

BIG MEETING WEDNESDAY SHIP BY SHIPS

Sanford Chamber of Commerce Will Start Ball Rolling

CHEAPER RATES

CAN ONLY BE OBTAINED BY THROUGH COMBINED EFFORTS OF ALL

Having been the pioneers in the movement of Ship by Water, for this section of Florida, adjacent to the St. Johns river, the Sanford Chamber of Commerce will go the full length, and has called a meeting of all the cities, towns and villages in this part of Florida to meet here on Wednesday, August 31st.

At this big meeting of the shippers of this part of Florida, the question of shipping all fruits and vegetables by water and routing all incoming freight by water will be taken up, and a united stand taken for the betterment of trade conditions every where.

The Sanford Chamber of Commerce will have the backing of the Orlando Chamber of Commerce, the Palatka Chamber of Commerce, and the DeLand Commercial Club, the Eustis Board of Trade, Leesburg Board of Trade, and of delegates from every smaller city in this section where they have no trade body.

It is thought that the concerted action of all the delegates from the combined trade bodies of the places adjacent to the St. Johns river, will have the desired effect and the Ship by Water campaign will be not only a slogan, but will be a verified fact. The Sanford Chamber of Commerce intends to see this thing through to the finish, and will not stop until the result has been attained. There will be a big crowd of enthusiasts to people here on Wednesday, at the meeting.

The university would begin with about two thousand former service men but would be expanded to accommodate fifteen to twenty thousand soon as possible. Plans for the schools also include construction of several hundred bungalows to be occupied by former soldiers who have families.

It was stated at the governor's office that he is with official advices and state police headquarters had only the report from Mullins.

With Wreckage Cleared Away Bodies Can Be Recovered

SOME ARE LOST

BORNE AWAY BY THE TIDES AS FRAGMENTS ARE FOUND TEN MILES AWAY

HULL, Eng., Aug. 26.—Workmen engaged in salvaging the wreckage of the air ship from the Humber river employed powerful cranes today to lift the skeleton. It is believed as soon as the frame work is raised it will be possible to recover the bodies of many of the men who died when the dirigible collapsed and caught fire. River men believe that the bodies of some of the victims have been borne away by the tide or current and reported fragments of the airships covering fabric found ten miles up the river from the scene of the accident. Official inquiry of the disaster will begin tomorrow. Two bodies were recovered today from wreckage. One was identified as Albert Loftin, the American mechanic, and the other as Flight Lieut. Rye, of the British crew.

OFFICIAL PROBE INTO DISASTER MADE TODAY

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Official investigations made yesterday at Hull into the ZR-2 disaster failed to produce results either minimizing its extent or throwing light on the reason why the big airship suddenly broke in two and fell with a majority of the crew in the Humber river. All hope has been abandoned that there are other survivors of the catastrophe than Norman O. Walker, an American rigger, and Flight Lieut. A. H. Wann and three other British members of the crew.

The air ministry and the admiralty are omitting no efforts in salvaging the wreck and investigating the cause of the collapse of the dirigible. The salvage work will continue throughout the night at Hull, although it admittedly is difficult and dangerous.

It is presumed that a number of the officers and men of the crew of the ill-fated craft, including Brigadier-General Maitland, may have been imprisoned in the gondolas by the explosion and met death there. They are believed to have been resting in the gondolas at the time of the disaster, as they had an engagement to attend a dance in Hull, arranged in their honor Wednesday night. This was to have been in the nature of a farewell gathering in honor of the Americans.

The report that the body of Commander Louis H. Maxfield, U. S. N., had been found, turned out to be inaccurate.

THREE MEN HURT SEABOARD WRECK LATE YESTERDAY

(By The Associated Press)

TAMPA, Aug. 26.—Three trainmen were slightly injured early today when the Seaboard Air Line passenger train which left Tampa last night, crashed into the rear of a freight train two miles South of Ocala. The men injured were: Engineer E. C. Geiger, Flagman L. E. Pendaris and Bob Thos, negro fireman, all of the passenger train.

Railroad officials said an air hose bursted on the freight causing it to stop. The crew went to the rear to protest against the passenger following but the passenger was too close. The track is blocked and the Seaboard trains are running over the Coast Line from Leesburg to Ocala.

AMERICAN SURVIVOR'S STORY OF THE GREAT CATASTROPHE THAT HAPPENED TO ZR-2

While Testing the Ship's Control Structure Split in Half

(By The Associated Press)

HOWDEN, Aug. 26.—Norman Walker, sole American survivor of the wrecked airship ZR-2, yesterday gave the Associated Press the first circumstantial account of the disaster, which late Wednesday destroyed the great super-dirigible and every American member of the crew on board except himself.

Walker was seen at the Howden airdrome, near Hull, where he had just been brought after the terrible experience through which he passed unscathed. He comes from Commerce, Tex., and was a rigger on the ill-fated airship. He is of boyish appearance, 20 years old, and of a wiry build.

"We were all in the highest spirits when we left Howden on the trial flight," he said. "We sailed over the North sea first and then started down the north coast to Pulham. A thick fog developed, so it was found impossible to land at Pulham. In fact, the fog was so dense we were more or less lost, although we knew the general locality.

"We were flying at a height of about 3,500 feet, with the wireless keeping in touch with both Howden and Pulham. The ship was behaving finely and there was not a sign of weakness anywhere.

"A test of the ship's control then began. I was at the lower rudder, proceeding back to the tail, and had just reached the lower cockpit when there was a tremendous crash. The girders amidship broke and the ship split into halves.

"Both the tail and the nose immediately pointed downward and the halves started to descend toward the Humber.

"I certainly cannot describe my sensation, but I thought my time had come."

"I made a rush for the tail to get a parachute, but found two of my English comrades, Harry Battman and Walter Potter, were already there. I knew there was only one chute there for the three of us. Battman had the chute and jumped, but it fouled and he hung to the tail of the dirigible.

ENGLISH PEACE PROPOSALS REJECTED BY REPUBLICANS BUT WOULD NEGOTIATE

ALL READY FOR WEDDING AND DANCE

COURT HOUSE SQUARE WILL BE SCENE OF GREAT GATHERING

The many colored lights have been strung across the street from the court house and all is in readiness for the big wedding and dance, tonight. It is not every bride and groom that has a public wedding, receives a free city lot, and then has a big dance on the street afterward, with the band making the music.

There are many people coming to the city today, and tonight the streets will be filled by the merry throng unless the weather man decides to send us much rain. Showers are falling now, but it seems that the skies are clearing and it will be cool and comfortable tonight. In case it rains, the wedding will be held in the court house, and the dance at the Valdez, but no one is looking for any rain, for it would never rain on such a lovely bride as will be married tonight—for unhappy is the bride the rain falls on—but this does not hold true, and the bride of tonight's festivities is not one that is afraid of a little shower.

Come out early and get a good seat. The festivities will occur in front of the court house.

On Principle of Government by Consent of Governed

SAYS E. DEVALERA

AND ALSO SAYS THAT "WE LONG TO END THE CONFLICT"

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The British government's peace proposal laid before the Irish Republican parliament which rejected them unanimously but is willing to negotiate on principle of government by the consent of the governed, Eamon DeValera says in his reply to Lloyd George. The letter proposes Great Britain and Ireland appoint representatives with plenary powers to negotiate details on this principle. "We have not sought war, nor do we seek war, but if war be made upon us we must defend ourselves and we shall do so," says DeValera's letter. "We long to end the conflict between Great Britain and Ireland."

