rapaport's family in California. They stopped off at such spots as Yellowstone, Zion and Bryce Canyon National Parks, and are convinced the scenery in this country far surpasses that of any of the other lands which they visited.

On the return trip they stopped off in Texas to visit Mrs. Rapaport's folks.

They are very glad to be back home in Casselberry and say the most important thing they learned from their travels is what a privilege it is to be an American and what a wonderful country in which we live.

Garden Club Wins Plaudits

By Mona Grinstead
The North Orlando Garden Club, organized in 1960 with a membership of 15 women, has lived up to its objective and proved an asset to the community.

The objective of the club, which is read at each meeting to remind the members, is to stimulate interest in gardening, to cooperate in the protection of native plants and birds and to encourage public planting and roadside improvement.

During the past year the club has sponsored "The Garden for the Month" project for all residents of the community. Ten awards were made and eight of the laws received honorable mention.

Other activities during the year have been a tea sponsored by the group in September, a rummage sale in November, a Christmas party, planting of Cherry Laurels, bake sales, and in April they participated in the South Seminole Garden Club flower show as guests.

JIMMY CLARK, of Sanford, was one proud youngster when his name was called out as the winner of a brand new bicycle at the Fourth of July Fiesta sponsored by the Longwood Volunteer Fire Dept. The bike was one of many gifts awarded throughout the day. (Herald Photo)

4 Girls Back From 4-H Short Course

By Cathy Cammack
Every year when school is out the most outstanding 4-H girls of the state, who are 14 years or older attend the 4-H Short Course at Florida State University in Tallahassee.

This year the representatives of Seminole County were Sandy Mikler, Slavia; Kathy Rook, Slavia; Margaret Stevens, Longwood, and Cathy Cammack, Geneva.

These girls were accompanied by Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Myrtle Wilson, Andrew Duda & Sons and L. B. Planie sponsored the trip.

The 587 delegates of Florida's 22,000 4-H girls were welcomed to Florida State University, Monday evening, June 10th by Dr. Gordon W. Blackwell, president of the university and Miss Anna Mae Sikes, State Home Demonstration Agent.

The theme of the 40th Annual Short Course was "4-H Builds on Our American Heritage." Many interesting and inspiring speeches were given on our heritage. Mrs. Lewis Bevis, a Tallahassee homemaker, talked on "Our Spiritual Heritage"; Mrs. Myron R. Blee, President of Florida Congress of P.T.A., spoke on "Our Cultural Heritage";

"Our Economic and Political Heritage" was discussed by Secretary of State Tom Adams; Dr. Stanley J. Marshall, head of Science Education and the University of Florida, talked on "Our Educational Heritage"; and Dr. M. O. Watkins, director of the Florida Agricultural Extension Service, spoke on "The Meaning of Citizenship."

We girls received much inspiration from these talks that will help us be better Americans as well as better 4-H'ers.

Because of the new trimester system, college was in session during the short course and we felt like coeds attending classes just like college students.

Everywhere on the campus the 4-H girls were heard to groan. "Oh, Kennedy's Physical Fitness Program!" Yet, we tackled the mile hike to breakfast every morning at 6:30. The reason for this was that the 4-H dormitory was located a mile from the dining hall and the classes.

Some of the special activities during the week were the Junior-Senior Reception, "Our American Heritage in Song and Dance," the Dress Revue, a tour of the State Capitol and Supreme Court, and installation of new officers.

Fat women who wear shorts shouldn't...

Governmental and downtown business offices took on a "ghost town" appearance at about 10:30 this morning. All the "wheels" were at NAS to witness the colorful change-of-command ceremony.

Our learn-something-new-every-day item: Seminole is a popular name for most anything in this county. For example: Seminole Boulevard is a popular name for streets.

Dr. Dick Dougherty learned today he really has R. E. Porter for a patient... although the name, itself, doesn't appear in his accounts receivable.

Henry Tamm will take over as city manager Monday while Pete Knowles is on vacation. What Pete terms "some secluded spot away from it all."