PEACE TREATY SIGNED IN FULL SAYS HUGHES

UNRATIFIED PACT OF VERSAILLES WAS MADE BASIS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The treaty with Germany, which was signed yesterday in Berlin, was made public last night by the state department. It puts into force the economic, reparations, military and various other provisions of the unratified treaty of Versailles, but provides specifically that the United States shall not be bound by the covenant of the league of nations or by other enumerated parts of the Versailles settlement.

The declarations of the peace resolution are reaffirmed in the treaty, and it contains, in addition, a blanket provision that any benefit which might accrue to this country under the Versailles pact is to be regarded as of full force. Germany's renunciation of her overseas possessions jointly to the big five powers is reaffirmed, as are the military clauses of the Versailles treaty, the sections relating to prisoners, reparations, finance, economic settlements, commerce and abrogation of all other existing treaties between the two countries.

In disassociating the United States from the league of nations the document provides not only that this government will not be bound by the covenant, but that no action of the league shall be considered as placing an obligation upon America. The United States also stipulated that it will not be bound by the sections of the Versailles treaty relating to the boundaries of Germany, to political readjustments in Europe, to the settlements affecting China, Siam, Liberia, Morocco, Egypt, Turkey, Bulgaria or Shantung, or to the establishment of an international labor organization.

In a state department statement issued to announce the signature of the treaty, special mention was made of the reaffirmation of this government's share in the renounced German overseas possessions, the statement declaring that this provision "confirms the rights of the United States with respect to Yap and other former German overseas possessions upon an equality with other powers."

PUBLIC WEDDING TOMORROW NIGHT SOCIAL AFFAIR

PROMINENCE OF BRIDE AND GROOM LENDS AN AIR OF MYSTERY

The public wedding that will take place in front of the court house tomorrow night at eight o'clock promises to be one of the great society events of the season and will really open the season earlier than usual but none the less conspicuous on account of the absence of many of the Sanford people who are away and the visitors who have not come South as yet.

Last night all the principals in the affair met at the court house and rehearsed the affair so there would be no hitch in the wedding tomorrow night. It was noticed that the bride and the groom and the minister were nervous but carried out their part very well. The bride is extremely nervous now that the public wedding is drawing near and several times has almost decided that the gaze of thousands directed on the wedding will be too much for any shrinking bride but the idea of helping the Woman's Club for the school lunches and also the chance to get a city lot has finally overcome all the objections and the bride will be there tomorrow night on time even if the groom is obliged to support his prospective wife during the ceremony.

Public weddings have not been in vogue in Sanford but it is almost certain that after tomorrow night they will be very popular with many Sanford couples.

The girls will have a tag day tomorrow and tomorrow night and every one who pays fifty cents and obtains a tag will be entitled to witness the wedding and also take part in the dance. The band will furnish the music for the dance and it will be a big get-together dance for everybody.

Don't miss the wedding and the dance. The merchants of Sanford are offering special bargains tomorrow all day. Come in early and you will save enough money to more than pay your expenses to Sanford and enjoy a big time also.

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 25.—A Tenants' League has been organized here for the purpose of combatting exorbitant rents said to be charged by some of Gainesville's landlords. Later, the league, it is said, plans to turn its guns on other alleged profiteers.

Representatives of the league state they intend to throw the full light of publicity on those landlords who are described as "bull-dozing" their tenants. The majority of the landlords are not among this class, the representatives say, and the membership of the organization includes many well satisfied tenants who merely want to assist their less fortunate fellows.

"We are not fighting the majority of the landlords in Gainesville," said one of the League's representatives. "We are only out to get four or five of them who are known to be bull-dozing the tenants of the city by charging exorbitant rents."

SEE EXHAUSTION OF RADIUM

Many Authorities Believe There Will Be None Remaining in About Twenty-Five Years.

Some authorities predict that, 25 years from now, there will be no radium left in the world. By that time, it is claimed, all available ores of this wonderful mineral will have been used up. The so-called radium emanations are supposed to be electrified particles—though just what these particles are nobody knows. They do not seem to be identifiable as any kind of matter. But after being given off, they cease to be electrically charged and assume the form of helium.

Here is a case altogether extraordinary, in which one element is actually transmuted into another element—a phenomenon which has hitherto been thought impossible.

Helium was first discovered in the sun. It was later found in our own atmosphere, which contains a minute percentage of it. Natural gas from some wells in Texas and elsewhere yields considerable quantities of it—so much in certain instances that, being noninflammable, it renders the gas less useful as fuel.

Is it to be imagined that all of the existing helium was originally derived from radium? Nobody can answer that question.

GOSSIP FORM OF INSANITY?

City Authorities Who Have Dealt With the Problem Are Strongly of That Opinion.

Men and women who gossip, said Dr. E. H. Bullock of Chicago, city health director, cannot be in their right mind, and should be given the closest attention to get them back to normal. They have been called "insensitives of character," and E. C. H. Jenkins, a psychologist and secretary to the board of police commissioners, Chicago, says, in the Detective, February, 1921, that the neighborhood gossip and the anonymous letter writer have one of the nastiest, lowest and most vicious forms of insanity known to medical circles. Their distorted imagination visualizes scenes which they would have come true, and their insane mind immediately grasps the story and they repeat it as if it were true.

Gossip and anonymous letters, says the New York Medical Journal, are a constant pest at police headquarters, but reports registered with police officers in an attempt to injure character by these means or false telephone reports are a failure; in fact, the police take more pleasure in tracking the informer than the one informed about.

Latest in Slang.

The next time you are threatened with a legacy, don't cross your fingers. When you have on your best frock, and want to keep the rain god in a happy mood, don't carry an umbrella. If you tear your Sunday trousers climbing a barbed wire fence don't say "tsk-tsk-tsk."

Of course you have to say something, when you are surprised, or pleased, don't give a long, doubtful, amazed or vexed. However, instead of the proverbial "go on," "damn," "Gee," "ye gods" and others, the Chinese have provided a new word, which is being taken up by the smartest buds from coast to coast, and the beauty of it is that you can express any emotion under the sun with just this one word, "Moskee."

Useful on a Long Walk.

Nature's most ardent lovers cannot enjoy a long tramp over hills, fields and country roads, if a blister on the foot has presented itself. A simple remedy, often marvelously beneficial, comes from the old country, merely the use of a cabbage leaf. Cut a piece of the cool leaf larger than the painful area. Then place it over the spot and fix down the borders with stamp paper. If the cabbage plaster is applied that it will not seriously hamper the putting on of the stocking and shoe. A wonderful sense of relief is experienced, and it is possible to continue the walk without pain. Of course if a little post can be taken after the cabbage leaf has been placed on the painful part so much the better.

Where Men Must Marry.

An anti-bachelor bill introduced into the Turkish parliament makes marriage compulsory for men over twenty-five. Defaulters will be fined a quarter of their earnings, which will be deposited in agricultural banks to help peasants to marry. No adult civil servant may be a bachelor. Gifts of land, bonds, and state education for children are held out as rewards for marriage, with a penalty of hard labor for a confirmed bachelor.

Rank Ingratitude.

MURDER WILL OUT TRUTH WILL TELL, OSTEEEN CRIME OUT

Crime of Two Years Ago, Murder of Quitzaw Comes to Light

"Murder will out and truth will tell." William Woodward, a white man about 60 years of age, was arrested yesterday afternoon at Osteen and is now in jail charged with the murder of John H. Quitzaw, which occurred at Osteen on the night of July 31, 1919.

From appearances, Quitzaw was sitting in a room at his house near Osteen, and was reading a paper, or preparing to read, as his glasses were beside him when found and a light was burning on the table. His chair was near a window. When found the entire top of his head had been blown off, and brains and parts of the skull were splattered over the walls. A coroner's inquest was held, but at that time it was impossible to secure evidence.

The arrest was made yesterday on a warrant sworn out by John Tatum of Osteen. Sheriff Morris informed the reporter that a negro woman who had been living with Woodward reported to Tatum that Woodward had confessed to her that he killed Quitzaw, and this Tatum reported to the sheriff. Tatum suggested that he could secret himself in the Woodward house, Woodward being deaf, and that the woman would get Woodward to repeat his story of the killing so that Tatum could hear. This was done, and Tatum took young Haney with him. They secreted themselves in the house, and the woman got Woodward to relate the story of the killing.

Woodward is said to have stated that he killed Quitzaw because Quitzaw informed him (Woodward) for selling liquor and was the cause of his arrest. He is said to have stated that he used No. 4 bird shot and a single barrel shotgun.

Quitzaw was discovered the morning after the murder, or the morning of the murder, about 8 o'clock, by Geo. Brooks, who went to his house. For two years the murder has been a mystery, which now promises to be cleared up.

State Attorney George DeCottes was informed by phone this morning of the arrest and stated that he would be present when the preliminary took place before County Judge McCrory in DeLand.—DeLand News.

BODIES OF 500 U. S. VETERANS ESCAPE FLAMES.

HOBOKEN, N. J., Aug. 25.—Five hundred bodies of American soldier dead, awaiting shipment to the homes of relatives, were removed in safety late yesterday when fire of unknown origin swept over the army water front reservation here, destroying piers 5 and 6 and an adjoining army storehouse and barracks.

Pier 4, at which the giant liner Leviathan and the transport Wheaton were docked, was saved with difficulty.

The flames licked the sides of the Leviathan skimming a small section of the woodwork on the bow and the forward mast, but a fireboat wedged its way between the liner and the burning pier and successfully fought off the flames as they spread to the huge craft.

When the fire broke out there were 500 bodies in the large rooms at the junction of piers 4 and 5. As soon as Willur, officer of the day, called out the entire army personnel, about 150 men who started removing the bodies. Four hundred longshoremen on duty at nearby piers, assisted.

One thousand other bodies were lined up on pier 4, but inasmuch as the flames did not come near them they were not disturbed. The transport Wheaton, which recently arrived here with 5,000 bodies, still had 2,000 aboard when the fire broke out, but it was on the opposite of the pier from which the fire was located.

B. Y. P. U. ACTIVITIES

Tuesday night was enjoyed very much by the Junior and Intermediate B. Y. P. U. at Crystal Lake. An hour's swim fitted the party for the lunch the girls had provided. After a short ride in the truck the party broke up, all voting they had a very enjoyable evening. The twenty-five members present were chaperoned by Mrs. A. C. Lossing, Mrs. Star and Mrs. Stanley. We are planning on going on another picnic in the near future and all the young people are invited to join the Baptist Young People's Union.

"GOOD LUCK" SUNDAY NIGHT

Many people will be glad to learn that Dr. George Hyman will preach next Sunday evening on the subject "Good Luck." There will be a message for all who may attend this service.

TRADE EXTENSION COMMITTEE WENT TO OVIEDO AUG. 25

Will Have Meeting at Geneva on Monday Night

The Trade Extension Committee of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce journeyed to Oviedo yesterday where they met the Oviedo business men at the Gun Club shoot. They had cold beer on tap from the Fox Cold Storage plant and cigars from the Mausey factory and they had a good time generally.

The committee took in Oviedo after the gun club shoot and advertised the big Merchants' Carnival to be held here next month and also the Women's Club dance tonight.

The Trade Extension Committee will meet with the good people of Geneva on Monday night at which meeting a big crowd is expected. There are many things in common with the merchants and the people of Sanford and the people of the county and the Trade Extension Committee trips is creating a fine feeling of co-operation between county and city. ### SERVICES AT METHODIST CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY.

Dr. Walker will arrive Saturday night from his vacation and will preach both morning and evening, Sunday, August 28th. Every member should be there and invite their friends. A warm welcome is extended to everyone.

FACTS ABOUT OPTOMETRY

Eye Examination

The Optometric way is the ideal way to deal with eyestrain.

Ideal in that the Optometrist considers the comfort of the patient of chief importance.

Ideal in that modern methods with modern instruments do away with guesswork. This applies to measuring of the defect of sight as well as the strength and endurance of people's eyes.

The profession itself has so steadily advanced that what was ideal five years ago, or even two years ago is not ideal today.

VETERANS OF GRAY END DURHAM REUNION.

DURHAM, N. C., Aug. 26.—Featured by a parade and an elaborate ball last night, the 1921 reunion of the North Carolina Confederate Veterans, in session here three days this week, came to an end last night. Over 1,000 veterans were in attendance.

The parade was spectacular and not of the most interesting items on the program. A majority of the veterans marched, while those who were too feeble, rode in automobiles. In the parade, which was easily two miles long, were several hundred ex-service men of the World War, Spanish-American veterans, several Salvation Army corps, the local machine gun company and scores of gaily bedecked automobiles and floats.

The ball was chiefly for the guests of honor. Many of the veterans left for their homes on the afternoon trains.

Little Ten-Year-Old Boy Brutally Bitten While Sleeping With Mother

Last Wednesday night about 11 o'clock, while sleeping with his mother, Johnnie Muggins, ten year old son of Mack Muggins, living near the Georgia and Alabama line, was brutally bitten on the ankle by an anopheles mosquito. The ankle is badly swollen but the doctors think he will recover after taking malarial treatment. This mosquito was not discovered until daylight next morning and a barrage of Torment was shot at him, killing him instantly. The gas-gas fume from this liquid will not hurt a human being but is instant death to a malarial mosquito. It does not frighten them, it is not a bluff, it means death when the mosquito first inhales it. Torment is sold in all stores.—Adv.

FORMER MAJOR LEAGUE PLAYERS NOW LEADING CLASS C-D TEAMS

Glancing over the baseball directory sponsored by John H. Farrell, of the National association, one is astonished at the number of old timers whose names were once familiar in the major leagues that are managing class C and D teams somewhere in this big land. For instance, Rudy Hubswitt is pilot of the Pawluska team of the Western association; Josh Clarke is manager of the Coffeyville team in the Southwestern league; Tommy Leach is handling the Tampa club in the Florida league, while Joe Tinker is handling Orlando and Cy Barger St. Petersburg in the same sun-stricken circuit; Josh Doyore is managing Grand Rapids in the Central circuit; Chief Bender is in charge of New Haven in the Eastern league, and Larry Cheney is boss of players at Charleston in the South Atlantic league. So the story goes.

Sporting Squibs of All Kinds

O. W. Hart, a noted British long-distance walker, is about to attempt to run 208 miles in 24 hours.

Football teams representing West Virginia and the University of Cincinnati will meet October 1 next.

Russell H. Cohen, former Vanderbilt football player, has been signed as assistant coach at Mercer university.

Single G, 1:50, had won 62 races in 90 starts and more than $58,000 in purse money in light harness races, when the last count was made.

A world's record for the 100-yard breast-stroke swim in open water was made by Mike McDermott, member of the I. A. C. of Chicago.

Carl Beck, the sensational halfback of the 1919 Virginia university eleven, is ineligible for football at West Virginia university next fall.