We know a chap who feels he got stuck the first day after he bought a home. He had the water turned on. The pressure blew out a pipe in the toilet reservoir and flooded the bathroom. Just one of the trials and tribulations of purchasing a home not newly built.

Item on the police blotter had the news reporters excited for a few minutes this morning. Allied Investigations Bureau at St. Catherine's, Ontario, Canada, telephoned police they have in custody a man who is wanted here.

Local committee working on having that new state university brought to Seminole County will meet with the State Board of Control at Tallahassee first of the week to offer "some selling points."

Coincidence: Mrs. E. C. Smith Jr. was in to see Jennie Warnke, our acting society editor, yesterday with the announcement of the wedding of her daughter, Capt. Shirley C. Smith, USAF. It will appear in Monday's edition.

Yowell's, who has been in business here for a half-century, posted a sign in the store window this morning it has lost its lease and is going out of business.

Sen. Jack Mathews from up Jacksonville-way hasn't officially announced as yet that he intends to run for governor next year... but he was doing a lot of hand-shaking in The Herald office this morning.

SBD today asked for bids by July 30 for the improvement of Highway 415 from Sanford's east limits to the St. Johns River and Highway 423 (Grapevine Avenue) from Country Club Road to West First Street.

Hint to fishermen: R. E. Porter, when the wind blew off his cap and it sunk in the St. Johns, was advised to fasten a bobber to his new cap.

Fat women who wear slacks shouldn't look at their backs.

CAPT. JAMES O. MAYO (right) today assumed command of Heavy Attack Wing One at Sanford NAS, succeeding Capt. Joseph M. Tully Jr.

New Commander Takes Over Wing

Capt. James O. Mayo, a veteran of nearly 22 years in Naval Aviation, today became commander of Sanford's Heavy Attack Wing One.

He relieved Capt. Joseph M. Tully, Jr., in formal ceremonies witnessed by nearly 300 persons at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

The ceremony concluded Captain Tully's long association with Central Florida and Heavy Attack aviation, which has spanned the greater part of the past eight years—a long time by military standards.

The two officers changed command as personnel from three of the Wing's six squadrons and Captain Tully's own staff members stood at attention in full dress white uniform.

The other three units are detached to the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 66th, 67th, 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th.

Paul Bennett of Sanford, president of the state association, is scheduled to speak on this subject at a future meeting.

The department also plans to receive the training program offered by the State Fire College.

Starting next week, volunteer firemen will conduct a house-to-house solicitation to explain the objects of the department, ask for support and seek new members.

The department agreed with Councilman Art Ferrin's suggestion made at the July council meeting that residents be asked to pay a booster fee of $3 to be put in the village treasury for the use of fire and police department needs.

A letter will be mailed to each resident explaining the purpose of this before the collection is made.

Fire Chief Bill Hahn is acting as president and secretary at present until a list of 15 names is on the membership roster. He has announced that a hard suction hose has been purchased for the truck and will be installed immediately.

The department meets on the second Wednesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at the community building in the recreation area and will welcome new members.

Liberals Gone 'Too Far To Left' - Goldwater

Kennedy's 'Co-Existence' Stance Blasted

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) said today that President Kennedy appears "determined to coexist with international communism wherever it thrives—even in the Western Hemisphere."

"I believe today's liberal is so frightened of the future that he is incapable of acting in the present," Goldwater said. "Why else are we confronted today with a virtual paralysis of policy? Why else does Cuba remain a festering, Soviet power base on our very doorstep? Why else are we trying to pretend that international communism is melting and not out to enslave the entire world?"

Goldwater said that the "cause, for our indecision and inaction is a deep-seated fear on the part of the liberal establishment which forecloses the possibility of any action at all that may contain a slight element of risk."

Such craven fear is completely out of character with the American spirit," he declared. Goldwater said "liberals have taken us too far to the left for the good of the nation, particularly when we find ourselves in a worldwide struggle with the forces of the extreme left."