Miss Mary K. Browne, Los Angeles, won the women's New York tennis championship by defeating Miss Marie Wagner of New York in the challenge round.

Announcement has been made by Charles D. Lynch, president of the Central A. A. U., that the annual convention of the national body will be held in Chicago in November.

The American athletes are champions of the Rhineland. At the end of the athletic carnival the scores stood: United States, 200 points; France, 106; Great Britain, 59; Belgium, 33.

TYLER USES HIS BRAIN

George Tyler, veteran southpaw, recently released by the Chicago Cubs, says he really didn't begin to learn how to pitch until he found he couldn't throw them by the batter any longer. "Of late years I have studied batters' scores, to get their weaknesses, and throw them what they didn't like," he says. "Once I just busted them past with everything I had on the ball."

WAS NEAR TO PERFECT GAME

First Baseman Kelly Spoiled Shuffling Phil Douglas' Chance for No-Hit Affair.

Phil Douglas' one-hit game against Pittsburgh was so near a no-hit affair that it's a shame he was denied the glory. Carson Bigbee, first batter up, slapped an easy grounder down to Kelly at first. Kelly elected to make a throw to Douglas, covering first, and

PHIL DOUGLAS

Bigbee outran the throw. That was the only hit of the game for the Pirates of Shuffling Phil. Not another Pirate saw first base until two were out in the ninth, when Kelly fumbled another grounder from Bigbee's bat and let the Pirate outfielder land safe. Thus Kelly twice beat Douglas out of a perfect game.

PENNANT DRIVES WARMING UP

Pirates and Giants Having Hard Tussle in One With Cleveland and Yankees in Other.

With the 16 major league baseball clubs already off on the final stretch the pennant races are becoming warmer and more interesting.

In the National league it is a two-team race between the Cleveland world champions and the New York Yankees. No other club threatens.

In the National the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Giants are riding in the front seats. But the Boston Braves are also playing pennant ball and may draw up alongside the Gibson and McGraw charlots to make it a three-club race to the finish.

The Big Town of many pavements and bright lights is pennant hungry. It would be satisfied with one flag. It would go wild with two.

HORSE RACES STILL POPULAR

Thoroughbreds Running as Fast, Events Are Exciting and Patronage Is Greater.

While the old-time turf followers argue that the present crop of thoroughbreds is not up to the standard of the past, the fact, nevertheless, remains that the horses are running as fast, the races are as exciting as they possibly can be, and the patronage at the tracks is greater than it ever has been before. It would appear that the thoroughbred of today is easily holding its own.

THINK GIRDERS OF GIANT SHIP CUT IN HALF.

HOWDEN, Eng., Aug. 26.—The cause of the disaster to the ZR-2, according to the best information obtainable here, the base of the destroyed dirigible, was the breaking of longitudinal girders amidships, made of an aluminum alloy, cutting the airship in halves.

An explosion of either hydrogen or petrol occurred immediately after the girders gave way, and flames burst through the structure, but the explosion was declared, was not the cause of the breaking up of the airship.

Young men who are engaged are warned that it is much more lucky to give a girl a shamrock than to give her a fake stone.

Member of The Associated Press

The Big Weekly Herald goes out today with ten pages filled with good stuff.

Everybody out tonight for a big time. We all need it. It will take off the moss and make you feel like kicking up your heels. Come out.

A Sanford man lately returned from a trip down the state says that Sanford is the most talked about place in the state and everyone thinks it is the coming city—and so do we.

Every time that the people of Sanford can give a big time to visitors and hold a big barbecue or fish fry or jamboree of some kind, you are advertising your city to the best advantage. Get them here and keep them coming is the slogan.

Many cities are adopting the corporation plan of building houses and letting the city take care of the people who cannot afford to pay cash for their homes. And why not? Cities are municipalities made up of citizens and these citizens are paying the taxes whether it be in the shape of real taxes or in rents.

The Manufacturers Record has an editorial in this column on advertising that every business man should read. And note what it says about advertising in dull times and about the newspapers keeping life in the city when all else fails. That is what the Daily Herald is trying to bring to your attention all the time. And don't we take a touch of our own medicine and keep things coming? You should take this lesson to heart and increase your advertising on the first day of September. You are making business for yourself, making business for your town and helping the Daily Herald to grow into a big city daily.

FISHING

We want every man who loves the sport of fishing, we want every man who wants to see tourists here, we want every man who likes fair play and we want every man who is engaged in the fishing business commercially to read the article on the front page of the Herald today. It is a letter from Senator Fletcher regarding the restocking of the Seminole county lakes with fish. And he says distinctly that unless this county and other counties in Florida pass some kind of an adequate fish law that will protect the fish when they are spawning the government will not help any of the counties. Do you get that? We hope this advice from our senator will sink into the thick hides of those people who for years have persistently muddied the waters every time some good fish legislation was before the Florida legislature. And with all due respect to the fishermen of Florida we want to say that the majority of them want good laws passed that will protect the fish for they realize that unless protective laws are passed that there will soon be an end to fishing and to their living. But the trouble in the past has been that so many men go to the legislature with no idea of what the state needs in the way of good fishing laws and good game laws and they tangle up the good bills with all kinds of foolish amendments until now the fish laws are not adequate to protect the fish and the fish are getting scarcer and scarcer and it is only a question of time before something drastic will have to be done if any fish are left.

And you see what the government says about our plight. Here is something for the Fish and Game Protective League to handle. It is also something for the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club, the Canopus Club, the Woman's Club and every other club in the city to handle. It means something and it means you.

SANFORD AND ORLANDO

Sanford and Orlando will have a big get-together meeting here next Tuesday night at the Chamber of Commerce banquet and a get-together meeting between Sanford and Orlando means something. We do not infer by this remark that Sanford and Orlando are sore on each other. The Herald refuses to believe that this so-called feeling ever existed except in the minds of a few over-zealous ball fans. The real citizens of both cities have only the best of feeling for each other and have always pulled together for the benefit of the two places. As one who edited papers in both cities we can safely say that no better bunch of boosters ever lived than those in Orlando and they are known by their works. Life is too short for any petty jealousies to exist between people or between towns or cities or states. We could never fathom that spirit and that is what prompts this paper to say that no such feeling really ever existed between Sanford and Orlando and if it did exist it has died out long ago. The man or the community that spends their time watching the other fellow will never amount to anything. It is the person or the community that gives everyone a square deal, helps everyone, takes a broad view of life and knows no competition that gets by. Sanford and Orlando have so many things in common that working together in that broad spirit of friendly co-operation for the upbuilding of this entire section will redound to our credit and our prosperity a hundred fold. Both cities have been so busy with home affairs that we have not had the time to visit and hobnob together lately but we intend to make the start next week and when these two cities take up the freight rates and water rates and decide upon something definite there will be something doing. The Orlando Reporter-Star has the following about the meeting in Thursday's issue:

"Orlando and Sanford working together could really accomplish something for this section, far more any way than pulling against each other. But then those days have gone, they were the days of the ball feuds. We hope Orlando and Sanford will never have another ball team pitted against each other as both are too anxious to win and can't see the other fellow's shortcomings."

TRUE GOSPEL OF ADVERTISING.

Come Therefore, and I Will Advertise Thee—Nos. XXIV: 11.

And I Thought to Advertise Thee—Ruth, IV:1.

From the earliest of Biblical days the value of advertising has been more and more clearly seen. In one way or another through all the ages men have realized that without publicity or advertising their efforts would be in vain. The "mighty pomp and circumstance of war," the triumphal processions of the old Romans the varied means adopted to send information throughout all empires in olden days, down to the tremendous displayed advertising campaign of the British government in stirring a nation's patriotism, and raising an army of 5,000,000 volunteers, and similar advertising work by the American government to sell Liberty bonds, were all merely a broad and ever-growing realization of the power of advertising.

Without advertising England could not have raised its mighty volunteer army; without advertising the United States could not have found 20,000,000 bond buyers.

The same power of advertising could now "sell" prosperity to the whole country. There is enough to write about and talk about in advertising to stir the nation to a realization of our country's limitless resources and illimitable development potentialities.

The power of all-pervading, all-compelling advertising work, literally alive with the fire of truth and enthusiasm, would quicken every heart bent, would thrill every American, would stimulate the young to deeds of achievement in the business world to match the achievements and the glory of the battlefield, and would stir afresh the blood of the old. The flag of America's patriotism unfurled in advertising, rightly done, the bugle call to work, the drum beats, "Charge," would lead us onward to commercial power and glory and prosperity as worthy of praise as ever the work of the battlefield.

Then down with the pessimism of the faint-hearted camp followers, and up with the flag of optimism!

Onward with "sound the charge," through every well-tested and proven advertising method, and we would soon see a mighty army of a nation of 105,000,000 people putting to disastrous rout every faint heart, every preacher of pessimism in bank, in office and in factory!

Some say we cannot afford to advertise. The answer is, you cannot afford not to advertise.

Why advertise when there is no business to be had? say others. Because the only way to create business is by advertising.

Why advertise when we have no money to loan? say some bankers; and the answer is, no class ever needed to cultivate the public's favor more than bankers now do. Perhaps you may have no money to loan today, as some say; but you are not a good banker if you fail to sell credit to every customer who has the proper security with which to buy it. A banker borrows money from his depositors and sells credit to his borrowers. It is a merchandise transaction.

It would be a poor merchant who could not find ways to provide goods for his customers so long as they could pay. He is a poor banker who cannot find credit to sell his customers so long as they are able to pay the price and assure the final redemption.

Newspaper publishers intensify their ways and means of advertising whenever business men lessen theirs. When business is dull many industries shut down, but when business is dull live newspapers push out with greater vigor than ever before. They practice what they preach. Let others follow their preaching and their example and soon once more would be heard "the music of progress, the whir of the spindle, the throb of the locomotive, the roar of the furnace." Pessimism would be buried beneath the abounding spirit of optimism. Credit would be restored to the merchant and the manufacturer. The banker would no longer fear to do business.

The spirit of patriotism for business is as vitally important in the nation's welfare as was the spirit of patriotism for the war four years ago. The slacker then was a coward. The slacker and the pessimist of today are doing the country infinitely more harm than did the slacker of war times.—Manufacturers' Record.

HOUSING CORPORATIONS

The following from the Tampa Times might be applied to Sanford with equally beneficial results:

Municipalities are waking up to the fact that the greater proportion of the population owning homes, the more interested, progressive and enterprising its citizenry becomes, and the greatest development is achieved in all worthwhile progress toward the ideal city.

The latest convert to this truth is Pittsburg. The chamber of commerce of Pittsburg has formed a "housing corporation" and has set its aim for 2,000 new homes for next year to relieve the acute rent situation, and enable people to get under their own roof.

There is offered to the man who wants a home, cheap money, construction at about one-half the usual cost, and expert supervision without charge—all without profit to the housing corporation, which is being swamped with applications. Officers of the corporation are giving their time and business experience without hope of reward except in building a better Pittsburg—this is the real "Pittsburg-plus!" Bankers, material dealers, builders and the like have swung enthusiastically into line. Money is available, at the legal rate of 6 per cent, without any bonus; material men are shaving profits to the bone, and 7,000 lots have been listed as available sites.

The housing corporation has no money. And it insists that every house be fully financed before a brick is put on the lot. It requires that the prospective home owner have at least 20 per cent of the cost. Then it finds a first mortgage taker for him for 64 per cent of the value, and also finds, if necessary, an institution that will take the remaining 20 per cent on second.

The corporation has eleven basic plans worked out by the able architects with specifications complete. Houses of four, five, six and seven rooms are constructed at a cost of from $750 to $1,000 a room. From these eleven basic plans there are a number of variations to suit the taste of individuals. The houses are modest, but substantial and comfortable, with every modern convenience; good to look at, but not showy.

The housing corporation is applying to the man who wants a home the methods by which mass production has been successful and giving him the benefit of saving in costs. Applications for houses are grouped into blocks of ten or more to get the benefit of heavy buying and concentrated supervision.

Could not this plan be worked to advantage in Tampa? Many homes are now being built here, but many more are needed, and anything that will stimulate building and home-owning is city building on the best possible plan.

MEANS A GREAT STEP FORWARD.

One of the most important items of news appearing in the daily press in many years is that which tells of the efforts of the cattle raisers of Florida to secure the passage by the state legislature of a state-wide cattle tick eradication measure. Heretofore the cattle men have, as a rule, been opposed to cattle dipping but changed conditions have brought a new viewpoint and they are quick to realize and admit that the interests of Florida can best be served by banishing forever the pest which has caused the ban to be placed on Florida cattle everywhere throughout the United States. The minute the federal authorities said Florida was barred, that minute spelled the doom of the cattle industry under present conditions. Great credit is due the cattle men for their action and rather comment as "I told you so," it would be much better for everybody to lend their moral aid and support in straightening out the tangle. The way is open for the removal of the quarantine. That way is through the elimination of the tick. The government says this must be done; therefore there is now no option other than to comply. We venture the prediction that within two years the cattle men of Florida will be glad that the present emergency has arisen. Florida will raise better grades of cattle and the stockmen will reap richer rewards for their investment and labor.—Lakeland Telegram.

GOV. SMALL TO RUN AGAIN.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 26—Gov. Small will be a candidate for re-election in 1924, Sen. Richard R. Meents, the governor's closest political ally and his spokesman, said today. "Len Small never quit under fire in his life," Sen. Meents said. Gov. Small is under indictment, charging conspiracy and embezzlement, while he was state treasurer.

"Speaking of Women--"

Irvin Cobb points out that feminine shopping does not necessarily imply buying. It means hard work for everyone concerned—but seldom results in a transaction involving money.

As a country minister once declaimed: "King Solomon said, and I partially agree with him..." We only partially agree with Mr. Cobb on this subject.

It is true there are still some aimless shoppers left. But they are in the minority. Today most women—as well as most men—are well-informed buyers, with a sound basis for comparing stores and values. By buying goods of recognized merit they save themselves the throes of old-time "shopping trips" and at the same time get a better and bigger money's worth.

Most women read the advertisements that appear every day in their newspapers. They make a practice of keeping strictly up-to-snuff on new developments, innovations and improvements. They know just where to go for "this" and who in town keeps "that."

When they shop they generally know just what they want, where to find it, and how much to pay. Their knowledge saves them endless trotting, wearisome questioning and haggling.

The advertisements have taken the "hop" out of shopping.

TRAIN PASSENGERS KICK ON LONG WALK

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 26.—The state railroad commission will meet here September 3 to hear a petition and determine whether the comfort and convenience of passengers require the gates at the north end of the concourse of the union station here to be kept open. The gates are at the Bay street entrance to the station and being closed permanently persons are forced to walk some distance from the cars on Bay street to the main entrance.

"WE'RE AFIRE," LAST MESSAGE FROM AIRSHIP.

HOWDEN, Eng., Aug. 26.—"The ship's back is broken. We are afire and falling. We * * * * *"
This was the last message sent out from the ZR-2, whose wireless officer, Lieut. V. H. Wicks, remained gallantly at his post to the last moment.
Although facing certain death, Wicks stuck to his post to the last, it was believed, from the fact that his message was broken in the middle.

OFFICERS SCENT MOONSHINE RING.

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 26.—"Although we could not give conclusive proof of the statement in court we have every reason to believe that there is a strong and well financed bootlegging and moonshining ring operating in Virginia for a radius of 40 miles of the city," said Prohibition Commissioner Smith today. "Within this radius state and federal agents have captured innumerable stills and the end is not yet."

CANADIAN FREIGHTER SINKS.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 26.—Lifeboats from the freighter Canadian Importer are making for land from latitude 39.49 north, longitude 125.25 west, with the ship in a sinking condition according to a radio message received here today from the steamship Cordova. The Canadian Importer was a Canadian government merchant marine vessel and left Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 13, for Adelaide via Auckland, Sydney and Melbourne. The latitude and longitude is given from a point 623 miles southwest of the Columbia river. All aboard are believed to have been saved.

PUBLIC UTILITIES AND THE PUBLIC GENERALLY

A Florida public utility company in a Florida city advertises:
"A public utility is a free mark for the knocker."
"Perhaps no other one kind of business is in a position to be 'knocked' more than the Public Utilities."
"As if by common consent we have been for years the old reliable 'goat.'"
"It is so easy to bawl out the man who reads your water meter or who meets you when you come into your office."
"An error or discrepancy of 23 cents on your bill riles up your feelings and spoils your disposition more than any 23 cents ever should."
"And so it gets to be more or less a habit."
"It is a great game—if you happen to be on the right end of the hammer."
"It would be humorous if it were not almost tragic—senseless in the light of the bigger common interest."
"Maybe there would be fewer 'knocks' if you realized that a public utility is but a group of human beings giving their lives to a work which benefits you more than it does them."
"Perhaps you don't realize that in 'knocking' your public utility you are lessening their effectiveness as the agency to which you must look for the fundamental services that enable the town to function and grow."
"If you must use your hammer, use it for some constructive purpose."
"Anybody can 'knock' but it is bigger citizenship and better business to lend a helping hand."
And as Shakespeare says: "Every knock is a boost."
This is, in a large measure, the attitude of public utilities, which is the reason the public "knocks" them. They criticize the public, hold them up to ridicule and accuse their patrons of the same things against which they protest.
But the public utilities are slowly realizing that they are dependent upon the public. For many a year their attitude was "the public be damned," and this attitude has not entirely disappeared, but it is rather ridiculous for these public service organizations to feel that they should be above reproach when they constantly reproach the public for its shortcomings. Whatever criticism public utilities have received they have brought upon themselves. A number of reasons are responsible, chief of which is, perhaps, the nonchalance with which these organizations have given service. If you happened to be satisfied, what

SOCIETY WEDDING

After ten days of puzzled questioning that mysterious wedding has come to pass. Last evening an immense crowd gathered in front of the court house to watch and wait for the satisfaction of that curiosity which had been growing day by day, as the Herald gave out tidbits of information. At the first sounds of Miss Mabel Bowler's glorious voice in "I Love You Truly," a great silence fell and at the well known strains of Lohengrin's Bridal March titters began which grew into an uproarious shout as the wedding party swept grandly into view. Once more the dear public showed its love for a hoax.

The ushers, Messrs. Ball, Dubose, Lloyd, Kirtley, Carlett and Caswell, came in first, bringing in the family of the bride. Mrs. W. F. Blackman, gorgeously attired as a Titian-haired mother in Israel, Miss Deager, Miss Brinda Morrison and Mr. Akers, as her daughters and Robert Herndon as Uncle Ikey, the family of the groom, fresh from the country, Miss Virginia Smith impersonating widowed mother with her baby daughter, Martha Fitts and her most thoughtful and affectionate old uncle, Billy Sutton. These relatives seated, the ushers themselves marched in couples to a position along the left end of the court house steps. Then the bride's maids beautifully gowned in rainbow colors and picture hats followed daintily in single file to position opposite the ushers. These exquisite maidens were personated by Messrs. Robert Deane, Sam Youmtz, Deas, McGee, Penbody and Pearman and raptly enjoyed their unaccustomed attire. Hodgson Ball in a Buster Brown suit of blue then appeared bearing a huge ring on a very small satin pillow. The flower girls following with baskets of posies were Leslie Hill and Mr. Niblack. After all these had gracefully arranged themselves in a fan shaped grouping on the steps, the maid of honor, John Leonard picturesquely frocked in satin and tulle, preceded the bride, Mr. E. A. Douglas, who came in leaning upon the supporting arm of her father, Mr. E. T. Woodruff. She was a picture of loveliness, as she took her place at the top of the decorated platform where the groom, Mr. Schelle Malnes and his best man, Mr. Howard Smith, were awaiting her. A breathless pause and Mr. Bob Holly, stepped forward in full regimentals and read a ceremony full of wit and local hits. During this process the groom became so embarrassed that he had first to loosen his collar and finally attempted an escape which was prevented by the strong arm of the best man. After a hair breadth venture near to an interrupted wedding, the knot was tied, and the maid of honor threw back the voluminous veil disclosing the face of the bride. Congratulations followed after the respective families of the interested parties had successfully calmed their emotions enough to express themselves. The most amazing feature of this amazing farce was the enhanced beauty of its players by their feminine frills and fripperies for absurd as it was from beginning to end, that really and truly was as fine and handsome a wedding party as one is likely to gaze upon for many a moon.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Yesterday, being the fourth birthday anniversary, Master Billie Thigpen invited a number of his little friends to help him celebrate the occasion.

The house was prettily decorated in pink and green. The dining table had for its centerpiece the wonderful birthday cake, topped with four tiny pink candles in rose holders. The refreshments of ice cream and individual cakes, each topped with a tiny candle, carried out the pretty color scheme.

All sorts of childish games were played by the youngsters, during the afternoon.

Mrs. Thigpen was assisted, in entertaining the children, by Mrs. Ed Lane, Misses Carmela Barber, Claire Zachary, Margaret Britt and Camilla Deas.

Those enjoying Master Billie's hospitality, were: Charles Betts, Charles Britt, Margaret Britt, Bobbie Marlowe, Wilson Smith, Betty McKinnon, Frederick Dufger, Kathleen Adams, Earl Estridge, Bryan Higgins, Camilla Deas, Richard Deas, Braxton Perkins, Billie Zachary, Francis Roumillat, Wyman Harvard, Sherwood Harvard, Margaret and Franklin Bennett.

NINE SEMINOLES BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. J. B. Lawson entertained the members of the Nine Seminoles Bridge Club most delightfully yesterday afternoon. There being two tables of players.

A very interesting game of bridge was played, high score being made by Mrs. A. W. Lee, who was awarded a box of Azura powder.

Following the card game Mrs. Lawson served fruit sherbet and angel food cake as refreshments.

Among those present were: Mrs. Archie Betts, Mrs. S. M. Lloyd, Mrs. A. W. Lee, Mrs. Howard Overlin, Mrs. John C. Smith, Mrs. D. C. Marlowe, Mrs. Henry Purdon, and Mrs. Fred Dalger.

AUTO THIEVES ARE ARRESTED AT LAKELAND

Two Men are Lawyers Who Are Alleged to Be Implicated

LAKE LAND, Aug. 27.—Deputy Sheriff John Purvis of Polk county, working in connection with Sheriff John Poucher and Deputy Sheriff DeShong of Hardee county, believe they have broken up one of the largest automobile thievery rings existing in the state by placing under arrest the alleged ringleaders of the gang, J. G. Flynn of this city and J. M. Lee of Wauchula.

In connection with the disposition of the stolen cars, Lee is said to have named T. Hart Getzen, an attorney of this city, and W. O. Murrell, an attorney of Wauchula, as having been instrumental in the sale of the cars by furnishing the actual thieves with forged bills of sale so that a purchaser could be given an apparently clear title.

The officers also placed these men under arrest.

According to Lee's alleged confession, when a car was stolen one of the two attorneys would be notified of the theft and were given the numbers that were to be placed on the engine of the motor so that a bill of sale could be made and held available in the attorney's office, that the crooks might be protected or the car disposed of.

A full set of dies that could be used in such alterations were found in Flynn's home at the time of his arrest.

It is understood here that Murrell has divulged important information to the Hardee county authorities and it is expected that other arrests will follow, as it is believed the gang was a well organized one and was operating throughout the entire state.

Flynn and Lee are at the present time under charges in Tampa for having been implicated in the thefts of cars at that point.

Deputy Sheriff Purvis arrested Attorney Getzen and Flynn today, shortly after noon, and placed them in the county jail at Bartow.

Lee, who was associated with Flynn in the operation of the North Street garage in this city, and Attorney Murrell were placed under arrest at Wauchula, also one Deegan Jones.

Getzen, of this city, and Murrell, attorneys, are alleged to have conspired with Lee and Flynn in the disposal of stolen automobiles.

Lee, arrested by the Wauchula authorities Thursday, is said to have made a confession and implicated eight or nine others.

It seems the method of operating was:

After having stolen a car the tires and cushions were changed, the engines were not only swapped for engines in other cars but the engine numbers also changed. Then, it is alleged, the thieves would go to one of the attorneys implicated in the deal and secure a fake bill of sale so that the car could be disposed of without any trouble.

Hardee county authorities have preferred charges of forgery and conspiracy against Getzen and Murrell, and Flynn and Lee are being held on charges of stealing automobiles.

Getzen is a prominent attorney of Lakeland and the authorities say it is claimed by Lee that the garage back of the Getzen home in Dixieland was used for storing stolen autos and also to make changes in cars so that they could not be identified.—Tampa Tribune.

The wedding and dance last night brought the people.

It demonstrates that bringing them to town is the proper thing.

And a little fun now and then is what the world wants. It is all innocent amusement and keeps everyone young.

That chap who wrote Bob Holly that letter evidently didn't know the gentleman. But he does now.—Reporter-Star.

Get out your horn and blow it. It is the big noise that sells the fish and you can talk about being quiet all right but it will not get you anywhere in this day and time. Make a noise. Blow your horn!

The next big affair is the Merchants' Carnival and Tournament Riding on September 29th. Every business man in Sanford is supposed to get in on this big affair and offer special prices and special sales.

Sanford is on the map and why? Simply because a new spirit has pervaded our city and taken hold. Instead of being penny wise and pound foolish our people are going after business regardless of the cost of advertising; they are joining the Chamber of Commerce and helping the Chamber advertise the city, they are putting pep in the old town and going after things. It is the spirit that wins. Keep it up.

GREAT LITTLE TOWN, SANFORD.

The people coming to Sanford, the people wherever you go in the state all say the same thing when you tell them where you are from, "Great little town, Sanford" and we must be doing things here to get the glad hand from everybody everywhere. It is not so much what we are doing as the new feeling that pervades the breast of so many Sanford people. It is the feeling that the Herald has been trying to instill into the minds and hearts of the people here for fifteen years. It is that feeling that one has when they know they are right, when they know they have the best thing in the world, when they know they have made a success of something and have that feeling of satisfaction that comes from the deed well done. It is that feeling that a real booster has when his town is coming and he sees the result of his horn blowing. It is the feeling one has living in a real town that is doing things, that has the accommodations, the streets, the business, the location, the spirit. It is the feeling that you do not have to make any excuses, just boost for you have everything in the world to back you up. You feel it, you live it, you are filled with it. And now that Sanford has this spirit don't you feel good over it? Don't you get up every morning and go to bed at night thankful that you are living in a real city—a little city, 'tis true—but a real city at that. And don't you feel good every hour in the day because you are a booster, taking an active part in everything that will tend to build up your home city, the place you have helped to make and the place that you intend to make twice as large in the next few years. You are happy and contented because you keep

It is the great spirit that comes to growing cities—never to dead ones. It is the great spirit that makes cities grow into larger ones and just simply pervades the souls of men and women to such an extent that you can almost know they come from a certain live city when you see them.

"Great little town, Sanford." Help to make it a greater one in the years to come. Have you this feeling today?

CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN

It will be much easier now to start the clean-up campaign of private premises and set a good example for those who are going to wait for the regular campaign that will be launched in a few days. Clean yards, both front and back, clean lots all over and clean parkings and garden plots, make a place much more attractive. Then in addition to the clean premises, a fresh coat of paint will make a great improvement in any property and add a great deal to the value of the property.—Lakeland Star.

PERSONALITY IN NEWSPAPERS

The DeLand News has purchased the plant and good will of the DeLand Record and will consolidate the two papers. For a quarter of a century Ben Prevatt ran the DeLand Record and Chris O. Codrington the DeLand News. Both made many good substantial friends who stood by them through thick and thin. A few years ago Mr. Prevatt passed to the great beyond and his paper fell into other hands. Possibly his successors got out a better paper than Mr. Prevatt ever did, but somehow or some way, it was not the paper the subscribers had learned to love, and a consolidation was the result. Personality is not yet dead in country journalism.—Wauchulla Advocate.

THE CRAZE FOR EASY MONEY RUINS MANY

Possibly Florida has no greater percentage of residents eager to "get something for nothing" than other states—but it is certain that more stringent steps are being taken here to protect men against themselves than elsewhere. During the past year there have been vast sums taken from the state by clever manipulators in stocks of concerns which had no rating; in fact, Florida has been considered an easy spot for all workers of fake concerns.

The press of the state, led, probably by the Tampa Times, is commencing to shut down on these underhanded schemes for separating money from the unwary and the unsuspecting—even at the expense of lessening the income of the newspaper plant. As everyone knows, the newspaper is kept up—not by its subscription list, which seldom pays expenses—but by its advertising receipts; and it frequently "hurts" a paper to refuse an advertisement for which ready money is to be received—even before the services have been rendered. Nevertheless, the papers of Florida have determined to carry no advertisements which in any manner bear the impress of fraudulency. For this act they are to be commended.

"Consult your banker" is now being made a watchword for the many who may be tempted because of some attractively worded letter or circular. This seems to be an age of fraud—actual fraud; and there are millions ready to grasp the first opportunity to gain funds. The wily schemer realizes the conditions to the plus degree—and the avidity with which the public "bites" the first bait thrown out is an incentive for other clever ones to formulate still more attractive schemes to fraudulently secure funds. That is why it is best in so many instances to secure advice from those who have become posted.

And that is why the publications of the state are refusing advertisements of things which appear to have fraud written directly upon their face. There is a general desire to conduct papers upon a higher plane—and publishers will refuse to place before their readers anything that smacks of illegitimate proceedings—regardless of the loss of the business end of the plant.—Kissimmee Gazette.

SUMMER TRIPS TO FLORIDA.

Florida as a summer resort is a reality although there are millions of people in the country who will smile when the statement is read. These skeptics are fully convinced that Florida is unbearable during the summer; in fact, they have well established ideas concerning Dixie during July, August and September and feel real sorry for folks who from necessity must abide in the section of country so uncomfortable at this time of the year. There are others, however, who know very well that the homo folks who stay at home summers get along all right, and more and more the impression is growing that it is possible to spend a summer in Florida in comfort.

Just previous to the world war the Clyde Steamship Company decided to invite excursionists to come down South and look things over, in summertime. They made a very attractive arrangement by which business folks and others could run away from New York or elsewhere for ten days or two weeks, and get a glimpse of Florida—incidentally enjoying one of the most pleasant ocean trips that could be imagined. The well formed conception of the semi-tropics in summer made it hard to get such a thing started, but with just a few excursionists at first the lists were growing when the war came on and practically shut down on all such enterprises.

Again the passenger department of the Clyde has resumed the summer excursions and with judicious advertising has built up a splendid business. The boats southbound are now bringing among the hundreds of travelers who are returning from business and holiday trips north, a large percentage of excursionists and they are of the class that will be of most benefit to the state. The excursion trip planned gives time to get acquainted with Jacksonville and some other points, particularly Sanford and St. Augustine, which latter are made side trips on some tickets, and the interest seems to be steadily increasing.

It is a wonderful trip, sailing down the coast on the fine ships of the Clyde line, and it is something to be remembered when the excursionist finds that Jacksonville is cooler than New York and fully as interesting, in its way. Some of the travelers express surprise to find that many big hotels are open and business appears to be going on about the same as in winter. But they like it and tell their friends. The summer excursions by the Clyde Line are doing good work for Florida, and for their patrons. There is no disappointment and the visitors are becoming wiser regarding a section of their own country. Many of the visitors will come again—and stay longer.—Times-Union.

SHIPERS ARE LINING UP.

As Florida has more water-shipping facilities than any state in these United States, it would seem the logical thing to send a good portion of that huge amount of fruit, vegetables and produce the water-way. The railroads, without any competition in the world, have been hauling perishables to the amount of many thousands of carloads a year the longest way. The reason for this is as plain as the nose on the face of an Airedale dog—freight costs are computed by mileage. The painful fact of the increased rates are too well known for repetition, so we won't go into that again. What we ARE doing, however, is urging every grower of fruit, every grower of vegetables, every shipper, to be present at this most important of meetings to be held in Tampa on September 1.

What can be accomplished through Tampa can just as well be done at any number of ports in the state that are logical points of exit to the markets of the north and west. This is the opening wedge, and it should be made a big one of such strength that will split the present impossible freight rates wide open. There is a remedy in a boat line, and the boat line is easy of attainment, thanks to that great "boneyard" of shipping our government has waiting for ownership—any kind of ownership—at practically our own price and on our own terms. Undoubtedly some sort of "monkey wrench will be thrown in the works" by those most interested in pandering to the railroads, but this is a matter that concerns the vital welfare of a whole state, not to mention the ultimate consumer of the north, and if we make our voices loud enough to be heard to the farthest markets, something will be bound "to drop"—our way.—Florida Grower.

PALATKA—Chairman E. L. Warren of the committee appointed to raise funds with which to provide a granite base to bear the bronze memorial tablet to Putnam's county's war heroes, has announced that the fund has been completed and an order placed for the base.

THE TOURIST CAMP

Orlando is considering what methods shall be used in regard to caring for the "Tin Can Tourist" who each year journey to this state via gasoline. It seems to be "camp or no camp" and the outcome of the deliberations will be watched with interest.

There is considerable that can be said for and against the camp, but very little for a FREE camp. It would not seem exactly right after many cities in Florida, in which Orlando is included, have advertised to the tourist traveling public that camping space can be had for the asking, that we now close the grounds up. We believe the camping grounds should be maintained, but a sufficient charge made to pay for its upkeep, including water and light and sanitation.

Give a chap something for nothing and he wants the whole world, let him know he must pay for his wants and they will be less numerous. We would suggest that prices for all service be reduced to the minimum, and the camper really given something for his money.

The merchants of the town should not be called upon to contribute a penny for the equipping or running of the camp, for it is always the progressive merchant who puts up, while the Tin Can Tourist as a rule picks out the side street merchant where a few cents on the dollar can be saved by his underselling the progressive merchant who puts up for all civic occasions. A strict health survey should be made of the camp frequently and all dangers from an epidemic removed.

A tourist who would not be willing to pay a reasonable fee for such protection is not worth protecting and it would be better for the town if he moved on.—Reporter-Star.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—The bureau of the census today issued preliminary general occupation statistics for Florida, which, though subject to change, are probably approximately correct.

According to the returns of the fourteenth census, there were 385,146 persons 10 years of age and over in Florida engaged in gainful occupations in 1920, constituting 39.8 per cent of the total population of the state (968,470) and 51.2 per cent of the population 10 years of age and over.

In 1910, the 322,087 gainful workers

"Speaking of Women--" Irvin Cobb points out that feminine shopping does not necessarily imply buying. It means hard work for everyone concerned—but seldom results in a transaction involving money. As a country minister once declaimed: "King Solomon said, and I partially agree with him..." We only partially agree with Mr. Cobb on this subject. It is true there are still some aimless shoppers left. But they are in the minority. Today most women—as well as most men—are well-informed buyers, with a sound basis for comparing stores and values. By buying goods of recognized merit they save themselves the throes of old-time "shopping trips" and at the same time get a better and bigger money's worth. Most women read the advertisements that appear every day in their newspapers. They make a practice of keeping strictly up-to-snuff on new developments, innovations and improvements. They know just where to go for "this" and who in town keeps "that." When they shop they generally know just what they want, where to find it, and how much to pay. Their knowledge saves them endless trotting, wearisome questioning and haggling. The advertisements have taken the "hop" out of shopping. ISN'T THAT WORTH WHILE? Sanford Daily Herald

Sanford Might Be Chosen for Air Station on Continental Airway

Major Clagett Writes to Mayor Stevens About Requisites

The following letter received by Mayor Stevens will be interesting to Sanford people:

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 17, 1921.
From: Air Officer, Fourth Corps Area, Fort McPherson, Ga.
To: The Mayor, Sanford, Fla.

Subject: Designation of Sanford, Fla., as an Intermediate Station on Continental Airway.

1.—You are advised that Sanford has been designated as an Intermediate station along the charted airway from Maine to Florida. This designation, however, becomes final only upon the location in or near your city of a safe landing field for airplanes. Full and complete details of landing fields and charted airways are attached hereto.

2.—The far-reaching importance of the establishment of these airways is evident in the future development of aviation, and the commercial advantages to the cities touched is only limited to the co-operation extended in providing facilities for landing fields and equipment.

3.—Much in a commercial way is to be gained by the intermediate stations along these airways. Aside from the wide publicity that you will receive, you will add the newest and quickest method of communication and transportation to your present facilities. You will invite cross country flights from nearby aviation centers, increase the sale of gas and oil and create a larger interest in your vicinity in the development of air transportation. By the establishment of a local field Sanford will become a necessary link in a great chain of continental airways that reach from the Atlantic to the Pacific and the Great Lakes to the Gulf.

4.—An early expression is desired particularly touching your city as to the co-operation that may be expected in the establishment of the airways in question. It is most important that we have the information requested in
